NO. 1 HARDGRAVE TO TEST MARBLE FALLS

David Roach's No. 1 Hargrave, oil test being drilled ten miles north of Goldthwaite yesterday was down around 2,400 feet, casing has been set, and the Marble Falls lime is expected to be entered soon. Somewhere in this lime, it is expected that a test for oil will be made. If not found, then the well will be deepened to the Ellenburger, about 3,300 or 3,400 feet.

David T. Roach and J. H. Meek, Jr., oil operators of Austin, were here this week looking over the situation, and called a geologist to come here to stay for the test. He has 7,700 acres under lease around the drilling site, and in addition has another 15,000 acres leased at $1 per year in the eastern part of the county.

Site has been selected for another test four miles north of Goldthwaite on the Walter Fairman land, and drilling is expected to start there soon. Leasing in other sections of the country is reported.

From One And A Half To Six Inches Of Rain Falls Over Mills Co.

Rainfall, gauged from one and a half inches in Goldthwaite to 6.30 inches on the J. H. Priddy Ranch west of Priddy, fell all over Mills County this week, bringing additional needed moisture to augment an already deep season in the ground.

No hail or windstorm damage in the county has been reported. The rain was the best since the gully-washer of March 21, which covered the county with from two inches here in town to 3.10 inches southeast of town. This brings the total moisture this year here as recorded by Harry Allen's government gauge to 9.21 inches for the year, as compared to the 16.09 inches for the year recorded in the J. H. Priddy gauge near Priddy, and 9.01 at the John L. Leonard place, five miles east of Goldthwaite. The Priddy gauge totaled by months as follows: Jan., 3.74; Feb., 2.97; March, 2.42; April to date, 6.96—total 16.09.

Rain was recorded here in town as follows: April 1, .10; April 2, .37; April 10, .27; rain since Monday night, 1.50—total 2.24 for April to date.

Rain reports received yesterday morning by the Eagle from people who have gauges over different sections of the country read as follows:

J. H. Priddy, west of Priddy, 6.30 inches; John L. Leonard, five miles east of town, 2.07;

Carl Casbeer place at Center City, 1.75; Jim Soules, Star, gauge broke but estimate 2 or 3 inches; Dr. T. C. Graves ranch at Mt. Olive, two inches; A. P. Lee, Moline, one and a half; Wilky Shady Oak Ranch, 1.37 inches; Hern Harris Ranch, on Bayou, over 3; Mullin 3.49 in.

Reports reaching here say that between Mullin and Zephyr four to five inches of rain fell. Brownwood reported 4.92 to six inches, with residence sections flooded. At Coleman, 3.05 inches fell to raise lake levels there; Coleman has been hauling water by trainloads from Brownwood Lake and will have to continue. At San Angelo, good rains fell, with much hail damage. Del Rio reported hailstones at large as cups.

Mrs. F. D. Webb was carried to Scott & White Hospital Thursday morning where she will take treatment.

SENIORS TO PRESENT THE PLAY, 'GREAT CAESAR'S GHOST'

"Great Caesar's Ghost" has more to recommend it than its hilarious humor. It is packed with interest, fun and excitement. Never a dull moment! There's mystery and intrigue from beginning to end.

How would you like to have a pet ghost? A nice, tame one that would be easy to take care of, sleep in your closet, do your work, or frighten people out of their wits—whichever you preferred? You don't believe in ghosts? Well, Johnson, the butler (Robert Henry Johnson), didn't either, but he changed his mind; maybe you will too when you see Great Caesar's Ghost make chairs rock, flowers fall, and notes appear.

