Congress Slow To Act On Demands

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress' postwar machinery failed to respond with any prompt pickup today to the orderly but emotion-packed appeal of 200,000 citizens petitioning for equality of jobs and treatment.

Wednesday's civil rights march in Washington was marked, instead, by a new 10-day delay in House committee consideration of President Kennedy's legislation aimed at fulfilling some of the demonstrators' demands.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., said the impact on Congress of the mammoth rally at Lincoln's shrine would be helpful. But he explained so many members were taking off on a Labor Day holiday the committee would have to postpone work on the bill until Sept. 9.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, was certain the march, which he said had been participated in by "people with good manners, good humor and deep conviction," would have an impact later on Congress.

"The American people will speak to their representatives in Congress about what they saw and heard," he said.

But Mike Mansfield of Montana, Senate Democratic leader, made it clear to march leaders who called upon him he has no intention of bringing up any bill until the House has acted.

Mansfield guessed it would be October before Senate debate could begin. He could not promise, as the marchers demanded in a list of objectives they want accomplished, that the bill would not encounter a filibuster.

Civil rights advocates generally praised the effectiveness of the march. Critics said it could— as Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, D-Va., put it— "just antagonize any fence sitters and thus make it more doubtful legislation would be passed."

The consensus seemed to be, however, that Congress will approve some kind of civil rights legislation without being much affected one way or the other by the demonstration.

Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, said in an interview that the march had not

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when your father lets out a bar of soap and tries to wash off eye make-up you don't have on? Abby, this happened at least once a week. Sometimes I have to go to church with bloodshot eyes, and when my friends ask me about it, I'm hard to think up something different every week. I am almost 15 and I don't think my father realizes that I am beginning to look like my mother, who is very beautiful. I promise to take your advice.

Faint Hope For Louis Bova Gone After False Alert

By STANFORD H. BENJAMIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Hope of finding Louis Bova alive soon flickered for a moment today, then died out, as rescuers probed with renewed determination for the miner's fate through four separate shafts.

The crews were electrified for an instant when Daniel Bova, a brother of the 34-year-old Louis, said he thought he heard a voice calling out weakly, "Hello, hello."

Texas March Spawns No Incidents

By ERNEST STROMBERGER
AUSTIN (AP)—Civil rights and segregation demonstrations Wednesday spawned no serious incidents, but they hatched possible political implications.

One Negro speaker asserted that Negroes and other minority groups will unite at the polls "to sweep the state house clean."

Both groups rallied far fewer participants than they had predicted.

An aide said Gov. John Connally was glad there was no serious incident. Connally returned from an out of town trip in the afternoon, but neither group tried to see him. He had no official comment on the marches.

Among the spectators was former Maj. Gen. Edwin Walker, who said the segregationist group "represents millions more Americans" than the civil rights demonstrators. He said he was more interested in "preserving state rights" than integration problems.

Bob Joiner, 34, Grand Prairie grocer, led 10 followers up Congress Avenue to the Capitol in the forenoon, and then led the group in heckling the later civil rights march.

Joiner, head of the Indignant White Citizens Council, said the civil rights march was "completely infiltrated with Communists."

Francis Williams, Houston Negro leader, led about 600 singing and clapping Negroes and whites in a two-mile march which passed the Capitol. Sponsors had predicted up to 4,000 participants.

The parade ended at a downtown park, where speakers criticized Connally's stand against the civil rights bill.

The marchers gave an evasive answer to questions of their parade. Booker T. Bonter, 34, an Austin waiter...

Dallas Firemen Fight Chemical Plant Fire

DALLAS (AP)—Firemen fought in explosions and acrid smoke today a $200,000 blaze at the Magnolia Chemical Co.

Fire Rakes Boat House

ROCKPORT, Tex. (AP)—A $50,000 fire destroyed 13 luxury yachts and a large boat house in this Gulf Coast resort city Wednesday night.

Enlargement of the 12-inch escape shaft was started this morning, and those supervising the operation said it might take two days to complete. This hole was bored into the chamber Wednesday, chewing into the area where Bova may have been trapped. He has been without food all this time, and with only brackish water to drink.

In the making, too, are three other holes, one six and a half inches in diameter, the other two three inches across.

H. Beecher Charnbury, state mines secretary, said it is planned to ream the 12-inch hole to 30 inches for the first 38 feet, then insert steel casing to that depth. After the rest of the hole

Angelo Calls Off Rainmaker Deal

SAN ANGELO (AP)—San Angelo called off today any further dealings with the anonymous Tulsa rainmaker.

