1973 COTTON CROP ALL TIME RECORD

Lynn County's 1973 cotton crop is an all-time record both in number of bales produced and price received.

Figures released by the Bureau of Census show the county gins processed 309,356 bales from the 1973 crop, second largest of any county in the state and fourth in the nation.

However, final figures will adjust ginnings to counties in which the cotton was actually produced. Last year, this adjustment took away about 40,000 bales from Lynn. Such an adjustment this year will doubtless put Dawson County ahead of Lynn in actual production because of the large amount of Dawson County cotton ginned at O'Donnell.

With in excess of 90,000 bales ginned at O'Donnell, that Lynn County ginning point doubtless leads the nation for number of bales ginned at any one town.

Lubbock County ginned 310,481 to barely nose out Lynn in the preliminary figures.

Two large California counties, Kern and Fresno led Texas' top counties with 538,920 and 462,645 bales, respectively.

Following are the preliminary figures released by the U.S. Bureau of Census for counties in this area: Lubbock--310,481; Lynn--309,356; Dawson--287,220; Hockley--212,403; Crosby--189,244; Gaines--176,290; Terry--172,896; Hale--157,797; Martin--143,036; Lamb--141,567; Floyd--131,368; Bailey--82,148; Cochran--71,992; Yoakum--61,782, Garza--34,612.

In the Precinct 4 Commissioner's race, the vote was 86 to 77 for Nelson over White at New Home, 22-22 at Lakeview, 4 to 4 by absentee ballot, and Nelson led Nelson 92 to 79 in old Tahoka.

More Showers Benefit Some

Rain Saturday measured .55 inch in Tahoka, and ranged up to an inch or more north and northeast of town, bringing total for the recent "wet spell" in Tahoka to 2.35 inches, and total for the year to 3.83 inches. The rain was lighter over the south half of the county.

Irrigation farmers and some dryland farmers , especially in the north half of the county, this week were beginning or preparing to start planting.

Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. H.J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock, wife of the State Senator. Talking on the subject, "What it's like to be the wife of a Politician," Mrs. Blanchard told of the many advantages and frustrations she has encountered, but said she had gained much in appreciation of our great state, its history, achievements and statesmen such as Sam Houston, Stephen F. Austin, David Crockett and others.

She described the fine capitol building, built from Texas red granite and limestone, covering three acres of land and having 18 acres of floor space. She also told of the governor's mansion, articles each governor's wife contributes to the furnishings.

In the One-Act Play on Tuesday, April 30, three of the cast members were selected to All-Star Cast. They are Jayson Knox, Jona Valentine, and Richard Cranford.

The competition at these meets is somewhat difficult at certain times. These students and all who participated are to be congratulated on a job well done.

Tomorrow (May 10), a parent-sponsored activity will be held at the roadside park from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Students should bring a sack lunch and be prepared for fun. Volleyball and ping-pong will be among forms of entertainment. This is in honor of the junior high teachers and everyone in the seventh and eighth grades are invited.

Tuesday, May 7, the One-Act Play cast presented their play, a fantasy entitled "The Maker of Dreams". Academic awards were presented. The girl and boy in each grade (6, 7, &8) with the highest average was presented a small pin. They will be named next week.

The sixth grade classes held class meetings last Friday. Several students brought entertaining records , while others brought interesting relics to discuss. Cynthia Suniga brought a huge shell, Sylvia Tejeda presented a 1954 issue of the Lynn County News. Vickie Jolly brought a hamster, and Pam Witt showed her collection of miniature cats. Ralph Huffaker showed movies of snow sledding in Ruidosa.

Baseball is the main interest these days, but sixth graders still manage to do some work. They are completing a study of the newspaper.

SALES & SERVICE

After the Sale - It's the Service that Counts

Carolyn Haley Says. . .

Home canning and freezing are coming back. Not that they went out of style, but many incentives have restored popularity in these arts. Economy for instance and improved methods for making canned and frozen products better.

