Lady Audley's Secret Ready To Hit Stage

What is Lady Audley's Secret? What is the meaning of Death in Lime Tree Walk?

Lady Audley's Secret, or Death in Lime Tree Walk is the title for Colorado City Playhouse's upcoming production scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 26, 27 and 28 and again Nov. 2, 3 and 4.

This is another one of Colorado City Playhouse's famed melo-dramas where the audience gets a chance to hiss, boo and cheer. It is directed by Porter Richardson.

The three-act play is based in the mid-1800's and involves people of English ancestry. Unlike most melo-dramas, this production has a villainess rather than a villain and a hero rather than a heroine.

Price of tickets is $3 per person and reservations may be made by phoning 728-3491 or by going by the Colorado City Opera House.

Box office will be open starting Monday, Oct. 23, from 1-5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday and from 1-8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday.

The box office will have the same hours the following week, Oct. 30-Nov. 3. The Colorado City Opera House seats 160 persons.

Lady Audley's Secret, or Death in Lime Tree Walk has been in rehearsal since late August. This is the fourth production for Colorado City Playhouse this year as the season started with the musical, Annie Get Your Gun, in May the comedy Accommodations was presented and in August Arthur Miller's drama All My Sons went on stage.

The fifth and final production of the year will be Spoon River Anthology, to be presented in a reader's theatre format in early December.

The main plot of Lady Audley's Secret is Lady Audley's efforts to keep her past from being known to her rich, old husband, thus preserving her life of social position and ease. The part of Lady Audley is portrayed by Trina Taylor and her husband, Michael Audley, is played by Tandy Curlee.

There are sub-plots of the love between Robert Audley, played by Don Cheek, and Alicia Audley (cousins), portrayed by Karen Fuller, and the love between Luke Marks, as played by Fred McWhorter, and Phoebe Marks (also cousins), played by Donna McWhorter.

Luke Marks is the Audley Estate's groundskeeper while Phoebe Marks is Lady's maid to Lady Audley.

Other characters in the melo-drama are George

Commissioners Pass Tentative Budget

Revenue sharing funds totalling $118,539 was distributed by Mitchell County Commissioners in a budget workshop.

Meeting in a called session Monday, the Commissioners discussed requests made Oct. 9 at the revenue sharing funds pre-hearing.

The tentative revenue sharing—which covers planned expenditures from Oct. 1, 1978 to Sept. 30, 1979—was approved by the Commissioners. Final approval of the revenue sharing budget will be considered Nov. 13 at the regular session of the Commissioners Court.

Revenue sharing funds can be distributed in 15 different categories but the Commissioners approved the tentative budget with funds appropriated in six categories.

For the public safety category, $39,500 was allocated for operating and maintenance, with $9,000 of the funds going toward the purchase of two sheriff's cars; $13,500 as the county's share of the ambulance service; $5,000 for the Colorado City dispatcher and $12,000 for fire calls.

Capital funds for public transportation totalled $17,708 while operating and maintenance tallied $48,000.

In the public transportation category, $48,000 was allocated for emulsion, hot mix cold lay and sealcoating with Commissioners taking into consideration a slight increase in material costs over last year. Equipment for public transportation amounted to $17,708, bringing the total for public transportation revenue sharing funds to $65,708.

For health, $1,200 was allocated for operating and maintenance since the county pays Colorado City $100 per month to use the dumping grounds.

Under recreation, for capital expenditures, $2,000 was allocated, although over $4,000 had been requested by the Colorado City Jaycees to build restroom facilities at the softball field south of Colorado City.

Appropriation to the Mitchell County Library was $3,000 for capital expenditures.

Funds for social services for the aged or poor totalled $7,131 for operations and maintenance with $6,131 going to the Wallace Community Education Center to be used for the continuation of the Aging Serving Cooperation Agreement.

Loraine Senior Citizens Group requested $2,680 at the revenue sharing funds pre-hearing to be used for renovations and additions to the Loraine Agriculture Building.

The Commissioners approved $1,000 for the Loraine Senior Citizens, accepting the proposals to raise the existing walls of the inner room to the ceiling to increase heating and cooling efficiency; construction of an 8x8 storage room and an 8x8 office; paneling and tiling the inside of the restroom facilities; installation of a window in the northwest corner; building of a 4x8 outside storeroom to house gardening equipment; repair of the outside lighting system and purchase of two speakers and a microphone for the present sound system.

Proposals to rearrange the kitchen area of the Senior Citizen portion of the Ag building, the purchase of a sign designating the building as the Mitchell County Nutritional Program site and Senior Center, installation of a wood burning stove and equipment.

Arispe Takes Crown--Again

"I don't know if I was shaking because it was cold or because I was scared," said Bertha Arispe in regard to being crowned 1978 Homecoming Queen at Colorado High School Friday night.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Severiano Arispe of 545 Cypress, Miss Arispe, 17, was crowned queen by Superintendent of Schools Charlie Uselton during Friday night's halftime show. She was escorted on the field by her father.

Having a Homecoming Queen in the family isn't something entirely new to the Arispes. In 1975, Miss Arispe's sister, Melie Arispe Reyes, was crowned CHS Homecoming Queen.

And, the chance of the Arispes adding another queen to the list is not entirely impossible since there are 11 daughters in the family. Four of them are younger than Miss Arispe and will have a chance at the crown when they reach their senior year in high school.

