Slow Rain Drenches County To 2.7 Inches Late Sunday

Slow rain which started at mid-afternoon Sunday, May 20, drenched the county with up to 2.7 inches of much needed moisture to put farming operations in top form.

The area around Wellington and the south-central portion of the county received the greatest amount of moisture, with some rain gauges showing up to 2.5 inches.

The rainfall was lighter in the area southeast of Wellington, through the Kelley area where .7 was reported at the Joe Tarver farm, and around Dodson.

The L.C. Hill farm at Arlie had from .6 to .7 inch.

The Samnorwood area and in other sections north of Salt Fork, moisture ranged from one-half to an inch and a half. Sheriff John Rainey reported 1.5 inch measured 7 miles east of Lutie.

Rainfall was also lighter west and northwest of Wellington. Approximately an inch was reported through the Quail area and north through Marella to Salt Fork River.

Only one-half inch was received in the Lillie-Salt Fork section.

With this moisture, the county may harvest its best wheat crop in a number of years, growers report, although high hot winds late last week damage some acreage.

In the south part of the county, the crop is reported as "beginning to turn, hip high and with great long heads."

Some estimates in the Dodson area are as high as 25 to 30 bushels per acre for dryland wheat. This will range down to poor yields in areas spotted over the county.

Collingsworth growers said they intended to harvest 26,860 acres of wheat when the government farm program sign-up period ended April 30.

Much of the cotton and grain sorghum is already planted, and some of this is up.

County farmers reported intended planting figures of 12,123 acres of grain sorghum and 72,619 acres of cotton on May 30.

Dr. P.K.N. Kumar to Open Medical, Surgical Practice in Wellington

Collingsworth General Hospital board voted unanimously Wednesday, May 16 to enter into an agreement with Parsanna K.N. Kumar, M.D., which will result in Kumar's opening a medical and surgical practice here later this year.

Kumar notified hospital administrator Morris Barcroft Tuesday, May 22 that he would accept the terms of the agreement and would begin plans to move to Wellington. He told Barcroft it might be several months before he could set up a practice here.

Kumar, 41, is currently on the staff of St. Francis Hospital in Charleston, West Virginia. He also has practiced in his native India, in Great Britain and in Jamaica.

Kumar is licensed to practice in West Virginia and he has already made application for reciprocal licensing to practice in Texas, Barcroft said. Kumar said he owns a home in Great Britain where his wife and family are currently living and said that it could take several months for him to sell that house and move his family to Wellington.

Under the terms of the agreement the hospital will guarantee Kumar a yearly income of $60,000 in monthly payments for one year. In other words, the hospital will make up the difference between actual income and $60,000 for the first year. And the provision of the agreement states that if Kumar's net income rises above $60,000 for the first year, he will refund the overage to the hospital district up to the amount the district paid as a supplement.

Other provisions of the agreement call for the district to provide free office space and pay the salaries of a nurse and secretary for one year, and to pay 50% of the doctor's malpractice insurance for one year.

The agreement also calls for financial help and office facilities for a second year that would be negotiated at that time.

Bloodmobile Here On Thursday

Collingsworth residents will seek to fill the goal of 118 units of blood Thursday, May 24, during the visit of the Red River Red Cross Regional Bloodmobile in Wellington.

It will be at Bura Handley Community Center from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Participation in the Red Cross Blood Program insures that Collingsworth General will receive all the blood and blood components it may need for patient care.

It also makes it possible for county residents to receive blood in any hospital in the nation which accepts the Red Cross Blood Program. There is no charge for the blood which can be as high as $50 per unit, but there is a charge for processing the blood and for the laboratory work involved.

Six to Graduate From Norwood

Graduation activities for six Samnorwood seniors begin Sunday, May 27, when the baccalaureate service is held, with the commencement to follow on Tuesday, May 29. The eighth grade promotion program will be Monday, May 28. All will be at 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Truman Teel, Church of Christ minister from Dill City, Okla., will preach the baccalaureate sermon.

Jimmy Breeding will give the invocation and James Martindale the benediction. Both have sons in the graduating class.

Mrs. Larry Waters will play the processional and recessional.

The seniors will give their own commencement program, with Lowry Schaub giving the valedictory and Randy Breeding the salutatory address.

Mike Bentley will introduce the parents.

Kenneth Martindale, high school principal, will present the awards, and the seniors will receive diplomas from Jim Ray, president of the school.

RETIREES

Juanita Hopper is retiring after 28 years as director of the Wellington School cafeteria. Thursday, May 17, cafeteria employees surprised her with a farewell party and the money tree and luggage are among her gifts. Special guests were her husband, G.B. (Goat) Hopper, and her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry B. Bollen, Mr. and Mrs. Van Bollen and Gregory, and Vince Bollen of Amarillo, and Mrs. Steve Black and Fara of Muleshoe. She came to Wellington in September 1933 to work in Goat's Cafe. She continued there after they sold the business in 1947.

Fifty-two Will Graduate at Wellington Commencement Friday

Fifty-two Wellington High School seniors will graduate in the baccalaureate-commencement Friday, May 25, as one of the larger classes of recent years.

The ceremony will be in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

The Rev. Ron Wheeler, pastor of First Christian Church, will be the graduation speaker.

The other addresses will be the valedictory by Robert Burba and salutatory by Don Lewis.

During the program, first the senior class will sing, with Renessa Cardwell as accompanist, and at the end of the evening, Vanessa Ingram and Jeanne Morris will lead the audience in singing the school song.

Awards will be presented by Mrs. Gary Brewer, a class sponsor; Melvin Cardwell, principal will present the class for graduation.

Diplomas will be presented by Supt. E.W. Clement and two members of the school board who have daughters graduating, V.K. Orr, Jr. and Jerol Morris.

The Rev. Tom Thomson, pastor of First United Methodist Church, will give the invocation and the Rev. Enos Childs, of Fundamental Baptist Church, the benediction.

Rev. Wheeler came here in early September from Amarillo, where he was intern chaplain at High Plains Hospital.

He is a graduate of Tascosa High School, Amarillo, and studied at a Christian College in Joplin, Mo., then received his theological degree from Dallas Christian College in 1976 and Bachelor of Theology degree in 1978.

Graduation Set Friday at Quail

Five seniors will be graduated from Quail High School Friday, May 25, when the commencement program is held in the new school cafeteria. The time will be 8:00 p.m.

In the same ceremony, five eighth grade students will graduate from junior high.

All students in each graduating class will have a part on the program. Mrs. Sheila Wade of the Quail faculty will be in charge of the music.

The valedictorian of the

The processional, Pomp and Circumstance, will be played by Renessa Cardwell, and the recessional, the Triumphal March from Aida, by Melanie Watts.

Taking part in the graduation exercises Friday will be David Baumgardner, Rosa

Water: Too Much, Too Little Plagues City Council

The City Council took action Monday night, May 21, to get surplus rain water away from one part of Wellington and to get an adequate supply of city water to another that now receives only a dribble.

Herbert Bearden and E.S. Hale, Jr. who live in the 1700 block of East Avenue told the council that water from even moderate rains comes up into their yards and Hale reported flooding to his cellar.

This is a recurring problem and council members pointed out that this water drains from a large area south of 15th street and as far away as the Leslie Moore Addition. Development of southwest Wellington as a residential area has increased the amount of runoff water which drains into the East Avenue area where Bearden and Hale live.

Councilman Willie Gragson, a highway department engineer, was appointed to take over this problem and secure needed help in finding a solution.

Duggie Jameson, who operates Jameson Aero-Ag, asked the council why it has not laid the water line it approved from the 15th Street-Highway 83 area to Marian Airpark.

There is a small line to the airpark, but it takes six hours to run 500-600 gallons he pointed out. In peak spraying seasons, he uses around 4,000 gallons of water per day, he said. Jameson pointed out that since it approved the water line to the airpark vicinity, it has bought a hangar at the airpark.

City manager Glen Taylor explained that the water line is not forgotten and that borings under Highway 83 and 15th Street were made at a time when a construction company with equipment for this work was here.

The council reviewed the plan it approved earlier which calls for a 6-inch water line to the Airport and a 4" line beyond that. It would serve several homes and industries in the airport area, including Southwestern Rail's proposed steel mill. The Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation has its own well, Gragson said.

In discussion afterward, it was brought out that the water line is one of the projects the council has approved but made no arrangements to fund.

At Mayor Bill Hatch's suggestion, one or more work meetings were approved in which to set up priorities for the city, and make plans for funding. These will be held before budget-making time.

The council also approved a motion by Tom Wilkins and second by Ralph Owens to sell the hangar to which Jameson referred, something it had discussed doing in earlier meetings. Bids will be taken and opened at the June 17 meeting.

Sheriff John Rainey and three of his deputies met with the council to exchange ideas and discuss needs. Rainey said with his staff at full strength, he will begin picking up junk cars.

Taylor told the council the city will operate the swimming pool at Marian Airpark this summer, with Coach James Yarnell, Cheryl Brown and Jeanne Morris as employees. Mrs. Brown has her Red Cross life saving certificate.

Considerable repair work has been completed, the pool is being filled and will be open Monday, June 4.

Swimming lessons will be given this summer if there is enough interest. An equalization board was approved to be drawn from Mack Saied, Jr., Ernest Harwell, Alvin Horton, R.T. Savage, J.L. Harper and Bob Barton.

Councilman Wilkins asked that the street sweeper be put to work to operate on all surfaced streets in Wellington. Taylor agreed to this and said he will assign Alfred Castor as the operator.

The city manager also said that a number of stray dogs and skunks have been caught, but that part of the traps have been stolen. These are

Offices Close Monday for Memorial Day

Government offices on the federal, state, county and city levels will be closed Monday, May 28 in observance of Memorial Day.

This is also a bank holiday. Three businesses have announced plans to close, Saied's Department Store, Hatch Dry Goods, and The Fair.

Other businesses have made no announcement, but grocery stores usually are open, as well as all businesses who sell any type of supplies to farmers, now in the middle of their planting season.

Junior High Graduates Sixty-Eight Thursday

Sixty-eight boys and girls will receive diplomas in the graduation exercise of Wellington Junior High eighth grade Thursday, May 24.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The students will present their own program-in which Jim Warrick will give the valedictory and Matthew Hanna the salutatory address. An instrumental ensemble, directed by Jamie Larson, band director, will be heard.

Bob Allen, principal, will present the class to Supt. E.W. Clement, who will award the diplomas.

As the invocation, Nancy Guajardo will lead the Lord's Prayer and the benediction will be by Tresa Benton. Lisa Powell will play the processional and recessional.

The eighth graders are Ruth Alexander, Mickey Anglin, James Baker, Tommy Baker, Randy Barnett, Susan Barnett, Tresa Benton, Leslie Birkey, Kim Black, Lloyd Bland, Irma Cantu, Rosmary Castillo, Maximilian sunflower in bloom along Elm Creek in northeastern Collingsworth County.

Native Aztec Sunflower Now Available for Planting Here

'Aztec Maximilian sunflower, a native forb relished by livestock and wildlife, has been released by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. A forb is a herbaceous plant that is not a grass, sedge, or rush.

Tommy Powell, district conservationist for SCS at Wellington, said the new variety was selected for use in range seeding.

"A lot of livestock producers in Texas would like to include seed of a native plant used by livestock and wildlife - especially deer and game birds - in range seeding mixtures," Powell said. "But seed for such plants simply are not available.

"But 'Aztec' Maximilian sunflower will change that," Powell continued. "We anticipate a heavy demand for the seed as soon as it is available."

Powell said that commercial seed growers will be planting 'Aztec' in 1979. A small amount of seed should be available for use in range seeding mixtures in 1979 and 1980.

Maximilian sunflower is native to most of the grasslands of the Southwest, but the plant is so relished by livestock and wildlife that it has been killed out on most rangeland. "I have found native stands of it along Elm Creek in northeastern Collingsworth County," Powell said, "and it is also occasionally grown as an ornamental flower."

The high protein content of Maximilian sunflower make it especially attractive to deer, cattle, sheep, horses, and goats. The plant is so palatable that several test plantings have been killed by overgrazing from cattle and deer. Birds eat the seeds readily and the tall, dense growth provides cover for several species of wildlife.

'Aztec' is being released by SCS in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Foundation seed can be purchased by commercial seed growers from the Foundation Seed Service, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.

For seed production purposes, about one pound of pure live seed per acre should be planted. For range seeding mixtures, .25 to .5 pounds should be planted.

Disco Inferno Theme of Eighth Grade Banquet Friday Evening

Disco Inferno was the theme chosen for the 1979 eighth grade banquet, Friday, May 18, at the Bura Handley Community Center.

Greeting the guests in the entry area was a Psychedelic sign with dancing couples spelling out the theme.

The banquet room was a glow with lights and glitter. The carousel ceiling was in waves of red, white and metallic streamers. The focal point was the strobe-lighted John Travolta silhouettes discoing across the walls. Refreshments were served from the disco bar, while revolving lights and silver covered the area.

Students and guests were seated at tables of four, centered with flaming "disco infernos".

Black paper records served as program covers and place cards. The beverages were served in party glasses, inscribed with Disco Inferno - Wellington Jr. High - 1979. Carla Nunneley gave the invocation. The 7th grade servers, Sandy Cobb, Lisa Powell, Cindy Barton, Allison Neeley, De Ann Williams, Suzanne Campbell, Amy Williams and Mary Torrez, dressed in bright satin ruffled dresses, complete with disco dust and matching booties, served the dinner.

Disco music was played during the banquet period.

Following the meal, Darren Hall welcomed guest to the Disco Mania of 1979. Belinda Crelia and Matthew Hanna Martin Granados, Ruben Granados, Nancy Guajardo, future Seniors of 1983.

The 7th grade servers presented their own version of a night at the Disco.

The last will and testament was given by Stacy King and Jim Warrick, many precious "possessions" were left behind for the 7th graders.

Rhyming in disco was Rodney Nash. Renee Daniel and Dru Lacy used their fortune telling powers to tell of the famous class of '79.

Completing the program were the 8th grade girls, singing "The Way We Were", accompanied by Valerie Van Pelt. The closing benediction was by Wade Williams.

The 8th Grade Class of '79 was led by the following officers: Darren Hall president; Stacy King, vice-president; Greg Outley, secretary; Jim Warrick, treasurer; John Paul Munn, reporter and sponsored by Bob Allen, principal and James Chappell.

Eighth graders were entertained with a party sponsored by the parents following the banquet.

Leather Needs Care

Leather's "fashion look" for fall will take special care, a clothing specialist advises.

Smooth leather and suede with its textured look need different care techniques, according to Nancy Brown with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

However, both will last longer if given the proper care, she adds.

SMOOTH LEATHER

Garments made of smooth leather do not require much care.

Let smooth-leather garments dry naturally. Wash off spots with warm water and soap. Then wipe dry with a clean damp cloth.

