Perryton Annual Celebration To Be August 23rd

City's 'Community Day' Programs in August

EIGHTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF
FOUNDING OF TOWN ON AUGUST
22, 1919, TO BE OBSERVED

Special Meeting of Board of Directors of Chamber of Commerce Called for Tonight to Discuss Celebration Plans

MAX W. BOYER IS GENERAL CHAIRMAN

A special called meeting of the board of directors of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight to make plans for the annual celebration in observance of the 18th anniversary of the founding of the city. Max W. Boyer has been appointed by the directors as general chairman of the 1937 birthday fete. As the 18th birthday, August 22, falls on Sunday, it has been decided to have the party on Monday, August 23.

HUGE GAIN IN BANK DEPOSITS

INCREASE OF $98,838.34 FOR PAST SIX MONTHS PERIOD
OF YEAR $134,873.25
OUTLOOK BETTER

Financial statements of the two banks in Perryton would indicate that conditions are steadily improving. Total deposits for the two institutions, at the close of business, June 30, showed combined deposits of $623,500.59, which is a gain of $134,873.35 since June 30, 1936. Statements of the condition, January this year showed deposits to be $524,662.05, thus the gain for the past six months has been slightly less than one hundred thousand dollars—$98,838.34. Total loans of the two institutions as shown by the recent statement are $300,793.63. Loans at the same period last year were $269,202.12 and in January this year $243,681.72.

Perryton was founded on August 22, 1919 and will soon be 18 years of age. Taken as a whole, these 18 years have been prosperous, progressive and happy days for the fortunate citizens of the city and surrounding community. Even through the recent years of drouth and adversity, Perryton has forged steadily ahead and many improvements have been made. Ever since the town was first started, the Perryton annual birthday party have been the "high spot" in celebrations for this entire section of the Southwest and 1937 will follow the Perryton tradition. Neither time or expense will be spared to make this a day long to be remembered by the thousands of visitors who will throng into the city.

TAX PAYMENTS ARE EXCELLENT

TOTAL TAX COLLECTIONS FOR YEAR BY TALLEY'S OFFICE
IS $85,416; WHICH IS A
GOOD REPORT

A study of the report prepared by Deputy Fred Huston of the Ochiltree county tax collector's office brings forth the fact the collection of state and county taxes during the year, July 1, 1936 to July 1, 1937, were practically the same as the total amount of 1936 taxes on the rolls. This does not mean that all 1936 taxes were collected but it does mean that the payment of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest practically offset the 1936 taxes that went on the delinquent rolls. Total collections amounted to $85,416.49. Of this amount, $29,156.63 was for state purposes, while $56,259.86 went into the county treasury.

The state collections were apportioned as follows:
Current tax rolls ..... $21,030.51

POLO TEAM TO MEET PAMPA

PERRYTON POLO TEAM IS TO PLAY THEIR FIRST GAME AGAINST PAMPA; OTHER
MATCHES PLANNED

The polo team which was organized here May 23 has arranged for their first game with Pampa on July 25, to be played at Pampa.

The team has been working out for several weeks at the Flowers field south of town and has shown such progress that Hamilton Murphy, manager, believes they have a good chance of defeating the older and more experienced Pampa team. The members composed of Hamilton Murphy, manager, Curtis Reasch, assistant manager, Gaylon Murphy, Junior Wilson, Ambrose Morris, Wilbur Anderson, Bill Stark, Charley Hilton, Gilbert Bryan and Al Holmes have worked hard to develop the team and probably all of them will see action in the first game.

The club was slow in becoming organized because of lack of equipment but according to Gaylon Murphy it is now completely fitted with the latest equipment. Tentative arrangements have been made with Sunray and Texline for games in the near future. The team deserves and is worthy of your support.

Qualifications For CCC En- rollees Was Changed July 1

Qualifications for CCC enrollees have been changed according to the following bulletin issued by The American Red Cross. The age limit has been lowered, also enrollees need not come from families on relief rolls as has been the rule recently. The "needs" qualification is in that of employment. This modification will permit many fine young men to enroll who have been barred by the fact that their families have been able to keep off the relief roll, even though their need was probably greater than many who did accept government aid.

"Congress by Act approved June 28, 1937, has extended the life of the Civilian Conservation Corps for the period of three years after July 1, 1937, and no longer." The number of enrollees authorized is "not to exceed 300,000 men at any one time of which not more than 30,000 may be war veterans." There is also authority to enroll an additional 10,000 Indians and 5,000 additional persons in the territorial and insular possessions of the United States. "Enrollees, except war veterans, Indians, and those in the territories and insular possessions must be unmarried, male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 23. They must be unemployed and in need of employment. Enrollees will be for periods of not less than six months and reenrollments shall not exceed a total term of more than two years (except for war veterans, for whom the law sets no limitation). Compensation for disabled enrollees is still restricted to traumatic injuries. "Enrollment began July 1 and will extend to July 31. Veterans will apply through Veteran's Administration offices as before. Civilians apply to the local or county public welfare department."

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Werneburg and son, Robert, returned Sunday from a weeks vacation which they spent visiting in Rotan. Mrs. W. B. White accompanied them and visited with her father, Roy Guffey, of Abilene.

APPELLATE COURT DENIES "BEER" CASE REHEARING

The Court of Civil Appeals of the 7th Supreme Judicial District rendered a decision last week refusing to grant a rehearing of the Ochiltree county "beer" election contest case. In their decision, they reaffirmed the decision, declaring the election legal.

Attorneys for the contestants have announced that they will carry the case to the State Supreme Court on a writ of error. It is understood that a test criminal case will be made wherein some dealer will be charged with the illegal sale of beer. The case will then be carried to the Court of Criminal Appeals. A local attorney states that if the Court of Criminal Appeals should hold the election invalid, then the election will be void and unenforceable regardless of the action of the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court in the present contest case.

WHEAT MARKET REACHES $1.11

IS HIGHEST PRICE PAID SINCE 1929 WHEN TOP PRICE WAS $1.15; HARVEST IS ALMOST OVER

Wheat prices reached a new high in Perryton yesterday when the market climbed to $1.11, the highest since 1929 when it reached $1.15. A five cent rise Tuesday and a two cent Wednesday brought it to the new level.

The highest price paid here during the harvest season of 1936 was ninety four cents, although the market was $1.08 in August and $1.30 in the fall. In April of this year $1.28 was paid for some wheat that had been stored.

Harvest is practically over in the Perryton area, elevator men and farmers say. Various estimates are made on the yield which is difficult to estimate owing to the spotted condition of many fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Bell and daughter, Francis Lee, came in Sunday from San Angelo and are visiting this week with his mother, Mrs. Bell in the home of his sister, Mrs. M. F. Hethcock, and with other relatives here and at Booker.