The man had promised the drought-stricken city he would produce two inches of rain for $10,000.

The San Angelo Weather Information Center, Inc., collected $5,000 and will use it for a series of 10 cloud seeding flights by a B-28 bomber, owned by the Edwards Brothers Petroleum Co. here.

The Weather Center will pay $150 an hour for the flights and Edwards will furnish the crew.

Election Winner Is Named By Coin Flip

PURVIS, Miss. (AP)—Emmett Coker and R. C. Martin tied in election for constable here, but decided the winner with a flip of a coin.

Coker, the incumbent, called "heads."

He landed "tails" and Martin won Wednesday.

The unofficial count of Tuesday's election gave Martin 401 votes, Coker 399. Asked for an official recount, the Lamar County Democratic Executive Committee declared it 400 to 400.

'Rainmaker' Cools Tulsa

TULSA (AP)—An "Anniversary" rain promised by Tulsa's anonymous "rainmaker" dampened and cooled Tulsa today.

The Weather Bureau reported nearly half an inch fell in showers last night and early today.

The rains, accompanied by northerly winds, sent temperatures plunging from a high of 104—a record for Aug. 28 here—to an overnight low of 72.

In one three-hour period, the temperature fell from 100 to 76.

The shower activity began a little more than 12 hours after the "rainmaker" started his secret process.

The "rainmaker" said it was a year ago Aug. 30 that he first publicly announced a "rain-making" attempt. Since then he claimed six rains in six tries—including one record 9-inch deluge.

Catholic Schools In Charleston Integrate

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—Roman Catholic schools here were formally integrated today but only 15 of 202 eligible Negro students volunteered to attend mixed classes.

None of the 15 put in personal appearances at the church-operated elementary schools. White children attended to register, but the registration of the 15 Negroes was handled out of school.

11 Americans Exhibit In International Show

MINNEAPOLIS — One painter, Adolph Gottlieb, and 10 sculptors will be represented in the United States' exhibit at the seventh Sa Paulo Biennial this fall — one of the big international shows.

Organized by the Walker Art Center here, the U. S. section will join the exhibits of approximately 50 other countries, from mid-September through December, at the Museum of Modern Art in the Brazilian city.

This will be the largest scale exhibit of the New York painter's works. All the 45 paintings in the show were created in the last 12 years, and most of them are either "imaginary landscapes" or "bursts."

The former are composed of a land mass and a sky containing astral forms. The "bursts" are solar disks suspended over tubular land masses.

Gottlieb is characterized by Martin L. Friedman, director of the Walker Art Center, as "one of the handful of initiators of what has become an international painting style."

The 10 sculptors, all between the ages of 30 and 50, are in the process of establishing themselves, using a wide range of modes. The exhibit will contain 46 of their works.

They are Peter Agostini, Chryssa, Lindsey Decker, Lyman Kipp, Robert Mallary, Julius Schmidt, George Segal, George Sugarman, David Weinrib and James Wines.

There is a great span of expression among these sculptors, and their displays will be like separate one-man shows. Some are interested in figures (using odd materials) or space relationships, and some are interested in geometrical concepts or communications symbols.

The paintings and sculptures assembled for the Brazilian show were lent by six museums, nine galleries and 29 private collectors.

The Gottlieb paintings were shown here before being shipped to Sao Paulo. The sculptures will be shown here next spring and then will make a national tour.

Sewing Festival At Fair

How to succeed in home sewing without really trying to — to paraphrase the title of the top musical comedy hit scheduled for the 1963 State Fair — will be unfolded in the seventh annual Sewing Fashion Festival, a special feature of the Women's Department at the 1963 State Fair in Dallas October 5 through 20.

The three V's of fashion, variety in fabrics, versatility in patterns and variety in presentation, as presented in the 35 garments in the show, spell out a way to success in home sewing, according to Mrs. Leah Jarrett, director of the State Fair Women's Department.

Twenty-two of the top names in the home sewing industry combined their efforts to produce this Fall Fashion Festival. Skimmers and shills, capes, costumes and an evening wear reflect the top fashion news of Fall 1963. Every fashion type is included, the matron, the young career woman, the fact-conscious teenager and her chick mother.

The five participating pattern companies each selected a key-color for its five garment collections.

