Bryant Roach, Buck Cox And O. B. Smith Die

One Victim From Lubbock And Two From Levelland

Two Levelland men and one Lubbock man were dead and another Lubbock man was in critical condition in a Levelland hospital this morning as result of two traffic accidents on the South Plains Sunday.

Dead are Buck Cox, 36, and Bryant Roach, 38, both of Levelland, and O. B. Smith, 36, of 617 Ave. C, Lubbock. In critical condition this morning at Phillips-Dupre hospital in Levelland is Robert C. Ford, 33, who is believed to reside at 1816 Ave. Q, in Lubbock.

Was Killed Instantly

Roach, owner of the Motor Inn cafe at Levelland, was killed instantly when the 1947 Buick sedan in which he was riding with Cox and Ford was in headon collision with a ton-and-a-half Chevrolet truck driven by Leonard Odell Peevy, 37, of Sundown, about 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the first railroad crossing on the west side of Levelland. The truck driven by Peevy belonged to Kenting Drilling Co., with headquarters in Tulsa.

According to Highway patrol officials here, who investigated the collision along with the sheriff's office in Levelland, Cox lived only about ten minutes. Cox was reported to be the manager of a Levelland service station. Peevy received only minor scratches.

Condition Is Critical

Ford, driver of the sedan, was reported by hospital officials at mid-morning to be conscious but in extremely critical condition. An attending physician said Ford suffered a severely crushed chest, severe brain concussion, probable fractured skull, several broken ribs and a fractured right thigh.

Ford's address was listed by patrol records as Denver, Colo., but Levelland hospital officials listed his address as 1816 Ave. Q, Lubbock. One man reported that he believed Ford was planning to open "some sort of shop in Lubbock."

Burned to death about 12:15 a. m. Sunday when a gasoline truck mysteriously swerved from the highway was O. B. Smith, 36, of 617 Ave. C, a resident of Lubbock for about four years.

Smith, driver of a loaded gasoline transport truck going west, apparently without cause swerved to the left on the Lorenzo-Lubbock highway about two miles west of Lorenzo, barely missed a concrete abutment of a bridge, and plunged down a gully near an old gravel pit at Shirley lake.

Law enforcement officers reported that they were not able to extricate the charred body from

36 Killed In Storm Crash Of Airliner

Steep Ravine Slopes Slow Efforts To Remove Trapped Bodies; Rescue Squads Form Chain

(By The Associated Press)

WINONA, Minn., Aug. 30—A human chain will wind its way down the steep and rocky side of a 150 foot ravine today to bring out the mangled bodies of 26 persons trapped in the wrecked fuselage of a Northwest Airlines plane.

The bodies of 10 others were carried out last night.

The 36 persons died as the storm raked airliner crashed atop a wooded Mississippi river bluff near here late yesterday and toppled into the ravine.

The crash occurred between Winona and Fountain City, Wis., on the Wisconsin side of the river during the height of a severe electrical and rain storm.

Coroner Herbert F. Stohr of Alma, Wis., said ten bodies were removed to Alma before recovery efforts were halted last night. He said that the sides of the ravine were so steep that he must use a human chain of workers to remove the bodies still trapped in the tangled wreckage. The wooded and rocky ravine has 45 degree slopes.

The plane was one of the airlines newer Martin 2-0-2 ships and was bound for Minneapolis from Chicago with 33 passengers and three crew members.

It left Chicago at 3:50 p. m. (CST) and although due in Minneapolis at 5:30 p. m. apparently was behind schedule because of the storm.

A crash witness told the coroner he saw the plane fall into the ravine on Sutters Ridge after lightning shattered a wing. A NWA pilot who was among the first to reach the crash scene said he thought the ship had been struck by lightning.

Heckling Will Not Halt Wallace Tour

(By The United Press)

DURHAM, N. C., August 30 — Henry A. Wallace was reported determined today to continue his campaign tour of the South despite the near riot and noisy heckling which greeted him here.

A spokesman for the Progressive party's presidential candidate said there had been "absolutely no change in plans" for a seven-day whirlwind trip through seven southern states.

Officers Stop Fight

A tumultous meeting of the Progressive party at the armory here last night climaxed what otherwise was a calm opening day of the third party candidates swing through Dixie.

The near-riot occurred when anti-Wallace pickets and his supporters clashed in a free-for-all fight in the back of the auditorium.

National guardsmen wearing sidearms and Durham plainclothes officers broke up the melee shortly, but not before one of the pickets was laid cold with a chair.

Following the outbreak, Wallace delayed his appearance at the meeting until Durham police detectives promised him an escort into the armory. A guardsman, with drawn automatic revolver, met them at the door and opened a path for Wallace to the speakers' platform.

Although the anti-Wallace pickets were ejected from the armory auditorium following the free-for-all, a group of youths at the rear

First Draft Call Set In November

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—The Army today asked for 10,000 draftees from induction sometime during November.

The first peacetime draft call went to the selective service system from the munitions board.

All of the inductees will be taken into the Army since no request was made for men by the Navy or the Air Force.

The announcement made by Secretary of Defense Forrestal said that the Navy and the Air Force do not expect to need any draftees during the fiscal year (July, 1948 — through June, 1949.)

The call for 10,000 Army inductees will be broken down into state quotas.

Calls for induction will be made in the order of birthdates beginning with the oldest.

Four Persons Die In Crash

AMARILLO, Aug. 30 (AP) — A cattle truck-automobile collision near here early yesterday resulted in the death of four persons and injury to three others.

The automobile and loaded cattle truck crashed seven miles east of here.

Killed were Cooter T. Young, 31, Amarillo, driver of the truck; William Stanley Carlile, jr., Clarendon, driver of the automobile, Madeline Osteen, 23, Claude, and Doris Marie McKee, 19, Clarendon.

Critically injured were Lamar Darrell Aten, 23, of Lelia Lake, and Jack R. Simmons, 27, Hedley.

Forrest W. Lodsdon, 20, Hollis, Okla., was not seriously hurt.

All but Lodsdon and Young were passengers in the automobile.

Two Prisoners Are Believed Drowned

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—Two of three Army prisoners who attempted to escape from Fort Jay on Governors island are believed to have drowned while swimming in the strong current of the channel between the island and Brooklyn, Army authorities said yesterday.

The missing men were identified as Laurance Wangelin, 21, of Larabee, Wis., serving one year on a conviction of larceny, and Roy Inman, 21, of Temple, Okla., serving one year for theft and sale of government property.

Stiff Penalty For Failure To Report May Be Assessed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 — This is R-day—Registration day.

It's the first step in America's plan to build up its armed forces with a peacetime draft.

Beginning today and continuing through Sept. 18 nine and a half million men 18 through 25 years old will go to registration centers and fill out postcard-sized forms.

An estimated 350 to 400 men had registered up to 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Lubbock county selective service registration center at 1106 Fourteenth.

At that time, a long line of men was waiting to register.

When the registration office opened Mrs. Viola Younger, clerk, and Mrs. Sue Davis, assistant, were present to register two men at one time. As the rush continued, helpers joined them and at 2 o'clock this afternoon six men were being registered at one time.

First men to register when the office opened at 8 o'clock this morning were Talbert Coleman, farmer of Lubbock route 4, son of Boyd Coleman, and Tom William Dodson, Lubbock policeman, son of Mrs. W. H. Dodson of Dickens.

The registration point will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily except Saturdays and Sundays through Sept. 18.

Registration doesn't mean these men will be drafted. Actually, it's just a sort of official census of draft-age men.

Fraction To Be Drafted

Only a fraction of the millions who register will be drafted into the armed forces for a 21-month stretch during the next two years. Maybe one out of every 42.

For example, all 18-year-olds and veterans will register, but those under 19 and most of the veterans are exempt. And millions of others will be deferred for various reasons. But they must register, anyway.

Most of those eventually inducted will be under 22. And almost all of them will serve in the Army. The Navy, Marines and Air Force hope to fill their ranks with volunteers.

Instructions Are Given

If you are in the 18 through 25 age bracket, this will brief you on registration:

First, locate your nearest registration center. The nation's 4,000-odd draft boards have organized about 20,000 of them.

Next, if you are a veteran, dig

FORECAST FOR SEPTEMBER: DRAFTY—This calendar shows when registration for the draft will take place, and who must register on those dates. All men who have passed their 18th birthday, but not yet reached their 26th, begin registration on Aug. 30. Men in this country, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands must register, according to President Truman's proclamation.

Storm Nearing Coast

Full Fury Of Hurricane Is Expected To Hit North Carolina By Nightfall

(By The Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 30.—Hurricane warnings were ordered hoisted from Wilmington, N. C., to Cape Hatteras, N. C., early today as a violent tropical hurricane surged toward the mainland with winds up to 125 miles per hour.

