MATTERN HUNT OPENS TODAY

RESCUE SHIP LEAVES FOR ALASKA TO SEEK MISSING AVIATOR

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 30. — The "Jimmy Mattern rescue expedition" soared away from Floyd Bennett field at 7:06 a. m., Eastern Standard time, today for Alaska.

Chief Pilot William Alexander, in command of the rescue plane, said that on reaching Nome, he and his three companions would "divide the map into squares" and search systematically for the lost flier.

Missing Two Weeks

Mattern, a San Angelo, Texas, man who was attempting a flight around the world, took off from Khabarovsk, Siberia, more than two weeks ago and vanished.

The rescue plane is a large craft in which Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, jr., once flew around the world. It is now owned by a Brooklyn brewer, and bears the number "NC 403E."

With Alexander went Fred Petterman, mechanic who put Mattern's plane in shape for the flight; Harold Persons and Thomas Abbey, motorcycle cop who obtained a furlough to help with the search.

Stops Announced

Alexander announced that he planned stops at Dayton and Akron, Ohio, to pick up additional equipment. The next scheduled stop was Winnipeg, where he hoped to land before nightfall. Then the fliers will proceed to Edmonton, Alberta; White Horse and Nome. The latter city was Mattern's goal when he hopped off from Khabarovsk.

Mattern carried hunting and fishing equipment with which to obtain food if unable to reach civilization.

Review Says Trade Upturn Is Extended

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Major events in the business and trade situation during the past week indicate that the upturn is continuing in a vigorous way "and reaching all parts of the country in its inclusiveness," said the Dun & Bradstreet review today.

"The momentum with which general business has rebounded from its all time low levels of three months ago," asserted the agency, "doubtless is without parallel in the history of the country."

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN AND MEN DISMISSED BY GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 30 — Uncle Sam sets out on a new fiscal year tomorrow with a payroll shortened by elimination of thousands of men and women.

Even in foreign countries where there are American agencies will the pinch of economy be felt, for the Democratic platform promises of a 25 per cent cut in federal expenditures has been carried abroad, too.

To Spend a Billion Less

The aim is to spend a billion dollars less in the new financial year for regular running expenses. Administration officials say they will hit the mark.

In the old-established departments and independent offices, no opportunities have been neglected, the bosses say, to save every nickle possible. But the "save-a-nickel" try does not apply to the emergency agencies set up to combat the depression. In these the only limit is prospective needs.

First to be hard hit is, naturally, personnel. There is the 15 per cent wage cut, already in effect three months. Then, hundreds of dismissals are being effected, while in other hundreds of cases, the workers, though retained, will suffer additional pay cuts by imposition of furloughs.

Veterans Dismissed

Among those persons being dropped are employes of 30 years or more service, who have been made eligible for pensions; men or women whose husbands or wives also hold government jobs, and that great class whose services are no longer deemed necessary because their work has been terminated or curtailed.

What the removals ultimately will total, no one is in position to say. Of the executive departments, war alone is preparing to go along as is in Washington.

Even the war department faces some application of payless-leave in the capital and reduction of civilian workers outside.

In the commerce department, the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce is being cut to the bone, and

The meeting, set for 10 a. m. at the Hilton hotel, was called by the public works bureau of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Purpose is to explain to architects and engineers how political subdivisions should proceed, through the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in making applications for, preparing and putting through their projects. The WTCC public works bureau is prepared to offer complete service to its member towns.

NATH ELLIOTT DENIES PART IN AFFAIR

OUSTING OF NEGROES FROM HOME REVIEWED IN JUSTICE COURT

Nath Elliott, Petersburg constable, this mornng had an examining trial, in connection with abduction of a negro family, before Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell, who ordered him released on his own recognizance to await grand jury action.

The peace officer was charged, in a complaint filed late Thursday, with entering a private residence masked to falsely imprison a person. Elliott denied participation in the abduction of Bill Duty, a negro farm-hand, his wife, and their small daughter, by 12 men who Duty said wore black hoods and had pistols and shotguns. Jim Netter, a Lubbock negro, from the witness chair pointed to Elliott as the driver of an automobile in which the Dutys were brought to Lubbock after being forced from their home.

Deputy Testifies

The accused man said he slept in jury quarters in the Hale county courthouse in Plainview the night of June 9, the night the negroes were forced at gun-point from their home on the J. C. Erwin farm, near Becton. Kelly Hooper, deputy sheriff, of Plainview testified he saw Elliott about 10:30 o'clock the night of June 9, and gave him keys to the jury room, and next saw him, in the sheriff's office, about 7:45 o'clock the next morning.

Henry Minter, Plainview constable, testified similarily. Constable Elliott had assisted Deputy Sheriff Hooper, Constable Minter, and Joe Mabray, policeman, in beer raids in Plainview.

Witnesses introduced by County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson, were Mrs. Erwin, Duty, and Netter. Mrs. Erwin testified Elliott had come to her home the day the negroes arrived on the farm, or about two weeks before the kidnaping, and said

ROBINSON WARNS AGAINST FAILURE

BOSTON, June 30 (AP)—United States Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas today warned that should the London conference end in failure "the economic war now being waged will become fiercer and more disastrous."

"International commerce likely will continue to diminish and the depression may be prolonged indefinitely," the senator warned in a speech prepared for delivery before the convention of Rotary International.

"Conflicts of national interest cannot be completely reconciled, but they may be so far harmonized that fair tariff and currency arrangements may be negotiated—arrangements calculated and designed to end the present economic war and revive business among nations."

DISGRUNTLED WAR VETERANS BLAMED IN MURDER PLOT

DAYTON, O., June 30 (AP)—The murder of a government official and a plot to kill a congressman were attributed by police today to a disgruntled Spanish-American war veteran, who was cut off the pension and disability rolls of the veterans bureau three weeks ago.

The veteran, James D. Shadbolt, 53, was charged with murder growing out of the fatal shooting last night of Col. Vernon Roberts, chief of the medical staff of the National Military home here.

Shadbolt was found hiding in a cemetery near the home, and was closely questioned for several hours. Later police said he had told them he originally planned to kill Congressman Byron B. Hanlan of the third Ohio district. Harlan voted for passage of the recent veterans' economy act in congress.

COTTON MEETS CLOSE TODAY

COMMUNITY SESSIONS ARE TO BE HELD AT FOUR PLACES

Final day of a series of community meetings to present the government's cotton reduction acreage plan to Lubbock county farmers, began this morning with O. G. Tumlinson, county agent, holding a meeting at Canyon school house, east of town.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon he was to present the plan to farmers of the McClung community; at 4 p. m. to farmers of the Slaton community and at 8:30 tonight at the Posey community.

Farmers Favor Plan

Yesterday's meetings brought the county total to 24. Indications were the majority of the farmers were in favor of the plan and would cooperate.

Increase of the allowable to 50 per cent was approved by College Station in a new letter received by Mr. Tumlinson. This delays the work of signing as some farmers want to plow up half of their cotton.

"Beginning next week committees should make reports daily of their work," Mr. Tumlinson said.

"From the talk I hear at the meetings, there is a general tendency on the part of farmers to want to plow up their land. Landlords and tenants are getting together and agreeing to plow under their cotton.

"No cotton should be destroyed until orders are received from the secretary of agriculture, who will announce acceptance of a contract and the percentage to be destroyed."

AMMONIA SWEEPS CITY

HUGE SAVINGS EFFECTED BY GOVERNMENT

THOUSANDS OF OTHER CASES WILL RECEIVE EARLY REVIEWS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 30. Upward of 400,000 veterans were on notice today that midnight means an end to payments to them from the government.

Veterans administration officials, meanwhile, pushed along plans for early reviews of the cases of hundreds of thousands of other former soldiers to determine whether they shall stay on the rolls, and what they shall be paid.

To Save $83,000,000

Under the economy law and subsequent modifying regulations and statutes, approximately 387,000 World war soldiers receiving disability allowances for troubles not directly connected with their service go off the rolls at 12 sharp tonight for an estimated saving of $83,000,000.

Administration officials said there were several thousand others for whom payments stopped tonight. There were hundreds of emergency retired officers in the list.

