Prisoner still at large after fleeing jail

Police are still looking for an escaped prisoner who walked out the back door of the Floyd County Jail, Friday, November 12.

Joe Edward Castaneda, 27, of Floydada had been put in jail Thursday night after being indicted for Injury to a Child.

"He was brought downstairs to wait to be bonded out," said Floyd County Sheriff Royce Gilmore. "He asked me if he could go to the bathroom and I told him yes. I had to leave and told the jailers that Castaneda had gone to the bathroom. We have a monitor in the book-in room and they saw him on the monitor come back and sit down. The next time they looked up, he was gone."

"He left his jail clothes at the back door. He was wearing black cut off shorts and a black T-shirt."

The escape occurred between 9:35 a.m. and 9:40 a.m.

Castaneda is described as a Hispanic male, medium build, 170 lbs., 5'9". He has a tattoo of a pig with tusks and wearing sunglasses on his upper right arm, a tattoo down his right leg which says "Castaneda", and tattoos on his back and chest.

OFFICER PETE VALLEJO AND GERTA

"Patsy Cline" in Floydada Saturday

Amarillo Little Theatre will be presenting the new musical sensation, "Always...Patsy Cline", in Floydada, November 20, at the Floydada High School Auditorium.

The musical is based on a true story which centers on the relationship of Louise Seger and Patsy Cline from 1957, when Patsy was just beginning her rise to fame, until her death in 1963.

Though they met only briefly, they became instant friends and corresponded regularly through letters and phone calls.

During the play, Louise recounts her love of Patsy's music and how it touched the lives of so many people, including her own. Louise's poignant story is complemented by the performance of 17 of Patsy Cline's most memorable songs, including "Crazy", "Honky Tonk Merry Go-Round", "I Fall to Pieces", "Come on In", "Faded Love", "Sweet Dreams", "Back in Baby's Arms", "Seven Lonely Days", "Shake, Rattle, and Roll", and "She's Got You."

Tammy Hysmith, of Fritch, recreates the look and sound of Patsy Cline.

Before becoming the voice of Patsy Cline, Hysmith worked as a waitress in a small rural Panhandle town. She had never performed in a stage production and was intimidated to audition although she had been singing Patsy's music since she was a child.

It was obvious at audition that not only did Hysmith possess the voice but she also bore a remarkable resemblance to Cline.

According to promotionalists the charm of "Always Patsy Cline" relies heavily on the character of "Louise" -Cindi Bulla.

Not only does she carry all of the dialogue, she is also down-home, witty, and "honestly dramatic."

Bulla has been a part of the ALT scene for over 10 years and has "proven herself to be one of the most versatile actresses in the area."

Allen Shankles directs the production. Loren Strickland serves as Music Director and leader of a western band that features some of the area's best musicians, including Brian Wilson, on guitar, Chuck Alexander on bass, Brad Bledsoe and Scott Nall on drums, and Rick Fawcett on pedal steel.

To date the show has seen over 50 performances. Outside the Texas Panhandle, it has traveled South to the Permian Basin performing in venues in Odessa, Midland and San Angelo. Every host theatre has brought the show back for an additional run.

Proceeds from the play will go toward paying off the new building of the Kids Korner Learning Center in Floydada.

Drug dog enjoys her work

FISD using dog to sniff out drugs

Don't anyone tell Gerta she is working for her keep--she thinks it is a great big game.

Gerta, the Russian bred German Shepherd has reported for duty with the Floydada Police Department and has already been put to work. Her handler, Officer Pete Vallejo, just has to make sure he packs her toys.

The new police drug dog made her debut last week at the FISD board meeting and took only seconds to find a small amount of marijuana hidden in the board room by Police Chief Darrell Gooch.

After her find she was rewarded with a toss of her favorite toy and a game of fetch.

The 3 year old female has already been used on "the streets", according to Gooch. "She has already proved worthwhile in that she found hidden compartments in vehicles. There were no drugs at the time--but there had been."

Vallejo and Gerta trained for 10 days together to learn to work as a team. Gerta had already undergone extensive training before Vallejo arrived for his lessons.

According to Gooch all of the training for drug dogs--and bite dogs--is based on a game. "She is trained with drugs placed in a toy and she plays fetch with the toy. She tries to find the 'toy'--or dope--and when she does she is rewarded by her handler with her toy and praise."

Gooch says the dog won't be used to search the children at school--only their lockers and classroom material.

"The dog alerts on dope by scratching and biting at the area where the dope is. We don't want her doing that to people if we can help it."

Due to the dog's protective nature and liability reasons, FISD Superintendent Jimmie Collins said, "We have a routine we will go through. When we bring the dog into the school to search a classroom, we will remove the children from the classroom. We will keep them at a distance."

Gooch said, "One of the reasons the dog doesn't like to be crowded is like anyone else. She likes and protects her personal space around her."

High School Principal Joe Christian said there will be a drug assembly at the school to introduce the dog team to the kids.

"The whole thing about having a drug dog working the school is hopefully not to find anything, but just to discourage anyone from bringing anything (drugs) to school, since they know we are going to conduct a search," Christian added.

At the FISD board meeting Superintendent Collins reviewed the Student Code of Conduct in relation to drugs. Relating to searches and seizures the student handbook reads: "Students shall be free from unreasonable searches and seizures by school officials. School officials may search a student's outer clothing, pockets, or property by establishing reasonable cause or securing the student's voluntary consent..."

"The alert of a trained dog to a locker or car provides reasonable cause or a search of the locker or car."

"School officials may search lockers, or vehicles parked on school property, if there is a reasonable cause to believe that they contain articles or material prohibited by District policy."

"Such visits to the school shall be unannounced. The student's parent or guardian shall be notified if any prohibited articles or materials are found."

According to Gooch if the dog hits on a car during an "open air search", that is reasonable cause to open the car and search.

"The dog's hit is a probable cause to search in a car and inside the school building. We don't have to have a search warrant."

Gerta doesn't really care about all the legal technicalities of the search. She only cares about chasing down her 'toy' and getting her reward.

Early Deadlines Next Week

Because of the Thanksgiving holidays the newspaper will publish next week's edition one day earlier so it can be mailed on Wednesday. The deadline for all advertising and news will be Monday, November 22 at 3:00 p.m. in Floydada and by 12:00 noon, November 22, in Lockney.

Also, letters to Santa Claus must be in to this newspaper by December 3rd.

Floyd County pelican achieves celebrity status

Percy, the pelican, who has been making headlines in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, was actually rescued in Floyd County by Lockney resident Bart Bice.

According to Bice, he and his friend Rodney Edwards were hunting north of Lockney, Tuesday November 2nd, when the saw the pelican in a turnrow.

"His wing was broken and he was easy to pick up," said Bice. "We just wrapped him up in a jacket and brought him home to my shop."

"I called the game warden, Mark Collins, and told him what I had. He said, 'Are you sure it's a pelican?'"

Bice and Collins both said they had never seen a pelican in this area before.

"I keep taking strange animals to the South Plains Rehabilitation Center," said Collins. "They were surprised to see this pelican."

