Hwy. Office To Be Closed?

Rep. Martin Vows To Fight Residency Shutdown

The "distinct possibility" exists that the Highway Department's residency office in Colorado City will be closed in the near future and Rep. Elmer Martin has vowed to fight the closing.

Roger G. Welsch, Highway Department district engineer at Abilene who only four days ago at the county commissioners meeting said "We just don't know at this time. We may not have any other choice" when asked about the office being closed, Saturday morning told the Record "There's a distinct possibility that the residency will be closed and the twelve people employed there will be worked into maintenance positions either in Colorado City, Big Spring or Sweetwater."

He said there are probably five people employed at the office who have between 20-25 years of service with the department, but Ben Wilkinson, longtime resident engineer here who retired this summer, said that there are seven people with between 25-30 years of service with the department.

Those seven are: Bill Cooper, Jesse Van Bollen, Pat Denson, H. P. Lee, Edgar A. Rogers, Harold Hamer and Ed Halton.

Others employed at the local residency, with less years of service, are Lesley Eason, Kenny Hammond, Ricky Walker, Prentiss Scott and Carolyn Harkey.

Welsch said when asked whose decision it is to close the office, "It's my decision and I have to base it on the amount of money we have to operate with."

He said that a residency can only be charged with expenses for construction or preliminary plans for forthcoming construction projects and "I dread it, it's eating on all of us but it's a necessity. I'll get with Smoot (now resident engineer for the combination, Colorado City-Big Spring residency since Wilkinson's retirement) Monday and we'll firm up on what we have to do."

Program

On Weaving

Thursday's program sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Charles C. Thompson meeting room of City National Bank annex.

Everyone in the community is invited to attend the program, said program chairman Dale Creighton.

Katie Rathert, head of the Howard College Art Department will present a program on weaving and spinning techniques, with examples of macramé.

Another portion of the program will be presented by a student in the art department and will be about silk line art, said Chamber executive vice president Sefton Pickens.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

CAP Adds Transportation Service

The Community Action Program has initiated a new medical-related transportation program in Mitchell County which will begin Wednesday, Sept. 24. "The CAP office is currently in the process of employing a driver for this added service," said CAP director Jon Shamburger, "and will begin actual transportation Sept. 24. The service will then be available each Wednesday."

Designed to transport any person who is eligible for Medicaid services, the service will provide transportation to drug stores or for appointments at Doctor's, Dentist's, or Chiropractor's offices or to the Hospital.

"Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian," Mrs. Shamburger added. "Anyone wishing to participate must contact the CAP office by Tuesday in order to be included in the Wednesday transportation schedule."

For additional information, phone CAP, 728-5060.

When asked why the entire district could not be cut back on personnel on a percentage basis, Welsch said, "We could but right now we need more work at Weiner, near Hamlin and that would mean that Colorado City people would have to drive to Hamlin and that's not economically feasible."

There are four residencies in the 13-county area covered by Welsch's district--the combination Colorado City-Big Spring office, Snyder, Hamlin and Abilene.

Rep. Martin was contacted by the Record Friday in order to find out ways to keep the office here. He said that he would check into the matter and when he did, found out that the office would probably be closed.

"What we'll do is get representatives from the Chamber of Commerce, commissioners court and city to meet with Welsch, Monday if he'll make an appointment to meet with us, and we'll even go to Austin and meet with the commission if necessary."

Martin further explained that the West Texas representatives had a fight on their hands during the past session of the legislature in order to keep highway funds allocated to the West Texas area.

"What they're doing is allocating most of the money to mass transit systems for the large cities and cutting out the small towns and rural areas in West Texas," he said.

So far, the 19 people employed in the local maintenance part of the Highway Department will not be affected, although earlier this year, four people were laid off and the personnel cut to 19.

Paul Logsdon, maintenance supervisor, said that two people will be retiring soon from the maintenance division--Hiram E. Beasley and William L. Ragain--and their positions will be filled with people from the residency here.

Beasley will retire Oct. 31 with 37 years of service and Ragain is set to retire Nov. 30 with 25 years.

"We've had as many as 23 people working in our division but we've had to cut back some recently," Logsdon said.

Welsch said that the district budget was cut drastically this year by the state legislature and he had only a small amount of money with which to maintain the system and continue operations.

"I estimate, if we carried out operations and services as formerly, that the district would run $180,000 in the red. Smoot's area would be $80,000 in the red and you know," as he told the commissioners court in their Tuesday meeting, "we just can't operate that way."

