Bulldogs Overpower Sands Mustangs 66-7

The Loraine Bulldogs scored on the first play from scrimmage against Sands Friday night and they continued to dominate the Mustangs before the home-town crowd in Loraine.

Michael Jones took the ball on a hand-off from Quarterback Eddie Merket and threw a 78-yard pass to Isha Williams for the touchdown. Eddie Merket ran the PAT, making the score 8-0 on the first play.

The Bulldogs went on to score 22 points in the first quarter, adding 14 more in the 2nd quarter, making the score 36-0 at half-time. The score was 50-0 at the end of the 3rd quarter and 66-7 at the end of the game.

Scoring went like this: Jones to Williams, 78 yard pass, Merket ran the PAT; Rose 30 yard run, Jones ran PAT; Jones 6 yard run, no PAT; Garcia 6 yard run, Lucas ran the PAT; Dave Williams 4 yard run, no PAT; Merket to Jones, 72 yard pass, no PAT; Williams 38 yard return of a pass interception, Jones ran the PAT; Sands 2nd 6 yard run, Canto kicked the PAT; Jones 7 yard run, Jones ran the PAT; Jones 78 yard run, Jones ran the PAT.

Mustangs Slip By Wolves

The Colorado City Wolves were in position to score three times Friday night but were able to score only three points in a defensive struggle with the Sweetwater Mustangs who won 10-3.

Neither team was able to generate sustained offensive drives because of the stubborn defensive efforts by the other team. The game started with Sweetwater receiving the kick-off. They were unable to pick up the first down and had to punt. The punt was blocked after the punter got a bad punt from center. The Wolves took the ball on the Sweetwater 38 and drove to the 10 yard line but on fourth down and two, the Wolves fumbled.

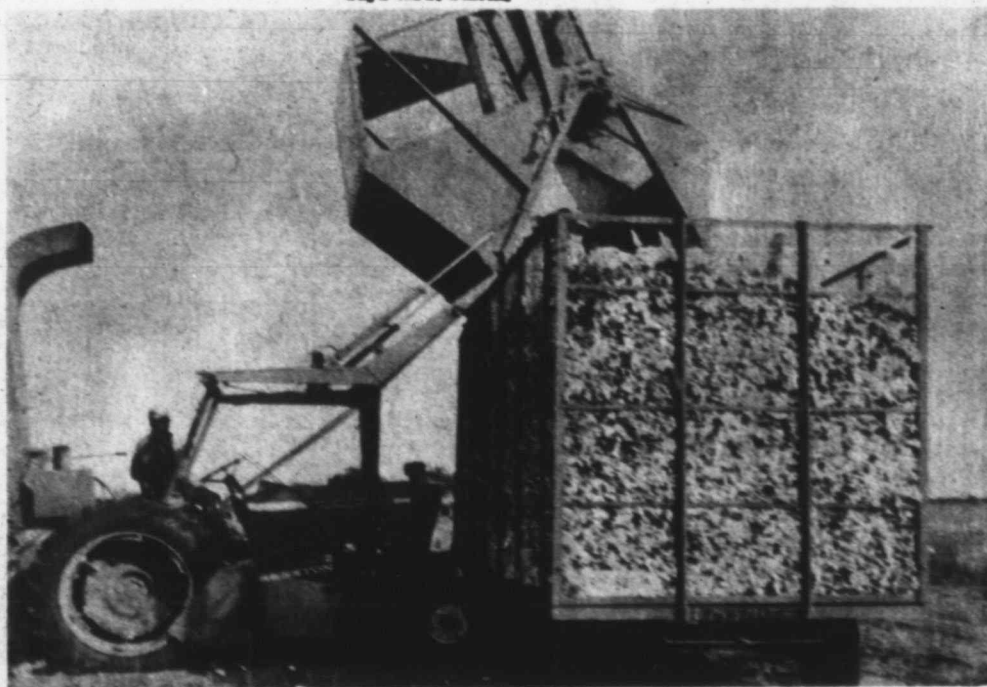

The Wolves gave up four pass

Don't Sign Card!

Please don't sign your ATP card until in the presence of a post office employee!

That's the word from Carla Smith and Mrs. J. D. Williams of the food stamp program here and the ATP card is the Authorization To Purchase computer card sent to food stamp buyers from the state office of the Department of Welfare.