Latest official figures showed the economy campaign would cut estimated expenditures for the fiscal year 1934 $345,000,000 under appropriations for the 1933 period, with the major reductions broken down as follows:

Sharp Slashes Made

Disability compensation for troubles attributed to service, cut from $203,689,169 to $118,272,240. In this classification are approximately 150,000 veterans of the so-called "presumptive" type, whose disabilities under previous laws were presumed to have originated in service.

Special reviewing boards will be set up by July 10 to go over all these cases to determine whether

GERMAN CHURCHES FACE ULTIMATUM

BERLIN, June 30 (AP)—Protestant churchmen in Prussia must choose next Sunday between dictates of conscience and dictates of an increasingly powerful Nazi government.

If they choose one, they will approve the Nazis' wish for dominance of all walks of life including religion; if they choose the other, they will be liable to prosecution.

Their own leaders have asked that Sunday be a day of prayer—of supplication for freedom to conduct their religious life as they desire.

But Nazi commissioners have ordered that the day be one of thanksgiving in which pastors and elders shall thank God that the Hitlerites control theoretically the churches as they do the industrial, political, and commercial life of the reich.

Pope Emerges From The Vatican Again

It was the third appearance of Pius in famous cathedrals of Rome following his avowed intention of visiting these basilicas during the Holy year to obtain eventual plenary indulgence.

Child Expected By Japanese Empress

TOKYO, June 30 (AP)—The Empress of Japan expects another child in January, the imperial household ministry indicated today on the authority of court physicians.

Their majesties still lack a son to inherit the throne, and therefore the court and the nation hope their next baby will be a boy.

SUPPOSE THAT DURING A DELICATE OPERATION, SURGEON SHOULD DIE?

BY DALE HARRISON

NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—Suppose that during a delicate surgical operation, the surgeon should die?

Arnold Javitz, seven years old and a sufferer from spinal meningitis, was taken to the operating room of the Park East hospital yesterday. His condition was grave and the operation a delicate one.

Present, in addition to nurses, were Doctor Arthur Shifrin, Aaron Goldblatt and Michael Mislig.

Dr. Goldblatt administered the anaesthetic. Dr. Shifrin handled the needle. Dr. Mislig held the tube into which fluid from the spinal column was drawn.

The needle had been inserted. The operation was under way. Seconds were precious.

Dr. Mislig staggered. He clutched his breast, and whispered: "My Heart!"

A nurse caught him as he started to fall. His weight was too great. Both dropped to the floor.

On the operating table, unconscious from the anaesthetic, lay a boy critically ill. Beside the table, on the floor, lay the 56-year-old surgeon who had been taking part in the operation.

The hands of the surgeon holding the needle continued to move surely. The medical skill of the other doctor concentrated on the patient's reaction to the anaesthetic. A nurse functioned smoothly, expertly.

At last it was done. Today, it was pronounced successful.

When the two surgeons bent over Dr. Mislig, joining others who had been summoned, they found him dead.

DROUTH ENDED BY RAINFALL

WEATHER MAN PLANS TO TURN ON HEAT AGAIN TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

Drenching rains and high winds in various sections of the middle west broke the drouth and brought temporary relief from the torrid wave, but the weather man was threatening to turn on the heat again today.

As an evidence of how hot it really can get the folks in Shattuck, Okla., saw the mercury in their thermometers rise to 120 degrees above zero yesterday.

Wide Area Swelters

At Junction City, Kas., it was 116 while Oklahoma City had its eighth consecutive day of 100-mark readings. Bluffton, Ind., had a 102 degree temperature and at Kansas City it was 101. St. Louis sweltered at an even 100 and three persons died.

The cooling rains which brought relief to a widespread populace and parched fields were accompanied in some instances by destructive winds and electrical storms.

In Chicago the damage was estimated by police at $65,000 and over the state line at Gary and Hammond, Ind., the loss approached $42,000.

In other places the rain fell in torrents, Missouri receiving eight inches. Amenia, N. D., had two inches and Moorhead, Minn., 1.58 inches.

Clergyman Dies

At Pittsburgh a 90-degree heat combined with oppressive humidity had caused the death of a clergyman before late afternoon storms brought both relief and destruction.

The Ohio death list stood at seven, including one drowning, but the Mahoning valley district cooled off after a damaging wind storm. Four were drowned and two died from the heat in Indiana and Michigan added one more death to its growing list. In Chicago a man was struck by lightning an killed.

FARMERS SIGN UNDER PLAN

SOUTHERN POTENTIAL 1933 COTTON CROP IS DWINDLING

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., June 30—The south watched its potential 1933 cotton crop dwindle today as planters continued to sign pledges to help the government in its campaign to boost prices by curtailing acreage.

Reports tabulated yesterday showed 10,956 Georgia farmers already had agreed to plow under 95,052 acres of their crop if their contracts are approved. Tennessee planters have pledged abandonment of more than 14,000 acres and Arkansas growers 33,492 acres.

Reports Enthusiastic

Mississippi officials predicted that state's quota of 1,209,000 acres would be passed by the end of the week and announced 74,310 acres already pledged for retirement. Enthusiastic reports came similarly from Alabama, Tennessee, Texas and other states while North Carolina said 452 of its planters had agreed to cut their crop 34 1-2 per cent.

Planters have been warned to delay plowing under their cotton until the government gives the signal. There were reports, however, that some already had started their reduction campaigns.

Authorities have explained pledges to retire some 10,000,000 acres are necessary for success of the plan and that cooperation must be assured before the program actually gets under way.

The government offers low price options on its carry-over cotton or cash payments as rewards for reduction.

DEATH HELD SUICIDE

DALLAS, June 30. —(AP)—Glenn Clark, 27-year-old garage mechanic, was shot to death at his tent home southeast of Dallas today with a shotgun borrowed from a brother. A justice of the peace returned a verdict of death due to gunshot wounds suicidal.

SEEK TO HALT FLUCTUATION OF MONEY

ROOSEVELT REPLY IS SAID TO APPROVE NEW PROPOSAL

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, June 30.—High British quarters said they definitely understood this afternoon that President Roosevelt had replied favorably to a plea to prevent erratic dollar fluctuations. The president's reply, these sources said, if not full acceptance of the plan amounted to substantial approval in principle.

Meanwhile, the economic conference waited tensely for word that would save the great parley from the rocks of monetary controversy, as the American delegates and Assistant Secretary of State Raymond Moley gathered at the American embassy to consider the American stand toward regulation of dollar fluctuations.

Adherence Considered

The American delegates remained mum about whether they met to consider word from President Roosevelt, but an authoritative source said American adherence to a plan under which the conference could progress was under consideration.

Important quarters indicated that Mr. Moley, as the president's personal representative, had received authority to agree to a plan of preventing erratic gyrations of the dollar which are threatening the gold currencies.

But it was made plain that de facto stabilization, in the sense of fixing the dollar at a definite level, was out of the question, and the president must be left free to use whatever inflationary powers he may desire in pursuance of his domestic program.

Stabilization Abandoned

French quarters made it clear that definite stabilization of the dollar was no longer sought and they would be satisfied with an understanding

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—A balance sheet of Kuhn, Loeb & Company for 1932, placed before senate investigators today, showed total assets had dropped during the year from $67,000,000 to $34,000,000.

Editor Gives Names To Escape Sentence

MARSHALL, June 30. (AP)—Rather than be held in contempt of court, Syril Parker, editor of the Longview Daily News, appeared in court and gave the names of five persons he said could testify concerning alleged bribery in connection with the transportation of 3.2 per cent beer through Harrison county.

Judge Reuben Hall at a previous hearing had ordered Parker to reveal the sources of information on which he based a story alleging the beer was transported. The court had implied that Parker might be sentenced to jail for a day or two if he declined to reveal the information.

ROOSEVELT LOAFS AND TAKES IT EASY ON HIS BOYHOOD SUMMER PLAYGROUND

(By The Associated Press)

CAMPOBELLO ISLAND, N. B., June 30.—President Roosevelt was content to loaf and take it easy today on his boyhood summer playground after one of the most adventuresome trips ever made by a chief executive of the United States.

Fighting down a four-day fog, Mr. Roosevelt sailed into the sunshine of his home harbor yesterday afternoon after a contest with the elements and delivered to his neighbors of Canada a message for the struggling Geneva disarmament conference.

"I was thinking as I came along," he said, "that this reception is the finest expression of permanent friendship between nations that we could possibly have."

