Seven Injured In Head-On Collision Near Ozona Sunday

Two Cars of San An- geles Crash on High- way North of Ozona

A blowout was believed to have been responsible for a head on collision 10 miles north of Ozona last Sunday afternoon which sent seven persons, all from San Angelo, to the Crockett County Hospital.

Most seriously injured were Mrs. Jerry White, 23, Lucille Hasty, and Ruby Lee Bolding. Less seriously injured were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blackshear and Mrs. White's two children, Terry Lee, 3 and Brenda Jo 4.

The wreck occurred near the John Childress ranch entrance, about 3 p. m., Sunday afternoon, as a car driven by Ernest Blackshear of San Angelo with Mrs. Blackshear, Mrs. White, and the two White children as passengers going north, collided with the car containing two negro women and a small child traveling south. The small negro youngster was the only passenger in either car to escape injury.

Patrolmen investigating the accident stated that one of the cars had apparently had a blowout and swerved into the path of the other car which swerved into the lane in an effort to avoid collision. However, the first car righted itself and pulled back toward its own lane with the right fenders of each car coming into initial contact. Both cars were total losses.

Ambulances from Ozona brought all seven victims to Ozona but Mrs. Ruby Lee Bolding and Brenda Jo White were both transferred to San Angelo immediately where Mrs. Bolding's left arm was amputated.

One of the first persons on the scene was Jerry White who was driving a third car containing the Blackshear children, Johnny Middleton and Miss Anna Ruhmann.

A group of persons in the roadside park near the collision site were close enough to have seen the collision but were not looking at the moment of impact.

The Whites, Blackshears and Mr. Middleton and Miss Ruhmann had been to the Sonora Caverns and were returning home while the other car was enroute to Ozona to visit friends.

All of the injured have been transferred from the Crockett County hospital to San Angelo hospitals.

Biggest Booster Membership Kicks Off Grid Season

Annual Barbecue Has Record Attendance; Throgmorton Speaks

The largest group of Lion boosters to gather since the start of the organization heard Louie Throgmorton and were introduced to the 1962 Ozona Lion varsity and B teams Tuesday night at the High School in the organization's annual barbecue for the football squad.

Throgmorton was introduced by T. J. Bailey and kept the large gathering in laughter as he related experiences and ribbed various members of the group with a seemingly endless supply of stories and quips.

Coach Fred Hickman introduced the 25 man B team and commented upon the size and showing of each player thus far. Coach Hickman also revealed that the players had chosen Brent Moore, Pete Montgomery, Robert Cox and Penn Baggett as captains for the year in a election held Tuesday afternoon.

The booster club roster showed 217 members Tuesday night with a scattered name or two to be added, to exceed a previous high

Lions Shove Off New Grid Season Against McCamey

Season Opener on Lion Stadium Here Fri- day Night

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions will open their 1962 football season at Lions Stadium Friday night at 8 p. m. when they meet the 2-A McCamey Badgers.

Coach Fred Hickman's small and inexperienced ball club will be decided underdogs in the opening contest, but will be facing a ball club that is not rated as a 2-A power and is in a rebuilding program, consequently a good ball game is in prospect.

Admission price will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for students.

McCamey will have only three of last year's regulars returning and will have a new coaching staff this year. The team weight is expected to be about the same as the Lions and there is little on which to base a comparison.

Coach Hickman has prospects of having a pretty good line and some pretty good running backs but will be shy of any real speed as well as being very short of reserve strength.

The Lions will be a sophomore packed ball club but a few Juniors and Seniors who have come out for the sport for the first time this year may be of considerable importance to the team later in the year.

The Lions will most likely start a defensive line composed of Jim Semmler and Scott Mahon at ends, Brent Moore and Penn Baggett at tackles and Robert Cox and Pete Garza at guards, the defensive secondary will be composed of Richard Vargas and Pete Montgomery, Joel Huff and Dubbie Scrivner and Leroy Cooper.

Several other boys are expected to get into early action and development this week could bring minor changes at several positions.

Offensively the Lions will have Huff moving to guard with Cox, and Garza shifting to center, with Cooper at quarterback, Vargas and Montgomery at halfback, and Leroy Cooper.

Courthouse, Bank Building Here To Get Medallions

State Historical Sur- vey Designates Two For Marking

The Crockett County Courthouse and the Ozona National Bank in Ozona have been found worthy of Texas Historical Building Medallions, according to John Ben Shepherd of Odessa, member of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.

Historical Building Medallions are presented for structures of historical, cultural or architectural significance to the area in which they exist.

The Ozona National Bank building is of colonial style architecture and was constructed in 1905, a joint venture of the bank ownership and the Masonic Lodge. The upper story of the structure is the Lodge's quarters.