Northeast storm warnings were ordered aloft north of Hatteras to the Virginia capes and northwest storm warnings south of Wilmington to Charleston, S. C.

The full fury of the raging giant twister—which now covers an area nearly 300 miles in diameter—was expected to reach the North Carolina coast by nightfall.

"This is an emergency, warn all interests," the federal storm warning service said in a special advisory issued at 3 a. m. (CST). "All measures should be taken for the protection of life and property."

Residents along the North Carolina coastline were warned that winds would begin increasing by mid-day, that gale winds would be sweeping in from the sea by late afternoon, and that the center of the hurricane would come screaming inland by night.

Hurricane hunter aircraft probing the storm in the early morning hours reported it was moving in a northwestward course at about 10 to 12 miles an hour.

In the northeast quadrant of the storm—always the most violent—they found winds up to 125 miles per hour.

The storm was located at 3 a. m. (CST) about 250 miles southeast of Wilmington.

Chief Forecaster Grady Norton said there was some indication the hurricane may curve to a more northerly course during the day. "It would mean," he said, "that the center would pass more over in the Virginia capes area."

"But it's impossible to tell exactly where this storm is going to hit.

"It may be that we will have to shift our warning flags during the day, but as it stands it looks like it will take about twenty hours for it to reach the North Carolina coast line."

Theft Reports Investigated

Theft reports dominated work of law enforcement officials here over the weekend, but there was a wide variety of other investigations.

Stolen property ranged from luggage, a camera, tires and jewelry to chickens, automotive equipment and a horse, investigators were informed.

A $50 camera and a flashlight stolen from a car belonging to E. C. Mossner of Austin had not been recovered. The car was parked at 1811 Ninth, Mossner said.

Chickens Missing

A $30 tricycle was stolen from Preston Johnson of 2818 Twenty-fifth.

Twenty-three pullets and one rooster were reported stolen from Mrs. Odos Jones of 319 Sherman. She set value at $32.

Billy Joe Wright reported theft of a $74 wrist watch from a drive-in restaurant here.

A chrome sideview mirror valued at $5 and a radio antenna were stolen from the car of W. O. Stafford of 1408 Ave. E, and there was an attempt to take chrome rims off the wheels, police were informed.

Sheriff Buck Bennett of Lamesa said the horse, stolen there, was valued at $1,000.

Other Thefts Probed

Bill Sullens of 1606 Ave. O reported that two hub caps, two chrome rims and a finder skirt were stolen from his car, parked in front of a theater in southwestern Lubbock.

O. E. O'Neil of West Gate drive said that when he was moving property to his home there someone stole a set of pottery cups, a set of china cups, five blue glasses, a pitcher and Chinese dishes. A check was being con-

Nip-And-Tuck Race Held As Lead Changes

Johnson Charges People Of Texas Slurred By Coke

(By The Associated Press)

Coke Stevenson held a 306-vote lead over Lyndon Johnson at 2 p. m. in the U. S. Senate race today.

Just a little over two hours before that, Stevenson held a 210-vote lead. Johnson was on top from 8 p. m. Sunday until 11:45 a. m. today.

The 2 p. m. tabulation of the Texas Election Bureau gave Stevenson 492,755 votes; Johnson 492,449. The total of 985,204 votes represented 253 out of 254 counties, 219 complete.

The 2 p. m. tabulation included only 452 more votes than in the previous and Stevenson picked up 274 votes to the 178 Johnson gained.

It was the closest race in the political history of Texas.

Nip-And-Tuck Race

Stevenson, 60-year-old easy-going rancher who was Texas' wartime governor and who hasn't lost a political race yet, held the early lead after Saturday's Democratic runoff. But Johnson, a 40-year-old congressman who waged a vigorous campaign, kept chipping blocks off that lead until 5:30 p. m. Sunday when Stevenson was only eight votes ahead.

At 8 p. m. Sunday Johnson forged ahead by 717 votes on returns from Duval and Childress counties and a recheck of Harris county.

At 9 p. m. last night Johnson was still ahead by 693 votes. At 10 a. m. today he was still on top but his lead was down to 460 votes.

Then at 11:45 a. m. Calculatin' Coke was back into a 210 - vote lead.

An estimated 6,000 votes are still out. Both candidates have indicated they won't accept the election bureau's unofficial tabulation as final.

Claims People Slurred

Johnson issued a prepared statement at 12:30 p. m. today charging that his rival in the Senate race has slurred the people of Texas.

He said Stevenson cast slurs on certain counties in which Stevenson himself received the votes in his four races for lieutenant governor and governor.

"The slurs cast by my opponent on the good people of Texas who voted for me Saturday will, I am sure, be resented not only by them but by all Texans who dislike a poor loser," Johnson said in his statement.

He declared himself willing to compare the character of his support with that of the support given Stevenson.

"My opponent received the votes of the very counties upon which he now casts aspersions in his

Five Killed As Planes Collide

FENTON, Mo., Aug. 30. (AP) — Two Piper Cub planes collided approximately 400 feet above the Meramec river near here yesterday, killing five persons.

A wing was sheared off each plane. One craft plummeted into three feet of water near the river bank. The other plane flew about 100 yards before crashing and burning in a brush filled gulley.

Scores of persons on weekend outings at the river saw the crash. Fenton is about 15 miles southwest of St. Louis.

Victims in one plane were identified as Richard L. Arnold, 19, his mother, Mrs. Loretta Lowrey Arnold, 38, and Frank G. Kubasta, 32, all of St. Louis.

The two persons in the other plane were Milton Carl Fick, 22, Chesterfield, Mo., and Allen Burkhart, 16, Ellisville, Mo.

Both planes were rented from flying services and had taken off half an hour before the collision.

Argument Over Religion Ends In Deaths

Sergeant Kills Two Sons And Wounds Himself With Pistol

(By The Associated Press)

MOJAVE, Calif., Aug. 30.—An Army sergeant lies critically wounded and his two small sons are dead as the aftermath of a family argument over religion.

M/Sgt. Samuel Ray Adams, 31, shot and killed his sons yesterday and then critically wounded himself with a .38 caliber revolver, Deputy Sheriff Al Strasner reported.

Adams' pretty wife, Peggy Jo, told Strasner the tragedy occurred after a heated discussion in their quonset hut home on which Sunday school the youngsters should attend. Her husband had been drinking, she told the deputy.

Adams ordered the boys, Samuel Ray, jr., seven, and Richard, four, into a bedroom, Mrs. Adams told Strasner. She said she heard two shots and ran into the room to see Samuel, jr., dead.

The mother ran screaming from the house, Strasner quoted her as saying, and heard more shots. She returned and found her other son killed, the officer said, and

Breezes Are Only Temporary Heat Break

Cool Air From Canada Brings Relief To Sweltering Nation

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 30—Cool air from Canada fanned out over parts of the nation's heat belt today and brought some relief to sweltering millions.

The welcome breezes, after more than a week of 90 to 100 degree temperatures, will be only a temporary break in the late August heat wave.

Many parts of the hot zone—extending from the Rockies to the eastern seaboard—will not get lower temperatures, the federal weather bureau said. The mass of cool air started moving across the northeastern half of the country yesterday. The mercury dropped in parts of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan. Rain fell in widely scattered areas, bringing further relief.

As some relief from the hot spell came, the death toll from the intense heat mounted to 173 in 16 states.

New York reported 42 fatalities from the heat, including eight drownings, the highest in the nation. Other heat deaths were Illinois 27; Mich-

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Solution Sought For Problem Of Girl Falling In Love With Her Elder Sister's Fiance

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My sister Faith, who is a year older than I and who was graduated from college a year ago, is engaged to Tom, a man she met at school.

Their plan was to marry next winter, when Tom shall have obtained his doctor's degree; but last fall, when Faith was away on vacation, Tom took me out occasionally and we fell madly in love. I am not as brilliant as Faith, but I love sports and Tom does, too.

Still he is very fond of Faith and I wouldn't want to do anything to hurt her, as we have always been very close. I have always been more popular than Faith and I am afraid if she doesn't marry Tom that she'll never get another chance.

SHOULD NEW LOVE PROCLAIM ITSELF?

EVER since Tom and I realized that we were in love we've tried to stay away from each other, but we have met occasionally. My mother knows the situation and I am sure she blames me.

Recently I've had a chance to go to another state, where I would have a good job. Should I go? Or should Tom and I tell my sister of our feelings for each other, and be married ourselves next winter? We want to do what is best for Faith. If Tom should marry her, how could I excuse myself from going to the wedding and being her attendant? Please help us come to a decision—Signed K. S.

YOUNGER SISTER ISN'T CRICKET

DEAR K. S.: Sisters may be decidedly unlike in physical appearance and temperament; they may have little, if anything, in common in the final assessment of individual character; and yet bear a strong resemblance to each other. This is a paradox generally observable.

