Citizens Resume Efforts For Airport Improvement

City officials are renewing efforts to secure federal funding of an application already before the Federal Aviation Agency which would provide for enlargement and improvement of Marian Airport.

Mayor Bill Hatch said that city representatives have an appointment Thursday, June 8, at 1:30 p.m. with Bill Howard, chief appointments officer for the district FAA in Albuquerque.

Mayor Hatch and two members of the city council, Willie Gragson and Ralph Owens, will fly to Albuquerque Thursday morning, along with Joe Fickling, pilot.

Efforts were being made

Wednesday to secure a second plane to carry representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Lyman Daniel, president, and other spokesmen for several segments of the town's economy.

The Chamber has been a strong supporter of airport improvement.

The application before FAA asks for a grant of $480,000. Ninety percent of this would come from federal funding, while the state and city would share the remaining 10 percent of the cost.

Mayor Hatch is careful to point out that the conference with Howard may not mean early airport money, but it will put before FAA the town's need for improved airport facilities and the ways in which it is penalized by not having a modern airport.

The three city officials will point out that businesses, especially Southwestern Rail Products, Inc. must go to Childress or Shamrock to pick up business associates traveling by private plane because they cannot land on the short runway here.

They will point to the city's lack of other passenger transportation, and to the need of a modern airport for the area's health care.

City Manager Glen Taylor said that the FAA makes periodic inspections of all airports from the air, without notifying the operators in advance.

Following the last inspection here, Taylor was notified by FAA that the police radio tower, put up north of the business district, is in a direct flight line with the airport and will have to be moved.

Compared to the $480,000 funding application, when the city made its first application in December 1973, the projected cost for the same airport improvement was $380,400. The $100,000 increase reflects inflation.

If the FAA approves the project, the same engineering and environmental study can be utilized that was worked up for the 1973 application.

Demo Delegates to Discuss Farm Resolutions at WIFE Public Meeting

The Wellington WIFE Organization-Women Involved in Farm Economics have slated a public meeting in which the county's delegates to the State Democratic convention will speak.

This will be Tuesday, June 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Heritage Room, according to Mrs. David Caison, president.

The delegates will discuss the farm resolutions they hope to get adopted by the state convention.

"We would like for everyone to attend—farmers and non-farmers alike. These are county delegates, not just farm delegates," Mrs. Caison emphasized.

Delegates to the state convention are Kirby Campbell, Doug Seal and Denzil Lacy. Alternates are Charlotte Myrick, Tom Sanderson and Denzil Phipps.

Resolutions they will seek to have incorporated into the state platform call for 100 percent parity prices for all domestically consumed and exported agriculture products; 100 percent parity for all agricultural products produced for national and international food reserve programs, also that all meat and livestock imports be halted until parity beef prices are reached on the market; that all government farm programs be announced in time for farmers to make planting decisions; and that the government set up a marketing structure to handle marketing of American farm products at 100 per cent of parity.

Other farm-related resolutions ask the Democratic Party to consider rural Democrats as a legitimate minority and that they be given special representation at state and national conventions; for direct election of ASC committee members with right of recall; that the Texas Agriculture Products program be abolished and replaced with an "aggressive state agency to sell Texas products to domestic and foreign markets; and that the state inheritance tax exemption be raised from $25,000 to $200,000 to help preserve family farms.

The county group also asked that Texas pass a constitutional amendment to make it illegal for aliens to purchase or own land in Texas.

There will be plenty of time for discussion and for asking questions about these amendments, said Mrs. Caison.

DERAILED

Three Burlington Northern freight cars (above) derailed in Wellington Wednesday afternoon May 31 when old cross-ties (below left) across a waterlogged vacant lot crumbled and laid the cars over on their sides. Former railroad agent John Roberts said it was the only time a train had derailed in Wellington, although several years ago a car split a switch and ran off the tracks. It remained upright on the road bed, however, he said. Two of the cars carried wheat from Warrick's, Inc. and the third held railroad spikes from Southwestern Rail Products, Inc. The accident occurred west of Singley Mill and Elevator and the Texaco consignee depot. An engine had pulled about ten cars to near the west end of the line and had started back east when the track began to sink. A crewman said the train had come to a stop before the cars actually fell off their wheel assemblies into the ground. After the accident last week, a new rail line was laid adjacent to the old one, and the engine and upright cars were moved out. Righting of the three derailed cars was not completed until Tuesday, June 6, when the final car (below right)—full of heavy railroad spikes—was lifted above the tracks and set on its wheel assembly. The cars suffered little damage from the slow fall into the soft, muddy ground.

Probated Sentence Given In Fatal Accident Case

A Clarendon man, Goldie Calloway, was found guilty of criminally negligent homicide here Thursday, June 1, and a county court jury returned a verdict of one year in jail and fine of $250, with probation recommended.

Calloway was charged in the deaths of Roger Hart and his two sons, Clay Powell, 6 and Tylenn, four, all of Claude, in a head-on collision which occurred approximately 7 miles west of Quail on the night of December 14.

Mrs. Hart died later in an Oklahoma hospital, but her death was not included in the case here.

Charles Rittenberry, attorney for the defendant, has 10 days in which to file notice of appeal.

County attorney R.L.

Templeton was the prosecution attorney.

Criminally negligent homicide is a class A misdemeanor and is tried in county court.

It was brought out during the trial that Calloway was stopped by highway patrolmen in Donley County for driving 76.4 miles per hour in a 40 mile zone and issued a ticket for speeding.

The question had been raised at the time of his arrest as to whether Calloway was drinking, but because he was not held for driving while intoxicated by highway patrolmen in Donley County, investigating officers here had nothing on which to base a felony charge.

Calloway testified under oath during the trial that he had only one bottle of beer and that was before he left home. Patrolman Herbie Duncan headed the investigation.

County Judge Zook Thomas, who presided, explained that under current Texas law, the judge does not have the power to revoke a jury's recommendation of probation.

Calloway said he has been employed by the same farmer at Clarendon, J.C. Shields, "off and on since 1949."

The prosecution held that Calloway was negligent in operating his 1970 Buick sedan and that it crossed into the lane of traffic in which the 1969 Ford Broncho, driven by Hart, was traveling.

