Former Loraine man killed

A former Loraine man was killed Tuesday in Dallas when the small plane he was piloting crashed and burned in an Oak Cliff neighborhood.

Reagan Martin, 59, a Dallas attorney, and passenger Michael Carson, 40, of Nash, Texas, were burned to death when the Bellanca aircraft plunged to the ground. The four-seater plane had been fueled at Red Bird Airport about 8:30 a.m. But shortly after takeoff, aviation officials said Mr. Martin reported engine and landing gear problems. The crash occurred as he was trying to return to the airport.

Mr. Martin radioed air traffic controllers and said that he would have to attempt an emergency landing on the street. As the plane came down, investigators said, it hit several trees and a telephone pole, then flew into a power line and crashed.

He was reportedly heading to Texarkana on business.

Memorial services were at 10 a.m. Friday at Highland Park United Methodist Church with Dr. Leighton Farrell and Dr. Kenneth Dickson officiating. Burial was at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Loraine Cemetery, directed by Sparkman-Hillcrest Funeral Home.

Mr. Martin was born Sept. 11, 1931 and reared in Loraine. His parents were Bill and Doris Mar-

Eldon Mahon speaks at Lions Club meeting

U.S. District Judge Eldon Mahon of Fort Worth said Friday that the U.S. constitution has a "profound effect upon all of us" and that our forefathers were "very wise" when they drafted it.

Mahon, a native of Loraine, was the guest speaker at Friday's luncheon meeting of the Colorado City Noon Lions Club.

Mahon was introduced by George Witten who said that "where ever he has lived and regardless of his other responsibilities, Eldon Mahon has distinguished himself in civic and church affairs as well as professionally."

Mahon is a graduate of Loraine High School, McMurry College and the Texas University Law School. He served as Mitchell County Attorney, 32nd Judicial District Attorney and 32nd Judicial District Judge before becoming a vice president for Texas Electric Service Co. in 1963. He returned to private law practice in 1965 and in 1968 was named U.S. District Attorney for the Northern District of Texas. In 1972, he was named U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Texas, a lifetime appointment. He is now on senior senior status, but still has a busy schedule.

Mahon said the constitution is a stumbling block, but "a stumbling block with a purpose."

"Many people don't realize how important the constitution of the United States is," he said, explaining that local government is bound by the same constitution.

"Our system of government is a great system...our forefathers were very wise," he said.

"In 200 years, our constitution has only been amended 26 times with the first 10 amendments the

"Every year, Texas voters are asked to decide on 10 or 12 amendments," he said.

He said the judicial system is the third branch of government. He said that there are only 97 U.S. District courts in America and that there are only 740 federal judges.

City beautification projects continue

By Elizabeth Connell

The beautification project committee wants to bring you up to date on the progress made on the clean-up and landscaping of the traffic islands on Hickory and Austin streets.

For the first time, all four mini-parks are clean, and the beautification program is showing the work that has been done.

The crepe myrtles have started blooming on the two parks on Hickory street.

On the smaller parks on Austin Street, the wild flowers have started blooming and the parks are clean.

The larger park on Austin Street has plants started and growing.

Now, what is the next step? Have been reading about the restoration of downtown Hillsboro. It is bringing new life to the city.

There had not been anything done to enhance the appearance of the city until prospective business and industry bluntly told the city officials that they would not even consider Hillsboro because of the appearance of the downtown area.

Since then, the courthouse has been cleaned and beautified and the downtown is now number one in the Texas Main Street Project.

The enthusiasm in town continues as they townspeople are truly excited about the progress of their city and the potential for future growth as the result of taking pride in the appearance of their city.

Now if we can get our town fixed up for visitors, we can hope for tourists to come and spend some money. Maybe there is hope for tourist dollars and better farm economy.

There are a number of towns that have been listed as to bringing in business - bed and bath, antiques, museums brought to to standard, restaurants, artesian malls, trades day, glassware and primitives, art galleries, etc.

