

British Session Opened

By TOM OCHILTREE LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II opened a new session of Parliament today with a promise to keep the pubs open later at night.

The queen's speech from the throne, written by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government, also promised to work toward the political and economic unity of Western Europe and reaffirmed Britain's allegiance to her alliance with the United States and the other North Atlantic nations.

But it was the pledge to reform the licensing laws that the bulk of the British public was interested in.

The queen gave no details. But Home Secretary Richard A. Butler, whose department will prepare the new legislation, has promised later closing hours and also to make them uniform over the country.

Pubs now must close at 10:30 or 11 p.m. in London, depending on what part of the city they are in. Outside the capital the traditional "Time please, gentlemen" comes at 10 p.m.

With the tourist trade in mind, Butler also hopes to make it possible to buy drinks with supper up to 2 a.m. all over the country instead of just in London as at present.

The queen read her message sitting erect on her golden throne in the red and gold chamber of the House of Lords. Her full-skirted dress was of broadened silk and she wore a glittering crown.

The lords, robed in scarlet with ermine collars, and the diamond-encrusted peacocks filled the benches of the chamber. Members of the House of Commons in their dark morning suits stood at the back.

The queen stressed that Britain will continue to cooperate "in consolidating the European Free Trade Association," the seven-nation West European trade group Britain heads.

The government will work toward the political and economic unity of Western Europe, on a basis satisfactory to all the governments concerned, the queen said.

'HE WASN'T BUT THIS HIGH' Mrs. Jack Huggins told Deputy Sheriff Jim Farr of the 15-year-old fugitive she had spotted while taking a bale of cotton to the Inadale gin Monday afternoon.

Cuban Bid Vote Due

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly headed for a vote today on Cuba's bid for immediate assembly debate on the Cuban charge that the United States plans an invasion against Fidel Castro's regime.

Diplomats predicted the 99-nation forum would hand the Cubans and their Soviet bloc backers a strong rebuff by sending the Cuban complaint to the assembly's political committee first.

Says Nixon Made Decision On Loan

NEW YORK (AP)—A Los Angeles accountant was quoted by the New York Post today as saying all major decisions concerning a $205,000 loan from the Hughes Tool Co. to Donald Nixon were cleared with his brother, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The newspaper identified the accountant as Philip Reiner, a member of a management committee named to oversee the operation of Donald Nixon's bankrupt chain of restaurants and gift shops.

However, the Post quoted Reiner as saying the vice president was never supposed to be mentioned by name in reports and correspondence concerning the loan, but by code terms such as "East" or "Eastern Division."

The 1956 loan was brought to public attention recently by Washington columnist Drew Pearson in an article linking the vice president's name with a possible conflict-of-interest.

Donald Nixon said Sunday that the loan was obtained in an unsuccessful effort to save his business but asserted: "I have never asked my brother to do anything for me or anyone else to do anything for me, and I did ask I know he would refuse."

That was the procedure recommended by the assembly's steering committee. Cuba and the Communist bloc countries held the floor in Monday's opening round before the assembly with new claims that Castro's government stands in peril of a massive invasion engineered by the U.S. government.

Neither the United States nor any of its supporters took the rostrum, prompting Bulgaria to hint at a possible conspiracy of silence. Later a U.S. spokesman issued a statement terming the Cuban charges "false and absurd."

Cuba Foreign Minister Raúl Roa spoke for more than an hour in an attack that ranged from shots at the U.S. presidential candidates to a claim that the weekend visit of 1,450 U.S. Marines to the Guantanamo naval base as a clear act of provocation.

Roa charged that both Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon had shown contempt of the United Nations and the Organization of American States by suggesting U.S. measures against Castro.

The two candidates discussed Cuba as if it were a piece of real estate. Roa declared, adding that victory for either one would mean efforts to liquidate the Castro government.

Roa repeated Castro's avowal that his government has no intention of trying to seize the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo by force. He accused the United States of fomenting a crisis in an attempt to influence the U.S. presidential election.

Pearson's column asserted that the family of Richard M. Nixon had received the $205,000 loan on Dec. 10, 1956—shortly after Nixon's re-election to the vice presidency—and that industrialist Howard Hughes' problems with various government agencies improved.

Whether the improvement was connected with the loan is not known. Pearson's article added.

He accused Pearson of seeking to smear his brother, the Republican presidential candidate.

He took along Charles Guarramas. Just outside Laredo on the highway to San Antonio, he bound and gagged Guarramas and started to bind Mrs. Sosa.

She saw a pickup truck and ran, screaming, toward it. Guarramas also ran. Jones jumped into Mrs. Sosa's car and sped away.

Jones has been sought in the San Antonio area since last Thursday when he freed Mrs. Walter Sears, 24, an expectant mother whose husband is a school teacher at Alledo, near Fort Worth. He also freed Mrs. Sears' daughter, Cynthia, 2.

Jones went on an all-night spree starting the previous night in Fort Worth. He raped a second cousin and used a rope to strangle her companion and leave the companion for dead.

Jones is wanted in Texas and other rights in the government, including those already operated by foreign oil companies—British-Dutch Shell and American Standard Vacuum and Caltex.

Conflicting Polls Stir Campaigners

By RAYMOND HOLBROOK Associated Press Staff Writer If polls serve no other purpose, they at least keep both the Democratic and Republican camps in Texas a neck-and-neck race.

Conflicting reports by public opinion samplers and political observers have made the campaign in Texas a neck-and-neck race. National surveys by three magazines—Time, Newsweek, and U.S. News and World Report—stated Monday that the Democratic team of John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson is leading in states with more than enough electoral votes to win. But the magazines say Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge are leading in Texas.

Reds Claim U. S. 'Spy' Is Nabbed

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass said today an "American spy" named Mikhail Platovsky has been arrested in the Soviet Union.

The Tass account, which also was carried by Moscow radio, said Platovsky, a 35-year-old Krepis and Piotr Sosnovsky was smuggled into the Soviet Union with another alleged spy named V. M. Slovov.

No mention was made of Platovsky's nationality and beyond saying he was trained in West Germany, Tass gave no further identifying data.

The announcement came five days after the arrest in New York of Igor V. Melek, 47, chief of the Soviet section of U. N. document translations, on a charge of espionage. Arrested with Melek by the FBI was Willie Hirsch, 52, a German medical instructor.

Platovsky was instructed by the American intelligence service to take up residence in Miami and start collecting secret information, the Tass announcement said.

When arrested he was found to possess two radio transmitters, cipher codes, duplicating equipment for printing anti-Soviet leaflets and other espionage gear.

Tass said Platovsky had been trained as a spy by U. S. intelligence officers in espionage schools at the West German cities of Bad Homburg, Kaufbeuren and Alataee over a nine-month period, his courses including pistol shooting, the back shop from the front and the Soviet Union announced the arrest of Slovov last Aug. 2, saying at that time he had been trained in spying by U. S. intelligence officers in West Germany.

Dry Run Made By Burglars

Burglars entered the Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. on the East Highway, doing considerable damage to property in breaking in, but took nothing.

Investigating police officers this morning found that the burglars had broken in through a window in the back, broke the bars separating the back shop from the front but were unable to cut into the safe with an acetylene torch they had taken from the back shop and pushed through the break in the bars.

Details of Nixon's appearance in San Antonio, Houston and Fort Worth Thursday and early Friday were disclosed.

The vice president will speak Thursday at the Alamo and record a television program during his stop in San Antonio. After a speech in Houston he will fly to Fort Worth to spend the night with another speech in Burnett Park Friday morning.

Kennedy will stop at Amarillo and Wichita Falls Thursday on a trip from Arizona to Washington.

Most of the Texan's political fire was outside of the state Monday. Johnson criticized the Republicans in speeches in Missouri, Former Gov. Allan Shivers, head of the Texas Democrats for Nixon-Lodge, carried his battle against the Democratic ticket to South Carolina.

Johnson brought up the religious issue in Missouri speeches asserting, "The issue is not how we worship God, but whether we worship God. . . . We need to close ranks and stand united regardless of what church we belong to."

He said telling Kennedy he can't be president because he is a Roman Catholic might bring this result "as the pendulum swings back the next time we may see the same thing to the Baptists or the Methodists and extend it on through all the religions.

