COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Regular November Term of the Court In Business Session.

The Commissioners Court met on Monday in regular November term, with Judge Coe presiding and Commissioners Green, Barber, Wulfen and Wimberly present.

The commissioners are very careful and take a good deal of time in discussing the various questions they have to deal with. Close watch is kept on the county's finances and script is always kept at par.

The first business before the court on Monday was Sheriff Coughran submitted his quarterly report which was examined and approved.

L. A. Costin, J. W. Costin, Beal Bros. G. W. Reeder, all butchers, submitted their quarterly reports which were examined and approved.

Green Delaney submitted his quarterly report for orders for road expenses which was examined and approved.

E. C. Robertson put in a claim for damages of $1.50 to his fence by the road gang, which was disallowed.

A. A. Daniel submitted his bond as public weigher which was examined and approved.

County Attorney, W. P. Leslie, submitted his quarterly report which was examined and approved.

Jesse H. Bullock submitted his statement from finance ledger which was examined and approved.

Judge R. H. Watlington, J. P. Precinct No. 5, submitted his quarterly report which was examined and approved.

Fred Meyer, J. P. Precinct No. 1, submitted his quarterly report, fines collected, etc., examined and approved.

The matter of transferring money from one fund to another came up and was transferred.

The matter of changing the Sterling City road on section 54 came up for discussion. The change was wanted made because it made the road straight and shorter. After considerable discussion, motion was made and carried that the road be changed. Commissioner Wimberly dissenting, the Court to pay W. P. Ruddick $100 damages and fence the road through his land, 60 feet wide.

The matter came up of settling with W. R. Long at Austin for making abstract of delinquent taxes of Mitchell county for the past 26 years. The County Judge was instructed to pay for the same when said Long files duplicates with the comptroller, and is certified to by W. P. Lane, Comptroller, and the Clerk is instructed to issue warrant for same to be approved by County Attorney, W. P. Leslie.

No further business requiring the attention of the court it adjourned without day.

Passion, purity and love. A tender touching story, beautifully told, elaborately staged, presented by prominent actors in living characters, is the dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," to be seen at the opera house on Thursday night, November 23.

Mrs. Lucy Matheson, who was charged with killing her husband, Charley Matheson, at Abilene, Sept. 30, and whose trial was moved to Fort Worth, was acquitted of the charge Wednesday.

See the fun on the Podunk Limited. The Boggs family, Grandpa and Grandma Wiggins, Miss Prim, John Chinaman, Susy Isen, the Suffragette, Chorus Girls, and all the merry company that ride on this road. The conductor, newsboy and porter will all amuse you, and the money made by this jolly train of folks will go to help the cause of the Womans' Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. The play will be given at the opera house, Monday night, November 20. Come out and enjoy the jokes on the other fellow. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Considering the size of the town, the entertainments that are secured by the opera house management, are much above the average. It is impossible to weed out every undesirable entertainment, inasmuch as their character is not known by the management; the best and most experienced managers get left sometimes. But on the whole, the present management of the opera house deserves credit for the effort they have made to give the people of Colorado nothing but good and clean shows. They have done unusually well and deserve a generous patronage.

The dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," to be seen at the opera house on Thursday night, November 23, is the newest play by Lem B. Parker, written especially for the young stars, Miss Ouida Marion and Billie Lee, and contains all the elements which go to make a successful play, and has received original treatment at the hands of its author.

GOOD ROAD BONDS SOLD.

County Commissioners Enter Into Contract and the Sale Will Undoubtedly Go Through.

A representative of the Thos. J. Balger Company, of Chicago, Ill., met with the members of the Commissioners Court Tuesday for the purpose of considering the purchase of the Howard county $100,000 bond issue, and a contract for the sale was entered into.

A certified check has been deposited and if the bonds are approved at Austin, it is almost assured that the sale will be completed soon, and the work can be started by the middle of next month. According to the agreement one-fourth of the total amount will be available at that time, provided the sale goes through.

While there seems to be nothing to prevent the approval of the bonds, and the subsequent sale, still, some little hitch some time occur; but we hope to announce in an early issue that everything has panned out successfully and the needed work on our roads will soon be under way.

We also learn that the court requested the Government Good Roads Commission to furnish an expert to assist in carrying out the work of making this road building strictly first-class.—Big Springs Herald.

Get aboard of the "Podunk Limited" for the opera house, Monday night, November 20. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Verdict of Acquittal.

The jury in the case of Ed Glover charged with theft, this afternoon brought in a verdict of acquittal. The case went to the jury late yesterday afternoon.—Sweetwater Reporter.

J. L. Ross, of the Cuthbert community, was in town last Friday, and being shown the Record's premium to new subscribers, snapped up the offer like a trout.

If you want to laugh, and of course you do, come out and laugh with and at the Fun on the Podunk Limited. It will only cost you 35 cents if you are grown, and 25 cents if a child, to have this laugh—the best of the season.

At the opera house, Monday night, November 20th.

An Innovation in Sterling Silver

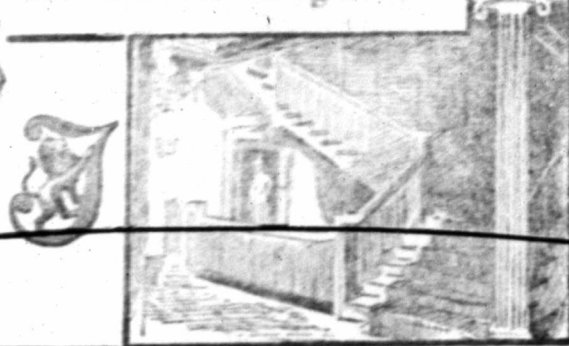

"There is nothing new under the sun,"—so says the old maxim! The brilliant exception which proves the rule is the famous "Colonial" in Towle Sterling Silver.

The fluting of the bowls and tines of spoons and forks (see illustration) is a radical innovation; in all the history of silvermaking it has no precedent, and in all the patterns of today, no counterpart.

While distinctly new, it is peculiarly appropriate in a "Colonial" pattern, being derived from the fluted columns so prevalent in Colonial architecture. The view below shows the derivation. It is an exclusive feature and one which compels the admiration of critics and connoisseurs.

The "Colonial" is a beautiful and distinctive table service. It has weight, strength, and character, and is shown in great variety by—

The State of Texas.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon William Aldridge and wife, Emma Aldridge, and B. H. Latner, and their unknown heirs, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 22nd judicial district; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, on the 2nd Monday in December, A. D. 1911, the same being the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court, on the 14th day of November,

A. D. 1911, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1327, wherein Jesse H. Bullock is Plaintiff and William Aldridge and wife, Emma Aldridge, and B. H. Latner, and their unknown heirs, are Defendants; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

On Sept. 19th, 1883, William Aldridge and wife, Emma Aldridge, sold and conveyed to B. H. Latner all of Lots No. One and Two, in Block No. 14, of the W. and M. Addition to the town of Colorado, the consideration therefor being $500.

and the execution of one Vendor's Lien note for the sum of $100.00 executed by said Latner in Aldridge's favor, due Nov. 1st, 1882, and the Vendor's Lien has not, as yet, been released of record.

On Nov. 15th, 1882, said B. H. Latner sold and conveyed by Deed of General Warranty, the North half of the said lot No. Two, to one E. N. Camp, the consideration therefor being $150.00, $50.00 cash, and the execution and delivery of said E. N. Camp to said B. H. Latner of one Vendor's Lien note for the sum of $145.00, and due on June 1st, 1882, and bearing interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum, and which has never been released of record.

The Deed of Conveyance first mentioned, is of record in the Deed Records of Mitchell County, Book No. 1, page No. 479, and the Lien named conveyance is recorded in book No. 1, page 42, of the Deed Records of Mitchell County, Texas.

Plaintiff's interest and Defendant's interest are common source. Plaintiff brings this suit for the purpose of removing the cloud from the title of this property, and warrants the title to this property to another party by General Warranty. The cloud aforesaid being the unreleased Vendor's Lien notes above mentioned.

Plaintiff prays for relief both general and special, and that the cloud be removed from the title of said property, and especially the N. 1-2 of the N. 1-2 of Lot No. 2, Block No. 14, W. and M. Addition to the town of Colorado, Texas.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term hereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Colorado, Texas, this 14th day of November, A. D. 1911.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Col. R. H. Duvall, of New York City, one of the leading directors of the Santa Fe railway Company and a very prominent man of affairs in financial circles, came to see his friend and business agent, Captain R. A. Jeffress, last Monday. His private car was attached to the belated West bound passenger train, and was set out on the siding here during his stay. Colonel Duvall bought six sections of land in this county when land was going for a song. He little expected he would ever get the money out of it he put in and his impression of the outcome of this country was made more favorable when five sections of it sold for $27 and $50 per acre. He had a natural curiosity to see the country as well as the agent who had so faithfully represented him here for 28 years; so being in the state of Kansas, he wired Capt. Jeffress that he would come by Monday and see him. Captain Jeffress took him out to see his only remaining section of land, which he says he will keep as a "nest egg" against a rainy day. After a pleasant day with his friend, his car was attached to the passenger train Monday night and he returned to his home. He was on a tour of inspection of the entire Santa Fe system, and expressed himself as surprised and pleased at the wonderful development of this country.

Wagon loads of the finest watermelons are on the streets, and nearly every buyer, except some fellow who forgot to bring a dime to buy a chili, or a Mexican. What a pity such magnificent products cannot be utilized. The inventive genius who can think out a way to keep watermelons in all their juicy richness and July freshness will ride in flying machines and buy diamonds by the pound, if he wants them.

SALT WORKS ARE BURNED UP

The Entire Plant of the Colorado Salt Company Goes Up in Flames—Loss About $150,000—Partly Insured

Saturday night about 7:00 o'clock a red glare was noticed in the east, and it soon became known that the plant of the Colorado Salt Company was on fire. No alarm was turned in for the reason that the plant is without the fire limit, and because the salt works plant had a fire-fighting system of its own. Still, quite a number went out in buggies and autos to the scene of the fire.

The wind had been blowing a gale all day from the south, until about five o'clock, when it veered to the north and a genuine norther set in. But for this fact every building on the premises had been burned. A few months ago, the boilers, engines, and in fact the most valuable part of the machinery put was into a new brick and fire-proof building, which stood just north of the wooden buildings, and as the wind prevailed from the north at the time of the fire, the flames were blown away from the building, which accounts for the saving of any of the buildings on the grounds. All the salt sheds and the machinery devoted to the handling of salt, as well as the entire ice plant, were totally destroyed.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from an electric spark and defective wiring. In one of the rooms devoted to the sacking of salt is a small dynamo, about which there was a quantity of shavings. Employees near at the time of the discovery of the fire state that flames were first noticed in this pile of shavings, and in attempting to put out the flames, the fire was scattered around the room, which being caught by the high wind, soon spread over the entire wooden structure. After getting under good headway it was impossible to stay its progress with the facilities at hand.

On the track between the salt sheds and the ice plant, several tank cars were standing at the time of the fire, which were destroyed also.

