Oregon Returns From 18-Day Swordfish Cruise

The research vessel Oregon, of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, recently returned to St. Simon's Island, Ga., after an 18-day exploratory cruise spent in exploratory long-line fishing for broadbill swordfish.

The cruise centered around Grand Bahama, Abaco and the Eleuthera Islands in the Bahamas, along the Continental Shelf off the Florida coast, using giant trotlines, miles long, in an attempt to determine availability of swordfish in those areas.

Nine night time sets in the area explored resulted in capture of 17 swordfish, as well as a number of other fishes. One 500-hook set in the Northeast Providence Channel yielded three small swordfish, 35, 27 and 52 pounds respectively, and another 300-hook set in the same area produced another swordfish.

Along the eastern edge of the Straits of Florida, no swordfish were caught, according to John R. Thompson, acting base director in charge of the research.

Forty-two miles north of Mantanilla Shoal along the Continental Shelf, a 500-hook set caught two swordfish, and the heaviest concentration of sharks also occured in this area. These included seven hammerheads, weighing a total of 1855 pounds; three white-tipped, weighing 347 pounds; two unidentified sharks, weighing 200 pounds; six silky sharks, weighing 873 pounds; and four dusky sharks, weighing a total of 858 pounds.

Other fish caught on this sea included a seven pound barracuda; a tuna head; a yellowfin tuna; sailfish; a 38 pound dolphin; two swordfish, and a blue marlin.

Thompson reports that the most promising fishing area is 70 miles east of St. Augustine, Fla., between 270 and 350 fathoms in surface water temperatures of 84 degrees. A 500-hook set, with 10- and 20-fathom buoy line drops, baited with frozen Spanish mackerel and squid, produced six swordfish that weighed a total of 559 pounds when brought on board.

Incidental catches on the various sets were blue marlin, sailfish, yellowfin tuna; bigeye tuna; blackfin tuna; barracuda; and dolphin. Shark damage was negligible, he said.

Firemen Make New Presentation To The City Council

The city council, at its regular meeting, heard a delegation from the fire department present a new plan whereby firemen would be paid $2 for attendance at first practice, and nothing for calls.

John Ray, Dick Fox, Coy Truelove, and Gene Carter made the presentation, with Fox explaining the plan.

Fox said the plan was the result of much thought by the firemen, and that it was unanimously approved at their last meeting.

At present, he said, the department had an average of 30 members. Twenty-four was the average attendance at meetings. This would make the weekly meetings cost the city not more than $48 a week, he said, the firemen would guarantee that such costs would not exceed $3,000 per year to the city.

Pointing out that everyone was paid but the fire department, the firemen offered this as a revision to their previous plan where they asked for $1 per meeting and $2 per call.

Fox said he believed this would make for a better fire department, as it would provide an incentive to the better men, while those who did'nt attend drills or obey orders would be weeded out.

The council, while listening receptively, outlined a number of factors that would have to be worked out before any answer could be given.

In other business, councilmen heard W. W. McClendon and Maurice Cochran outline plans for drainage in Deer Park addition area, and considered a preliminary budget.

A public hearing on next year's budget was set for 7 p.m., Aug. 23.

Congressman Young's Aid Sought on Loran

The aid of Congressman John Young has been solicited in obtaining LORAN—A navigational aid for the western Gulf of Mexico.

In a letter from John P. Mitchell, lieutenant-commander in the Eighth District Coast Guard Reserve and vice president of Rockport Yacht and Supply Co., he says:

"In April, 1963, a chart showing proposed and existing LORAN-A coverage of the Gulf of Mexico, together with a list of names of interested parties, was submitted to Senator Ralph Yarborough by the Commanadant, U. S. Coast Guard.

"The eastern portion of the Gulf of Mexico is presently covered by LORAN-A rates provided by stations located at Cape San Blas, Fla.; Venice, Fla.; Biloxi, Miss.; and Grand Isle, La.

"Land has been acquired for stations at Galveston and Port Isabel, which, when equipped, will give the needed and required coverage for the western Gulf of Mexico.

"The provision of LORAN-A coverage for the western Gulf of Mexico is a vital necessity for the maritime interests of all kinds to provide accurate navigation.

"This letter is written in behalf of the fishing industry of Texas. This essential aid to Navigation, which permits pin point accuracy, will materially improve the production of shrimp along the western Texas gulf coast, as well as snapper production, by permitting shrimp trawlers to avoid wrecks, poor bottom and other obstructions, and permitting the snapper boats to find these same wrecks and broken bottom where they do their fishing.

"Many thousands of dollars worth of gear and lost production time can be saved each year if the coverage is provided as outlined.

"Your interest and cooperation in this important matter is solicited and will be appreciated by the 4,000 fishing vessel operators who fish the western Gulf from time to time."

