WASHINGTON, April 5—Attorney General Tom Clark has assured Congress that if war came now the nation would be "in pretty good shape" so far as subversives are concerned.

At the same time, FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover reported that his agency's work on subversive activities has increased 230 percent in the past year.

"The persistent threats of Communism in this country have necessitated a comprehensive domestic intelligence coverage in the general security field," Hoover said.

Their statements were published in hearings made public by the House appropriations committee as it approved a money bill to run the Justice department during the 12 months beginning July 1.

Clark told the committee his department is working out a system for keeping track of every alien in the country. A close check is not necessary in all cases, he said, but the government wants to know where all aliens are "at all times."

Hoover, in later testimony before the committee, said that as the year started the FBI had 18,679 security investigations pending.

The FBI coordinates domestic intelligence work under a directive from President Truman, Hoover explained, adding:

"These projects are, of course, not local. For instance, the activities of the Communist party and its affiliates extend from coast to coast, as do the various espionage rings that have operated in this

Proposal Will Be Studied By Friendly Body

Proponents Agree To Submit A Plan To Raise Money

(By The United Press)

AUSTIN, April 5.—A proposal to pay a soldier bonus to Texas veterans of three wars, estimated to cost $300,000,000, was transferred to a friendly committee today by the House.

The action on the measure by Rep. J. A. Benton of Wylie, retired Army captain, was taken by a vote of 62 to 56.

It marked a victory in efforts to switch the bonus plan from the constitutional amendments committee to the committee on military and veterans affairs.

Economy Is Studied

The Senate meanwhile studied an economy campaign mapped out by the upper chamber's finance committee which would put off action on seven proposals that would cost $19,432,974.

Previous attempts to transfer other bonus proposals to the military and veterans affairs committee of the House had failed.

Benton, arguing for his motion to switch consideration of his plan to a more favorable committee, claimed that he did not have a fair hearing before the constitutional amendments group.

That committee, on March 23, referred the matter to a subgroup after a stormy hearing.

The sub-committee had been scheduled to report back to the main committee tomorrow.

Plan Is Explained

Benton's proposed constitutional amendment calls for payment of a bonus to Texas veterans of the Spanish-American war and two World wars, ranging from

Texas' Skies Again Sunny

(By The Associated Press)

Pleasant weather returned to Texas today.

Sunny skies replaced cold, dreary conditions that prevailed for the past few days.

"Little Chicago?"

For eleven straight years Lubbock received nationwide publicity for being the cleanest city in Texas and the Southwest.

It finally got so monotonous that those in charge of entering the annual contest, decided not to enter it anymore.

Now comes evidence of more nationwide publicity Lubbock has been receiving the past few weeks, but it's of a far different variety.

It still pertains to clean-ups, however.

But we'll let you read a two-column article which appearfed March 28 in the Ottumwa, Ia., Courier.

Below we quote the article, but the bold-face type is our own idea. What if it had appeared that way in other papers?

The article follows.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — During 1948 a crime was committed every 27 or 28 hours in Ottumwa, and by the year's end the total reached 317 offenses, according to a summary just issued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The FBI also reported that crimes are committed with greater frequency in Newark, Ohio, and Lubbock, Tex., cities of almost the same size as Ottumwa. According to the FBI's report, Newark police tre informed of a serious crime on the average of once every 19 to 20 hours, while in Lubbock the crime frequency rate is an average of one every sixth or seventh hour.

And Here's The Story

FBI's data showed the following:

With passage of every 45th and 46th day in Ottumwa, someone was a victim of robbery, while in Newark, the average was once every 61st and 66th day, and in Lubbock once every 26th or 27th day.

There were six cases of aggravated assault in Ottumwa during the year, while in Newark there were two cases and in Lubbock there were 42 such cases.

Once every four or five days some place in Ottumwa was burglarized; in Newark the average was once every six or seven days and in Lubbock once every other day.

Larceny, You Bet

A larceny was committed in Ottumwa on an average of once every 52 or 53 hours and in Newark, once every 23 or 24 hours, in Lubbock on an average of once every 10 or 11 hours.

An automobile is stolen in Ottumwa on an average of once every seven or eight days, and in Newark once every 17 or 19 days, and in Lubbock once every two or three days.

There were no felonious killings in Ottumwa or in Newark, while in Lubbock four murders were reported.

While Ottuma was experiencing a year with less crime than its sister cities of approximately the same population, long-term crime trend data, the FBI reported, indicates that only negligent manslaughters and auto thefts have declined to points below the prewar average.

Other Figures Given

Aggravated assaults and rapes in larger communities reached peaks in 1948, well over the prewar averages, and larceny, while declining during the war years, more recently has shown increases and for 1948 was 4.6 per cent in excess of the prewar average, the FBI said. Other crimes, though showing some tendency to decline, still exceeded the pre-war average, the bureau reported.

Population of Ottumwa, Ia., was 44,280 and Newark, O., 62,279, according to the 1940 census quoted in the World Almanac.

Major Steps Toward Firm Pact Pending

Time For Senate Action Uncertain; Arms Plan Needed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 5—President Truman is expected to send the North Atlantic treaty to the Senate before the end of this week with an appeal for speedy approval.

This is one of three major steps which officials forecast today for carrying out the pact that the President acclaimed last night as "a milestone in history." The treaty was signed by 12 western nations in a solemn, fast-moving ceremony yesterday afternoon.

Issue Is Controversial

How soon the Senate might act is uncertain; the issue is controversial and other major legislation is crying for attention.

The other two steps in prospect to implement the treaty are these:

1. Completion of an American arms aid program, costing close to $2,000,000,000. Mr. Truman is expected to recommend this to Congress early next week.

2. Discussions among the 12 treaty powers on organization of a council and a defense committee. Their assignment would be to unify the defenses of the non-Communist western world under the new alliance.

The arms program probably will provide between $1,250,000,000 and $1,500,000,000 for American help in rearming the European members of the alliance. The balance of the funds would go to aid other non-Communist countries such as Greece, Turkey and Iran.

Officials said that no action toward forming the 12-nation coun-

Two Convicts Make Escape

HOUSTON, April 5 (AP)—Scores of police officers today were combing the dense piney woods section of East Texas near Nacogdoches for two desperate convicts who escaped from Clemens prison farm near Brazoria and kidnapped two drilling rig workers last night near Freeport.

The convicts, brandishing knives, forced the rig workers into one of the employes' car and drove the men to Houston where they forced them from the car and then sped off.

Car Is Found

The abandoned car was found by Nacogdoches officers, about seven miles west of Nacogdoches, it was reported. The car was abandoned about 4:30 a. m. today following a chase by Cherokee county officers.

The convicts, one serving a life sentence, and the other serving 50 years, are Walter Lamay, 41, and Willard Ward, 35. Lamay was serving a life sentence for burglary, theft, robbery by firearms and robbery by assault. Ward was serving 50 years for robbery and forgery.

Kidnaped while they were working on a rig at Peach Point were H. C. Hare, 33, of Lake Jackson, a boiler foreman on the rig, and D. Phillips, 28, of Angleton, a driller helper.

Bobby Soxer Faces Charge In Slaying

(By The Associated Press)

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 5—A teen-age bobby, soxer who told police she had been keeping company with a 52-year-old married man for two years, was in jail today on a charge of murder in connection with his slaying.

Police Chief William A. MacDanald said the girl, Joyce Schumaker, 17, told him she fatally shot her married lover, Carl Reeder, as they sat in his automobile yesterday with her teen-age girl friend.

Reeder was a clerk-janitor at the Waukegan township high school.

Chief MacDanald said the blonde, attractive laundry worker told him the shooting followed a quarrel. MacDanald related she told him they quarreled because she was "not satisfied" with his assurance that he would divorce his wife and marry her, after he had "straightened things out."

The police chief quoted her as saying, "I told him if I couldn't have him, nobody was going to have him."

MacDanald said Joyce Kilpatrick, 17, accompanied the couple on a drive along the Lake Michigan shore and witnessed the shooting. Both girls formerly attended the Waukegan township school.

The police chief said the Schumaker girl told him that after she shot Reeder with her brother's .22 caliber pistol she took him to a hospital where he died.

Miss Schumaker then drove to a dress shop where Mrs. Reeder worked and told her of the shooting.

Police said the Schumaker girl, who wore bobby sox, saddle shoes and slacks related that after she had pulled out the pistol Reeder had wrested it from her but later gave it back, saying:

"You wouldn't shoot me, would you?"

"No, I don't lie like you do," she answered.

Two Burglars Are Captured

Tracks led from the window of a burglarized residence to quarters of two negro men whose shoes fit the tracks, so the men admitted the offense and were arrested police said early today.

Both were held in lieu of bonds set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace. Both are under 5-year suspended sentence, city detectives said.

Informal charges of breaking and entering probably will be referred today to a 99th district grand jury, police indicated.

They named the men as Floyd Brown, 21, and Charles J. Jefferson, 26, both of Lubbock.

Residence Entered

A negro woman, R. T. Doss, reported her residence at 2314 East Ave. B had been broken and entered. She said a pair of glasses and a wrist watch, total value $55, had been taken.

Cecil Trull and B. L. Cummings, police patrolmen, found entrance had been made at a west window, the screen of which had been cut.

Studying tracks and following them, the officials knocked on the door of a residence next door and were invited in. The two men were asked for their shoes, which "fitted perfectly into the tracks."

Watch Was Pawned

Arrested, the two men admitted the burglary and said the watch had been pawned at a safe for some meat, the glasses hidden inside a stove at the place of arrest. Both articles were recovered.

A search of almost four years for S. L. Rutherford, 45, was rewarded by the man's arrest in

Mayor's Plan To End Strike Being Studied

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP)—Both union and management representatives today were studying Mayor William O'Dwyer's plan to settle the city wide taxicab strike.

Details of the plan were not disclosed but it was reported to involve a formula for a state labor relations board election to determine whether the striking union has a majority of workers in the industry.

More cabs are rolling, and violence has been decreasing. Fifty-seven arrests have been made since the strike started early Friday.

Big League Stars Stage Autograph Party For Fans

By CHOC HUTCHESON
Journal Staff Writer

It's great to be with a winner.

At least, that's the view taken by Early Wynn, Bob Kennedy, and Mickey Vernon, three members of the Cleveland Indian baseball squad which rolled into town this morning for today's exhibition game with the New York Giants.

Wynn, Kennedy and Vernon, who along with Dale Mitchell visited an "autograph party" at the Sports Center upon their arrival here, know whereof they whereas when it comes to speaking about winning and losing ball clubs.

Comparative Newcomers

All are comparative newcomers on the Cleveland roster. Wynn and Vernon spent the 1948 season chained to a weak Washington club that finished seventh in the American league pennant chase. Kennedy was a member of the even more impotent Chicago White Sox until June 2 last year, when he was traded to the Indians.

"What a great feeling that was," he recalled with a sigh of appreciation today. "From last to first place—in one day!' As baseball followers know, the Indians went on to cop the world championship, while Chicago finished a miserable eighth.

Between autographing gloves, bats and baseballs for some 100 admirers in the sporting goods store, Wynn took time out to say that he hopes to have a good season with Cleveland.

Nine Oklahoma Students On Slim Diet To Aid Europeans

(By The United Press)

NORMAN, Okla., April 5—Nine students at the University of Oklahoma were on a "semi-starvation" diet today in an effort to aid the campus fund-raising drive of the World Student Service organization.

Their two-meals-a-day schedule of 1,030 calories a day — contrasted with the 7,500 consumed daily by the average American — began yesterday and will continue for five days or until the fund campaign goes over the top. The money will be used to help feed European students, who average only 800 calories a day.

The semi-starvation luncheon menu: Cup of bouillon, two tablespoons of cottage cheese, half-cup of cooked broccoli, half-slice of bread, teaspoon of butter, three-fourths cup of strawberries and a glass of skimmed milk.

The dinner menu: Beef stew, lettuce and tomato salad, half slice of bread, teaspoon of butter, glass of skimmed milk and three-fourths cup of peaches.

Clovis Man Arrives In Fort Worth On New York "Hike"

(By The United Press)

FORT WORTH, April 5—W. B. (Bill) Lebow, polio victim who has sat in a wheel chair 35 of his 43 years, stopped in Fort Worth on his way to New York today and estimated he'd complete his trip by November of this year.

Lebow figures, however that he may make the return trip from New York to Clovis, N. M.—his original departure point—by plane, which would take only a matter of hours. To get here from Clovis—a distance of some 412 miles—has taken him from March 4.

"But that's counting 10 days of travel I lost because of bad weather," he said. "And I guess I better count a couple of those days for the time I stopped to do some fishing in Possum Kingdom lake near Jacksboro. Can't blame that on the weather, even if I didn't catch anything."

When he reaches New York, Lebow will auction his wheel chair. Then he'll divide his money—from the sale of

Toll Expected To Top 50 In Illinois Blaze

Trapped Patients Scream In Agony As Expectant Mothers Leap Out Windows

(By The Associated Press)

EFFINGHAM, Ill., April 5—More than 50 persons, including eight new-born infants, were reported killed today in a fire that raced through St. Anthony's hospital.

Hospital officials said the death toll may reach 58 or 60. The Red Cross said 60 of 108 patients were rescued. At least 15 bodies were removed—most of them charred almost beyond recognition.

Flames quickly enveloped the building at midnight and destroyed it within an hour, trapped patients screamed in agony. Some, including expectant mothers, leaped from flame-framed windows.

"It was horrible," said one eyewitness, "all those poor people in there shrieking for help."

The fire was discovered shortly before midnight in a laundry chute. Eyewitnesses said the 60-year-old, three and one-half story brick structure quickly became a great mass of flames.

"It burned so fast, it couldn't be fought," said one rescuer.

Jumped From Windows

Many patients leaped from windows. Some died in their flaming rooms as nuns and townspeople tried to save them.

Effingham is a community of 8,000 in south central Illinois, 100 miles northeast of St. Louis and 200 miles southeast of Chicago, on the Pennsylvania and Illinois Central railroads.

Hundreds of the city's residents rushed to the aid of the 100 or more patients in the 125-bed hospital. But they were hampered by falling bricks and rubble, and the danger of falling walls.

Inside, the Roman Catholic nuns who were on duty braved the flames to lead some patients to safety. Some nuns died in the attempt, and others perished in their rooms, where they were asleep.

Bodies Of Babies Found

The first bodies taken from the fiery ruins were those of eight infants.

Firemen who entered the charred structure found the babies still in their flame-blackened metal cribs on the second floor.

Uncounted bodies of patients from upper floors were strewn above the nursery and near windows.

$2,000 Price For Too-Small Slipper

NEWARK, N. J., April 5 (AP) —A Montclair nurse who claimed a shoe clerk wedged her foot into a too-small slipper, won $2,000 in damages today.

Mrs. Brander said she had suffered a torn ligament in her left foot and was unable to work for a considerable period because of the shoe salesman's action. She had asked $2,500 damages.

She suffered extensive third degree burns on her body.

Russians Protest Changes In Western Germany's Frontiers

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, April 5.—Russia has protested that the western powers broke a Big Four agreement by making changes in the frontiers of western Germany.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said Russian ambassadors in Washington, London and Paris delivered the Soviet protest to the respective foreign ministries.

The U. S. State department said the protest was received over the weekend and is under study. The United States probably will reply in a few days, a department spokesman said.

The Western Allies announced March 27 three minor border shifts affecting 52 square miles of German territory were being made to ease communication and administrative difficulties.

On Provisional Basis

The announcement said the shifts were made on a provisional basis and that permanence of the changes would depend on an eventual peace treaty with Germany. Portions of the area sliced off went to the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, the French - controlled Saar and France.

The Soviet note, as distributed by Tass, said the frontier changes violated "a declaration on the position of Germany" signed by Russia, the U. S., Great Britain and France in 1945.

The Soviet protest probably is intended in large part as a propaganda move for German consumption. The border changes were attacked by many German politicians and some Western Allied officials when they first were announced.

"Declaration" Quoted

The protest quoted the "declaration" as saying that the four governments "will determine the boundaries of Germany or of any part thereof and the status of Germany or of any area which at the present time is a part of German territory."

"It follows from this," the note said, "that changes in the frontiers of German territory which is under the control of the four powers may be effected only by a joint decision of the governments of the U.S.S.R., United States, Great Britain and France, which assumed the supreme authority with regard to Germany.

"In accordance with what has been stated, the Soviet government considers it necessary to inform the governments of Great Britain, the United States and France that it considers the changes of Germany's western frontiers effected by the governments of Great Britain, the United States and France as unlawful, in violation of the 'declaration on the position of Germany'."

Onion Experimental Planting Undertaken

MORTON, April 5—Merlin and Vern Roberts have planted an experimental five acres to onions this year. The Roberts had prepared their land then contracted the planting to Clyde London, Corpus Christi, who brought in a special crew of Mexicans to complete the job in four hours.

About 120,000 sets were planted to the acre in the same manner tried in Lubbock county where nearly 200 acres were set out. The onions are being tried in Cochran county to diversify the agriculture and add new, quick cash crops.

Irrigation and cultivation will be done by the Roberts but London will return at harvest time and his crew will harvest and market the onions.