Besides having 10 sisters, Miss Arispe also has eight brothers.

A senior at Colorado High, Miss Arispe has been active in Future Teachers of America for three years, serving as secretary this year. She is also secretary of the Future Homemakers of America in which she has been active for four years and is a member of DECA.

During the morning, Miss Arispe attends classes at CHS and in the afternoon she works at KinderCare Center caring for the after-school aged children.

Miss Arispe attends St. Ann's Catholic Church and was St. Ann's Fall Festival Queen in 1976.

In 1977, Homecoming queen at CHS was Marla Bodine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Bodine.

Labor Survey Ends Friday

Response to the Chamber of Commerce labor survey to determine whether Colorado City will be the site of a mobile home manufacturing plant has been good.

But, more interest is still needed to complete the survey.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Larry Winders said that the nine day long survey will come to a close at 5 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) and more names are still needed.

Grimes To Address CCMP

Federal Communications Commission Representative Tim Grimes will be the featured speaker at Saturday's meeting of the Colorado City Mounted Patrol (CCMP).

Grimes will offer a presentation on FCC rules and regulations in regard to citizen band radio, ham radio and other communications systems.

Following the program, the audience will have an opportunity to present questions to Grimes.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Middle School auditorium. There is no charge and the presentation is open to the public.

During the meeting, a 40-channel base CB radio will be given away, as well as several other prizes donated by CCMP members and merchants from West Texas.

A goal of 300 persons expressing an interest in employment with the company has been set by the Chamber and as of Wednesday, the Chamber was steadily receiving more surveys to come closer to the goal.

Each survey which is filled out is immediately mailed to the mobile home manufacturing company headquarters. From those surveys, the company will contact people and line up interviews.

Winders said that the company is expected to be in Colorado City in about 10 or 14 days to interview prospective employees.

From the interviews, the company will be better able to determine whether Colorado City would be a good location for a plant.

Surveys received thus far by the Chamber indicate a healthy cross-section of prospective employees.

"Probably about one third of the surveys have been from experienced people--there seems to be a good ratio of men and women," said Winders.

Persons interested in filling out a survey form should contact the Chamber office at the Colorado City Civic Center at 728-3403. The office is open from 9 a.m.-8 p.m. daily. Inquiries can also be mailed to P.O. Box 242.

If the mobile home manufacturing company should decide to establish a plant locally, it should be in operation by January.

About 40 to 50 people will be hired initially. After a training period not a exceed 10 days, employees will receive $4 per hour with incentive raises offered. Experienced persons in mobile home or recreational vehicle manufacturing, assembly work, carpentry, sheet metal, plumbing and electrical work will be hired at wages exceeding $4 an hour.

Interest in the job has not only come from Mitchell County, but also from area towns including Snyder and Sweetwater.

"I am very proud of the response to the survey," said Winders, "and the way people have tried to help us."

Winders noted that securing the plant for Colorado City is a prime objective of the Chamber.

"I want this plant so bad that I can taste it," said Winders.

Time To Register Vehicles

Those people who only registered their vehicles for six months last April have until the last day of this month to register them again in the tax assessor-collector office in the Mitchell County Courthouse or risk a fine.

Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Burt said that as of Monday, there had been 106 cars registered this month in addition to 57 pickups, 122 cotton or farm trailers and 10 trailers of other types.

SOME 25 PEOPLE entered the jogging and walking competition in Colorado City Saturday, held in conjunction with National Jogging Day. The event was sponsored by Patrice's Shop'n'Up Shop and the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce. Pictured are the walkers as they line up for the big race. See pictures of winners, page 11.

T. P. Fowler Attends Meeting In Odessa

T. P. Fowler, Colorado ISD home-school liaison and parental involvement teacher, attended the 25th annual Institute of the Home-School Coordinators Visiting Teachers Association of Texas, which was held October 5-7 at the Inn of the Golden West in Odessa.

Consultants and workshop speakers included Dr. Welborn Willingham, Associate Professor of Education at Texas Tech University; Dr. Jesus Zapata, Assistant Professor in Guidance and Counseling at the University of San Antonio; and Dr. Joel Greenspoon, Professor of Behavioral Sciences and Dr. Pat Jaramillo, Assistant Professor of Guidance and Counseling at the University of San Antonio; and Dr. Joel Greenspoon, Professor of Behavioral Sciences and Dr. Pat Jaramillo, Assistant Professor of Guidance and Counseling at the University of Texas of the Permian Basin.

The highlight of the 3-day session was the 25th Anniversary Bar-B-Q, which was held on the U.T.P.B. campus for home-school coordinators and visiting teachers, honoring past presidents of the organization.

After entertainment was provided by U.T.P.B. students, Dr. Ann Arnold of Fort Worth, president of the organization, introduced the speaker, Dr. Luisa Sanchez, a past president who is currently supervisor of the Austin ISD visiting teachers.

Dr. Sanchez, who has attended all of the previous institutes, traced the history and development of the visiting teacher movement in Texas from its beginning in November, 1948 when a small group of visiting teachers, who attended a meeting of the Texas Mental Health Association in El Paso, organized the Visiting Teachers Association of Texas. In 1976 the organization voted to include the words "Home-School Coordinators" in its title.