No one knows what injured the pelican, which was probably heading south to warmer climates when injured.

The pelican, later named Percy, was brought to the Rehab Center late in the evening on Nov. 2nd. Percy was then transported to the Animal Medical Center first thing the following morning to evaluate his drooping wing.

After X-rays were taken, it was determined that surgery was worth a try. Dr. Lane Preston of Animal Medical Center operated on him that afternoon, not sure what he would find.

Percy had sustained a fractured coracoid--a bone that connects to the clavicle, or shoulder-bone, and supports the heavy muscle needed for flight.

With an almost six-foot wing span, getting airborne for a bird this large is a considerable task," said Carol Mitchell, director of the South Plains Rehab Center.

The pelican survived the surgery, and a stainless steel pin had been placed in the broken bone to repair it.

"Post operatively, he was interested in the food but not eating on his own," said Mitchell. "He had to have his beak opened every few hours to be fed."

FISD approves emergency procedures for lock-downs

By Darwin Robinson

The FISD board met Thursday night, November 11, and approved a Public Information Brochure For Emergency Procedures to be enforced in all FISD schools.

The brochure will be available for the parents and the general public soon.

This District Emergency Plan will direct parents and guardians of school children to a central location in case of an emergency lock-down at any individual school building.

The First Baptist Church has agreed to allow their facilities to be used for this purpose in case of a school building lock-down, according to FISD Superintendent Jimmie Collins.

Collins told the board, "We have been advised by legal counsel and other authorities that in case we have a lock-down in one of the schools, we need to be organized and have a plan in place."

"In case we have a lock-down, we have outlined some things such as, (1) drive safely and act responsible, (2) give emergency vehicles the right-of-way, (3) report through the cafeteria

(4) notify campus personnel when a student can be picked up (5) campus personnel will take students to the cafeteria to be released to their parents or to one of the persons designated in the student's emergency plan," Collins read.

"It's hard to control people in a panic, and we have first hand experience. In case a school is locked-down due to an emergency situation and the yellow tape goes around the school, people are not to cross that tape. I think it is a violation of the law."

PERCY THE PELICAN

BY THE WAY

By

O.K. the big game is over. Rivalry can take a break until Floydada and Lockney play each other in basketball and track.

I do have a request that I'm hoping some people listen too.

Harmless pranks are O.K. between rival towns, as long as they don't destroy property--or break any laws.

Some may think it a stretch for me to say that Whirlwind signs out of Floydada yards is stealing--but considering they cost $25.00 or more--and 20 of them were stolen--then I don't know what else to call it.

It would be nice, especially for those who may not have an extra $25.00 in their checking account, to bring those signs back. Just come in the middle of the night like you did the first time--and stick it in the ground.

And while you're returning stuff, I know the Floydada Lion's Club would really like to have their "Welcome to Pumpkin Capital" sign back that was on the median by the Dairy Queen.

The Lions Club--which is a service organization--puts that sign out every year to welcome visitors to Punkin Days.

It is a homemade and very colorful sign made by an ex-Lion for the club. It has sentimental value to the club and they would appreciate its return. Just stick the sign in the hay in front of the Hesperian-Beacon office in Floydada, and nobody will ever know who took it.

Thanks for your honesty.

Speaking of honesty.

Did you hear the one about the two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous? They were always getting into trouble and their parents knew that. If any mischief occurred in their town, their sons were probably involved.

The boys' mother heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children, so she asked if he would speak with her boys. The clergyman agreed, but asked to see them individually. So the mother sent her 8 year old first, in the morning, with the older boy scheduled to see the clergyman in the afternoon.

The clergyman, a huge man with a booming voice, sat the younger boy down and asked him sternly, "Where is God?"

The boy's mouth dropped open and eyes opened wide, but he made no response. So the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, "Where is God!?"

Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face and bellowed, "Where is God!?"

The boy screamed and bolted from the room, ran directly home and dove into his closet, slamming the door behind him. When his older brother found him in the closet, he asked, "What happened?"

The younger brother, gasping for breath, replied, "We are in BIG trouble this time, dude. God is missing--and they think WE did it!"

By the way--Congressman Thornberry reports that a bill has passed the House that will make it easier for people to get local channels off their satellite dish. It has been held up in the Senate due to a rural subsidy being attached to the bill.

Without this subsidy the bill will only help those in the big city, but Thornberry is hopeful it will pass the Senate in the form in which it was sent.

Lockney Police

October 19, Lockney Police responded to the 600 block of N.E. 7th in reference to a home that had been burglarized. The resident reported a large number of compact discs and electronic equipment had been taken. The investigation continues.

Just before 3:00 a.m. October 29, police responded to an accident with injuries in the 400 block of East Guest Street. One of the persons involved in the accident had fled the scene. The person was identified and charged with Failure to Stop and Render Aid. The case has been filed with the District Attorney's Office.

October 30, police received a report of a vehicle being damaged while it was parked at the football stadium. No suspects were known and the investigation continues.

Police were notified November 3 that property owned by a Plainview resident in the 200 block of East Spruce had been entered and vandalized. Property was also missing from the home. Police have a suspect in this case and the investigation continues.

James Hernandez, 22 of Lockney, was arrested November 5 on a Floyd County warrant charging him with Burglary of a Habitation. The offense occurred on October 19, 1999. Most of the property was recovered. There is still a possibility of further arrest in this offense. Hernandez was indicted by the Floyd County Grand Jury.

Ricardo Cuellar Jr., 20 of Lockney, was arrested for outstanding fines owed to the Plainview Municipal Court.

Police responded November 6 to the report of a vehicle being taken from the 1100 block of U.S. 70 without the owners permission. The vehicle, which had been burned, was recovered several hours later by the Plainview Police Department. The investigation continues.

November 6, police received a report of Criminal Trespass and Theft from a resident in the 600 block of S.W. 6th. Police issued citations for theft under $50 to Timothy Ballejo, 18 of Lockney and A.J. Everett Martinez, 18 of Lockney.

Police were contacted November 6 by a resident in the 200 block of E. College. She reported someone had entered her apartment and moved a couple of items, but nothing was taken.

Police stopped a blue Mercury Cougar in the 200 block of N.E. 3rd Street for a traffic violation. The driver Clyde Walker Jr., 20 of Lockney was arrested for DWI and taken to the Floyd County Jail.

Police received a report of a vehicle taken from the 500 block of S.W. 2nd without the owners permission. The vehicle was recovered by the Floydada Police. Five juveniles from Lockney were taken to the Parent Adolescent Center. After further investigation it was learned that the elderly man may have inadvertently given permission for the person to take the vehicle. The juveniles were released from custody.

Police were notified by a resident in the 300 block of S.W. 4th Street on November 14 that someone had taken a bicycle from the side of the house during the night.

Police were also contacted on November 14 about someone entering an apartment during the night and taking some tools.

No suspects are known in either case. Anyone with any information on any of the investigations are asked to contact the Lockney Police Department.