And because of this elusive suggestion of similarity, it were natural enough for a man in love and betrothed to marry to unconsciously transpose some of his established feeling for his true love to her sister or sisters, if the latter are comparably personable and occasion finds him sentimentally disconsolate, without his true love at hand.

However, this diffuse impulse isn't apt to take an amative or compromising turn, indeed isn't likely to register on the surface of his thought or behavior at all, unless one or another of the sisters is unscrupulously disposed to "make something" of the potential she intuitively senses. And that's what happened in this case, I think.

INTERLOPED SHOULD DISCIPLINE HERSELF

AS I get the picture, Tom cares for Faith with real tenderness and sensible devotion nurtured by a substantial knowledge of their wholesome compatibility of mind, habit and purpose; but you made a play for him last fall, muscling in to test the efficacy of your "more popular" come-hither when her back was turned, using sex appeal, invidious accent on love of sports and gently catty remarks about Faith as your trump cards.

Tom fell for your line, but not completely. You kindled physical infatuation without reaching his heart or undermining his great regard for Faith. Consequently he is confused, conflicted, guilt-ridden, hence emotionally blocked in relation to Faith, but also instinctively impelled to avoid you—and my advice is to stop angling for him.

He is Faith's fiance, unless and until they dissolve their engagement, and you've no right to try to promote a break between them. If they marry, you should assist in the ceremony if asked; and if it hurts, that's your penance for previous presumption. It would be yellow and melodramatic to hide out, or otherwise advertise the implication of bleeding heart. In the meantime, if your parents approve, take the job in another state. A change of milieu might clear your head.—M. H.

DISCOVERS IN RETONGA RELIEF VAINLY SOUGHT FOR NEARLY 20 YEARS

Spent Hundreds of Dollars Hunting Relief of Agonizing Stomach Gases, Constipation and Restlessness. Now Eats and Sleeps Fine. Gives Retonga Full Credit.

Another respected Los Angeles resident has found in Retonga the kind of relief she had been seeking in vain for years. She is Mrs. Annie M. Parmenter, 11937 Kiowa Ave., whose former home was in Oklahoma. She gratefully states:

"For nearly twenty years I was in awful misery the best part of the time. I could hardly eat a bite of food without suffering torment from terrible gas pains in my stomach and almost unbearable bloating. I was so constipated that strong laxatives seemed necessary nearly every day. I seldom got a real, restful night's sleep. I thought I just couldn't bear my suffering any longer.

The relief Retonga brought me was just what I needed. I can eat anything I want now without the terrible distress I used to suffer. My constipation has been relieved, and I sleep fine every night. My husband says I surely must be feeling lots better, because I've quit complaining and seem to be in such fine spirits. I've recommended Retonga to many friends and I'm glad to tell others of my wonderful experience."

MRS. ANNIE M. PARMENTER

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to give you gratifying relief, your money will be refunded. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores, including Walgreen Drug Store. Adv.

Custody Of Crippled Girl In Germany Is Matter Of Dispute Between U. S., Russia

BERLIN, Aug. 30. (AP)—A German policeman stood guard today over a crippled orphan girl whose custody is in dispute between the United States and Russia. He said his orders are "to keep the Russians away."

The girl, Helena Korelenko, 14, is in Catholic hospital in the American sector of Berlin. She is of Ukrainian parentage and is in need of an operation to correct a condition caused by infantile paralysis. She has been unable to walk for two years.

The Russians claim her as a Soviet national, have demanded they be given custody of the child and have offered to provide the required surgical attention. In one attempt to take her from the hospital they were turned back.

Thus far, the American authorities have refused to release her without the consent of the international refugee organization. She has been under the care of the Catholic welfare organization.

American officials say they are ready to negotiate further with the Russians about the child, but declined to predict when the case would be settled.

Vows Said In San Angelo

Miss Betty Sue Thurman, daughter of Mrs. Millie Thurman of Lubbock and Dr. W. E. Thurman of San Angelo, and William Morrison Crysler, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Crysler of Caruthersville, Mo., exchanged wedding vows Thursday night at First U. S. A. Presbyterian church in San Angelo with Rev. Rodney Gibson officiating at double ring ceremony.

Miss Mary Frances Bledsoe of Lubbock was one of the bridesmaids and other guests from Lubbock county were the bride's mother, her grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Fullingim, Mr. and Mrs. Bunch Fullingim and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bledsoe.

The bride's gown was of ivory blush satin in Victorian design and her tiered fingertip veil of illusion was gathered to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with an orchid shower.

Robert M. Randolph of Caruthersville was best man.

A reception was held at the Thurman home after the ceremony. The couple was graduated from the University of Missouri and he served in the Navy for three years.

Miss Elizabeth Knowles, who is to marry James Fergerson of Shamrock Sept. 4, was complimented at a recent shower given in the home of Mrs. T. A. Jarrott, 1515 Twenty-third. Assistant hostesses were Mesdames Betty Schornick, J. C. Jarrott and George Birdwell.

Mrs. Velma Rogers and Miss Marilyn Chick presided at the refreshment table which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white, pink and lavender asters.

Miss Don Lou Crowder registered guests.

Forty called or sent gifts.

Labor Camp Plans Will Be Completed

A committee of business men and farmers will meet at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the chamber of commerce to complete plans for financing construction of a labor camp for itinerant cotton pickers in Lubbock, W. C. Wood, chairman, announced today.

Estimated cost of the camp is $6,500, of which the city has agreed to pay one-half in addition to providing a site, Wood said. The county has declined to join in the project so it apparently will be necessary to pass the hat for the remainder, he added.

The chamber of commerce has received warning, he said, that the Lubbock area may be blacklisted as a congregating point for itinerant Mexican pickers unless camping and sanitation facilities are provided for them, the chairman said.

Farmer Has Trouble Giving Away Cabbage

NANTICOKE, Pa., Aug. 30. (AP)—Ever try giving away 40,000 heads of cabbage?

Farmer Henry Bobbin said today it's tough to do.

Bobbin had that much surplus cabbage which local markets could not absorb.

He advertised in newspapers he would give it away to anyone who wanted to pick the cabbage up at a nearby park.

Only a few people showed up and took away only 500 heads.

Said Bobbin sadly: "It's pretty tough when you can't even give things away."

Hubbers Lick Amarillo, 4-0; Sullivan Night Set Thursday

Miller Gives Up Only Three Hits

The Lubbock Hubbers shaved the Amarillo Gold Sox margin down to four games yesterday afternoon behind the brilliant three-hit hurling of Roland Miller, who aided his own 4-0 whitewish victory with a run-producing single to help the Hubbers to their sixth straight win.

The slender, able Hubber hurler throttled the big bats of the Gold Sox throughout the afternoon, giving up one scratch single in the first, a clean blow in the fourth and another in the fifth. All three hitters immediately were erased on double plays started by Jackie Wilcox, continued by Manager Jackie Sullivan and ended by Virgil Richardson.

Margin Is Widened

The victory enbabled the Hubbers to stretch their third-place margin over Pampa to three games, the Oilers dropping 4-2 and 7-4 decisions to the league-leading Albuquerque Dukes. The Gold Sox loss also dropped them four games behind the front runners.

In other games, Lamesa pounded the fading Borger Gassers for a 7-4 victory and Clovis upset the Abilene Blue Sox 10-7.

Miller was magnificent on the mound yesterday, despite a sore arm that gave him excruciating pain in the late innings. In the ninth, one batter away from victory, he had to stop the game for a few minutes while in obvious agony on the hill. He came back to force Doug Lewis, the league's leading double hitter, to pop to Sullivan to end the game.

Given A Big Hand

The 2,550 spectators gave him a tremendous hand, one that he deserved. Only Jerry Folkman, Lewis and Ted Clawitter were able to hit him safely, while Bob Crues went hitless in two trips and Manager Buck Fausett failed to hit in three appearances.

Miller only fanned one man, while giving up two walks, but he was mixing his pitches so beautifully that Amarillo players were given nothing good to hit. At the same time, Miller was nicking the corners and staying ahead of the batter. He showed a tantalizing change of pace that fooled the opposition and caused them to pop up six times.

Only 28 men faced Miller officially and the Sox left only three men stranded, two on walks and one on an error. Two men reached third, Earl Harriman in the first on a walk, a single and a double play. He was left stranded when Paul Halter provided Miller's only strikeout of the game.

Stranded On Third

Jim Heller, who was trying for his 20th win of the year and who wound up with his ninth loss, reached third in the third inning. He was safe on a two-base error and advanced on an infield out, only to be stranded.

After the third not a Sox runner reached second and the side was retired in order from the fourth inning through the ninth. Four men batted in the first, third and fourth. The remainder of the time it was three up and three down.