The fortunate boys were Earl Manning, Alva Frye, and Joe Pete Lile. They left Perryton on June 24, joining the Adobe Walls contingent at Pampa. Ten Boy Scouts accompanied by Executive Fred Roberts and Leaders Zane Smith and Wentworth represented the Adobe Walls Council at the Washington encampment. The Amarillo district sent 16 Scouts and three leaders.

The Panhandle delegation arrived in the nation's capital on the evening of June 26 and went into camp on Haines Point located on the Virginia side of the Potomac River. Approximately 2,500 Scouts from Regions 8 and 9 were in this camp. Region 8 is composed of middle-west states and Region 9 is made up of the States of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas. The total enrollment for the Jamboree was close to 30,000.

The first three days of the camp were given over to a training school, followed by the opening exercises on June 30 at the Washington Monument camp, where 25,812 Boy Scouts were gathered in one body. ## "SLAVE SHIP" IS STORY OF SEA

WARNER BAXTER AND WALLACE BEERY ARE STARS IN FILM SAID TO BE MIGHTIEST SEA DRAMA

Storming in epic sweep over half the world, as the last slaver sails on its last desperate voyage "Slave Ship" opens Sunday at the Ellis Theatre, giving the screen a new claimant for the title of mightiest of all sea sagas.

"Slave Ship" co-stars Warner Baxter and Wallace Beery in a pulsing tale of the slave-trading era, with Elizabeth Allan and Mickey Rooney among those on the boat as, with decks reddened by mutiny, it roams the seas on its final furl-racked voyage.

In the most colorful role of a colorful career, Warner Baxter plays Captain Jim Lovett, romantic scourge of two seas, who defies the navies of the world, is betrayed by a shipmate, and fights at last for love in the greatest sea adventure of them all.

Wallace Beery, whose long list of shipboard roles reads like a veritable history of the salt-water cinema, sinks his teeth into a meaty role that presents him as the villainous mate of the slaver—big-fisted, bull-headed, genial and treacherous to his dying breath, one minute a roaring beast, the next a gentle child; friend and foe alike to the captain he serves—and betrays. "Slave Ship" traces the tempestuous career of a swift bark engaged in the slave trade, and its courageous captain, Warner Baxter, who planned to retire from "blackbirding" to settle down to a new life with his young bride, Elizabeth Allan.

As they sail on Baxter's boat on the honeymoon cruise which is to mark the end of its days as a slaver, they find that they have been betrayed by the mate, Wallace Beery, and the crew avid for more slaving profits. The honeymoon cruise is turned into a voyage in which they are continually brought face to face with danger and death.

Sought by the navies of every nation, and torn by mutiny aboard, the slave ship sails on through adventures on the high seas and along the African coast, and it is a dramatic climax which clears the future for the captive couple and sends the ill-fated slaver to its ominous destiny.

George Musick, Tulsa, is visiting friends in Perryton this week.

Tennis Included in Friar's Day

Wholesome recreation and exercise is part of the day's routine in the state's Franciscan Monastery at Cleveland, O., as the photo above graphically shows. Although religious training and study take up most of his time, the young man with the tennis racket, who is preparing for the priesthood, still manages to make use of the courts on the monastery grounds. Each day at the monastery is begun at 4:45 a. m. and ends at 9:30 p. m.

Lubbock, that Mrs. Spencer Whippo has made the spring semester honor roll with an average grade of "A". Mrs. Whippo made a grade of "A" in all courses.

Another Perryton student who made the spring honor roll with an average grade of "A" is Wayne Vaughn, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Vaughn.

Dalhart XIT Show

Pageant, Rodeo and Amusement
Galore for XIT Reunion at Dalhart, Aug. 9-10

Dalhart, Tex. July 13—The director for the giant XIT historical pageant, modelled on a plane and scope no less intriguing and spectacular than Calvacade, will arrive in Dalhart Saturday.

Detailing the epic highlights of the famous three-million acre ranch, the only one in the world that ever built a state capitol, the pageant will be a major entertainment at the second Annual XIT Ranch Reunion to be held in Dalhart, August 9 and 10.

Recalling the Old West in another fashion will be a rodeo, the best that Dalhart has ever attempted. Allyn Finch and Sol Skidmore, real cowhands who are in charge of the affair, recently went to Canadian to see the Beutler Brothers rodeo stock in action.

"They have some of the best outlaw horses in the Southwest," declared Finch. There will be big Brahmas steers to ride; smaller ones to bulldog, and fast, dodging calves that the cowpokes will try to dab a

Welshman Leaps Into Heavyweight Title Scene as Louis' First Opponent

Tommy Farr who had a successful employment as a coal-miner, bellhop, and look stock one day, and general all-round and decided forthright mental tasks were

Tommy Farr became a heavyweight at that, and it wasn't long before the young Tommy had himself therein as George's leading contender from all England, Ireland, and the dominions beyond the seas.

Tommy Farr's workmanlike manner and Neusel's own good foreign challenge put additional appeal in the heavyweight title bout. Tommy is quicker to take a punch than Mike Baer, who holds the contract for services for some time.

Therefore, finds himself in the center of the fight scene, tenacious to be champion of first opponent either summer or early next which will give John Neusel sensation his first real sugar.

Tommy Farr, 23 years ago at the Rhonda Valley region of South Wales, was a pick at the underground as a youth. The foundation for a physical development. He stands an even six weighs slightly over 150 pounds. His career as a bell-ringer in a Cardiff hotel exactly appeal to him five years ago he put on boxing gloves, with the intention of making his liveliness within the ring. His intentions were good but his early efforts hardly stamped him as a heavyweight of any great prospects. He won decisions over Tommy Loughran and Bob Olin in very lack-luster contests and was headed for nowhere in particular until he got his chance against Ben Foord. Acquisition of the British title gave him something of a name however, even though British fighters have failed to cut more of a figure in heavyweight ranks, and then he was matched with Baer. He received $10,000 for plastering Playboy Maxie all over a London ring, top earnings for him until then, and added further to his laurels and bank account when he knocked Neusel a little later. A fair boxer and capable of doing a lot of damage with a solid right hand punch, Farr appears to be a welcome addition to the sadly thinning ranks of heavyweight contenders. At least the British think so. And so does Mike Jacobs, who hopes to pack the fans into Yankee Stadium the week of Sept. 13, when Joe Louis first defends his title.

