OPINION GIVEN BY COURT OF APPEALS

MAN IS CONVICTED OF SLAYING WIFE AND HER PARENTS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 8.—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed the death sentence of Joe Shield, who killed his wife and his parents in law at Brookesmith in Brown county last May.

Shield was assessed the death penalty in the killing of his wife, Mrs. Opal Mae Shield. He shot his wife on the front porch of her home and then shot her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shields as they emerged from their store across the street.

Shield pleaded insanity.

The opinion in the Shield case was written by Judge George Christian, member of the commission of appeals.

One of the many objections of the appellant was to the argument of Walter U. Early, district attorney.

Early was quoted as saying: "I have served as district attorney in this judicial district for the past 24 years and never in the history of this judicial district nor in the history of Brown county has there ever been a crime so atrocious as this one."

Held Apparent

"That the crime was atrocious is apparent from the record," Christian said. "Every man intelligent enough to serve on a jury would know the facts reflected by this record stamp the crime as atrocious. We are unable to see how the remarks could have influenced the jury to reject the defense of insanity."

The defense, in trying to prove its insanity contention at the trial, alleged that Shield's father was insane and that the defendant was like his father. Testimony showed that Shield's father was tried for insanity but not convicted.

Evidence showing that Shield had been worrying over the separation from his wife was adduced at the trial.

Killed Instantly

According to the testimony, Mrs. Shield was sitting on her porch, holding a child in her lap, when Shield drove up. As Shield got a

WILL RUN FOR PRESIDENT

FORMER SENATOR J. I. FRANCE TO OPPOSE PROHIBITION

(By The Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, April 8 (AP)—Offering a platform opposing government interference with private business, repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and a concert of nations, former Senator Joseph I. France of Maryland, has announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the United States. Today he made ready to file formal notice with the secretary of state at Annapolis and said he would enter primaries in other states although he has as yet "no promises of support."

Opposes Hoover

He said he was an anti-prohibition candidate in opposition to President Hoover.

Dr. France was in the United States senate from 1917 to 1923. He was one of the "irreconcilables" who opposed the entry of the country into the League of Nations, proposing as a substitute a concert of nations. He was not in favor of the soldiers' bonus or of the four power pact developing from the disarmament conference in Washington.

DEMOS WILL MAKE PRO ISSUE STAND

DES MOINES, April 8 (AP)—A "thorough plan to correct the industrial crises" and a definite stand on prohibition will be incorporated in the Democratic platform for the 1932 campaign, Jouett Shouse, chairman of the National Democratic Executive committee, said today in an interview.

Shouse, who last night formally opened the campaign here with a speech to Iowa party leaders, left today to continue his speaking trip through the west.

He did not intimate what the stand would be.

He predicted a return of North Carolina, Virginia, Florida and Texas, states which bolted from Alfred E. Smith in 1928, to the Democratic fold.

"Big Bill" Thompson, "Rarin' Jack" Walton Go Down In Defeat As Blinn, Cermak Win Mayoralty Elections

CAREER OF POLITICAL MASTER ENDS UNDER BLANKET OF VOTES

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 8—The political career of William Hale Thompson, as mayor, today lay buried beneath a record-breaking blanket of votes which elevated to the mayorship Anton J. Cermak, one time immigrant boy from Bohemia.

"Big Bill, the Builder" and a past master of the art of American politics, was swept out of office by his Democratic opponent by the overwhelming majority of 191,916, thus becoming the worst beaten mayoralty candidate in the history of the city. The vote, Thompson, 475,613, Cermak, 667,529, was in sharp contrast to the previous record majority of 147,477 by which Thompson won in 1915.

"New Deal" Hailed

The result by which the "cowboy" mayor's aspirations for a fourth term were abruptly ended was hailed by his opponents as a "new deal for Chicago."

"Chicago," said Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, "has redeemed itself. We've had enough of Nero fiddling while Rome burned. We have told the world that we are prepared to regain our business level and restore our good name."

The mayor-elect, who expects to take office soon—possibly within the next week—took his elevation to the mayorship of America's second city quietly declaring the "whole world" would not be disappointed in the new administration. He took a nap after the close of the poll, awakening to find himself winning.

War On Criminals

"Criminals," he said, "will find no hiding place here. Our streets will be safe. Industry and commerce will find the highest encouragement. We shall at once set ourselves to the task of preparing our house for those who shall visit us at the century of progress exhibition. This truly begins a new day for Chicago."

Bedlam broke loose in the streets of downtown Chicago as shouts of frenzied Cermak supporters haled his victory over the master showman. Bombs and bullets added to the din but they were fired harmlessly into the heavens, the outburst of enthusiasm exceeding that of Armistice Day. There were no disorders last night or during the day's balloting.

HIGHWAY TRAFFIC IS AFFECTED BY FALL THROUGHOUT AREA

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 8.—Sections of upper New York state, Pennsylvania and New England were covered with snow today as a result of a storm which crippled power and light service in several communities and hampered highway traffic throughout the affected areas.

A wet, sticky blanket was laid from the foothills of the Adirondacks to Albany varying in depth from three to six inches.

Salem In Darkness

Salem, N. Y., was thrown into darkness when a 12 inch fall of snow disabled the lighting system. Many telephone lines were down.

Traffic in the vicinity of Olean, N. Y., was hampered by the storm during which 10 inches of snow fell. Buses from New York and other points were four and five hours behind schedule.

Weather Is Blamed For Plane Mishap

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—Weather has the official blame for the airplane crash that killed Coach Knute Rockne and seven others at Bazaar, Kansas, on Mar. 31.

HOUSE CLEANING SEEN IN OKLAHOMA CITY GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 8.—Rejecting Rarin' Jack Walton, Oklahoma City voters have placed the reins of city government in the hands of quiet spoken C. J. Blinn for the next four years.

Blinn, an attorney, has promised a house cleaning at the city hall and takes into office with him anti-administration councilmen.

Decisively Beaten

The former governor, impeached and ousted in 1923, was decisively beaten. A record ballot of 41,682 votes giving Blinn 25,375 to his 16,307.

Walton twelve years ago this month won the office which was denied him yesterday. By coincidence, William Hale Thompson was elected mayor of Chicago at the same time and yesterday also was defeated.

Always a fighter, Walton attempted a comeback in 1924 but was defeated by W. S. Pine, Republican, for the United States senate.

Again, last summer Walton announced he would file for the senate, as an independent but withdrew before the election, and entered the mayoral race.

Under Indictment

He is under federal indictment for alleged mail fraud in connection with an oil stock selling project.

Blinn, when his victory was assured, telegraphed his congratulations to Anton J. Cermak, mayor elect of Chicago, who defeated Thomppson.

"Congratulations on our joint victory," the message said, "Walton goes down with Thompson."

His office refused to give any information concerning his whereabouts in the city or whether he intended to sign charges accusing L. S. Boling of San Antonio, with embezzling between $100,000 and $125,000, which Julian claimed he entrusted to Boling last summer.

MEASURE ADOPTED BY 25 TO 5 VOTE AT AUSTIN TODAY

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 8.—Voting 22 to 8, the senate this afternoon passed finally the Woodul bond issue substitute. The vote on adoption of the substitute was 25 to 5.

Bond issue proponents in the senate swept to victory this morning with one vote to spare. It required a two-thirds majority on both adoption of the substitute and its final passage.

On final passage proponents drew the votes of Senators Parrish of Lubbock, Hardin of Stephenville and DeBerry of Bogata. They had previously voted against submission of the bond resolution to the people. Senator Greer of Athens, who voted for the resolution on engrossment, was absent today.

AUSTIN, April 8.—The proposed $212,000,000 highway bond issue was pending in the senate today with supporters confident they would muster the two thirds majority necessary for final passage.

Twenty one votes were needed for passage of the proposed constitutional amendment. On a substitute proposed yesterday by Senator Poage of Waco, opponent of the bond issue, the vote was 21 to 8 against it, and Senator Greer of Kemp, supporter of the bond issue was absent.

Parrish Opposed

The issue received 20 votes for engrossment. In addition to the former proponents those who voted against the Poage substitute yesterday were Senators DeBerry of Bogata and Parrish of Lubbock.

Senator Woodul of Houston, floor leader of the bond issue, had changed his original proposal. His new resolution provided that the people might vote on two amendments, one to permit the issuance of $100,000,000 in bonds for new construction and the other to allow a $112,000,000 issue to reimburse counties for funds spent on state roads. The electorate might accept one and reject the other.

REVENGE IS SWEET IF CASTOR OIL INVOLVED; DOCTOR FINED

(By The Associated Press)

VAN NUYS, Calif., April 8.—Dr. R. L. Thompson smiled confidently as he appeared on traffic charges before the bench of his brother, Judge Clifford Thompson, in municipal court yesterday.

The charges were speeding and having no tail light. Judge Thompson usually suspended tail light violations. But the court donned his severest judicial frown.

"Speeding," said Judge Thompson, "will cost you $5. And if I recall right, the last time I was ill you prescribed for me."

"I did," Dr. Thompson replied. "You just imagined you were ill, and I prescribed castor oil."

"I can taste it yet. For the tail light offense $2, doctor."