The Crockett County Courthouse is the first permanent courthouse in the county, built of native limestone quarried from a hillside a few hundred yards north of it. Both structures were built under the direction of the late Oscar Ruffini, early day San Angelo architect.

Since the inauguration of the Medallion program in March of this year, over 100 counties have structures with Medallions. The goal is to mark historic structures in every county, marking over 1000 buildings in all.

Other structures with Medallions near Crockett County are the old Perry Building in Val Verde County, the Angora Goat Breeders Association Building in Edwards County, and the Marathon Schoolhouse in Brewster County.

Annual PTA Carnival Set For September 21 In Downtown City Park

The annual P. T. A. fund raising carnival has been set for Sept. 21, and will be held in the city park it was announced this week by Mrs. Tom Mitchell who will be the Carnival's general chairman this year.

The 21st will be the date left open on the 1962 football schedule and this year comes much earlier than has been the case for a number of years.

In keeping with the general pattern of the last few years, each grade or class will have a booth set up in the park in which it will sell items, or hold entertainments in order to raise money.

A new booth which will be selling hot tamales will be added to the list that has been in operation for the past few years.

The P. T. A. has for a number of years used the Carnival as its only fund raising project for the year, and urges the citizens of Ozona to attend the carnival and eat supper with them at the park Sept. 21.

TOMORROW NIGHT,
"EAST LYNN"

After a two-month run, the final curtain is about to drop on a touching, tear-tugging Capitol Hill melodrama featuring "The Senate Players" and an all-star cast.

Billed as the "Billie Sol Scandals," or "Pin the Beard on Murphey," the plot is simple. A former Texas millionaire, Billie Sol Estes plays the role of the villain who goes bankrupt after compiling a sizeable fortune selling phony mortgages to farmers. He gets investigated, and arrested by the FBI, but attempts to get out of the mess by saying big people in Washington helped him. He said he bought hats for them in exchange.

The Government people are fired by the bum-turned-hero, Orville Freeman, played by himself, who finds he's in trouble, however, for not keeping his people in line. Congress, which is controlled by the hero's political party, decides to hold a hearing to help take the heat off the hero. Lots of people give testimony. The hero's helper, Sne John McClellan, decrees that the real villain is not Estes at all, but Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphey, who plays the part of a lovable, but misguided public servant. John C. Bagwell, legal counsel for the Department, agrees that it is so and Freeman emerges as a bigger hero than ever.

The play ends with Estes covered in IUOs, Freeman dripping with glory and Murphey and Bagwell turned out into the cold and cruel world to shift for themselves.

Unfortunately, the acting was so bad that the play's "angels", commonly called "taxpayers" who dropped a half million dollars in the production, are expected to balk next November when the Senate players ask for further support.

TIME TO THINK ABOUT
DOMESTIC AID

There is no need for this Congress to appropriate a thin dime for foreign aid.

Rep. Otto E. Passman, Louisiana Democrat and chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Foreign Aid, declared, amid applause from both sides of the aisle:

"The fact of the matter is that if the Congress should adjourn sine die without even passing a foreign aid appropriations bill, sufficient funds are on hand from prior years' appropriations to operate this world-wide program at the present rate of expenditure full-steam-ahead for 25 painful and expensive months for the overburdened US taxpayers."

While President Kennedy castigated a foreign aid cut as "the height of folly", this would seem to describe a foreign aid appropriation more accurately.

1,000 Year Old Indian
Hunting Outfit Found
In Big Bend of Texas

A complete Indian hunter's outfit, bow, arrows and gathering basket, estimated by scientists to be nearly a thousand years old, but so well preserved it looks almost "as if it were made yesterday", was found recently in the Big Bend area of Texas by Robert O. Hunter of Riverside, Calif.

Mr. Hunter is the husband of the niece of the late Mrs. Harry Friend of Ozona. The rare find was given on a long term loan basis to the Museum of New Mexico at Santa Fe where museum officials pronounced it probably the finest of its kind ever found in the southwest. It will be placed on exhibit in the Palace of Governors in the near future.

The bow, which measured 60 1/2 inches in length, apparently of mesquite wood, was still tautly strung, the arrows seem shiny new and the intact mesh baskets still hold agave fruit, the account of the find, published in a recent issue of the El Paso Times, stated.

BUSINESS CHANGES

Mrs. Frankie Jones has announced sale of the Firestone Store and Conoco Station in the Perner building next to Hi-Way Cafe to Dub Scrver, local welder. Mrs. Jones, however, retained ownership of the butane service operated in connection with the station enterprise. "Those who are in the business of discovering and producing oil are in a unique position. In effect, when they sell the oil which they have produced, they are selling a capital asset. In other words, their supply of oil is being depleted, and new resources must be found to replace that which has been depleted. This tax incentive plan — the depletion allowance — is very justified; it's one which we should preserve. I believe the climate in the Senate, this week, will allow us to save the depletion allowance at 27 1/2 percent."