When asked if there was nothing to be done about keeping the residency here, Welsch said that the department could get help from the governor if he would call a special session of the legislature to appropriate more money for the budget and if there was enough protest raised statewide this might be done, but "Based on some of the statements the governor has made, it doesn't seem likely that this would be done."

It would take six months or more for this to take place even if the special session were called," he continued, "and I guess the only thing you could do would be to write your legislators."

Since the legislator in question is Colorado City representative Elmer Martin and he has already said that a protest would be formed, Welsch's suggestion is well taken.

Do you think the price of beef is high?

An article by John Pitts in the Aug. 29 issue of the Pecos Enterprise points out that consumers should use comparison shopping and calculate the cost per ounce of grocery items before they squawk about beef prices. Of 25 items compared with grain-fed beef at 89¢ per pound, 23 were more expensive.

The following information was listed for comparison purposes. Rib Steak is 9¢ per ounce, Chuck Steak is 7¢ per ounce, Round Steak, 12¢ and ground beef, 5¢.

Compare this to some of the items on the list, price listed being per ounce: Peanut brittle, 9¢; canned mushrooms, 20¢; bacon, 13¢; candy bars, 7¢; frozen okra, 5¢; mayonnaise, 6¢; stuffed olives, 24¢; a brand of shoe polish, 32¢; a brand of potato chips, 15¢; a brand of deodorant, 30¢; black pepper, 25¢ and a brand of cookies, 6¢.

As you can see by the comparison, beef is the bargain hunter's salvation.

None Injured In Accident

A minor accident involving three vehicles occurred shortly after the Wolves vs. Sweetwater game in Colorado City Friday night, reported to the police department at 10:29 p.m.

A '72 Ford driven by Allison Welch of Colorado City was hit from the rear while attempting a right turn by a '71 Dodge driven by Johnny Lindsey of Sweetwater.

Following the collision, Lindsey's car swerved into the oncoming traffic lane and collided with a '68 Pontiac driven by Edward Adams of Hermleigh.

The accidents occurred at 7th and Hickory and no one was injured, according to investigating patrolman Jerel Lynch.

PP&K Signup At Hutchins

Registration for the Punt, Pass & Kick Contest has begun at Hutchins Ford Sales Agency. The contest will be held Oct. 4 at the practice field north of Wolves fieldhouse.

Competition is open to anyone between the ages of 8-13 years, free of charge and they need only have a parent or guardian accompany them to the Ford showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have first, second and third place trophies for contestants in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all," Dave Hutchins, owner of the sponsoring Ford agency said. "Increasing each entrant's chances of winning is the fact that youngsters compete only against others in their own age group."

First place winners in each age group from the Colorado City competition will go on to the Zone competition and from there, top winners go on up the ladder through District, Area, Division and the National Finals.

This year's National Finals will be held at the Super Bowl X in Miami January 18, 1976. The Ford dealer further explained that each entrant, upon registering, receives a free PP&K Tips Book. In the 1975 edition, there are competition tips by NFL stars Ray Guy, Ken Anderson and Chester Marcol. The Tips Book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

Education An Obsession For Colorado City Native

For Louis C. Guerrero education is an obsession. He pursues it with a passion. And rightly so.

For the 28-year-old son of Mrs. Olivia Guerrero of Colorado City, education is his whole life.

Born dirt-poor in Ojinaga, Chihuahua, Mex., across the border from Presidio, Guerrero has hurdled great obstacles to satisfy his thirst for education.

In the ninth year of his life, Guerrero, the second child and eldest son in a family of nine, moved with his family to Colorado City.

His father had recently died. That was 1959. Guerrero, who spoke no English, began the long trek in education.

He enrolled in the second grade in the Colorado City school system and five years later progressed to the ninth grade. In May of 1968, Guerrero graduated from Colorado City High School and knew one thing for sure; one way or the other he was going to attend college.

The fact that he had no money did not deter him from pursuing his life-long ambition—to become a teacher.

Since he had to make sure the younger children enrolled in school, he was two weeks late getting to East Texas State University. When he arrived in Commerce he had no money. He had not satisfied any admission requirements to be enrolled at ETSU. With the help of the Office of Financial Aids, Guerrero began his college career.

