Pink Boll Worm Bill Introduced In Special Session

International Market Forecast Bureau Pre- dict 20 Cent Cotton

The present position of the cotton market is seemingly as unshakable as the Rock of Gibraltar. The fact that our Government has announced that it will loan the farmers 10 cents at interior points, will relieve the cotton market from any hedge pressure and any decline that might occur from this level on account of the weak stock market, will be of short duration. Right now there are too many cotton bears and too pessimistic a view is being taken of the cotton supply situation. Bears fail to realize that the foundation for a real bull cotton market has already been laid and that statistics are the post-mortem verdict. Manipulation may artificially depress cotton prices for a time, but the lay of supply and demand will sooner or later hold its sway; in fact, it is no longer a question of supply, but one of demand and demand is improving all the time. This statement is borne out by the fact that consumption continues on an unusually large scale and now exceeds the 1930 consumption by more than 3,000,000 bales. Exports are also increasing and are now 75,000 bales ahead of last year. Evidently the foreign spinner continues to be enthused over the idea that American cotton is still cheap. After all is said and done, cotton is really more valuable than gold. Cotton is the friend of the poor and the luxury of the rich; it is made into cloth so coarse that it sells for a few cents a yard; it is made into fabric so fine and so beautiful that it cannot be told from silk and if there were no cotton, the civilized world including Mahatma Gandhi would have to go naked. Cotton will gain strength as it moves higher—it is the one commodity that has been designated to lead the world out of this depression. Old King Cotton will soon regain his throne and the farmer who fails to take advantage of the Government plan to hold his cotton, will look backward one year from now with regret and remorse.—International Market Forecast Bureau.

More Than 1,000 Sign NRA Consumers Cards

The NRA consumers pledge cards are being signed daily. More than 1,000 cards have been voluntarily signed.

The reason some have not signed is that they have not yet understood, it is pointed out.

How does it work? is a question being asked every day. Here is an example: A man with a family to support is out of a job. He does not know what he is to do. He looks to relief or charity to help him. Then, the NRA shows up. He is given a few hours a day work. But the work is sufficient to feed and clothe his family. His little child that before the NRA had to stay out of school is now back in school and the man, his wife and the family is again happy.

Another example: A boy in college—Texas Tech, if you please—states he could not find work to keep him in school. The NRA came along and he found a job immediately and is now in school and doing fine.

These are not fourflushed examples. They are real right here under our eyes. There are hundreds of such examples all over the land. The NRA is working and the people of this country are making it work. They are doing it voluntarily.

That is why the President said "I want the people to sign up voluntarily. It is up to them to make it work. It is to their interest. I have every confidence in the people of this country that they will do their part. There will be a few who will hold back, but that few are determined shall not continue to throw something in the path of this worthy cause. We must know why, if they do not sign."

Call at the local chamber of commerce and sign the consumers cards, thus assuring the President that you are still with him on his plan of "back to recovery."

HAS NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Caryl Baldwin are the proud parents of a baby girl born Monday morning, October 2. The young lady weighed 9 pounds. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

SINGERS TO MEET HERE OCTOBER 14-15

The Dawson county Semi-Annual Singing Convention will meet in Lamesa on Saturday evening and Sunday, October 14 and 15. A business meeting will be held on Saturday evening, with the singing starting Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the court house.

This is expected to be one of the best singing conventions ever held in Lamesa as the Stamps quartet have promised to be present along with many other noted singers from over the country.

Full details of the convention will be given in next week's paper. Watch for them.

Contract To Be Let On South Part Highway No. 9, October 16th

In a message received here from the State Highway Department Tuesday, they stated that the contract for the grading and drainage on the south part of Highway No. 9 from Lamesa to Ackerly would be let Monday, October 16, at Austin.

After the contract is let 15 days will be given the contractor for his work order, and actual work will start on about November 1. As on the north half of No. 9, Dawson county labor will be used.