The Hubbers threatened in the first three frames, but couldn't get Gene Hixson home in the first and Miller was picked off third to end the third stanza. Then Richardson broke up the game. He led off in the fourth, took one strike and powered a homer over the centerfield fence. Floyd Walker and Frank McAlexander went out, but Don Moore walked, stole second and went to third on Wilcox's topper down third that wasn't fielded. Miller drilled a sharp single into leftfield to score Moore and the Hubbers went two up.

Hixson Gets Homer

Hixson led off the fifth with his 12th homer of the year and the final run scored in the seventh. Hixson led off with a hit to center. And when Crues was slow fielding the ball, the speedster moved to second for a double. Sullivan lined out, but Richardson brought the run in with a single to rightfield.

The victory ran the Hubber skein to six straight triumphs and stopped the onrushing Gold Sox at five straight. Tonight at 8 the teams will meet again at Rosenthal Field, with Joe Budny (19-10) going after his 20th win against Bob Clodfelter, who has won 11 and lost 10.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Last Friday night the press wires clicked off a story from Dallas attributed to Milton E. Price, president of the West Texas-New Mexico League, and quoting him. The story, in effect, said that he, Price would hold Sullivan entirely responsible for any further incidences involving umpires. He indicated that Sullivan had been the entire reason for the fans rising up in wrath against Umpire Jim Brockwell. He threatened a fine, or suspension, or both if anything resembling Monday and Tuesday night's episodes recurred.

Our first inclination is to request Mr. Price to keep his Mr. Brockwell in other towns for the nevt five days. Any one of the 2,227 fans in Rosenthal Field Tuesday night will tell Mr. Price that his umpire was in the wrong, that he chased Jackie far too soon and that he failed to show even a reasonable attitude towards him. Moreover, he is said to have been told by his two fellow umpires that he was in the wrong, but would not admit it. If that's the case, the umpire definitely should be kept away from Sullivan. As it turned out, he followed him to Lamesa and Abilene, where no untoward events happened.

Our second inclination is to ask Mr. Price to look into the situation thoroughly. That he did not is apparent by his statement that he would hold Jackie responsible for further incidents. We were a spectator when Jackie personally requested the crowd to restrain themselves and not do anything foolhardy. We heard Larry Larsen make the same statement. Everything possible was done including the presence of police, to prevent trouble. That it occurred was no fault of the manager or the ball club and any taking to task should be done with the cause, not the result.

Larsen takes this attitude: "With regards to Milton Price's statement on fixing responsibility with the various managers for 'fan incidents,' we will continue to support our manager in presenting our argument when we think such an argument is justified. We want to avoid a repetition of the nights of Aug. 23 and 24. Since there are always one or two low-grade morons in the crowd, who are cowardly and sneaking enough to hide in the crowd and throw things, the above seems to be our only course of action. Incidently, the fairminded fans who confine their expression to boos and wisecracks would be doing us a favor by curbing the fellow who wants to throw bottles, etc. If we can learn the identity of such characters, they will be permanently barred from the park. You might inform the eager beavers who damaged Brockwell's car that the Lubbock Baseball club, not Brockwell, had to pay the repair bill."

Conflicting reports are going around that should be cleared up by the league president, if he is to do a thorough job. Lefty Craig, supervisor of umpires, and Bill Tiemann, both umpiring with Brockwell, told Sullivan that he was right. They repeated their statements to various persons in town Tuesday and Wednesday But when Price called the Hubbers, he said that all three umpires concurred in Brockwell's judgment! Craig told Sullivan Tuesday night that he had been run out too soon and that he would follow the Hubber's one more night before taking action on Brockwell. He didn't do either.

Things in O. B. have come to a bad state when a team manager is unable to go into the plate and talk peacefully with the umpire. It is his right and privilege. If he uses abusive language, he should be chased; but if he approaches in a quiet way and asks for information, there should be no reason to hunch shoulders, take a belligerent look and order the manager out of the game. Jackie was within his rights to ask about the pitches, not as a scornful gesture, but as manager to learn whether the umpire wanted the pitches to break over the plate a little more. As such, he wasn't given much more than time enough to ask what time it was.

Mr. Price will never ask us our version of the incident, which is unfortunate. Without the inhibitions which must be practiced by managers and club owners, we could give him vari-colored picture of the proceedings. We think it would be accurate, too. We might lean heavily toward defense of Jackie who was, so far as we are concerned, entirely right. We hate to see the Lubbock manager playing with a sword of Damocles, gripped by the league president, dangling over his head. It isn't fair, it isn't right.

At the same time, we must repeat that the behavior of a few idiots in the crowd Monday and Tuesday nights was entirely out of line. We join the Hubber management in stating that such actions are not conducive to the best interests of baseball. At the same time, we would demand a thorough airing of the case, publicly. The baseball public in Lubbock is not dumb. They could see what was happening as clearly as—and more so—than the umpire concerned That they were incensed is not surprising. That a few let their ignorance dominate common sense is unfortunate. Let's not hurt the Hubbers during this home stand and during the playoffs. Let's get behind them in other ways.

Tribute Will Be Paid To Manager

Thursday night will be Jackie Sullivan Night at Rosenthal Field and residents of Lubbock and vicinity will join in paying tribute to the fine job the Hubber manager has done this season.

The Lubbock Baseball club, which is sponsoring the night for their manager, singled him out because he is the manager and because he has done an even better job this year than he did last. They feel that he richly deserves public recognition for his fine achievement.

Fans May Join In

Fans who wish to join in paying tribute to the manager can call at the Hubber business office at the Hub Clothiers, taking any gifts which they wish to donate. Or they may call the office and tell Larry Larsen, general manager, what they wish to give.

All tokens of appreciation will be given to Sullivan at the plate Thursday night preceding the Hubber-Lamesa Lobo baseball game.

There is little need to go into the fine record compiled by Sullivan this year. He started the season with only himself, Virgil Richardson and Frank McAlexander, all infielders, left from the 1947 championship team. Royce Mills, the able utility hurler, was the only member of the mound corps left. The entire outfield, catching and pitching departments were started from scratch.

Hurlers Mostly Rookies

Most of the hurlers were rookies and needed to be developed. Don Moore, bought after the season started, added stability in the catching division and has turned out to be a remarkable utiltiy infielder and outfielder. Chick Fowler and Jackie Wilcox were bought from Lamesa to bolster the outfield and infield respectively.

Other players were added and, as they were, had to be molded into a playing unit. This Sullivan proceeded to do, despite two disastrous road trips in succession that sank the team to seventh place. The nine rallied to win ten straight and to climb up to second. Since then they have been fighting for the lead and have not fallen out of the first division.

Wields Potent Bat

Sullivan has been the backbone of the infield, taking part in 145 double plays to shoot the Hubber infield to the top of the West Texas-New Mexico League in this department. He also has wielded a potent bat, driving in the second highest number of runs batting third in the lineup and getting his share of extra base hits.

Thursday night recognition will be given to him and a capacity crowd is expected to join in paying tribute to him. With the Shaughnessy playoffs coming up, it is fitting that this honor be given to him at this time.

Squad Prepares For Rough Grid Schedule

Lubbock Team Returns After Week's Session In Oklahoma

The Lubbock High school football team, which has been spending the past week in Lawton, Okla., at the Cameron Junior college, returned to the city yesterday, tanned and in good condition.

C. R. "Pat" Pattison, head grid coach, reported that his charges had been treated wonderfully well in the junior college camp and that none of his players received injury. He and his assistants were pleased over conditions in Lawton and termed the football camp "ideal" for fall training.

Liked It Rough

The players were sent through daily sessions in Oklahoma, receiving a light workout early in the morning clad only in shorts, but returning in the late afternoon for two hours of strenuous work. Most afternoon sessions featured heavy contact work and the Westerner hopefuls showed a decided liking for body contact.

Saturday afternoon's session, which wound up the camp, was the most severe of the week and the players came through it in good condition.

Today the squad will take to Chapman Field for double workouts, the first scheduled for 8:30 a. m. and the second for 4 p. m. Much the same routine will be followed in Lubbock as was observed in Lawton, with the exception that more emphasis increasingly will be placed on signal work.

Face Rugged Schedule

Coach Pattison has requested that spectators refrain from watching the gridders drill, preferring to have nothing distract the 1948 Westerner squad from the work at hand. This year's team faces one of the most rugged schedules in its history and the first game, with the Odessa Broncos, is only 11 nights away.

Double sessions will be held all this week and Monday of next week, with the starting hour possibly to be changed from 8:30 a. m. to 6:30.

The coaches and 38 players were in good spirits last night and ready to open the most intensive phase of their grind this week.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 30. (AP)—Emphasis is expected to be on pitching tonight as Hickory, N. C., and Austin, Tex., meet in the first game of the American Legion junior sectional baseball tournament here.

