ANTI-FERGUSON BILL IS HALTED

DEBT COMMISSION'S TERM OF OFFICE ENDED

FRANCE'S HOPES FOR NEW TERMS NOW SEEM LOST

FOUR DEBTS REMAIN YET UNSETTLED AFTER FIVE YEARS OF LABOR

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The World War foreign debt commission expired today, dimming more than ever any hopes France may entertain for modification of the Melton-Berenger agreement.

While France has indicated unofficially it might seek modification of the $4,025,000,000 settlement, Secretary Mellon, chairman of the debt commission, holds that the deal is closed and any further negotiations would have to be taken up with congress. The house has already approved the agreement, but the senate is awaiting ratification by the French parliament.

Some Settlement Made
In its five years of existence the bi-partisan commission concluded settlements with thirteen other nations. Of the $10,107,000,000 principal of the debt, the settlements represent $9,311,024,294 of the principal or more than 92 percent.

The total value of the settlements including the funded interest, is $11,523,354,000. Of this, $565,672,542 already has been paid in accordance with the agreements.

All of the agreements have been ratified by congress except those with France and Greece. Senator Samuel C. Houston, a member of the commission, made an unsuccessful attempt yesterday to obtain ratification of the latter settlement, a vote being blocked by debate.

Four Yet To Settle
Four countries have not concluded settlements—Russia, Greece, Austria and Liberia. Austria has been granted a moratorium until 1923. Congress is considering proposals of Greece. Russia is not recognized and no negotiations can be conducted. The Liberian debt of $20,000,000 is on the books. The Armenian government, which also owed this country, is out of existence.

The settlements follow, including net principal and funded interest: Belgium $1,717,750,000; Czechoslovakia $1,115,000,000; Estonia $13,830,000; Finland $600,000; France $4,025,000,000; Great Britain $4,000,000,000; Hungary $1,925,000; Italy $2,042,000,000; Latvia $775,000; Lithuania $3,030,000; Poland $178,500,000; Rumania $44,550,000; Jugo Slavia $62,850,000.

Portuguese Rebels Desert To Federals

LONDON, Feb. 9. (AP)—The insurgents at Oporto, Northern Portugal, who rose against the Carmona dictatorship last week have capitulated to the government forces, say official dispatches received in London this afternoon.

LEAHY SENT TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

New Trial Turns Prison Term Into Death For Slayer Of Mathis Physician

GEORGETOWN, Texas, Feb. 9.—A verdict of death was returned here today against Harry J. Leahy, charged with the murder of Dr. J. A. Ramsey of Mathis.

The case went to the jury at 6 p. m. yesterday after a week's trial, and the jury came in with its verdict at 10:15 a. m. today.

There was no demonstration, and Leahy appeared to be the coolest man in the courtroom. His wife was with him, but she showed no emotion. Leahy's aged parents, who had testified in his behalf, were not present.

Had 50-Year Sentence
In a previous trial Leahy was given a sentence of 50 years, but the trial court ordered a new trial at the defendant's request.

The court today denied a motion for a new trial presented by H. P. Bonham, one of Leahy's attorneys. Notice of appeal then was given.

Attorneys for the state would not say what disposition they expected to make of the case against Roberto Martinez, the state's principal witness. Martinez testified he called Ramsey from his home at the request of Leahy and took the physician to the hills near Mathis where, he said, Leahy struck the doctor on the head, cut his throat and buried him.

AMERICAN OFFICER FINDS OLD CEMETERY, CLAIM OF MEXICANS

(By Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—Declarations by Deputy Sheriff Walter Keating of Los Angeles that Mexican Lower California, is a port of missing men where many Americans have met foul play and were buried in shallow, unmarked graves, have been met with quick denials from both American and Mexican authorities.

Keating, upon his return here yesterday from a vain search across the Mexican border for three missing Los Angeles men, reported that he had found the sands of Colorado Madura river bed below the Mexican town strewn with bodies, many of whom he believed to be Americans.

Identification Not Attempted
He charged that Mexican authorities frequently buried persons killed in Mexicali without making any attempt to identify them.

Francisco Deralga, inspector of police for the Northern district of Lower California, explained that the deputy sheriff in his search for missing men had come across an abandoned grave yard in the old river bed and that flood waters had washed out the graves of persons buried there years ago. He said his office had complete records of every alien who had died and was buried in Lower California. He added that in the last 3 years only two Americans have met death in his district and but one has disappeared.

Deralga's statement was supported by Louis Mans, U. S. customs inspector at the border, who said he could recall only one case where an American has disappeared in Mexicali.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9. (AP)—The cost of an argument on the Bellevue Golf club course here Monday stood at two lives today. Cornelius J. ELECTIONS WILL DECIDE MEN TO ASSUME PLACES

GRANDJURY PROBABLY TO TAKE UP MATTER ON NEXT SATURDAY

(By The Associated Press) AUSTIN, Feb. 9.—Bribe taking charges against F. A. Dale of Bonham and H. H. Moore of Cooper, expelled late Tuesday from the house of representatives, were left Wednesday solely within province of the Travis county grand jury which probably will report before Saturday.

Proclamation calling elections to fill Dale and Moore's seats probably will be issued today by Governor Dan Moody.

May See Another Fight
The house may see another fight like the one preceding the Dale-Moore bribery trial, before a resolution introduced late yesterday by Representative Cory T. Sheets of Franklin, proposing investigation of lobbying activities of Willis Chamberlain, Houston optometrist, who "tipped" rangers before the alleged bribery trial, and have reported to be referred to the common public affairs committee.

Sheets said he had "heard" that Chamberlain claimed to know of "other things, too," but Chamberlain last night said he must have been misinformed, that if he had known of such things he would have reported them.

Chamberlain Praised, Rapped
Chamberlain heard himself alternately praised and condemned on Tuesday during debate preceding the Dale-Moore voting. Some claimed that his coming with the accused in the bribery trial, and having Dale $1,000 made him "guilty" too, while others held that "he made a sacrifice to public service and should be praised" for warning rangers and house officers in advance of the purported transaction.

Dale And Moore Silent
AUSTIN, Feb. 9. (AP)—Representative F. A. Dale of Bonham, and H. H. Moore of Cooper, expelled yesterday from the house because of bribery charges have not announced whether they will run for re-election.

Questioned today Moore declined to make any statement.

Arguments In Dillon Case Complete And Verdict Expected Soon; Duke Trial Next

Counsel's arguments in the J. W. Dillon case, charging violation of the prohibition law, were almost completed at 2 o'clock today, and the case was expected to reach the jury shortly, with the possibility of a verdict late this afternoon.