There were inquiries awaiting the president about the London economic conference, but he smiled and said he had heard nothing about reports of a new crisis over stabilization of the currency. Very obviously he wants other things done at London before that is undertaken.

So, today President Roosevelt relaxed and talked with his family. They were all here—the sons, except Elliott, but including his wife, and the daughters-in-law, Mrs. Roosevelt and the two boys, Franklin, jr., and John. Tomorrow he plans to leave aboard the waiting cruiser Indianapolis for Washington. It has been 12 years since Mr. Roosevelt came here. On the last occasion he was stricken with an attack of infantile paralysis.

FLATIRON BUILDING—THAT FAMED OLD 'STINGY PIECE OF PIE'—IS ON BLOCK

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 30—The Flatiron building—that "stingy piece of pie" that made some critics of 1902 moan as if they had eaten it and got stomachache—went on the block today.

Thirty-one years ago, the famous building was erected to knife the breezes at 23rd street, Broadway and Fifth avenue. Now the mortgage has been foreclosed, the auctioneer called in.

The news summoned back long-forgotten geography lessons to people throughout the land. For years school books carried pictures of the silver-structure, captioning it one of the sights of New York.

When it was erected, New York's mushroom growth already had a good start so that the building—rearing its 20 stories above pygmy structures around it—never was the city's highest.

The discussion it aroused, however, put all the others in the shade. Some likened its shape to a battleship; others to a flat iron. The flatiron moniker stuck, although the official name was "Fuller building."

Some, criticizing its design, could see it only as a "stingy piece of pie."

"This monstrosity," said the artist, William Ordway Partridge, "is a disgrace."

Some felt it affected wind currents, dangerously a merchant sought damages, saying it induced the wind to blow out his windows.

There it stood, however, increasing its fame until the lean years came.

Two Smart Suits For Sports Wear

The sailor collar is brand new this summer for spectator sport things. So is the three-quarters length swagger coat.

It is a smart trick to combine them, as is done in a blue and white yachting costume (left). The swagger coat, with its white-outlined sailor collar and white stars, is worn over a simple white crepe frock with a drawn-work yoke, stitched in blue. Rough surfaced white silk crepe fashions this spectator sports suit (right), also excellent for nautical purposes, and striped handkerchiefs linen, in red, blue and white, make the long tunic blouse which has a sailor collar which ends in a blue bow in front. There is a pleated ruffle edging the sailor collar, giving a certain softness to the striped effect. And the linen belt to the tunic has the same blue for the buckle that ties the bow under the chin.

Hollywood Sees Red In All Places

By NEA Service

HOLLYWOOD.—Summer seems to make all the well-dressed ladies about here see red. If they don't wear outright red costumes, all of them have a dash of it somewhere in their get-ups.

Marian Nixon wears a scalloped edged red belt and red straw hat with a navy blue crepe skirt and quilted blue and white taffeta jacket costume. Her blue kid pumps have red piping, too.

Posing for some snap-shots the other day, Sylvia Sidney wore a flame colored linen blouse with a brown tailored linen suit and felt hat of the suit's brown.

Lunching at the Beverly-Wilshire with Winifred Sheehan, Janet Gaynor wore a navy blue woolen swagger coat lined with red and white checked gingham—and no hat.

Joan Bennett wore a candy-striped red and white sports dress to luncheon, simply made, topped by a red and white checked fez and red and white checked sandals.

Posing for pictures with her young son, Tommy, Glenda Farrell wore a small bright red hat with two little gay pompons on one side, and a gray suit.

One of the smartest patriotically colored costumes seen hereabouts this week was worn by Muriel Evans, dancing at the Cocoanut Grove with Robert Young. The high-waisted, long skirt was navy blue linen, the bodice made of wide bands of red and white.

Dallas Flayed For Failure In Drive

HOUSTON, June 30. (AP)—Dallas' delay in raising its quota of the $35,000 fund to provide a Texas exhibit for the Century of Progress at Chicago was criticized by H. O. Clarke, Houston member of a statewide committee formed to promote the exhibit.

Mr. Clarke urged Henry Ochs of San Antonio, chairman of the committee, to call a meeting immediately to complete the finance drive. Ochs had called a meeting for Thursday at ouston, but wired the Houstonian that it would be held at San Antonio as soon as Dallas raised its $7,500 quota. Other cities have put up practically all the amounts they pledged, Clarke said.

"I cannot understand why Dallas doesn't make its contribution," he said. "The Texas exhibit should be set up at Chicago at the earliest possible moment."

Plains Men Are To Talk With Wallace

To confer Monday with Secretary Henry A. Wallace and C. C. Cobb of the department of agriculture, three South Plains representatives left last night for Washington, D. C.

Members of the committee, C. T. Watson of Big Spring, A. B. Davis of Lubbock, and Senator Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield, will ask that South Plains cotton farmers be allowed to participate in the acreage reduction plan, although they have planted no cotton.

The delegates were named Tuesday at Lamesa by representatives of eleven counties. At the Lamesa meeting it was pointed out that cotton had been planted as late as July 15 on the Plains, and still make good crops.

REPORT SHOWS EXPANSION

BUSINESS REVIEW OF FEDERAL RESERVE IS OPTIMISTIC

DALLAS, June 30 (AP) — The monthly business review of the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas, reports a "further noticeable expansion of business and industry" during the past month. This, the review states, was stimulated by "rising commodity prices and growing public confidence."

Analyzing the situation the review continues: Department store sales in May reflected a gain of four per cent over the previous month and were two per cent in excess of those a year ago. Wholesale distribution in all reporting lines was larger than in April, which in some instances was contrary to the usual seasonal trend. In a majority of lines it was above that of May, 1932. The enlarged wholesale demand has been brought about by both the increased consumer buying and the disposition of retailers to replenish depleted stocks. Forward orders in some lines have reached substantial proportions. Collections reflected a further improvement over the previous month.

Bank Loans Decline

The demand for Federal Reserve bank funds declined between May 15 and June 15, whereas there is usually an increase. Loans to member banks amounted to only $4,446,000 on June 15, as compared to $6,067,000 on May 15 and $15,175,000 on the corresponding date in 1932. The decline during the month was brought about through liquidations by both reserve city and country banks. The loans and investment of member banks in selected cities declined between May 10 and June 7. The daily average of combined net demand and time deposits in this district showed little change, the May total being $585,606,000, as compared with $585,834,000 in April, and $625,594,000 in May, 1932. The continued strong demand for investment outlets was reflected by the heavy subscriptions to the United States treasury certificates of indebtedness and notes, dated June 15, and bearing 3-4 per cent and 2 7-8 per cent, respectively.

Rains Beneficial

The heavy general rains during the latter part of May greatly improved agricultural conditions, but there are sections in the western part of the district where conditions are acute because of lack of moisture. In the drouth area, plants are deteriorating rapidly and a portion of the crops is still unplanted. Over most of the district moisture is generally ample for the present, and row crops are in fair to good condition. Farmers have made rapid progress with field work, and crops are in a good state of cultivation. Harvesting of small grains is under way, but reports indicate that yields are poor. Ranges and livestock have improved since the May rains and conditions are generally good except in a few areas which are still very dry.

Wool and mohair led all other commodities in the general upward price trend of the district's products. Top prices for wool touched the 28-cent level for the first time in several years, and served as a sharp stimulant to business and financial activities throughout the district's sheep-producing areas.

Construction activity was well sustained during the past month. The valuation of building permits issued at principal cities during May was practically the same as in the previous month, and was only 5 per cent under a year ago.

PECAN GROWERS' MEETING CHANGED

BROWNWOOD, July 30. (AP)—Date for the summer meeting of the West Texas Pecan Growers association to be held in Brownwood has been changed from July 27 to July 20, H. G. Lucas of Brownwood president of the National Pecan Marketing association, who is in charge of the program, announced the change in date after receiving word from W. J. Millican of Bend, president of the West Texas association.

Vice-President John N. Garner is to be invited and given a good reason why he should attend. For one thing, a new variety of pecan discovered by E. E. Risien of San Saba, who is called the "Burbank of the pecan industry," has been named "John Garner" in honor of the vice-president. Ross Wolfe of Stephenville has the right to propagate the new species. Mr. Risien and Mr. Wolfe will be at the meeting and growers want Mr. Garner here so that some of the pecans may be formally presented to him.

