Tito Given Red Carpet For White House Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Tito of Communist Yugoslavia was given a red-carpet welcome to the White House today—six years after a similar event was planned, then canceled because of mass protests.

President Kennedy, greeting the Yugoslav leader, said it was most important that countries separated by an ocean, and with differences in political philosophy, try to know the policies of the nations of the world to lessen the danger of war.

"I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the United States," said Kennedy, who added he was certain Tito would be "warmly and hospitably treated" during a 10-day tour of the nation.

Tito read—in halting English—a response in which he said he looked forward to "frank exchanges of views" on world problems of concern to both governments.

Kennedy arranged to spend about 2½ hours in private talks with Tito during the day. These sessions were in addition to a luncheon arranged by Kennedy in Tito's honor.

Tito was last in the United States in 1960, to attend the General Assembly of the United Nations. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower met him there, but did not invite him to Washington.

In 1957, Eisenhower planned to entertain Tito at the White House, but abandoned the idea after being barraged with protests from members of Congress and various civic groups.

While Tito was being greeted at a 15-minute military ceremony on the south lawn of the White House, scores of pickets paraded—out of his sight — on Pennsylvania Avenue with banners labeling the Yugoslav president a murderer and dictator.

The pickets described themselves as Americans of Serbian and Croatian descent.

Once the arrival ceremony was concluded, Kennedy escorted his guest directly to the presidential office, walking through the rose garden along the way.

The two leaders talked animatedly, and with gestures, as they strolled to the office.

The invitation to Tito does not sit well in some quarters.

In a speech Wednesday night to the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a leading possibility for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, declared:

"To the disgrace of every living American, we are welcoming this tyrant to the American capital. We are dining with our enemy and slapping our friends in the face."

And, in the Senate Wednesday Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., called the invitation a "terrible mistake." Tito "is no friend of freedom and no friend of the United States," Dodd said. "On the contrary he is the sworn enemy of everything we stand for."

Tito, 71, was in the United States once before, in 1960, when he attended the U.N. General Assembly. He met briefly then in New York with President Dwight D. Eisenhower. This will be Tito's first visit to Washington to confer with a U.S. president.

Production Allowable Is Reduced

By ERNEST STROMBERGER

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission ordered today that Texas oil production be reduced to 27.5 per cent of potential during November.

The production pattern sets the allowable for next month at 2,808,183 barrels per day. October production was limited to 2,878,206 barrels a day under a 28 per cent order.

The order was announced at the monthly statewide proration hearing, marked by an exchange of criticism by two leaders of the independent oil men.

November, 1962 production was 2,766,990 barrels daily.

Two of 13 major oil purchasers and producers asked for continuation of the 28 per cent order. Two nominated on the basis of a 29 per cent formula, five on the basis of a 27 per cent formula, three on the basis of a 26 per cent formula and one on the basis of a 25 per cent formula.

The number of under-28 per cent nominations is the same as last month, lowest since February.

Nominations totaled 2,518,364 barrels daily, a decrease of 10,242 from October. The Bureau of Mines forecast for November demand was 2,530,000 barrels daily, an increase of 50,000 from October.

Purchasers' nominations in barrels per day, by percentage, with the total change in the statewide allowable for each are:

29 per cent (no change) — Mobil 236,500; Gulf 202,900

27 per cent (57,324 barrel daily decrease) — Indiana Oil Purchasing Co., 248,000; Shell 162,900; Standard of Texas 34,500; Humble 392,145; Sinclair 100,400

26 per cent (114,648 barrels daily decrease)—Cities Service 79,500; Atlantic Refining 75,640; Continental 26,500.

25 per cent (171,972 barrels daily decrease) — Phillips 120,345.

Alvin hope of San Antonio, former president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, drew heavy applause when he criticized "self-appointed emissaries" to Washington who "want to bundle up our problems and drop them in the lap of the federal bureaucracy."

"I don't mind a man making a fool of himself if he doesn't do it at my expense. Let's fight our problems together. We can do it if we follow the commission," he said.

Objections Are Voiced

5 Guerillas Killed

SAIGON (AP) — Vietnamese troops lifted by U.S. helicopters killed five Viet Cong guerrillas today and captured 12 others in a surprise raid on a Communist encampment 15 miles west of Saigon.

Officials said there were no government or American casualties although two helicopters were hit by Red gunfire.

The 60 South Vietnamese soldiers were flown into the battle area in six helicopters.

Assembly Debating Embarasses Soviet

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U.N. Assembly debate on the annual proposal to admit Communist China has taken an embarrassing turn for the Soviet Union. Peking's foes are concentrating on the dispute between the Communist giants.

Nationalist China's Liu Chieh set the tone Wednesday, saying Peking's warlike stand in the ideological dispute provided ample proof that the U.N. should keep the Chinese Reds out.

The Soviets, who are giving token support to Peking's bid for admission, sat glumly as Liu quoted from various Soviet publications which he said contained Kremlin admissions that the Red Chinese regime "is aggressive and predatory."

For the first time since the annual Chinese issue came before the U.N., the Soviets and Soviet bloc delegates remained in their seats when the Nationalist delegate spoke. Only Albania, now a Peking satellite, and Mongolia left the hall.

Albania took the Soviet bloc by surprise this year when it proposed that Red China replace Chiang Kai-shek's regime. In the U.N. the Soviets have always sponsored the Chinese bid in the past and despite their differences still insist Peking should be admitted as a matter of principle.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson pinpointed Red China's opposition to Premier Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence policy—one of the main issues in the Moscow-Peking dispute—as evidence that the U.N. should keep the door closed.

Stevenson denounced Communist China as the only nation in the world advocating war as the inevitable means of settling disputes.

New Astronaut Group To Be Named Friday

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A new group of astronauts will be selected Friday and a California air base may be the primary source of supply.

Nine of the current 16 astronauts were named to the nation's space flight manpower pool after receiving advanced pilot training at Edwards Air Force Base.

Six of the nine astronauts selected in 1962 had Edwards backgrounds. Maj. LeRoy Gordon Cooper Jr., Capt. Virgil I. Grissom and Maj. Donald K. Slayton were Edwards graduates named to the original seven-man Project Mercury team picked in 1959.

Cease-Fire Terms Set

MARRAKECH, Morocco (AP)—The Moroccan minister of information said today agreement has been reached with an Algerian delegation on an end to hostilities in the frontier dispute. He cautioned that details remained to be worked out.

The minister, Abdelhadi Boutaleb, spoke following a meeting of Moroccan and Algerian officials trying to settle fighting which has been going on since Monday in the northwest Sahara. He said:

"We should achieve results today. There may be a joint statement. Everyone is in agreement for an end to hostilities, but there are still questions of detail to settle."

Meanwhile, Algerian officials at Colomb-Bechar, Algeria, about 300 miles from the disputed frontier area, said fighting was going on this morning. Some sources said Algerian troops had taken the offensive.

The sources said Algerian forces still held Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub, the desert outposts 900 miles southwest of Algiers around which the fighting has raged since Tuesday.

The outposts apparently had changed hands several times since Tuesday when the fighting in the ill-defined border region broke out.

"We are holding every inch of our territory under heavy fire," a Moroccan colonel told newsmen.

An Algerian government spokesman said the Moroccan forces launched heavy attacks Wednesday, supported by tanks, artillery and jet planes.

The Moroccan army said an Algerian plane strafed and bombed Moroccan positions in the desert and attacked a caravan west of Colomb-Bechar, the Algerian supply base about 250 miles northeast of the combat area.

There were no official casualty reports.

In New York, informed sources said U.N. Secretary-General U Thant has offered his good offices to the two countries.

Spanish Generalissimo Francisco Franco appealed to Morocco's King Hassan II and Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella to settle their conflict peacefully.

Terrorists Wage 'The Long War'

EDITOR'S NOTE—Almost every day there are new reports of terrorism in Venezuela, a key nation in hopes for democratic progress in South America. What is behind this effort to push the country to dictatorship? Here is an analysis by the AP's chief diplomatic affairs reporter in Washington, now on a swing around South America to find out how both Uncle Sam and Fidel Castro are doing in that critical area.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The Red terrorists in Venezuela call their hit-and-run war of bombings, murders, and robberies "La guerra prolongada" — The long war. Their immediate aim is to destroy this country's hopeful start on democratic government. Their ultimate goal is to convert Venezuela into a new Cuba.

"We can afford to lose a thousand times," says one of their slogans, "but we only have to win once."

The terrorists are city guerrillas. They have little support in the countryside or the villages. They often hide in crowded slum areas but they do not seem to be children of the slums. They are mainly university students from the country's more privileged families.