A job was procured for the 21-year-old freshman. Job title: mechanical engineer. Guerrero had no earthly idea what the responsibilities of a mechanical engineer entailed until someone handed him a bucket of water and a mop. In addition to "mechanical engineer" duties, Guerrero worked part-time at a factory in Commerce.

In spite of the two jobs, he received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education in 1972, the same year he became an American citizen.

Since then, Guerrero has worked for the Dallas Independent School District and attained two additional degrees. Between 1972 and 1974, he taught bilingual education in third and fourth graders in Dallas.

While teaching, Guerrero found time to commute the 65 miles to Commerce and earn a master of arts in elementary education in addition to attending classes for a master of language arts degree from Southern Methodist University.

This fall, Guerrero took over as assistant principal of Mount Auburn Elementary School in Dallas.

"I love education," says the mild-mannered Guerrero. "I think it is my purpose to attain all the education I can, so that I can pass it on to the kids—the American citizens of tomorrow."

For the time being, Guerrero is taking a break from the classroom.

He and his wife, Rachel, a native of Sweetwater, are expecting their first baby sometime late this month.

In January, Guerrero plans to return to ETSU and work on a doctoral degree in education.

Though he has attained much personally, Guerrero does not slight the person who influenced him more than anyone in his life. His mother.

"She doesn't speak English and cannot read or write," says the proud son, "but she did everything for her kids. She knew that all of us needed to get an education so we could progress."

Two years ago, the Guerrero children built their mother a spacious, four-bedroom house in Colorado City.

There's no solution to attaining any kind of success, says Guerrero. "You just have to want it bad enough" is his only solution.

Louis C. Guerrero has attained more education than most people dream of achieving. But for him, that is not enough. He will never learn as much as he'd like to.

A Financial Management Seminar has been scheduled for Monday morning in the Charles C. Thompson meeting room at City National Bank annex.

Beginning at 9 a.m., Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist from Texas A&M, Robert Kensing, area Economist from San Angelo and Marvin Sartin, area Economist from Lubbock, will present program topics.

Mitchell County extension agent Bob Benson said that a very successful meeting of this type was held last December but many interested farmers or ranchers were unable to attend due to the cotton harvest.

The schedule is set for a coffee break and luncheon break and should conclude about 3:45 or 4 p.m., Benson said.

Meet Wolves

A large group of Wolves Boosters attended Tuesday's meeting of the Booster Club and were given a scouting report on Sweetwater presented by coach Mel Gierhart.

Coaches announced that eight new players have joined Wolves teams since school has started. Coach Robert Damron presented Sophomore players and their positions and coach Mike Easterwood introduced Junior football players, giving their positions.

Senior Wolves were introduced by coach Lonnie Ellis as he also told the positions they play.

The proposition of taking donations for a chartered bus for the Big Lake trip was discussed, proponents stressing the distance involved for Friday's trip.

Highlight of the evening's meeting was introduction of team managers by Head Coach Mike Farda as he gave a brief talk on the importance they play in aiding the team effort.

Color photos of Senior Wolves were on display in a frame made by Mike Walla's art class at CHS.

The group also discussed selling red and black knitted caps to all fans interested in supporting Wolves football teams.

Next meeting of the Booster Club is set for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria and a preview of the Wolves vs. Reagan County Owls game will be given.

All Freshmen Wolves will be presented and their position.

Colorado High Athletic Director Mike Farda said the Wolves came out of the contest without any injuries.

Farda said Saturday morning after looking at the game film that the Wolves looked better on defense and offense than he thought they did Friday night. On offense, the Wolves had several good drives that should have resulted in touchdowns but got bogged down because of missed assignments, fumbles or penalties.

Statistically, the Wolves came out on top with 118 yards rushing, 37 by Bill Everett and 55 by Manuel Arellano, and 39 yards passing on three completions out of 10 attempts. Two passes were caught by Wayne McKee for 29 yards and Drex Grisham caught one for 10 yards. Grisham also accounted for some 40 to 50 yards on offense for the Wolves as he was the intended receiver on three pass interference calls against Sweetwater.

Sweetwater had 94 yards rushing, 50 of which was gained by the Quarterback Joe Smith and 44 yards passing.

The Wolves had two penalties for 30 yards and Sweetwater had three penalties for 35 yards not including pass interference.

The Wolves punted five times for a 29 yard average while Sweetwater punted nine times for 26.6 yards.

The Wolves had 12 first downs to only seven for Sweetwater. The Mustangs had only one first down in the second quarter, none in the third and three in the fourth quarter.