The defense presented testimony that the headlights which Calloway saw "come from nowhere" immediately

City Will Request FW&D to Repair Street Crossings

The city council agreed Monday evening, June 5, to ask the Fort Worth and Denver Railway to make needed repairs to street crossings in Wellington.

This action followed many complaints Mayor Bill Hatch said the city has received on the condition of the crossings and to the jolting given cars that cross them.

The first to take positive action on the rail crossing condition is Mrs. Rodell Byers, said Mayor Hatch. She has mailed a letter to the FW&D offices in Ft. Worth bearing the signatures of approximately 50 people that she obtained in the business area, Hatch reported to the council.

City Manager Glen Taylor said he has requested twice that the railroad fix the crossings and he added that he has been told that if the city does this work, and the train is involved in a wreck at a crossing, the city will be liable.

"Then let's insist that they make the repairs. We don't need to be fooling with it," Councilman Wayne Cudd told the group.

Willie Gragson, an employee of the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation, said when that department works at crossings, it must notify the railroad and list the names of those men who will be working.

Taylor told the council that the boring machine which is to be used in taking a water line under US 83 and FM 338 is here and the work should be done in a few days.

This will serve the area from the US83-FM338 intersection east to the National Guard Armory. Water users in that area are now served with a three-quarter inch line and there have been complaints of low pressure for a number of years.

A 6-inch line will be put under Highway 83, and beyond that, it will be a four-inch line. This will give adequate pressure to users on the small lines and also bring sufficient water to the swimming pool, baseball field and airport, Taylor said.

Mrs. Margaret Carroll, city secretary, and Mrs. Phyllis Killian will attend a meeting for tax assessors to be held in

Samnorwood School Adds New Personnel

Mrs. Andy Bell was hired recently by the Samnorwood School Board as migrant teacher aide, Supt. Rex Peoples announced.

Next year, the school will have the services of three instructors on a part time basis provided through the Panhandle Educational Service Center (PESO) in Amarillo, and two others through the Eastern Panhandle Co-operative (EPCO), Peoples added.

Mrs. Bell's work will be to assist children coming into the school district to adjust and become a part of the school.

For the purposes of the program, which is totally federally funded, a migratory child is defined as one belonging to migratory agricultural workers or a child who has moved with his family from one school district to another during the past year in which the parents or other member of the family may seek employment in agriculture work or in related food processing activities, Peoples explained.

It does not mean the child is from a family meeting poverty guidelines, as one whose parents moved into a district to take over a large farming or ranching operation would also qualify as migrant under this program.

Samnorwood School qualifies with 22 migrant children, most of them Anglos, Supt. Peoples said.

Mrs. Bell will attend a one-week's school in August to prepare for her work.

Through PESO, Samnorwood will have the services of Nancy Grundy, counselor; Lisa Friend, R.N., a school nurse; Sandra Henry, curriculum coordinator and librarian.

The school utilizing their services pays their travel expense. Salaries are paid by the state.

Through EPCO, Rhonda Blanchard, speech therapist, and Mrs. Jolene Wilson, special education counselor, will serve the school. They served the school during the year just ended.

Rolling Plains Stockholders Hold Meeting

Rolling Plains Production Credit Association held its 44th Annual Stockholders Meeting in Childress, Friday, April 28, and in Stamford, Saturday, April 29, with over 700 stockholders and guests attending.

Highlighting the meeting was the election of two directors, Bill H. DeBusk, Anson, for a 3-year term to replace Mack T. Claburn, retiring board chairman, and W.J. Boykin, Northfield, was re-elected for a 3-year term.

In later action, J.P. Perrin, Haskell, was elected chairman of the board and W.J. Boykin, vice-chairman. Present association officers were reappointed. Lloyd M. Blackwell, Stamford, was promoted to vice-president and Randy Arnold, Spur, assistant vice-president.

Arnold will remain as manager of the Spur Office.

R.C. Cobb, president, reported the association loaned over 70 million dollars in 1977. In his review of the statement of condition, he told stockholders that the association has capital and surplus of nearly $8 million.

Mr. Boykin, Director, in a report from the board, said "Even though farm operators are declining in number each year, the association membership continues to increase..."

Stockholders adopted a resolution in recognition of Mack T. Claburn, retiring director, for his 23 years of service on the board.

John Tower's Assistant, Chris Steed, speaking at the Childress section presented three major issues confronting congress and the administration since the first of the year: first, the problems of the agriculture industry; second, Consideration of the Panama Canal Treaties; and third, continuing work on the Administration's Energy Bill.

Congressman Bob Krueger, speaking at the Stamford section supported the American farmer. It is his opinion that additional credit may keep farmers in business on a short-term basis, but only increased prices can solve the long-range problems farmers face. He said:

"We need comprehensive planning measures incorporating not just flexible parity, which will provide higher prices, and additional credit, which will provide needed cash on hand, but also definite proposals to achieve overseas sales and equitable inspection standards for farmers who compete with foreign producers. Expansion of world trade is of paramount importance to American agriculture."

Elected to serve on the 1979 nominating committee were M.C. (Salty) Jones, Quitaque; Billie J. Holley, Paducah; Walter Heller, Lueders; John Ben Glover, Rochester; and Norman E. Hardy, McAadoo.

A barbecue lunch was served to stockholders and guests.

During his 18 years as a boxer, Gentleman Jim Corbett never had a black eye or bloody nose.

Calloway was hospitalized and his 11 year old son, who accompanied him on the night of the accident, was uninjured.

The maximum penalty which he could have received in this case was a year in jail, a fine not to exceed $2,000 or both.

Calloway said on the stand he is a widower and has 12 children. With him in court were three daughters, one a director of nursing service at an Amarillo convalescent center; another a teacher in Lubbock; and the third a college student. Ag Group Protests Planting Directive

Bob Weatherly, county ASCS executive, spoke before a group of American Agriculture supporters Monday night, June 5, explaining a USDA directive which some believe would penalize them on the disaster part of the farm program.

These farmers hold that they will be penalized on their prevented planting payment if they cannot plant cotton by June 20, but do plant milo or another approved crop on cotton ground.