The youths in their teens and early 20s include girls as well as boys. When an insurance office was raided and burned a few days ago the raiders were two boys and girl in shorts. The girls sometimes use lipstick to write "FALN" on the walls of places attacked.

FALN stands for "Armed Forces of National Liberation." Officials of the Betancourt government estimate its strength at 200-400 active members. The leaders are Cuban-trained experts in sabotage, subversion, and propaganda, estimated to number about 100.

Fidel Castro is their hero. Small as their numbers are, they constitute for Castro and communism a striking force on the South American continent; in this sense they pose a threat to the interests and policies of the United States in its own backyard.

Behind the active strike force, government officials say, is a much larger group of Communists and pro-Communists who provide passive support. The total number of Communists in the country is estimated at 40,000. The Communist party and the Marxist Movement of the Revolutionary Left, known as MIR, both have had representatives and senators in Congress.

Sentry Satellites On New Mission

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Two sentry satellites raced through space today on a secrecy-cloaked mission aimed at perfecting a foolproof means of policing the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

Their assignment: Determine the feasibility of using satellite-borne instruments to detect nuclear explosions as far as 200 million miles from earth. The treaty forbids such blasts in outer space.

Intricate devices in the twin satellites were designed to draw a chart of space radiation so they and later sentinels can immediately spot any sudden surge of energy from a far-out explosion.

Because of a complex flight pattern intended to place the two satellites into widely-separated, 57,000-mile-high orbits, officials will not know until Saturday whether the early phase of the mission is completely successful.

No official announcement is expected on the operation, known by the code name Vela Hotel. No reason was given for the news blackout, but unofficially it was reported the United States did not want to be embarrassed by indicating to the Soviets that it did not trust them to adhere to the test ban treaty.

Despite the secrecy, newsmen were alerted by sources and watched from nearby beaches when the Atlas - Agena booster rocket blasted off at 9:32 Wednesday night with the two satellites aboard.

It was the first time in six years that reporters had been barred from Cape Canaveral for a launching.

Reliable sources reported the satellites had separated and settled into great egg-shaped orbits ranging from 220 to 57,000 miles above the earth. As the space messengers streaked upward, they were about 20 miles apart.

BIG DEMAND FOR TICKETS SEEN

Snyder area football fans were urged to get their tickets early for the Oct. 25 game here between Snyder and Lamesa.

School officials said Lamesa had requested all reserve seat tickets for the east stands in Tiger Stadium, as well as 1,000 student tickets. That means the only reserve seats still available for fans here will be those remaining in the west stands, and these will go on sale Monday at the school administration building on a first come, first served basis.

Britons Get Nobel Prize For Medicine

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) —The 1963 Nobel Prize for medicine was awarded jointly today to two Britons — Alan Lloyd Hodgkin of Cambridge and Andrew Fielding Huxley of University College, London — and an Australian, Sir John Carew Eccles of Canberra.

The prize amount this year is a record-high 265,000 Swedish crowns ($51,158).

The trio was cited by the awarding college of professors of Sweden's Royal Caroline Institute of Medicine "for their discoveries concerning the ionic mechanisms involved in excitation and inhibition in the peripheral and central portions of the nerve cell membrane."

In brief, their research is designed to explain how the nerves work, an important contribution to the study of nervous diseases.

Through his experiments, Eccles defined in terms of electricity how nerves are excited or inhibited. The citation said: "The nature of central inhibition has long been one of the main riddles in the physiology of the central nervous system."

Eccles' research thus tied in with that of Huxley and Hodgkin, who were studying the processes by which nervous impulses are transmitted along the nervous system.

Eccles is professor of physiology at Australian National University, Canberra. In 1955 he lectured at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

Huxley and Hodgkin were cited for their work since 1939 on the physical and chemical nature of the nerve impulse.

"This is a conducted electrical event which the nerve fibre itself produces," the citation said.

Huxley has been professor of physiology at University College since 1960. He was a visiting lecturer at Johns Hopkins in 1959 and was made a foreign honorary member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1961.

Hodgkin is Foulerton research professor of the Royal Society and Works in Cambridge.

The medical prize is the first of four awards to be made this year in Sweden from income made available each year from the estate of Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite.

The winner of the Nobel Prize in literature will be announced a week from today. The remaining two prizes, in physics and chemistry, will be announced Nov. 5.

Eccles is 60, Hodgkin 49 and Huxley 45.

Eccles made his studies with the aid of tiny electrodes inserted into nerve cells of the spinal cord.

Hodgkin and Huxley experimented with squid, whose nerve fibres are many times larger than those of man. Samll electrodes were inserted into the fibres to study now the nerve impulse works mechanically.

President's New Tax Bill Draws Fire From Liberals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Already under attack from economic conservatives, President Kennedy's tax bill is drawing fire from liberal ranks of the Senate.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., declared Wednesday that the administration sacrificed tax reforms to win other objectives and thus "truckholes" to benefit the wealthy remain in the tax legislation.

"If the bill gets any worse it's going to be difficult for some of us to vote for it," said Douglas.

"It's going to be very difficult for some of us to vote for it as it is."

The attack by the former economics professor came as he was questioning Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon during hearings of the Senate Finance Committee.

In response to Douglas' questions, Dillon said 20 taxpayers with incomes of $500,000 or more paid "not one cent of taxes" last year. And five of these, he said, had incomes of $5 million or more.

The principal reason for this, Dillon said, was the provision permitting unlimited deductions for charitable contributions by high-income earners. He pointed out that the Treasury recommended repeal of this provision but that the House rejected the recommendations. Dillon returns for the third day of testimony today.

The administration is pressing for passage of the $11-billion tax cut bill by January. Although the bill has already been approved by the House, strong opposition to it has risen in the Senate, particularly from conservatives.

And Douglas' criticism was considered the strongest yet from liberal Democrats.

Douglas complained that what he called timid reform elements proposed by the White House had been largely eliminated in drafting the measure. He estimated that $12 billion in capital gains go untaxed each year at death; that the oil industry enjoys $3 billion in depletion allowances and $2.5 billion in drilling writeoffs; that one oil company paid $80,000 in federal taxes on profits of $13 million or a rate of less than 1 per cent.

"It is not enough to call these loopholes," said Douglas. "These are truckholes."

Dillon countered that "we have achieved reforms raising $1.9 billion" of additional revenue in the 1962 tax bill and the current one.

But Douglas said many of these reforms, such as the tightening of the sick pay exclusions in this year's measure, bear most heavily on low-income families.

Solicitation Check Urged

Local veterans organizations have reiterated their plea for Snyder area businesses and individuals to check authenticity of any person soliciting donations or advertising under auspices of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, or Veterans of World War One.

They urged that officers of local posts be contacted to determine whether such solicitations are in order. It was noted that in the past some groups and individuals had solicited donations and advertising for publications which are not sanctioned by the local organizations.

Penny Wise; Lb. Foolish

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police are looking for a person with a heavy crime on his mind —someone stole 750 pounds of dimes, nickels and pennies from a parking meter collection truck.

No one knows exactly how much 750 pounds of coins comes to. As a parking meter collections employe at city hall pointed out, "we calculate only in pounds. Money has no monetary value to us."

Police Report Mishap

The Snyder police department reported a minor traffic mishap at 12:05 p.m. Wednesday at Thirty-seventh Street and Austin Avenue.

Involved were a 1957 Ford driven by Larry Lee, 2411 Twenty-ninth Street, and a 1963 Corvair driven by Millijon Smyth, 2909 Thirty-fifth Street. Damage to the Lee car was estimated at $100 and to the Smyth car at $40.

There were no injuries.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A relative called me and asked if she should send us a wedding invitation. She said if we didn't intend to use it, she wouldn't send one because they are very expensive and they are running short of them. When I complained to my husband about it (they are HIS side of the family, wouldn't you know?) he said, "Oh, don't be so formal! Ask her to READ the invitation ovef the telephone and jell her yes or no!"

Is this the proper way to be invited to a church wedding? Do you think we should go? And if we decide not to go, do we have to send a gift anyway?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Your relative has much to learn about etiquette. Don't go to the wedding unless you want to. And a gift is optional whether you go or not.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Our family is small, and we have many "single" friends (bachelors, divorcees and widows) whom we frequently invite to share a meal or an outing. Our children have often asked why the single men and women we invite so often never invite us for anything. At first we told them it was neither necessary nor expected. But the more we thought about it, the more we began to wonder — why don't they? They wouldn't have to include our children. I wonder why "singles" think nothing of repeatedly accepting invitations from their married friends, but rarely reciprocate.