"When you get your card, bring it to the post office unsigned and sign it in the presence of a post office worker," says Mrs. Smith.

Amendments To Be Voted On Tuesday

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday to vote on nine amendments to the Texas Constitution.

Absentee balloting ended Friday. It had been held at the Mitchell County Clerk's office in the courthouse since Oct. 17.

The election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 6 at these polling places:

--voting precincts 1 and 5 will vote at the courthouse with Dick Wistrand as election judge;

--precinct 2 will vote at the Westbrook School with Douglas Barber as election judge;

--precinct 3 will vote at the Chamber of Commerce office with R. B. Baker as election judge;

--precinct 4 in the Lion's Building at Loraine with Ted Lefevre as election judge;

--precinct 7 will vote at the Oak Street Baptist Church with Mrs. M. H. Jordan as election judge.

Three of the amendments have drawn comment, others not causing much talk for or against.

Proposition One is a three part proposal, providing for an increase from $4800 per year to $15,000 and an increase in per diem expense allotment to $18 per day.

Regular legislative sessions of 180 days would be held in odd numbered years and sessions of 60 days in even numbered years, mainly for budgeting matters.

Amendment Number Nine would give tax exemptions to nonprofit water districts. Proponents argue that city districts are exempt and that in most instances the cooperatives serve few customers over a wide area.

Proposal Number Six provides that district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction, along with county courts, in probate matters and further provides that appeals may go directly to the court of civil appeals. Some people feel that this would be a hardship in Mitchell County, as the district judge serves a three-county area, and probate cases would be delayed because the district court already has a full load.

The rest of the proposals have not caused much comment one way or the other. They are:

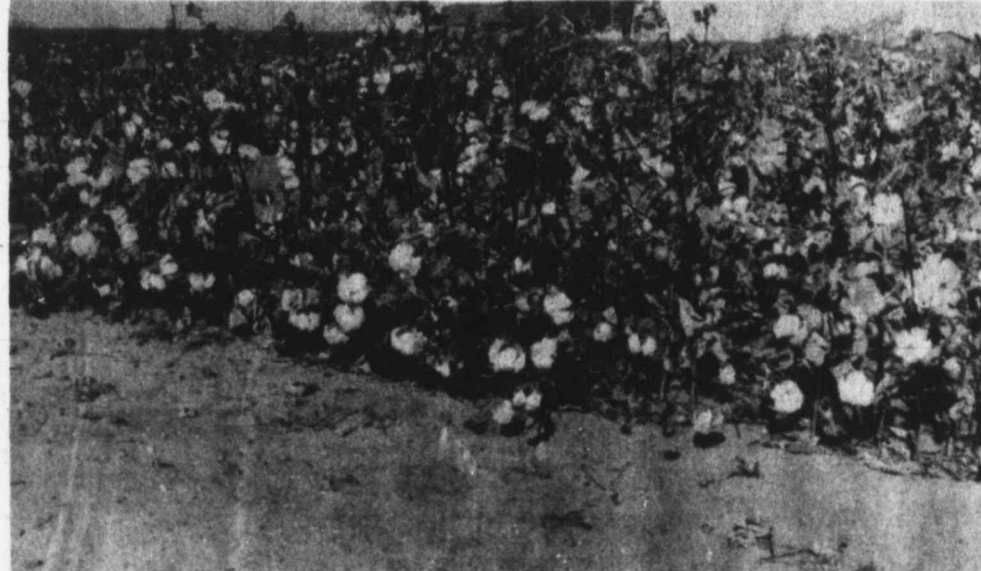

Proposition Two would include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets all other requirements. At present this is available only to couples. The proposal also makes it necessary for both man and wife to consent to abandonment of a homestead.

Proposition Three is a parallel amendment to number two in that it would extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the residential homesteads of unmarried adults.

Proposition Four provides no law shall be passed creating a conservation and reclamation district unless the commissioners courts in such districts are notified ahead of time. These courts would have the right to file protests.