When Phineas Farthingale (Johnnie Head) comes to visit his niece, Helen Maxwell (Nelda Hodges) he brings with him this fun-loving, temperamental protective ghost of an Inca Chief. The ghost is never seen, but what he does in his humorous way makes him one of the most "real" characters of the play. Helen is having trouble convincing her mother that Tommy Tucker (Wilbur Heath) is the one boy for her; when Phineas, Aunt Polly, (Betty Williford) Helen's go getter aunt, and the Ghost all start to help her, it's hard to imagine just how much fun can develop unless you see the play. Of course, Mrs. Maxwell (Janet Soules), and her scatter-brained friend, Phaebe De Royster, (Mary Collier), are the victims. But before the final hilarious curtain falls, there is trouble also for Dick, (Raymond Mitchell), a neighbor boy, Hattie, the Cook (Scottie Vaughan) and Deborah De Royster (Kay Clements), who has until this time been under her mother's domination. When Esther (Ada Margaret Geeslin), the cute little maid, is hypnotized by Mah-jah (Carlin Wicker) the mysterious mystic, the audience will have the time of their

BOG'S CORNER

BOOGERVILLE

The first prohibition election held in Goldthwaite was around the turn of the century and the area voted on covered only the city limits.

The Pros won, causing much rejoicing among their ranks. The opposition was not satisfied.

One of the saloon men owned a section of land, lying south of town, west and south of the San Saba Road with the northwest corner just over the hill west of the cemetery. On this corner, he built a small frame building and moved his saloon, bar and stock into it. He did a thriving business for a while. Lots of travel passed his place as San Saba had no railroad at that time and got most of her freight from Goldthwaite. Someone, jokingly, called the corner "Boogerville" and the name stuck.

The Pros soon called another election, county-wide.

They won by a large majority, and that was the last of Boogerville.

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 24.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever" (Psalms 138:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour" (Proverbs 21:21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The true sense of being and its eternal perfection should appear now, even as it will hereafter" (page 550).

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE

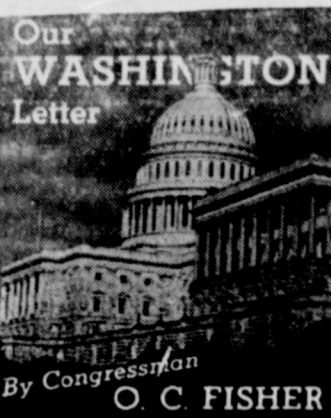

The following is a quotation from a man of wisdom, far back in the past.

"Faith is not to have a perfect knowledge of things; therefore if ye have faith ye have hope for things which are not seen, which are true."

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Caraway and son Jimmy, Mrs. Otto Simpson and son, Leslie, spent Sunday in Rockwood, with Mrs. Howard Lovelady, sister of Mmes. Caraway and Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Womack spent the week end visiting in Coleman, San Angelo and Sonora with relatives.

Jimmy Caraway, a student in the University of Texas spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Caraway. He left Monday for Dallas where he will attend an Electrical Engineers Convention, a requirement for all Senior students.

TAFT-HARTLEY REPEAL?

From the standpoint of legislation, the current Easter recess is just a "lull before the storm", due to be turned into a full-grown tempest during the week of April 24 when the House takes up the bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley labor law and substitute for it the old Wagner Act.

It will be a grand climax to a huge build-up that has been in the making for months.

The Big Union business agents, on the one hand, have been sparing no effort or expense in attempting to stir up anti-Taft-Hartley sentiment; while, on the other hand, the American Small Business Association, joined by the National Grange, the Farm Bureau, and others, have plugged for retention of some semblance of union controls.

Old John L. Lewis always refers to the Taft-Hartley law as the "NAM law", meaning the National Association of Manufacturers. This is a technique designed to imply that the law which set the stage for the big fine against John L. and his union last year for defying the sovereignty of the U. S. Government, is a Big Business law.

Actually, the Taft-Hartley law restrains Big Business just as much and possibly more than it restrains Big Labor. And the NAM has taken no more part in plugging for retention of T-H than has the Farm Bureau, for example.

The main difference between the Taft-Hartley law and the old Wagner Act is that the latter controlled ONLY Management, while the T-H law applies con-

EAGLE TO CARRY THE TEXAS POLL

Beginning in this issue, The Eagle brings to its readers the weekly reports of The Texas Poll showing what the statewide public thinks about major what people think about government of the day.