SUEDE

These garments need frequent brushing. Use a dry bristle brush or a rubber sponge to prevent dirt from settling in the nap.

Art gum eraser or emery board can remove stains usually.

If suede becomes wet, allow it to dry away from heat-and rub it with a terry cloth towel to bring up the nap.

STORING LEATHER

Hang all leather garments on padded hangers to prevent misshapen shoulders or marks left by wire hangers.

"ERASING" WRINKLES

To get rid of wrinkles, hang the garment in a damp place, such as a steamy bathroom, overnight. If wrinkles remain, press the garment with a "dry iron" technique.

Set the iron on a rayon setting and use heavy wrapping paper as a press cloth.

Press on the top side with quick light strokes.

PROFESSIONAL CLEANING Leather garments need professional cleaning treatment. Don't try to save money and clean leather garments yourself. Let a professional do this job.

MRS. W.W. NEELEY

Mrs. W.W. Neeley Quietly Observes Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. W.W. Neeley, who has called Collingsworth County home for more than 70 years, marked her ninetieth birthday, on April 21.

It was a quiet day for the honoree, with only a few relatives and close friends dropping by during the afternoon with birthday greetings.

A sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Powell, with their daughters and grandchildren, arrived during the day with a birthday cake.

A friend, Mrs. Alvin Horton, assisted with the arrangements.

Mrs. Neeley lives alone and cares for her house with-out help.

The former Flossie Cummings, she was born April 21, 1889, at Whitewright, the oldest child of W.E. and RLee Reeves Cummings, who came to Texas from Kentucky. Mrs. Cummings was a granddaughter of the Revolutionary patriot, Patrick Henry.

Pathfinders Meet Monday

Pathfinders of First United Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Johnny Henard Monday, May 21.

Mrs. Robert Owens presented the program, a skit entitled "The Tater Family."

Ms. Patty Tucka, representative of the Red River Red Cross Blood Program, Wichita Falls, informed the Pathfinders about the bloodmobile which will be in Wellington Thursday, May 24. She explained the services of the Red Cross as they relate to the donation and use of blood.

Mrs. Jerry Lewis presided at the business meeting.

Those attending were Mrs. Joel Rainey, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Bill Spillman, Mrs. Tom Thomson, Mrs. Adolf Schmidt, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Rex Henard, Beki Henard, and the hostess, Mrs. Johnny Henard.

The Cummings family came to Collingsworth County in 1907 in a covered wagon.

She attended the schools of her area and then studied at Mary Hardin-Baylor College, which retained its status as a girls school until the mid-20th century.

She is a member of First Baptist Church.

She was married to W.W. Neeley on November 1, 1938, in Oklahoma City. He too was a member of an early area family. Mrs. Neeley died a number of years ago.

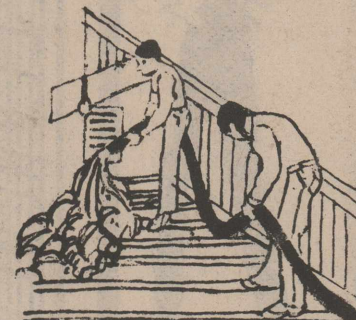

Of the eight Cummings brothers and sisters, five survive: Mrs. Neeley, Palo Cummings, also of Wellington; Bill Cummings and Logan Cummings of Austin; and Mrs. Jewell Powell of Amarillo.

Quail Club Meets May 17

The Quail Friendship Club met in the home of Mrs. Ira Morgan Thursday afternoon, May 17.

Members present were Mrs. Pat O'Hair, Mrs. Mary Clay, Mrs. O.L. Hartman, Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. Truett Stovall, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Monty Mitchell.

The Past, Stepping Stones to Future Discussed by Mrs. B.M. Sims at DAR

La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Monday, May 21, at Cherokee Inn Restaurant dining room with Mrs. Boyd Derryberry as hostess. The regent, Mrs. J.D. Coleman, was in charge of the meeting.

This was the last meeting of the D.A.R. year.

The guest speaker was Mrs. B.M. Sims, president-elect of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and a regent of West Texas State University, who spoke on "Our Past Makes the Stepping Stones to the future."

Mrs. Sims talk was based on "An Honest Preface" by Walter Prescott Webb, history professor at the University of Texas for 40 years, whose writings included "The Great Plains" and "The Texas Rangers," won national recognition.

Dr. Webb inspired his students to see the interest in their own locality and the numerous books written by his former students on various aspects of local history is evidence of that influence. He believed that as the historian recorded events, the poet and the novelist breathes life into them, creating the love for one's own people and land.

Mrs. Sims talk was illuminated by a group of displays illustrating sources of local history. The table labeled "Records of Nature and Man" contained artifacts ranging from fossils to letters bearing the post marks of early post offices in the county.

The table titled "Consumer Products" held regional cook books, handicrafts made from household items and samples of preserves and lye soap.

The table designated "Visual and Performing Arts" contained programs of musical and dramatic events and catalogs and brochures of exhibitions of Panhandle Artists.

Periodicals and books dealing with Texas formed another group. The displays were colorful and illustrated the points of Mrs. Sims talk.

The defense report, given by Miss Rita Lowrie, was from an article, "Prayers in Public Schools," written by Senator Jesse A. Helms of North Carolina. The Senate opens each day's session with prayer but the Supreme court has denied this right to millions of school children. The interpretation of the first amendment used by the Supreme court to strike down this practice distorted the intent and language of the amendment. Senator Helms has introduced a bill that would restore voluntary prayer in the public schools.

In a interview with "Conservative Digest," General John K. Singlaub gave his reason for opposing the use of women in combat. he cited women's lack of bodily strength, lack psychological strength, effect on men in combat and the reaction of other nations. As General Singlaub puts it, "A sociological experiment shouldn't take precedence over national preparedness."

Attending were Mrs. H. H. Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Derryberry, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, Miss Lowrie, Mrs. R.C. McNett, Mrs. Velman Warrick, Mrs. W.L. White, Miss Hattie D. Wells and guests, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Tom Birchfield and Mrs. Murray Dodson.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

To make sure the flat top sheets on your bed are not knocked out of place at the bottom or sides, tie a knot in each corner and this should keep the sheet in place. But do remember to untie those knots before laundering.

Believe it or not, a hand-held hair dryer can be a terrific aid around the house when cleaning. By turning the dryer on to "cool," you can use it to blow out dust and lint from the tightest corners and areas where your vacuum cannot reach. Try the dryer when dusting your sewing machine and other household articles requiring regular dusting.

Tap rubber headed tacks into the underside of the corners on your pastry board. The board won't slide on the counter as you roll dough.

Turn the lining under and tack to the edge of the lining on the inside of the sleeve. Top stitch on the same seam where the belt was previously stitched. Before starting, baste the sleeve lining close to the edge of the sleeve to keep it in place while working.

Ron Phillips Sentenced to 10 Years on Charge of Theft

Ron Phillips was found guilty of theft by a 100th District Court Jury, which set his sentence at 10 years in the penitentiary.

Judge Robert Montgomery of Memphis, who heard the case Tuesday, May 15, set May 29 for the date of sentencing, according to District Attorney Charles Darter.

He said Phillips was indicted in June 1978, on a charge alleging that he (Phillips) was hired to build an addition onto the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anders, and that they paid him approximately $6,900 to pay for labor and supplies to be used. Testimony brought out that nothing was done, according to the district attorney.

Phillips is presently free on bonds totaling $11,000.

Seven indictments were returned by a grand jury called into session Monday, May 21, Darter said.

Three of the indictments were returned against Vernon Charles Kelley, for aggravated rape, a first degree felony, kidnapping and unlawful use of a vehicle.

Carl Myers was indicted for felony bond jumping and escape from jail, according to the district attorney. He was originally charged with possession of marijuana and delivery of marijuana. He was caught a few hours after he escaped from county jail.

Thomas Hudson, Sr. 70, of 1201 Haskell Street, was indicted on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Hudson had been out of jail only a few days after serving a sentence for driving while intoxicated, first offense.

The other indictment was for theft over $10,000 against a man who is not yet in custody.

Nancy Horn Serves NOW Corps Program

Miss Nancy Horn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Horn, 1102 Garland, Plainview, student at the University of Texas, has been accepted to serve in OMS International's NOW Corps program. The Novice Overseas Witness Corps is especially planned to give young adults considering missionary service a short exposure to the spiritual, social, and physical needs of the people of another country.

She is the granddaughter of Roy Horn. Miss Horn has been appointed to the country of Japan. She is responsible for securing her own funds to cover expenses for this venture and will be given opportunities to use her particular abilities while assisting a veteran missionary in that country.

About 75 NOW Corpsmen will serve during the year in Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Haiti, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Spain, Taiwan, and the U.S. under the auspices of OMS International.

OMS International is an undenominational faith mission that specializes in evangelism, the training of a national ministry, and church growth in the nations it serves. Founded in 1901 by Charles Cowman, the OMS now has work in Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Greece, Haiti, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, and Spain.

Mixed Drink Tax Rebate Totals $128

Collingsworth County has received $128.95 as its share in the rebates from the state's mixed drink tax, according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

The total tax revenue in the county was $859.69 for the quarter including January, February and March.

Texas cities and counties receive a 15 percent rebate of the tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries under the law that legalized the sale of mixed drinks.

Bullock said mixed drink taxes generated $65.3 million for state, county and local governments in 1978.

The mixed drink tax is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and the city-county share is rebated on a quarterly basis by the Comptroller's office.

MR. AND MRS. MACK VINSON

Dorothy Jane Riggs Weds Mack Vinson in San Diego

Wedding vows were spoken by Dorothy Jane Riggs and Mack Vinson in a home wedding at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 24, with the Reverend Canon Herb Lazenby officiating. The double ring ceremony was held in the setting of an improvised altar of many palms and ferns surrounding the two stained glass windows which were originally in the interior of the First Baptist Church of Wellington, Texas. The couple stood on a beautifully designed silk rug which was found in the People's Republic of China, where they met in 1978 on a study tour with the American Society of Public Administration.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Riggs of Dallas, Texas, are parents of the bride. Mrs. Claudia Vinson of Birmingham, Alabama, is the mother of the groom. Mr. Vinson's home is in Hillsboro, Alabama where he is associated with National Aeronautics and Space Administration at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Alabama. Dr. of San Diego. Another Riggs is a professor in the School of Education, San Diego State University.

The bride's three-piece white knit suit was coordinated with taupe accessories which included a scarf bordered in violet and clasped with a gold initialed stick pin, a local restaurant. Following a two-day honeymoon at the Del Coronado pom poms, baby's breath, and ferns with white and violet Mr. Vinson left for New York

UDC Chapter Holds Service

Wellington members of the Childress Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, attended the Confederate Memorial Day Program in Childress Sunday, April 29.

These were Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. L.W. Wells, Mrs. Louise Vaughan, Mrs. Hiram L. Cudd, Mrs. Earl H. Yarbrough, Mrs. Dalton B. Vaughan, Mrs. C.O. Bodine, Mrs. John Coleman, and from Dodson, Mrs. B.B. Martin.

The theme was "In Memory of the Valor and Sacrifice Which Hallowed this Soil."

Mrs. Martin and Miss Coffee were among the members dressed in period costume.

Mrs. Martin gave a brief summary of the organization of the UDC by Caroline Meriwether Goodlet, then paid a memorial tribute to Mrs. B.E. Rushing of Childress, a UDC a Real daughter.

After a tribute to Confederate soldiers, Buddy Wilson noted there are 102 soldiers from that war buried in Childress County, two in Dodson Cemetery and two at Newlin.

Visiting Mrs. Nell Cook during Mother's Day were her children, Mrs. Dempsey Harrell of Borger, Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Cook of Roswell, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook of Ft. Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Colson and Billy of Lubbock were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Colson.

City, where he is currently assigned to the United Nations. The couple will be at home at 40 Sutton Place, Apartment 2-F, New York City after June 1.

Other data: Dr. Riggs is a graduate of North Texas State University, University of Kansas, and the University of California. Mr. Vinson is a graduate of the Athens State College and the University of Alabama, and has also attended the University of Oklahoma for additional graduate studies.

Among the friends and relatives in attendance were Mrs. Howard Riggs of Dallas, mother of the bride, and the two daughters of the groom, Miss Nancy Vinson, a graduate student at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, and Mrs. Elizabeth Yates and her husband, Charles Yates of Vacaville, California. Daughters of the bride included Mrs. Rebecca Hoffman, and her husband, Donald Hoffman, of Torrance, California, Ms. Beverly Holman and son, Jesse, of Eugene, Oregon, and Mrs. Patricia Crosthwaite, and her husband, William Crosthwaite in Huntsville, Alabama. Another Riggs in the out-of-town guest was Miss Shirley Filiatrault of Pasadena, California, who was also a member of the ASPA delegation to China. After the reception the members of the family and out-of-town guests were feted at a dinner party at a local restaurant.

1924 Study Club End Year With Festive Spring Luncheon

The last meeting of the current club year for members of 1924 Study Club was an unusually festive and coordinated luncheon. Hostesses were Mrs. R.C. McNett and Mrs. Leamon Bawcom.

Spring green cloths covered the tables. A compote of daisies centered the salad buffet; yellow baskets of yellow and white daisies were on the beverage and dessert buffet and on tables where place settings served the members.

The program, "Indoor Gardening," further enhanced the floral scene as Mrs. Chester Fires presented the subject with several live plants. Other visual aids from "Anne's Mini-greenhouse," categorized what to do and not to do for results on All Season Magic, Small Wonders, Double Duty Beauty, Portable Forests, Floral and Fragrant, Kitchen Gardens, Terrace Collections, Decorative Durables, Vigorous Vines, etc. The speakers dialogue was cleverly arranged from serious to humorous.

Member recipient of the surprise gift relating to the program subject was Mrs. Troy Gene Thomason. She received plantings from three unique types of foliage.

In a brief business session, the president, Mrs. Bill Beall updated members on the project for Summer Reading Program for Youth. She also asked the nominating committee to fill in any vacancies of the officer slate.

Those attending the luncheon were Mrs. Beall, Mrs. Sandy Covey, Mrs. R.R. Crawley, Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, Mrs. Fires, Mrs. Rodney Kane, Mrs. B.M. Sims, Mrs. Thomason, Mrs. Adolf Schmitt, Mrs. McNett, Mrs. Bawcom, and Miss Hattie D. Wells.

WHEN YOU BUILD OR REMODEL

A KEY TO SAVING ELECTRICAL ENERGY AND MONEY IS INSIDE . . .

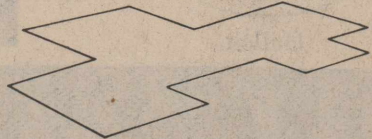

... THE WALLS AND CEILING.

The outside walls of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME are insulated to an R-factor of 18; the ceiling to R-30. Both also have a separate positive vapor and/or infiltration barrier.

