PERRYTON SCHOOL NOTES

The Perryton Girls Basketball Team attended the tournament the past week at Liberal. They were accompanied by several of the teachers and by numerous friends. Each day there was a large crowd of supporters on hand from Perryton. There were sixteen girls teams present at the meet. Perryton girls won three out of four games, only one other team won four games. By many, the Perryton Team was considered the outstanding team at the meet but in the game with Liberal the "breaks" were against them and they lost their chance for first place. Perryton won third place in a field of sixteen teams. The game lost at Liberal is the only game that has been lost by the Perryton girls this season.

The Perryton boys debating team will go to Union on Saturday night, March 14th, 1925. The girls debate will have to be postponed on account of the illness of Miss Mildred Bauman. The presence of a large number of Perryton people would be appreciated very much if it is so you can go.

Mr. Price is with us again this week after a week of illness. Everyone seemed pleased to see him back.

Miss Leone Symons is on the sick list this week.

Charley Kent is still absent but we hope he will be back again soon.

The Parent-Teachers meeting was held here Tuesday evening. Many of the school problems were talked over with the teachers and advice was given on each. Each room had several visitors, but the fourth grade had the largest number and they were given a banner.

There was a banquet held at the school house Tuesday night of this week and everyone present had a good time and all they could eat.

SOROSIS RECEPTION

At the beautiful home of Mrs. Henry Cutter, on the south side, last Wednesday afternoon, Mesdames Cutter and J. W. Wilson entertained the Fine Arts Department of the Sorosis Club and invited guests. The rooms were prettily decorated in green and Virginia Correll and James Andrew Wilson, in green, were the pages for the afternoon.

Roll call was answered with the name of living writers, among whom was mentioned "our own" David D. Shanks. Vocal solos were rendered by Mesdames Blank and Ellis; a reading by Mrs. Hudson; and a flute solo by Mrs. Correll, and two splendid papers—"The Life of James Whitcomb Riley," by Mrs. J. M. Bull, and Mrs. Keith Bray told of the life of Carrie Jacobs Bond.

Dainty refreshments were served in which the St. Patrick decorative scheme was successfully carried out. "A delightfully pleasant afternoon" is the consensus of opinion of those present.

WARDROBE CLEANERS OPEN SHOP MONDAY

The Wardrobe Cleaners, under the management of W. R. Cayler, formerly of Beaver, Oklahoma, will open for business next Monday morning in the room just west of the City Meat Market. They are busy this week installing their cleaning and pressing equipment, which is of the latest modern design, being especially made for odorless dry cleaning. As will be noted by their advertisement elsewhere in this paper, Mr. Cayler is making a special introductory offer of cleaning and pressing all children's clothes, age 12 and under, that are brought in during opening week. The only provision to this free offer is that the clothes be accompanied by a paid order. Mr. Cayler, or "Bill," is well known to many of our people. He has lived at Beaver for a number of years and has built up an enviable reputation as a cleaner and dyer. We feel sure that this new firm will prosper and get their share of the cleaning business of this community.

ALFALFA ITEMS

Signs of spring are appearing. With the warm days we have had, a little moisture now would soon bring grass. Stockmen report their feed holding out well. Stock has certainly wintered well in this locality.

THREE YEAR OLD GIRL BURNED TO DEATH

One of the saddest accidents that has ever been our duty to report was the burning to death of little Winona Agnes, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, on last Tuesday evening. The little life was lost in a fire which destroyed the Campbell home, located 24 miles northwest of Perryton, and known as the Hood place. The little girl and her five year old brother, Joseph, were alone in the house when the fire started. The fire started in some manner from an oil stove, which the children had lighted. After making a vain attempt to get his little sister out of the burning building, Joseph ran to the barn to get his parents, who were doing the evening milking. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell rushed to the house, Mr. Campbell going into the house, which was in flames, but could not locate his daughter. He was so badly burned that it was necessary to take him to the Liberal hospital for treatment. Neighbors rushed to the scene as soon as the alarm was given, but it was impossible to put out the fire, and the body of the child was turned beyond recognition. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Pleasant Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Rifenberg will conduct the store at the old location, carrying an exclusive line of ladies' ready-to-wear and millinery. This move was made for the reason that they did not have sufficient room to carry complete stock in the two different lines.

The play, "The Arizona Cowboy," which was presented by the pupils and patrons of the Lone Tree school at the Perryton School auditorium on last Friday evening was a success in every way. Each and every member of the cast carried their part like professionals, and the large crowd in attendance was well pleased. The school made about $53.00 which will be used in paying on their new piano.

Chas. W. Callaway, manager of the White House Lumber Co., has started construction work on a new residence in Ridge Lawn Addition, one block south of the school house. The house will be 28x46, full basement, tile and stucco construction and will be modern in every detail. This new home will be one of the best in the city.

PERRYTON BAND ENTERTAINS BETHANY BAND

On last Friday night, March 6th, the Bethany Band, whose members live in the Bethany community in Beaver County about 15 miles northwest, met at the Court House for a joint practice with the Perryton Municipal Band. Both bands are under the direction of Professor George L. Hyde, and there were about forty band members present for this practice, and after several selections were rendered, the wives and friends of the band boys served a delicious lunch to all present. Then the practice was continued until midnight, and the Bethany Band members returned home expressing themselves as having a very enjoyable evening. Perryton has a band to be proud of and all its members are to be commended on their excellent work.

