The SDN Column

Keeping tab on our neighbors:

We had just turned in the column with Ted Crenwelge's comments about a cattlemen's experience with "reverse rustling" when Kim Pease walked in. He was in town, as he is every Wednesday, for the regular press run of his Rotan Advance and Roby Star-Record, which is printed on our press. It happened that in this issue, Pease had published a list of "Minimum Requirements for Ranching." We had seen a similar list a few years ago—perhaps the same one. But it still made interesting reading.

Anyway, here's what you need, according to this list, to become a rancher:

1. A wide-brimmed hat, one pair of tight pants, and $20 boots from a discount house.
2. At least two head of livestock, preferably one male, one female.
3. A new, air-conditioned pickup with automatic transmission, power steering and trailer hitch.
4. A gun rack for the rear window of the pickup, big enough to hold a walking stick and rope.
5. Two dogs to ride in the bed of the pickup.
6. A $440 horse and $300 saddle.
7. A gooseneck trailer, small enough to park in front of a cafe.
8. A little place to keep the cows, on land too poor to grow crops.
9. A spool of barbed wire, three cedar posts and a bale of prairie hay to haul around in the truck all day.
10. Credit at the bank.
11. Credit at the feed store.
12. Credit with your father-in-law.
13. A good neighbor to feed the dogs and cattle whenever you are in Colorado fishing or hunting.
14. A pair of silver spurs to wear to barbecues.
15. A rubber cushion to sit on for four hours at the auction ring every Thursday.
16. A second-hand car for going out to feed the cows when your son-in-law borrows the pickup.
17. A good pocket knife, suitable for whittling to pass away the time at the auction ring.
18. A good wife who won't get upset when you walk across the living room carpet with manure on your boots.
20. A good wife with a good full-time job at the courthouse.

And it doesn't do any harm to have a few oil wells pumping on the little place.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, March 7, the 66th day of 1975. There are 299 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

In 1867, a patent was granted to Alexander Graham Bell for the first telephone.

On this date -

In 1573, war between Turkey and Venice was ended by the Peace of Constantinople.

In 1724, Pope Innocent III died.

In 1926, the first successful trans-Atlantic radiotelephone conversation took place between New York and London.

In 1936, Adolf Hitler ordered his troops to march into the Rhineland, breaking the Treaty of Versailles and the Locarno Pact.

In 1945, in World War II, The U.S. 1st Army crossed the Rhine River south of Cologne, Germany.

In 1971, the United States sent 1,000 military planes over Laos and Cambodia to support a South Vietnamese drive to cut enemy supply lines.

Ten years ago: Alabama state troopers used tear gas at Selma to break up an attempted civil rights march to Montgomery.

Five years ago: Darkness spread from southern Mexico to the Maritime Provinces of Canada as the moon eclipsed the sun.

One year ago: Striking coal miners in Britain were returning to work, and the London government lifted a three-day work week that had crippled British industry for two months.

Ford Will Compromise On Aid For Cambodia

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford will settle for less than the $222 million in emergency aid he previously said was essential for the survival of Cambodia, White House officials say.

This tilt toward compromise was acknowledged after Ford told a news conference Thursday night that Cambodia could fall to the Communists if Congress doesn't approve more military assistance within "10 days or two weeks."

Still, while saying that "time is running out" and "there is no hope" without aid for the Southeast Asian nation, Ford never used the $222 million figure so prominently advertised in the past as the necessary amount.

The White House sources would not disclose exactly that Ford might accept otherwise, but Rep. Paul McCloskey, R-Calif., has been proposing a $116 million sum since he returned earlier this week from a fact-finding tour of South Vietnam and Cambodia.

Although the issue of Cambodia took the largest share of the half-hour, nationally broadcast news conference, Ford also was questioned on the economy and politics, and he made these points:

—Unemployment, which stood at 8.2 per cent in January, could go as high as 9 per cent, although "I have doubts that it will."

—Whatever the climb in the jobless rate, "a greater tax reduction," not an increase in federal spending, would be the preferred remedy.

