EDINBURG MAN STATES ATTEMPT TO DEFEAT SPEAKER MOVE

ABILENE, Texas, Dec. 7.—Hidalgo county politics, which have already come under the scrutiny of a congressional investigation committee and the courts today were threatening to assume significance in the state legislature.

W. R. Montgomery of Edinburg charged here last night that the contemplated contest for his seat was inspired by a desire to ruin his chances to become speaker of the lower house of the legislature, rather than by any real hope of overturning the results of the election.

Members of the house campaign expenditures committee recently held a hearing upon conditions in Hidalgo county and yesterday the district court at Austin issued an order restraining an official tabulation of the vote in the 33rd judicial district in that county pending further evidence as to election conditions there.

COLORADO MAN IS DEALT 35 YEARS

COLORADO, Dec. 7 (AP)—Herb Green, on trial for the slaying of his wife, was convicted and sentenced to 35 years imprisonment by a jury here today.

A motion for a new trial was overruled, and notice of appeal was given. The jury deliberated 12 hours.

Daughter Of Great Poet Dies Friday

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 7 (AP)—Miss Alice Mary Longfellow, daughter of the poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, died at her home here today. She was 78 years old.

Miss Longfellow, the "Grave Alice" of her father's poem, "The Children's Hour," lived at the Longfellow home all her life. She was the eldest of the poet's daughters.

She was a graduate of Radcliffe College and devoted much of her time to educational work.

Woman Kills Coal Canton Coal Miner

CANTON, Ohio, Dec. 7 (AP)—A woman who called Vernon E. Fearn, 35, a coal mine operator, to the porch of his home south of here and shot him to death, was being hunted today.

The slayer, described as about 22 years old, and stylishly dressed, walked down the highway after the killing and boarded a bus.

Acclaim Better Than Gold

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Dec. 7 (AP)—John D. Rockefeller, long the world's richest man, today, mellowed by age, would rather have acclaim than riches.

That was the philosophy expounded by the 89-year-old capitalist, after being formally welcomed to the Casements, his winter estate, last night, following arrival from Pocomoke Hills, N. Y.

"It is wonderful, my friends in Ormond," he declared, "people are so good to me. Friendship is one of the greatest things in life."

Pausing to recollect the word, and after rejecting the suggestion of Mr. Yorl, who accompanied him to Ormond Beach, that it was "contentment," Mr. Rockefeller continued:

"Ah, yes, I have it—acclaim—that's the word."

"You know that old saying: 'The better to be acclaimed than have riches? You want to remember that, young man, because when you grow old you will find out how true it is.'"

'BOSSEY' IS OUT OF JAIL CELL

Ending a two-month term in the Salem, Mass., jail, Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis, "bad boy" mayor of Newburyport, Mass., now threatens to make it hot for his political opponents in his home town. The mayor is shown after leaving the jail from which he has directed the administration of his city for the past two months.

NEARLY HALF QUOTA RAISED

RED CROSS TEAMS IN REPORT ON DRIVE FOR FUND HERE

With $2,791—slightly less than half of the proposed goal of $6,000—subscribed as a result of yesterday morning's campaigning, the 100 workers again took the field this morning in the annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive in an effort to complete the drive today.

George P. Kuykendall, chairman of the campaign, said today that it was doubtful if the desired goal of $6,000 would be attained as the best territory of the business section had already been worked. The remaining parts of the sections will be covered today by the thirteen teams under the leadership of their respective captains.

Although the active drill will end today, a clean-up squad will be delegated to make the rounds early next week to see the persons misled by the workers yesterday and today.

All of the teams reported at the city hall this morning at 9 o'clock, giving returns of yesterday's campaigning and making final arrangements for today's solicitation.

Donations yesterday, both cash and subscription, ranged from $1 to $100. Many of the local business men failed to give the amounts which were set aside for them by the prospect committee of the Red Cross drive.

"The public does not realize the importance of the work," Mr. Kuykendall said this morning, "and the amount of work that needs to be done here."

"Lifer" Gets Second Term For Slaying

RICHMOND, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP)—Raymond Hall, life term convict from Wichita county, was assessed another life sentence today by a district court jury here which convicted him of murder.

PEACE PACT IS DISCUSSED IN COMMITTEE

EARLY APPROVAL SEEN FOR PACT IN TALK WITH KELLOGG

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Kellogg treaty to renounce war was discussed by the senate foreign relations committee for an hour and a half today with Secretary Kellogg in attendance and at the conclusion chairman Borah predicted early and favorable action by his committee.

Another executive session was called for next Tuesday, however, and Secretary Kellogg was asked to be available then if he is wanted.

Senator Borah said he had discerned no open opposition to the treaty during the discussion today but that questioning had indicated to him that some senators believed a reservation should be recorded reasserting America's position as set forth in the Monroe Doctrine.

Mr. Kellogg was closely questioned, particularly in respect to any hearing the bearing the treaty, now signed by sixty of the 64 world powers, might have on this country's Monroe declaration of its right to protect the north and south American continents. The secretary told the committee that the pact could not affect that doctrine.

Chairman Borah announced he would oppose any reservation which would require reconsideration of the treaty by all the signatory nations.

Mr. Kellogg went into a detailed discussion of the correspondence between the state department and the world powers leading up to the final negotiations of the treaty. The letter of Great Britain in which it accepted the treaty "upon the distinct understanding that it does not prejudice freedom of action" in respect to defense of the British territories, received particular attention.

'BEARS' MAKE RAID ON GOTHAM STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (AP)—Speculators throughout the country scrambled to get out of stocks today on the New York Stock Exchange, and prices of leading issues dropped $3 to $15 a share at the opening of the market.

Several blocks of 5,000 to 30,000 shares changed hands in the early trading as "bears," feeling their hammered unmercifully at the first flush of victory since last June.

George P. Kuykendall, chairman of the campaign, said today that it was doubtful if the desired goal of $6,000 would be attained as the best territory of the business section had already been worked. The remaining parts of the sections will be covered today by the thirteen teams under the leadership of their respective captains.

Although the active drill will end today, a clean-up squad will be delegated to make the rounds early next week to see the persons misled by the workers yesterday and today.

All of the teams reported at the city hall this morning at 9 o'clock, giving returns of yesterday's campaigning and making final arrangements for today's solicitation.

Donations yesterday, both cash and subscription, ranged from $1 to $100. Many of the local business men failed to give the amounts which were set aside for them by the prospect committee of the Red Cross drive.

Bribe Charge Ires Wichita Jurist

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 7 (AP)—Charges by a defendant in a liquor case that she had paid $875 protection money to two federal prohibition agents caused a furore in Federal Judge W. H. Atwell's court here yesterday.

Mrs. Rickey Ketchum of Wichita Falls, charged with selling liquor, asserted she paid the money to agents whose names she gave Judge Atwell.

Adams Charges Mathews Sought To Avoid Paying Him Election Wager

FICTITIOUS PERSONS WERE INVENTED, BY CLERK, HE SAYS

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Dec. 7.—Two individuals were invented so V. Ray Adams, Bartlett farmer on trial for the slaying of Orville L. Mathews here Sept. 1, would be unable to collect a $1,000 bet he and his friends had made on the Earle B. Mayfield-Tom Connolly senatorial race. Adams intimated when he testified in his own defense here today.

Nervous at first, but with increasing calmness, the defendant related in a twanging nasal tone events prior to the shooting of Mathews. His legs crossed, and one foot swinging nervously at times, Adams looked occasionally at his wife and his 7 year old daughter, who were almost directly in front of him, as he told how he and two friends, Ellis and George Warr of Bartlett, had made a pool of $1,000 to bet that Connolly would win the election.

Adams said the Wares had raised $350 for the bet, and that he added enough to make it $1,250. He came to Dallas and met W. Tom Ramsey at a hotel, where they discussed placing a bet on Connolly. They went to the Mayfield headquarters. Adams said, and were looking for Morris Mayfield, brother of Senator Mayfield, when Ben C. Richards, leader of the Ku Klux Klan in Dallas county, appeared, saying he was willing to bet on Mayfield.

Richards wanted odds, Adams testified, so no bet was made at that time, but Morris Mayfield told Adams and Ramsey to go to the Republic National bank and he thought they might be able to place a bet with Mathews.

Let J. K. Knight "in" Adams explained that although he had $1,250 which he was willing to bet on Connolly only $1,000 of that amount was bet with Richards. After the bet had been placed he had returned to Bartlett, Adams said he let J. K. Knight "in on the bet" to the sum of $250.

After a conference with Mathews Adams related, $1,000 bet was placed with Mathews. Adams said his money was placed under the name of Ramsey, and that after a discussion it was agreed to put up cashier's checks made payable to Mathews. An agreement that the money was not to be paid until a

FAMOUS AUTHOR TO APPEAR HERE

William Allen White, nationally famous author, journalist, and one of the outstanding figures in the public eye for a number of years, will arrive in Lubbock tomorrow afternoon, preparatory to speaking at the Tech college gymnasium at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

"Citizenship" will be the subject of Mr. White's address tomorrow night at the college, which is the first number of the Tech college artist course. The second number will be February 22 with the appearance of Salvi McCoy.

Mr. White probably has gained more renown as a small town newspaper editor than any other figure in America. He has written a number of books, and is considered one of the leading critics of the nation. He will leave here Sunday morning.

THREE YEARS DEALT LUMAN

GARZA MAN IS FOUND GUILTY AFTER LONG DELIBERATION

(By Associated Press)
LAMESA, Dec. 7.—Will Luman, Garza county cattleman, was found guilty of the slaying of Marvin Breeding, 23, by a jury here late yesterday and his punishment fixed at three years in prison.

Breeding was shot to death in a theater at Post in 1927 a moment after he had been called from his seat by Luman. The defendant declared he shot in self defense after Breeding had made a motion as though to draw a pistol. Luman said he had gone to the theater to ask Breeding to apologize for an alleged insult to Mrs. Luman.

CAPE TOWN, Union of South Africa, Dec. 7 (AP)—The Duke of Gloucester, third son of King George, who is speeding back to London, sailed today on the mail ship Balmoral Castle.

SHIPS COLLIDE OFF COAST OF CHILE; SEVENTEEN KNOWN TO HAVE DIED

(By Associated Press)
IQUIQUE, Chile, Dec. 7.—Seventeen persons were known today to have been drowned when the Chilean steamship Quintero sank off Punta Patche, near here, after a collision with the steamship America.

After the crash the America stood by and rescued the Captain of the Quintero and most of his crew. They were later landed at Iquique by the America. The rescue vessel also had aboard it three bodies taken from the water after the Quintero sank.

Officers of the America said the collision was violent and the other boat sank rapidly. Port officials went aboard the America as soon as it arrived and started an investigation.

Among those lost on the Quintero were Julie Miranda, son of the captain; the second officer, the first and third engineers, a merchant, a radio operator and members of the crew.

The Quintero left Iquique Thursday evening for Valparaiso, her home port. The America, which also sails from Valparaiso, was bound to Iquique from there.

THEY FIGURE IN 'WITCHCRAFT DEATH'

John Blymyer, 32, right; Wilbert G. Hess, 18, left, below, and John Curry, 14, above, have been held by police at York, Pa., accused of the slaying of Nelson D. Rehmyer, 58, farmer, at his lonely home near Shrewsbury, Pa. According to stories told police, Rehmyer met death in a fight when the three youths visited the farm in an effort to get a lock of the farmer's hair with which to break a spell at Blymyer, alleged "witch doctor" declared Rehmyer had cast over the father of young Hess. Rehmyer was beaten to death and his body burned.