There are other towns - Waxahachie, Calvert, McKinney, Carrollton, Weatherford, Decatur, Granbury, Kerrville, Nacogdoches, Georgetown and Sweetwater.

West Texas can survive if we wish.

Smith named to Who's Who

Who's Who Among American High School Students has announced that Tanesa Smith, who will be a junior at Crane High School this fall, has been accepted for publication in its 24th Annual Edition.

The Who's Who publication is a permanent reference volume used in thousands of high schools, universities and public libraries throughout the country, including the Library of Congress.

The highly coveted award is recognized and respected by educators and government leaders and is the largest, most comprehensive publication/program committed to meritorious high school students. The primary purpose of Who's Who is to pay tribute to America's outstanding high school students who are making the very best of their abilities to benefit themselves, their families and their communities. Only five percent of all students from the nation's 22,000 high schools are honored each year.

Smith will be eligible to participate in its scholarship program, which awards a minimum of $65,000 in scholarships each year. She also will be able to use its College Referral Service, an exclusive reference service for college-bound Who's Who students.

Smith has been active in volleyball, basketball, golf and track. She has been elected class representative in Student Council for two years. She was chosen Freshman Class Homecoming Duchess and Sophomore Class Favorite.

She is the daughter of Jerry and Peggy Smith of Crane. Her grandparents are Lon and Ruthie Robertson of Colorado City, Bill and Ruth Smith of Odessa and D.D. and Loretta Smith of Jal, N.M.

Sales tax increase in effect

State Comptroller Bob Bullock reminds everyone who collects or pays sales tax that there will be an additional quarter percent sales tax collected on all taxable purchases beginning Sunday, July 1.

"The change means we'll all be paying a little bit more to help fund education and human services in Texas," Bullock said.

The tax raise was approved by the Texas Legislature after a fourth special session on the issue ended in early June. The increase brings the maximum sales tax rate in Texas to 8¼ percent when optional local sales taxes are included.

Bullock's office estimates that a family of four making $35,000 a year will pay an additional $24.65 a year in the state sales tax.

'Friendimension' Bible School scheduled at Christian Temple

Dana Moody calls it "this summer's friendliest vacation destination" and it's right here in Colorado City.

The Friendimension adventure, a community Vacation Bible School, will take place daily between July 9-13. Classes meet at 8:45-11:45 a.m. and programs are available for children pre-kindergarten to sixth grade.

"Our focus is friendship," says Moody, VBS coordinator. Students of all ages discover what the scripture says about making friends and keeping friends - and, most important, now to become Forever Friends with Jesus Christ. Students will enjoy singing, craft projects, puppet shows, creative learning activities, and graded Bible discovery lessons. Children ages 2 to the sixth grade are welcome to join in on the fun.

For enrollment information call 728-5538.

Little league players honored at ceremonies

As the Major League Dodgers were capturing the Area 2 Championship from Baird on June 22, the Closing Ceremonies were being held for the rest of the local divisions and teams.

The Tigers were the 1990 T-Ball Champions, as they ended the season undefeated. Lonnie Wyrosdick managed the growing baseball players, while assisting was Robert Andrews. Team members consisted of Lee Ybarra, Ross Riggs, Albert Luera, David Pineda, Mark Wyrosdick, Chris Vanderslice, Rita Luera, and Kevin Andrews.

As the attention turned to the Minor League, the Steers were recognized as the Division Champs. The All-Stars from the Minor League played the Steers in an exhibition game. The All-Stars played extremely well as they defeated the Division Champs by a score of 12-7. Frankie Means, a southpaw from Roscoe, came away with the victory for the Minor League All-Stars.

The 1990 All-Stars for the Minors were David Huff-Cubs; Phillip Castro, Jesse Martinez-Bluesox; Joshua Silva, Jacob Rayburn-Mets; Armando Rocha, Keith Wilkinson-Mustangs; Frankie Means, Rene Garcia, Michael Zapata, Roddy Alexander-Roscoe. Coaches for the All-Stars were Frank Means and Roddy Pyatt.