From the best information obtainable, the plant was valued at $225,000, and at the time of the fire carried $45,000 of insurance on the whole works. No greater calamity has come upon the town in many years than the destruction of this plant. It afforded employment to many people and was a paying industry. Extensive improvements had recently been made and the plant's capacity considerably enlarged; fully $50,000 having been expended in these betterments. At this time we have not learned whether the plant will be rebuilt or not; but it is too valuable a property and too profitable an industry to be thus wiped out, and we expect to be able to report plans for its rebuilding in the near future. The plant was principally owned by J. M. Radford, of Abilene, who is amply able to replace it.

LORAIN LOCALS

Brief Mention of the Week's Happenings at Busy Town of Loraine.

Loraine Letter.

Mr. Adison, from Andrews, Texas, was here Monday and Tuesday on a prospecting trip.

A. C. Ozmer, from Newcastle, Texas, was here shaking hands with old friends last Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. L. E. Masters was here last Tuesday. He will hold services at the Baptist church today and tomorrow.

W. T. Knott and family left Tuesday for Harris, Arkansas, where they will make their future home.

Miss Beatrice Frost, of Santo, Texas, is the guest of her brother, J. W. Frost.

Dr. T. A. Martin went to Houston this week to attend the meeting of the State Health Board as a representative from Loraine.

J. A. Teafatiller and W. L. Burrow, from Maypearl, Ellis county, were visitors to Loraine last Saturday. They are prospecting in this section.

Mrs. W. A. Adams is here from Fort Worth visiting this week.

Mr. and Mrs. May Carter, from Palestine, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Carter's parents, J. A. Land and wife, this week.

Alfred Goehner, of Abilene, has accepted a position with the Adams Mercantile Company of this city.

Marion White, Chris Hall and Mrs. M. D. Cranfield are assisting in the rush at Adams Mercantile Company during their sale.

J. A. Hardin and W. D. Haney, of Roscoe, were visitors to Loraine this week.

W. R. Bryant was here from Dublin this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. McKenzie, of Ada, Okla., were the guests of Mrs. McKenzie's sister, Mrs. J. W. Frost, this week.

J. E. Stowe was host for the "42" experts in a practice game last Monday night. He showed his culinary ability by preparing and serving hot chocolate.

Mrs. J. E. Stowe left Monday for Midland where she will visit her mother for a week or ten days.

W. T. Mullin entertained the "42" crowd last night.

Mrs. Hugh Wells has returned from a visit to her sister on the farm near Champion.

R. E. Olinger and family have gone to Dallas, where they expect to make their future home.

B. W. Wallis, of Clifton, Ariz., is here on a visit to homefolks and friends.

J. R. Coon has a fine baby girl at his home. The little one arrived Monday morning.

Quite a number from here attended the plays at the opera house in Colorado last week.

A White Hawk.

Despite the fact that the Audubon Society claims that no such thing exists as a white hawk, there is one now on exhibition in Loraine. It is the property of Hubert Toler and is displayed in a glass case at the Loraine Drug Company.

This bird is pure white, not an off-color feather from tip to tip, and to say that it is a beauty as well as a rarity is praising it but mildly. The hawk was killed in the Hanks pasture about six miles below Loraine. If one has never seen a white hawk, this one is worth coming many miles to see.

"A Party."

Last Thursday night quite a crowd of young people assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sandlin for a few hours of frolic and enjoyment.

Games of various kinds were indulged in by all. Music was rendered by Misses Ethel Thomas, Opal Templeton, Inez Sandlin, Loraine Dees, Belle Gandy and Clara Knott, and then the party was made more enjoyable by the readings of Misses Eva Terry, Cora Nelson, Belle Gandy, Emma Gandy and Cora Thompson, which caused much laughter throughout the room.

Among the guests present were: Messrs Tennie and Clyde Wilson, Wiley Thompson, John Land, Andrew Smith, Joe Bennett, Austin Butler, Mr. Gunn, Claude Hayes and Theo Kelley. Misses Ethel, Vera and Daphna Thomas, Eva Terry, Ma and Cora Nelson, Betty and Susie Bird, Opal Templeton, Flora, Lucy and Clara Knott, Loraine Dees, Orelle Land, Belle and Emma Gandy and Cora Thompson. A nice time was enjoyed by all.

Colorado Coming.

The "42" champions from Colorado will be in Loraine next Monday night for the purpose of giving our local "42" experts an opportunity to even up scores, if possible. Arrangements are being made to give our visitors a warm and hearty reception, and run them a hot race for the championship in the popular game of "42."

It will be remembered that in the last encounter Colorado was victorious, but our local talent has been practicing some more, and feel more sanguine over the coming event. Whichever way the game terminates, we feel sure the visitors will return home feeling glad they came.

Lemon Social.

The members of the Loraine B. Y. P. U. held a lemon social at the opera house last Friday night. The admission charged was one lemon and the payment of one penny for each seed the lemon contained. When it became known that there were several cases of seedless lemons in town, it began to look like the receipts would be small, and it was therefore decided to fine each one bringing a seedless lemon 15 cents. Many fines were thus collected.

The young folks enjoyed themselves with many games, from snap to drop the handkerchief, while music from piano and violin interspersed the evening's festivities. Cake and lemonade were served as refreshments. A candy table loaded with delicious home made candy was liberally patronized, and soon sold out.

A neat sum was realized, which will be used to furnish one room at the Girls Industrial Home at Abilene, Texas.

Notice to Our Patrons.

In order to give service that will in any way be satisfactory, we are compelled to adopt the following rules during the short winter days:

Our delivery will make only one trip south and one east during the forenoon, and one each way in the afternoon.

South Colorado people must give us their orders before 8 a. m., as the wagon will leave the shop promptly at that hour.

East Colorado and all north Colorado people must give us their orders not later than 8:30. We can take steak orders for north Colorado as late as 10:45.

South Colorado patrons must give us their evening orders not later than 4 p. m.; and east Colorado not later than 4:30.

We can take orders for north Colorado until 5:30, but not later.

Think about this just a little and you can see how impossible it is to give satisfaction to our trade with patrons ordering their meats up to 12 noon and 6 p. m., and all wanting it at the same time. Your trade, much or little, is highly appreciated, and we adopt these rules for your convenience and satisfaction more than our own.

Yours very truly,

BEAL BROTHERS.

Tailor Shop Burglarized.

Some time after 12 o'clock Saturday night the tailor shop of Will Wright was entered by burglars and about $150 worth of clothing taken.

Entrance was effected through the rear window, from which two panes of glass were broken. There was evidently more than one concerned in the robbery, as it would have been impossible for a grown man to have crawled through the hole made by the broken window pane. A large quantity of clothing which had been left for cleaning and repairing, was taken from the rack, besides several suits of new clothing which had never been taken from the shop.

Blood on the window sill, wall, clothing and sidewalk, gave evidence to the fact that the burglar had cut himself pretty severely in getting through the window, the hole in which was surrounded by broken and jagged pieces of glass.

Some of the clothing was left in the alleyway between the tailor shop and Dozier's barber shop, while some of it was found back of the steam laundry. The flight of the burglar was traced for some distance by the blood, but this clue was soon lost after getting off the sidewalks. There is no clue up to this time as to the identity of the thieves. It is hardly believable that anyone living in this community would attempt such a robbery and hope to get off with the goods; as they could not dispose of them without being caught. The general opinion is that the burglary was committed by parties either not living here or who expected to leave the night of the robbery. The loss falls with added heaviness upon friend Wright, and we sincerely hope that the thieves will be brought to justice speedily.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you.

Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

Remedies Suggested by the Governor's Conference.

The remedies prescribed by the conference of governor's for the present unhealthy condition of the cotton-growing industry are, for the most part those whose adoption has been urged for many years. They may be likened to those physiological remedies that have been made so orthodox by the test of time as to have been gathered and put in the form of a family medical book. But as these same remedies win, with a great many people, a more confident acceptance by being prescribed by a physician, it may be that these familiar prescriptions for restoring and maintaining the health of the cotton-growing industry will win a more faithful allegiance by having been sanctioned by five Southern governors and a number of other gentlemen interested in the welfare of the South.

Diversification is given primacy in the list of these prescriptions, and to that distinction it is entitled. To some extent it has been practiced, with consequences of the most happy kind. If evidence was needed to prove its efficiency, it would be found in the fact that the condition which now excites so much concern follows an unprecedented cotton acreage at the sacrifice of diversification. The conference urged a greater practice of diversification, to the extent of the reduction of 25 per cent in the cotton acreage next year; and, as a means of bringing about the result, committed the governors to a canvass intended to pledge every farmer in writing to that reduction in acreage. That would, we need hardly say, do violence to a statute which just now is fighting for its life in the forum of public opinion. But, aside from that, we have to observe that if, as Governor Colquitt declares, this year's estimated crop of 13,800,000 bales is actually needed, then a reduction of 25 per cent in the cotton acreage next year would cause a cotton famine, from which the cotton growers themselves would suffer in a certain degree.

The recommendation for the establishment of a system of warehouses is somewhat post facto, since such warehouses have been in existence for several years. It may be, though, that the state could exercise such supervision over them as would render the receipts more easily negotiable. But the establishment of warehouses will afford relief only to those who, being in debt, have to borrow, whereas the true aim of these movements must be to lift the farmers above even the need of borrowing.

The conference also recommended that hereafter the Government estimate the probable consumption as well as the probable production of cotton. The government has been doing this for several years, and there are a number of trade journals that have for a long time been engaged in the same work. However, as we have said, this information, while not quite valueless, perhaps, will be of little benefit to these farmers who are goaded by their necessities into selling their cotton as soon as the gins turn it out. They are not exempt, and inexorable law which drives every man to put his goods on the bargain cannot be made exempt, from that counter when his needs compel him to convert his property into cash.

The sovereign remedy for this condition is the creation of some degree of financial independence, and as a means of bringing about financial independence, we think, as did this conference, that diversification is the best. In reiterating and emphasizing the virtue of that remedy, this conference of five southern governors has probably been of some value. The remedy is simple and is recognized by all and only the faithful practice of it is needed to bring about the desired end; and it is to be hoped that the sovereignty of it will not be lost sight of in the effort to invent devices of little or doubtful merit.—Dallas News.

S. P. MAY BUILD INTO PECOS.

Believe Company Will Choose Between Two Routes Within the Next Few Days.

Pecos, Tex., Nov. 3.—It is generally believed in Pecos that the Southern Pacific Railway will enter this city within the next twelve months, either by the purchase of the Pecos Valley Southern Railway, now operating a short line out of this city to the Davis mountains, and then by constructing the line further on to Marfa, or else that the Southern Pacific will build directly into Pecos via Fort Davis, paralleling for fifteen miles the recently constructed Pecos Valley Southern Railway. That offer has been made to the Southern Pacific officials by the citizens of Marfa and Fort Davis of a bonus of $100,000 for a line between the two towns is well known, and that the Southern Pacific had agreed to consider the matter seriously has been known for some time, but it is known that a committee of Marfa and Fort Davis business men left for Houston last week to confer with Southern Pacific officials regarding the proposed branch to Fort Davis and the extension northwesterly to Pecos. L. H. Ritter, of Fort Davis, was one of the parties to go to Houston, and among several others who accompanied him was Judge Charles Mulhern, of Marfa.