Now is the time to figure out your family's needs and take into consideration what you will can and freeze as the time approaches.

Have you wondered about the differences in water - bath and pressure cooker processing of foods in home canning?

The water-bath method is used for processing acid fruits and vegetables (such as fruits, rhubarb, and tomatoes) and is done using a pan with a lid and rack. The rack is used to hold the jars off the bottom of the cooker. The pan is large enough to cover the jars with one or two inches of water, so that the jars are surrounded with boiling water. The lid is used to help retain the heat. The acid in some fruits and vegetables helps prevent the growth of some bacteria which is the reason the water-bath process can be used. Micro-organisms that grow in canned foods can be destroyed by boiling temp. within a reasonable period of time.

However, low acid fruits and vegetables must be canned using a pressure cooker. The spores ("seeds") of some bacteria are highly resistant to heat, which makes it necessary for them to be destroyed by high heat. This is accomplished with the pressure cooker.

What are foods processed by these methods? The water bath is used for fruits, tomatoes, and rhubarb. The pressure cooker is used for such foods as meat, poultry, seafood and most vegetables.

Before it's time to fill that freezer again, make sure it is defrosted. Many freezers now defrost automatically. If you have a non-automatic chest-type model, scrape the frost when it is one-third inch thick. Turn off the electricity. Move as much food as possible to one part of the chest or take it out and wrap it in a blanket or newspaper. Spread towels on the bottom to absorb the moisture. Scrape off the frost with a wooden or plastic scraper, not metal.

After thawing, wash inside of freezer with soda solution, 3 tablespoons baking soda to 1 quart water. Rinse, wipe dry and turn on the electricity. When the moisture in the freezer is frozen, return the food.

AROUND TOWN

BY LEONA WALDRIP

CALL 998-4496

Funeral services were held in First Baptist Church of Idalou on Tuesday for Mrs. Mary Beal. Mary Cunningham, a sister-in-law attended from here.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Opal Drager the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Drager of Ponca City, Okla. Their son, J.E., is a student at L.C.C. in Lubbock and had been hospitalized for several days with a severe attack of asthma. He was released on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Gaither were again called to the bedside of his brother who is critically ill in Spokane, Washington. They left by plane on Friday. This is the second trip the Gaithers have made to his bedside since the first of the year.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Faye Thayer on Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Winnie Young, and granddaughter, Tracy of O'Donnell.

Mrs. Beula Atkins left Tuesday morning to visit a few days in Brownfield with Mrs. Sally Duncan, and other friends there.

Visiting with me on Monday was a grandson, Mike Waldrip, of Lubbock. I also visited the Randall Waldrips in Lamesa on Saturday.

Fern Hillhouse was hostess on Monday night when 12 ladies met for a session of 88 playing. Lovely refreshments were served and everyone reported a good time.

Trudy Schuknecht was hostess for a Tupperware Party on Friday night.

Mrs. Dora Carpenter writes from Des Moines, Washington that her son there was to enter the hospital again for possible back surgery. Her daughter-in-law was also to have eye surgery this past Monday. Mrs. Carpenter went for a 3 month visit in January which has been stretched to five months and she doesn't know now when she will be home. At least she didn't have to suffer the sandstorms with us. She says "hello" to all her friends and neighbors.

Minnie McMillan, mother of Mrs. Willie Childress has been moved from Lynn County Hospital to Colonial Nursing Home.

The Hospital seemed to have fewer patients than for a long time when we checked on Monday. Could it be that the letting up of the sandstorms has something to do with it?

Phebe K. Club Has Meetings

Phebe K. Warner Study Club has had two very interesting meetings for the month of April.

On April 16, clubmembers met at the Community Room of the First National Bank with Mrs. J.D. Atwell serving as hostess. Mrs. Atwell, Mrs. Eddy Holloway, Mrs. Bill Burns and Miss Betsy Trapp, 5th grade teachers presented four students who competed in U.I.L. contest. The students who presented their readings were Tammie Kelley, Karen Stewart, Chris Gass, and Randall Stotts.