... THE DOORS AND WINDOWS.

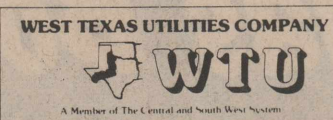

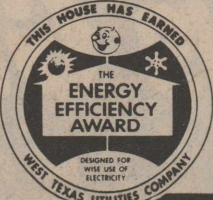

Outside doors on the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME are metal insulating or wood with separate storm doors. Windows are double-paned or single-paned with storm windows. All windows and outside doors are caulked and weatherstripped. We also recommend that the total glass area be 8% or less of the floor space.

... THE FLOORS.

The very foundation of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME — the floor — is also an important factor in saving energy and money. Slab floors should have either rigid urethane or styrofoam (min. 3" thickness) from top of the floor along the outside edge of the slab down to the brick ledge, or poured vermiculite in the cavity. Pier and beam flooring should have R-19 insulation between the floor and crawl space.

Surprise Week-end Celebration Honors Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill, 1405 15th Street, was the scene of a celebration over the weekend which included three events, all of them with elements of surprise.

It was planned as a family get-together to surprise Mr. Hill on his 75th birthday which was Sunday, May 20. Several family members had arrived from out of town and he thought it was nothing more than the visits they sometimes have—until a new group arrived and called out "Happy 75th Birthday."

The birthday cake decorated with 75 candles and a miniature rocking chair, was served Saturday evening. Then grandchildren entered the room with a second birthday cake—which they surprised Mrs. Hill. Her birthday is May 26.

The third event was the couple's 39th wedding anniversary, celebrated Friday, May 18.

Mr. Hill a 66-year county resident, has been a farmer and livestock raiser in the Needwood community all his adult life. He was born in Missouri, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Hill, and came to the China Grove community with the family in 1913. He was a trustee of the Needwood School and worked in the interest of the Samnorwood School while his children were growing up.

He and Mrs. Hill moved into Wellington in December 1967. Mrs. Hill, the former Roxie Graves, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Graves, who came to the

Loving-Brooks Wedding Held

Mrs. Irene Brooks of Granite, Okla., and O.K. Loving were married on Sunday, May 6, at 1:30 p.m. in the United Methodist Church at Martha, Okla.

The Rev. Wilbur Mease, pastor, officiated.

The couple's attendants were Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Sanders of Martha.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Loving, Mrs. Peggy Harrell and Ace Harrell.

Mr. Loving is a long-time Wellington resident.

The couple will live here.

Mrs. Patterson Has 1954 Club

Mrs. Virgil Patterson was hostess to the 1954 Study Club at her home in the Arlie community Thursday, May 10.

The program included an examination of the members knowledge of economics. This is prepared by FREE-Federation's Role in Economics of the Texas Federation China Grove community in 1907.

They lived in Dalhart from 1921 to 1934, when they returned to their land here.

Mrs. Hill taught in the China Grove School. She is the county Texas Extension Homemaker Association chairman, a member and past president of the Lillie EHC, and one of the founding members of the county chapter of National Retired Teachers Association. She also belongs to the senior citizens organization.

The Hills have two children, Robert Ray with the Kilgore office of General Telephone Company, and Mrs. Charles (Nancy) Floyd, who teaches at Bovina.

There are four grandchildren.

Attending the celebration

Mrs. Vaughan Entertains Good Neighbor Club

Mrs. Coy Vaughan entertained the Good Neighbor Club Friday, May 18.

Mrs. Ray Clubb opened the meeting with the reading of a humorous poem, "Its Later Than You Think."

Mrs. Bill Cason, president, conducted a brief business meeting with Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch reading the minutes of the last meeting. Two members having birthdays recently, Mrs. Merritt James and Mrs. Earl Alexander, contributed to the birthday jar.

Mrs. Cason reviewed the life of Billy Graham. As a teen-ager he was interested in baseball and he helped on his Dad's farm while he was in high school.

"He was converted when he was 16 years of age and had no idea at that time of going into the ministry or into evangelism, but at Wheaton College, he made his decision to preach the Gospel," Mrs. Cason said.

"Rev. Graham has traveled in all the states and Canada preaching and in many foreign countries where thousands have responded to the evangelistic invitation. He has met with religious leaders of many backgrounds, protestant catholic, jewish, orthodox and numerous civic, government, business and educational leaders," Mrs. Cason concluded.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. James, Mrs. Clubb, Mrs. Cason, Mrs. Barjenbruch, Mrs. Violet Potter, Mrs. Robert Karnes, Mrs. Frank Fourmentin, Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Bill Wells, Mrs. Anna May Thomas, and the hostess Mrs. Vaughan.

Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Schaub, Alicia Martinez, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. Jack Harris and Mrs. Max Kellison.

Members present were Delia Aguilar, Katie Isbell, Myra Hays, Pearl Harwell, Mrs. Barnett, Willie B. Harwell, Mildred Turner, Erma Faye Kersten, Mrs. McKinney, Wanda Cardwell, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Hendrix, Mit Lowry, Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Handley and Mrs. Sweat.

Mrs. Goldie Barnett Elected New President of B&PW

Goldie Barnett was elected president of Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club at a meeting Tuesday, May 8, in the Heritage Room. She will succeed Peggy Hendrix at the beginning of the new club year.

Other officers elected were Loretta Wright, first vice president; Lucille Kelso, second vice president; Paulene Estes, secretary; and Nell McKinney, treasurer.

Theme of the meeting was "Honoring Mothers." L.C. Sweat was chairman and of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Ben Ratliff was the program speaker, discussing the history of club federation.

Present were Mrs. L.C. Hill, Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. Ratliff, Mrs. Jerry Nix, Mrs. Sam Adams and the hostess, Mrs. Patterson.

Club Notes Music Week

In the last meeting of their club year Thursday, May 17, Excelsior members observed National Music Week with a nostalgia-provoking taped program.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. E.F. Bartlett with Miss Marie Shadid as co-hostess. They were also the program leaders.

These were songs by Nelson Eddy and Jeanette McDonald, popular musical comedy stars of the stage and screen from some of their most popular productions including "Naughty Marietta."

A dessert plate was served to Dorothy Robertson, Mrs. Russell Yates, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Rose Shadid, Hattie D. Wells, Bonnie Willis, Marie Shadid and Mrs. E.F. Bartlett.

attended the Kindergarten program.

The first non-stop-Atlantic flight was made by Sir John Alcock and Sir Arthur Whitten Brown in 1919. Brown repeatedly had to climb on the wings to hack off thickening ice.

Keri Moorhouse, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moorhouse of Pitchfork Ranch, Guthrie, was voted queen of La Petite division in the Little Miss Cottle-King pageant presented in Paducah Saturday night, May 17.

Sixty-six entrants were sponsored by merchants of Cottle and King Counties.

Keri is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson and frequently visits in Wellington.

In addition to the crowns and trophies presented to Keri and the other two queens, they received $25 gift certificates from a Crowell dry goods store.

Keri's older sister, Amy, 5, also participated in the Little Miss Cottle-King contest. She has completed kindergarten in the Guthrie Schools and with others in her class "graduated" Tuesday night, May 22.

An Experiment

Collingsworth General Hospital board voted last week to provide financial assistance to a doctor which would result in his setting up a surgical and medical practice here in Wellington.

We think it is a step in the right direction.

The district has had only one other experience in providing financial inducements for a physician. During that experience, the hospital paid out about $65,000 in costs related to the guarantees of the contract. During the same period the patients which that doctor placed in the hospital contributed over $300,000 to hospital income.

The hospital board thinks, and we agree, that guaranteeing an income and providing office space and personnel in order to get a new medical practice opened here is a good investment of the district's very limited resources. They think that in the long run the district will come out ahead financially.

Board members, some of whom have been on the board since the hospital district was created, realize that if we continue along our current course the board eventually will find itself in a dilemma: either raise taxes or close the hospital. The voters spoke last year in a 9 to 1 majority in a bond election that they wanted the hospital to remain open. That means that if the hospital is to remain open and if the patient load is not sufficient to carry the huge overhead of running a hospital, then taxes must make up the difference.

The board hopes that by attracting a new doctor, and by increasing the patient load in the hospital, higher taxes can be avoided.

All of the above discussion does not mention health care itself and the expense to patients and their families of traveling 30, 60 or 100 miles for medical attention.

If just a few of the many cases which are treated out of town can be cared for in Wellington, then the cost in gasoline, meals and motel rooms will quickly justify the expense to the community.

The security of having another physician on call during emergencies is another factor on which it is difficult to place an exact dollar figure, but it is something that is very real and important to the individual involved in an emergency.

The medical industry is a troubled one across the country, and one only has to pick up copies of weekly newspapers from across the state or turn on the television to see the evidence that many small communities are having medical problems. We know that this action by the hospital board will not solve all of our many medical problems, and we realize that this is an experiment. Like all experiments it may work or it may fail to produce the desired result, but we are willing to give it a try.

Free Enterprise

A special course will be offered at West Texas State University this summer, a course aimed at junior high and senior high school social studies teachers.

It is a course on the free enterprise system.

To encourage attendance, there are 30 scholarships to award and these will include free tuition, fees, books and in some cases free university housing.

This is a step in the right direction. If there ever was a time when the free enterprise system needed some support and understanding, now is the time.

What people forget is that the United States, although blessed with rich natural resources, actually has no more and in some cases a lot less in the way of natural resources than several other countries of the world.

What made the United States rich and powerful is its free enterprise system of economics, a system that allows a person to reap the rewards of his own labor and to taste the fruits of his investment of capital.

When people were allowed to "go into business for themselves" and risk their investment on the hope of turning a profit, this country began to make great strides.

In the beginning, government played a small role in the development of our economic might. But as the nation grew and became more wealthy, politicians found that they could impose controls and tap this wealth by taxation, in order to finance what they called worthy causes.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — While one conference committee was in the process of working out a state budget, another was trying to decide who will get what as far as tax relief goes, and yet another conference committee was about to begin negotiations over school finance.

Ironically, hardly anyone noticed.

Not even the first House override of a gubernatorial veto since 1951, or tentative approval of initiative and referendum legislation, or passage by House members of changes to the consumer protection act, could hold the spotlight for long after the first of what would be two filibusters began in the Senate.

While conference committee members were quietly drawing up a compromise to pay state employees (except teachers) 5.1 percent more in 1980-81 and poor children an extra $100 a year, one-third of the senate was at odds with the other two-thirds over consumer issues and one purely political matter—a presidential primary.

Months ago, the whole question of a presidential primary appeared to be dead thanks to Sen. Ron Clower of Garland who rounded up the signatures of 13 of his colleagues who said they were against Sen. Jack Ogg's bill that would separate a presidential primary from state primaries. Thirteen senators is enough to block consideration of a bill in the senate.

But then Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby rolled out SB 1149, a bill Sen. Lloyd Doggett quickly tagged as a "Trojan Horse." Later though, Doggett, Sens. Babe Schwartz, Carl Parker, Clower and others, who combined in the first filibuster of the week against SB 1149, came to think of the bill more as a smokescreen.

What looked like a shrewd parliamentary maneuver by Hobby turned out to be even more. Simply stated, SB 1149 would have put the secretary of state (at the moment, a Republican, George Strake) in charge of funds for running primaries instead of the county party chairmen. The Democrats were a little nervous about that happening. But even more irritating for some Senators was the fact there was no guarantee SB 1149 would come back from the House unamended.

If the House sent back a substitute, it would take only a majority vote for the Senate to concur and that meant Clower's 13 votes wouldn't be enough to stop passage of a bill with some provision tacked on setting up a separate presidential primary.

That was the "Trojan Horse" Doggett described. But Hobby had more on his mind. A usury bill already passed by the House pegging interest rates to treasury bonds and proposed changes in the consumer protection law were coming up on the Senate calendar. Doggett and Sen. Bill Patman had already threatened to filibuster the measures.

Doggett, Patman, Schwartz and others had joined forces earlier in the session to filibuster a bill on the State Bar and proposed changes in the consumer protection law. Three filibusters had been mounted in the Legislature thus far until this week and all had little success. But with the final days of the session facing the legislature and major legislation still waiting to be finalized, a filibuster appeared to be a more effective tool than it had been earlier.

Any hope of that being true faded quickly as it became clear that Hobby had put SB 1149 on the line merely to tire and wear down the opposition. At first glance it would appear that Hobby's tactic failed because a group-effort filibuster against SB 1149 did manage to all but kill the bill. But Hobby rolled out HB 409—interest rate legislation. Patman had vowed all along to fight such a bill and a fight meant a filibuster—the second of the week.

Earlier, in the first filibuster of the next to last week of the session, a team of senators had filibustered SB 1149 and won themselves the nickname "The Killer Bees" from Hobby, but Patman carried the load alone against HB 409 talking for 17 hours and 21 minutes—the longest filibuster this session.

When Patman could go no longer, the Senate quickly passed HB 409 raising the maximum interest rates that can be charged on home mortgages and senators also approved legislation (SB 357) weakening the consumer protection act. The usury bill headed back to the House for concurrence in Senate amendments and SB 357 was sent to the governor.

A second filibuster by Doggett against changes in the consumer law was avoided after certain amendments the Austin senator had called for were added in the House.

The House reattached to the bill class action suits that had been removed in the Senate. And the House also eliminated the definition of "actual damages"—a clause in the senate version that would have prevented consumers from collecting for mental anguish. Both the House and Senate did away with triple damages in consumer suits but the House did provide for treble damages in some cases and left that decision to juries hearing consumer cases.