Some also say they have Treflan down on their cotton land and could not plant milo.

The directive was received by the ASCS office Wednesday, May 31, from Weldon Denny, deputy administrator for state and county operations, USDA.

Some farmers are calling Denny, and Dudley Phipps, an American ag supporter, was reported to have received a call from Denny's office Wednesday morning.

Additional farmers plan to phone Denny's office during the remainder of this week. Others say they are going ahead with cotton planting as soon as fields are dry enough to get into hoping to finish by the June 20 date.

Denzil Lacy summed up the feelings of many of the approximately 50 farmers present by saying that the state and local ASCS are doing what they can do and the problem definitely is in Washington.

Poerner Leads Sadler 8 to 1 for RR Place

County Democrats gave John Poerner 171 votes for Texas Railroad Commissioner, to 20 for his opponent, Jerry Sadler in the second primary election Saturday, June 3. This was a better than 8 to 1 margin.

This was the only race on which Collingsworth voters had to make a decision.

Voting was in two boxes, the first floor of the Collingsworth County courthouse and the other at the American Legion Hall in Dodson.

Only three absentee votes were cast, according to Mrs. John Coleman, Democratic County Chairman.

Cemetery Group Plans Improvements

Wellington Cemetery Association board discussed equipment replacement and fund raising at a board meeting Monday, June 5.

The board agreed to buy a new hand lawn mower, to replace parts and overhaul riding lawn mowers, and to buy a new blade for a shredder.

The board also discussed laying a water line and three faucets to the northeast portion of North Fairview Cemetery which is currently without water.

The board also plans to pave streets in North Fairview Cemetery this summer.

"All of these projects require money," Mrs. Edith Lacy, secretary, said, "and we want to remind contributors that we need their donations as much as ever this year. The more rain we have, the more weeds we have and the more expense we have, especially in the older areas of the cemeteries where work between curbing must be done by hand."

"We have a special paving fund at Wellington State Bank and we will be needing extra money to pave North Fairview streets this summer," Mrs. Lacy said. "Anyone wishing to designate his contribution to the paving program may do so," she said.

Jake Leach is cemetery association president. He was elected after Willie Gragson resigned the post when he was elected to the City Council. Mrs. Jennie Holcomb is the treasurer and Mrs. Lacy, secretary.

Information Sought On County Schools

Mrs. John Simpson of Lutie is seeking information about a number of small rural schools which were consolidated into the Samnorwood District.

A teachers' aide at Samnorwood School, she hopes to compile her information into a history. If there is enough interest, she plans to have this published in book form. The completeness of the history will depend on the number of people who respond with information on those small schools, Mrs. Simpson reminds.

She needs information about these: Needwood, Nicholson, Lutie, Aberdeen, Lone Mound, Ella, Roundup, Elm Valley, China Grove, Hackberry and Pleasant Mound.

She has available material on the schools at Seale, Abra, Dozier, Plymouth, and Enterprise, and some material about Prairie View. A complete history of Enterprise School was written by Mrs. Clyde Magee of McLean last year.

Seven schools consolidated to form Samnorwood Rural High School District which opened in 1934. Seven others were added from time to time until World War II.

Ella School became a part of the Shamrock district and Pleasant Point part of the McLean district, but because of their geographical location, they are included in Mrs. Simpson's studies.

She has sent a letter to all Samnorwood ex-students ask-

Darter and Schaub Attend Boys State

The thirty-eighth annual American Legion Boys State sponsored by the State of Texas American Legion, and held on the Campus of The University of Texas, got under way today as 920 high school boys from all parts of Texas, and two from Mexico, began registration, State Commander, Harvey Holcomb of Odessa, announced.

Among those registering from Wellington were Charles Wade Darter, Jr. and Lowry Paul Schaub who were sponsored by local American Legion Posts.

Darter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darter, while Schaub's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schaub of Lurie. Following registration, each citizen was assigned to one of two political parties—the Nationalist or Federalist. Each citizen then functions as a member of his party, he attends its precinct, county and state convention and votes in its primary.

Boys State helps to develop civic leadership and pride in American citizenship. This program arouses a keen interest in the detailed study of our government. These civic workshops stress the importance of maintaining our form of government and brings about a better understanding of our national traditions and beliefs to the more than 28,000 young men throughout the nation who are participating this year.

In Boys State, The American Legion provides the type of program where the young citizen has an opportunity to learn for himself that his government is just what he makes it. The boy "learns to do by doing."

The program takes on added significance since the vote has been extended to 18 year olds, as most Boys Staters are in the 16 to 17 age category.

Highlight of Boys State will be a trip to the Capitol on Tuesday morning where each elected Boys State Official will be given the opportunity to serve in his respective office for a day.

Texas Boys State enrollment this year brings the total to 21,959 high school juniors who have attended since 1940, when Boys State was first inaugurated in this state.

Hall to Attend Electric Workshop

Eddie Hall, Wellington High School member of Future Farmers of America, has been selected to attend Southwestern Public Service Company's 16th annual Farm Electrification Workshop.

More than 100 FFA members and leaders will attend the workshop to be held June 12, 13, and 14 at the Episcopal Conference Center in Amarillo.

The FFA members who come from Texas and New Mexico, will be competing for five trips to the National FFA Convention at Kansas City, Mo. Thirteen hours of instruction are offered in each of three subjects, Farm Motors, Farm Wiring, and Electric Controls. Two students from the Wiring and Motor courses and one from the controls course are selected as outstanding and receive the trips to Kansas City for their accomplishment. Each student who finishes the course he is enrolled in is awarded a certificate. Alternates are selected in each course in the event the winner is unable to attend the convention.

Heading the staff of instructors at the workshop are Ken Pollard, Texas A&M Agricultural Engineering Department—Electric Controls; Bobby Browning, Texline-Farm Wiring; Don Ham, Dalhart-Farm Wiring; Frank Kennedy, Vega-Farm Motors; and Jay Eudy, Turkey-Farm Motors. Kennedy was an ag instructor at Quail 18 years.