The case was called to trial Monday afternoon, and testimony was finished by Tuesday. Both the state and defense offered several witnesses. Dillon, owner and operator of a hotel and drug store here, is specifically charged with sale for beverage purposes of extract of sinner.

The court was scheduled this afternoon to take up the case of W. A. Duke, charged in three cases with violation of the pro law, who was arrested last Sunday on a similar charge at his home about three miles northeast of Slatton. Court attaches said, however, that continuance probably would be asked due to the absence of a material witness. Mr. Duke has not made bond on the charge on which he was arrested last Sunday.

South Plains Falls In Winter's Grip As Cold Wave Envelops Five States

MERCURY HERE SINKS TO 20 ABOVE; SNOW IS VERY GENERAL

Striking suddenly after several days of balmy spring like weather, the elements Wednesday had the South Plains in the grip of one of the coldest and most disagreeable spells of the winter season, with predictions that Thursday will be even colder.

PRETTY TOUGH

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 9.—Argentina is suffering from a heat wave. In some provinces thermometer reached 104 degrees, and in Buenos Aires it has been 96 in the shade.

A cold mist, which has been falling here early Wednesday night, turned to sleet before morning, and at daybreak the ground was almost solidly covered. Clouds hung low, and mist fell at intervals throughout the morning.

Mercury Sinks To 20
The mercury today stood at 20 degrees at the lowest point, a drop of 22 degrees from the high of Wednesday. Reports reaching here indicate that the entire Panhandle-Plains is being fanned by a stiff norther, and that snow and sleet have fallen in varying quantities at all points. Some relief is promised in the forecast, although Thursday is slated for colder weather. Friday will see steadily rising temperatures, the forecast says. No damage, either to crops or livestock has been reported here.

Cold All Over Texas
DALLAS, Feb. 9. (AP)—A vagrant winter wind from the country of Jack Frost blew over Texas today, bringing ice and snow in the north part and rain in the south. Green grass was beginning to sprout under the spring like rains of the last few weeks, when king winter, who had been ignoring this state for more than a month, decided to give it a little attention.

At Wichita Falls the mercury dropped from 41 to 29 last night, and at 3 a. m. the city was covered with ice.

The thermometer was 16 above at Amarillo. Rain or sleet was reported. (Turn to Page 8, Column 4, Please)

Wagnorne, of the Texas Technological college furnished a very pleasing program at Rotary today, by bringing from the college a double quartette of young ladies, who rendered several very highly appreciated and greatly enjoyed numbers. These young ladies as Professor Wagnorne indicated in his introduction of them came from as many different towns and from three different states, and are all students in the Tech college.

Judge Chas. C. Crenshaw, of the law firm of Hildeman and Atwell, formerly of the Tech with a special address on the subject of "Federal Encroachment on State Rights." His talk was exceptionally instructive, as well as entertaining.

The program was in charge of Dean Gordon.

U. S. OUT OF WORLD COURT

America Definitely Outside Following Tabling Of Trammel Proposal

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—A proposal to rescind the senate's ratification of the World Court occurred only ten votes in the senate today after Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee had advised his colleagues that the United States was definitely out of the court already, and that no further action was necessary.

By a vote of 59 to 16, on motion of the democratic floor leader, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the senate tabled a proposal to bring up the resolution of Senator Trammel, democrat, Florida, canceling ratification of the court protocol.

Senator Trammel was one of those who voted for ratification while Senator Borah was the leader of the opposition. The foreign relations chairman told the senate today, however, that foreign governments had indicated they could not accept the senate reservation.

"If so, that ends the matter," he said.

Thus the long fight over American membership in the court apparently has come to an end, with the United States standing definitely outside the tribunal.

LOVE'S EFFORT TO SHOVE BILL AHEAD FAILURE

PLAN TO WITHDRAW JIM'S AMNESTY IS PLACED ON SIDETRACK

(By The Associated Press) AUSTIN, Feb. 9.—Efforts to force a showdown on the senate bill repealing the amnesty granted former Governor James E. Ferguson at the last session of the legislature failed today on a technicality.

Senator Love, of Dallas, author of the bill, moved that it be made special order of business after the call tomorrow morning, but was overruled on a point of order that the joint senate and house rules require the senate to act on all bills before it on Wednesday and Thursday's before taking up other matters.

The amnesty bill is not far from the top of the list of senate bills on second reading.

LEGISLATORS ARGUE OVER ASKING MCGADOO TO SPEAK

AUSTIN, Feb. 9. (AP)—A move by Representative Sam Gales of Runge to table a senate resolution inviting William G. McAdoo to address the Texas legislature was making fair headway toward a warm house squabble shortly before noon today when proceedings were interrupted for a joint session to hear Captain Richmond P. Hobson make a temperance speech.

Decision of the invitation probably will be made this afternoon. The house a few minutes before had adopted a senate resolution inviting Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, as much as "west" as McAdoo is a "dry," to address the legislature when his speaking tour brings him to Texas. The resolution was by Senator J. H. Bailey. The McAdoo resolution signed by Senators Love, Reed, Neal and others.

Rep Attacks Gales Motion
Representative George Puri attacked Gales' motion to table, declaring that "this house cannot afford to take a slap at a man who has twice been the choice of Texas for president."

Gales had not gotten a chance to answer when business was halted.

The house adopted a senate resolution calling on the federal government to purchase channels through Padre Island on the Gulf Coast to allow Gulf currents through Laguna Madre, and thus preserve fish said to be worth thousands of dollars.

Fritz Fuchs, recently selected as one of fifteen "Master Farmers" in Texas in a contest conducted by a farm paper, and David F. Eaton, Lubbock county farm agent, returned home Tuesday night from Dallas, where they had been to attend a meeting of winners in the contest.

Only one of the farmers so selected was unable to attend the meeting, and this was due to illness, Mr. Eaton said. Wives of several of the winners accompanied them. The meeting was held Monday, with the winners guests of the Dallas chamber of commerce at noon lunch, and at night a banquet was served. The session and trip was thoroughly enjoyed, according to Mr. Eaton.

FEED MILL SHOWS RAPID GROWTH

Opening January 1 the Standard Milling company, owned and operated by H. W. Stanton, well known Lubbock man, has grown to such an extent that the organization will now reach out and cover all parts of West Texas, officials of the firm announced today.

The mill, specializing in dairy, horse and mule and chicken feed, is located at the corner of Fourth street and Avenue N where eight men are already employed in its operation in addition to Mr. Stanton, who is in charge of the active management. T. C. Anderson, formerly with the Fulton Brick and Tile company, will represent the organization and will travel the territory. It was said, the name "Stanton" has been adopted as a trade name.