At Lubbock, the Baptist General Convention of Texas heard its president, Dr. M. B. Carroll of Dallas, declare that "We Baptists are being grossly misunderstood in our convictions and our defense of the Gospel."

He said Baptists oppose a Roman Catholic for president "because we would be foolish to sell our cherished freedom in Christ and in a free state for political expediency."

Texas national Democratic committee Byron Skelton of Temple criticized Shivers, asking: "What has he ever done for Texas other than have the 'fat cats' finance his plan to deliver us into the hands of the Republican party."

Speaker Sam Rayburn and a flock of congressmen will appear at Midland Friday night at a $10 fund raising dinner for Kennedy.

Democrats in the Dallas-Fort Worth area will hold a political rally Tuesday night at Arlington with Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana and Sen. Ralph Yarborough as speakers.

Nixon will come to Texas with his wife and two members of the Cabinet—Arthur Flemming, secretary of welfare, and Fred Seaton, secretary of interior.

absentee voting for the Nov. 8 general election had reached 146 by mid-morning today with reports that some persons had not yet had their poll tax changed since moving.

Any persons who have moved from one voting precinct to another or have moved into Scurry County and resided here for the required 6 months must have their poll tax receipt changed to show their proper residence or they will be ineligible to vote in Tuesday's election.

The voting box number shown on poll tax receipts may be changed at the Tax Assessor-Collector's office in the court house.

Deadline for changing voting boxes will be this Thursday afternoon. Deadline for absentee voting will be Friday.

County Clerk Dan Cotton urged all voters who have moved to be sure to check their receipts and if they are in any doubt as to their proper polling place to check the tax office before Thursday so they will be eligible to vote.

Prisoner Pulls Gun On Marshal FORT WORTH (AP)—Robert Steen, alias Robert Mansfield, 31, pulled a gun on a federal marshal Monday noon in an unsuccessful attempt to escape. He waived a hearing today.

He was charged with unlawfully and forcibly assaulting a U.S. marshal.

The prisoner was being transported in shackles from the U.S. courthouse to jail when he made his bid for freedom. He thrust a pistol into the side of deputy Marshal Gordon Keller. Keller wrestled the gun away.

Kennedy Launches Intensive Drive

By GEOFFREY GOULD LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy spammed the continent today, opening an intensive drive that will carry him to 17 states in the final week of the presidential campaign.

Opening two days of campaigning here and in San Francisco Kennedy charged that Vice President Richard M. Nixon two days ago reversed the Republican policy of 25 years by advocating social insurance.

"I disagree with Mr. Nixon," Kennedy added. "For the problems of our older citizens will not be solved through position papers—through promises which the record shows are unmatched by the desire to act."

At a vociferous student rally at Temple University in Philadelphia Monday, Kennedy issued a scornful, taunting challenge to Nixon to bring President Eisenhower along to help him on a fifth television debate.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, was made as Nixon's own running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, sat beside him on the platform.

Presumably Nixon's challenge would include the Democratic nominee's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, wealthy former ambassador who has tried to keep out of the campaign, as well as Kennedy's brothers who are active in it.

Nixon aimed increasingly sharper shafts at his opponent as he swung into the final week of campaigning with scheduled appearances today at Lancaster and Erie in Pennsylvania and Syracuse and Rochester in New York.

Nixon Says He Would Debate 'Whole Family' Of Kennedy

By JACK BELL EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon says he is willing to take on the whole family of Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic opponent, in a national television debate.

In a foray into New Jersey on a rain-soaked Halloween night Nixon told an open air crowd of 15,000 persons at Ridgewood Monday night his rival was making a "juvenile schoolboy comment" in saying he would be glad to have Nixon bring President Eisenhower along with him if a fifth television debate could be arranged.

"I'll be glad to debate him and his whole family anytime," Nixon said, "but what I think the country really needs is a debate between Jack and Lyndon — let's see where they stand."

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, was made as Nixon's own running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, sat beside him on the platform.

Presumably Nixon's challenge would include the Democratic nominee's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, wealthy former ambassador who has tried to keep out of the campaign, as well as Kennedy's brothers who are active in it.

which he said Kennedy in proposing $15 billion in additional yearly expenditures is promising to balance the budget and opposes higher taxes. He said his rival has "made so many promises to so many people they are colliding with each other."

"One thing is certain," Nixon said. "Sen. Kennedy has set a new all time record for promises, promises all logic shows he could not keep."

Nixon issued a statement in Philadelphia, where he spent the night, calling for a doubling of the present authorization for admission of 154,000 immigrants yearly.

Mischief At A Minimum

Malicious mischief was kept to a minimum in Snyder during the Halloween reign of goblins, ghosts and witches Monday night.

A paint crew defaced a few fences and wreaked most damage to the east side of city hall where they splashed paint in the speaker at the drive-in window and liberally splattered the red brick with white paint after breaking the yard light.

The same white paint was freely administered to the Gulf Service Station a block away on Avenue S. Attendants at the station said they were able to wash away the paint before it dried.

For the most part, egg throwing, turning over of trash cans, chalk and soap marks comprised the majority of mischief made by the night stalkers of Halloween.

More Quakes Rock Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Three violent earthquakes rocked southern Chile today, tumbling walls and knocking streets in half a dozen cities. Men, women and children ran through the streets in panic.

Officers Believe Suspected Kidnaper Across Rio Grande

DEL RIO (AP)—Border Patrol officers spotted a man swimming the Rio Grande about 10 a.m. today, raising speculation he may be convicted killer, Curtis Lee Jones.

The Border Patrol said its officers spotted the man in the river at about 10 a.m. The man reached the Mexican side and Mexican authorities were notified.

The man was dressed in western attire, the same kind of clothes Jones was last reported wearing.

Jones, 36, object of an intensive manhunt along the U.S.-Mexican border eluded officers again Monday.

Plane and a helicopter resumed the search along the border for the former convict who has spent most of his life in the Arkansas State Prison for murder.

Because Jones has been described as extremely dangerous, Sheriff Porfirio Flores requested parents to keep their children at home Monday night and not to go out for Halloween tricks or treats.

Jones early Monday walked into Rosie's Place, a tavern in the suburbs of San Antonio. At gunpoint he forced Mrs. Rosalinda Sosa, 30, owner of the place, to drive him to Laredo in her car.

Rockefeller To Testify In Case

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has been subpoenaed to testify in the case of two men who claim they were arrested for looting him at a Saturday night street corner political rally.

The two defendants, George Cartagina and Ralph Bonet, were charged with disorderly conduct. Cartagina, who professed himself a supporter of Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy, claimed he was hit by a policeman's midgetstick.

The governor is campaigning for the Republican ticket.

Rockefeller was subpoenaed by Mark Lane, attorney for the two men, to appear in court Thursday and tell exactly what occurred.

Concerning Cartagina, Lane said: "He told me he was booing. He said he was called forward by the governor and asked, 'How much are they paying you?'"

The lawyer said Cartagina replied that "They're not paying me anything. I just like Kennedy."

The lawyer quoted Rockefeller as asking Cartagina then "Why don't you go home?" With that, the attorney said, Cartagina was told by a policeman that he was under arrest.

The other defendant, Bonet, was quoted as saying he was arrested "for just booing."

After being subpoenaed, a spokesman for Rockefeller issued a statement.

A rally at 103rd St. and Lexington Ave. Saturday night was disrupted by a small group of organized hecklers. Gov. Rockefeller asked the apparent leader of the group to have the decency to call the others off so the large number of voters present could hear the governor. This man refused to do so, the statement said.

"More than half an hour later as the heckling continued the police captain in charge on his own initiative removed the man from the crowd."

Casey's Fate Undecided

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mark Greenberg today confirmed reports that he will acquire the new Los Angeles franchise of the American League and indicated he'd like to have Casey Stengel manage the club.

The 70-year-old Casey, let out two weeks ago after 12 years with the New York Yankees, told reporters he has talked to four major league clubs "but I haven't had a definite offer from any of them."

"Why, I just had a call from Detroit advising me I was gonna manage the Tigers," confided Stengel, "but it wasn't official. I'm gonna take a few weeks to make up my mind on what I want to do."