Home Fire Gives Man Great Power

CHICAGO, April 5. (INS)—Thirty-five-year-old Michael Minyard is a man who does not know his own strength—when there's a fire.

The fire occurred today—and it was Minyard's one-story frame home in Chicago that was swept by the fire which started from an electrical-short circuit.

When firemen arrived they discovered that Minyard had moved to safety a typewriter, clothing, numerous household appliances, a heavy washing machine and a refrigerator—before the flames drove him out.

Man Charged With Threatening Family Held In Parents' Death

DES MOINES, April 5 (INS) — A 34-year-old World War II veteran who reportedly had threatened to kill members of his family was being held in Polk county jail at Des Moines today in connection with the death of his parents.

He is Frank Miller whose parents, Claude E. Miller, 64, and Anna Elizabeth Miller, 60, were found shot to death in the basement of their farm home early yesterday.

Sheriffs deputies spent the entire day Monday questioning young Miller in an effort to break down his story that the elderly couple was dead when he arrived home from a tavern about 3:30 a. m.

Threats Charged

Sheriff Howard Reppert quoted a neice of the Millers, Mrs. Opal Renaud, of Bondurant, Ia., as saying "Frank has threatened his parents, his wife and other relatives. They were all afraid of him. He threatened his wife several times and he did beat her up and scared her many times. That's the reason she left him."

The suspect's wife reportedly was living in Iowa Falls.

Mrs. Renaud also said the Millers had admonished their son about his "heavy drinking." Reppert said Frank was under the influence of alcohol when deputies arrived at the Miller home and admitted drinking at the tavern Sunday night.

Dr. Jack Lilly, acting coroner, said the couple was killed by two blasts from a 12-guage shotgun. Both bodies were lying face down about eight feet apart in the basement of their farm home north of Des Moines.

The shotgun and two empty shells were lying between the bodies and the breech of the single action gun was closed.

Reppert pointed out that neither Miller nor his wife could have removed the shells and closed the breech after being shot through the heart. Because of this situation, he discounted all thought of a suicide pact or a murder-suicide and said a third party must be involved.

However, the younger Miller maintained throughout day-long questioning that he was not implicated and insisted that he found his parents dead when he returned home from the tavern.

Chinese Reds Halt Advance

NANKING, April 5 (AP)—A general withdrawal of Communist troops from the Yangtze river front appeared underway today.

Capital observers hoped it meant an end to 22 years of hostilities in the civil war. But it was far too early to tell.

Peace talks reportedly were underway in earnest at Peiping.

There were various reports of a general Red cease fire order. Communists attacks on Anking, 150 miles southwest of here, halted.

Red troops marching toward the river suddenly did an about face. Observers felt they might pull back a few miles and await developments at Peiping. The Reds appeared headed north all along the river front from Nanking to Shanghai.

The Communist radio gave no indication of any softening toward the government. Acting President Li Tsung-Jen and Premier Ho Ying-Chin were the objects of blistering attacks.

Newsmen Barred

Ho will fly to Canton tomorrow to try to quiet outspoken Kuomintang (government) party critics of the government's peace efforts. Ho hopes to win them over in a brief stop at Canton.

At Peiping the door was slammed on coverage of the peace parley by foreign newsmen. Government delegation Chairman Chang Chih-Chung advised Nanking neither Chinese nor foreign newsmen could be admitted now. Some 17 foreign newsmen in the Red capital have been silenced since last month.

Shanghai was gripped by its worst inflation problem of the war. There was a shortage of banknotes. Government printing presses could not turn them out fast enough to meet the demand.

As a result payroll checks were discounted as much as 20 per cent. The official Central bank dumped gold bullion on the market. But it did not rectify the situation. The banknote shortage sent bank interest rates up to 20 per cent a day or 600 per cent a month.

Broadway Opening Not So Glamorous As Movie Premier

By BOB THOMAS
Asociated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 5—How does a Broadway first night compare with a Hollywood premiere?

Now I've seen both. I attended the opening of Thomas Mitchell and Walter Abel in "Biggest Thief In Town," which seemed to be a slow-starting but amusing comedy. The other show on the theater side of the footlights was just as interesting to me.

A Broadway opening seems less frenzied than filmtown blowouts. I counted but four cops outside the Mansfield theater and less than 50 rubbernecks. A delicatessen opening draws more than that in Hollywood.

No Searchlights

Of course, there were no searchlights; they don't seem to be used in New York at all. I saw only one autographseeker and one amateur photographer. They found little game. The only names I spied were Boris Karloff and Roland Young.

The audience dressed better than those at Hollywood premieres, but there were fewer beauties. Only a few showed up in formal attire. At least there were no leisure jackets and moccasins.

For what it lacks in glamor, the New York opening makes up in excitement. There's a thrill about a first night, the sport of watching whether a show will be a hit or flop. There doesn't seem to be an in-between.

Center Of Attention

The critics occupy the center of attraction. Their grins or frowns can make or break a show. Their counterparts in Hollywood have less inportance. A picture can be a success without critical acclaim. A play usually can't.

And now back to Hollywood, that suburb of the tropics, where everything can be put off till manana. Hollywood, a great place to live, but I wouldn't want to visit there.

Irregularity Ended, Feels Like New Man

"I suffered irregularity for 5 years. Then tried KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I eat a bowlful every morning and feel like a new man!"

Actress To Divorce Her Second Husband

HOLLYWOOD, April 5 (AP) — Actress Eva Gabor today announced that she plans to divorce her second husband while sister Sari honeymoons with her third.

The Hungarian actress said she would file suit for divorce in a few days against real estate broker Charles Isaacs, her spouse for five and a half-years.

She said she gets their present home as part of a property settlement.

On Saturday, Sari, divorced wife of millionaire hotelman Conrad Hilton, married British actor, George Sanders, at Las Vegas, Nev.

In six months the Gold Coast has exported $2,000,000 worth of mahogany logs and lumber.

Ex-GI Defies Army Over Viennese Girl

VIENNA, Austria, April 5 (AP)—A determined young man from Chicago married his Viennese sweetheart and defied the United States Army to send him home without her.

The young man, Harold W. J. Brandt, 21 of Chicago, proved his love for the girl, Dora Kratoschka, 25, last February. Serving a 90-day sentence for cigarette smuggling while a civilian employe of the Army and faced with prospect of being sent home immediately after his discharge, Brandt renounced his American citizenship in order to stay with Dora in Austria.

Later, on the advice of his parents, he withdrew his oath of renunciation. He was discharged from the Salzburg stockade last week, given special permission to stay in Austria until after his wedding and ticked off to return to America, by way of Bremerhaven, under armed escort Thursday.

But today Brandt, an ex-G. I., said he will not leave Thursday and does not intend to go at all until Dora can go with him.

Services Held For Two-Year-Old Girl

Funeral services were held Monday for Judy K. Adams, age 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Adams of 2822 Maple, in the Temple Baptist church with Rev. McCoy officiating.

She died Saturday following an appendectomy in the Lubbock Memorial hospital. Survivors include the parents, one brother, Lonnie Adams of Lubbock; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Miller of Lubbock and J. D. dams of Kemp, the paternal grandfather.

Pallbearers were Claude Young, Earl Willbanks, Sidney Johnson and W. G. Bartlett.

Cold Facts can sometimes be very heartwarming, too...

WE HAVE just published our 104th Annual Report to Policyholders as a 40-page illustrated booklet. It tells about the progress New York Life made in 1948 and contains important facts and figures dealing with the financial condition of the Company.

Set off by themselves, the figures tell a story of financial stability. But behind them lie many warm and human stories about the benefits life insurance brings to people in all walks of life everywhere.

It is a fact, for example, that in 1948 New York Life paid over $200,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries. This money is helping widows maintain their homes and bring up their children without hardship. It is helping to send sons and daughters to college who otherwise might not have gone. It is helping families enjoy the peace of mind that comes of knowing that the future is financially more secure. It is helping men and women in their old age live without financial worry.

It would be impossible to tell all the stories about all the people who benefit through life insurance policies. But in our Report this year we try, at least, to show what human values the facts and figures of our business often have.

In addition, the Report contains helpful information on "The Problem of Growing Older," as well as a description of an improved service for policyholders so that death benefit payments and policy loans may be expedited, a review of the way the Company has made mortgage money available for housing, and a discussion of the Company's policy in making its investments in 1948.

The essential facts and figures of our 1948 operations will be mailed to policyholders as usual with premium notices. The larger illustrated booklet will gladly be sent upon request.

A few figures from our 104th Annual Report to Policyholders December 31, 1948

Assets totalled $4,448,369,759, an increase of $214,185,161 over the close of the previous year. After deducting $4,181,863,874 of reserves and other liabilities, surplus was $266,505,885, or $35,387,161 more than at the end of 1947.

Sales of new life insurance in 1948 amounted to $857,719,600, which is $335,600 greater than in 1947.

The Company had 3,779,541 policies in force for $9,539,584,229 of life insurance protection on December 31, 1948. The net growth of the Company during the year, as measured by the increase in life insurance in force, was $475,979,615.

The provision for 1949 dividends to policyholders is $45,741,294. New York Life has always been a mutual company and pays dividends to policyholders only.

A copy of the 40-page illustrated 104th Annual Report to Policyholders will gladly be sent to anyone requesting it.

With Wedding Date Approaching Fiance Confronts Girl With Rumor About Past

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am seeking an impartial opinion and helpful advice concerning a boy-girl situation. Fred has been going with Ann for almost two years, has vowed his love for her innumerable times, and had asked her to marry him this summer, as soon as both will have finished college.

However, he recently told her of a very bad and scandalous remark made about her, so he says, by another boy at time he (Fred) started going with her. He added, "It isn't true, is it?" He refused to name the boy whose statement he claimed to be quoting.

Ann's parents would like to know who has made such a lying attack upon an unusually fine girl of excellent character, who is very religious, well educated, abides by high standards of behavior and belongs to a highly respected family.

PARENTS INTEND TO NAIL DEFAMER

FRED'S excuse for concealing the boy's identity is that he doesn't want to create a commotion by dragging up things said long ago, that he doesn't believe and never has. But Ann's parents feel that inasmuch as he mentioned it to her, he should name the "source" if for no other reason than to clear himself of suspicion that he made up the charge himself.

As matters stand, it appears that Fred is more interested in protecting the scandalmonger than in protecting the good name of a girl whom he professes to love with all his heart. What do you think of him?

Signed: A. B.

MAN'S IN EMOTIONAL FLIGHT FROM HARNESS

DEAR A. B.: In all probability Fred doesn't know what he believes; but in my opinion, he isn't bothered so much about Ann's deportment (or reputation) before he knew her, as he is uncertain whether he wants to get married this summer.

It makes little difference whether he made up the scandalous indictment of her character, or whether he got it from someone else. The fact that he resorts to that excuse for questioning her morals, after two years' courtship, with the wedding date fast approaching, suggests that he may be looking for a way out; and that he is grouping, unconsciously, for "reason" to justify his negative attitude.

Also, I may add, a thoroughly good man—good in the sense that he is mentally, morally and emotionally healthy—doesn't think "evil" of the woman he loves, regardless of obsolete blunders she has made, if her behavior with him has been praiseworthy according to his standards. Thus Fred's crass reference to moldy gossip about Ann brings his fitness for marriage into question; for a man is unfit to cherish a wife if he has a tendency to harbor distrust.

STRIKE AT ISSUE, NOT AT CAMOUFLAGE

IN THE EVENT that Ann has loved Fred unreservedly—to a degree that makes him wonder "Was she always so free?—then his misdoubts, if based on their association, would mean that he has never loved her, but rather used sentiment to gild selfish sex drive, and unconsciously held her guilty of the same.

As for what Ann's parents should do, they should take their cue from her. If she has turned to them in sick dismay, asking how to cope with slander, or calling on them to help clear her name, they are entitled to take some action. But if Ann doesn't want them to say or do anything, they ought to respect her wishes, hard though it may be to "contain" themselves.

There is always a chance that parents don't know the whole truth about their children's behavior after college-age; and it could be mighty embarrassing for Ann if her parents tried to prove her more "pure" than she is. With Ann's permission, they might call in Fred, not to labor the gossip-angle, but to face with him the deep implications of his attitude, and to help him decide whether they ought to marry, in view of it. M. H.

Club Head Talks Here

Women's clubs are forging a chain of friendship around the world, Mrs. John J. Perry of Sweetwater told some 400 officers, delegates, and guests of Seventh district convention, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, in a talk this morning in the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Perry, president of Texas State Federation of Women's clubs, spoke on "Expanding Horizons."

Some 139 official convention delegates and 199 visitors had registered at noon today, and an estimated 75 other persons, including board members were present.

The speaker said 32 clubs in foreign lands are now affiliated with the general federation. Further cementing international friendship by club work, she expressed her belief that at least one woman in each club in America is corresponding with a woman in another nation.

"We must have a world vision," she said, "because the United States has been propelled into a position of world leadership. Washington events affect every other nation, and likewise, events in other nations affect us right here in Texas.

"However, we must not let our world vision obscure our community vision, because our first duty is to our own community.

"Women in their role of creators of life, have a common bond wherever they are in the world," she continued. "It has been well said that if all the women would move together in the right direction, they could move mountains."

A series of reports from various departments preceded Mrs. Perry's address.

Mrs. F. G. Sears of Snyder, chairman of American Home department, introduced Mrs. Wayne Boren of Snyder, who discussed consumer relations, stressing importance of wise buying; and Mrs. P. S. Chenault, formerly of Snyder and now of San Angelo, who discussed spiritual guidance, emphasizing importance of early and proper education of children.

Mrs. George Robertson of Childress, chairman of the Citizenship department, discussed methods of encouraging good citizenship through voting, supporting libraries, sponsoring scout troops and contributing to support of various worthwhile youth groups.

Mrs. T. V. Reeves of Canyon, chairman of Education, cited outstanding work of various district clubs and introduced Mrs. Walter Travis of Dumas, who discussed teacher recruitment; Mrs. W. P. LeMaster of Perryton, who reported on adult education; and Mrs. Harold Keith Brown of Snyder who urged army-type speed-up training in institutions of higher learning. Mrs. Travis, in turn, introduced Miss Shirley Hairgrove, winner of a local essay contest on "Why I Want to be a Teacher."

Speaking as chairman of the Legislative department, Mrs. Walker B. Jones of Tulia, reported that the state organization is supporting secret ballots for Texas, the Gilmer-Aikin educational bills, the library appropriation bills, jury service for women, and child welfare and labor laws.

Sixth Police Chief Named In Kentucky

EVARTS, Ky., April 5 (AP) — From about 250 applications, including one from Scotland, the city council last night picked a local boy as its sixth police chief in eight months.

Bobby McLain, about 25, was sworn in immediately after he was selected for the job. He is a son of Councilman W. O. McLain, is a war veteran, and is married.

Applications poured into this small mining community after the arrest of former Chief Isachar Combs on a murder charge stemming from the slaying of a restaurant operator here.

Combs and his former assistant, Lewis Deaton, were convicted on manslaughter charges and given 10 years each.

The police chief's badge began changing hands last August. One quit after several shots were fired into his automobile. Another was shot to death. The third chief turned in his resignation because he didn't want "to get shot in the back." Still another chief resigned after Harlan county police arrested him on a drunkenness charge.

Acting Police Chief John Barnes, who reported he was serving on a "very, very temporary" basis, was relieved of his duties as soon as McLain was sworn in.

Man Wins Back Wife From Frat Brother

Order Vacating Divorce Puts End To Six-Months Marriage

CLEVELAND, April 5 (AP) — A court decision vacating the year-old divorce of Mrs. Patricia Jelm Helbig, 28, has put a legal end to her marriage six months ago to another man.

The ruling by common pleas Judge Samuel H. Silbert yesterday was unhappy news for the attractice blonde, who as Pat Larson was national women's skeet shooting champion for three years.

Neither she nor Jack Helbig, to whom she was married last October, was available at their Akron, O., home for comment on the decision. But her attorneys announced they would appeal.

Charles R. Jelm, 27, from whom Mrs. Helbig was divorced last spring, won his suit to have the divorce set aside on grounds it was obtained fraudulently.

Men Frat Brothers

His court victory meant that he had won back legally a wife with whom, Judge Silbert said in his opinion, he has given no evidence of desiring a reconciliation.

Helbig was a fraternity brother of Jelm at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He was best man when the Jelms were married in 1942.

Mrs. Helbig admitted in testimony during the action that while still married to Jelm, she had shared the same bed with Helbig on a trip to Boston in 1946. She also testified she lived with Jelm for 10 months after filing suit for divorce and that their fourth child was conceived during this period.

Judge Silbert pointed out in his opinion that Mrs. Hilbig defrauded the court when she concealed, while obtaining the divorce, that she had continued to live with Jelm and that she was pregnant.

Track, Field Meet Set Here

Workouts Held By High School

The Lubbock High school track squad will be preparing for the fourth meet in as many weeks this week, with the district meet being held Saturday at Texas Tech track.

A shift in the tabulation of figures of the Big Spring Relays last week shows Alfred Adair as the individual high-point man in the meet with 7 and three-fourth points. Sonny Mobley of Odessa was previously announced as winner with 7 and one-half. However, Adair has not officially been named as the individual winner, but confirmation is expected shortly.