Making Rules

Point in Making Avoid Too Much Water-Finished Product

Okla., July 15 (Special)—A maker who counts on the sale of her fruit jelly needs to make a high-quality product, and meet or better it, she believes. Miss Assistant Extension Agent in foods and nutrients A. and M. Col-fruit juice, or containing excess fruit-moisture or added water that should be evaporated in cooking is considered an imitation. The actual fruit juice used should weigh as much or more than the sugar used. So, though good jellying fruits like currants, and wild grapes will give a jellying liquid if their juice is extracted more than once, only juice from the first extraction contains full flavor and food value so comes up to standard. To obtain the most juice of the finest flavor and color, add no water, or the minimum of water to juicy tender fruits like berries or currants, and add only enough water for boiling firm fruits like apples and quinces. Cook until the fruit breaks up, but avoid overcooking, which spoils flavor and color. Put the hot fruit pulp into the jelly bag and start the flow through the bag by slight pressure. As the juice begins to cool and congeal on the bag, use more pressure with hands or paddles.

To clarify the juice, strain again through a clean jelly bag. Cook the juice and sugar together in a large shallow kettle which allows for rapid evaporation until the mixture gives the jelly test usually called the "sheeting off" test. At this point all extra water and excess fruit moisture will be evaporated.

The right container is also important for jelly made for market. Though plain jelly glasses with friction-top lids are customary for home uses, jellies to be sold need special glasses fitted with rubber gaskets which seal tightly.

International Sunday School Lesson

A Leader Is Inspired by God

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for July 18
Text: Exodus 3:3-16; 4:10-16; 5:1

OUR lesson continues with the story of a leader, Moses, who was strengthened by God's inspiration at a time when he realized his own weakness and inadequacy.

We are told, sometimes, that the God of these ancient Israelites was a tribal God, and that they had not found the glorious conception that arose in later Israel and in New Testament times, of a God of the whole earth.

But it is something more than such a limited conception that one finds in the representation of God as speaking to Moses. When Moses asks his name and how he shall know and tell his people of the divine reality, the reply is that he is to say, "I AM hath sent me unto you."

"I AM THAT I AM"—what a noble conception that is, conveying so magnificently the emphasis upon the living presence of God! This God of the Fathers is an everlasting God, a covenant making and a covenant keeping God in whom men of devotion and faith can find security and strength.

MOSES is still concerned about his lack of qualification as a leader. He is conscious that he is not eloquent. He is slow of speech and of tongue. Here again though, lack of eloquence is not to be despised. How many great and real leaders have been feeble in speech!

This was one of the complaints against Paul, whom we have compared to Moses, that his presence was weak, and that he lacked the gift of speech, of Apollos, and others. But one can think of many men small in stature and unimpressive in presence and speech who have, nevertheless, been the creators and inspirers of great causes and movements, and who have accomplished almost incredible things simply because faith and determination have driven them, and they have become the medium of a greater power than themselves.

The Lord rebuked Moses because of his lack of faith in himself. "Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh a man dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind?" Cannot God, in His power, give words to men who lack eloquence?

Nevertheless, Moses found a mouthpiece in Aaron, his brother, who was evidently a man of words as Moses was a man of action.

THUS equipped, with a new inner strength and with the support of the eloquent Aaron, Moses goes down to his task to face Pharaoh in the name of the God of Israel, and to say, "Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness."

It was not to be as easy a task as Moses might have supposed. God's will is for the deliverance and safety of his children, but there are problems of human freedom and destiny that man has to work out in co-operation with God, and the divine power does not work miracles where men themselves fail. The way that was before Moses was to test alike his faith, his courage, and his strength.

The call of a man to a great task is only the first incident in his destiny. The real time of testing comes not in his acceptance of the call, but in the power of faith and will with which he holds to his task, day after day, no matter what the discouragements and no matter what the dangers.

Moses became a great leader not merely through his call, but by the strength of his faith and his unyielding will.

WANT RENEWAL EROSION WORK

EIGHT OUT OF NINE COUNTY CONSERVANCY DISTRICTS ASK CONTINUATION OF SOIL CONTROL

Amarillo, Texas.—Renewal of the memorandum of understanding with the Soil Conservation Service has been requested by eight of the nine cooperating conservancy districts.

County conservancy districts that have asked for continuation of the cooperative erosion control work with the Soil Conservation Service are Deaf Smith, Oldham, Dallam, Moore, Mansford, Sherman, Ochiltree, and Lipscomb. Cooperative operations in these eight counties are being continued. The governing body of the Hartley County district has not requested renewal, but it is anticipated that they will take some action soon.

Since the beginning of field operations in the nine counties in February this year a complete erosion control program has been started on 129 farms having a total acreage of 108,690 acres. The Soil Conservation Service furnishes the districts the technical personnel and heavy equipment. The heavy equipment is used chiefly for terrace construction, hummock leveling and working down of fence row drifts.

Terracing has been completed on 17,360 acres of land, hummocks leveled on 13,620 acres, and 370 miles of fence row drifts have been leveled to date. In addition to this work the cooperating farmers have agreed to follow other recognized erosion control practices, such as contour cultivation, strip cropping, maintenance of vegetative cover, and contour furrowing of pastures, according to the specific needs of the farm.

Uncle Jim Says

"Well distributed reservoirs make for even grazing on the range."

One of the most popular features of the range conservation part of the Agricultural Conservation Program is the provision for payments for the construction of reservoirs. The county agricultural agents in the 173 Texas counties which are affected by the range conservation plan are reporting that most ranchmen are building one or several dams to impound reserves of water. Ranchmen have long known that the concentration of animals around the water supply results in excess tramping and in overgrazing. As a result the area for a considerable distance around the watering place is usually bare of native grasses. In most cases these are replaced by weeds. In many instances, the area is a "blow hole". On the other hand, outlying ranges, far from water are undergrazed.

The establishment of more water reservoirs will promote balanced grazing. Extension Service livestock specialists also point out that it is reasonable to expect better gains from livestock in cases where the distance to water is materially reduced.

TEXHOMA BEATEN BY LOCALS

TEXHOMA LOST SUNDAY GAME AGAINST PERRYTON WITH SCORE 4-3; NIP AND TUCK GAME

Perryton defeated Texhoma on the home field last Sunday after a hectic game which provided the fans with more than one thrill. After having to play their best they finally nosed out Texhoma 4 to 3.

The locals were off to a bad start when Elmor and Dickson both scored on them in the first inning on an error. After this they began to take up slack threatening to even the score in the second, but were held. With renewed vigor they went into the third and tied the score when Leonard Riley got on by an error. Hergert came up next and singled to left field advancing Riley to third. Tom Riley came up and singled to center scoring the two players on base. He was put out later. In the fourth Owens scored after singling to left field, stealing second and coming in when Connor made a single. In the fifth Hergert made a single. Tom Riley hit a grounder to Elmore at short stop, who caught Hergert at second. Riley went to second when Johnson put out Henry Richardson at first. Then Muir singled to deep center scoring Tom Riley from second.