LOCKNEY C. C. NAMES HEADS

(Special To The Journal)
LOCKNEY, Nov. 7.—R. H. Wall was elected chairman of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce at the annual banquet of that organization, held last night in the show rooms of the Lockney Auto company, more than 250 local and visiting business men being in attendance.

Visitors were from Lubbock, Plainview, Amarillo, Fort Worth, Slaton and Floydada.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year were: Dr. C. D. Henry, first vice president; M. L. Williams, second vice president; Arthur Barker, third vice president. Directors elected were: John T. O'Hearn, Artie Baker, H. M. Mason, Clark McAdams and E. E. Dyer.

POWERFUL THEFT CLIQUE SMASHED

A powerful theft ring is thought by local officers to have been broken up with the arrest yesterday of L. A. Key at Colorado, Texas. The prisoner was brought to Lubbock last evening and placed in the county jail by Constable Sam Salmon of Slaton.

Key is being held here in connection with the theft about three weeks ago of a car from a Lubbock man. According to local officers a car thought to have been the same one that was stolen here was found at Colorado. Officers report that the numbers of the car, with the exception of numbers on the block, had been scratched out. New license plates had been secured for the car.

Constable Salmon is on the trail of two others thought to have been connected with the theft.

TEXAS COUPLE FRESH FROM HONEYMOON FOUND SHOT ON HIGHWAY NEAR FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, Dec. 7.—Mrs. T. B. Owens, Jr., 19, bride of a few weeks, was shot to death in an automobile on the Granbury highway several miles west of here at 11 A. M. today. Her husband, T. B. Owens, Jr., 17, son of a prominent cotton broker of New York with offices here, is dying in a hospital with bullet wounds in his body.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens had just returned from their honeymoon and were in the city together this morning a few hours before the shooting.

Under Owens was an automatic pistol with two shells discharged. He was brought to a hospital here. Attendants hold little hope for his recovery.

Lauro Warren, traveling freight agent for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railway was first to discover the tragedy. He was en route to Granbury from Fort Worth, when he saw the automobile at the side of the road. Sensing there was something amiss, he turned back for aid. He found Constable Finley of Benbow and they returned to the car.

Found Girl Dead. Finley said they found Mrs. Owens seated in the car dead with a bullet wound in her head and Owens near the car seriously wounded. Constable Finley said he found a pistol under Owens.

The couple had gone to the Woods Friday morning for an outing, following a quarrel which relatives say they had Thursday night. In the back of the car were found red berries, autumn leaves and posies.

Quarrel Thursday Night. According to Landis, his daughter and her husband had a quarrel last night but he did not consider the disagreement of a serious nature. Mrs. Owens sent a wrist watch valued at $3,000 and some keys to her mother last night, John Landis, a brother said. They were sent by a younger brother, who told his mother that Ruth said "Tell mother I still love her."

The body of Mrs. Owens was identified in a local undertaking establishment by her brother. He was at a loss to explain the tragedy. Justice of the Peace H. B. Balch, who is conducting the inquest, said he would not return a verdict until he had investigated further. The couple were married by Balch.

Wolffarth Society Has Many Projects

Home improvement has been the Wolffarth Home Demonstration club project during 1928, according to a report that has been made by the secretary, Mrs. W. H. Dixon. Rearrangement and redecoration of rooms, along with the addition of labor saving equipment and the yard beautification have been the principle work of women in the organization.

This club was organized in 1925 with 12 members and six of these women are yet in the organization. In January of this year there were 11 women in the club and by June the membership totalled 26. Five of these women moved away from the community before October, leaving the remaining 21 as active members.

Hot lunches have been served in the Wolffarth school since last January through the sponsorship of the home demonstration club and this has been a profitable activity, according to the secretary. The club is self supporting and the members have canned about 1,000 jars of fruit, vegetables, pickles and other products during the year.

Of the things done by the club, Mrs. Dixon has this to say:

"We have improved our homes this year, by painting, painting the rooms and furniture, rearranging fruit and shade trees, grass, shrubbery and berries. We have improved our kitchens by rearrangement, and by adding labor saving equipment. There have been four pressure cookers and one sealer bought this year, and we already have five pressure cookers and three sealers in our club. There have been two washing machines bought, two of three cream separators, and one of two refrigerators, and quite a few smaller conveniences, as self-wringing floor mops, measuring spoons, and spatulas. There have been two pianos bought also."

Favors in the games went to Mesdames Allen, Mitchell and Smith. A salad course was served.

Miss Lucille Jordan is visiting in Abilene.

Paris Mid-Season Frocks Hint of Spring Mode

Deep yellow buttons, an unusual array of pin tucks and a soft jabot are unusual features on a bright yellow crepe frock created for the Riviera.

A polka dotted crepe de chine for Palm Beach, pale blue dots on a yellow ground, has a lingerie collar of white organdy and is topped by a pale yellow felt hat trimmed in white.

Bernard and Cie's youthful suit of light beige woolen has a godet wrapover skirt and fastens with bows instead of buttons. A lame blouse makes it into a tea-time suit.

BY ROSETTE

Fashion Writer for NEA Service PARIS, Dec. 7.—Mostly all the mid-season collections that have been shown in Paris lately are composed of creations for smart winter resorts. In the new models you will generally trace the various features, lines, movements of the winter models which have proved popular and successful, all smart women having by now selected their new wardrobe. Besides this, a mid-season collection is always interesting because it indicates the trend spring fashions are likely to follow.

Modes for Spring It must seem rather absurd though to even think of what will be fashionable in the spring before winter has really started. This happens to be one of the paradoxical sides of this ever-interesting world of fashions. To the uninitiated it may even prove somewhat puzzling, but they must remember that these mid-season collections are shown for the few very fortunate women who are able to escape from the rigors of northern winters and back in the sunshine of the south.

That these women are few and therefore need specially expensive clothes need not cause the elegant woman who stays at home any pangs because she will have to live through the season with gowns chosen from a winter collection. She can rest assured that her gowns will still be in the movement and not at all out-of-date.

Feminine Note Strong There are many interesting notes to be made on the newer styles. While not so long ago the boyish or "safari" note was imposed on all and sundry, when we had boyish frocks, Eton crops and masculine sports clothes, the pendulum seems to have swung the other way and we are all affecting the "jeune fille" type.

Longer, fluffier and waving hair has come on with Claudine collars and cuffs, schoolgirl frocks and pinafore effects. There are certain very youthful looking women who can carry this type of dress just as successfully as they did the mannish mode, but the greater majority must avoid this pitfall as never before. It is perhaps more ridiculous to see a stout woman in a short pinafore frock than with a boyish bob and a collar and tie ensemble. Feminine fashions call for just as much, if not more, disclaiming powers than any others as too many frills and ruffs can will prove the undoing of a woman's silhouette.

There is one thing to be said for the new fashions, by the way? The line of demarcation between the young girl's frock and that of her mother is much more noticeable this season than it has been for years. "Youthful" is no longer the persuasive term used by the enterprising saleswoman. This has been because we all were suddenly stricken by the desire for something new. As all the new ideas, however, were expressed in floating panels, puffs and intricate draperies, there is today a definite, simple "jeune fille" style, suitable for the girl of sixteen but not for her mother.

There are two or three creators who excel in these very youthful styles and who always seem to be able to combine the air of simplicity with the cachet of Paris. In Jenny's collection there are some charming coats and frocks in navy blue trimmed with touches of ermine that are very unostentatious looking and Patou has created afternoon frocks in his new colors as well as juvenile lace dinner dresses that will give the debutante the feeling that she is not likely to be mistaken for her mother.

The young girl's evening frock has a great air of simplicity this season and there is an enormous difference between her robe d'estyle, if she adopts this type of dress, and that of an older woman's. The décolleté

HUNG JURY IN SHARP CASE

IS SECOND TIME JURY FAILS TO AGREE IN LITIGATION HERE

A hung jury resulted yesterday in the case of John Grove against Mike Sharp on trial in the 99th district court for the past few days. This was the second time that the jury has failed to agree in the trial of this case.

The suit sought to recover a set of oil drilling tools, which the defendant claimed that he bought from the plaintiff.

A cross action suit was filed in the 72nd district court yesterday by Mike Sharp against John Grove for $10,000 damages on alleged slander counts. This suit involves the same set of tools as did the case on trial yesterday. The plaintiff alleges that his reputation was injured to the amount of $5,000 actual damages and $5,000 exemplary because of slanderous statements made by Grove.

Automobile Chief Pleased At City

Visiting Lubbock for the first time G. H. Evans, of Dallas, regional manager of the Oldsmobile company this morning expressed both surprise and pleasure at the city appearance of the city.

"I had expected to see row and row of wooden structures and it was a treat to see such a well built town," he said. Mr. Evans arrived yesterday from Amarillo and left this afternoon for Big Spring in connection with a tour over this section of his territory.

Mr. Evans stated that the state of Texas and especially West Texas were in the best condition in their history. "There is better business conditions and more buying power now than ever before," he said. He expressed optimism for the future of Lubbock and this section.

Sales of car licenses for the year 1928 is causing a good business in the county tax collectors office, three being sold yesterday.

These made a total of ten already sold for next year. The licenses issued yesterday were to K. N. Clapp, R. M. Foster, and Mrs. J. W. Grayes.

Two 1928 license also were granted yesterday. F. D. Rupe and W. E. Stinson were the purchasers. A total of $951 cars have been licensed in Lubbock county since the first of the year.

DENVER GETS HEAVY TRADE

VOLUME OF BUSINESS HANDLED OVER NEW ROAD SURPRISES

Passenger, freight, and mail business over the new extension of the Fort Worth and Denver railway, which terminates at Lubbock, are exceeding all anticipations of railway officials. It was announced today by James Valentine, local freight and passenger agent.

Contractors assure the railway that the new Denver depot will be ready for occupancy by January 1. Temporary waiting quarters and a ticket office have been made in the shipping room of the building.

Between twenty and thirty passengers daily are served by the new line, according to Mr. Valentine. He announced that seven gangs were working on the rails between here and Sterling Junction, and that the line would be poured every day. Better time is being made by the trains with the improvement of the tracks, it is reported.

Postmaster John L. Vaughn reports that the volume of mail over the Denver is surprisingly heavy. The local post office receives from one to three pouches of letters from the train every morning, he said. But even with this new avenue of mail service, the volume of mail over other routes has not decreased, Mr. Vaughn reports.

Work On Hotel

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 7.—The construction crew working on the Plainview Hilton Hotel began pouring concrete yesterday. The excavation is practically completed and work is expected to progress rapidly from now on, according to A. H. Brown, construction foreman. The work was held up for a short time because of delay in the shipment of sand and gravel.

CONGRESS IS ALL BUSINESS

PLENTY OF ACTION SEEN OVER LEGISLATION IN BOTH HOUSES

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Congress seems to have slipped quickly back into the routine of an ordinary session.

First political skirmish with democratic and republican senators sniping at one another in the course of which Senator Heflin, of Alabama, took a fling at his old enemy, Tammany, is over. Both houses are involved in legislation that promises plenty of action, vocal and otherwise. The senate with its long standing acquaintance, Boulder Dam, and the house with the billion dollar treasury-post office appropriation bill.

The senate was wondering today whether the Boulder Dam problem was any nearer solution because of the resumption of the quarrel between Arizona and California over the distribution of water in the lower Colorado basin in the event that the dam is built.