A big fish fry is being planned for noon the day of the meeting. Local growers have promised to catch the fish from Lake Brownwood to feed all the visitors.

Many prominent men in the pecan industry will appear on the program. Trips to the federal pecan exeriment stations here will be made.

EASTUS NAMES ASSISTANTS

FT. WORTH MAN WILL TAKE OATH OF OFFICE SATURDAY

FORT WORTH, June 30 (AP) — Clyde Eastus announced appointment of four assistants Thursday before leaving for Lubbock to take the oath of office Saturday as United States district attorney for the northern Texas federal judicial district. Judge James C. Wilson will administer the oath.

Assistants named were Alex M. Mood, formerly of Amarillo, and now practicing law here; Frank P. Potter of Fort Worth, and Claude Hood and Will B. Ward of Dallas. Another will be named within a few days.

Mood succeeds Alfred Crager as first assistant July 15. Potter will relieve John W. Beveridge, in charge of war risk insurance cases, utility and other civil matters, this week. Hood will succeed E. Crippen, who has been stationed at Dallas. Ward will take the place now held by Mrs. Sarah Menzes of Dallas, July 15. The appointee to be named soon will succeed Tom Ball of Dallas, who is expected to serve until August 1.

I know about reputation of people . . . reputation of some other things . . . and, come to think about it, I should say that CHESTERFIELD has an A-1 reputation.

You know, it seems to have real merit. To me, for a cigarette 'To Satisfy,' it certainly has to be made right; and then it has to taste right. I just don't like them strong . . . they just have to be mild.

CHESTERFIELD has what it takes to satisfy. That's what people say about it."

SUIT FACED BY CALF STAND

INJUNCTION GRANTED WHEN LOUD NOISES HELD NUISANCE

Atemporary injunction restraining Dewey Cravens of the Calf stand from "carrying on any kind of business attended with loud noises of any kind" was granted by Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court Thursday after 10 Lubbock county property owners filed a petition.

The plaintiffs were P. D. McKinnon, O. W. Crittenden, G. E. Damewood, W. E. Stimson, W. H. Meador, E. B. Green, N. H. Wright, Glenn D. Chase, F. M. Maddox, and C. W. Tinney. Representing themselves as owners of property near the Calf Stand, at Main street and Avenue Q, they alleged in part:

Nuisance Is Charged

"... that the defendant has made said premises a place of nuisance by employing persons to work on said premises, especially at night, and engage in making loud noises by screaming, singing songs, jazz music and dancing, some of which is done by negro men and women, and also runs a radio with loud speaker, that defendant's employes generally engage in a kind of conduct that is loud and disturbing."

The petition set out that the noise "prevents plaintiffs and other residents nearby from resting or sleeping, or enjoying the quiet and peace in their homes." It also was alleged that "that such conduct x x x is injurious to the health of plaintiffs."

The plaintiffs claimed that unless a writ of injunction was issued "these plaintiffs will suffer irreparable loss and damage to their homes and property in the sum of $10,000."

AMENDMENT FAVORED

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 30. (AP)—The Oklahoma house of representatives Thursday voted 80 to 18, to ratify the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution. The measure now goes to the senate.

This country uses over 19 kilowatt hours of electricity per year for every man, woman and child; Germany uses five and Denmark only a fraction of one.

Mrs. Elizabeth Day (above), 63-year-old widow of London, England, is laying claim to the fortune of several million dollars left by Edward Albert Ridley, aged recluse recently slain with his secretary in his squalid New York cellar office. Mrs. Day was Elizabeth Kate Hunt Ridley and she believes the slain eccentric was her cousin.

FREUDIAN THEORY PROOF IS CITED

CHICAGO, June 30 (AP)—The Freudian theory that sex attraction determines the bond between parent and child gained statistical support at the American Association for the Advancement of Science today.

Freud's concept was that children were more strongly attached to the parent of the opposite sex. Strong adherents contend such love on the part of a child aroused also an unconscious wish for the death of the parent of the same sex, a feeling evolving from jealousy, the father, for example, being regarded by a son as a "rival" for his mother's affections.

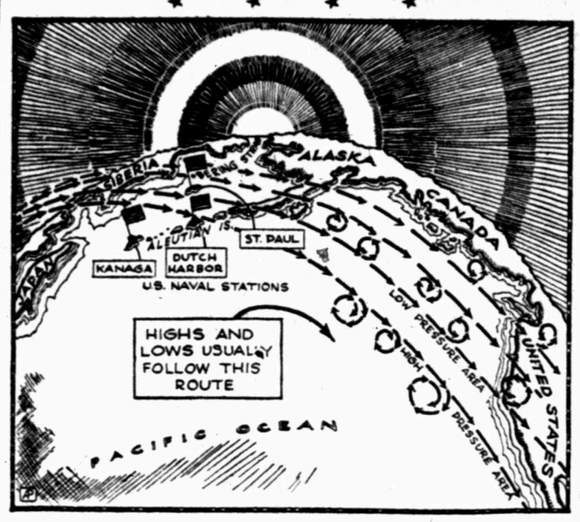

Ross Stagner of the University of Wisconsin reported to a group of sociologists that studies he had made on children's attitude toward their parents apparently confirmed the general Freudian theory.

SLAUGHTERS ELEPHANTS

Navy Stations Are Scanning The Far East To Sight Weather For America

More accurate forecasts of this country's weather are expected to follow the study by three new navy stations—locations shown on map—of the high and low pressure areas moving eastward over the Pacific. Winds in the low pressure areas rotate anti-clockwise; those in the "highs," clockwise, each type indicating a different kind of weather.

By F. B. COLTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—From three new outposts on farflung islands of the north Pacific, weather observers are straining their eyes toward Asia for first glimpses of America's weather, blowing up out of the China sea.

The most distant of the stations, on Kanaga island in the Aleutian archipelago off Alaska, pushes another 1,000 miles or so to the westward the chain of "listening posts" from which the approach of "fair and warmer" and "rainy and cooler" weather for the United States is charted.

The other two stations are at Dutch Harbor, also in the Aleutians, and on St. Paul island, farther north. All three are being operated by the navy in cooperation with the weather bureau.

The stations are expected to give valuable information to weather forecasters regarding approach and behavior of the areas of high and low atmospheric pressure that constantly move across the northern Pacific, through the Aleutian island region and down into the United States from west to east.

The low pressure areas in general bring warm, rainy weather. Their winds rotate in an anti-clockwise direction, sweeping warm, damp southern air northward. The high pressure areas, rotating clockwise, usually cause cooler, fair weather as they drag cold air down from northern regions.

The stations in the Aleutians are important because most of the high and low pressure areas pass through that region as through a kind of bottle neck, on the way east from beyond Japan where they originate.

The highs and lows that move over the United States are not always the original ones from the Orient, however, but may be offshoots or "secondaries" of the same type.

Knowing the speed, size and general direction of the highs and lows as they move toward the United States, the weather bureau can better frame its forcasts of the weather for the coming week over the country.

"Kid", Rich And 80, Weds His Nurse, 28

"I'm never going to be old—I'm just going to keep on being a big kid forever!" And Crosby Leonard, 80-year-old New York poet and capitalist, promptly proved his boast by marrying his pretty 28-year-old nurse, Miss Ida M. Clarke, though he had a little trouble kneeling for the ceremony. Here's the happy couple leaving the Little Church Around the Corner in New York after the wedding.

FIRST TASK OF RECOVERY LAW IS TO GET MORE MONEY INTO CIRCULATION

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of articles prepared by staff writers of the Associated Press to explain in simple terms the important laws enacted at the last session of congress in President Roosevelt's recovery program.)

* * *

BY JAMES P. SELVAGE

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The first task or objective under the national recovery law is to get more money into the hands of the people, so they may buy more goods, so stores and factories will hire millions of the unemployed to meet the demand.

To do this, the law makes possible a cut in the number of hours now worked by men with jobs. Others then will have to be hired to do part of the work. At the same time the rate of pay is to be increased so that, working less time, men still make a living wage or better, and be able to spend enough to help business make jobs for yet more men.