—Whatever the size of the tax cut, middle-income Americans should get greater relief to spur consumer spending, Ford added. The big problem "is not the size of the tax cut, but the slowness with which Congress is acting on it," he said.

—Congress is making alarming moves toward increasing the already burdensome $52 billion federal deficit he has proposed. "That figure is too much, and anything above that is very, very bad," he said.

—"Nelson Rockefeller is doing a very fine job as vice president." The Republican party has "an excellent chance to prevail in 1976" but the party "has to be a broad-based, wide-spectrum party if it's going to be a viable force," Ford said.

While he spoke optimistically about such matters, it was Cambodia that was on his mind and the minds of the reporters. In fact, it wasn't until the news conference reached its 21st minute that questions turned to the economy.

No Contest In School Vote

Two members of the board of trustees of the Snyder Independent School District will be unopposed on the ballot for the April 5 election.

The deadline for candidates to file for places on the ballot was Thursday and only the two incumbents, Dillard Teal and Ted Crenwelge, had filed.

Teal, the current president of the board, holds Place 6, while Crenwelge holds Place 7 on the board.

Absentee voting in the school election will begin March 17 and continue through April 1 at the school administration building.

Rites Set For Child

James Dale Stanford, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stanford, Arah Route, died at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at the family home after a long illness.

Funeral service has been set for 2 p.m. Saturday at the Bell-Seale Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. James Terry, pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

In addition to the parents, survivors include a sister, Jennifer Denise Stanford; a brother, Joseph Darwin Stanford; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kilgore of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitehead of Cross Plains.

Jobless Rate Holds At 8.2% In February

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate in February remained unchanged at 8.2 per cent, even though another 540,000 workers — most of them in manufacturing industries — lost their jobs during the month, the government reported today.

The Labor Department said the loss in jobs was more than offset by 580,000 dropouts from the labor force, mostly adult women and teen-agers who stopped looking for jobs altogether during the nation's current recession.

When a person stops looking for a job, he or she is no longer counted in the labor force and is no longer considered an unemployed person for statistical purposes.

While over-all unemployment remained unchanged from January, the jobless rate for manufacturing workers rose in February for the ninth consecutive month to 11 per cent, the Labor Department said.

It said there were 425,000 fewer manufacturing jobs in February, with all 21 industries accounted in the index showing decreases.

Over-all, there was a slight increase reported in the unemployment rate for married men, from 4.5 to 4.7 per cent, and for all adult men, from 6 to 6.2 per cent although these rates remained below the peak levels during the 1949 and 1958 recessions.

The jobless rate for most subgroups within the labor force were essentially unchanged for January.

The largest cutbacks were reported in major metals industries and in textiles, apparel, and rubber and plastic products.

Reflecting the depth of the nation's recession, the department said manufacturing employment in February totalled 18.3 million, the lowest level since September of 1965.

Several administration economists had privately predicted the unemployment rate would increase in February for the seventh consecutive month, but they apparently had not anticipated the large number of work force dropouts.

Market Climbs

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued climbing in active trading today, but some evident hesitancy over the unemployment picture slowed the rate of advance.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, up 8.99 points Thursday, had picked up another 2.97 to 764.78 by noon today. Gainers outnumbered losers by about a 2-1 margin on the New York Stock Exchange.

As trading began, the government reported that the unemployment rate stabilized at 8.2 per cent in February, but only because it was calculated with the exclusion from the work force of 580,000 jobless workers who were said to have stopped seeking new employment.

Senate Votes For Cloture

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted today to limit further debate on making it easier to choke off filibusters.

By restricting each senator's speaking time on a compromise rules change to one hour, the vote was another key move toward curbing the talkathons.

The vote for cloture was 73 to 21, or 10 more than the required two thirds majority of senators voting.

Leaders called the Senate into session 3½ hours earlier than usual in hopes of keeping resolution of the issue from being delayed until next week.

Limiting debate on the issue, which has occupied the Senate for weeks, is designed to force a showdown vote.

That vote would be on whether to allow future filibusters to be ended by a three-fifths majority of the Senate membership, or 60 of 100 senators.

Under the compromise, a two-thirds majority of senators voting would be required to halt debate on further rule changes.