This week's report deals with eminent rent control. In coming weeks, the poll will tell you how the public rates the men who are expected to run for governor, how the public stands on the question of allowing women to serve on juries, and other interesting issues.

The Texas Poll is an independent institution devoted to measuring public opinion. It was started by Joe Belden in 1940 as the first state opinion survey in the United States. For rights to publish the results, Texas newspapers share the costs of conducting the poll.

The Poll operates under the principle that the collective opinion of a relatively small but accurate cross section of adults is the same as that of the entire adult population.

In order to measure statewide opinion, the poll has trained interviewers to work in cities, towns, villages and farm areas all over Texas. These interviewers question a cross section of people made up of the correct proportions of men and women life. The interviewers receive their instructions from the of various ages and walks of headquarters of the Poll in Austin, Texas.

RENT CONTROL

trols to BOTH Management and Labor unions.

When the repeal bill comes up, a substitute by Rep. Wood of Georgia will be offered in its place. The Wood bill will amend the present law to meet valid objections to it and to make it more workable in the light of two years of experience. I plan to support the Wood substitute.

An interesting technique widely employed these days by certain union Business Agents is to refer to all who oppose Taft-Hartley repeal as parties to "an unholy alliance between Southern Dixiecrats and reactionary Northern Republicans". They use that old bromide repeatedly. They hope it will scare a few of the wavering members into line.

Pursuing that theme, a left-wing Congressman from California released a statement the other day, saying:

"I will guarantee you that if the Southerners and the Republicans get their coalition working against the Taft-Hartley repeal bill, then about 100 Administration Democrats will be ready to fight every bill affecting the South that gets to the House floor. The House will get an opportunity to vote directly on repeal. And if it refuses to carry out that pledge of the Democratic platform, then the war with the Southerners will be on."

Shades of Grapes of Wrath! What the pseudo-democrats overlook, in venting their spleen on the South, is that for many years back there in the 20's it was the Southerners who held the Democratic party together when practically all the rest of the Nation was in the other column.

The fact is that in the minds of some people, if a Member dares oppose the dictates of a minority pressure group, and if it happens that a few Republicans vote the same way, then there is, willy-nilly, and unholy "coalition".

Which reminds me of an expression attributed to the late Senator Norris, a Republican of Nebraska. He was once challenged for voting with the Democrats. The Senator's answer was: "The Senator from Nebraska is not voting with the Democrats; the Democrats are voting with the Senator from Nebraska".

And so it goes. The demagogues, parlor pinks, and party-line politicians call it a "sinister coalition" when a Congressman or Senator puts his country's welfare ahead of partisan politics and votes for the good of the people.

Stand by for the results of the big battle.

GERALD-WORLEY Co.

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll
Austin, April 18—Now that Congress has passed the buck to the states, government rent control in Texas is on shaky ground.

A majority of adults questioned in a recent statewide survey indicate they are opposed to the idea of rent control. Opposition comes mainly from home owners. Renters tend to favor control, but even among this group four out of every ten say they don't believe the government should tell a landlord how much he can charge.

Interviewers for The Texas Poll in all parts of the state put this question to a cross section of the adult population:

"In your opinion, should a person who owns a house have the right to charge as much rent as he wants to, or do you think the government should tell him how much he can charge?"

44% of the Renters, 62% of the owners and 55% of all favored letting the Landlord set the rent; 50% of the Renters, 32% of the Owners, and 39% of all favored letting the government set the rent; 6% of the renter, 6% of the owners and 6% of all expressed no opinion. Of all those questioned, 59 percent said they lived in their own homes and 41 per cent said they rented. The 1940 U. S. Census showed only 43 per cent of the homes to be owner-occupied. The survey, therefore, indicates a considerable increase in home-owners during the last nine years.