TY COBB SIGNS WITH MACK'S ATHLETICS

SALARY BREAKS RECORD, RUMOR SAYS AT PHILLY

'GEORGIA PEACH' TO BE IN RIGHT FIELD IS MACK'S PROMISE

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—Ty Cobb will wear the uniform of the Philadelphia Athletics this year.

The veteran of 22 American League seasons has accepted the offer of Manager Connie Mack and probably will close his baseball career as a member of Mack's team. The contract for the season of 1927 and Cobb has announced that he will return from the game at the close of the season.

Terms Not Disclosed
The "Georgia Peach" announced at the Philadelphia sports writers dinner, where he was a guest last night, that he had accepted Mack's offer on terms of which he said would be disclosed by the manager of the Athletics if they were to be made public. Mack declined to discuss financial details.

Persons close to both Cobb and Mack said the contract called for $50,000-$25,000 for playing, $25,000 salary and a $10,000 bonus. Others placed the amount at $75,000. Either figure would be the highest salary ever paid a baseball player.

Keen Rivalry
There has been keen rivalry between the Athletics and St. Louis Browns for Cobb's services since he was cleared of baseball scandal charges by Commissioner Landis. Other American League teams also were anxious to have made him an offer, but Manager Mack and Hoxley made special trips to Cobb's home in Augusta, Ga., in their efforts to get him. Hoxley was reported to have offered the former Detroit manager $50,000 to be in the Browns.

Mack announced that Cobb would be in right field and would be third in the batting order. With Zach Wheat left, Simmons in center and Lamar French in reserve, the Athletics would have an outfield of which Cobb should be proud.

The Athletics, who finished third last year, will start the 1927 season with two men in the outfield, and one in the infield, in addition to Cobb and Wheat they are Eddie Collins, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, who will play second base; E. Haley, formerly of the Baltimore Terrapins, at short stop, and H. Adair, veteran, obtained from the Texas City team of the American association, at first base.

Contract Is Signed
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—Ty Cobb today made good his announcement of last night that he would be a member of the Philadelphia Athletics this season by signing a contract for one year. The salary was not disclosed but guesses ran from $50,000 to $75,000.

Oklahoma Star Athlete In Lubbock

Major "Little Tub" Tyler, former athlete of the University of Oklahoma, Sooner and well known to many followers of collegiate athletics in Texas, was in Lubbock last night en route to Amarillo from San Angelo. He is a geologist for the Amarillo Oil company.

In the four years that he was in university Tyler took advantage of a war year, when freshmen were eligible for play, and throughout his collegiate career was a star in football, basketball and baseball. He is heralded as one of the best all-around athletes in the history of the South Valley conference.

Hitting Sports Highspots With James R. Dow

The Bearkats of Sam Houston Normal will do battle here this evening with the Texas Tech Matadors on the assembly hall floor at eight o'clock. This is the first time that the wearers of the Scarlet and Black have ever met with the club from Huntsville. A hard tilt is expected from the Bearkats by Coach Grady Higginbotham and for the past few days, since the return of the Tech cagers, from Abilene, the Matador manager has drilled the flashy-jerseyed lads on the rough spots that showed in the Abilene exhibitions.

The Supreme court of California appointed the Pacific Southwestern and Saving Bank of Los Angeles as the guardian of George Young. There has been lots to do with the 17 year old Canadian since his successful swim of the Catalina channel.

Jack Delaney is he'll the favorite over Jim Maloney in their bout which is scheduled for February 18 at the Madison Square Garden, Wall Street, in placing odds at eight and six to five on Delaney.

Paul Berlenbach will quit the ring—Mike McTigue must have had this influence over Paul Berlenbach was once a flash of the ring—but slowly he detoured away.

One day this week was a great golf afternoon. This afternoon is excellent for ice skating or a sleigh ride.

The Arkansas Razorbacks have won two victories over the S. M. U. Mustangs defeating the Methodists by a narrow margin: Monday evening the score was 22 to 20 and the last game was 22 to 21. But still the lads from the Ozarks are leading the conference and have a cinch on that title for the year.

Two To Battle Out Billiards Tourney

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—The national three cushion billiards championship tournament today settled down to a race between Otto Reisel of Philadelphia the title holder, and Augie Kierchefer, Chicago southpaw, who held the championship nine years ago.

Kierchefer went into a tie with Reisel for the lead in the tourney tonight by defeating Raimundo Campioni of Havana, 50 to 22, in 45 innings.

BEARKATS LOSE TO WEST TEXAS TEACHER QUINT

SAM HOUSTON NOT ABLE TO HOLD EARLY LEAD AND SINK, 42-15

(Special To The Journal)
CANYON, Feb. 9.—The West Texas Teachers College Buffaloes began their TIAA campaign here tonight by taking the second game of a two game series from the Sam Houston Teachers 42 to 15. At the beginning of the game Sam Houston took a lead of six points that they held for several minutes. The Buffaloes came back strong and piled up a fourteen point lead by the end of the half and during the rest of the game the result was never in doubt.

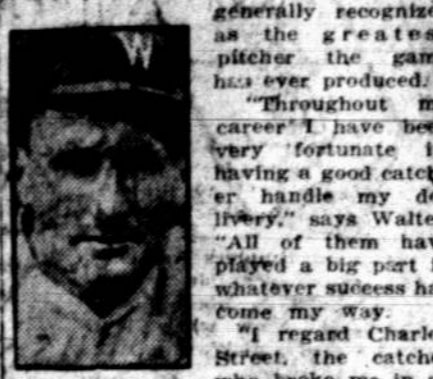

Half of the Buffaloes was the high point man with twenty points shot from all distances and angles. Lowes played brilliantly but was unable to locate the basket with much accuracy.

The Sam Houston team played much better than last evening and did not appear to be bothered by the high altitude. The Buffaloes met the Texas Tech Matadors in Canyon on the fourteenth and fifteenth of February.

Johnson Picks 2 Best Men To Catch Him

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—What part does catching play in the success of a star major league pitcher? No one should be better qualified to answer that question than Walter Johnson, generally recognized as the greatest pitcher the game has ever produced.

"Throughout my career I have been very fortunate in having a good catcher," he said. "I was lucky in having Muddy Ruel, who played a big part in whatever success has come my way."

"I regard Charley Street, the catcher who broke for me as a big leaguer and Muddy Ruel, who will probably be the last backstop to give me signals, as the best catchers I ever have worked with."

"Street was practically my only asset when Street caught me. I was credited with being very fast, but never seemed to get enough stuff on the ball to satisfy him. Asking me if I had a sore arm was a favorite quip of his when I was bearing down hard."

"Neither Street or Ruel made it seem as if I was hard to catch because of my great speed. On the contrary, both made it look easy. Both were entirely different in style but equally efficient."