Next week the Wolves travel to Big Lake.

Friday night, in action by the Wolves previous opponents, Slaton won over Dimmit, Baird won over Santa Anna and Crane was edged out by a AAA club.

Big Lake lost to Ballinger 14-0, Coahoma lost to Post, 20-0, Hamlin downed Haskell, 20-0, Stamford won over Clyde, 26-8 and Winters won over Merkel 13-7, in games involving future Wolves opponents.

Meeting

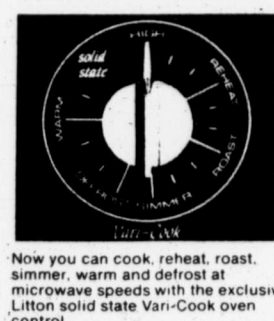

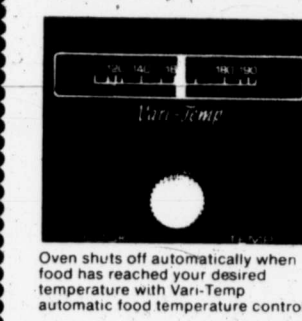

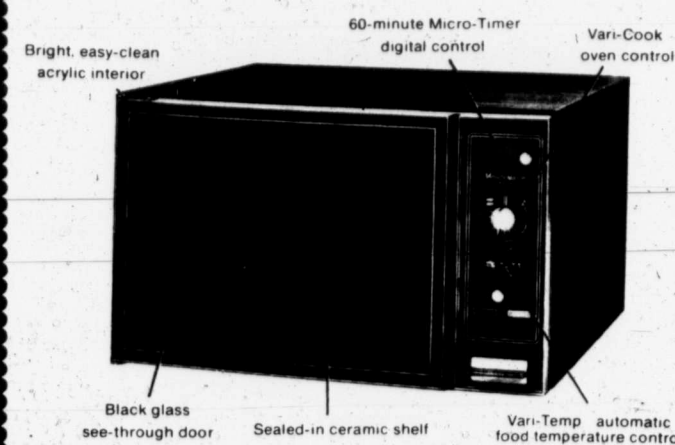

A Swine Production meeting will be held in the C. C. Thompson meeting room at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday.

Dr. Gilbert Hollis, area swine specialist from Lubbock will present the program on the general swine situation, outlook and alternate marketing procedures, according to Benson.

Jesus In Colorado City

Lloyd Kincaid

First Christian Church

Pastor

Colorado City

If Jesus were to come to Colorado City, His presence here would create quite a sensation. Very generally people know who Jesus was and and they know something about the incidents of His life in Palestine during the years of His ministry there some two thousand years ago. Some people would be prompted through curiosity with a desire to see Him. Others would want to see Him out of a feeling of devotion to Him. Still others, as was the case in Palestine, would want to get something from Him. Of course, the newspaper reporters would be on his trail and there would be published in the newspapers reports of what He was doing and what He was saying in His conversations with the people gathered about Him. Very likely He would live and act here very much as He lived and acted in Palestine. We are told that Jesus, as was His custom, went into synagogues on the Sabbath. If He were in Colorado City it would be His custom to go to church on Sunday. Just which one of the churches He would be found in by the multitude which would be following Him, it would be hard to say. Perhaps the ministers and religious folks of the various churches would forget their denominational differences long enough to hold a union service where people of all religious beliefs, and no religious beliefs, might gather and worship, for it must be obvious that Jesus would be an inter-denominationalist. In the presence of Jesus we do not think that there would be any inclination on the part of anyone to place particular emphasis on denominational creeds, for "No curious creeds or ordered form of churchly rule he taught. But soul of love that blossomed into deeds, with human good and human blessing fraught."

In speaking, if Jesus were in Colorado City we are very sure that would be the manner of life He would live here, wherever we found Him He would be healing the sick, feeding the hungry, comforting the sad and broken-hearted, ministering to the unfortunate, visiting those who were in bondage, and preaching the gospel to the poor. He would not; Just as in Palestine he would go to a wedding and attend dinner parties given by friends. He would not shun outcasts and people of disrepute for it is recalled that he sat and talked with the woman of Samaria and Mary Magdalene, dined with Simon the leper and even supped with "publicans and sinners." There would be no division of peoples by a railroad track on the South Side of town.

We think Jesus would set a new manner of life for His followers in Colorado City and give them a slant on the way to live very different from what at present characterizes the lives of many of them.