Agreements Allowed

The law lets all businesses in the same line get together and voluntarily agree to do this. The procedure for accomplishing the objective is:

A representative group of one industry drafts a code of fair competition. Since enactment of the Sherman anti-trust law in 1890, companies in the same line have been prevented from getting together but the national recovery allows it for two years.

The code, for the present, is only to set the minimum wage that the industry may pay, and fix the maximum hours that any employe shall work, with, possibly, provisions forbidding selling below cost of production, to eliminate "sweatshop" competition.

This agreement is submitted to Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, who calls for a public hearing at which minorities within the industry, representatives of labor and representatives of the buying public may suggest changes to meet their needs.

The law permits employes the right to organize any way they choose, and their employers are forbidden to interfere.

Johnson is aided, in considering the agreements by three boards, one of industrialists, one of labor experts and the third representing consumers. Each must advise from the viewpoint it represents.

When they agree upon terms of the code, it is up to Johnson. When he approves, it passes to President Roosevelt who has reserved final say on all agreements. Once the codes are promulgated they have the force of law, so all plants within the specified industries must abide by their terms.

If any firm refuses to act under its industry's code, the president can compel it to do so by requiring the whole industry to take out licenses, closing down the plant which does not qualify for one by accepting the code.

If any industry refuses to adopt a code, the government may frame one and order it enforced.

While increasing wages and jobs is the emergency phase of the law, later the codes may be expanded to outlaw unfair competition.

Trinidad Repairs Hurricane Damage

PORT-OF-SPAIN, Trinidad, June 30 (AP)—Southern Trinidad today was repairing the damage caused by a hurricane Tuesday night, described by residents as the most destructive in the history of this tropical island.

Partially repaired telegraph wires brought to the capital a scant account of the damage. The loss in life was not determined, although it seemed apparent that there had been several fatalities as numerous small boats sank and, on land, many trees were uprooted and flung across highways.

Carnera Stands As Heavyweight Champ Of World

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

BASEBALL TODAY all over town. You can take your choice of the regulation game or the soft ball variety. Lubbock's Hubbers meet Lorenzo at 5 o'clock on the College Avenue park, in a baseball game that promises more than ordinary acting.

• • •

In the soft ball leagues, Weiss-Truck Terminal meets the Hule-Ribble combination at the 22nd Street park and City Hall takes on Lubbock Auto company at Fair park.

• • •

Lorenzo promises some stiff competition this afternoon, and the Hubbers need it. Playing with Lorenzo are three or four fellows who have played under Lubbock colors. Outstanding of these is Hershel "Big" Galey, star catcher for Lubbock a couple of years ago. Another is Boney Surratt, an outfielder of no mean ability who is on Lubbock's roster as a member of the South Plains league.

• • •

The game at College Avenue park starts later than usual. It is an experiment calculated to attract more cash customers than might come out for a 3 o'clock ball game. If the experiment proves successful, all games in the future may start at that time, with the exception of Sunday afternoon contests.

The boys who make the books, who sit on the rails and watch the principals go through their preparatory acts must know something whereof they speak and write. We mean about the Carnera-Sharkey fight last night. Up to 24 hours before the fracas, Sharkey was anywhere from a 5-to-3 to 6-to-5 favorite. On the night before the scrap, the odds were evened up, with the talk of favoritism shifting to the Ambling Alp. A few hours before the big boys entered the ring, Primo was quoted at 6 to 5 odds.

Evidently it isn't for us guys a thousand miles away from the scene of activity to predict the outcomes of such affairs. We "guessed" that Ernie Schaaf would whip Carnera. Our guessing average was further lessened after the Max Baer-Max Schmeling fight. The average went all to smithereens last night. Right now the general opinion seems to be that Max Baer will make sausage out of the vast Venetian when they tangle in the next world's heavyweight bout. We're not so sure. Primo's apparent improvement has made a skeptic of us. As big as he is, with the weight, height, reach and ability to absorb punishment, he ought to be a world beater. Perhaps he is. If he continues to improve in the next six months or year before the title fight, he may whip the daylights out of Baer.

The Lubbock Country club invitation tournament, which officially opens tomorrow morning, promises to be quite fast. A number of players already have qualified. As this is written, more than a dozen have posted the 18-hole qualifying score, and this is written before any Friday scores have come in.

Every local golfer, whether a top flighter or a fifth flighter should shoot a qualifying score. There is room for everybody, and the meanest duffer in town has a chance to win one of the snappy-looking prizes now on display at Lee Jones' and Jay Harston's and Ed Hambright's sporting goods store. There'll be others as bad as or worse than you in your flight, and you've never gained the full thrill of golf until you have indulged in tournament play.

There is to be swimming, tennis and horse shows for tournament entrants, also a touch of golf. J. O. Smith and Paul Denton are trying to find several good tennis players who would be willing to give an exhibition or two at the club during the tournament. If you are one of these, 'em up.

GIANT ITALIAN BEATS SHARKEY IN SIXTH WITH KNOCKOUT

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 30. — Under circumstances that still seemed baffling today to at least a share of the fight fraternity, Primo Carnera the 25-year-old 260-pound Italian giant, who was just a "strong man" in a circus sideshow a few years ago, stood astride the boxing world like a modern colossus as the new heavyweight champion.

With one mighty swoop of his ham-like right fist, Carnera took the title from Jack Sharkey, 201-pound American, on a knockout in the sixth round of a 15-round match last evening.

Finish Is Dramatic

The finish came with a suddenness as dramatic as it was startling to a crowd of 35,000 spectators, little more than half filling the Madison Square Garden bowl. An inside right uppercut brought up swiftly as the giant came to grips along the ropes with his foe, felled Sharkey as though he had been a tree hit by the woodman's final blow.

The champion fell to the canvas, face down, scarcely moved except to lift his head once and drop his mouthpiece to the floor, while Referee Arthur Donovan finished the count of ten after 2 minutes and 27 seconds of the sixth round.

It marked the second time in his erratic career that Sharkey had lost an international battle, with the title at stake, and it baffled most of those at the ringside who had watched the Bostonian drop after outboxing, outsmarting and outpunching Carnera by a wide margin in the first five rounds.

His Secret Punch

There was no question about the power behind Carnera's final thrust, the climax of a spectacular closing flurry that saw the champion flounder suddenly, lost almost complete control of his defense and crumple under the ponderous punches of the biggest man who ever scaled the world heavyweight heights. It was an uppercut that had everything Carnera could muster in his huge frame behind it and Sharkey looked "cold" if ever a fighter did as he went down. It was his "secret punch," Carnera exclaimed exultantly, after the fight, and perhaps he was right, for Sharkey didn't see it coming and may not know yet what hit him.

The champion started slowly and lost the first round, taking at least one hard right hand clout on the chin, but he seemed unhurt and for the next four rounds gave Carnera a boxing lesson. He feinted the big fellow off balance, he hooked him dizzy with lefts and tried desperately at times to apply the "crusher" with a looping right to the head.

In the second and fifth rounds, Sharkey staggered Carnera with right handers to the head. Primo, when most flustered, resorted to bear-like wrestling tactics and employed backward blows that drew warnings from the referee in the third, fourth and fifth rounds. The Italian took many of the champion's punches on his huge arms but up to the sixth round he did not appear to hurt Sharkey seriously.

Ringside opinion differed somewhat sharply as to the circumstances of the finish, but boxing commission officials said they saw no reason to doubt the genuineness of the outcome.

SHARKEY ACCEPTS DEFEAT CALMLY

BY BILL KING
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 30 — Although unaccustomed to being knocked out, having experienced that sensation only three times in his 11 years in the ring, Jack Sharkey accepted his defeat by Primo Carnera with much more grace than he did most of the victories that carried him to the heavyweight throne.

"It's been a long time since this happened to me," he declared calmly; and, without malice, added, "I suppose a lot of people are happy now."

Sailor Calm and Quiet

From the time Sharkeys addened handlers led him from the scene of his downfall, which a year ago saw his title victory over Max Schmeling, the Boston boxer was calm and quiet.

He was still dazed when he entered his quarters but a cold shower quickly revived him. As if referring to some casual matter, he asked for an explanation of his defeat.

"How did it happen? What round was it? How was I doing?"

A few words filled the gaps that Carnera's right uppercut made in his brain.

He appeared to have reconciled himself to such an ending long ago. But when asked if he was going to retire, he denied it.