Information is such as to lead to the belief that the Southern Pacific officials will close necessary details with the Marfa Ft. Davis committee, and that the road will be built immediately to Ft. Davis, and thence to Pecos. Whether or not the owners of the Pecos Valley Southern will agree to sell their line to the Southern Pacific is a question of considerable importance. In Pecos it is generally believed that they will not sell, and that if the Southern Pacific wants to enter this city it will have to do so by way of its own track. But it is pointed out that the Southern Pacific might build from Ft. Davis to Balmorhea, the present terminus at the foot of the Davis Mountains of the Pecos Valley Southern, or acquire lease rights over that line, thus entering Pecos and giving a new line to the Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico, via connection at Pecos with the Santa Fe.

PROPRIETY OF ADVERTISING

Why Should Not Religion Take Advantage of Modern Methods.

While the early announcements of the Man and Religion Forward Movement intimated that it was to be accomplished a vigorous campaign of advertising in newspapers and magazines, not so much has been heard recently on this feature on which so much emphasis was laid, the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times tells us. No doubt the plan has not been abandoned, but its execution is being delayed until arrangements for a systematic scheme of publicity can be arranged. Everybody now believes that advertising is the foundation of success in a business. Why, then, may it not be equally as efficacious in other spheres of activity? The prime requisite for making publicity profitable, is the advertiser's ability to "deliver the goods." The greater the merit of the advertised article the easier to create a permanent demand, and the larger the dividends from the investment in publicity. There is a cumulative profit from advertising the meritorious article, since the satisfied purchaser, without more urging, will return for more of the same kind. Therefore it has come about that genuine, high-class goods, guaranteed by makers and dealers, the sort the public can depend upon, are the most widely advertised and enjoy the greatest sales.

Is there any inconsistency, any irreverence, in thus effectively proclaiming the benefits which men may derive from religion? The present generation has witnessed the rise of the great institutional, which as regards the perfection of its system, prides itself on being run on modern business methods. With its numerous departments and complicated finances it could not be run any other way and be a success. The executive personnel of the institutional church must include a business man of ability. As the directing head he is confronted daily by problems analogous to those met by the big financial or manufacturing corporation. Why should he not bring to his assistance the modern science of advertising? And if advertising is a legitimate aid of the individual church, it surely may be employed by the churches acting in concert, such as is exemplified by the Men and Religion Forward Movement.

Religion's appeal is to no one class or sect or faction. It is to all men. The church reaches the man Sunday, perhaps. Advertising will reach them every day. In their homes and offices, in street cars and on trains. And this is why we may soon expect to see the latest National evangelization movement utilizing this most influential of forces awaiting its command.

San Angelo Fair.

The San Angelo Fair and Carnival opens on November 20th and closes on the 24th. Five days of high-class amusement is promised in the way of racing, broncho busting, cow pony and gymkhana races. The railroads have been especially liberal this year in offering very low rates on seven-day tickets. This gives visitors a good chance to see one of the best sections of Western Texas. Let us return to youth for a day and go.

A million dollar bond issue will be voted on in Dallas in the early part of 1912, half to be issued for street paving purposes and the other half for a city hall.

The Pecos Commercial Club has secured signers calling for a $200,000 good road bond issue on Reeves county.

"Go West, young man," is advice now chiefly followed by presidents.

Ask about the Christmas Special.

Commencing Monday, November 20th 25 Women Can Join Our Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet Club!

And purchase a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet (exactly like cut) at the Club rate of $1.00 at time of purchase. Balance to be paid in weekly dues of $1.00.

Would you like in your kitchen the greatest labor saver of modern times? One Dollar next week will bring it to you. No dollar you ever saved will bring you such returns as this dollar will. This will let you out of your kitchen every day one or two hours longer. It will save supplies for you every week. It will make your kitchen work scientific, easy, up-to-date. It will give you the same advantage your husband gets from his modern tools and other conveniences. You never had an opportunity to invest a dollar so shrewdly and economically before.

Read Here the Proofs of Your Big Saving.

In all the large cities of America for the past three years, The Hoosier Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of the famous Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, have authorized licensed Hoosier agents to offer twice yearly a limited number of these celebrated labor saving kitchen machines to worthy city people on a credit plan so remarkable in its liberality that over 450,000 women now use the Hoosier every day.

Now after thousands of requests comes an offer from The Hoosier Company of a surprising credit plan specially adapted to requirements of ladies who live in Cities like Colorado. Thousands of women now have Hoosiers in their kitchens. The number will increase by leaps and bounds since this new offer has come into effect.

The Great Credit Club Plan in Detail.

You will note that this plan makes it so easy for you to own a Hoosier Cabinet immediately that you can scarcely afford to be without one a single day. This special price saving opportunity lasts only till the club of 25 members is filled. During that time come into the store any day and simply deposit your dollar. A Hoosier cabinet will be sent to your home immediately. Then for a few months you simply pay the small price of a cabinet in little parts of $1.00 weekly. The cabinet, as you will see below, pays for itself in actual saving as you pay for it. A few cents each day settles the entire bill, and you have the free use of this great labor saver after that all your life for nothing.

- 1—Flour bins fill from the top.
- 2—All glass flour bin front, removable for cleaning.
- 3—Flour hopper and sifter combined, catch dish at bottom.
- 4—Dial faced want list to keep stock in the kitchen.
- 5—Spice cabinet, glass jars, aluminum sliding top rust proof.
- 6—Aluminum sliding top rust proof, warp proof.
- 7—Cutting board under sliding top.
- 8—Sliding shelves pull out same as drawers.

THE HOOSIER

- 10—Sanitary pan racks.
- 11—Bread and cake box dust proof and mouse proof.
- 12—Linen drawer.
- 13—Cutlery drawer.
- 14—Sugar bin, fills from the top, feeds from the bottom.
- 15—Sugar scoop of aluminum.
- 16—Crystal glass coffee canisters.
- 17—Crystal glass tea canister, air tight lids.
- 18—China cabinet with glass or wood doors.

What Your Neighbors Say.

Unless an intimate friend of yours owns a Hoosier Cabinet you have absolutely no idea of the enthusiasm this great machine creates.

One said, "I wouldn't be without my Hoosier for $100.00."

Another said, "It's simply wonderful. It saves miles of steps for tired feet."

Still another, "It's like an automatic servant."

One woman declared, "It saved me at least $15.00 last year in supplies."

Another added, "It puts everything in my kitchen at my fingers' ends."

One woman broke up housekeeping and sold everything in the house except the Hoosier Cabinet.

The list of praises is as long as your arm. You never can fully appreciate the value of this great cabinet to you till you see it. Next week will be demonstration week. Step in and see what a splendid article this cabinet is. Decide then for yourself how badly you need it, how much you have wanted such a helper for years, and how simply and easily you can now own the genuine Hoosier itself with practically no outlay.

Limited to 25 Members.

You understand, of course, that such remarkable terms cannot be offered to everybody. This club offer is limited in most towns to 10 members, but we have had so many requests from our customers throughout the country for membership that we persuaded the Hoosier people to extend the limit to 25 members. This was done on the understanding that the club was to be held open under no circumstances longer than two weeks. As soon as the 25th membership is recorded, therefore, the club must close.

Avoids Objectionable Installment Plans.

The Hoosier Manufacturing Company, under whose supervision this club is organized, will have nothing to do with any installment scheme. Club memberships are limited to responsible people. The price of the Hoosier Cabinet on the club plan is the same as advertised everywhere. You could not buy this cabinet for less on any terms. The price is very low. You pay not one penny extra for this credit.

The best people in Colorado, people who would scorn an installment plan have joined this Hoosier Club. You may rest assured you will be in good company.

Why the Price is $3.50 less this Period Only

Because we have bought heavily we are in position to make this low price during this period only.

Farmers' Wives Get Special Club Terms.

So many farm homes in this county are equipped with Hoosier Cabinets that we have obtained permission to make the club offer specially convenient to farmers' wives who desire to pay for their cabinets out of "butter and egg" money. Any lady who lives in the country near Colorado and joins the Hoosier Club right away, may, if more convenient, save the weekly payments and deposit them at the end or during each month when she comes to town. These terms will be made to suit your convenience.

MEN BUY A HOOSIER CABINET ON THE CLUB PLAN for their Wives Christmas.

Nothing in Colorado will make such a grand Christmas gift. 12,000 Hoosier Cabinets were given for Christmas in the United States last year. You can have a Hoosier Cabinet set aside now, deposit $1.00 a week on it and have it partly paid for before the Christmas rush hits your pocketbook. Furthermore you pay only $1.00 a week thru the Christmas season so you don't have a big cash outlay. Yet you make your wife a fine present. Your name will not be given out if you don't want it, and you can be sure of pleasing your wife if you get your name in before the club of 25 closes.

The Aluminum Work Table and the Wonderful Flour Bin.

The Hoosier Cabinet has more parts than a sewing machine. It is built with the compact precision of a watch. You will be astonished at the remarkable number of little things about it that save a minute here and there, and total an hour or two extra rest each day.

The pure aluminum covered sanitary work table for instance, which slides out so that you can sit down to work with greater work space than the ordinary table, is alone a work of genius. You will see how this feature alone means a greater increase in the comfort of your working.

The flour bin is as interesting as an incubator. You have to see it to realize how convenient it is—how many times a day it will save you steps and time—and even more important, how it saves every pinch of flour to the very last speck, and pays for itself time and again.

So come in by all means next week. You are specially invited. You will find this visit pays you well.

COLORADO, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 17.

Not Dead—Just Sleeping.

In truth, Colorado does not appreciate the advantages and blessings it has. There is not a town in West Texas half the size of Colorado possessing the natural advantages of water, building material and fertile farms tributary, but would have exploited them to the world in season and out. Few towns have such an opportunity as has Colorado to secure the best surface water supply in West Texas. The damming of Lone Wolf Creek with a dam thirty feet high would give to Colorado a supply of water for all time to come—domestic, fire and industrial. It would do more to invite and induce the coming of industrial enterprises than all else; for water is power and capital.

Aside from material advantages, there is an altruistic aspect to the matter. For a lake is but a step to a park; and the necessity for wholesome recreation and pleasure is just as great as for the more substantial comforts of life. The people must have pleasure as well as work, and the life is out of balance which neglects either. Since the project of the Lone Wolf dam was first agitated, the town has spent as much on enterprises which have not paid one farthing as the dam would have cost. It would be here for our children's children, a continual source of pleasure and utility to the entire community. The Record refuses to believe the project is dead for good.

A Kick and the Cause.

When the traveling public is touched in the pursuit of happiness in the habits of eating and sleeping, it soon raises a kick and a roar. A trip from Colorado to Dallas or Fort Worth requires the greater part of a night, and people, especially ladies, making the trip, usually desire sleeping accommodations, which, heretofore, could be made by wire on the eastbound night train. But now it seems that such reservations can only be made after getting to Sweetwater, as the Pullman is not opened at Colorado at all. One must now take the 10:24 train and ride to Sweetwater before being able to get a berth and going to bed, which is at midnight.

In several instances parties have wired for reservations on the eastbound trains, but were unable to get any answer to their telegrams. The only way seems to be to reserve a berth from Sweetwater. This gives Colorado no more advantage in Pullman service than is enjoyed by Iatan or any flag station. Whether these facts are known to the powers at headquarters or not, we do not know; but it does look like the matter could be arranged so the people of Colorado would be able to secure a berth at the point of beginning their journey and not have to go to Sweetwater to get it.