COLLEGE MEN OF TODAY ARE MORE "HIPPEROUS" THAN 50 YEARS AGO

(By The Associated Press)

TROY, N. Y., April 8.—After 56 years observation of college men, Dr. Palmer Chamberlaine Ricketts, president of Rensselaer Polytechnic institute, finds students of today more "hipperous" than those of half a century ago.

That's the chief difference he has found. Modern students are as well balanced and as hard working.

College men now drink no more than their father did, he explained, but now they have to carry their liquor on the hip, hence "hipper" and "hipperous."

"I've only been teaching 56 years," he said, 'and human nature doesn't change much in so short a time.'"

FORMER LEADER OF JUVENILE GANG IS PHILOSOPHICAL IN WRITINGS

An often repeated but often ignored maxim is repeated by Cyrus Frost, a former convict awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary at Huntsville, in a letter to the Avalanche-Journal.

"You can't win in the game of life by being dishonest," declares Frost, who said he had learned that truth by bitter experience. He is regarded as a former leader of the juvenile Snow gang, now virtually extinct.

Frost, an older brother of the Frosts who when convicted several months ago were members of the Snow gang, and another prisoner escaped from the Lubbock county jail January 28. Frost subsequently was arrested by deputy sheriffs here February 19 as he ate a lunch and awaited a freight train he expected to board.

In Hale Jail

The oldest of the Frost brothers is in the Hale county jail at Plainview, awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary.

"Of course you are familiar with the name of 'Cyrus Frost,' and as you have printed numerous articles about me, I wonder if you would print just one more with my request" Frost wrote in a letter to the Avalanche-Journal Tuesday. "This is it":

"You good people of Lubbock have heard and read a lot about me but this is the first time you have heard directly from me.

"Naturally, most of you are going to be surprised by the fact that I have reformed at last.

"Those of you who know me personally will wonder what could have caused this sudden change of character. It's very simple. I don't mind 'fessing up.' It was nothing more or less than the 'precious little thing called love.' Very few people, I think, realize how strong real true love is and what effects it can have on one's heart. I don't think one can ever be the same, before or after, actually falling in love. The world needs more of it.

"Now, and only now, is the first time I have really been sorry for the wrong things I have did. Honestly, I am sorry for the trouble I have given the honest citizens of Lubbock and especially the panic I have caused the Lubbock peace officers. I say this because the most trouble I gave them was when they didn't know who was causing so much trouble and endless, sleepless searching. Undoubtedly, I have given the Lubbock police force and sheriff's department more cause to worry than any other individual.

"Of course, I've had some thrilling experiences and I've been in some pretty tight corners that took on the hue of a pretty serious matter at the time.

"For instance, take the night of January 27 when I decided I'd take a little vacation of my own accord from my little room of confinement in the Lubbock county jail. Evidently Mr. Earnest, the jailer, objected to my going anywhere without his consent for as soon as I had made my exit he immediately started shooting his pistol in my direction. He shouldn't be so careless with a gun like that; sometime he may hurt somebody. But I have always been pretty lucky at dodging bullets. I didn't get my practice in Chicago, either!

"But now, to make a summary: Of all the gains and progress I've made, financially and otherwise, I am still on the losing end!

"After about fifteen years of outlawry, from stealing milk off of porches to gang leader, I think I have a perfect right and can truthfully make the following statement: 'You can't win in the game of life by living dishonest.'

"I am familiar, more or less, with every peace officer Lubbock has had since 1919. I know them by sight and by reputation. Two of the most brilliant acts of an officer that I know to be facts were those of the present Chief of Police, John Lemond. I think Charlie Halcomb during his administration as sheriff was also a very intelligent officer.

"I would give anything in the world if I could only tell young boys in a way that they could foresee what they will be losing by trying to disobey the laws of our country.

"I am now in the Plainview jail with one year in the pen for a charge I am innocent of. But I don't mind that. I'm still ahead in that respect. I am going down and do this little year and I hope I can satisfy society by doing it. Then when I get out I'll be even and I am going to stay even.

"CYRUS FROST."

GOVERNOR OF LIONS HERE

SAM BRASWELL TALKS AT LUNCHEON OF LOCAL CLUB

The economic depression virtually has ended, and membership increases and generally improved conditions of Lions clubs reflect the upturn, said Sam Braswell, district Lions governor of Clarendon, before the Lions club at its weekly luncheon Tuesday noon at the Hilton hotel.

Quarterly meeting of district directors of the Lions club was held Tuesday at the Hilton. The next quarterly session of the directorate will be held at Dimmitt, the directors decided.

Others Present

Drawing an analogy between financial margins and an individual's margin of moral and physical strength and resistance, Mr. Braswell warned against efforts to do business or live on little or no margin.

Business men and financiers, some of whom previously had been conservative, expanded their businesses considerably without increasing their margin, and an economic depression followed, the district governor said.

The same danger faces the person without physical margin, he said, for the physique can not withstand an attack if it has been too greatly abused.

Twelve Volunteer

Twelve Lubbock Lions volunteered to represent the local club in the Lubbock delegation today to the annual Texas Panhandle-Plains Dairy show at Plainview.

The Texas cleanup and paintup cup won by Lubbock, as first ranking Texas city in a campaign conducted last spring was displayed at the luncheon. The Lions club participated in the cleaning and painting program.

H. M. Moore, choir director at the First Christian church, sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by his wife.

Lions ladies night will be next Tuesday night, it was announced.

Texas is the mother-state of the Lions club, the first club having been organized at San Antonio, and there are more Lions clubs in Texas than all other service clubs combined, Mr. Braswell said at the luncheon.

Dr. S. S. McKay, president, presided.

Doctor Myers' Dailu Column On Child Welfare

DR. MYERS

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

ASKS FOR LETTERS

Often I hear from readers who write me wantnig to know if I will give personal advice, and what I charge for such services. Bless their souls, I gladly answer every letter writer who encloses a self-addressed stamped envelope, as soon and as well as I am able, and do not accept pay for such services except the reward of hope that I may help ease the worries of a troubled father or mother or child.

An occasional reader passing through my home city stops over to talk with me concerning a parent problem, and some others who know of my coming to a city of their home or near it, have arranged conferences. I consider such face-to-face contact with my readers a privilege to make my column gradually better; and of course, I accept no fee for such services.

* * *

I once had an office for private consultation services for parents, which I called "The Psycho-Educational Clinic," and had hanging on the wall a valid certificate stating that I was a "Certified Consulting Psychologist," issued by the American Psychological association. I started an office with a pediatrician.

But I finally gave up the office, since my writing and lectures interfered with it or it with them. I had about as many cases as I could take care of, but so many of them were my former students—whom, of course, I could not conscientiously charge—and so many others did not seem able to pay, that I found myself barely earning office rent. Anyway, I learned a good deal and got considerable satisfaction believing that I was helping make a few homes happier.

The other day I heard a story about a self-sacrificing doctor who had never accepted a fee from a poor widow whose health he had looked after for years. Suddenly the widow came into a rich inheritance. She immediately employed another doctor, paying him high fees. She said that since she was able to pay she preferred to have a "good doctor." Unfortunately, such is too often true. When services are given free or for a small sum they may be little esteemed. We Americans seem to measure values by the dollar. Some parents do, indeed, forget that conscientious doctor who had made great personal sacrifices for them, not caring whether he is paid or not. Just how a good many faithful doctors are forgotten, even by those who are enjoying luxuries.

Anyway, such doctors get some real satisfaction in knowing they have forgotten self in pursuit of an ideal of trying to be useful.

I trust my readers will not hesitate to write me about any problem on which they think I might be able to give help personally by mail, or through these columns. I am glad to hear from teachers and children, and young men and women, married or single, as well as from parents.

RARE COFFEE WINS COUNTLESS NEW USERS BY FLAVOR

Amazing Popularity of Hills Bros. Coffee Tribute to Roasting Process

Years of experiment by Hills Bros. have resulted in the origination and perfection of the only Controlled Roasting process in use today.

By Hills Bros.' patented process, the degree of roast is positively controlled. The quantity of coffee passing into the roaster—about three pounds at a time—does not vary. The speed of the flow and the temperature remain the same, with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform. This roasting method is to a large degree responsible for the frequent question, "Why is Hills Bros. Coffee always the same?"

Comparisons show that Hills Bros. Coffee has a flavor no other coffee has. The ordinary method of roasting in bulk cannot insure a uniform roast because there is a lack of control.

The vacuum can, in which Hills Bros. Coffee is packed, keeps the coffee fresh. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is completely removed from the can and kept out. Coffee does not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if air-tight. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can. Sold by grocers everywhere.

KEEP COOL PLEASE!

IF YOU notice that your hands are not staying as smooth as they might, ask yourself the cause. The answer is that washing in hot water is the greatest single destroyer of skin beauty in existence.

Of course, if you use ordinary soap, you won't get clothes and dishes clean without hot water. But with White King Granulated Soap, made from pure vegetable and nut oils, you can get complete and thorough cleansing in lukewarm water. It will spare your hands, and, at the same time, save your colored ginghams and prints from an untimely end.

White King is economical too. Because it's condensed, a little goes a long, long way. It's the safest and yet the most effective soap you can buy. And it's ideal for hard water. Try it today. At your grocer's.

Thought For Today

For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.—Psalm 38:18.

* * *

Illusion is brief, but repentance is long.—Schiller.