Leaders were confident the two-thirds majority of senators voting, necessary for the cloture, would be obtained because of a 73-21 vote two days ago on a preliminary debate cutoff move.

Social Security Fund Aid Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Warning that inflation and recession are plunging the Social Security system into deficit, an advisory council urged Congress today to pump $7 billion in general tax revenues into the program next year.

The council, composed of 13 prominent private citizens, said the addition of general funds would free payroll contributions into the Medicare hospitalization fund to meet rising benefit payments to more than 30 million retirees in 1976.

The council was sharply divided on that recommendation. Some members favored an alternative plan of levying higher Social Security payroll taxes.

The council recommended:

—Determining future Social Security retirement benefits on the average increase of earnings.

—Allowing retirees to retain more of their outside earnings.

—Equalizing the treatment of men and women, providing the same benefits for fathers and divorced men as now are paid to mothers and divorced women.

—Easing the disability test, allowing up to 80 per cent of benefits for workers aged 55 or over when they can no longer perform jobs "for which they have considerable regular experience."

The council said the present deficit problem is not as serious as the one that will face Social Security early in the next century, when the lower U.S. fertility rate is expected to produce relatively fewer workers to support retirees.

The report recommended no increase at the present time in Social Security tax rates beyond those already scheduled in law, although some members of the council favored such an increase.

Briscoe Supports Insurance Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Anybody who has been denied health insurance benefits for obscure reasons, or puzzled over the language of a policy, will applaud Gov. Dolph Briscoe's proposed bicentennial gift to Texans.

Briscoe stood up Thursday with State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie and Rep. Ron Coleman, D-El Paso, to urge passage of a bill to take the mystery and occasional fraud out of health insurance.

Coleman will sponsor the bill, and Christie's staff wrote it after a year's study of health insurance—which Christie called the "area of the most abuse in Texas."

Not only would the bill result in simpler, more uniform language on health and accident policies, but also it would give the board a new power to keep premiums in line with benefits.

"This is as big a reform as the readability thing, a board staff member said.

Briscoe, in his "state of the state" message to the legislature in January called for action to eliminate confusion, misrepresentation and undercoverage in the accident and health—"A&H"—field.

"When an industry grows to the size of the health and accident insurance industry, there are bound to be abuses ... Health and accident insurance is so vital to the economic well-being of all our people that it must be subject to additional scrutiny," Briscoe said at Thursday's news conference.

Christie spoke in stronger terms.

He said the elderly have been defrauded in numerous cases by unscrupulous A&H agents. Old people are handed applications to sign that ask no more about their medical history than have you ever been sick," and later are denied benefits because of "pre-existing conditions," he said.

This abuse is known as "post-underwriting"—determining whether a person should be covered after he files a claim, not before he is accepted as a policyholder.

The bill would direct the board to set standards to make policies readable and definitions uniform. There would have to be "full and fair disclosure of policy terms."

All A&H policies issued or renewed after July 4, 1976, would have to accompanied by a plain English outline of policy provisions.

GOP Chairman Warns Party In Serious Trouble

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON AP-Citing a poll showing only 18 per cent of Americans consider themselves Republicans, GOP Chairman Mary Louise Smith warned today that the party is in serious trouble and that "time is running out."

"Unless you and I get together and work for this party, we may have no party at all," Mrs. Smith said in a speech launching a two-day meeting of Republican leaders.

President Ford, Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller and former California Gov. Ronald Reagan headed the speakers' list for the meeting of some 1,800 top Republicans that party leaders hope will launch a massive effort to rebuild Republican ranks for 1976.

Ford speaks at a dinner tonight.

The task that rebuilding the GOP entails was demonstrated in a 34-page collection of statistics prepared for the leadership conference as a result of polling conducted late last year for the Republican National Committee by Market Opinion Research, a private firm.

The poll showed that 18 per cent of Americans consider themselves Republicans, while 42 per cent consider themselves Democrats and 40 per cent independents. The figures represent a steady decline in GOP strength over the past two decades while Democratic strength declined a small amount and independent support rose.