P. T. A. SERVED C. C. BANQUET

The Chamber of Commerce banquet on last Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair. It was served at the high school building by the Parent-Teachers Association and the good ladies of that organization certainly handled the affair in a most excellent manner. Green was the predominating color in the decorations of the room and table. Green caps were supplied for everyone. A number of out of town guests were present, our neighboring town of Huntoon being represented by Messrs. Chester Smith, O. A. Cook, R. D. Ford and several others. Judge R. T. Correll acted as toastmaster and he kept the program moving right along without any delay. Short talks were made by Prof. Wright of the Union School, Chester Smith of Huntoon and Leroy Melton of Greenville, Illinois, David D. Shanks and Chas. W. Callaway spoke on the Boy Scout movement and the audience voted unanimously to back the boy Scouts of this town in joining and supporting the Panhandle Boy Scout Council.

An unusual feature of the program was "The Dance of the Amazons" given by twelve girls from the 6th and 7th grades, with Miss Carmen Brewer at the Piano. Mrs. Carl Ellis, accompanied by Mrs. Jas. W. Wilson at the piano, sang two beautiful songs which were well received and appreciated by everyone present. This banquet was one of the best attended, best served and best managed that has ever been given in the city and it is hoped that the Chamber of Commerce will have many more like it.

W. PAYNE FOR CITY ATTORNEY

We are authorized by friends of Attorney Jack Payne to announce his name as a candidate for the office of City Attorney subject to the action of the voters of Perryton at the election on the seventh of April. We believe that we can safely make the statement that Mr. Payne is personally known to every man, woman and child in this city. He has been a resident of this county for about twenty years and has been practicing law the greater part of this time. He served one term as County Judge, being in office at the time the courthouse was moved to this city from old Ochiltree. He is well qualified to fill the office and if elected would make a good official.

PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION

"The great purpose of the Parent-Teacher Association movement is to provide opportunity for the parent and teacher to work to the best advantage. Father, mother, teacher, child, striding forward happily together, make a tremendous foursome. This is the "big four" which is shaping the course of human affairs."

The following article was written by Mr. Shrader:

There exists today, as never before, in the minds of the intellectual, as well as the illiterate, the utter disregard for the rights and privileges of others. This is manifestly augmented by a throbbing, restless nation, in the pursuit of ease, wealth and pleasure. We completely overlook all the finer traits of which the human character is endowed in this haste and mad rush. Nothing short of disrespect toward mankind in general. The dog was, and should forever be, when both young and old, respected their superiors. When children respect their seniors, and the admonition of father and mother; when parents estimate the real worth of friends and good neighbors, at the same time complying with the civil laws of our land and country, whereby conferring a benefaction upon mankind—serving God. Today we are money crazy, rushing to and fro after fad and fashion. We are losing prestige as a people and nation. Puritanism, deference and ethics in a large measure are waning. Christianity culture and refinement are at a standstill. This is no illusion, it's no dream. It has become real.

We live in the jazzy flapper age, an age in which youth at 12 to 14 years flaunts authority. Why this lack of respect for the Deity, the clergy and all those in high authority? I make no attempt to depict a specter. Facts stand out boldly to substantiate the truth of such statements. At whose door then lies the fault? If I am not misguided in judgement, the trouble lies primarily at the very door of the home from which children emanate into world's society. Then again, no small amount of disrespect, irreverence and lack of esteem on the part of school children lies at the threshold of the public school.

When I was a mere lad of 5 or 7 I was taught to respect the demands, as well as commands, of father and mother—to supply the prefix "Mr." and "Mrs." to each man or woman of my acquaintance. Woe be it to boy or girl who failed to heed this admonition, and alluded to Mr. Johnson as "Johnson" or "old man Johnson" or to refer to father as "the old man", or mother as "mam" or "old woman". Our fathers and mothers demanded us to say "Yes Sir" and "No Sir" in lieu of Yes and No. We were taught to respect the aged, to respect the laws of our land and those who administered them, to reverence God's word and the expounders thereof, and instructed in civility and etiquette in both the home and the public schools. How much such instruction and training does the average boy or girl get in the schools of today? It's no uncommon occurrence for a part chap of 6 to 7 years to refer to the devout minister of the town as "Deacon" or "Deacon Williams"; or the Superintendent or principal of the High Schools as "Bill Jones" or Marguerite Smith. Does the parent or the teacher exert any effort to correct such infractions of morals and manners? Do not command respect, but compel it, if it needs be. To obey, does not imply respect in the literal sense. The two words are not analogous. To recapitulate or sum up, we must each admit our shortcomings and be willing to bear and share the burdens and responsibilities of rearing and training the coming generation of boys and girls into a more sane and sensible career than many possess today.

Due respect or regard for the rights of others, a firm conviction of your own ability applied in the proper manner, will help to right many of the wrongs and present day evils."

W. M. SHRADER
We are indebted to the Editor for the space he is giving this department each week. We wonder how many are reading it. How many are interested in its being continued? What would you like to see here? Let us hear from you. A postal will do, but to it now—today—let us have your opinion, whether for or against.

There was a splendid attendance at Monday's meeting.

We are pleased to see so many new faces in the audience. Come out, parents, fathers, as well as mothers. Perhaps the very problem that is troubling you in the rearing of your child will be discussed at the meeting. A program, which was enjoyed and appreciated by all present, was rendered by the 4th grade pupils. Mrs. Castleman is the teacher. They were the victors in the Banner contest, having had the largest number of parents present.

In a recent talk the Prince of Wales commended very favorably on the United States School system, even going so far as to suggest that his countrymen could, with benefit to them selves, attend American Colleges.