Texhoma made their other run when Cordell doubled to left field in the sixth and was brought in by Brown who also doubled to left field.

Tom Riley struck out 7 men, walked one man and hit one batter. Umphreys struck out 6 men. Hergert made a batting average of .750 during the game.

GANGWAY! HERE I COME!

Editor's Note: The following "motoring tip" is from J. M. Crawford, chief engineer of the Chevrolet division of General Motors. Modern motor cars are as safe as men know how to make them but there is still room for improvement in the manner in which they are driven. Considerations not only of safety, but also of getting maximum utility and satisfaction, strongly suggest the need of effort to better driving technique. Mr. Crawford makes a constructive suggestion on the subject.

It is strange, but nevertheless true, that many persons who wouldn't think of plowing through a drawing room with cries of "Gangway! Here I Come!" climb into their cars every day of the week and commit, on the streets and highways, the exact parallel of that social offense.

This fact lends point to the slogan of so many safety campaigns, to the effect that courtesy and safety go hand in hand. It's a long time since Alphonse and Gaston disappeared from the comic pages; but the spirit of "You first, my dear Alphonse!" would go a long way, today, to remedy traffic ills.

One of the most glaring instances of discourtesy is to be seen on almost any busy artery, during the rush hour. Traffic on the through street will pile up solidly, blocking intersecting streets, so that it is only by matching rudeness with rudeness, and forcing their way through, that drivers on the latter can cross busy thoroughfares.

A moment's reflection would convince any motorist that he would really lose no time at all by leaving a gap ahead, when approaching a cross street. As soon as cross-traffic has cleared, he will be on his way again, with no net loss whatever. And the fellow whom he let through will be merry on his way.

I know one driver who always makes it a point, when driving in heavy traffic, to pause for cross-traffic to go through. He does it even when there is a car-length or so which would permit him to clear the intersection himself. "The point is," he explains, "that only about one driver in a dozen will give these other fellows a break. If I don't stop the procession long enough to let them cross, the line may start and stop half a dozen times before someone takes pity on them and does it."

Cars today embody comfort approaching that of the drawing rooms. There doesn't seem to be any good reason why motorists should not take their drawing room manners when they climb in behind the wheel. If enough drivers will do it, they will not only serve the ends of safety but facilitate the movement of traffic as well.

An excellent opportunity for an organization to sponsor a worthwhile project is presented down in the city park. Benches and tables for picnic parties could be provided. Also barbecue pits and cooking furnaces. Then there is room for tennis courts and playgrounds. The city park with its beautiful trees, and wonderful swimming pool could truly be made the center of summer life in Perryton.

And while we are talking about the city park, it appears that it would be most timely to install a one-way drive system on the driveway leading into the park and past the swimming pool. On evenings and Sundays, the traffic is very congested, causing damage to cars and a hazard to life and limb. It would bring orderliness out of chaos and everybody would be happier and safer, including even those who "foot it" to and from the pool.

There are two amendments to be voted on by the people of Texas on August 23, that should have the support of every citizen interested in the welfare of their fellow man. If Texas voters ratify these two amendments, they make it possible for Texas and the Federal government to share alike in extending aid to the needy, blind, and dependent children.

The amendment providing need for the needy blind provides state aid not to exceed $15.00 per month for each needy blind person. It also authorizes the state to accept Federal contributions for this purpose, which under the Social Security Act, is on the basis of the United States government matching dollar for dollar with the state.

The amendment providing aid for dependent children provides aid from state funds, not to exceed $8 per month for one child or $12 per month for the children of any one family. Under this amendment, as provided in the Social Security Act, the Federal government will contribute one-third of the total amount, which means a possible maximum total of $12.00 for a one-child family and $18.00 per family with two or more children.

EARHART HOPE WAKES

Honolulu, H. I.—Naval officers who have swept the South Seas by plane and warcraft for nearly two weeks have virtually abandoned hope of finding Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Frederick J. Noonan, missing since July 2 on a "round-the-world flight."

COURT BILL FIGHT CONTINUES

Washington, D. C.—Now in its second week of hot debate in the Senate, the President's compromise Judiciary Reorganization Bill faces a finish fight, with a strong likelihood of being recommitted to the Judiciary Committee to die a lingering death. All other legislation, including important bills, is held up pending disposition of the measure.

FAR EASTERN WAR

ANOTHER NORTH POLE FLIGHT

Moscow, U. S. S. R.—Three Russian aviators are now on their way "over the top of the world," on the trail blazed by three compatriots last month who landed on the Pacific Coast after crossing over the North Pole. ## THE WEEK IN BUSINESS Withdrawing its objection to the publication by SEC of its officials' salaries, the Chrysler Corporation announced that Walter P. Chrysler, founder and chairman, receives $200,000 a year plus $40,500 for his office expenses. . . . To reports of his resignation, Myron C. Taylor, Chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, vacationing in Italy, cried, "I wish they wouldn't say such things." . . . Entering the farm-tractor market for the first time, Sears, Roebuck & Co. announced a rubber-tired machine capable of 20 miles an hour on the road and with three forward speeds for field work. It is manufactured by the Graham-Paige Motor Co. . . . In the plans for the simplification of the intricate Van Sweringen railroad set-up, the new owners will merge the Allegheny and Chesapeake corporations into one holding company, practically controlling the Chesapeake & Ohio, the New York, Chicago & St. Louis, the Erie, the Pere Marquette, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and the Missouri Pacific railroads.

VENTRILOQUISM PROSPERS

Chicago, Ill.—A sudden revival of interest in ventriloquism has boomed the production of wooden puppets to a point where Frank Marshall, largest maker of ventriloquists' "stooges," is personally carving from twelve to seventeen figures a week. More than half his business comes from amateurs ambitious to start stage careers as ventriloquists.

New Orleans, La.—Disregarding her $2500 claim for heart-balm, a local judge awarded a jilted young woman $180.43 for the trousseau she had purchased in anticipation of her wedding. He then advised the former suitor that when he paid the award the trousseau became his property.

WE LEARN SOMETHING

Moscow, U. S. S. R.—Discussing the U. S. Constitution before the Soviet Central Executive Committee, Judge Audrey Vyahinsky, Russia's active prosecutor of Trotskyists, declared, "Each State elects two Senators, but actually what happens? New York, with millions, elects two, while a State with a few hundred thousand population also elects two. Amazing equality!" . . . Bribery, deception, felonies, the purchasing of voters, all these things are committed openly!"