Courtroom Activities

Correction

In last week's Courtroom Activities it was reported that Jose DeLaFuente Jr., 22, of Floydada, was indicted by Floyd County Grand Jurors for Forgery/Check.

The information supplied to the newspaper listed DeLaFuente as a Junior, however his brother Joe DeLaFuente said there was confusion over the name and asked for clarification.

Jose DeLaFuente is not a Junior. Joe DeLaFuente, 29, of Floydada, is the Junior and was not indicted for any crime.

A view from

The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

We see by the papers that the United States Supreme Court, no less, is going to decide whether it is permissible, under our Constitution, for public school students to offer up prayers before sporting events.

Given the trend in such things, we suspect the die has already been cast. Still, we may be in for a surprise. The court just may rule in a way that, for once, upsets the American Civil Liberties Union (the ACLU), The People for The American Way, and the Separation of Church and State all at the same time. They will all be subject to a case of apoplexy if the court says kids can publicly pray.

This particular case grows out of an appeal by the Sante Fe, Texas, Independent School District, which had adopted a position that a decision on such events should be left to local school boards. That position was countered by the U. S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, and now that decision is being appealed by the Sante Fe school board.

Texas Governor George W. Bush, Texas Attorney General John Cornyn have joined in urging the High Court to uphold local decision-making on this issue. The court is expected to hear the case next April and rule in summer of 2000. It seems a little ironic, to us, that a U.S. Supreme Court decision on this subject should come 2,000 years after the death of Christ.

Mr. Barry Lynn, a mouthpiece for Separation of Church and State, has been all over the t.v. of late, complaining that school-sanctioned prayer would not only open the door to violations of the First Amendment, it would cause embarrassment to Jews and others who might be offended by mention of Jesus Christ, assuming, of course, that whoever offered up the prayer would mention Jesus Christ. And Mr. Lynn takes the position that even if Christ were not mentioned, if the prayer was offered to God without the usual "in Christ's name we pray", then many others who do not believe in a God would be embarrassed.

What about the Buddhists?, he asks. Or, what about the Moslems?

Well, we don't know about the Buddhists, but the Moslems claim God just as surely as do the Jews. (In their language the word "God" translates into Allah.) We are certainly no expert on the subject, but it is our understanding that Muslims (or Moslems) trace their own religious lineage back to Ishmael, the first son of Abraham, (by his Egyptian wife who was once the handmaiden of Sarah, the wife of Abraham etc., etc., etc.) while the Jews claim divine legitimacy through Abraham's second son, Isaac. Ishmael and his mother were ultimately cast out into the wilderness because of the jealousy exhibited by Sarah toward Ishmael's mother, her former Egyptian handmaiden. She wanted her own son, Isaac, to inherit Abraham's legacy. And all of which may account for some of the lingering bad blood between Jews and Moslems. As I say, we are not experts on the subject, but our readers may refer to the book of Genesis for a more detailed and authoritative account of the situation.

At any rate we hope the Supreme Court rules in favor of local school boards on this matter. We can't see where the Constitution is violated by allowing local school kids to pray that their fellows, and their fellows opponents, come through the game safely, whatever game they are playing. It is true, of course, that the First Amendment guarantees that Congress "shall make no laws" establishing a state religion, it also guarantees freedom of speech, and freedom of the press. We hardly think that allowing kids to pray before a football game amounts to establishing a state religion. And we do believe it has something to do with freedom of speech.

Satellite TV Bill will Help Instill a Sense of Competition into What We're Able to Watch

Competition is one of the building blocks of our economy, and something the federal government should try to encourage. Yet sometimes technology and the choices available to us change a lot faster than laws do.

For example, a communications law passed over a decade ago has prevented real competition in the way we get our TV signals. The law is called the Satellite Home Viewers Act. Passed back in 1988, the law has prevented many satellite viewers from pulling down a signal from local TV stations, requiring them instead to tune into a network affiliate in New York or somewhere else across the country.

A lot of things have changed since this bill was passed. First, the number of satellite viewers has increased dramatically. Today in America, nearly 12 million people own a satellite dish. Second, earlier this year, a federal judge ruled that satellite viewers could no longer pull down a broadcast signal from any major network. This ruling left a lot of people out in the cold--particularly those living in rural areas who have come to depend on satellite dishes for their TV.

Last week, the House passed a bill that will help fix this problem by giving satellite viewers the right to tune into local stations. While more needs to be done to make sure that viewers in all parts of the country are able to enjoy the benefits of this change, this bill is a step in the right direction.

It's also common sense, and something which will give people a choice in the way they get their TV--which, in the spirit of competition, is what our economy is supposed to be all about.

For more information on this or any other issue before Congress, please write Mac Thornberry at 131 Cannon Building, Washington, DC 20515, or through his website at www.house.gov/thornberry/

Percy Pelican now a celebrity

"The Wildlife Center called the television and radio stations, addressing the need they suddenly had for fish (four pounds of fish a day), and the community responded quickly."

In fact, the community responded so well that the Rehab Center then had to put out a request for freezers to store the fish. In no time, the Center was overrun with calls from people offering to buy, or lend freezers.

According to Mitchell, Percy was listless a few days after surgery and "actually looked depressed".

"They are very social animals and bond easily with people," said Mitchell. "But, obviously no one could sit with him 24 hours a day. We decided a companion duck was the next best thing, so we put one of the surrogate mother ducks in the room with him. By the next day, Percy was perky and obviously happy to have a friend to share his convalescent period with."

By Nov. 8, Percy was eating on his own and taking fish from the large pan independently.

Percy may get "pond" privileges soon, but if the wing does not heal sufficiently Mitchell says Percy has a place at the St. Louis Zoo where there are other non-releasable pelicans.

Sales Tax rebates mixed in county

State Comptroller Carole Keeton Rylander sent a total of $244.7 million in monthly sales tax payments to 1,098 Texas cities and 118 counties. This was a 0.4 percent decrease over November, 1998.

"Year-to-date, payments to cities and counties are running 5.1 percent ahead of last year," Comptroller Rylander said.

"November sales tax rebates include local sales taxes collected in September, and by quarterly filers on July, August and September sales, and reported to the comptroller in October."

Texas counties received November sales tax rebates of $17.2 million, down 3.7 percent compared to one year ago. Another $7.8 million went to 44 special purpose districts around the state.

Floydada: $7,641.18 compared to $12,677.56 in November 1998, a decrease of 39.72%.

Lockney: $5,221.92 compared to $5,090.80 in November 1998, an increase of 2.57%.

"In case of a lock-down, we have already contacted the First Baptist Church and have authorization for the parents to go there until things are cleared. Then, after clearance, we will notify the parents at the church to come and pick up their children," Collins added.

"This is the first step in the building of a District Emergency Plan. The Floydada Strategic Planning Committee, made up of local representatives from the community and schools, is the one working on this plan."

"They meet once a month basically and have done a lot of work on this plan."

"We've got to get our act together. If something were to happen at the High School or one of the other schools, we need to be ready."

"We are cooperating with the police department and keeping them informed. We've just got to do it," Collins pleaded.