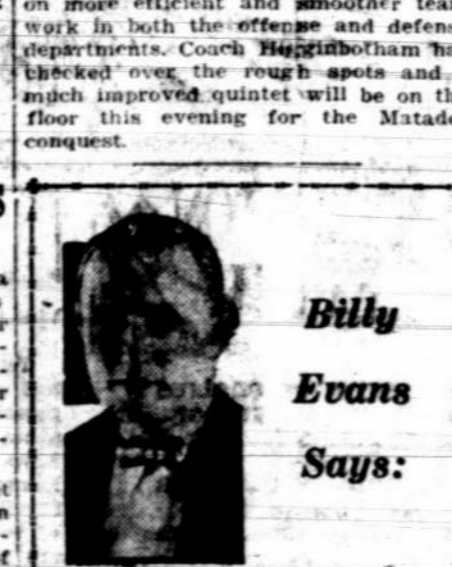

MATADORS WILL MEET BEARKATS ON TECH FLOOR

LOCALS MUCH IMPROVED, READY FOR FIRST GAME TONIGHT

This evening at eight o'clock the Matadors will clash with the Teachers of Huntsville on the assembly hall floor. This is the final contest of a two game series scheduled with the Buffaloes and 100,000 fans the first time that the wearers of the Scarlet and Black have waged battle against the Buffaloes in any athletics. As this is the first encounter that the cagers of Texas Tech have had with the Houstonians Coach Grady Higginbotham is expecting a hard tilt.

The Teachers have been on a state tour for the past few days and have met with some of the strongest teams in college basketball. A great number of their games have been easy victories, but they ran into a slump their first games with the W. T. S. T. C. Buffs at Canyon, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, being defeated with scores of 46 to 9; and 42 to 15.

Since returning from the Abilene trip the Matadors have constantly drilled on more efficient and smoother team work in both the offense and defense departments. Coach Higginbotham has checked over the rough spots and a much improved quint will be on the floor this evening for the Matador conquest.

Billy Evans Says:

Wrong Impression

I have always maintained that Babe Ruth, aside from his batting, ranks as one of the greatest outfielders the game has ever produced.

Yet, the majority of the baseball fans, when discussing Ruth, invariably express their opinion of him as a slugger.

"All Ruth can do is slug. If he were a weak hitter he would be in the minors."

Ruth's remarkable batting ability has so overshadowed his other good points that the fans think of him only as a slugger.

To most fans, Babe Ruth is the man who made home runs famous. He means little more than a ball player.

All-Round Star

As a matter of fact, there are not more than a half dozen outfielders in the American League who can cover more ground than Ruth.

When it comes to throwing, Tris Speaker is the only left-handed throwing outfielder who is more accurate. Ruth gets greater distance.

On the bases, for a big fellow Ruth is remarkably fast. He tops off his speed with a deceptive slide.

At the bat, Ruth is much more than a mere slugger. He is an adept bunter, draws a ball well, and when he wants to, can hit to most any field.

Ruth Ranks First

Recently one of the demon baseball statisticians took up 10 features of outfield play, allowing three points for first base, two for second and one for third.

Ruth under such a system topped the American League outfielders with

Westerner Quint Wallops Lamesa In Dawson County By Total Of 39 To 19

(Special to Daily Journal)
LAMESA, Texas, Feb. 9.—The Lubbock high school Westerners defeated the local high school Tornados here last evening before a packed gymnasium with a score of 39 to 19.

The visiting basketballers struck into an offensive stride a few minutes after play had begun and even though the Lubbockites didn't start in the lead they soon recovered and went into a scoring spree, rishing the counters in one after the other. The first half ended with the score 15 to 9 with the Von Tungenmen holding the bigger end.

The third quarter was fatal to the hopes of the Tornados ever catching up. With a fast and smooth running machine the visiting Hubbers carried on a bombardment of short-crip sinkers—seemingly the Westerners counted over 90 per cent of their attempts at the goal during this period.

Last Session Hot
The last session was one of hectic struggle, and plenty of sweat. Before the final whistle let the game ride with a free for all but never let the players display fight. Captain Rupert Hays, leader of the visiting quintet, was ruled from the floor just prior to the end for roughing.

Henley, forward for the Westerners, was easily the flash of the floor here last evening. His ability in taking advantage of all opportunities for scoring was unquestionable. He was high point man of the game, topping the field with a good margin of counters.

Lamesa, the Dawson county champions, will likely have another go with the Westerners during the district meet which will be held in Lubbock under the direction of the Texas athletic officials February 18.

Hagen Laughs At Golf 'Goat' Yarn

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—Gene Sarazen says he has Walter Hagen's goat. He contends Hagen, considered the greatest of the professional golfers, is made to order for him. insists he would never lose if he had only Hagen to vanquish.

What does Walter Hagen think about it? He gives a big laugh out of the magazine article in which Sarazen was credited with such statements. The golfing records show that Sarazen has beaten Hagen in three out of four matches.

"I read that story," said Hagen. "Gene Sarazen got my goat? Well, he has. NOT! Gene had said it. He's got too much sense. Any golfer who says he can beat any man every time he goes up against him just shows what a fool he is and how little he knows about golf."

"The breaks have a lot to do with it—just as in baseball. You know that the best big league baseball team in the world would never honestly claim it could win every game it played. You know Babe Ruth himself would never claim he could get a hit off any pitcher in the world, every time he faced him—let alone a home run."

"In those four times Gene Sarazen and I played, Gene got the breaks in three of the games. And the answer is that in many a tournament, Gene has been eliminated before he got a chance to play against me. No, Gene Sarazen hasn't got my golfing goat. Nobody has it."

National League Magnates To Help Landis In 'Clean Up Campaign' And Adopt New Rules For Their Players

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—More drastic action than Commissioner Landis recommended is the National League contribution to baseball's "clean shop" movement.

A "gift" from members of 600 teams to another as reward for defeating a third club in an important series should be punished by ineffectuality for three years, the league magnates decided at their mid-winter session yesterday. Commissioner Landis, after the recent scandal investigations suggested ineffectuality for a year as penalty for "gift" offerings.

Other recommendations growing out of the commissioner's hearings in Chicago of the Hiseberg-Gundill charges, which disclosed that members of the Chicago White Sox raised a pool in 1917 to reward Detroit players for beating Boston, were approved fully by the club owners.

Cobb Gets Credit For Record Which Is Not On Books

By NEA Service
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Credit another batting record to the long list now in the name of Ty Cobb. For years this one, dealing with extra base hits, has slumbered unknown.

Some ancient statistics just dug up, dealing with batting feats in the American League, reveal that just 23 times since the organization started doing business has any slugger made four extra base hits in a nine-inning game.

Of these 22 extraordinary performances, three carry the name of Ty Cobb, one of them the outstanding record of the American League, 16 total bases.