LUDWIG ON ROOSEVELT

New York City.—Before leaving for Europe, Emil Ludwig, biographer of Napoleon and Bismarck, announced that while abroad he will write a biography of President Roosevelt. He said the President couldn't be called a dictator. "A dictator must always be gloomy," he said, pulling a long face. "The President likes life (laughing) and he trusts people, while a dictator takes no enjoyment in life and trusts nobody."

WASHINGTON BRIEFS

The President urged all departments and Federal agencies to effect a 10 per cent ($400,000,000) cut on all current fiscal year appropriations to achieve a "layman's balanced budget" by June 30, 1938. . . . Labor Department reported April strikes 25 per cent less than in March, a record month for 20 years, but at that 350,000 strikers lost $3,385,000 man-days in the month. . . . Without anyone's knowing the President's mind on the subject, third-term rumors persist, even among members of the White House staff. . . . A movement is on foot to send Elliott Roosevelt, the President's second son, to Congress to replace Representative Lanham of Ft. Worth, Texas, who would be appointed to the Federal Communications Commission.

GREAT BRITAIN'S FEARS

Her husband, a friend of the late Grand Lama, was the first non-official foreigner ever asked to visit Lhasa, and will this year bring back photographs and curios for American museums.

IS IT MAE SZATKUS?

Los Angeles, Calif.—After two years of vehement denial, Mae West, voluptuous screen star, seems to remember something about a marriage back in 1911 to a vaudeville actor known as Frank Wallace, but whose real name is Szatkus. At least, she has offered him $30,000 to withdraw his suit for recognition as her husband and his share of their community estate. Mae West is believed to be worth $3,000,000 and California law gives a husband half of it.

GYPSIES ELECT KING

Warsaw, Poland.—For the first time since their nomad tribes left Egypt six centuries ago, 30,000 Polish gypsies elected a King, Janus Kwick, a local boiler-maker. Chosen from six candidates by 330 electors, King Janus was crowned amid impressive settings in the Warsaw Sta-

Twenty Question on Social Security

Question No. 1

How soon are benefits payable under the old-age benefits provisions of the Social Security Act?

ANSWER: Lump-sum benefits are payable now to an employee if he has reached the age of 65 since December 31, 1936, and has worked in a covered occupation since that date. In case an employee has died since December 31, 1936, and has worked in a covered occupation after that date, the estate of such an individual is eligible to file claim for a lump-sum payment. In either case, the lump-sum will amount to 3 1/4 per cent of wages paid to the worker in covered occupations since December 31, 1936.

Monthly benefits will be paid after January 1, 1942, to qualified individual before 15,000 paying spectators. His first act was to order a round of beer for everybody.

ADOPT SECOND CHILD

HOW UNCLE SAM CLOSED THE YEAR

The Federal Government closed its fiscal year June 30th. On that date receipts totalled $5,294,000,000, more than a billion better than last year, largely due to increased income taxes. Expenditures, however, totalled $8,000,000,000, leaving a deficit of $2,707,000,000, a billion-and-a-half less than last year. Treasury officials point out that of the $36,425,000,000 national debt, a billion is in "sterilized" gold and nearly four billions in recoverable loans.

A GLIDER TAKES OFF WITHOUT POWER

With a record glider flight of nearly 150 miles, Richard du Pont, president of the Gliders' Society of America, still holds the domestic record for distance. Gliding is winning new devotees daily, and pilots say there is no thrill equal to sailing aloft with no support save air currents.

STEEL MILLS REOPEN UNDER GUARD

Ohio National Guardsmen are seeing to it that these employers of the Republic Steel Company are protected in their desire to return to work without violence from C.I.O. agitators. The scene has been duplicated in practically every mill in Ohio and Pennsylvania where strikes have been called.

C. I. O. Grows Rapidly to Become Powerful Rival of A. F. of L.

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON.—The C. I. O. has grown so fast, that while it is a recognized rival of the A. F. of L., technically it is little more than its name implies, a Committee for Industrial Organizations.

The C. I. O. has no constitution and it has held no national convention. It hasn't had time yet to settle the question of the future relationship of the international and local unions. There has been no time for these details in the short turbulent life of the organizing committee which has grown and spread rapidly and is sending down roots of a national central organization of labor unions. There no longer seems the slightest chance of a reconciliation with the A. F. of L.

The C. I. O. sprouted last March when in a full meeting authority was given for the issuance of certificates of affiliation to national, international, state, regional, city central and other local groups.

International unions affiliated have begun to pay per capita dues to C. I. O. just as they used to pay them to A. F. of L. There are some 227 local industrial unions which have been chartered since March in various industries, but are not covered by the 26 national and international unions affiliated with C. I. O. so they are responsible to the central C. I. O. and pay per capita dues to it.

SIMILAR to the state federations or central labor unions of the A. F. of L., the C. I. O. has some 30 industrial union councils to which it has given charters.

Beginning with eight affiliated international unions, the C. I. O. now claims to be adding about one a week, and about 10 local industrial unions every 10 days.

WHEN the plans of the committee conflicted more and more with those of the A. F. of L., the committee and most of the unions it represented broke away from the federation.

The A. F. of L. has a complex constitution with a system of voting strength allotted to federal unions, city centrals and international unions which have been worked out over many years. So far, the C. I. O. has no such equipment. Many small local unions have affiliated with the C. I. O., but their relationship in voting strength has yet to be settled. The relationship of unions claiming the same field is complex and must be untangled. But this is in the future.

C. I. O. is still a committee, accepting new members as national and international unions and their leaders volunteer to join. But this group will not and cannot continue for long that way.

Test Ripeness of Cheese by Listening to "Tone"

Experts in the Parmesan cheese warehouses test the ripeness of their product not by smelling it, but by listening to its "tone," according to a correspondent in the Chicago Daily News. The tone is produced by a little silver hammer, and after cheeses have been in the warehouse at least two years the tester goes about tapping them with the hammer, listening for the ring which assures him that they are ready for market.

The actual making of Parmesan cheese is a short process, but its curing long. After the cheese has been formed it is put in a brine bath for fifteen days, next sweetened and then stored away for about eight months. At the end of this time it is painted with special vegetable oils, which give it a glossy black coating, and then stored with hundreds of others to complete its ripening.

Its special flavor is supposed to come from the grass of this region, which is also famous for its violets. Parmesan cheese is popular everywhere in Italy, and American travelers find it sprinkled not only on their spaghetti and macaroni, but also over soups, vegetables and eggs.