The program for the conference was coordinated by Walter Labay, Area 1 Vocational Agriculture Supervisor, and Sam Thomas, SPS Agriculture Development Manager. Glenn Bickel, SPS Power Sales Engineer, will moderate the general sessions.

Fielding to Play in Texas All-Star Game

North Garland High School senior pitcher-first baseman Tim Fielding, one of the top contributors to the Raiders' drive for the District 10-AAAA baseball title this spring, has been selected to play in the yearly North-South Texas High School All-Star contest this summer.

The prestigious game, which is sponsored each year by the Texas High School Coaches' Association, will be held at the Astrodome in Houston on Saturday, June 17.

Performers from around the state are picked each year to compete in the contest, as Fielding will be a member of the pitching staff for the North squad.

"I think Tim is well deserving of the honor," stated Raider Coach David Robbins. "He personally did a lot to deserve it, and he also had the support of his teammates, since he had a winning season."

Over the past two years, Fielding compiled a 21-3 overall record as a pitcher for North Garland. The senior lefthander hurled 84 innings during the 1977 season and three 94 frames in his final campaign. For his 178 innings of work, he recorded 234 strikeouts and a two-year earned run average of 1.15.

This past spring, Fielding was named as the Outstanding Player in District 10-AAAA, after registering an 8-1 pitching record and a .455 batting average.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford and the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fielding. Mr. and Mrs. Langford attended his graduation Saturday, June 3. He is an "A" honor student.

Debbie Morris Wins National Oratorical

Debbie Morris of Lawton, Oklahoma has won the National American Legion Oratorical Contest in Klamath Falls, Ore. and an $8,000 scholarship.

She is the daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Alton D. Morris and the granddaughter of Mrs. Isla Mae Morris of Wellington.

The 17-year-old high school senior pocketed $650 earlier in state and sectional contests leading to the national competition. She competed against three other sectional contest winners at the national contest.

"The Constitution: Parent to a Young Democracy" was the title of her prize-winning speech in the 41st annual competition. She also spoke extemporaneously on the electoral college.

Debbie's coach, Eisenhower High School forensics teacher Jules Rawles, said "Working with Debbie is an honor. She is one of those rare students who can combine dedication, ability, personality and selflessness. I am proud of her accomplishments and pleased to see her receive the

"She is an outstanding student. It is quite an honor for Eisenhower High School to have Debbie as a member of our senior class. Throughout this year and last year she has brought not only state, but now national recognition to her school," said Jerry Moon, EHS principal.

Morris is the first girl to win the contest since 1962.

Hitchhiker Held for N.J.

A hitchhiker wanted in New Jersey for breaking and entering (burglary) was arrested on US 83 at Lutie about 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 31, by Patrolman Herbie Duncan and Deputy Sheriff Julian Torrez.

The man, identified as Frank Martin, 20, signed extradition papers and was held in Collingsworth County jail until New Jersey officers flew to Amarillo for him, Duncan said.

The sheriff's department was notified by a Lutie area woman that the man was flashing a reflector at cars in an attempt to get them to stop. The woman who called officers said she almost ran over him and was frightened by the incident.

Duncan said a check showed he had served a sentence in a New Jersey prison for possession of marijuana with intent to sell.

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Marked by Mr., Mrs. Yarbrough

When Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yarbrough chose to make their home in the state-line area, upon their marriage May 18, 1918, they were following the footsteps of his father and uncle, who worked on ranches in the area as early as the 1890s.

They have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, and they still live on the land where they established farming and ranching operations.

In honor of their anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough were honored at a small reception Sunday, May 21, for relatives, fellow church members and early neighbors.

Their three daughters and sons-in-law were hosts at the Heritage Room: Mr. and Mrs. Hiram (Exa) Cudd of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. (Audie) Carter of Amarillo, and Mrs. Audrey Johnson of Albuquerque, N.M. Three of the five grandchildren were present, along with two of the five great grandchildren.

The reception table was laid with a white linen cloth, enhanced with lace inserts. Crystal and silver appointments were used. Mrs. Dennis Cudd served the anniversary cake and Miss Cindy Carter of Amarillo poured. Both are granddaughters.

Dennis Cudd, a grandson, recorded the event with pictures and Dennis Cudd II was at the guest register. Earl Hilliard Yarbrough was the name sake of his grandfather, John Hilliard Yarbrough, an early settler of Erath County.

When Earl Yarbrough came to Collingsworth County, he followed in the family tradition of farming and ranching.

His father, R. Tom Yarbrough, had come in the 1890s from Erath County to work for the J-Buckle Ranch near Reed, one of the famed ranches of Old Greer County, Texas.

After two or three years, he returned to Erath.

Tom Yarbrough's brother, John P. Yarbrough sought grassland when he left Erath for the Panhandle. He worked for the Rocking Chair Ranch and later established his own ranch in the Dodson area. Part of his land is now a portion of Earl Yarbrough's Ranch.

Born in Erath County January 8, 1898, Earl Yarbrough attended school at Mrs. Yarbrough, the former Mabel Ann Peters, was born at Dixie, Indian Territory, October 15, 1898. In 1900, the family moved to the Madge area, at the time it was released for homesteading. The original homestead land is now owned by her brother, Vernon Peters.

She was educated at Union Grove and Mangum High School.

This couple did much to help in the development of Shinnery community. He served on the school board as long as his children attended Shinnery school, the 1920s and through the 1930s. During this period, a new brick school was built, which served until the school was consolidated with Wellington.

Nan Therese Fidler Marries Alan Hannush in Church Rites

St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Amarillo was the setting for the wedding of Miss Nan Therese Fidler and Alan L. Hannush Monday, May 15, at seven in the evening. The Reverend Leo Gee officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Fidler, 5507 Emil, Amarillo, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scarberry of Wellington. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hannush of Brighton, Michigan.

For her wedding, the bride wore a lace-trimmed formal white wedding gown, designed with an empire waistline and high neck. Fullness accented the skirt back which swept to a chapel train. Her tiered veil, edged in lace, was held by a fitted lace headpiece.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. James Ellis of Amarillo. Bridesmaids were sisters of the couple, Miss Cynthia Lynn Fidler of Amarillo and Miss Colleen Hannush of Brighton, Michigan. Kelly Lynn Scarberry of Snyder was the flower girl, and Lea Ann Scarberry of Snyder was ring bearer.