Some 30,000 women will attend the free shows given twice daily, plus an extra performance on Saturdays and Sundays in the Women's Building at the State Fair, according to Marian Ross, Fashion Director and Coordinator of the Sewing Fashion Festival.

Art Buying Is High Stake Game

Art buying is a high stake game. Anyone interested in art and art objects will find Brough's book a lively account of auctions, auction houses and auction fever.

There also is a bonus. For the author has strung together a gossip collection of stories about some modern collectors, some art finds and art thefts, art faking and the backstage rivalries of dealers, collectors and museum officials.

There are illuminating passages devoted to three of the world's foremost auction houses — Parke-Bernet in New York and Sotheby's and Christie's in London.

To the interested beginner, this book can be a thorough introduction to the joys and perils of buying and bidding, a gallery of color snapshots of personalities in the trade, and a compendium of recent news in the art world, including many of the big sales.

Brough does not hesitate to report, on his own authority, some of the juicier aspects of his subject, and perhaps many of the years cannot be verified. But we cannot fault him on that score, for he is operating in a field long notorious for its similarity to a tight-lipped poker game for high stakes. He has collected some fascinating material in these pages.

Garden Club Has Informal Gathering

The Town and Country Garden held their first informal gathering Wednesday afternoon with a tea and short business meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Sizemore, 2707 Thirty-sixth Street.

Mrs. Sizemore, new president, was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. H. S. Weigel and Mrs. Ernest Sears. Several guests and prospective members attended.

LABOR DAY'S final feast of summer, whether it be barbecue or Baroque, assumes the ultimate of interest, for guests and family when you serve this easy-to-prepare lime cream mold filled with fresh shrimp vegetable salad.

Add Charm To Cookery

This tempting two-season transition dish combines the charm of autumn cookery with the crisp coolness of lime. Here's how to make your lime cream mold:

LIME CREAM MOLD

2 envelopes Unflavored Gelatin
1 cup cold water
1/4 cup Rose's sweetened lime juice
1 pint sour cream
1/2 cup milk
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon Tabasco
1 teaspoon A. 1. steak sauce
3 tablespoons snipped chives

Sprinkle gelatin on water in a 2 1/2 quart saucepan to soften. Place over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved, about 3 minutes; cool. Stir in lime juice, sour cream and milk. Mix in salt, Tabasco, A. 1. Sauce and chives. Turn into 1-quart ring mold; chill until firm. Unmold and fill center with shrimp vegetable salad.

YIELD: 6 servings

SHRIMP VEGETABLE SALAD

1 lb. shrimp, cooked and shelled
1 green pepper, diced
1 large tomato, diced
1 cup celery, sliced
2 tablespoons Rose's sweetened lime juice
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons salad oil
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Tabasco

Combine shrimp, green pepper, diced tomato and celery into a salad bowl. Add sweetened lime juice and remaining ingredients. Marinate for 30 minutes. Drain and fill center of ring mold.

Hearty Home Style Fare For Fall

Want an extra recipe for your casserole collection? Here's a busy-day dinner that is ready in a jiffy, a one-dish meal that's a real boon to busy homemakers. Next time you have to fix dinner in a hurry, stir up this casserole, put it in the oven, set the timer, and be off to run errands, pick up the children or go shopping.

Corned Beef Casserole is a real, home-style meal, nothing fancy, but special ingredients. It's just a hot dish that's perfect for hearty fall meals. You probably have most of the makings on hand right now. The casserole can be made with either shell macaroni or regular elbow macaroni, whichever you prefer. To set off the blandness of macaroni, there's the mellow flavor of cheddar cheese and the meaty goodness of corned beef.

Blended with chicken soup, milk and chopped onion, the casserole is topped with crisp buttered bread cubes that toast to a golden brown as it bakes. It's a good idea to let the Corned Beef Casserole stand for about 10 minutes before serving.

You'll like the simplicity of this recipe, as well as its superb flavor. With a crisp green salad and tall glasses of milk, it's a one-dish meal.

CORNED BEEF CASSEROLE

Casserole, 3-quart
6 ounce shell macaroni
1 can (12 oz.) corned beef, diced
2 cups diced Cheddar cheese
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) cream of chicken soup
1 cup milk
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 slices bread
1 tablespoon butter, melted

Cook macaroni according to package directions; drain. Combine macaroni, corned beef, cheese, soup, milk and onion; blend thoroughly. Turn into casserole. Trim crusts from bread and cube; toss in butter. Arrange around edge of casserole. Bake 45-60 minutes or until golden brown; allow to stand 10 minutes before serving.