Tornadoes To Play Hobbs Oilers Here Friday Afternoon

The Lamesa Golden Tornadoes will meet the Hobbs, New Mexico Oilers on the local field Friday afternoon, at 3:45.

Every citizen is urged to attend this game as the proceeds will go to provide for Jimmie McKinnon, ex-Tornado halfback who is now in a critical condition at the Baptist Hospital, Waco.

Besides, this will be one of the best games on the 1933 Tornado schedule. You will see a much improved Tornado team, and word comes from Hobbs that the strongest team in the history of the school will be on hand Friday to uphold their colors.

Tickets are now being sold by high school girls for 25 cents. Buy one before the game.

Jimmie McKinnon's Condition Improving

Word received from Jimmie McKinnon, who is in a Waco hospital suffering the effects of a leg amputation, is that he is steadily improving, and he now has every chance to completely recover.

Jimmie was injured last Wednesday night when he attempted to board a freight train at Waco. He left Lamesa a few weeks ago for Austin where he intended to enter the State University, but due to sinus trouble, had started home.

Jimmie's mother, Mrs. Fred McKinnon is in Waco with him.

More Information On Transportation Law

Aid for transportation for school children according to information received from the State Department of Education, is that aid will be allowed to pupils who have finished their home school and the district has approved truck transportation with a bonded driver.

Mr. Holbrook, deputy state superintendent stated in a letter to W. T. Webb, county superintendent, that no transportation will be allowed on pupils transported by any sort of a private conveyance within the school district. He also stated that the above rule does not deny transportation of private conveyance where pupils grades are not taught in home school.

Donald Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Holt had his tonsils removed Sunday. He is now rapidly improving.

McCarty Will Be Visited By Goodwill Trippers Friday

The Lamesa Goodwill troopers will go to McCarty Friday evening of this week. A fine crowd is promised at McCarty for this program. Many fun numbers will feature this program and the Lamesa Municipal Band will accompany the party of business men to add to the entertainment of the program. This is the regular Parent-Teachers meeting at McCarty and the teachers of this place were to have gotten the program. The merchant's program has been substituted. A hundred or more Lamesa people are expected to make this trip. The party will leave the band hall at 7:15 p. m. Friday evening this week. Let's all be on hand and if possible with ways of conveyance for the band.

Next Thursday evening the Lamesa good will troopers will go to Lou for a similar program. At the Lou meeting the Lou and Ashburn communities will join with a crowd to hear the fun features of the program already being arranged.

The following Friday week, or October the 20th, the Lamesa Troopers will go to Hancock for a program. The trustees of this community have extended an invitation to the Chamber of Commerce to bring this program there at some convenient date and the officials have set October 20 as the date to go. Let's all keep this in mind and be ready to go.

Say, Mr. Business Man, you do not know what you are missing by not attending these meetings. Let's figure some. Here is a list of the numbers at tending these meetings taken from good estimates given us by people living in the communities visited:

Shacktown, 1000; O'Donnell, 500; New Moore, 400; Seminole, 600; Grandview 400. And at least 500 are expected at McCarty Friday night.

It's your fault—and your hard luck—if you do not make these trips. You're invited and urged to go. It's good business to go. Oh, well, you can't afford to stay at home. BETTER GO.

No RFC Work Until Notified By State

The ones in charge at the local R. F. C. office state this week that there would be no work during this month, or until they were further authorized by the state. Only one job is now being done with RFC labor and that is moving a fence, this job being authorized by officials at Austin.

TRADES DAY VISITORS THROUGH LAMESA STREETS MONDAY

Lamesa enjoyed her best Trades Day last Monday. The crowd was larger than usual and merchants report that they did more business than on any other First Monday.

There was quite a lot of fun during the day. It started early and lasted until the crowd went home late in the day.