Republican support was highest among rural residents (21 per cent), housewives (25 per cent), persons 65-years-old and over (31 per cent), those with incomes of more than $35,000 (30 per cent) and in the border states (25 per cent) and Mountain states (27 per cent).

The poll showed that 22 per cent believed the GOP favored big business and the wealthy, while a like amount thought the Democrats favored workers, the common man and the "little guy."

Mrs. Smith's keynote speech to the conference was blunt in declaring that Republicans face a difficult task in rebuilding their party, though she said, "We may look back and see this day as the beginning of a Republican reawakening across America.

The November election was a disaster. Our party registration is dangerously low. There is dissension in our own ranks. The Democrats are poised and ready to devour us.

Film To Be Shown At 1st Assembly

The public is invited to a special presentation of "A Thief in the Night," a new 70-minute color film about Bible prophecy that will begin at 7 p.m. Sunday at the First Assembly of God Church, Nineteenth Street and College Avenue.

"A Thief in the Night" has been described as a motion picture that shows what can happened when Jesus Christ Returns. The story centers upon Patty, an average girl caught up in living for the present, with little concern about the future. What happens when this thinking finally catches up with her provides an action-packed drama.

Filmed on location in Iowa, the picture portrays with devastating reality the Biblical prediction, "There will be no place to hide."

Acclaimed as a film that "one does not merely view, he experiences it," it was given the "Best Film of the Year! award by the National Evangelical Film Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa. The lead actress, Patty Dunning, was given the "Outstanding Female Actress" award at the same time.

Williams, Ulmer Sentenced

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Two Colorado convicts, survivors of a trio that hacked a trail of violence across three states last August, have been assessed six life terms and six 10-year prison terms on charges of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

The two men, Dalton Williams and Jerry Ulmer, were sentenced Thursday by District Court Judge Herman Fitts after pleading guilty to the charges.

They were convicted of the murder of Jacqueline Ott on Aug. 24 near this Central Texas city.

Williams 29, and Ulmer 22, were captured last Aug. 27 just north of here after a three-day chase following their escape, along with Richard Mangum, from the Colorado prison at Canon City. Mangum was killed by officers when the three tried to break through a police cordon from an wooded area where they had been hiding.

Williams and Ulmer waived a jury trial and, after the sentences were handed down Wednesday, also waived appeals on all convictions.

Dist. Atty. Bob Glasgow asked the judge to dismiss four other charges against the two men, including two of burglary, one of aggravated assault and another of capital murder in the death of Mrs. Ott.

Glasgow said the two men were not tried for capital murder because the minimum cost for an individual trial would be $35,000.

Williams and Ulmer came into the courtroom in leg irons, shackle belts and handcuffs. Spectators were searched by officers before they entered the courtroom.

The two men also face two armed robbery charges in California, one of jail escape, two of auto theft in New Mexico and two of rape and kidnaping in New Mexico.

They also were charged in the fatal shooting of Rotan, Tex., rancher T. L. Baker on Aug. 24.

Williams was tried and sentenced to life in prison for the shooting.

'Choice' Beef Grade Expanded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's new grading system will result in consumers paying Choice prices for beef graded Good, the nation's largest consumer organization says.

The department decided Thursday to go ahead with its Sept. 11 proposal to change its beef-grading system, which industry groups helped write. The proposal drew comment from almost 5,000 individuals, firms and organizations.

"We're extremely disappointed at the Agriculture Department's unresponsiveness to the overwhelming feelings of American consumers," a spokeswoman for the Consumer Federation of American said.

Under the decision, the Choice grade will be expanded to cover about 90 per cent of the graded beef in the United States.

The new system also improves the eating quality standards of the Good grade and, in a move opposed by most of the meat industry, requires that all beef graded for quality also be "yield-graded" for the percentage of retail-trimmed meat in them.

The "consumer" grades — what shoppers might find in supermarkets—are, in descending order of fat content, Prime, Choice and Good.

It's three to one for cutting the cord

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: This is in reference to the 25-year-old girl who signed herself "Over Protected." She wanted her own apartment, was able to support herself, but her mother said: "Only tramps have their own apartments. Nice girls live at home."