Copies of Mitchell's letter were also sent to other members of the fishing and boat building industry along this coast, as well as to people who have been active in trying to obtain LORAN-A for the western gulf.

These included Duane Orr, engineer for the Nueces County Navigation District, Corpus Christi; Will Hardee of the Sea Gorden Sales Co., Brownsville; Sid Herndon, of the Gulf King Shrimp Co., Aransas Pass; Larry Ray, insurance man, Aransas Pass; J. D. Wellborn, trawler owner, Ingleside; and O. M. Longnecker, secretary of the shrimp association, at Brownsville.

Developer Asks City of Aransas Pass For Water

Several potential customers of Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District will be lost if the Aransas Pass city council accedes to a request made by George Strickhausen III at its regular meeting.

Although the area in question lies within the Conservation and Reclamation District, Strickhausen has asked that the City of Aransas Pass furnish water to his new marina-type subdivision between Rockport and the plant of United Carbon.

Strickhausen made three alternate proposals: First, that the city lay an eight-inch line to the subdivision, and handle metering and collections; or that Strickhausen lay a two-inch line to the subdivision, which would be turned over to the city to handle metering and collections; or, third, that the city sell Strickhausen water at the northern limits of Aransas Pass.

Since the subdivision is outside the city limits of Aransas Pass, the council, after considerable discussion decided that it would not be practical for the city to undertake either of the first two propositions.

However, councilmen did agree to sell to Strickhausen, who has extensive real estate holdings and developments in Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District, all of which lies within Aransas County.

This water would be sold through a meter at the northern limits of Aransas Pass with construction of the supply lines, metering, etc, to be Strickhausen's responsibility.

Strickhausen is also said to be negotiating for possible sale of water to the carbon black plant, officials of which have been much interested in the Conservation District's efforts to obtain water, despite local opposition.

Aransas Pass City Manager Gay Walker was instructed to develop figures on water costs which can be used in negotiating a contract with Strickhausen.

The subdivision for which the developer wants water is only one of several he has

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING SHORT

At the regular meeting of the Aransas County Independent School Board, Supt. J. D. Gray advised trustees that installation of curtains at Fulton, Rockport, and in the high school was beginning, and that installation of baskets in the high school gymnasium is scheduled immediately.

These baskets, Gray said, would cost between $1400 and $1500. Summer repairs to Rockport Elementary were estimated at around $6200.

The trustees, in other business, elected Harold Cornelison as sixth grade teacher in Rockport Elementary, and heard Gray's report that the service on school buses, gasoline for the vehicles and so on would be furnished by Bill's Humble Service Station.

The new bus ordered has not been delivered because of strikes Gray said, but all the buses are in good shape, so this should cause no trouble.

THE POLICE BEAT . . .

During the past week, according to Chief of Police Bob Hewes, he has handled the cases of six juveniles, from five through 11 years of age.

Two brothers, 7 and 8, and a sister, age 11, were involved in some malcious mischief at a home under construction near Rockport Elementary School. The father of the children, when contacted, made restitution for the damage caused.

In another instance, a father of two boys, six and eight, and a girl, five, brought the children to Chief Hewes with several items they had stolen from a local grocery store. After a 30-minute conference with the children and their father, it was agreed that the children would return the items to the store manager, and complete restitution was made in this instance.

Hewes also reported a theft. During the night of Aug. 5, five sheets of Palawan mahogany paneling were stolen from new construction underway at the Walter Cassel home. These four by eight sheets were valued at approximately $5 each.

Our Town Service Welcomes New Families to Area

New families in Rockport are greeted by "Our Town" Service and Mrs. Nancy Murphy, who is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in her efforts.

Of course, Mrs. Murphy says, she misses a few, for there are some whose utilities are paid by property owners, whose names she cannot obtain through this regular source, and there are some who just aren't at home when Mrs. Murphy or her assistant call.

Nevertheless, they have welcomed nearly 30 families to this area recently.

Among them were the C. E. Wilson of 610 Pearl Street, who came here from Baytown; the J. Blanton family, of Hobbs, N. M., who own and operate the Blanton Apartments in Little Bay Shores;

LaVonne Caywood R.N. of Rockport, instructor at Del Mar Technical Institute has been selected by the National Association for Practical Nurse Education and Service (NAPNES) to attend a week-long seminar on rehabilitation at the New York University Institute for Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. The seminar, to be held Sept. 13-17, is one of a series sponsored by NAPES through a grant from the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mrs. Audrey Reed announced that Mrs. Caywood was one of 20 instructors of practical nurse students from the midwest region to attend. Other practical nurse educators from Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Louisiana, Texas, Missouri, and Kansas will be on hand at the famous Rusk Institute to learn about the latest techniques in rehabilitation for dissemination to practical nurse students and licensed vocational nurses.