Gangsters

The rise of the gangster from criminality to respectability is not a new thing under the sun. In the old days robber chieftains often retired, in the fullness of time, to placidity under the shadow of a country mansion. In more recent days such men as Pancho Villa have given up the excitement of the chase to go back to rural simplicity and peace. And now, unless dispatches from Los Angeles are in error, Al Capone is feeling the same urge.

Capone, it seems, has his eye on a vast rancho in California. It is a huge tract of land that has been under cultivation since the early days of the Spanish occupation; a tract 35 miles long and approximately half as wide, running down to the Pacific and boasting of a fine old adobe ranch house bordered by abundant sycamore trees.

Capone would like to have this rancho for his own. Its broad acres are wide enough to form an attractive principality even for one accustomed to rulership in Chicago. Peace and quiet are to be had there, with rolling green fields and herds of contented cattle to soothe the eye.

Now California, probably, will see to it that the transfer does not take place. But the thought is attractive, nevertheless. There are things in this dull world giving much to see and one of them is the ex-gang leader of Chicago ending his days as a country gentleman, entering prize cattle in the local stock shows and beaming with pride as his tomatoes and plums win fame at county fairs.

Life would be peaceful but there would be diversions. On the hills of this ranch there is said to be buried treasure, hidden there by the Spanish padres years ago when brigands raided the place. Cannot one picture Senor Capone, pickaxe over his shoulder and pack mule trudging alongside, faring forth to delve for lost diamonds and plate? And is it hard to imagine him in chaps and sombrero, turning into a vaquero and riding his estate to see that all went well?

Really great brigands usually do manage to end their days in some such way as this. There seems to come a time when banditry, if only it is bold enough and successful enough, confers a sort of immunity on its author. The lawless men of other days who went to the country in the sere and yellow and laid their weapons aside to take up ploughs and spades usually managed to get away with it.

Retribution has a way of faltering and losing its voice in the presence of such men. Will we, you suppose, yet see the underworld king of Chicago living out a life of peace on a somnolent country estate?

Thinking

Brain workers ought not to take too much to heart the disconsolate news Dr. George W. Crile, renowned surgeon, gave the Southeastern Surgical Congress at Atlanta the other day.

Discoursing on the results of some of his researches, the noted scientist declared that the thinkers, the leaders of modern civilization, are more susceptible to sickness and disease than are other classes. "Their high mental activity," he asserts, "may and often does wear out the entire physical mechanism."

A glance about us, however, should reassure rather than discourage the brain workers. Regardless of all that has been said about the killing pace of our nervous existence, we find among the most prominent "leaders of modern civilization" men who have lived beyond the Biblical span and who are still hearty and active. We have only to consider Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, John D. Rockefeller, Sr., George F. Baker, all beyond 90, and youngsters like Elihu Root, 85, Thomas Edison, 83, and Cyrus Curtis, 80.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says a kiss is perfectly harmless; it's the echo that gets you in trouble.

* * *

Which reminds The Plainsman that it may be the woman who pays but it's the man who gives.

* * *

WELL, folks, what do you think's happening now. No sooner than the Plainsman gets his plans all well laid for his new cow ranch when along comes someone who tries to upset all of them. About the time he gets his brand all figured out and selects a name that sounds about as different as anyone ever heard (and you'll agree that you never heard of the "Squabble-O-G's" before did you) and someone tries to throw a wrench into the whole affair.

* * *

This ranch of the Plainsman's was started purely as a "cow" ranch to raise good beef stock in support of that "Quality Meats" movement Doc Barr, A. B. Davis, Runt Stangel and those other fellows started here several weeks ago. The South Plains has been a ranch country for a long time and there's no reason why a lot of it can't be kept as a ranch country. But this plot against the U-Lazy-Chump ranch or the "Squabble-O-G's" as it is called now is seeking to disrupt that entirely.

* * *

THERE'S a petition being circulated up at the dairy show at Plainview to get the legislature to pass a law preventing the establishment of any more "cow" ranches on the South Plains. The Plainsman doesn't know who's behind the plot but he suspects that Roy Davis, S. J. Payne and a bunch of their cronies are responsible. Roy is general manager of the show and hopes to keep his job for several years to come but for fear the Plainsman's ranch idea will break into the dairying movement, he's out to 'nip it in the bud.'

* * *

Now dairying may be all right, the Plainsman hasn't got anything in particular against milch cows but somehow they just wouldn't look as good alongside a good old whiteface over on the slopes of the "Squabble-O-G's" outfit. Why they even want to change the name of the ranch and call it "Shady Rest Dairy Farm" or "Sunny Slope Farm, The Home Of Contented Cows." And furthermore, the petition states, that the brand of the ranch should be done away with and 'markers' substituted. Imagine anyone trying to pick out his cows in a roundup next spring by looking for a little marker of some sort on a cow's ear or horn. Imagine the Plainsman carrying a milk bucket around. It just won't do, that's all.

* * *

* * *

THAT Man on Avenue Q says that there would be many more happy marriages if the wife took as many pains to keep her husband as she did to get him.

* * *

JUNIOR CLERK (arriving late at work): "I'm sorry, sir, but my wife just presented me with a son, and I thought you wouldn't mind my being late on such an occasion."

BOSS: "That depends on whether you mean to have a large family."

* * *

The Plainsman was right the other day when he said it was really spring. Tuesday just bore out his statement and this morning's rain clouds hovering near went on to present further evidence. Those April showers which bring May flowers aren't so very far away, it seems.

* * *

Sure it's spring, why they've even ordered the fly paper for the diplomas to be presented to the aviation graduates at the municipal airport.

United States Can Not Deport Al Capone Because He Was Born In America; Gangster Leader Served As A Soldier

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of three stories on the Department of Labor's deportation drive.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 8—Quite often the immigration service gets a letter from an indignant citizen who demands to know why Uncle Sam doesn't deport Al Capone.

The answer is, of course, that Capone is an American citizen. He was born in this country, and served in the American army during the war, with a good record as a soldier.

The federal government, while making a special effort to co-operate with all local authorities in such war as they may be making on gangs and racketeering, can't deport a gangster simply because he has a foreign-sounding name or simply because he is an alien. He is safe from deportation if he is a citizen. He is safe from deportation in any case if he has not violated the immigration law or has not been convicted of an offense involving moral turpitude.

May Deport for Moral Cause

Any alien convicted of a moral turpitude crime within five years of his entry into the country becomes deportable and one who is twice convicted and sentenced for a year or more may be deported regardless of the time of his entry.

If an alien gangster entered the country illegally before 1924 he is safe in so far as that offense is concerned; if he entered illegally after that, he is deportable.

"We are trying to help local authorities every way we can," says Assistant Secretary of Labor W. W. Husband. "But we think we have a right to feel that if a city government can't arrest and convict its own gangsters it's a little too much to expect the immigration service to solve local gangster problems."

The biggest strike in the Labor Department's anti-gangster activity has been the deportation proceedings against Tony Volpe, Chicago's "Public Enemy No. 2" and said to be Capone's right-hand man. Volpe is charged by the immigration service with being an alien who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. He is also deportable, it is alleged, because he reentered this country from Cuba by falsely claiming American citizenship. Aliens cannot be deported for prohibition law violations because those, according to court decisions, don't constitute moral turpitude.

Aim at Communists

The deportation drive has also been directed with special emphasis against Communists, but of course many Communists are also citizens and although Husband says there has ben a real increase this year in the number of Communists deported he complains that attempts at such deportation often mean long, hard court fights. Radical aliens, he explains, are often defended by the American Civil Liberties Union or some other group.

Anarchists are deportable under the law and the Labor Department contends that it has authority to deport an active alien Communist who has well defined connections with an international movement and whose actions in pursuance of the purposes of that movement are aimed at the overthrow of the government by force and violence. Russians, however, are safe because we haven't relations with the Soviet and can't deport people there.

Although the department has often been criticized for a hard-boiled attitude in deportation cases involving aliens who are in bad with their home governments—especially anti-Fascist Italians—Husband says that immigration officials still follow the policy of acting sympathetically toward genuine political refugees.

Few Deportees Face Death

The policy has been most often applied to Mexicans who have fled during or after revolutions. But he insists that there aren't many political cases any more and that the contention that deportees faced death at the hands of Mussolini has been quite common in Italian cases.

"Where such a claim is substantiated we take it into account," he said. "But I haven't yet heard of a case where an Italian whom we deported was later executed."

The assistant secretary admitted, however, that he couldn't keep track of cases where deportees to Italy might have been imprisoned by the Mussolini government.

TOMORROW: How aliens enter the country illegally and how the government sends them back.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1439 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene", "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

IRRITATIONS

THE RECEIPT of a good-sized volume named "Cancer," by Dr. Willy Meyer, is acknowledged, Dr. Meyer has long been one of the most distinguished of New York's surgeons. His experience has been enormous, so that anything he says on such a subject is important.

Dr. Clendening

The thesis he develops is that cancer is caused by an unbalancing of the growth tension of cells due to chronic irritation or inflammation. Accompanying this chronic systemic disturbance, i. e., a change of the chemistry of the whole body. This theory is developed in great detail and buttressed by an enormous array of evidence of many kinds from the sciences of heredity and genetics, chemistry, physiology and anatomy.