The program was presented by Mrs. Allo Reeve of Friona. Mrs. Reeve gave a very informative and entertaining presentation about the White House brides. These included all women who have been married in the White house, the latest of which was Tricia Nixon. Mrs. Reeve has duplicated the wedding gowns of the brides and displayed them on dolls. She had a great deal of history to explain each bride and several interesting and little known facts about the circumstances of the wedding.

The next meeting was held April 30 in the home of Mrs. M.J. Huffaker. Mrs. Truett Smith, Public Affairs Chairman presented "Women Who Dare". Mrs. Smith talked about outstanding women throughout history ranging from Joan of Arc to Billie Jean King. Each woman discussed has made some kind of worthwhile contribution to society.

Mrs. Elmer Owens and Mrs. Jim Wells were elected to be voting delegates at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs State Convention to be held at San Antonio May 6 - 10. Mrs. Harold Green will be installed as Caprock District President during convention.

The last club meeting of the year will be held May 14 when officers for 1974-76 will be installed.

At the close of the morning services Sunday in the New Home Baptist Church, Joe D. Unfred called for attention, and in his usually good manner as a master of ceremony he gave the following speech. "In the beginning, let it be known that what I am about to say was not a church voted project. In fact, several participants were not members of this church, or even a Church member. Our committee of "Columns" or "Heards" as we were referred to many times , finally came up with a slogan, to be stated simply, 'To do something nice for Leo Cole'. You'll note it didn't even say Rev. or Bro., and the list when complete will also show this project was truly a labor of love. The fact that the project was completed in two days speaks for itself as being a winner from the beginning. Leo, last week after the revival, a big bunch of people couldn't catch you to drop a little change in your pocket because you were jumping around here like a jack rabbit with the D.T.'s so rather than chase you all over the building to watch your version of the Baptist Bunny Hop, a few of the boys and girls in the back room decided to drop a little change of their own. Monday it was pretty fast; Tuesday looked even better; and Wednesday about 9:30 it was finished. To the original goal, it has now surpassed, and we are certain others will want in before we are all wrapped up. Peggy, we are hopeful there will be some change to help on that dining room furniture you were looking at yesterday. Oh, Yeah, almost forgot--here are the keys to that new green car parked out here by the flag pole. Let's all go out and see if he can reach the pedals."

With this Joe pitched the keys to the awestruck preacher and the crowd followed he and his wife and two daughters to the church yard where a beautiful green automobile was waiting. A gift of love from the people in the communities in which he spends so much time ministering to those in need.

Preliminary statistics on cotton ginnings from the U.S. Bureau of Census show the 25 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., of Lubbock, accounted for 2,779,805 gin-run bales or 15.5 percent of a 12,594,370 - bale national crop. High Plains ginnings come to 61.7 percent of the 4,500 544 - bale Texas total, according to PCG figures.

The national average net weight per bale ginned from the 1973 crop was 493.8 pounds, so the U.S. running bale total converts to 12,956,458 bales of 480 pounds net weight. In Texas average net bale weights were 501.9 pounds, highest in the nation, bringing the net weight bale total for this state, 4,705,881.

Although official figures are not compiled, indications are that the average weight of gin-run bales on the High Plains was higher than both state and national averages. The average net bale weight from three area compresses checked by PCG came to 503 pounds. If this figure is applied to all High Plains cotton, the area ginnings in net weight bales comes to just over 2.9 million, well above the 2,725,000 net weight bales estimated earlier by the joint PCG-Lubbock Cotton Exchange Estimating Committee.

The Bureau of Census ginning figures are broken down by counties but are not an accurate indication of county-by-county production because of significant amounts of cotton produced in one county and ginned in another. Actual county production figures in net weight bales will be released later by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, and these will be used as the "official" High Plains production figures.