Proposition Five provides that counties and cities bordering on the Gulf of Mexico are authorized to levy a tax to pay for bonds for the construction of seawalls and bridges. See VOTE Page 7

Gettin It In

The field of cotton in the top picture was being gathered in a hurry Friday afternoon as Dave McInnis, operating the stripper in the above picture, dumped the cotton from the basket into the trailer on the left. The harvesting operation was being carried out on the Shoemaker place, farmed by D. M. Smith and Dave McInnis northwest of Colorado City.

November Named Food And Fiber Month

Special Recognition Goes To Texas Producers

Modern agriculture is vital to the U. S. and world economy. Although recent supply and demand conditions have resulted in increased food prices, today's wholesome foods are still a bargain compared to most other items.

Agriculture today is much more than farming and ranching. It includes production, of course, but it also includes supply and service industries that aid producers with fertilizers, seed, machinery and information. And marketing and distribution are other phases of the complex system required to move goods from producers to consumers.

Texas consumers spent about $6.4 billion last year at food stores and eating and drinking establishments for wholesome and nutritious foods. In the U. S., food retailing last year topped the nation's retail industry. Marketing, processing and distribution costs of food have also increased in recent months, and some shortages of food items are evident.

Yet, consumers around the world would gladly exchange life styles and living standards with most Americans, who are still the envy of those in other nations. No where else do consumers have nearly 8,000 food items to select from at the supermarket.

To satisfy our nation's food and fiber needs--as well as to meet overseas commitments--will require a strengthened agricultural complex in the years ahead. Today's leaders point out that the future success of our nation and the world depends on our agricultural leadership.

It is appropriate that during November, consumers pause to count their blessings and express appreciation for quality food and fiber products.

Mr. & Mrs. Bobby Lyn Gotcher, ...exchange double ring vows.

Couple Exchange October Nuptials

Carolyn Elaine King became the bride of Bobby Lyn Gotcher in a double ring ceremony October 6 at 6 p.m.

The wedding took place at the Bible Baptist Church with the Rev. Max Martin officiating. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Norman Hall, cousin of the groom.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. M. L. King of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Gotcher of Brownwood.

Wedding vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with a white wrought iron archway entwined with garlands of greenery and lily-of-the-valley, highlighted by net and wedding bells.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with long sleeves and an empire bodice trimmed with Chantilly lace. The gown was made by the bride's sister.

She wore a shoulder-length illusion veil belonging to her sister, which was accented by a blue birthstone on a gold chain. She carried a bouquet of blue and white mums.

Mrs. Donald Murdock, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diana King, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jimmy Brewer, cousin of the groom.

Ricky Gotcher was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Jimmy Brewer and Bobby Brewer, cousins of the groom. Norman Hall and Jack Burleson served as ushers.

The bride's attendants wore royal blue double knit dresses and each carried a long-stemmed blue carnation.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. King chose a blue floor length gown with white accessories and a white featured mum corsage. The groom's mother wore a two-piece dress in red, white and blue with matching accessories and a corsage of red featured mums.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the church. The bride's table, laid with white lace over blue, held a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with blue sweet peas and topped with a miniature bride and groom standing beneath a wedding arch.

Mrs. Larry Perry, Mrs. Norman Hall and Mrs. Ricky Gotcher served the cake and wedding punch.

The couple will make their home in Brownwood.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF MITCHELL COUNTY

HERE ARE MY PLANS FOR INSURING A GOOD AND ENJOYABLE MUSIC FESTIVAL IN MITCHELL COUNTY, APRIL 19-21. THIS FESTIVAL WILL BE BENEFICIAL TO MITCHELL COUNTY IN MANY WAYS AND WE WANT YOUR SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT IN STAGING THIS EVENT WHICH WOULD RECEIVE NATIONWIDE PUBLICITY.

ENTRANCE TO MUSIC FESTIVAL:

Road approximately two miles south of south entrance to Lake Champion. Prior to the music festival, this road will be lined off to accept three lanes of entrance traffic, and one lane of exit traffic. The reverse to be in effect afterward.

Gates to the festival will open noon, Wednesday, April 17. . . Festival will begin at 7 PM Friday, April 19, and end at 12 Noon, Sunday, April 21. All persons in attendance are expected to be gone by Monday evening, April 22. With the exception of 90 acres, actual festival site, there will be approximately 1800 acres of camping area available to festival attenders. The boundary fence of the ranch will be red flagged and patrolled to eliminate the possibility of people wandering onto adjacent property.