On one occasion Cobb made four hits, including two doubles, a triple and a home run, for a total of 11 bases. On another eventful afternoon he recorded five hits made up of three doubles, one home run and one single for 11 bases, equaling his first performance.

He made the biggest day at bat for late in his career. In a game at St. Louis during the 1925 season he made six hits, distributed as follows: Two singles, one double and three home runs for 16 bases, an American League record.

In this game his two base hit just failed to clear the right field wall at St. Louis, otherwise he would have equaled the four home runs in a game mark.

Just for comparison, to impress on you the magnitude of Cobb's performance, it is here mentioned that in only one game has Babe Ruth made four extra base hits, that time getting two doubles and two home runs in five times at bat.

TWO LEAD GOLF PLAY

America's Idea Moves China

When a new idea gets abroad in a country you may expect startling developments.
Ideas in this world of ours, are rare things. An idea big enough to grip the imagination of a whole country comes along not oftener than once or twice in a century. When it does come its results are far-reaching.

China, stagnant in the peace of stagnant mandarins and stately pagodas for so many centuries, has been seized by an idea—the idea that is expressed by the word "Nationalism."

For centuries centuries the Chinese hardly had an inkling of that idea.
To the Millare coolie the whole universe was included in the limited boundaries of his own immediate neighborhood. He might have a distinct loyalty to his town; loyalty to China as a whole was beyond his power of conception.

But now the idea is taking hold.
It came gradually, born of oppression and misery. Slowly, painfully, there was impressed on the mind of the coolie the idea that his country was something more than the few square miles surrounding his high-place. He began to realize, in a muddled sort of way, that what happened in far-off Peking or Shanghai had direct effects on living conditions in his own village.

So now China is aflame. A new national spirit is being born.
Nationalism is one of the strongest impulses that can move a people. It can be one of the finest, and, at the same time, it can be one of the most dangerous. The 13 sovereign colonies of Great Britain were reative under the hand of despotism for many years, but until a true national spirit was born, and given expression on a July day in 1776, did resentment and indignation become able to sluice.

When a true national spirit moves a people outsiders can beware how they interfere. There is a kind of dynamite in human souls, slow to ignite but world-shattering in its effects. It gives birth to French revolution, thirty years' wars, sends armies forth to die and lays a bloody sword across fair countryside.

China is aroused. Even the American missionaries heretofore well liked by the masses, are in danger. The new nationalism is, among other things, blind.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that the Chinese trouble will "blow over" and that they will not.
Outsiders can repress the spirit of nationalism for a time. But not for long.

Old Master's

Darest thou now, Oh soul, Walk out with me toward that unknown region,
Where neither ground is for the feet nor any path to follow?

No map there, nor guide, Nor voice sounding, nor touch of human hand,
Nor face with blooming flesh, nor lips, nor eyes are in that land.

I know it not, Oh soul,
Nor dost thou, all is a blank before us—
All waits undreamed of in that region, that inaccessible land.

Then we burst forth, we float,
In Time and Space, Oh Soul! prepared for them,
Equal, equipped at last (Oh joy!) Oh fruit of all!) them to fulfill, Oh soul!

—Wall Whitman: From "Leaves
of Grass."

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAVING UP and Down BROADWAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A modern apartment house is rising in New York's Chinatown.

Long doomed by the inroads of commercialism, this may be the final blow to the Chinatown that was.

From Times Square, buses hum with Chinese lanterns still set forth many times a day, carrying their loads of tourists to the smoky-like alleyways. From the bus seats the hackers make promises of strange sights and adventures that end in a made-to-order jaunt through chow meat parlors and a public joss house.

But the old-timers have long looked upon Chinatown as foredoomed.

The new apartment rises in "Happy Alley," paradoxically named block of sinister memories.

Of all the grisly gang wars to be chronicled, some of the worst began and ended in "Happy Alley." The underworld once bore its bloody brood there, sending them forth from darkened basements and gloomy buildings.

This was the stamping ground of Jack Slocco, and many of his mob.

But "Happy Alley" had a merry side as well. Its beer shops, sordid as perhaps some of them were in their day, held many an Irish dicker, dancing heartily to the strains of an Italian accordion.

At one time its population was almost entirely Irish and nobody seems to know its exact antiquity.

One tenement, it is said, was built 130 years ago, and there were Irish in "Happy Alley" no doubt, who numbered among the first of the Irish settlers in America.

WASHINGTON LETTER

SUPERSTITION OF COOLIES GREATEST DANGER FOREIGN MISSIONARIES FACE IN CHINA

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The belief of Chinese mobs that Chinese children were being killed in foreign missions and hospitals, as evidenced recently by riots endangering the lives of priests and others, is merely another suburb based on old superstitions.

A hundred years ago British and French diplomats were busy insuring protection for foreign missionaries in China and for converts to Christianity. Tolerant clauses of this nature were inserted in various treaties.

These treaty clauses were far-reaching. They gave foreign powers a virtual protectorate over whatever natives embraced one or more sects of this Christian religion.

Trouble was caused by the claim of converts to be exempted from contributing to the cost of national ceremonies of a religious nature and by the efforts of priests to protect the converts from cupid and injustice on the part of mandarins. First, the Chinese government and the Buddhist and Confucian literati began to oppose Christian activities. Then came the mobs.

In the sixties popular demonstrations began to break out on the basis of a belief that native converts performed black art rites on children, taking their eyes or their souls to use in making medicine. The lower class Chinese were then as now perhaps ready to believe almost anything of this nature, and the result was a fervent worship of their ancestors who became excited over reports that converts were required to degenerate
the tablets of their forefathers.

Missionaries were beaten or murdered and missions destroyed.

Meanwhile the Chinese government was complaining against the Christian activities, holding that they were breaking up established relations between the rulers and the people.

Rumors became current that children were being kidnapped for sale to the founding hospitals of Roman Catholic missions. The viceroy arranged a public inspection at Nanking to disprove these rumors, but the next month, June, 1876, similar stories were spread in Tientsin.

A mob, led by agitators, destroyed the French missionary hospital and massacred 19 Sisters of Mercy, the French consul, several other Frenchmen and a party of Russian missionaries.

WE ARE ENTIRELY SURROUNDED

Texas are proverbially patriotic,

geration in what they have to say about their state. One loyal Texan, however, carefully kept within the bounds of truth when he answered an inquiry by an eastern firm, who wanted to know "What about Texas?" We are reliably informed that the reply
read as follows:

"Texas occupies all the continent of North America except the small part set aside for the United States and Canada. Texas is so big that the people in Brownsville call the Dallas people Yankees, and the citizens of El Paso sneer at the citizens of Tex-arkana as being snobs of the El Paso

"It is 15 miles further from El Paso to Texas than it is from Chicago to New York. Dallas is nearer St.
Paul, Minnesota, than it is to Brown-sville. The United States, with Texas left out, would look like a three-legged Boston terrier."