"Two Bits"

A Mexican real, a small silver piece, was one of the coins which circulated in this country in colonial days and for a while after the Revolution, Mexico at that time being a Spanish colony. This small coin was also known as a "bit." Because Mexican and Spanish money had a fixed and standard value, which our own money lacked, it was the usual medium of exchange, and was more often seen than British or colonial currency. And because of the familiarity and the convenience of the Spanish dollar and its fractions, we came to use a dollar currency instead of pounds and pence. A real, or "bit," had the face value of one-eighth of a dollar, or 12 1/2 cents; two reals, or "two bits," one-fourth of a dollar, or 25 cents.

Use of Word "Call"

According to the dictionary, the correct prepositions to use with the verb call are as follows: "Call to a passer-by; call after one who is departing or fleeing; call on or upon one for aid or service; call upon the country for troops; call by the name of Lincoln, after the great emancipator; his integrity has never been called in question."—Literary Digest.

Snakes Have Quick Tongues

Garter snakes are among the commonest of our native reptiles. The quick, darting forked tongue gathers many insects for food, along with frogs, toads, salamanders and worms, forms its principal diet. It is perfectly harmless and of great economic value. It hibernates below the frost line in soft mud or sand and emerges in early spring after being awakened by warming suns.

Scandinavian Countries

Scandinavia is derived from "Scandia," the name used by the Romans to designate what was supposed to be a large island either in or north of the Baltic sea. In ancient times very little was known of this great land mass of peninsula. As a geographical term, however, Scandinavia is passing out of use, but the appellation is employed in an ethnographic, and especially in a literary sense.

Mrs. Vance Apple, Mrs. Max Boyer and Mrs. H. A. Hawk were luncheon guests Tuesday with Mrs. Cecil Dodd.

Miss Tommie Lee Hogland, who is attending business college in Tyler, and Miss Irene Hogland of Gladewater, visited from Tuesday until Saturday of last week with relatives and friends in Perryton. They went to Amarillo Saturday to visit their sisters, Mrs. Ray Ballard, and with Miss Mildred Hogland, who attends college in Canyon, before returning to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Christopher visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Christopher, Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Henry came in Saturday from Pampa to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Virgil Castle and Mr. Castle. Mr. Henry returned home Sunday evening leaving Mrs. Henry here for a week's stay.

W. L. Bryan motored to Guymon, Okla., Sunday to meet Mrs. Bryan and daughter, Joan, who have been in Phoenix, Ariz., the past month at the bedside of Mrs. Bryan's sister, Mrs. Harold Ellis, who they left slowly improving.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, July 18.

The Golden Text is: "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him" (Luke 20:37,38).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" (I Corinthians 15:55).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The relinquishment of all faith in death and also of the fear of its sting would raise the standard of health and morals far beyond its present elevation, and would enable us to

PANHANDLE PARAGRAPHS

The Panhandle Herald says that two wildcat tests were assured Cimbarron county, in the Oklahoma Panhandle last week, when the State School Land Commission awarded leases on two blocks to M. M. Valerius, of Tulsa, Okla., on bids of $5 per tract and guarantee of a well to start on each tract within six months.

L. D. and Molly Shaw, publishers of the Higgins News, recently celebrated their 32nd anniversary as publishers in that city.

According to the Canadian Record the State Highway Department has written to Judge E. C. Fisher that an increased appropriation for improving the Canadian River bridge on highway No. 4 and 33, has been made. The sum of $8,989.83 will be added to the original sum of $55,612.02 previously made to cover the cost of replacing the floor system and repairing damaged trusses and abutments. Work starts July 15.

It was brought out by the Donley County Leader that while Mobeetie, Tascosa and old Clarendon are the oldest towns in the Panhandle in the order named, only the remnant of Mobeetie remains as a postoffice. Clarendon was moved to its present site in 1887. Tascosa ceased to be in the early '90s, the courthouse being used for years as the headquarters of the Rivins ranch. At a pioneer luncheon last week the three towns were represented by former citizens of each, who are now Clarendonites.

Mrs. Jim Thompson and Doris of Beeville visited several days last week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. May and with other friends here. They left Thursday for Fairview, Okla., to visit relatives.

Strictly Business' Flights Over Atlantic Herald New Day in Commercial Aviation

GIANT, four-motored Sikorsky flying boat slipped a run-way at Port Washington, L. I., the other day, its humming a full-throated power. In a few seconds it was aloft, pointed its nose to the northeast and roared through the skies for Botwood, Newfoundland.

Following briefly at Botwood, Ireland, and Foyne, Ireland, the ship headed out over the Atlantic Ocean, and winged its way to Foyne, Ireland. From there it was only a comparatively short hop to Croydon, London, and the first "strictly business" flight in the history of commercial service from America to England had been completed.

Previous flights have been from America to different parts of Europe, each one indicating that some day it would be possible to establish a regular service to be established, with business and trade as its more closely-knit than before, Pan-American Airlines is attempting to demonstrate the time has come to take steps toward setting up service.

However, there were obstacles to be overcome before test flights could be made. American is conducting the experiment with British Imperial Airways, which gave rise to a question of international diplomacy.

In order to insure the greatest degree of safety in transporting passengers, mail, and freight, it was necessary to select coastwise points at both terminals as the most vital links in the route. And Great Britain holds sway over both points—Botwood, Newfoundland, and Foyne, Ireland.

Much political red-tape had to be unwound before the two nations could agree on a working agreement, and that, only after British Imperial agreed to accept New York City as the final terminal of the system, instead of Montreal, as the English would have preferred.

For years Pan-American has been planning, experimenting, watching, and waiting for the day when it could actually begin operations. Already its giant clipper ships have spanned the Pacific, but that venture too, was completed successfully only after flight conditions and half a million experimental miles had been flown. Not until months of painstaking preparations had been finished did the China Clipper carry passengers and mail.

So it is with Pan-American's Atlantic service. Once again it will be a matter of trial and error and careful observation before hundreds of passengers and thousands of pounds of mail travel back and forth between the world's two largest commercial centers.

In the attempt to prove the value of heavier-than-air machines for transatlantic service, gigantic flying boats quite similar to the China Clipper will be used. Four 740-horsepower motors will provide the power. Cruising speed will be at least 180 miles per hour.

Ample room for thousands of pounds of gasoline and oil will be necessary, but still there will be space for sleeping accommodations for passengers and crew, for the kitchen, for a promenade cabin, radio room, and mail, freight, and baggage.

Although the flying boats later to be used in actual operation of transatlantic service may not be superior to the great craft which recently made the first successful test flight over the proposed route, Pan-American and British Imperial intend to carry on their careful experiments. No definite time has been set for the first flight with passengers and freight, but in all probability it won't be made until the two transport companies feel they have everything as letter perfect as they can make it.