The Associated Press learned Monday that Stengel might become both field manager and general manager of the new Los Angeles club if Greenberg acquired the franchise.

Greenberg promptly acknowledged his intent regarding the franchise when he arrived here for meetings with officials and presumably other members of his syndicate, but he refrained from a definite statement on Stengel.

Rockefeller was subpoenaed by Mark Lane, attorney for the two men, to appear in court Thursday and tell exactly what occurred.

Says Nixon 'Dangerous'

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson spelled out today the basis for his charge that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is a "dangerous man."

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate used the term without elaboration in Missouri Monday.

In a speech prepared for a Democratic rally in Chicago today, he ridiculed the Republican candidate's campaign tactics.

"He (Nixon) ignores our troubles by claiming they don't exist," Johnson said.

"He covers up the sore spots with a talcum powder make-up of tranquility."

"He closes the blinds of the windows that look out upon a turbulent world. While the storm rages outside, he sits in a sound-proof room listening to the status quo songs of Republican complacency."

"It is time to remind the vice president that American independence wasn't won by a philosophy of 'all's well with the world and it cannot be better.'"

Johnson said all Nixon offered was "cut down, stripped down, versions of Democratic programs."

"It is dangerous to elect a man like this to be president of the United States," the Texas said.

Texas Areas Clear, Cool

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clear and cool weather prevailed over Texas Tuesday. The only vestige of last week's turbulent weather that plagued the state was some continued flooding of South Texas streams.

Lowlands along the Colorado, Guadalupe and other rivers near the coast were covered with water as the crests from torrential weekend downpours rolled toward the Gulf.

Some roads still remained closed as the flood waters that claimed 11 lives Saturday slowly receded.

Monday's blustery winds accompanying a cool front that swept the state clear of clouds had died to gentle breezes Tuesday.

Predawn readings ranged from 36 degrees at Dalhart to 38 at Galveston. The Dalhart low was 9 degrees above the Monday morning sub-freezing temperature of 28.

No rainfall was reported in the state Monday.

The forecast called for continued clear and mild weather through Wednesday with slightly higher temperatures in some sections.

Rookie Texan Cited In AFL

DALLAS (AP)—The American Football League today named Abner Haynes, rookie halfback of the Dallas Texans, the league's offensive player of the week.

Haynes carried the ball 27 times and caught seven screen passes as the Texans defeated the Denver Broncos 17-14 Sunday. He gained 76 yards rushing, 96 yards on touch-downs and scored one touchdown.

"Haynes operated at both half-back spots and without doubt was the outstanding offensive player on the field," said Dallas Coach Hank Stram.

Three Magazines Calculate Kennedy Is Leading In Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three magazines—Time, Newsweek and U.S. News and World Report—have concluded on the basis of surveys that Sen. John F. Kennedy is in the lead in the presidential race.

After a state-by-state survey of political experts, U.S. News and World Report said the Democratic nominee is leading in states with more than enough electoral votes to make him president.

Newsweek said 50 top Washington correspondents and political writers predicted a win for Kennedy, while 10 saw Vice President Richard M. Nixon, his Republican opponent, as the winner.

Time said its own correspondents estimated Kennedy was leading in states with 306 electoral votes and Nixon in states with 148. Needed to win: 269.

The average estimate of the 50 correspondents and political writers was that Kennedy would win 306 electoral votes and Nixon 148.

The magazine rated seven states with 50 votes as doubtful.

The one '61 car built to back up a long-term warranty

Ford led the way with the one car beautifully built to take care of itself... and you

On September 29, Ford Dealers set an industry trend—were first to extend their 1961 car warranty from the conventional 1,000 miles or 3 months to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first.

Why? Because Ford built the one car to support such confidence. Ford for 1961 is the one car beautifully built to take care of itself!

The '61 Ford was designed and built to the more exacting standards necessary to offer an extended warranty. Ask to see this warranty at your dealer's.

It is significant that Ford has so many take-care-of-itself features not found in other cars, regardless of price. These new Ford features are a triumph of exhaustive research, engineering, and quality construction that give you the most reliable Ford ever built. Drive a '61 Ford 1960.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications. Then a quick, inexpensive Ford Dealer lube job (which costs about $4.00) will get you set for another 30,000 miles.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically for the life of the lining.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminum—normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially protected with a zinc-rich coating, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.

Rexn Seoff At Nixon Visit Plans

BERLIN (AP)—The East German Communists today attacked Vice President Richard M. Nixon for saying he would visit East European countries if elected president.

The Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland ran a front page editorial headed, "Not so impetuous, Mr. Nixon."

The paper said Nixon "had not asked whether his coming was wanted. Perhaps he had forgotten how nations deal with uninvited guests. Most people, however, remember the rotten eggs Nixon himself received on his head in various Latin-American countries."

Pakistan Area Hit By Storm

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP)—Chittagong and the surrounding coastal region were still cut off today following a storm with winds up to 100 miles an hour.

The same area on the east coast of the Bay of Bengal was devastated three weeks ago by a cyclone and tidal wave that officials said took more than 4,000 lives.

A Pakistan Airline pilot had to return his passengers to Dacca this morning when he found the Chittagong airport under water. He said he could get no response from the control tower.

Railroads Miss Opportunity To Promote Some Goodwill

By ED KOTERBA
WASHINGTON (AP) — No mode of travel is quite so romantic as a cross-country trip by train. At least, this was true in the past. The sad truth is that these days railroad people lack the imagination, initiative and, possibly, the desire to give that regal touch which passengers of recent years had known.

Last week, the Pennsylvania Railroad threw away its greatest chance of the year to promote that personal touch when it put together a 16-car special for the Richard Nixon whistle-stop.

Inasmuch as the Association of American Railroads spends hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in good-will promotion, this tour should have been a railroad promoter's dream. On board would be 50 correspondents representing virtually every newspaper, radio and TV station and news magazine in America.

With little effort, and practically no extra expense to the railroad, officials could have proved to its passengers — and to the country — that it still wants the public's business.

No special considerations, no payola would be involved, for the correspondents were paying their prorated cost of the trip matter what services were involved.

Yet, for the 124 passengers on that train the Nixon observation car was extra; the railroad people included only one diner — and, apparently, only three waiters.

You had to wait at the table 40 minutes, at least on two occasions before the waiter got around to you. If you wanted corn muffins — prominent on the menu — they had none, and there were no apologies. You ask for prune juice and the steward brings prunes. "No juice," he says curtly.

At 11 a.m. they stopped serving breakfast, but they claimed it was too early for lunch.

Pullman porters found any request for services grudgingly unpalatable. Leave a 6 a.m. call with your man, and he buzzes you at 7:30, or not at all.

No little extra touches. A map of the route which the train was following — like they used to make available in the old days — could have been just one of the many possible tokens of assistance.

Travel by railroad could still be fun. In fact, the one ambition of my family is to take a leisurely cross-country sightseeing trip exclusively by train some day to recapture the nostalgia of those good old days when train travel was "it."

Ironically, the equipment on trains today is good. If only the people, running things would seem to care.

One passenger said sardonically, "There's one main difference between the airlines people and railroad people. Make a reservation with the airline people, and you can't tell whether they were glad to hear from you. The railroad people, though, make it plain they don't want your business."

It's a sorrowful commentary on an institution that was established on the credo, "Service with a smile."

Labor Force In Decline

AUSTIN (AP) — Seasonal farm workers and students dropped out of the labor force in September, causing a decline in total employment in Texas to 3,453,000.

The Texas Employment Commission said Monday the total is 17,400 more than for that month a year ago. The decline from August was $1,800.

Unemployment stood at 171,700, a drop of 5,000 from August but a rise of 24,200 from September 1959. Of the total civilian labor force, 4.7 per cent were unemployed as compared to 4.1 per cent a year ago.

Manufacturing ran 2,500 jobs below August and durable goods industries had 2,000 fewer jobs than in August. Food sales increased by 1,300 jobs and clothing sales were up 1,800 jobs because of the return to school.

Pair To Urge More West German Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources say the United States will send two top officials to West Germany within two weeks to urge her to increase aid to underdeveloped nations.

The two officials are Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson and Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon. The sources said Anderson and Dillon will discuss ways in which Germany might step up her aid.