The best man was Larry Goodknight of Amarillo, and groomsmen who also served as ushers, were Daryl Johnson of Amarillo, and Andrew Hannush of Brighton, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride attended Amarillo College and is employed at St. Anthony's Hospital. The bridegroom attended the University of Michigan and is presently a manager trainee at Skaggs Drug Co., Amarillo.

Keep Unwanted Guests From Picnics This Spring

COLLEGE STATION--Keep spring picnics a happy occasion by preventing unwanted guests--Sal, Staph and C.P.--from going along.

These nicknamed guests--salmonella, staphylococcus and Clostridium perfringens bacteria-- have the ability to wreck a good picnic with food-borne illness, explains Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Follow these guidelines to keep these harmful bacteria under control:

--When carrying foods on a picnic, use supplemental cold such as ice or reusable cold packs to keep cold food below 40 degrees F.

--Do not place food in ice unless the ice is clean or the food is in a plastic bag or other protective container.

--Keep hot food hot in a closed insulated container such as an extra ice chest.

--The bacteria grow best at temperatures between 40 and 140 degrees F., so don't keep foods at these temperatures for more than one to two hours. As soon as the picnic meal is eaten, return leftovers to the container at 40 degrees F.

--Use frozen slices of bread and fillings chilled at 40 degrees F. or below.

Wrap sandwiches tightly in a plastic film wrapper and place in a picnic cooler where they will stay cold.

--Do not prepare or purchase freshly prepared picnic foods more than 24 hours in advance.

Supper for Mrs. Tate

Members of the Business Women's Sunday School Class recently held a going-away party for Mrs. Emma Tate, who moved to Panhandle.

The entertainment, a salad supper, was held in the home of Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson in Lillie community.

A gift was presented to the honoree and time after the supper was spent in visiting.

Attending were Mrs. Pearl Harwell, Mrs. Doc Turner, Mrs. Marie Harper, Miss Myra Hays, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. Violet Potter, Mrs. E.P. Haynie, Mrs. Jack Ford, Mrs. Tate and the hostess, Mrs. Wilson.

Association of Ws Hears Director of Girl Scouts

Mrs. Margaret Rion Girl Scout director, was guest speaker at the Association of Ws Monday, June 5.

Wellington members of the Ws have become concerned about changes made in the Girl Scouting program, especially in regard to sex education and views on abortion.

We are concerned over the appointment of Betty Friedan to the National Board of Directors of Girl Scouts, and of her possible influence on the philosophies of Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Rion reviewed the Scouting purposes which are to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism and service.

She explained that this was done through the Girl Scout program by informational educational activities.

Mrs. Farris Wood, a leader in the Association of Ws here, explained that Betty Friedan is known as the mother of the women's liberation movement, as author of "The Feminine Mystique," and co-signer of the "Humanist Manifesto II," which Mrs. Wood said denies the existence of God and endorses abortion and homosexuality.

"Every pro-lifer who is concerned about young people should read 'A Review of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America,'" said Mrs. Wood.

Mrs. Rion acknowledged to the Wellington group that Mrs. Friedan and other feminists are on the Girl Scout Board but said she didn't think their philosophy would infiltrate into Girl Scout activities.

where a fixed temperature device would sound an alarm.

Use Heat Detectors to Supplement Smoke Detectors

Use heat detectors only as a supplement to residential smoke detectors--not as the sole method of early warning fire detection in the home, advises a consumer information specialist.

These types of fire detectors differ in their reaction time to the different stages of a fire, explain Claudia Kerbel with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

SMOKE DETECTORS

Smoke detectors require only that smoke trigger the alarm as it passes over the unit.

Smoke reveals the presence of fire much sooner than heat does, she continues.

In addition, smoke detectors respond to a broad spectrum of fires and sound an early warning in a high percentage of cases.

These devices are best installed between the sleeping area and the rest of the house, the specialist says.

HEAT DETECTORS

There are two types of heat detectors.

The first type is called a fixed temperature device. It sounds an alarm when the temperature of the air reaches about 135 degrees F.

The other type is called a rate of rise detector. This type of unit does not have a pre-chosen setting, rather it sounds an alarm when the temperature rises at a rate faster than the rate expected to occur under normal conditions.

Rate of rise detectors are best installed where heating and cooking units exist, Ms. Kerbel points out.

They are useful in an attic where summer temperatures may reach 135 degrees F.

Mr., Mrs. Rufus Hayes Observe 50th Anniversary in Ft. Worth

During a visit to Ft. Worth recently, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hayes celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

This may be something of a surprise to many who know them, for those who see Mr. Hayes so active as Wellington's barber of longest tenure never think of him as being old enough for a golden wedding.

Hosts for the celebration were a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hayes, in whose home they were visiting.

Joining them were another son, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hayes and her mother, Mrs. Edna Patton of Childress, and her granddaughter, Michelle McGowan of Henrietta.

Their daughter, Mrs. Charles (Frances) Richardson of Panhandle was unable to attend.

Others having a part in the celebration were granddaughters Debra Hayes of Bowie and Kitty Earl Hayes of Dallas and also Mrs. Earl Peters, formerly of Wellington.

Pictures were taken to record the event.

In the afternoon anniversary cake was served by Miss Kitty Hayes and punch by Miss McGowan.

Mr. Hayes began barbering in Wellington in the mid-1920s as soon as he graduated from Amarillo Barber College. Now he is cutting the hair of grandchildren, and in some instances great grandchildren, of early customers. At first, he worked for other barbers, then not long after he and Mrs. Hayes were married, he acquired a shop of his own, on the east side of the square. For many years, his present shop has been on the north side.

At first going to the barber shop for a shave as well as a hair cut was a common practice with many men. This is rarely done anymore.

He has witnessed many changes in the styles of men's haircuts. For a number of years before beauty shops came along, women who had daringly bobbed their hair went to their husband's barber to get it cut.

The depression years of the 1930s changed many things in barber shops. Men got out their straight edge razors and razor straps and shaved at home. In some instances women learned to cut their husband's hair.