It has a practical importance in these days when, as Dr. Meyers says, the medical profession is so cancer-conscious. This lies in the warning for any person over 45 to get rid of any spot of irritation or chronic inflammation on the skin or surface of the body, such as in the mouth cavity—tongue, gums, cheeks, etc.

"Cancer never begins in a healthy spot." "No one has yet seen a cancer of the skin or visible mucous membrane of the body which was not preceded by some form of chronic irritation." Such are some of the assembled quotations from prominent surgeons of the world.

The idea that cancer is caused by a germ or a parasite is utterly rejected. The author quotes a remark made to him by the German pathologist Aschoff: "And if you reached Methuselah's age you would not live long enough to see that happen." Such prophecies, of course, have proved rather dangerous in medicine. Benjamin Brodie, the English surgeon, said, in 1847, that the hope of obtaining an agent which would make the patient insensible to pain during a surical operation was a chimera. And at the very moment his words were spoken the packet which was bringing the news of ether anaesthesia from Boston was on the ocean.

The question of the contagiousness of cancer is dwelt on at great length. It has often come up in letters from readers addressed to this column. The occurrence of "cancer houses" has often been reported—houses in which a large number of cancer deaths occur over a period of years. "Cancer cities" such as Berlin, where the incidence of cancer is 165 per 100,000 population as compared to 63 for New York—this constitutes another problem which Dr. Meyer discusses at length. His conclusion is that there is no real evidence that these occurrences are due to a special kind of contagion. A combination of hereditary predisposition and the irritation from chronic non-specific infection such as might be caused by bad drains, sewage, vermin, rats and the parasites associated with rats, mice and other animals brings about a cancer state.

Chemical irritants, especially tar and perhaps, according to another investigator, sulphur compounds, have an undoubted influence in causing cancer.

HALE RECEIVES ROAD MATERIAL

PLAINVIEW, April 8—(Special)—Shipped for use in paving state Highway 28 from Plainview westward to the Hale-Lamb county line, between 1,600 and 1,800 carloads of materials will be handled here during the next several months, according to E. C. Kuykendall, general agent for the Fort Worth & Denver City railway.

Paving materials are being unloaded at a special switch for the contractors, Womack, Herring and Rollins, at Edmonson, northwest of Plainview eight or ten miles.

Pouring of the concrete slab started the first of April on the west end. It is planned to have the work completed for nearly half of the 23 miles between now and harvest time in the summer, so that farmers with wheat will have the chance to use the paved road to within a short distance of Edmondson, according to Mr. Kuykendall.

CONTRACT AWARDED

CHICAGO, April 8. (AP)—A contract for construction of 60 miles of railroad between Felt, Okla., and Gladstone, N. M., was let Tuesday by the Santa Fe to the Sharp Fellows company, of Los Angeles, the lowest of 11 bidders. The amount was not announced.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, April 8—Visitors from the smaller towns of America, make the most strenuous efforts to engage sky-high bedrooms when they come to New York.

Visitors from Europe are the second heaviest bidders for the thrill of occupying a room in the city's higher spots.

From the statistics of the New Yorker Hotel, which prides itself on some 41 stories, I find that 70 per cent of all postcards sent to the folks back home from that particular spot show crosses marking the higher window and the presumption is that the visiting fireman is proudly reporting a night spent at such a dizzy height. Of course, the statistician doesn't read the cards. The information is gained from a glance at the hundreds of cross-markings glimpsed in the course of a week.

* * *

Incidentally, while on the subject of statistics that have no particular consequence, other than to throw some light upon the city's whims and fancies, it may interest you to know that apple pie remains the favorite dessert of the millions.

While every form of gastronomic delicacy is available, most of the millions go back to dear old apple pie with cheese.

* * *

The sudden rise of combined hot dogs and beans as a standing best-seller is credited at present to the hordes of work-seeking men who have been making the employment agencies in Sixth avenue their recent stamping ground.

These men have but a few nickels to spend on food, with the result that hundreds of tiny beans and hot dog counters have appeared within a few blocks.

* * *

A check of the various hotel information bureaus discloses that the question asked by the greatest percentage of male visitors is "Where can I get a good drink?"

The next most popular question is "What's something nice to take home to the wife, and where can I get it?"

Miss Jane Meyers, first to head a "hospitality bureau" at the New Yorker, informs me that she has advised some seven or eight thousand men on presents for their wives. If the wife likes the present, the hubby takes credit for the discovery; if she doesn't, Miss Meyers is willing to take the blame. Generally, she can figure out the nature of a souvenir by talking to the husband for a few minutes.

The question of where to get a drink, of course, goes unanswered except in private whisperings between bellboys and taxi chauffeurs. On an average it's a dangerous policy to depend upon the taximen. While many of them give honest information, the night crew, in particular, have tieups with notorious joints where the visitor is lucky to leave with his shirt.

These places resort to every sort of blackmail and trickery. Raising the amount of checks is one of the most prevalent forms of crookery. It is figured that the man will not want it to be known that he has been out on a wild evening and will swallow the loss rather than make trouble.

At almost every dawn, the night courts reveal scores of cases of smalltowners who were "steered" by a chauffeur to some tough spot and woke up with watch and money missing; or was tossed out into the street and beaten when he objected to holdup methods.

Interectingly enough, most of the visitors suggest that the drinking places also have good food, and suggest that they would like to have a good meal, with cocktails and wine.

PRICE WAR ENDS

NEW YORK, April 8. (AP)—The cigaret price war, started two years ago is over. Officials of two leading chain stores said today that effective Saturday the price of popular brand cigarets would be raised to 15 cents or two for 27 cents. They have been retailing the cigarets at 13 cents or two for a quarter.

DIES OF INJURIES

TYLER, April 8. (AP)—John McArthur, 25, of Van died last night of injuries received near here today when his automobile overturned. His skull was fractured. His parents and four sisters live in Los Angeles.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The music had a drum-drum sound and as the Tinies gathered 'round they had a chance to eye the men and instruments as well. Each man seemed serious as could be and played his part uite lustily. Said Coppy, "All they need now is just one more man to yell.

"I've never heard such funny strains. They even give my poor ears pains." "Oh, you just don't appreciate their talent," Clowny cried. "They've trained for years to play like that and not a single note is flat. You couldn't do as well as that, no matter how you tried."

One man had cymbals great to play and, goodness, how he banged away. Each time they came together it would make your poor ears ring. Another tooted on a horn that brought forth deep notes, quite forlorn. He'd puff his cheeks out till he was a funny looking thing.

The third had tomtoms which he played with both his hands. He sat and swayed and kept time with the music, though the time was not so good. Soon Coppy said, "Let's get away. I've had enough of that today. Despite the crazy sounds, I 'spose they've done the best they could."

And then they walked down to a stream and shortly Clowny said, "I seem to crave a little boat ride. Will you all wait here on shore? I see a native I will ask if he would mind the little task of taking me out for a ride. That's what his boat is for."

The native paddled near at hand. When Clowny made him understand that he would like a little trip, the native said "Hop in! I'll gladly steer the boat for you and you can do some paddling, too." When Clowny started on the ride it made the Tinies grin.

(The Tinymites move on to Rangoon in the next story).

Rudy Vallee says that when he broadcasts he feels like a surgeon beginning to operate. He's often had us in stitches.

GIVE OUT ROAD ALLOTMENTS

HALF MILLION TO BE SPENT ON HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—The State Highway Commission has announced allotments of $500,431.29 for road and bridge improvements in 27 counties.

Tarrant county was allotted $15,000, one half the cost of construction of a retaining wall on Highway 34 two miles northwest of Fort Worth where a slide was reported to endanger property.

Program Approved

The commission approved a highway betterment program for Jefferson county to cost approximately $2,399,000, agreeing to pay one half the expense. Jefferson county must vote bonds to finance the projects.

The appropriations were:

Camp and Titus counties: $28,072 for graveling 11 miles of Highway 65 from Mount Pleasant to Pittsburgh.

Bowie county: $8,222 for reshouldering and graveling 4.6 miles of Highway 8 from New Boston; $6,732 for redecking five timber pile trestle bridges on Highway 8.

Fannin county: $5,860 for grading and graveling a short connection between end of newly located Highway five and present road.

Parker: $4,587 for graveling and playing sandy sections for 2.7 miles of Highway 34 between Tarrant and Wise county lines.

Knox: $965.15 for roadway maintenance on 11.5 miles of Highway 24 from Benjamin to King county line.

Hall: $834 for roadway maintenance on 5.5 miles of Highway 18 from Turkey to Motley county line.

Reeves: $48,140.75 for flood prevention work on Highway 1, near Toyah; $13,636.84 for replacing 24 dips with corrugated metal culverts on 26.1 miles of highway between Pecos and Jeff Davis county line. $8,663.36 for replacing 14 dips with metal culverts on Highway 27 from Pecos county line east 15 miles.

Jeff Davis: $5,137.97 for replacement of six dips with metal culverts on Highway one between Reeves and Culbrson county lines.

Brewster: $41,502.73 for replacement of 62 dips with metal culverts on Highway 3 across county, 54 miles.

Somervell and Bosque: $30,000 for grading and drainage on 12 miles of highway to be constructed between Glenrose and Walnut Springs. The counties must furnish a 100 foot right of way. Appropriation made when commission learned counties unable to proceed with project because of lack of funds.