The New York Herald Tribune reported that President Eisenhower has sent a letter to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer saying something must be done quickly to stop the flow of gold from the United States because of foreign commitments.

The United States now bears the brunt of Western aid to backward areas.

Opera Star Must Train Like Athlete

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "Opera takes a lot out of you," said Dorothy Kirsten.

"Singing a high 'X' is equivalent to lifting a 500-pound weight." Because of the emotional drain, too, the glamorous blonde Metropolitan Opera star doesn't like to sing a heavy role more than once every fourth day.

Top opera stars — like championship boxers — make a ritual of keeping in the best of physical condition. Her training secret is golf.

"It's the perfect sport for a singer," she said. "It helps develop rhythm and proper breathing."

Miss Kirsten came from a show-business family. Her great aunt was a gifted soprano, and her grandfather was bandleader for Buffalo Bill's Wild West show.

As a young girl in Montclair, N.J., she studied singing, dancing and acting. She sang swing music with Kate Smith for two years, later became a protegee of Grace Moore, who helped develop her interest in opera.

Miss Kirsten now travels between 75,000 and 100,000 miles a year. Besides her operatic appearances, she does some 20 concert a year, and appears as guest star on numerous TV programs.

It has been said that behind every successful man is a good woman. She says that behind her success is a good man — her husband, Dr. John D. French, a neurosurgeon.

"The most important thing to me is the happiness I know in my private life," she says.

"When I am happy, I sing my best. This is not true of all artists, but it is true of me. My husband keeps me happy. He is a wonderful man."

"I am never — absolutely never — away from my husband more than three weeks at a time."

"This means I have to do much more traveling, but it's worth-while to me."

Because of her refusal to be away from her Palos Verdes, Calif. home for extended periods, she quit the Metropolitan Opera a couple of seasons back.

She won her point. The Met called her back during an emergency last April, but she refused on her own terms. She now is a jet plane commuter between Manhattan and the West Coast.

One does not become a diva by accident, but by long and grueling work — and the work gets harder when the fame begins. Miss Kirsten has 30 roles in her repertoire, but each summer spends a month to six weeks perfecting herself in new roles.

She is one of the world's beautiful dramatic sopranos in Puccini and Verdi operas but says her big goal is "to find a really good new American opera — and sing it in English."

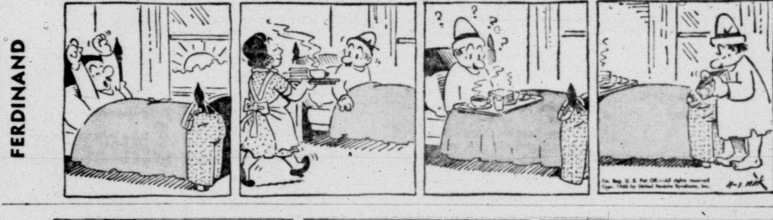

"What is the greatest penalty of operatic stardom?"

"Being unable to get out of the public eye," she said. "I want you to be what their own idea of you is. You can't always — sometimes you disillusion them."

"The biggest sacrifice a prima donna has to make is this: She has to look, dress and act like a prima donna — even when she doesn't feel like one. But it gets to be a habit, and you learn to do it."

This doesn't, in her view, mean that a prima donna is necessarily temperamental or hard to get along with.

"I have had the same secretary for 14 years," she said. "I don't know many tenors who can make that claim."

Color Brochure To Attract Texas Tourists Is Released

AUSTIN — The Texas Highway Dept. has announced the release of a full-color, 32-page travel brochure of the State of Texas.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, said the new brochure is specifically designed for free distribution to attract out-of-state tourists. First of its kind ever published in Texas, it is intended to serve as a showcase of Texas scenic, historic, recreational, and cultural attractions.

Greer described the colorful brochure, which covers the entire state geographically, as "another milestone in the travel promotion program conducted by the Highway Department."

He said the next step in this program is the submission of a media advertising budget to the Texas Legislature, which meets in January. The Highway Department has asked, with the concurrence of the Texas Development Board for an appropriation of $300,000 a year for the next two years to advertise the tourist attractions of Texas.

"The media advertising program," Greer said, "is a necessity to halt the appalling downward trend of the Texas tourist industry. The amount we will ask for media advertising ($300,000 a year) is the minimum required to shore up the rapid decline in tourist revenue which Texas now faces."

Greer reviewed the progress made in establishing a tourist promotion program in Texas. He noted that in the past Texas had been unable to compete for tourists by advertising because it was prohibited by the State Constitution. A constitutional amendment was approved by popular vote in 1958 allowing the advertisement of the state's tourist resources.

The Texas Legislature in 1959 set up the legal machinery authorizing state media advertising and delegating the responsibility for this program to the Texas Highway Department. Senate Bill 152 stated that funds for media advertising must come from the General Fund, but no money was made available in 1959 for this purpose.

Highway Department funds were used to pay publishing costs of the new travel brochure and for other collateral phases of the travel promotion program including publication of the Texas Official Highway Travel Map and operation of the Highway Tourist Bureaus.

Greer expressed confidence that funds for state advertising would be made available by the coming session of the Legislature. "I feel that since the people of Texas made their wishes known by voting favorably on the constitutional amendment authorizing state advertising, the Legislature will follow this mandate from the people by providing adequate funds for an effective media advertising program," Greer said.

Texas has fallen "twenty years behind the times" in advertising its tourist attractions, said Tom H. Taylor, Director of the Travel and Information Division of the Highway Department. He pointed out that revenue from the tourist trade had fallen to a low of $431 million in 1959, a drop of $100 million in only two years. This rapid drop, he said, is attributable to the advertising campaigns of other states competing for tourists.

Man Charged In Houston Slaying

HOUSTON (AP)—James Wells, 24, has been charged with murder in the Saturday night death here of a Grand Prairie woman.

Bill Fulbright, 27, also of Houston, was charged as an accessory. Wells is accused of the shooting death of Flora Bennett Eckman, 26, in an apartment.

Mrs. Margie Long, 21, of Fort Worth, told police two men told the Eckman woman to pack and an argument started. The woman was shot during the wrangle.

Spear Gun Used On Love Rival

SECAUCUS, N.J. (AP)—A man was arrested Monday night after allegedly trying to destroy a love rival with a spear gun.

Henry C. Von Hassel, 26, was charged with attempted murder. Police said he fired a spear gun commonly used for underwater fishing at Robert Muller, also 26, but that it hit the fender of Muller's car.

Von Hassel allegedly accused Muller of dating Von Hassel's wife. Muller is also married.

Von Hassel was held without bail pending a hearing.

Duke Foundation Has New Chairman

NEW YORK (AP)—The new head of the Duke Endowment, the nation's third largest private philanthropic foundation, is Thomas L. Perkins, board chairman of the American Cyanamid Co.

Perkins, 55, elected chairman of the trustees Monday, will be the endowment's third head since it was established in 1924 by the late James B. Duke, tobacco and power magnate. The endowment has investments of more than $430 million.

Noting that tourists currently pay some $17 million annually in direct state taxes, Taylor said an effective media advertising program could increase tourist revenue brought to Texas and lighten to some extent the state's heavy tax load.

"The tourist in Texas is good for everybody," Taylor declared.

The money he brings into our state is new income, earned elsewhere but left here in our communities to be passed around among all regardless of trade or profession."

Explaining the contents of the new travel brochure, he said it depicts all parts of the state in illustrations and color pictures. Topics covered include:

Texas' romantic and tumultuous history and examples of Texas folklore and legend.

Recreational opportunities for the vacationer, ranging from hunting and fishing to water sports on Texas lakes and on the Gulf Coast, camping, picnicking, and horseback riding in State Parks.

Safety information including highway speed limits and explanation of highway regulatory signs, information on fishing and hunting license requirements for vacationers, and an outline of house-trailer regulations.

The back cover shows an example of the free travel information services offered to travelers by the seven Tourist Bureaus operated by the Highway Department at key entry points scattered around the state's borders.

Taylor said that due to the anticipated large demand for the new travel brochure, the Highway Department will be unable to furnish it in quantity. However, requests for quantities of the brochure can be referred to the publisher and purchases made at the same price at which the brochures are available to the Highway Department, he added.