W. L. Marr was the Mystery Man and he had some fun. Other persons played mystery man but the crowd soon found out that they were not, passed them by. J. M. Ranson from the McCarty community won the five dollars for being the first to shake Marrs hand. He was a happy man when he was presented the five spot and said, "This is the first time in my life I was ever lucky and the first handshake that I ever thought worth five dollars. Marr is a pretty good man to shake hands with."

There was also bronco busting and horse races that attracted large crowds during the afternoon.

Next First Monday will be a big day. Already plans are under way to make the day full of fun and lots of prizes. Merchants will give tickets for the big show at four P. M. Ask them for tickets and do not forget to do so.

Next First Monday comes on November 6th. Make your plans now to be here. You will get out of this First Monday all you put into it and then some. Let every one think of Lamesa's First Monday and talk to your friends about it.

Merchants will have real bargains to sell all during the month of October. TIME TO BUY NOW. When you buy ask your merchant for the trimmings. Then when First Monday comes—well you know the rest—harvest time. Come in and help reap.

RFC Gives Cans To County Citizens

In a shipment received at the local RFC headquarters Monday 25,000 cans were received. Twenty thousand were given out Monday afternoon with the remaining five thousand given Tuesday morning.

These cans are to be filled with vegetables and meats and where the producer furnishes the labor, equipment and the products they will be allowed to keep 75 per cent of the vegetables canned and 90 per cent of the meat, the other 25 and 10 per cent to be turned into the RFC office.

A few cans have already been returned.

W. A. Stephens To Palacios, Texas

W. A. Stephens left on Saturday of last week for Palacios, Texas, where he was ordered to active duty as a Lieutenant in the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Mr. Stephens will work with the Citizens Conservation Corps which is stationed there for the purpose of building a State park. In order that Mr. Stephens might do this work he was given a six month's leave of absence from the First National Bank where he is employed.

Mrs. E. G. Warner Dies Last Saturday

Mrs. E. G. Warner, aged 35 years, passed away at her home 10 miles south of Lamesa on Saturday, September 30. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Five Mile Church with Rev. Webb officiating.

Mrs. Warner was survived by her husband and five children.

T. D. Randle has returned from a trip to Fort Worth where he went in interest of obtaining money for farmers to harvest their fed crops.

DUGGAN INTRODUCES BILL IN UPPER HOUSE

Austin, Texas
October 2, 1933

Mr. Wm. A. Wilson, Manager
Chamber of Commerce,
Lamesa, Texas.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

The Governor this morning sent up for consideration the Pink Boll Worm Bill and I immediately introduced the same here in the Senate and it was referred to a committee.

It was also introduced in the house today and referred to a committee. You know, that this bill must come from the House first. Together, with the other Senators and Representatives interested I am doing everything I can to have the bill enacted into a law and protect the farmers in that section who so splendidly cooperated with the Department in this Pink Boll Worm matter a few years ago.

We succeeded in getting only 15 Senators to sign the bill and that is not a majority. A number of them stated that they would oppose the bill because the state hasn't the money to pay the appropriation it makes. It is not going to be easy to get this through but that does not keep those of us who are interested in doing our very best to protect the interest of our constituents from trying, and that is exactly what we are doing.

Sincerely,

Arthur P. Duggan
State Senator.

Below are the names of state senators that you are urged to write. It seems that the rub is going to come on this bill in the Senate. Impress on them that this is a just bill, and we are suffering here on account of the drought. We need the money as a matter of relief NOW. Then, tell them whether the State has the money or not it should make a move to take care of its just obligations some time. Pass this bill and be through with our bothering each session. Tell them we expect to keep this matter before them each time they meet until it is paid.

E. H. Beck, Miss Margie E. Neal, John S. Redditt, W. R. Cousins, Nat Patton, Julian P. Greer, Will D. Pace, Tom DeBerry, Cecil Murphy, Joe M. Moore, George Clark Purl, Will H. Martin, W. R. Poague, Albert Stone, Gus Russek, Walter Woodul, T. J. Holbrook, E. J. Blackett, W. K. Hopkins, John W. Hornsby, Roy Sanderford, H. Grady Woodruff, Ben G. Oneal, Wilburn B. Collier, Walter C. Woodward, Earnest Fellbaum, A. Parr, Frank H. Rawlings, K. M. Reagan, Arthur P. Duggan, C. C. Small. Address them all, Austin, Texas.