Adair tied for first place in the pole vault with W. J. Blake, another Westerner, tied for second in the high jump, placed fourth in the discus, and ran on the 440-yard relay team which finished fourth.

Bad Weather Again

Although bad weather limited cinder practice last week the team finished in the third spot at the Big Spring Relays Saturday. With the District meet being held this week, the team will have to buckle down.

But, as has been the case all-season, injuries will be a big factor in the Westerner chances. Charlie Williams should be near top form after being slowed with a leg injury for the past three weeks. Another sprinter, Malcolm Young, pulled a muscle before the Big Spring meet and will be hobbling around a few days, and Wayne Stroud is suffering from a cold after being out of uniform for two weeks with a throat infection.

Decker Is Hope

Expected to be strong in the sprints and low hurdles is Donald Decker. He has been improving every week, and last week took first in the 220-yard dash and third in the century. No hurdle events were run.

Ball Games Slated

Two, and possibly three, baseball games will be played by the Westerner nine this week.

Wednesday afternoon Coach Fred Taylor will send his squad against the Boys Club team, and Saturday a return match will be played with a group from Texas Tech. Tentative plans call for a game with Childress. The two teams were scheduled to play last week, but rain broke up the plans.

The Westerners still boast a perfect record with five victories and no defeats. Included in the list are four wins by one run. In the first game with Boys Club, the high school team won a 4-3 decision. Two games were won from the Tech team by 10-7 and 8-7 margins.

Both of the teams have improved very much in the past few weeks, and it would not be a surprise if Tech and Boys Club both defeated the Westerners. Errors have been a sore spot in each of the games to date and with improvement in fielding the teams have fine chances.

Jackie Martyn, Boys Club pitcher, has shown up well in his last start, and Friday pitched a five inning no-hitter against Tech Independents, allowing only two men to reach first base.

Against his portsided hurling the Westerners have three boys as possible starters. Lefty Bennie Day might be the choice Wednesday. The young sophomore has shown up well this season. Jimmy Hamilton or Jim Wilson have also been starters and could hold the club team in check. The starting pitcher will probably be decided after Coach Taylor is informed as to whether or not Childress will make the trip to Lubbock Thursday.

A late practice will be held today after the Cleveland Indians-New York Giants contest.

Records At Stake In Meet Saturday

Lubbock High school will be among the teams participating in the District 2-AA track meet Saturday to decide the individuals who will run in the regional meet two weeks later. Teams from District 4-A will hold their district meet at the same time.

Expected in the AA division are Brownfield, Lamesa, Plainview, and Lubbock. Competition will begin at 9:30 with preliminary events in District 4-A. The four larger schools will not begin their preliminaries until 1 o'clock that afternoon.

Probable Favorite

Lubbock will probably have the favorites role in the meet, although the Westerners have been crippled all season. Only the top three places in each event will be eligible for the region meet, to be held here April 23.

Last year the Westerners won the meet with 100 points. Plainview was second with 28, and Lamesa had 12. Winner in the Class A division was Seminole with 58 points. Following were Andrews, Denver City, and O'Donnell.

The same Class A teams will probably be battling it out for point honors again this year.

New Records Set

Eighteen new records were set last year, with six being lowered in Class AA.

Bill Howton of Plainview had a good day as he set the 120-yard high hurdle mark at 15.0 and the 220-yard low hurdles at 23.3. The old 880-yard run record was lowered by Howkins of Lamesa to 2:11.4, and Richard Johnson of Lubbock ran the mile in 4:48.4.

Douglas Ross, Lubbock, threw the discus 120 feet, 9 and three-fourth inches for a new mark, and Jack Alderson cleared 5 feet, 9 inches in the high jump event.

Expected to enter the Class A meet are Seminole, Levelland, Andrews, Littlefield, Abernathy Denver City, Morton, Muleshoe, O'Donnell, Olton, Post, Seagraves, Sudan, Sundown, and Tahoka.

HE CAN'T USE THIS—Dick Rifenburg arrives on a motor scooter for spring practice at Michigan. The all-American end can't use the machine playing football, although opponents suspected he was on one last fall.

Weather Interferes As Tech Cindermen Prepare For Meet

Red Raider track and field men, united after almost a week's absence, hoped yesterday to get started preparing for a quadrangular meet Saturday in Abilene, but the weather interfered.

As a result, Coach Maxey McKnight shrugged his shoulders, cursed the wind and cold and called off practice. There's little time to prepare for the meet against McMurry, Abilene Christian college and Hardin-Simmons—and a lot to do.

Shade Too Sharp

The north wind whistled just a shade too sharply for the runners, although the football squad reveled in temperatures that made the grid season ideal. One or two Raider cindermen had the courage to trot around the track heavily bundled up, but the rest decided to enjoy the day of rest.

Coach McKnight was well satisfied with the showing the Raiders made in the Texas Relays. The runners showed up well and Ed Clepper barely missed bringing home second place in the high jump. The relay teams, particularly the sprint medley team, covered themselves with credit. Times were only a shade off records, despite the rain-wetten field, and the Tech times were all good.

Seth Murphey and Moon Mullins failed in the 100-yard dash, but neither got going. Murphey was ruled off for two false starts and Mullins, after one false start, was left at the blocks.

Reynolds Shows Signs

Charley Reynolds showed signs of getting in shape rapidly and should be ready to again take his place at the head of the dash men. The 440-yard runners, Cosbin Bufkin, Ben and Joe Wilson all turned in good times, while Charley Pinnell and Clepper both did all right in the hurdles and the high jump.

At Abilene Saturday, McKnight will have a chance to use other runners, as well as his field men. ACC has the squad to beat, gaining seven and a half points in the college division at the Relays and showing general strength.

With a break in the weather, McKnight hopes to have his runners ready for the competition at Abilene.

Athletics Pin Hope On Joost

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 5. (AP)—The spare old man who manages the Philadelphia Athletics still clutched his familiar score card as he pointed to Eddie Joost.

"If Joost hadn't been hurt last August," said Connie Mack, "we might have won the pennant."

It was quite a compliment for Mack to pay to his veteran shortstop. Yet, every Athletic ball player agreed with him.

Look To Joost

If the A's go places in the American league race this season, look to Joost, "the man who came back," for the answer. He's the key to the Philadelphia infield—the inspiration leader who transformed a raggedy ann quartet into one of Mack's finest.

Last year he set a league record by playing 42 consecutive errorless games and accepting 226 consecutive chances with nary a boot. Without him, the A's would have been cellar bait.

Things weren't always like this for Joost who has been banging around ball parks since 1933. He will be 33 next June 5.

He says it took a "kick in the pants" to change his baseball career.

From John Quinn

The kick-back to the minors after eight years in the big show—came from John Quinn, general manager of the Boston Braves. Quinn sold him to Rochester in 1946.

"I went to Rochester, determined to have a good year. I did, too. Drove in over 100 runs (101) and hit 19 homers."

The A's were in the thick of the race last year when Joost tore some ligaments in his hand, trying a head first slide into third base at St. Louis. With Eddie out of the lineup, Philadelphia slumped. They played only .400 ball the rest of the season and finished fourht, 12½ games out.

Press Bulls Leading In Bowling Tourney

Press Bulls took the lead in the Men's City Bowling League tournament Monday night in the first night of activity with an aggregate score of 2,780 pins. The tourney is being played with handicaps given to help the poorer teams.

The Shamrock Rollers were second with 2,695 pins, and the Termites rolled 2,674. The three teams are in the College league.

High individual for the night was Jerry Henderson with a series of 615. Hershey, of the Termites, was high for his team with 587, and Williams rolled 573 for the Shamrock Rollers.

Team games will be rolled this week through Friday night at Lubbock Bowling club. Friday and Saturday the doubles and singles will be at Playmor Lanes.

Members of the Major bowling league will take to the lanes tonight. The teams are Westerner Cafe, Walton's, Hemphill - Wells, McFarland - Maisen, Mission Orange, and Hub Clothiers.

Minor League Looks Big To Tiger Nine

ATLANTA, April 5 (AP) — Minor league competition looked just the same as the big leagues to the Detroit Tigers today on their northward swing from Florida.

The Atlanta Crackers of the Southern association slapped the Tigers 3 to 2 last night with a two-run eighth inning rally featured by Jim Woodail's two-run pinch single off Lefthander Ted Gray.

The Tigers got only nine hits off three Atlanta pitchers.

Tickets Are Selling Fast For Fights Scheduled Here Friday

Tickets for the fight card Friday night at Sled Allen's arena, featuring Bill Henderson and Paul Guerrera in the final event, have been selling fast. All ringside seats are gone, and reserve seat ducats are two-thirds gone, 100 being left.

Monday night 600 general admission tickets remained to be sold, but they were expected to be sold in the next few days. Fans wishing to purchase tickets may get them at O. C. Foster's gym, 2417 Main, and Wylies Drug store Thursday and Friday.

For his sixteenth professional fight, Henderson has picked a rough fighter in Guerrera. The Juarez, Mexico, native has had 32 fights and is a wise man in the ring.

Respects Henderson

Henderson has never seen his opponent box, but on several occasions at El Paso Guerrera witnessed Henderson fight and respects the Texas Tech student's ability, although he says he can beat him in the ring.

In a little over a year Henderson has had 15 fights, winning 14 of them. Only two were 10-rounders, and he won the first one. The last bout was fought against Jean Mougin, former French light weight champion, who knocked out the Lubbock and Plainview product. So this match will be the first on the road back for Henderson. He will enter the ring in better shape for this fight than he was for the last one.

Four Bouts On Card

Also on the card beginning at 8 o'clock are four good bouts, with three local boxers appearing. Charley Neff, Petersburg, takes on Conrado Castunou of Juarez, a 22-year-old fighter with eight fights under his belt, and he will have to extend himself to win the six-rounder.

Twice winner of regional Golden Glove titles, Gene James will make his initial professional performance against Jack Wortham of Amarillo as a light heavyweight. He failed twice in his efforts to capture the title in the state tournament at Fort Worth.

More Experienced

James will have a weight advantage over Wortham, but the Amarillo boxer is more experienced.

In a welterweight bout, Bill Pollard, Lubbock, meets Frankie Guzman of Juarez. Guzman has a good record of 13 victories in 18 fights, with three draws. Though Pollard has been improving he will find the more experienced Guzman hard to beat.

Dickie Weinhold, Amarillo, will fight Jessie Robles in the other match preceding the main bout. Managed by Denby Woodring, Weinhold has appeared in several bouts in New York. Robles has won 21 of his 23 fights, two being draws, and the bout appears to be evenly matched.

Hale Center Nine To Open Baseball Play With Dimmitt Friday

HALE CENTER, April 5 (Spl)—No longer will they be able to hold down the lid on the baseball season here.

Dimmitt's powerful Bobcats will blow into town Friday to oppose the strong Hale Center Owls in the first schoolboy game to be played here in a number of years.

The game lifts the curtain for the local nine at the same time four other teams in the northern half and seven teams in the southern half of District 3-B will go in action in the new sport competition. Winners of the northern and southern halves of the district will meet late in the spring for championship honors.

Schools entering baseball competition in district 3-B are Amherst, Anton, Bula, Hale Center Nazareth, Olton, Petersburg, Pettit, Snyder, Springlake and Whitharral.

ROOKIE REWARDED

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 5 (U.P) — As a reward for being "the most improved player on the club," Rookie Catcher Stan Lopata today was designated the Philadelphia Phillies' first-string catcher by Manager Eddie Sawyer. Lopata's promotion drops veteran Andy Seminick to the second-string. Ken Silvestri, a third receiver, also may be retained.

Brown-Cub Battle Slated At Austin

AUSTIN, April 5 (U.P) — The St. Louis Browns-Chicago Cubs' spring series, which has become more or less a tour through Texas, moved today to the state capitol.

The Browns yesterday optioned Infielders Billy Sommers and Charley Grant and Catcher Bill Leonard to San Antonio of the Texas league, while the Cubs released Pitched Ben Wade to Los Angeles of the Pacific coast league.

A game between the Browns and Cubs, scheduled for San Antonio yesterday, was cancelled because of the death of William Osley, president of the San Antonio club.

Indians And Giants In Exhibition Game

Cleveland's World Champion Indians and the New York Giants were scheduled to meet this afternoon at 3 p. m. at Rosenthal Field, with a crowd of 8,000 anticipated for the major league exhibition.

Lou Boudreau, manager of the Indians, nominated Frank Papish, picked up in a trade with the Chicago White Sox during the winter, to do the Indian hurling. And Manager Leo "Lippy" Durocher of the Giants was scheduled to send "Handy" Andy Hansen to the mound for the New Yorkers.

The weatherman scanned the skies and his instruments last night and came up with reassuring word. His prediction: partly cloudy, no rain, a light breeze and temperatures in the high 60s.

The forecast was bound to sit well with te ball clubs, who battled through misty rain and cool winds yesterday in El Paso. It resulted in two accidents. The Giants possibly lost Bill Rigney, who pulled a muscle sliding into third base, and the Indians may have lost Ken Keltner, third baseman, who was hit on the cheekbone by a crazzily bounding hopper that sent him out of the game.

Special buses ran to the ball park.

Policemen Charged With Taking Bribes

NORFOLK, Va., April 5 (AP) — Thirty Norfolk policemen were under suspension today as the aftermath of an investigation of the numbers racket. Twenty four of the officers were charged with accepting bribes.

A corporation court grand jury handed down indictments yesterday on the bribery charges. This was followed by a suspension order by the public safety director relieving the additional six of their duties.

The indictments charged the 24 officers with accepting $10 payments as part of a numbers protection payoff.

Rupp To Stay At Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 5 (INS) —University of Kentucky Basketball Coach Adolph Rupp, known across the nation as the baron of basketball, emphatically denied tonight that he intends to enter the professional coaching ranks.

Rupp made this statement at the university alumni associations annual banquet honoring the schools basketball stars.

Will Be His Last

The U. of K., coach said his berth at Kentucky will be his last coaching assignment. He added, however, that he was not planning to leave the U. of K., at this time.

Letter awards were given at the banquet to the university's four graduating seniors who were also members of the United States basketball team in the U. S. Olympics. They included Captain Alex Groza, Cliff Barker, Ralph Beard and Wallace Jones.

Coach Rupp officially retired the numbers worn by the four in competition during their collegiate careers as well as that of Kenny Rollins, fifth member of the Olympic team. He added that those numbers would never again be given out at the university.

Letter awards also were given to undergraduates Jim Line, Walt Hirsch and Dale Barnstable.

Captain Groza also was given the Lexington Leader award as the player voted most valuable by his own teammates.

Between The Lines. . .

By Joe Kelly

AUSTIN — The Texas Relays failed to produce any startling records this year, which is far from surprising. Friday and Saturday both were days better suited to be spent near a fire. Friday was windy, wet and cold, while Saturday was little better, even though the wind went down. Trackmen spent most of Friday jogging to keep warm, or huddling in blankets in the lee of the huge Longhorn stands. They were not days that induced the best efforts in anyone, although all runners tried.

We were talking to Perry Samuels, the fine century dash man for Texas, after he had finished running his heat in10.1, considerably under his normal time. Perry smiled, shook his head and said that he never had had to run so hard to win the 100 before. Not only did he have a wind beating at him around 20 miles an hour, he also had to come from behind two runners to win. He wasn't happy over his showing, but felt that it had not been too bad under the conditions. He missed Charley Parked, ace Steer runner, who was out with a pulled musicle. Parker usually spurs him to better efforts.

Speaking of pulled muscles, there wasn't a coach here for the Relays who spoke a good word for Fort Worth's track and field meet. In fact, so many said that they would not return that Maxey McKnight, Raider mentor, cracked: "If one more coach says he won't take his team to Fort Worth next year, we'll win it hands down." There's even a rumor that Texas, Texas Aggies, Rice, SMU, Baylor and Arkansas will hold their own meet next year at the same time. George Kellam, Star-Telegram sports reporter, says that the entire Fort Worth track will be torn up and put in top shape before next year.

Best story we've heard in some time concerning Jim Winkler, Aggie tackl and brother of Tech's Bernie. Jim Signed to play pro football with the Los Angeles Rams, after starring for the Aggie eleven. The ink was little more than dry on his contract when he was the recipient of a letter. It took us right back eight years, for it began with the now acknowledged and famous first word, "Greetings." Yep, Uncle reached out and Jim, instead of playing pro ball, will have a chance to spend 21 months in the Navy.

One of the outstanding performers at the Relays has been Rollin Prather of Kansas State. We went down on the field to talk with him Friday, primarily to find out whether he was any relation to a boy with whom we had played football in Emporia, Kansas. He was. In fact, he was a first cousin and told us where "Frankenstein" was now. As we were talking, the announcement came that Prather had just heaved the shot 50 feet, seven inches. That broke the Southwest record. His reply to congratulations was "It's about time." He went on to say, in explanation, that an injury was hampering him.

Prather, who stands about six feet five and weighs a well-proportioned 235 pounds, plays end on the football team in the fall. During the winter he keeps in snape in the gym. This spring, when the squad first moved outdoors, he made a mistake. He tried to throw the discus for distance the first day. He hurt his elbow and examination showed that he'd suffered an extension of the joint. As a result, he can't straighten his arm. That means he can't get that extra leverage behind his shot tosses, that he lets the shot go sooner than normal. If he were well, there is little question he would go well over 55 feet.