The Texans are expected to start Jack Brinkley, a diminutive right-hander who contributed heavily to 14 of Austin's 25 straight triumphs. Dick Bumgarner, author of two no-hitters and a heavy hitter to boot, is the Hickory ace.

Pete Felton Is Medalist

Pete Felton turned in the low medalist score in the qualifying round for the McMillan trophy offered in the Meadowbrook Publinx Golf club's annual club championship, touring the 18-hole course in a sub-par 73 yesterday afternoon.

Felton's low score won him medalist honors over a disappointingly small field of only 28 golfers who turned out Saturday and Sunday to shoot qualifying rounds.

Lists To Be Revised

Paul Jones, Meadowbrook pro, obviously disappointed at the low number of entrants, said that flight lists would have to be revised. Instead of the 16 men in the championship flight, there will be only eight. And each of two other flights will have eight golfers, with the fourth flight composed of four men.

Elimination match play starts this week end at the club and pairings for the championship play will be announced later. All first round matches must be played not later than Sunday.

Grouping Announced

Grouping, by flights, follows: Championship, Pete Felton (73), Jack Trammel (74), Fred Hinson, (75), Dexter Walthal (76), A. B. Holton (76), Truman Hutson (77), Carl Nail (78), and J. F. Nicholson (78).

Second flight, Huston Trammel (80), Jeff Jeffreys (81), Sam Cobb (81), Jim Stahl (82), J. C. Crawford (83), Sam McMillan (84), Lonnie Felton (85), Woodrow DeBusk (85).

Third flight, U. D. Gregory (85), Jim Black (86), Don Nichols (86), George B. Hutchings (87), Monroe DeBusk (87), Sled Allen (88), Dick Stalcup (88), Ronald Canady (89).

Fourth flight, Buck Perry (90), Sloan Fortenberry (95), Hugh Odom (96), N. N. Davidson (108).

Texas League Teams Fight Against Cellar

(By The Associated Press)

The San Antonio Missions stand a good chance to fatten their hold on fourth place in the Texas league the next three days. They play cellar-dwelling Dallas.

Oklahoma City handed San Antonio a 6-4 licking yesterday, leaving the Missions with a game advantage over Shreveport, which lost to Fort Worth, 4-0.

Dallas burrowed deeper into the cellar by losing to Beaumont, 2-0, and Houston finally came to life against Tulsa and pounded out a 10-4 decision.

The United States annually has more than 175,000 forest fires.

Dodgers Drive From Cellar To Top Spot

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Dodgers did it. They accomplished what many experts said would be impossible.

In last place on July 2, Burt Shotton's Brooklyn club was perched in first place today following a tremendous two-months drive out of the National league cellar.

They did it the hard way too, sweeping a doubleheader from their arch rivals, the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday in their home lair, 12-7 and 6-4.

Pirates Give Help

Of course, the Brooks got help from the Pittsburgh Pirates who knocked off the erstwhile leader, the Boston Braves, twice, 6-1 and 5-2.

The Brooks now are three percentage points ahead of the Braves, who lead the third place Cards by a game and a half.

Cincinnati's Reds extended the New York Giants' losing streak to six straight, whipping Leo Durocher's men twice by the same 3-2 score.

Chicago's tail-end Cubs divided a pair with the Philadelphia Phils, taking the second game, 10-4, after Walter Dubiel of the Phils won a 1-0 hurling duel from Bob McCall of the Cubs.

The pennant picture in the American league remained unchanged as every club divided a double header.

Divide Double Bills

Boston's pace setting Red Sox split with the St. Louis Browns in Boston, winning the opener 10-2, but losing the nightcap, 12-4.

The runner-up New York Yankees gained a split with the Detroit Tigers, winning the second game, 11-10, after Detroit had come from behind to take the opener, 9-6.

After Bob Lemon had pitched the third place Cleveland Indians to a 6-0 shutout over the Washington Senators, the Nats came back to win the second game, 5-2.

The fourth place Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Chicago White Sox, 5-4, in the first game, but the American league cellar-dwellers came back to win the second game, 7-2.

Mangrum, Fazio Tied In Utah Tournament

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 30. (AP) —George Fazio and Lloyd Mangrum battled for the Utah open golf title today while their fellow divot diggers head for Reno, Nev., and a $25,000 tournament that opens Friday.

Fazio, of Conshonocken, Pa., and Mangrum, of Chicago, were deadlocked at the end of 72 holes of the $12,500 Utah event yesterday.

"THE two happiest days of an office-holder's life," says ex-Senator, ex-Justice, ex-Secretary Jimmie Byrnes, "are the day when he gets into office and the day when he gets out."

Peculiarly, they often are happy days for the voters, too, Jimmie!

Usually, when a man is called an "expert" it's because he was lucky enough to guess right a few times.

DURING the current Summer session at the University of Kentucky, there is being offered a course on "how to win friends and influence people."

Students taking the course are those in business where meeting and pleasing the public are essential to success. Many of them are hotel, restaurant and service station workers and they are learning how to be courteous to customers—even including those who have chips on their shoulders.

We suppose such a course is all right. At least, it isn't likely to do any harm.

Yet it seems to us that all the university courses in the world can't make an agreeable, or charming, individual out of a dolt, or a professional sour-puss.

People are either naturally courteous and agreeable, or they're not.

We know some who could pass the Kentucky course summa cum laude, and still be the same impolite, thoughtless, truculent individuals on the job that they always were.

Just as you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, neither can a Kentucky professor make a Chesterfield out of a George Bernard Shaw, or a Joe Stalin.

Acquiring courtesy in a classroom is sort of like playing the piano by ear. You gotta have courtesy in you, before it can be brought out.

IF the Kentucky experiment is indicative of a trend in which universities may go even farther afield of the Three R's, we think a few of the colleges might well offer courses in how to get through picket lines.

Judging from the news of late, a fellow is liable to find a picket line in front of his own house, providing a few "liberals" decide they don't like the color of his mother-in-law's eyes; in front of a cemetery, in case other "liberals" dislike the brand of hearse used by the undertaker; or in front of a church because the "liberals" don't like the theology followed inside.

Picketing is getting to be a disease in this country—a disease which should be stamped out one way or another in most instances—and cut down to its size in all the rest.

Picketing started out innocently and fairly enough as a method by which workmen at odds with the boss could advertise those odds to other workers and to the world in general.

Now it has degenerated into an un-American weapon whereby mobs interfere with the right of free citizens to go where they please.

Instead of serving as a notice, many picket lines today are used to threaten bodily harm to persons, with the queer idea that they have a right to move about when and where they choose, as long as they break no laws doing so. Often picketeers turn threat of physical violence into acts of physical violence, insolently flaunting the law as well as decency.

THINGS have gone too far when Reds set up picket lines to keep people from going to a picture show which portrays Soviet Russia as something not quite akin to Utopia, as happened not long ago in New York; when hoodlums interfere with the right of free men peaceably to assemble, as was attempted in Houston as supporters of state's rights gathered together; when nasty radicals, led by unsavory characters, riot in the capital and in front of the White House, as has been noted of late in Washington.

It's high time the law took its course against illegal picketing. If it doesn't, enraged, free men will do it without recourse to law—which is not much healthier in the long run than the illegal picketing, itself.

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN: DEWEY HOLDS HIGHPOWERED TALKS ON CAMPAIGN STRATEGY

Oil Companies Squabble Over Middle East Piping

WASHINGTON — Gov. Tom Dewey has been doing a lot of unreported high-powered conferring.

Among those he has counseled with in these private talks are Speaker Joe Martin, House Floor Leader Charles Halleck, Sen. Styles Bridges, N. M., and Sen. William Knowland, Cal.

In these conferences Dewey has presented the main outlines of his campaign strategy. He has sought advice, but in the main his operational plans are definitely formulated. They are as follows:

1. The G. O. P. campaign will get underway the middle of September and continue at an undiminished pace until election eve, November 1. Dewey will make a Labor day speech. He doesn't consider it necessary to race around as extensively as President Truman will do that day. Dewey will confined his electioneering to a major speech at an important gathering.

2. The President's attacks on Congress—his chief campaign issue—will be met with the countercharge that he can't get along with Congress. To highlight this contention, Dewey will stress his record of "teamwork" with the New York legislature, and also, on all occasions, will have prominently in his entourage several or more members of Congress.

3. Dewey will avoid any hard-and-fast promises to balance the budget or cut taxes. He feels that would be inadvisable because "we might not be able to deliver if the foreign situation gets worse." Instead, he will emphasize improving the administration of domestic and foreign affairs and eliminating "waste" and excessive personnel.

4. Dewey and his running mate will carefully coordinate their major speeches to eliminate conflicts and contradictions. This is to avoid what happened in the 1940 campaign, when the late Wendell Willkie and his running mate, the late Sen. Charles McNary, occasionally talked at opposite poles.