Joe Ellison, president-elect from Odessa, presented plaques to the past presidents, several of whom were present to receive their awards in person. Plaques were sent to those who are still living, but were unable to attend, while plaques for deceased past presidents were given or sent to members of the descendants' families.

The presentations included a posthumous award honoring the late Juan G. Mason, a past president who retired several years ago. Mason, who was director of the Dallas ISD visiting teacher program when he retired, taught English in Colorado

High School from 1937 to 1942.

During the Saturday business meeting of the institute, Fowler was reappointed to a place on the organization's legislative committee.

Bentsen Receives Award

Senator Lloyd Bentsen of Texas has received the "Watchdog of the Treasury" Award from National Associated Businessmen, Inc., (NAB).

Senator Bentsen qualified to receive NAB's gold bulldog symbolizing the "Watchdog" Award by voting 67% of the time to reduce wasteful government spending during the 95th Congress.

In special ceremonies honoring Senator Bentsen on Capitol Hill, NAB Chairman Arthur Roth said, "The people of the State of Texas are extremely fortunate to be represented in Washington by a legislator whose concern with the inflationary impact of excessive government spending is so clearly reflected in his voting record."

NAB has been rating Members of the House and Senate on their votes for fiscal responsibility since 1964, Roth said. The "Watchdog of the Treasury" Award is presented each Congressional session to those Members who vote at least two-thirds of the time for economy in government.

"We are a nonpartisan organization," he continued. "We believe the importance of balancing the federal budget and stopping inflation in the United States transcends party affiliation and that eliminating unnecessary federal spending is a crucial step toward achieving these goals."

Mekelburg To Be Principal Speaker

"Milton E. 'Bud' Mekelburg, vice president of the National Association of Conservation Districts will be the principal speaker at the West Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts' meeting," announced J. D. Crawford, president of the organization.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. August 29 in Abilene at the Quality Inn, formerly the Thunderbird Inn.

Mekelburg, of Yuma, Colorado, is expected to address the soil and water conservation district directors on the "Relationship between food, agriculture and conservation and who pays for what in future conservation programs."

Mekelburg, who is a farmer, cattle feeder and businessman is active in many soil and water conservation activities and organizations.

NACD is a private, non-profit organization which represents conservation districts and state associations. Its primary purpose is the conservation, orderly development and judicious use of natural resources through the maximum use of local initiative, decision making and self-government.

Latest figures given to the West Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts by the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board indicate that approximately 195 thousand Texas landowners who operate nearly 115 million acres are voluntarily cooperating with local soil and water conservation districts to implement individual conservation practices on their land. This is two-thirds of Texas' land area under some type of conservation program.

Joe Antille, member of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board and Kenneth Kuykendall, president of the Association of Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts are expected to present reports on the activities of each organization. "During the business session we will elect a new slate of officers and discuss items of interest relative to the state meeting of soil and water conservation district directors which will be held October 17-19 in Corpus Christi," said Crawford.

Sixteen soil and water conservation districts are members of the West Texas Association of SWCDs. They include: Upper Colorado, Upper Clear Fork, Concho, Middle Clear Fork, Mitchell, North Concho River, Coke County, Runnels, Middle Concho, Sandhills, Mustang, Howard, Midland, Nolan County, Andrews and Central Colorado.

Current officers of the organization are: J. D. Crawford, president, Midland; Richard M. Gesin, president-elect, Sweetwater; and Cone Robinson, Sr., treasurer, Norton.

Wolves To Confront Bulldogs Tomorrow

Colorado City's Wolves will face one of the best running backs they've ever seen when they square off against Wylie Friday night at Wolf Stadium, according to Wolves Coach Mike Farda.

Game time for the District 6-AA clash is 7:30 p.m.

Wylie's Wesley Marsh is what is called "big speed," said Farda. He is 6-1, weighs 185 and runs about a 10 flat hundred. So far this year, Marsh has compiled impressive stats, averaging 165 yards rushing per game in the five games the Wylie Bulldogs have played this year, giving him over 800 yards thus far in the season.

To go with Marsh will be the biggest offensive and defensive lines the Wolves have faced, Farda pointed out. They're bigger than Sweetwater's team with linemen weighing 230, 210, 205 and 190.

On offense they run the I-formation with split backs and have a good passing attack with three good receivers including a split end who is exceptional, Farda said.

One added note of enthusiasm for Wylie is that the offensive line and defensive line is coached by Gerald Graves, a Colorado High School graduate.

Last week, Wylie wore down Coahoma but lost 14-13 as they tried for a two point conversion and failed as the end came to a close, Farda said. The Colorado City coach said he has been told by Coahoma coaches that if the game had lasted any longer, Coahoma couldn't have won it. Coahoma coaches were quoted as saying they were lucky to win the game.

Wylie has 28 seniors and suit up 43 players. "They scare me to death," said Farda. "You can't hold them out (of the end zone). The only thing you can try to do is outscore them and that will be difficult," Farda added.

Wylie has won three games this year and lost two. They are one and one in district, having won over Ballinger 12-6 and losing to Coahoma.

Workouts this week have been good. The team realizes everyone will have to play hard and the team can't let up for a single game because of the balance in the district this year, Farda said.

There are no serious injuries as the result of last week's game, Farda said.