The Supreme Court of Virginia confirmed the finding of the trial court in the case of Henry Clay Beattie for the murder of his wife, and unless the governor intercedes he will be hanged Nov. 24.

The postoffice department has decided that letters addressed to Santa Claus can be delivered to charitable organizations and individuals this coming Christmas. The prohibition of these letters being delivered was a tragedy in the life of American childhood.

On the Credit Side.

That scholar and gentleman, Dr. A. H. Weston, well and favorably known to the people of Decatur, is again grinding out editorial gems on the Colorado Record. Weston has no superior and few equals as a writer.—Wise County Messenger.

Dr. A. H. Weston, one of the ablest editors in the South, or anywhere else, has resumed his old position as editor of that fine representative Texas paper, the Colorado Record. The Guide wants to be one of the first to cordially welcome the Doctor's return to the family circle. "Texas Needs Great Men," and cannot spare even one of her great editors.—Alpine Guide.

"The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while, That costs the least and does the most, Is just a friendly smile."

"There is no room for sadness When we see a cheerful smile. It always has the same good look: It's never out of style."

The Baird Bulletin, a very neat 8-page, 5-column paper, came to us this week for the first time. C. W. Johnson is editor and publisher. It seems to be a fusion of a new paper with the Callahan News.

Let us not put off the expectation of happiness to be realized in some great future; but find it from day to day in the trifles of life, as the children of Israel gathered every day the manna that fed them.

Judge Terrell, of Texarkana, who announced for the congressional seat made vacant by the announcement of Sheppard for the United States Senate, has reconsidered and now takes it all back. What does he want with a measly seat in Congress.

The El Paso Court of Civil Appeals stands. We are saved the mortification of witnessing the razing of one court by another. But its territorial jurisdiction is found to be less than the legislature meant to allot to it. Thus, by tinkering with the statutes rather deftly, does the Supreme Court patch the botched job done by Gov. Colquhoun and the legislature.—Dallas News.

After being out of editorial harness for about a year, Dr. A. H. Weston has again assumed charge of the columns of the Colorado Record, which good news, we know, will be welcomed by its many readers; as the doctor gives force, culture and character in his writings, and the management and Mitchell county is to be congratulated on again getting the efficient services of this optimistic and capable gentleman. Weston, it makes us feel good to see you back where you belong.—Christoval Observer.

Here's the Chance for You.

The Record has made arrangements whereby it is able to make the most generous present to new subscribers ever offered before. Here is the chance for every energetic man, woman, boy or girl, to make some quick and easy pocket money. Every one to whom we have shown the present has said, "Here's your dollar, put me down for a year's subscription. That's the very thing my wife has been wanting for years, and to get it free is a bonanza." That's what they all will say, when they see the present we are giving with each new cash subscriber. If you want to make the easiest money you have ever made in your life, come in and let us show you how you can do it right at home among your neighbors.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, who has made millions of dollars by pawning the confidence and human touch of his fellows, now seeks to buy back those pledges by giving large sums of money for libraries and other educational work. What can a few million dollars, more or less, mean to a man of his wealth? It is only a difference in sound. There is no spirit of sacrifice in it; it is rather an affront to the intelligence of the American people, to presume he can trample on their rights, divert millions from the pockets of just as good men as he; and when he has made all the money he wants, when he is approaching the jumping off place—offer to buy their respect and grateful memory by giving libraries that rarely ever have books on their shelves and endowing colleges that the children of the very people he has systematically robbed for fifty years, can never hope to attend. And every college that accepts a dollar of his "pish money" will destroy the spirit of Carnegie.

The Indifferent Citizen.

The greatest peril in our country today is not the bad man or the bad gang or the things that bad men do.

Our nation's greatest peril in these days of peace and prosperity is the indifferent citizen. Not long ago a cartoonist told the story in a picture that showed grafters, crooks and corrupt politicians as little men doing their dirty work protected behind the towering giant form of the indifferent citizen. If he turned upon them they would be at his mercy. The Christian betrays his trust when he is indifferent to the active duties of citizenship.

Setting a young man afloat with money left him by his relatives is like tying a bladder under the arm of one who cannot swim; ten chances to one he will lose the bladder and go to the bottom. Teach him to swim and he will not need the bladder. Give your child a good education. See to it that his morals are pure, his mind cultivated and his whole nature made subservient to the laws which govern man and you will have given that which will be of more value than the wealth of the Indies. You will have given him a start that no misfortune can deprive him of.

Madam Curie, of the University of Paris, has been awarded the Nobel prize this year in Chemistry, which amounts to $40,000. She, with her husband, was awarded half of the same prize in physics in 1902, for their researches in the nature of radium. There are five of these prizes awarded each year, embracing physics, chemistry, music, art and literature. It was expected that Thos. A. Edison would be awarded the prize this year in physics, but it went to Prof. Wilhelm Wien, of the Wuresburg University. The prize in literature was captured by a woman this year.

While we are indulging in philippics against the pistol toter, let us not overlook the irresponsible kid and his parent, with a shot gun and target rifle, who at this season make passage along the public highways almost as dangerous as a pistol duel. They have about extirpated many of the best feathered friends the farmers of the south have. They kill purely in a spirit of wanton cruelty, birds utterly unfit to eat, but which destroy millions of injurious insects that prey upon the crops. It is estimated that the presence of a pair of insect eating birds in an orchard is worth five bushels of fruit. The cheerful Bob White and the Blue Quail are the most popular victims to the indiscriminate shotgun. One authority says: "The bob white has been accused of robbing the grain fields, although post mortems have shown that only 20 per cent of its food is grain, and that it eats more than a thousand weed seed at one meal. On this basis a Virginia bird lover proved that with all his crimes against grain, bob white more than atoned by eating 572 tons of weed seed in that state every winter, not to mention his summer diet of grasshoppers, chinch bugs, worms, beetles, boll weevils and caterpillars."

Strange.

He died at night. Next day they came To weep and praise him; sudden fame These suddenly warm comrades gave. They called him pure, they called him brave; One praised his heart and one his brain; All said, "You'll seek his like in vain— Gentle and strong and good." None saw In all his character a flaw.

At noon he awakened from his trance, Mended, was well! They looked askance; Took his hand coldly; loved him not. Though they had wept for him, quite forgot His virtues; lent an easy ear To slanderous tongues; professed a fear He was not what he seemed to be; Thanked God they were not such as he; Gave to his hunger stones for bread; And made him, living, wish him dead. —E. R. SILL.

Is It Worth the Sacrifice?

Joseph Pulitzer's life carries a valuable lesson to all who are slaving night and day for the bubble success. He simply was willing to pay the price, but at what cost: a physical wreck and blind at the time when he should have been most able to enjoy the fruits of a sanely spent life. He cashed in at the great pawn shop of prosperity his most valuable possessions—happiness and health—the only things in this life that are satisfying and that bring contentment. And though he had gained all the money and power in the world, they could not redeem these pledges when he needed them most. The poorest man in all this world is he who has nothing else but money.

If a man can make up his mind to pay the price, he can achieve financial success, which is the most sordid of all success. If he will strangle the promptings of his better nature and take every element of his manhood to the pawn shop, he can raise money on them, but after he has gotten all the money he wants he cannot buy back his pledges. They are lost forever.

Helath, friends, self respect, public confidence, the affections of wife and children, are all collateral at the great pawn shop, and almost every man has enough of them all to raise a few thousand dollars, and as he rises in wealth he is able to command a higher price for those he has left. Mr. Morgan and Mr. Rockefeller could today command a higher price for their health than they could have sold it for forty years ago, but it is very doubtful if all their combined millions would buy back the ingenious friendship of the days when they were poor, or the confidence of their fellows and associates.

If Mr. Pulitzer had spoken his heart the last years of his life, he had doubtless been anxious to exchange all his success for the simpler days of his vigorous young manhood. And there are millions like him. They may not have attained the same degree of success as he, but are cashing in every element of mind, strength of body and aspiration of soul for the bubble of success.

Thanksgiving Services.

The usual Thanksgiving services will be held this year under the direction of the United Brotherhood, at 7:30 p. m., November 30, at the tabernacle if the weather is suitable, if not, at one of the churches, which will be announced in time. The music for the occasion will be under the direction of Mrs. P. A. Hazzard, assisted by members of the various choirs.

and will be especially appropriate. There will be short talks as follows:

Reasons for thankfulness as a nation—Rev. W. E. Lyon.

Reasons for thankfulness as a state—Rev. W. M. Elliott.

Reasons for thankfulness as a county—Rev. R. W. Thomas.

Reasons for thankfulness as a town—W. W. Porter.

Gathering up the fragments—in several two-minute talks.

Collection—to be applied to local charity.

It is earnestly requested that everybody join in this service. Let us withdraw from the cares of the daily grind, and, "with grateful hearts look up to Him who guides us through the year." Let us consider our blessings—they are many and great.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas,
To the sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell county—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Sidney Boykin, whose place of residence, is alleged, under oath, to be unknown, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell county, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in December, A. D. 1911, the same being the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1911, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1322, wherein, Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake and Alphonse Kloth are Plaintiffs, and T. O. Cowan, Sidney Boykin, D. R. Campbell, Texas Drug Company, and J. W. Smith are Defendants; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

Plaintiffs' original petition filed herein, alleges that plaintiffs reside in the City of New York, and State of New York, that the defendant, T. O. Cowan, resides in Nolan County, Texas; that the residence of the defendant, Sidney Boykin, is unknown to plaintiffs; that defendant, D. R. Campbell, resides in Cooke County, Texas; that defendant, Texas Drug Company, is located and doing business in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, and that defendant, J. W. Smith, resides in Mitchell County, Texas; That heretofore, to-wit, on February 19th, 1907, the defendant, T. O. Cowan, executed and delivered to Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake, and Sigmund Neustadt, his eight certain promissory notes—numbered consecutively, from 10744 to 10751, both numbers inclusive—each for the principal sum of $192.00, bearing interest from date at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, until paid, and payable to the order of said Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake and Sigmund Neustadt, on or before one, two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight years respectively, after date:

That said notes were given for a part of the purchase money for that certain tract of land situated in Mitchell county, Texas, described as the south half of survey number twenty-three in Block number twenty-nine, Township 1, south, as surveyed by and for the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, by virtue of certificate No. 2-1704, issued to said Railway Company, and containing 320 acres, more or less:

That each of said notes, refers to deed No. 2341, by which, said land was conveyed to said defendant, Cowan, and each recites that one of the covenants of said deed, is as follows, to-wit: "In case of default in the payment of any one of said notes, when it shall become due, and payable, then, and in that event, all of said notes then remaining unpaid, at the date of said default, shall mature, and become payable, by reason thereof, and said grantors may, at any time thereafter, proceed to enforce in full, the vendors' lien." That each and all of said notes are secured by the vendors' lien on said land, which was expressly retained in said deed:

That there is a covenant in said deed, to the effect that said defendant, Cowan, shall promptly pay the taxes on said land, for the year 1908, and all subsequent years, and in the event of his failure to pay same, on or before the first day of January next succeeding the assessment of such taxes, the grantors in said deed, shall have the right to pay such taxes, and when so paid, the amount thereof, and the expenses, penalties and costs pertaining thereto, shall attach to, and become a part of the purchase money maturing next after such taxes are so paid, and the same shall bear interest from the date of payment thereof, at the rate of ten per cent per annum:

That by virtue of said first named covenant contained in said deed No. 2341, and on account of the fact that none of said notes has ever paid any part of the principal of, or interest on any of the said notes, plaintiffs have elected to declare all of said notes due, and payable, and to enforce in full, the vendors' lien on said land:

Plaintiffs allege that they are the legal owners and holders of all of said notes:

That said defendant, Cowan, on February 22nd, 1907, by deed duly recorded, conveyed said land, to the defendant, Sidney Boykin, and that a part of the consideration expressed in said last named deed, was the assumption by said Boykin, of the payment of said eight notes; that by the assumption of the payment of said eight notes, said Boykin thereby promised to pay, and become liable for the payment of said eight notes:

That the defendants D. R. Campbell, Texas Drug Company, and J. W. Smith are each asserting some sort of claim to said land, the nature of which, is unknown to plaintiffs; that the respective claims of defendants, Sidney Boykin, D. R. Campbell, Texas Drug Company, and J. W. Smith, on and to said land, are each and all junior and inferior to the lien of plaintiffs, thereon. Wherefore they are joined as parties defendant herein, in order that whatever claims they may respectively have, in and to said land, may be adjudicated in this suit:

That by the terms of each and all of said notes, said Cowan agreed to pay plaintiffs, an additional sum of ten per cent on the amount of said notes, as attorney's fees, if not paid at maturity, and the same should be collected by an attorney, or by legal proceedings; that plaintiffs have been compelled to place said notes in the hands of an attorney, for collection, and to institute this suit, for the collection of same:

That said Cowan, by the execution of said notes, and said Boykin by the assumption of the payment of same, have become legally and justly bound to pay ten per cent additional, on the amount of said notes, as attorney's fees, which is alleged to be reasonable compensation.

That said Cowan, and all the other defendants herein, have totally failed to pay the taxes on said land, for the years 1908, 1909 and 1910; that said taxes, for said years, together with the interest, penalties, and costs thereon, aggregated the sum of $48.40 on July 14th, 1911, which amount, plaintiffs paid the Tax Collector of Mitchell County, Texas, on said last named date:

That none of said defendants having ever paid said notes, or any part of same, plaintiffs have declared, and now here declare all of said notes due and payable; that defendants still fail and refuse to pay said notes, or any part of same, to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of Twenty-six Hundred Dollars.

That the 1911 taxes on said land, amounting to the sum of $16.66½, are required by law, to be paid by the last day of January, 1912, and plaintiffs will have to pay same, unless such taxes shall be sooner paid by some one or more of the defendants.

Plaintiffs pray that on final hearing hereof, they have judgment against said defendants, T. O. Cowan and Sidney Boykin, for the full amount of the principal of, and the interest on each and all of said notes, for the interest accrued on the interest of said notes numbers 10744 to 10748, both numbers inclusive,—the same being the first five of the said eight notes—at the rate of six per cent per annum, from the maturity thereof,—according to their respective faces—to date of final hearing hereof, for the amount of said taxes, costs and penalties thereon, together with interest thereon, from date of payment of same, to date of final hearing hereof, for ten per cent attorney's fees, on the whole amount which may be found to be due, and for all costs of suit:

Plaintiffs also pray for foreclosure of the vendors' lien on said land, as against all of the defendants, and that if at the final hearing hereof, none of the defendants has paid the 1911 taxes on said land, and plaintiffs shall have paid the same, then, and in such case, that plaintiffs have judgment against said Cowan, and said Boykin, for the amount of said 1911 taxes, together with all penalties and costs attached thereto, with interest thereon, from date of payment thereof, at the rate of ten per cent per annum:

Plaintiffs also pray that said land be decreed to be sold; that the proceeds of the sale thereof, be applied on the judgment prayed for, and in the event said land shall not sell for a sufficient amount to fully satisfy the amount of judgment prayed for, then, that plaintiffs have execution against said defendants, T. O. Cowan and Sidney Boykin, for the amount of the deficit.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and Official seal at my office in Colorado, Texas, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1911.

Rebellion of Drummers.

A million dollars a week, that is the estimate made by the president of the Commercial Travelers' League of the gross sum disbursed by traveling salesmen in tips for service at hotels. The same authority is responsible for the statement that members of this organization pay annually regular hotel bills aggregating $325,000,000, so that the additional sums disbursed in tips aggregate nearly 20 per cent of what is paid at the cashier's desk.

It has come home to the commercial travelers that "increased expenses means decreased salaries, and the custom of tipping has grown so formidable in its extended exactions and makes such inroads on the traveler's purse at every turn that, in self-protection, the ambassadors of commerce have decided to take a stand against it. Accordingly the head of the commercial traveler's league has mailed an ultimatum to the heads of the several associations of hotel proprietors, advising them that, by way of resisting the tipping abuse, "the League is preparing to compile lists of private houses where transients can be accommodated."

If the commercial travelers succeed in their campaign, President Taft might go further and fare much worse than by asking them to prepare a scheme of tariff revision and a plan for a new currency system. Genius of that sort should not be restricted in its exercise to the use of a single organization.—Los Angeles Tribune.

Incompetent Parents.

A Sunday night raid was recently made on the alleged "rooming houses" of Fort Worth, and among the human flotsam the dragnet of the law brought out were several young and pretty girls, who, amidst their penitent sobs, begged to be let go, explaining that their "mothers thought they were at church." Into this one cry is compressed the very crystallization of human tragedy. It would afford material for every preacher and every writer in the state for a year to come. It is but a pimple from the more widespread disease that is honeycombing the entire social fabric. The sin of the girls was bad enough, in all conscience; but back of their story lies a sadder story of parental neglect and laxness.—Colorado Record.

Not only parental neglect and laxness, but parental incompetence. There are lots of parents who haven't sense enough to raise children, particularly girl children. The way some fathers and mothers permit their goaling daughters to trapse unattended, even at night; to go to any sort of moving picture show or other excitement, with any sort of Johnny or other volunteer with a dollar or two to spend, to wear picture hats that are hideous and bodices that are too skimpy, as well as skirts that are too hobbled and complexions that are too thin—the way some parents permit that sort of thing is a direct reflection on their intelligence. It shows very plainly that they are not right bright.—Dallas News.

Good Roads Cost But Little.

A macadam road is the road that should be built wherever there is heavy travel and a populous and prosperous community, but to suppose that this is the only good road or that macadamizing the roads is the only way to improve them, is a delusion pure and simple.

Sand and clay are available all over the South, and when a community can combine them, and by the use of a grader and a split-log drag make a good road and keep it good, there is no reason why it should be content to wallow in mud holes and bump over clods and ruts every time a load of produce is taken to town.

Even where the sand-clay construction is not practicable, the split-log drag judiciously used would do wonders, and it would be but a little job for most farmers to make these drags and to keep the roads in front of their premises in good shape, and we recommend the experiment. It would be a paying proposition, too, to all farmers who really want better roads, as well as to all road commissioners or overseers who are desirous of getting out of the old way of wasting labor on the road and of making highways that are really worthy of the name.—The Progressive Farmer.

Germ's Spread in Skin

Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Unless these germs are promptly destroyed they rapidly multiply, gnawing their way deep into the sensitive tissue. This is what causes that awful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow worse and develop into a loathsome and torturing skin disease with its years of misery.

We have had experience with many remedies for skin trouble but have never seen such remarkable cures as those from D. D. D. Prescription. Instant relief from the very first application.

We are so confident that D. D. D. will reach your case that it will cost you nothing if the first full size bottle fails to make good every claim. If you have skin trouble of any kind, we certainly advise you to try it and investigate the merits of D. D. D. anyway. We know that D. D. D. will help you.

While the Tempest and Sunshine Company were playing a matinee at Abilene last Saturday afternoon, a norther suddenly struck the town, filling the opera house with choking dust and sand. Some boy in the back of the house cried "fire," and a stampede was on. Had it not been for the coolness and presence of mind of Manager Sanderson, of the opera house, and several members of the company, many people would have been trampled to death. Women could hardly be restrained from throwing their children out of the second-story windows and jumping out themselves. Fortunately, quiet was restored after a time, and the play proceeded to the end.

Automobile Notes.

F. S. Kelper, wife and daughter Evelyn, accompanied by A. L. Whipkey and daughter, Lela, made a 56 1-2 mile run in three and a half hours to Roby, in their E-M-F "30" last Saturday morning. Mr. Kelper and wife returned Saturday evening. Mr. Kelper gave the people of Roby a demonstration of what the E-M-F "30" could do on the fierce sand-beds and hills.

Captain Jeffress and Colonel R. H. Duvall, of New York City, made a trip to the latter's ranch Monday, and of course selected an E-M-F "30" for the trip.

Dr. Phenix made a flying trip to Lamesa last week, and nothing would do but an E-M-F "30." He wanted to be sure and get there and back.

When L. W. Sandusky and Royall Smith made a legal trip to Lorraine what more natural than for them to select an E-M-F "30"?

E-M-F "30" was what L. E. Lasseiter and Will Morrison wanted to ride in when they went to Westbrook the other day.

Dr. Smith has been summoned three times since last Sunday to the McKenzie ranch to see Claude Thompson, and each time preferred the E.

M. F. 30.

A. W. Thompson of San Antonio, accompanied by a representative of the American Townsite Company, made a trip to Snyder and Fluvanna and return, Saturday, in an E. M. F. 30.

The E. M. F. 30 cars were in great demand Sunday, taking eight seats out to the ruins of the salt works.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING.

Semi-Annual Convention at Midland, Texas, on November 21st.

The Big Springs-El Paso District Medical Society holds its semi-annual convention November 21st at Midland. This Society has grown more rapidly than any other organization of its kind in the state, and a large increase in attendance is assured for the Midland Convention. Practically every physician from Fort Worth to El Paso is now a member of the Association. Both in point of numbers and on account of the distinguished members of the profession who take part in the programme the Midland Convention promises to be a notable one.

Among the physicians of state-wide reputation who will address the Convention are, Jno. A. Adkinson, M. D., Merkel; Andrew J. Pope, M. D., Abilene; J. M. Britton, M. D., Cisco; F. D. Boyd, M. D., Fort Worth; J. W. Overton, M. D., Sweetwater; F. W. Ball, M. D., Fort Worth; J. Frank Clark, D. D. S., Midland; W. W. Lynch, M. D., Midland; J. W. Alexander, M. D., Abilene; Hugh W. Crouse, M. Y. D. McMURRY.

Three weeks ago the Record contained an ad for a hand-grip that had been lost—somewhere. It was found down on the Sterling City road a few days afterwards, but the party finding it did not take the paper; but found out that such a grip had been lost and advertised. This week the grip was brought in, safe, but not quite as sound as when it parted company with its owner. It had been run over by a heavy wagon and mashed into a "cocked hat," but the contents were intact. If this incident has any moral, it has two—one is, take the Record and keep posted; the other is, advertising in the Record brings results. During the six year's of the Record's life there have been but five instances of failure to find lost articles that were advertised in the paper. The reason is, the paper covers the whole county completely—the people read it.

Ver-a-best" flour—100 pounds for $2.80. Sure? Ask McMURRY, he sells it.