Family Dinner

Found cake mix has a tawny tinge and interesting flavor when it's made up this way:

Shoulder Lamb Chops
Mashed Potatoes
Minted Carrots Celery and Olive Bread Tray
Fresh Fruit
Tea Cake
Beverage

TEA CAKE

1 package (1 pound, 1 ounce) pound cake mix
1 tablespoon instant tea
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Make up and bake the cake mix according to package directions, adding the instant tea and lemon rind to the liquid called for.

Facts On Frying

You can fry most foods in less fat if you rely on controlled temperature. For instance, when you use a heavy aluminum skillet over a medium flame, only one table-spoon of fat is needed to fry plain meats. For breaded meats, use two table-spoons. Always pre-heat the pan with the oil before it. Set temperature - controlled burner at 350 degrees - and don't cover the frypan.

Teen-age girls too bashful to do their own frying are expected to spend a few dollars for a white butcher jacket that will do her flirting for them.

Man Wanted In New Jersey Casually Surrenders Self

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following story of the surrender of alleged killer Thomas (Rabbi) Trantino, 37, wanted in connection with the slaying of two New Jersey policemen, is told by Associated Press reporter Athol Alborelli and photographer Ray Howard, who met with the man and his woman attorney in a Manhattan tavern preceding a walk to a police station just around the corner.

Sitting with her at the bar was this man Trantino, wearing dark glasses. Howard said. "He (Trantino) was drinking a double a martini. I think the attorney told him to have another and brace up and get his wits about him. He took another drink.

"Tony (Alborelli) introduced me to the young lady lawyer and she introduced us to Trantino. While Tony was writing, getting some notes, I was talking with him. Trantino and I thought I'm looking at a man that's connected with murders.

"I had my hand on his (Trantino) shoulder, talking to him, studying him. It amazed me he's so cool. "Meanwhile I took my camera off my neck and sort of hid it so the other customers wouldn't know what's going on.

NEW YORK (AP)—I got a call from the office that this man Trantino was going to give himself up with his lawyer, Miss Enid Gerling, said Athol Alborelli, Associated Press reporter.

Heavy Death Toll Seen

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council has estimated that between 430 and 520 Americans may die in traffic accidents over the long Labor Day weekend. The council also said Wednesday that 17,000 to 21,000 persons may suffer injuries disabling them beyond the day of the accident.

"I couldn't believe he was in a cage cell with another guy. The attorney said, 'Why isn't there a chair so he can sit down, he's a nice boy.' "The attorney had a big purse and she started to get some chocolate candy and give it to me through the screen. The detective said, 'Yeah, it's all right.'

"Then she gave him (Trantino) a cigarette. In the meantime the whole purse fell out and everything was all over the floor. "By that time detectives came up and gave me the heavens. They said you'll have to go outside. I even carried a picture of Trantino from the files in case I met him on the street. It wasn't much like him. He was much better looking than the picture."

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — Anytime you have a free weekend, just run down to Mexico and get rich finding lost treasures. The historical gentlemen report there are millions buried around the country and lying on the ocean floor in offshore waters.

The treasury business was a great industry when adventures came poking around a few centuries ago to see what was worthwhile. Aztec gold encrusted with sparkling jewels and tons of silver bars were reportedly shoveled under when the Spaniards began shipping trinkets back to the king.

Emperor Cuauhtemoc is supposed to have hidden a load of Aztec gold and jewels that people still drool over. And even when Hernan Cortes and the Spaniards set fire to the emperor's feet, all he would talk about was the weather.

A waiter at a sidewalk restaurant in Veracruz told me in strict confidence, "The Indians know where it is but they will not tell. It is sacred and must remain untouched."

There are vague accounts of Spanish troops hiding silver bullion in caves when the Indians objected to their trucking it out. And what with everyone getting a spear in the brisket, nobody was left to point out the cave.

The ancient pirates also did their bit for treasure hiding although not on purpose. Galleons from Peru and the Orient used to bring crates of coins and trinkets to Mexico for trans-shipment to the King of Spain who apparently was having a rough time making ends meet.

And once in a while the pirates would become over-enthusiastic, puncturing a ship with cannon balls and sending it to the bottom before they could scramble aboard and remove the loot.