Abby, I had the same problem. Only my problem was my father. I was 23 when I wanted to move out of my parents' home and into my own apartment. I was able to support myself, but my father insisted that I wanted to move so I could have men running in and out of my apartment all hours of the night. In fact, after I moved, he even watched my apartment for weeks, hoping he could say to my mother: "See? I told you so!"

Well, it never happened.

Abby, I was raised in a religious home where I was taught right from wrong, and I never forgot my upbringing. Parents should realize that grown children need to get out on their own, make their own decisions and become self-sufficient. And if they had the proper training and example, they will not be corrupted by temptation.

Your advice to "Over Protected" was great..."Cut the cord—and don't feel guilty."

"FREE, 24 AND RESPECTABLE"

DEAR FREE: Thanks. I needed that. Some parents wrote to tell me to drop dead with that kind of advice, but the mail is running three to one in my favor.

DEAR ABBY: A reader signed "Made My Plans" wrote that she wanted to leave her eyes and kidneys to medical science to benefit anyone who needed them after her death. Her problem was her daughter, who said: "I am not going to let them cut you up, etc."

I wish "Made My Plans" and her daughter could have been at our house last Sunday when my husband, who desperately needed a kidney transplant, was trying to explain to our five-year-old daughter why he was crying.

He had just received a telephone call informing him that a donor kidney was available, and to please come to the hospital for a possible transplant. MRS. E. IN N.C.

P.S. Kidney and husband are both doing well.

DEAR MRS. E.: Beautiful! Good luck to Mr. E. And God bless that donor.

DEAR ABBY: My wife keeps giving me a bad time because in church I use tissues for wiping my nose.

She thinks I should use a handkerchief.

It seems to me that in this modern day and age, tissues should be socially acceptable.

What do you say? MAC

DEAR MAC: I'm with you. Tissues are not only more hygienic, but I should think your wife would appreciate your reducing her laundry load a wee bit.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Toll Mounts In Hotel Attack

TEL AVIV (AP) — Five more bodies were found today in the wreckage of a hotel attacked by Arab terrorists and police said more victims of the guerrilla raid might be buried in the rubble.

The discovery brought to 18 the number of dead officially reported in the attack Wednesday night and Israeli counter-attack Thursday, including seven guerrillas, three Israeli soldiers, and eight civilians.

On Thursday, the Israeli command reported that four bodies had been found in the wreckage of the hotel. They later changed this to three.

The bodies discovered today were those of a German, a Dutch-born Israeli teen-ager, a Swiss man and woman and a Somali, police said.

Israeli officials charged the raid was an attempt to discredit Egypt and sabotage Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's new peace mission.

The semi-official Israeli state radio reported that the mother ship that brought the eight guerrillas and their two rubber attack boats to a point off Tel Aviv came from the north, presumably meaning from Lebanon.

However, the only guerrilla who survived told interrogators that the terror squad set out from Egypt; one of the landing boats was marked "Egyptian Army Sea Seamen." "Kissinger's mission will fail" was painted on the other one.

"The attack was aimed as much against Egypt as it was against Israel," Defense Minister Shimon Peres said.

The Israeli navy captured the 150-ton mother ship and its eight-man crew off the coast early Thursday. But the military command said it would give out no information about the ship until questioning of the crew was completed.

The guerrilla command in Beirut said the raiders were members of Al Fatah.

Colder Weather In Forecast

By The Associated Press

Winter threw still another punch at Texas today.

As a major snow storm gripped the Midwest, a new blast of frigid air thrust southward through the Texas Panhandle. Forecasters expected it to sweep all the way to the Upper Texas Coast by nightfall.

While it was still on the way clouds covered most of East Texas and scattered light rain fell in that section's piney woods and around Houston. Thick fog cloaked some areas in the coastal plains before daybreak. Skies were clear over West Texas, where gusty winds swept away the clouds.

Temperatures before dawn sank to 29 degrees at Perryton and 33 at Amarillo and Dalhart, in the Panhandle behind the cold front. At the same hour it was unusually warm in most other sections with readings still as high as 70 at Houston and Lufkin, 71 at Alice and 72 at Brownsville, Corpus Christi and McAllen.