Congress recently voted to allow a state legislature or a city council to lift government rent control in its area with the approval of the governor. Such action may be taken when it is determined that rental housing shortage no longer exists in the area.

In February, 1948, when Congress was considering an extension of the rent control law, The Texas Poll found three out of every four adults in favor of the law. The question put to a cross section of voters at that time was: "If you were a member of Congress, would you vote for or against a bill continuing rent control?"

An informal reception was held after the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth centered with an arrangement of pink rosebuds surrounding a tiered wedding cake.

Immediately after the reception, the couple left for a short trip to San Antonio. The bride wore away a gray tailored suit with navy accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Goldthwaite High School, is a teacher in the public school here, and will receive her degree from Howard Payne College in July. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Goldthwaite High School, attends Daniel Baker College at Brownwood. He served with the army during the past war.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. A. D. Walker of San Angelo, and Mrs. Cecil Bradley, Steve and Hank of Alice, Texas.

Goldthwaite Chapter F. F. A. Gets New Vocational Ag. Building

(Eagles Tale)

The Goldthwaite Future Farmers will move into a new V. A. building by next year. The building, a part of army surplus from Camp Bowie, is to be equipped with shop equipment and a classroom before it will be ready. Most of the work will be done by V. A. boys.

A classroom, a shop, a small library, and an office will be in the building. The classroom will be a 25 foot by 25 foot room furnished with tables, chairs, and other classroom paraphernalia. When the shop is completed, it will contain power equipment, welding facilities and hand tools. It will be 35 x 25 ft.

Future Farmers of Goldthwaite consider the new building another milestone to add to their long list of outstanding achievements.

SENIORS ENTER HAWAIIAN PARADISE

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church honored the Seniors of Goldthwaite High School with a Hawaiian Banquet, Friday, April 15, in the Educational Building.

Each girl was presented at the door with a tropical flower for her hair. Girls were dressed in bright colored skirts and beautiful blouses. Boys were dressed in gay shirts and trousers. Rev. J. L. Emery acted as toastmaster. Menu for the banquet was: Tropical Dream, Game of Jungles, Garden Dreams, Diced Bamboo in Coconut Shell, Lidlal Papaya, Taro Cake, Coconut Pie, Coconut Milk, and Beach Pebbles in Calm Shells. The Invocation was given by H. E. Patton. The W. M. U. president, Mrs. V. C. Bradford welcomed the Seniors to Paradise Isle. Jesse Hammond responded to the welcome.

Martha Ellen Snider, Lee Clements, and Nancy Tripp, students of Baylor University, sang "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Let's Pretend," and two other songs.

Main speaker for the banquet was "Wimpee the Wizard" (Mr. A. C. Wimpee, Director of Religious Activities at Baylor). Being a magician, he changed the colors of handkerchiefs, did the Indian rope trick, introduced his pet snake, and took the shirt right off Walter Leonard's back (Walter was hypnotized). He read Ada M.'s mind and used whiffle powder to perform all sorts of miracles. V. C. Bradford got wet by a little trick. Wimpee made a whiskey bottle and glass change places without being touched by human hands. He left the Seniors with the serious thought of guiding their footsteps right in the future.

The room was lavishly decorated with palm trees, grass skirts, and ukalalies. Each table had centerpieces of Lakes of Hawaiian Paradise.

The Seniors believe they will never again see so beautiful and impressive an occasion. They wish to thank the W. M. U. women for such a gala and memorable banquet.

G-H-S RESULTS OF DISTRICT TENNIS MATCHES

Nell Carman Wilkins made it to the semi-finals but suffered defeat at the hands of San Saba's senior girls singles representative, Annette Lindsay won the district title in junior singles.

Caradan Community Club

The Community Club met Friday, April 15, with Mrs. Joyce Wright for an Easter egg hunt. There were eleven children present and lots of eggs for them to hunt. Mrs. Wright gave a prize to the one finding the most eggs. After the egg hunt was over, several pictures were taken of the children with their Easter baskets.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to twenty-one. The next club meeting will be with Mrs. Floy Burns on May 6.