Three Vital Decisions Faced By Sheepmen

College Station — There are presently three vital considerations before the sheep and wool producers of Texas and other states, says Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist, Texas A&M College.

They are the question of the incentive price level of shorn wool, the question of changing the official marketing year, and the referendum on the promotional agreement with the ASPC, he says.

The support price for wool is to be set by the Secretary of Agriculture according to the 1954 National Wool Marketing Act. This is to be done after consultation with representatives of the wool producers and therefore comments from producers are needed by September 4, so that representatives may be guided regarding an incentive price level for the new wool marketing year, according to Uvacek.

The incentive price has been 62 cents per pound during each of the eight years of the Wool Payments Program with Texas producers receiving a total of 10.2 million dollars in payments for the 1960 marketing year.

Also under consideration is the question of changing the marketing year from the present April 1 through March 31 to a calendar year basis, the specialist says. Views on these two items should be sent to Livestock, Dairy and Poultry Division, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service US Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

The third item to be considered is the referendum on the lamb and wool agreement with the American Sheep Producers Council. The question is whether deductions from the incentive payments should continue. The deductions at the rate of 1 cent per pound of shorn wool and 5 cents per hundred weight of lamb would go to continue the Council's promotional activities in behalf of lamb and wool. Under these deduction Texas sheep and wool producers contributed 71 percent of the Council's budget, a big $536,107.00 in 1960. Deadline for the voting in this question is Sept. 21 and ballots may be returned to county ASCS offices starting September 10, the specialist adds.

The School Bells Have Rung And School Has Begun

I am sure this year has been no different than other years when time to equip our children for school has come.

How nice to be able to buy the things they need and be able to say "charge it".

Because with vacations just over, it is not an unusual thing to find ourselves in need of some extra cash. So, with a good credit rating that is exactly what we have, security for the extra things that we need when the cash is not available immediately.

A good credit rating is not handed out to just anyone who might ask. It is earned by those who always pay their bills promptly by the 10th of the month or as agreed upon by the merchant. Why not start Monday, the 10th by paying your bills promptly, so you too, may be included in that number of "good credit risks"?

Your credit rating is an "open book" to any merchant who might inquire, regardless of where you might have lived in the past - your credit ratings follows you wherever you go through the National Hook-Up channels of your local Retail Merchants Association or your credit bureau.

men to quit using the pits. But Chief Engineer John Vandertulp said the water situation would not be improved if wells used to send the salt water deep underground had poor or faulty casings. He insisted that wells be checked to make sure the cure for one kind of pollution does not cause other types.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District, composed of Odesa, Snyder, and Big Spring, joined in the questions. It has been forced to delay construction of another reservoir on the Colorado because the water in that area is so salty.

Teacher's Nest Egg — If teacher comes back to school smiling, it might be because she and the other 180,000 school and college faculties and employees have more than half a billion in the bank.

"Just Supposin" — Most popular game today, among employees under the Capitol dome, is "just supposin" what would happen if Texans elects a Republican governor. Would it mean filling appointive state offices and boards with Republicans and giving the GOP preponderance in state government?

Most "political experts" warn that the Cox bid in November must be taken seriously. Decision to "ride the fence" until after the November election is being heard more frequently. This, from long-time employees as well as some members of the Senate and House who are popular back home but who also are being realistic about the strength of the Cox following in their home-districts.

Big Schools "Cool" — Mass air conditioning programs at the University of Texas and Texas A&M College will account for seven per cent of the $28,767,006 of state funds earmarked for construction in the year starting September 1. Money to air condition old classroom and lab buildings on the Austin and College Station campuses comes out of revenue from University Permanent Fund investments, as does all the $15,588,683 to be used for new buildings, renovation and additions at the two schools next year.

State Launches Ramp Project — Texas Highway Commission has approved a $113,000 program to build 25 public boat ramps throughout the state. Money is surplus from boat registration fees collected under the Texas Water Safety Act.

Each boat ramp project also will include a parking area, access road, incinerator, landscaping, etc.

Sites were selected on the basis of the water area to be served and the number of registration fees paid in the area.

That shows you what teeth will do for a man. This is something handed down from our prehistoric ancestors, who were "thewed like an Auroch bull, and tusked like the Great Cave Bear." Put teeth in a man's mouth and he turns carnivore, and yearns for battle.

Too bad I didn't have a steak handy for breakfast, that morning. Had to sink my teeth into a pair of Barnyard Eggs, instead.

Football —

aron Shackelford at fullback. Dubbie Scrivner and Bernabe Villareal will see early action and in the line Bill Bowman and Morgan Tolle will be on tap for early service.

Even though the Lions have not been on the winning side of the ledger against the Badgers on many occasions in the past few years the games have had a remarkable reputation for tight, well played contests.