Following is the Convention Report, as continued from last week:

"Thursday morning session opened at 8:30 with the singing of the Congregational hymn 'A Little Child Shall Lead,' following; devotional by Rev. Milo Atkinson, the heads of the following Committees reported: Department of Home Service—Mrs. Chalmers Hutchison, Ft. Worth; Childrens Reading—Miss Lucia Powell, childrens Librarian, Wichita Falls; Home Economics—Miss Margaret Gleason, College Industrial Arts, Denton; Department of Health—conference led by the Director Mrs. L. E. Ledbetter, Austin. Under this caption Committees reporting were—Child Hygiene—Mrs. Geo. Francisco, Dallas Physical Education Miss Eunice Alden, San Antonio; Some results of Maternity and Infancy Survey in Texas in 1924—Mrs. Ledbetter.

The "Relation of the Health Department to Public Health," under this heading Dr. Malone Duggan, Pres. State Board of Health, gave a most interesting talk, using charts to emphasize his remarks. "Public Health Service," Dr. Duggan said, "has increased the span of life from 49 to 59 years in the past 20 years. Also has decreased the 50 per cent in the past 15 years small pox, malaria, diphtheria, scarlet fever, tuberculosis and typhoid." The following startling facts were gathered from Dr. Duggan's remarks—about 50 per cent of the population of Texas are deficient mentally or physically. During the late war 46 per cent of the men of draft age were deficient, either mentally or physically and many of them in both. Our great Health only three cents in comparison to an average of 37¢ by other states.

Illness costs the working man of the Nation, in loss of time, doctor, nurse, drugs and the various expenses attendant upon sickness, the stupendous sum of $700,000,000.00 annually. The Chinese pay a doctor, an annual stipend to keep the family well, and for every case of illness, an amount is deducted from his pay. So you readily see the doctor does his utmost to prevent sickness. Would it not be well for us to follow the example set by our yellow brethren?

One third of the population of the Corrective Institutions of Texas are mentally deficient.

Report of Resolution Committee. Presentation of New Officers. Invitation for next Convention.

"At this time the incoming President, Mrs. Maddox of Ranger, was presented with a beautiful leather brief case by Dist. No. 1, of which she is also President. After a very pretty "thank you," Mrs. Maddox presented to Mrs. Marrs, with the love and esteem of the entire membership of the Texas P. T. A., a beautiful brooch—this coming as a complete surprise, our wonderfully efficient and tactful President could not rise to the occasion with her usual well selected remarks, but could only say through her tears, "I thank you."

Thus closed this wonderfully inspiring meeting and just twenty five minutes after adjournment, your delegate was on the train homeward bound. There are many side lights, many of them quite interesting too, that I have not embodied in this report, for I do not wish to unduly tire you, but the principal matters I wish now to stress are—an increase in Publicity. Let people know and understand our organization, we can then build it. The appointment of a Committee to secure subscriptions for the Bulletin—have at least all the officers subscribe—and, as one speaker said, subscribe for the Bulletin and then read it—all of it. The appointment of Room Mothers and the establishment, in the school of a Band of Mercy.

'Tis said "men are deeds—women words." We of the Perryton Club are both and had I the power of transmitting to you the inspiration and wonderful incentive to do, with which I return from this Convention, then I am sure there would be no question about our having a 100 per cent Club before the District meeting which will be held in the early Spring.

Respectfully submitted, Your Delegate

Banking And Farming--- Money and Products.

Banks do not pretend to teach farmers how to farm, any more than a farmer would try to teach a banker the principles of finance.

Banking and Farming each have a distinct place in the community, yet each is dependent for success upon the other.

This bank needs and urges the wholehearted confidence and support of every farmer customer; and the farmer, in turn, needs the constructive and farvisioned assistance the bank has to offer.

Let's pull together.

THE NEW CHEVROLET

Smooth motor car operation is one of the most desirable qualities in any automobile today because of the extensive and constant use to which the average car is put on both short and long trips.

The thousands who have purchased the new Chevrolet report that the driving of this car requires little physical effort, due to great measure to the perfected single plate dry disc clutch.

This new type clutch not only starts the car smoothly and operates with only a light pedal pressure, but has such large contact surface that it delivers all the power all the time it requires no lubrication.

While the new type clutch is one of the most obvious of the mechanical features, it is only one of the many features that makes for easier driving qualities, more sturdy chassis and more economical operation.

To improve the riding qualities, the new Chevrolet has been equipped with new semi-elliptic springs. They are chrome vanadium steel, the rear springs being 54 inches long and the front springs 36 inches long. To lower the center of gravity and improve the roadability of the car, the rear springs have been underslung.

Both front and rear axles are new and have been greatly strengthened. The front axle has been strengthened and redesigned to accommodate the semi-elliptic springs. The rear axle is entirely new and has a one-piece banjo type housing similar in construction to that used in the more expensive cars.

The frame is longer and stronger, is constructed of channel steel and has five sturdy cross members instead of four previously used.

The already famous Chevrolet motor has been refined and improved in many ways; such as heavier crankshaft with larger connecting rod bearings; longer and larger center bearings; shorter intake manifold bringing the carburetor closer to the cylinders, insuring better carburetion and easier starting; rocker arms and valves completely enclosed.

The improved oiling system with large bearing surfaces tends to increase the life of the motor materially. The shorter intake manifold not only makes for better carburetion and easier starting, but also for smoother operation, due to the better distribution of gas to the cylinders, combined with the heavier and well balanced crankshaft.

The instrument board has been refined in design and appearance.

The Panhandle Lumber Company has recently purchased a frontage of 100 feet located just across the street from their yard, which they will use for a post and pipe yard.