If Jesus were in Colorado City, he would be accessible to a great many serious-minded people who are earnestly endeavoring to find the way to truth and life. It will be recalled that Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, sought Jesus out one night to ask him the way of life. Again a young man came to Jesus and asked him what he should do to enter eternal life. Joseph of Arimathea, who provided a tomb for his burial after the crucifixion, evidently was his disciple. Certain Greeks in Jerusalem, on one occasion, asked that they might see Jesus. The Commander of a Roman garrison once sent for Jesus to heal his son. Were Jesus in Colorado City there is no telling what comfort and help and inspiration He would give to people with burdened hearts or distraught minds or perplexing problems. What are we doing?

Lady, Graham Exchange Vows In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Anita Lady and Doug Graham were united in marriage Saturday evening in First Baptist Church of Colorado City. The Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated in the 7:30-p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carl Lady and the late Carl Lady of Colorado City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graham of Lorraine.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Bobby McClure, organist. Mrs. Glenn Roenfeldt, soloist sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Wedding Prayer."

The altar was centered with an arch covered in greenery and ribbons and was flanked with fifteen branch candleabras. Completing the decor of the church were two baskets of white mums, pink carnations and gladiolus. Pews were marked with pink ribbons and baby's breath.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Jerry Lady, wore a formal length gown of satin faced with organza. The Victorian neckline was framed by a tucked bodice trimmed in Cluny lace and the Bishop sleeves were accented with lace cuffs with Cluny lace encircling the wrists. The full skirt was encircled with lace and swept into a chapel train.

She wore a lace camelot hat with a chapel length veil of tulle trimmed in lace. Her cascading bouquet consisted of pink roses and white spider mums accented with baby's breath.

For something old the bride carried a 1955 penny in her shoe and her something new was her necklace given to her by the groom as a wedding present. Her something borrowed was her veil and something blue was her garter made by Mrs. Wayne Shawn.

Mrs. Bub Willingham of Big Spring was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dale Dickard and Miss Sherri Long.

They wore formal length gowns of crepe with empire waistlines accented with sweetheart necklines. Each wore a gown a different shade of pink and wore white picture hats accented with ribbons in the three shades of pink. Each carried an arrangement of pink carnations and white spider mums.

Candlelighters were LaVonda McComas, niece of the bride and Greg Ritchey, nephew of the bride.

Bestman was Bryan Byrnes of Lorraine. Groomsmen were Mike Givens of Lorraine and Don Graham, brother of the groom of Lorraine.

Ushering guests were Steve Graham and Jerry Graham, cousins of the groom.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church following the ceremony.

Registering guests for the wedding and the reception was Miss Sharon Adams.

The bride's table was covered in a white floor length ruffled cloth. A three tiered cake accented with white columns and pink flowers, topped with two pink wedding bells, decorated the table. The centerpiece consisted of the brides and bridesmaid's bouquets. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

The groom's table was covered with a beige ruffled cloth. German Chocolate cake and coffee were served.

Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Bonnie Carney and Miss Nancy Graham, cousin of the groom.

Serving at the groom's table was Miss Cindy Parker.

For a going away suit, the bride chose a green plaid pant suit accented with green accessories. She also wore a corsage from her bouquet.

The couple will reside in Lorraine.

Mrs. Doug Graham, former Anita Lady.

CCMP Has Regular Business Meeting

The CCMP met Saturday September 6 for their regular monthly business meeting.

The Club voted to change the meeting time back to 7:30 p.m. starting in October but the meeting will still be held in the Lone Wolf Electric Medallion Room.

Members that have not paid their dues are asked to do so as soon as possible and prospective members are asked to attend one meeting prior to being voted on.

Four new members were added to the club during the business meeting. Visitors from Big Spring, Sweetwater and Snyder were also present.

The CCMP had a rest stop during the Labor Day Weekend close to the highway to help raise money for the Jerry Lewis Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy. The Club collected $2,210 from Mitchell County and people driving along the highway.

THE NEW ARABIAN KNIGHTS

The exotic shieks of Ali Baba land own 70% of the World's oil. They have a pretty good idea of what it's worth and the people who generate our power are feeling the pinch. The result is higher costs to them and to us. But the Lone Wolf Electric Co-op, more than 30 years ago, provided the "Open Sesame" that helped electrify rural Texas. Their continuing commitment is power at lowest possible price.