The Gulf of Lower California is said to be full of such ships. All you have to do is flake away two or three centuries of coral, barnacles and sediment to find the end of the rainbow.

"Right down here around that point, there was a galleon loaded with silver and jewelry and the pirate sank it one day. Nobody has found it but it is still there. The weather contributed its bit, too. Once in Acapulco a tourist guide informed me looking over his shoulder to see if the cops were listening) of a galleon from the Orient that didn't quite make it to port. Stacked so high with gold and gems that her decks were awash.

And just before she could edge into the harbor entrance, a huge wave sneaked up from behind and down she went with enough loot to pay off the U. S. national debt.

Well, a man naturally feels weatherier just knowing about such a tragedy and one day I will no doubt be a billionaire. For I know exactly where the ship sank. If I can only find the spot and scrape off the barnacles.

Robt. E. Lee School To Integrate

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Robert E. Lee High School, named for one of the great generals of the Civil War, will be among the first four high schools to integrate in this Dixie city.

School officials enrolled 29 Negroes in the 12th grade of four formerly all-white schools Wednesday. The 22 girls and six boys will start classes next Monday.

In New Orleans, 300 Negroes registered to attend 27 desegregated public schools in grades one through four. They apparently include 107 Negroes who attended 20 desegregated schools last year in the first three grades.

And a federal judge in New Orleans Wednesday ordered white high schools in south Louisiana's Terrebonne Parish to admit Indian pupils to 11th and 12th grades next month. Parents of 52 Indian children objected to segregated classes.

Miss Tolles said nothing of value seemed to have been stolen.

Miss Tolles said her roommates were getting dressed when she left at 9 a.m. Wednesday for work. Miss Wylie was nude when found dead. Miss Hoffert wore a skirt, blouse, shoes and stockings.

Miss Tolles found the apartment in disorder when she returned home about 6:30 p.m. She telephoned Miss Wylie's father, who lives nearby. Wylie rushed to the apartment and found the bodies.

Chief Medical Examiner Milton Halpern said that so far as he could determine—pending autopsy—neither victim had been sexually molested.

Strips of bedsheets had been used to bind the two young women.

There was no sign of forced entry to the apartment, which is on the third floor of a nine-story building.

Texas Republicans Plan "Big Push"

By JERRY PILLARD
AUSTIN (AP)—Central Texas Republicans are planning a "big push" to send Texas' third Republican member to Washington to fill the House seat once held by Vice President Lyndon Johnson.

Rep. Homer Thornberry is expected to resign soon to become a Federal Judge. His replacement likely will be chosen in a special election Nov. 9, the day voters decide on state constitution changes.

One Republican said: "A surprise candidate is planned and a real big name." One source said the "surprise" candidate sought by a good number of Central Texas Republicans is John Foster Dulles Jr., a University of Texas professor and son of former U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Thornberry has been appointed, and confirmed, to be U. S. District judge at El Paso.

One Republican official said Dulles was being urged to make the race.

Other Republicans mentioned are Jim Deobis, who ran against Thornberry last election; Bill Youngblood, an unsuccessful legislative candidate; Hal Hendrix, W. S. Drake Jr., former city official in Austin; and Stuart McCorkle, another university professor.

One democrat has announced and several more are expected. He is state Rep. Jack Ritter Jr., a first-year member of the legislature.

Some other democrats linked with the race include Employment Commissioner Jake Pickle, state Sen. Charles Herring and former Dist. Atty. Les Procter.

Square Dance Set Saturday

Dusty Randall, well-known square dance caller throughout Texas, will call for a dance scheduled here for 8 p.m. Saturday.

The dance will be staged by the Country Cousins Square Dance Club, and will be held at the Snyder Rodeo Pavilion.

All square dancers as well as spectators are invited to attend the event.

Randall is currently giving lessons to anyone in Snyder who is interested in taking them. Those interested in joining the Country Cousins Square Dance Club, or in taking the lessons may call HI 3-7138.

Youngster Loses Finger In Mishap

Ten-year-old Gary Wayne McGravy was reported making satisfactory recovery following loss of a finger in a mishap Tuesday.

The youngster reportedly was out hunting for a lost puppy when he crossed a freight train which was stopped on the tracks beside the Lubbock Highway east of the North Elementary School. The train started up, catching the boy's index finger on his left hand in a coupling. After moving a short distance the train stopped again, freeing the crushed finger.