Spencer Billington of Stamford, a freshman at Baylor, has done all right here, duplicating his performance at the Fort Worth meet. But there he did something a little special. He took part in the dashes and the relays Saturday afternoon, then went back to Baylor as fast as he could. That night Billington was the second best ground gainer in the annual Baylor intra-squad football game winding up spring practice. Sounds like the Southwest Conference and Tech would see a lot of the speed merchant.

Among the baseball notes, we learn that the Lubbock Hubbers have won three exhibition games. Wednesday they beat Greenville 4-1 behind the hurling of Don Hensiek and Herby Pitts at McKinney, Jackie Sullivan's home. Friday they licked the Borger Gassers 10-9 behind the pitching of Oscar Kuver and a Corpus Christi man. And Sunday they nicked Farmersville 6-2 with Hensiek and Cotton Russell doing the knocking. The Hubbers also have made two player deals. Pitcher Nick Pappas has been sold to Abbeyville of the Eangeline League and Pitcher Aurelian Luquette has been given his outright release.

Lamesa Adds New Coaches

LAMESA, April 5 (Special) — Three new coaches have been added to the Lamesa coaching staff, keeping pace with the expansion program in the school system which is making possible a new high school and a football field.

The new members of the staff will serve as fulltime teachers and carry out their coaching activities on the side. The trio are John P. Mason, Plainview; Everett Martin, Spur; and Elvin Dawson, Greenville.

Duties Are Listed

Mason will be the head track coach and serve as backfield coach of the football B team. He was a star in football and track at Abilene Christian college.

Line coach for the B team will be Martin, who played high school football at Spur and later at New Mexico university. He is married and has one child.

Dawson will coach all sports in the seventh and eighth grades. An all-district lineman at Greenville under Lamesa's head coach, Bob Harrell, he attended East Texas State Teachers college.

Harrell Heads Staff

The seven-man coaching staff will be headed by Harrell. Other members of the staff include O. W. Follis, basketball coach and assistant football coach; Jack Wetzel, head baseball coach and ninth grade football and B team basketball coach; and Gaylon Roberts, coach of all fifth and sixth grade sports.

Crack Baylor Cager Will Enter Seminary

DALLAS, April 5 (AP) — Jackie Robinson, who was a crack basketballer at Baylor university, prefers saving souls to coaching.

In an interview here last night he said he had turned down a $4,000 a year job with a university athletic staff. He did not name the university.

Robinson, 21, said he will enter Southwestern Theological seminary in Fort Worth this fall to study toward a doctor of theology degree.

Robinson helped the United States basketball team win the Olympic title last year. He was unable to play basketball last season because of an injured leg.

Managers Of Giants, Dodgers Hold Meet

EL PASO, April 5. (AP)—Leo Durocher, manager of the New York Giants, and Branch Rickey, jr., of the Brooklyn Dodgers, talked baseball here. No deals came of the meeting.

The two got together while the Giants played an exhibition baseball game yesterday.

Rumors of a big trade between the two clubs have been floating around for several days.

Durocher, one-time manager of Brooklyn, denied that there were any deals pending that involved trading Johnny Mize, first baseman of the Giants, and Eddie Miksis of the Dodgers.

Yarosz Challenges World Champ Mills

LONDON, April 5 (AP)—Back in 1934 when Trainer Ray Arcel handled middleweight champion Teddy Yarosz he taught a little shaver how to box. The 12-year-old eager beaver was Teddy's brother, Tommy.

Today Arcel challenged world light heavyweight champion Freddie Mills of England to meet Tommy Yarosz for the title.

Arcel, manager and trainer of the 27-year-old Army veteran from Monaca, Pa., asked for the title shot after Yarosz defeated Dave Sands, Australian triple champion, in a 10-round bout in Harringay arena last night.

Ovation Thunders

A sellout crowd of 10,600 gave the skillful American a thunderous ovation for his upset triumph of the Australian middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight champion.

"Tommy has established himself right here in the home town of Freddie Mills, the champion," Arcel said after the fight. "I'm challenging Mills on behalf of Tommy and if anyone disputes this challenge let him climb into the ring with Yarosz."

Mills was away in South Africa. His manager Ted Broadribb was at ringside but paid no attention.

Freddie currently has his eye on the world heavyweight title vacated by Joe Louis. He meets British Bruce Woodcock in London, June 2.

Thrills English Fans

The lanky Pennsylvanian thrilled the English fans with a fast left jab and with his counter-punching—two things that figure high in the British boxing book. Yarosz had a 165 to 160 weight edge.

The capacity crowd paid around $60,000 to see the American master the touted Australian. They also saw another Yank, Tony Janiro, stop Gwyn Williams of Wales in the eighth round of another scheduled ten.

Janiro, baby-faced belter from Youngstown, O., lost a close decision here to Henry Hall, British welter champion, last February. Last night the 151-pound Janiro took no chances on the referee. He decked Williams for seven in the second round and floored him three times for eight in the eighth.

Ex-Brooklyn Fireman Will Do Relief Duty

SAN ANTONIO, April 5 (AP) — Hugh Casey, the ex-Brooklyn fireman, will have a lot of relief duty for the Pittsburgh Pirates this season but Manager Billy Meyers says it will be only for very short stretches.

He says Casey is most effective when he has only one to four innings of relief to hurl. If Meyers' plans work out he'll use Kirby Higbe, another former Brooklyn pitcher, for the long-distance relief chores.

Lamesa Loboes To Make First Home Appearance Friday

LAMESA, April 5 (Special) — Lamesa Loboes make their first home appearance of the 1949 baseball season with a workout Friday, April 8, and another the following day. Since March 21, they have been in spring training at Ballinger under their new player-manager, Jay Haney.

A tentative, 10-game exhibition schedule has been announced with the first home practice contest set for April 14 with Abilene. Lamesa opens the WT-NM season at home with Albuquerque April 20.

Players Named

Players on the roster now include outfielders Jay Haney, Dan Pinto, and Leo Rheingans. In the infield are Glenn Coates, Henry Melillo, Walter Buckel, Eddie Mellilo, and Reiger. The pitchers include Bill Jones, Stanley Grzywacz, Leon Hayes, Paul Sooke, Joe Locke, Allen Jesne, Dale Drues, Lary Williams, Tyler Pryor, Finley, and Pruitt.

The exhibition schedule calls for games away from home with Midland, April 7; Abilene, April 10, San Angelo, April 11-12; and Post, April 16. Home games include Abilene, April 14; Midland, April 15; Big Spring, April 17, and Post here April 18.

Idalou, Roosevelt Play Softball Games

IDALOU, April 5 (Special) — Two softball games were played between Roosevelt and Idalou's seventh and eight grade boys and girls teams here yesterday.

The local girls defeated the visitors, 39-14, while the boys were defeated, 10-7.

Power at the plate led to the overwhelming victory by the girls, and each Idalou player hit at least one home run.

Errors by the Idalou boys proved to be the deciding factor in the outcome of their game, which was close all the way.

Next Wednesday afternoon the teams go to the Roosevelt school for a return match to be played at 1 o'clock.

Players on the Idalou girls team include Mavaline Underwood, Sandra Johnson, Patricia Derrick, Norma Sue Boyd, Rita Jones, Barbara Johnson, Norma Jean Jacobs, Greta Heck, Doris Jean Harris, and Nelia Mae King.

Playing for the boys are Gene Reid, Jimmie Joiner, Billy Sisk, Lawrence Ray, Pete Wilbanks, Billy Jacobs, James Dawson, Charles Perry, and Arthur Newton.

Tarpon Rodeo Opens Thursday In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, April 5 (AP)— The eighth tarpon rodeo starts April 7 in waters which claim the biggest tarpon ever taken.

American fishermen turn out in force for the Tampico rodeo and four of the existing records are held by them.

The three-day meet at Tampico will be followed by the Acapulco sailfish rodeo April 21-23 and the Veracruz deep sea fishing tournament May 2-4. The Guaymas deep sea tournament on the west coast will be held next fall, Oct. 3-5.

The biggest tarpon on record, according to the Tampico tournament officials, was 247 pounds, taken Feb 24, 1938. However, the biggest ever taken during a tournament was Augusto Eichlmann's 169½ pound fish which won the 1943 contest. Eichelmann, of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, presented a special challenge cup to go to any fisherman who takes a bigger tarpon during a tournament.

There will be six regular prizes in addition to the Eichelmann trophy. Any boy whose first tarpon is over 74 pounds also will get a cup.

"As a general blanket provision, tarpon shall be caught in a sportsmanlike manner, which means they shall not be shot, drowned, beached or harpooned," the rules read.

SWC Teams Schedule Two Doubleheaders

(By The Associated Press)

If the weather permits, two doubleheaders involving Southwest conference teams will be unreeled today.

Rice and Texas are supposed to meet twice at Austin in a conference game and Baylor and Nebraska are scheduled at Waco in a non-conference series.

Rain and cold yesterday postponed opening games.

Dodger Chief Seems To Have Settled On Regular Outfield

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 5.—It looked today as if Manager Barney Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers has settled upon a regular outfield.

After experimenting all through the spring training campaign with almost as many trios as the Brooks have played games, Shotton apparently has decided on Cal Abrams, Duke Snider and Carl Furillo as his first string picketmen.

He played the three for the second day in a row yesterday, as the Brooks thumped the Dallas Eagles of the Texas league, 8-3. Morris Martin and Erv Palica shared the Brooklyn pitching assignment.

Porterfield, hurling as thought it were the middle of the season, set the Cincinnati Reds down with one hit in fashioning a 2-0 shutout for the Bronx crew yesterday.

Stengel is busting out all over with good pitching. Added to Porterfield's workmanlike chore, were the recent fine performances of Joe Page, Wally Hood and Tom Byrne.

El Paso—Leo Durocher, manafer of the New York Giants, seemed determined today to get Jack Lohrke into the line-up to stay.

Lohrke, who has been belting the ball at better than a .400 clip in Grapefruit league games, played second base, a relatively strange position, yesterday as the Giants outslugged the Cleveland Indians, 15-10.

Clint Hartung, the pitcher-outfielder, was banged for a dozen hits in the first round rounds, and continue to be one of Durocher's main problems.

MAKES PREDICTION

ORLANDO, Fla., April 5 (U.P.)— Manager Joe Kuhel, whose Washington Senators have been beset with wholesale injuries this spring, predicted today his club would be in good physical shape when they open the regular season against the Philadelphia Athletics, April 18.

AAU Fight Tourney Enters Second Day

BOSTON, April 5 (U.P.) — The mass-production national AAU boxing tournament wearily wheeled into its second day of action at noon today with the only defending champion, Eugene Linscott of Grand Rapids, Mich., up against rugged competition.

The 147-pound left hander knocked off two of his flailing adversaries as the mammoth show was launched yesterday. But in his division were some of the tournament's most promising fighters.

There were a total of 69 bouts reeled off yesterday, and 19 ended in knockouts. Because of the entry list, a whopping 184, some fighters had to box twice yesterday and then come back for the noon beginning today.

Five football teams have had point-a-minute records. They were Phillips, 1922, Missouri Mines, 1914, Georgia Tech, 1918, and Henry Kendall, in 1919 and 1920.

Hike In Air Force Funds Is Proposed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The House appropriations committee was reported today to have agreed to an $800,000,000 boost in the funds President Truman asked for the Air Force.

Committee sources said the group made up the difference by turning down the President's request for $800,000,000 to finance a program of compulsory military training.

Decision Review Set

The committee action, long forecast, is subject to review at a meeting tentatively called for next Saturday.

The move was recommended by a five-man subcommittee handling funds for the armed forces for the 12 months starting July 1.

Congressional advocates of a big Air Force said the increase in funds would mean 57 full groups of planes instead of the 48 contemplated in the President's budget. There are 59 skeletonized groups now in operation.

Members said the subcommittee took the position that funds could not be provided for universal military training because Congress has not formally authorized that program.

Budget Reduction Seen

They said the President's overall defense budget of more than $14,500,000,000 for next year will be reduced slightly despite the boost in Air Force funds.

This presumably will be accomplished by slashes in Army and Navy defense programs.

Congressional friends of the Navy already are mapping plans to try to restore funds for naval aviation when the defense money bill comes before the House for debate next week.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House armed services committee said he was pleased with the reported committee action. Vinson's group is on record for an Air Force which eventually would reach 70-group strength. A bill to bring that about has been passed by the House.

Woman Charged With Murder After Fight

DALLAS, April 24 (AP)—Gladys Harvy, 35, has been charged with murder after a Sunday night knife fight between two stylishly-dressed women on a downtown Dallas street.

Mrs. Muriel Celeste Bevil was fatally stabbed in the fight, which began shortly after she and Miss Harvey had parked their expensive late-model cars.

Burglars

Oklahoma, it was announced by the sheriff's department. Rutherford is under two felony indictments here charging swindling by worthless checks, officials further said. Sheriff Grady Harrist, who had dictated numerous letters since 1945 to peace officers in Texas and Oklahoma towns in his efforts to have Rutherford arrested, planned to leave today to accept custody of the prisoner in Oklahoma City.

Rutherford has an FBI misdemeanor record dating back to 1937, officials said.

Harrist, en route home, will accept custody in Amarillo of a prisoner named in a misdemeanor charge.

Prisoners Transferred

Prison transfer agents accepted custody here today of five prisoners, three of whom had been delivered here Monday by Sheriff Hugh Freeman of Bailey county to be held for the transfer agents.

Those removed were: Louis Marvin (Jug) Simmons, 35, of Plainview, sentenced to two years for forgery; S. D. Dick, 41, of Lubbock, who violated terms of a conditional release; and three Muleshoe men: James William Lee, 34, William E. Speights, 32, and William Monroe Vinson, 41.

City Detectives Lee Rice, jr., and L. W. Forrester obtained forgery and passing confessions after questioning two juvenile boys. They referred the case to John W. Wilson, city-county juvenile counsellor, it was announced. Two checks, each for $8.50 were written and passed to start the investigation, officials said.

E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, said the officers had displayed "marked resourcefulness" in working out the case.

"This office asked Rice and Forrester three weeks ago if they could help us in the case," he said. "We had nothing to give them for a clue—had only a check which showed a sample of handwriting.

"The men reasoned from the well shaped characters that the suspects were young students. They confirmed this by matching the writing after inspection of hundreds of samples of writing, much of its examination papers in a city school.

"Once they had matched the writing, they telephoned a student who readily admitted his role. At the police station he telephoned the other boy and told him: " 'Come on down; they got me'."

A 1941 Ford coach, license AR 379, was stolen from O. L. Fulenwider of Olton while the vehicle was parked at Broadway and Ave. N, he told police.

MARKET SEE-SAWS

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP) — The stock market closed on an indecisive note today after a session of see-saw price movements.

Most changes were fractional, with plus and minus signs well distributed. A handful of issues attracted above-normal interest because of specific news developments.

A fair amount of business was done. Turnover was at the rate of around 900,000 shares for the full session, or about even with yesterday's 920,000.

Dupont jumped around 4 points at one to a new 1949 high but the gain was later shaded.

Consolidated Vultee also reached a 1949 peak following word of additional U. S. orders for long-range bombers. Also at a peak for the year during the day was Western Air lines.

Profit-taking clipped many oil stocks following yesterday's run-up but this was well taken and some managed to climb a bit.

Tending upward were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, American Telephone, Consolidated Natural Gas, U. S. Gypsum, Santa Fe, Sinclair Oil and Mission Corp.

Balky spots included Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Phelps Dodge Copper, Westinghouse Electric, J. C. Penney, American Woolen, Texas Pacific Land Trust (up for a while on a favorable earnings statement) and Pure Oil.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP) — Cotton futures registered small declines today in slow dealings. Scattered hedging and liquidation were absorbed through mill buying and short covering. Most traders awaited action by Congress on ECA funds and declaration views on farm price supports by Secretary of Agriculture.

Cotton futures turned steady in late dealing on increased trade covering for mill and export account, along with short covering.

Futures closed unchanged to 20 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Air Force Orders 36 More B-36 Bombers

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP) — The Air Force announced today it is ordering 36 additional long-range B-36 bombers and five more B-47 high-speed jet bombers.

It has cancelled an order for 43 B-54 six-engined bombers, diverting the money to the new orders.

The B-36, built by Consolidated-Vultee, is powered with six conventional-type engines and is designed for a 10,000-mile range. With the new order, the Air Force will have about 160 B-36s delivered or on order.

The B-47 Boeing, classed as a light bomber, holds the transcontinental speed record. Powered with six jets, the B-47 is rated at above 500 miles an hour, with a radius of action of over 800 miles. The Air Force now has two B-47s, and has ten production models on order. The new orders bring to 17 the total number ordered or delivered.

Liquor Violation Case Is Underway

B. D. Spencer, about 40, was being tried today on a country court charge of possession of beer (five cases) for purpose of sale. The state had almost completed its evidence when Judge Walter Davies declared a noon recess.