"The chief occupation of the people of Texas is trying to keep from making all the money in the world."

It might be added that Brownwood is in the exact center of all this vast territory, and is entirely surrounded in every direction, by the state of Texas.—Brownwood Bulletin.

SCOUTS PROVE THEIR ABILITY

Demonstrations Given To 300 Attending Meeting; Drive Starts This Morning

On the eve of the solicitation campaign whereby it is expected to raise $20,000 for promotion of boy scout work in twelve South Plains counties, scouts of Lubbock last night gave a very unique and interesting demonstration of the value and importance of the work to proper education of the boyhood of the country.

Despite the very inclement weather, and a light fall of sleet driven by a cold north wind, about 300 people were in attendance at the meeting in the auditorium of the First Methodist church, and all apparently were very much impressed with the work of scouting. The demonstrations consisted of such phases of scouting as first aid treatment, knot tying, making fire with flint and the famous tree ceremony recently originated.

John Campbell Speaks
At the close of the demonstrations,
John C. Campbell, deputy regional executive, who maintains headquarters in San Antonio, spoke briefly on the work of a scout and growth of the organization on the South Plains.

Today, the solicitation campaign was launched simultaneously all over the twelve counties to raise the needed funds, and although no definite reports

Headache Caused By Nerve Tension

A headache is Nature's warning of high nerve tension (strain) which results, sooner or later, in high blood pressure and ultimate injury to your health.

The next time you have a headache, neuralgic pain, lagrippe pain or other nerve pain try the improved method of relief—two teaspoonfuls of Capudine in a little water. Being liquid, Capudine acts almost instantly,—in one-fifth the time required by tablets and powders. Capudine soothes the excited nerves without deadening them.—Yet it is more effective in the relief of headache, neuralgia, lagrippe pains, rheumatic and periodical pains. Capudine does not depress the heart and will not upset the stomach.

If the use of Capudine does not give you permanent freedom from headaches, you may be sure they are caused by some organic condition which should receive the attention of your oculist, dentist or family physician.

Physicians and druggists recommend Capudine as the safe, quick and dependable agent for relieving nervous pains and high nerve tension. Every home should be supplied with Capudine. Get a bottle today at your druggist's and if you do not like it far better than anything you have ever tried, the manufacturers will cheerfully refund the price upon request. Family size, 60cets.; individ-

New Chain Store To Open Here In Rankin Building

The Rankin building on Main Street just west of the Merrill hotel is now being thoroughly renovated and remodelled preparatory to the opening here soon of a branch store of the Acorn chain, financed by New York capital. C. W. Bryan, of New York, owns and manages the business interest in the Rankin building. The store is here preparing for the opening.

The store here is to be the 71st of a chain that operates mostly in southern and middle-west states, Mr. Bryan said. Twenty-one departments will be maintained, including, in addition to a novelty library, which will be operated in connection with the store, a mahogany finish especially built to conform to the stock. The building will be completely overhauled.

No definite date has yet been set for the opening, but it is the plan of the company to be ready about March 15. The two floors will be ready to arrive here until the last week in February, Mr. Bryan said.

SAINT AND SINNER

BY ANNE AUSTIN COPYRIGHT 1926 NEA

BUT asking Charles Reilly Neff, law partner of Ralph Cluny, who had been murdered and for whose murder Cherry Lane Wiley had been indicted, for information in regard to the mysterious blackmail letter which Bob Hathaway had taken from his uncle's letter files proved to be an almost impossible undertaking.

"He may die," Bob told Faith over the phone. "And even if he gets well enough to receive visitors, Churchill is very much afraid that he will refuse him an interview. The two men are ancient enemies, rivals. He would not willingly do anything to further the cause of the defendant, unless he has a rare sense of justice, which I doubt."

"Can't you get a court order of some sort compelling the executors of the estate to let you look at your uncle's letter files? I've been thinking nearly all night, and it seems to me that common, ordinary justice would grant that," Faith insisted.

"That is one of the executors, Alexander Cluny is the other," Bob pointed out. "Both are violently antagonistic to Cherry, both believe that she killed Uncle Ralph for his money. But Churchill is putting a private detective on that letter, to search the county court records and the prison records. He'll nail the writer, if possible, even though he hasn't a great deal of faith in the letter as a clue. Are you going to see Cherry today? It's visitors' day, isn't it?"

"Yes," Faith answered. "But Churchill wants to see me before I see Cherry. I'm going over there now. You mustn't give all your time to the case, darling," she remembered suddenly. "You're an architect, dear; not just a detective."

"There is nothing in the world so important to me now as this case," Bob answered almost curtly. "But Faith, on her way to Churchill's office, did worry about the man she was engaged to. He was devoting practically all of his time to her and to Cherry's case, and he was putting up everything he had in the world to defend Cherry against the charge of murdering his own uncle."

"She found Churchill extremely busy, and as usual almost invisible in a fog of smoke. "I just got a minute," he barked at her. "Wanted to tell you to fix Cherry up with some mourning clothes. Dearest mourning."

"Mourning?" Faith faltered. "Mother would not want Cherry or me to wear black for her. She took such joy in Cherry's beauty—"

"That's the point," Churchill snapped. "Cherry'll look more beautiful in black. Get her into plain but expensive black things just as quick as possible. Smart things, but things that look simple and inexpensive. Interviewers are taking cracks at her now for not wearing mourning. And when she goes to trial, she's got to play up to the jury. I'll coach her in courtroom behavior later, but you've got to get her clothes lined up. And by the way—skirts not too short, but short enough to show those pretty legs of hers. She's got to look like a sweet, modest, old-fashioned little girl that couldn't commit a murder to save her life. Get me?"

"Yes," Faith nodded, swallowing at the lump of misery and disgust in her throat. "I'll talk with Cherry about clothes this afternoon."