The Lion's last win over the Badgers came in Ozona year before last, and Coach Hickman would like to see a repeat of that result.

Last year in McCamey the Badgers won one of the more one-sided games of the series, dumping the Lions 23 to 7.

Both teams will be running new offensive patterns for the first time and since neither is blessed with an abundance of returnees from last season, fans of both teams will be seeking some evidence of what may be expected for the season, even though both teams will probably improve greatly before mid-season arrives.

The Lions will go into the Friday night contest with a team weight average of about 134 pounds per man, twenty pounds per man lighter than the 1959 Ozona Lion starters.

SERVICE LEAGUE

There will be a league meeting Monday night Sept. 10, 7:30 at the bowling alley. We are open for players and teams. If you would like to bowl on Monday night be present or give your name to the manager of Bowling alley.

Present tentative dates for the administration of the vaccine are Sunday, Sept. 30 for Type III, Nov. 11 for Type I, and December 16 for Type II.

The vaccine doses, on sugar cubes, will be given at the North Elementary and South Elementary schools between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m. on the dates designated. In the near future there will be pre-registration forms available and everyone will be urged to fill out these forms in advance if at all possible, to help speed up the program on vaccination days.

Local doctors are urging a 100 percent immunization for Crockett county.

of 173 who joined the club two years ago. Ticket drive chairman Ernie Boyd expressed his appreciation for the fine job of selling done by the ticket agents Charles Horses Williams was the unchallenged champ this year. Boyd stated, but there were a number of others who did real fine jobs and he was particularly pleased with the South Side Lions Club which attended the meeting and joined the club almost 100 percent.

The interest that the South Side Lions Club has shown in school and the welfare of their children is making itself felt both in the attendance of the boys and girls, and in their willingness to take part in activities of the school.

F. M. Cooper was elected president of the Booster organization this year with Woody Mason being named secretary-treasurer.

The group also decided to supply ice to the football team in order to cool cokes supplied by the Coca-Cola Bottling Company for the team.

Candidate Foreman Rips Rutherford For His Liberal Leanings

Ed Foreman of Odessa, conservative candidate for Congress, opened his campaign in a district telecast last night in a fiery, aggressive tone that left no doubt but that this will be one of the most colorful, hard-hitting campaigns ever waged in the 16th district of West Texas. Stressing the need for honesty and moral responsibility in government, Foreman charged that J. T. "Slick" Rutherford "has brought endless disrespect and nation-wide ridicule to our district and the State of Texas through his involvement in the recent Department of Agriculture scandals, payoffs and skulduggery. Rutherford's claim of his 'forgotten' $1500 contribution from his friend and client 'Pecos Bill' for 'favors rendered' is a reflection upon the intelligence of the people of his district," Foreman stated.

Foreman continued, "Our present fence-riding representative, who boasts of his attendance record in Congress, has voted in support of the liberal Kennedy program, over sixty percent of the time. He worked to enact liberal legislation through his vote for picking the House Rules Committee even though he had assured his constituents he would oppose it. He has continuously opposed private investor-owned utilities through his support of federal power. His support of the United Nations disarmament proposal was against the best interest of a strong and powerful United States and the hope of the entire free world. In his support of Kennedy's trade bill, Rutherford voted not only against the best interest of the working man whose job was placed in jeopardy, but also the oil and cotton producing areas of West Texas. Again, our Congressman voted away our, and his, rights to the President to alter our problems, and along with them, our freedom of choice in our community and personal affairs," said Foreman.

"I am a conservative who believes that individuals have intelligence enough to make their own decisions and spend their own government doing it for them," money independent of the federal stated Foreman. "I believe in limited federal government, states rights, government economy and private enterprise and I am opposed to the socialist element in our government regardless of party. I am not a flag waving party man. I am a candidate on the Republican ticket because I believe that it is the most effective political movement today dedicated to the preservation of the constitutional principles which protect individuals from government," concluded Foreman.

B Team Squad Number Up To 25 As Workouts Open For Second Team

Coach Brooks Dozier's Ozona B team squad rose to 25 in number Tuesday as the call for B team workouts was issued.

The squad is composed of freshman and sophomores with juniors eligible, even though none were on hand.

This year's B squad will have several returning members from last year but the team will have to be completely rebuilt since most of last year's squad has either given up the sport or moved on to the varsity squad this season.

Coach Dozier put this squad through conditioning exercises and some basic drills Tuesday which will be expanded the rest of the week.

Blocking and tackling drills will be in order before the selection of candidates for positions will be made by the end of the week.

A number of last year's Junior High squad reported for duty and a number of new candidates were added to the squad. Coach Dozier said that the new recruits were added to the squad because they were good players and had the ability to play at the varsity level.

For an advance of the balance of the squad are about seven or eight members who have been working out with the varsity since the 20th of August.