Almost summery weather graced many areas Thursday afternoon. Top marks went as high as 83 at Alice, Mineral Wells and Wichita Falls, 84 at Midland, 85 at Wink and 86 at Childress.

Forecasts promised cloudy and colder weather for all sections tonight and Saturday.

For Saturday, March 8, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be careful with whom you associate today. Avoid those who act on the spur of the moment. One friend is a bit too wild.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It's good to be competitive, but today you're apt to take things a little too seriously and try to steamroller the opposition.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your impatience will be hard to reign in if things don't go your way on the first try. Shun tasks where you lack competence.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be careful. Don't become overly involved in another's complicated affairs, especially if his problems are of a material nature.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're going to be perturbed by a close companion you felt was in agreement with you when she changes her mind at the last minute.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be extra careful today how you handle tools or sharp instruments. Also, be sure those you're working with do likewise.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It's not a good day to try to draw to an inside straight. If you take any financial flyers, be sure they're penny ante stuff.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be careful how you handle fragile household items. Something you're fond of will get broken if you move things carelessly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Plan your moves well in advance today. Things you try to do in haste or as an afterthought are apt to get all fouled up.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Possessions you prize will get lost or stolen if you leave them lying about or treat them with indifference.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You're a better follower today than you are a leader. Have definite goals or you'll be going off in two directions at once.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It doesn't become you to contemplate tactics that aren't out in the open to spite one whom you feel has wronged you.

Stanfield Pupils Collect Aluminum

After only two days, pupils at Stanfield Elementary School are well on their way in a project that will continue until about May 20. Children in all grades have entered enthusiastically into a program that will benefit them in several ways. They are collecting aluminum cans in an effort to raise money to pay for their picnic at the end of the school year, and in the process of collections they are learning about such social concerns as anti-litter campaigns, anti-pollution measures, and conservation by re-cycling various items.

All grades, Kindergarten through sixth, are taking part in the activity with fourth, fifth, and sixth grade rooms each having a chairman who is responsible for counting each day's collection and keeping an accurate record. There is stiff competition among the groups because at the end of the collection period, there will be a prize for the room who has done the most collecting.

Currently, Mrs. Lu Bright's fourth-grade room is leading with a total of 764 cans collected, Mrs. Jean Sealy's sixth-grade room follows closely with 720 cans collected, and Mrs. Diana Gary's fourth-grade room is third with a total of 601 cans. Total School Count is 5159.

In addition, pupils in the upper grades will use this project as a basis for learning and practicing letter writing by corresponding with companies who buy the aluminum materials.

As one of the fifth-graders stated, "We are doing a two-way job-helping ourselves and helping fight pollution.

Must Pay Tax

SIMONSTOWN, South Africa (AP) — Inflation has hit the residents of Simonstown in the form of a "toilet tax" increase.

Residents have been told the "special service sewage" tax will go up from $35 a year to $52.50 for the privilege of having a toilet in the house.

The new tax is to help pay off the costs of a new sewer system, but homeowners are not amused by what some call Simonstown's "water closet crisis."

"Can you imagine what it means to people struggling on a small pension to have to pay $52.50 a year for the mere privilege of having an essential such as this in their homes?" complained one resident in a letter to a local newspaper.

WTC, Grayson Vie In 2nd Round

AMARILLO—The Western Texas College Westerners were to meet Grayson County at 9 o'clock tonight in the second round of the Region V Junior College Basketball Tournament after an opening round, 100-81, triumph over Southwestern Christian JC of Terrell.

The Westerners were sparked by 6-5 sophomore guard Bob Miller of Seaford, New York, who pitched in 33 points as the WTC team, seeded No. 1 in the tourney, leaped into an early lead and steadily pulled away.

Three other Westerners also were in double figures. Brian Minor and Ken Fowler each put in 14 points, Greg Hill, tallied 13, and Ken Fowler notched 14. Eugene Harris, seeing part-time action for the first time after being injured about three weeks ago, scored nine points, as did post man Norman Barnes. Tyrone Clopton contributed six points, and Harrison Johnson netted two.