GOLDTHWAITE STUDENTS PLAY PART AT TEHUACANA COL.

Reports from Westminster Junior College at Tehuacana, Texas, show that students enrolled in the school from Goldthwaite have played important parts in the activities of the institution.

Charles Davis, the son of Mrs. Ray Davis, was elected this year to the highest office the student body has—that of president of the group. Charles is also assistant editor of "The Wildcat Tales," student newspaper; he will have a part in the school play, and has been influential in many other phases of the life of the school. He will graduate in June.

Bobby Lawson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lawson, is a freshman at Westminster. He is on the basketball team, and the past week he was selected to appear with three other students on a youth panel discussion before a federated women's club in Wortham, Texas.

Billy Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller, and James Wesson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wesson, are freshmen in the school. Both of these boys have taken part in school activities, have played on the basketball team, and have contributed much to the school.

Beryl Vann Roberts from San Antonio spent Easter with his grandmother Nickols and grandfather and grandmother John Roberts. His brother John Earl Roberts who has been here for six weeks visiting his grandparents and other relatives went home with Beryl Vann Sunday evening.

Tom Dyess and wife from Odessa, Miss Besse Hutchings, James Nickols and family and Phillip Nickols dined with Mrs. Eula Nickols Sunday at noon. In the afternoon, Earl and Duke Clements visited with those who ate dinner in the Nickols home.

FHA GIRLS ATTEND AREA MEETING

Saturday, April 9, thirteen girls, Miss Elna Fouse, and Mrs. Geraldine Geeslin, honorary member, attended an area F. H. A. meeting at John Tarleton College, Stephenville, Texas.

After the meeting was opened by Peggy Spearman, Area President, Dean E. J. Howell welcomed the girls to Tarleton Campus. The girls enjoyed hearing the A Capella Choir of Tarleton render six selections, and Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, member of the State Board for Vocational Education, and Miss Margaret Scholl, assistant State Supervisor, made very interesting talks.

After lunch the Fair Department Store of Fort Worth presented a style show of Easter and spring fashions, after which a panel discussion, led by Mrs. Myra Huffins, of Dallas, with 'teen-agers participating, was considered the high point of the afternoon. Major questions of importance to young people were discussed.

Mrs. Lucille Jordan and Miss Gene Marrs also gave interesting talks.

The new officers were installed in an impressive ceremony, and after the ceremony for closing a meeting was observed, the meeting was adjourned.

Can cake float through the air? Can hats move all by themselves? You bet! Everything happens in "Great Caesar's Ghost."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrin and boys of Mineral Wells spent Sunday in the Walton Daniel home.

Bruce Burnett and wife and mother ate Easter dinner with their daughter and family, Mrs. Loyd Laughlin in Lometa.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nowell visited with their daughter, Miss Melva Nowell, who is working in a beauty shop at Ranger.

It was the five banks of Bryan county, Oklahoma, with generous help from the local newspaper and radio station, which put over the big soil conserving event which attracted around three thousand farmers last week.

They had it at the city airport, some 350 acres big, which needed a lot of leveling, ditching, grass seeding, waterway-making, etc. Flying farmers from all over southern Oklahoma came and gave free rides to Bryan county farmers who wanted to see their farms from a different point of view.

The groundswell of interest in agricultural matters among business and professional people of this area is heart-warming indeed.

We all have a stake in it. Soil affects teeth, so the dentists are interested. Soil affects pocketbooks, so every one is interested. Soil affects production, so the railroads and other haulers are interested.

Water in Red River below the Lake Texoma dam has changed color. Now it is clear where it used to be red with mud. Evidently the soil washed into the lake by the Red and Washita rivers is being deposited there—like it has been in Lake Waco, Possum Kingdom, and White Rock. If the soil washing can be stopped upstream, siltation may never become a serious problem in the lake.

On a coast-to-coast broadcast from the studios of WBAP last week, Bryant Edwards of Henrietta, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, said there are fewer cattle on feed and on the range now than a year ago.