—That's why so many refuse to buy from transients. They know there is no "come back" on the out-of-town salesman who is here today and gone tomorrow.

No man-made product can be unfailingly perfect. The best of manufacturers at times have sub-standard products; the keenest merchants make errors of judgment in buying; unforeseen defects will creep into good products, and unintentional mistakes will occur.

And it is just such things that give your local merchant the opportunity to show his fairness and eagerness to make good—to rectify and satisfy the unguarded customer.

When you buy from the transient salesman you can't go back and meet him "face to face"—he's gone. You can't find him and he surely won't seek you.

Is a Summer Disease

State Health Officer Says That Infantile Paralysis is Summer Ailment

Austin, Texas.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, states that infantile paralysis, like typhoid fever, is largely a summer disease. Although cases may occur during any month of the year, over half the total number come in July, August, September and October. To date 69 cases of poliomyelitis have been reported to the State Health Department in 1937.

Direct contact between persons is regarded as being the chief factor in the spread of infantile paralysis. Because of the seasonal prevalence of the disease, flies and other insects have been suspected of conveying the virus or germ. Insect transmission has not, however, been demonstrated. Although animals are subject to paralysis, they are seemingly not susceptible to the human type of this paralytic disease. Carriers are difficult to determine, this fact makes advisable the reduction to a minimum, of human contact during an outbreak.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis comprise headache, fever, vomiting, bowel disorder, drowsiness and irritability, followed by neck or back stiffness. Prompt medical care, early recognition and reporting of cases make possible the use of valuable preventive and control measures.

After the acute stage of the disease has passed and walking is finally permitted the patient, under no circumstances must the affected part be fatigued. It is thus observed that the secret of successful rehabilitation lies in continuance of professional guidance and large doses of patience.

Children under five are more susceptible to the disease and all children under 12 should be watched for suspicious symptoms. There are important things to do when child shows symptoms. Your family physician should be called at once and physicians should report all cases to the health authorities immediately. When the disease occurs all cases should be isolated for 21 days. All milk should be boiled unless it is pasteurized.

Children should not visit homes where the disease exists or there are symptoms of it. Flies should be killed and their breeding places destroyed. Promptness in diagnosis of poliomyelitis is important in preventing spread of the disease.

BIG MOMENTS IN HISTORY (1909)

REMEMBER WHEN YOUR FOLKS GOT THE PHONOGRAPH WITH THE BIG HORN? AND YOU ENTERTAINED THE KIDS ON YOUR STREET WITH SUCH POPULAR SONGS AS—

REMOVE CACTUS FROM PASTURES

CCC ENROLLEES OF PERRYTON CAMP HAVE CUT CACTUS FROM THOUSANDS OF ACRES OF RANGE

Throughout the Perryton area prickly pear cactus has infested much of the range land. It is a conservative estimate to state that the efficiency of some grass land has been reduced 25 to 35 per cent due to noxious weed growth not palatable to stock.

It has seemed advisable to remove the cactus from grass land as a preparation for contour furrowing. Enrollees from Camp SCS-12-T have removed the cactus from approximately 57,000 acres of range land since July 1935. A large percent of this acreage was seriously infested with cactus. However, a part of the area was covered with only scattered clumps.

The prickly pear cactus has spread rapidly over the soil during the so called drouthy years, due to several reasons. During years of low rain-fall the native grass produces scant growth, leaving space for more drouth resistant plants to occupy. The soil drift deposits in the prickly pear clumps favor root development along the leaf stalks and also tend to kill out the native sod. The prickly pear cactus plant produces a greater growth in cases when the plant isn't shaded by other vegetation and where the leaf stalks have an opportunity to root. The plants spread in three ways: the seeds from the plant fruit are carried to new locations; the leaves may be broken off and carried away from the original plant and take root or may stay alive for a month without taking root and with the first rain, root down. The leaf stalks may also take root while connected to the mother plant.

The best results have been obtained where the entire plant was dug and hauled off the range land. The only cases where the cactus was not completely eradicated with one removal operation, were where young plants came from seed or where a part of the leaf stalk remained in the ground; however, these latter cases are in the minority.

BOY SCOUTS

etc.; the pioneers with their covered wagons, stage coaches, oxen teams, making camp in a circle; the attack by the Indians and their rout by cowboys who gave an exhibition of whip cracking and rope spinning.

The Scouts of the Adobe Walls and Amarillo cowboys, known as Troop 6 at the Jamboree, were winners in the Chariot race at the show. The night show closed with the building of three signal towers 25 feet high, with a Boy Scout, a cowboy and a pioneer on the tops. The 2,500 Scouts gathered around the camp fire, singing "Home on the Range" and the "Scoutmaster's Prayer", to close the program.

On July 8 came the review by the President and high Scout officials of the nation. The Scouts were massed, eight deep, for two miles along Pennsylvania Avenue. It took minutes for the President to drive down the review formation.

On the official pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon, the Scouts of Regions 8 and 9 were hosts to visiting Scouts from Canada and Mexico and 21 other foreign countries. They were taken on sightseeing trips to many places in Washington, including Arlington Cemetery, the Capitol, Bureau of Engraving, Smithsonian Institute, and Annapolis.

Independence Day, July 4, was celebrated by a gigantic non-sectarian religious and patriotic service with representatives of the Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and Latter Day Saint churches taking part.

Troop 6 received favorable mention for their efficient work while serving as headquarters Troop. The Troop 6 Scoutmaster was awarded the Jamboree flag and staff, and Assistant Scoutmaster Wentworth was given a certificate of award for "Best tent, Best Bed, and Best Grounds" by the troop.

Scoutmaster Wentworth and the Gray Scouts who made the National Jamboree are very appreciative to the people of this and their own community who made this trip possible.

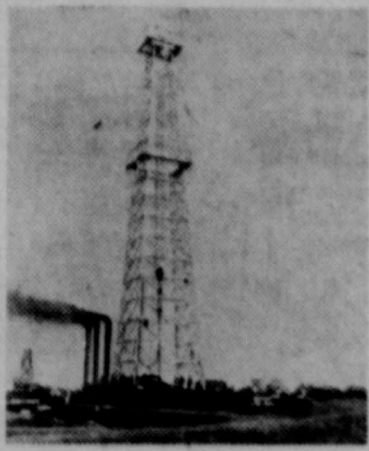

Tom Denman spent the week-end in Dalhart.

Mrs. W. E. Foglesong spent Sunday with Mr. Foglesong who is managing an elevator at McOibben, eleven miles west of Spearman.

Mrs. C. M. Boren, former Perryton woman, has been seriously ill in a Ponca City, Okla., hospital. She has been suffering from blood poisoning caused from a spider bite. She is improving, but is still in bed.