Mrs. Rose G. Martin, National President, stated, "NAPES is sponsoring the seminar project for the benefit of vast numbers of handicapped people who need the care of Licensed Vocational Nurses. It is estimated that over 2.2 million handicapped people of working age could benefit from vocational rehabilitation to enable them to work in the competitive market. Since increased responsibilities are falling to the Licensed Vocational Nurses of Texas, we must utilize every means available to prepare them to care for handicapped persons."

Mrs. Caywood is clinical instructor of Vocational Nursing at Del Mar School of Vocational Nursing, affiliated with Spohn and Memorial Hospitals. She has been teaching vocational nurse students for five years. The Del Mar Vocational School graduates three classes of 20 students per year.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11 proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing loans to students at institutions of higher education; creating the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund and making provisions relating thereto.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new Section to read as follows:

"Section 50b. STUDENT LOANS. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called 'Texas College Student Loan Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purposes of this Section.

"(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund to be administered by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and provide a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

"(c) While any of the bonds, or interest on said bonds authorized by this Section is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

"(d) The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

"(e) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

"(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such acts shall not be void because of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for loans to students at institutions of higher education to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for loans to students at institutions of higher education to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Licenses Available By September 1

AUSTIN. — The annual scramble for hunting and fishing licenses will be eased this fall by earlier shipment of the permits to the approximately 2500 dealers throughout the state.

Bill Marks of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department staff, said arrangements have been advanced to have all licenses in the hands of dealers well before the new state fiscal year begins Sept. 1.

The total consignments will comprise 775,000 fishing licenses and 736,000 hunting licenses of which 175,000 will be exempt hunting licenses.

In the past, efforts to make last-minute delivery to avoid conflict with the old license routine caused some inconvenience among sportsmen and also a sizable problem for the harassed dealers, said Marks.

"We expect to have the licenses in the mail very shortly," saids Marks. "Of course, there will be the usual rare instances of unreceived shipments, unavoidable in handling the great number of parcels, but the extra time will help us adjust these cases."

Marks wanted to make it clear that the new licenses will not be good until Sept. 1 and that the old licenses will be invalid after this date.

Sale of hunting and fishing licenses provides more than half of the revenue needed to finance departmental operations, including costs of the vast experimental projects leading toward better luck for the angler and better shooting for the hunter.

The ordinary sports fishing license costs $2.15 and the resident hunting license $3.15. There are numerous exemptions, such as for those under 17 and older than 65 years. But in the case of deer hunting, these privileged persons need a special exempt license to provide the proper tags, which may be obtained for an issuance fee of 25c per license.

HIGH DRAFT CALLS MAY CAUSE MANY 19 YEAR OLDS TO BE INDUCTED

If draft calls remain high, Texas draft boards will be inducting a "considerable number of 19-year-olds" by fall, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said this week.

"We induct mostly 21-year-olds in August," Col. Schwartz said. "Those we'll examine in September for future induction will be mostly 20 year old."

By October, he predicted, "we will be examining a considerable number of 19-year-olds. If calls remain high, we'll be inducting them soon there after. We likely will be ordering a few 19-year-olds in September."

The forecast followed receipt of an amended September quota for Texas of 1,459 men and an estimated October call of 1780. Recent monthly quotas have been around 100 to 900.

The state draft director said that the "declining age of involuntary induction during recent months has focused increased attention upon the clasification of college students."

He said draft boards were advised the day after President Johnson announced doubling of the draft that, when they question a student's progress, they should request him to supply additional information to support continued deferment.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that local boards were instructed to mail current information questionnaires to all married men 19 to 26 years old who have no children, except in cases where current information is in the files. This action was also taken the day after the President's announcement.

"This is a prepardness measure and screening," Colonel Schwartz said. "These things can happen to these men as a result of this survey.

"Those who have children, or hardship conditions, will be deferred formally; those who have wives alone will continue to be passed over for the draft for the time being; but those not living with their wives, or wives and children, in a bona fide family relationship will be subject to the draft at once," the state draft director concluded.

Fall Models Paraded For Texas Sports

The precise pattern for Texas' vaunted wildlife harvest has been cut by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Dates, bag and possession limits, shooting hours and other details for the more popular species do not vary greatly from last year. But the exact rules for the different places governed directly by the Commission necessarily provide variations to meet the existing need.

Whatever the regulations, the Commission motif envisions a generous share of most species for the Texas gunners.

Final trimmings will be delayed in 33 new counties added to the regulatory responsibility bloc by the last Legislature since the law changing their status does not become effective until Sept. 1. The required public hearings will be held in each of the counties after that date to consider proposed harvest regulations. Then the Commission will meet in Austin, consider results of local county hearings and issue proclamations before the major hunting season begins.