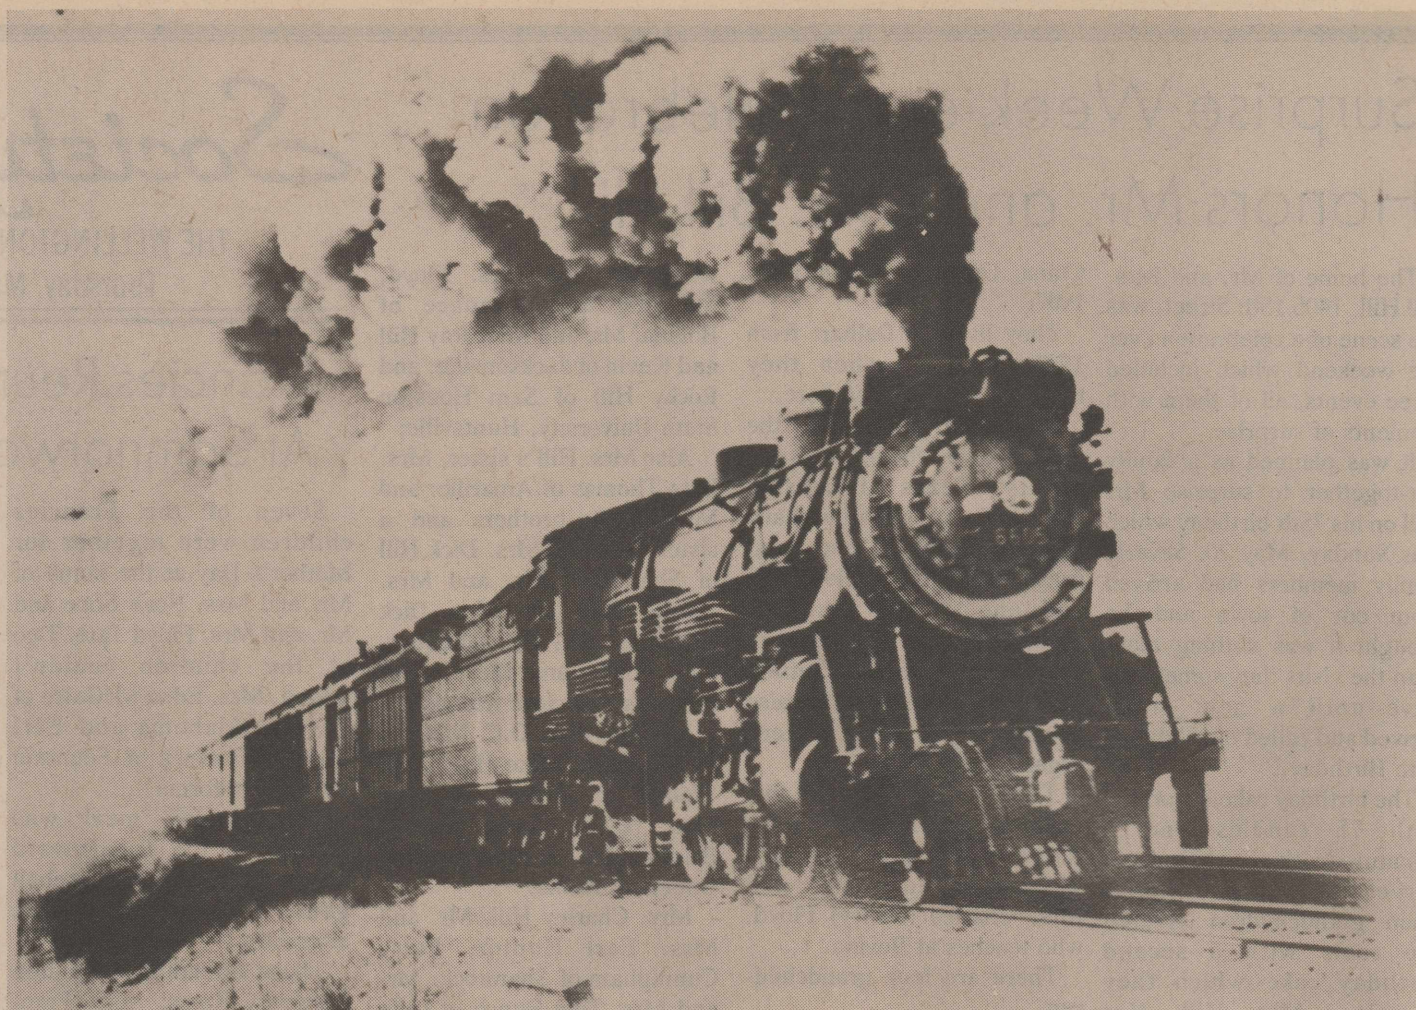

The Governor

Gov. Bill Clements scolded the House this week for overriding his veto of a minor bill that would have exempted a single county from state game laws. Clements told the House it should "stop playing games. It's a sad waste of time to spend more than an hour wrangling over a matter of this magnitude during the final crucial weeks of the legislative session."

Clements was a bit happier over the progress of a wiretap bill he has called for. The measure would allow wiretaps only in narcotics cases. Sen. Carl Parker called the legislation the "Richard Nixon Wiretap Bill," but senators must not have been listening as they passed the measure on second reading 20-11. The bill must still survive a third and final reading in the Senate and a trip through the House before getting to the governor's desk.

Clements didn't get his way when it came to extending his budgetary powers. The Senate refused to even consider a bill that would have beefed-up a governor's ability to control state expenditures.

The Senate did approve a constitutional amendment allowing governors to remove appointees from boards and commissions with the consent of the Senate. Currently, the governor has no such powers.

And finally, the Legislature approved a constitutional amendment with a "local option" proviso legalizing bingo for non-profit and charitable organizations.

In The House

Almost three weeks ago,

While Jones and Sen. Carl Parker of Port Arthur were at odds over the income limitation, they teamed up to remove a provision exempting two cars or light trucks from state property taxes.

Jones and Parker said tax-assessor collectors could foresee an "administrative nightmare" developing if they had to figure out which cars were exempt and which weren't. The Jones-Parker amendment leaves it up to local taxing entities to decide whether or not they want to exempt vehicles from property taxes.

To reimburse school districts for revenues lost because of the Tax Relief Amendment, the House put aside over $400 million. The Senate wants to take care of the matter in a school finance bill.

It appeared certain no legislation would be passed this session raising the state usury limit on home loans. Capitol observers had predicted before the session began that the usury law would be under attack but an announcement by Gov. Clements that he would veto any such bills stopped proposed legislation in its tracks.

Then along came Fannie Mae—the Federal National Mortgage Association—the prime buyer of VA and FHA home loans. Fannie Mae said it was backing off on accepting the low-interest VA and FHA loans in Texas because some lenders might be violating the usury law by charging "points." Just before Fannie Mae's announcement, the Department of Housing and Urban Development said it was hiking the interest rate on VA and FHA loans to 10 percent. That meant lenders in Texas that had been charging points on VA and FHA loans to get the interest rates up to present money market levels might be in violation of the usury law.

Clements had said he would re-evaluate his position on legislation raising the interest rate ceiling if developments warranted such a move on his part. Fannie Mae's announcement—meaning a tight money market would probably be getting tighter—moved Clements to reverse himself, and when the governor did, he called in Sen. Bill Meier and Rep. Jerry Donaldson to discuss their bills raising the legal interest rate allowed by law.

The House this week passed Donaldson's bill with provisions that Clements said he could accept. Meanwhile, there was still some question whether or not VA and FHA loans are exempted from the state usury laws. "Vagueness" over the law had been one of Fannie Mae's prime reasons for backing away from taking VA and FHA loans in Texas. And an investigation into whether there had been "collusion" between Fannie Mae and lenders was also underway.

It took the House six hours to make up its mind about Donaldson's bill raising the interest rate ceiling to 12 percent.

Larry Stages Appointed Chief Deputy

Sheriff John Rainey announced this week that Larry Stages has been appointed chief deputy on his staff.

Stages, has lived in the Samnorwood area a number of years, joined the Sheriff's department December 1, and earlier this month completed the training necessary for certification as a law enforcement officer.

Rainey also announced the addition of Terry L. Floyd as a deputy.

Floyd, 24, grew up at Erick, Oklahoma and worked as a law enforcement officer in Pampa about six months.

He is already certified, Rainey said.

Two Sentenced On Separate DWI Charges

Two cases charging driving while intoxicated were heard in county court recently.

L.W. Chance was sentenced to 30 days in jail, $200 fine and court costs of $53.30, at a hearing Monday, May 14, County Judge Bob Watson said.

Evidence showed Chance had 5 previous DWI convictions, according to the judge.

Chance was picked up by sheriffs deputies.

Mrs. Linda Hudson of 1201 Haskell street was arrested Friday, May 18, about 7:00 p.m. and charged with misdemeanor driving while intoxicated.

In a county court hearing Monday, May 21, Judge

Watson sentenced Mrs. Hudson to 30 days in jail, $50 fine and $53.50 court charges. She is serving her sentence in Collingsworth County jail.

Her 70-year-old husband, Tommy Hudson, was indicted by the 100th District Court Grand Jury Monday, May 14, on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

The woman's four children are in custody of the Child Welfare Department.

DODSON CO-OP DIRECTORS

In charge of operating the Dodson Cooperative Enterprises, Inc., during the coming year are these directors and manager. Standing are Danny Watts, left, Tommy Lewis with the manager, John Barton. Seated are Jiggs Jones, Fred Covey and Tom Birchfield. Absent from the annual meeting Saturday were two directors, Art Kane and Duggie Jameson.

Tarver, Kiker, Tate Area FFA Honors

Three county Future Farmers won honors at the area I FFA convention held Saturday, May 12.

Lynn Tate, Samnorwood, was selected the Area I Star Chapter Farmer, and will compete for the State Star Chapter Farmer Award in Austin June 5. At the area convention he represented the Greenbelt District, according to Jimmy Breeding, advisor.

The state winner will receive his award at the state

FFA convention to be held at Lubbock in July.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate.

Mark Tarver of Samnorwood and Lon Kiker of Wellington, both candidates for the American Farmer Degree, were among the 15 candidates whose work was approved on the area level and they will now seek approval on the state level.

Of the top 5 candidates, Tarver was No. 1 and Kiker No. 5. Only the top five men from each of the state's 10 areas will be eligible to attend the National FFA convention at Kansas City in October.

This ranking is also almost certain assurance that they will be awarded the American Farmer Degree, highest to be given a Future Farmer. It is based on the record of his work. He also must have been out of high school a year.

From among the top five of each area, also, a Texas Star farmer will be named, and he will compete for selection as the Star American Farmer in Kansas City.

Tarver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tarver of the Aberdeen community. Kiker's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kiker who live south of Wellington.

Girl Scout News

Recently the Quivera Council of Girl Scouts has held events for adult workers in the scouting program. Leaders are not required to attend but urged to attend to benefit for camping experience.

One week was spent in outdoor training at Camp Mel Davis near Lefors, where they concentrated on beginner outdoor skills and advanced sessions were taught.

Three adult workers in the Scouting Program attended the advanced course: Barbara Bartlett, Peggy Hendrix and Barbara Settle.

The program that day involved setting up a brief camp and cooking their noon meal by using three methods: Planking, spit and roasting. They were to lash three camp articles of use in each camp. The afternoon's activities involved compass and weather skills.

The Quivera Council held its leader's overnight at Camp Cibola near Clarendon. Leaders were to arrive and cook all meals outdoors, complete in skill relays, attend craft session, songs and flag ceremonies.

Adults attending from Wellington were Sandra Fires, Nell Bawcom, Molly Nunnally, Brenda Barton, Peggy Hendrix, Glenda Hill, Barbara Bartlett, Barbara Kerlee and Barbara Settle. These leaders camped in covered wagons that weekend.

Senior Scouts Lisa Hartman and Lisa Nix with Margaret Hartman and Fern Nix attended and participated in the 1979 Junior Camporee at Camp Mel Davis.

The two Senior Scouts from Wellington and leaders assisted in the weekend's program and judging the skills contest.

Lisa Hartman judged fire building and Lisa Nix knives and their handling. Mrs. Hartman, first aid, and Mrs. Nix, flags. The senior scouts assisted with games.

The two troops from Wellington to attend Camporee were Troop 228 in Beginner and Troop 41 in the Advanced. Both placed "second" in their events.

TROOP 228

Girl Scout Troop 228 attended the 1979 Junior Camporee at Camp Mel Davis near Lefors May 18, 19 and 20. All fourth grade troops are in the beginner category while fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade troops are in the advanced category.

Thirteen beginner troops and 7 advanced troops took part in the skills contest. The entire total of Scouts, Leaders and assisting adults numbered 300.

Troop 228 attended for the first time as beginners and placed 2nd in the Skills

Contest. The seven fields of competition were in first aid, flag, compass, fires, knots, lashing and knife. Attitude of campers and leaders and each troop's campsite were also judged. Some events could have a team of two while others required four girls per event. Each scout was required to enter at least in one area of competition.

Troop 228 arrived at Mel Davis on Friday afternoon and were given a most desirable camping location. The remainder of Friday afternoon and the early evening hours were spent clearing the ground and erecting three tents, establishing three camp sanitation areas, two cooking sites-one for open preparation area, dining and informal area; game, information center, and first-aid area.

The girls then set up horseshoe and archery areas. That night they attended a brief song-fest directed by senior scouts.

Saturday morning began early with a hearty breakfast, then off to skill contest which took place from 9:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. These girls were then allowed to visit other campsites and meet other troops.

The afternoon highlight came when they were taken to the river for water fun.

Late Saturday afternoon all campers attended the leader's contest. Saturday evening's ceremonial campfire program involved games for all campers, songs, skits by attending troops. The evening's highlight was when each attending troop placed its own ceremonial log, inscribed with troop initials on the campfire while making its "Troop's Wish," then the Awards were made to Beginners and Advanced Troops.

Attending Camporee from Troop 228 were Ashley Williams, Jodi Blacksher, Kaylynn Bartlett, Leigh Ann Barton, Shannon Hill, Christy Whitten, Robi Lou Mabery, Kristie Keller, Heather Hendrix, Penny Wilkins, Linda Jane Lacy, Angela Watt and Gina Davis. Leaders attending were Brenda Barton, Barbara Bartlett and Paula Wilkins; Troop Assisting Parent, Peggy Hendrix; and Neighborhood Chairman, Glenda Hill.

Quail Team in Area Mechanics Contest

The Quail FFA students from Quail High School took part in the Annual Area 1 FFA Mechanics Contest. The contest was sponsored by the Top-Of-Texas, Greenbelt and Amarillo Electric Cooperatives. The event took place on the TSTI Amarillo Campus, Tuesday, April 3, 1979 with the Welding and Fabrication Department as host.

Future Farmer's of America representing high schools from across the Panhandle area met to test their skills at welding, small gas engine repair, practical electrical applications and tool identification.

Quail competed in the afternoon session in the Greenbelt Division along with students from Hedley and Childress. Quail team came out with a third place trophy.

Members of the Quail team were Harold Baker, Gene Caldwell, Ronald Alston and Otis Farris. The instructor of this fine group was Doyle Messer.

Jay Eudy, TEA Representative from Plainview said, "We anticipate this event to triple by next year, with many more a young student to compete using practical skills and skills that he could go out into the world and make a living doing."

Extension Homemakers Clubs by Jean Chandler Collingsworth County Home Extension Agent

The Collingsworth County Extension Homemakers attended District I Homemakers College May 17, Texas Agricultural Extension and Research Center in Amarillo. The theme for the college was "Homemakers Fight Inflation".

The Homemakers College began with a motivational talk by Mr. Ken Wolf, Economist Agri-Business, Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Bonnie Pierrmont, Family Resource Management Specialists, Texas Agricultural Extension Service gave a computer orientation, "Dollar Watch". Extension Homemakers were given the opportunity to have the computer analyze their budget. The computer is designed to help homemakers see where their money goes each month. Your personalized budget along with a comparative budget is based on a family similar to yours in size, income, and mortgage or rent payment. The comparative budget serves as a ideal guideline.