"Am I going to hang up my gloves? No, I'm not. I'm going to fight again in a couple of weeks. When I'm not so rusty. That's what is wrong with me now."

"That's up to Jack," Manager Johnny Buckley said.

THE NEW CHAMPION OF THE WORLD—IN CLAYCATURE

Here's a study in clay of your new world's heavyweight boxing champion, Primo Carnera, who ascended to fistic heights yesterday with a knockout over Jack Sharkey, defending champion. Bruce Shanks, the artist, made the figure in clay, then photographed it—a new kind of artistry.

"NOW MY MAMA AND PAPA BE HAPPY! PRIMO'S CHAMPION!" CHANTS WINNER

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—The new heavyweight fighting champion of the world, Primo Carnera of Italy, sat back in the corner of a blistering little room out on Long Island last night and beat his great hands together like a delighted child as he chanted in rough shod English:

"Boy, oh boy, oh boy! Now my mamma and papa be happy! Now my mamma and papa be happy! Primo's champion! Now they be happy!"

Over and over, as though dazed, the tremendous man who a few moments before had battered Jack Sharkey into helplessness, assured himself it was true. He would stop long enough to shake the hands of those who had fought their way into the cubbyhole dressing room, only to lapse again into his chant of victory.

Tells How He Did It

Between draughts from a bottle labeled "beer" he told how he won from the super-boxer, Jack Sharkey.

"I hit him with a left and he fall into the ropes. I know he's hurt and I follow him. Pret' soon my right uppercut catch him, and that is all. He go down and I know he stay there."

The blow that felled the ex-sailor was one all the experts had said Primo didn't possess.

"I've been teaching that right uppercut for months," revealed Bill Duffy, the man who is credited with having made a boxer out of the former circus freak. "We practiced it in private, just Primo and me, and I knew in my own mind what would happen when it landed on Sharkey's chin. One was enough."

Sharkey Improved

In Carnera's opinion, Sharkey was a better man last night than when he gave Primo a beating two years ago.

And, as far as he is concerned, they can bring on the challengers now. He probably is the most confident champion who ever demanded the big end of the gate.

"I fight Baer. I fight anybody. I whip all of them. You'll see. Primo is champ."

ITALIANS CHEER VICTORY WILDLY

ROME, June 30. (AP)—Several hundred boxing enthusiasts, among whom were several officials of the boxing federations, remained in newspaper offices here all night and at dawn today cheered wildly the news of Primo Carnera's victory.

Papers had printed extensive dispatches on training activities of Carnera and Sharkey, and arranged for special reports on the match.

LEFTY DARROW BEATS BUFFS

GALVESTON SOUTHPAW WINS HIS FIFTEENTH GAME THURSDAY

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The fact that Houston is six full games ahead in the Texas league pennant marathon didn't mean a thing to Lefty Darrow Thursday night. The Galveston southpaw clipped the Buffaloes, 8 to 4, for his fifteenth victory this season. It was his eighth straight victory.

It looked worse than bad for Darrow in the first two innings when infield hits and errors by his mates gave the Buffaloes an advantage of four runs. After this bad start, Darrow saw his mates settle down and play powerful offensive baseball to sweep through to victory.

The hitting combination of Lou Brower, Fischer, Holman and Tom Jenkins smothered the Oklahoma City Indians, 8 to 1. Holman, with two timely hits, knocked in three runs and scored a pair. Jenkins got three for three to drive across a run and score one.

Van Gilder limited the Indians to eight hits and did not allow a run until the ninth when Windle drove a tally across. Holman got the longest hit, a home run.

In the opener of their series, the San Antonio Missions gained a 9 to 4 decision over Beaumont. Fabian Kowalik was touched for eleven hits by the Exporters. Hare allowed San Antonio twelve bingles. Larry Bettencourt batted in three runs for the Missions with a single and double.

The Fort Worth Cats continued their winning streak with a 9 to 5 victory over the Tulsa Oilers.

NATIONAL A. A. U. EVENTS TONIGHT

CHICAGO, June 30. (AP)—The main event of Chicago's three-day track and field show — the forty-sixth renewal of the national A.A.U. championships—will be decided tonight at Soldier field.

The 1,500 meters run, with Glenn Cunningham of Kansas and Gene Venzke as the overnight favorites, and the 800 meters, again with Cunningham an important figure, held the spotlight.

The senior track events will be run for the first time at metric distances. The juniors ran under similar conditions yesterday and all the performances went into the books as records. The field events, however, were conducted on the old style plan, and five new marks were established.

One of the most noteworthy track accomplishments was a sparkling 3:58.6 1,500 meters by John Simmons of Abilene Christian.

HUBBERS WILL CLASH WITH LORENZO

TEAMS TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON AT PARK ON COLLEGE AVE

The Lorenzo baseball club will oppose the Lubbock Hubbers this afternoon at the College Avenue park in a regulation game, starting at 5 o'clock.

Considerable baseball strength reputedly is wrapped beneath the Lorenzo colors, and the Hubbers anticipate a busy afternoon. Lorenzo's club, which at one time considered making a bid for membership in the South Plains League, is embellished by the presence of the Surratt brothers, nifty fielders and hitters who have played for two seasons in this territory, and of Hershel "Big" Galey, catcher who wore the mask for Lubbock a couple of seasons ago.

New Starting Time

Time of starting the game has been set at a late hour in the hopes that the customers will turn out in larger numbers. It is an experiment which, proven successful, may become a regular starting hour for local games.

The Hubbers will forego another South Plains league game Sunday and journey to Amarillo, where they meet a team of all-stars, Amarillo's leading ball club. According to the Amarillo press, considerable preparations are being made for the visit by the Hubber nine. The game will be played at Metro Park.

Lubbock is scheduled to play Enochs Sunday at Enochs, but the Hubbers will forfeit the contest, since it would have no bearing on the first half pennant race.

Today's game, which promises to be more than fairly interesting, should see the Hubbers in top notch condition, with a lineup which, save for one catcher and a pitcher, may carry the burden throughout the second half of the league season. Red Gaither, speedy outfielder who has played some neat games at third base, returned to Lubbock yesterday after a siege of baseball at Hobbs, N. M. He may play third this afternoon. The lineup should see Cowboy Kyle or Satch Hill on first, Winfield Breedlove or Ed Hambright at second, Chuck Webster at short, Gaither or Waller at third, Harold Crites in left field, Lefty Jones in center, and Ray Marshall or Ray Waller in right. R. V. Galey will catch and Red Howell or Ed Hambright will pitch.

YANKEES BACK IN TIE FOR LOOP LEAD

CARDS RESUME CLIMB TOWARD TOP WITH WIN OVER GIANTS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Taking divergent paths toward the top, the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals have resumed their courses toward the leading places in the major leagues.

Seizing upon the first sign of slackening in Washington's winning streak, the Yank battered their way back into a tie for the American league lead yesterday at the expense of the Cleveland Indians. The Cards opened a direct attack on the New York Giants, and walloped the National league leaders 7-3.

Yanks Bunch Blows

The Yanks did a great job of bunching their blows against Cleveland to win 9-3. Lefty Gomez was effective in the pinches and Babe Ruth set the hitting pace for the fourth straight New York victory.

The Senators, meanwhile, bowed 5-4 to the Detroit Tigers. After tying the count in the ninth, the Senators kicked the game away in the last half of the frame when Bill McAfee gave a walk and booted Heinie Schuble's sacrifice to set the stage for Gerald Walker to drive in the deciding run.

With Lefty Grove on the hill, the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the St. Louis Browns 4-1. Jimmie Foxx hit his 19th homer.

Phillies Down Pirates

The revived Phillies, paced by Chuck Klein, continued to knock off the National league's first division clubs as they hung a 6-4 defeat on the third place Pittsburgh Pirates. Klein knocked in all six runs with two homers and two singles.

The combination of Guy Bush's steady pitching and an 11 hit attack on Walter Beck gave the Chicago Cubs a 7-2 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Rain halted the Boston-Chicago game, while the Braves and the Cincinnati Reds had an off day in the National.

Jim Holt's City Hall club meets Lubbock Auto company this afternoon at Fair Park in the National soft ball league game, and Weiss-Truck Terminal plays the Huie-Ribble combination in the American league at the 22nd Street park. The games are to start at 6 o'clock.