The peace and tranquility of a community, engendered by the church—the confidence as to safety of human life and security of property, guaranteed by the government, are as much an asset as material wealth. The man, therefore, or set of men, who persistently try to foment distrust of the church and contempt for the government, are as much criminals as the burglar, who dispossesses, without right, a community of its property. Society has as much right to protect itself against one as the other.

Importance of Small Farms and Many Land Owners.

New Orleans Picayune.

The falling off in food production in the United States in proportion to the increase in population caused by the desertion by labor of the agricultural sections of the country and the crowding of the people in to cities is probably the most momentous, if probably the most neglected subject before the American people.

The notion seems to prevail that the problem of the food supply and all other great questions of economic importance which affect the daily life and welfare of the American people can be settled by politics instead of plain, common business. The tariff on imported merchandise is the cause of all our troubles is the declaration of one set of theorists, and the overflowing and excessive abundance of gold is another theoretical. But all the time the home production of foodstuffs is decreasing in proportion to the increase in the nation's population.

From the beginning of the human race men have revolted against the tilling of the soil. It appears that farm labor was inflicted on man as a punishment for their primal transgressions of divine law, and men will not till the soil for mere wages if they can escape it.

These Southern states of ours have always been strictly agricultural, and in the old times of big plantations and slave labor there was never any question of a food supply. But the negroes, since they have become free citizens and are being educated at the public expense, flee from the farms to the towns and cities, and it is much to be doubted that any negro who can read and write even sticks to the farm, unless it be his own, any longer than it is possible for him to get away. Fortunately for the negroes, and fortunately for the country, the great plantations of the South are being divided into small holdings, and not a few negroes have come to be land owners and farmers.

In fact, the subdivisions of the agricultural lands in the United States into small farms, cultivated by their owners and owned by men who actually plow, plant and reap the crops, is going to be the salvation from threatened starvation and from mob rule.

The radical theory that is being propagated through the country to the effect that all productive industries, including agriculture, manufactures, and mining, should be owned and carried on by the national government, necessarily demands that all farming and mineral lands, as well as land on which mills and factories are situated, and the plants and buildings and machinery therein shall be owned and operated by the government.

Just how the government is to get possession of what is now private property, has never been distinctly set forth. Whether the government is to buy up the enormous aggregation of private property and issue billions on billions of bonds as payment, or is to confiscate and seize on it all, is not known.

Such a revolution in our industrial system seems to be impending if the landless and propertyless classes should ever become to be in a majority. But if the land owners, no matter how small their respective holdings, shall outnumber the others, they will stand as a bulwark against such a revolution. More than that, they will increase the food supply, which has latterly been falling off at a serious rate.

These small farmers, with their own labor and that of their families, can do a great deal of cultivating, and whether whites or negroes will stick to their own lands while it is difficult to get either whites or negroes to work steadily on the farms for wages. Most of them will leave a certainty behind them to take desperate chances in the city.

Some very important facts in regard to the increase in the number of small farms in the country are brought to attention by the census bureau. In some of the bulletins on the subject we find the following, which at this juncture are well worth attention.

The South Central division of the union includes Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. The total number of farms operated by tenants comprising the "all-owners" class was 949,036 in 1910, as compared with 812,970 in 1900, an increase of 106,066.

The statement relative to farms distributed according to certain acreage groups shows that those of "18 acres and under" numbered 312,329 in 1910 and 288,257 in 1900, a gain of 70,072; those of "20 to 49 acres" 600,660 in 1910 and 498,491 in 1900, an increase of 102,169; those of "50 to 99 acres" 442,246 in 1910 and 366,525 in 1900, an increase of 75,721; those of "100 to 174 acres" 379,633 in 1910 and 337,546 in 1900, an increase of 42,087; those of "175 to 499 acres" 204,311 in 1910, and 175,445 in 1900, an increase of 28,866; those of "500 to 999 acres" 26,545 in 1910 and 24,824 in 1900, an increase of 1,721.

Gov. Colquitt's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 8.—Gov. Colquitt today issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"The days of the year 1911 will soon be ended. The records of our progress in mental, moral and material development will soon be completed, and as we turn and look back and sum up the share each has contributed to the happiness and development of all, and note that the sum of all our labors has been for good, naturally we feel thankful, and, according to our beautiful custom, we designate the last day in November as a day of praise and thanksgiving to our Father in Heaven for His manifold blessings to us individually and as a people.

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands.

Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before His presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord He is God. It is He that hath made us, and we are His.

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving.

And into His courts with praise. Give thanks unto Him and bless His name.

For the Lord is good: his mercy endureth forever.

And His faithfulness to all generations."

—100 Psalm.

"As we pray for peace and rest throughout the state in the days that are yet to come, let us also give thanks for the blessings and general prosperity we have enjoyed, and gather around the fireside of our fathers and mothers and kindred and friends, in a spirit of love, and make our acknowledgements to the Father of all the faithful for His goodness.

"Now, therefore, in harmony with the proclamation of the President of the United States of America, and in accordance with the ancient custom of our forefathers, I, O. B. Colquitt, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby designate and proclaim Thursday, Nov. 30, 1911, as a day of thanksgiving, singing and prayer to the God of all Nations, for His goodness and loving kindness to the people of our great Commonwealth, and due observation of same is requested in all places of public worship.

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Texas to be affixed hereto.

"Done in the city of Austin, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1911.

"O. B. COLQUITT,

Governor."

THE NEWS IN PATCHES.

Curios Bits of Information Picked Up Here and There for the Hurried Reader.

The egg crop of the United States, the Department of Agriculture says, amounts to more than $620,000,000 annually. Its value is equal to that of the wheat crop, and is nine times as valuable as the country's tobacco crop.

New York, Nov. 8.—The United States Circuit Court, this afternoon, approved the dissolution plan of the tobacco corporation.

Dalhart, Tex., Nov. 8.—The first bale of cotton ever raised in this section of the state was brought in yesterday by S. N. Hoge, of Moore county.

Washington, D. C.—The total corn crop in the United States this year is estimated at 2,776,301,000 bushels, an average yield of 23.9 bushels per acre.

Fort Worth, Nov. 9.—All railroads here will establish a union city ticket office. The plan is said to be unique in the railroad business.

Austin, Nov. 9.—Returns from Texas public ginners for October show 940,484 running bales ginned that month.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 9.—The Comptroller's office is preparing a statement which expects to show the wealth of Texas through assessment valuation at two billion five hundred million dollars.

It is reported from Paris, France, from which most of the American fashions in dress are supposed to hail, that an effort is being made to revive the old fashioned hoop skirt. So far, however, only one woman has been brave enough to appear on the streets in one. She was promptly mobbed by a number of polite citizens of Paris, and her new skirt ruthlessly destroyed.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 8.—Gov. Colquitt has consented to umpire the baseball game to be played in this city during the progress of the convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues. The game will be for charity, and the players will be made up of veterans of the game. "Pop" Anson will be in the lineup. It is also expected that "Home Run" Baker and Ty Cobb will also participate.

Statistics show that all of the cotton factories of England would not take up over ten square miles. In Texas last year cotton covered 10,088,000 acres. Yet the Englishman made twice as much out of the staple in 1910 as the Texas. These are cold figures and not very pleasant to think about when we consider that we are wearing English-made goods manufactured from our own cotton. How can we secure factories for Texas? By using-made-in-Texas products. Patronize home industries and the factories will come to us. They will have to in order to get our business.

There is always a ready market for peanuts and the price at present is 60 cents per bushel, or about thirty dollars per acre in cultivation. Most of the crop around Hawley has been gathered and shucked but not threshed. Shipments are leaving there every day on an average of three cars each twenty-four hours. Six cars were shipped out Monday and Tuesday of this week. They are sold to the peanut houses of Denison and Terrell.

About two and a quarter pounds of wool will be sold in Texas within the next ten days if bids are accepted, and San Angelo will contribute approximately 1,000,000 to the total.

Next Friday the San Angelo Wool Growers' Central Storage Company will receive offers on 600,000 pounds, and indications are that there will be keen competition to its purchase. The clips held by the commission merchants will likely be sold early next week, although no date has been fixed for their disposal.

GOULD LINES PLANNING MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

Judge Freeman Says T. & P. Will Operate All Steel Passenger Coaches in Short Time.

In line with the extensive improvements on the International & Great Northern, and the Texas & Pacific Judge Thomas A. Freeman, president of the former road, who spent a few hours in Dallas Saturday when he conferred with the general superintendent, announced that it would probably be only a matter of a very short time until the Texas & Pacific would be operating all steel coaches exclusively.

Since removing his offices from Houston to New Orleans, Judge Freeman has made a trip to New York, where, it is reported, he purchased a large amount of equipment, important among which were twenty-five steel coaches and a number of locomotives.

Within the next year considerable improvements on the line of the T. & P. will be witnessed, orders already having been placed for a large amount of steel rail. The company is now planning to strengthen the tracks of the East Texas and Rio Grande divisions, and as soon as the rush season is over about fifty miles of new rail will be laid.

Both the Texas & Pacific and the International and Great Northern will spend considerable money for supplies of all kinds, and it is stated by Judge Freeman that both of these lines will purchase their supplies from their patrons in Texas and Louisiana. This announcement by Judge Freeman, who is the executive head of both roads, has been received with much satisfaction by Texas shippers, this being a policy that differs greatly from that of most roads. The purchases of the Texas & Pacific alone amounts to $1,200,000 a year, and with that of the International and Great Northern added it can be readily seen that this announcement by Judge Freeman is of considerable importance commercially in Texas.

Horace Vose, of Westley, R. I., who has long been purveyor extraordinary to His Excellency, the President of the United States in the matter of the official Thanksgiving and Christmas turkey, states that the turkey this year is a fine bronze gobbler, fed on a diet of chestnuts, which produces the finest quality of white meat. He says: "I shall send President Taft the finest turkey I have ever sent to any president since the one I gave President Grant."

DOCTORS FAILED. RESTORED BY PERUNA.

Catarrh of the Lungs

Threatened Her Life.

Miss Ninette Porter, Braintree, Vermont, writes: "I have been cured by Peruna."

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me. I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it."

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me."

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment."

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

University of Texas Notes.

The net enrollment in all departments in the University of Texas for 1910-11 was 2,758 students. This number far exceeds the enrollment of any other university in the south, and compares favorably with the big institutions of the north.

Six hundred young women are students in the University of Texas. Eleven are studying medicine and one is studying law.

Two years ago the University of Texas began to give instruction by correspondence. In that time 1,944 courses have been taken by young Texans who have been unable to come to the University. It is possible that this venture in University education will attract 1,000 students. Free catalogues can be had from the Extension department.

The increase for this year of the class beginning to study medicine at the University of Texas in Galveston is nearly 50 per cent. This increase has been made despite the fact that no student is now admitted to study medicine who has not done a full year of satisfactory work in a first class college.

Emil Sauer, formerly of Fredericksburg, Texas, and a graduate of the University of Texas, has been appointed by President Taft to be Consul of Bagdad, Turkey.