NOTE: 900 acres is more than sufficient for parking for the estimated 200,000 cars. Crossing roads thru the land will be cut prior to the festival to allow easy access.

There will be a team of at least 20 doctors complete with all the assistance and supplies they might need available at the site. They will operate out of a temporary field hospital and several first aid stations. In addition, medical evacuation helicopters will be available on the grounds. There will be at least three other helicopters on hand for transportation of entertainers, their equipment, and key personnel. Arrangements will be made with surrounding hospitals to handle patients that could not be handled locally.

Attendance to the festival will be controlled by limited advertising and control of advance ticket sales. Information stations will be set up at least 100 miles from the festival site to aid those coming and to eliminate congestion on public highways.

Water and sanitation facilities will be set up on the festival site in accordance with the state department of Public Health. The festival will be continuous with the possible exception of a possible 3 hour break early Saturday or Sunday morning. The festival will be co-ordinated and operated by a staff of 10 persons, each of whom will have 5 to 10 persons operating under them.

Actual co-ordination will go through one central headquarters. Festival officials headquarters will have direct control over all operations and will be assisted by both medical people and law enforcement officers.

Performers will stay in Big Spring due to the lack of facilities in Colorado City.

All law enforcement will be directly under the control of Mitchell County Sheriff, Bill McGuire.

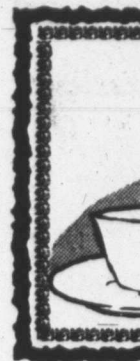

Sam Geisenberger

I intend to employ about 1,000 security personnel from the Brinks Company. These will be law enforcement people in addition to the enforcement afforded by local officers. Planning is underway for a liability insurance policy to pay $100,000 each incident.

If you have not yet contacted local Public Officials and told them you support these plans for this music festival, please do so as soon as possible so they will know how everyone feels before this group meets to discuss and decide on whether or not public support will be given to the Music Festival.

Ruth COFFEY'S CONVERSATION CORNER

NOW IN NOVEMBER, as for years and years, there always comes back to mind "When The Year Grows Old," by Edna Millay, that woman, poet, genius who left the world matchless verse.

Think it may be that the first four lines stay in the memory because they are too lyrical to forget. Remember? She wrote:

"I cannot but remember

When the year grows old--

October--November--

How she disliked the cold!"

DO NOT dislike the cold so that is not the enchanting thing about the poem. It is the musical meter. With late autumn preceding winter... "Now In November" and "When The Year Grows Old" it is time for the remember...remember...remember.

Remember the first logs of the season burning in the fireplace...hot chocolate after school...toasting marshmallows as night came down on the Wiener roast picnic?

Remember big bowls of apples...gingerbread just out of the oven and then smeared with country butter? Remember popping corn to eat while doing the next day's lessons?

REMEMBER, if you've lived so long, the first Armistice Day, November 11, 1918? Remember the glory of it all with songs and tears of joy and sorrow on every face?

Let Congress and whoever will move Veterans Day back to October's calendar. It still belongs on November 11 and lives on in many, many hearts on THAT marvelous date for those who remember...remember...remember.

REMEMBER your mother's coming home from town, arms loaded with new union suits, outing flannel for winter gowns, and those long stockings? Thank the Lord and central heating that children no longer have to dread that part of November and the first norther!

Remember stocking caps...mittens...new shoes laced over the ankles? Overshoes? Or would you believe children used to WALK to school?

REMEMBER three turkey gobblers gobbling in the pen because Thanksgiving was coming, then Christmas, and New Year's Day--and no turkey was educated enough to know why he was supposed to be so well fed and getting fat?

Remember when November meant saving pocket money for gifts for the tree growing among the cedars on a hill somewhere?

Remember when early to bed and early to rise was the rule instead of the exception?

REMEMBER when "staying in after school" was a family disgrace? When having to memorize "Thanatopsis" was considered punishment rather than a pleasure and privilege?

Remember when your brother somehow always enticed you into helping him bring in the wood? Did you ever go visiting and sleep on a feather bed?

Remember when baby dolls first showed up in the display windows and any little girl without a tea set and a toy stove was an underprivileged child?