Computer Is Able To Calculate Age

NEW YORK (AP)—An electronic computer was shown today that will tell the age of a person who answers 10 questions.

The queries are like this: "Were you born during or before 1928?" and "Is your age an even number?" Push buttons are provided for "yes" or "no."

The device, displayed to previewers of the General Motors "Motorama" show, has been rigged to give a chivalrous answer to feminine questioners beyond their teens.

When one such comes along, the mechanical brain — after all questions have been answered — flashes an automatic "21."

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

Coach John Conley, unlike many mentors, isn't of a superstitious nature, it seems. Following a successful first half in which the Tigers waked off with a 22-7 edge over Colorado City's Wolves, he made a very evident "color switch" which saw the local eleven streaming from the fieldhouse following half-time in bright gold and black jerseys. Dry, too.

The black and white jerseys, soaked considerably by a pesky rainstorm dumped on the field just before game time, were wisely chucked in favor of the dry knits. Facilitated a greater freedom of movement, no doubt. Pleasant sight for the fans, too. Cinemascope and technicolor, with no advance admission.

A few of the numbers on the jerseys failed to live with those as listed on the programs, and that brought on a little head-scratching every now and then. Ned Underwood, Bill Hartford, and Bob O'Day had set up dry shop in the far end of the press-box, and—after casting a straw vote—decided that number 23 for the Tigers was Billy Andrews instead, of Spencer Dyer. I voted negatively.

"Too big for Dyer" was their close-knit and collective consensus, which later proved to be correct.

At least two of the C-City numerals were switched, maybe more. A bunch of their players must have taken an overdose of Taton, too, since several of them seemingly lost a heap of weight over the last few weeks, with there being some speculation as to whether they might have been intentionally "downgraded" so as to give a more compact appearance. One boy lost 60 pounds in one week, according to the program. Bet he was weak as a kitten Friday night.

And Among The Visiting Dignitaries . . .

OTHER PRESSBOXERS in the immediate vicinity included Frank Lacy and Dolores Bolek, a talkative husband-and-wife team who help out in the stat department.

Dolores does a capable job of compiling the tackles as racked up by the Tigers; an unsung heroine, in between times she keeps us all posted on World Events, too, as they relate to the local situation. You know, what kind of hat so-and-so bought yesterday; what measures she plans to take if Lacy doesn't quit smoking strong black cigars. Stuff like that.

She was on a real binge Friday night, since things hadn't been going too well back at the house. The youngest daughter, Tomi, the brown-eyed two-year-old, had vexed her mommy so that mommy's patience was just about worn thin.

First of all she had taken a pair of pink shears and cut out all the window screens in the house. For no particular reason, except that they were just THERE, and Little Tomi outdid herself later in the day, though, when she proceeded to paint the family dog Boxer pup, defenseless.

"What color did she paint?" I asked incredulously. "Beige," she answered. "Sort of a pretty beige. Real pretty." I can well imagine.

"B" TEAM IN HOME FRAY

Tiger-Tornado Tussle Is Tops

Snyder's Tigers, fresh from a resounding 36-21 district win over Colorado City, are preparing to try to make it two in a row Friday, when they tuck up and hit the road for Lamesa and a 7:30 p.m. contest there.

The already-tarnished Golden Tornadoes stepped out on the wrong foot Friday, as they got themselves out sloshed by Lake View 8-6 in a rain-marred battle. It was the first district outing for the Tors and the second venture for Lake View, a team which had previously fallen in its opener.

3-A-AA standings now show Sweetwater — which travels to Colorado City this Friday in other action of the night — astride the district saddle at 1-0 after taking the measure of Snyder 20-7. Snyder, Lake View, and Colorado City are bunched in the second slot at 1-1, while Lamesa brings up the rear at 0-1.

Ladies Beginners League Is Formed

The invitation is extended to those beginning lady bowlers interested in taking part in the sport that a new league has come into being at Snyder Lanes suited strictly for their purpose.

The league was formed this past Friday, and the first day of regular play has been set for this coming Friday morning at 9:30.

Any lady who has never taken part in league play before is invited to join and take part. Officers elected Friday include Betty Webb, president; Jeannine Peoples, vice-president; and Connie Wylie, secretary. Others attending the formative session were Etta Browning, Jewell Dawson, Pat Weyel, and Bobbie Milburn.

QB Club In 7:30 Session Here Tonight

The Snyder Quarterback Club will hold its weekly convolve tonight in the high school cafeteria, the kickoff time for the session being 7:30.

A briefing on the Snyder Tigers' 36-21 district victory over Colorado City Friday will be presented by head coach John Conley, who will also be in charge of the reeling and unraveling of the game film involving the two teams.

Reports will also be heard from other system coaches whose teams either saw action the past week or will take part in games of this week, and scouting reports on the Lamesa Tornadoes, Snyder's foe of this Friday, will be presented.

The junior high slate of games — which flared last week with a capacity of six contests being played — stimmers down somewhat, as Travis takes a week off from the grid warfare. All three Lamar teams will be in Lamesa Thursday evening, however, for clashes against junior high teams representing that city.

The eighth graders will initiate things at 3 o'clock, followed by the seventh grade test at 4:45 and the ninth at 7:30.

A trio of area games will be reeled off Friday night, as Hermleigh hosts Roby. Gail travels to Pettit, and Highland goes to Ira. Both Hermleigh and Gail are undefeated and united through eight games this year, while Ira is 5-3.

In addition to the Snyder-Lamesa "B" game, the remaining Saturday action involves Lincoln High's Trojans, who take the trek in Plainview for an 8 o'clock meeting with that team.

Iowa Retains Top Billing

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

The unbeaten Iowa Hawkeyes remain the No. 1 college football team of the nation for the third straight week of The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

With Syracuse and Baylor dropping from the ranks of the unbeaten and Mississippi being held to a 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, there was a shakeup in other top 10 rankings.

Iowa won by a landslide with 46 first-place votes from the 48-man panel which votes weekly. The only other teams to get first-place ballots were Minnesota and Washington. Each got one.

Mississippi dropped from second to sixth as the result of the tie with LSU, Missouri, a 28-0 winner over Nebraska, shouldered into second place and Minnesota, which needs Iowa in a Big Ten showdown battle Saturday in Minneapolis, took over third place.

Navy, a 14-7 winner after a rugged scramble with Notre Dame, held the No. 4 spot for another week. Ohio State's 21-10 victory over Michigan State moved the winners into fifth place and dumped the losers out of the top ten listing.

Washington took over seventh after losing to Oregon 7-6 and Tennessee, a newcomer in the top ten, advanced to eighth after slipping North Carolina 27-14.

Syracuse, beaten by Pitt 10-0, slipped from third to ninth on the defeat.

Rice moved into the No. 10 spot by thumping Texas Tech 30-6 and Baylor, beaten for the first time by Texas Christian 14-6, dropped out.

Rossi Handed Pink Slip

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Don Rossi and the Dallas Texans have parted company, and the only thing known for certain is that he's gone.

He plans a press conference today to "clarify my position."

Rossi, who had been general manager of the American Football League club for a year, said he left the club when the plane carrying the team from Denver landed in Dallas Monday.

Owner Lamar Hunt indicated Rossi had been fired.

"He no longer is general manager of the Texans," Hunt said. "There is no general manager of the Texans at present and it is apt to be some time before we hire one."

Hunt declined to say Rossi had been fired. "It is my understanding that he resigned," he said.

Rossi had no comment except that he would make a statement later.

Rossi played football for Michigan State and later was a National Football League official.

Since the turn of the century the Giants top National League baseball teams in pennants with 15.

HAPPINESS OF PURSUIT—Wallace Wall, star Hermitage Cardinal quarterback, keeps for a substantial gain during his team's 46-8 homecoming thrashing of Loraine Saturday. Hot in pursuit is an unidentified Loraine defender. Wall scored one touchdown and passed for another during the course of the afternoon. (Photo by J. C. Burton)

Giants Pick New Manager

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Alvin Dark takes command of the San Francisco Giants with an admission that the Candlestick Park quinders should be forgotten, the quicker the better.

The take-charge guy of the Giants infield during their championship years of 1955 and 1956 drew a two-year contract to manage and instill hustle into their field operation. Terms weren't announced but he is believed to be $25,000 annually.