Group Elects Brain

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—The British Association for the Advancement of Science, which has been protesting against a "brain drain" of British scientists to the United States, elected a new president at its annual meeting Wednesday.

He is a noted physician, and his name is Lord Brain.

NO VOICE HAD THIS TURTLE but plenty of snap, reported Dwayne Riggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira T. Riggs, 3006 Thirty-seventh Street. The turtle, one of the largest of this type ever seen around here, was found by Dwayne in the Riggs flower bed. Presently he is being kept as a "pet" but Mrs. Riggs guessed that shortly he would be released in a field to continue doing whatever turtles do.

Oil Slick Seen In Air Search Area

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An oil slick and debris "that looks like pieces of an airplane" were found today in the Atlantic 500 miles east of Daytona Beach, Fla., by aircraft seeking two strato-tanker jet airplanes missing since Wednesday with 11 men aboard.

The discovery, made by a four-engine rescue craft from Bermuda, was the first positive lead as to the possible fate of the two KC135s that were on the same refueling mission from Homestead Air Force Base, Fla., said the Air Rescue Service at Orlando, Fla. AFB. An oil slick also was reported southwest of Bermuda late Wednesday. Its source was not known.

The HC34 master aircraft that made the find today circled the area while additional air and sea searchers rushed to the area. Paramedics were being sent to the scene.

Radio contact was lost about noon Wednesday as the huge tankers returned toward Homestead. At that time, they were 800 miles northeast of Miami, or about 300 miles west of Bermuda.

A spokesman of the Air Rescue Service said, "The debris looks like pieces of an airplane but that is all we know at this time." The Air force was unwilling to discuss the possible fate of the aircraft.

About 33 Air Force planes ranging from amphibian HU16 Albatrosses to T29 trainers — flew over the Atlantic during the night, their search lights glaying over the water, lighting flares occasionally to light an unidentified object. Air Rescue Service headquarters in Orlando said the total might reach close to 100 planes during the day.

The Coast Guard also sent out at least five ships and many planes.

The planes, which have a range of 4,300 miles and a cruising speed of 600 miles an hour, would have run out of fuel at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Their mission, scheduled arrival time at Homestead and even the base from which they departed were classified.

Sgt. York Is Back Home

FALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—Sgt. Alvin York, 75, Medal of Honor winner in World War I, returned from a Nashville hospital to his mountain home near here Wednesday night.

"It's good to get this good old mountain air and mountain water," he said.

Doctors said York would be "just as well at home."

Redridden for nine years and near death several times in the past year, York was admitted to the hospital the last time on July 8 for treatment of badness and later suffered a urinary tract infection.

"He doesn't seem to care much anymore," Mrs. York said. "He just lies here and doesn't talk too much. He used to talk a lot."

LOSE ARGUMENTS . . . WIN GAME—Three St. Louis Cardinals who participated in a game with the Giants at San Francisco were unhappy when plate umpire Lee Weyer called them out on strikes. Voicing opinions of

Dressen Keeps Quiet, But His Tigers Roar

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
They're calling Charlie Dressen the Quiet Man — but his Detroit Tigers are making the loudest noise in baseball.
Hardly a word has been heard from Dressen, one of the game's angriest old men, since he succeeded Bob Scheffing as manager of the slump-ridden Tigers on June 18. The normally outspoken veteran with a penchant for controversy has been the epitome of decorum. The Tigers have been roaring.

They won their seventh straight Wednesday for their best streak of the year, nipping the Los Angeles Angels 2-1. In the past two weeks, Detroit has taken 12 of 14 in a climb from ninth place to fifth in the American League. Under Dressen the Tigers are 29-30, compared to their 24-36 mark under Scheffing.
Whitey Ford became the AL's first 19-game winner as the front-running New York Yankees scored three times on wild pitches by Earl Wilson and downed Boston 4-1.

Enthusiasm Rises In Pro Football

AP SPOTLIGHT
BY JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Pro football enthusiasm is moving into baseball's long season, and grabbing off its sports-page space, too.
It would seem, therefore, that the time has come to subject the football officials to those same old questions that are annually thrown at the men who run baseball.

Qualifying Ends Friday

Tomorrow is the deadline for qualifying rounds in the Snyder Country Club's City Golf Tournament.
Flights will be posted following the qualifying, and tournament play will begin Saturday on the Country Club course.
Final rounds in the tournament are scheduled for Monday, Labor Day, and gift certificates will be awarded winners and runners-up as well as consolation winners in all flights.