DO NOT dislike the cold. It has its own version of charm and magic. Only know that for some of us a newer verse called "When The Year Grows Old," would have to read:

"I cannot but remember

When the year grows old--

When the year's no longer

new

How in November I am older too!"

NOW in November with its changeable days of sun, of clouds and chill, brief encounters brought out faces belonging to Erdine Morgan...Sims Palmer...Drew Ballard in maroon slacks and white shoes...Beautiful and happy Billie Roenfeldt, wife of "Brother Glenn," First Baptist pastor...Vivacious Gwen Wistrand (Mrs. Dick)...Otha Rice...Neil (Mrs. R. J.) Hoback.

Saw Frank Conard...Frances (Mrs. George O.) Witten whose son Ronnie has a beautiful bride. Had a warm handshake from Johnny Latham of Jackson, Miss., here to visit his little mother Ruth (Mrs. E. L.) Latham, piano teacher.

Ruth, by the way, has sold her big attractive home on Hickory St., is moving to one of the Berman duplex apartments, Chestnut St. at corner of East 9th, and will teach music only part-time and after school hours.

Verdie and Virgil Moser will be her duplex neighbors. Chatted with Verdie of the LTNS, long time no see department, the other day. She is still one of the prettiest women C-City ever had!

SEEN LATELY, too, included Elizabeth and Howard Cox...Jay Vann...Exchanged greetings with James Huckabay of Sun Oil...George Hudson...Ida Kirschbaum...Little dark-haired Mrs. Joe Vincent...Alta Casbeer, Bonnie Brown...Post Master Arlene M. Morris and wife "Katie" Joy Morris (Mrs. Mac)...Swapped howdys with Luke and Glen Thomas...Mrs. John Mikow and son.

One sunny day was even sunnier with the sight of Happy Howard...Pat (Mrs. John H.) Chinn and Michele...Charles and Helen Ezell...smiling Mary Irwin...Betty Sayger...chatted briefly with Danny Barber, young lawyer.

Unless double vision is an added affliction, caught a glimpse of good looking Frank Leslie King (of Lubbock?) strolling down our Second St. Frank grew up here in C-City as son of the late ex-County Judge A. F. King and Mrs. King.

HEAR TELL the old Aggie Raymond Fuller and his teapipper University of Texas wife Virginia went down to have the pleasure of seeing A&M University beat the Golden Baylor Bears in College Station last weekend--daggummit! Also Martha Sparks...Matt Keller.

High point of the last few days, however, came with getting to see our lovely lady Mrs. W. W. RHODE, looking wonderful. She was lurching out at the Villa with tall son Dr. Bill Rhode, his wife Naomi who always has a special sort of sparkle, and two guests of the day from Midland.

Visiting Mrs. Rhode (W. W.) were her nephew's wife Mrs. Webb Williams and a friend Mrs. Lily Johnson that day. Mrs. Johnson is also friend of Katie (Mrs. A. H.) Jackson who happened to be out of town on a trip to South Texas.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, we as citizens of this great Nation, State and (City) (County) are blessed with an abundance, variety, and a quality of food and fiber,

WHEREAS, no nation on earth provides its people with so much for so little with an average family in the United States spending less than one-fifth of its income on food, and

WHEREAS, much of this abundance is produced by the agricultural industry of Texas,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the (City of C-City) (County of Mitchell) proclaims November 1973 to be Food and Fiber Appreciation Month, and urges all of its citizens to observe this important occasion.

CLAXTON

Lodge News

By Venita Garnett

Our musicals and singings continue to be well attended and enjoyed by many at Claxton Lodge. O. L. Montgomery, local.

Gipp Harmon, Toby Sanders, Audavee Claxton, Kenneth Wilson and W. C. Carpenter were the musicians for the last musical.

Halloween decorations added to the event with cake and coffee served. Out of town guests were: Doyle Combs, Albuquerque, N. M., son of the Howard Combs, Mrs. Gunn of Pecos, daughter of Bobbie Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stewart of Lovington, N. M., sister of Arlena Claxton.

Large print hymnals were presented to the Lodge for the residents in memory of Mrs. Fred Cook. The donors were: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Spann and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Everett all of Colorado City; Mrs. Ralph St. John, Abilene; The C. K. Peek family and the C. T. Peek family of Dallas.