The taking of game and fish in counties not under the regulatory responsibility of the Parks and Wildlife Commision is set by statute and is governed by the general law applying to such counties.

Here is a detailed rundown on the hunting season as a result of action taken by the Parks and Wildlife Commission at its July meeting:

The Commission authorized opening the deer season in most counties under regulatory responsibility on the second Saturday of November (Nov. 13) three days before the legal opening in counties under statutory regulations.

The mule deer country in the Trans-Pecos was excepted. Season for deer, elk and turkey in those counties west of the Pecos was set to begin the last Saturday of November for 16 consecutive days (Nov. 27 - Dec. 12.)

In those counties under regulatory responsibility, the Commission again designated a legal turkey as a gobbler or bearded hen. A bearded hen was further defined as a turkey hen having a clearly visible heard protruding through the feathers of the breast.

Following is the list of the bag limits and seasons on the major game species in the various regulatory authority districts.

South Central Texas District (Aransas, Bexar, Cameron, Dimmit, Frio, Hidalgo, Jim Wells, Kinney, Live Oak, Medina, San Patricio, Starr, Uvalde, Webb and Zavala Counties.)

Deer — open season, 2nd Saturday of November through Dec. 31. Bag limit two buck deer. Anterless deer may be taken by special permit in areas designated by the Parks and Wildlife Department, but no more than three deer in the aggregate.

Javelina—no closed season except in Bexar, Cameron and Hidalgo Counties where the open season is the 2nd Saturday of November through December 31. There is no bag limit except in Bexar, Cameron and Hidalgo Counties where the bag limit will be two per season.

Squirrel—no closed season, no bag limit.

Quail—open season, the 2nd Saturday of November through January 31, bag limit, 12 quail per day, possession limit 36. The taking of quail in San Patricio County is governed by statutory regulations.

Turkey—open season, 2nd Saturday of November through December 31 except that in Cameron County there is no open season. Bag limit, two turkeys per season except in Frio County where hunters can take three turkeys per season.

State-owned river beds in Dimmit, Uvalde and Zavala Counties, including, but not limited to, the Nueces and Frio Rivers, were again closed to all hunting.

Seventy per cent of the over 65 population of Texas has one or more voluntary health insurance policies.

Five per cent of the total number of degrees of doctor of medicine granted in this country each year are given to women.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Board and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to Texas veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955, and who upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the Constitutional Amendment adopted on November 6, 1956, shall be credited to said Veterans' Land Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing additional lands, to be sold as provided herein, until December 1, 1965; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965, all moneys attributable to such bonds shall be set aside for the retirement of such bonds and to pay interest thereon; and when there are sufficient moneys to retire all of such bonds, all of such moneys then remaining or thereafter becoming a part of said Veterans' Land Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board (a 'series of bonds' being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds hereafter issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law"; and

"AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of same Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date set forth in said Amendment, and the Governor shall issue a proclamation in keeping therewith.

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this state.

Texas Raising Better Arabians Than the Arabs

The same oil money that makes it possible for Arabs to buy tanks, machine guns and air conditioned Cadillacs, forgetting their ancient breed of war mares, is also benefitting South Texas breeders who, according to Gerald Donoghue of Goliad, are producing some of the finest Arabian horses in the world.

"It's interesting to me," he said, "that an area which might be said to owe its existence to the Arabian may prove to be the focal point for perpetuation of the finest of the breed, rather than Arabia where the horses originated.

"The first Arabian blood came to Texas when the Conquistadores explored and colonized this part of the world, riding horses descended from Moorish Barbs, a coarse type Arabian.

"Later various Barb stallions and some Arabians were imported to the American colonies. George Washington rode a descendant of a Barb stallion that belonged to Light Horse Harry Lee and bought other Lee horses to pull Martha's carriage.

"English Thoroughbreds descended from Arabians sired early American sprinting stock that moved westward to Texas with the Anglo-Saxon pioneers. Their offspring, crossed with Spanish cow ponies whose ancestors were the Conquistadores' horses, furnished part of the foundation stock of the present breed of American Quarter Horses, which now have a registry of their own."

But none of these early Arabian descendants were comparable with the pure-blooded ones now being bred in South Texas by men like Douglas Marshall, the Houston breeder, whose Glennloch Farms near Spring, Texas have produced two winners of the King Saud Cup; Donoghue, whose mare Tasliya won it once; William R. Hahn, of Corpus Christi, whose ranch is at Beeville; or the Chapmans, Walter and Carroll, who trained for Donohug for many years, and who won it twice with their own horses.

"The fact that out of eight years the King Saud Cup has been awarded, it went to South Texas horses six times, competing against Arabians from all over America, should prove we have the finest," Donoghue said.