Mr. Hayes adjusted to this situation by getting a job hoeing cotton or doing other farm work through the week and opening his barber shop for the weekends.

In that period, shaves were 15 cents and a haircut about 50.

Mr. Hayes acquired land and continued to combine farming and ranching with barbering until a short time ago.

Mrs. Hayes has devoted her time to her home.

Both are active members of the Church of Christ.

Although he was born at Royce City, Rockwall County, in 1901, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes, the family moved to Vinson in 1902, and that is where Rufus Hayes grew up. Mrs. Hayes is the former Alpha Mae Stallings, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Stallings, and grew up at Dublin, in Erath County.

The couple married May 14, 1928, at Stephenville and came directly to Wellington. They have lived in no other town.

Besides the three children, their 5 grandchildren are Don

After a short wedding trip to their cabin in New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Millington, Tennessee, where the groom is stationed with the United States Navy.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Palo Duro High School in Amarillo.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Patton and R.J. Patton of Denver, Colorado, Ben Laxson of Millington, Tenn., and minister and Mrs. P.M. Cousins of Skellytown.

The bride and groom were feted with several events preceding the wedding. A bridal shower with Miss Linda Lambert and Mrs. Rhonda Smith as hostesses was given on May 9. On May 25th, the ladies of the Church of Christ at North Seminole honored the bridal couple with a miscellaneous shower. About 30 guests were in attendance.

Learn Water Conservation

It is wise to learn how to conserve nature's precious supply of fresh water, says Linda McCormack, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

To become a better manager of water resources, says the specialist, follow these suggestions:

Install flow control devices in showers--or limit your shower to two minutes or less.

Check faucets for drips. Make repairs promptly. These problems get worse--not better.

Place a quart plastic (not glass) bottle filled with water in your toilet flush tank to save one quart of water per flush.

Don't use a brick since the particles could damage valves.

Adjust the float level of the toilet to reduce the amount of water necessary to flush the toilet.

Wash only full loads in the washing machine and full loads in the dishwasher.

Turn off water while you shave, brush teeth, wash your face, etc.

Reduce the use of garbage disposals--peel vegetables, fruits and eggs on newspaper or use food waste as garden compost.

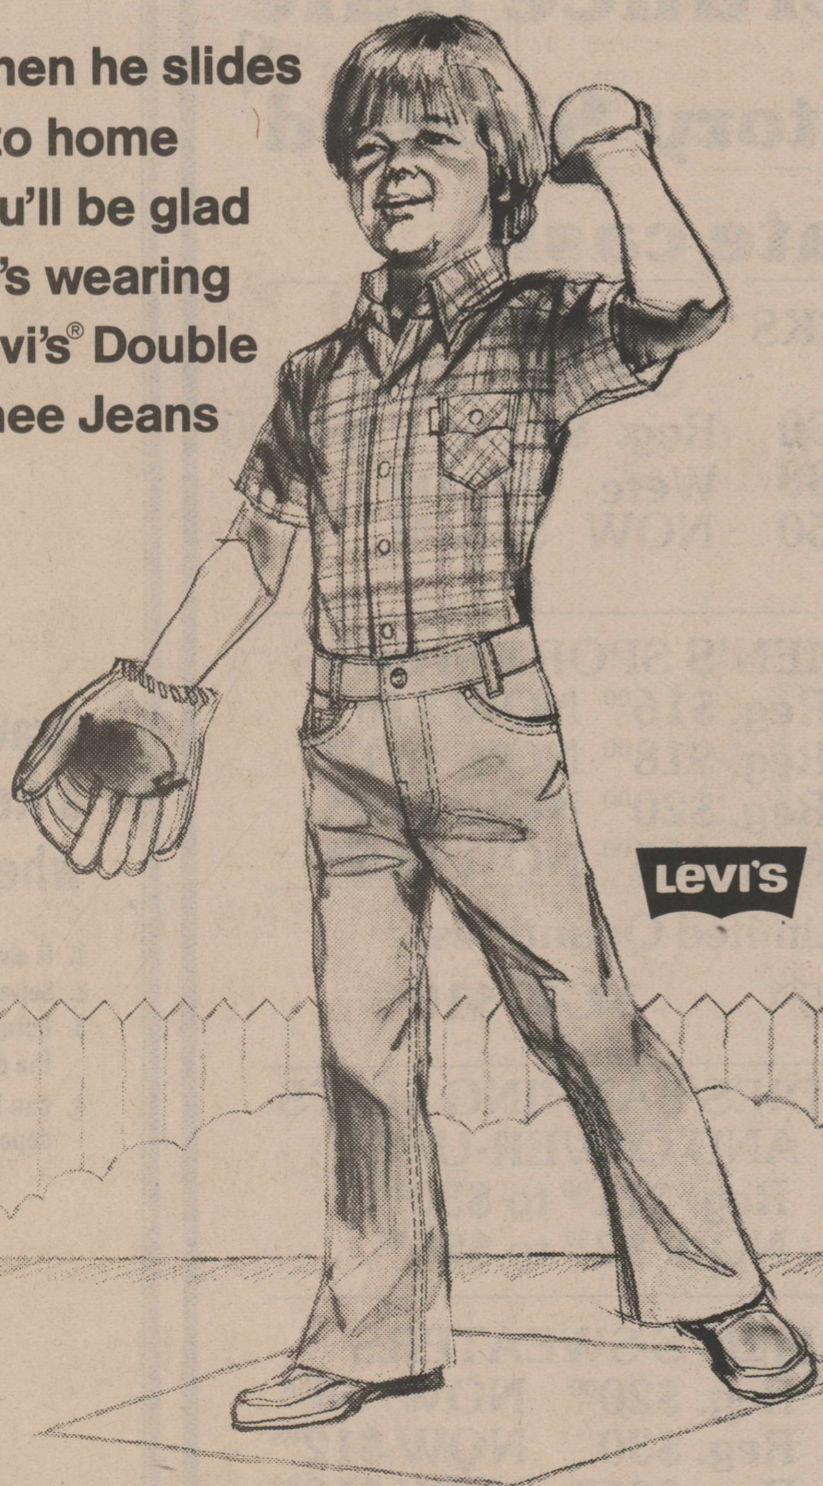

Use a bucket of sudsy water to wash the car. Hose down only as a final rinse.