JUST WONDERING

DEAR JUST: Many do. Only those "singles" who feel they have been invited out of "charity" do not consider themselves obligated, and therefore make no effort to reciprocate.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A very attractive and well-educated woman has recently moved to our community. Her husband, an executive with a large firm, has been transferred here. This woman was given a warm welcome by all of us old residents. It is natural for a newcomer to talk about her experiences and friendships "back home," but this woman has divulged the most intimate information about her friends in her former community—things which could only have been told to her in confidence. She has even used their names. Chances are we will never meet them. But we keep wondering what she will say about us if she leaves here. If you will print this, perhaps we won't have to figure out a way to tell her she would be better liked if she didn't talk so much.

OLD RESIDENTS

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO J. AND S.: Sorry, but what you suggest is illegal, immoral and extremely dangerous. I urge you not to do anything as foolish as your considered plan. Parents are your best friends. PLEASE tell them everything tonight.

Avenue D Baptist Has WMU Installation

Officers of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Avenue D Baptist Church were installed in a special service at the church Monday, October 14, 1963, at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. L. W. Gilstrap is the outgoing president of the society. A salad supper was served to the members and their guests.

Following the meal special music was presented by a quartet made up of Mrs. Virgil Streety, Mrs. Richard Hardin, Mrs. Floyd Hollis, and Mrs. Bobby Phillips.

Officers were installed by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Bobby Phillips, as she stood behind a table on which was placed the center of interest carrying out the theme "Precious Jewels". The table was covered in black velvet on which were placed a large opened jewelry box overflowing with costume jewelry, a large opened Bible, and other jewelry placed to make an attractive display.

As each officer was being installed, Mrs. Phillips gave her a "jewel" which was in some way significant of her office and asked her to stand at the front until all the officers had been installed and the concluding prayer was given.

Allen Matlock's Green Salad

2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons cider vinegar
3 tablespoons water
1 tablespoon sugar
4 cups coarsely torn salad greens
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

In a small (about 6 inches) skillet or a saucepan (about 1 pint) melt the butter over low heat; allow it to cook until it turns brown. Add vinegar and water and bring to a boil. Stir in sugar and boil until it dissolves. Mix greens with salt and pepper; pour the hot dressing over the greens and mix well. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES Allen Owens and Preston Wilson are shown checking the tally on this load of beer and wine which was confiscated Wednesday evening southeast of Snyder by the sheriff's department. They added up 16 cases of beer, six half-pints of vodka, a case of wine and two fifth of wine. Floyd Wellington pleaded guilty this morning to illegal possession and was sentenced to 15 days in jail, received a $200 fine plus costs of $26.35, and lost his merchandise.

State Textbook Committee Hears Lengthy Testimonys

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Textbook Committee met today to select public school textbooks in 29 subjects, including controversial high school economics.

Committee members heard almost four hours of testimony Wednesday by two persons protesting economics books and a geography book.

Texas high schools are without new economics texts this year because the State Board of Education found all the selections unsatisfactory.

The committee must pick five books for each of 29 subjects. Its selections must be approved by the State Board of Education. Local districts must choose from the approved list.

Protests were voiced Wednesday by Mrs. Joan Slay of Fort Worth and Roger Harlan of Dallas. They contended the books were not adequately critical of socialism and big government.

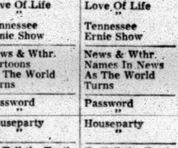
Dr. John McFarland of Houston, committee chairman, told Harlan he was "underestimating the thinking power of our senior students and the wisdom and good education of our teachers."

"I'm afraid you have not attained an understanding of our 12th grader. I have confidence in their ability to think logically about the facts of economics," McFarland said.

Harlan replied that state law forbids teachers to refuse to use state textbooks.

"If the books are wrong, how can even the best overcome it?" he asked.

Harlan urged the committee to throw out the six choices for high school economics and try to get texts "which eliminate the objections I have outlined."



Would That Each Of Us Had These Magic Powers

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lots of people say things they wish they hadn't. Members of Congress have a unique advantage in this situation—they can wave a magic wand and make the words disappear.

The magic wand is their privilege to change the remarks they make on the floor before they are made a part of the Congressional Record.

For example, the other day Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, was complaining about trips some members like to take at public expense. Gross never goes on these himself.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C. upholding the worth off travel, demanded of Gross:

"If you don't want to go, why don't you just shut up?"

But the next morning when the Congressional Record came out, Cooley had softened his words.

As revised for the record, they read: "It is difficult for me to understand why you continue to complain."

Offhand, it would seem that Congress would want its record to be accurate, to show exactly what took place and what was said. But any feeling along those lines is outweighed by a desire to look as good as possible. And in Congress, as elsewhere, hindsight is 20-20 vision.

The late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, D-Ore., who fought the practice, once described one aspect of it this way:

"After a major debate in the Senate over an issue which stirs profound emotions I have seen many senators virtually rewriting the speeches and retorts just delivered on the floor of the Senate.

"Some will totally expunge comments made in the heat of debate that may seem indiscreet or unwise in the cold, gray light of the next dawn and in the inflexible type of the Congressional Record."

On the other hand there is the argument, in favor of allowing revisions, that was advanced years ago by Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., now the speaker of the House:

"Sometimes in running debate extemporaneous debate in the House and heated argument, I say things sharply that upon reflection I would not have said, and did not mean."

"If he didn't mean them, and they still slipped out, it is understandable why he would want to change them. But again, this is a privilege not accorded to most citizens in this democracy.

The No. 1 authority on Congress' reluctance to tighten the rules on what is permitted in the Congressional Record is Rep. Paul C. Jones, D-Mo.

For yeears, Jones has been promoting a resolution to keep extraneous material out of the record, to have it reflect only what happened.

But Jones can't get the House Administration Committee, which reigns in this field, to even give him a hearing. And he's on the committee.

Fire Flies In Liz' Eyes

PUERTO VALLARTA, Mexico (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor has reacted angrily to the utterance by Eddie Fisher that he was awaiting word from her on whether to end their fractured marriage.

"Why doesn't Mr. Eddie Fisher get in touch with me if he wants to say something like that?" she snapped. "Or why doesn't he have his lawyer talk to my lawyer? Why does he use the press as an intermediary in such matters?"

Last weekend the singer said in Las Vegas that he had established six-week residence in Nevada to qualify for a divorce.

"I'm waiting to hear from the young lady," he said.

It may be a long wait.

Her eyes flashing fire, Miss Taylor declared that she hadn't heard from Fisher. The two separated in Italy last year while Miss Taylor was making the film "Cleopatra" with Richard Burton as her co-star. She and Burton have been together much of the time since. Burton is separated from his wife, Sibyl.

The British actor came to this tropical resort on the West coast of Mexico to star in "Night of the Iguana," and Miss Taylor is usually on the set each afternoon to watch him work.

They live in a white stucco house that rambles four stories up what is called Gringo Gulch, since many Americans own homes on its precipitous slopes. Another house has been reserved for them at Mismaloya, a brand new resort 20 miles south where the major part of "Night of the Iguana" will be filmed.

GREAT DAY

FOR GETTING THINGS DONE BY PHONE

So maybe the rain is coming down in sheets.

Lightning flashing.

Thunder booming.

No matter how wretched the weather, you can keep right on using your telephone.

Some years ago, bad weather might have affected your telephone service.

Today, things are different.

Most telephone cables are now filled with pressurized dry air. If a cable springs a leak, the force of the escaping dry air holds out moisture and keeps phones working. An alarm automatically tells repairmen the location of the break. Usually, the trouble is fixed and you never know anything was wrong.

So go ahead and use your phone when the sky opens up and the rain comes down. Pressurizing telephone cables to give you stormproof dependability is another improvement made with you in mind. Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

Pennsylvania's Favorite Son Absolutely Not Interested

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Liberal Republicans casting about for a candidate to stop the whistling progress of Sen. Barry Goldwater toward the 1964 presidential nomination apparently have lost a prospect.

Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania went about as far as a politician could be expected to go Wednesday in saying that he not only is not a candidate for the nomination but would buck any effort to draft him.

Scranton did an uncertain waltz on the draft question. At first he said he would respond to "an honest and sincere" call. But he added that it is impossible to launch any draft without connivance of the candidate and "I would step in and stop it."

Pressed on this point by newsmen, he nailed it down with a second declaration that he would stop any draft in its tracks.

Scranton said he still is available as "a favorite son for Pennsylvania" — but not as a candidate — if by mid-1964 his state's Republicans think their 64-vote delegation ought to go uncommitted to the nominating convention.

The governor made these comments during an interview following a luncheon meeting with Pennsylvania members of Congress.