Board Member Steve Lloyd made the motion to approve the Public Information Brochure for Emergency Procedures. It was seconded by Board Member Bill Dean and unanimously passed.

In other business, the board unanimously approved a request by the Floyd County Appraisal District to keep and use an $1,894.45 1998-1999 budget fund balance.

This is an overage due back to the school district, but will permit the Appraisal District to upgrade their computers.

The motion was made by Dean and seconded by Board Member Amado Morales.

Principals' Report on Performance Stats

Dean made the motion to approve the FISD Annual Performance Report for 1998-99 as rated by the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS). It was presented in booklet form by Superintendent Collins and is available to the general public for inspection at each campus. The motion was seconded by Warren and unanimously approved by the board.

The 1998-99 AEIS report based on TAAS results revealed FISD 3rd grade increased in Reading from 68.3% in 1998 to 82.1% in 1999, 3rd grade Math increased from 69.9% to 73.1%.

The report also showed FISD 4th grade Reading increased from 53.6% to 69.2%, while Writing increased from 47.8% to 72.2%.

FISD 5th grade increased in All Tests from 48.8% in 1998 to 59.1% in 1999, while the 6th grade overall tests decreased from 84.5% to 75.7%.

In other results, FISD 7th grade showed an increase in overall tests from 64.9% in 1998 to 89.1% in 1999, while the 8th grade increased from 53.1% to 65.6%.

Collins stated, "This is a good report. I am proud of it. Out of 26 entries, we had gains in 22. That is 86% worth of gains in the school district."

High School Principal Joe Christian told the board, "We were slightly down in some of our scores. We 1998 to 85% in 1999. And in Writing dropped in Reading from 89.6% in we fell from 99% to 97%.

"However, we increased in Math from 73.5% in 1998 to 90.9% in 1999, and our drop out rate fell from 1.6% to only .3% in 1999."

"Out of 40 schools in our comparison group, FISD High School had the highest growth rate of 12.83% in Math and we were 4th in Reading with a growth rate of 9.36%," Christian added.

Junior High Principal Clinton Smith told the board, "Our good numbers for the Junior High, I credit to the dedication of our good staff, teachers and hard work by the students."

"The Economically Disadvantaged column is a very important column. Our staff continually evaluates these students with these challenging backgrounds."

"The success that shows in those categories in this column reveals that the faculty is not just concentrating on the TAAS alone, but making sure all our students are a success, Smith added.

R.C. Andrews Principal David Hutton said, "I remember the first board meeting I attend, I heard the discussion on 'How to deal with TAAS versus continuing to get a good education'."

"We want a good education and also do well on the TAAS. I think we are at the place where we must realize that these are the rules of the game, the TAAS, and we must play by them."

"We may not agree with everything in them and I agree we must provide a good education to our children."

"According to the rules of the game, we (R.C. Andrews Elementary) are doing very well."

"Our Economically Disadvantaged column shows that in 1998 we had 32.6% in 4th grade Writing and in 1999 we show an increase to 64.9%. That is 32% higher."

"This gives us a lot of hope. Our teachers keep coming up with new ideas and the students really get fired up," Hutton concluded.

A.B. Duncan Elementary Principal

Bob Campbell told the board, "We were up in Reading by 13%, Math by 3% and in Attendance by 1.6%."

"We are serious about attendance. We had a 96.3% attendance in 1998 and our goal for 1999 is 97%. If we don't get our kids to school, we can't train them."

"There are school attendance laws and we have already served two warnings to certain parents. Kids must be in school," Campbell stated.

"Already in a TAAS check test, one of our 2nd grade classes has scored 82%."

"I think the big thing is cooperation between teachers and schools," Campbell concluded.

Elementary Counselor John Kay addressed the board and said, "37 student cases needed special counseling sessions so far this year. A few home visits have also been necessary."

"There were several transition problems at the beginning of the year with the moving of the grades (from Duncan to Andrews), but now they are all doing well," Kay said.

High School Coach Tim Daughtrey told the board, "The light poles for the track field are here and should be ready to put up in a couple of weeks."

"Also, the track paving company is ready to start repaving the track field and the completion date is February 1, but with this good weather they believe they will be through by Christmas or mid-January," Daughtrey added.

"FISD 'Teacher of the Month,' Jill Sinclair, was introduced to the board by High School Principal Joe Christian. "Sinclair has been with us here in Floydada about six years. She teaches Sophomore English."

"She is one of the main stays of our TAAS preparation and our writing skills. A lot of our success over the past years in this department is because of her. She works very well with the kids in the classroom and in the writing area. We are proud of her."

"She was selected by our fellow teachers and by one of the largest margins ever," Christian concluded.

Commissioners advertise bids

By Darwin Robinson

The Floyd County Commissions met Friday morning, November 12, in special session and unanimously approved the advertising of bids for two county vehicles.

Commissioner Lennie Gilroy made the motion to advertise for bids for the purchase of a new patrol car for the Sheriff's Department. Commissioner Ray Nell Bearden made the second.

County Extension Agent J.D. Ragland gave the commissioners a list of specifications for the purchase of a new heavy duty pickup.

Commissioner Jon Jones made the motion to advertise for bids for the purchase of a new heavy duty pickup for the County Ag Extension Service. It was seconded by Commissioner Craig Gilly.

In other business, the commissioners unanimously approved the request by Chief Appraiser Shelia Faulkenberry to use a budget fund balance in the amount of $1,073.05 for the upgrading of computers in the Appraisal Office.

The motion was made by Gilroy and seconded by Jones.

Lockney Council considers Cable T.V. franchise options

Marilyn Anderson met with the council to discuss options the city has with the cable television service. She reported the work being done to the lines at the present time consists of maintenance and repairs, not upgrading.

She explained that the council cannot refuse the cable company the franchise but they can negotiate with them. The franchise held by Classic Cable will expire in October 2000.

Anyone with a problem about their cable system should talk to Barbara Kayler at 652-1412. A record is being kept of the problems citizens are having and will be presented to cable company officials.

TNRCC requires an inspection of city water towers on a regular basis. Bids were taken and the council voted to accept the bid from Ron Perry of Water Technologies of Fort Worth. They will inspect the inside of the towers with an underwater camera at a cost of $898.00. The second bid was approximately $2,000 and the company used underwater divers to make the inspection.

Bids were taken from J.Q. Long and Randall Roberts on repairing the roofs on city buildings.

Twenty thousand dollars has been budgeted for sealcoating of the streets. Several of the smaller cities on the South Plains join together and are able to get a better rate. The streets are seal coated on a rotating basis so that all streets are covered every few years.

The Floyd County Appraisal District asked the council if they could keep the $118 left above what the city had budgeted for the cost of preparing the taxes. The money will be used to purchase a new computer. Rodger Stapp made the motion to approve the request and the second was made by J.D. Copeland. All voted for.

Approval was granted for the placement of two new street lights on intersections at N.E. 1st and N.W. 1st.