Steers members were Justin Hill, Abel Bonila, Chris Chambers, Michael May, Jeffery Fox, Thadd Rich, Brad Hale, Jeremy King, Kris Morris, Lance Casey, and Bubba Limones. Jimmy Hill, Bruce Rich, and Robert Chambers were the coaches.

Making the All-Stars selections for the Major League were Frank Espinoza, Dusty Robinson, Jarod Epperson-Dodgers; Jeff HIll, JohnErwin, Kyle Moore-Indians; Alvin Crawford, Cole Lindsey-Astros; Lynn Boyd, Chris Denson-Rangers; Michael Hoyle-Pirates; Jerry Chiveria, Andy Gomez, Heath Ince-Roscoe. Coaching this year's squad are Rick Robinson and Rick Cooper.

The Twins might have won the Senior League Division, but the Red's had five ball players selected for the All-Star team. Cody Parker, Johnny Martinez, Shane Jones, Doug Conner, and Heath Mann were the five chosen ones. Other All-Stars are James Franco, Juan Ybarra, Chris Phillips, Michael Moore-Twins; Richard Gomez, Nico Biggers, Dwayne Riggs-A's; Adrian Martinez, James Lopez-Giants. Donnie Phillips and Gerald Epperson will do the honors of coaching.

The Major League All-Stars will play in the Hamlin Tournament on July 10, and the Senior League All-Stars will play in Abilene on July 9.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

Decorum; that which is suitable. Propriety of language, dress and conduct. Suitableness, dignity.

Once upon a time, a long time ago, city council members attended their meetings dressed to the hilt, complete with shirts and ties. Today, the attire is more casual, indeed, some elected officials have conducted city business wearing short pants.

What are some of the other changes in decorum over the past 108 years?

Originally the council met every other Tuesday at 8 p.m. Today's council has it regularly scheduled meeting on the second Tuesday of each month (7 p.m.) and other meetings are called during the month as needed.

The Mayor in 1882 (also called the President) convened the meeting and then called the roll of aldermen to establish their attendance. Today there is no roll call.

Next, the minutes of the previous meeting were read, unless by a vote of the council the reading was dispensed with.

After the meeting was underway, the Mayor could "state a question sitting, but shall rise to put a question to a vote to the council." Today, the Mayor stands only during the pledge to the flag and during the opening prayer. (1882 meetings did not have invocations).

Council members in the early days were to say either "aye" or "no" when voting on issues.

Today, virtually the same words are spoken when voting, although on expected close votes, council members may be asked to raise their right hands.

In 1882, the Mayor voted only in case of a tie. Today, the Mayor may vote on all issues, or, he may opt to vote only to break a tie.

Back in the good old days, every "resolution or bill" had to be "written upon not less than a full sheet of legal paper and shall be signed by the member proposing it."

Today, resolutions are pre-written by the city staff. Council members proposing motions, after full discussions, are not required to put their motions in writing.

Back then, when a councilman desired "to speak in debate, or make a motion, or deliver any matter to the council, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address Mr. President."

Today, council members are not required to stand.

In 1882, "when two or more members happen to rise at once, the chair shall decide who shall speak first."

Today, if two council members rise at the same time, they're probably going to the back of the room where sandwiches and Cokes are kept.

(There's no indication early day councils had sandwiches at their meetings, but remember; the city went bankrupt in 1897, so the officials may have had a keg of beer for their refreshment.

Lastly, city councilmen in 1882 were paid $2.50 per meeting. Today, councilmen are paid $10 per meeting for up to two meetings per month.

The decorum has changed over the years and chances are, if someone makes another comparison in the next 108 years, things will have changed even more. Who knows, in the year 2071, citizens may be amused to know we opened our meetings during the 1990's, with a prayer.