A clothing workshop was presented by Becky Culp, Clothing Specialists Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Mrs. Culp discussed "Creating the Look You Want". Guidelines were given on how line color and texture affects the appearance. New fashion trends and accessories were pin pointed.

Mrs. Beth Davis a cosmetic consultant and Mrs. Sue Norris a beautician presented the latest in hair trends and skin care. Jane Simpson of Sherman County and Jean Chandler were models for this session.

Carla Shearer and Mary Sweeten Food and Nutrition Specialists Texas Agricultural Extension Service spoke on the following topic, Nutrition and Weight Control, Handling Medical Emergencies.

After a sack lunch the Extension Homemakers attended a housing and Home Furnishings Workshop. Pat Seaman, Housing and Home Furnishings Specialists gave a presentation on energy conservation and decorating with sheets.

The district I Homemakers College is the first of its kind in the State of Texas. After the College, Extension Homemakers were given a diploma.

Those who attended from Collingsworth were Mrs. Wayne Reynolds, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Rufus Sweat, Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. David Peters, Mrs. Malcolm Horton, and Mrs. Emil Kersten.

LADELL MAXWELL

Mrs. Maxwell Graduates at Nursing School

LaDell Maxwell, wife of Kenneth L. Maxwell and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Chandler was among the 44 graduates of Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing to receive a diploma at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, May 11, at the First Presbyterian Church in Amarillo, Texas.

Following graduation, Mrs. Maxwell will be eligible to write the State Board of Nurse Examination for licensure as a registered nurse.

of the college preparatory school for boys in 4th through 12th grade.

Speaker at traditional baccalaureate services will be the Rev. Dale P. Kronquist, program Coordinator, Information and Referral Service, Quincy, Illinois, and father of senior cadet Kevin Kronquist.

Other highlights of Commencement weekend will be a formal military ball and the senior review at which the cadet corps marches by in tribute to the graduating class. During the review, a ceremonial saber will be passed from this year's battalion commander, Cadet Major Chris Deal of Duncan, Okla., to the battalion commander-designate for 1979-80.

A clothing can't be handed down to other children in the family, garments will probably be outgrown before they are worn out, says Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

TIM BRITT

Britt Graduates At Military School May 27

Cadet Tim Britt will receive a high school diploma at Missouri Military Academy's 90th Commencement exercises on May 27.

Cadet Britt is the son of Laudis and Margaret Britt, who live in Saudi Arabia. He is also the grandson of Mrs. M.C. Zeck. Mr. and Mrs. Britt, their son and 16 year-old daughter are due to visit in Wellington within a few days.

Three days of graduation activities will culminate with an address by Dr. Arthur Mallory, commissioner of education for the State of Missouri, who will speak before an estimated audience of 1,500 cadets, parents, and campus visitors.

Diplomas and special honors will be conferred by Col. Charles Stribling III, president

Farm Bureau Slates Cotton Meeting May 29

Collingsworth County Farm Bureau is sponsoring a cotton meeting Tuesday, May 29, in the FB Hospitality Room, 9th Street and U.S. Highway 83.

It will begin at 8:30 p.m. The speaker will be Don Petty, associate director of commodity activities, Waco, will give general information relating to the cotton outlook and this year's cotton crop. There will be a question and answer period.

All cotton farmers are urged to be present, as Farm Bureau considers this to be one of the important meetings to be held this spring, according to Albert Fulcher, chairman of the FB cotton commodity committee.

Needwood Cemetery Working May 26

The Needwood Cemetery working is scheduled for Saturday, May 26, beginning in the morning and continuing as long as anyone can work.

"Your help is desperately needed with the moving and cleaning. The fence needs to be fixed since being run into by tractors and plows," said Mrs. Bill Hill, who for many years has taken a lead in the cemetery care.

Those coming were asked to bring equipment. Needwood Cemetery is one of the oldest in the county, some of the first settlers buried there in the early 1890s.

Eric Thomas AC Graduate

Eric Thomas was graduated from Amarillo College Friday evening, May 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the commencement held at the civic center.

Thomas had completed studies in refrigeration and heating. He is employed by Roberts Refrigeration in Amarillo.

Those attending from here were his mother, Mrs. Virginia Thomas, also Mr. and Mrs. Mark Killian and Mrs. Susie Messer.

Sixth Graders Visit Altus Air Force Base

Mrs. Novella's Word's 6th grade class visited Altus Air Force Base Thursday, May 10, and saw much of the installation by bus with Senior Airman Michael Bowers as their guide.

A highpoint was their visit to the C-5 Galaxy, world's largest aircraft, which stretches almost the length of a football field and stands as high as a 6-story building.

The students were interested in the 28-wheel landing gear, which permits the aircraft to "kneel" for truck bed height loading. This system also permits the high aircraft to raise each wheel individually for tire changes and brake maintenance.

They were amazed to learn it carries 49,000 gallons of fuel-enough to fill 6 1/2 regular size railroad tank cars, and they were told the cargo compartment is large enough to haul six greyhound buses.

There are only 77 of these craft in the world, the sixth graders learned.

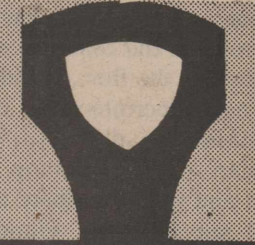

They also visited the AFB weather station and received weather maps. They watched while a COMEDS machine told them the weather at that instant in Vancouver Washington was 74 degrees and overcast, finally, they learned that Altus was chose as the site of the air force base because it has from 350 to 360 days of flying weather every year.

Students going to Altus were Mike Green, Gilbert Garcia, James Benton, Greg Bowen, Jay Anders, Paula Reynolds, Tina Bawcom, Noram Garcia, Carmen Garcia, Jenny Augustine, and Dora Rodriguez also, Janet Drew, Erma Jean Barber, Jean Outley, Sandra Culpepper, Rosie Thomas, Gloria Munn, Margie Ingram, Richard O'Rear, Javier Arreola, Stanley Stephens also, Robert Owens, Tony Molina, Dell Davis, Jerry David, Mike Souder and Bobby Lynch.

Mothers accompanying Mrs. Word and the students were Mrs. Leamon Bawcom, Mrs. Doug Seal, Mrs. Bessie Thomas, Mrs. William O'Rear, Robert Owens and Mrs. Danny Davis.

Pastors, Delegates Attend Conference

Representatives of the county's two United Methodist Churches will attend the three-day Northwest Texas Annual Conference which opens Tuesday, May 29, at Polk Street Methodist Church, Amarillo.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tom Thomson will attend from First United Methodist Church. Mrs. L.C. Hill will attend as the delegate. Several other members have tentative plans to be there.

Representing Glen Davis Memorial Methodist Church at Dozier will be the Rev. Bill Hankins, pastor and Mrs. Hankins, and the delegates, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dwyer.

Two members of Rev. Thomson's family will have major roles in the conference.

His father, the Rev. Carlton Thomson, superintendent of the Plainview district, is chairman of the bishop's cabinet and will participate in several services. His grandfather, the Rev. Hubert Thomson, will preach at the memorial service which opens the conference.

This is an important annual conference, said Tom Thomson, as balloting for delegates to represent the 92,904 member Northwest Texas Annual Conference at next year's quadrennial meetings of the United Methodist General Conference and the eight-state regional South Central Jurisdictional Conference is expected to extend over the three-day meeting.

The General Conference sets the policy that determines the worldwide ministry of the 10-million member denomination for the following four-year period.

Five new bishops will be elected and consecrated by the South Central Jurisdictional Conference. Three Episcopal Areas in Texas and New Mexico, including the Northwest Texas, New Mexico Area, are scheduled to receive new episcopal leadership in 1980 due to the retirement of their bishops.

Bishop Alsie H. Carleton, Albuquerque, resident bishop of the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Area, who is completing 12 years in this office, grew up in Memphis.

Documentary "Scared Crime" From Juveniles

KVII-TV will present "Scared Straight," academy award-winning documentary, Friday night, May 25, at 10:45 p.m. This controversial 60-minute show is designed to literally scare the crime out of juvenile delinquents.

As part of a crime prevention program, chronic juvenile offenders were sentenced to three hours in a maximum security prison with murderers, rapists and armed robbers.

The language is explicit, often crude, and graphic descriptions will offend some, but "Scared Straight" does reveal one means of dealing with juvenile crime.

A cross-section of the local community attended two special showings of "Scared Straight" in the KVII-TV studios-among them, ministers, lawyers, judges, teachers, probation officers, and students-and found in the show an "earthy reality"; "they (the prisoners) tell it like it is."

Will it deter crime? Reactions were mixed, but most agreed that it is a show that should be seen, and that the program itself is one possible option in the attempt to cope with juvenile crime.

"Scared Straight" will be presented without commercial interruption-Friday, May 25, 10:45 p.m., on KVII-TV.

Ross Receives Law Degree at Texas Tech

Joel Lynn Ross of Quail was granted the Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree from Texas Tech University School of Law in the hooding ceremony Saturday, May 12, at four in the afternoon.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ross of the Bourland-Ross Ranch northwest of Quail, who attended the graduation.

Ross was an associate editor of Law Review and received the Law Review Foundation Service Award for outstanding work as an associate editor. His areas of concentration were federal taxation and estate planning, and he made three publications in the Law Review.

He received an award for work in administrative law.

His honorary law fraternities were Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Alpha Delta.

He will remain in Lubbock until after he takes the Texas bar examination in July.

In August, Ross will join the law firm of Meyers, Miller and Middleton in Dallas, which specializes in real estate, tax and corporate law.

Ross was valedictorian of the 1973 Quail graduating class and graduated from Clarendon College in 1975. He received his bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Texas Permian Basin, Odessa, in August 1976 and entered the Texas Tech University Law School that fall.

Dana Bell Receives TTU Degree May 12

Dana Bell was graduated from Texas Tech University, Lubbock, in commencement ceremonies held Saturday morning, May 12.

He was awarded the Bachelor of Science Degree in agricultural economics from the TTU School of Agriculture.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bell who live northwest of Quail.

A graduate of Wellington High School, Bell also graduated from Clarendon College before transferring to Tech.

He is presently working with his father in their farming operations in the Quail area.

Mrs. F. Kersten Dies in Oregon

A former Wellington woman Mrs. Fred (Willie Bell) Kersten, died in Eugene, Oregon, Wednesday, May 16.

The family lived here for a number of years prior to World War II, and upon leaving, moved to Oregon.

She is survived by seven children: Mrs. Hattie Mae Whitaker, Fred Kersten, Jr., and Herman Cecil Kersten of Houston, Ervin Kersten of Crescent Lake, Oregon, Mrs. William (Helen) Gilbert of Venita, Oregon, Mrs. Merkie Darby of Lambertville, Michigan, and Roy Kersten of Palacios.

Mrs. Emil Kersten is a sister-in-law.

Taylor Attends Grant School

City Manager Glen Taylor was in Odessa recently to attend a two day meeting on administering HUD grants for small cities.

"This was the best I've been to," Taylor said. "Beginning at the time you received the grant, it covered the steps to take, forms to fill out and pitfalls to avoid."

It also covered administration of the grants, real property acquisition, relocation, public services and the program close-out.

Judge Attends CD Preparedness Unit

County Judge Bob Watson was in Austin last week to attend a local civil defense preparedness school, arranged by the Texas Department of Public Safety for CF directors and coordinators.

"This covered a lot of material that will come in handy in a few weeks on our own civil defense plan," Watson said, citing storms and flash flooding as two of these.

One that may be implemented is a severe local storm warning service.

"People are available through the Weather Bureau to train weather watchers so they will know what they are seeing," said the judge who said such a course would be in cooperation with the Sheriff's Department. It can provide training refreshers for local weather spotters.

Quite a bit of training is available in protection of the population, spotting storms and saving lives. Films are available for showing to civic clubs and other organizations.

Watson has requested any military reserve officer in Collingsworth County who would like to work with Civil Defense while credit toward monthly active duty to contact him.

City Street Repair Begins

Work began late last week filling in pot-holes and patching the city streets, damaged by weeks of abnormally cold, wet weather. A cold mix was being used and when this work is completed, some of the streets will receive a seal coat, according to City Manager Glen Taylor.

The mating call of the male grouse is a drumming sound made by fluttering his wings rapidly. It can be heard a mile away.

Use track lights or wall washers directed to favorite pictures to brighten a dreary hallway, suggests Sue Young, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Settle Joins City Staff

Jerry Settle has been employed by the City of Wellington and City Manager Glen Taylor said he will work wherever he is needed. At present, he is in the water department.

Settle resigned recently as chief deputy in the sheriff's department.

Card of Thanks

I would like to say a special thanks to my teachers, people of the town and my classmates who wished me well when I went to Austin for state competition in typing.

It is a good feeling to know you are being supported back home. And most of all many thanks to Mrs. Hodges. If it had not been for her extra time and help, it would not have been possible.

*Thanks again
Maria Langford*

We want to thank the friends from our church for the party at the park, and, our fishing friends for the party at the Dairy Queen and for the good lunch Thursday. We want to thank each one for coming by to help us load. We pray Gods richest blessings on each of you.

Murl & Juanita Phipps

May we express our sincere appreciation for the sympathy extended us at the passing of our beloved husband, father and brother, J.H. [Jack] Savage.

We are grateful to Dr. Holcomb, the hospital staff, ambulance crew, to all who sent flowers, food, the calls, visits and to everyone who in any way sought to bring a measure of consolation.

May God bless each of you. Mrs. J.H. Savage & children Mrs. Mabel Ingram & family Mr. & Mrs. R.T. Savage, & grandchildren

Soil Stewardship Week Observed

Most churches of Collingsworth County will observe Sunday, May 27, as Soil Stewardship Sunday, making reference to it at some point during services.

This will be the closing day of the annual Soil Stewardship Week, which began Sunday, May 20, and which is observed nation-wide by soil and water conservation districts.

"The theme is interdependence," said Billy Moseley, spokesman for Salt Fork SWCD.

"It is the one time of the year we set aside to pay tribute to those who have done an excellent job in the past in serving as stewards of the soil."

"It is also a time we observe the need to continue the practice which conserves our most precious resource-our soil. God gave us our soil, but it's up to us to serve as stewards of it."

Soil Stewardship Week is a salute to those involved in agriculture. "It is a time to renew ourselves and our responsibility as stewards of the soil," Moseley declared.

Members of Salt Fork SCD board of supervisors, who administer its operation, are Dan Henard, Jr., John Brim, John W. Carson of Quail, Doug Coleman of Dozier, and Earl Patterson.

The Soil Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture observed its 44th anniversary just a few weeks ago, April 27. SCS gives technical assistance to landowners within the soil conservation district.

Its founding in 1935 had as a specific goal combatting the forces of wind and drought that threatened America's natural resources.

Salt Fork SWCD was organized in November 1946. It covers 575,360 acres, with approximately 1,000 operating units and more than 900 landusers applying or planning conservation practices on their land.