Johnny Garcia was thought to have chipped bones in his wrist but he is all right and Russell Noel suffered a leg injury but it is only a bruised calf.

About the Ballinger game, Farda said it was an overall good team effort, "probably a perfect game." There was no mistakes, he said, pointing out that there just isn't 54 points difference in the teams.

The Wolves have had only two games like this since Farda has been here, the coach said—the game against Ballinger and the 33-0 win over Coahoma two years ago.

The grading of the film of the Wolves versus Ballinger resulted in helmet awards on defense for Wolves Johnny Garcia, Ricky Sanchez, Mitch Hamer, Jay Feaster, Joey Landeros, Tony Truelove, Mike Womack and Dwayne Staats.

AT THE ANNUAL installation of officers meeting of the Colorado City Kiwanis Club recently, Legion of Honor awards were presented to six members. Those receiving awards were (left to right) Jimmy Payne, Kiwanian for 30 years and past lieutenant governor; Frank Hood, 30-year member and past lieutenant governor; Dell Barber, 31-year member and past lieutenant governor; Henry Bilberry, 31-year member and past president and Dewey Davis, 31-year member. Not pictured is R. B. Baker 30-year member and past president.

Colorado City's Wolves took a big jump in the Harris Rating System, apparently due to their impressive 54-0 win over Ballinger.

Last week, the Wolves had a power rating of 127.5 and were rated 65th in AA by Harris. This week, the Wolves have a power rating of 131.4 and are rated 45th, just behind Stamford with a power rating of 131.9.

Abilene Wylie, the Wolves' opponent this week, is rated 94th with a power rating of 122.7, making the Wolves a 9.2 point favorite in Friday's game.

Coahoma is rated 48th with a power rating of 130.9 and Ballinger is ranked 139th.

The Loraine Bulldogs are rated 83rd in Class B by Harris with a power rating of 87.7 as compared to a rating of 120th and to a rating of 120th and a power rating of 71 for Borden County, this week's opponent for Loraine.

Volleyball action at Snyder Monday night saw the varsity fall in two straight games, 15-1 and 15-4 and also saw the junior varsity team lose 15-1 and 15-5.

Tuesday night, the girls' volleyball squads played at home. The varsity took the best two out of three from Ballinger, 11-7, 6-15, 15-6. Brenda Smith led Colorado City with 11 points for the three games while Maxine Scott had seven.

The junior varsity squad, after taking the first game from Ballinger, 13-5, lost the final two contests, 11-13 and 10-13. Deloria Johnson led Colorado City with 10 points.

Earlier, the 7th and 8th grade volleyball teams each lost to Big Spring. The eighth graders fell 15-5 and 15-11 with Brenda Williams and Sandy Castillo each having four points for the two games.

The seventh grade squad lost 15-12 and 16-14. Robin Turner led the team with seven points for the two games.

The Loraine J.V. swamped the Sterling City Eagles JV Saturday morning 26-6 in Johnson Field.

Early in the first quarter the Eagles scored their only touchdown of the game. Their extra point attempt proved futile.

The Bulldogs first score came when Joe Barrera intercepted a pass and ran it over for a touchdown. With 2:39 left in the first quarter Jerry Rose ran the ball in for the two extra points.

It was in the third quarter when Rose scored a touchdown for the Bulldogs. Extra point was not good.

Later, with 1:55 left in the quarter, Kirk Galvan ran the ball in for six more points. Once again the extra point try failed.

Last score for the Bulldogs came in the fourth quarter with one minute left when Rose put six more points on the score board. With the extra point attempt unsuccessful, final score was 26-6.

The Loraine junior varsity will play again in a couple of weeks meeting Sterling City on their home field.

SWCD Director Is Re-Elected

Jimmy Harrison was recently re-elected to the Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors to represent the western part of the district.

The purpose of the Mitchell SWCD, with headquarters in Colorado City, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch land within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

As one of five individuals serving on the district board of directors, Harrison will be responsible for district policies and procedures for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas soil conservation district law.

In Texas there are 198 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board.

Doctors Accepted To NCSI

Dr. Rick Schaffer and Dr. Don Bennett, both of Colorado City, have recently been informed that they have been accepted for admission into the National Council of Sports Injuries.

Drs. Schaffer and Bennett both have extensive training in sports injuries and have worked with several teams during their internship in Pasadena and Houston, including a U.S. Olympic team.

This council, sponsored by the American Chiropractic Association, deals primarily with doctors who are interested in the prevention and correction of organized sports injuries.

Coach's Corner

By MIKE FARDA

This week the Colorado City Wolves play host to the Wylie Bulldogs who have a much improved football team over last year. They have made a head coaching change and new coach Bob Bearden has done a great job.

Early in the year they did not play well but they have improved tremendously week by week. They beat Ballinger 12-6 two weeks ago in what was called an upset, this was no upset, they had a much better football team.

Last week they lost to Coahoma, 14-13 and should have won the game, only a fumbled handoff in the backfield on a two point conversion spelled the difference between victory and defeat.

Jerel Graves, a former Colorado City football player, coaches the defense and he would like nothing better than to defeat his alma mater.

Wylie is a very physical team. Their offensive line is much larger than Sweetwater's and the defense is huge, their down linemen weigh 230, 210, 205 and 190 lbs.