The trend to heavier bale weights, begun in 1971 as the natural result of the change to net weight trading and more expensive bagging and ties, is expected to end in 1974 because of new Texas Cotton Association trade rules which impose stiff penalties on both heavy and light weight bales. TCA members handle some 80 percent of the Texas crop each year, and its trade rules for 1974 call for a penalty of $5 on bales weighing from 330 to 379 pounds and from 551 to 575 pounds. Below 330 pounds and above 575 pounds the penalty will be $10 per bale, plus the "right to reject." Only bales weighing between 380 and 550 pounds will escape penalty and this will force a deliberate reduction in bale sizes, PCG reasons.

The penalties, according to TCA, were adopted as a result of loading problems caused by odd sizes and broken bands at Texas ports.

Agriculture Makes Advances

"Texas agriculture is on the threshold of a technological and production explosion, brought on by pressures of a world-wide demand for food and fiber," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said this week.

"We completed a record-smashing year in Texas agriculture in 1973, with cash receipts totaling near $5 billion. For the first time in a generation, our farm and ranch families began to make a decent wage while serving as the main contributors to the highest standard of living in the world," said White.

"These successes have brought with them some problems," the 49-year - old commissioner noted. "The big demand for our products abroad has caused domestic price increases for our own consumers.

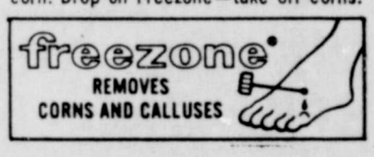

"Our big challenge ahead is to increase our production to meet these needs and relieve some of the pressure on our own food prices."

White said a guaranteed supply of fuel and fertilizers for our farmers and ranchers is the key to increased production. "We must take all necessary steps to assure these supplies for our agricultural operations if our state economy is to remain strong," he added.

Commissioner White is seeking re-election to the farm pose he first attained at the age of 25. "Despite our industrial advances, Texas is still, first and foremost, an agricultural state, dependent upon a healthy and vital farm economy. My goal is to see Texas become not only first in farm sales but also seek fair profits for the producers at reasonable prices for consumers."

Nursing Home News

Corine Izard reporting the happenings here at the nursing home.

The good rains we have had; I'm sure the farmers are getting ready to get those tractors going.

We were glad to have Mrs. Irma Clayton, LVN here for four days relieving Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Underwood. Peggy said she spent her days off planting a garden. When she has a lot of good fresh vegetables out of her garden we will go and eat with her.

Mrs. Minnie McMillan, mother of Willie Mae Childress, is our newest patient. Minnie was very ill in the Lynn County Hospital for three or four weeks, but Dr. Wright thought her condition had stabilized so we hope she improves. Mrs. Bob Barnett sits with her from midnight until 8 a.m.

The weeds are sure growing fast now with the rains we have had and the flowers Mrs. Winnie Kizziar set out never knew they were moved. Also our rose bushes are blooming, the four o'clocks are coming up and before we know it, flowers will be everywhere.

R.J. Sessums and Slim Elliott surprised us all with cake and ice cream. Also Mrs. Price served us coffee and donuts and drinks. Food is one way of getting some of the patients out of their rooms. Some of the patients go outside for walks around the building.

Bro. Leroy Jones and several members came Sunday for our church services. Bro. Jones read I Corinthians, chapter 13. I think every person should read and study this chapter every day and we will find we are guilty of so many things. We say we love but if we do any of the things in chapter 13, we find we don't love. I don't have the words to bring out the wonderful things Bro. Jones reminded us we should do.

Roy Campbell went to the rodeo Saturday night and got soaking wet but suffered no ill effects.

Mr. Arthur Dial had several visitors over the weekend who were here for the funeral of Pat Hines, a nephew of Mr. Dial's. Pat was so faithful to come and take Arthur to town until he had his first heart attack a little over a year ago. Our prayers are with Pat's wife and family.

Our birthday people for this month are Mrs. Fermana Ortiz and Mrs. Zoria Sessums.

Mary Ann Stark continues to come and play the piano for us all. She really stays busy these days with working at the hospital, coming to see us and taking care of her family also. We appreciate you very much, Mary Ann.