"Truman is on the defensive, and we propose to keep him there," Dewey told one congressional caller. "I'm going to hit hard, but there is no need for a long-winded discussion of issues. The public already knows what it's all about. From our standpoint, the shorter the campaign, the better. Above all, I want to avoid an anticlimax before the election. We are going to build up to a climax, firing our heaviest guns in the final phases of the campaign. Timing is very important."

HCL Rations

Exract from a letter of a western cattle-raiser to a Washington friend, "sold a few steers this week that topped the local market—$26.80 per hundred pounds. Just grass steers, no grain. It looks like you're going to have to eat beans, fella, and like 'em."

FORMER OPA director Paul Porter is back at his private law practice, after a hectic stint as President Truman's special assistant during the emergency session of Congress. As Porter walked into his office, he was exuberantly greeted by Thurman Arnold, one-time head of the anti-trust division.

"Welcome back, boomed Arnold. "You squeezed out of that one just in time. If that session had lasted a few days longer, they would have got you. They would have investigated you as a White House spy sure as shooting."

Hot Oil

Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer is on a hot seat over a decision on steel oil piping he must make in a few weeks.

The question is the licensing of a huge fourth-quarter allocation for export to the Middle East. Four big U. S. oil corporations are clamoring for the piping—Standard of New Jersey, Socony-Vacuum, Texas company, and Standard of California. They want it to complete their 1100-mile line from the Persian gulf to the Lebanon coast. So far, only 300 miles have been installed.

The issue is hotly involved in both domestic and foreign politics.

Independent U. S. oilmen are violently against any export of the scarce piping. They have been yelling for months that their operations are being crippled for lack of the material. Also, army and navy chiefs are skeptical about the trans-Jordan pipeline. Testifying before the senate small business committee, which investigated the matter, they expressed grave doubt the line could be defended in the event of war. They advised concentration on developing new oil sources in the Western hemisphere.

The big oil companies argue their pipeline would pay itself off in a few years in huge oil supplies. Even if subsequently lost, they contend, it would still be a good proposition for the present.

Another equally touchy factor is a bitter attack on the pipeline by the embattled Israeli government. It charges the shortest, most feasible and cheapest route is into Haifa, but that the oil companies are deliberately running the line through the Arab lands to favor them.

The Israeli control a British-owned refinery at Haifa. So far, the British have refused to supply the plant with crude oil. Rumania has offered to do so in return for refined products. The Israeli are threatening to make such a deal unless the British fork over.

Torch Bearer — Sometimes it seems that burning love is just a cigaret . . . You light it with a smile—Cupping your heart against a sudden gust. . . . Love brings you pretty smoke-dreams for a while. . . . Then, like a cigaret, burns to a close . . . You flick sweet memory's ashes with a sigh, inhaling its faint perfume, like a rose—Wishing the fading bloom could never die . . . But love and cigaret end like a song . . . Leaving their mute, gray smoke rings of regret—And never try to hold them overlong—Gay, waning love—or dwindling cigaret — For always, when you fan the flame that lingers . . . You wake to find that love has burned your fingers!

Western Representatives To Draw Up German Constitution

WASHINGTON—At Bonn, Beethoven's birthplace, representatives of the western German states now occupied by the United States, Great Britain and France, are scheduled to meet on September 3 to draw up a provisional constitution for Germany.

This will mark the third attempt in exactly a century to draw up a democratic charter for the former Reich.

In 1848, at Frankfurt on Main, now the badly battered economic capital of the combined British and American zones of occupation, German liberals sought to create a united, democratic, peaceful Germany.

They talked endlessly, but got nowhere. The militarists and reactionaries proved too strong for them. German unity was not achieved by the liberals of '48, but by Bismarck and his policy of "blood and iron." His success and the manner in which he achieved it left an indellible mark on German life and German thinking. Not even the disastrous defeat of 1918 wiped it out.

Meet Held At Weimar

The successors of the Frankfurt "professors" of 1848 were the Social Democrats and liberals who met at Weimar in 1919.

They drew up a constitution which, so far as many of its provisions were concerned, appeared to be about as democratic as any in the world.

However, no constitution can be more effective than those who live by it and under it want it to be. Moreover, the Weimar charter contained some very serious flaws. For instance, it gave the president of the Reich emergency powers which, in effect, involved the setting aside of the constitution. In the end, it was the exercise by Hindenburg of those powers which permitted Adolf Hitler to assume supreme authority, with consequences which the world and Germany can now look back on only with loathing.

It would be a serious misreading of German history, however, to attribute the collapse of the Weimar Republic to the inclusion in the Weimar Constitution of those emergency provisions.

The real story of that collapse is to be found in the political immaturity of the German people, their long indoctrination in militarism and super-nationalist views, the theory which they accepted with avidity (Hitler only pointed it up) that they were a Master Race destined to rule over lesser breeds.

A NEW constitution cannot, by itself alone, change the flora and fauna in the German mind. That, at best, will be a long process. Certainly progress in that direction in the years since Hitler's defeat and death has not been spectacular.

Yet the Western powers and particularly the United States have from the first taken the position, and wisely, that if Germany is ever to become a democratic state, it will to be by action of the Germans themselves. Democracy is a way of life, and a way of life has to be lived.

It was with this in mind that the Western powers agreed at their recent London meeting to sponsor the creation of a provisional German regime. This regime, they decided, was to be federal in its nature.

One mistake made at London has since been rectified. The idea then was to set up a regime that would claim authority only in the zones now occupied by the United States, Great Britain and France, pending the inclusion in a united Germany of the area now occupied by the Soviet Union.

This attitude provided Russia with much propagandist ammunition. It enabled Moscow to pose as the champion of German unity by arguing that the Western powers, by setting up a separate West German state, were conspiring to bring about the partition of Germany.

All Areas Invited

The new plan calls for the drawing up at Bonn of a provisional constitution for all Germany. To that end the 22 experts who met recently at Chiemsee (near Munich) to formulate a draft plan have issued invitations to all German areas, including areas outside the Western zones, to join in the Bonn talks. Representatives from Berlin have also been asked to participate.

In line with the London agreement, the Chiemsee draft calls for the creation of a federalized republic for Germany, but one in which the central authority will not be altogether powerless.

Critics of the plan see in it a means for the ultimate establishment of another highly centralized German state. The Bavarians in particular, oppose it on the ground that it does not permit a sufficient measure of autonomy to the individual states. They want the loosest possible kind of a confederation.

For the moment, however, the Bonn talks have only an academic importance. The fu-

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

AN information clerk in a New York hotel says that it's easy to spot a honeymoon couple because, if they're just married, he asks the questions while she stands meekly by. If they've been married a while, she asks the questions and he stands around looking helpless.

MILLETT

It's not enough for any woman to figure out why that is.

The reason women gradually assume the job of asking questions and digging out information is simple — men hate to ask questions.

Leave it up to Papa and he'll drive miles out of his way looking for a hard-to-find place, rather than stop and ask his way.

HE'S ON HIS OWN

PAPA just doesn't enjoy putting himself in the position of admitting that he needs help.

And when Mama lets him do the questioning, he only gets part of the story. He doesn't have what it takes to keep pestering and probing until all the facts are brought out.

But Mama not only can get information out of anybody—she loves to do it.

Men like to discover things for themselves. But women like to know where they are going and just how to get there and what they'll find after they get there before they start.

And the only way to do that is to ask questions.

That they often must, in order to get work at all, adhere to the factory-rulings imposed by a commercial-minded union, picket employers toward whom they bear no malice, or work in company with completely untrained horn-blowers, is the fault of our social system, not the fault of the fine music."

Laff-A-Day

"Oh, boy! Tossed salad for dinner!"

By Bennett Cerf

"Try And Stop Me"

IN the last month of the war, Ilka Chase was invited to a cocktail party at the Pensacola naval base. Knowing that top brass would be present, she washed her hair specially for the occasion. This turned out to be a miscalculation. The water in Pensacola is very hard, and Miss Chase couldn't get the soap out of her hair. In desperation she poured vinegar over her head, with the result, she says, that she entered the party "reeking like a salad bowl."

"Fliers prefer honey to vinegar, I guess," she adds, "for the officers of the U. S. Navy kept their distance. My escort introduced me to yards of glittering braid, saying pleasantly, 'This is Miss Chase. Smells, doesn't she?'"

Today's Journal Editorial

THE MERRY-GO-ROUND MUST STOP SOON

The railroads doubtless have the figures to justify their request to the Interstate Commerce commission for permission to increase freight rates on coal, coke and iron ore. Judging by the ICC treatment of such requests during recent years, the increase probably will be approved and the cost-of-living spiral will get another boost upward.

Perhaps in this case it may be justified. Possibly it is necessary to avert a serious breakdown of rail transportation.