Cherokee: $16,538.63 for 8 inch iron ore gravel and road oil treatment on Highway 37 from two miles south of Smith county line to Jacksonville, 10.2 miles.

Gregg: $2,511 for emergency repairs to Sabine river bridge on Highway 26 between Longview and Kilgore.

Smith and Van Zandt: $50,000 from state and federal funds for construction of bridge across Neches river on Highway 64; bridge to be erected on site of present structure, to be 640 feet long and to be of reinforced concrete pile design.

San Augustine: $49,887.45 for widening shoulders and ditches, regraveling and surface treatment to 6.7 miles of Highway 8 from Shelby county line to San Augustine, county to furnish 80 foot right of way and gravel pits.

Shelby: $48,837.51 for widening shoulders and double bituminous surface treatment on 6.5 miles of Highway 35 from Timpson to Nacogdoches county line.

Travis: $2,144 for double bituminous surface treatment on Lou Kemp Highway No. 165, at state cemetery at Austin; $6,818 for scarifying, garveling and surface treatment on rough sections of Highway 2 between Austin and Hays county line; $1,614.80 for replacing three concrete dips with timber bridges on Highway 2 between Austin and Hays county line.

Bastrop: $16,154 for gravel base and double bitiminous surface treatment on Highway 71 from Smithville to Fayette county line, 3.5 miles.

Aransas: $562 for roadway maintenance on approaches to cause-way across Copano bay on Highway 57.

Washington: $64,075 for clearing and grubbing right of way on Highway 20 across county 27 miles.

Grimes: $10,832 for light oil treatment on Highway 90 from Roan's Prairie to Madison county line, 19 miles.

Austin: $8,365 for graveling several sections on Highway 159 between Nelsonville and Fayette county line.

Robertson: $8,448 for 12 miles of asphaltic seal coat on Highway 6 from 1.5 miles south of Calvert to Hammond.

The Jefferson county program would include betterments for 97 miles of highways and a bridge across the Neches river.

The commission authorized Jefferson county to vote bonds for half the cost of the improvements. The county also must furnish a 100 foot right of way on each project.

The Jefferson county projects were listed as follows: Highway 3 between Beaumont and Amelia, 4.8 miles, $140,000; Highway 8 from Beaumont to Port Arthur 14.9 miles $514,000; Highway 87, Neches river to Galveston-Chambers county line 52.6 miles $694,000; Highway 125, Beaumont to Chambers county line, 25 miles $401,000; Highway 87, Neches river bridge $650,000.

The commission stated the Neches river bridge would not be constructed until Orange county had furnished half the cost of a highway from Orange to Port Arthur. The state's participation in the bridge would be not to exceed $325,000.

The commission indicated improvements on Highway 133 in Jefferson county would be set aside for future consideration.

When a single pistol shot opened an empire

The famous Oklahoma Land Rush of April 22, 1889, when the crack of a pistol opened 1,900,000 acres of land to homesteaders.

The first Post Office at Oklahoma City, opened April 25, 1889, the day following the great Oklahoma Land Rush. Drawn from an actual photograph, Postmaster G. A. Beidler is shown standing in front of the Post Office, guarded by his son, Chase Beidler.

FOR YEARS Captain David Payne and his followers haunted the borders of what is now Oklahoma. Time and time again they built settlements, only to be driven out by the red men . . . their homes gone in clouds of smoke . . . trampled under the hoofs of Indian mustangs.

But such adversity only added fuel to the perennial American urge to pioneer and to seek homes in a new land of promise. Their persistence was rewarded when on March 23, 1889, a proclamation was issued by the President, opening 1,900,000 acres of land for settlement. How a single pistol shot changed an unpeopled and untamed Canaan one day into an American commonwealth the next, is now history. April 22, 1889, saw thousands of eager settlers, waiting for the solitary pistol shot that would open the way to wealth beyond conception.

Among the last States to be admitted into the Union, Oklahoma is now third in oil production and ranks among the leaders in cotton and wheat. In 1905, two years before Oklahoma was admitted as a State, the discovery of the Glen Pool near Sapulpa forever placed Oklahoma in the vanguard of all oil-producing States.

In the comparatively few years since the first discovery of oil west of the Mississippi River, millions of dollars have poured into the pockets of the people of the Southwest through royalties, leases and taxes. Railroads have realized a tremendous source of revenue . . . millions of people have been given jobs . . . bank deposits have grown fabulously . . . cities have bloomed where prairies once existed . . . the entire realm of business has profited and prospered.

That the founders of the Magnolia Petroleum Company were among the first refiners west of the Mississippi is not nearly as important as the fact that in a single generation this pioneer oil company has supplied every conceivable need for petroleum . . . changing and improving its products constantly to meet the changes and improvements in automobiles, industrial and farm equipment.

When 15 years of age he drilled his first oil well. One of the three original owners of the J. S. Cullinan Company, Corsicana, Texas, the pioneer refinery (1898). Mr. Payne selected the name "Magnolia". He died in 1926.

Just as the Magnolia Gasoline and Motor Oil of ten years ago were ideally adapted to the motors of that time, so are the Socony Motor Oil, Magnolia Maximum-Mileage and Magnolia Ethyl Gasolines of today tuned to the needs of the modern motor car . . . carrying you luxuriously and efficiently over historic Southwestern trails.

The FOG is LIFTING

. . . as the Standard Rating Scale eliminates guesswork in making this lifetime decision . . . .

Now, for the first time, with the help of the Standard Rating Scale, you can determine value in electric refrigeration just as surely as you can in such merchandise as food — shoes — furniture.

Apply to Kelvinator every test the Scale imposes. Look through the fog of single unimportant "features" that have confused buyers in the past. The more carefully you weigh all the facts the more clearly you will understand why Kelvinator, the oldest electric refrigeration, is recognized as the greatest value as well. We will put every facility at your disposal to make the test thoroughly. Try it!

STANDARD RATING SCALE
for Electric Refrigeration

- Is the refrigerator manufactured by a reliable company with proper experience in the electric refrigeration field?
- Has it plenty of food and shelf space?
- Is the cabinet itself well designed, sturdily built and properly insulated?
- Is there provision for the freezing of an adequate supply of ice cubes? (Quantity of ice rather than number of cubes, which may be of large or small size, should be taken into consideration).
- Will the refrigerator constantly maintain a proper temperature for the preservation of foods?
- Can the freezing of ice cubes and desserts be speeded up when the need arises?
- Can this extra freezing speed for ice cubes be had without affecting the temperature on the food shelves? (Too low a temperature on the shelves will, of course, injure food).
- Is there a place to keep ice cream, meat, fish, game, "quick frosted" foods or extra ice cubes indefinitely at a below freezing temperature?
- Are these various temperatures (a. extra fast freezing; b. fast freezing; c. below freezing for storage; and d. normal food preservation temperature) automatically maintained without any attention from the owner?
- Does the refrigerating unit operate often or infrequently? (The fewer "stops" and "starts" the longer the unit will last and the less it costs to run).
- How long will the cooling unit continue to cool the refrigerator even though the current is shut off? (Refrigeration should continue for 10 or 12 hours).
- Can the back parts of all shelves, even the lowest, be reached without kneeling or sitting down?
- Has provision been made for keeping vegetables fresh and crisp?
- Can the refrigerator top be used to "set things down for a moment" while the contents of the cabinet are being rearranged?
- Will the refrigerator add to the attractiveness of the kitchen?
- Has the experience of users over a long period of years proved the refrigerator long-lived and dependable?

LUBBOCK HIGH IN MARKET FOR NEW COACH; FRNKA TO LEAVE

TODAY IS DEADLINE IN TECH RELAYS

Collier Parris

When Pete Cawthon, Texas Tech's head coach, returned from South Bend last week he found a letter from Knute Rockne, written before Cawthon arrived at Rockne's spring training camp. The late mentor of Notre Dame expressed his pleasure and enthusiasm concerning the coaching school to be held here August 3-15, and was particularly interested to know that Jimmy Phelan had been signed to help conduct the course. The letter in part follows:

". . . I think you made a good move in getting Jimmy Phelan, as he will put on a dandy course. He knows my system quite intimately. While a quarterback at Notre Dame he was very outstanding. Though he never achieved the reputation of Stuhldreher or Carideo yet in my opinion he was just as fine a leader, just as keen a head in choice of plays. He is also a fine orator, a good teacher and will give, I believe, a very, very interesting and instructive course. I congratulate you on having him.

With every good wish, I am,
Cordially yours,
K. K. Rockne.

Phelan has been suggested by men "in the know" as a probable successor to the post vacated at Notre Dame by Rockne. Neither he nor any other man living could begin to take Rockne's place, at Notre Dame or in the coaching fraternity, for, as a well known writer said recently, "they made no carbon copies of Rockne", but the advantage of having Phelan here to conduct a coaching school is one that is welcome to coaches all over the country. They will come from great distances. And with a man with the reputation of Wallace Wade to form the dual combination the coaching school here next August should prove to be one of the most successful in the southwest this year.