There have been strong indications that supporters plan to put Goldwater's name in the state's April 28 primary. This is strictly a popularity contest, not legally binding on the convention delegation. But few think the outcome would be ignored by the delegates.

Scranton's reluctance to get involved in the nomination contest was explained by associates on the ground that he is heavily burdened by state problems and is on only the first lap of a four-year term.

There were some indications, however, that the governor might be thinking of 1968, when the Republican nominee won't have to face an incumbent Democratic president.

Goldwater and his associates have detected sentiment of this nature elsewhere and believe it is working to the advantage of the Arizona senator so far as the nomination is concerned.

As one of them put it: "Some of these Eastern Republicans who don't like Goldwater's views are beginning to say that the chances of beating President Kennedy aren't very good so why not let Goldwater have his fling at it and get rid of him?"

The senator's people think this attitude is certain to slow any stop-Goldwater effort.

If Scranton is out, that seems to leave Gov. George Romney of Michigan as top prospect in a potential stop - Goldwater movement.

So the Goldwater people will be watching closely when Romney makes one of his rare trips to the East to speak at the Oct. 25 dinner of the New York Board of Trade in New York City.

This is billed as a non-political affair. But the gilded audience will include some heavy contributors to Republican campaigns in the past.

Many Meats; Low Prices

By The Associated Press

Shoppers will find a wide variety of favorably priced beef and pork cuts at grocery and supermarket meat counters this weekend.

With large supplies of steers and hogs coming to market, many food merchandisers are featuring beef roasts and steaks and pork roasts, chops, spareribs and smoked hams.

A bountiful supply of turkeys is beginning to reach retailers, especially in the Northeast, Midwest and Southeastern regions. Broilers-fryers, stewing hens and lamb are among attractions in scattered places.

One national chain is offering both beef and pork specials, with boneless round roasts and top sirloin priced at 85 cents a pound in the New York area.

On the West Coast, beef loins were reported around 3 cents a pound lower except in the Los Angeles area.

On fruit counters, fall apples were plentiful and good. Cranberries were coming in, and grapefruit and avocadoes were increasing in supply.

Grapes continued to be a fruit attraction in the Midwest and other regions.

In the vegetables, widespread attractions included cabbage, broccoli, potatoes, celery, sweet potatoes, squash, green beans, carrots and peppers.

DOWN, BUT UP—This big truck and trailer skidded during a heavy rain storm near Pinole, Calif., smashed through a heavy cement guard rail and wound up doing a head stand. Highway Patrol officers said a chain which connected the trailer to the truck kept it from rolling over. The trailer lies on its side on the highway above. The driver, Harold Almanrode, 52, of Danville, Calif., suffered a broken wrist and multiple contusions. (AP Wirephoto)

Bypassed Astronaut Quits; Tries For Civilian Wings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Donald K. Slayton, the astronaut who missed by a couple of heartbeats being one of the first Americans to vault into space, is quitting the Air Force to try to win his space wings as a civilian.

Slayton, 39, is understood to have taken the step because the Air Force grounded him for an erratic heart rate although the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has assured him of flying status.

A NASA spokesman said that Slayton, who was the only one of the seven pioneer astronauts not to ride into space, will be allowed to take part in missions as long as he is with someone else.

This would clear the way for "Deke" to get off the ground in the program aiming to land an American on the moon. Stepping stones on this road are flights in the two-man Gemeni spacecraft and then in the three-man Apollo designed to land on the moon. No more solo flights are planned.

Shortly before word of Slayton's resignation, it was announced that the names of the third group of 10 to 16 astronauts will be revealed Friday at the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston.

The group will double the size of the manpower pool available for the Gemini and Apollo trips.

A NASA official said Wednesday night that Slayton will continue as astronaut activities coordinator—a job he's held since being grounded—and also will be a civilian astronaut.

Howard Gibbons, spokesman at the Houston space center, said Slayton mailed his resignation to the Air Force a week ago with a letter explaining his belief that he could be more effective in his job as a civilian.

An Air Force spokesman said Slayton's resignation will be forwarded to the Pentagon for consideration when a report of Slayton's medical examination is received.

One of Slayton's friends said it was possible the Air Force might retire him for physical disability instead of accepting his resignation.

North Borneo, a former British crown colony, is now known by its local name, Sabah.

Few Rains; Little Relief

CHICAGO (AP)—There were a few wet spots in the Midwest, Southeast and Far Southwest but mostly fair and dry weather prevailed in other parts of the nation today.

Light rain was reported in sections of Florida and in the Far Southwest but heavier amounts splashed across the Middle Mississippi Valley and in parts of the central Plains. A thunderstorm rumbled across the Wichita and Emporia, Kan., areas, with rain and hail.

Little changes in temperatures were reported. The 50s and 60s predominated across the major part of the country. Readings in the 30s and 40s chilled mountain areas. A little cooler weather was indicated in the extreme northeast region.

The mercury soared to 87 in Chicago Wednesday setting a record for Oct. 16.

No. 1? Arkansas Wants Proof

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Texas' Longhorns come to town Saturday sporting their brand new No. 1 national ranking. The question is: can they convince arch-rival Arkansas it's true?

The Razorbacks have been aiming for this game for a whole year, since Texas beat them 7-3 on an 85-yard drive in the last minute and won the 1962 Southwest Conference championship.

This game was billed as another battle for the SWC crown, but Arkansas was upset by Baylor last week 14-10 and now must struggle to stay in the race with unbeaten Texas.

The Longhorns, 28-7 victors over Oklahoma in a major upset last Saturday, will be favored by one to two touchdowns, but many observers are picking the wily Razorbacks to win.

One of these two teams has been in on the SWC title for the past five years. Texas won it last year on that chilling 7-3 decision over the Hogs. That game marked the only defeat suffered by either team in the regular season. Both lost bowl games.

If the Razorbacks are to avenge that beating and possibly knock Texas out of the top spot, they'll have to deal with quarterback Duke Carlisle, the man who started the 85-yard drive, and fullback Tommy Ford, who ran three yards for the Texas touchdown with 36 seconds left in the game.

Ford is leading the Southwest Conference in rushing with 248 yards on 55 carries for a 4.5 average. A close second is sophomore tailback Jim Lindsey of Arkansas with 246 yards on 61 carries for a 4.0 average.

There's also an interesting individual defensive match between Texas tackle Scott Appleton and Arkansas linebacker Ronnie Caveness.

Appleton, this week's Associated Press Lineman of the Week, was in on 18 tackles against Oklahoma and caused a fumble that led to a touchdown. Caveness was in on 20 tackles against Baylor.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said of Appleton: "I didn't realize how great he was. He was hurt all last year."

Texas has rolled up 122 points to 21 for four opponents. Arkansas hasn't gained the form of its past four campaigns and is 2-2, 1-1 in Southwest Conference competition. The Razorback offense, which depends to a great extent on sophomores, hasn't jelled.

Broyles will start sophomore Jon Brittenum at quarterback against Texas. He's a hard-running 180-pounder who shows signs of developing a good passing attack. In reserve Broyles has two good junior lettermen quarterbacks, passing ace Billy Grey and strong runner Fred Marshall. The three quarterbacks have taken turns starting.

HALFBACK DISMISSED FROM OKLAHOMA SQUAD—Joe Don Looney, halfback on the Oklahoma football team, who last year led the nation in punting and was fifth in yards gained rushing, has been dismissed from the team by coach Bud Wilkinson. Wilkinson said the decision to dismiss Looney was a result of an accumulation of incidents and that he had been concerned with the halfback's attitude toward practice. Looney said, "I admit I loaf some of the time—not always." (AP Wirephoto)

Brown Could Be Tops Every Week

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown probably could be the National Football League's Player of the Week every week for the rest of the season. His brilliant performance against the New York Giants Sunday easily earned him recognition in the first weekly survey by the Associated Press.

It was strictly no contest for Brown who ran over the Giants and around the Giants for 123 yards and caught four passes for 86 yards in a three-touchdown afternoon.

The fact that the former Syracuse star had never enjoyed such great success at Yankee Stadium in previous visits by the Cleveland Browns probably prompted the flood of laudatory news stories and columns.

The Brown statistics are eye-catching. In 101 attempts covering five games he has gained 787 yards rushing. Only 50 more yards and he will have matched Joe Perry's alltime record of 8,296 yards that took Joe 14 years to compile.

Sunday was a day of super performances in the NFL. Brown simply overshadowed all the others because it came in a game of vital importance in the Eastern Conference with the unbeaten challengers facing the defending champions in their home park.