LETTER FROM T. W. GRAY

On February 16th, Mr. Gray wrote from Tempe, Arizona, where they are now located, "This leaves us about as usual, can't see that wife is improving any. I was out in a watermelon and cantaloupe field last week, and they were up and growing nicely." The following letter takes up further Mr. Gray's account of their trip to Arizona:

"On rising Tuesday morning, December 23, our first morning in Phoenix, the rain was still falling among the green trees, flowers and grass, but ceased about 9:00 A. M., followed by a flood of bright, warm sunshine, which rendered every appearance of a midsummer day. We remained in the city two days, but failing to find a place to meet our requirements, for a few months residence, we came back nine miles to Tempe, Arizona, where we located on Christmas eve.

The first two weeks following were cool nights, some ice formed, but since January 12th, no ice or frost have been noticed, yet the old settlers complain of this being an awful cold winter here. One old resident told me he had been here 44 years, and never in that time experienced anything like as cold as this. Many of the leaves of last years growth are yet on the cottonwood trees and as green as ever. The cold weather, though unusually cold, seemed to hurt nothing.

Fifty six years ago, begun the first settlement, around an old flour mill just east of the present city of Phoenix. Its ruins are there yet. The place was called Mill City. Then this entire country was considered a desert, which it was, and our government in its efforts to solve the problem of transportation across the desert sent agents to Asia to purchase camels, which 34 were purchased in Smyrna, brought here and tried out, but proved unsuccessful. Mules, for half a century, was the solution, while now, with the paved highways, the automobile and motor truck is the traffic source rather than the railway.

Phoenix is a peculiar city in many respects, due to its location, climate and industry. The State Capitol building is in the center of a ten acre plat an is four stories high, without a corner stone. The present capitol city was in an alfalfa field in 1890. The plat surrounding the capitol is a beautiful park, containing abundance of shade and ornamental trees, shrubbery, vines and plants, consisting of ash, elm, different kind of cedars, a cactus garden, and more than 100 date palms, oranges, olives, grapefruit and lemon trees, all abundant producers. Among the trees are green grass lawns and varieties of flowers. The present city covers more than 4000 acres, has 30 miles of street car lines, 5224 miles of paved streets, including the suburb villages surrounding Phoenix, 41 churches, 2 large hospitals, 12 public parks, 17 different schools, 6 banks, 6 music bands, the smallest of which has 38 pieces. Population in 1910, 12,000; 1920—29,000; 1925, 45,000. Has 83,000 shade trees. Is a city of gardens, scarcely a home without a garden. The banking business for the last year was more than $250,000,000; deposits on January 1st, just past, showed $21,946,272.29. The public library contains 32,744 books. Postal receipts last year were over $300,000. The above facts were given by the Chamber of Commerce. This river valley is irrigated principally from the Roosevelt Dam, 70 miles north of here, the actual acreage being cultivated and under irrigation, exclusive of railroads and canals, is 240,000 acres of fertile productive lands, actually in cultivation and intensively farmed now. While 50 years ago none of it was farmed. The Roosevelt (one of the greatest in U. S.) was completed in 1913. Then the area rapidly spread until now the actual acreage farmed totals 375 square miles. This vast irrigated valley seems to have naturally divided itself into farming communities with some special crop taking the lead in that community. One has cotton as the main and special crop in its community, another citrus fruit, the orange, lemon and grapefruit, another leads with

Coughs and Chest Colds Yield Quickly to Old Time Treatment

Physicians now say that the best treatment for a cough is not to merely numb the throat nerves as many cough medicines do, but to help Nature quickly throw off the cause—congestion and mucus. When this is done the severest cough is usually relieved in a very short time.

This is exactly the action of that old-time tried and proved cough medicine, Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Doctors say the pine tar is hard to beat for quickly loosening and removing the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing, while the honey not only gives a pleasant taste, but helps soothe soreness and irritation.

But be sure you get the genuine Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey and not some substitute. Dr. Bell's is the original and has been known for many years as the best. It is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine tar, honey and other quick-acting ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in bringing quick relief. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—fine for spasmodic croup. If you want the best—a medicine that often relieves a stubborn cough overnight—get Dr. Bell's. Costs only 30c at all good druggists.

HAMMERS

A hammer is a most useful and necessary tool in the hands of a carpenter or anyone who has a legitimate use of it. With it you may drive a nail or bruise a finger. When one needs a hammer he needs it badly. It is really a household necessity. To bring to the hammer is a term often used when one is compelled to sell at auction his personal property. The carpenter then and the auctioneer as well use the hammer. The minor uses a hammer to drive his drill. The circus man uses a hammer to drive the stakes for the tent ropes. The stone-cutter uses it to guide his chisel. There is the riveting hammer, the tack hammer, blocking hammer, brick-layer's hammer, steam hammer, Hammers of stone are still found in the relics of antiquity and are still in use among barbarians. There is the piano hammer, the gun hammer and the dental hammer, the horse-man's hammer, the blacksmith's hammer, and the forger's hammer. There are more kinds of hammers than any thing else in the world. In mythology there is Thor's hammer by the throwing of which thunder and lightning was caused. Everyone of these hammers, even the mythological one, has some good and legitimate purpose, but there is just one hammer in the world that is the opposite of all these others, and that is the hammer which the professional knocker wields with such malicious and fatal results. That is one hammer which should forever be cast out from the line of ancestral hammers of fame and dignity. If you are toting a hammer like this, throw it away. Bury it so deep that you will have to go around on the other side of the globe to resurrect it. This kind of a hammer should never be used. The man who wickedly and wantonly wields the knocker's hammer should be forever silenced with a well directed blow on the head with a sledge hammer. Boost—Don't knock.

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS

The national House of Representatives has passed a bill designed to prevent the transportation of deadly weapons by mail. "Prohibiting the use of the mails for the transportation of pistols and other firearms that can be concealed on the person." It will not stop the traffic in those deadly weapons, of course. Other means will be found for their distribution. Still, the action of the house in passing a bill barring such weapons from the mails is a step in the right direction. It puts the government on record as opposed to the traffic in pistols, and at least discourages that traffic.