They have two excellent running backs in Lance Wolfe, a three year starter and in Wesley Marsh, who has tremendous speed. Marsh was second to Ellison Portis of Ballinger in the district track meet last year.

Wylie is a very good football team and we must play very well to stay on the field with them. They have a large roster, suiting up between 37 and 43 players each week. They have 28 seniors on the squad. Only one player goes both ways so everyone gets plenty of rest on the sidelines. It will be difficult to wear them down.

This cannot be a let down week for the Wolves. I have heard people talk of our 54-0 win over Ballinger and Wylie's 12-6 win over the same team. Scores cannot be compared in football. It was two different football games and two different sets of circumstances. We must be ready to play Friday night. This district is much too evenly matched this year to ever let up. The teams that do will be out of the race.

GATA Wolves!

Do It Again!

Didn't our Wolves look super Friday night?

However, that game is history and they'll each get tougher as the weeks go by and our Wolves have their work cut out for them. This week it will be the Wylie Bulldogs, who earlier this season defeated Ballinger and last week were nosed out by Coahoma 14-13.

You can be sure that Wylie will be looking to stay in the district race and will be seeking to knock the Wolves from their district throne.

The game's at Wolf Stadium again this week so let's all go out and back our team to victory. It'll be tough but we feel our Wolves are up to the task. Go get 'em Wolves.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mac,

I thought the enclosed letter from Bob Krueger might be of interest to your readers, particularly to those who might own or expect to ever own a mineral interest.

Dan Barber

Dear Dan:

With regard to your questions relating to my stands on certain aspects of the deregulation issue, I would like to take this opportunity to reiterate my position on the following subjects.

First, I completely support free market prices for oil and gas. I believe that current prices are unfair to the producer and that individuals owning royalty rights should receive the true value of their property interests.

Second, I support the deregulation of all "old" gas and oil. I do not believe that secondary and tertiary exploration should be hindered by inequitable government regulation.

Finally, I fully support higher prices for stripper wells as long as unnecessary price ceilings exist.

I hope this letter answers your questions fully and completely. I might add that I have actively worked for the deregulation of oil and gas prices, and I will continue to do so in the future.

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Yours sincerely,
ROBERT KRUEGER
Member of Congress.

COLORADO MIDDLE SCHOOL CHATTER

Homecoming activities in Colorado City had students at the Middle School all fired up. Last week was quite exciting with all of the homecoming activities to prepare for.

Lots of preparations were made for the games against Ballinger with all of the football squads playing the Bearcats, and the student body kept quite busy making signs and getting ready for the homecoming fun.

However, homecoming wasn't all that was going on at Middle School. The newspaper staff stayed quite busy with more interviews and news to report for the Middle School Chatter.

Mrs. Bruce is the seventh grade math teacher. This is her first year to teach math. She took a six week course at San Angelo to become qualified to teach math.

Mrs. Bruce chose to be a math teacher because she likes math and she likes to be with children. She had been teaching special education for six years and she wanted to do something different.

Her hobbies are corcheting and reading novels and fiction. Mrs. Bruce hopes that the seventh graders will learn a lot and enjoy math. She is also the Jamboree and Cheerleader sponsor.

Robyn Turner

The sixth grade science teacher is Mrs. Sykes. This is her second year to teach science at the Middle School. She is married to Tom Sykes and they live seventeen miles west of Snyder out in the country.

Mrs. Sykes graduated from Texas Tech University in Lubbock in August of 1977. She graduated with a BS degree in Secondary Education with a teaching field in Broadfield Science.

Some of her hobbies are riding horses, reading, and she likes to hunt dove and quail when they're in season. She and her husband also like to snow ski.

The Sykes' have two nice dogs. One of them is a Doberman named Linus and the other is a Samoyed named Kaiser. She spends lots of time with her dogs. She even jogs with them in the afternoons after school.

Jay Piland

The Student Council held another meeting last week to discuss plans and decide on what fun days to have this year. Mr. Lowrance said that we could have four fun days and two dances. The Student Council then voted to see which fun days to have. The ones selected were Sock Day, Shoe Day, Tacky Day and a Candy Day. The dance dates were not set to the exact day, but the first one is going to be sometime in December.

After dates for the dances were discussed, committees were selected. The committees are the record player committee, a decorations committee and a refreshment committee. Shifts will be made for each committee.

Kerry Spivey

In choir last week, we elected officers. The choir officers are Carolyn Green, president; Hollie Taplin, vice president; Brenda Williams, secretary-treasurer; Venita Johnson, librarian and Tammy Bentley is reporter.

The president's job is to take over when the teacher is not there and to set the amount of money tickets will cost. The vice president takes over when the president is not there. The secretary-treasurer collects the money when we sell tickets. The librarian picks up the books and takes care of all the paperwork. The reporter's job is to do all of the advertisements. When we have a concert it is the reporters job to write an article for the newspaper about the concert.

Our choir teacher is Mrs. Holder and she is a very nice teacher. Mrs. Holder has been a great choir teacher for Colorado Middle School. I feel that all of us have learned a great deal from Mrs. Holder, and we all would like to thank her for teaching us.