The house faced the appropriation bill with the memory of a wet-dry clash over that part of the measure which carries $13,500,000 for liquor law enforcement. Representative Laguardia, republican, New York, a wet, said that there was no desire on the part of the administration to enforce prohibition. He declared that if the drys really wanted to continue the "prohibition experiment" that $250,000,000 and 150,000 agents would be required to guard American shores and borders. Representative Loxier, democrat, Missouri, a dry, said the dry law was unpopular because the government had not made a sincere effort to enforce it.

The senate foreign relations committee had arranged to hear Secretary Kellogg on the Kellogg-Briand treaty for the renunciation of war. The pact has had only praise thus far.

On the house side the appropriations sub-committees on war, agriculture, state, justice, commerce and labor were ready for work. The house foreign affairs committee was due for its regular meeting and the house census committee had set for itself the task of considering reappointment, long urged and long deferred.

Inundation Of Mine Takes Heavy Toll

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 7 (AP)—Deaths, estimated variously at from twenty-seven to sixty-four, are believed to have resulted from the inundation of a gallery in the "Campano" mine near the Andean mining city of Morococha early Thursday. Among those believed lost in the disaster which occurred when the bottom dropped out of the San Francisco pond at the mine, letting the water into the mine shaft, is an American engineer, named Capt. McGregor. The ministry of public works last night placed an estimate of 27 on

COAST GUARD WORK IS TOLD

ACTIVITY IN SHIELDING COAST AND SCANNING SEAS DESCRIBED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Far flung activities of the United States coast guard in protecting the coasts of the nation from smugglers, in aiding ships and persons in distress and patrolling ice bound waters on watch for menacing ice bergs in steamship lanes, were described in the annual report of the service.

During the fiscal year of 1928 the report said the coast guard rescued 3,983 persons from peril, aided ships valued at $39,479,729 on which there were 17,383 persons and seized or reported for law violations 1,554 vessels. During the year derelicts valued at $103,520 were recovered and restored to their owners, while 167 derelicts and obstructions to navigation were destroyed.

The work of the coast guard in preventing the smuggling of liquor into this country, the report declared, has been satisfactory, but with the resources in vessels and men now in command, it said it is impossible to do more. Run row, it stated, has been wiped out and liquor smuggling on the sea coasts has been "tremendously curtailed." Declaring that there still remains a great deal of liquor smuggling on the Great Lakes, the report said that "it is believed that in this matter the coast guard has accomplished all that is possible to accomplish with its present resources. It continued however: "It is firmly believed that the way toward a practically complete prevention of smuggling on our coasts if it be given the resources with which to do it."

NEW USES FOR COTTON ADVANCED BY JONES AS PRACTICAL FARM AID IDEA

(Special To The Journal)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Depleting a new mode of farm relief in the form of new uses for cotton, Congressman Marvin Jones, of Texas, delivered an address on "The New Kingdom of Cotton" before the house yesterday. The speech stressed the recent scientific achievement by which a cloth closely resembling silk can be made from cotton.

"The history of the manufacture of silk, from the original possession of the secret used by the Chinese centuries ago up until the present time was reviewed by the Texas congressman, who said that for many years Japan and China sold $100,000,000 worth of silk to America each year. He predicted an industrial revolution as a result of the discovery by a German chemist of an imitation silk, entirely different from rayon. Feeling, wearing, and looking like silk this new fabric is being made from the commodity. "None other than our own familiar cotton of which the South produces two-thirds of the world's supply."

Congressman Jones told how, as a member of the committee on agriculture, he had studied problems peculiar to the South, and how this section comes face to face with the problem of surplus with each cotton production. "In an effort to aid in the solution of the problem," he said, "I secured passage of a measure providing for permanent study and investigation into new uses of cotton—the placing of it into channels into which it has not previously gone."

Jones stated that the South had been selling its cotton in markets at prices named by the buyer, and purchasing supplies from the same market at prices named by the seller. He reviewed the South's recent industrial development, and told of his visit recently to the factory at Elizabethton, Tenn., where this new silk imitation is made.

SOUTHWEST AND BIG SIX ALL-STAR TEAMS TO CLASH IN DALLAS

TECH DELEGATION LEAVES FOR DALLAS CONFERENCE MEETING

LITTLEFIELD AND BELL TO COACH SQUAD

CORNHUSKERS' FAMOUS MENTOR TO OPPOSE TEXAS COACHES

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Dec. 7.—All-star teams representing the Southwest Conference and the Big Six Conference will meet here New Year's day in a benefit game under auspices of the Texas Scottish Rite hospital for crippled children. It was announced tonight by Joe Utay, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Clyde Littlefield, coach of the champion Texas University Longhorns and Max Bell, Texas Christian University mentor, have been assigned the task of selecting and coaching the team to represent the Southwest Conference.

Coach Ernie Bear, whose Nebraska University Cornhuskers won the championship of the Big Six this year, will have charge of the All-Star aggregation from that circuit. He promised today to collect the strongest possible team from his conference and warned coaches Littlefield and Bell they would need their biggest guns.

Invitations were mailed tonight to 25 members of Southwest Conference eleven who will graduate this year. Their names will be published as fast as they accept, Utay said.

Both teams will be mobilized in Dallas 10 days before the game, giving the coaches plenty of time to perfect their team play.

DELAY REPORT ABOUT DRAFT

FINAL SOLUTION FOR BASEBALL PROBLEM IS POSTPONED

(By Associated Press)
TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 7.—The baseball battle on the draft question is to move from Toronto to West Baden, Ind., on the last day of the annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues. Indications were that the question of promoting players by selection from the minors to the major leagues would be brought up for discussion again at the Indiana resort about January 15.

It is understood that the representatives of the Class AA leagues at the West Baden meeting will propose a sweeping change by which they will agree to the unrestricted draft if the majors in turn will agree to discontinue the practice of owning minor league clubs which are used as farms and make major league clubs with minor league ownership in whole or in part independent of the hardship of the restrictions of the draft as operative now in all Class AA leagues.

"Couldn't Win For Losing," Fans Say

TEMPLE, Dec. 7 (AP)—Temple is exulting a high school football team that "couldn't win for losing," which lost most of its important games, but which always gave the home town rooters a tremendous thrill.

In the eleven games which Temple played the Temple captain tried to call the tone of the coin every time—and failed eleven times. In every game that the team lost it gained more yards than its opponents. It won the only game in which it was clearly outplayed on the basis of yards gained.

In its final game, the game which it most wanted to win, it outgained Waco in almost every department except scoring. For a few seconds the Temple defense wavered and Waco won in spite of the fact that Temple had thrown the Waco team for almost as many yards as gain. The yards that Waco did gain were the ones right next to Temple's goal posts. Temple rooters are in favor of repealing the law of averages.

Five Rookies Will Report To Coleman

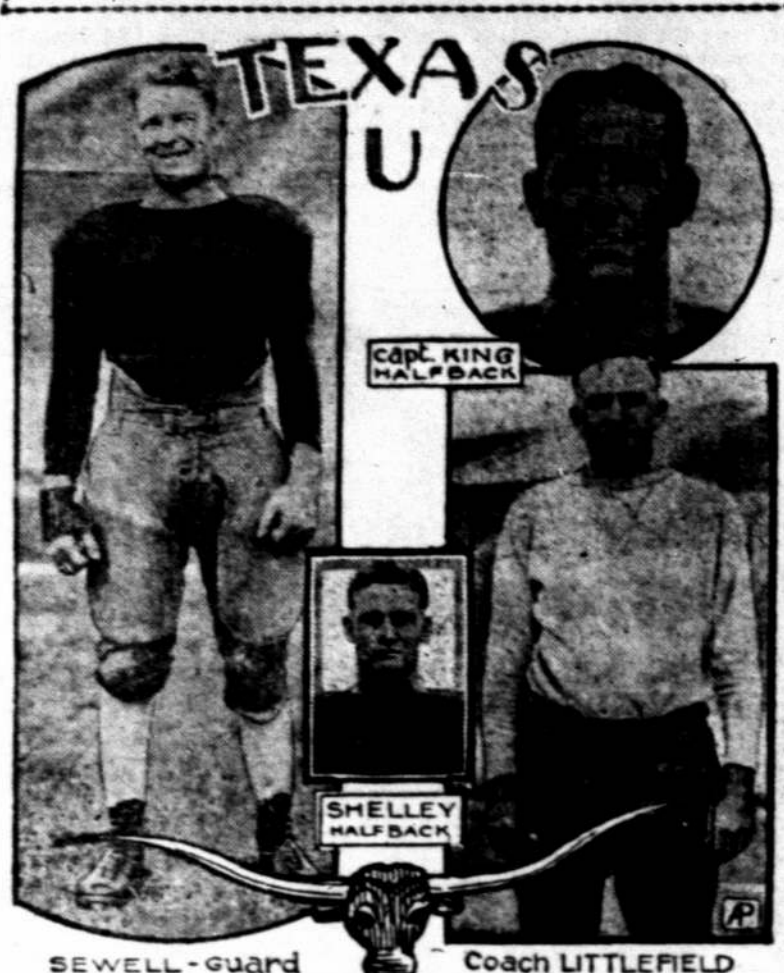

COLEMAN, Dec. 7.—Five rookies have been signed for tryouts on the Coleman Bobcat squad next spring, according to Leon Shield, president of the local West Texas League club. The new men enlisted thus far are: Joe G. Cauley, Brownwood; Ned West, Rockwell; Roy E. Norman, Rule; Otto Scholz and Elmer Schoening, LeFlore.

The San Antonio Bears of the Texas League will do their spring training in Coleman, according to an agreement reached by Shield with the San Antonio club.

Gordy Brown Named Longhorn Captain

AUSTIN, Dec. 7 (AP)—Gordy Brown of Dallas will lead Longhorn footballers against the Southwest Conference next fall. He was elected captain by the championship team last night. Brown plays tackle and is a junior.

FIRST TITLE IN EIGHT YEARS

SEWELL-Guard Coach LITTLEFIELD

Two of Texas' stars were out of many big games because of injuries out Coach Clyde Littlefield kept his squad ahead of the field. It was the Longhorns' first title in eight years. Captain King, Shelley and Sewell were big factors in the Texas victory.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)
DALLAS, Dec. 7.—For the first time since 1920 the orange-hued standard of Texas University has been hoisted in triumph in the Southwest Conference after a season of uncertainty as to what the final outcome of the gridiron race would be.

On the result of the Texas-A. & M. College game on Thanksgiving Day hinged the Longhorns' fate, but their 19 to 0 victory over the foe they have met for 34 years shattered any claim that others might have made to the mythical championship.

A loss would have given Arkansas University, with three victories and one setback, the title. Texas finished its schedule by trouncing five conference foes and dropping one contest to Southern Methodist—a 2 to 0 defeat.

In an intercollegiate tilt early in the year the newly-crowned king of Southwest gridirons was beaten by Vanderbilt, 13 to 12. Included in the list of opponents this year were St. Edwards University, Texas Technological College, Arkansas, Rice Institute, Baylor and Texas Christian University.

The team did not outdistance others without its share of injuries that stalked every other squad in the conference from early October until the final clashes of the year. Dexter Shelley, a sophomore triple-threat back, saw no action in two crucial games of the season due to a knee injury. The team's outstanding center, was on the bench much of the year for the same cause.

Great reserve strength asserted itself when troubles beset the team and this factor figured largely in the squad's success.

Captain Rufus King, full back; Gordy Brown, hailed as one of the greatest tackles this section has yet produced, and Shelby were contributors to much of the gridiron glory.

Clyde Littlefield, head coach, served his second season at the post. He formerly guided the destiny of freshman eleven at the university.