Whoa, now, Jerry! We've just about caught up with the Amarillo scribe and his scout, "Mike" For several weeks Jerry has been telling of the activities of his private scout, "Mike", who has been relaying news of the big league training camps. Now Mike is reported to be on the road home, and he sent a telegram to Jerry the other day, reading, in Jerry's sheet, thusly: "Dere Jery: got monee ohkay i rote where i wuz goin on a card like you tolled me to and tied it on my cote lahpell so if the santa fay conductore can reed i will be home ohkay yur purrsonal scout, mike."

Now, everybody knows that a telegram always comes with every letter in capitals.

Raymond "Evo" Marshall, popular Tech athlete in recent years and a baseball player of note on the South Plains, was given his release this week by the Houston Buffs of the Texas League. While we did not expect him to stick with the team this year we were in hopes he would be farmed to a fair team. Maybe so he'll get in yet. He was the leading hitter in the South Plains League last season and that is saying something, for there were six clubs and about 100 players in the running. Suppose Ed Hambright is still sticking with the Spudders at Wichita. They've released a big bunch of rookies but we have not noted Hambright's name among them. He's had a little experience with the lesser of the big boys, having played with the Memphis Chicks during the early part of last season.

We drove out to the Country Club the other day to see if there was anything to what Jo Dick Slaughter and J. O. Smith and others have been saying about the fine condition and natural beauty of the course since the delayed spring weather set in. Just to get past the gate we took our clubs along and Professional J. W. Byrne saw them. "Wait a moment and I'll go around with you", came the shocking announcement. Then and there we saw what might have been at least a score of 100 mount skyward. After a few holes, "You know, for a man that does absolutely everything wrong, you surprise me and arouse my professional pride by knocking the ball 50 yards at a stroke", he said. Then he added insult to injury by suggesting that as a golf player we were a pretty fair at writing football stories. And knowing, but not caring, what certain athletes think of our football stories we decided to confine our golfing activities to collecting score cards of duffers.

But the course is in pretty fair shape and if the work of improving continues the West Texas Golf association tournament players will find all they need when they meet here May 21 for the annual tournament, brought to Lubbock for the first time.

MENTOR TO BE GREENVILLE COACH

CONTRACT OFFERED BY SCHOOL HERE HELD UNSATISFACTORY

The head coach position at Lubbock High school was vacant today.

Henry E. Frnka, for the past five years the coach of the Lubbock High school Westerners, stated last night he had accepted a position as head coach at Greenville High school. The contract was signed yesterday.

A belief that there was a greater future in coaching at Greenville and an unsatisfactory contract offered by Lubbock High school were given as reasons for Frnka's move. He did not divulge the salary figure, stating that it was similar to that offered here. The contract was for one year, though it was optional for a greater length of time.

Frnka came to Lubbock in the fall of 1926 as head coach at Lubbock High. During his period of service, the Westerner gridsters have won 39 games, lost seven and tied four. The Westerners' triumph over Amarillo High in 1926 marked the first defeat of the Sandies at that time.

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of Lubbock public schools, appeared highly surprised at Frnka's move last night and would make no comment other than to "wish him well wherever he went". He stated he was in no position to suggest a successor for Frnka.

The signing of the contract with Greenville came as a result of a parley in Dallas last week-end with Greenville authorities. The contract was signed late yesterday at Lubbock, Frnka having returned to his class room duties Monday.

Frnka's new contract goes into effect with the opening of school next fall, but he stated he planned to go to Greenville next week to supervise a period of spring training. He will return to finish his contract as teacher in the Lubbock High school for the remainder of the school year.

Frnka, a graduate of Austin college at Sherman, where he played football under Pete Cawthon, head coach at Texas Tech, and with other Lubbock coaches, Dutchey Smith, Del Morgan and W. L. Golightly, has figured prominently in business and civic affairs here.

Two Heavyweight Titles Seen In Summer Battles

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

APPRECIATES MARSHALL

ATLANTA, Ga., April 8 (AP)—It's a time like this when John McGraw really appreciates young Eddie Marshall.

With Travis Jackson on the shelf probably until opening day, Marshall has stepped in again to show McGraw he has a mighty good shortstop in reserve when he needs one. Marshall has been fielding as brilliantly at short as he did last year at second when given the opportunity.

ROBINSON IN DUMPS

MACON, Ga., April 8 (AP)—Manager Wilbert Robinson is in the dumps over the accident that has robbed him of the services of Adolfo Luque, the Cuban ace, for six or eight weeks. The thumb of Luque's pitching hand is badly smashed.

"Just our tough luck to get a wallop where we can least afford to take it," moaned Robbie. "If I'd lost a catcher, infielder or outfielder it wouldn't have mattered a bit because I have just as good men on the bench. But I need all my pitchers."

BABE MAKES GOOD

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 8 (AP)—The Bambino has returned after six years to make good with Asheville fans.

It was just six years ago that the Babe, scheduled to display his homerun technique at the local park, collapsed in a big way at the railroad station and was rushed to the hospital with a stomach ache that was felt around the baseball world.

As if to make up for the disappointment he caused on that occasion, Ruth belted a double and single yesterday to help lick the Asheville Tourists, 5 to 2.

GROVE TO START

PHILADELPHIA, April 8 (AP)—Lefty Grove was Connie Mack's probable starting pitcher in today's continuation of the Athletics-Phillies city baseball series. Manager Shotton, Phillies' pilot, intimated he might send Ace Elliott back for another shot at the champions in view of his success against them last week. The series stands 2 to 1 in favor of the Phils.

TWO CERTAINTIES

WICHITA, Kan., April 8 (AP)—Out of a maze of uncertainty about the St. Louis Browns, two certainties appeared today. Walter Stewart will open the season against the Detroit Tigers at St. Louis Tuesday and Wallace (Lefty) Hebert, recruit pitcher, has made the grade.

Stewart, in essaying the opening role, is cast instead of Sam Gray, to whom the assignment has been given for the past three years.

KAUFMANN OMITTED

HUNTSVILLE, Ala, April 8 (AP)—When Manager Gabby Street of the St. Louis Cardinals selected his "big five," Tony Kaufmann's name was not on the list but Tony has been doing such notable work of late that he is given a chance to land a starting job before the season is far advanced. Tony was an outstanding pitcher with the Chicago Cubs several years ago but his arm failed and he took up outfielding. This year he appears to have regained his former ability.

JINX DEFEATED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 8 (AP)—Any time anybody mentions it, somebody is sure to tap on wood, but the Pittsburgh Pirates apparently have at last tied th can to the injury jinx. The squad is in better shape than it has been at any time this spring. Not a man is on the hospital list.

INJURY NOT SERIOUS

LOUISVELLE, Ky., April 8 (AP)—Fear that Mickey Heath, Cincinnati first baseman, might not be in the opening day lineup next week because of an injury to his leg suffered in an exhibition game in Florida has been dispelled by an X-ray picture. An examination showed no serious injury. Heath will take prescribed exercises to speed his recovery.

ON HOMEWARD TRIP

NEW ORLEANS, April 8 (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, last of the major leaguers to break camp, were on their homeward jaunt today, jubilant that they finally found their batting eyes in their finale with New Orleans yesterday. They were due at Birmingham today for a two-day stand.

CARNERA AND SHARKEY MATCHED; STRIB TO MEET SCHMELING

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—It appears there will be two fights for two heavyweight championships of the world this summer.

Max Schmeling is slated to defend his title against Young Stribling in Cleveland probably in July, and now it develops that lumbering Primo Carnera of Italy and Jack Sharkey have been matched for a bout at Ebbets field Brooklyn, on June 10 and the winner probably will be recognized by the New York State Athletic commission as champion.

Reports that Jimmy Johnston, who shifted his role from manager to promoter, had opened his battle against the Madison Square Garden corporation by signing up a rival heavyweight attraction were crystallized yesterday with the definite news of the date for the 15-round scrap. Several kinks in the program still must be straightened out but unofficial word from the boxing solons indicated that the commission would lend a hand at this business.

Officially the commission announced that Carnera, suspended after his famous "fungo hitting" tour, will be reinstated "sooner or later." Unofficially it was made known that the reinstatement would be in time for a meeting with Sharkey and that the contract the Ambling Alp has with the Garden for a meeting with the winner of the Schmeling-Stribling bout would be overlooked by the commission. Half the profits of the Ebbets field show it is understood, will be given to New York charities.

There still remains the chance that the Garden will attempt to hold Carnera to his agreement to meet Schmeling or Stribling. The giant Italian posted a $25,000 binder which stood until the New York milk fund withdrew from the western show. The New York commission is not likely to recognize this claim, however, as Schmeling is under suspension here and the Garden is in the bad graces of the boxing authorities because of its connection with the Schmeling-Stribling go.

CARNIVAL SET SATURDAY AT COLLEGE

ENTRY LIST SWELLED TO 275 FROM 31 HIGH SCHOOLS

Today has been set as the deadline for entries in the first annual Texas Tech high school relay carnival to be held at the Tech field Saturday, and all entries received at the office of Dutchey Smith, Tech coach and promoter, by tonight will be accepted.

The entry list yesterday swelled to 275 athletes, representing 31 schools. Smith expressed the belief that the number would increase today, several coaches over the state having requested a delay in order to determine representative teams.