Loretta Morris and Tammy Bentley

The pep rally started off this week with Rocky and the football boys walked in and took their reserved seats. The cheerleaders started with the old favorite W-W-Wol. The band played Soul Step and a new song called Night Train. The twirlers had a new routine to Night Train. While the twirlers did their routine, the lights were changing colors on stage and the house lights were dimmed. Believe me, watching this was a pleasant surprise to all. The competition was won for the fifth time in a row by the eighth grade. The pep rally closed with the school song.

Pam Wilson

The poster contest winners were announced at the pep rally last Thursday. First place went to Sandy Castillo, second place was won by Pat Holguin and third place went to Denise Gregory. Honorable mention was given to Gracie Coronado. Student poster last week was done by Yandy and Jardy Powell, Dennis Rivera and Ruben Rivera.

Teresa Gorham

Something happened last Friday that was very exciting to some kids, although just routine to others. This experience was being a part of the Homecoming Parade.

The students from Middle School that were in the Homecoming Parade were the stage band, cheerleaders and the jamborees. The thing that made it so exciting was that this was the first year for some students to participate.

Most kids will remember this experience for a long time.

Barbara Heredia

The eighth graders at Colorado Middle School have more elective courses than any other class. They only have three requirement subjects in their study. They must take English, Math and History. There are a lot of electives which to choose from. Some of them are: P.E., athletics, choir, band, art, industrial arts I and II, speech, Spanish, Homemaking, science II and library.

The eighth graders seem to be enjoying their classes.

Rosa Gonzales

This week in Mrs. Vestal's reading classes, we are reading out of the books in the back of the room and we are timed on our reading. Also this week, the seventh and eighth grade students will be doing things out of our Open Highways book. We are still doing SRA's.

At the first of class each day, some of us look through the newspaper before the tardy bell rings. On Wednesday of this week, Mrs. Vestal and Mrs. Martin will be attending a meeting at Abilene.

Johnsons Spend A Week In Spain

By Mrs. Bruce Johnson
Our plane landed in Malaga, Spain as the sun seemed to be falling into a foggy cloudy sea tinged with pink and gold.

The following morning we found ourselves over the sea again. This time in a fast moving, rough-riding Hydrofoil headed across the Strait of Gibraltar to Tangier, Morocco. Due to an overcast sky we were able to see only a vague outline of the "Rock." In Tangier you felt you were really in a "far-away" place, even in the new section of the city. The flowing robes of the Moslems, the veiled women and the colorful garb of the Barbers; all added to the picture. The day we were there was market day. The streets filled with the rural Barbers (farmers); with huge hats, red aprons, leading donkeys laden with produce coming to market. There were markets everywhere. In the old section of Tangier, ever winding, narrow, cobblestone-paved street leads to the Kasbah. Here are markets of all kinds; brass, Moroccan rugs, leather, hand-made crafts, most anything you would want. However, the crafts were not as fine as we had expected. Lunch was in a converted castle. It consisted of Iskabob, curried chicken, wine, a very sweet, syrupy dessert; followed by hot, sweet mint tea which is the national drink.

We could not leave Tangier without a camel ride. The one I was helped upon was the tallest, snortingest, blackest critter in the group! I thought the guide would never make the camel kneel down so I could get off. Guess he thought I was having fun! Well, I was, but in a horrifying way.

In Granada we visited the very ancient Moorish Temple, the Alhambra, with its carved walls, arches, fountains and gardens. You can imagine what it was like during the Moorish rule with floors covered with rugs, people in colorful dress, servants, children—the sultans with their many wives. Tehre was much said of Columbus here since Queen Isabella and King Ferenand are buried beneath the floor of the Royal Palace.

Our route to Seville took us through a large portion of the Costa del Sol area with its beautiful beaches, rocky cliffs, yacht harbors, fine hotels, apartment buildings and shops. A strictly modern Spain teeming with tourists. Its a Spanish law that everything be painted white to reflect the summer heat.

The white buildings, the blue Mediterranean Sea, the grey rocky cliffs make a beautiful picture. The ones you see on travel brochures. We also passed by many fighting bull ranches, miles and miles of olive groves, vineyards and small farms. The olive trees, small and gnarled grow in rows right up the mountainside. Some of them are said to be 300-400 years old. Olive oil and wine are Spain's chief exports. Seville produces Spain's finest wines, especially sherry. The vineyards were large but not pretty because of the fall season.

Seville is a beautiful city mixing old and new. Thousands of automobiles and buses move carefully and crowded along wide streets lined with buildings dating back to the fourteenth century. The antiquity of Spain is carefully preserved. It is against the law to move one brick without permission. The buildings appear so old on the outside, but they house modern homes and gardens. The Palaces and cathedrals for the early Spanish Kings are shown proudly in Seville. The Cathedral of Seville is said to be one of the largest in the world. Columbus is buried here.

In Cordoba we were again exposed to three facets of Spanish culture; the Moorish, Christian and Castilian. We visited a Christian Cathedral built inside an enormous Moslem Mosque. Many old synagogues are still used (some as Museums) along the narrow, winding streets of the Jewish section.

Got re-acquainted with that amiable gentleman, Don Quixote. We had a coffee stop at a small Inn where he was knighted.