In regular business before the board the minutes of the October meeting were read, the bills approved for payment and the financial statement reviewed.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Gary Marr; Councilmembers, J.D. Copeland, Rodger Stapp, Tina Graves, Bill Anderson, E.L. Brotherton; City Secretary Charlotte Hooten; City Attorney Paul Lyle; Chief of Police Jerry Edwards; City Supervisors, Dickie McCarty, Arcenio Martinez, and Kenny Hooten; Marilyn Anderson and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

"Great American Smokeout"

By Martha Farris

The American Cancer Society announces one of the most important dates of the year in regard to your health! The Great American Smokeout is being observed today, Thursday, November 18th! You are being asked to "Kick the tobacco habit" for at least this day; and according to people who have done just that, it may give you the start you need to QUIT. Not only will you benefit, but those around you will, also!

Many tobacco users don't quit because they think the "damage is already done." Not so, reveals the Surgeon General's report of the past few years which used data from an extensive study of over a million participants. This data proves that the health benefits are immediate and substantial, decreasing the incidence of smoking-related diseases such as lung cancer, heart disease, pulmonary disease, and stroke. People who quit before age 50 have only one-half the risk of dying compared with continuing smokers.

Other conclusions of the report include: Children who live with smokers are more likely to have bronchitis, chronic cough, and ear infections.

Women who stop smoking before pregnancy or in the first trimester, reduce the risk of having sickly or low birthweight babies. For these reasons, and many more, the American Cancer Society urges you to take this day, November 18th, seriously.

Whirlwind Sams

By Darlynn Hambricht

November trail boss, Harold and Carol Reese planned a very enjoyable weekend campout for the Whirlwind Sams. The campsite was Loop 289 RV Park in Lubbock.

Joining the Reese's were Wayne and Roberta Russell, Henry and Dahlia Russell, Don and Sue Chesshir, Randy and Teresa Hollums, Hollis and Jo Payne, Gordon and Darlynn Hambricht, Paul and Dartha Westbrook and Jerry and Glenda Livingston.

Friday afternoon, we toured the American Wind Power Center, a dynamic museum for the American water pumping windmill. Opened in June 1998, this unique museum has on display over 40 rare and fully restored windmills. Many of these date for the late 19th and early 20th century. Beautiful wooden windmills with names like Eclipse, Star, Ozark have original colors and are mixed with early metal windmills of different types and styles.

We stopped at the Tech campus to view some sculptures.

That evening we dined at Cagle Steak house. Saturday morning the Reese's hosted a pancake breakfast for us. Afterward some went shopping.

Fred and Yvonne Thaxton and Gayle Daniel joined us for dinner at Abuello's.

A tour of the Ranching Heritage Center was taken by the group. The Center has brought together 35 structures to illustrate life in the bunk house and at the line camp. Another interesting aspect shows the evolution of ranch architecture from a single room log cabin to a stylish Queen Anne ranch house at the turn of the century. One can trace the movement of the cattle industry from southern Texas to the plains of the Llano Estacado.

Saturday evening we attended a play "Right Bed-Wrong Husband." It was performed at the Cactus Theater. Louis and Virginia Pyle met us there.

Sunday, Paul and Dartha Westbrook hosted the group at their beautiful new home in Lubbock. Coffee, juice, doughnuts and sweet breads were served prior to our devotional time. Jo Payne, accompanied on the piano by Dartha, led the song service. An inspiring devotional was given by Dartha. Harold Reese gave the benediction. Gordon Hambricht, wagonmaster thanked the Reese's on behalf of the club for a very enjoyable weekend. Paul Westbrook led us in singing "Happy Trails."

Chaplaincy Program being started at Mangold Memorial Hospital

Ministers in this area are in the process of forming a Chaplaincy Program for W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital in Lockney.

According to Rev. Byard, of the First United Methodist Church in Lockney, all ministers are welcome to participate.

"We will have 'chaplains for a day'", said Byard. "Ministers will be put on a schedule where one minister is on call one day a week--more or less, according to the number of ministers who volunteer."

"If an emergency comes in to the hospital the chaplain on duty that day would be called to help with family members. They could also be there for patients who request a chaplain."

According to Rev. Byard this would not take the place of regular visitation by preachers for the members of their church. "It would just be a clergy that doctors could turn to when someone in the hospital needs help."

"If a sick person wanted a priest to administer last rites then the chaplain could find a priest for them."

"If a family needed help with immediate funeral home arrangements, the clergy could assist there too."

"I have served as a chaplain before," said Byard. "I was there for family when persons had been brought in after being killed or seriously hurt in car accidents."

Any clergy who is interested in being part of the Chaplaincy Program should call Rodney Hunt, youth minister at Lockney's First Baptist Church, at 652-2841.

Reyes runs 21st in state cross country

Floydada's Rocky Reyes saved his best performance for the biggest meet of the year as he finished 21st at the Class 2A State Cross Country Championship here at Old Settlers Park last Saturday.

Beginning from the far right side at the starting line, Reyes overcame what appeared to be a woeful opening as the sophomore Whirlwind was near the back of the 104-runner pack after 400 meters of the 5,000-meter race. At the 1-mile mark, Reyes trailed at least 65 runners. Appearances proved to be deceiving, however, as Reyes toured the first mile of the race in 5 minutes, 20 seconds - his quickest opening split ever.

Many of the early front-runners quickly began feeling the effects of the torrid early pace during the second mile, and Reyes steadily began moving up in the field. By the time the runners reached the 2 mile mark, Reyes had moved past at least 30 more runners and was still closing.

"It worried me a little at the first because so many were ahead of me," Reyes said. "I started passing some of them (after the opening turn) and thought that I could keep going."

As he has done all season, Reyes made his strongest move through the middle of the race. With about three-quarters of a mile left, Reyes moved as high as 18th, but couldn't match the finishing kick of some of the more seasoned runners.