The 8-man championship flight will feature medal play throughout the tournament. Other flights, which will be composed of 16 entrants each, will have match play until the final round on Monday when they will switch to medal play. Sterling Parker is the defending city champion.

Q: Commissioner, do you think the football season runs too long?
A: Well, we had $300 in August at Cleveland for an exhibition doubleheader. That's about twice what the baseball All-Star game drew in the same park. And we sold the TV rights to the playoff in December for about a million bucks. Somebody must think it's not too long.

Q: Are you planning any franchise shifts?
A: Philadelphia was our last-place club last year, and their season ticket sale is only up 4,000 this year. It might not go much over 47,000. You naturally start to think when a situation like that develops.

Q: Do you plan to enlarge the end zone to make a bigger target for the passers?
A: We're more interested in enlarging the stands.

Q: How about reports that the ball is livelier?
A: That's true. We used to buy all our footballs from a little old lady in New Jersey who grew her own pigs. But you couldn't pass or kick the darn things. So we changed the shape, size, weight and material. Otherwise it is the same ball used by Pudge Hefflinger.

Q: Do you anticipate any gambling scandals?
A: I don't know.

Tigers Go To Odessa Tomorrow

The Snyder Tigers will journey to Odessa tomorrow for a 5 p.m. scrimmage with Ector High School. This will be the first competition against outside opposition this year for Coach Horrace Bostick's boys.
Snyder's next scrimmage will be with Midland, and it is tentatively scheduled for Friday, Sept. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium.

Also-Rans Get Chance

DENVER (AP)—Opportunity's doors opened wide today for pro golf's also-rans as the $40,000 Denver Open Tournament began without Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Julius Boros and Gary Player.
The absence of the Big Four attracted a Denver Open record entry list of 147 pros. The field will be trimmed after Friday's second round to the low 45 pros plus ties and 10 amateurs for the last two rounds Saturday and Sunday.

With golf's super-stars busy with other commitments, there was no outstanding favorite for the tourney over the Denver Country Club's 6,774-yard, par 35-35-70, tight, tree-lined course.
Dow Finsterlund was rated perhaps a niche above the others after copying the pro-amateur event Wednesday with a two-under-par 68, worth $500. In last year's final round over the same course he carved out a 64, but it was too late to overtake Bob Goalby who won with 27, three under par. Goalby is back to defend his title.

The par was broken Wednesday by five other pros among the 30 who teamed with 150 amateurs for the pro-am competition. George Bayer, Jacky Copit, Jay Hebert, Doug Sanders and Ken Still turned in 69. Each collected $350.

Tigerettes League Schedules Session

The Tigerettes Bowling League has scheduled a meeting for 7:30 o'clock tonight to prepare for fall league play.
All ladies interested in bowling in the Tigerette League are invited to attend the session at Tiger Bowl.

Spokane Has A Big Night

By The Associated Press
Wednesday was a big night for the Spokane Indians of the Pacific Coast League. They finally scored 11 runs. In fact, the Indians scored four times as they downed an Diego 4-1.
Dick Berardino homered for the Indians in the sixth to end Spokane's string of scoreless innings at 35. Despite their recent slump, the Indians are still atop the PCL Northern Division—by 11½ games.
Salt Lake City's Bees split a pair with the Hawaii Islanders. The Bees won the opener 2-1 and Hawaii took the nightcap 6-4. The Portland Beavers blasted Denver 3-Bees 5-1. Dallas-Fort Worth beat the Oklahoma City 8ers 4-2 and Tacoma's Giants clubbed the Seattle Rainiers 8-3.
At Oklahoma City, Dallas-Fort Worth scored two unearned runs in the 11th inning to break a 2-2 deadlock. The Bees committed two errors in the inning.
Meanwhile, the Minnesota Twins of the American League have recalled four players from Dallas-Fort Worth. They are pitcher Gary Dotter, 11th rd. baseman George Banks and outfielders Tony Oliva and Jay Ward.

Ladies Golf Event Is Held At C-C

Retha Pickering had low net in the Country Club Ladies Golf event Tuesday.
Virida Kimbro and Rachel Roser tied for second, while Bernice Parker had the low number of putts.
In the 18-hole flight Eloise Devers had low net and Isabel Wilson had the low number of putts.