But this cannot obscure the self-evident fact that the rising spiral of costs of all kinds must be checked if there is ever to be relief from high prices. A start must be made somewhere if the upward trend is to be checked and reversed.

The new request as to freight rates conceivably could be as good a place as any to start. They certainly should not be granted, unless the carriers can show conclusive proof that they are suffering—and the latest statements of most of them during recent years indicate they have been doing better than all right in a financial way.

SALES OPENING
Established concern has sales opening for man or woman who is mechanically inclined to take over Lubbock and surrounding territory, previous experience not necessary as we train you. Car necessary. Call 2-6810 between 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. for appointment.

YOU
may be the one man we are looking for—if you are "stymied" or unhappy in your present position—if you are ambitious and interested in a life career—rather than a job—where you can be your own boss and where the opportunities for earnings and advancement depend only on you—and if you can qualify. We pay for your education, training and equipment, including travelling expenses to Hartford Conn. and return, plus room and board, and in addition will pay, according to your qualifications, from $3,000 to $4,800 salary, beginning the day you leave Lubbock. Write for details, giving age, marital status, education, general business experience and length of residence in Lubbock. Inquiries confidential of course.

SALES OPENING
established business has permanent positions for 2 refined experienced salesmen. Our salesmen are now earning from $500 to $750 per month. State previous sales experience. Car Essential. If you have these qualifications write Box 20 Avalanche-Journal.

Jews And Egyptians Agree On Neutral Areas Of Jerusalem

CAIRO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Jews and Egyptians have agreed to proposals for bringing peace to the neutral areas of Jerusalem.

The announcement was made last night by Swedish Gen. Aage Lundstroem, chief of staff for United Nations Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte. Lundstroem said the agreement would bring to an early end the "ruthless battle" between Jews and Arabs in Jerusalem.

The agreement came on the eve of a special session of the Security council at Lake Success to discuss the situation in the Holy Land.

Lundstroem said both the Jews and Egyptians had agreed on a proposed arrangement for the neutral zone surrounding the Red Cross area in the Holy City. The zone comprises Government house, the Jewish agricultural school for girls and an Arab college.

Quiet In Holy City

The general said observers will see that the arrangement is respected and if troops of either party enter the neutral zone "I will consider this a violation of the truce and refer it to the Security council."

Cesar Ortiz, Lundstroem's press attache, said the withdrawal of troops from both sides of the area was to be effected by 7 a. m. (EST) today. All war equipment and installations are to be withdrawn or destroyed.

He said acceptance of the conditions also was expected from Trans-Jordan, since the withdrawal "would not affect the military position of the (Trans-Jordan) Arab legion in that sector."

In Jerusalem, where several previous U. N. attempts to make the Jews and Arabs withdraw from the Red Cross zone failed, yesterday was reported to have been one of the quietest days of the second truce. The American consulate, close to the front lines, reported it had not heard a single shot all day.

Officers Shot Down

Jewish Jerusalem will receive rations of gasoline Tuesday, for the first time since the beginning of the fighting. Kerosene rations also will be increased as a result of an agreement with the American Socony vacuum and British Shell oil companies to bring fuel to the city.

An official source said a group of U. N. observers was fired on by Arabs yesterday when they approached two points in the Holy City contested by Jews and Arabs. There were no casualties.

In Stockholm, Bernadotte's office announced that a U. N. plane in which two truce observers were killed Saturday was flying over an Egyptian-occupied area of Jalestine without clearance and was in the wrong air corridor.

Regrets over the death of Lt. Col. Joseph Queru, 50, and Capt. Peirre Jaennel, 28, both French, were sent by the Egyptian defense minister to Bernadotte's representatives in Cairo. U. N. observers on the ground in the area said the plane's U. N. markings could not be seen an dthat they believed the plane was Jewish.

Milk Driver Decides Hot Weather Is Fine

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 30. (AP)—The temperature rose to 95 degrees in Kansas City but Arthur F. Stockman didn't complain.

In fact, he enjoyed it—after being buried by a snowslide.

Stockman, a 31-year-old milk driver, went into his dairy's ice room yesterday to obtain some artificial snow used in covering cases of milk.

As he dug into the huge snowpile, a slide developed. He was covered before he could escape. Other employes dug him out just as he was beginning to lose consciousness.

Said Stockman's wife, "not once during the rest of the day did he complain of the heat."

Organist Succumbs At Church Services

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—When the organ music stopped during Sunday services at St. Peter's Lutheran church members of the congregation investigated.

They found organist Walter H. Wilkie, 52, prostrate at the console. After fire department rescue squad worked a half hour in a fruitless attempt to revive him, he was pronounced dead of a heart ailment.

four races for lieutenant governor and governor. He thought they were all right then and tried to get them this time," the statement continued.

The votes out could decide the race.

Both candidates are seeking the Senate post of W. Lee (Pappy) O'Daniel, who did not run for re-election.

Texas may not know for sure who the Democratic nominee will be until after the state convention certifies the official returns Sept. 14 at Fort Worth.

State law puts the duty of determining the official winner on the convention.

Closest In History

It is the closest major race in Texas' long political history.

The actual chore of counting the votes will be done by the state executive committee at the September meeting. The convention must ratify or reject the committee's report.

Asked if he would accept the unofficial count if he loses, Stevenson replied:

"No sirree boss."

Johnson would not comment. It was believed he agreed with Stevenson on that point.

At Dallas, Bob Johnson, manager of the Texas Election Bureau said that there has never been enough difference in the bureau's returns and the official returns to change the outcome, but added:

"It's never been this close before."

Grabbed Early Lead

Stevenson, who has not lost a race in more than a quarter of a century in politics, grabbed the lead early Saturday and held on to it until 8 p. m. last night.

At 5:30 p. m., Johnson had trailed by only eight votes.

Stevenson at one time was ahead by more than 17,500 votes, but Johnson each successive count chipped blocks of votes off the majority.

A Saturday morning poll of Harris county by the Houston Chronicle showed Stevenson held 65.8 per cent of the votes.

The first tabulation that night of the Texas Election Bureau on the basis of returns from throughout the state bore out the Harris county trend.

But by 7:30 p. m., the returns showed that Stevenson was slipping.

On each succeeding count, with a single exception, the drawling Texas rancher lost ground.

At 1:30 a. m. Sunday he held a lead of only 854 votes.

Johnson jumped into the lead at 8 p. m. Sunday on a thumping majority accorded him in Duval county, one of his strongholds in the heart of South Texas.

In the first primary in July, Johnson outpolled Stevenson by a big majority in Rio Grande valley counties. Stevenson campaigned several days in the second primary trying to capture lost votes there.

The final Duval count was turned in while Johnson needed votes badly. They put him in front of Stevenson in the tide turning 8 p. m. count.

Congress Races

The election bureau has not made a new tabulation in the state's three congressional races since 5:30 p. m. (CST) Sunday when the apparent winners were decided.

In congressional district 7, incumbent Rep. Tom Pickett, 25,628 votes, led Nat Patton, whom Pickett defeated in 1944, 20,395. In district 10, Homer Thornberry, Austin city councilman had 32,760 and Kelley McClain, Georgetown attorney, had 22,040 votes. They sought the post vacated by Lyndon Johnson when he did not seek reelection.

In district 15, after a bitter fight over the seat vacated by Rep. Milton West, Lloyd M. Bentsen, jr., McAllen, won over Philip Kazen of Laredo. The vote was 29,705 for Bentsen, 20,895 for Kazen.

Corbin's Lead Over Parrish Narrowed

Returns which trickled in today narowed very slightly the margin by which Kilmer Corbin, of Lamesa, defeated incumbent Sterling Parrish, of Lubbock, for the Democratic nomination to the state senate from the 30th Texas district in Saturday's runoff primary.

Corbin picked up 128 votes and Parrish 177 as the belatedly reported counts increased the total unofficial tabulations to:

Corbin, 28,166, and Parrish, 20,964, a majority for Corbin of 7,202.

The new returns included King county complete, giving Corbin, 111 and Parrish 172, and one additional box in Lamb county, which increased the totals reported there to 748 for Corbin and 775 for Parrish. The total unreported vote was estimated at less than 500.

Nothing had been reported from Borden county, where the total vote was said to be fewer than 150. Also unreported were three small boxes in Lamb county, three in Kent county and one each in Motley and Dickens counties.

The tabulations included 23 of the 24 counties in the district, 19 complete.

Legion Will Assist In Funeral Services

Members of the local post of the American Legion were asked today to report at the hall, 910 Texas Ave., not later than 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to assist in the funeral of Pfc. Herman C. Wallace, who died in action in Germany in 1945 and was posthumously awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

The Legion is to conduct military rites at the graveside following services at 3 o'clock from the Arnett-Benson Baptist church in which Rev. Cecil Ray will officiate, under direction of Sanders Funeral Home.