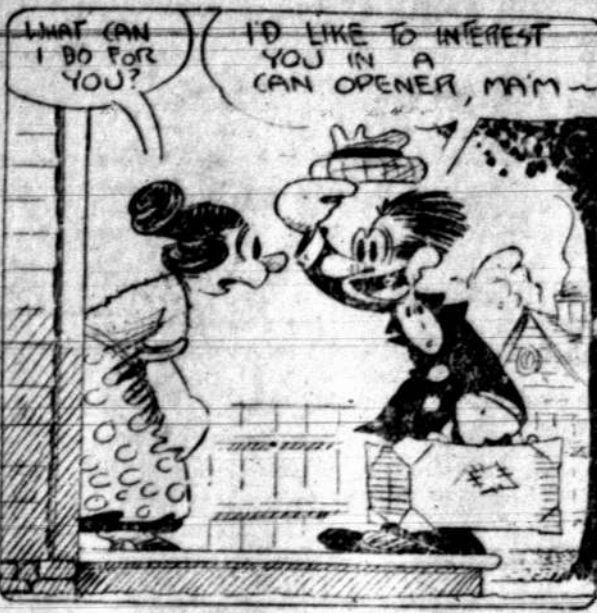

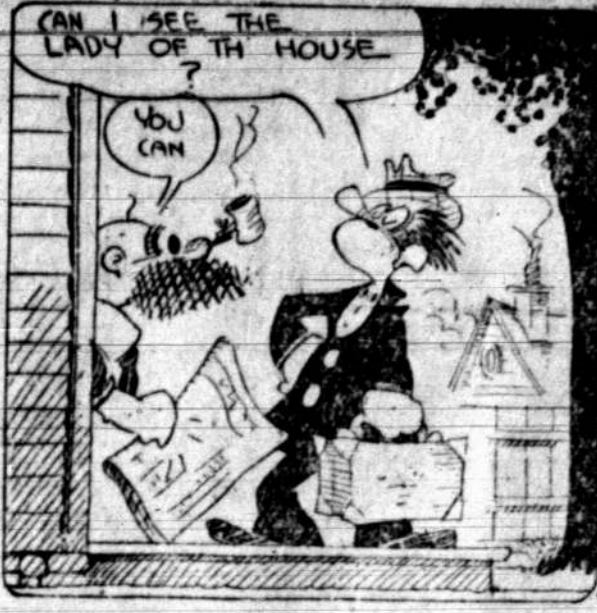

TOMORROW: Cherry stops thinking of herself alone.

Fear Often Makes Child Stammer

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

MOST investigators today believe that stammering is definitely associated with some disturbance of the emotions.

It occurs particularly in persons who have an underlying tendency to excitability. If a child stammers, the investigator tries to find out the particular cause in his environment or in his life history which is responsible.

Sometimes an older brother or playmate is overbearing; sometimes the child is too much crowded in his work at school or at home; sometimes there are conditions which keep him constantly in a state of fear, either physical, mental or emotional. Under such circumstances, the proper procedure naturally involves removal of the child from the circumstances that are responsible.

The child may be encouraged to be tranquil while talking, and to avoid talking in the midst of excitement. Various methods have been evolved for causing the child to talk slowly and smoothly. These include the practice of rhythm, the mother or some other sympathetic person teaching the child by example, reciting the rhymes slowly and distinctly while he repeats them line by line in the same smooth, distinct manner.

Other methods involve the use of rhythmical exercises associated with the practice of speech, and the use of speech breathing manipulations, as well as other similar artificial techniques which are said to be especially recommended because of their artificiality.

In many instances the treatment of stammering involves consultation with an expert in child psychology, rather than with experts on speech or on diseases of the ear, nose and throat.

Nevertheless, the child "may" not talk well because it does not hear well, or because there are physical defects of the organs of speech which make talking difficult. It is probably advisable to be certain at once that the physical conditions are satisfactory before any long program of speech or general education is undertaken.

As A Woman Sees It

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

A CHILD'S PRICE?

WE need to be reminded how well worth while a little child is. In all this discussion of child training, child psychology, new methods of development and so on, we are apt to regard him as we might regard some new and interesting form of beetle tacked up on the professor's desk for inspection.

We talk about careers and children, or other about careers of children, as though a equalled y and there was a choice. There is no choice. There may be individual preference, or individual necessity, but there is no more choice than there is between a rose and a piece of peat point.

Do you know children? If you don't find a child and make a friend of him. Throw aside your magazines and editorials and bridge hands for an hour, and take a lesson in divine trust. Watch a little mind unfolding to the world and you'll learn more than all the wisacres have written. The wisecre explains man's prejudice. In the child there is no prejudice.

Do you have children? If you do, stop worrying about them and enjoy them. There is no pleasure in a gem if you think of nothing but its society and insurance.

FEDERAL LEGAL BARRAGE RAKES THOMAS MILLER

DAUGHERTY TOO IN PATH OF HEAVY ARTILLERY OF PROSECUTORS

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The government turned its legal rifle on Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian today at the trial of Miller and Harry M. Daugherty, formerly United States attorney general. Most of the morning was spent in an attempt to show how some of the liberty bonds Richard Morin, German martial magnate, gave John T. King, one time national republican committee man from Connecticut, had turned up later in the Midland National bank at Washington court house, Ohio, of which Daugherty's brother, Mal S. Daugherty, is president.

Then the broadside on Miller began. After calling a witness who identified government transportation vouchers, showing Miller traveled to Philadelphia February 5, 1923, the government called Miss Virginia Mullen, a clerk in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve bank. She identified an application for exchange of bonds made by Vincent A. Carroll, former alien property custodian, bureau attorney on that day. The application showed that two $10,000 bonds were exchanged for Carroll, him taking twenty bonds of $1,000 denomination in their stead.

A witness was then called to show that transportation vouchers from Philadelphia to Wilmington, Delaware, were issued to Miller for the same day.

Then Delbert Gallagher, cashier for Leard, Deard and Means, Wilmington brokerage and banking house, was called. He testified that four-ton of the $1,000 bonds Carroll exchanged at the Philadelphia Federal Reserve bank, were deposited the same day to the account of Miller. He did not know who deposited them.

Flashes Of Life (By The Associated Press)

A New Hobby

NEW HAVEN—Most of the Yale swim girls are taking identification brands home as souvenirs. As they left the Soli room between dances they highly enjoyed being rubber stamped so they could return without question. A slipper under an elm leaf was imprinted on each wrist, unless otherwise desired. Many fair guests insisted on having the design on both wrists or shoulders.

Tough Luck

NEW YORK—A noted beauty has descended from riches, it says, if her story is correct. Mrs. Sylvia T. Pope, former actress, once owner of homes that cost $100,000 a year to maintain, is living in a hall room. Broke, she has only two worn dresses and her slippers are run down at the heels. She is suing her former husband, Charles T. Pope, a broker, for support.

Some Hope

ATLANTIC CITY—Comes from the state convention of retail clothing information that the waist line of the average American man has been reduced 1/2 inches in the last year.

Look To Colleges

NEW YORK—There's going to be a lot of scouting in American colleges and not of football either. Manufacturers of men's clothing are already sending agents to the colleges to find out what the well dressed Wall street broker will wear, and O. H. Cheney, banker, predicts that makers of gowns will follow suit.