Bridge guests Monday afternoon with Mrs. Vance Apple were Mrs. A. H. Nichols, Mrs. Max Boyer and Mrs. Cecil Dodd.

Norris Oil Test

The W. R. Norris No. 1 oil test, located in the southeast part of Ochiltree county, will be rushed to completion as soon as pipe ordered is received, according to B. E. Walter, who has charge of operations. The well is shut down at present, awaiting casing, which he says, has been delayed on account of the steel strike. Shipment was made Monday, and should arrive next week.

Depth of the hole is 3,177 feet, 540 feet being in Panhandle lime and anhydrites.

Two water wells, making a total of four, have recently been completed at 315 feet. This gives ample water supply for the rotary outfit being used.

COMMUNITY DAY

studio has recently been purchased by the Chamber. The programs will be presented radio style and the entertainers will be visible to the spectators through the large glass windows of the portable studio. It is thought that arrangements can be rushed so as to present "Community Day" on the first Tuesday in August.

The Amateur Contests. The amateur program will consist of 10 entries each week, each entry to receive at least $1.00, and the winner of each weeks contest to receive $10.00. The program will be presented in two sections, the first at 1:30 p. m. and the second at 5:00 p. m. Winners will be selected by the audience, voting on ballots that must be procured from Perryton merchants who are cooperating in the program. Only one vote is allowed each "lister-in". Ballots are to be deposited at the sound studio at any time between the conclusion of the 1:30 o'clock program and 4:30 o'clock. Ballots will be tallied and the winner of the $10.00 prize announced. Only one vote will be allowed each person and all ballots of any one violating this rule will be thrown out.

Community Programs. Community programs will be presented by community, clubs or organizations. A cash consideration of $10.00 will be paid all groups whose program is accepted and presented. The community programs will be presented in two sections, first at 1:30 p. m. and the second half at 5:00 p. m., each period to be of 30 minutes duration.

An entry blank will be found in this issue of the Herald. Entry blanks can be filled out either by contestants or acquaintances. In the amateur contest where more than one person appears in a number, the entire group is figured as one entry, and all awards will be made on that basis. Three minutes is the maximum time allotted to any amateur entry. Each entry must prepare two separate numbers, one for first broadcast and one for the second program.

Clip the entry blank, fill out and mail or take to Addison Cutter, First National Bank. Mr. Cutter can furnish all details concerning the amateur contest and community programs.

TAX PAYMENTS

amounted to $3,657.78, so a check on the above figures will disclose that the amount collected in penalties and interest is practically the same as the uncollected for 1936.

Total collections for county purposes amount to $36,259.86 with $9,367.54 remaining uncollected on the 1936 rolls. The uncollected offsets the amount collected on delinquents and for interest and penalties. County tax collections were as follows:

Love of Card Games Is

Noted in Briton's Talk

The Briton's love of card games is reflected in his speech, says a writer in London Tit-Bits Magazine.

"That's the card," we say when a person does the correct thing, i. e., he has played the right card. We call a sharp fellow "a knowing card"; a man of personality "a great card." "A queer card" describes someone we don't quite understand, or don't quite trust. "When in doubt play trumps" is advice to play the bold game in life—to go all out for a win.

We say of a successful man that he "played his cards well." To "throw up the cards" is to cease to struggle. When the other fellow appears to hold every advantage, we complain that he "holds all the cards."

A queer thing about a pack of cards is that it is like a calendar. There are 52 cards in a pack, and 52 weeks in a year. There are four suits in a pack and four seasons in a year. There are thirteen cards in each suit, and thirteen weeks in each year. Counting the Aces as 1, the Knives as 11, the Queens as 12, and the Kings as 13, the pips in a pack total 364. Add 1 for the Joker and we get 365 pips in a pack.

Different countries use different symbols to represent the four suits. Germany used to use Leaves, Hearts, Bells and Acorns. In Spain, Columbine, Roses, Pinks and Rabbits have now changed to Espados (swords), Copas (chalice), Dineros (money), Bastos (cudgels or clubs). French cards have a Pique (pikeman), Coeur (choir-man), Carreaux (tiles or artisans), Trefle (clover or farmer).

Our English "Spades" are a mixture of the French symbols, a pike, and the Spanish name, espados; "Clubs" picture the French trefoil, but adopt the Spanish name; "Hearts" is a corruption of the French coeur into coeur.

Suwanee River Rises in

Swamp in South Georgia

The Suwanee river (or Swanee) rises in the Okefenokee swamp in South Georgia and flows southwest, emptying into the Gulf of Mexico, twelve miles north of Cedar Keys, Fla., after a course of 240 miles. The scenery along its banks is attractive, and the river is celebrated throughout the country by the song "Old Folks at Home."

Stephen Foster originally wrote the first line: "Way down upon the Pedee River," but was doubtful as to the suitability of "Pedee," probably because it was not a musical name. He subsequently searched a map for something better, and found the name "Suwanee," and he immortalized it in his great song.

Federal Hill, an old Southern mansion near Bardstown, Ky., is said to be the place where Foster wrote "My Old Kentucky Home." In 1921 it became the property of the State of Kentucky. Foster was born and reared in the North—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Discovered Use of Vinegar

Louis Pasteur made possible the modern methods of vinegar-making. In 1864 he discovered the bacillus which acetifies beer or malt. He soaked birch twigs in sour beer until they were smothered with these bacilli. Then he percolated fresh malt through the twigs until it became acetified. The twigs are built up in criss-cross fashion to a height of about three feet. The percolation goes on for three weeks. London vinegar-makers use some fifteen tons of these twigs a year. Cutting them is a job for specialists. Only long experience enables you to select the best kind.—London Answers Magazine.

Egyptians Liked Colors

At the height of the glory of the Nile in ancient Egypt, the people had 18 or 20 different colors for paint making. White they got from an earth of Melas; red came from an earth found in Cappadocia known as red ochre; yellow came from yellow ochre, an earth of iron and clay which was used as a paint by the Egyptians, Greeks and Romans. Black came from charred plant life and from charcoal. Green came from copper mines, and royal and imperial purple came from the famed ancient Biblical city of Tyre as early as 1000 B. C.

It continued to be the official residence of all Spanish and Mexican governors (except for the period in 1833 when there were two governors, one in the south and one in the north) until Flores abdicated in January, 1847.

Massed Horse Races

Up to 150 years ago most race tracks around the world permitted all spectators on horses to enter the course and to ride, during the races, directly behind the thoroughbreds. Consequently, says Collier's Weekly, few of these horses ever had their minds on the race. Their only thought was to save their lives—from the thundering and howling mob at their heels.