Miss Jennie Hooks, Colorado, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to representations in my case. I suffered severely from pains through my kidneys. I had but little control over the kidney secretions, and the pains through my back caused me intense misery. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills and the beneficial results that had followed their use in similar cases, I was led to try them. They removed the pains and soreness across my back and strengthened my kidneys. I am glad to recommend this remedy to other persons suffering from kidney complaint."

Newspaper editors address their readers en masse, and an editor rarely never thinks of addressing remarks through his columns to just one person. Egotistic persons, who see in editorial statements which they think are aimed at themselves, should smother their resentment. The probabilities are that the editor was not thinking within a thousand miles of them. Very often he writes, in fact, without thinking at all.

Notably at Abilene, the Texas & Pacific Railway Company is co-operating with the city government in the matter of putting in parks about the depot buildings. Here is an opportunity for the city council of Colorado or Commercial Club, to get in some good work. A neat and well kept little park at both ends of our passenger station would be an ornament to the town and a matter of pride to every citizen. The Record believes the arrangements could be made with the railway company to put in the park if the move was backed by the town or some organization. It's well worth trying for.

IMPORTANT TO TEACHERS.

Notice of Dates of Next Regular Examination for Teachers' Certificates.

The following notice was received this week by Judge A. J. Coe, ex-officio county superintendent of public instruction, and will be of interest to all Mitchell county teachers:

To the County Superintendent: You are hereby requested to give public notice that the next regular examination for teachers' certificates will be held by your county board of examiners on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 7, 8 and 9, 1911, and that the following schedule for said examination has been prescribed by the State Department of Education:

Thursday: Forenoon: History of Education, Physics, Solid Geometry, English and American Literature; Afternoon: Psychology, Chemistry, Plane Trigonometry, Bookkeeping.

Friday: Forenoon: Arithmetic, Grammar, Physical Geography, Plane Geometry; Afternoon: Civil Government, Algebra, General History, Composition.

The county board of examiners must not grade papers of applicants for State Certificates, but the papers of said applicants, together with reports on the prescribed forms, must be forwarded to the State Department of Education at Austin on the afternoon of the last day of the examination.

Remember that each person entering the examination must apply at the beginning for a state certificate or for a county certificate, and that the county board of examiners must grade only the papers for county second grade certificates. In order to build to a certificate of higher grade, a person must first get a state second grade certificate, after which, he may take the examination in one or more subjects in any examination until the examination for higher grade certificates is completed. The applicant should not attempt to take too many subjects at one examination, but in building it would be better for them to take the examination in only two or three subjects at a given time, and thus do better work and make higher grades.

Respectfully yours,
F. M. BRILLEY,
State Superintendent.

The Future of Good Farming.

The day is coming—I may not live to see it, but it is coming, when instead of a beggarly average of 200 pounds of lint per acre, all over the South, the bales of the crop will be counted by the number of acres planted and the number of acres will be diminished rather than increased, while the auxiliary crops will attain an importance that will make us ashamed of the old idea of merely "growing supplies."

We will grow the supplies, of course, and a great lot of them, to sell and to feed to the hogs and cattle. And it is the young men of the Blood of the Old South who are going to be leaders in this development. Not that we will not welcome men from other sections, but the native young men of the south are getting their pride aroused, and they are not going to leave the future to men from elsewhere, but they themselves are going to be the leaders. They are hard at work, these Southern youths, in the schools and colleges, and in the farm crop contests. They have no old notions or superstitions to overcome, and the blood of the Old South is going to make the New South.

For Sale or Trade.

I have for sale, or will trade, four acres of improved property in Ira. Good house, orchard, windmill, cistern, etc. Will sell cheap or trade for other property. Also a resident lot in Snyder.

You Can Get as Good Price Here as Anywhere, and the Merchants Will Treat You Right.

There Is no Better Market In Which to Buy or Sell Than Colorado.

EVERY dollar spent in patronizing home industries of every kind, is an invitation to outside capital to invest in our town. Nothing is so stimulating to home industry as the knowledge that there is a market for its products at home. When the outside learns that Colorado farmers and Colorado people patronize Colorado merchants in preference to any others, the town will build up and the volume of business be increased wonderfully.

Spend your money with the people who have helped you make it. This is the political economy of co-operation. When you send your money to build up other towns—Chicago and New York—you are but robbing yourself of the amount of money the home merchants in the same line you ordered, would have given back to you. Not a dollar of the money you pay the mail order houses will ever find its way into your pocket again. It's gone "where the woodbine twineth and the whangdoodle mourneth."

For Automobiles the Studebaer E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" stand in a class out any competition. First, that one year's guarantee your car—this includes all your car during the year; third, last and best of all, the only cars on the market that can be bought in pieces for the same price as the car. Call or write the Studebaker Garage man for a demonstration, and remember a one year's guarantee goes with every car.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS and PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. P. C. Coleman is entertaining this afternoon in honor of her daughter and Miss El ena VranETAOINNN ter and Miss Van Tuyl, two of our fairest and sweetest debutantes.

What could make a better birthday or Christmas present than the Ladies Home Journal. Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, agent, Phone 157.

Thursday afternoon the Daughters of the King, the organized ladies class of the Methodist church, held its monthly meeting with Mrs. Anna. A series of Bible readings upon being Christians was given, then the usual amount of business, paying of dues, discussion of means whereby those not members could be interested, and reports of committees came up. It was decided that the members of the class would have hot meals the two days of the Epist ladies' exchange. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served hot coffee and delicious caramel ice. Mrs. Annett is hostess for the December meeting.

Add the Ladies Home Journal and the Saturday Evening Post to your list of reading matter for the winter. Mrs. Whipkey is agent.

Mrs. W. V. Johnson and Miss Lillie Allen left Wednesday for Mrs. Johnson's home in Guadalajara, Mexico.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial troubles," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold, of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

Rev. Lyon was too ill to hold services Sunday, so the Methodist people visited in the morning and Brother Shaw preached at night.

While out for practice or while going to the fire Thursday morning, a brass dust cap was lost off one of the wheels of the fire wagon. It may be that someone found it and does not know what it is. The driver will be obliged to the finder for its return to the fire station.

Remember, after your health fails, you cannot get a policy with the Missouri State Life. Better get it while you can.

There was no foolishness about the northern last Saturday night. It came down, after one of the most disagreeable days in the history of West Texas, like a wolf on the fold, and made every improvident mother's son of us wonder why we had not saved a little more on cold drinks, ice cream, etc., and put it in winter sheathing. But if we poor folks were economical and provident, how in the world would the rich keep rich and get richer? At six o'clock Sunday morning the thermometer registered 19 above zero. Think of what it must have been at Amarillo!

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

An evidence of the growth and prosperity of the city of Fort Worth was the sale last week of a lot on the corner of 9th and Commerce for $12,000, which a few years ago was bought for $350.

MRS. J. W. LOVELADY.

Fowler, the aviator, demonstrated that he is not in the flying business solely for honors and health, but has a keen appreciation of the money potentialities of his trip. Colorado, in common with several other towns along the line of his flight, offered him a sum, which they understood would be sufficient, to induce him to light here and give the people an opportunity to see him and his machine, and some of the towns advertised that he would stop. Colorado made up $100. The manager of Fowler now wants $150 for his Colorado stop and $500 for Abilene. Mr. Webb, who assumed the trouble and work of raising and collecting the $100, says he will not ask the town to contribute another cent. It smacks too much of a "hold-up." As the town lies on the line of his flight, as he has decided to follow the route of the T. & P., and inasmuch as he must come down to earth every six to ten hours, it is reasonable to suppose, in view of these facts, that if he would stop for $150 he will stop for $100. So there is little probability that Colorado will raise its offer.

Hear the Star Quartette at the opera house on the 25th. Those who have heard them pronounce it a musical treat.

Superintendent Freeman promises some very important changes in the near future in the condition and service of the Texas & Pacific road.

FOR SALE—Angora Goat, gentle for children. See it at J. R. Sims home.

In Club Circles.

The Standard Club met Friday with Mrs. Crockett, with a good attendance. The roll call was given from Moorhead literature, all of which were beautiful. The Shakespeare lesson was conducted by Mrs. Gray. Mrs. Bailey had a good paper upon Walt Whitman's "Can Do for China." Mrs. Prince was leader for the Bay View study, the subject being Chinese Workers. Mrs. Coleman had a splendid reading upon Switzerland. The social hour was pleasantly spent, delicious refreshments being served by the hostess, whose rooms were gay and fragrant with quantities of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Gray is hostess this week.

Miss Dry entertained the Hesperians in her cheerful school room Friday afternoon, a large per cent of the membership being present. Roll call was a note upon the character of Coriolanus. Mrs. Johnson gave an excellent paper upon the Tribune and Consensus with special application to the play of Coriolanus. Mrs. Collier read from Stoddard a beautiful description of a trip over the Palatine, which was to have been given as a talk by Mrs. Brennand, who was prevented from attending. Mrs. Green had an exceptionally good paper upon the Struggle Between the Classes. The roll call for part two was Current Events and, as usual, was very interesting. Mrs. Rath gave a very fine paper upon Nature as an Educator, and Mrs. Harcroft had a delightful humorous reading upon boys, by Bob Taylor. Several guests added to the pleasure of the afternoon, and an enjoyable social session was spent. Mrs. Johnson is hostess this week.

Christmas Bazaar.

The ladies of the Baptist church will open the Annual Christmas Bazaar and Woman's Exchange on December 15th and 16th. One of the vaunted stores on Second street will be used for the purpose (location given later). It will be the fourth year for this enterprise, and the ladies hope to make it even more successful than before. All societies, clubs, or individuals who wish are invited to place articles on sale at that time. Tables will be furnished on request, and a commission of ten per cent will be charged on all sales. Following is a list of tables now engaged:

Christian church: Fancy Table, Table of Doll's Clothes, and Ten Cent Table.

Mrs. Jim Smith: Potted plants of all kinds.

Mrs. C. A. Pierce: Decorated China.

Mrs. Joe Key: Fancy Table.

Epist. Church: Baptist Sunday School: Candy Table.

Epist. Church: Methodist Sunday School: Candy Table.

Methodist Ladies: Lunch and Supper.

Baptist Ladies: Fancy Table and Stationery.

It is necessary to know by December 15th.

MRS. GEO. W. SMITH.

Chairman Executive Committee.

The Junior Standards met last week with Mrs. Thomas. The roll was called and responded to with current events, which are always a source of much interest and information. Mrs. Y. D. McMurray gave an excellent paper upon the porticulture of Holland, which was upon the women of Holland, which proved to be a very interesting topic. Mrs. Elliott and Miss Riordan were guests of the social hour, which was a most delightful one. Miss Eleanor Van Tuyl is hostess this week.

The G. F. C's. met Thursday with Mrs. Floyd Beal. Each member had her sewing, and it looks very much as if the young ladies were preparing articles for their dowry boxes, while it is a self-evident fact that the married ladies are adding to their stock of linen, as they hem napkins and tray cloths. But all have time for easy chatter, though they do accomplish a large amount of work. The hostess served a regular meal of hot veal loaf, fruit salad, bread and butter, cranberry jelly, pickles and hot coffee.

Miss Moor will entertain this week.