THREE FROM MILLS ATTEND VOCATIONAL ASSOCIATION MEET

Messrs. R. H. Williams, J. D. Harper and Jack Locklear from the Mills County Vocational School attended the annual Texas Vocational Association held in San Antonio the 14, 15 and 16 of this month.

These men report that vocational education is rapidly growing in popularity and number. At present there are 39,000 veterans enrolled in vocational schools with 1860 teachers in Texas, and approximately this many in the regular program of non-veterans. Texas leads the nation in the vocational field, having 2200 members in the American Vocational Association, with Ed Williams from Texas A. & M. College as president of the National association.

Outstanding speakers at the convention were Brick Lowry, Executive Director of the State Board, who spoke on emerging issues for vocational education. Ed Williams, president of AVA, summarized the vocational program throughout the nation. B. C. Davis, Director of the Veterans Program in the State Board, discussed the contents of the new contract with Veterans Administration, placing emphasis upon quality instead of quantity in the Veterans program.

Much emphasis was placed on adult education at the convention. Within the near future it is believed adult education in the vocational field will be an actually extended to all individuals that are interested in having the program. Vocational education is to the educational field, to purposes are to give instruction to students while experiencing their work. The underlying principle therefore is learning through experiencing. The development of the program evolved from the national movement of the laboring class of turning to technical fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Miller, Jr. and children of Springville, and Mrs. Sammie Miller of College Station were holiday guests in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Miller, Sr.

Miss Rita Henry of Austin turned home Sunday afternoon after spending last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH
The Lenten and Easter season through which we have just passed has been a spiritual benediction to all who sincerely have observed them. Much evidence has been manifested in Church attendance, but you will remember that too often Church attendance immediately following Easter does not equal the attendance of Easter Day. CANCER RESEARCH

Radioactive materials are proving to be a powerful new weapon in cancer research and treatment. Because of the recognized progress in this field, a bill was introduced in the Texas Legislature which provided $1,350,000 for the construction and equipping of a Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory as part of The University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

This Hospital was founded by a Legislative act in 1941, prior to the advent of radioactive isotopes; hence no provision was made for their use. The act did provide for a statewide facility for cancer research and education, and a hospital unit for developing the latest advances in cancer treatment. To date, while still in temporary quarters, the Hospital has cared for patients from 166 counties in the State of Texas.

The present proposed legislation is vital. The lives of many of us actually depend upon the passage of this bill. If it passes, Texas will have a complete, well-equipped facility for the use of radioactive materials. In this center men can be trained to use these substances in other hospitals throughout the State. As it is now, Texans are largely deprived of the benefits of this new means of cancer research, diagnosis and treatment. Over 7,000 Texans will die of cancer during 1949; another 40,000 are suffering from this disease. The magnitude of the need, therefore, is apparent.

There is great danger, however, that funds will not be provided for the establishment of this Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory. In a recent committee meeting in the Senate, all provisions for the building and equipping of this institution were deleted from the bill. Hence, in order to assure establishment of this institution, the appropriations for it must be reinstated in the Education Appropriation Bill for Institutions of Higher Learning (Senate Bill 134), and then passed by both the Senate and the House. If the appropriation is not provided, the citizens of Texas will continue to be deprived of this new method of combating cancer.

You are urged, therefore, in the interest of your afflicted fellowmen, to wire or write your State Senator and Representative expressing your desire that the Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory be established. Your communication should contain a statement to this effect: "Urgently request that the appropriation provided for The University of Texas Cancer Hospital include funds for the establishment of a Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory."

This bill may be acted upon by May 1. Your communication should be sent immediately, and certainly within the next two weeks.

GOOD, BUT BAD

Motor vehicle fatalities dropped again in 1948. The decrease, even though it was less than one percent, is all to the good.

Motor vehicle injuries, however, rose again in 1948. The increase, amounting to almost eight percent, is a bad sign.