The other second round game today pitted McLennan County against Ranger JC at 7 o'clock tonight. McLennan defeated New Mexico Military Institute by an 87-83 count; Grayson County nipped Howard College 66-64; and, Ranger upset Amarillo 72-62 in other first round action.

An all-star game between sophomores from teams who were not invited to the tournament will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, and the championship game will be held at 9 p.m. between tonight's winners. All games are being held in the Amarillo Civic Center.

Winner of the Region V Tourney will get a berth in the national tournament beginning March 17 at Hutchinson, Kansas.

Miller's 33-point performance last night overshadowed the 27-point effort by Southwestern Christian's Ned Hicks, who was the leading scorer in the region. Robert Glasper contributed 23 points, and Dwight Darbins put in 10 for Christian.

Lamesa In State Cage Tourney

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Dimmitt and Kountze tipped off the state schoolboy basketball tournament today in a semi-final game, with the winner expected to win the Class 2A state championship.

The other 2A semi-finalists, New Boston and Van Vleck, were matched in the other afternoon game, with the 3A first-round games scheduled for Friday night.

Class A gets underway Saturday morning, and state champions in all three divisions will be settled before the tournament ends late Saturday night.

Dimmitt edged the 1974 state finalist Friona in district to advance to regional and the state tournament for the eighth time. The Bobcats, however, have won only one state title—in 1952.

Kountze won state in its only other appearance. Although Kountze's tallest starter is listed at 6-foot 1-inch, Dimmitt Coach Ken Cleveland claims a 6-5 assistant coach scouted Kountze, and "He could look their 6-1 players straight in the eye."

Lamesa, a state champion in 1960 and 1967, has the best record in the tournament, 32-0, and has an all-senior starting lineup, including four who also started last year in a 30-3 season.

Eddie Spencer and Jim Vasquaskas each average 15 points a game for Lamesa, which also is making its eighth appearance in the tournament.

Lamesa plays the first 3A semifinal game against Cleveland, 23-5, and South Grand Prairie and Rice of Altair will meet in the Friday night finale.

Cleveland's Roland Reed, a 6-3 senior, is the highest tournament scorer in 3A, averaging 23 points.

Royal of Brookshire is favored in Class A as a result of its 55-54 regional championship victory over Snook, a perennial power that won three titles in the 1960s and has been a runnerup three times in the 1970s.

Brookshire-Royal plays Shallowater after the Saturday morning opener in Class A between Whitewright and Broaddus.

Boston Signs Scotsman

The Astros open their home season against the New York Apollos at Boston University Field May 3.

Tigers, Abilene Score 14-14 Tie

ABILENE—The Snyder High School Tigers and the Abilene Eagles fought to a 14-14 tie here yesterday with the game called after nine innings due to darkness. Snyder now is 2-2-1 for the season.

The Tigers host Abilene Cooper at 1 p.m. Saturday in Moffett Field in a doubleheader.

That game Thursday was close all the way with the lead changing hands several times. Each team got 18 hits. Clay Bishop opened on the mound for Snyder and pitched one out. Calvin Reece, who relieved him, retired the side in the 1st frame, then gave way to Gary Greenlee. McKennon went the distance for Abilene.

In the top of the 1st, Randy Gressett doubled and scored on a towering home run by Phil Robinson. Abilene went ahead, 3-2 in the bottom half of the inning on successive singles by McKennon, Gravens and Lawson and a double by Smith.

Snyder went back ahead, 6-3, in the top of the 2nd, getting four runs on singles by Sid Perry, Phil Robinson and Ernie Simons combined with a double by Bo Wright, and a home run by Kelly Ragland. Abilene tied it up, 6-6, with three runs in the bottom of the 2nd. The tallies resulted from singles by Tindall and Lawson combined with doubles by McKennon and Gravens.

The Tigers went ahead 9-6 in the top of the 3rd, getting three runs on successive singles by Richard Tovar, Sid Perry and Bo Wright combined with an error, a sacrifice by Greenlee, and a walk. The Eagles pulled within one run, at 9-8, scoring two runs in the bottom of the 3rd. An error combined with singles by Gravens and Snith accounted for the tallies.