And he ought to know, for in the years he has been breeding and showing Arabians, he has owned and seen the best. After a decade in which Donoghue horses traveled more than a quarter of a million miles in the United States and Canada, he has recently quit the shows for an indefinite period.

"We are concentrating on production," he said, "and the foals we used to keep for the show ring will now be for sale. except, of course, those we want to use in our breeding program."

During the years Donoghue's Arabians were in the show rings, they compiled a magnificent record.

His great stallion, Ibn Hanrah, was acclaimed Arabian stallion of 1957, which year he traveled 30,000 miles, taking blue ribbons and championships from New Jersey to California. So popular was the big bay with crowds that youngsters formed fan clubs in his honor, and still write in, asking for pictures. Ibn Hanrah also has a reserve national championship to his credit; was runner-up for the King Saud Cup in 1957; and has been open champion of Canada.

Donoghue's equally great mare, Tasliya, was 1958 winner of the King Saud Cup, awarded each year to the Arabian horse compiling the most points in U. S. show rings. Another mare, Sunny Acres Serranita, was winner of a Top Ten Canadian award.

Besides these, Goliad horses have won six Top Ten Halter Awards, two Top Ten Performance Awards, three Legion of Merit Awards, 76 championships, 49 reserve championships, 519 blue ribbons, and 1303 other ribbons, "besides the many given away to friends of which we kept no count."

An ex-Houston Chronicle newspaper reporter, Donoghue remembers the time nearly 30 years ago when M. E. Walter, long-time Chronicle editor, sent him to get a story on Arabians at the famous Pin Oak Stables, "because I was the only one in the city room interested in horses."

He already had one horse, which he hoped would be the foundation mare for a herd of palominos "for in those days you could get $1,000 for any kind of old yellow horse," but after he saw the Arabians, nothing else would do. Today he owns around 40, from tiny, fuzzy foals to hot-eyed young stallions and, newspaper days long past, makes a business of raising horses.

His place near Goliad is easy to find. Just before the sprawling ranch house is reached, the fields along the road sprout horses — bays, chestnuts, grays and whites —matronly brood mares with the high arched crests, flowing tail and beautifully sculptured heads that are the Arabian hall mark, and leggy colts and yearlings that travel with great reaching strides, as though on springs.

Donoghue was one of the men who met in Austin years ago to organize the Arabian Horse Club of Texas, whose membership has since grown to over 150. Since then, he says, two other clubs have been formed—the Gulf Coast Arabian Horse Club and the North Texas Arabian Horse Club—and the three have a combined and overlapping membership of over 200.

For that matter, owners and breeders of Arabian horses are like an informal club, with the horses binding them together.

"You can go anywhere in the country," the Goliad horseman said "and call another Arabian owner. In two minutes he'll know if you belong, and from then on he can't do enough for you."

One reason for this, he believes, is the high standard set by the Arabian Horse Registry, which was formed 60 years ago, with the strictest rules of any registry in this country or abroad.

The breed, as everyone knows, originated in the deserts of Arabia, where warring tribes used the mares for forays calling for tremendous sustained speed and endurance. From there Arabians spread, first to neighboring ones and then to others far distant in both hemispheres.

Arabians are unique among horse breeds as being the only ones where no outcross is or has been permitted in historic times. Only purebred progeny of Arabian mares are eligible for registry in the Arabial Horse Club Registry of America. All living registered Arabians in this country descend from animals imported to America since 1879. And imported horses, no mater from whence they come, must show unblemished blood lines reaching back to the desert horses, whose pedigrees were carefully kept by the tribes.

This registry is so strict that any seller who willfully misrepresents the Arabial he sells is immediately blackballed from the organization.

This strictness applies to foreign horses as well as those raised in this country. Before an Arabian can be imported from Egypt or one of the great studs in Poland or England, the prospective importer must pay the expenses of a registry official who will inspect the animal and its papers wherever found; then, once these are approved, the animal can be imported, but must pay a fee of $2500 to be included into the U. S. registry. All this is in addition to the price paid for the animal, and the costs of shipment and quarantine.

Most importations come from England and Poland, where Arabians have been raised for more than 200 years, but 90 per cent of the time, Donoghue says, there are better horses already available in this country. Importations from Arab countries have almost ceased, with only a few coming from Egypt, for oil has rendered horses unimportant, and the Arabs are neglecting their ancient breed. Observers have told Donoghue that in Sauli Arabia it is unfortunate the way the breed has been allowed to deteriorate.

The strictness with which the American registry is conducted, works to the benefit of the breed, and is a tremendous safeguard to the buyer, Donoghue says, making it possible to buy horses over the telephone if this becomes necessary.

"I wouldn't have the slightest hesitancy in doing this," he said, "if I wanted the horse."