Texas Utilities and Quicksall-Pryor were winners in yesterday's games. The Utilities team was off to a 5-run lead in the first inning, after which the Avalanche-Journal defense tightened to hold the winners to seven runs during the last six innings, the Reporters losing 12 to 9.

In the American league, Quicksall-Pryor defeated A. W. McKee company, 11 to 9, in a hard fought contest. Pitcher Yancy Price for the winners was backed up by a hustling infield and Cooper likewise was supported by the McKee fielders. Cooper tossed nice ball for the losers.

Tight infield play by the Utilities team made it double tough on the efforts of the Reporters, who showed vast improvement over previous games at the plate.

LEGION OPENS VET FIGHT

FOUR-POINT PROGRAM SEEKS TO REMAIN MOST BENEFITS

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP) — A four point plan having as its objective to regain for the veterans most of the benefits of which they were stripped under the economy act was outlined here at the first of a series of regional conferences of the national rehabiliation committee of the American Legion.

Meanwhile at Cincinnati disabled American veterans were demanding the immediate removal of Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans affairs, who has had much to do with carrying out the economy act.

Program Drafted

Northeastern states were represented today at the regional conference here at which the four point program was drawn up for recommendation to the various state conventions of the Legion prior to the national convention at Chicago October 2-5.

The next regional conference will be that for southern states at Meridian, Miss., July 7-8, followed by sessions at Chicago July 15-16; Salt Lake City, July 19-20 and San Francisco July 27-28.

The program decided on follows:

That no war veteran disabled in line of duty shall suffer any reduction in the benefits he received prior to the economy law.

That the federal government hospitalize veterans who require hospital treatment but are not able to pay for it.

That the service connecting rating properly granted veterans under laws before the economy law be perpetuated.

That benefits for dependents of veterans not be tampered with.

Thought For Today

Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.—St. Luke, 6:28.

Labor's 'New Deal'

Among the tremendous changes which were slipped into our national set-up almost unnoticed along with the industrial control bill, none is much more significant than the "new deal" which has been given organized labor.

Even organized labor itself hardly seems, as yet, to realize what a sweeping new charter this bill has given it. But not more than a glance at the new system is needed to convince one that the whole face of the labor situation has been most profoundly changed overnight.

A fair sample of the change can be seen in the bituminous coal industry.

Here is an industry which has been about as essentially disorganized and competitive as any in America. It has witnessed some of the most appalling struggles between labor and capital; it has written some of the ugliest chapters in American industrial history.

* * *

Today, while the operators are splitting into two camps in their attitude toward the impending governmental supervision, the United Mine Workers of America are working feverishly to unionize coal miners in every coal-producing state.

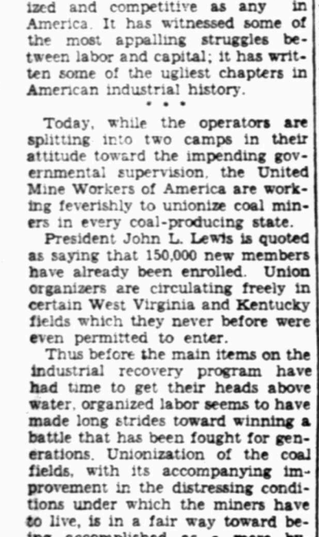

President John L. Lewis is quoted as saying that 150,000 new members have already been enrolled. Union organizers are circulating freely in certain West Virginia and Kentucky fields which they never before were even permitted to enter.

Thus before the main items on the industrial recovery program have had time to get their heads above water, organized labor seems to have made long strides toward winning a battle that has been fought for generations. Unionization of the coal fields, with its accompanying improvement in the distressing conditions under which the miners have to live, is in a fair way toward being accomplished as a mere by-product of a larger struggle.

* * *

It would be hard to over-emphasize the importance of this. We have moved so fast and so far recently that we are quite likely to go a long way beyond the most advanced of the old-time objectives before we have realized that we are started.

BUTLER university at Indianapolis deserves attention received as a result of presenting a course in marital relations—not martial relations, if you please, printer—for undergraduate credit. It is not, however, the first such course. The University of Missouri had, possibly has now, a course, The Family, concerned chiefly with the same problems. The professor who taught it, most tactfully, we thought, was dismissed. He had, however, helped students; some of whom already were married, frankly and intelligently; had been the confident of others who, not daring to face a parent or schoolmate, came to him; had earned the inner respect of virtually all students with whom he had contact.

* * *

He was a bachelor—you need not be an all-American quarterback to recognize misplays on the gridiron—and he had no cure-alls and sure-things. He did persent principles, many of which could be tested before matrimony. Skeptics may be surprised to know that married students found fewer faults with his theories than did those still unmarked by matrimony. And we don't identify Missouri as having conducted the first such class; surely not Butler. This sub-Plainsman, incidentally, has a partisan appreciation of Butler having attended a sister institution, Phillips university at Enid, Texas Christian university is a member of the same circle.

A fellow who probably should know better writes a newspaper trade journal to suggest newspapers rescind paycuts of their employes, and then observes, seemingly with a view of bolstering his proposal, that papers "feature stories of workers in other businesses who have had their pay restored." His way of reasoning typifies that of the public. Use of a story about a meeting of repeal advocates does not mean in itself that the newspaper is wet; nor of a prohibition assembly that the paper is dry. Publication of a report of a murder is not sanction of murder. Utilization of only part of a speech in a news story need not imply condemnation of the parts deleted. Two sides of a story make a whole story. Both sides, of course, aren't always available. Elements of time, space, and human fallibility affect each story and the newspaper as a whole. Go to a strange city, examine its newspapers, the longer you stay the more you'll realize how pertinently they reflect that city. Have you heard of the old woman who cracked her mirror because she found her reflection in it ugly?

Federal Program Of Agriculture Production Control Is Moving Faster Than Expected; Proposed Delay Opposed

The Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Roosevelt seldom makes a slip and hardly ever has to reverse himself. He handles any and all questions, with no holds barred.

Butcher

But the great program of agricultural production control, with its initial process taxes on wheat and cotton to compensate farmers for reduction, is going ahead after a period during which nearly everyone was believing that it would be put off until after the London economic conference.

Making a quick answer to a fast question, the president one day expressed the belief that the process taxes on farm products should be postponed in deference to the spirit of the tariff truce with other nations. The law requires a compensatory tax on imports corresponding to the process tax on any farm commodity.

Demanded Action

So the whole huge scheme seemed to be temporarily off. But Secretary of Agriculture Wallace went to bat on the issue. Southern senators squawked blue murder and western wheat groups demanded that the administration make good its campaign promises. And it was urged that process and compensatory taxes couldn't bury the London conference further in the mud than already seemed inevitable.

Our formal position now is that the compensatory tax doesn't violate the tariff truce because it isn't a tariff truce designed to give the domestic producer an advantage, imposes no new barrier to international trade and has merely an equalizing effect. Most State and Agriculture Department officials had held that view all along and it seems Roosevelt spoke too fast.

But the change of front, like our balkiness at accepting a currency stabilization agreement, indicates an increased determination to work out our national salvation with relative disregard for international developments.

Our "Acting President"

Bernard M. Baruch's influence with this administration, oddly enough, has become increasingly apparent ever since he appeared on the J. P. Morgan "preferred list."

He sponsored his friend and former associate George N. Peek for administrator of the agricultural adjustment plan and his friend and former associate Gen. Hugh S. Johnson for administrator of the huge national recovery plan. Also some others who have important "new deal" jobs.

Now he sits in the office of Assistant Secretary of State Ray Moley, who is in London, helping shape American policy at the economic conference, keeping his hand in on international as well as national affairs and being referred to in newspapers as "the acting president" while Roosevelt is on vacation.

Power Curbed

Peek and Johnson, however, are not as powerful "dictators" in their respective vast fields as was first anticipated. Johnson was suddenly handed a powerful board, mostly composed of cabinet members, which is in a position to prove or disapprove his acts and policies.

Peek has by no means overshadowed Secretary Wallace, who insists on being the big boss of the farm recovery plan. And Charles J. Brand, co-administrator with Peek, at least equals him in force and effectiveness.