"Now, if business interests would follow the lead of one of the great Chicago mail order houses and cease selling pistols, the country would well be on the way to relief from the pistol menace. The handy pistol is one of the causes of our notorious murder record. Hundreds of men would not be behind prison bars today, and thousands of other murderers who are free though guilty, would not have the blood of their fellows upon their hands, had they not been in possession of a revolver in a moment of anger."

It is, of course, impossible under the present conditions, to prevent those who want them from securing deadly weapons, but there is no doubt that the enforcement of wise and proper legislation would greatly restrict the number. If it could be made impossible to get them through any or all the transportation agencies the solution of the problem would be brought very much nearer.

THE fourth of March is a Politician's uncertain day. He is either coming in or going out. If he is staying in it's because they haven't got wise to him yet. I have always said Office holders should be elected for life (subject, of course, to impeachment for neglect or dishonesty). Then they could give their work all of their time, instead of worrying about how to stay in, and that would do away entirely with the biggest social problem we have to face in this country. And that is the thousands of Individuals who go through life just trying to get in office. If we could get their mind off of offices, and get 'em to working at something useful. But what's the use talking about a Heaven on earth. We got to die to get rid of the Office seeker, and then I bet you we will find them, either wanting to have Saint Peter impeached, or to get a job as Superintendent of the Furnace. Oh Yes, I like to forget 'Bull' Durham. It will be on sale in both places, no advance in prices.

Simple Way To End Night Coughing

No matter how long you have been troubled with exasperating coughing at night, robbing you of valuable sleep and thereby weakening your system and laying you open to dangerous infections, it can usually be stopped at once by a very simple treatment. Most people have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.
The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.
The prescription is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and almost every throat irritation. It contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

A CHANCE FOR CONGRESS. YOUNG WOOD'S EXAMPLE. IS IT SOCIALISM? THE BABY CROP.

North Carolina wants a law that would stop flirting. Men ogling girls or women would be fined or locked up. If North Carolina, where men are so chivalrous, needs that law, other States need one more severe.
But is any such law really necessary?

Only a few years ago, ten or fifteen thousand, the man that met a lady on the street grabbed her by the hair and dragged her to his cave by force. You can see how much men have improved.

There is one comfort. If the young ladies walk demurely, with their eyes on their little pink shoes, they won't notice unwelcome attention.

President Coolidge, it's said, means to veto the increased salaries for Congressmen. The total amounts to $1,376,000 a year.

The salaries are not high. Congressmen cannot live decently at Washington and at home on today's wages.

Congress could earn the increase in five minutes by creating a great irrigation and power plant at Boulder Canyon on the Colorado River. That project to irrigate two million acres of desert land, supply continuously 600,000 horsepower and protect the Imperial Valley from floods would pay the Congressmen's increased salaries ten thousand times every year and leave enough over to pay for the dam.

A great many young people read about Osborne Wood, son of the United States Governor of the Philippines, and about his big winnings in Wall Street and his big winnings in European gambling houses. Now comes the end of the story. Young Wood has no money. The French police, hunting him, accuse him of passing worthless checks. Young Wood says, "I have had my dance, now I must pay the fiddler."
Don't gamble, it doesn't pay.

Senator McKellar, Democrat from Tennessee, says of the bill that would turn Muscle Shoals over to the power trust. "The passage of the Underwood measure would be the greatest calamity that has happened to the South since the Civil War."

Many Senators know that it is so, but if one of the biggest monopolies wants something you can hardly expect the United States Senate to refuse it. You can, however, expect President Coolidge to veto it. He has, from Henry Ford, exact information on the Muscle Shoals affair.

The President is in favor of stopping all national inheritance taxes. He calls them "socialism," although it is not clear why taxing a fortune of a hundred millions that a rich man leaves behind him is any more socialistic than to tax a small cottage in which a poor man is raising his family.

However, it certainly seems better to tax a rich man while he is alive than to tax his children.

Leaving big fortunes to children may be foolish, but the desire to do so makes men work, when they would otherwise stop working. And what the country wants is the most work from the ablest men.

One important proof of booming prosperity. In New York, our biggest city, the rush to get married before Lent came exceeded all records. Not fewer than fifty couples stood in line, all day, waiting for licenses.

This guarantees most important of all OUR CROPS, the crop of native born babies on which the country and the future depend. The only real wealth is human intelligence. The mothers create it.

It is suggested that part of the nonsense connected with the new arms conference will be talk about reducing or forbidding the use of aircraft in war. You might as well talk about eliminating railroad trains or gunpowder from war. The first thing for the United States to do is to build up an aircraft force superior to that of any nation on earth. The best time to talk to a burglar about not using firearms is when you have your own gun pointed at his chest.