"Alvin was the man we wanted all along," said Giants Vice President Charles (Chub) Fenney. To get the 44-year National League veteran player, the Giants traded utility shortstop Andre Rodgers to the Milwaukee Braves.

Speaking softly, Dark 38 gave a solid indication he would brook no excuses and wanted the right to the authority in operating the field.

Dark was tabbed for the pennant in pre-season forecasts and flopped, players complained about the tricky winds at the new Candlestick Park.

"The climate here is wonderful," commented Dark. "That wind is just like the Louisiana heat. The more you talk about it the worse it gets."

A resident of Lake Charles, La., Dark was a standout sophomore halfback at Louisiana State University before signing a bonus contract with the Boston Braves in 1946.

He noted the Giants won 45 and lost 32 in Candlestick and said, "They were more than they lost there. I'm for that."

Dark replaces Tom (Clancy) Sheehan, named as interim manager when Bill Rigney was fired last June 18. Although only four games off Pittsburgh's pace when the switch was made, the Giants sagged further to fifth place and a 79-75 overall record.

President Horace Stoneham declared in June that failure to instill hustle was a chief reason Rigney was fired.

Asked about possible trades, Dark said he had none in mind immediately and added, "I don't think a trade should be made just to get rid of a ball player."

Asked where the team needed to be strengthened, he said he couldn't answer that until he sees the players in spring training.

"There are many fine players on our roster," he added.

SWC Race Roars Into Final Stages

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Southwest Conference football express is rolling down the home stretch with Rice in the driver's seat and four other teams still in the running.

Rice is the lone unbeaten, untied team left but Baylor, Texas Christian, Arkansas and Texas can still capture a coveted berth in the Cotton Bowl classic Jan. 2.

Rice can nab the host spot undisputed by winning its final four games. Baylor can bask in Cotton by winning its final three, one of which is Rice.

If Arkansas wins its next three—Baylor loses again—the Razorbacks will be the "hosts of honor."

TCU, beaten once and tied once, and twice-defeated Texas still have mathematical chances for at least a share of the crown, although their chances are slim.

The eight conference members, for the most part, staged only light workouts Monday as they prepared for their respective assignments Saturday.

Coach Darrell Royal ran his varsity through customary Monday wind sprints and the Steers viewed films of the SMU game.

"I don't think we can afford to make the mistakes we've been making on scoring plays," Royal said. He referred to two touchdowns and a couple of long gainers erased because of penalties.

Texas Tech loosened up in sweat suits, made several defensive changes and was warned of the offensive prowess of Tulane's Tommy Mason.

SMU held a short workout and learned the halfback Glynn Gregory may miss another game because of injury.

At College Station, Coach Jim Myers continues to praise the aggie line, which apparently deserves it. Myers cited half a dozen linemen as outstanding in the Cadets' 7-3 loss to favored Arkansas last week.

X-rays revealed Monday that Arkansas fullback Curtis Cox doesn't have a fractured jaw—as feared—but only a dislocation. He'll be ready to play against Rice Saturday.

Ronnie Bull, Baylor's talented bulldozer, missed a brief Bear injury, held a light workout and then retired to the movie room.

TCU had the most enjoyable day of all. The Horned Frogs viewed films of their 14-6 upset win over Baylor and then were granted the rest of the day off.

Tulane Tabbed TD Better Than Raiders

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—If comparative scores mean anything, Tulane figures to record its third victory of the season Saturday in a meeting with Texas Tech.

Comparative scores are about as reliable as a woman's intuition, but the fact remains that Tulane lost a squasher to Rice 10-7 early in the season while Rice routed Tech last Saturday 30-6.

Armed with this bit of incidental intelligence, oddsmakers installed Tulane a one touchdown favorite, for the game in Lubbock, Tex.

Tulane chalked up victory No. 2 against three losses and a tie with a 40-8 walloping of William and Mary over the weekend. And though he played only briefly, halfback Tommy Mason ran brilliantly.

The 190-pound Mason, the Southeastern Conference's top rusher, ran for three touchdowns, one a 48-yard gallop.

It is Mason and Quarterback Phil Nugent the Red Raiders must stop. Nugent's seven-for-nine passing show against William and Mary gave the Tulane team 21 for 71 and 502 yards.

Local Ringmen Eye Levelland

All Snyder Boxing Team members and team aspirants are reminded by Coach Lacy Bolek of the nightly workouts being conducted in the team headquarters located at 2708 Avenue Y.

The workouts are in preparation for matches against Levelland in that city this Saturday night, and are held each evening at the above address beginning at 6:30.

Slated to fight under the local banner against the Levellanders are David McKinley, Jay Martin, Leon Deere, Halls Cox, Reuben Gonzales, Adam Romero, Jesse and Joe Costello, the brothers Benitez-Fredy, Rudy, Eloy and Martin—and the two Rios brothers.

McKinley and Deere, two of the finer boxers as produced in this area, are presently enrolled at Cisco Junior College, from which they each acquired boxing scholarships.

The team will depart for Levelland Saturday at 5 p.m.

TOOTIN' HIS OWN HORN in the throng that attended the Hermleigh Halloween Carnival was Donny Boy Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Fuller, with his hands full of things fished from the fish pond. However, the toot from his horn was lost in the noisemakers from the "over 1,000" crowd estimated at the affair. The class making the most money will crown a king and queen in two weeks.

Menderes' Trial Continues Today

By GARY HUGHES
YASSIADA, Turkey (AP)—The court trying former Premier Adnan Menderes planned to delve deeper today into the case of the premature baby born to his mistress.
The prosecution charges that Menderes ordered the baby killed. The former mistress and a doctor who treated the baby, testified Monday that it died a natural death. But there was conflicting evidence from at least one other doctor.
Ayhan Aydan, a former singer with the State Opera Company, told of her love affair with Menderes that began nine years ago, when she was 27 and he 32.
"I loved him very much," she said. "I wanted to have a child by him but unfortunately that was not to be."
The child, born in 1955, was born two months prematurely and lived only six hours, she said.
Dr. Fahri Atabey, a gynecologist charged with infanticide, denied he had been instructed by Menderes to dispose of the baby. He said he was summoned to Ankara from Istanbul by Miss Ayhan but that the child was dead when he got there.

Dr. Bahattar Demirag, who attended the baby immediately after birth, said, "I found the child delicate, breathing with difficulty and experiencing heart strain. I am convinced it died of natural causes."
But Dr. Alaeddin Orhon, the obstetrician who delivered the baby, said it was born blue but when he finally left the house, it was "in good health. The next day I was told the baby had died and I was shocked."
Menderes, overthrown by an army coup last May, is on trial for his life on charges of violating the constitution. President Celal Bayar, 36 other members of the former government and hundreds of former members of Parliament from Menderes' Democratic party are also on trial.

Ohio Usually Casts Votes For A Winner

By ART PARKS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — History indicates the presidential candidates who sell himself to Ohio probably will be the next occupant of the White House.

Only once in this century — in 1944 — has Ohio missed the boat on the Presidency.

With that as an exception in the last 14 presidential elections, Ohio voters have cut through the welter of state and local candidates and issues and cast the Buckeye State's substantial electoral vote for the national winner.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican standard-bearer, and Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, have campaigned often and hard in Ohio.

Both have been received enthusiastically by record crowds.

Both Republicans and Democratic leaders show calm confidence at least on the surface that Ohio's 25 electoral votes will wind up on their side. Those 25 votes represent nearly 10 percent of the 289 total needed to win this year's presidential race in Ohio is different from any in the memory of anyone now living. It will provide a classic test of national candidates and issues alone because it is uncut by state contests.

Because of a recent constitutional change, there is only one statewide political contest this year. Other state officials are in the middle of four-year terms.

The crosscurrents of the 1960 national campaign in Ohio cut so wide and so deep that even old-time prognosticators admit they are baffled.

It does appear, however, one week before election, that Republicans will continue to dominate the Ohio delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives.

Says Baptists Misunderstood

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — The president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas (BGCT) in defending opposition to a Catholic as president said here Monday night "We Baptists are being grossly misunderstood in our convictions and our defense of the Gospel."