Wallace died Feb. 27, 1945, near Prumzurly, Germany, when he stood on a German mine, allowing it to explode under him, thereby saving the lives of at least two of his buddies. He was buried at Ham, Luxembourg, near the grave of Gen. George Patton, his commanding general.

The body was to arrive here Tuesday morning. Pallbearers will be David McLean, Dalton Tapp, Billy Averatt, James Robbins, Mansell Richardson, jr., and Leroy Richardson.

R-Day

up your discharge papers. You need them to check on dates and service.

Men must register by age group, so check your birth date and find out which day you are supposed to sign up.

If you were born in 1922 after August 30, you register today. There won't be many in your bracket, and draft officials have said not many 25-year-olds will be inducted — maybe around 7,000 in all.

Schedule Is Given

Tomorrow and Sept. 1 a larger group will register — men born in 1923. The schedule then goes on like this:

Men born in 1924 register Sept. 2-3; 1925, register Sept. 4 or 7; 1926, Sept. 8-9 ;1927, Sept 10-11; 1928, Sept. 13-14; 1929, Sept. 15-16; if born in 1930 before Sept. 19, sign up Sept. 17-18.

If you aren't 18 by Sept. 19, you register on the day of your 18th birthday, or within five days of it. But you won't be eligible for the draft until you are 19.

Don't worry if you can't register on the required day, or at the regular registration place. If you're away from home, just go to any registration center. The card will be forwarded to your home town.

If you are ill, or otherwise just can't make it, notify your draft board and they will register you later.

But don't delay too long, and definitely don't try to get out of registration. There's a strict penalty or avoiding this duty — five years in prison, or a fine up to $10,000, or both.

The actual job of registering should be swift and painless.

Draft boards have been told to have desks for two lines. One is for those who are automatically exempt, like veterans and 18-year-olds. The other is for non-veterans aged 19 through 25.

You are handed a six-by-four inch card containing 16 questions. You fill out 15, all simple: Your name, age, home, occupation, marital status.

The draft registrant fills outt one question: Your description, such as color of your hair and eyes.

The whole thing should not take over ten minutes.

That's all there is to it. The registration, that is. Next will come a questionnaire. You'll receive it within a week or ten days after registration.

But it's not a draft call. The complicated questionnaire is just another form you have to fill in. But it's far more detailed, and may take a little time.

Mail it back to your board within ten days. And be sure you fill it in correctly, because this is the pay-off sheet: Your draft classification will be determined by what you write in this questionnaire.

tinued to determine whether other property was taken.

The sheriff's department said that Earnest Croy, 25, of Dalton, Ga., was released to Whitfield, Ga., officials to face a forgery complaint.

Liquor Violations Cited

A suspect was held in connection with the malicious mischief investigation. A negro, officials said, was believed the driver of a car that knocked out the front of the Steen service station on the Slaton cutoff road.

Police said they had arrested 12 persons for drunkenness, two of them also for investigation of tire theft; 12 for vagrancy; three for disturbance, and two for violation of the liquor curfew law.

Juvenile Is Arrested

Police said they had arrested a juvenile and turned his investigation over to John W. Wilson, city-county juvenile counsellor, in connection with a complaint that a "spinner knob" for an automobile had been stolen from Southern Auto stores.

Sheriff's deputies were informed that someone broke and entered a residence of Mrs. T. H. Montgomery, but that nothing was believed removed from the premises.

County court officials reported the following dispositions:

Dorothy Lenox, 25, a negro woman, posted $400 bond after pleading innocent of liquor law violation; Freddie Mae Garrett, 45, a negro woman, was fined $100 and costs on a plea of guilty of liquor law violation; Jack Carol Grimes, 47, of Lubbock route 3 pleaded innocent of drunk driving, and bond of $500 was set by Judge Walter Davies; Alfred Alberdez, 29, of Lubbock, pleaded innocent of drunk driving and of a justice court charge of having no operator's license, and was placed under bonds totaling $550; and Bill Leeper was fined $1 and costs on a charge of check law violation.

Funeral Today For Mrs. Schallert, 89

Funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Sanders Funeral home chapel for Mrs. Barbara Schallert, 89, former longtime South Plains resident, who died Thursday in Austin.

Rev. Jeff D. Welch, pastor of the Central Baptist church, will officiate, and interment will be in Lubbock Memorial cemetery.

Mrs. Schallert resided in Lubbock until 1943, and was a resident of Ralls prior to her move to Lubbock. She was a Gold Star mother, having lost a daughter who was serving as a nurse in France during World War 1.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Olive Pitzner of Johnson Creek, Wisc., and Mrs. Stella Hiderman of Chicago, Ill., and a son Bert Raithel, also of Chicago.

Pallbearers will be George Berry, W. W. Campbell, Walter Davies, J. E. Vickers, John McKinzie and Ben Kucera.

Police Turn Down Dinner Invitation

Police had to pass up this invitation.

Their report tells the story:

"We (two patrolmen) observed the subject walking down Thirteenth. He would walk a short distance and then stop. We checked and found he was drinking whisky and eating chicken and dumplings. The chicken had been cooked with the feathers still on it and as we put the suspect in the patrol car he said, 'Boys, I'm on my way home, would you like to eat with me?'

The police declined. They tossed the chicken in a garbage can — the man in the clink. He was charged with drunkenness.

Another man subsequently charged with drunkenness came down the stairway of a downtown hotel sans any clothing.

He allegedly was exclaiming he had been robbed of his pants and his money.

Pants and money "were found under his bed, which he had not used," police said in official reports.

Car Crashes

the truck for two hours and 45 minutes.

Lubbock fire department officials fought the blaze, and only at 3 a. m. were officials successful in prying open with a crowbar the jammed left door of the truck, which had overturned, and removing Smith's body. The cab was lying on the right side.

The truck which Smith was driving belonged to Continental Oil company of Lubbock, of which J. A. Fortenberry is manager.

No Other Involved

Highway patrol officials who investigated the burning, along with Deputy Sheriffs Foy Addison and J. N. Poteet of Crosby county, reported that apparently no other vehicle was involved in the tragedy. The accident occurred almost exactly on the Lubbock-Crosby county line.

The Levelland collision, within city limits, occurred when Peevy, driving west in the truck, collided with the sedan driven by Ford, which was headed east. Official records of the highway patrol indicated that Peevy had given a hand signal indicating a left turn, but that the accident, which occurred on the north side of the highway, took place before the truck actually began the turn.

The patrol report indicated $800 or more damage to the sedan and about $1,000 damage to the truck, from which the front wheels were completely knocked off. Investigation is continuing.

According to Levelland newspaper informants, Roach's name is spelled with an "a," but his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Roch, of Arlington, use no "a" in their name.

Double Services Set

Double funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Levelland First Baptist church for Roach and Cox. Named to officiate are Rev. J. H. Wright of Levelland First Baptist church; Rev. Jordan Grooms of Levelland First Methodist church; Rev. Franklin Swanner of Plainview, and Rev. Harley Hughes of Whiteface. Interment will be in Tech Memorial cemetery here under direction of Plains Funeral home of Levelland.

Roach, a resident of Levelland since 1938, is survived by his wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Roch of Arlington; three sisters, Mrs. Roy McMillan of Sweetwater, Mrs. Red Reogels of Alice and Mrs. Dewey D. Haynes of Arlington, and three brothers, Gerald C. and Earl D. Roch of Arlington and Carnell Roch, serving with the Army air force in Alaska.

Cox, a resident of Levelland since 1926, is survived by his wife, two children, Sammy Ann, 11, and Jerry Mack, 9; his father, J. A. Cox, and a brother, Roy Cox, both of Levelland; two sisters, Mrs. Loris Brewer of Roswell, N. M., and Mrs. Elwin Hughes of Levelland.

Smith's body was taken by a Plains Funeral home coach late Sunday night to Santa Ana, Tex., for services there. He is survived by a wife, two sons, Donnie and O. B., jr., and two daughters, Janice Sue and Jean, all of Lubbock; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Smith of Coleman; six brothers, Tom, Frank and Leon Smith, all of Coleman, James of Slaton, Houston of Brownwood, and J. B. Smith of Arizona; and two sisters, Mrs. David Biggs and Mrs. Neil Bradshaw, both of Slaton.

shouted boos and catcalls at Wallace during the entire rally.

He finally gave up trying to make his prepared speech and ad libbed a proposal that the federal government increase its aid to the South by $1,000,000,000 a year for the next four years.

He proposed that the new federal aid be divided equally between agriculture and industry and be financed by hiking taxes on the rich.

Wallace tried in vain for more than 20 minutes to get his hecklers to stop. He pleaded for the right to speak without interruption and then vowed that he would stay until he could make his speech. But he finally gave up.