Dodger Executive Is Still Needing Haircut

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was close but no haircut for Red Patterson, the Los Angeles Dodger exec who just might wind up wearing ribbons 'round his ringlets before the National League leaders score four runs in one inning.
Patterson, the Dodgers' assistant general manager who has vowed not to get a haircut until his team has a four-run inning, watched Cincinnati put across four runs in the sixth inning and trim Los Angeles 9-5 Wednesday night.

Jim Maloney posted his 19th victory as the Dodgers went down to their fifth defeat in seven games. The loss cut the Dodgers lead to 5½ games over second-place San Francisco.
The Giants, who move into Los Angeles tonight for the opener of a four-game series, downed third-place St. Louis 5-3 as Tom Haller hit two homers and Chuck Hiller and Orlando Cepeda one each. The Cardinals remained 6½ games behind.

Mulloy Deplores Gripes, Tantrums

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
FORREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—

The modern crop of young tennis players is a bunch of "cry babies" — a coldish slant and pampered—who need a swift kick in the seat of their lily-white shorts, the veteran Gardner Mulloy said today.
"They bang their rackets against the ground, they bash balls over the fences and they yell and curse like spoiled brats," Mulloy added. "I've seen a disgrace to the game."
The outspoken and controversial Mulloy, 49, hiding here this week for his fifth National Seniors championship, said he believed these tantrums were hurting the caliber of the amateur game.

"You can't concentrate and blow your stack at the same time," he added. "You can't be a real champion if you're going to gripe and fret over every adverse decision or bit of bad luck."
Mulloy said his criticism was not intended just for the youngsters who have yet to make their mark but was leveled at players of the highest rank.
"I don't exclude Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston, our two best players," he said. "They

Kansas City 3-1 and the Chicago White Sox swept a pair from Cleveland 8-3 and 3-1. Minnesota and Washington were not scheduled.

The Dodgers, who have managed to score only 15 runs in their last seven games, collected eight hits against Maloney 19-4, and reliever Joey Jay, but again failed to get Patterson in the barber's chair. It's been nine days since they scored four runs in one inning.
The Reds' decisive four-run revolved around Don Pavletich, who had hit a homer off Johnny Podres, 11-10, in the fourth. With two on, Pavletich ripped a hard shot to third on which Tommy Davis started a doubleplay. However, Umpire Frank Walsh ruled the ball was fisted in foul territory. Pavletich went back to the plate and laid down a bunt. Davis fielded it, hesitated, then threw high to Jim Gilliam covering first base, and two runs scored. Singles by Johnny Edwards and Pete Rose brought in the other two runs. Moose Skowron accounted for two Dodger runs with a ninth inning homer off Jay, who took over in the eighth when Maloney was forced to leave with a pulled back muscle.

Huller got the Giants' homer in the fourth off John Gibson, 14-8. Billy Ripken, a two-run shot in the first inning before Halper connected in the second. Cepeda and Haller hit consecutive homers in the fourth off Bob Gibson, 14-8. Dell, 12-4, posted his first victory since July 30 with a six-hitter.

No Scoring In B Team Scrimmage

The Snyder B Team traveled to Coahoma yesterday for its first scrimmage of the season against outside competition.
Coahoma is in District 6-A, and is picked to come in fourth in this year's warfare in the strong seven-team district. Coahoma has ten lettermen back from last year's team which had a 3-2 record in district play.

There was no scoring by either team in yesterday's scrimmage, although Coahoma threatened the first time the Bulldogs had the ball. They got to the Tiger 2-yard line with first down and goal to go, but the Tiger B's held and pushed them back.
Coach Bill Hartford said that considering everything he thought the Snyder boys did a good job. He said that the boys hit real well, and seemed to be in good condition. He felt that the line play was perhaps a little ahead of the backfield at this stage, but that with a little more time and experience the whole team would look much better.
Coach Hartford is assisted by Roy Carter.

JOINS 400 CLUB—Willie Mays, San Francisco centerfielder who hit his 400th homer in third inning of the game at San Francisco with St. Louis, is congratulated in the dressing room by teammates Orlando Cepeda, left, and Felipe Alou, right, both of whom also hit homers in the same inning. Mays became the 10th player in major league history to rack up 400 non-stop trips around the bases. San Francisco beat St. Louis 7-2. (AP Wirephoto)