Mike Ditka, the Chicago Bears' fine end, grabbed four touchdown passes, three from Bill Wade and one from Rudy Bukich. Big Mike caught nine in all against the Los Angeles Rams.

The St. Louis Cardinals had two candidates in this survey of writers who covered the games. Charlie Johnson completed 21 of 42 passes for 423 yards against Pittsburgh. Jackie Smith of the Cards caught nine of Johnson's passes for 212 yards.

Sonny Jurgensen reclaimed the No. 1 quarterback job of the Philadelphia Eagles as he shattered Washington's defense with four TD passes.

Chuck Howley, 223-pound linebacker for the Dallas Cowboys, did himself proud as Tom Landry's club finally broke into the win column. Howley intercepted two Detroit passes. One set up a touchdown and the other the field goal in a 17-14 victory.

Herb Adderley, defensive halfback of the Green Bay Packers, saved the day for the champs by blocking a field goal attempt by Minnesota's Fred Cox. Teammate Hank Gremminger took the ball and raced 80 yards for the clinching TD.

Chancellor Aided In Resurgence At Pitt

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the third-ranked Pitt Panthers finish the season unbeaten and untied, give some of the credit to Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, the chancellor.

Late last season it developed that there were differences between Coach Johnny Michelosen and some of his players. It was termed a misunderstanding, but an outgrowth was that Dr. Litchfield said he believed too many plays were called from the bench.

He called for Pitt to play a more exciting type of football and for the players to call more of their own plays on the field. He has denied that this meant he was taking over for Michelosen.

"It gets me that they think I'm interfering or getting into someone else's business," Dr. Litchfield remarked recently. "It's my job to be concerned about every aspect of the university."

The Panthers were expected to go places a year ago, but wound up with a 5-5 record. So far this season they have beaten UCLA, Washington and California and seem headed for a return to the glory days of Pop Warner and Jock Sutherland.

On paper they shouldn't have much trouble winning their fourth straight against West Virginia at Morgantown, W.Va. Saturday.

But anyone aware of the Pitt-Mountaineer rivalry knows this is one game West Virginia aims to win more than any other. They whipped the Panthers the last two years.

Pitt's stars, Paul Martha and Fred Mazurek, are in fine shape but end Bob Long is hobbled with a knee injury and Wednesday he was replaced by soph Bob Dunlevy.

Numerous injuries were reported by other teams Wednesday.

The second-ranked Wisconsin Badgers learned that Larry Howard, senior end, will be lost for the remainder of the season because of a torn cartilage in his knee that requires an operation.

Jeff Brooke, soph guard for the 10th-ranked Northwestern Wildcats, twisted his ankle in practice and may be out of Saturday's game against Miami of Ohio.

Matt Snell, fullback for third-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes, was ruled out of Saturday's game against Southern California. Snell was injured last week against Illinois.

Hank Bardeh, North Carolina fullback, is out for the season with a broken hand. He was injured two weeks ago, but was expected back for late season games.

Bob Barth, soph halfback for the University of Miami Hurricanes, pulled up lame in practice and is a doubtful starter against Georgia Friday night.

Don Rosen, Minnesota tackle, hurt his back and Oklahoma State may be short five key players against Missouri. Injuries hit center Ed Thomas, ends Jerome Bell and Bob Taylor and backs Glenn Baxter and Jeff Williams.

Soph guard Don Ellen of Louisiana State suffered a broken arm in scrimmage and will be out for the season while Tony Parola, a reserve fullback for Illinois, got a broken nose playing soccer in physical education class.

Perhaps the strangest injury reported Wednesday was that to Dave Lawson, Dartmouth halfback. The senior from Knoxville, Tenn. suffered a pulled muscle in his back because—a doctor said—his dormitory mattress was too soft.

79-Year-Old Entry Leads

EL PASO (AP)—A 79-year-old second flighter, Mildred Dodge of Port Arthur, was darling of the gallery Wednesday as she forged ahead in the Texas Senior Women's Golf Tournament.

The main show was the championship flight, where Irene Anderson of Austin, Ida Mae Powell of San Angelo, Nancy Parr of Corpus Christi and Agatha Lee of El Paso advanced to today's semifinals.

But it was Mrs. Dodge who drew the crowd on the 18th green. She calmly rolled in a 10-foot putt to defeat Mrs. Joe Bunker in a second flight consolidation match.

"It must have been the ham in me," Mrs. Dodge laughed, her bright eyes popping and hands waving as she embraced Mrs. Bunker.

The two battled on even terms the last five holes. Mrs. Bunker missed a putt on the final green.

Mrs. Anderson, tournament medalist, defeated Mrs. Silva Maley of Houston 2 and 1. Mrs. Powell, three-time state titlist, outlasted Mrs. Beryl Nash of Waco to win 2 up. Mrs. Anderson played Mrs. Powell today.

Mrs. Parr cashed putting opportunities to defeat Rosa Lea Carter of El Paso 2 and 1. Mrs. Lee, winner of this tournament the past four years, defeated Hattie Williams of Beaumont 6 and 5.

The Kansas City Athletics and the Minnesota Twins divided 18 decisions this year.

Celtics Still Potent Team

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Boston Celtics don't have superstar Bob Cousy any longer, but otherwise things haven't changed much for the perennial champions of the National Basketball Association.

The classy Celtics still have fabulous Bill Russell blocking shots, snaring rebounds and frustrating opponents. They still have a great defense, balanced scoring featuring a fast break, fine reserve strength . . . and Coach Red Auerbach, who remains fiery despite a $500 preseason fine levied by the new NBA President J. Walter Kennedy.

With Kennedy included in the crowd of 7,264 fans who welcomed the Baltimore Bullets back to the NBA after a nine-year absence, Auerbach yelled, stomped his feet and flailed his arms as Boston easily whipped the Bullets 109-95 Wednesday night.

In other openers, Lee Shaffer's basket with nine seconds to play gave the Philadelphia 76ers a 117-115 victory over the Detroit Pistons, and the Cincinnati Royals whipped the St. Louis Hawks 112-93 with rookie Jerry Lucas contributing 23 points.

Broyles Guards Against Injuries

By The Associated Press

Coach Frank Broyles is making sure that his Arkansas Razorbacks will be as close to full strength as possible for Saturday's football game at Little Rock against Texas, the nation's No. 1 team and defending champion of the Southwest Conference.

The Razorbacks worked out in sweat clothes Wednesday and did not even don pads because, Broyles said, "we just don't want anybody to get hurt."

At Austin, the Longhorns did lots of running but avoided contact work. On the sidelines were guard Olen Underwood with a lip cut in the Oklahoma game, defensive halfback Tony King with a sore shoulder and end George Sauer with poison ivy rash. Underwood will miss the Arkansas game but Bauer and King are expected to see action.

Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin was singing the woes Wednesday after watching his Horned Frogs work out in preparation for Saturday's game with Texas A&M.

"The kids were draggy, missed assignments and showed little ginger," Martin said after the two-hour drill.

Starting end Tom Magoffin, injured in the Texas Tech game, took part in the workout but Martin said he probably would see only limited duty Saturday.

The Texas Aggies wound up contact work with a spirited drill. Halfback Travis Reagan, recuperating from a shoulder injury, was the only Aggie on the doubtful list for Saturday.

Texas Tech Coach J. T. King expressed pleasure at the way his Red Raiders showed up in Wednesday's workout. He had spec·l praise for the blocking of David Parks, Bill Shaha and Clarence (Butch) Thompson and the ball carrying of backs Roger Gill, Johnny Agan, Hal Hudson and Leo Lowery.

The Baylor Bears emphasized their running game in the last long, hard workout before playing Texas Tech.

Southern Methodist's star tailback, Billy Gannon, became a doubtful starter for Saturday's Rice game when he was sidelined with a recurring back ailment.

Meanwhile the Rice Owls were planning their defense against John Roderick, the trackman turned football player whose long runs helped SMU upset Navy last weekend. Jim Bob Loos, Rice junior halfback and a trackman himself, ran the Roderick plays against his teammates.

Hadl, Rote Are Lauded

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The quarterback who has been named the American Football League's Player of the Week now rates as something of a glorified understudy on the San Diego Chargers to an older and more experienced signal-caller.

They are 23-year-old John Hadl, who was named Player of the Week in The Associated Press check of sports reporters covering AFL games, and 35-year-old Tobin Rote.

The Chargers' coach and general manager, Sid Gillman, referred to them as his father-son combination in commenting on Hadl's sparkling performance Sunday.

Hadl replaced Rote in the second half, with the Chargers trailing 10-3, and led them to a 24-20 victory over the New York Jets.