Our hats are off to Senator Arthur P. Duggan for getting this matter as far as he has. He has already done a lot of hard work on this matter and if this bill can be passed he will see to it that our people get what money is coming to them.

Mrs. P. A. Campbell Dies At Ackerly

Mrs. Eva Rena Campbell, wife of P. A. Campbell died at her home in Ackerly at five o'clock last Wednesday morning. She had been a resident of that community for five years and was esteemed by all who knew her.

The remains were taken to Voca, Texas, for interment and services conducted at the Church of Christ there by Rev. T. L. Allen at four o'clock p. m., Thursday.

She is survived by her husband and two children, Jack Winfrey of Pecos and Mrs. S. E. Sowell of Sterling City, Texas.

More Men Given Highway Work

Twenty more men have been given work in the grading and drainage work on Highway No. 9, making a total of 87 men now working in two shifts. The ones in charge stated that 100 men would probably be working within the next ten days.

Twenty-one teams belonging to Dawson county men are working. All men employed, with the exception of the bosses are Dawson county citizens. The men are doing splendid work and have already finished almost three miles of the grading.

Luncheon Club Hears Address By Rev. Cole

There were twenty at the Luncheon Club last Tuesday. M. C. Shelton had charge of the program and it was a good one too.

Owen C. Taylor led the singing and the club sang "Hopped Over the Other Grasshoppers Back" and all really enjoyed this silly song together. Mrs. Matt A. McCall was at the piano and gave popular music while the boys dined.

Little Miss Speck gave two interesting readings that thrilled those present. Especially was her reading about preachers eating chicken enjoyed.

The talk for the day was given by Rev. E. F. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist church. He spoke on the subject "A Good Citizen in the Community." As is always the case Rev. Cole rang the bell of thought and his lecture was one of the best of the year before the club.

President Bill Wallace has outlined a splendid program for the rest of the month. Some hum dingers coming up. Better get ready to attend that Luncheon Club or you will surely miss something. If you are a business or professional man in Lamesa this club is your club. Do not wait to be invited but come along with the rest and enjoy a real get together program as well as one that is always constructive.

Lions Club Has Record Attendance Wednesday

At the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday at noon at the Westland Hotel, the largest attendance in some time was present. Dr. J. M. Harrington was in charge of the program.

A very enjoyable program was given with Miss Jean Martin giving a reading; Mr. Odie Echols of Lubbock singing a solo and then he and Coy Echols singing a duet, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. G. Barnard.

New members initiated were Coy Echols, Gus White, Dan Oletree, Clarence Martin, Jesse Carroll and Conway King.

Visitors present were Odie Echols, Joe Spikes, and E. C. Ford of Lubbock.

Lions present besides new members were Dee Hull, William A. Wilson, A. G. Barnard, Ralph Stuart, Robert Kirk, W. H. Wallace Jr., J. R. Planiken, Sam Smith, Dr. Harrington, Dr. E. F. Nix and Bernie Holt.

In the attendance contest Dee Hull's group was in the lead. The contest closes next Wednesday, when prizes will be awarded the winner.

Miss Anna Beth Curry and Neal Mitchell of Seminole were shopping in Lamesa Monday.

Local Teacher Receives Recognition

Miss Ruth Hamilton, teacher in the local schools, received word recently that two oil paintings of her own production had been recognized as outstanding pieces of art and that they are now on display in Dallas. Following the exhibition there, they will be sent on a world tour with other notable productions and will be displayed in many large cities including New York, Chicago, London, Berlin and Paris.