ELIGIBILITY ROW SEEN IN BIG TEN

CHICAGO, Dec. 7 (AP)—With such highly combustible subjects as proselytizing and eligibility providing material for fireworks, Big Ten athletic directors, coaches and faculty advisers assembled for their annual sports convale in Chicago today.

While there had been no specific information of a blow-off, rumors were thick that at least two universities, Chicago and Illinois were ready to demand a showdown on the conference policy of obtaining athletes and on enforcement of the eligibility rules.

ABILENE TILT GETS CENTER OF ATTENTION

ODDS APPEAR EVEN IN BATTLE FOR TITLE OF BI-DISTRICT

Interest in the Texas Interscholastic league football race reaches a fever heat today and tomorrow when the eight district champions swing into action in the bi-district engagements. Two spectacular contests are to be played today in Dallas and Greenville.

At least 10,000 persons are expected to witness the battle in Dallas between the Cleburne Yellowjackets, district 4 champions, and the Sunset Bisons, titlists in district 3. Dope favors the Cleburne eleven, conqueror of Corsicana last week, to win over the Bisons, named representative of district 3 only after Forest Avenue had been ejected from the race for infraction of eligibility rules.

Greenville Plays Marshall
Another quarter-final battle today pits Greenville Lions, district 5 champs, against the Marshall Mavericks, winners in district 6, in Greenville.

Topping the Saturday encounters from the standpoint of local interest is the game tomorrow in Abilene between the Amarillo Aggies, champions of district 1, and the Abilene Eagles, Old Belt winners of district 2. In spite of reports to the contrary, the Abilene eleven boasts a powerful football aggregation with a heavy, fast charging line and a brilliant backfield centering around Phelps and Smith.

In view of the heavier line they are facing, the Sandies may be forced to resort to the aerial route to gain a victory over the "Elephants." Dopesters who have seen both teams in action this season give the Eagles a slight edge over Amarillo.

City Cage Loop HAS TWO GAMES

Two games are on the card for the City Basketball League at the high school gymnasium tonight. Montgomery-Ward meets the Lubbock Business College quintet and Printers are to furnish competition for the National Guard aggregation.

The Soldiers have previously won over Montgomery-Ward but the other two teams will see their first appearance in the games tonight. Games tonight start at 7 o'clock.

21 Varsity Grid Letters At S. M. U.

DALLAS, Dec. 7 (AP)—Awarding of 21 varsity and 24 freshmen football letters and two varsity letters for cross country was authorized at a meeting of the Southern Methodist athletic council tonight.

Those who will receive varsity football awards are: Captain Earl Baccus, Malcom Powell, Francis Daniel, Choc Sanders, Bud Brown, Marion Hammon, Charlie Trigg, Harry Walters, Sammy Reed, Redman Hamme, Rose Love, Charleton Fincher, Bill Schaefer, Louie Long, Pat Knieff, Ira Hopper, Bill Skeeters, Seaborn Ray, Elmo Johnson, Vic Sauley and Student Manager Frank Jones.

Murphy Bonneau and Captain Herbert Crowell will get cross country letters.

Turkeys As Sideline

BURNETT, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP)—Miss Lorena Gilpin has found turkey raising a profitable sideline to teaching school. She will realize more than $900 profit this season from pure-bred mammoth bronze fowls.

She tends to her turkeys during off hours from school. Raising about 200 fowls this season, she already has taken in $700, and expects to make $200 more. She will keep ten hens for a try at the game next year.

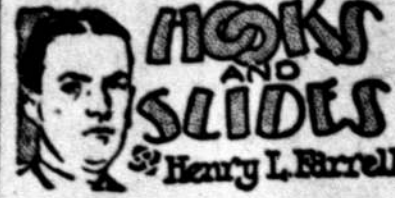

Start On Store

PLAINVIEW, Tex., Dec. 7.—Bids will be received today for the erection of a Montgomery-Ward retail store in this city to be built by Slaton and Jacob between Broadway and Austin on Sixth street. The building will be across the alley from the Ware Hotel.

Big Wool Yield

JOHNSON CITY, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP)—Probably $1,000,000 will be realized by Blanco county ranchers this season from wool and mohair.

Fifty-two cars, worth more than $700,000 already have moved from here to the Boston market, with cargoes of the products. This includes 20 cars of wool, valued at approximately $350,000 and 21 cars of mohair, worth $355,000.

Dr. Jack Sutherland, varsity football coach at Pittsburgh and one of the most valuable scouts of this department, promise to contribute some information at the close of the season on the good football players that had come under his observation. He delivered the following:

"Up until November 24 I hadn't seen any outstanding football player that I would care to boost to you. In the Carnegie Tech-New York university game, however, I believe I saw one of the greatest backs not only of this season but in decades. Ken Strong of the New York university is the scholastic real star. His ball carrying was the greatest I ever have seen. His punting alone would entitle him to a job on any university team. His forward passing is way above the average and, defensively, he was a star. The fellow weighs about 200 pounds and I am informed he runs a hundred in close to ten seconds."

"He is a different type of most speedy men on a football team in that he is agile, has a wonderful change of pace, a good straight arm and a distinct ability to run through a broken field. I am quite sure that as far as backs are concerned he is in a class by himself. I could write a book in praise of this fellow's playing, but that is not necessary."

"He has everything and undoubtedly is an all-American player if there ever was one."

How Come, Doctor?

The statement of the good doctor that he hadn't seen a player he would recommend until Master Strong performed is an indication of modesty on his part of a competent bit of testimony that a lot of the high powered experts, including writers and other coaches, are all wrong. For it is a very positive opinion of some of the college players that Mike Getto, of the doctor's Pittsburgh team, is the greatest tackle of the year.

A Good Man Went Wrong

One of the greatest centers in the country in October, Fred Barratt, the high school sophomore, was appointed to the year in the late games of the season. He was so bad in the game against Illinois that he practically blew the ball game that knocked the team out of any chance for the conference title.

He was sorely handicapped by injuries but, according to some of the players, he wasn't helped any by being nominated by a number of writers for the all-American team so early in the season. The manufacturer of this column will have to plead guilty if there is any guilt attached.

They say in Columbus that an overdose of publicity ruined him just as it ruined Mark, a sensational high school product, a number of years ago. Mark believed everything that was printed about him and even thought that there wasn't enough printed about him.

Some coaches do not encourage the attention of newspaper men and they may be right, although it is hard for a man working at the

IVORY MARKET NOW AT PEAK ACTIVITY

52 PLAYERS CHANGE HANDS IN THREE DAYS OF TRADE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (AP)—More or less quiescent during the playing season, the baseball market where "ivory" is bought and sold with reckless abandon, is booming along at its peak right now.

A more or less complete count shows that no fewer than 63 players have changed hands in the past three days. Most of these deals, of course, were completed at Toronto where the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs is in session.

So far few outstanding major league players have been affected by the transactions. But there are rumors of trades to come that will effect a wholesale shifting in the major league lineups next season.

Detroit completed the most sensational deal, buying First Baseman Dale Alexander and Pitcher Johnny Prudden from Toronto for about $100,000 in cash and three players. Toronto gets First Baseman Sweeney and two pitchers.

The Boston Red Sox wanted Catcher Alex Gaston and Outfielder Russell Scott from St. Paul and swung the deal by giving the Saints Bryan Harris, tall right-hander, Third Baseman Bill Rogell and an unnamed catcher.

Four former major league stars took on managerial worries. Alan Rothorn, a good pitcher in his day, will handle Louisville's team in the American Association. Gabby Street, Walter Johnson's old catcher, was hired by the St. Louis Cardinals to handle one of their farms. Jack Bentley signed to manage York of the New York-Pennsylvania league and Henrie Groh, who didn't have much luck at Charlotte in the South Atlantic circuit last season, will take another managerial writing business to take the rebuffs.

In the season Bob Zupke, the Illinois coach, said: "I haven't got any star ball players to bother you writers and if you let us alone and don't pay any attention to us we may get some place." Illinois won the title in the Big Ten.

BID OF LOCAL COLLEGE WILL BE PRESENTED

COACHES TO ARRANGE GAMES FOR COMING SPORTS SEASON

Four members of the Tech athletic council left early this morning by automobile for Dallas where to-morrow the bid of Texas Tech for membership in the Southwestern Conference will be placed before the representatives of that organization in the annual winter meeting.

Coaches Fred and Payne will also arrange dates for athletic engagements with team in the Southwest, Texas and T. I. A. A. conferences who are represented at the all day meeting.

Business Manager E. W. Provenca and Coach Victor Payne, Dr. W. A. Jackson and Prof. W. L. Stangel are the Tech officials who left this morning. Head Coach E. Y. Freeland left early in the week to attend the Golden Anniversary of his parents in Brownwood. He will go from Brownwood to the meeting tomorrow.

Prof. Stangel will likely present the application of Tech to conference officials. Although there is a likelihood that no new members will be taken into the group, Tech undoubtedly stands in a splendid position to be chosen in case an eighth school is added.

This marks the second attempt of Tech to get in the major conference of the state. An increased enrollment of more than 400 added to the fact that the Matadors have played under the rules of the Southwest Conference throughout the past football season, is likely to give the local institution an advantage over the other two schools who are expected to apply for admission.

Simmons University, with Frank Bridges at the helm of the football eleven, and Centenary College of Shreveport are the other schools bidding for admission.

TRIO MISSED FROM YACHT

SEARCH CONTINUED IN SHARK-INFESTED WATER OF BAY

MELBOURNE, Fla., Dec. 7 (AP)—Search for three additional persons on board a yacht at the time of an explosion Wednesday night, was continued today in the shark-infested waters near Melbourne.

Two others, Edward Sattinover, and Leslie Royal, both of Jacksonville, were taken from the water yesterday. The former, unable to swim, saved himself by clinging all night to a keg. He was rescued by a fishing smack. Royal, an expert swimmer, struck out for the shore, several miles away, and was lifted tonight as he was nearing the point from the water by a boat crew last of exhaustion.

William Sutton, John Koch and William Reynolds have not been found.

Sattinover and the missing trio were indicted by a federal grand jury Monday in Jacksonville on a charge of violating the national prohibition law.

The explosion is believed to have resulted from backfiring of a motor, which ignited gas fumes in the ship's gas tank.

NEWTON ASKS FOR DAMAGES

RECISSION OF CONTRACT IS ALLEGED IN SUIT ON PRINTING FIRM

Charging misrepresentation and false agreements, a suit for recission of contract and damages of $3,338 was filed in the 99th district court here yesterday by J. H. Newton and R. D. Sterne against W. Wester and R. E. Wester.

The original petition pertained to a printing business, formerly known as the Dow Printing company, in which the plaintiffs and defendants formerly were connected in a company known as the West Texas Printing company. The petition further charges that salaries of $100 weekly were to be paid to both Sterne and Newton from the time the company organized September 4 until the left the firm.

Of the damages, Mr. Newton claims $1,284 which he alleges was paid to him in cash on contract with the defendants, and $1,300 salary due him for thirteen weeks' work. Sterne claims $800 for eight weeks' salary.

Safety Device For Fog Landing Sought

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 7 (AP)—The second of a series of tests on a device designed to make safer the landing of aircraft in fog was pronounced a success today by officials of the Victor Talking Machine company, at whose plant the test was carried out with the aid of the navy dirigible Los Angeles.

The new device, called a "super-directional horn," was developed by Lieutenant R. C. Mayer, a member of the Los Angeles crew, and S. T. Williams, of the Victor company. It consists of a series of units, operated by vacuum tubes, which permit the reception by aircraft of directional signals from a landing field.