County Attorney Waggoner Carr and assistant County Attorney Dudley Brummett had called five witnesses: Leon Bowman, Charles A. Talley and Fred Prestage, all inspectors of the Texas Liquor Control board; Mrs. Floe Swenson, chief deputy county clerk; and Dep. Sheriff Raymond Land.

Land's testimony sought to establish Spencer as the same person convicted in April of 1947 in a similar case. That evidence was put on by the state in support of efforts to invoke an enhanced penalty in the case being tried.

Spencer is represented by John Steele, former county attorney.

Atlantic Pact

cil can be taken until the treaty comes into force, but plans for the organization and the defense committee under it can be worked out ahead of time.

The actual enforcement of the pact depends on its being ratified by the seven nations which originally drafted it. That, in turn, depends mainly upon its approval by two-thirds of the U. S. Senate because without senate consent the President cannot formally declare this nation's full adherence to the Allies.

In addition to the United States, the other nations which must ratify the pact are Britain, Canada, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. The other five which signed the pact here yesterday were Norway, Denmark, Iceland, Portugal and Italy.

Officials On Hand

The signing ceremony was held in the government's departmental auditorium before an audience composed largely of diplomats, members of Congress and top government officials. There was some unhappiness on Capitol Hill that all members of Congress were not invited until almost the last minute.

Including the speeches the ceremony took less than two hours. The actual signing of the historic document, which gives a new turn to the course of post-war world history, required approximately 12 minutes.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson signed for the United States with Mr. Truman and Vice President Alben Barkley standing at his right hand.

The first signature was affixed by Belgium's Premier and Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, who was called to the front of the rostrum by Acheson, acting as master of ceremonies, immediately after Mr. Truman spoke.

Peace Theme Sounded

The President, like all 12 of the foreign ministers, sounded the theme of peace as embracing the major purpose of the new alliance.

"In this pact," he said, "we hope to create a shield against aggression and the fear of aggression—a bulwark which will permit us to get on to the real business of government and society, the business of achieving a fuller and happier life for our citizens."

Mr. Truman called the pact signing a "milestone in history" at a dinner given last night for the foreign ministers. At the same dinner, Prime Minister Spaak gave a toast "to President Truman and to the American people for their aid and generosity."

Mr. Truman, in his talk at the late afternoon signing ceremony, called the pact a simple document, but added:

"If it had existed in 1914 and in 1939, supported by the nations which are represented here today, I believe it would have prevented the acts of aggression which led to two World wars."

Mr Truman asserted that today "war is not inevitable" and added, "we do not believe that there are blind tides of history which sweep men one way or the other."

The "voluntary association of free nations," he said, provides the means by which the ends of peace may be achieved.

Max Heckel of New York, a cousin of the hermit, is aligned against nine nieces and nephews, contending they are not entitled to inherit the money because they are German citizens.

Nash Follows Trend With Car Price Cut

DETROIT, April 5 (AP) — The downward movement in car prices continues.

Effective last midnight, Nash-Kelvinator Corp. announced a reduction of $20 to $120 on its two series of cars.

The announcement came on the heels of a similar cut by Ford. In the four weeks previously Kaiser-Frazer, Willys Overland and General Motors had cut prices.

Greater availability of materials, increased production volume, reductions in materials costs and uninterrupted production were given as the reasons for the Nash reductions.

Israel Parliament Approves Armistice

TEL AVIV, Israel, April 5 (AP) —The Israeli government won a vote of confidence last night after a stormy five-hour debate featured by bitter attacks from left and right on the armistice agreement with Trans-Jordan. The parliament also voted to ratify the armistice.

Opponents of Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion charged the armistice gave tacit recognition to incorporation of large areas of Palestine into King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan.

A foreign office spokesman said the armistice was a purely military settlement and that political questions would be settled later in a formal peace treaty.

The opposition to the government split in the voting. The government won the vote of confidence 64 to 15, with nationalist former Irgunists and Stern gang members voting against. Communists and left-wing Mapam party members abstained.

A motion by Mapam not to ratify the armistice was defeated 68 to 17. Mapam and the Communists voted for it. The nationalist elements abstained.

Vet Bonus

$200 to $500, except that prisoners of war and dependents of deceased veterans could draw up to $750.

The plan would be based on payment of $10 for each month of service within the continental United States and $15 for each month overseas.

Benton, replying to a question by Rep. Raymond Tatum of Huntington, said he would "gladly" agree to submission of a specific plan of taxation along with his amendment to raise the estimated $300,000,000 necessary to cover the bonus payment.

No Details Offered

However, he did not specify what type of taxation he would favor.

Rep. Jack Ridgeway of San Antonio, opposing Benton's move, said that members of the constitutional amendments committee had been submitted to insulting remarks by witnesses who appeared in favor of the bonus measure at the March 23 hearing.

The house, after granting Benton's request, defeated by a vote of 64 to 53 a proposal by Rep. Douglas Bergman of Dallas that the amendment be transferred to the liquor traffic regulation committee.

the chair and his personalized picture postcards along the way—with some crippled children's organization.

Thus far, Lebow said, he has sent back $170 for a special bank account in Clovis. That's money that people have paid him for his picture along the route from Clovis to Fort Worth, via Lubbock, Seymour, Olney and Jacksboro.

Lebow travels about 18 or 20 miles a day in his wheel chair, which is equipped with a spare innertube, a speedometer and mileage indicator and water and coffee thermos bottles. He also has a small battery - operated portable radio.

He wheels along the pavement, facing traffic. If an approaching driver doesn't pull out some distance to give plenty of room in passing then Lebow steers onto the road shoulder.

But traffice worries him little. Many of the motorists stop and want to talk, or give him a ride, or help in some other way.

"So we stop and talk awhile for I'm not in any hurry; I got lots of time," Lebow said.

Hills don't bother him, either going up or down—"if I get tired going up a hill, I just pull off and stop and rest awhile."

country."

He said that for the current trial of 12 Communist leaders in New York, the FBI prepared a 1,500-page report on the party's activities.

The FBI investigates everybody who tries to get a job with the Atomic Energy Commission, Hoover said. Up to the end of last year, it had been asked to make 128,000 investigations and had completed 120,000 of them.

A leading biochemist who sought an important laboratory job was found to be a card-carrying member of the Communist party, Hoover related, adding: "Obviously that man was not cleared for appointmen.."

He said the FBI found that a professor assigned to atomic energy research at a western university lived with Communist students, and was the son of a Communist organizer who had run for office as a Communist, and had been in charge of sales for the Daily Worker, Communist party newspaper.

"Even a half dozen or a dozen of this type of person, placed in strategic positions, could do irreparable harm to the security of this country," Hoover commented.

PART OF $884,660 RECOVERED

New York Banker Is Arrested By FBI

(By The United Press)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 5.—Richard Henderson Crowe, 40-year-old New York banker who disappeared March 27 with $884,660 from his bank, was captured here last night.

Crowe, an assistant branch manager of the National City bank of New York, surrendered without a struggle in a Daytona bar to agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and local authorities.

Some Loot Recovered

He told officers he had spent his time as a fugitive at this beach resort lounging on the sunny beach and visiting numerous bars.

FBI agents said they recovered $54,798.63 of the loot he took from a branch office of the New York bank.

The money was discovered in a suitcase in the Daytona Beach apartment where Crowe had been hiding since last Saturday under the name of Richard Karr.

Another $36,505 of the stolen money had been recovered previously. And $39,850 more has been located but not recovered.

Arrest Moves Secret

Secrecy surrounded Crowe's arrest. Special FBI Agent Edwin H. Duff told reporters here that he had been ordered personally by FBI Agent J. Edgar Hoover in Washington to refer all questions on the arrest directly to Hoover or to Special Agent Crawford Carson in charge of the Miami FBI office.

Local police at Daytona professed to be in the dark about whether Crowe was even in the Daytona jail.

Carson disclosed at Miami that Crowe will be arraigned at Tampa, Fla. — 150 miles across the peninsula on the west coast—between 2 and 3 p. m. today.

Her home was at Stephenville. Cause of death was ascribed to pneumonia.

Survivors, other than Mrs. Hicks, include another daughter, Mrs. Oscar Allen of Stephenville; a son, J. R. Roberts of Houston; a brother, E. L. Edwards of Stephenville; two sisters, Mrs. Addie Bowden of Stephenville and Mrs. Tom Bellamy of Littlefield; and four grandchildren.

Baseball Stars

right now is about 210—or nearly 10 pounds overweight—but by the time the regular season opens that should be ok. In fact, I think our Tucson training camp did all the boys a lot of good. Except for the last three or four days, we had warm weather there all the way, and we got in plenty of work."

Wynn, who is 29, went from Washington to the Indians last winter with Vernon, in exchange for Joe Haynes, Ed Klieman, Ed Robinson and a reported bundle of cash. With Cleveland, he expects to improve on his 1948 record of eight victories and 19 defeats with the feeble Washington club. Actually, the 1948 record doesn't reflect his true ability. He was the workhorse of the Washington staff, and was considered good enough to open the 1948 season against New York—an honor a manager usually delegates to the hurler whom he considers his ace.

Staff Strengthened

Wynn's addition to the Cleveland mound staff strengthened an already impressive hurling corps that includes Bob Feller, Gene Bearden, Bob Lemon, Steve Gromek, Sam Zoldak, Frank Papish, "Satchel" Paige, and Don Black.

Of this group, Kennedy, an outfielder who can also do a neat job at third base when the occasion arises, says, "It's the best pitching staff in the league, without a doubt. We've also got the best defense. With superior pitching and defense, I think we can afford to gamble on our hitting. If injuries don't hurt us, we should do ok."

Kennedy saw considerable duty with the Indians last season after he came to them in a trade which sent Pat Seerey and Al Gettel to Chicago. Earlier, he played with Shreveport in the Texas league, under Francis (Salty) Parker, who had managed a graet Lubbock Hubber team in 1939.

Friend Of Len Heinz

The handsome Kennedy also is a good friend of Len Heinz, former Hubber pitcher who now has retired from organized baseball to devote his full efforts to a well-paying position with a Chicago steel corporation.

The special train carrying the two teams arrived more than an hour behind schedule, and consequently only four of the stars were able to attend the autograph party, proceeds of which went to the local American Legion baseball fund. Wynn, Kennedy and Mitchell, who is rated one of the most promising young outfielders in the American loop, spent nearly an hour at the store, signing autographs and chatting freely with youthful and adult fans. Vernon the 1946 league batting champ, arrived a half-hour later than the others, but still filled his quota in the autograph department before departing for the team's hotel.

The Sports Center party had all the appearance of an "old-timers reunion," as ex-Senators Wynn and Vernon talked over bygone days with Sam West, co-proprietor of the store who formerly was a Washington player and coach.

Other members of the Giant and Indian squads, pressed for time, went directly from the local Santa Fe station to their hotel.

Hospital Fire

chaplain, Father Sandon, was reported dead. Two nuns and a nurse were reported missing.

"The latest estimate of dead is from 50 on — but probably not more than 60," said Lieut. Nelson Page, in charge of the Illinois state police in the Effingham area.

Earlier, Police Chief J. H. Green said: "There's just no way of telling how many people died in the fire." He added, "the toll is heavy. There's never been a tragedy like this in Effingham all the years I can remember."

There was wild confusion at the scene as scores of persons leaped from their flaming rooms. Police said that many of those who jumped were killed.

Police said that at least eight babies, in the nursery on the second floor, were burned to death. So were nine elderly men and women who occupied the top floor. Some sisters of the Order of St. Francis, in charge of the hospital, also perished, police said. They were asleep in their rooms when the fire, believed to have started in a laundry chute, swept up an elevator shaft and enveloped the entire building.

Aids In Rescue Work

Karl Alt, 66, who lives across the street from the hospital, in the northwest residential section of the south central Illinois community, and a neighbor, aided in the rescue of between 12 and 15 persons.

There were more than 100 persons in the 125-bed hospital, police said. The injured were removed to their homes or to a clinic.

Ben Beiderhorn, 38, a male nurse at the hospital, said he was awakened by a sister who told him she smelled smoke coming out of the clothes chute.

"I went out there and it seemed like the place was a whole bath of flame. Then I headed for the elevator, but it wouldn't work. I ran to the roof and called to the patients. Altogether maybe I helped 12 of them escape.

"There were about 30 patients on the third floor. I don't believe any of them got out," Beiderhorn said.

Eight New-Born Infants

He said there were at least eight new-born infants in the maternity ward and that "as far as I know they died along with the sister who remained with them."

Two women in the delivery room when the fire broke out both gave birth after escaping. Mrs. Arnold Aderman, 24, jumped from a second floor window. She was taken to a nearby home where she gave birth. The other woman, Mrs. Wenston Sidner of St. Elmo, was taken to a clinic where her child was born.

An unidentified priest also estimated that 50 persons died as the flames spread quickly through the 125-bed, 40-year-old brick structure.

"When I reached the hospital, it was a solid mass of flames," Green said.

Only The Walls Remain

Green said that at 4 a. m. (CST), four hours after the fire broke out, firemen were unable to recover any of the bodies in the rubble. He said only the walls of the building remained. He did not know how long before firemen could make attempts to remove the victims.

There was wild confusion at the scene. Hundreds of persons in the community of some 8,000 rushed to the hospital. Many joined in rescuing some of the patients.

American Politburo Controlled By Moscow Has Ruled Reds In U. S., Witness Claims

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—An American politburo dominated by Moscow has ruled the Communist party of the United States by totalitarian control, a government witness testified yesterday.

Ex-Communist Louis F. Budenz said the politburo conducted national conventions and national committee meetings merely to accept decisions of "the leader." Budenz did not mention the "leader" by name.

Under defense cross-examination for the third day in the conspiracy trial of eleven top Communist leaders, Budenz said the politburo "edited" official party records to keep facts from party members and the public.

Would Pay Debt

The defendants—charged with conspiracy to teach and advocate forcible overthrow of the government — were members of the American politburo at the time of the alleged conspiracy.

Budenz conceded—with reservations—that he owed the Daily worker about $900 when he quit as managing editor of the Red newspaper in 1945 and returned to the Roman Catholic church.

He said he would be "glad" to repay the money if the Daily Worker would settle with him for expenses he claimed.

Defense lawyers brought up the financial matter in an effort to attack the credibility of the witness, who had testified five days for the government.

Budenz, who served the party in several responsible posts between 1935 and 1945, testified that he had fixed things to quit the party "before they knew I was leaving."

Party Expels Dissidents

"The Communists have a slogan—you cannot leave the Communist party voluntarily. You must be expelled," he explained.

Claiming he had succeeded in quitting "very cleverly," he said: "They were taken by surprise, for my name was still on the Daily Worker masthead the day I was received in the Catholic church at St. Patrick's cathedral."

Budenz said that if he had told the Communists he was leaving the party, "they would have smeared me." He added that they had smeared him anyway.

Judge Harold R. Medina again rebuked defense counsel for delaying tactics as the 12-week-old trial went through its 47th session. He told the defense lawyers:

"If you have any notion that this trial is going on for years, I might just as well tell you now—it is not going to happen."

Rule Laid Down

"I now rule," he said, ". . . that from now on in matters of evidence, counsel shall merely say 'I object,' and only state their grounds when the court indicates."

In describing how the Communist party was controlled when he was a member, Budenz said members of the national committee were elected by the national convention, but these elections were subject to the power of the politburo. The politburo could remove members from the committee or add members to it, he said.

Budenz description of Communist national conventions was similar to Nazi and Fascist meetings. "The entire proceedings were never published," he said. "The party had no parliamentary law."

Richard Gladstein, a defense lawyer, argued that there was nothing unusual about such such "editing," but Judge Medina said it seemed "very queer" to him.

Budenz testified that a Communist national review commission—still in existence—"pried into the private lives of party members by questioning other members" to maintain party "discipline" and "loyalty."

Woman Doomed To Die Offered Services Of Heart Association

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 5 (U.P.)—Mrs. Heart, doomed to die within a year, was in seclusion today despite an offer of an expert examination by the New York Heart association which might save her life.

She said medical authorities have told her she will die of a heart ailment within 12 months.

The 51-year-old widow said she did not want to reveal her identity. But she admitted she had decided to seek further medical advice.

Mrs. Heart appealed through the Daily Oklahoman last week for aid in spending $10,000 "to have the most fun" in her final 12 months. Three days later, overwhelmed by the number of replies, she went to a sanitorium in a neighboring city.

Only the Oklahoman knew Mrs. Heart's identity. She preferred to remain anonymous, she said, because she didn't want her friends to sympathize because she was going to die. The newspaper zealously guarded her secret.

Yesterday the Oklanoman received a letter from Mrs. Louis Baer, vice-chairman of the New York Heart association.

"We want you to keep the $10,000 and live for 50 years," she wrote.

Advised of Mrs. Heart's staunch desire to remain anonymous, Mrs. Baer made a second offer.

"The association will keep your identity secret if your doctor agrees to consultation and diagnosis," she said in a telegram to the Oklahoman. "I repeat my offer of consultation and diagnosis at no cost to you."

Composer Plans To Marry Swimmer

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 5 (AP) — Jimmy McHugh, 54-year-old composer of "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," announced today he plans to wed statuesque Anita Lhoest, 17-year-old swimmer.

McHugh, sponsor of the annual southern California AAU open swimming and diving championships, and the blonde Miss Lhoest became acquainted through their mutual interests in music and aquatics.