SCS conservation professionals assisting Salt Fork SWCD are Tommy Powell, district conservationist, James Herring, J.D. Sheer, John Rogers, and G.N. Davis.

Salt Fork SWCD is a legal governmental subdivision of the State of Texas, created in 1946 by a majority vote of the landowners within its boundaries. The principal concern of the District is that of wise use and proper treatment of the many resources of the area.

Members of the original board of directors, then called board of supervisors, were Jake Tarter, W.R. Coleman, R.R. Kellison, Alfred Knoll and Frank Coleman.

The district quickly rose to a place of leadership among other districts of Texas and the southwest. It sponsored recognition of those who excelled in behalf of the conservation music and was an early supporter of the Save the Soil and Save Texas Awards Program. The first to receive these awards in Salt Fork SWCD were John Brim, now district director, and Deskins Wells, the late publisher of The Wellington Leader.

Use track lights or wall washers directed to favorite pictures to brighten a dreary hallway, suggests Sue Young, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Aaron Named Bank Chairman

Jack Aaron, president of the Burk Burnett Bank since 1965 was named chairman of the board of that bank this week.

Aaron replaced Weldon Nix who resigned after having served 14 years in that position.

Aaron, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Emmert, has been with the Burk Burnett Bank since its beginning in 1964. A native of Wellington, he attended Hills Business College and Southwestern School of Banking.

He served as president of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce, and as chairman of the Burk Burnett Industrial Development Committee for five years.

Aaron is past president of the Noon Day Lions Club, and he is currently a member of the Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry.

"It has been a very rewarding experience to see the assets of the bank grow from zero to $17.5 million in 14 years."

Eric Thomas AC Graduate

Eric Thomas was graduated from Amarillo College Friday evening, May 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the commencement held at the civic center.

Thomas had completed studies in refrigeration and heating. He is employed by Roberts Refrigeration in Amarillo.

Those attending from here were his mother, Mrs. Virginia Thomas, also Mr. and Mrs. Mark Killian and Mrs. Susie Messer.

TANYA SIMPSON

Tanya Simpson UIL Winner

Tanya Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Paul Simpson of Northfield, won first place in the journalism feature writing contest at the State University Interscholastic League State Meet in Austin Saturday, May 5.

Tanya is a Senior at Motley County High School in Matador and is the granddaughter of Mrs. H.E. Davis, Sr. of Wellington and Mrs. P.A. Simpson of Northfield.

She placed third in feature writing, second in editorial writing and first in news writing at the district UIL competition in Vernon in April. She competed at Levelland at the Regional contests in May and won second in feature writing and the right to compete in Austin at the state meet.

Tanya is a Co-Editor of "La Arena", the MCHS annual. She has served as President of the Student Body, President of the FHA, and a member of the Guidelines Show Most Citizens Can Donate Blood

What are the guidelines for being a blood donor when the Red Cross bloodmobile visits Wellington Thursday, May 24?

Many who think they cannot give blood actually can. The Red River Regional Red Cross Blood Center, where Collingsworth General Hospital secures all its blood, has made available its donor guidelines. Here are some of them.

Time between donations - 8 weeks (56 days)

Age limits - 17-66 years. Seventeen year olds will need written consent of parent or guardian unless married self supporting or in the armed forces. Age 66 or over must have physician's written approval dated within two weeks of the date of donation.

Can I eat? Yes, eat something but avoid fatty or fried food or alcohol 4 hours before giving blood.

Minimum weight is 110 pounds.

Allergies--a cause for deferment only if symptoms are a acute. Injections for desensitization are no longer a reason for deferral.

Anemia - Past low hemoglobin may not mean anemia. Try again.

Blood pressure medications: some medications are not acceptable. If you have a question, know the name of the medicine you are taking when you come to the bloodmobile.

Cancer-except for minor skin lesions, cancer is a cause for permanent deferral because its causes and method of transmission are not yet known.

You must be free of colds, sore throats and flu.

Diabetes - if controlled by diet only, the donor is acceptable.

Infectious disease - three weeks from exposure unless donor has had the disease.

Heart trouble - permanent deferral.

Hepatitis - permanent deferral. Hepatitis exposure - deferral for 6 months after exposure.

Immunizations or vaccinations - rabies treatment, one year after last injection; small pox, after immune reaction and scab gone; two weeks: Rubella, mumps, polio, yellow fever, if symptom free:

diphtheria, flu, whooping cough polio and others not generally given here. If in doubt, check.

Jaundice - permanent deferral; jaundice exposure - six months deferral.

Malaria - accepted three years following recovery, same for suppressive therapy for malaria.

Medication past 6 months: aspirin, diet pills, antihistamines, birth control pills, hormones, thyroid, not disqualifying antibiotics, last two weeks cause deferral. May donate if drug is tetracycline for skin and taking only one or two daily.

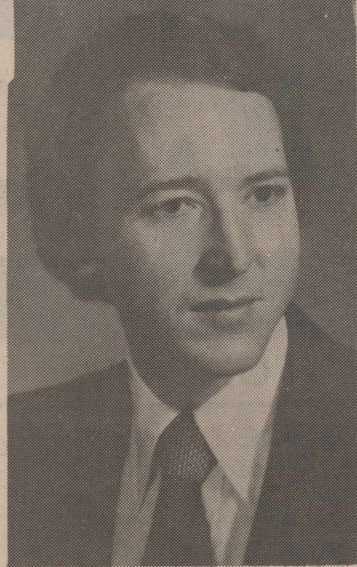

Menstrual period - acceptable.

Pregnancy - deferral for pregnancy plus 6 months; abortion or miscarriage, 6 weeks if no blood transfusion received.

Tooth extraction or dental surgery - 72 hours deferral.

Stomach ulcers - acceptable if no recent bleeding.

Newspapers carry almost 75 percent of the coupons offered, magazines 15 percent, direct mail four percent, and coupons in or on packages represent eight percent of all coupons in circulation, says Linda McCormack, Texas A&M University System.

JIMMY A. MORGAN

When honors for achievements are handed out, Jimmy A. Morgan is often the recipient.

President of That Skyrocket Band in which he has played several years, he received the John Philip Sousa Band Award and the Arien Award, played in the all-region band two years, and received a second division rating in the state solo contest.

Future Farmers of America have elected him president, treasurer and reporter. He has earned his Lone Star Farmer Degree, highest on the state FFA level, and he has been on several of its judging teams.

Classmates named him the friendliest junior and this year, most valuable to the school.

Jimmy belonged to Beta Club and was on the student council.

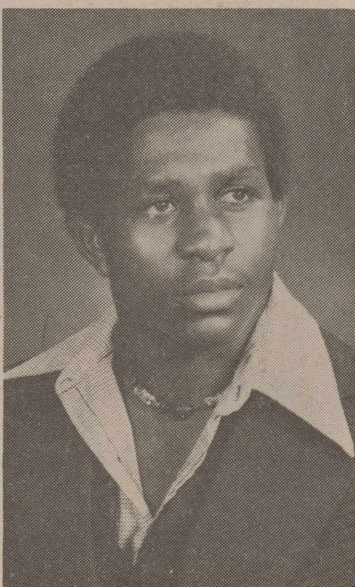

Outside of school, he achieved his Eagle Scout rank, and took part in those scouting activities reserved for young men who take their scouting seriously. He was chosen to attend the FB citizenship conference on the campus of Baylor University. He was active in Key Club. This year he exhibited a grand champion lamb at the winter livestock show.

Jimmy says collecting antiques is his hobby.

He belongs to the Church of Christ.

He farms with his dad, but this fall will enroll in West Texas State University, where several other members of his family have attended.

JAMES AVERY THOMAS, JR

James Avery Thomas, Jr. is a superior athlete—more so when his full story is known. But first his achievements:

Junebug, as he is frequently called, played football three years, basketball four, and ran track four.

He was named all-district linebacker and running back this year, and all-district running back as a junior.

In track, he was a regional qualifier in the long jump, 220 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 440-yard relay. Furthermore, he was state qualifier in the long jump and again this year was regional qualifier in the long jump and 440 relay.

Now consider that the summer before his sophomore year, James had open heart surgery for a condition he had not known existed until he had a medical check-up for something else. That winter, he played basketball.

For this comeback, he received the Skyrocket's Larry Wright Fighting Heart Award and was chosen for the Dee Henry Memorial Award and was selected for the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Thomas, Sr., 302 Dallas Street, he was born October 3, 1959 in Wellington.

He has attended only the

WHS Seniors

Wellington Schools.

He was a member of 4-H Club four years and was a competitor in area rodeos.

Riding motorcycles, horseback riding, fishing and hunting are his hobbies.

James belongs to Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Outside of school he has worked part time as a ranch hand, and he is a partner with his father in Thomas & Son hauling. He is undecided if he will attend college.

TINIA MARIE YOUNG

Tinia Marie Young has divided her school years between four towns, but most of her work since sixth grade has been in Wellington. She also attended schools at Lawton, Okla., Mendota, Calif., and Grand Junction, Colo.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Juanita Young of Sagebrush Apartments, and was born May 12, 1962, making her one of the young members of the class.

She was an FHA member four years and earned membership in Beta Club four. She participated in the night of one-act plays for two years, in the children's play and in the UIL one-act play which won district honors.

Tinia served on the Student Council.

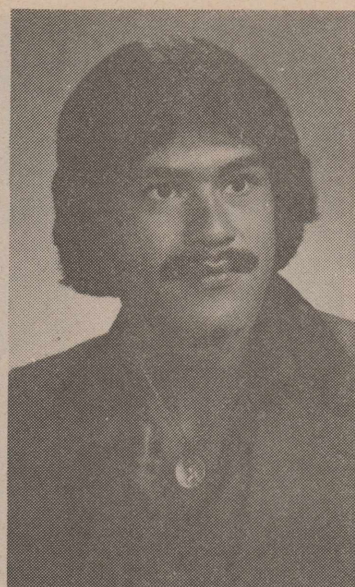

At Lawton she was a member of an ecology club.

Tinia lists her hobbies as bike riding, reading and talking.

She belongs to Quail Baptist Church.

With an outside job, she works regularly at the Dairy Queen.

Next year Tinia will attend West Texas State University.

RICHARD GARCIA

To be named a member of the All-State football team once is a honor, but this has come twice to Skyrocket Richard Garcia. In so far as memory serves, no other Skyrocket has had this honor.

He is the son of Richard Garcia of Wellington and was born in South Texas November 13, 1960.

Richard attended school at Skidmore and Quail before coming to Wellington as an eighth grader.

As a sophomore (he is a three-year letterman), he was named to the 2-A All-district team as off tackle on offense and defensive end. As a junior he repeated all-district honors as an off tackle, and received all-state honors for the same position.

In his senior year, he again was chosen for all-district on both offense and defense. As a climax he was again chosen Texas All-state off tackle on offense.

Richard was a Skyrocket captain and was named to the Amarillo Globe News super team in that same position.

He was a regional qualifier in the spring year and last year also qualified in the discuss event.

As a scholastic achiever, he is a B-plus student.

"I just wish he had four more years of eligibility," one of his coaches sighed.

Classmates voted him Most Handsome one year.

1B

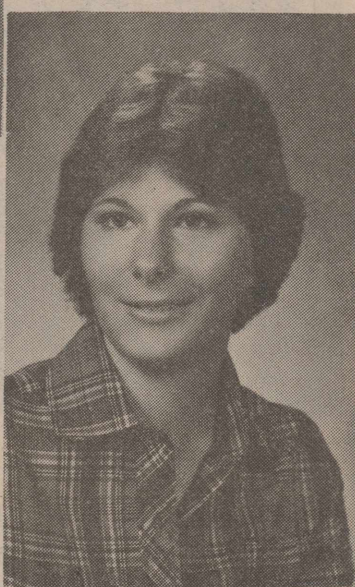

Richard's hobby is fishing. He attends Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church.

Out of school, he works with his father as a general contractor.

Several colleges are interested in Richard, and he plans to attend one of them on a football scholarship.

and skating are her hobbies. Darla belongs to First Baptist Church.

Next year she will attend West Texas State University.

DARLA GAY SEITZ

Secretary of the senior class is Darla Seitz, who has held several other major offices during her high school years.

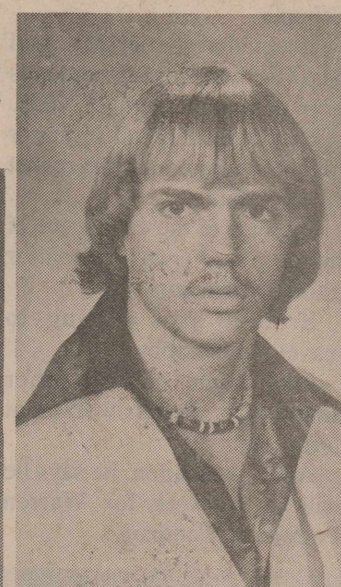

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Seitz, 705 Floydada Street, she was born January 12, 1961 at Shamrock. She is the twin of another graduate, Carla Seitz, and has attended only Wellington schools.

A member of Future Homemakers of America four years, she was treasurer as a freshman. She was also freshman student council member, sophomore treasurer, and is a four-year member of Beta Club. As a junior she worked on the annual, and she has been a teacher's aide and office aide.

Outside of high school she was a member of Ko Shari.

Darla was honored with the outstanding citizenship award of La Paisana Chapter, DAR, this year.

Snow skiing, tole painting

KEVIN HALL

Another of the school's excellent athletes is Kevin Hall, who has been outstanding in football, basketball and track.

His record goes back through the seventh grade.

Kevin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall of 1710 Haskell Street. He was born here July 15, 1961 and has attended only the Wellington Schools.

This year he was picked for both offensive and defensive District 2-A, for the District 2-A all-district football team both as a defensive back and offensive split end;

He was also on all-district selection for basketball this spring.

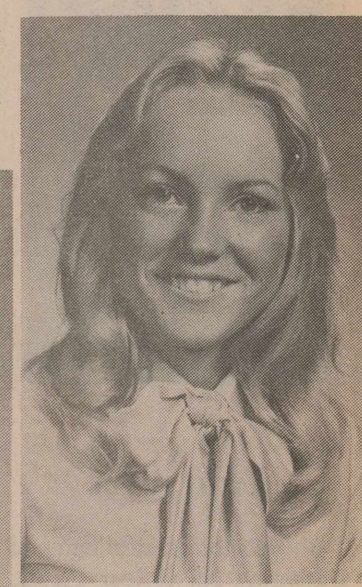

During his junior year of track participation, he was a regional qualifier in 120 yard high hurdles, and as a senior was the regional qualifier in the sprint relay, mile relay and 120 high hurdles.

Fishing, hunting and listening to his stereo are his hobbies.

Kevin attends First Baptist Church.

Like some of the other boys, he farms with his father. Kevin plans to attend college next fall on an athletic scholarship.