Snyder added a run in the 4th on a single by Robert Alderte, a sacrifice by Tovar and another single by Wright. The Tigers boosted the count to 12-7 in the top of the 5th, scoring two more runs on back to back doubles by Ragland and Simons and a single by Alderete. The Eagles tied it up, 12-12, in the bottom of the 5th, scoring four runs on three walks, singles by Gravens and Willis and a home run by Lawson.

Snyder took a 1-run lead in the 7th on a single by Robinson combined with a walk and an error, but the Eagles tied it up again, 13-13, in their half of the frame on successive singles by Keesee, Tindall and McKennon. The Tigers went back ahead, 14-13, in the top of the 8th. Tovar walked and scored on a double by Robinson. But Abilene tied it up again in the bottom of the 8th on four successive walks.

Neither team scored in the 9th, and the game was called after that.

Robinson led Snyder batters with four hits in five trips to the plate, and he drove in four runs. Gravens led Abilene with four hits in seven trips, and he batted in three runs.

How to get rid of a blood clot

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb- Would you please help me settle a running argument in my family? One member insists a blood clot in a vein can be removed by surgery and the other says that it is not at all possible and must be dissolved by medicine. Which is correct?

DEAR READER- You can do either one in the right case. To use a simple example, when a person has a thrombosed hemorrhoid, he really has a small clot in the vein. A common form of treatment is to open the thrombosed hemorrhoid and remove the clot. In some locations and because of the nature of the clot, surgical removal is not a good form of treatment, and in others it is fine.

To use a slightly different example, a clot in an artery often must be removed surgically and fast. Rarely during heart surgery, clots within the heart may escape and go out into an artery. One classical type is such a clot (embolus) lodged in the main artery in the pelvis just where it branches to form the arteries to the legs. An alert surgeon will detect it and remove the clot right then.

A clot in the leg veins can go to the lungs. If it is very large and obstructs one of the main arteries to the lungs, as an emergency procedure an effort may be made to remove it.

Ordinarily clots in the leg veins and small clots to the lungs are treated by using medicine that prevents further clotting. Then the body's mechanism, not the medicine, will slowly dissolve part or all of the clot. Or, the clot will be replaced and bound down with scar formation so it can't move.

It is really not correct to say that the medicines people take as "Blood thinners" dissolve clots. They prevent the normal blood clotting mechanism from working. In this way they prevent new clot formation. When these medicines work too well, then the clotting ability of the blood is so poor that blood readily oozes from tiny blood vessels. Any irritated spot in the digestive tract, or irritation of the gingiva (gums) around the teeth or even the small vessels in the kidney may start leaking blood and then the hemorrhage begins.

As you see, these medicines are not blood thinners. The blood is thin or thick depending on how many red and white blood cells it contains. Normally a little less than half the volume of your blood is made up of cells and the rest is liquid containing minerals, such as ordinary salt, blood proteins and various chemicals. The medicine to prevent clotting has nothing to do with the ratio of cells to fluid.

The swelling, as occurs in a leg when there are clots in the vein, is from fluid that is forced out of the smallest vein into the tissues. Fluid normally leaves your small arteries to nourish the cells, then returns to the circulation at the smallest veins. The high pressure in the arterial side forces the fluid out and the low pressure combines by the pulling action of the blood proteins sucks the fluid back on the venous side. Without this effect we couldn't nourish cells or remove wastes.

When the vein is obstructed and pressure builds up it it, then the fluid can't be returned to the circulation and swelling occurs.

Send your questions to Dr. Lamb, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. For a copy of Dr. Lamb's booklet on hemorrhoids, send 50 cents and a long self-addressed stamped envelope to the same address and ask for the "Hemorrhoids" booklet.

In Snyder Area Churches

"Get to do good and to communicate forget not." Hebrews 13:16

There's always the letter we did not write,
the kind thing left undone,
For the choking weeds of indifference can stifle us one by one.
Too often our better intentions we persistently smother away,
And shying away from compassion, just neglect and neglect every day.