Miss Lhoest, in addition to holding the national senior 100-yard individual medley swim record, is an accomplished cellist.

Benefit Movie Will Be Staged By Club

La Cercle Francais, French club at Texas Tech, will sponsor a benefit movie, "Le Collier de la Reine," which will be shown at 3 p. m. and at 7 p. m. Thursday and Friday in the Extension auditorium at the college.

Mrs. Beatrice Alexander, French instructor, said the money raised would go to the Americans Aid to France, Inc., which is assisting Centre National des Oeuvres with its program of aid to French students. The program is helping to provide the students with lodging, restaurants, clothing, student sanitoriums, student unions, employment bureaus and vocational guidance centers, she added.

The movie itself, the title of which means "The Queens Necklace" in English, is a highly engrossing historical picture photographed at Versaille palace. The story, which was written by Alexandre Dumas, tells of a tragic plot involving the famous Marie Antoinette. It is in French with English sub-titles.

Tickets for the movie may be purchased in a booth in the lobby of the Hilton hotel. The price of admission is 35 cents per person.

India expects to have full government food control reimposed by next October.

Paternity Settlement Ruled Not Mandatory

LOS ANGELES, April 5 (AP) — Superior court rules that Mrs. Gloria Schumm doesn't have to accept a $20,000 settlement from actor Wallace Beery who she claims, fathered her child.

Judge William B. McKesson held yesterday that Mrs. Schumm, 33, film bit player, must decide the matter for herself.

Mrs. Schumm said she does not want to accept it. She claims Beery, 64, is the father of her son, Johan, 13 months old. Attorneys had asked the court to compel her to accept the settlement in her paternity suit against the actor.

Mrs. Schumm, known in films as Gloria Whitney, seeks to discharge her attorneys, M. B. Harper and Milton D. Klein, who asked that the settlement be approved. Her new attorney, Maurice Rose, objected to the agreement.

The case will be tried May 25.

Leading Bulgarian Communist Ousted On Charge Of Intrigue

SOFIA, Bulgaria, April 5. (AP)—The Bulgarian Communist party central committee today announced the ousting of Traicho Kostov as deputy premier and member of the politburo, the No. 1 Communist party group in the land.

Kostov, a top flight Bulgarian Communist, was accused of intrigue and double dealing to cause trouble with Soviet Russia and foment trouble, also, at home.

He also was stripped of a third post, presidency of the economic and financial committee.

Under House Arrest

(The official Yugoslav news agency, Tanjug, in a broadcast heard in London said 300 state and Communist party leaders have been arrested in Bulgaria on spy charges, and that Kostov is involved in the case. Tanjug said he is under house arrest.

(Tanjug, which reported Kostov's expulsion from Bulgaria's politburo Friday, described a roundup of persons accused of the Bulgars of being "in the spy service of imperialist states.")

Announcing its disciplinary action, the central committee accused Kostov of attempting to foment "distrust and suspicions in relations between the Bulgarian Communist party and the Soviet Communist party (the Russians)."

Helped On Trade Pact

It charged him with "insincere and unfriendly policy" toward Russia in trade negotiations between the two countries, and a variety of other offenses, including trouble-making between the Bulgarian Communist central committee and the politburo. He had a big hand in shaping a $87,000,000 trade agreement between Russia and Bulgaria in July, 1947.

Other accusations against him which the committee upheld were gross political errors and errors against the party, and improper methods of leadership and nationalistic deviations.

Kostov had served as a deputy premier since March, 1946, when he was promoted from minister of electrification. He kept the deputy premiership through cabinet reorganizations in November, 1946, and December, 1947.

Story Unconfirmed

He long has been recognized as a leader. As long ago as August, 1945, when U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes criticized the post-war trend in Bulgaria, it was Kostov who answered him. He contended Brynes was misinformed by enemies of the Bulgarian people.

Since Kostov was active in trade negotiations with Russia, it is possible that he incurred the Kremlin's wrath by demanding more favorable trade terms for his country than the Russians were willing to grant.

There has been no clue from behind the iron curtain as to the story behind his troubles, and observers can only conjecture. They know, however, that Yugoslavia —one of Bulgaria's neighbors— has charged for months that the Russians exploit other Communist countries which fall into their orbit.

The stress the Bulgarian Communist central committee laid on charges that Kostov tried to cause a split with Russia conceivably could indicate that he was ousted on orders from the Kremlin.

M.; Jessie Crawford of South Gate, Calif., and Billie Keffer of Phoenix, Ariz.; 35 grandchildren and 91 great grandchilden and 11 great great grandchildren.

THE QUESTION
What caused you to choose Texas Tech as the college you would attend?

THE ANSWERS

MISS ELAINE FELIX—Drane hall, freshman from Galveston: "It was hearing persons describe it. You hear a lot about Tech. I read the catalogue and I liked the annual. My aunt, Mrs. T. J. Settle, jr., formerly lived here. I thought I would like to live in the dormitory."

GEORGE MORRIS, West hall, freshman from Seymour: "I just thought it was a good school and we had visited out here a few times and had seen the school. I had a lot of friends up here from Seymour."

MISS JOANNE BOYD, Dormitory No. 4, freshman from Odessa: "The main reason I came is that my art teacher at home last year recommended this as a good place to get a commercial art degree."

FRED EDDINS, 1911 Twentieth, sophomore: "I live here in Lubbock and it would be cheaper for me to go here than to go anywhere else. Also, Tech has about the only textile school this side of the Mississippi."

RALPH CULVER, West hall, freshman from Seymour: "They offer the courses I wanted to take. It's a moderate school in price. It's located so that I don't have any trouble going back and forth to my home."

MISS MARY BYARS TURNER, Dormitory No. 3, freshman from Palestine: "I'm a long way from home, but I wanted to come out this far because I wanted to be on my own and see if I could get along without my folks for a year or two. My parents wanted me to go where I wanted to go my first year."

Bridges Calls Union Huddle

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5 (AP)—Harry Bridges, boasting his CIO longshore union is "left wing," called a closed session today to discuss its relationship with the national CIO.

Bridges frequently has found himself at odds with national headquarters, most recently in his opposition to the Marshall plan and his support of Henry Wallace.

But Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union, was reported in convention circles to be insisting that the organization stick within the CIO framework despite the clash with top CIO officials.

The ILWU is holding its biennial convention.

Bridges told newsmen they would not be admitted to the session.

Arbitrary Moves Charged

"We are going to take our hair down and talk back to each other," he said. "We don't want employers to make a field day of it."

Leader of the opposition to Bridges is James Kearney, president of ILWU local 10 in San Francisco.

In his report to the 200 delegates yesterday Bridges said:

"The national CIO is engaging in arbitrary actions that directly affect the autonomous rights of national CIO unions including the ILWU." He charged the ILWU is systematically excluded from membership on every important standing CIO committee although it is "far from being the smallest union in the national CIO."

Bridges in an address to the convention declared the ILWU is not dedicated to Communism. But, he proclaimed, "we are left wing and we hope to continue that way."

Tech Varsity Show Proves To Be A Hit

'Milestones in Melody," annual Tech varsity show was presented for the first of three performances, to a well pleased crowd of 800 persons in the Lubbock Senior High school auditorium last night.

The show which is produced and directed by students at the college lived up to advance billing by producing a full evening's entertainment of livery singing and dancing.

Dedicated To Dr. Wiggins

The first act of the musical comedy, which was written by Ruth Cook, senior from Orchard, dealt with the antics of two Tech students on vacation in New York. The two students played by David Fawcett and Gordon Hilton, both of Lubbock, kept the audience roaring with the problems they faced in trying to select the right girl from Madam Toujour's date bureau. The girls were presented in various themes of song and dance. Patti Jo Musson and Billie Hutchins both of Lubbock as the 'St. Louis Woman" and 'Rambling Rose" were two highlights in the first act. De Lois Utterback of Amarillo was also very pleasing in her rendition of "Laura."

Between the first and second acts the formal dedication of the first performance was made to Dr D. M. Wiggins, Tech president. Dr. Wiggins said he spoke for the entire cast who had made the show possible in welcoming everyone to this year's varsity show.

"I want to thank each and everyone of you for coming tonight and helping make this show a success," he said.

Dance Takes Spotlight

The second act, composed of the day dream which a veteran janitor at Tech had, was the strong part of the show. "Pops" Greenwood, the janitor was played to perfection by Joe Meador of Matador. Meador kept the crowd laughing with his timely jokes and observations. Especially enjoyable in "Pops" dreams was an "Apache" dance number done by Jimmy Carter of Big Spring and Jo Simmons of Lubbock.

The lead-off number of "Pop's" dream, a dance routine of the Charleston danced to "Yes Sir, That My Baby," very nearly stopped the show. The girls in the Charleston line were Helen Moore, Fort Worth; Betty Willis, Amarillo; Janet Moore, Amarillo; Mary Ruth Norris, Waco; Pat Flanigan, Midland; Carol Sherrod, Lubbock and Jane Armstrong of Wichita Falls. They were called back for two curtain calls.

Another highlight in this act was Farrel Reeder, of Weather-

Municipal Elections Slated In Area

GOP Wins In Michigan Vote

DETROIT, April 5. (AP)—Michigan, which split between Republicans and Democrats last November, rolled back into the GOP column in yesterday's spring election.

As the first state election since the presidential contest last fall, the Michigan balloting was eyed nationally for political trends.

It served also to weigh the CIO's political influence in other than a presidential election year.

Went For Dewey

The state went for G.O.P. Presidential Nominee Thomas E. Dewey last fall but elected a Democratic governor, G. Mennen Williams.

With more than half the state counted unofficially, the Republicans apparently had elected their entire ticket, beating off a Democrat-labor coalition which concentrated in the industrial areas.

Republican Charles M. Ziegler incumbent state highway commissioner, rolled up a margin of 66,000 votes over Democrat John H. McCarthy with 2,933 of the state's precincts reporting. Zieggler was the key target of the Democrats and CIO organization.

Ziegler trailed by 23,000 votes in Wayne (Detroit) county, Democratic stronghold where labor had staged an intensive pre-election doorbell ringing campaign. This was with only 275 of the county's 1,675 precincts unreported.

Victory Is Claimed

Republicans cheered what they claimed was a victory over attempted CIO encroachment on the University of Michigan. The G.O.P. candidates, incumbents Alfred B. Connable and Vera B. Baits were defeating Rosa A. Falk, AFL teachers union member, and Joseph Arsulowicz, CIO-supported Grand Rapids attorney, for posts on the university board or regents.

Democrats had said the vote would show state resentment at GOP "stalling" of Gov. Williams' proggram in the Republican-dominated legislature.

They also predicted it would give the Democrats control of the governor's elected "cabinet"—the state administrative board — but the GOP retained its 5 to 3 advantage there.

In the campaign the GOP made much of what it called "CIO domination" of Gov. Williams and the Democrats.

SECOND NEWCOMER VIEWS CITY

Improvements Are Needed, He Says

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A few days ago, we published a story by an anonymous newcomer, giving his impressions of Lubbock after a month's residence. This newcomer pitched his reactions on the better things. Today we hear from another newcomer, also anonymous. He says he sees a lot of good things about Lubbock — but also some very undesirable conditions which should be cleaned up).

BY ANOTHER NEWCOMER
He Seeks Improvements)

Say, I'm a newcomer to Lubbock, too. No one asked for my opinion but since another new arrival sounded off like he had come to a special section of Heaven, I feel like I ought to have my few words.

The day I got here I was impressed by the fine buildings, the splendid homes in Southwest Lubbock and the extra wide streets. I liked a lot of other things too. However, after a few days, I got a handful of sand out of my eyes and I saw a lot of things I don't like. They are things others don't like too.

First of all I don't think it's safe for anyone who isn't a sprinter to cross these 'big, wide streets! True enough, there are lights at every main intersection, but the drivers don't pay any attention to them. This business of turning right, without stopping, on the red light just makes every pedestrian fair game. There is a decided lack of courtesy shown toward the elderly and the women and children. The motto seems to be 'jump or take the consequences.'

Where Are The Cops?

I am told that Lubbock has a police force. I'm sure they are somewhere, but they are no where in sight when all these traffic law infractions are taking place. Just where the devil are these drivers going that they have to go 'wide open?'

Of course I had to find a home. I looked in the classified ads and jotted down a number of addresses. That was a good start but it was almost as far as I got. When I went to look for the streets and the numbers I really got into trouble. Practically every street marker in town has been obliterated, apparently by vandalism. I finally gave up in disgust because it was too much trouble to stop and ask someone at every corner.

Lubbock has some excellent architecture in her downtown business section. It is marred by tons of trash drifting and blowing around the streets and in the doorways of business houses. It looks as if no one ever thought of putting their discarded papers and trash in containers. Too many people throw them right on the streets or sidewalks.

Now I'm sure that the Chamber of Commerce, the city fathers and the 'leading' citizens 'point with pride' to the fine homes here in Lubbock. I won't deny that they have a good point. But how about all those shacks and squalor on the edges of town? If you have a cancer on the arm it affects the whole body. Slums or inadequate housing facilities are like cancers and they affect the whole city, no matter how you avert your eyes. Don't say it's a necessary evil. It

NEWCOMER NO. 2—An anonymous newcomer to Lubbock today says everything is not all "sweetness and light" in Lubbock. And he advances his arguments why. He declares he sees a lot of good things in our city but lists some very undesirable ones too.

Numerous Towns Over Section Electing New Officials Today

Voters in cities and towns throughout the South Plains today will go to their respective polling places to name mayors, city commissioners, councilmen, and aldermen, depending on each city's particular form of government.

For most communities, today's election will be the second conducted in less than one week's time. Saturday, voters over the area elected school board trustees in their respective school districts, and county trustees.

Candidates in the majority of cases have opposition and better than average interest has been reported in several towns, although no unusually heavy vote is indicated in any of the surrounding counties, a survey showed Monday night. Lubbock does not hold a city election this year.

Matador Slates Election

At Levelland, four commissioners and a mayor are to be elected today. Kenneth Harper, who has been serving as a commisioner, is the only candidate for mayor, and will succeed Ray Watson, who has served as mayor for the past two years. Homer Johnson, incumbent, is unopposed for commissioner from Place 1, while in Place 2, D. N. Bills, incumbent, is opposed by Forrest Jones. C. C. Woodson, sr., incumbent, and Gene Yeager, who seeks the post vacated by Harper, are candidates from Places 3 and 4 respectively.

Three aldermen are to be elected at Matador today. Candidates, none of whom are opposed, are John Briscoe, Loyd Latimer, and Joe Campbell. Two other aldermen and Matador's mayor, Douglas Meador, are not up for re-election at this time.

Lockney Candidates Unopposed

At Lockney, incumbent candidates for municipal posts are unopposed. They include G. M. Brunnier, mayor; J. B. Seale and J. E. Cox, aldermen; and Mrs. Faye Messer, city secretary.

Incumbents who seek re-election in today's election at Post have no opposition. They are John T. Herd, mayor; and Vachel Anderson and Dr. Glenn Kahler, commissioners.

At O'Donnell, three commissioners are to be elected from the following candidates: Paul Mansell, John Earles, J. W. Gates, S. M. Clayton, jr., and J. T. Middleton, sr.

At Ropesville, Walt Fraley, John Flowers, and Sebe Ready seek election to as many aldermen's posts.

Littlefield voters today are to elect a mayor and two commissioners. Names of candidates appearing on the ballots are A. C. Chesher for mayor and Les Hewitt and Lon Campbell for commissioners.

Three places on the Tahoka city council are to be filled today, while two candidates are in the race for mayor. Seeking the council posts are B. L. Parker, incumbent, and Ed Hamilton, A. R. Milliken, J. A. Biggerstaff, William H Wood, and W. B. Strange, jr.

For the Tahoka mayorship, the incumbent, Dr. J. R. Durham, is opposed by Dr. W. A. Schaal.

At Brownfield, three city aldermen's posts are to be filled today. J. B. McKnight and W. G. McDonald are seeking re-election. New candidates are Sam Privitt, Herman Chesshir, Dr. W. A. Roberson, and C. R. Lackey.

At Seagraves, L. P. Anderson, incumbent, and John Pillow are seeking two city commissioners' posts in today's election. Doak Hearne seeks re-election as mayor, and is opposed by C. E. Sherill, and is opposed by C. E. Sherrill, prior to Hearne's term of office.

In today's municipal election at Floydada, five aldermen will be elected, in addition to a mayor, a city secretary, and a city marshal.

Candidates for aldermen are C. M. Thacker, John W. Kimble, J. A. Patterson, Jimmy Willson, Aaron Carthel, Lewis Norman, A. C. Rainer, Clinton E. Fyffe, M. H. Martin, Walton Hale, and J. D. McBrien. For the office of city secretary, the incumbent, B. K. Barker, is opposed by Jake B. Watson. For mayor, F. C. Harmon is unopposed. In the marshal's race, Bob Smith, incumbent, is opposed by Lee Howard, a former county sheriff.

A second election also is scheduled today, at which voters of the Floydada Independent school district will approve or oppose consolidation of the school district with the Starkey school district.