VANESSA INGRAM

Not everyone has a distinctive birthday, but Vanessa Gail Ingram was a New Year's baby in 1961. She is the daughter of Clyde Ingram, 1308 Belton St., and was born in Wellington. She attended Stinnett and Ft. Worth schools before coming here.

Not in many years has WHS had so outstanding a girl athlete. District 2-A coaches chose her as a 1978 all-district guard and she was on the Shamrock all-tournament team. Besides basketball she played tennis and was on the girls' track team several years.

She was a Skyrocket cheerleader and attendant to the football queen three years.

Classmates elected her junior vice president, Friendliest girl for four years, most spirited. She is listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Track, tennis and working are her hobbies and Vanessa is presently employed at Thomas Boys Grocery.

She belongs to First Baptist Church, and has worked conscientiously with the Red Cross Bloodmobile.

Next year she will attend Amarillo Junior College.

KATHY FIELDS

She has the musical name of Katherine Lili O'Rear Fields, but her friends call her Kathy. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Rear and also the wife of James D. Fields. She was born in Wellington and has attended only the Wellington Schools.

She was one of the excellent band students, having played from the fifth grade through her junior year. Another of her activities was Future Homemakers of America.

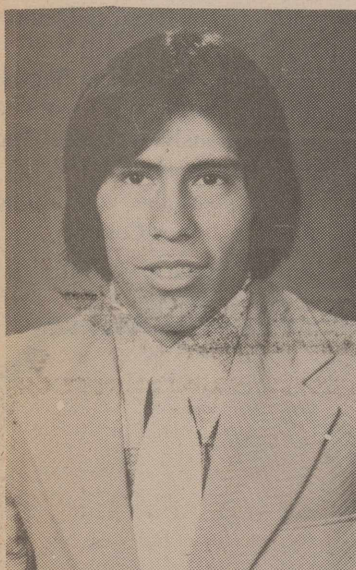

Kathy left school at the end of the first quarter and has completed her high school work by correspondence from Texas Tech University.

She and Fields were married March 21, 1978, and they have a four-months old daughter, Teresa Kay, for whom she cared while working on her lessons.

Swimming and skiing are Kathy's hobbies.

She is a member of First Baptist Church.

Unable to attend college now, she says she may enroll later.

ERMINIO NEVAREZ

Erminio Nevarez is a senior who has gone to school at both ends of the state. He attended Junction Elementary School several years before coming to the Panhandle with his family to attend Wellington High School.

School.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fermin Nevarez and was born at Uvalde Sept. 25, 1959.

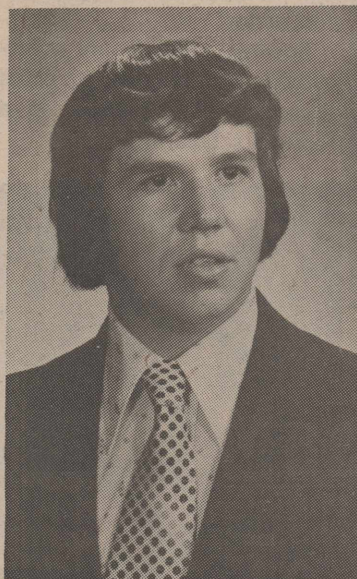

He played football in junior high and was on the Skyrocket varsity team.

Because of the excellence of his playing, he was chosen for all-district honors.

Erminio says getting to travel is his hobby.

Like some of the other senior boys, he has worked at farm jobs.

After graduation, he says he will go to work for Warren Petroleum Company.

MICHEL LEE RAY

Michiel Lee Ray is one of the students who has quietly gone his way but whose fine scholastic ability is a credit to WHS. His teachers feel he has the potential to go far.

The son of Gerald D. Ray of Wellington, he was born June 30, 1960 in Pineville, Louisiana. He attended Gorum Elementary School from 1966 to 1969, and the Wellington Schools since then.

As a freshman and sophomore, Michiel played football and ran track.

He was treasurer of his club as a junior and senior, and this year he is a member of the student council.

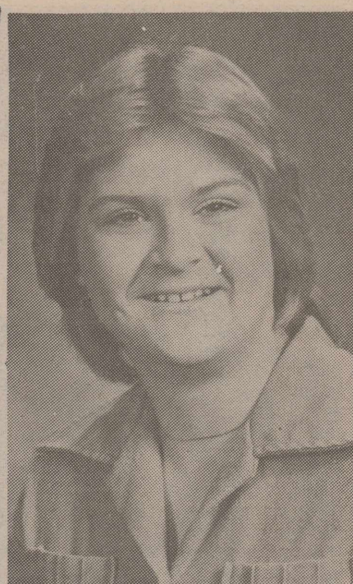

He was named an outstanding student in auto mechanics, and also in Texas History and government.

Fishing, hunting and sports are his hobbies.

Michiel is already learning about the working world, having a job at Wellington Veterinary Hospital.

Next year he will attend West Texas State University.

In parts of France it was considered good luck to dress up a cat in ribbons and ears of corn during harvesting.

CAROL ANN DAVES

Athletics, drama, and home economics have blended in the high school career of Carol Ann Daves, who has divided her years between Quail, Tascosa High Amarillo and Wellington schools.

She is the daughter of Carroll Daves, Wellington and Mrs. Barbara Kindle of Amarillo. She was born December 9, 1960 at Wellington.

A four-year member of FHA, she was secretary, and at Tascosa was president of the HERO chapter. She played basketball and at Quail was chosen Texas Panhandle Standout. She played varsity tennis two years and was a regional UIL qualifier in track. She was freshman class secretary.

Carol Ann was chosen the wittiest student, elected to Who's Who Among American High School Students and is the outstanding student in Home Economics Cooperative Education. She participated in Speech II plays two years and was UIL contest play stage manager two.

Water skiing, playing tennis and traveling are her hobbies. Carol Ann is a member of First Baptist Church.

She works with her father in Carroll's Flowers as a designer.

Next year she will attend Amarillo College, majoring in business and working at Bill Day's Flowerland.

BEVERLY ORR

When Beverly Orr is involved in some organization it is almost certain she'll be elected an officer. This is true of Band, where she was sergeant-at-arms.

She was president of Future Homemakers two years and vice president one, served as student body vice president and sang in the FHA Area FHA choir, student council member, as Beta club officer as a junior, and is senior class reporter.

She belonged to Beta Club four years and is an Honor Student (Speech II) this year. She played in the band two years.

Beverly brought UIL honors to the school, being chosen for the District 2-A One Act Play all-star cast and receiving honorable mention at UIL Area One; last year she won second in persuasive speaking and was a regional finalist; this year she placed first and again was a regional finalist.

She was listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Singing and riding horses, and cooking are her hobbies.

Beverly is a member of First United Methodist Church, she sings in the choir and is active in its youth group.

In community service, she participated in the American Heart Fund Drive.

Next year she will attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Weatherford to major in speech and drama.

LYNDA BROOKS

On her Senior Series information sheet, Lynda Brooks says proudly: "I work for The Wellington Leader!!!" The newspaper staff is proud of her, too.

Lynda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brooks, 1707 Park Lane. She was born at Tulia, Sept. 11, 1960, but has attended only the Wellington Schools.

She played in That Skyrocket Band three years, and for three years she was active in Future Homemakers of America.

She has a special interest in speech classes and was in the cast of the district and area winning UIL One Act Play. She also had a part in the children's play.

Other honors include listing as an outstanding student in Home and Family Living.

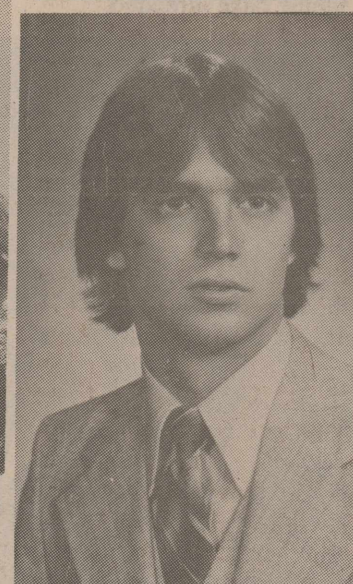

Hobbies include reading and swimming.

She is active in First Baptist Church.

Lynda will attend college, but she has not decided where.

Besides not getting a job, you may lose money,

JACEN ALLEN JEFFREY

Jacen Allen Jeffrey, one of the seniors interested in technical studies, plans to enroll in Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo next year.

He is the son of Roy Jeffrey, Jr., and was born in Amarillo. He will be 18 in June. All of his school work was in Wellington.

Jacen was involved in the auto mechanics activities and was a member of Future Farmers of America.

His hobbies are motorcycles and fishing.

Another senior with a job, he works for Leo Popwell in his custom farming operation.

.. and congratulations to the hope of our future---

MIKE GUTHRIE

Honors come easily to Mike Guthrie, who really is Michael, and before he was out of high school, he was elected president of the Ex-Students Association.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Dah Guthrie, he was born April 23, 1961, in Wellington. He attended Quail School 12 years.

He was FFA treasurer in 1976-77 and president the following year. This year he is captain of the Quails, was on the annual staff three years, treasurer of the freshman and sophomore classes, and vice-president of the juniors and seniors.

Mike received awards in chemistry and vocational agriculture, and was named Who's Who in government. Classmates named him Mr. Personality two years, and Most Likely to Succeed. In FFA he was the Star Greenhand, Star Chapter Farmer and honored for his diversified livestock production.

Outside of school, he received the Excellence in American History award from La Paisana chapter, DAR, two years and was named to Who's Who Among American High School Students and to Distinguished American High School Students.

His hobbies are fishing, hunting and helping in the community.

Mike attends Quail Baptist Church and belongs to Fellowships of Christian Athletes. Active in the community he worked to help rebuild Quail School.

He has a job with Bud Hogan Construction, Pampa, and this fall will attend West Texas State University.

RICKY NEEDHAM

Farming is the principal interest of Ricky Needham, and it is to be expected Future Farmers of America has held his attention in school.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Needham, he was born Nov. 26, 1959 in Wellington.

He was FFA secretary and held office again this year. He received his Greenhand pin, secretary's pin and mechanic's pin. Ricky was a member of Future Homemakers of America.

He attends Quail Baptist Church.

He names his hobbies as modified tractors and farming and his plans are to work with his father in doing custom work for the community, which includes cotton harvesting.

DONNA MARIE LANGLEY

Valedictorian of the graduating class, Donna Marie Langley finds this the most important of many honors she has received.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Langley and was born Feb. 20, 1961, in Wellington. All of her school work was at Quail.

This year, Donna is president of the basketball team. She was president of sophomore, junior and senior classes and freshman vice president. On the annual staff three years she is the current editor. For two years she was class favorite, and for three was on the All-District basketball team.

She was named Most Beautiful, and FFA Sweetheart. This year she was chosen Pie Supper Queen, Most Likely to Succeed and Best All Around Girl. She was listed in Who's Who four years and was named to the Society of Distinguished American High School Students.

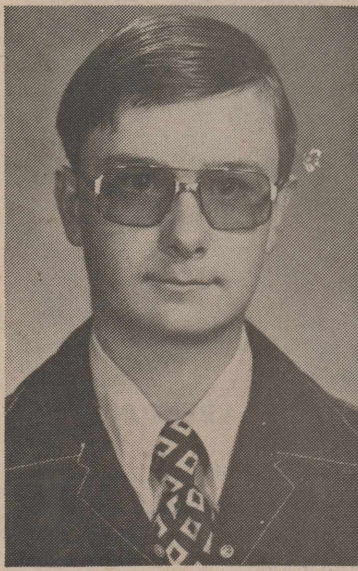

Outside of school, she received the DAR Good Citizenship Award, DAR History Award and attended the Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar.

Donna's hobbies are playing basketball, swimming, horseback riding and cooking, Math is her favorite subject.

With her family, she attends the Primitive Baptist Church.

She will attend Clarendon Junior College.

In Victorian days, it was considered unladylike to eat cheese.

BILL KENNEDY

Bill Kennedy, who attended Quail school 12 years, has been a class officer the last four.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Kennedy of Route 1, Hedley and was born at Memphis, August 5, 1961.

He was especially active in Future Farmers of America Chapter four years and served as its treasurer. He also received the Greenhand pin and honors in crop production and livestock judging.

Bill says his hobbies are racing cars, drag racing and modified tractors.

He is a member of First Baptist Church in Hedley.

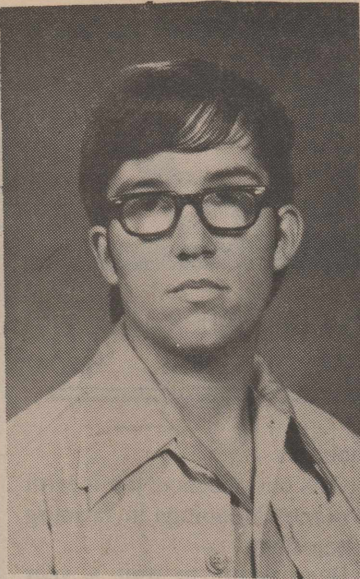

Next year Bill plans to attend Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo to become a diesel mechanic.

LEANN MARCUM

This year's class favorite, LaNita LeAnn Marcum has attended Quail High School since 1974.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Marcum, 514 North Wall, Shamrock, and was born in Los Angeles, Calif., March 14, 1961. She attended school at Tulare,

RICHARD BURBA

Richard Burba has brought honors to the school through his musical ability. He played in the band four years and in 1978 was chose for the All-Region Band. He also won a first division in the UIL solo contest and was a state finalist in solo competition.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burba, 1212 Graham Street, and was born at Wellington January 29, 1961. He has attended Wellington Schools 12 years.

He was a member of Beta Club three years, took part in a number of other school activities and plays tennis.

In fact, tennis and music are his hobbies.

He attends First Baptist Church and sings in the choir.

With his twin brother, Robert, he is distributor for the Amarillo News, and together they frequently pick up other short term jobs. Richard has worked for the Ritz Theatre.

Next year he will attend Clarendon College.

Calif., then Corpus Christi from 1967 to 1974, before coming to Quail.

She was a class officer four years and Future Homemakers of America officer three. LeAnn is captain of the basketball team, belonged to FHA four years and was on the annual staff three.

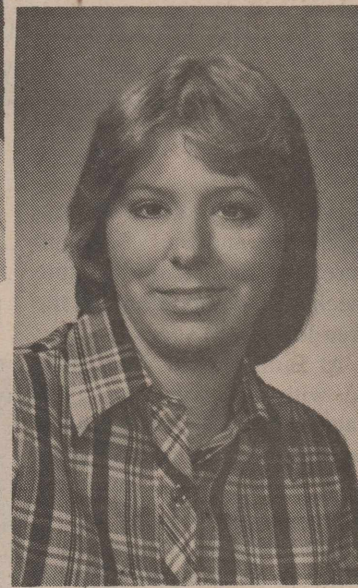

She has received major honors, including Pie Supper Queen as a junior, and this year she was chosen to the Society of Distinguished American High School Students.