Gillman declared that Hadl's play-calling was superb and his passing beautiful, but gave Rote much credit for it.

Rote is in his 14th season as a professional and his first with the Chargers.

Hadl joined the Chargers last year after playing college football at Kansas.

Schoolboys Now In Crucial Stage

By The Associated Press

Texas schoolboy football pushes into the second half of the season this week with conference games blooming all over the place.

It's the actual start of the stretch drive when district championships are the main interest, although several weeks will elapse before any are definitely determined.

Fifty-six teams remain undefeated and untied, and 48 of them will risk their records. Chances are that a third will fall. In three instances unbeaten, untied teams play each other.

In Class AA, Rockdale, the 1962 state championship runner-up, clashes with Hearne. Their game not only matches teams with perfect marks but is important in the Dist. 19 race.

Unbeaten, untied teams play similarly in Class A, where Lorenzo and Petersburg tangle at Petersburg in a crucial Dist. 4 game and Groesbeck is at Rosebud in a big game of Dist. 22.

Class AAAA has seven unbeaten, untied teams and three of them have open dates this week—Amarillo Tascosa, Tyler Lee and Corpus Christi Carroll. South Oak Cliff, Galena Park, San Antonio Highlands and San Antonio Lee all face district tests.

Galena Park, which only this week was ranked No. 1 in Class AAAA, takes on Brazosport.

Probably the most important game in Class AAAA, however, is the clash of San Angelo and Midland, a couple of the rated teams. This will afford San Angelo opportunity to show whether it's as good as pictured in preseason voting.

Dumas, No. 1 team in Class AAA, plays Lawton, Okla. in a strong test for the holders of the longest winning streak—16 straight.

Denver City, top outfit of Class AA, tackles another Class AAA team, Sweetwater.

Albany, No. 1 in Class A, plays Clyde a conference game in Dist. 10.

The feature contest of Class A, however, sends New London against White Oak in Dist. 19. London will be making a last stand in trying to live up to preseason expectations.

Only nine teams are undefeated and untied in Class AAA. Along with Dumas, they are Phillips, Corsicana, Lamarque, Austin Lanier, Lampasas, Gonzales, South San Antonio and Graham. All play this week except Corsicana.

Sinton, one of the favorites of Class AA, will be making a conference effort, playing Karnes City.

Tulsa's Simmons Leads Receivers

NEW YORK (AP) — At the rate he is going Tulsa's John Simmons seems assured of winning the major college pass receiving championship for 1963.

The 6-foot-3, 193-pound senior end caught 13 passes against Cincinnati last Saturday to fatten his lead over Jimmy Evans of Texas Western and Dennis Kloke of Washington State.

Simmons now has caught 29 for 377 yards in three games, according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

SPORTSCUTTLE

New college football substitution rules, put into effect this season, continue to draw mixed reaction from coaches. Texas Tech has an elaborate, and apparently complicated, system of keeping track of substitutions so that certain players may be inserted into the lineup under various conditions. It is the lot of John Conley, former Snyder coach, to keep up with the system during Tech games. If there is a slip-up it means that the team may not have the players on the field which the coach desires under a given situation. According to Conley, the new substitution rule is for the birds.

• • •

Tech's opposition for this Saturday night has a different view of the substitution rule. A dispatch from the Baylor publicity office concerning the Bears' victory over Arkansas last Saturday night notes: "Coach (John) Bridgers was pleased that again the new substitution rules permitted him to keep (Bobby) Maples, (Ernest) Erickson and the other defensive starters in the game for 80 per cent of the time Baylor was on defense. The offensive starters played over 75 per cent of Baylor's offense."

• • •

Incidentally, Baylor's victory over Arkansas enabled the Bruins to pull even in the won-lost column against Razorback teams coached by Frank Broyles. Baylor is now 3-3 against the Hogs during the Broyles regime.

• • •

Halfback Budgie Ford, Texas A&M's leading ground gainer against Houston last Saturday, with 97 yards on 17 carries, isn't even listed in the Aggie football brochure for this fall. The reason: he had a grade-point deficiency at the end of the spring term and had to make it up in summer school to become eligible.

• • •

Among last week's shockers was Odessa High's 12-6 upset of Big Spring in District 2-AAAA. Coach Don Robbins has made no alibis, but his Steers lost four first-stringers via injuries in the first quarter. Reports of such happenings give Snyder coaches cold chills.

• • •

Duke Carlisle, Texas University's talented quarterback, is performing for a "neutral" team so far as his family is concerned. His father, Emmett A. Carlisle Sr., went to Texas A&M and his mother went to Baylor.

LINEMAN OF THE WEEK SCOTT APPLETON: "It's not a matter of not getting blocked. The big thing is not staying blocked."

• • •

The new alignment of District 3-AAA which brings Levelland and Littlefield into the fold, is a good deal so far as Snyder is concerned, but it means a long haul between Lake View and the two new members. Snyder's schedule will remain about the same for next season, except that Littlefield will replace Colorado City on the slate. Also, Levelland, which has been one of the early-season opponents of the Tigers, will appear further down the schedule, while Stamford will move closer to the front. The district schedule will be shaped at the next district meeting and district members will draw for home dates. The conference slate now will be perfectly balanced, with three at home and three on the road.

Texas A&I Holds On To No. 1 Spot

KANSAS CITY (AP)— Texas A&I continues in the No. 1 spot of the weekly football poll conducted by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Javelinas won their fourth straight game of the season last week with a 17-0 trouncing of East Texas State, which managed a 3-3 tie last year to mar A&I's record.

Prairie View A&M moved up from 10th to eighth spot in the poll. Southwest Texas State is ranked No. 11. Texas A&I, Prairie View and Southwest Texas have identical 4-0 records.

East Texas State, with a 2-1-1 mark, is ranked 17th.

Star's Uncle Dies

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP)—Salvatore DiMaggio Sr., uncle of former New York Yankees star Joe DiMaggio, died at Martinez Community Hospital Wednesday at the age of 86.

A complete physical examination, conditioning, proper coaching and proper protective equipment are listed as the most important factors in preventing football injuries.

Two JC Outfits In Texas Are Near Top

DODGE, Kan. (AP) — Two Texas schools are rated among the top 10 of the National Junior Collegiate Athletic Association coaches' football poll.

Wharton, with a 4-1 record holds the No. 5 spot. Blinn Junior College is No. 6 with a 3-1 mark.

Northeastern Oklahoma is No. 1, followed by Wesley, Del., Cameron, Okla., and McCook, Neb.

Palmer, Nicklaus Sahara Favorites

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The two top rivals of tournament golf, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, were the co-favorites today as the $70,000 Sahara Invitation Tournament got under way.

Betting-minded Las Vegas quoted the two as 3-1 choices to win the $13,000 winner's purse of this 72-hole autumn classic.

A field of 124 professionals was entered in the event.

The tournament site is the 7,038-yard par 36-35—71 Paradise Valley Country Club.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN?

Mme. Nhu Needs A Theme For 'Boast-To-Boast' Tour

BY INEZ ROBB

What has been sadly missing in Mme. Nhu's boast-to-boast tour is a theme song — something that would pipe her on and off stage with point and style.

A mere 21-gun salute or fanfare of trumpets and roll of drums seem too modest, too subdued for her performance. After serious thought on the matter, I believe that Mme Nhu and her sponsors will find the ideal mood music for madame in an old World War I song, titled something like "They're All Out of Step But Jim."

That ditty expresses the essence of Mme. Nhu, snug in her self-sewn mantle of infallibility? By golly, we shiftless Americans are all out of step, as Mme. Nhu keeps reminding us from stage, screen radio and soapbox.

Shrill in her self - righteousness and rectitude, Mme. Nhu daily accuses as soft on communism a nation that supports the Vietnamese struggle against the Reds with 15,000 picked American troops and with funds to the pretty tune of $1,500,000 each and every day; a nation whose soft-on-communism taxpayers somehow dig up a minimum of $60 billion annually for armaments, foreign aid and fringe expenditures to defend the free world and itself against communism and Communist aggression!

If Mme. Nhu should require a secondary theme song it could only be "Johnny One Note." Her by now - familiar script, indicting a nation, a people, its military, its elected officials and its diplomats reads as monotonously as if it were by the late Sen. Joe McCarthy.

Like the late Senator, Mme. Nhu is an expert at keeping unsustantiated accusations in the air. Whenever she is asked for facts with which to substantiate her charges, she takes defensive action by tossing still more accusations into the supercharged air.

During the first days of her American tour, I felt that Mme Nhu's greatest contribution to this country might be the revival of vaudeville. In the heyday of that thespian art, oriental juggling acts were standard. They were never the star turn, but always popular.