These two pictures, one a landscape and the other a still life were done under the instruction of Alexander Hogue during the past summer. Hogue is one of America's leading modern artists and his work is recognized both in Europe and America.

Miss Hamilton plans to do more work under the same instructor next summer, two weeks of which will be spent with the artist's colony in Taos, New Mexico, where he teaches an extension course each summer.

Miss Hamilton has been connected with the Lamesa schools for four years as teacher of art and penmanship. She has made many friends in Lamesa who will rejoice with her in her success.

Concert To Close Chorus Work Friday

The singing school, or community chorus, which has been in progress here for the past two weeks, will close Friday evening of this week.

with an open program at the high school auditorium.

Odie L. Echols of Lubbock, who has directed the school, is more than pleased with progress of the students and with the interest shown by the community as a whole.

While we are not at liberty to give any details of the proposed concert we understand that a number of unusual features are being arranged. Among others, it is hoped that the "Vo-de-de-o-do" girls quartet from Abernathy will be present. (We can't take our oath that we spelled the name correctly, but everyone will know whom we mean.) These young ladies are known all over the South Plains and any number they may give will be an addition to the program. Other talent will be here from Lubbock also.

As the capacity of the auditorium is expected to be taxed to the limit, the public is warned to come early so as to get a good seat.—The O'Donnell Index.

Elmer Ireton made a business trip to Dallas this week.

Miss Opal Heath of Seminole was shopping here Monday.

Speech of Gen. Hugh Johnson on the NRA

The Recovery Act is therefore not a regimentation of industry—it is a charter of freedom. It is a simple fact that every single one of the Codes of great industries thus far approved has been agreed to by a substantial majority of all the corporations submitting it. There has been no dictation. The gist of the President's program is co-operation and not compulsion. It was an idea clearly in accord with the very fundamentals of American Democracy, and utterly opposed to the hopeless resorts to dictatorship abroad. If you look at the President's whole Recovery Program, you will find a similar principle running thru every act passed by the last Congress.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act is based on farmer cooperation to reduce production to demand. The various loan and credit Acts involve no imposition of arbitrary control on any body. There is not in the entire program a paragraph or a principle that departs from the essential idea on which this Government is based.

Growing out of this great effort, there is a distinct stirring of hope throughout this country. That hope is not without substance. Every economic index has moved substantially upward since those dark days of March. Signs of a broad advance are everywhere. The greatest element of recovery is recovery of confidence.

What is it that makes prices go up? Nothing in the world but a popular conviction that they are going up.

What is it that makes factory wheels go round? The simple belief that trade is going to take the output of the plant.

What is it that makes merchants fill their shelves? Confidence that people are going to empty them.

Why is it that you and I buy a new suit of clothes or an automobile, or have the house painted, or decide to spend a little money on a vacation trip? Just our judgement that we are going to keep our jobs or maybe get a raise in pay.

All that is CONFIDENCE—faith that things are not as inky black as we thought they were—belief that we see through rifts in all our clouds the sunlight of a brighter day.

No man can put his finger on any particular cause, and say that was why this country has been lifted about a quarter of the way out of the March depths. But any man can be very sure that there was chaos—then swift and intelligent action—and then action—wide improvement so definite and certain that nobody now denies it.

Nobody denies it, but now we are beginning to hear that no action at all was necessary—that improvement would have come anyway—that it would be better now if all these attempts to do something against disaster were abandoned—that what we want now is a return to the old rule of hands off and let the best—or as

Home Economics III

It has been our privilege as students of this unit to study and analyze the characteristics of an ideal home. We have, after much thought and discussion, come to a definite conclusion as to the characteristics and qualities of an ideal home. In our first discussion we studied the difference in a house and a home. Perhaps this brings to your minds what Edgar A. Guest once said: "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home."