MUSSOLINI'S INTOLERANCE TOWARDS FREEMASONRY

Mussolini's effort to destroy Freemasonry in Italy by making membership in the fraternity illegal can arouse only indignation in the mind of every liberty-loving man and woman. The charge that Freemasonry is political in character and animated by an anti-national state of mind is so obviously false that one must look for a more insidious motive for the Italian Premier's attack. Loyalty to country has been the bulwark of Freemasonry since its inception. The fraternity stands openly pledged before the world "not to engage in plots or counterplots against the government," "patiently to submit to the civil magistrates, both supreme and subordinate," "to be true to the country" in which its members reside. If it be hoped this outrageous ban will engage sympathy in the rank and file of the Catholics, then again an unfavorable reaction is certain, for Freemasonry has in it no opposition to any religious belief. It demands only a belief in Supreme Being, preserving sacred to its members their unbridled right to follow honestly the dictates of conscience and religious conviction. It prohibits even the discussion of politics within its halls, urging only interest and honesty in the performance of civic duty. There is no secret as to where Freemasonry stands. Its underlying principles, to be learned by any man who will read, square so perfectly with the principles of the American Constitution, that Liberty and Freemasonry march hand in hand and side by side in their effort to make human brotherhood bring about a happier world. Americans remember that Washington was a Freemason, that Roosevelt was a Freemason, that Edward, King of England, was a Freemason, that Edward, now Prince of Wales, is a Freemason, that the Masonic fraternity has thundered down the ages, engaging and holding the attention and admiration of the world's greatest minds of men who would shun immediately anything that had within it even the potentiality of disloyalty or that which would restrict man's right to worship his God as he sees fit. If Mussolini is looking for a sympathetic audience, whatever he may find in Italy, he will not find one in America where people think and have Freedom firmly in their hearts.

If somebody should ask, in this turbulent time, the reason we're first on the roster of crime — some goggle-eyed donkey will tell ye the cause is the terrible lack of enforceable laws! So, forty-eight states, with the law-makin' craze, make draft on the toilers for all they can raise — to pay fer a Code that no jurist can span—a blood suckin' beast, a despoiler of man!
This "Land of the Free" by forefathers ordained, has hamstrung, pan-handled, hog-haltered and chained, till the servile taxpayer, befuddled and coarse, is the fruit of a mess that no power can enforce. PLANT MORE COTTON

The following article or letter was received from C. A. Williams of Gray, Oklahoma, in regard to raising cotton in this country, written March 2, 1925:

"As the cotton in this northwest country is no experiment any longer, as some of us made half a bale to the acre this year, while others made nothing, according to the way it was managed and put in. I made seven bales on 18 acres, and one of my neighbors made a half bale to the acre; and this was a very hard year for cotton here, as the hot winds came on the first of June and killed some of the cotton as it came up. Hot winds that early was unusual for this country. So I am still saying, as I have said before, that we have a good cotton country here and we should have all the prosperity here now that they have east and south of us at this time on account of their cotton. Our gin at Perryton will gin 500 bales this year. I want to say that we have a gin that we ought to be proud of and should appreciate what Mr. Hood has done in making us a first class gin. Say, you, cotton raisers, I think that we can count on so much better yield when we plant our seed this year that is climated to our country. I think this seed will do much better than the seed that was shipped in, and say plant 32 lbs. per acre, and don't put it in a deep furrow. Be sure that you put enough seed so that you will get a thick stand, so if there should come a hard rain that you would get a stand any way. When it is thick in the row, it can stand some hot wind and grasshoppers. Now go to harrowing it early and if you have a thick stand you probably won't have to put anything in the field to cultivate it. Run the harrow with the row and cross and angle and be sure that you plant a thick patch of Kaffir on each side for the hoppers and to keep the thistles from blowing in the cotton. Don't plant close to wheat, oats or barley, and let the hoppers get it. So many made that mistake last year. The price of cotton is holding up good and the outlook for good prices next year is favorable.

I want to say further that I don't know of any other crop but cotton that will wait on us so long for gathering it, without wasting. I have gathered 3 bales the last 30 days that has been open for 4 months, and I saved it all. We don't raise anything else that will not waste if you neglect it that way.

C. A. WILLIAMS

SHEEP RAISING CAN BE MADE PROFITABLE

One of the big factors which enters into sheep raising is treatment for internal parasites. If sheep are infested with stomach worms, for example, a large per cent of them will die and those which live will be unthrifty. It is possible, however, to keep these parasites under control by making use of drenches and treatments prescribed by the veterinarians, advises Prof. L. V. Starkey, chief of the animal husbandry division of Clemson college, who adds, that a second factor of importance is the use of pure bred rams. It is remarkable to note the progress which can be made by the use of pure bred rams—in the first generation there is such a marked improvement that the lambs would not be recognized as products of the native ewes. Southdown and Shropshire rams are best adapted for grading up native ewes.

A third way in which our sheep can be improved is by feed. Many have the idea, says Professor Starkey, that sheep need no feed, but this is a mistake. They need some legume roughage, such as soy bean or cowpea hay. In addition to the roughage feed some grain for a month before lambing and also after lambing. Feed lambs intended for the early market separately in a creep. By so doing they will make a more rapid growth, increase in weight, and consequently bring a better price on the market.

By all means dock and castrate lambs when from ten days to two weeks of age. This will make them grow out better and they will command a higher price on the market.

Breed ewe lambs, so as to lamb when about two years of age. It is a mistake to have them lamb when a year of age.

DRIED FRUIT BALLS

Dried fruit balls are a simple confection, easily made from household material. They are recommended for children by the United States Department of Agriculture because they are less sweet than candy, and because many dried fruits contain iron and other minerals which the growing bodies of children need. Try putting a few of these fruit balls in the school lunch box occasionally in place of cookies or cakes. A fruit mixture of this sort also makes a good sandwich filling.

Dried Fruit Balls—Almost any combination of dried fruits, with or without nuts, may be used. The following were found to go together particularly well: Apricots, pears and nuts; figs, dates and nuts; peaches, apples and nuts; raisins without seeds, apricots and figs.

Use equal quantities of any fruits selected. Wash an dry thoroughly and run them, and nuts if desired, through the meat grinder, using the smallest blade. Add a little salt, and moisten with enough sirup to make the mixture hold together and keep its shape when formed into balls. Roll the balls lightly in powdered sugar or dip them in coating chocolate.