Kellogg Describes Pact To Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (AP)—Foregoing the regular bi-weekly cabinet meeting, Secretary Kellogg appeared before the senate foreign relations committee in executive session today before the senate foreign relations committee to explain his views of the multi-lateral treaty renouncing war as an instrument of national policy.

While no opposition has been publicly announced to the treaty, some senators questioned Mr. Kellogg closely about the possibility that this country's efforts to enforce the pact might draw it into war.

Austria's Terms Of Debt Payment Told

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (AP)—Austria's proposed terms for settling its debt of $34,630,000 to the United States were explained to the house ways and means committee today by Undersecretary Mills of the treasury.

Austria, Mr. Mills said, offers to pay beginning on January 1, 1933, twenty yearly annuities of $1,337,140, while reserving the option to substitute a schedule of payments providing five yearly payments of $287,556 beginning January 1, 1929; 10 yearly payments of $460,093, beginning January 1, 1934, and 25 yearly payments of $743,047 beginning January 1, 1944.

Collision Between Peruvian Boats

CALLAO, Peru, Dec. 7 (AP)—A collision between the steamer Mantaro and the motorboat Intrepido was recorded in a wireless message from the steamer's captain today. The captain said the collision happened off the coast between Salayerry and Pacasmayo. The motorboat threw her cargo overboard, then headed for Pacasmayo. The Mantaro proceeded on her voyage after standing by the other vessel for 21-2 hours.

UNEARTHS RICHES

While listening to a radio violin solo one evening, John P. Dyer, Rye, N. Y., policeman, decided to have his young daughter take lessons. He unearthed a violin which had been in his family 150 years and took it to be restrung. The repairman offered him $1,200 for it, but an expert's appraisal valued it at $40,000. Soon after that Dyer sold it to a collector for $50,000.

SNYDER ENTRY LIST RECORD

LARGE CROWDS BRAVE BAD WEATHER FOR POULTRY SHOW

(Special To The Journal)
SNYDER, Dec. 7.—The ninth annual Scurry county poultry show opened yesterday with 783 entries, the largest number ever to be displayed in the yearly show here. Despite a downpour of rain yesterday and threatening weather today, large crowds viewed the exhibits.

I. L. Bandy, of Gobley, a licensed American Poultry Association judge, made the awards, which had not been announced this morning. Judge Walter Burton, Arlington, who was scheduled to come here and do the judging was forced to cancel his visit because of a meeting of the A. P. A. at Chicago.

Sponsored by the local Lions Club, the annual banquet of the show will be held tonight. Advancement of a noteworthy project in the form of establishing one 3-1-2 acre and one 5 acre poultry colony tracts in Scurry county is planned at the banquet. The Charles Weeks plan is the one under consideration.

According to B. L. Base, this is the largest poultry show yet held in West Texas this year. W. H. Logan, county agent, is assisting with the show.

Score To Talk In Lothringer Case

CORPUS CHRISTI, Dec. 7 (AP)—A score of defense witnesses were ready to take the stand today in the trial of Robert Lothringer, charged with murder for the shooting of E. C. Young, in a hospital here September 3.

Yesterday's session was consumed almost entirely with presentation of testimony bearing out the defense theory that Lothringer had been in a highly excited mental state prior to the shooting due to his belief that Young had "ruined his home."

Several witnesses, including Mrs. Mary Malone, mother-in-law of the defendant, declared Lothringer appeared mentally unbalanced for days before the shooting.

Routing Disrupts Blocks Road Work

PANHANDLE, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP)—A dispute over the routing of a state and federal highway has blocked work on the road. Carson county last night rejected $440,320 in state and federal appropriations and the rejection was endorsed by the Panhandle Highway association which includes 26 counties, because the route did not include the town of Panhandle. The route, as laid out by engineers, Misses Panhandle by a quarter of a mile.

King Fights Away Serious Illness

LONDON, Dec. 7 (AP)—King George's powers of resistance today were serving him well in his battle with the severe and persistent illness which attacked him more than a fortnight ago. His illness, however, was still causing anxiety to his subjects and to countless well wishers throughout the world.

Several recent medical bulletins and particularly the one issued shortly before noon today indicated how well his powers of resistance were serving the monarch. Today's bulletin reported that he was maintaining his general strength, to the bolstering up of which some restful sleep that he had during the night doubtless contributed.

DETROIT, Dec. 7 (AP)—Police of Detroit and several eastern cities co-operating today in an effort to learn whether Peter Kudzinowski, confessed slayer, was responsible for the disappearance of several children whose fate is puzzling.

After admitting he had killed Joseph Stora, 7, in a swamp near Seneca, N. Y., November 17, and Harry Quinn, a fellow worker, in Scranton, Pa., in March, 1924, he said he had attempted to abduct a boy and a girl in New York city several months ago.

HINT OF FEUD IN SHOOTINGS

EAST TEXAS SLAYING IS SECOND ALLEGED TO SAME CAUSE

MARSHALL, Tex., Dec. 7.—For the second time within a year a member of a prominent Harrison county family is in jail charged with slaying a relative in a pistol duel.

Wiley Page, 25, was released on $2,500 bond yesterday after his uncle, Ike Killingsworth had been shot to death at Page's home. Last January Killingsworth was acquitted on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his son, Roy. Killingsworth testified he shot in self-defense when he met his son on a lonely road.

Killingsworth said the trouble with his son started over rent due on a farm owned by the father. Page testified for Killingsworth at the trial. The trouble between Page and Killingsworth is said to have started over rent on the same farm, young Killingsworth was shot.

Light Snow Falls In Atlanta Area

ATLANTA, Dec. 7 (AP)—A light flurry of snow, disappearing before it reached the ground, fell here this morning. The fall was not general throughout the section, however.

Rains in Texas over the last two days started a disturbance along the gulf, which reached into the South-eastern states and caused general light showers last night and this morning. Moderately low temperatures continued to prevail at all stations, except those along the gulf and in Florida.

Blue Uniform Is Revived In Army

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (AP)—After more than ten years wearing of the olive drab uniform, officers and enlisted men of the army have been authorized by Secretary Davis to wear the blue uniform in vogue before the world war.

Use of the blue uniform is optional with the officers and men except that it may not be worn with formations of troops. The expense would be borne by the individuals themselves and commanding officers have been expressly forbidden to exercise pressure of any sort or to seek to induce the officers and men to procure the uniforms.

Chicago Police Official, Nemesis Of Boose Racketeers, Is Murdered

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Leroy Gilbert, who was proud of his reputation as "a tough cop," won't bother the "boys in the booze racket" any more. Some men with sawed-off shotguns got him last night: Shot him dead, through the back.

He was seated at home with his family. His back to the front window and the light from a floor lamp beside his chair set him apart from others in the room. The shade had been drawn only half way.

The killers got out of their motorcar, a sedan, and crept to the window. Their tracks in the snow on the ground were found later. The shortened gun muzzles were rested on the window sill.

Twice the guns sent charges of shot tearing through the window. Into the back of Chief Gilbert's head. A third volley went wide, and the third finger of Mrs. Gilbert's right hand was torn away.

Thirteen-year-old Ruth, one of five children, came running in from another room and dropped, screaming, beside the chair in which her father's body had slumped.

Glenn Gilbert, the chief's brother, ran from the house and they sent a wild volley at him as they drove away. He was able, however, the description of which provided one of the principal clues on which highway police are at work.

The slain chief has cooperated with the federal dry agents, and on some occasions had led raids himself, turning his prisoners over for government prosecution. Recently he discussed with the sheriff a program for a campaign against vice which had sprung up.

1200 NEW CASES OF FLU REPORTED

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7 (AP)—Although 1200 new cases of influenza have been reported in Los Angeles in the last two days, health authorities announced today that the prevalence of the disease, which has cost 132 lives in a little more than three weeks, had not yet reached its height, which they expect to come next week.

Health department figures show that there have been 8,000 cases here since the disease became prevalent November 13. Yesterday's new cases numbered 400, while 800 were reported Wednesday.

Schools remained open in Los Angeles today but those of Pasadena have been shut down.

PLAN STUDY FOR KING'S ILLNESS

LONDON, Dec. 7 (AP)—It was stated on good authority that radiographs of King George again were taken at Buckingham Palace this afternoon.

It is understood that the object of the X-ray investigation was to study the right side of the chest where the infection has become localized and defined.

Boom Repeats

LULING, Dec. 7 (AP)—Luling is in the happy throes of a boom even greater than in the days when the first oil strikes were being made.

New development is causing a ceaseless clatter of activity, mostly building. About 150 residences and business houses are under construction.

Drastic Price Reductions in Season to Make Every Woman's Friend

We are going the limit in price reductions to make this the greatest sale of our merchandising history in Lubbock. We can sincerely say that we have never offered such big reductions in any previous sale, the reductions are store-wide and if you find anything without a bona-fide reduced sale price on it we want you to call our attention to it.

Think of what this sale means in savings for those who attend, think back, you recall a time when you were offered store-wide reductions on merchandise of the quality at this season of the year.

December is here, the buying season is at its height, thousands of dollars were spent in our store for winter and Christmas merchandise at our regular prices, we have several reasons for this sale at this time.

The main reason for this sale is that we have entirely too much merchandise, have enjoyed a very nice business this fall but at that it is below our expectations.

Our Cabinets Are Packed With Coats Of The Better Kind. If Low Price Will Sell Them, The Cabinets Will Soon Be Empty!

Our cabinets are all packed with Coats of the better kind, our low end numbers have sold and we find that we must slash the prices unmercifully to sell our better coats, if low prices will move them there won't be a coat left when the sale is over. These Coats are all new up-to-the-minute styles, the newest fabrics, shades and fur trimming.

We are determined to cut our stock down to where it belongs before inventory time, it must be done now or done after Xmas. After some thought on the subject we decided that it would be very unfair to our many loyal customers to wait until after they had spent their Xmas money with us and paid the regular price, then make these big reductions, which are necessary to move the merchandise.

Our regular customers who would buy at the regular price are sure entitled to these big savings, we want their good will and to hold their good will we are going to give them the benefit of these big reductions now.

We also want new customers and expect this sale to add hundreds of new ones to our list, we are sure that the low prices of this good will sale will make this an event that they will long remember. You may come for many miles to this sale expecting great values and you will not be disappointed in a single thing.

Thought For Today
The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labor.
—Prov. 21:25.

Sloth, like rust, consumes faster than labor wears, while the key of it is always bright.—Franklin.

A King
George the Fifth of England is suffering from an illness and the whole empire waits anxiously for the latest bulletins from the royal physicians. Crowds loiter in the streets in front of Buckingham Palace until late at night to learn of the king's condition.

That bit of news is apt to strike
the average American as puzzling.
The king of England, as the saying goes, "reigns but does not rule."
The empire will go on after his death precisely as before. Why should his subjects be so anxious?

There was a time when the illness and death of a king were matters of profound concern to everyone in the country. It was said that kings ruled by divine right;
but most of them ruled chiefly by force of their strong characters and by ruthless, imperious ability.

When such a monarch came to the end of his earthly reign nobody could tell what might happen next.
His country might fall apart. It might become the prey of some other nation. It might be ripped open by civil war.

But that time has passed.
George the Fifth never held more than the shadow of the power of his ancestors. His life has made up of ceremonies and forms. In public addresses he spoke of "my army," "my people," "my government," but nobody was fooled.

Why, then, should the English be so aroused by a fear of his death?