Much emphasis is placed on the death rate in accident prevention work. This is natural because death always makes the headlines. But it is dangerous, too, because it is so easy to become complacent.

In their 1949 booklet of street and highway accident data, just released, The Travelers Insurance Companies urge that states, cities and communities look to the injury rate as a true measure of success or failure in their safety campaigns. The hundreds of persons saved from death are living tributes to the safety job that has been done, it is pointed out, but the injured millions should be constant reminders that the job is far from completed.

Rules of Temperance

Lesson for April 24, 1949

THERE IS REALLY something funny about it. Consider a First Church congregation singing: "Jesus, I my cross have taken, All to leave and follow thee; Destitute, despised, forsaken, Thou from hence my All shalt be." Oh, come, come, ladies and gentlemen! Your cross? Where is it?

"All to leave"—? You are going right back to your homes for an extra-good Sunday dinner. "Destitute"—? (Some congregations believe it or not, actually sing "naked, poor," instead of "destitute.") Not a one of you ever has been on relief; you probably have more money in the bank than most of the people who didn't come to church.

Some People Cannot Be Christians
T MAY BE FUNNY to compare what the congregation is singing about themselves with what they really are. But it is sad, too, because that hymn illustrates how foggy-minded some Christians are about their own "cross."

They can sing blithely about it, and even complain (in song) about their own condition as something for the Salvation Army to look into, when they don't mean a word of it.

The fact is, Jesus did demand just the thing the hymn describes. He said, in so many words, "Whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

What Did Jesus Mean?

THERE ARE TWO ways of misunderstanding Jesus here. One wrong line is taken by those who think Jesus did not mean a word he said. The other wrong line is taken by a very few people, a very few indeed, who take Jesus absolutely literally. They believe that no one can be a true, 100 per cent Christian, unless and until he gives up all his property, all his family, and lives alone and wild, a hermit in the wilderness. The facts show that both these interpretations are false. The world has never been really made better, either by selfish, comfort-loving, worldly Christians, or by the wild and woolly hermits who are clean "out of this world."

"Love Thyself Last"

THE WISEST, the most devoted Christians, have known better what Jesus meant. Jesus' own parable of the "rich fool" gives us the hint. He tells of a man who had everything he wanted . . . but when he came to die, discovered he had nothing. In that little story Jesus shows us a man who put himself before all other persons; who put himself before God; and who put things before character. He lived for his body, he lived for his comforts, he lived for himself.

The neighbors, maybe, called him smart because he was rich; but God called him a fool, and what God calls a man, that he is.

Taking the cross means living as Jesus lived, not as that fool lived.

Christian's and Liquor Don't Mix

CONSIDER JUST ONE illustration of what Jesus means. Should a Christian drink alcoholic liquors? If you are not a Christian, you can try to answer this from non-Christian reasons; but that is not the question. Shall a Christian drink? Just think about this in the light of what Jesus said. The disciple of Christ will deny himself; does the drinker deny himself? The disciple of Christ will put Christ first always; but what does the drinker put first? Jesus called a man a fool who lived for his bodily pleasure, lived for himself; what would he call the man who thinks he can "take it or leave it" but who is actually tied to his bottles?

It is true, a selfish man may perhaps (for selfish reasons, such as saving money) deny himself liquor, tobacco, or even tea and coffee, and still be no Christian.

But a man who really denies himself, who loves himself last, will find that other self-denials follow as a matter of course. A man who lets his appetite dictate to him, especially his appetite for alcohol, is a man who is letting real self starve.

CHECKER-ETTS

Purina Research tests proved it—then last year, local turkey raisers found that Checker-Etts help keep more poult alive—made them grow faster.

THE FORM—is part of the reason. Poults take to Checker-Etts quicker and like them better. Fewer poults "starve to death" before they learn to eat. And the whole batch grows faster because they eat more feed.