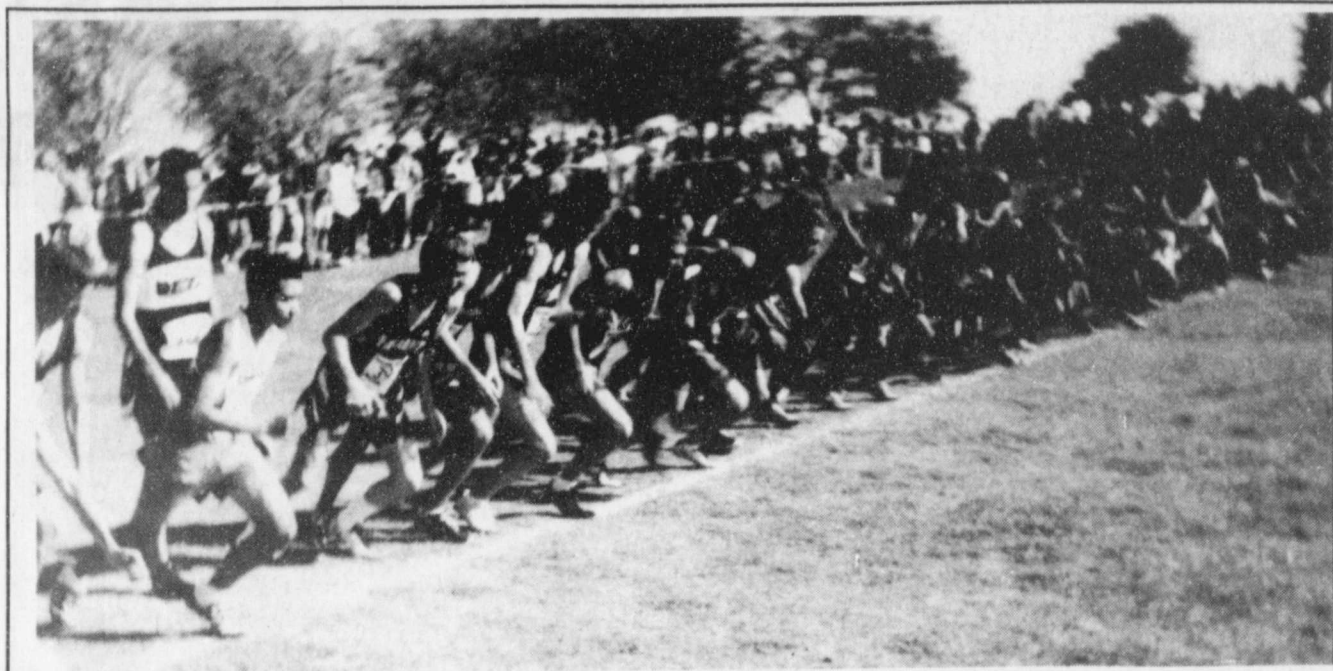

Reyes finished the course in 17 minutes, 37 seconds. The rush to the finish line found the 16th through 26th place finishers within a mere 11 seconds of each other. District 7-2A champion Heath Wing of Ralls, who edged Reyes by less than a second at the regional meet, finished in 51st place in 18:18. Region I champion Jorge Hernandez of Clyde Eula was 73rd in 18:56.

"I was impressed with how smart Rocky ran," Coach Randall Lightfoot said. "It's very easy for a runner to let his adrenaline take over at the start of a race and go out too hard. The winner went through the first mile in under five minutes, and a lot of people who went out with him paid a big price for it. Rocky kept his cool, ran hard early without going nuts, and then just walked down a bunch of people."

"The runners in his group all had hard finishes, and Rocky had a hard time going with them in the final sprint. We'll work on that when we get back on the track."

Henry Esqueda of Dilley defended his individual championship with ease in 16:28, 23 seconds in front of teammate Zack Kemp. Premont won the team title with 79 points ahead of Holliday, last springs state champion in track, with 86 points.

THE BEGINNING OF 5000 METERS-Floydada Cross Country runner Rocky Reyes (left) is starting out with 104 others in the 2A State Cross Country

Championship in Round Rock last Saturday. Reyes came from back in the pack to finish 21st with a time of 17 minutes, 37 seconds. Courtesy Photo

Longhorns fall short in a hard fought Bi-District game Friday

By Bill Gray

Tuscola-Jim Ned built a 19-0 lead and had to withstand an inspired second-half Lockney rally to defeat the Longhorns 26-21 in Class 2A bi-district action last week at Lubbock's Lowrey Field. Improving to 6-5 for the season, the Indians will return to Lubbock this week to meet Canadian in an area round playoff at 6:00 P.M. on Saturday. The Wildcats (10-1) advanced to the area round with a 20-14 bi-district win over Quanah last Friday.

The Longhorns closed their 1999 season at 7-4. New Deal, one of the two District 7-2A squads in the Division II playoffs, was defeated 35-21 by Hamlin in the first round. District 7-2A's other representative, Abernathy earned a ticket to the area round with a 21-14 bi-district victory over Albany. The surprising 8-3 Antelopes will face 9-2 Stratford, champion of District 5-2A, at Amarillo's Dick Bivins Stadium on Saturday.

Following an exchange of punts, Jim Ned quarterback Cole Egger engineered a 5-play scoring drive which was made possible by Egger's 48-yard pass to Kyle Hudson. Egger carried in from a yard out two plays later, but his extra-point kick attempt was wide right. Lockney stormed back with a 75 yard drive as Jordan Lambert hit passes of 14 yards to Chase Graves and a 19 yarder to A.J. Thornton. However, the ball popped out at the end of Thornton's reception, rolled out of the end zone, and the Indians were awarded possession of the touchback at their own 20. It was the first of three costly turnovers for the Longhorns. Both defenses took charge of the game until early in the second quarter.

Lockney failed to convert a 4th-and-two situation to open the second period, and turned the ball over on downs at the Jim Ned 11. Behind the running of Eric Maxwell, the Indians moved almost the length of the field in only six plays. On a second-down situation from near midfield, the elusive Maxwell avoided several would-be tacklers in his backfield and broke into the clear for a 52-yard touchdown. The two-point attempt failed, but the Indians were clearly in control 12-0 midway through the second quarter.

A mis-handling of the ensuing kickoff resulted in the Longhorns' poor field position to start their next offensive series. Lockney committed its second turnover two plays later as the Indians' Zach Hudson recovered the loose ball, giving Jim Ned possession at the Lockney 5. Two plays later, Egger hit James Gaskins with a 4-yard, play action TD pass. Egger's kick upped the Indians' commanding lead to 19-0.

Lockney senior running back Josh Quebe picked up a key first down with a 22-yard scamper following the ensuing kickoff. Two plays later Jordan Lambert connected with Chase Graves for a 38-yard pass and run combination to put the Longhorns on the board at the 3:16 mark of the second quarter. Mo Collins added the conversion and the Longhorns were right back in the game.

The Longhorn defense, inspired by the offense's scoring output, toughened in the final moments of the first half. Even though Egger connected on passes of 21 and 20 yards to Gaskins and Maxwell, respectively, quarterback sacks by Anthony Garza and Juan Gonzales helped stall any more Indian scoring drives in the first half. Gonzales' sack of Cole Egger for a 9-yard loss forced the Indians into their third punt of the evening.

Mo Collins electrified the Lockney faithful with a 39-yard return of Egger's punt as the Longhorns worked to get into scoring position before time elapsed in the half. Lambert hit Quebe with a 16-yard pass to the Indian 20, setting up a field goal attempt by the 'Horns. Mo Collins' 38-yard effort was just short as the halftime buzzer sounded. An interesting statistical fact of the first half was that Jim Ned held possession only 14 seconds longer than Lockney - although the Indians held a two-touchdown lead of 19-7 at intermission.

Mixing Cole Egger passing with the running of Eric Maxwell, the Indians moved 49 yards in 7 plays to extend their lead to 26-7 in the first five minutes of the third quarter. Following a 47-yard Jordan Lambert punt, the Indians were on the move again when they committed their first of two turnovers. Jamie Cerda recovered a Maxwell fumble at midfield at the 3:49 mark of the period.

Lockney overcame a 10-yard quarterback sack by Indian linebacker Brent Hastings to mount a 54-yard, 8-play scoring drive. Quebe ran for 14 yards on third down and a 15-yard penalty for a late hit was assessed against Jim Ned, giving the 'Horns a first down at the Indian 36. Collins ran 16 yards for another first down, crashed into the end zone from 6 yards out, and added the conversion to cut into the Indians' lead.