On to Madrid! So old. So New. So bustling. We did not get to see it all, but we did make the high spots such as Plaza del Sol, Del Prado Museum and the Royal Palace which is the sometime home of Spain's present King Don Carlo. Other times he lives in a small house at the edge of the city. The Del Prado houses ancient paintings by Rubens, El Greco, Velasquez, Botticelli, and Goya—many date back to early Christendom. The paintings, however old, did not appear well preserved. You could see cracks and wrinkles in the canvasses. The Royal Palace toured in the morning, was being readied for a reception hosted by the King and Queen the following day. We saw housekeepers (in frock coats) cleaning crystal chandeliers, silver etc. The Palace, all 2,800 rooms of it is the grandest in the world. The ceilings are painted with religious and allegorical paintings. One of the rooms has walls and much of the furniture made of procelian. The paintings, tapestries, wood carvings, statues and furniture are all art treasures, heavily guarded.

In Toldeo, a 2 hour drive from Madrid, we again visited an old walled city. Toldeo was the first capital of Spain. The River Tojo forms a natural moat surrounding the city on three sides. The Toledo Cathedral with its "Tower of Thorns" houses many art treasures. Among them are many El Greco and rubens paintings and the "Tabernacle" carved in silver and gold set with precious stones.

Our tours terminated with a visit to Escorial Monastery. It really looks like one, too. Somewhat depressing. We had to climb five flights of cold stone steps to get to the chapel. All the rooms left in unfinished stone depicted the simple, humble life of the Catholic monks who live and work there. One interesting room, "The Tomb of the Kings," was a round, high-ceiling room with walls lined with caskets, some filled, some empty. Two are being reserved for Don Carlos and his queen.

Last stop was the "Valley of the Fallen;" a huge basilica carved in the side of a mountain. It was built by Franco for a burial place for the 1930-40 civil war soldiers. Actually he was building his own tomb. He was buried in front of the main altar of the 300 foot long basilica two years ago.

It was truly a lively week—all this plus some good Flemenco shows and folk dance shows. We even found time to shop for some fine Spanish hand-crafts such as Llaoro porcelian, patrier wear, jewelry and leather purses.

GA's Have Annual Mother-Daughter Tea

The Girls In Action of the First Baptist Church in Westbrook had their annual Mother-Daughter Tea, Thursday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Mrs. C. E. Ranne opened the program by presenting the theme for the program, "Praise The Lord With Gladness," on the piano.

Mrs. Floyd Rice, director, welcomed the guests and introduced the girls on the program. Mrs. Robert Chambers led the girls in repeating in unison Psalms 100 and then gave the Mission Adventures.

Mrs. Bob Manning, assisted by Shanna Inman, WMU president, presented the girls earning collars and badges in Mission Adventures. Earning the awards were Lorna Gay Moore, Angela and Cherri Lentz, Stephanie Prince and Betty Cantu.

Other GA's on the program were Cherry and Lisa Putman, Lisa Cantu and Jeran Ware. Those not present were Rhonda, Dawn Marie and Rebecca Kelly and Jennifer Beasley.

In closing the girls formed a circle of prayer. The pastor, Rev. Bob Manning gave the prayer.

Lynn Dawson and Debbie King served cherry pineapple punch and cake from a crystal service accented with silver appointments. The cake was topped with the GA emblem and words "Serve The Lord With Gladness." The table was covered with a red and gold cloth, the GA's colors, and was centered with a red candelabra.

The girls had on display workbooks, arts, posters of Mission Study, Cooper-Active Program and the Calendar of Prayer. Those attending other than the GA's were Mrs. Gay Leonard Moore and daughter, Christy; Mrs. Rex McKenney, Mrs. Maxey Ware, Rev. and Mrs.

Bob Manning, Mrs. Gerald Rollins, Mrs. L. M. Dawson, Mrs. Lee Shaw, Mrs. Wendell Inmon, Mrs. Wayne Prince, Mrs. Ranne, Mrs. Altis Clemmer, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Chambers.

Revival Services Continue

Revival Services began at the First Baptist Church in Westbrook Wednesday with the Rev. Clayton Pennington as evangelist from Abilene. His son, Danny Pennington of Ira is the music director for the Westbrook Baptist Church.

Choir practice begins each night at 7 p.m. with the lesson beginning at 7:30 a.m. The meeting will continue through Saturday.

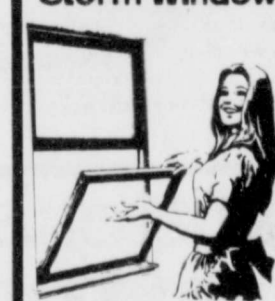

The Rev. Bob Manning would like to invite everyone to attend the meeting.

River Ministry Project

The Youth Mission groups of Calvary Baptist Church are making "Hygiene Kits" to be used at the river ministries and in case of disasters. They are collecting different personal grooming items for use in these kits. Such things needed are new toothbrushes, new or used washclothes, Q-tips, any size or brand of razors, toothpaste, bar soap, shampoo, shaving cream, deodorant and socks and shoes, either new or in good condition.

The approximate cost of these kits is $6. Any one wishing to donate any of these items or money can take them by the office of the church or contact Gary Fulfer, Youth Director. All help with this worthy project of the youth will be greatly appreciated.