This gesture of thoughtfulness will be remembered many years by those who use the books. Many donations of materials for the recreation program continue to come in. Again we say what a pleasure it is to live where people are concerned.

New residents at the Lodge are: Mack H. McCarty, Colorado City, J. L. Thomas, Colorado City, Edward Flynn V. A. Hospital, Sarah Yeats, Colorado City and Gabe Lewis, Colorado City.

The Sunday morning Bible class was attended by 25 last week. Ather Ellis and Jimmie Hardegree continue to do a fine job of presenting the lesson and leading the songs.

The evening devotional this week will be conducted by Plainview Baptist. Everyone is invited to any or all the activities at the Lodge.

Fullers Hosts Relative

Mrs. W. L. Johnson and a friend, Miss Onida Lyons, both of Springfield, Tennessee, visited with the James A. Fuller family from Saturday to Thursday.

LITTLE LETTERS

By JILL DAVIS

Jill Davis, 10, answers letters from young readers and tries to help them with their problems.

Dear Jill,
I am 6 and I can't tie my shoes. How do you do it?

LACES

Dear Laces,
Ask your parents to teach you or maybe an older brother or sister. ***

Dear Jill,
I suck my thumb. Everyone makes fun of me. What can I do?

THUMB SUCKER

Dear Thumb Sucker,
Everytime you start to put your thumb in your mouth think about it and about how you look. If you suck your thumb too much, your upper teeth will go back. ***

Dear Jill,
My older brother chews tobacco. He bugs me by chewing it.
How can I stop him.

WORRIED

Dear Worried, Older boys usually go through that stage. Whenever he starts it, go in the other room. ***

Dear Jill,
My sister always tells on me. She gets me in bad trouble.
How can I stop her?

TATTLED ON

Dear Tattled On,
Don't do anything to be tattled on about. ***

Dear Jill,
I got my hair cut short and everybody calls me boy. What should I do?

SHORT HAIR

Dear Short Hair,
Don't pay any attention to the kids who call you boy. Anyway, your hair will soon grow out. ***

ALL YOU NEED TO DO TO RECEIVE A "LITTLE LET-TERS" PENCIL IS WRITE YOUR PROBLEM TO JILL. BE SURE TO ENCLOSE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AL-THOUGH NO NAMES WILL BE USED IN THE NEWSPAPER.

In the end zone was intercepted.
Only a few plays later, the Wolves Felix Franco intercepted a Sweetwater pass at the Mustang 40 and ran to the Sweetwater six. The Sweetwater defense gave up only a yard on the next three plays and Banks booted a 20 yard field goal for the Wolves.

That 3-0 lead held up until late in the third quarter when Sweetwater mounted a 47 yard drive for the only touchdown scored during the night.
*It was during that drive that Sweetwater completed two passes, the only two passes completed by the Mustangs for the night, the last pass going to Gerald Palafox for seven yards and the TD. The PAT was good.

With only 1:10 left in the game, Sweetwater's Butch Sims booted a 31-yard field goal.
The defensive nature of the game was told by the statistics which show that Colorado City gained five first downs on 69 yards rushing and 25 yards passing while Sweetwater had four first downs on 76 yards rushing and 28 yards passing.

The kicking and running of Arnold Parker for the Wolves enabled the Wolves to keep possession of the ball much of the time as well as putting Sweetwater deep in their territory much of the game.
Standouts on defense for the Wolves included Russell Hertenberger, Steve Hamrick, Bill Everett, Julian Reyes, Ed Warren, Arnold Parker, Amador Guerrero and Robert Rivera.

On offense, standouts for the Wolves were Hamrick, Reyes, Banks, Parker, Guerrero, Arnold, Hertenberger, Jackie Ellis and Bill Griffin.

Next week, the Wolves travel to Lamesa to take on the Golden Tors.

VOTE From Page 1

akwaters upon a simple majority vote. At the present time a two-thirds majority is required.

Proposition Seven would permit the issuance of an additional one million dollars in bonds to finance the state's veteran land program. The already $400,000,000 has been used up. The amendment also would make veterans of the Vietnamese war eligible to purchase land.

Proposition Eight would permit cities and towns, regardless of population, to levy such taxes as are necessary to service bonds. The legislature would have the right to set ceilings but until that time the limits as they apply to school districts shall apply to the cities and towns.