Jim Ned's Eric Maxwell, who would pace all runners in the game with 26 carries for 161 yards, ran for 32 yards to give the Indians good field position deep in Lockney territory to open the final stanza. Just as the Indians were driving to put the game away, Mo Collins intercepted an Egger aerial to give the Longhorns possession at their own 20.

The Longhorns were flagged for illegal procedure on first down. On the next play, from his own 15-yard line, Lambert connected with Mo Collins, who turned the reception into an 85-yard pass and run combination for six points. Lambert was 6 of 9 for 178 yards and two touchdowns for the game. Lockney's score and subsequent conversion kick by Collins brought the 'Horns to within 5 points of the Indians.

With 9:33 remaining in the game, it appeared that the Longhorns were in position to pull out a come-from-behind victory. But, it was not to be. Jim Ned took possession at its 24 following the ensuing kickoff and played ball control. The Indians retained possession for 11:41 of the final 12 minutes. Lockney's only possession of the fourth quarter, which resulted in the Longhorns' final score, lasted but nineteen seconds.

Eric Maxwell ate up the majority of the yardage and clock time, but Cole Egger completed just enough passes to keep the first downs coming for the Indians. Egger would finish the evening with 13 completions out of 19 attempts for 183 yards, a touchdown and one interception. The Indians picked up six first downs in their final 19-play, 66 yard drive, to seal the hard-earned victory.

Bill's Notes

The Longhorns just made too many critical mistakes early on...starting with the sure TD that ended up as a touchback possession for the Indians. Even at that, the 'Horns fought back and were in a position to pull out the win in the fourth period. Under normal circumstances, they would have gotten the ball back at least a couple of times there at the end. The 9 1/2 minute possession by Jim Ned was ball-control football at its very best. Offensive play of the game? The 85-yard TD toss from Jordan to Mo to pull the 'Horns to within 6. Offensive player(s) of the game...Jordan Lambert with his 6-9-0 passing for 178 yards and Jim Ned's Eric Maxwell who rushed for 161 yards and a pair of TDs. Defensive play of the game - Mo Collins' pass interception which opened the door for a major Lockney comeback in the fourth quarter. Defensive player of the game? Kind of a toss-up between Lockney's Jared Lambert and Jim Ned's Zach Hudson. Jordan Lambert gets my "Headhunter hit" for his shot on receiver Kyle Hudson on the final play of the third period. Hudson only gained 5 yards on the pass reception thanks to Jordan's hard and lasting hit. I had a great time covering the game...some probably questioned my wearing "red and black." Well, I'll clarify that. I support the Longhorns any time in any sport when they are not playing the Whirlwinds. Now, I hope no one has a problem with that. 'Nuff said.

Notes from Coach Terry:

I was very pleased with our football team. We did not get the breaks that we had gotten in early games. We also made mistakes, and Jim Ned took advantage of our miscues.

We held our composure very well for a youthful team. Our kids showed great character and heart, when we were down 19-0. We very easily could have shut down.

The work ethic that we had all year showed up in each player when we were down, each young man did their part, as we closed the gap to 26-21 with a little over nine minutes left in the fourth quarter. We never got the ball back and Jim Ned ran out the clock.

This year has been one that will be remembered for a long time by players, coaches and community. Our young men learned that by hard work and perseverance that you can accomplish anything. As we look back on the past few months there will be a lot of great memories and some great building blocks for the future.

This Senior Class has set the tone for things to come, they will be greatly missed, but not forgotten. They set the tone early in the year by their roles as leaders. I am glad I got to be apart of a great ride.

In closing...Thanks to our coaching staff, our fans and most of all the 1999 LOCKNEY LONGHORNS; DISTRICT CHAMPIONS AND FLOYD COUNTY CHAMPIONS. You have made this something I will never forget.

 2. Four blocks of water line may need to be added.
 3. The water storage tank built in 1998 has the capacity to meet TNRCC requirements.
 4. Potential alternative water sources are:
 - a. Unneeded allocations of other Mackenzie Water Authority member cities.
 - b. Lake Meredith Water Authority pipeline 20 miles to the West.
 5. Treatment plant needs will be addressed after 5 years.
 6. Check the 1998 standpipe to ensure its capacity meets TNRCC requirements.
 7. Distribution needs will be in the form of a supply pipeline from the new well at Aiken 4 miles away to the City of Lockney.
- D. Potential Problems:
1. Additional customers may overload present system. New distribution lines may need to be added.
 2. A related problem may be under-capacity of the sewer system.
- E. Projects - High and Low cost by priority:
1. High Cost
 - a. Addition of a storage tank.
 - b. Replacement of main distribution lines.
 - c. Sewer improvements.
 2. Low Cost
 - d. a. Additional distribution lines - 1,000 ft. per year
- F. Schedule of Improvements:
- Projected growth is questionable. Projects will be addressed as needed. The sewer project is part of a long-range plan.
- G. This Proposed Plan was approved by the city council on 11-11-99.
- H. Mailed TRWA a copy of the resulting capital improvement plan on 11-11-99.

CITY OF LOCKNEY DROUGHT MANAGEMENT PLAN

- A. Water Source Constraints - Limiting Factors:
1. Our primary water source is Lake Mackenzie and it is dependant upon rainfall. Presently we are at 60% reduced allocation.
 2. Due to water table declines any new well will have to be drilled West of the city.
- B. Water System Constraints:
1. Unexpected population growth and resulting demand might strain the distribution system.
- C. Alternative Sources of Water:
1. There are no readily available alternative sources of water. A Lake Meredith pipeline is 20 miles west of Lockney.
 2. The most realistic alternative would be to drill additional Ogallala Aquifer wells in a well field West of Lockney.
 3. There may be a slim chance of purchasing Lake Mackenzie water from other member cities if they do no need their allocation.
- D. Conditions that would cause an Emergency:
1. Reduced allocation from Lake Mackenzie due to low lake level.
 2. Loss of volume from city water wells.
- E. Conditions that would trigger the Drought Management Plan will be based on the water level of Lake Mackenzie. As levels indicate a reduction in the capacity of the lake to remain a viable water supply different phases of the plan will be implemented. As long as there is no rationing from Lake Mackenzie officials there will be no water rationing by the City of Lockney.
- F. Emergency Measures to be taken when trigger conditions are reached:
- We have identified four conditions, which will lead to 4 phases of water management and rationing.
1. Phase I. The city will be considered to be in Phase I when Mackenzie Lake Authorities allocates anything less than 100% of the lake's designed capacity.

During Phase I:

 - a. Voluntary conservation will be encouraged.
 - b. Notices will be published in the local newspaper and/or
 - c. Mail outs will be sent to water users to encourage and educate them regarding water conservation.
 2. Phase II. The city will initiate Phase II when it is determined that the city is within 2 years of being cut off from Lake Mackenzie water.