THE FORMULA—does the rest. The Purina Turkey Startena Checker-Ett formula is balanced and blended scientifically for life and growth. This year, start your poults the Purina way. See us about the Checker-Etts—just 4 lbs. per poult does the job.

HUMBLE OIL CO. REPORTS RECORD OPERATIONS IN 1948

Humble Oil and Refining Company's 1948 annual report released Monday shows record operations attained in all phases of the Company's business as a result of its part in the industry's expansion efforts to meet rapidly increasing demands. The Company reported that its business was up 8 per cent over 1947, with net crude oil production of 140 million barrels, crude oil refined of 91 million barrels, pipe line deliveries of 277 million barrels. These high volumes resulted in a net income of $186,069,000, of which $114,166,000 or 61 per cent was retained in the business, primarily to finance heavy capital expenditures of $138,302,000.

In a letter of transmittal, Hines H. Baker, President, and L. T. Barrow, Chairman of the Board, stated that the industry achieved success in 1948 in its struggle to meet a rapidly expanding demand by means of heavy investments of capital, improvement in price, and vigorous, determined activities, so that by the end of the year supplies had definitely outrun demand. They emphasized that the industry's accomplishment in establishing again a backlog of available developed reserves contributes greatly to national security and demonstrates the strength and effectiveness of private competitive industry.

One of the most significant figures in the report is the capital expenditure of $138,302,000, which was 50 per cent more than in 1947 and almost four times as much as in 1943. As a result of the Company's large capital expenditures in recent years, the stockholders' investment at the end of the year was twice as much as at the end of 1942. Of the Company's new investment in 1948, nearly 80 per cent was in production properties and facilities, as the increased costs of developing new reserves required large expenditures to replace the oil produced. Total expenditures for drilling wells were $75 million with dry holes accounting for 35 per cent of that cost.

Humble's intensified exploration program resulted in the discovery of 44 new oil and gas reservoirs, including two wells on the continental shelf off the coast of Louisiana. Over $17 million was spent in the acquisition of leases, about one-third of which was spent for leases on state lands.

HISTORY OF FOUNDING OF JOHN TARLETON AGRICUL. COLLEGE

Stephenville, April 12—Near Santo, Texas, still stands a small ranch house—the home of an early day Texan who will be commemorated in a Founder's Day program at John Tarleton College April 30.

There, on a 10,000 acre ranch John Tarleton lived the last 15 years of his obscure life, and there he conceived the idea of founding a school which today has grown until its physical plant is worth $1,600,000.

A man of little formal education, he was astute in business. Through perseverance, thrift, and hard work, he accumulated a fortune large enough to leave, at his death in 1895, $86,000 for a school that would provide educational opportunities for children "over six years of age, of good moral character, and unable to educate themselves."

Coming to Texas a-foot in the early 1860's, he established a mercantile store in Waco. Before that, he had led a dull monotonous life, clerking for the same man in the same store for 40 years. Even so, he had saved $1,000 and acquired title to 20,000 acres of land in Middle Western states through trading for land warrants.

In Waco he made and lost a fortune in early cattle drives, ran a prosperous mercantile business, and married and was divorced by a socially prominent Waco widow when he was well past 65.

Leaving Waco after this as he had entered it, on foot and dressed as a tramp, he walked to his ranch near Santo, which he had bought when he first came to Texas. There on the first land to be fenced in this section, he lived a lonely life, weathering the droughts of 1889-90 and becoming a prosperous and respected ranchman.

Many are the tales told of his peculiarities. He always kept large sums of money in an old trunk in his bare little room. This he counted behind drawn curtains every night. He never wrote a check to an individual, always insisting on giving and receiving cash. When he walked to Santo, he always carried two rolls of money hidden separately about his body.

In September, 1889, four years after Tarleton's death, John Tarleton College opened its doors. Like its founder, the school has weathered many a storm, and today after 50 years of service, its growth is a monument to the man who wanted to help educate the children of the little man. Twenty-four people who knew Tarleton personally have been invited to attend the Founder's Day Ceremonies.