Arabians are not cheap . . . In a Washington, D.C. sale, some time ago, 38 of them averaged $5200, and the mares Donoghue buys may run as much as $10,000 each.

"Of course," he said, "I always try to buy three-in-one: the mare, her foal on foot, and the mare bred to a stallion I approve and whose blood lines fit our breeding program here."

Despite this, a surprising number of Arabians are sold to people in the middle income bracket who can produce satisfactory references, on a time payment plan, like cars.

Asked why Arabians were popular enough that even colts command prices of $1500 and up, Donoghue said:

"First, they are beautiful and they are natural. You don't have to glamorize an Arabian. That's already been done by the horses themselves, of the centuries. And you don't need artificial tails and that sort of thing to make them picture horses.

"They're also an all purpose horse, especially for the fellow who can own only one or two, and wants something unique and rare. An Arabian's gaits are walk, trot and canter, but he's also a natural at running, jumping, as a parrade horse and in light harness.

"For centuries they have been noted for their intelligence, gentleness and affection for their masters, rugged hardiness and great indurance. But, more than that, when you straddle an Arabian you know you are riding the great grandaddy of all the other saddle horses in the world."

underway in this region. A number of years ago, he began with the Copano Ridge development, and since then has begun or developed a number more, including Copano Cay, Copano Cove and Copano Heights. He also has extensive interests in West Terrace.

Interested observers of the Aransas County struggle for water, after hearing of Strickhausen's request, said that this might be a method whereby an assured water supply could be secured for these subdivisions, along with Oak Terrace and Lazy Acres, owned by Mrs. R. B. Sipe and Mr. and Mrs. Wagley.

Strickhausen said the new marina subdivision will be known as Gulf Gate Marina. Situated between Highway 35 and Redfish Bay, much of it fronts on the Intracoastal Waterway, with canals leading inland giving easy access to some of the fishing spots in this area.

The present development includes 80 lots, Strickhausen said, all of which are served by a wide, concrete-bulkheaded canal. Fill from the canal excavation is being used to elevate the adjacent building sites which face either side of the waterway.

Most of the canal has been excavated by draglines, and a considerable portion of the bulkheading is in place, the real estate developer said.

Only permanent-type homes may be built, Strickhausen said, with the first to start in about two weeks.

Plans also call for construction of highway and marine service stations, a shopping center and lighted fishing pier.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Adams returned Monday after two weeks with daughter and famly, Capt. and Mrs. John Webb and daughters, Wurtsmith Base, Oscoda, Mich.

Ancient Fort's Restoration To Be Completed Soon

Late this fall, after Architect Raiford Stripling and his crew have finished, the restored Spanish fortress of Nuestra Senora de Loreto de la Bahia will frown once more from a rocky height near the San Antonio River, close to Goliad, just as it was that day in 1836 when Col. J. W. Fannin and his men were slaughtered.

But the history of the ancient fortification and its site go much farther back than that.

During the course of the restoration, working with shovels, trowels and screens, so that not even the tiniest artifact may be lost or the most fragile broken, Stripling and his men have uncovered ten cultural layers at the site, ranging from kitchen middens, flint tools and weapons of the Coahuiltecan Indians that once lived there to sophisticated trash of later generations, including the Spaniards who built the fort and the cattlemen who once used its parade ground as an experimental farming plot.

Laid down in layers for archeologists to read and tie in with published history and word-of-mouth tradition are stone arrowheads, Spanish iron work, steel plates from rifle butts, English china and the debris that has accumulated since, and which, before restoration was started, often buried the ruins of the presidio walls to a depth of five or six feet.

But it is a plan prepared by one of Fannin's men, plus a couple of ancient photographs, one uncovered by the late Bishop M. S. Garriga, that Stripling, an expert on such restorations, owes most.

Lieut. Joseph M. Chadwick, a native of New Hampshire, was the man, and he made a diagram of the fort, which Fannin called Fort Defiance, showing the ground plan, troop dispositions and the gun emplacements. A copy of that map, evidently sent home before Chadwick perished in the massacre, remained in the Chadwick family papers, and was given to Stripling by one of the soldier's descendants.

"That map has been invaluable," Stripling said. "All the walls were true to scale, and it has given us a good general guide. We haven't found any great differences between what it shows and what is here."

While uncovering the foundations of the walls and digging cross trenches on the rest of the site, a vast jumble of old guns, pottery, ammunition, bayonets, building material, arrowheads, beads and similar items have been unearthed — thousands and thousands of them—and these have all been carefully catalogued, photographed, sketched, and tied in with a map of the site, to keep a complete record. Similarly, building material recovered has been tagged and indexed for use in the restoration.

Almost every bit of the three acres of earth within the presidio walls has been sifted for artifacts, but the main portion of the project has been concerned with reconstruction of the walls and structures of the fortress itself.