During Phase II:

 - a. Citizens will be notified of alternate outside watering days for even and odd numbered home addresses.
 - b. City employees will be authorized to issue citations for violations they observe.
 - c. Penalties will be based upon the severity of the violation and on the following schedule:
 1. 1st time abuse - $ 50. fine
 2. 2nd time abuse- $ 75. fine
 3. 3rd time abuse- $ 100. fine
 4. 4th time abuse- $ 200. maximum fine for each incident
 3. Phase III. The city will be in Phase III when it is either taken off Lake Mackenzie water or the lake is unable to supply the city's needs on a normal schedule.

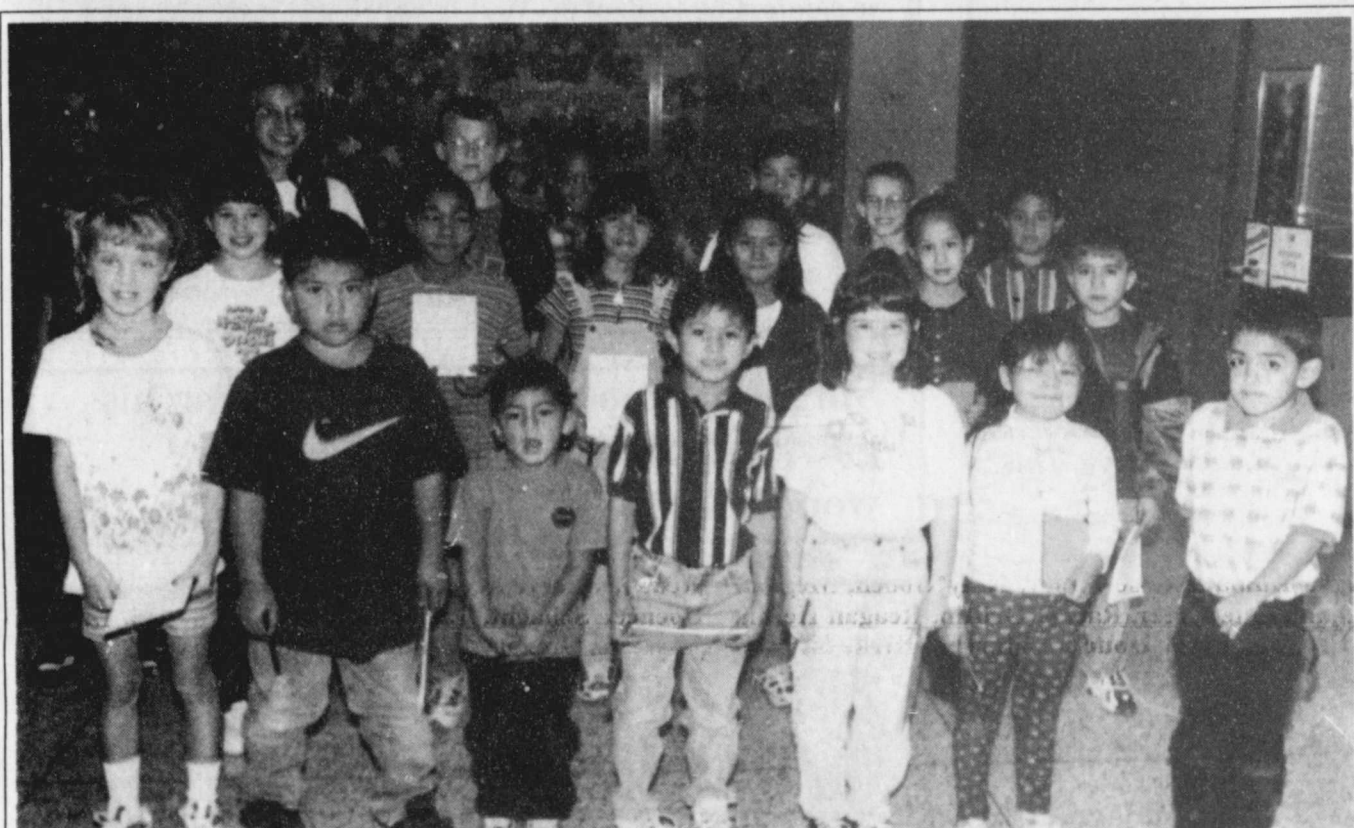

During Phase III:

 - a. Outside lawn, tree or landscape watering is prohibited.
 - b. No water usage allowed that results in run off into the street or curb.
 - c. Commercial water users will be sold water by the city from sources not tied to the city water supply or directed to obtain water from farmers or other sources.
 4. Phase IV. Phase IV will be a continuation of Phase III if it is seen that voluntary conservation or rationing measures are ineffective.

During Phase IV:

 - a. Phase III will continue in effect.
 - b. Water usage will be closely monitored.
 - c. Water usage above 80% of the previous 12 months average usage for a connection will be assessed a 50% surcharge.
- G. Means of Enforcement:
1. The city will notify the public by mail outs or newspaper notices of the starting of each phase of the rationing plan.
 2. The Mayor or the City Council will instruct City Employees and Police when to begin issuing citations for violations.
 3. City Police and Employees will patrol the streets as part of their normal daily activities.
 4. A citizen's watch program will be encouraged, whereby, the citizens will help to monitor all areas of the city.
 5. A surcharge will be added to any water bill that exceeds 80% of the previous 12 months average usage during Phase IV.
- H. Notice to be given when trigger conditions are reached:
1. A special mail out from the city will explain the current phase the city is in and the penalties for abuse or violations.
 2. A notice from the city will be placed in the local newspaper four weeks prior to the enforcement of the penalties.
- I. The Lockney City Council approved this drought plan on 11-11-99.
- J. After Council approval the city will publish the plan in the Floyd County Hesperian/Beacon newspaper.
- K. A copy of this adopted plan was sent to the TRWA on 11-11-99.

Fire equipment donated to Dougherty

Dougherty Volunteer Fire Department took advantage of equipment aid available from the Texas Forest Service. The department acquired a free flatbed truck, courtesy of the Federal Excess Personal Property (FEPP) equipment program administered by the agency. Under the FEPP program, equipment acquired through the military is transferred to qualifying fire departments at no cost.

Volunteer fire departments can purchase firefighter clothing, hand tools and water handling accessories at discount prices through the Fire Safe program. Fire Safe sales to date exceed $4.5 million, according to the state forestry agency.

Volunteer fire departments may save money in another way. A self-insurance vehicle liability insurance pool also administered by the Texas Forest Service offers liability coverage for $250 per vehicle, ambulances excluded.

The passage of legislation minimizing liability to industrial companies that donate used firefighting equipment for volunteer fire department use has made additional equipment available, and more donations are likely. Companies interested in donating industrial fire equipment should contact the TFS Rural Fire Defense Section at 409-639-8130 for information on the Industrial Helping Hands program. The value of equipment received to date now exceeds $4 million.

Detailed information on volunteer fire department assistance programs is available from the Rural Fire Defense Section, Texas Forest Service, P.O. Box 310, Lufkin, Texas 75902-0319, phone 409-639-8130.