Lorenzo voters today will elect three city councilmen from the following candidates; S. E. Abernathy, Roy Terrell, and James O'D[illegible], all of whom seek re-election; and John R. Green.

At Spur, voters will elect a mayor and two city commissioners today. Ned Hogan is unopposed for the mayorship. Opponents for the office of street commissioner Pynum Britton and Fred Kinney. E. C. McGee is unopposed for the office of water commissioner.

At Hale Center, B. W. Lewis and Walter Struve are opposing M. A. Payne and Carl McMennamy, incumbents, for city council posts. City Secretary Walter T. Lemond, whose term expires this spring, has no opposition.

At Plainview, two city councilmen will be named today from

President Truman Entertains Ministers Of Treaty Nations

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP) — President Truman had the foreign ministers of the Atlantic pact powers—and about 50 other people—out to dinner last night.

Everyone apparently had a fine time. Mr. Truman proposed a toast to the treaty. One of the ministers proposed a toast to Mr. Truman. The Marine orchestra sat in a balcony and played dinner music.

The 39 men and 26 women guests gathered around a big horseshoe table in the Carlton hotel, ate breast of guinea hen and Virginia ham with madeira sauce and mushrooms.

The foreign ministers of 11 nations which joined with the United States in signing the North Atlantic defense treaty were the guests of honor.

Truman Applauded

The President—in tuxedo and black tie—stood up to say:

"May I offer a toast to the Atlantic treaty and its success?

"I think we have really passed a milestone in history today, and I think your children and your grandchildren will tell you that, in the days to come."

He sat down, amidst applause.

After dinner, the President and his guests adjourned to an anteroom where cake and champagne were served. About 60 other guests came in, most of them staff members from the State department and the embassies involved in the pact.

Just before the President and Mrs. Truman left for their living quarters at the Blair house, Prime Minister Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium, standing by Mr. Truman's side, raised his glass.

French Toast Given

Speaking in French, he said he wanted to tell the President on behalf of all present "of the gratitude of those who have crossed the ocean in order to sign the Atlantic pact—how much we owe to the people of the United States and to President Truman for his far-seeing and generous policy."

He said this policy led to construction of the Marshall plan and now "to the assurance of security and peace to the European countries within the framework of the Atlantic pact."

"I offer a toast," he said "to President Truman, and to the American people for their aid and generosity."

Mrs. Truman wore a light blue heavy moire draped silk gown.

She and the President had to give their dinner party at the hotel, a few blocks from the White House because there wasn't enough space at the Blair house. The living quarters at the White House have been closed for repairs.

Changes Due For Airlines

Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 5—Texas feeder airlines won some partial victories Monday from the Civil Aeronautics board, Senator Lyndon Johnson's office announced. Appeals may be made to the board and eventually to a federal court.

Pioneer airlines won an extension of its operating permit for five years but Trans-Texas airways was ordered to suspend operations by May 13, 1950.

Up to now, Pioneer had faced termination of its contract by Nov. 14, 1949.

Schedule Changes Ordered

Some changes in the air schedules of the Southwest along these lines were ordered.

For example, Pioneer was ordered to eliminate its Amarillo to El Paso segment.

Continental airlines was ordered to stop service for Las Vegas, New Mexico for five years.

Braniff's certificate to serve Waco and Lubbock was suspended for five years and American airlines' certificate to serve Midland-Odessa was suspended for five years.

Order Not Explained

(The order by the CAB relating to the suspension of Braniff service to Waco and Lubbock was not fully explained and efforts to reach top officials to determine what was meant by the order were unavailing in Lubbock today.

(Local Braniff personnel said they had not heard of any plans whatsoever to halt Braniff service to Lubbock. In Dallas, Walter Henschel, Braniff information chief, said that the home office had not received an original copy of the "proposal" as yet, and until Braniff's officers, legal experts and research men digest it, can not tell what service changes will be made.

(No local official contacted could see any reason for the Braniff Dallas-Lubbock service being suspended.)

American already had in a petition to suspend service at Abilene and Big Spring which are also served by Pioneer, but no final action was taken on these two cities in today's order.

Pioneer's five-year extension is to continue service on its Houston-to-Amarillo segment, Houston to Dallas, and Dallas to Midland-Odessa. Pioneer received only a one-year extension of its route from Lubbock to Albuquerque.

The five-year extension of Pioneer applies to the Dallas-Waco-Temple portion of the Dallas-Houston segment to Austin with the addition of Temple and Bryan as the alternate intermediate points between Austin and Houston on the Houston to Amarillo segment.

Pioneer's route will also be modified by the addition of segments of Trans-Texas' route between Dallas and Houston, and Dallas and San Angelo by a certain intermediate point.

The decision was handed down in the board's survey of the nation's air routes. One purpose of the study was to eliminate smaller cities from the big lines and give these cities to feeder lines.

The board said while it felt so far feeder lines had not demonstrated that they could be commercially self-sustaining, at the same time they had demonstrated a definite contribution to the nation's air and postal service. No specific feeder line was singled out as making this contribution but each was taken as an individual case.

War Bride Appeals To Governor After Her Husband Arrested On Black Market Charge

MISHAWAKA, Ind., April 5 (INS)—A French war bride forced to work to support her two children folowing seizure of her war-veteran husband on "black market" charges appealed to Indiana's governor today.

The wife, Mrs. Jacqueline Bird, said she had been turned down by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the Army provost marshal, Maj. Gen. E. P. Parker, in her pleas in behalf of Russell Bird.

Bird was taken in custody at his home in Mishawaka, while presumably of civilian status, and flown back to Germany to answer the charges before an Army court martial board.

Duty To Return Accused

He is accused of having dealt in cigarettes on the black market while working at an Army post exchange there during the war.

Gen. Parker wrote Mrs. Bird: "It is my duty to supervise the return of Mr. Bird to the European command where the alleged offense was committed and where the full jurisdiction rests in this case." He said that he would refer Mrs. Bird's letter to the commanding general of the European command.

Charging that her husband was "shanghaied," Mrs Bird said in her appeal to Gov. Henry F. Schricker:

"I am left destitute in a strange country with two small babies, one is two years old and the other eight months."

Ike Declines Aid

The war bride asked:

"My dear governor, is there any way that you can help to bring my husband back so that he can take care of his children and myself? If there is anything that you can do for me, I assure you that I will be forever grateful."

Gen. Eisenhower wrote Mrs. Bird that he could do nothing for her in "my present position."

The young mother went to work in a department store to support herself and the children after her husband was taken away.

Elephant Tax Stands Even After Death

RAJKOT, India, April 5 (AP) — Taxes last longer than elephants.

Lakhtar state years ago levied an elephant tax of eight annas (16 cents) a head to meet costs of the upkeep of the state elephant. The elephant died. The tax remained.

Sayla state continued to collect a similar tax for 60 years after the death of its state elephant.

Now that both states are included in the Saurashtra union in western India, the elephant tax has been increased by one rupee (32 cents)

EL PASO, April 5 — Although El Paso is a city of around 125,000 souls, it nurtures its community spirit as aggressively — and, perhaps, as provincially — as most cities a fraction of its size.

And there-in, as we see it, lies a lesson for Lubbock.

Over the past 15 years or so, a good many people in Lubbock have fallen for what we consider to be a false philosophy.

This philosophy is that after a town gets "big" it shouldn't boost itself and its offerings like the smaller places do.

"That's meaningless stuff — and too undignified," say the apostles of Big Town-itis in Lubbock.

But is it?

We don't think so.

El Paso, half again the size of Lubbock, is not too big to have an annual chamber of commerce banquet. Nor is it too big to have frequent, smaller get-togethers of its members in the same businesses, or in allied lines.

Furthermore, most El Pasoans, if not all of them, think constant getting together strengthens community spirit and is responsible for El Paso's amazing presentation of a solid front to the rest of the world.

"Call our get-togethers 'small town stuff,' if you want to," says Bill Hooten, editor of the El Paso Times and a longtime civic leader here. "Call our community rallies 'unnecessary hoorah,' if you choose. But we of El Paso know that these get-togethers pay off in community co-operation, which was never greater than it is today."

EL PASO has been growing and expanding a lot these recent years, just like all other cities of the Southwest. City environs have been stretching out. Population has been expanding up and down the rich river valley to the Northwest and the Southeast.

With this growth has come much building, residential and business; much expansion of a business nature, both wholesale and retail.

A couple of years ago, at a chamber of commerce meeting, somebody said El Paso was growing, expanding and improving so much and so rapidly, he couldn't keep track of what was going on in his own home town.

Out of that comment came a series of "Know El Paso" bus tours, taken by citizens — largely civic and business leaders — so they could at least find out a little about how their city was expanding.

These "Know El Paso" tours are run, periodically, in series, by the chamber of commerce. Each tour consumes a day's time, with a luncheon break set up in advance. Sometimes the lunches are in plants making or otherwise handling foodstuffs. Sometimes they are picnic style.

The tours are varied. The citizen particularly interested in El Paso's industrial development, for instance, takes the tour which features industrial growth and expansion. The citizen more interested in retail expansion, or in new home construction, takes a tour especially to his liking. All of them, however, give a pretty good over-all picture of El Paso's general improvement, growth and expansion.

As they go about their home town, citizens can see what has been going on and, also, community improvements which should be made. The illumination of Paisano Drive —non-glare and as up-to-the-minute as tomorrow — grew out of public realization for its need.

THESE "Know El Paso" tours may be "undignified," or "too much hoorah," as some Lubbock civic leaders claim. But in our book, Lubbock could use some of the same.

If the "Know El Paso" tours have been necessary and good for El Paso — and everyone here says they are — then similar tours are more necessary and will do more good for Lubbock. Lubbock, in ratio has spread out more, has grown more and has improved more in recent years than El Paso. All of us need to know more about this improvement, growth and expansion than we do—and we need to see with our own eyes where we need widened streets, traffic lights, extension of municipal facilities, new school and park areas.

By selling Lubbock to each other, we will all be better prepared to sell Lubbock to outsiders.

If finding out about our town, and boosting the town as a result is "hick stuff," let's have some "hick stuff" in Lubbock again.

Otherwise, it's entirely possible that we've gotten too big for our britches.

El Paso, like Lubbock, woke up one day last year to discover a severe shortage of hospital and medical facilities.

Unlike Lubbock, El Paso did something about it.

The chamber of commerce went in for more of what some might call "hick stuff," had some mass meetings, got "the boys together" to wise everybody up.

The result was, El Paso went out and raised a king's ransom to build one fine new hospital — and then turned around and raised another big sum to add a wing to an existing hospital.

That was a living, breathing example of what carefully nurtured community spirit can do — in El Paso, in Lubbock, in any up-and-coming city.

BECAUSE of this carefully nurtured community spirit, people here are vocally interested in their city's needs.

El Paso, for instance, has put in hundreds and hundreds of new street lights during the postwar period, because people saw the need for the lights and insisted upon getting them. Lubbock, on the other hand, is one of the poorest lighted cities to be found anywhere; has added very little, if any, lights over the postwar period — and won't add any until the people demand action.

El Paso has put in new, legible street signs since the war's close, too, while Lubbock hasn't gotten around to adding signs in new sections and has seen many of the old signs completely obliterated during the years.

There's community spirit again. Folks squawked for the street signs and the boys at City Hall had to come through.

El Paso's police force probably is no better than Lubbock's in the matter of handling hijackings, murders, theft and burglaries. It may be little, if any, better in traffic control, although it's a cinch it is no worse.

But despite the constant criticism of the police force here in the matter of some types of law enforcement, this much must be said for the cops in this Border city: they are pretty super-duper when it comes to politeness.

Many years ago, El Paso got wise to the fact that its visitors were important; that it's "tourist crop" brought millions of dollars per year into the tills of the hotelkeepers, court operators, restaurants, gasoline stations, stores and shops. People here figured that if these visitors were made happy and welcome, they would come back, and influence others to come here.

So the word went out to the police to be polite and helpful to visitors; not to push 'em around unless absolutely necessary; not to throw traffic and other charges against them except in cases where action could not be avoided.

As a result the police here are goodwill builders because of the way they handle visitors who may have committed some minor law violation and because of the way they give directions and otherwise serve the stranger.

EL PASO isn't a perfect city, perfectly operated. Even its most energetic boosters wouldn't claim that.

In our book, it isn't anywhere near as good a town to live in as Lubbock is, nor does it have the over-all possibilities for future growth.

But El Paso has Lubbock beat —at this time, anyway—for civic consciousness, for energetic effort in community affairs, for up-and-coming community spirit.

It doesn't have to continue to outclass Lubbock in these matters for a minute longer than Lubbock people want it that way.

All we need to do is to get off the seats of our pants and revive the old Lubbock spirit of a half-dozen years or more ago — the spirit that made Lubbock what it is today

BY DREW PEARSON: FORMER SENATOR LEAVES SMELLY MESS IN PRESSMAN'S UNION

Union's Inaction In Protecting Rights Puzzling

WASHINGTON—Locked in the files of the Treasury and Justice departments is startling evidence that would help the Pressman's union clean up a serious scandal. Few union members know about the situation inside their union, which, if not remedied, may cheat them out of a lot of hard-earned dues.

PEARSON

The secret evidence pertains to the income-tax violation of the late George Berry, head of the Pressman's union, and ex-senator from Tennessee. Berry, guilty of income-tax violation, refused to defend himself, was given one year in jail, which a lenient judge later commuted to five years on parole. Before one year had passed Berry died, leaving a will which may continue the fraud he pulled on his own union.

Had the government been able to try the case in open court, these frauds would have been aired publicly and union members could have taken corrective steps. But Berry, afraid of a public trial, threw himself on the mercy of the court.

However, this column has been able to obtain details of the traffic finangling which Berry pulled not only against the government, but his own union.

Two Mrs. Berrys

Berry's will reveals that he left parts of property which supposedly belonged to the union to two Mrs. Berrys. One was his own wife. The other was a mysterious Mrs. Alva N. Berry, who was supported by Berry on one of his farms and with whom Berry spent part of his later years. To Mrs. Alva Berry and her two children, who also bore the name Berry, he left the farm on which she lived, plus the Moorseburg Milling Co., a part of another farm, 15 shares of the Citizens Union bank in Rogersville, Tenn., valued at more than $15,000 and, most important of all, part of the stock in the International Playing Card and Label company.

This playing-card company, supposedly belonging to the Pressman's union and a valuable property, was willed by Berry not to the union, but to the two Mrs. Berrys and his close associates.

Mrs. Berry, the wife, was given part of the playing-card company, Mrs. Alva Berry got part. Miss Dailey, Berry's secretary, also was willed a part; together with Berry's attorney, John S. McClellan; and A. H. Pfiffner and C. H. Geigrt, the manager and superintendent of the plant.

Yet the playing-card company was property which belonged to the union and which Berry had no right to give away.

DURING the government's probe of Berry's income taxes, some peculiar things came to light regarding the union head's dealings with his union. Among other things, he had taken $50,000 out of the playing-card company's treasury to buy cattle for his own farm.

The government also found that he submitted double expense accounts—one to the union and one to the playing-card company. Thus, when the union chief took a trip, he was reimbursed for his expenses twice — once by the Pressman's union and again by the playing card company which the Pressman's union owned.

When treasury agents began digging into Berry's accounts, he cleamed that he had invested large sums of his own money in the playing-card company and that sums paid him were to reimburse him for these advances. However, when asked to show proof, all he could produce was $100,000 advanced to the company. Yet on the basis of this and other mythical "advances" Berry had taken over the entire plant as his own.

WHAT WILL UNION DO?

When it came to making out his will, Berry concocted another interesting scheme. He contended that the playing-card company owed him $223,927.34 in back salary and expenses. Thereupon he proceeded to distribut this back salary to his wife, and to the other Mrs. Berry (who, incidentally, received more than his wife), to his neice, his secretary and other friends. If any of this back salary remained after these gifts and after paying federal taxes, Berry specified in his will that it go to a welfare fund.

It would appear highly doubtful, however, that the playing-card company ever owed Berry "back salary and expenses," since he collected his expenses double, and made heavy drawings from the company during his life.

Obviously the great majority of union members were in no position to know anything about these inner workings of their union. But an interesting question is why the union's executive council did not know about them. Or, knowing them now, why they do not act to protect the rights of the union and clean up the mess. Most interesting of all, however, will be to see what the union executives do now.

Note—Present executives of the Pressman's union are: J. H. De La Rosa, president; W. H. McHugh, sec.-treas.; Charles V. Ernest, A. J. Andrade, Fred Maxted and George Googe

MARTIN LARSON of St Paul chosen as "driver of the year" by the American Trucking association, has a nifty new fountain pen for his 11-year-old son, Jimmy, that not only writes under water, but was given him by the President of the United States

The other day when Mr. and Mrs. Larson called at the White House, the "driver of the year" told Mr. Truman:

"My boy, Jimmy, tells me he has learned the secret of how to meet the President when he grows up. He says he's going to become a truck driver like his dad. Then he can get in the White House."

"Fine," grinned Truman. "But if he doesn't want to wait that long, he can get in to see me by using this pen I'm sending him as a free pass to the White House."