Addressing approximately 3,000 persons attending the BGCT annual meeting, Dr. M. B. Carroll of Dallas said:

"We remember the bloody history of the evils of a state religion and the intimidation against our people where Roman Catholic controls governments. We would be foolish to sell our cherished freedom in Christ and in a free state for political expediency," Dr. Carroll said.

"The Vatican does not concur with what some of the outstanding members of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States believe," he said.

He quoted from an editorial in the May issue of Osservatore Romano, which he called a Vatican publication, which said: "The political-social problems cannot be separated from religion because it is a highly human problem. As a consequence, the church cannot remain aloof especially when politics touches the altar."

Dr. Carroll did not mention the name of Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for president, who is a Roman Catholic.

Kennedy has maintained that he believes in complete separation of church and state.

Daily Crude Flow Rises

TULSA (AP) — Daily average production of 68,063 barrels compared to 65,815 during the week ended Oct. 29, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

The Journal estimated 1960 production at 2,115,722,600 barrels compared to 2,128,397,200 a year ago.

Colorado was up 2,600 to 132,700; Arkansas, up 25 to 77,225; and Oklahoma down 14,200 to 452,000.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,413,575 barrels; Louisiana, 1,871,450 and New Mexico, 293,700.

Castro Costume Causes Problem

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — David Ramsey, 9, dressed as the Cuban prime minister on Halloween, was stopped by other boys who yelled, "There's that dirty Fidel Castro!"

They made off with David's sack of trick-or-treat goodies.

Father got another sack and made his rounds again, explaining what had happened.

He wound up with more goodies than before.

Earl Joins Plea For Boy

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth's cousin, the Earl of Harewood, appealed today for clemency for an 18-year-old boy sentenced to the gallows.

It was the first time a member of the royal family had publicly expressed an opinion on the controversial subject of capital punishment. The Earl is the son of the sister of King George VI and is 12th in line of succession to the throne.

He joined 29 other prominent persons in a plea, published in the Times of London, for a reprieve for Francis Forsyth, the youth, and Norman Harris, 23, are scheduled to hang Nov. 10 for kicking a man to death after robbing him of a few shillings.

Other signers included novelist Kingsley Amis, Canon John Collins of St. Paul's Cathedral, Baron Harnsworth, the bishop of Birmingham, philosopher Bertrand Russell and Archbishop of Canterbury, Barons Ravensdale, artist Augustus John, and author J. B. Priestly.

Segregationists To Disclose Plans

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A hint of closely-knit plans segregationists have made for Friday's special legislature may be disclosed tonight on a statewide TV program.

Chairman Frank Walker Jr. of the State Sovereignty Commission and State Education Supt. Shelby Jackson will speak.

The shifting integration situation is moving to a Nov. 14 showdown when first grade integration is ordered in Orleans Parish.

Pressure mounted for Gov. Jimmie Davis to drop his secrecy about the session. Davis declined comment.

Betting On JFK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An unidentified supporter of Sen. John F. Kennedy came to the Democratic presidential candidate's rally in Convention Hall Monday night with great confidence.

The supporter, with a little assistance from two or three other persons, hoisted a large sign which read: "I'm betting my house on Kennedy."

Ike Slates More Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower probably will speak in Cleveland and Pittsburgh Friday or Saturday as part of his final drive to help Vice President Richard M. Nixon win the election.

The drive also includes a television discussion of fiscal policy tonight, a joint appearance with Nixon at a big New York rally Wednesday night, and a radio-television talk to the nation next Monday night — election eve.

The possibility of speeches in Cleveland and Pittsburgh were reported by James C. Hagerly, White House press secretary, after Nixon and other Republican strategists talked with Eisenhower Monday.

Cleveland and Pittsburgh are major cities in two of the most crucial states, Ohio with 25 electoral votes and Pennsylvania with 32.

In his television appearance tonight, Eisenhower will discuss the fiscal situation with Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson. The taped half-hour show will be carried by the CBS network at 8 p.m. EST and again at 9 p.m. PCT for Pacific Coast viewers.

Eisenhower will join Nixon Wednesday as he campaigns in the New York suburbs of Westchester and Nassau counties. They then will head for the big rally in New York's Coliseum.

Junior Editors Quiz on POLITICS

QUESTION: How did the Democratic and Republican parties start?

ANSWER: These are America's two major political parties. Each is dedicated to gaining control of the government by getting the greatest vote among the citizens of the nation. The oldest party is the Democratic Party. There are several differences of opinion about when it was first organized. Some say that it began with the group called the Antifederalists, under the leadership of Thomas Jefferson. Others contend it originated with the Democratic Republicans who elected Jefferson to the Presidency in 1800. And still others say it really began with the election of Andrew Jackson in 1828, when the name Democratic Party was first used. The Republican Party was organized in the years 1854 to 1856 and was a combination of the northern Whigs, the Free-Soilers and the Know-Nothings. It was formed largely as a protest against the extension of slavery. The party developed so rapidly it was able to elect Abraham Lincoln President in 1860. In this drawing, you see the symbols of each party—the elephant for the Republicans and the donkey for the Democrats.

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can find where other animals were symbols of other political parties and the names of some of these early political groups.

Area HSU Exes To Launch Campaign

A campaign for building funds will be opened among Snyder and Scurry County alumni of Hardin-Simmons University at a dinner meeting Thursday night in Snyder. Organization for the drive already has been set up and is headed by E. H. Williamson of Snyder, a member of the HSU Board of Trustees. A steering committee has been named; team captains have been elected, and prospect cards have been assigned to volunteer workers.

Solicitation will begin following the dinner at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the 66 Cafe on the East Highway, Williamson said.

Dr. Evan A. Reiff, Hardin-Simmons president, will be the speaker for the kick-off dinner. Other HSU representatives to attend are Dr. Lee Hemphill, vice president for development; Byron Bryant, director of public relations; and Trustett Latimer, alumni director. Hardin-Simmons has been in a building campaign since 1958 under approval of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, which supports the university. Public phase of the drive has been concluded, but HSU is continuing the solicitation among its former students and supporters.

Funds are needed to help finance a new student union building, for which architect's plans have been completed; for a substantial addition to the HSU music center, and to help pay for a chapel-auditorium now under construction.

DR. EVAN A. REIFF

Snyder campaign workers will be guests of the university for the dinner program Thursday. Steering committee for the drive includes James Rosser, T. E. McCullum, Mrs. Lee Smyth, Mrs. Sam Joyce, T. D. Wiman, Jr., Mrs. Mable Brock, H. W. Cargile, and Wacil McNair. Team captains are Leon Autry, Mrs. Bob Reneau, and Mrs. Renal Rossion.

Notices have gone out to workers and all are urged to attend the dinner meeting, Williamson said.

Former Chairman Of Ward's Dies

CHICAGO (AP) — Sewell Lee Avery, 85, a strong-willed big businessman who ultimately took on the U.S. Army, died Monday.

Avery, who was Montgomery Ward & Co. chairman from 1931 to 1953, died in his apartment on fashionable Lake Shore Drive of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been ill for a year.

In financial circles, Avery was a legend. Brilliant and tough, he was almost phenomenally successful from the day in 1904 when he graduated from University of Michigan Law School.

As Montgomery Ward's chief executive he fought spectacular battles against the federal government in 1944 and financier Louis E. Wolfson in 1953.

In 1944, Avery defied the War Labor Board's intervention in a Montgomery Ward dispute with a CIO union.

When on April 26, 1944, government officials, backed by troops, occupied Ward property in Chicago, Avery sat defiantly in his red back porch.

The next day two soldiers entered his office, picked him up and deposited him in the street outside.

Pictures of Avery, immaculately groomed and apparently untroubled, being carried by two GIs were among the most widely circulated news photos of the decade.

He later said he deliberately maneuvered the government into a show of force to dramatize what he called the "march of dictatorship" in the United States.

Two weeks later, the labor controversy was settled, the government relinquished Ward control and Avery was back on the job.

His last big battle was a successful defense in 1953 against financier Wolfson's campaign to wrest control of Montgomery Ward.

Wolfson, then 43, staged an eight-month proxy fight against Avery, saying Avery was no longer fit to run the huge $700-million mail order concern.

Avery, then 81, fought back and won. A few months later he resigned as board chairman and four years later, critically ill with a cancerous tumor, severed his last connection with Ward management.