The British empire has been in existence for a long time, and its leaders have learned a number of profound truths. Among them is the fact that people need a symbol as much as they need anything on earth.

Most of us are not capable of going very far by ourselves. We need something that will bind us to our fellows and give us cohesion. All of our lives we look for a leader—someone who can take us out of ourselves, someone who can demand of us everything that we can give, someone who, because he is a better man than we are, can compel us to do the noble and high-minded things that we never should do if left alone.

It is that spiritual need that makes men want a king. That is what explains England's devotion to its titular ruler. Whatever comes to England—war, internal troubles, famine, general strike or whatnot—there always remains, above all contending factions, the figure of the king, a rallying point for earnest men, a personification of the nation.

It will be a long while before the institution outlives its usefulness.

Enforcement
Gilbert Swan mentions a new and disturbing development in New York life—the increasing prevalence of the hired bodyguard on the public streets.

Scores and scores of well-to-do men retain gunmen or ex-pugilists to accompany them wherever they go and protect them from attacks, he says. This is largely due to the activities of racketeers, who endanger the lives of men who do not submit to their demands.

As a bit of evidence regarding the break-down of law enforcement in this country, Swan's item could hardly be bettered. The whole thing reads like a description of 14th century Venice, not 20th century America.

Channing Pollock, playwright, says theater audiences these days
"check their brains with their hats."
And, of course, Mr. Pollock, some just check their hats.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says airplane poison is the most dangerous known. One drop will kill you!

Well, folks, things sure move rapidly on the South Plains. Down on the border, Laredo to be exact, this writer heard Sunday that Lubbock's county's chances for paved highways in the near future had gone glimmering. By the time he got back to the caprock Wednesday evening he heard that a new plan had been hit upon, that workers were being organized and that we're going to have another chance in a very few weeks to go after the hard surface roads in earnest again.

That's the spirit of Lubbock
Lubbock and the South Plains
the spirit that Texans have heard of and marvel at regardless of where you go. It's the old come-back stuff, the never-say-die attitude, which is rapidly turning this section into one of the greatest agriculture and commercial empires in the whole country.

As was mentioned in this column
before, The Plainsman was in favor of the original program but he wouldn't fall out with anyone if the issue was defeated. That was and is true. Now this writer is in favor of the second plan and hopes that it will go over, with the well known "bang."

Speaking of being down on the border, The Plainsman has had an opportunity to get a recent view of a great part of this state and he's here to testify that no matter where you go you hear conversation, questions and praise for West Texas, the South Plains and Lubbock in particular.

"The Eyes of Texas Are Upon
You" is no idle expression. People from Texas to El Paso and from Orange to Texline, people are looking toward West Texas and the South Plains, marveling at the progress of the people and the indomitable spirit which they are forever using to climb higher along the trail of prosperity.

If you are a South Plains booster it would do your old heart good to hear people who have never been to this country to express a desire to see it
—and then if they are sold on it, to move here. And Texas Fossil! The four old educational giant, a younger in years but already a full grown system, is always in the limelight. The story which you read in the Lubbock papers about Dr. Horn asking for 20 additional students was reproduced in papers all over the state.

The Plainsman saw it six hundred miles away in the San Antonio Light, the Laredo Times, the Houston Chronicle and other papers which blanket south and south-west Texas. Editors know that everyone is interested in Lubbock and the Tech college.

"Be it ever so humble There's no place like home."
Sure rings true when you live on the Plains.

You may range and may roam
But there's no place like home.
If you live and love life on the Plains.

There are people who scoff.
There are those who will frown
At the wind and occasional rains.
But you bet your best hat
That even at that
They all wish they could live on the Plains!

Some of us get down in the mouth when it doesn't rain, or when it rains too much, or when there is a Broadway show in Dallas and we can't go that far to see it. But if you want to re-sell yourself on life on the Plains just visit some of the other parts of the country, and this writer will guarantee you'll hit a new high note of happiness when the home bound choo-choo pulls back up on the cap.

That man on Avenue Q says they have discovered down in San Antonio that it doesn't take a taxidermist to stuff a ballot box.

Life has its drawbacks for the man who feels at home anywhere.
Just think—he might go into his neighbor's house by mistake and decide to take a bath.

It's an easy matter to be too much of a good fellow. The poor houses and jails are already full of them.

It may sound fishy to you but figures show that in the past few years tourist travel and conventions have quadrupled in border cities.
There must be something that attracts dry American to those sections.

The suggestion of our congressman, Hon. Marvin Jones, that capital be conscripted as well as men in time of war is likely to do more to halt future conflicts than all the peace pacts the world has ever seen.

Has anybody noticed how little Johnny comes right home from school these evenings and asks if there isn't something he can do to help mother?

DAILY ALMANAC

WEST TEXAS:
Tonight and Saturday mostly fair,
with some light rain in the southwest portion with rain probably in extreme west portion; somewhat colder tonight and Saturday; warmer Saturday.

EAST TEXAS:
Tonight mostly fair, somewhat colder, with freezing in the interior and frost to the coast if weather clears.

There were more or less uniform over the earth and means of intercommunication between those ancient animals were comparatively free and open, tendency toward wide-spread somewhat uniform faunal assemblages developed, though the stage was never set for a world-wide commopolitan fauna.

During the upper Miocene time so many species of mammals in Europe and North America resembled each other as to prove that there must have been intercommunication and migration over some bridge of land. The same thing went for plants in the Carboniferous period.

Strange and unmodified animals exist in Australia because of that continent's isolation. But Weller holds that passage of ancient fauna from one sphere to another closely resembles discovery of the American continent by European white men a little over 400 years ago.

Other adventures followed and a continuous stream of white men poured over the new lane.

"The early habitat where the most uniform environment exists today," Weller points out, "is found in the abyssal depths of the ocean, and the life of these cold, dark abysses is essentially the same in all oceans."

Citing the trilobites, Weller sets forth that many groups of organisms have developed, along certain lines of evolution, extravagant and apparently useless characteristics of ornamentation which have culminated in extinction of their line.

Simpler forms survived. Development of extraneous ornate characteristics is a condition preceding extinction of the race involved. Weller offers this warning as a suggestion:

"Human civilization and social organizations have arisen in the past and have dwindled and become extinct, just as have the societies of prehuman inhabitants of our earth.
Their places have been taken up by other social groups arising from more or less obscure sources."

"May not the underlying causes of the waning of both these sorts of societies be similar? Too great prosperity, perhaps, and the expenditure of vital forces in the development of ornamental characters not fundamentally of service to the race. And may not the general recognition of this lesson serve to guide, in some measure, the future destinies of humanity?"

(The big words in this story are all Weller's.)

In New York

By Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—It's the "sight seeing airplane" now in Manhattan.

Those who have crawled along the ground in busses, straining eyes from the canyon floors toward the turrets of steel and stone, now may skim the tips of those turrets looking down into the city's gaping ravines.

As one of the pioneer sight-seeing air riders, I suggest New York on a day when a fog-mist diffuses the scene below. To be sure, I have never seen it when the sun was bright and all the towers of the magic land stood out in clear relief.

But Central Park, with its encircling sky line apartments, is made of dream stuff when seen through a mist. Lower Manhattan is a bit disappointing. It is not much different than when seen from the tip of the Woolworth building or some other point of vantage.
New York's lower sky line is at its best when seen from an incoming liner.

The average tourist, who cares
to take an aerial sight-seeing tour, needs merely to walk to Times Square and board a special bus which runs to the flying field.
Fourteen persons can be accommodated.

Gotham's latest architectural show place holds the unique distinction of being the one costly structure to be built by means of gay and colorful pageants.

It is the Beaux Arts Institute—a new temple to the arts.

For many a year the Beaux Arts ball has been the season's most glittering and exotic function. Here came the leading artists and writers of the land, the most prominent and exclusive of the society folk and the brilliant beauty of the younger set. The foundation of all our economic life.

And the money thus secured has been tucked away toward the building of an art shrine.

It is said of that vast new skyline which has risen in the midtown belt that it was "built upon needles and pins."

And this is almost literally true. For here is the heart of America's cloak and suit trade.

Within the past few years, it has grown from a scattered group of small buildings to one of the most impressive canyons in New York
—and all on the needle trades.

Clear of this belt is A. E. Lefcourt, a man who owns a sky-line
all of his own.

I have long since lost count of the number of skyscrapers which bear his name. But they constitute a monument such as no other man who ever lived could boast.

Yet he was a lad who came out of the New York slums—who began his career by selling fans to passengers of passing streets cars and was a boy of the East Side Streets. His home then was the second floor of a house in the tenement belt. But his young son can point to a great skyscraper—as his own particular plaything—a Christmas gift from his father a couple of years ago.

The second "building car" of Manhattan was also an East Side boy—Benjamin Winter, whose people migrated from Europe and who lived to buy the homes of some of New York's most aristocratic families—and tear them down to put up giants of steel.

GILBERT SWAN.

The experts who predicted the electoral vote so well now are taking over the task of picking President Hoover's cabinet.

An Iowa man found strawberries on his vines the other day and picked them in a blizzard. This republican prosperity?

Letters To The Editor

The Lubbock Journal,
Lubbock, Texas.

Gentlemen: I am one of the fans who came to your city on the Golden Sandstorm special and I want to say I heard many expressions of appreciation of your courtesy in supplying us with the morning paper at Ft. Plainview.

It is too bad the citizens of Lubbock failed to back up that first good impression. After seeing the hundreds of Amarillo people walking out to Tech stadium with few or no offers of rides, it is easy to understand Lubbock's protesting the eligibility of Bob Walker.

Come to Amarillo next year and see if anyone has to walk, and if we lose, see if we holler. Yours very truly,
J. C. JOHNSON.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.

WOMAN'S HYGIENIC PRINCIPLES BRAND HER AS MILD MANIAC

A Good Mild Maniac
"I am considered as a mild sort of maniac by my neighbors because I watch my children carefully to see that they do not play with children who have running noses or who cough. When my children have a cold, they are not permitted to mingle with others
and have been instructed to use tissue napkins instead of handkerchiefs and discard them into the toilet as soon as used, instead of carrying germ laden han-
dies in their pockets to re-infect themselves. My methods have usually prevented the spread of colds to the rest of the family, but the one day when I was longer than a day or two. And colds are a rare thing in my family, too. I think I am cautious, but my neighbors ridicule me and tell me that if the child is destined (I hate that word!) to have a cold, it will get it, but not through mingling with others."

"One mother told me that when one of her children had scarlet fever, the other played with her,
and, although she later sent the child away, it had not been necessary since the child never caught it. She believed that it was because it was not destined to catch it. Won't you please write on the contagion of colds, whooping cough and measles, and please explain that ancient hokum of warding off all ills by wearing a cap or bag? In these days of enlightenment isn't it amazing to find so many who still cling to ancient fallacies?"

"MRS. S."

Keep right on with your program,
Mrs. S., and don't worry because your neighbors consider you a mild maniac. You are demonstrating that you are getting good results, and sooner or later you will find that you are educating your neighbors.

We have a list of books on the general care and feeding of children which you may have, Mrs. S.

VESTRIS LEAKS STILL MYSTERY

OFFICIALS HEAP MORE
CRITICISM ON PILOT
AND CREW OF SHIP

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The cause of the hidden leaks that sank the liner Vestris remained a mystery of the sea today but in official reports of British and American naval observers at the federal inquiry into the disaster there came more criticism of the late Captain William Carey and his crew for their conduct in the crisis.