Use a broom--not the hose--to clean the garage, the sidewalks and the driveway.

Wipe up spills as they occur to avoid frequent mopping.

We are using about 60 gallons of water per person per day. So far, water shortages are only local or regional, but the problem may become national, the specialist says.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Federal expenditures in Texas came to $20.2 billion, or $1,651 for every person in the state, during the last state budget year.

Comptroller Bob Bullock calculated the outlays increased 14 percent over the previous fiscal year, when they totaled $17.7 billion or $1,446 per person.

Overall, Bullock said 5.1 percent of all federal spending during the 1977 U.S. fiscal year went into Texas—an increase of 4.9 percent over 1976.

As usual, the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare accounted for the biggest chunk of federal spending in the state—about $6.8 billion.

The HEW outlays were up 19 percent in Texas, primarily because of increased social security benefits, an increase in medical assistance grants and higher Medicare costs.

Department of Defense spending also increased, by 13 percent to $6.35 billion, and Department of Agriculture spending jumped 19 percent.

Texas retained its 35th place ranking among all states and the District of Columbia in per capita federal funds obtained.

Bullock said state governmental revenues totaled $597 million in January, boosting total income for the current fiscal year to $2.96 billion, a 14 percent increase over the first five months of fiscal 1977.

Spending through January came to $3.34 billion, an increase of 17 percent over last year.

Duval Boils Again

Secretary of State Steve Oaks launched an investigation of allegations that welfare money and county property had been offered for absentee votes in Duval County.

Oaks, after conferring with law enforcement officers and witnesses in the politically-turbulent area, told reporters that amounts the equivalent of $15 to $25 had been offered for votes in the runoff election. He said road surfacing materials were mentioned as county property involved in the vote bribery allegations.

"I have formed no conclusions," Oaks said after his first visit to interrogate witnesses. "It is appropriate for a grand jury to form conclusions. . . . The investigation is ongoing. There is nothing of more urgency or greater priority to this office. . . ."

Counties Troubled

House Speaker Bill Clayton is surveying Texas counties on the extent of their increasing economic hardship due to indigent patients in public hospitals.

Many people who are not eligible for Medicaid, the state program of medical assistance to the poor, still are not able to pay their medical bills, Clayton noted in a recent newspaper column.

In many cases, public hospitals are caring for residents of other counties which do not maintain hospital facilities.

"The magnitude of the problems is increasing rapidly, and I feel that in the next session of the legislature we will see legislation introduced which will attempt to solve these problems," said Clayton.

The speaker has sent questionnaires to the counties asking them to evaluate the problem, describe their policies for dealing with indigent patients and to recommend solutions to the problem.

Four Wellington roque players stand on the court in Ellison Park in the 1930's. Roque is a form of croquet in which a wooden or concrete curb is used to bank shots. During the '30's tournaments were organized and the game enjoyed widespread popularity here. The curbs of two roque courts are still visible in the park, just east of the present-day volleyball court.

A Voice Speaks Out in Behalf Of Improved Airport Facilities

Wellington's voice will be heard distinctly Thursday by the Federal Aviation Agency in Albuquerque as a group of our men ask for approval of federal funding to improve Marian Airpark.

They will speak for the business community as well as other segments of Wellington's economic life.

Twice earlier we have failed to act when funding was available. Many who want airport improvement believe that if we do not act now, the offer will not come again.

The inadequacy of Marian Airpark becomes more apparent. Consider these:

Southwestern Rail Products, Inc., is pumping around a million dollars a year into the Wellington economy. Yet every time that industry has business visitors arriving by air, someone has to pick them up at the Childress or Shamrock airports because our 2450 foot runway is too short for any twin-engine plane.

Four times in the last month, we are told, Amarillo attorneys wanted to fly to Wellington to save time. They had to settle for the two-hour drive because our runway would not accommodate their planes.

These are recent instances we know about. No one in Wellington knows about those decisions not to come here at all. They are made in distant places.

Any more industry Wellington gets is going to add its voice to demands for a better airport. Our own people are pointing out that they can fly to Dallas or Austin or Houston, conduct business and return the same day.

The county's health care system presents a growing need. The Volunteer Ambulance service can take a patient to Amarillo almost as quickly as the PEMS helicopter can be readied, come here and take that patient back to Amarillo. True.

But what about the desperately ill patient going to Dallas, Houston, San Antonio or some other distant city?

The City Council was told Monday night that Metropolitan Ambulance Service in Amarillo is preparing to convert its ambulance plane to twin-engine models. This is a trend.

The program under which Wellington seeks airport improvement totals $480,000—just short of half a million. Ninety percent of the funding would come from federal sources, and the remaining 10 percent split evenly between the state and city.

In December 1973, when the City of Wellington made its first application for the same program, the figure was $380,400. We aren't asking for anything more now. We are looking at $100,000 in inflation.

There is no indication this will become less.

Other Editors Say . . .

Laugh But Not Too Loud

At first blush the state Pink Bollworm Commission seems to be a classic useless agency. In fact, the Sunset Commission has recommended that the Legislature abolish it next year.

But the bollworm panel once was useful. It was created in 1917 in response to an infestation of Texas cotton fields by the varminths.

The bollworm commission would quarantine infested cotton fields. And a sister agency, the Compensation Claims Board, which was abolished in 1975, would reimburse farmers for destroying the infested cotton.

Through these efforts and others, the impact of the pest was reduced. And new agricultural technology helped eradicate the threat altogether.

But the Pink Bollworm Commission held its last substantive meeting in 1945.

So while we city slickers may snicker at the exotic name of the commission and its longevity, we shouldn't overdo it. The panel's contribution to the state's agricultural economy was significant. May the commission rest in peace—and with a little respect, too, please.

Mrs. O.B. Wilson Visits 5 States

Mrs. O.B. Wilson visited recently with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyer and family at Dallas for a week.

She then went on to Houston where she was the guest of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Burlin Wilson.

They traveled through 5 states, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma.