On this last Wednesday we were honored with a splendid talk by Bro. Cole on "The Responsibilities of Husband and Wife in Making a Happy and Successful Home." We all felt the benefit of his talk and we thank him heartily for it. We have also had splendid talks from Mrs. R. F. Nix and Mr. Wm. A. Wilson. Mrs. Nix's subject was the same as Bro. Cole's and Mr. Wilson's was on the "Interrelation of the Community and the Home." All of these talks were enjoyed by the class and Miss Ragle our teacher.

We have discussed the responsibilities of the individual home. Miss Ragle has given us a self rating chart which we checked and there by found out our weaknesses in some of our personal traits. We aim to strengthen these weaknesses and thus improve our own character.

Home Economics Girls Can Food
The Home Economics Ila girls for the past two weeks have been studying canning. Not many vegetables and fruits are in season, so the girls were not able to can very much. Six quarts of peas and beans were canned. The class also made some apple jelly, apple preserves, apple butter and canned apples. Miss Ragle, the home economics teacher, gave a demonstration on making preserves and preserves.

Hitch-Rack Comes Back
The local public schools have come to the realization that they need the old time hitching-rack back.

A survey in the local schools shows that more than a dozen school children come to school on horse-back and more would come if they had convenience to permit the horses' safety and care. Many children who walk to school would come horse back if they could take care of the animal better. It looks as if more children will come in that fashion if times do not change.

not infrequently happened—the worst man win.

This cry comes from some of the very voices that in March were most eager for a virtual dictatorship and were making the halls of the Capitol ring with the X-Plan or the Y-Plan or the Z-Plan for a governmental financing, control, or guarantee of everything and every body.

"When the Devil was sick the Devil a monk would be—
When the Devil was well, the Devil a monk was he—"

Short memories—short sight—and short sportsmanship. The ship of our national fortunes is headed away from the storm center with a steady hand at the helm; but that is no reason for a change of course or to go back to such rudderless drifting as nearly wrecked us last winter.

(To be continued next week)

MELLOWED 80 MILLION YEARS

While brutes grew coats of mail in OKLAHOMA

Today the drills of Sinclair oil men have bitten deep into the soil of Oklahoma and tapped that treasure trove of the ages, the Cambro-Ordovician oil pool—the pool that was already old when the age of dinosaurs came upon the world. Piped into the great Sinclair refineries and carefully refined and blended, this oldest of Mid-continent crudes becomes Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, a product averaging more than 80 million years of Nature's priceless mellowing and filtering. In process of manufacture, Sinclair Opaline is de-waxed and freed from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Note how Sinclair Opaline lasts in the heat of hard, fast driving—observe at draining time how little oil has been used up. A sure proof of quality! Ask for Sinclair Opaline.

Lamesa Tornados Defeat Hamlin Pied Pipers 63 to 0

In a game that was featured by many long runs and successfully completed passes the Lamesa High School Golden Tornados came to life last Friday afternoon and defeated the Hamlin Pied Pipers by a score of 63 to 0.

The local boys completely outclassed the Hamlin boys, who before the game had been rated as an equal of the Lamesa team. The Hamlin boys fumbled, pulled bone head plays and in fact offered hardly any competition what so ever for the Tornados.

The Lamesa team showed its full possibilities for the first time in this game, all of the boys showing a great improvement over previous form. Several in fact played brilliantly.

We were unable to obtain the Hamlin line-up.

Substitutions were too frequent for us to try to keep a record of.

The Tornados meet the Hobbs, N. M., Oilers on the local field this Friday, and this is expected to be one of the best games of the season. The Hobbs team is a heavy, experienced bunch and the locals are looking for a hard fight.

This is to be a benefit game for Jimmie McKennon, all proceeds over expenses to go to the Jimmie McKennon fund. Jimmie is an ex-Tornado and is now seriously injured in a hospital at Waco.

Polo Game Sunday Between Local Teams

There will be a polo game played Sunday between local teams at the local polo field, the proceeds of which will go to the Jimmie McKennon fund. Everyone is urged to attend this game. There will be a small admission fee.