Avery took over direction of the mail order firm in 1931, when it was slipping toward bankruptcy. He was recruited by J.P. Morgan & Co., which held a substantial interest in the company.

Avery's first triumph in business came in 1905 when he vaulted to the presidency of United States Gypsum Co. after only four years with the firm. From 1937 to 1951 he was chairman of the board.

He was a demanding employer. Between 1936 and 1955, Montgomery Ward lost four presidents; 40 or more vice presidents; and countless lesser officials who were fired or resigned because of conflicts with Avery.

But Avery's methods got results. Under his management, both Montgomery Ward and United States Gypsum flourished. He was a director of several other corporations.

Blackout Of Newspapers Is Averted

NEW YORK (AP) — A city newspaper blackout was averted today when negotiators worked past a midnight strike deadline and pounded out a tentative agreement on a new two-year $7 package increase.

The proposed contract still needs approval by the memberships of New York Newspaper Guild units.

Involved are 6,000 editorial, business and maintenance department employees.

The picture was far from clear at two of the city's seven major dailies.

No agreement has been reached at the Post. The Guild's unit council at the Times says it will present the proposal to its membership "without recommendation."

Guild unit councils at the Journal-American, the Daily News, the Mirror, the World-Telegram & Sun and the Herald Tribune, said they would recommend acceptance.

The contract calls for a $4 average package increase the first year, with $3.50 in wage hikes and 50 cents for pension or welfare purposes. In the second year, there would be a $2.50 pay increase and 50 cents for pension or welfare.

The proposed agreement also provides for a fourth week of vacation after 10 years' service, instead of 12 under the old two-year pact which expired last midnight. The Guild also received a $7 package raise in the old contract.

Nine Charged In Smuggling

NEW YORK (AP) — A former Guatemalan ambassador and eight other persons have been indicted on charges of conspiring to smuggle millions of dollars worth of heroin into this country since 1952.

The Guatemalan, Mauricio Rosal, 47, was dismissed as ambassador to Belgium and the Netherlands after his arrest here Oct. 2. He did not have diplomatic immunity as he was not accredited to this country at the time of his arrest.

Also indicted Monday were Ethelene Tardiff, Robert Le Cost and Felix Barner, all of Paris; Charles Bourbonnais and Nicholas Calamarris, both of New York City; and Gilbert Coscia, Montreal, plus a John Doe and Richard Roe.

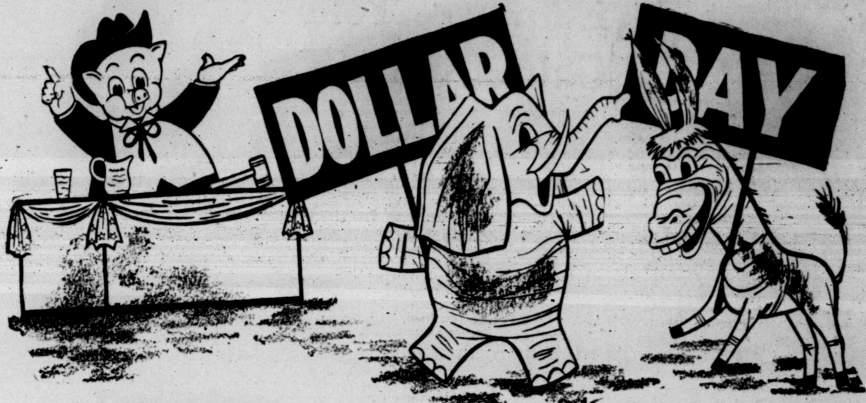

Government agents have accused Rosal of acting as courier in the vast smuggling scheme.

Rosal, Tardiff, a Paris businessman, Bourbonnais, a pursuer on a Paris-New York run of Trans World Airways, and Calamarris, a longshoreman, had 116 pounds of heroin in their possession when arrested, the government said.

Iranians Cheer Birth Of Prince

By DAVID LANCASTER
TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Radiant Queen Farah Diba fed Iran's day-old crown prince for the first time today. Crowds outside the hospital still cheered their joy at the heir to their monarchy.
Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi beamed happily at his third wife's bedside in the crowded Charity Hospital where the 8-pound 11-ounce heir he had waited so long for was born Monday. It was the ruler's third visit to see his wife and the little black-eyed prince.
"The condition of the queen and the baby is well and satisfactory," said a communique from Dr. Jahanshah Saleh, American-trained gynecologist who delivered the baby.
"Her majesty the queen fed the baby for the first time," the communique reported.
The 23-year-old queen is "very, very happy and in very good health," said Dr. Helwig Shahgholi, Danish anesthetist who assisted at the birth.

Amish People In Marrying Season

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Fall work on the farms is finished in this Pennsylvania Dutch country—and that means it's marrying time among the Amish people.
The heralding of the full-flowering romantic season came today as the first couples proudly showed their licenses.
Many more will come forward this week to get their licenses, prelude to weddings which for the Amish folk are strictly November milestones.

Castro Hikes Restrictions On Travel

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's government is making flight from Cuba difficult for the Cuban professional men and technicians needed to keep the economy running.
The list of those who must get special permits to go abroad has been lengthened. It reportedly now includes all government employees, executives of newly nationalized businesses, engineers, physicians, petroleum specialists and bank officers.
Trained men have been leaving Cuba in large numbers as the economy has been subjected to more and more government control.
Technicians from the seized Shell, Esso Standard and Texaco oil refineries, now operated by the government petroleum monopoly, are among those who got away.
"It's beginning to pinch," one Cuban professional man said. "That's why Castro is imposing new restrictions on travel for many classes of people."
Six persons, apparently all Cubans, were taken off a Cubana Airlines plane Monday before it was allowed to leave for Miami.

Employees Told Of Gain By TESCO

COLORADO CITY.—Texas Electric Service Co. employees from three cities and their guests heard a report on the company and optimistic forecasts for the future here Monday night.
The occasion was the annual dinner honoring TESCO "Quarter Century Club" members, which was held at the Civic House here. J. P. Thomas, TESCO president,

Certificate Of Airline Suspended

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The head of Arctic Pacific, Inc., says he will try to get a waiver of the suspension of the firm's flying certificate so it can fly the bodies of 22 victims of a plane crash here to their homes.
Jack Springer, president of the airline which operated the crashed plane, said Monday night he had not been given a specific reason for the government's suspension order.

The Oakland, Calif., firm operates three aircraft in addition to the one that crashed, including a C-46 parked at Toledo Express Airport.
"Nineteen of the dead lived in California. Two were from Elkton, Md., and one lived in Chicago. They were killed Saturday night when a charter flight, attempting a takeoff at the Toledo airport in a heavy fog, crashed and burned. The aircraft carried 48 persons, including the California Polytechnic College (San Luis Obispo) football team.

In announcing the suspension order in Washington yesterday, E. R. Quesada, federal aviation administrator, said that circumstances of the crash "indicate a gross disregard for public safety and the regulations of the Federal Aviation Agency."
Springer countered that "the facts brought out by the investigation will not indicate anything of that severe a nature."

Lodge Urges Aid Increase

SUFFERN, N.Y. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge said today the United States should immediately increase its financial aid to United Nations technical assistance programs "as a means of leading the nations of the world into a more effective partnership."
The Republican candidate for vice president said in a foreign policy statement that such multilateral programs of assistance to under-developed nations were "a means of getting greater value from our mutual security dollars."

Lodge, a former ambassador to the United Nations, said that every two dollars contributed by the United States to multilateral funds induced other donor nations to contribute three dollars for use in underdeveloped lands.
"Two-thirds of the world has an inadequate standard of life," Lodge said. "The needs of education, for medical progress and for capital development are enormous."

The trade fair will cost $5.6 million, will cover 23 acres and will show products of 621 British firms. A million Soviet citizens are expected to see it.
A Soviet trade fair will be held in London in July.

New Procedures Reduce Strokes

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A panel of brain surgeons told the Southern Medical Association meeting Monday that new diagnostic and surgical procedures can reduce disability and even prevent death from strokes.
A new diagnostic method enables a doctor to find a clogged artery. Dye is injected in the blood vessels and X-rays taken. If the blocked artery is in an accessible place, surgeons can remove the obstruction.