Finals In Afternoon

Preliminaries in special events, including 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, javelin throw and high jump, will be held Saturday morning, the finals all all relay events beginning at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Prizes amounting to $300 will go to winners and runners up in the meet here. The Tech athletic council, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Lubbock business houses have subscribed trophies.

Following is a list of the schools already entered:

FATE OF BASEBALL FOR LUBBOCK TO BE DECIDED AT MEETING THURSDAY

All persons interested in forming a city baseball league for Lubbock are asked to meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the chamber of commerce rooms at the City hall. It is probable that a league will be organized at that time and it is important that as large a number of Lubbock men and organizations interested in participating in the league be present.

Persons interested in a South Plains or West Texas amateur or semi-pro league are also invited to be present tomorrow night.

TENNIS MEET CONTINUES

SIXTEEN SURVIVORS IN PLAY TODAY AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, April 8 (AP)—Sixteen survivors of yesterday's play in the River Oaks country club tennis invitation tournament will engage this afternoon in the third round of singles play. The first round of doubles also starts this afternoon.

George Lott of Philadelpphia, the favorite, who defeated Fred Baggs of New York, 6-4, 6-3, will meet Martin Buxby of Austin, Texas, university freshman and former Florida singles champion, in one of the feature matches.

Another of the outstanding matches will be Cliff Sutter, the intercollegiate singles champion from Tulane university, and Henry Holden of Houston. Sutter, though his service was somewhat erratic, advanced to the third round easily beating David Peden of Houston, 6-2, 6-1.

Johnny Barr of Dallas will meet Bruce Barnes of the University of Texas. Barr downed Donald Longcope of Houston, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, and aBrnes, who was idle Monday, beat W. P. Coen, senior, of Kansas City, 6-0, 6-2, and went on to defeat Jim Baker of Houston, 6-1, 6-2.

Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, a boy of 15, who overcame "Doc Barr of Dallas, 6-0, 7-5, will meet the winner of the Jame Hess-Jack Norton match, to be played this morning. Hess and Norton both are of Houston.

The stout play of young Parker, who had to come from under Barr's 5-2 lead in the last set, was yesterday's feature.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

DES MOINES, Ia.—Mike Dundee, Rock Island, Ill., and Richie Mack, Omaha, (10), no decision. Johnny Agrella, Los Angeles, outpointed Louie May, Des Moines, (10).

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Walter Pickerd, Indianapolis, knocked out Bud Doran, Chicago, (2). Norman Brown, Indianapolis, outpointed Patsy Pollack, Chicago, (8).

FLINT, Mich.—Lou Scozza, Buffalo, outpointed Battling Bozo, Birmingham, (10).

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Santiago Zorilla, San Blas, Panama, stopped Claude Varner, Los Angeles, (8).

FIELD HOUSE AT NOTRE DAME SEEN

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 8 (AP)—A new field house may rise on Notre Dame's campus as a tribute to Knute Rockne.

Members of the Rockne Memorial committee, at their meeting last night, were unanimously in favor of building a much needed field house in his memory instead of renaming the new football stadium as "Rockne stadium."

Committees will be organized in all principal cities of the United States to receive donations for the fund. If it is large enough, a new field house is reasonably certain.

"Rockne will ever be remembered as a builder of men rather than a great football coach," a prominent committee member explained. "Therefore, it is felt that a new field house would be better as a memorial than the re-naming of the football stadium, a suggestion that he himself blocked before it hardly became known."

LEADS BOWLING TOURNEY

WICHITA FALLS, April 8 (AP)—Huff Insurance company quintet of Wichita Falls has taken the lead in the class B five-men event in the championship tournament of the Texas Bowling association here. The insurance team registered a total of 2,463 pins last night to assume command, and with but two more class B teams to roll, is assured of at least third place. Class B doubles and singles are on tonight's program.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 8. (AP)—The stock market was given a brisk boost by a brief flurry of short covering in the early trading today.

Advances of a point or so were numerous in the first 15 minutes, and Auburn ran up 17 points to a new peak at 275, only to fall back under 270 within a few minutes.

The entire list turned hesitant by the end of the first half hour, and fractional recessions from the best prices were thhe rule. Traders were apparently disinclined to follow the advance in view of the fact that the weekly steel trade reviews again reported a substantial slackening of output.

U. S. Steel got up a point before easing off. Other issues up a point or more included Bethlehem, General Electric, Union Carbide, American Telephone, Gold Dust, Baltimore & Ohio, American Can, Consolidated Gas, and National Power & Light. Worthington rose 4, and American Tobacco B. Air Reduction, Eastman and McKeesport, 2 or more.

Sterling cables were steady at $4.85 15-16.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 8. (AP)—Grains displayed firmness early today, wheat helped by Liverpool reports of decreasing stocks and corn by predictions of stormy weather. European dispatches mentioned unreasonable cold and also crop scares. Opening 1-8 off to 1-4c up, wheat later held near to the initial range. Corn started at 1-8c decline to 1-2c advance and subsequently rose all around.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 8. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 5 to 9 points lower in response to continued declines in Liverpool and Alexandria and reports of clear and warmer weather in the south.

The initial offerings were fairly well taken by covering and trade buying but the selling continued and the market was rather unsettled at the end of the first half hour. May contracts sold off to 10.21 and October to 10.77, making net declines of about nine to 12 points and the lowest prices reached in the market here since the rallies of late last February. Business was fairly active and the selling seemed to be more general. It included some selling for foreign account as well as liquidation combined with local and southern selling.

Liverpool cables reported continental and Bombay selling in that market. Egyptian futures in Alexandria were 10 to 25 points lower.

There was some covering and trade buying on scale down orders which served to steady the market from time to time but the bulges met renewed selling and prices worked gradually lower. At midday May was ruling around 10.12 and October 10.88 or about 19 to 20 points net lower.

CO-EDS OF TEXAS TECH WILL WEAR COTTON FROCKS TO CLASS THURSDAY

Paying homage to King Cotton, co-eds of Texas Technological Thursday are expected to wear cotton frocks to class. If they do not, they may suffer what sociologists would term "loss of status in the social group."

Joining movements sponsored throughout the country for the wearing of more cotton apparel, Tech co-eds decided to aid in eliminating the cotton surplus. The movement was suggested at Tech by President Paul W. Horn and is being furthered on the campus by the Womens Forum, of which Miss Nell Goodloe is president.

A style show is to be held in the Tech gym tomorrow night and Tech women will be urged to continue wearing their cotton frocks. Circulars have been given out to the Tech women this week containing information concerning the "Wear Cotton" movement.

The movement was first started among co-eds at the University of Missouri and was taken up in Texas by the Mortar Board at the University.

ROMANCE BEGUN ON COLLEGE CAMPUS TO TAKE MRS. HOOVER'S SECRETARY

BY BESS FURMAN

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—A romance which began on the campus of Stanford university, Alma Mater of President and Mrs. Hoover, will take from Mrs. Hoover next month one of her two secretaries, Miss Ruth Fesler.

Announcement of Miss Fesler's engagement to Robert Lockwood Lipman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lockwood Lipman, Berkeley, Calif., was made by her parents, Judge and Mrs. Bert Fesler, Duluth, Minn.

To Be Quiet Affair

The wedding, to be a quiet affair, with no attendants, is scheduled for about May 22, at the home of Miss Fesler's twin sister, Mrs. James A. Nyswaander, Ann Arbor, Mich., whose husband is a University of Michigan faculty member.

Miss Fesler was a student at Palo Alto, when Mr. Lipman came there to visit his sister, a close friend of Miss Fesler. The romance was renewed when Mr. Lipman, now a San Francisco attorney, spent several months here this winter in connection with a case before the supreme court.

With Miss Mildred Hall, Miss Fesler has shared secretarial duties to Mrs. Hoover for the past three years, first in the "S" street home, and later in the White House.

Miss Fesler's place will be taken by Mrs. Frederick B. Butler.

As Miss Philipi Harding, Mrs. Butler was secretary to Mrs. Hoover when she first came to Washington as wife of the secretary of commerce. Miss Harding went to China to be married, and but recently returned to Washington.

WILL CONTINUE SCOUT SCHOOL

Nearly all students in the Boy Scout leadership training class voted to take the last half of the elementary course extending the training period from six to 12 weeks, when they met Tuesday night in the basement of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Completion of the standard 12-week elementary course in scout leadership would entitle members of the class to national certificates for an approved training course, according to D. T. Jennings, area executive, of Lubbock.

One addition was made to the class Tuesday night. Three patrols comprised of men and older boys enrolled in the class submitted knot boards bearing tenderfoot knots. The boards were judged for arrangement and uniqueness.

Totem poles will be made by the patrols, and submitted for judging at the scout school meeting of April 21.

RESTRAIN EAST TEXAS PRORATION

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—Temporarily restrained from enforcing their proration order in the East Texas field by an injunction granted here last night by Judge J. D. Moore, members of the railroad commission were today expected to make a statement regarding the procedure. Lon A. Smith, member of the commission, said last night there was nothing for the commission to do but face the matter in the courts unless they decided to call for discussion of the suit.

No date for hearing on making temporary writ permanent was fixed last night.

The state proration order was to have ben effective April 10 bringing East Texas under proration for the first time. Over six hundred East Texans appeared at a hearing last week to protest against proration of their fields.