Only speculative causes for the disaster were obtained in the official reports of Captain Henry McConkey, British advisor, and Captain E. P. Jessop, American advisor to United States Commissioner O'Neill, who has been hearing testimony on the disaster since the week of November 11 when the vessel foundered off the Virginia Capes with a loss of more than 100 lives.

While Captain McConkey made no suggestions in his report, Captain Jessop recommended, among other things:

"That all ocean going vessels carry wireless."

"That all sea connections be located where they may be inspected at sea."

"That a method of testing lifeboats for tightness be inaugurated by the steamboat inspection service."

"That lifebelts be changed in design so as to keep an exhausted person's head and shoulders above the water."

"That executive ability be considered in the examination of officers."

PLAINVIEW DOES $50,000 BUILDING

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 7.—Building permits for the month of November for Plainview totaled $50,000, a pronounced drop from the month of October when the permits exceeded $800,000.

A $15,000 permit for the construction of the creamery of the Hale County Dairy association was the largest single item in the November permits, the balance of the amount being for residences and improvements.

Total permits issued by the city inspector since January 1 amount to $1,200,948 which is more than a half million dollar increase over the same period of last year.

During the past month there have been 121 gas inspections, 21 plumbing inspections and 35 electrical inspections at Plainview.

Several rolling pin throwing contests have been staged this fall. How do they manage to get all the husbands to pose?

NEW AIR PRESSURE HOSPITAL OPENS

NEA Cleveland Bureau

The $1,000,000 hollow steel ball financed by H. H. Timken, millionaire manufacturer of Canton, O., for the treatment of asthma, neuritis, diabetes and other diseases, has been opened to the public. The unique hospital, erected in Cleveland, is the result of the theory of Dr. O. J. Cunningham of Kansas City, Mo., that certain diseases will yield to treatment by air pressure. Interiors and the huge ball in which the patients are housed, are shown above.

STEER BRINGS RECORD PRICE

YOUTH SELLS CHAMPION
ANIMAL FOR $8050
TO J. C. PENNEY

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—It's all over but the squealing for the champion hops, sheep and cattle of the International Livestock Exposition. Only the breeding classes will emerge with their lives, with one exception: Dick, the grand champion steer owned by 13-year-old Clarence Goecke of State Center, Iowa, will be taken to New York alive by the J. C. Penney company which bought it at the record-breaking figure of $8,050. Mr. Penney wants to exhibit it as an example of 4-H club achievement.

So much interest was attracted yesterday by the sale of Goecke's prize steer that the sale of the other prize winners was forced into the background. Iowa State College was able to get only $22 a hundred for its grand champion barrow, a Duroc, and Dr. J. A. Swallow of Storm Lake, Iowa, drew $14.50 a hundred for his reserve champion, a Chester White. Both figures were under the record. The grand champion carload lot of steers—the Aberdeen Angus yearlings owned by E. F. Hall of Mechanicsburg, Ill.—brought $44 a hundred. The champion carload of sheep, owned by W. G. Miles of Evansville, Wis., sold at $27 a hundred.

'Beard' Bothers

PEOCHE, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP)—"Grandpa's gray beard," a white plant which grows on fences and bushes

of West Texas ranches, has caused ranchmen no end of confusion. The plant resembles from a distance a stray sheep or goat, and cattlemen often ride many weary steps believing they have seen a stray animal.

Bolster Roadbed

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 7.—The Fort Worth & Denver South Plains Railway tracks are now being maintained by the railroad company, having been turned to them some time ago by the contractors. Crews are at work patching ballast in places where the track has settled. Extra crews have been placed on the Plainview and Lubbock lines. On portions over which the work trains ran most the roadbed is in excellent condition. Roadbed throughout from Plainview and Lubbock to Estelina is such that a thirty-three mile schedule is maintained.

The mother who could not keep her family well

IT SEEMED as if there was always someone feeling out-of-sorts. Not exactly sick but languid—indifferent to food and irritable. And her husband, who used to enjoy the best of health, was now constantly tired and often discouraged and worried. What could be the matter?

Many a family, due to the lack of bulk in the diet, suffers from constipation. And this evil scourge undermines health and strength—even hope and happiness. It brings throbbing heads and aching backs, dragging feet and slumping shoulders. It often finally leads to untold suffering and disease.

Fortunately thousands of women have found the way to save their families from the evils of constipation. By serving Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—that healthful cereal—in some form every day, constipation is safely relieved and prevented.

It takes "all-bran" to be 100% effective

It is bulk or roughage that combats constipation. ALL-BRAN is practically all-bulk because it is 100 per cent bran. This bulk absorbs moisture and carries it throughout the digestive system. At the same time, it gently distends the intestines. Exercising them—sweeping out poisonous wastes.

Part-bran products seldom contain a sufficient quantity of bulk to be completely effective. That is why doctors recommend Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is infinitely better than habit-forming pills and laxatives. A naturally healthful cereal. To enjoy with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking too. Recipes on package. Mix it with hot cereals. Sprinkle it into soups. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal.

Insist on genuine Kellogg's—the original ALL-BRAN. Sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, restaurants, cafeterias. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Guaranteed!
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN
also guarantees! Eat it
according to directions.
If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

PROTEST MAP FROM DALLAS

CLASSIFICATION OF SAN ANGELO AREA AS POOR BRINGS COMPLAINT

(Special To The Journal)
SAN ANGELO, Dec. 7.—The Board of City Development today filed its protest to the injustice of the trade map released from Industrial Dallas, Inc., an arm of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

In a personal letter to M. J. Norrell, manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, Claude C. Wild, manager of the Board of City Development, said in part:

"We have felt all along since the publication of your so called purchasing power map, or trade map, that an explanation or correction would be forthcoming, but since no statement has been made, we feel that the attitude of San Angelo and its surrounding territory toward said map should be known to you.

"For your information San Angelo is located in the center of a territory that may not be the most healthfully settled, but we feel that certain information is due you. It is interesting to know that this poor county of Tom Green has a city of 25,000 people, that the four banks in that city have $12,000,000 on deposit, making this by fifty percent the largest banking center between Fort Worth and El Paso.

"You failed to take into account that San Angelo is a trading point for a territory almost as large in area as that surrounding Dallas, that our stores do business for over a distance of some one hundred and seventy-five miles. That naturally makes good business in this city.

"A protest from us could do no good, as the map has already been issued, but as one chamber of commerce to another, we feel a great error has been committed and we trust that you will take steps to correct it. Unless the city of Dallas adopts the development idea for West Texas and seeks to portray this section in its true light, then I fail to see how she can expect to call this her trade territory."

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

With all the Tines on the sled, the "hime, in low voice, said, "Now please be careful with my dogs, and treat them very kind. They'll take you safely, have no fear, to Toyland. It's not far from here. I'll be a dandy ride because your path will wind and wind."

"Oh, thank you, sir," one Tiny cried. "We know we will enjoy this ride, and don't you worry 'bout your dogs. We'll keep them safe from harm." And then they heard the queer man say, "All right then, Tines! On your way!" The dogs barked loud and started, as the Eskimo waved his arm.

Across the ice and snow they sped. It surely was a dandy sled. The Tines clung together, in the fear that they would fall. "These dogs," said Clowny, "sure are strong. They travel swiftly right along, despite the very heavy load that they are forced to haul."

"I only wish we had some meat so we could give them some food to eat. This running fast I'm sure will give them quite an appetite."

"Oh, don't you worry," Coppy said. "No doubt they've all been nicely fed. As long as we hang on I'm sure that all will be all right."

In half an hour they reached a hill, and climbing it was quite a

GUARD TELLS OF SHOOTING

TELLS STORY OF HEAT RIDDEN COTTON FIELD AND MURDER

(By Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Tex., Dec. 7.—The story of a heat ridden cotton field where convicts labored under armed supervision, of a break for liberty and fatal shooting of a guard, was told today by Jim Jeter in the trial of Raymond Hall, alias R. H. Tucker, charged with murder of Dog Sergeant Henry Ward at Imperial state farm July 27.

Jeter identified Hall as the man who knelt in the cotton and from a gun he a moment before had seized from Jeter, hurled, a load of buckshot into the face of Sergeant Ward and "shot him off his horse."

Jeter said he witnessed the shooting from a distance of about fifty yards and said he was positive Hall was the man who killed his fellow guard.

Three other guards, Oscar Loggins, L. E. McKinnon and Jack Stiles told about the same story, with the exception that they were not able to identify Hall as the man who fired the fatal shot. In each case they were too far away to see anything except the more apparent actions in the tragedy, they testified.

ahead," one of the Tines jumped and said. "We've reached our destination. This adventure will be fine. There's Santa's Toyland. Hip, hurrah! That's where we're going to stop and play." And sure enough, it read, "Toyland" upon a great big sign.

MOVIE ON COTTON TO BE SHOWN HERE

Picturing the advantages of humidifiers in the manufacture of cotton products, a three parts film, "Thirsty Cotton" will be shown in the auditorium of the Tech College Engineering building at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday night. The public is invited to attend and no admission charge will be made.

This film was produced by Perles Cramer company, from which Tech purchased its textile equipment. E. W. Camp, of the Textile Engineering department was largely responsible for bringing the picture here. Various steps in the production of cloth are shown in the picture.

Borger Man Is Held For Lamar Raid

BORGER, Tex., Dec. 7 (P).—Charles Hale, suspected of complicity in the Lamar, Colo., bank robbery, has been arrested here by State Ranger Kirby and is being held for Colorado authorities. Kirby said that so far no demand had been made for Hale.

Hale, a filling station operator here, is under indictment for murder alleged to have been committed in this county almost two years ago. He will be tried in Ochiltree county early in January.

Pilot Of Ill-Fated Airplane Is Buried

AUSTIN, Dec. 7 (P).—The body of Mark Watson, aviator, was buried here Thursday, five days after he and four other persons were burned to death in an airplane he was piloting, which crashed in flames near Spur, Texas.

H. D. Ballard, San Antonio and Denver millionaire, was one of those killed.

NEW WELLS OF RECORD FLOW

WINK GUSHERS PROVING LARGEST IN ANNALS OF FAMOUS POOL

(By Associated Press)

WINK, Tex., Dec. 7.—The Prairie Oil and Gas company's No. 2 and 3 Cowden wells near Wink have increased their flow the last 24 hours until it appears they are the greatest gushers in the history of the Hendricks pool in Winkler county.

No. 2 which came in flowing 24,960 barrels a day, increased its flow to a rate of 35,000 barrels a day within six hours was reported.

Lack of pipe line connections has made it necessary to pinch the flow to 1,400 barrels a day and turn into lease tanks.

No. 3, next door, which came in at 24,815 barrels a day, increased to 30,000 barrels and has been shut in pending erection of a battery of storage tanks and completion of pipe line connections.

Both Gushers are making pipe line oil. Their tremendous flow was a surprise, as they offset wells making only 1,200 and 1,400 barrels per day.