However, Mme. Nhu has chosen not to juggle Indian clubs but facts; or, rather, what she represents as facts. By talking constantly and saying nothing of substance, she has forever enshrined herself in the hall of fame with Senator Claghorn.

As for reviving vaudeville, Mme. Nhu has only driven another nail in the coffin. Both she and her performance or, rather, antics, in this country are a bore. Madame herself is a revolving bore. Unfortunately, she has convinced herself that she is irresistible rather than irrepressible.

She has no trace of sensitivity, only self - satisfaction. A visitor in a land that is trying to save her own, her manners have been not so much inexcusable as nonexistent. She has conducted herself both rudely and crudely. She has worn out her welcome everywhere but with the radical right. She is an expert only in chewing to shreds the hand that feeds the Vietnamese in the war against communism.

What the nation needs is a handful of hard - nosed reporters who can question her and keep her on the track of factual replies.

Just before she came from Europe to inflict herself upon us long - suffering Americans, Mme. Nhu boasted that no one had ever called her "stupid." It is suggested herewith that Mme. Nhu stop talking long enough to hear what the other fellow is saying.

—Junior Editors Quiz on— ROYALTY

QUESTION: What is the full name of Queen Elizabeth II?

• • •

ANSWER: The reigning British sovereign was given the name of Elizabeth Alexandra Mary when she was christened and her last, or family, name is Windsor. But people rarely speak of Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor or Elizabeth Windsor. In England, rulers and royal families, as well as high ranking people called "nobies" are usually referred to by their "titles," which are indications of their superior rank. One speaks of the Duke of York or the Duchess of Kent. In the full title, the first name is used rather than the last one; for example, Winston Churchill became "Sir Winston" after he was knighted. Elizabeth's full, official title is "Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith." This is generally shortened to "Queen Elizabeth II."

"Windsor" was not always the family name of British rulers; it was adopted in 1917 to replace the name "Saxe-Coburg-Gotha," which sounded too German when England was at war with Germany. Future members of the family, except princes and princesses, will take the name "Mountbatten-Windsor" in honor of Elizabeth's husband, Prince Phillip, Duke of Edinburgh.

FOR YOU TO DO: The picture needs your coloring to give the feeling of Coronation Day. The whole robe should be golden yellow because it's made of cloth-of-gold. Touch up the crown with blue, pink and yellow for the effect of glittering jewels.

Wonders Of Kindergarten

By LARRY FRIEDMAN
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

CLEVELAND (AP) — What's life like in that wonderful—and sometimes wacky — world of kindergarten?

We can't be sure, because the only information we receive is from our 5-year-old. And she often takes a flyer into the world of fantasy.

My wife is anxious to find out what goes on in the little schoolroom with the big doll house. By the bruises on little Arlene's legs, Mommy has discovered the youngsters sometimes toss around blocks. Paint on her hands and clay in her hair are more evidence of kindergarten tools.

To Mommy's questions of "How was school today, darling?" comes such no-nonsense answers as: "Okay," "Fine," or "The same as yesterday."

But Daddy hears all the tales —or at least they sound like tales.

I was sitting on the sofa one evening reading the newspaper when Arlene flopped down alongside me. Suddenly she blurted out:

"Daddy, Tommy kissed me in school today."

"Huh. Who kissed you?"

"Oh, the teacher didn't see him kiss me," she said innocently.

"Well, what did you do?" I asked anxiously.

"I kissed him back. He's a nice boy."

One day Arlene rushed home excitedly to relate the details of a "fire grill."

"It wasn't a real fire grill," she explained. "Just a make-believe fire grill, because there was no fire."

Reluctantly, she reported one time about being told to sit in the corner.

"Well, what did you do to deserve such as honor?"

"I was talking after Mrs. Cook told us to keep quiet. Then I started talking low to Vicki. But the teacher said she could hear someone whispering with her special ears.

"Daddy, do teachers have more than two ears like regular people?"

Since that day in the corner, Arlene has increased our weekly purchase of apples. On the theory that an apple a day keeps the doctor away, she has been eating two a day — and taking an additional one daily to Mrs. Cook. It must be big and red. And it must be so shiny it glows.

Minnow - size fish in Kentucky's Mammoth Cave National Park have no eyes. The fish also are colorless and a light shining through them will reveal the skeleton.

Fort Louisburg, French citadel in Nova Scotia, was razed by the British in 1760 with the thoroughness of an earthquake.

TOP TV TONIGHT

By BUD EVANS

9:30 NBC "Suspense Theater" presents the second and concluding part of "The Case Against Paul Ryker", about an American army sergeant who is court martialed and tried as a traitor. Part two takes Capt. Young through a new court martial hearing for the sergeant, this time as the convicted traitor's defense counsel. Bradford Dilman, Vera Miles, Lee Marvin, Lloyd Nolan, Murray Hamilton and Peter Graves are starred. COLOR.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

6:30 NBC "Temple Houston". A fight over a pretty waitress ends in death and a murder conviction that doesn't ring true to Temple Houston. Houston tries to delay the hanging, particularly when the accused resists his investigation. Susan Kohner, Everett Sloane, Noah Beery and Royal Dano are guest stars in "Toll the Bell Slowly". If this storyline seems familiar to you, it is because the network has tried for three weeks to get this episode on the air.

7:00 CBS "Rawhide". A man wearing leg irons is found half dead by Gil Favor's drovers and claims he has been held by a rancher as a slave. When the rancher arrives in camp, he claims the injured man is an escaped murderer. Simon Oakland and Robert Middleton are guest stars.

7:30 NBC "Dr. Kildare". A doctor, obsessed with developing a mechanism to take over for three hours during open heart surgery, is accused of neglect by his ailing wife. Dr. Gillespie intervenes and tries to convince her of her husband's devotion. Pat Hingle and Diane Baxter are guest stars.

8:00 CBS "Perry Mason" is called to a broken-down mining town to investigate a fraudulent mine conspiracy and finds himself defending a grizzly old prospector accused of murder. Former light heavyweight champion Archie Moore makes an appearance in a dramatic role and Arthur Hunnicutt, Russell Collins and Kathleen Crowley are featured.

8:30 NBC "Hazel". George Baxter becomes irritated when Hazel makes him miss a golf match by interfering in his legal practice, even though her intentions were the best. COLOR.

9:00 CBS "The Nurses". A man, who attempts suicide when he finds himself unable to manage the family business firm he inherited, is brought to the hospital and is devoid of any will to live. Lee Grant, Robert Webber and Anne Meacham have leading roles in "The Gift".

Moms Should Be Absent

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —Mothers should not remain in the room when their children are undergoing dental treatment says a specialist.

Except for very small children, the young patient is more relaxed and cooperative if the mother stays in the waiting room, Dr. Walter Schwartz of Rozelle Park, N.J., said today in a paper presented at the 104th annual meeting of the American Dental Association.

"Complimenting the youngster for his good behavior efforts in the dental office will also increase his cooperation and foster his personal relationship with the dentist," Dr. Schwartz said.

Group Urges Integration

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The international convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) ended its 114th assembly by urging Christians to retain homes in integrating communities.

In a special business session late Wednesday, the assembly approved an amended resolution which urged Christians "to stand for equal opportunity in housing."

A sentence saying "racism is idolatry and segregation and discrimination on the basis of color, creed or condition are sins" set off a debate. It was deleted and replaced with this sentence. "People who sell their houses to move away from an integrated neighborhood are as bad as those who refuse to sell to persons of another race."

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — Well, we have had the International Congress of Philosophy working on all cylinders here in an effort to determine things like what is true and what isn't.

And one of the questions they got involved with was "What is the purpose of man?" There are all sorts of theories circulating around and the philosophical gentlemen from all over the world studied it carefully from every angle.

The Lady from Puebla set up an awful ruckus when I said I wanted to sit in on one of these sessions with the Men of Thought. She said I would start asking things like what did these fellows do for a living and did they lie in a hammock to contemplate the various problems of mankind?

However, I told her in a polite but firm manner that no female would give me orders and then slid out of the window on a sheet after she locked the bedroom door.

The whole business was mighty interesting and the Thinkers got up and read papers they had written on different subjects and a discussion would follow. If I had only known about this in advance, I could have written a paper on everything in general.

You start with a newspaper, for instance. The reporters have a healthy respect for the editors who are scared of the publisher's assistants who are scared of the publisher who is scared of the owner and the board of directors. Then the owner and the board would rather hear World War III had started than get a complaint from advertisers who are nervous about taxes and government controls and the government is scared of reporters finding out things here and there which might be made public. In higher mathematics, this is called a circle.