TWO HUGE CACHES OF LIQUOR FOUND

CORPUS CHRISTI, April 8 (AP)—Customs officials last night seized one of the largest quantities of liquor ever obtained in a raid in South Texas, when they uncovered two caches of liquor near Beeville.

They seized five trucks and approximately eight truckloads of foreign liquors. Three men were arrested and were to be formally charged today in connection with the seizure. Others in Houston, Galveston and San Antonio had not been arrested but were expected to be taken into custody and charged with conspiracy.

were brightening in the senate yesterday, the house dealt the bonds what many considered a body blow. The house engrossed a bill by Representative Brooks of Bagwell to pay from current gasoline tax revenues the outstanding bonded indebtedness of counties on state highways. The vote was 79 to 50.

Representative Hubbard of New Boston, the house sponsor of the bond issue, opposed the Brooks bill, asserting the highway commission would not be able, out of current revenue, to pay off the outstanding county bonds, dispense with additional county assistance and keep up needed road construction and maintenance.

WHAT A DREAM

Good Pitcher Appears, Then Disappears

OMAHA, April 8 (AP)—"Doc" Smith, manager of the Omaha club of the Western league, didn't know whether he was the victim of a managerial dream or not today.

Every manager dreams that some day, somewhere, a great baseball player, preferably a pitcher, will drop in and stay.

Yesterday, a stranger strolled into the Omaha camp, announced himself as a pitcher and was given a chance pitching for the yannigans. All he did was to hold the regulars to one hit for three innings. Manager Smith rubbed his eyes, enthusiastically rushed out to the mound and told the stranger, who gave his name only as "Mr. Earl of Iowa," to take a rest and report tomorrow.

After the game, a search was instituted for "Mr. Earl of Iowa," who perhaps was in Iowa. Anyway, he wasn't around the training camp or training headquarters and Manager Smith wonders if he was dreaming.

TEXAN FOUND DEAD

BRYAN, April 8. (AP)—Henry Block, business man in Bryan for 20 years, was found dead in his store early today. A bottle which officers said had contained a poison was found beside him. He formerly lived at Crockett.

WILLIAM LEE IDENTIFIED

DISAPPEARANCE FOUR YEARS AGO SOLVED IN SUICIDE

YUMA, Ariz., April 8 (AP)—The mystery-shrouded trail of Hutton Bellah, 38-year-old former Altus, Okla., newspaper publisher, led today to the bier of William A. Lee, editor and publisher of the Yuma, Arizona, Sentinel, where two women mourned as widows.

The publisher killed himself Monday with a pistol, in the presence of his second wife, when, apparently, he discovered his real identity was about to be revealed.

Mrs. Hutton Bellah, viewing the body yesterday, said Lee and her missing husband were the same man. Mrs. Lee, the former Edna Louis Schatz of Plattesville, Wis., said she married the man in Rockford, Ill., July 17, 1930, without knowledge he ever had been married before.

Dropped From Sight

Bellah moved with his family from Altus to Los Angeles in October, 1929, and December 28, 1929, dropped from sight.

"He had lost heavily in the stock market," Mrs. Bellah said. " He threatened suicide just before he disappeared.

"He told us he had lost most of our money, and that he thought seriously of killing himself. We didn't believe it then.

"At that time we had a boy, who is now four years old. Another child was born four months after Mr. Bellah disappeared.

"I never had a clue to his whereabouts until when Mr. Harry Wimberly telegraphed me his suspicions. Mr. Wimberly is on his way to Yuma now. He had had some one here for the last week, I think, investigating, but I don't know who it was."

Harry Wimberly was Bellah's business associate in Altus.

"I didn't know about any of it until he was dead," Mrs. Lee said. "We were married in Rockford, Ills. I never suspected he had another wife, or that his name was not Lee. I feel too badly to talk about it, and I really don't think there is any more for me to say."

Bought Sentinel

Bellah, under the name of Lee, purchased the Yuma Sentinel October 1, 1930.

Mrs. Lee testified at the inquest her husband grasped a pistol and shot himself as he was preparing to leave home for his office. That he had premeditated the act was indicated in a note he left for Mrs. Lee, instructing her to notify Lew H. Wentz, multi-millionaire oil man of Ponca City, Okla., who was a friend of Bellah.

KUYKENDALL CHEVROLET COMPANY IS OBSERVING ITS SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

The Kuykendall Chevrolet company is seven years old today, according to George P. Kuykendall, organizer, proprietor and general sales manager of the company which bear his name.

Organizing in Lubbock with the aid of four assistants, Kuykendall began the sale of the General Motors product at 1303 Main street. The "New Chevrolet, a rejuvenation of the old Chevrolet "490", was the product. The year 1924 saw the product emerge from a relatively "dark age" and begin to take its place among the most popular vehicles of the day. Kuykendall's success with the company began then and has continued without serious interruption since.

Moved In 1927

In 1927 the company moved to its present location at 13th and Avenue J, the plant being especially constructed for the company. The firm grew until at the present a force of 21 men and women are required to keep the wheels rolling in the four departments. Among the employes is W. L. Price, who, by official vote, is the second best salesman of the Plains-Panhandle district. He is also secretary of the 100-car club, an honorary salesmen organization.

"Our best year so far," Kuykendall says, "was 1928-29, though if business conditions now continue to improve a new record may be set this year." It was at that time that Chevrolet changed from a four to a six-cylinder motor.

Active Citizen

The manager of the local Chevrolet house has not confined his activities to selling Chevrolets. He has served as a director on the board of city development, is now vice-president and director of the Lubbock Kiwanis club and president of a popular Sunday school class for business men. His automobile activities have earned for him the presidency of the Lubbock Automobile Dealers' association and a place on the directorial board of the Texas Automobile Dealers' association. It was partially through his efforts that the Senate Bill No. 40 was recently passed by the governor. The bill limits the fee on automobile transfer charges to 25 cents. It was formerly one dollar.

J. O. Kuykendall, office manager; G. A. Burson, new car sales promoter; H. M. McFarlane, used car sales manager; W. K. Moreland, service manager; H. S. Weiss, shop foreman; and Neil Thompson, manager parts department, serve under G. P. Kuykendall as heads of departments.

Form Messages Are Scored By Senator

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—Charging that telegraph companies were putting out form messages for their customers to use in messaging members of the legislature to influence them on pending legislation, Senator Purl of Dallas has introduced a bill proposing to make it unlawful to cause such messages to be sent. Telegraph companies guilty of the offense would be liable to a fine of $5,000.

Purl charged the Western Union Telegraph company in Dallas sent out a sheet of protest messages suggesting its customers call its office giving instructions which protest messages they desired to be sent completely across the road and barpits, preventing any one driving around the sides.

Don't Give Up; Take Konjola!

Thousands Have Said: "This Is The Medicine I Should Have Had In The First Place"

Discouraged with medicines that have failed? Then quit experimenting, and try Konjola, the medicine of 29 ingredients, 22 of which are the juices of roots and herbs long used in the treatment of ills that Konjola has relieved, time after time, when all else tried had been found wanting.

Mrs. W. C. Niemann

Want proof of Konjola's powers? Then read the words of Mrs. W. C. Niemann, Southton, Texas: "Ten years I had indigestion and constipation. Then neuritis developed. Of all the medicines I tried none helped me. Starting with Konjola I noticed improvement quickly; nothing helped me like Konjola. I shall continue to take it, and eagerly endorse it to all who suffer as I did."

Do you have rheumatism? Then read the statement of Mr. Tony C. Garza, 1135 Delgado street, San Antonio: "For six years I suffered agony with rheumatism, with pain in my left leg so severe I could not climb the stairs, nor could I use this limb in driving my car. I bloated after meals, and cramps were severe. But Konjola accomplished wonders in my case. Rheumatism is leaving me and gas pains have already disappeared."

Mr. Tony C. Garza

Mrs. Emelia Barkmeyer

Can anyone wonder why Mrs. Emelia Barkmeyer, Route No. 1, San Antonio, is enthusiastic over Konjola? Just read her words of praise: "Ten months ago my condition became very serious, with frightful gas pains after each meal. I bloated and was nauseated. Constipation added to my misery. But seven bottles of Konjola, and I was without an ache or pain. To me Konjola is the most wonderful of medicines."

Konjola does work swiftly, yet it is best to take from six to eight bottles. Get Konjola at your drug store, and do not accept a substitute. Adv.

WANT A BIG TRADE-IN VALUE?

THEN GET RID OF MR. WATER-THIN!

POOR LUBRICATION in a motor means high rate of wear—low trade-in value. And Mr. Water-thin is poor lubrication. For he's the quart or more of thin, non-lubricating waste oil that ordinary refining leaves in every gallon of motor oil.

But there's no "water-thin" in Quaker State Motor Oil. Quaker State removes this useless stuff by the most modern refining in the industry—and replaces it with rich, full-bodied lubricant. That's why it pays you to buy Quaker State. For Quaker State gives you four full quarts of lubricant to the gallon—not three quarts and a quart of waste. So you really get an extra quart of lubricant. You get an oil that saves your car and your money!

Buy Quaker State wherever you see the familiar green and white service station sign. At 35c per quart Quaker State is the biggest bargain in oil you can get. For that extra quart in every gallon means more mileage from your oil—far less wear in your motor, far greater value when you turn in your car! Fill up to-day!