Chocolate Coating—Melt the commercial chocolate prepared for this purpose in a double boiler. Be careful not to let the water in the lower part boil, for this makes the chocolate coating streaked when it hardens. With a two-tined fork lower the fruit balls into the melted chocolate. Lift them quickly and scrape off with a knife the surplus of chocolate that drips from them. Place on waxed paper to dry.

OUTLOOK FOR LIVESTOCK IS VERY FAVORABLE

Considerable increase in hog production next fall, and a corn acreage about the same as in 1924 are recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture in the second section of its annual outlook report released today.

Beef cattle prices this year should average somewhat higher than last year, and those for sheep and wool should be at least on a par with those of 1924, the report says.

Dairymen are urged to make no further expansion in their industry. High egg prices may be expected during the season of flush production this year than last, but poultry prices may be lower.

"Hog products," the report says, "enter 1925 with 18 per cent fewer hogs than a year ago and there is every indication that prices during the next 18 months will be higher than at any time since 1920. Six to eight million fewer pigs will be born this spring than last spring. Fewer sows will farrow next fall than farrowed last fall if producers respond to the unfavorable relation of corn and hog prices as they have done in the past."

"While the 1924 corn crop will probably be well cleaned up, an increased acreage in 1925 does not appear advisable in view of the indicated reduction in the feeding demand. Stocks of all corn on farms are likely to be smaller than usual in the beginning of the new crop of 1925, but it appears that not more than an average crop will be required to supply the needs of the country for both feed and commercial purposes.

Higher Beef Cattle Prices Expected—Prices for beef cattle for 1925 should average somewhat higher than for 1924. The industry is gradually working into a more favorable condition due to the relation of beef to competing commodities, especially pork; improved industrial conditions, and in so small measure to the cattleman's own sacrifices. Market receipts will probably be somewhat smaller than 1924. All conditions indicate that the long-time outlook for the industry is even more favorable.

"Further expansion in dairying in 1925 seems inadvisable. A recovery in prices of dairy products could hardly be expected should the number of milk cows be further increased. Domestic production appears adequate, and the foreign dairy situation is such as to keep world market prices low and thus limit the height to which our butter prices can rise without bringing in foreign butter.

"Prospects for the sheep industry in 1925 appears favorable. The world wool outlook and the prospective meat situation in this country promise prices for 1924 at least on a par with those of 1924. There does not appear to be any immediate danger of over-production, as the increase in the number of sheep has as yet been only slight.

Outlook for Poultry—The outlook of the poultry industry during 1925 from the standpoint of market egg prices favorable while from the standpoint of market poultry prices it is not so encouraging. It seems probable that higher egg prices will prevail during the season of flush production this year than last. With an abnormally large carry-over of dressed poultry in storage it seems probable that lower prices on market poultry may prevail at least the first half of the year.

Colt Production Declines—There are as many horses and mules of working age on farms as will be needed for the coming season. And average prices of work stock are lower than they were a year ago. A decided decrease in colt production during the past few years, however, points to a future shortage of good work stock. This shortage is likely to be acute during the time colts foaled this year and next, or even young horses purchased now are still in active service.

Mrs. Fred Huston was trading in Perryton Tuesday of this week.

HOMEMADE STAIN FOR FLOOR

For a pine floor a good brown stain can be made by dissolving an ounce of permanganate of potash in a quart of warm water. This liquid is violet colored, but when applied to wood, chemical action results and the wood is stained brown.

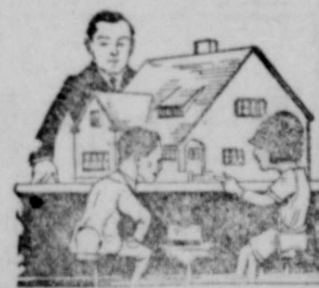

Another brown stain for either hardwood or softwood is made from 1 1/2 ounces pulverized gilsonite dissolved in a quart of turpentine.

Apply either of these stains with a clean brush or a sponge, says the United States Department of Agriculture, taking even strokes parallel with the grain of the wood, and wipe the stained surface at once with a clean, soft cloth or cotton waste. After the stain has dried for at least twenty-four hours, polish the floor with a soft cloth, and apply another coat if the color is not deep enough, or finish with varnish or wax.

The girls basketball team is looking anxiously forward to the time when they will meet some good team on the Goodwill ball court. The girls team played the Camric girls last Wednesday, March 4th, with a score of 27 to 6 in favor of Union. The Union boys lost with a score of 8 to 16.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stewart and family visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Colvard, of LaKemp, Sunday.

ONE MAN'S EXPERIENCE---

ONE DAY A MAN came to the bank and confidentially told us that he had a chance to buy some shares of stock in a manufacturing concern near Chicago and that it looked good to him. But he wanted our advice.

Of course we urged a careful investigation, so we wrote a letter to the First National Bank in the town where the factory was located, asking for the information needed.

That bank wrote us to let the stock in this company alone, because its affairs had been seriously mismanaged and that failure was almost certain before many weeks. A few weeks later they went broke.

So our patron did not lose his money. We often help some patron with problems like this.

Do you consult your banker in such cases?

WILL ROGERS ADVERT-ISING WRITER

When Will Rogers' bones are inched beneath the sod, his stone will bear a new epitaph. There will be no mention of his fame as cow puncher, no praise of his gift of humor, no eulogy of his career before the Folies bright lights and the movie Kleig lights, it's going to be an original epitaph, the one and only one in the world. It will read:

WILL ROGERS

"An Honest Ad Writer"

Will hung out his shingle in the advertising profession by agreeing to write Bull Durham advertising.
For the first time in the history of the printed word, a copy writer was given carte blanche to say whatever he wished about a product. Rogers was to write as he felt.