Also, the government has a certain consideration for the tax payers (at election time). But about half the citizens go fishing or watch TV on election day, being what philosophers call realists. And the other half pull the handle of a voting machine with the illusion that they are taking part in running the government.

I don't know what the Thinking Gentlemen would have said to this but maybe the Lady from Puebla is right and they would have stopped me after the first sentence.

At any rate, the Russian delegate got up and said that sometime in the distant future when capitalism was abolished (probably more accurately translated to "when we become capitalists" — I got lost somewhere) everybody could set up a world government and abolish war and a number of other enterprises.

My personal feeling on this score is that it would throw millions of soldiers, sailors and generals out of work and they probably would start cooking up revolutions to free the world from peace.

Then another fellow got up and read a long speech which boiled down to saying man is intemperate. A rough translation would be that man is short on common sense, which has never been classified as top secret.

There were speeches and counter - speeches and everything as elegant as you could imagine with the Men of Thought all wearing suits and neckties and using twenty-five dollar words when they spoke.

Education for the human race appears to be a wonderful thing, even if nothing much comes of it, because this congress and all the philosophy being handed around is reported to be very historical.

Finally everybody got together and voted that freedom was the original explanation for man's presence on the planet. Freedom and liberty answer all questions.

Now that we have this information, what do we do with it?

Get Your Gun, Paw; They're Flying In Now

LAS ANIMAS, Colo. (AP) — Rancher Ed Wilkins said it happened so fast he couldn't believe his eyes.

Two big Army helicopters swooped down over his prize watermelon patch and landed. A man bolted from each, grabbed up a melon and the copters disappeared as quickly as they came.

"I didn't even get a chance to shake my fist at them," Wilkins told a neighbor.

KIDNAPED CHILD RESCUED — Two-year-old Kelley Brilliant and her mother embrace after the girl was rescued in Oklahoma City an hour after she was kidnaped by a young man who threatened to kill her unless he got $1,800 ransom. Police wounded a young Negro when they rescued the child. The girl was abducted from her father, Henry Brilliant, while they were outside a restaurant. (AP Wirephoto)

No General Rain; So Fires Endure

CHICAGO (AP) — Prospects appeared dim today for immediate general relief from the severe drought and forest fires across wide areas in the eastern two-thirds of the naton.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Washington said the five-day forecast indicated little or no rain. It also said in its 30-day forecast extending to Nov. 15 that precipitation is expected to continue below normal in the eastern quarter of the nation, except the Southeast.

There was a ray of sunshine in the Weather Bureau's 30-day forecast. It said above average rainfall was expected in the Central section and in most areas west of the Continental Divide and seasonal rains in other parts of the country.

Hundreds of fires are burning in forestlands and woodland areas in the Northeast, with New York State the hardest hit. Fires also have burned over thousands of acres of woodlands in sections of the Midwest and South. The fires have blackened thousands of acres in more than a dozen states.

The extended spell of dry, mild weather—up to nearly two months in some parts of Indiana—has caused extensive damage to property and crops. No over-all damage estimate was available. But it was expected to total many millions of dollars.

Water supplies dwindled in many areas, including New York City and other major cities. Restrictions have been ordered in many small communities and in rural areas.

Scores of rivers and streams were at low levels. Shallow wells were reported going dry in New York State, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma and in other sections of the drought belt. Kentucky has had little or no rain in six weeks. Stockmen in the Great Plains are hauling water to livestock.

Officials in several states have ordered the closing of several forests and woodland areas. Smoking and campfires have been banned in many of the tinder-dry forestlands.

Will Shorter Work Week Solve Employment Woes?

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — With millions of people looking for jobs, why not cut the standard 40-hour work week and spread available employment?

"Not now," says President Kennedy.

"Now," says the AFL-CIO. Its proposed general cut to a 35-hour week as a solution to six years of serious unemployment will be a major topic at the AFL-CIO convention in New York next month.

Since Kennedy has consistently opposed reducing the 40-hour week, ears pricked up in labor circles when the President in his recent swing through the West said:

"This country is changing. We have had a 58-hour week, a 48-hour week and a 40-hour week. As machines take more and more of the jobs of men, we're going to find the work week reduced."

The President's remarks, in dedicating a dam at Whiskey town, Calif., were seemingly off-hand and speculation rose that he had let slip a change in his basic position.

But, in his press conference last week, Kennedy squelched the guessing by saying he had not been talking about "today or tomorrow," but about "the end of this century—perhaps sooner than that."

An administration source confirmed the President's statement was new — something beyond his usual flat "no" on the shorter work week.

And an AFL-CIO spokesman is convinced Kennedy may be movng closer to labor's view of an earlier cut.

But the fact of the approaching presidential election year is obviously escaping neither side.

A spokesman confirmed that "some kind of resolution" on the issue will come out of the convention beginning Nov. 14.

The administration is not so much opposed to shorter hours as it is to the prospect of—in the words of one Labor Department economist—"running costs of this world" in an increasingly competitive international market.

The sticking point is that the administration contends labor must take a corresponding pay cut with any hourly cut.

And this no union man will readily agree to.

The administration sticks to its position, at least for now, even in the face of latest unemployment figures that show 3.5 million Americans out of jobs while other workers are piling up an average of three hours of overtime a week.

Unemployment has been running at 5 per cent or more of the labor force since 1957. The administration, at the moment, is pinning its hopes on Kennedy's proposed tax cut legislation to encourage business, boost jobs and bring unemployment down to 4 per cent.

If a tax cut doesn't bring unemployment down to 4 per cent —and Labor Department sources decline to predict flatly that it would—a spokesman said the 1 per cent drop won't be easily achieved by other means—"not for a long time."

Contraband Whiskey 'Killed' In Practice

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Two policemen and a liquor inspector killed 76 bottles of scotch whisky Wednesday.

The scotch was contraband seized in August 1962 as it was being unloaded behind a Billings bar.

The whisky, valued at about $1,000, did not have federal or state tax stamps.

Police Capt. Ed Kilzer, Patrolman Cecil Mocabee and liquor inspector Ollie Johnson destroyed the bottles with pistol shots on the police target range.

Sailors Faced With Charges

LAREDO (AP) — Officers planned to take a pair of AWOL sailors to Austin today to face murder charges in the shooting of the father of one of the youths.

The two, both 18, are Thomas Holman of Fridky, Minn., and Leo Odis, whose father lived in Austin. They told of the shooting in statements signed before officers and newsmen Wednesday.

Young Odis' father, Charles Odis Sr., 72, was found beneath a blanket in a pasture near his home by Travis County officers acting on a tip from Laredo police. He had been shot several times with a .22 rifle.

Holman said in his statement that he and the younger Odis had been rabbit hunting Sunday, saw the slain man holding shotgun about 30 feet away and heard the safety on the gun click."

"That's when I fired," he said. "He started jumping around and making funny sounds, so I shot three more times. It was all so horrible.

"Leo was right behind me coming over a hill and he grabbed me by the shoulders and told me to get hold of myself. We dragged the body about 80 feet from where he fell and took $30 from his pocket and the car keys, then placed the blanket over him."

The two were arrested Wednesday as they crossed the international bridge back into Laredo because of suspicious behavior. Police said they told of the shooting during questioning.

Young Odis said the two escaped from the naval station at Memphis, Tenn., and hitchhiked to Austin last week.

Officers said the boys took the victim's car and left for Mexico, selling a shotgun in San Antonio and the .22 rifle at Kingsville.

Novel Will Be Published

LUBBOCK — A first novel by Mrs. Jane Gilmore Rushing of the Texas Tech English department has been accepted for publication by Doubleday Publishing Company.

Mrs. Rushing and Doubleday have announced the signing of the contract for publishing "Walnut Grove," a novel set in the early 1900's in West Texas. Date of release has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Rushing received her B. A. degree in journalism, her M. A. degree in English, and the Ph. D. degree in English from Tech in 1957.

Three years ago Mrs. Rushing gave up teaching at Tech to be at home with her small son. She began working on the book at that time.

Currently she is part time visiting assistant professor of English at Tech. Her husband, James, is a full time instructor in the English department.

Mrs. Rushing has worked as a reporter for the Abilene Reporter-News and the Snyder Daily News. Her grandparents were pioneer residents near the Sweetwater-Snyder area.

Drought Has Booster

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Farmers may not appreciate the dry weather that has lowered lake and river levels, but E. L. Brewton is happy.

Three years ago, he lost his diamond ring while fishing on Caddo Lake near here. He returned to the same spot, groped around in the mud for 30 minutes and found it.

As many as a million earthquakes occur in a year, most of them under the seas.