Thank you for the flowers from Mothers Harvick and Carpenter. The flowers were sent to the Baptist Church by Lawrence and Ruby Harvick by the Harvick children in honor of their mother. Also thanks to Betty Ehler for the roses brought Monday by Mrs. Veta Ford. They are lovely.

Our singing is wonderful as usual.

Girl Scouts Take Lubbock Field Trip

Jr. Girl Scout Troop No. 396 went on a field trip to Lubbock on Saturday, April 27. First we went to the Mall. We went through Hall's Art Gallery. We saw lots of pretty paintings and metal sculpture. Then each patrol took turns touring Lynda's Indian Room. This was very interesting and we enjoyed it. Next we went thru the pet shop. We all saw a cute puppy we wanted. One kept jumping over the gate into the other puppies' cages. A couple of girls wanted to buy hamsters, but Mrs. Porterfield said "No". We all had a snack before we left the Mall.

We then went to Space Park where we went down the slide and over a bridge to the planet Moon. We climbed on Saturn and swung on the rockets. We met some nice people and we helped some little girls play on the swings and things. It was a lot of fun.

We went to Roll Arena at 5 and skated until 7. Some of the girls worked on their skater badge. We played skater Bingo and Cathy Meeks won. Amy Porterfield won the limbo game. We fell down some and we got to ride skate boards. Some of us spent more time on the floor than we did standing up. We all had sore spots.

We ate at K-Chef before coming home. On our way home we ran into a rain and wind and sandstorm. It was really scary as we were telling ghost stories. Mrs. Brown's car window wouldn't go up so we had to hold towels and cushions against it. We sang too. Every minute was fun. Mrs. Porterfield told us she was proud of the way we behaved. Some people had gone up to her and Mrs. Brown and told them how nice we were. Maybe we can go back.

We had seventeen girls coming home that night just waiting for the next time we can all be together and have just as much fun. Thanks to Mrs. Porterfield and Mrs. Brown for taking us.

Mailbox Improvement

The Postal Service designates a week during May each year when customers on rural delivery routes are encouraged to examine and improve, where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes. The week of May 20-25 has been selected this year.

The purpose of Mail Box Improvement Week is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather and are neat in appearance, conveniently located and safe to use. Mailboxes that meet the above four important requirements contribute to a more efficient delivery operation, and the result of an improved service to the entire route.

An inspection will be made of each of Tahoka's rural routes during May, and the owners of mailboxes needing attention will be notified as to the specific improvements needed. The cooperation of all rural customers is earnestly solicited.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Blind Corner

Alex dutifully halted his car at the stop sign. At that point, which was about 30 feet back from the corner, his vision of the intersection was blocked by some high bushes. Nevertheless, he moved briskly into the crossing.

Result: a collision with a car coming along the other street.

Was Alex guilty of negligence? He insisted that he was not, pointing out in a court hearing that he had brought his car to a full stop at the sign.

"That's all the law requires," he said. "I stopped, looked, and listened at the designated place."

But the court found him guilty of negligence anyhow. The court said a "blind" corner imposes an extra duty on motorists—regardless of stop signs or traffic signals—to proceed with caution.

The law does recognize, however, that caution is a matter of degree. For example:

Another man also entered an intersection that he could not see because of shrubbery. But this time, the man edged forward at a snail's pace, glancing in both directions. Even though he still got in the way of an oncoming car and caused a collision, a court ruled afterward that he could not be held legally liable.

"The law does not require the impossible," said the court. "One cannot be held guilty of negligence because he is unable to see through impenetrable objects or to bend his vision around them."

What about the responsibility for making the intersection blind in the first place? Unless a special statute so provides, the local government ordinarily cannot be held liable for this kind of hazard.

However, courts have occasionally placed the blame on a private property owner who has brought such an obstruction into existence. Liability has been based on the theory that the condition of his premises could foreseeably cause some luckless motorist, some day, to get hurt.