Basketball, swimming and riding horses are her hobbies. English is her favorite subject.

She is a member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

LeAnn is undecided about college, but her present plans are to stay home and work.

WHS Seniors

CARLA SEITZ

The seniors have one set of twin girls, and Carla Ray Seitz is half of this pair.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Seitz, 705 Floydada Street, and was born January 12, 1961 at Shamrock. She has attended only Wellington schools.

A member of Future Homemakers four years, she was recreations officer as a junior and historian this year. Through the HECE Program this year, she has worked at Gibson's.

The last two years she was a teacher's aide at Elementary school and last year she also was a library aide.

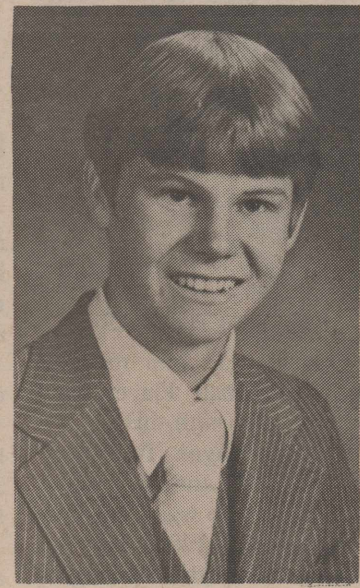

Carla's hobbies are tole painting, fishing and bicycle riding.

She is a member of First Baptist Church.

In the community, she worked with the Red Cross Bloodmobile.

She has not decided if she will attend college.

In 1966-7, Sr. Francis Chichester circumnavigated the world in his yacht, Gipsy Moth, sailing 29,000 miles in 226 days.

ROBBY MURDOCK

An outstanding student in That Skyrocket Band, Robby Murdock has played in it through high school and the results of much hard work came this year. He was selected for the Greenbelt Honor Band and also received a first division rating in the UIL solo and ensemble contest.

Robby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murdock, Jr., 1606 Amarillo St. and was born March 23, 1961, in Artesia N.M. All of his school work has been in Wellington.

He ranks high scholastically and belonged to Beta Club three years. He received a scholarship from West Texas State University.

Swimming and bird watching are the hobbies he names. Robby belongs to Fundamental Baptist Church.

For several years he has worked after school and on Saturdays, first at Parsons Drug, now at My-T-Burger.

He will attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Weatherford next year.

The famous lover Casanova spent the last 13 years of his life as a librarian.

Welcome to Norwood

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Parrish moved recently from Shamrock to their farm four miles north of Samnorwood.

Both grew up in Shamrock and farmed in that area.

They have two grown daughters, Phyllis Jamison of Amarillo and Mrs. Thurman (Debbie) Roper of Quanah. There are four grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Parrish belong to Samnorwood Church of Christ.

He is a nephew of Mrs. Lewis Green of Wellington.

GROVER GRAHAM Mgr.

TERESA L. HODGES

The WHS student with the lovely voice is Teresa Hodges, and it is something that brings joy through her participation in community and church activities.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hodges, 1722 East Avenue, she was born March 8, 1961, in Muleshoe. She attended Anson Elementary School a year before coming to Wellington.

She belonged to FHA four years, and sang in the Area FHA choir two, was vice-president three, played in That Skyrocket Band three, and was a Beta Club member two years. She was a JV cheerleader and played JV basketball two years. Classmates elected her a junior officer.

Teresa is student body vice-president, was chosen most talented and an outstanding student in health and home and family.

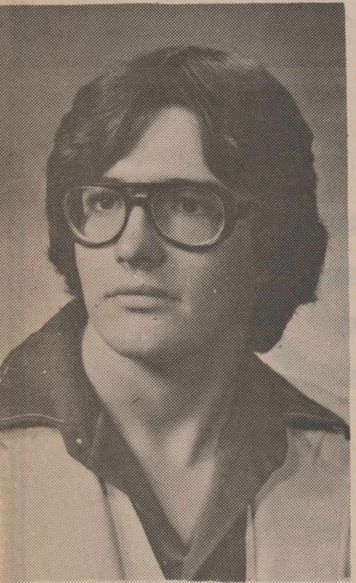

Outside school, she was included in Distinguished American High School Students two years.

Teresa's hobbies are singing, cooking and decorating cakes.

She is a member of First Baptist Church, sang in the youth choir four years, and was an Acteen member and officer.

With DiAna Schaub she was half of a singing duet which appeared frequently at banquets, other events, and before religious groups.

Teresa will attend West Texas State University.

SCOTT PEEKS

Another senior who has found his niche in auto mechanics studies is Terry Scott Peeks, who was a first place winner in recent auto mechanics competition on the area level. He has also attended the VICA club state convention.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peeks, 1300 Haskell Street, he was born February 18, 1960 at Crosbyton. All of his school years have been in Wellington.

Scott was a member of Future Farmers of America and played football.

He was one of the group that drove to Shamrock one night each week for studies qualifying him for some college hours, Scott's interest are boating, fishing, hunting, cars and motorcycles.

He is a member of First Baptist Church and its Acteens.

After school hours and on weekends, he works at Wellington Lumber Co.

Next year Scott will attend West Texas State University.

JEANNE MORRIS

This year's Homecoming Queen was Jeanne Morris, and that is only one of a number of major honors she has won.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerol Morris, 1209 Amarillo Street, she was born Oct. 20, 1960, in St. Joseph's Hospital.

She attended Quail School in the first grade and Wellington Schools since.

Jeanne was an FHA officer and student council member, junior class secretary and senior vice president.

She played basketball three years, managed the Rockette team this year and the track team two.

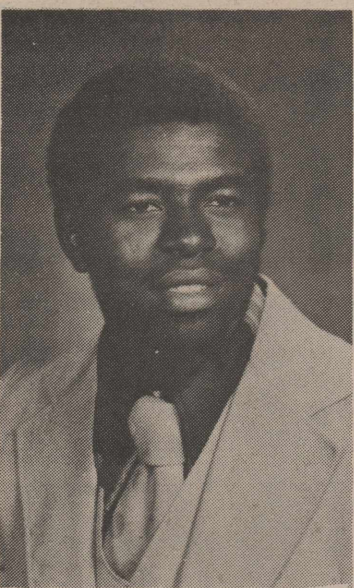

She was voted class favorite as a junior and senior, and friendliest girl. For three years she was a varsity cheerleader.

Honors outside of school were inclusion in Who's Who Among American High School Students the last two years.

Reading and swimming are her hobbies.

Jeanne is a member of First Christian Church. She helped with the Bible School and taught a Sunday School Class.

She will attend West Texas State University with a major in elementary education and minor in business.

JOSEPH THOMAS

Coaches call him the Ace No. 1 Football Player, and others agree with this.

Joseph Wayne Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mathis and he was born here January 16, 1960. He has attended only the Wellington Schools.

Joseph was selected as District 2-A all district center two consecutive years. He was named to the first team on defense last fall. He was chosen as player for the week after the Elk City game by the Amarillo Globe News.

Joseph began playing football in the seventh grade and in his four years in high school was a Skyrocket varsity letterman three.

He is regarded physically as probably one of the strongest kids in high school.

"He'll be a heck of a man to replace at center," said a coach.

Joe says cars and food are his hobbies.

He is active in Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church and sings in its choir.

He has a good voice and sings in its choir as well as giving solo parts.

The school board recently elected him to be one of the school's maintenance men for the 1979-80 school year.

DON OLDHAM

Barry Don Oldham has attended Wellington Schools two years, during which he was a valued member of the class.

He is the son of Mrs. Lenora Oldham and the late W.W. Oldham, and was born in Shamrock June 5, 1960.

The first 10 years of his school work was at Samnorwood, where he belonged to

WHS Seniors

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, May 24, 1979 4B

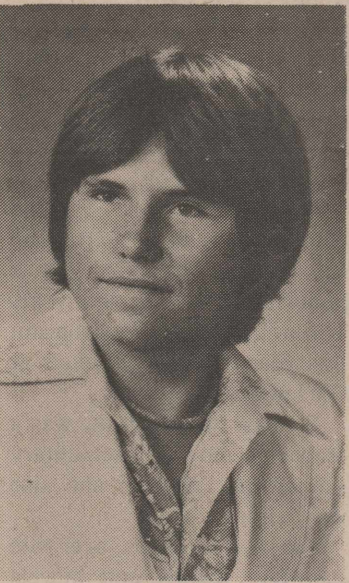

Future Farmers of America two years.

He has been active in auto mechanics and the VICA club here, and participated in auto mechanics competition on the area level both years.

At Samnorwood, Don worked with his father on their farm, and since coming here he has worked for Gibsons, J.W. Seitz Garage and held short-term jobs.

Don belongs to and was active in Samnorwood Baptist Church.

Next year he plans to study diesel mechanics at Odessa College.

DEAN DEVOSS

Rodeos and being a rodeo cowboy have been one of the principal interests of William Dean Devoss during his four years in Wellington High School.

The son of Michael and Iva Devoss, his home is 107 North Arlington Street. He was born April 21, 1960 at Edmond, Okla., and attended school in Arlington eight years before coming here.

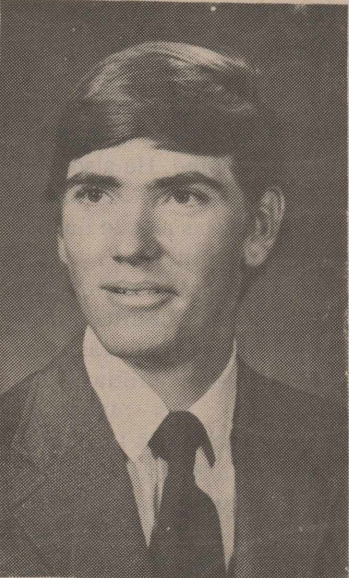

Dean played football two years, he was active in Future Farmers of America and was one of its officers, and he belonged to the Rodeo Club.

DAVID BAUMGARDNER

President of the graduating class is David Baumgardner, Jr., who was also president of the sophomore and junior classes, and before that, of the seventh and eighth grades.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Baumgardner, Route 2, and he was born here September 27, 1960. He attended only Wellington schools.

David was on the Skyrocket varsity football team as a junior and senior and received all-district halfback honors in 1977 and was chosen all-district offensive halfback in 1978.

He was regional qualifier on the track team in 1978.

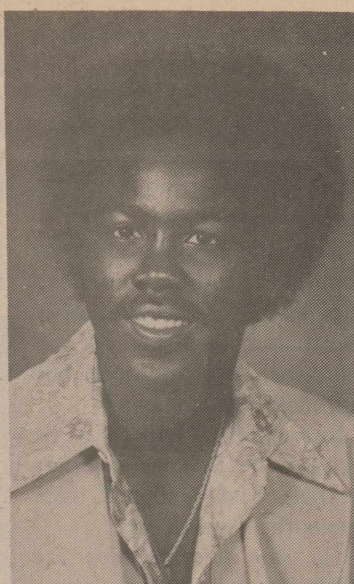

Classmates chose him as the school's most intellectual and most courteous.

Outside of school, he won 4-H Club honors and exhibited several grand champion calves in the county livestock show and at Amarillo. He was a 4-H Club Gold Star Boy, highest county award to be won.

David is a member of First United Methodist Church.

Outside of school, he has worked on his father's farm. Like all the other Baumgardners for almost half a century, he will attend Texas Tech University.

The four of clubs is considered an unlucky card.

RICKY JONES

Ricky Jones has brought athletic recognition to himself and the school.

He holds the school record for most yards gained in a single football season, more than 1,200. He had two 1,000 yard plus seasons for the last two years.

Ricky was chosen for the Golden Spread super team as a running back, as UIL 2-A all-district running back when a junior and as a running back on offense and linebacker on defense as a senior. He was a Skyrocket captain.

Along with several team members, he has been involved in football since seventh grade.

During three years of basketball, he was named to the all-district team as a junior and received honorable mention as a senior.

In UIL track competition, he was a regional qualifier in the spring relay during sophomore and junior years.

Ricky's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones, 510 Ft. Worth Street. He was born here August 25, 1960, and attended only the Wellington Schools.

Classmates elected him president of the freshman class and named him to the student council. He was chosen junior class favorite.

are his hobbies.

Don belongs to First United Methodist Church and is active in United Methodist Youth.

Next year he will attend the University of Texas at Austin.

CHUCK DARTER

A senior with an inquiring mind and a long list of achievements, which he passes over lightly, Chuck Darter is in the list of 10 top graduates scholastically.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darter, and he is also Charles, although seldom called that. He was born at Patterson, New Jersey, June 27, 1961, and attended Ft. Worth Public Schools until second grade, then Wellington for the remainder of the time.

A Beta Club member, he has also participated in many speech activities and was in the regional qualifying UIL one act play in 1978.

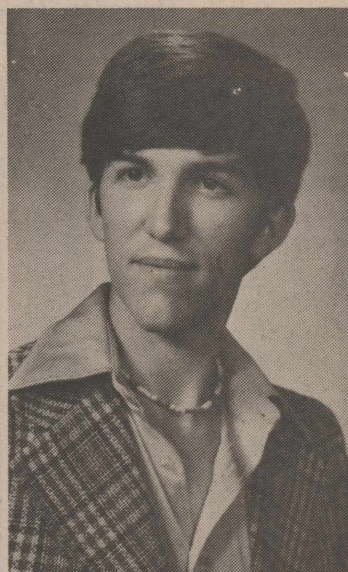

He was also a UIL regional qualifier in persuasive speaking that year.

The American Legion chose him to attend its Boy's State between his junior and senior years.

Chuck is an Eagle Scout and was tapped for the Order of the Arrow. He has been involved in a number of other Scouting events open to achievers in that organization. His hobby is swimming.

Chuck works at Langford Brothers Conoco.

Next year he will attend Texas Tech University.

ROBERT BURBA

Valedictorian of the 1979 graduating class is Robert Carl Burba, an outstanding student through high school.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burba, 1212 Graham St., he was born Jan. 29, 1961, in Wellington and attended only the Wellington Schools.

The tuba player in That Skyrocket Band four years, he is its historian, was in the all-region band three years, and selected for the Greenbelt Honor Band.

He was in this year's UIL One-Act Play contest that went to area, was a regional qualifier in poetry interpretation and number sense. He was in the children's play and on the speech team and is listed in the Society of Distinguished American High School Students three years.

Classmates voted him the most talented and he was named an outstanding student in Speech II, Government and Texas History.

Robert was a Beta Club member and treasurer, and business manager of the annual staff two years.

Outside of school, he was the American Legion Oratorical Contest state semi-finalist as a junior and senior.

Robert belongs to First Baptist Church and sings in the youth choir. He is employed at Lewis Grocery, and with his brother, Richard, is distributor for the Amarillo News.

He will attend West Texas State University.