The first startle he gave the advertising world was to write a testimonial advertisement about Bull Durham, in which he talked of nothing but cross word puzzles.

"Everywhere you go, everybody is figuring out a Cross Word Puzzle. Nobody is working or even exercising. America will lose the next war but win the next puzzle contest.
It's the greatest craze that has hit the country since Prohibition.

"People says to me 'Why Will, you don't understand. It's an education.
It learns you more ways to say one word.' If you know one way to say a word, what do you need to know any more for. Nobody is going to give you something for nothing. I don't care how many ways you ask for it. This puzzle has done one thing. It has learned us which is horizontal and which is vertical."

This paper is fortunate to be among those in which the Bull Durham advertising is running. The next time you see an advertisement headed the "Bulls' Eye"—read it. We guarantee it will make you laugh, no matter if you're suffering with chronic dyspepsia.

Make Money With Case Machinery

"A BETTER COMBINE"

BETTER SERVICE

When we say "Better Service," we mean all the word implies. The Panhandle Implement Co. is now in shape to render the best of service to all owners and users of the J. I. Case T. M. Co. machines, Grand Detour and Oliver Implements and Springfield Farm Trucks. We will carry at all times a full and complete line of repairs and extra parts. When you have trouble, you will not be delayed on account of having to order the new part. We will have them right here in stock. Our stock will be ample to take care of all the Perryton and Booker territory.

The CASE Combine A New Labor-Saving Machine for Harvesting and Threshing

THE Case Combine is a great labor-saving device. It cuts a swath 12 feet wide, at two to three miles per hour, threshes and delivers the grain, cleaned and ready for market, at the rate of 25 to 40 acres per day. The entire mechanism is operated by a special 25 h. p. Case engine. A Case 15-27 tractor or one of similar power, or 8 to 12 horses will handle the outfit in the field. When extra grain wagons are used, three men can easily do all the work of harvesting and threshing with this machine. Efficient work in both cutting and threshing is assured by the following Case advantages:

The machine is supported on three large, very substantial wheels and a smaller front wheel. This arrangement gives the machine great stability, yet enables the header to follow contour of ground without affecting position of the thresher.

Header is very easily controlled—adjustable from 4' to 20' from ground.

24x12-inch thresher—ample capacity to thresh, separate and thoroughly clean the grain under all conditions.

All grain delivered to front end of shoe sieve whether machine is going up or down any ordinary grade.

Header can be folded up, reducing width of machine for transporting, or can be disconnected when machine is required for stationary threshing.

Steel construction throughout, insuring great rigidity and durability.

We shall be glad to show you one of these machines whenever you are ready. Call up or come in for complete information.

COME AND SEE

We want you to come in and see for yourself the kind of a plant we have here in Perryton. We now have a complete line of machines and tractors of all kinds. The new demonstration combines are now on our floor. Let us show it to you. We are here to stay and serve you and will at all times extend the glad hand of welcome to anyone interested in power farming machinery. We carry everything in stock. When you buy from us, you get immediate delivery. No waits, no delays.

MAKE MORE MONEY WITH A CASE TRACTOR

WITH a Case Tractor you get all the benefits of more timely work; better and deeper plowing; more intensive tillage; greater farming capacity; less help required; ample power for all drawbar and belt work. Case tractors are well adapted to all farm work, both traction and belt. They are dependable and durable because:

In Case tractors, all gears, bearings and wearing surfaces are enclosed—protected from dust and dirt.

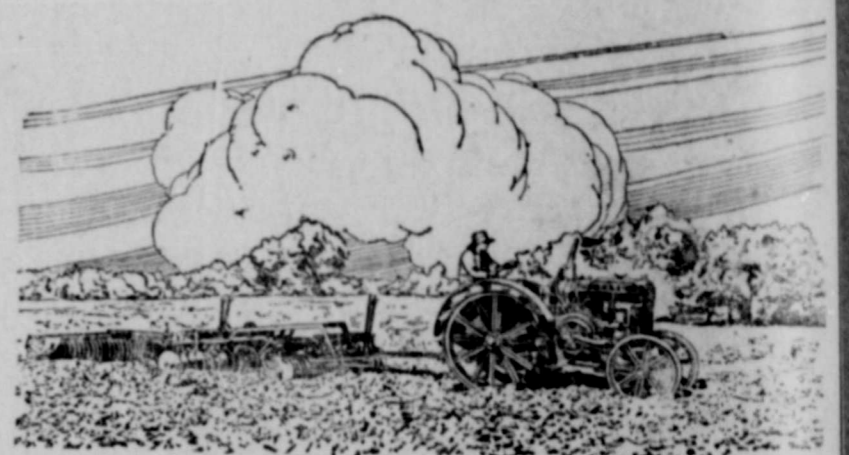

The engine has removable bearing shells and bushings. Practically all other bearings are roller and ball bearings of the highest quality.

Power is transmitted to both drive wheels through simple, cut steel spur gears—all completely enclosed.

Belt pulley is mounted on engine crankshaft, and there is no waste of power through gears.

GRAND DETOUR DISC HARROWS FOR USE WITH TRACTORS

We recommend this disc harrow to all tractor users. It is built by the J. I. Case Threshing Machine Co. in their big plow factories, an assurance of up to date design, the best of construction and high grade materials.

The operator from his position on the tractor easily controls the angling of both front and rear sections by means of a single lever.

Each section oscillates independently, which prevents undue strain should a section pass over a stump or stone.

Grand Detour harrows are built in 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 foot widths with 18 or 16 inch discs.

If you want a dependable, well constructed harrow, we believe we have the harrow you want.