He Got Stuck

MIAMI—Anybody, even if his home is as near the Mason and Dixon line as Baltimore, must be careful in publicly casting aspersions on fair Miami. D. Lewis Kaufman of Baltimore stuck this sign in his newly stored "Selling out. Going back north where men are men and rents are reasonable." Real estate men then started things and Kaufman was convicted of disorderly conduct and sentenced to ten days in jail.

Good Idea

NEW YORK—Stella Chabert, 22-year-old daughter of the Metropolitan opera house, is doing well in a department store for $22 a week because she wears financial independence. Educated abroad and by private tutors, she has ambitions to become a buyer of dresses as, she says, she has no artistic talent and just can't sit doing nothing.

Eye For Business

NEW YORK—Frank E. Campbell, Jr., 15, undertaker's son, is the most heavily insured boy in the world; so far as is known. His father has taken out a policy for a million dollars upon him, or $250,000 more than what is on Jackie Coogan.

NICARAGUA BUSY

Fighting continues in the town of Chinameca, sixty miles from Managua, first occupied by the liberals, and then in part by the conservatives. Official advices indicate that groups of liberals managed to entrench themselves in the central part of the city, and with four machine guns in the towers of Calvario church, are standing off the conservative reinforcements and the attacking airplanes, which again today flew over the battle zone.

Flexible rocks are rare, but a block of sandstone, recently found, bends easily.

Electricity Plays Its Part In Every Building Phase

For speeding up industrial buildings, for heat and light—electricity is playing its part in achievement.

In practically every phase of life electricity is bringing comforts within the reach of the masses.

It is a vital force in Lubbock. Just stop for a moment and note how it enters into making Lubbock a better place in which to live.

What Is Credit?

Credit Is Not Ability to Pay. You May be Wealthy and Yet Have No Credit.

Credit is the willingness to pay promptly. If you pay your bills promptly when they are due, your credit is good.

Wealth has nothing to do with it. Keeping your word—keeping faith with those who trust you—that is the whole thing.

Keep your credit good by paying your bills promptly.

Paying bills promptly is a pleasure. A man feels good when the last check is written and he knows he owes no one a cent.

Paying bills promptly is a courteous return for a courtesy rendered. The convenience of a charge account is one which the merchant is glad to offer people with good credit. When you fulfill your part of the agreement, you are returning the courtesy.

Failure to keep your credit good may result in embarrassment to you. It is natural that stores should exchange credit information. Your standing with one store is known to other stores. Your reputation among merchants is at stake. No one enjoys being refused because of a bad record.

Our whole civilization rests upon the fact that the average man does pay his bills promptly. If men could not trust one another your own business or the business of the firm which employs you possibly could not exist.

Pay your bills promptly. If necessary negotiate a loan at your bank in order to do this. Clean your credit slate. Do the right thing. Do it NOW.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Cotton showed renewed firmness at the opening today, prices advancing on reported prospects for early action on the farm relief bill in Washington and the firmness of Liverpool.

First prices were 2 1/2 to 3 points higher, the market soon showing net gains of 10 to 13 points on overnight, while there also appeared to be trade buying to fix prices and large commission house demand. May contracts sold up to 14.20 and October to 14.57. The market was within a point of 100 of the best at the end of the first hour, although the advance met considerable resistance and a little more hedge selling from the south.

The advance later extended to 14.00 for March and 14.52 for October. Net gains of about 13 to 15 points. These prices attracted realization, while there was some southern selling and profit-taking for a reaction. The heavy movement absorbed offerings on moderate setbacks, however, and the market was within 3 or 4 points of the best at midday.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9 (AP)—Realizing caused cotton prices early today to lose six to seven points after opening 7 to 15 points up. The early advance was contributed to large spot sales in Liverpool of 12,000 bales, favorable farm legislation outlook, good spot demand and large exports. At the high March was trading at 14.04, May 14.20 and July 14.32.

Continued good spot demand and unfavorable weather prospects steadied the market after the opening while all months recorded new highs with March at 14.00; May at 14.22 and July at 14.25. 10 to 13 points up from the earlier lows and 14 to 15 points above yesterday's close.

Price fixing by spinners and short covering gave an added brace to the tone but realization edged prices downward near noon from 2 to 3 points, despite the bullish tone.

Stocks And Money

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—The upward movement of stock prices was resumed at the opening of today's market. Wheeling and Lake Erie common declined five points higher at 70 1/2 and the preferred a point higher at 84. Missouri Pacific preferred, Western Pacific, Colario Fuel and American Tyre Founders all opened 1 to nearly 2 points higher.

Buying orders which over a head list of but low prices, again attracted the major speculative following. New high records were established in the first few minutes of trading by Reading common and second preferred, St. Paul common, New York, Ontario and Western, Chicago Great Western common and Chicago and Eastern Illinois preferred. Failure of the stock exchange to take action to relieve the corner in Wheeling and Lake Erie issues caused a further advance at the expense of a trapped short interest, the preferred quickly extending its gain of seven points.

Partial application for an issuance of about 22,000 shares of additional common to provide for conversion of prior lien and preferred stocks was made before the interstate commerce commission.

Standard received better buying shipment, Baldwin quickly running up over a point while U. S. Steel, Hudson and International (dividend) added a point or so higher. Foreign exchange closed steady, demand for the ruble around $345-50 and French francs around 232 1/2.

RAIL STOCKS FLURRY

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Speculation in railroad stocks, inspired by rumors of new combinations and competitive bidding for control, was resumed on the New York stock exchange today. More than a dozen issues were bid up to their highest prices in years, some to the highest levels ever recorded, on gains of 10 to 14 points in the first hour of trading.

Would Issue Stock WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad asked the Interstate Commerce Commission today for authority to issue 722,277 shares of new common stock to relieve a stock shortage which has occasioned a disturbance of the New York exchange.

The Erie railroad asked the commission to allow it to issue 292,542 shares of new common stock with a par value of $29,254,200.

Open Breaks Occur

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Speculation in railroad shares received a decided shock this noon when wild open breaks took place in a number of recent favorites.

Wheeling and Lake Erie common broke from 105 to 66 3/4, Western Maryland common dropped 14 1/2 to 25, Chicago Great Western common and preferred each collapsed about seven points, and a dozen others dropped 2 to 5 points both earlier high.

BAR SILVER REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Bar silver 57 3/4; Mexican dollars 43 7/8.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Foreign exchanges easy. Great Britain demand 4.84 1/2; cables 4.85 1/2; 60 day bills on banks 4.80 1/2. France demand 2.52 3/4; cables 2.52 1/2. Italy demand 4.7 1/2; Belgium 13.00; Germany 23.50; Tokyo 48.8 1/2; Montreal 99.84 3/8.