The U. D. C's. held a delightful meeting Monday with Mrs. Galt. The roll call was quotations upon Thanksgiving, a Bible reading being given by Mrs. Smith upon the same subject. Mrs. Shepherd read a short article upon the life of Joseph E. Johnston, others telling some incident in the life of a General in the Confederacy. In the business session it was decided to send a delegate to the state convention. Mrs. Reese being selected, which meets in Houston December 5th to 8th, and there will be great things done among the daughters. After all the business was disposed of Mrs. Galtine served a regular meal of salad croquettes, bread and butter, peach pickles and hot coffee all so good that everyone ate the last bite. Then she further added to the happiness of the guests by coming back into the kitchen from which she had withdrawn last month. Mrs. Johnson was a pleasant visitor who will also be a member when she returns to Colorado. The Daughters will meet next month with Miss Eleanor Dupree and a Christmas program will be given. All are urged to be present.

However short Texas may be on all else, it is always overstocked on weather. Sunday and Monday mornings were so cold the average Colorado citizen thought of laying off from work, and Tuesday so warm, rainy and spring like that he went around in shirt sleeves, and failed to take off his hat to the coal man when he met him.

Two Holes in the Household Purse

If you use butter otherwise than as a spread for bread you are wasting money, because Cottolene will make just as light cake and pastries as you ever made from butter, and it can be bought for about the price you pay for lard. One-third less Cottolene, moreover, is required than of either butter or lard. With Cottolene you save in another way. Lard-cooked food leads to indigestion, and indigestion sooner or later lands you into the hands of the doctor. Use Cottolene and your bills will be less both with your grocer and with your family doctor.

Three Churches to Dedicate.

In talking with Rev. Simon Shaw this week, about his work as presiding elder in this district, he said he had just returned from Westbrook where every dollar of indebtedness on the Methodist church at that place had been paid that day. The church has only about 60 communicants and had passed through three years of unprecedented financial depression. The money subscribed at the Mulkey meeting two years ago, had to be carried over, and it had begun to look like a forlorn hope, but the people determined to pay off the debt and last Sunday it was done; $675 was the amount.

Two other churches in the bounds of this work have done like heroic work recently. The church at Hermiston paid off an old long hanging debt that had sapped its strength and energies for several years, which amounted to $300. The church at Winston cleaned up every dollar on the $100 debt against it some time ago.

These three churches are now ready to be dedicated and arrangements have been made to have Dr. G. C. Rankin come out sometime in the month of March, 1912, and conduct the dedicatory exercises. These churches deserve great credit for their heroic efforts, and the Record hopes to be able to attend all the services.

Mr. G. M. Galt, living on the Nat Smith place west of town, has brought fine town and sold several loads of the finest feed stuff we have seen since 1906. With an abundance of such farm products in the barn, a sheaf or two fattening, a few chickens and a sprinkling of turkeys—and no objection to a few young geese—a number of pumpkins and a few measures of genuine sweet potatoes; the average Mitchell county farmer can look forward to Thanksgiving, and even Christmas, with no feelings save delightful expectancy. Barring Van Zandt, there is no county in the broad commonwealth of Texas where all these things can be had with more certitude and in more perfect specimens than in old Mitchell county. Now is the time to emigrate and immigrate.

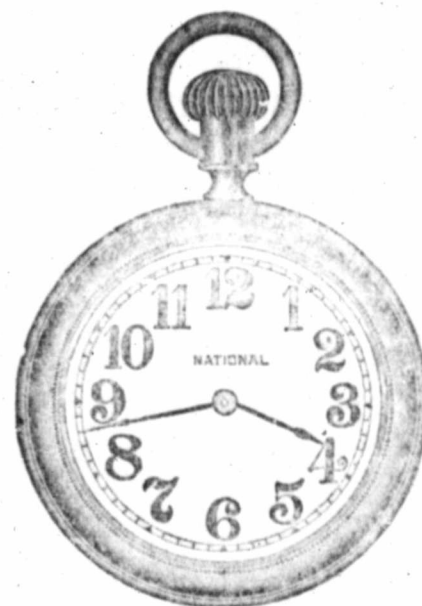

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; now comes out of you are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh of the Eustachian Tube, if cured by HARRIS CATARRH CURE, sent for examination, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

LOCAL NOTES

Pure blood, single comb, Rhode Island Red Cockerels and Pullets for sale. Mrs. A. L. Whipkey.

W. H. Moeser went down to Dallas last Sunday morning to be on hand to ride the 32nd degree Scottish rite goat Monday night. Evidently the bunch treated him with consideration, as there are no "marks, signs or appearances on or about him" to indicate other than the kindest handling. But he won't tell us where they put the "brand."

Pure blood, single comb, Rhode Island Red Cockerels and Pullets for sale. Mrs. A. L. Whipkey.

L. L. Welch, a prominent citizen of the Spade community, was in town Saturday, nor did he forget that printers are made of the same kind of stuff as other mortals and endowed with certain inalienable habits, among which are eating, clothing, tax paying and the pursuit of the elusive dollar. He renewed for the Record, and took the Dallas News as a premium.

FOR SALE—My household furniture is for sale—including two sewing machines and one piano. Will sell cheap. Also a good three-room house for rent.
Mrs. ROSA GOODMAN.

Quite a deal of cotton is being shipped direct from this point to Asiatic ports, principally to Hongkong and Yokohama, Japan. More than 600 bales were loaded out the past week consigned to Kobe and Yokohama, Japan.

Mrs. L. C. Dupree has returned from an extended visit with her daughter in Arizona and friends at El Paso.

Miss Eunice Crawford is visiting her aunt Mrs. Andrew Cooksey.

Agent Crowder, of the old reliable T. & P. brought in an elegant railroad map last week, with the compliments of the company. It is one of the largest railway maps of Texas, giving the latest extensions, etc., but gives greatest emphasis to the Gould systems in Texas, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas and Colorado. It is a valuable acquisition to any office, and we thank Mr. Crowder accordingly.

FOR SALE—I now offer for sale my buggy horses. They are good drivers and I will sell singly or together at a bargain.
DR. T. J. RATLIFF.

Earl Jackson spent Wednesday at Abilene.

J. C. Cleland, of Pittsburg, Texas, an old time friend of L. C. Dupree, is visiting at the home of the latter.

Mrs. J. L. Allen is home from a pleasant visit to the McKenzie ranch.

The Christian Aid meets this week with Mrs. Jones. The largest meeting within the memory of the president was held last week at Mrs. Coe's. Everybody served for the Bazaar and took work home with them.

You cannot do a more commendable piece of missionary work than have a number of the Record's Christmas edition sent back to your friends east, or to those who contemplate coming to this section. This edition of the Record will tell them all about it. Put in your orders now, so that your name will be cur'd to be in the pot.

Birthday Party.

Friday was Jessie and Giles Coughran's birthday party, they having reached the age of twelve, and they celebrated it with a party. The children came in at four-thirty, played games and enjoyed themselves in the usual way. Refreshments of punch and cake were served, then a bowl of candy containing a dime, a nickel and a button was passed. Lillian Majors got the dime in the scramble that followed, and Kirke Ratliff the nickel, and the one who got the button refused to tell. All enjoyed the party, and stayed until their mothers had to telephone for them to come home.

The Central Circle met Monday with Mrs. Buchanan and held a very pleasant meeting. It was decided to have an open meeting the Wednesday evening before Thanksgiving and have a free will offering for the pledge, the husbands and sweethearts of the members to be invited guests. Before adjournment the hostess served an elegant salad course.

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by all dealers.

For pains in the side or chest dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. W. T. McAfee had the misfortune, this week, to lose, by death, a fine saddle horse, in fact one of the best ones he had. Mr. Mac was just starting to the ranch, up near Tahoka with some cattle, when the horse decided he did not want to go, and got out of it by dying. This is the horse's obituary, and his best traits were his saddle qualities.

The Baptist Mission Study Class met Wednesday with Mrs. Pierce, and held a very pleasant and profitable meeting. In the absence of the leader, Mrs. Spoot, the regular program was laid aside and a Thanksgiving program given. Each member gave a thankful verse or thought. There were some sweet poems and thoughts upon thankfulness, and thanks for God's mercies were expressed in the chain of prayer that was offered. Some good music was also added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Adjournment was made until the new year; no December meeting will be held. The hostess served most tempting refreshments in the most dainty manner, which added greatly to the thanksgiving spirit of the occasion.

Pythian Installation.

Tuesday evening the Pythian Sisters had a very delightful meeting at which the K. of Ps. were guests of honor.

Mrs. J. L. Allen and Mrs. Costin were initiated into the mysteries of the Pythian Sisterhood, the full ritual of riding the goat, etc., being indulged in. Mr. Lynch, a visitor, made a speech, and several home gentlemen made talks upon the work.

A lovely salad course was served by the ladies as a fitting close to the evening's pleasures, which had been long anticipated, and proved to be as pleasant in realization as it had been in expectation.

FOR RENT—Good five-room house. Close in, good repair. See.
JAS. T. JOHNSON.

With more than half of its vast territory under the operation of local option, Texas, with New York and Wisconsin, share the unenviable notoriety of supporting the largest number of saloons to population. Galveston leads all cities in the United States in the number of saloons to its population. It supports one saloon to every 138 inhabitants. Even Milwaukee has only one saloon to 141 inhabitants, and Hoboken, N. J., one to every 175. The day will come, and that soon, when there will not be a licensed saloon to the state's total inhabitants.

When you buy coffee you want something good, not "something just as good," which is always a confession of inferiority. I can sell you a 4 1-2 pound bucket of coffee, guaranteed to please you in every instance, for only 95 cents.—Y. D. McMurry.

You may not need a cultivator, sulkey or walking plow, and stalk cutter, just now; but the prices I'm putting on these implements will justify you in buying for next year's use. Come to McMurry's store, see and price them.

TYPE WRITER RIBBONS

We have for sale, Typewriter ribbons for all machines. Guaranteed to be the best at only 75 cents.

The peace and tranquility of a community, engendered by the church—the confidence as to safety of human life and security of property, guaranteed by the government, are as much an asset as material wealth. The man, therefore, or set of men, who persistently try to foment distrust of the church and contempt for the government, are as much criminals as the burglar, who dispossesses, without right, a community of its property. Society has as much right to protect itself against one as the other.

Wagon loads of the finest watermelons are on the streets, and hardly a buyer, except some fellow who forgot to bring a dime to buy a chili, or a Mexican. What a pity such magnificent products cannot be utilized. The inventive genius who can think out a way to keep watermelons in all their juicy richness and July freshness, will ride in flying machines and buy diamonds by the pound, if he wants them.

All kinds of hot drinks at E. B. Morgan's.

Change of Schedule.

Effective after 1 a. m., November 16th, the following schedule will be promulgated by the Texas & Pacific road:

No. 3.	Westward:	No. 5.
6:59 P. M.		6:41 A. M.
No. 6.	Eastward:	No. 4.
10:16 P. M.		9:46 A. M.

Trains Nos. 3 and 4 do not stop at Elmdale, Tye and Trent, and only at county seats east of Baird.

Heavier engines will be used and the service improved as fast as the betterments can be effected. This is but the beginning, we learn of the many things General Manager Freeman has up his sleeve for the West Texas division of his road. Speed their coming.

If this Means You,

Then you're the man I'm after. I have been very lenient with those who owe me, but the time has come when I must have money, and unless those who owe me, come in and settle their accounts, they will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, without an exception whatever.