He's Finally Getting The Hang Of It

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

New Types Of Mink Coats Are Confusing To Hapless Males

NEW YORK, April 5, — The mink, an amphibious musteline carnivors of the genus putoriues—shove over, Kieran, your competition is here—the mink is a nasty little beast, but he has died gallantly for decades to demonstrate man's domination by woman, a ambiguous crepe de chine carnivore of the genus Uxorius.

RUARK

Even more than the diamond on third finger, left hand, a suffiency of mink pelts on the female form was the loud badge of topmost success in the lady's league. It shouted that her man was rich, that he cherished her above all others—or else he had been apprehended for naughtiness and was paying off for peace.

The mink coat was the pinacle of girlish daydream, in that its possession took you from behind the counter and shoved you into the queen class. Mere mention of the magic word induced a slumbrous, stunned look, somewhat mixed with naked craving. This languorous look is invoked only if the mentioner is a man.

Just let another woman possessively utter the word — or worse, illustrate it with a coat of of her own—and such lances of poisonous hatred dart from the minkless damsel's eye that a male evesdropper is shocked by the pent violence behind the fluffy facade of sugar and spice.

New York "Jungle"

New York is a veritable jungle of mink, so that a man strolling through the middle 50's feels suddenly that the animals have taken over the city. You can watch the magic at work. All women who wear the stuff imagine they have automatically lost 20 pounds, grown a foot, resembel Hedy Lamarr ,and pack the siren punch of Madame Dubarry. They have achieved the presidency of their guild.

Before the mink industry went mad, all a man had to do to score with his maid, or remove himself from a matrimonial hook—was pawn his birthright and come home with the coat. That was when things were simple. But such is no longer so. I was doing a litle research in front of one of the big celebrity traps the other day, and I wouldn't dare buy a dame a mink coat today—not even if I had the money.

PRIOR to 1935, mink was mink, like diamonds are diamonds. But the furriers got busy with madame's natural susceptibility to chance, and started tampering with the sex life of the mink.

First we had light mink, and then we had the very dark. Then we went to blonde mink, and black mink. This bred silverblue, platinum, kohinoor, starlight. Out of them came white, polar pastel, and half-blood. They all paid off in the current aberration—lord save us all—which is called Breath of Spring, yet. This costs nine million dollars the square inch, and the minks who bear it dine off caviar and are kissed to death by Ingrid Bergman when the time comes to yield the pelt.

An ordinary stupid man is fuddled enough with wild mink, ranch mink, Canada mink and Labrador mink, but when they start to hurl the mutations at him he just covers his head and whimpers. Where even the most pampered women used to get 10 years of mileage out of one coat, and love the donor most of that time, now the one-coat girl is a practical pariah at the 21 club.

Caustic Criticism Heard

"Psst," they say. "There comes poor old Gertie, still wearing last year's silver blue. You suppose her husband's got outside interests, now.

Or—"poor darling. Trying to wear royal pastel with that hairdo. Maybe her husband is slipping in the street, like they say."

You would not dare fetch home a kohinoor, if Breath of Spring was on milady's mind. You would get crowned with a cuspidor if she had her mouth fixed for one kind and you dragged in the other. And, with mink now as fickle as other female fashions, you are automatically out of high style every spring.

I run on about this, but actually it's no problem of mine. I have just bought mama a steeltrap and a half-a-fish, and if she's the girl I think she is, she can go out to the marshes and corral her own coat.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"ASK me no questions and I may tell you something interesting," says the philosopher, William Feather.

There, wives, in 11 words is one of the truest remarks you'll ever read about men in general, and husbands in particular.

MILLETT

Many a wife who complains that her husband never tells her anything has only herself to blame.

She meets her husband at the door at night with questions about his day.

If he answers the telephone she wants to know who called him and what they wanted. If he goes out to a banquet or meeting, she asks to be told everything that happened. If he's half an hour late in getting home from the office, the first thing she says to him is "What-ever happened to you?"

She asks him what's in his letters. She wants to know where he ate lunch and who he ate it with. And when she can't think of anything else to ask him she wants to know if he still loves her.

Naturally, all such a woman gets in answer to her innumerable questions is an absent-minded brush.

NONCOMMITAL ANSWERS

"NOTHING much" happens at the office. "A man named Brown telephoned. Just a business matter." He can't remember what he had to eat at the banquet. "It was just another"—yawn—"one of those evenings."

He was late getting home from work because he got "tied up." The letter he's just read didn't say much. He ate lunch at the same old place, with "some of the boys from the office."

And "of course" he still loves her.

So all that digging to bring up some interesting facts, to make a husband share his interests gets a wife nowhere. After a few years of marriage she knows his evasive or disinterested answers so well she might as well answer her own questions.

But the wife who doesn't ask a lot of questions, who lets a man tell her just as much as as little as he wants to, eventually gets a complete account of what is going on. Don't ask me why.

'Try And Stop Me"

PLAYING his favorite role of Doctor Kronkhite in a skit, Joe Smith of the Avon Comedy Four was called by a patient in the death house. "Doctor," complained the patient, "they've denied my last plea, shaved off my hair, I can hear them testing out the electric chair—and I don't feel good. What do you prescribe?"

Doctor Kronkhite considered the situation and advised, "Mr. Fluegelman, don't sit down!"

AN OLD butler of Dr. Ted Saunders came back for a professional consultation after a lapse of several years.

"Well, Tom, it's good to see you," said Dr. Saunders. "How are those kidneys of yours holding up?"

"Fine, Doctor, jest fine," answered the old butler. "They's all grown up now, and two of 'em is married."

CHANCE FOR INVESEMENT

As practically everyone can attest, it isn't as easy to make a dollar now as during a good many recent years. Events of the past few days have strengthened indications that cash may become increasingly hard to get and will go further as time passes.

The prospect does not appear alarming because it so logically seems the long-delayed, but inevitable, readjustment caused by increasing supplies beginning to catch up with demand.

But the prospect is one which should cause thrifty and forelsighted people to study with growing interest the attractions of the U. S. savings bond, to which an annual drive now in the formulative stage draws attention.

The bonds are an opportunity for regular and systematic savings, of which most people can take advantage. They pay substantial interest rates. Most important of all, they offer a convenient means of laying dollars aside for the time when they may go much further than now.

They are, in short, an investment every person should investigate.

The chances are that most of those who do investigate will contrive the means of getting in on a mighty good thing.

New Discovery Offset Staked

Stanolind Oil & Gas company has staked a direct north offset to its No. 2 Edwards, recently completed Devonian discovery in the Landon area of extreme south-central Cochran county.

The flanker will be the concern's No. 2 E. C. Holt, staked 660 feet from south and east lines of section 3, block L, psl survey, about 25 miles southwest of the town of Lehman.

It is projected to the Devonian around 11,600 feet. Last report had the venture moving in rotary equipment preparatory to spudding.

Requested name of this new pool is Landon-Devonian field.

Location Staked

Location was staked for a 5,000-foot, rotary tool wildcat in central-southeast Andrews county, 10 miles southeast of the town of Andrews, as Amerads Petroleum Corporation No. 1-A Andrews-University.

The drillsite is 667 feet from north, and 656.6 feet from east lines of the south half of section 15, block 1, University survey.

The projected depth is expected to allow an investigation into the San Andres-Permian. Operations are to start immediately.

An outpost has been staked to the Diamond M field of central-west Scurry county by Lion Oil company.

It will be Lion No. 6 C. T. McLaughlin, 1,831 feet from east and 665 feet from south lines of section 197, block 97, H&TC survey, which puts it about 10 miles west and a little south of the town of Snyder.

Drillsite elevation is 2,375 feet. With rotary tools, the semi-wildcat is to start drilling by April 6 toward 8,000 feet for a test into the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian. That formation is the regular pay of the Diamond M pool.

Slight shows have developed from the San Andres-Permian in central Gaines county for C. H. Murphy and Son No. 1 E. T. O'Daniels, wildcat two miles southeast of the town of Seminole.

The venture cored from 5,260 feet to 5,310 feet, recovering 35 feet of lime. Unofficial sources say the bottom six feet of the core was oil saturated.

A drillstem test was then run for two hours at 5,281-5,311 feet. Recovery was 50 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. Operator was cutting another core below 5,323 feet in lime.

This exploration is 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 16, block C-44, psl survey.

Japs Curious About American Habits

TOKYO, April 5. (AP)— Questions most frequently asked occupation workers lecturing Japanese on life in the United States:

Do Americans really bathe every day?

How do they bathe — in groups or alone?

Do American really bake bread every day?

What is the length of skirts worn by American women?

Varsity Show

ford, whose smooth rendition of "Its Magic," drew good applause.

An interlude between acts brought on the "Too Tired Trio," composed of Lamar Jackson, Lubbock; Bob Parkinson, Pampa and Bill, "Bull Moose," Jackson, Houston. These three went over big with their rendition of "Cigarettes and Whuskey and Wild Wild Women" and a parody on Tech entitled "I've Been Here A Mighty Long Time."

The third and final act dealt with the dreams of a Tech student, Larry Billings, well played by Bill Wright of Midland. He and his good "friend" the sandman, played by Bill Beal of Lubbock, installed themselves in the midst of a host of beauties and Larry was introduced as a famous judge of beauty. The 1949 beauties of Texas Tech were introduced at this point.

The crowd was also well pleased with a tumbling act presented by Jimmy Carter, Dingy Davis and Harriet Moltz. This was brought in as a special number in the third act. Carter's brilliant work of balancing himself with a chair on another chair supported by coke bottles on a table top brought the audience to the edge of their seats.

The music of this year's show, directed by Ted Crager, featured five original songs written by Carolyn Cole and Lloyd Alsup. The production was directed by Bill Parsley of Lubbock.

Tickets for the second and third performances may be purchased in the lobby of both the Lubbock and Hilton hotels and in Dunlap's and Hemphill-Wells. The price of admission is $1.50 for adults and $1 for students and children. The show will be presented tonight and Wednesday night.

can be eliminated. Epidemics get started in just such areas and once they get started they are no respecter of wealth or station.

High Rents Hit

Sure housing is a tough problem but I think a lot of it is pure propaganda to hold up these sky-high prices. I went to look at one small furnished place that was offered for rent. It was a nice place, a long way off from everything and truly small. Without batting an eye, or blushing, the landlady said that she was "only asking $125 per month." This did not include utilities. This figure is about 15 per cent above the same type dwelling in St. Louis or Columbus, Ohio.

So get those rose-colored glasses off and take a good look at yourself and your city. Recognize that you're a long way from being perfect and get to work doing something about it. Live up to your Texas brags and quit kidding yourself. I could point out some other things that are wrong too but I don't believe you'd listen to me.

Elections

among the following candidates: Sam Lankford, E. M. Osborne, Ernie Brock, and E. G. Alexander.

A mayor and two city aldermen are to be elected today at Abernathy. Candidates for mayor include T. W. Allen, J. P. Nystel, and E. G. Thompson, while candidate for the two aldermen's posts are E. B. Lindsey, Paul Harral, Edwin Crow, and Dan Ward.

Petersburg voters will elect a mayor and city commissioner today. Each will serve a two-year term. Candidates for the mayorship are Jack Claitor and Charles Schuler. Seeking the commissioner's post are Roy McDaniel and Joe Barlow.

Several area towns, among them Anton, Morton, Crosbyton, Muleshoe, and Seminole, will not conduct municipal elections this year.

One story of the origin of the term "blue Monday" is that in the 18th Century naval commanders noted offenses during the week and arranged floggings for punishment each Monday, hence "black and blue Monday."

Forrest Rites Planned Today

SLATON, April 5 (Special) — Funeral services for Samuel Sidney Forrest, 82, of Slaton, were to be conducted at 3 p. m. today in Slaton First Methodist church, with burial following in Slaton cemetery under the direction of Williams Funeral home.

Forrest died about 1 p. m. Monday in Mercy hospital here after suffering a stroke earlier in the day.

Son of a Civil War captain in the Confederate army, he was born in Midway, Madison county, July 23, 1866. He attended the public schools of Madisonville and Southwestern university in Georgetown. In December, 1889, he married Ora Celia Robinson, daughter of a Confederate veteran.

He pioneered to Greer county, Oklahoma, in 1887 when that land was opened to settlement. He moved to Texico in 1906 where he entered the lumber business for the first time. He erected the first lumber yard in Clovis, N. M.

Entered Hardware Business

He moved to Slaton in 1911 where he entered the hardware business, erecting the first school here and the first residence not placed by the railroad.

Forrest established the Plains Lumber company here in 1920, later acquiring lumber interests in Post and Lamesa. He purchased the Slaton ranch north of Slaton in 1938.

Four children were born to Forrest and his first wife, all of whom have since died. S. Lamar Forrest, Lubbock lumber man and widely known civic and church leader was the last to die, on Feb. 28, 1948. The first Mrs. Forrest passed away in January, 1942.

Active In Church Work

He married Miss Florence Robinson of Athens in January, 1943, and she is one of his survivors.

Forrest was active in church work during his lifetime, having become a member of the Presbyterian church at the age of 18 in Midway. He was a charter member of the Slaton Methodist church.

He also claimed the distinction of being a direct descendant of General Mirabeau B. Lamar, second president of the Republic of Texas and known as the father of the public school system of Texas. His maternal grandmother, Mary Anne Lamar, was a sister of General Lamar.

Pallbearers were to be George Gabel, Sug Robertson, Joe Walker, J. S. Edwards, jr., Linton Pruitt, T. H. Appling and J. T. Brooks, all of Slaton, and W. T. Barnett of Post.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Florence Forrest, include a brother Will M. Forrest, of Midway; three grandchildren, S. S. Forrest jr., of Lubbock, Edwin L. Forrest of Slaton route 2, and Mary Joe Copenhaver, also of Lubbock; and eight great grandchildren.

Lamesa Man Burned As Home Destroyed

LAMESA, April 5 (Special) — A Latin-American resident of Lamesa is in a local hospital in serious condition from burns suffered when his home in East Lamesa was destroyed by fire about 4 a. m. Sunday.

Blas Guerra, whose wife and two children, 4 and 2, escaped injury, was seriously burned all over as he tried to remove household goods. The family home and furnishing were destroyed in the blaze.

Fire apparently started when Guerra poured kerosene on hot coals in a stove. An explosion resulted and enveloped the small house in flames.

Yen For Horse And Buggy Days Pays Off

LOS ANGELES, April 5. (AP)— Customer Bob Kimbrough complained recently to barber George Hodges that $1 is too much to pay for a haircut.

"Trouble with you," Hodges replied, "is a yen for the good old days—the era of the horse and buggy."

Yesterday, Kimbrough rode a horse into the barber shop.

Hodges cut his hair for 75 cents.

Atlantic Treaty Signed, But Effectiveness Up To Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The diplomats' striped pants are back in their traveling bags, their speeches are finished, their signatures are just about dry on the Atlantic pact, and now we get down to the cases.

All the ceremony yesterday about signing the pact won't mean any more than an exercise in penmanship unless Congress breathes the breath of life into it. It's all in the hands of Congress now.

The foreign ministers of 12 nations—including our own Secretary of State Acheson—signed the agreement under flood lights in a jam-packed auditorium where senators and representatives had to squeeze in.

Treaty For 20 Years

The pact was a solemn declaration, binding all 12, that they'd stand solidly in a military alliance to stop any push by Russia or Communism. And the agreement is to last for 20 years.

All this sounds good, and it's all done on a very high diplomatic plane, and it's supposed to jolt Russia into minding her business, but the agreement, after all, is a treaty.

The United States is the key member. And this country can't take part in a treaty unless the U. S. Senate approves by a two-thirds vote of its 96 members present at voting time.

Some weeks from now, after wading knee-deep through oratory for and against the pact—the first peacetime military alliance in American history—the Senate is expected to approve, although this is certainly not positive.

Funds To Be Sought

But then comes something else: that part of the agreement in which the 12 nations say they will arm themselves and help one another arm just in case—in case Russia should attack.

Since we're the biggest and richest country, and the one best able to do the helping, President Truman is going to ask Congress to vote $1,000,000,000 or so to help our new allies equip themselves against attack.

And Congress may vote only a little of the money, or none at all, even though that might make the other pact-signers feel we're letting them down.

They might feel that way—and feel that the hoopla yesterday about signing the pact was just hoopla and the pact only a piece of paper—because they might think an alliance without arms isn't much of an alliance.

Arms Cost Already Huge

In despair, if they felt that way, they'd be a soft touch for Russia. They might crumble, one by one, leaving us high and dry and alone on a limb, surrounded in a Communist world.

It isn't certain they'd feel that way, of course, if they didn't get the arms. They might think that having the U. S. as an ally was arms enough, believing we'd back them if the fight began.

But if you had sat week after week in the Senate gallery, you'd understand why it's questionable that Congress will vote a billion dollars to army Europe, since we're going to spend $15 billion on our own armed forces, and $5 billion on Marshall plan help for Europe.

And the reason for the question is the double mood that runs through the Senate right now, a mood you'd sense if you looked at it: A mood of isolationism among some senators and of deep economy among others.

Those two moods will join forces when it is time to talk of arming Europe, and when that comes anything can happen.

Brazil's seven-point program to boost cotton output aims to (1) improve strains; (2) increase mechanization; (3) control soil erosion; (4) increase fertilizer use; (5) fight blight and insects; (6) study markets, and (7) plan minimum prices.