Chadwick's sketch shows that, as with the classic mission and presidio of the Spanish, there were double walls in some areas which, roofed over, provided quarters for the soldiery.

When the work first started, the site consisted of an old chapel from the original presidio, still used as a church by the local Catholics, and a long series of crumbling walls, enclosing a parade ground.

The project was planned by Mrs. Kathryn O'Connor, widow of the late Tom O'Connor, Sr., of Victoria, on whose ranch lands the late Roy Cullen discovered the great Quinana Oil Field, and she has been the driving force behind the restoration, furnishing funds for the work.

At the start, the grounds were divided into 20-foot squares, and trenches were dug along most of the lines, as well as outside the crumbling walls which, in their original state were five varas, or about 14 feet in height. Inside these walls, exactly five varas, was another line of walls. The two formed the outer sides of what had been a series of rooms extending completely around the quadrangle.

The highest and longest room was the commandant's; the more cramped quarters went to the privates; while one room, without windows, was the calabozo.

An add discovery outside the wall of the commandant's quarters was a single room, with a painted dado inside the walls, and no exit to the outside except through the commandant's. This room, restorers theorize, may have been where the Spanish officer kept his girl friend.

Once these walls were uncovered, a cement gun is used to inject concrete into the crevices, making the stones a solid mass, much stronger than under the Spanish method of construction, when they were held in place by a heavy coat of plaster on the outside. When the concrete has set, a completion foundation is poured in a trench under the old wall, which was originally built on top of the ground. In this manner, the restoration is being prepared to last for another couple of centuries.

Stripling says not all of the fort was built at the same time, as several different styles of masonry exist. Fannin repaired the southwest bastion, which Stripling rebuilt, and repaired a breach in the north wall, using a different type of construction than the early Spanish.

"So," the architect said, "we're repairing the early walls after the Spanish fashion, and rebuilding the Fannin construction along the same lines he used."

An interesting sidelight is the fact that the workmen on the project have learned to duplicate the early walls so that it is almost impossible to see where old construction leaves off and new begins.

At the present time, the east and west walls are completed, but considerable work remains on the south wall, where the sally port jail and guardhouse are located. Work is proceeding more rapidly on the commandant's quarters, barracks and arsenal, originally built along the inside of the west wall.

Work on the bastions that formed three corners of the original fortress is also well in hand. These extend out from the wall so the cannon mounted in them could rake attackers from the outside. These bastions are located on the northwest, southeast and southwest corners, and a sentry post at the northeast corner is also being rebuilt.

The north wall, still in ruins, will be the last portion of the restoration to be rebuilt.

Stripling, who comes from San Augustine, Texas, is the architect in charge; Lewis A. Pettus, of Goliad, is the engineer; Frank Farley, Goliad, is construction foreman; L. A. Beard, of Victoria College, serves as archeologist; and Mary Jo Sullivan, of Goliad, is project secretary.

Science symposium at the University of Texas brings together students, teachers and scientists to review progress in atomic research.

YOUTH LOOKS AT THE ATOM

The atom will work hard for today's youth, because young Americans are learning how its vast energy may be adapted to better electrical living.

Central Power and Light Company is helping them learn through its participation in the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

TAERF experiments are adding to our knowledge of the sun and stars, bringing us closer to the day when nuclear fusion will provide unlimited power for human progress. Through symposiums sponsored by CPL and other electric companies, this new knowledge is shared with the student scientists who will help bring about tomorrow's electrical miracles.

The use of electricity is doubling every ten years as modern America calls upon it for more comfort and convenience. Atomic research is one of the many ways in which CPL is making sure that electric service will always be plentiful, high in quality and low in price.

AN OPEN LETTER

Contrary to belief, the local law enforcement agencies have no jurisdiction whatsoever over liquor licenses issued by the State. Therefore, when a violation is reported it is investigated and if circumstances warrant, it is turned over to the State Liquor Control Board.

Also contrary to local gossip, the past incident of a local minor purchasing beer from an establishment here was turned over to the Board, and subsequently the license of said establishment was suspended for a period of 10 days.

Incidentally, there were no scissors protruding from the body of Mrs. Jon Thompson (known locally as Carolyn Blake). The autopsy report clearly shows death due to "acute barbiturate intoxication," or an overdose of sleeping pills. The report also shows "no external injuries" and subsequently a verdict of suicide was rendered by the presiding Justice of the Peace.

If just one-half as much effort was put forth in finding out the facts as there is in manufacturing them, Aransas County would have a much better atmosphere and your local authorities could devote more time to serving you because they could spend less time defending themselves.

Sincerely,
Joe Earl Hunt, Sheriff,

HARRY CARTER'S FOURTH LETTER ARRIVES AT PILOT

Harry Carter, vacationing in England and France, also took time to visit the Channel Islands, and his fourth letter describes them.