Near Nachitoches, La., they visited Hodges Gardens. In Hot Springs, Ark., they went on two bus tours where a highlight was a visit to the Wax Museum.

Mrs. Wilson said that during their visit to Eureka Springs, Ark., they saw the Pine Mountain jamboree and went through a German-built museum, then saw the Christ of the Ozarks.

Branson, Missouri, was their next stop, and they toured the beautiful Southwest Missouri Ozarks. This is the setting for the "Shepherd of the Hills" drama.

The Burlin Wilsons also visited her here recently, and two of Mrs. B.V. Wilson's brothers joined them: Mr. and Mrs. Buster Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Sunday Bill Smith. Both men grew up here.

Mrs. Don Wheeler Here For Brief Visit in Area

Mrs. Don Wheeler of Lee, Mass., was in Wellington early this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson and to see friends.

She had come to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mineus Jackson of Woodward, Oklahoma.

An electrical engineer, Alta Wheeler works for General Electric Ordnance Systems at Pittsfield, Mass. GE is the contractor for the guidance system and fire control for Poseidon and Trident missile systems.

The work involves her with operational support.

Wheeler is employed by the Wall Street Journal, at Chicopee, Mass., where the eastern edition is published. His work frequently takes him to other publication points across the country.

They have three children: Laurie, who was born here, after a year in college, joined the staff of Berkshire Hills Men's Shop in Pittsfield; Carol, who completed a year at David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tenn., and is presently working in Lafayette, Indiana; and Johnny, who will be a senior in high school next year. Carol plans to attend classes at Purdue.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler worked for The Wellington Leader before moving to El Paso. They attended Texas Western University.

Hair Stylists At Design Show

Five Wellington hair stylists attended a hair design show in Amarillo Sunday, June 4.

"Breakthru '78" presented new hair fashion ideas by international designers.

Attending from here were Sue Seale, Lometa Black, Jackie Wilkerson, Becky Skelton and Nancy Lindsey.

Quail Seniors Visit Points In Colorado

Immediately after commencement Friday evening, May 26, seven Quail seniors, with their sponsor and class parents, left on their trip to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colorado.

At Colorado Springs, they visited the Air Force Academy, Cave of the Winds, Royal Gorge, the zoo and Lazy Q. Ranch dinner theatre.

A visit to the Colorado Museum of Natural History was the high point of their visit to Denver. From there, they went to Central City, an old mining town which retains much the appearance it had in 1880.

They visited the historic Teller House Hotel and saw the Face on the Barroom Floor.

Making the trip were Russ Mangum, Karen Caldwell, Ralph Fielding, Melissa Guthrie, Barbara Needham, Harvey Oatman and Creselia Torrez; their sponsor, Tommy Thornhill; and class parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mangum.

Don Reeves Gets Masters Degree at WT

Don Reeves, extension agent for Collingsworth County received his master's degree in agriculture from West Texas State University at the commencement recently.

Most of his work was done by commuting from Wellington.

Reeves thesis was related to the use of Love Grass.

Reeves has served as a county agent 12 years, nine and one-half of these in Collingsworth County. Prior to coming here, he was an assistant agent for two and one-half years in Washington County, living at Brehman.

SERVICE TO HER COMMUNITY

Mrs. Zook Thomas was honored Thursday, June 1 at the 12th annual meeting of Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation in Amarillo "for devoted and faithful service to her community in all human service programs."

Mrs. Zook Thomas Cited at Community Action Anniversary

Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation celebrated its 12th anniversary Thursday, June 1 in Amarillo and a Wellington woman was among those honored at the meeting.

Mrs. Zook Thomas received a certificate for her contributions to human service programs during the years Judge Zook Thomas has been active in regional and state programs. Executive Director Argus Burnett told the gathering of over 400 that Mrs. Thomas has spent countless hours traveling and sitting through meetings with her husband in order to help the underprivileged in Collingsworth County. But Burnett said that the effects of their efforts were not limited to Collingsworth County. The entire Texas Panhandle has benefitted because of them, he said. Thomas served as president of the board of directors of TPCAC in 1974-75. He also has served on the state Manpower board and other committees which have helped poor people across the area.

William W. Allison, deputy director, Community Services Administration, Washington, D.C. was the keynote speaker. He reviewed the beginning of the Community Services Administration, known then as OEO, as a dream of John Kennedy's that Lyndon Johnson brought to fruition—the idea of attacking the roots of the nation's poverty with a unified government effort. Allison said the idea was something new to this country.

Allison also reviewed the Nixon years when that administration tried to kill the OEO program and succeeded in crippling it. Allison said the program still has many problems left over from those years.

But Allison said there have been many successes, too. The Head Start program which gives disadvantaged children help before they begin school now has a larger budget than the entire Community Services Administration. Head Start was an idea that started in the old OEO.

And the weatherization program that OEO started as an experiment with poor people in Maine has been so successful that the Department of Energy is now prepared to fund it into a large-scale national program.

Allison said. Nine hundred community action agencies (such as the one located at the old Cicero Smith Lumber Yard building on East Avenue) help old and poor people across the United States, Allison said.

As for the future, Allison said President Carter has given administrators three years to turn the program around. He said Nixon did not succeed in abolishing the program, but did succeed "in abusing and using it for political purposes that had nothing to do with the original purposes of OEO."

"Many of the best people left in those years, and when I went to Washington I was not proud of the situation I found. But after one year we are in the final stages of reorganization, and I'm convinced we can do it." Allison closed with a reminder that CSA programs "are not a hand-out, but a hand up," reiterating Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation's slogan, "Helping People Help Themselves."

Attending from Collingsworth County were Mr. and Mrs. Buck Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Henard, Jr., Mrs. Zook Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lowe, Mrs. Edwardo Aguilar, Mrs. Tommy Lou Thompson, Mrs. Jimmie Sessions, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burba, Betty Burba, Henry Wells, Mrs. Ida Bee Outley, Mrs. Edna Benton, Mrs. Ruby Swift, Miss Twanna Benton, Miss Rita Schrubbs, Ray Schrubbs and Thomas Sterling.

"Necessity does the work of courage," George Eliot.