AUSTIN, June 30. (AP)—Several former members of the Texas legislature have already taken up permanent residences in the capital city or are contemplating doing so.

Lee Satterwhite, veteran legislator and former speaker of the house of representatives, is making his home here. He formerly lived in Amarillo and Odessa. He was elected to the legislature from each of those districts. Last summer he was a candidate for state railroad commissioner.

Will Run Again

He is said to be planning a race in 1934, but has not decided upon the office he will seek. Some day he will become a candidate for the legislature from Travis county. Others predict he will try again for the railroad commission, this time as an opponent of Lon A. Smith, chairman of that group. Last time it was C. V. Terrell, then chairman, that Satterwhite opposed.

Trueman O'Quinn, who was a member of the house from Beaumont in the 42nd legislature, is residing in Austin. He has a hankering for the legislative halls and may decide to ask for one of the two Travis county seats now filled by T. H. McGregor and A. W. Griffith.

Ray Holder of Lancaster, who represented Dallas county in a number of legislatures prior to the 43rd, has tentatively decided to make his home in Austin. He, too, may make the race for a house seat from Travis county.

Former School Teacher

Holder taught school in Austin for nine years before he moved to Dallas county and started a newspaper.

"The twenty-five hundred young sters I came in contact with in my school teaching here ought to be about ready to vote now," he said.

Legislators drifting to Austin to make their homes, reminds one that men who come here to serve the state in some official capacity often remain permanently.

There are the cases of Claude Pollard, former attorney general, former Governor Dan Moody and former Senator A. E. Wood. There are dozens of others. There is something in the turmoil of state politics that gets them.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 30 (AP)—With a broad buying movement sweeping into the speculative pits late today, wheat kited to 4 cents above early low prices.

Late strength in the wheat market was based largely on apprehension that crop damage had nullified benefits from rains northwest and west. Much buying too, was stimulated owing to expectations that private crop summaries to be issued Monday would disclose startling curtailment of indicated yields.

Wheat closed nervous at about a cent under the day's top figures but 1-8 to 7-8 over yesterday's finish, corn 11-4 to 2 up, oats 1 7-8 to 2 1-4 advance, and provisions varying from 10 cents decline to a rise of 2 cents.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—Cotton opened steady, 11 to 13 lower in response to lower cables and liquidation. July 9.91; Oct. 10.17; Dec. 10.34; Jan. 10.41; March 10.53; May 10.69.

The early decline in wheat seemed to bring out a little more liquidation and some stop loss orders were uncovered at the decline which represented a loss of about $3.00 per bale from the top of the recent advance.

The weather map showed continued clear hot weather over the entire western belt causing some apprehension for the safety of the crop, although reports from Texas indicated that the crop had not suffered materially except possibly in a few sections.

The July position sold down to 9.90 and October to 10.15, and at the end of the first hour values were around those levels.

The decline extended to 9.70 for July and to 10.20 for December or to net losses of 26 to 31 points under continued liquidation with the reaction uncovering stop orders. However, with prices off about $3.50 per bale from the recent highs the market encountered a little more support from trade and outside sources. July rallied to 9.78, December to 10.32 by around midday with the general list 12 to 22 points net lower.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 30. (AP)—Cotton opened easier today as cables came in lower than due and sterling was weak. First trades showed losses of 9 to 12 points and the market continued easy, October trading at 10.15 and December at 10.30, or 12 points under yesterday's close.

Later, prices rallied 3 to 4 points and October worked up to 10.18 and December to 10.34, owing to some covering by shorts, but before the end of the first hour there was a second reaction of one to three points on selling in anticipation of rains in the belt.

Trading was rather moderate.

The market was very nervous and erratic all morning. Early weakness in wheat and rather liberal liquidation in advance of the approaching July 4th holiday, coupled with belief that the tropical storm in the gulf would bring needed rains to the western belt caused prices to ease off sharply. October dropped to 10.01 and December to 10.16, or 26 points down on both months from yesterday's close.

Later in the morning, a rally in wheat and stocks caused cotton prices to advance to 10.20 for October, and 10.34 for December up 18 to 19 points form the lows but still 7 to 8 points unde yesterday's close.

Near mid-session the market reacted 2 to 3 points from the top on realizing.

National Air Races To Start Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES, June 30. —(AP)—The national air races, 1933 edition and a lusty youngster if progress in the field of speed is any measure of accomplishment and growth, will get under way here tomorrow while at least seven noted pilots, five men and two women, streak across the continent in one of the most spectacular of the scheduled events, the

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Financial markets generally maintained an attitude of cautious contemplation today in the face of currency stabilization uncertainties.

While there was some profit taking in securities and commodities, the speculative fraternity apparently was highly confused over the international monetary situation. Grains were inclined to rally after dipping earlier, but cotton moved indifferently. The stock trading volume was considerably under that of yesterday. A few specialty shares attracted attention, but most pivotal issues held to a narrow range. The dollar shuffled around its Thursday's closing levels in foreign exchange centers.

The alcohol share group and its allied members jumped about rather erratically. Rails and mining equities were steady to firm. Delaware and Hudson got up 4, Homestake Mining spurted 9, Canada Dry Ginger Ale ran up 4, and Union Pacific, Lehman Corp., American Rolling Mills, Deere, Celanese, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, National Distillers, Corn Cork and American Telephone recorded gains of around 1 to 2 points. The tobaccos were rather heavy.

No Change Planned In Processing Tax

WASHINGTON, June 30. —(AP)—George N. Peek, chief farm administrator, said today there is "no likelihood" of any change in the 30 cent per bushel processing tax on wheat scheduled to go into effect at midnight, July 8.

Plans for operation of the wheat acreage reduction program have been gauged to a 30 cent tax.

Asked if the tax would be reduced in event that wheat prices increase to a point by July 8 where there was only a difference of five cents between the current average farm price and the pre-war farm price, Peek said: "We would not change it."

Brevities

Typhoid Rumor Spiked—Spiking rumors of a large number of typhoid fever cases here, Dr. J. W. Rollo, City health officer, last night said only four cases in Lubbock had been reported to him. Another physician said two patients he had treated for typhoid had recovered.

• • •

Seale, 66, of Abernathy, who died Thursday morning in a hospital here, was conducted at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Church of the Nazarene in Abernathy. Rev. A. R. Curry, 1604 Avenue E, who died at the home Thursday afternoon, were conducted at 10 o'clock this morning at Sanders Funeral home. Rev. A. O. Graydon, a Methodist Episcopal minister, officiated. A sister, Betty Jean, also survives the baby.

Veteran Suicides, Leaves His Bonus

PHILADELPHIA, June 30. (AP)—Ending his life so his family might have "the miserable balance" of his soldiers' bonus money, Daniel W. Thornton, an officer of the Khaki Shirts left a letter to President Roosevelt criticizing the latter's attitude on the bonus question.

Thornton, a former United States army captain, was found dead in a gas-filled hall bedroom last night where police said he had been living with his wife and one child.

that sudden wide changes would be prevented through checking speculation or the unnecessary quick movements of large sums.

Virtual stagnation in conference activities pending settlement of the bitter monetary row was evident as the conference chambers were all but empty as the hour approached for afternoon committee meetings.

BLOCK EXTENSION OF PRICE BOOSTS

LONDON, June 30 (AP)—America's hopes of extending its price raising program to other major countries have been blocked by the conservative policy of the Bank of England, it was said today by well-informed sources.

A real cleavage appeared to have developed between the British treasury and the British central bank over the demands of the gold bloc nations that Britain support their currencies. The Bank of England is firmly opposed to prying the pound sterling loose from the French franc.

This stabilization of the pound on the franc over a period of months was explained as amounting to de factor stabilization on gold and preventing an inflationary rise in prices, such as is in progress in the United States.

The state of New York is now using an airplane to catch fish pirates.

Leaders Of Cotton Industry Divided

WASHINGTON, June 30. —(AP)—Magnates of the cotton industry still were sharply divided today on offering a concession to labor's demand for more liberal wages and less working hours than contained in the code proposed for the industry under the recovery law.

Some of the mill men, seriously concerned over possibility that administrators of the industrial act might shorten the schedule of hours and increase the minimum wages originally proposed, sought an agreement among the group to voluntarily suggest a slightly larger minimum wage than the $10 and $11 for south and north originally put forward.