Jersey to London

The is a great improvement on the vessels that made this run half a century ago. Scores of tip-back armchairs, well appointed cabins for the night schedule runs, restaurant, cafe, a purser, genial and well informed, all contribute to the comfort of the passengers.

It is 8:30 on a chilly, sunny day in St. Helier. Taking our last look at the city and port as the methodical ship's engines take the ship out to sea, we give a thought to the gilt statue of King George II, hidden from sight among the crowded buildings still in veiw.

Well, George certainly was no Caesar. History tells us that he was completely swayed in affairs of State by the queen. This fact led to a well-known jibe of those times, "you may strut, dapper George, but t'will all be in vain. We know t'is Queen Caroline, not you that reign."

Yet history also records the fact that the King had great personal courage. A notable instance of this being seen at the Battle of Dettingen, where he personally, and on foot, led his troops into action.

So, surely he does merit the laurel wreath.

As the ship changes course, heading north for Guernsey, one sees the rugged, rusty-looking rocks that litter the coast and menace the voyager and his vessel.

10:30 a.m. We now come to St. Peter's Port, Guernsey, to a scene of animation and color. The little port is crowded with craft of many kinds. They include the ferry boats that go to other smaller islands, a host of yachts and pleasure boats,

A neat little grey launch flying the blue ensign, the flag of the British Royal Naval Reserve.

Passengers are now coming aboard the Sarnia with much chatter, seeking comfortable accommodations on one or other of the three decks on this spacious ship. Meanwhile carnations grown in Guernsey are being loaded in immense quantities, neatly packed and labeled.

The yield of flowers grown in the Channel Islands is fabulous. Last year 588,843 boxes were exported from Jersey along.

Goodbye Guernsey! The ship is out to sea again, Weymouth the next stop. Many white-hooded herring gulls follow us. Rising up fast from the stern, they seem to be hurled into the air.

The islands are now sinking below our horizon and the gulls are zooming, diving, squacking in the wake of the Sarnia.

The passenger standing next to me has handed a gold watch to the inspector, who is examining it with the aid of a magnifying glass. Occasionally this kind of thing happens, but not often seen in my experience.

The boat train from the Quay is now on its way to London, providing us with familiar scenes such as a corner of the New Forests, where wild ponies roam. Southampton and giant ships. Fields of grain, reaching upward to distant hills, bowling greens with billiard table towns, cricket and soccer grounds, etc.

There are many complaints made today about the tardiness of British trains. One of the sufferers wrote to the London Daily Mail as follows:

"It is extraordinary that American scientists can get Mariner IV punctually to her destination after a journey of some 350 million miles while the management of British Rail cannot undertake to get a train from Ramsgate to Charing Cross (74 miles) anything like on time!"

However the writer has no reason to complain as our train arrived at Waterloo Station right on time.

"(1) Ninety per cent (90%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966, shall be allocated to state institutions based on projected enrollment increases published by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for fall 1966 to fall 1978.

"(2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

"(3) All of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on determinations used in the June 1, 1966, allocations except that the allocations of fifty per cent (50%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on projected enrollment increases for fall 1972 to fall 1978, and fifty per cent (50%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds to the eligible state institutions then in existence based on determinations for the said ten-year period that are similar to the determinations used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that enrollment projections for succeeding ten-year periods will be from the fall semester of the first year to the fall semester of the tenth year. All such designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any general revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue Funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and proper warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose. This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption so as to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment but such notes or bonds shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 57 proposing an Amendment to Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding to said Section as presently written, the following provisions: requiring automatic retirement of certain District and Appellate Judges at age seventy-five (75) or such earlier age, not under seventy (70), as may be provided by law; creating a State Judicial Qualifications Commission and providing for its composition and the qualifications, methods of selection and terms of office of its members; defining the functions and procedures of said Commission, including the duty to investigate, and hold hearings in respect of, disability and misconduct of District and Appellate Judges and to make recommendations to the Supreme Court of Texas for involuntary retirement or removal of such Judges; empowering the Supreme Court of Texas, in its discretion, to retire such Judges for disability and to remove them for misconduct, upon recommendation of the aforesaid Commission and consideration of the record made before it; defining misconduct for which said Judges may be so removed; providing that the proceedings of said Commission shall be confidential until filed in the Supreme Court with recommendation for retirement or removal; and providing that the removal provisions hereby established shall be alternative to and cumulative of those provided elsewhere in the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that said Section shall hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

"(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iiii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iiii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

"(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iiii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

"(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section 1-a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to misconduct or disability of particular Justices or Judges, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

"(8) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

"(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No Justice or Judge shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the methods of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commmssion, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this Amendment shall be published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.