Hill backs tax relief on ballot November 7

"We've got a great opportunity Nov. 7 to take a significant first step toward tax relief in Texas. I'm urging everyone to vote for the proposed constitutional amendment to give tax relief to our farmers and ranchers, homeowners, and elderly. After this amendment is adopted, I'll be ready to take the lead in the 1979 legislature to follow through on this first step."

Also approved by the Commissioners was the proposal to contribute $1,465 to the City of Colorado City for the purchase of a $950 mobile radio and equipment totalling $515 to be used by the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department.

The funds for the fire department will be disbursed from the 1977-78 revenue sharing funds, the Commissioners decided.

In final business, the Commissioners voted to advertise for bids for the sale of six five cubic yard dump trucks with beds. Bids will be open at 2 p.m. Nov. 13 at the regular Commissioners meeting.

Rhodes To Be In Abilene

Bill Fisher, candidate for Congress in the 17th District, announced that United States House Republican Leader John Rhodes is to be in Abilene Tuesday.

Rhodes, who has been Minority Leader in the House since December 1973, will support and endorse Fisher in his efforts to replace retiring Rep. Omar Burleson.

"I'm very excited about the Republican Leader in the U.S. Congress coming here to help me in my campaign," Fisher said. "John Rhodes is a very respected man in the Congress and across the country."

Fisher continued, "I'm fortunate to have him appear here in my behalf." Rhodes became the first Republican ever to be elected to the House of Representatives from Arizona. He is now serving in his 13th consecutive term. Rhodes is a member of several committees including Education and Labor and Appropriations.

A PICK-UP TRUCK was smashed into a tree at 525 Hickory when Henry David Williams, 26, of Colorado City was headed southbound on Hickory in his car when he apparently lost control, veered to the right causing the car to jump the curb and plow into the pick-up owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ruddick. The accident was reported to Colorado City Police at 12:26 a.m. Friday. Williams was taken to Root Memorial Hospital and was treated for minor injuries and released.

TESCO State Sales Tax To Cease Next Month

Residential customers of Texas Electric Service Co. will not have to pay state sales tax on electricity beginning next month because of tax reform measures passed by the Texas Legislature last summer.

Farabee Endorses Amendments

State Senator Ray Farabee endorsed Proposed Constitutional Amendments Number Two and Number Three.

Farabee said, "We urge all Texans to give favorable consideration to Proposed Amendments Two and Three on the Nov. 7 ballot."

Amendment Number Two provides a new tool for attracting industry to Texas which will be particularly helpful to smaller cities and rural areas. Safeguards included in the law provide that no city or county issuing the revenue bonds can tax its citizens for repayment. In fact, that statement must be printed on the bonds.

Amendment Number Three authorizes cities and towns to issue revenue bonds for public improvements in connection with local redevelopment.

These bonds would be repaid from the additional revenue produced by the improvements. Neither the credit of the government nor its general revenue can be used to make payment of these bonds.

Farabee stated, "These two amendments will insure that Texans will enjoy a healthy economy and can compete with other states that allow this type of public financing." Some 46 states already have industrial revenue bonds and a number of states have provided for tax increment financing.

Public Meeting Nov. 14

A public meeting will be held Nov. 14 for the purpose of discussing the proposed construction of a Farm to Market road from Lake Colorado City to Champion Creek Reservoir.

According to officials of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, the meeting will be held at the Mitchell County Courthouse at 7 p.m.

District Engineer Roger Welsch noted that the meeting would be "to inform the public of the proposed project, to outline the possible location and its effect, and to obtain public input during the early stage of project development."

Interested citizens are invited to attend the meeting. Those unable to attend may indicate interest by submitting written statements and other exhibits to the Resident Engineer's office in Big Spring not less than 10 days after the public meeting.

The 4 per cent state sales tax on residential gas and electric bills was repealed during a special session of the 65th Texas Legislature.

Exemption from the state sales tax is effective with the start of each billing period on or after Oct. 1, which means the state tax will be eliminated on bills after Nov. 1.

"Residential electric bills received in October will still include sales tax because the bills cover electricity used in September," Local Manager B. B. Hardee said.

The legislature also gave cities the option of retaining or repealing the 1 per cent city sales tax on residential gas and electric bills.

Texas Electric also plans to eliminate the city sales tax on residential electric bills in those towns that have replaced the city tax.

"Residential customers in towns where the city sales tax on electricity has not been repealed will still see it on their bills next month," Hardee said. "But if or when the city removes the 1 per cent sales tax it will be eliminated from residential electric bills in accordance with the state law."

The exemption from state and city sales tax on gas and electric bills applied to all "residential use" customers, meaning any use in a family home, a multi-family apartment

Bullock To Send Representative

Comptroller Bob Bullock announced he is sending a representative from his Abilene office to Colorado City on Tuesday to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Enforcement Officer B. J. Bonham will meet with local taxpayers at the Mitchell County Courthouse Courtroom from 1-3 p.m.

"If Colorado City merchants, or anyone else for that matter have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, Bonham will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office and we believe these face-to-face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.

Bullock reminded those taxpayers who are unable to meet with his representative Tuesday that they can still get their questions answered quickly by calling his toll free tax information number in Austin which is 1-800-252-5555.

The Abilene Office, headed by James Martin, serves Taylor, Brown, Calahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Fisher, Haskell, Jones, Mitchell, Mills, Nolan, Scurry, Shackelford and Stonewall Counties.