DRILLERS ARE GIVEN KEYS TO THE CITY

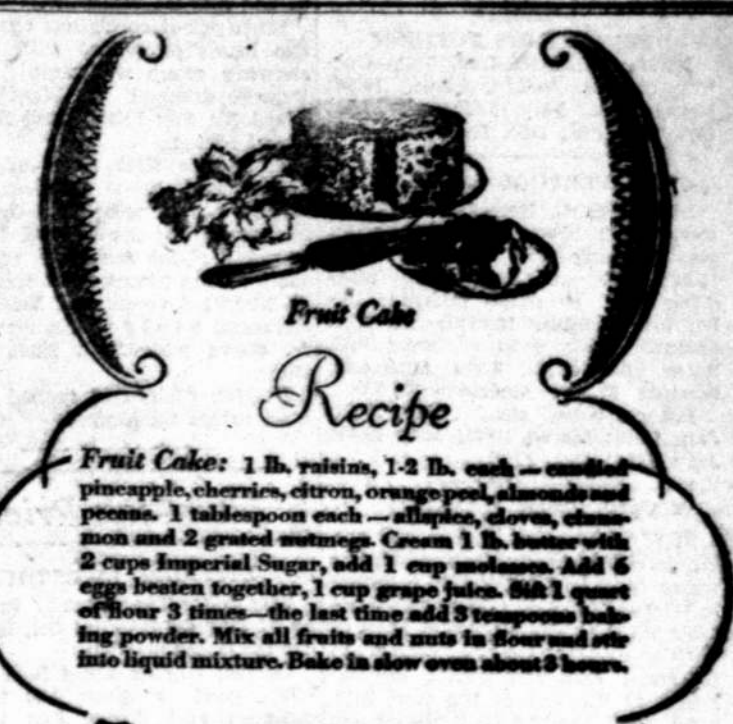

WINK, Tex., Dec. 7 (P).—"Slim" Hobson and C. B. Cranfield, oil well drillers, were presented the keys to the city by Mayor J. R. Osborn while hundreds of tool dressers, drillers and other oil field workers looked on yesterday.

The two men were honored for their parts in bringing in two gushers just two miles from the city limits of Wink, insuring an intensive drilling campaign at the city's gates.

Underworld Cashier Is Sought In Death

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (P).—As police continued their search today for Hyman (Gilly) Biller, cashier from the many-chambered business office of the underworld, it developed that he is the secretly named figure in the blanket indictment of four men for the murder of Arnold Rothstein, big gambler. John Day and Richard Roe, the legal straw men who form the other mystery of the indictment, began to take on actuality as the result of revelations by "Nigger Nate" Raymond, gambling associate of Rothstein and George McManus. McManus is the only one of the four indicted for shooting Rothstein who is in custody.

Announcing important changes in Ownership and Policy

Will your Daughter hunt a JOB OR A POSITION?

Changes of ownership and policy . . . changes that will have a very definite effect upon Lubbock's standing as an educational center, and upon those who seek a successful business career founded on a thorough training in modern business methods and practice.

Lubbock and the Plains is entitled to a Business Training Institution of the first class, and the New Administration comes with sufficient financial resources seasoned scholarship and experience to perform well the task. Upon the worthy attainments and standing now enjoyed by this school, the new officials are determined to build the super-structure, an institution which shall challenge the loyal support of the aggressive business men and citizens of the South Plains.

Under the new management more faculty members will be added—instructors of college grade only will be used, whose training, experience, and ability qualifies them as efficient teachers of modern business, and business methods.

New equipment that is thoroughly modern and found in the most efficient offices is being added, and the environment will be that of a business institution which stresses scientific methods of conducting its affairs.

New courses will be added to the curriculum to meet every business need, and courses now being offered will be enlarged in scope to prepare the student for detail handling of modern commercial affairs.

All of these factors marking the changes which this school is now experiencing will contribute toward securing for it a rating that will be highly invaluable to those who graduate.

NEW YORK TRADING
NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 7 points in response to relatively steady cables with Liverpool and May to 20.15 on covering together with some Liverpool and continental buying. Prices at the end of the first half hour ruled about 3 to 4 points net higher. The market strengthened later under demand stimulated by a Liverpool advice estimating consumption of American cotton for the season at 15,250,000 bales. January traded up to 19.50, March 19.60 and May 19.62, or 10 to 12 points up from the lows and 8 to 9 points over yesterday's close. Near noon the market turned easy and lost 8 to 9 points trading to levels about parallel with yesterday's close.

NEW ORLEANS TRADING
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7 (AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 8 points in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables. The bulls brought some liquidation in advance of tomorrow's government estimate and January sold off to 19.48, March 19.57 and May 19.52, or 7 to 11 points under the opening high.

There was a better demand during the middle of the morning supposed to include trade calling as well as pre-bureau covering. January sold up to 20.21 and May to 20.19 or 8 to 9 points net higher, but this advance was checked by realizing and trading was quiet at midday with the market showing reactions of 4 to 5 points from the best.

Stocks And Money

NEW YORK TRADING
NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (AP)—Heavy selling was resumed at the opening of today's market, following the break in yesterday's session. Radio opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 38 1/2, an overnight drop of 14 points, on top of a 15 point break yesterday. Radio-Keith-Elbee opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 36, off 4 1/2. Losses of a point or two were registered by General Motors, Anaconda Copper, Gold Dust, Corn Products, Studebaker, Texas Co. There were a few exceptions to the general downward trend. Commercial Solvents opening 21 1/2 points higher and General Railway Signal and Union Pacific 11 1/2 points each. Brick recoveries took place in several high priced specialties before midday on the usual "buying for a turn" by professional traders. Radio rallied from 38 1/2 to 39 1/2. Montgomery Ward from 37 1/2 to 38 1/2 and Fox Film from 90 to 96. Commercial Solvents ran up 4 1/2 points above yesterday's final quotation. Erie Railroad common 3 1/4.

CROWDS VIEW SLATON SHOW

RECORD ENTRY LIST IN ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF POULTRY THERE

(Special To The Journal)
SLATON, Dec. 7.—With more than 400 entries and with the best quality ever entered in a show here, the third annual poultry show of Slaton continued to be shown to record crowds today.

A banquet will be given by the Slaton Chamber of Commerce at a local hotel tonight in honor of the exhibitors in the show. Ray C. Mowery, of Tech College, and D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agent, will be the principal speakers.

The silver loving cup for the best all round display of poultry was given to W. P. Splawn, Slaton, secretary of the show, and a similar award was presented to Mrs. L. C. Wheeler, Florida, for the best display of turkeys.

The entry list this year is one-third larger than last year and the birds are of a much higher quality than previously, according to show officials, who express pleasure of the success of the show. A. A. De Vore is secretary of the show. All awards have been made. Judging was by I. L. Bandy, of Goodley, Texas, licensed member of the American Poultry Association. A poultry auction will be held tomorrow and the show will conclude tomorrow night.

Grain Market

CHICAGO TRADING

CHICAGO, Dec. 7 (AP)—Wheat tended downward early today, despite relative strength shown by the wheat market at Liverpool. Sellers of wheat in Chicago outnumbered the buyers, owing more or less to bearish reports regarding the crop outlook for domestic winter wheat. Opening at 1-4c off, to 3-8c up. Chicago wheat later showed a material setback all around. Corn, oats and provisions were comparatively firm, with corn starting 1-8c to 3-4c higher but subsequently reacting.

LABOR GROUP DISGRUNTLED

WIDE CLEAVAGE WITH MEXICAN CHIEF IS APPARENT

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 7.—Wide cleavage between V. R. O. M., the Mexican federation of labor, and the government was seen today in orders issued by the labor organization to its members to retire from any posts they occupied in either of the federal or state governments. This action was immediately followed by special sessions of the senate and chamber of deputies and both bodies passed resolutions of confidence in President Portes Gil.

The members of V. R. O. M., at a convention also passed resolutions withdrawing their delegates from participation in the congress of representatives and workers and employers which is considering labor legislation fostered by the Mexican president.

The action of V. R. O. M. was taken after President Portes Gil had sent a note to the convention denying charges made during its sessions that members of the organization were being persecuted in various parts of Mexico. The president also denied that he had been active against the organization while governor of the state of Tamaulipas, where most of Mexico's oil industry is centered.

The president also denied the request of the organization that he interfere with the production of a play in a Mexico City theater which the labor unions claimed was critical of them. Portes Gil said that he stood by the statement made in his inaugural address that the right to criticize would always be fully respected and protected by his administration.

This declaration was praised by speakers in the chamber and senate in discussing the situation. A majority of the speakers severely censured the labor organization and its president, Luis N. Morones, former minister of labor.

Excitement in the chamber of deputies reached a high pitch when two members pulled out guns and were disarmed by their colleagues.

Channing Pollock, playwright, says theater audiences these days "check their brains with their hats." And, of course, Mr. Pollock, some just check their hats.

"False Alarm"

CHICAGO, Dec. 7 (AP).—Chicago police today thought they had arrested a "big time" counterfeiter when they took into custody Paul Hunter, banker and toy merchant, of San Antonio, Texas. But they released him when he convinced them he liked to carry his currency in sheets instead of single bills.

Hunter visited a toy factory to buy some toys. His bill was $55 and he handed the clerk a sheet of five $10 national bank notes issued by the Commercial National Bank of San Antonio, of which he is an officer. The clerk called the police and the police took Hunter to the police station.

"You must think we don't know what bank notes look like," said one officer.

"Ask any banker if they aren't printed like this," Hunter challenged.

Police visited a nearby bank and showed the bills to bank officials. Five minutes later Hunter was free and announced his intention of returning to Texas "on the first train."

Sends Al Goobar

HARLINGEN, Texas, Dec. 7 (AP).—Bill Williams' peanut—the very same goober he started rolling ten miles with his nose because Governor Alfred E. Smith lost in the presidential race—was sent to the New York governor yesterday. Wound with gold wire and encased in a silver box, the peanut, an inscription on the box said, was "from one good loser to another."

Williams rolled peanuts—plural, because several of them were out—from Rio Hondo to Harlingen to pay an election bet on the New York Governor.

Frotiersman Dies

WINK, Texas, Dec. 7 (AP).—Judge W. J. Hannah, 68, for 44 years an outstanding criminal lawyer on Texas' turbulent frontiers, will be buried in his old home, Waco. Judge Hannah dropped dead, victim of an heart attack yesterday while walking from the postoffice to his home. He came here from Waco with the declaration that "civilized communities nowadays are too slow for an old-Longhorn."

"Xmas Bungalow"

BEAUMONT, Dec. 7 (AP).—A Christmas "bungalow" erected in front of the Beaumont federal building is planned by Postmaster Charles Ledwidge as a unique idea to take care of the additional holiday mail rush with present postoffice facilities.

After a consultation with superintendent of schools, M. E. Moore it was decided to have the structure erected by high school manual training students.

Electrical Flowers

ABILENE, Dec. 7 (AP).—Flowers grown electrically attain almost twice their normal size. This has been disclosed through an experiment by Joe A. White of Abilene. The test was made in an especially laid out flower bed in White's back yard. Three beds of chrysanthemums were planted and over the extreme end of the garden was swung an ordinary 300 watt electric lamp. The flowers grew rapidly and after budding, matured quickly. The ex-

STRIKERS DIE IN DISORDERS

SOLDIERS ATTEMPTING TO RESTORE ORDER ARE IN CLASH

(By Associated Press)

BOGOTA, Colombia, Dec. 7 (AP).—The newspaper Espectador said today that eight strikers had been killed and several wounded in a clash with soldiers attempting to restore order in the Santa Marta banana region. A state of siege has been decreed in the region and General Carlos Cortes Vargas has been appointed civil and military commander.

The newspaper Mundo Al Dia said the minister of war confirmed reports that strikers had been killed but added that lack of telegraphic communication with the area made it difficult to obtain details.

The executives of several labor bodies conferred with the minister of industries in an effort to arrange a peaceful settlement.

Jefferson Caffery, United States minister, said he had received no particular instructions from Washington regarding the disturbances but was convinced that the Colombian government was making every effort to restore order and that it would protect the interests of American citizens.

periment showed that the flowers farthest away from the light measured about two inches in diameter, gaining in size, until those directly under the light's rays measured six inches in diameter.
