Boating Party in Copano Bay Almost Ends in Tragedy for 8

By JESSE BARRERA

What started out as a two-boat party going from Copano ridge to Mission Bay to see the old Copano Village almost ended in tragedy for eight persons on Saturday.

Half way across, the waves started to get rough and the boat started to talk about going back when one of the boats carrying two men and a woman hit a big wave.

The bow went under and submerged in the water. The other boat, carrying five persons, went to the rescue. One of the men jumped into the water to help bring the woman into the boat.

After getting everyone aboard, there was the problem of salvaging the sunken boat. With eight persons aboard the floating boat and a sunken boat behind, the "good" boat started season opens Aug. 15 in the major bays along the Texas coast.

The season lasts until Dec. 15.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials say if fishermen can find the shrimp, they should have no trouble in making the minimum keeping size of 39 heads-on shrimp per pound.

But the shrimp are scattered over most of the major bays, and the Aransas Bay system reports few shrimp available to fishermen in the early season.

Department biologists say a mild winter and good survival of early spawns account for the larger-than-usual shrimp.

Sport fishermen trawling for shrimp are limited to trawls 20 feet in width. They must have both a sport fishing license and an Individual Salt-Shrimp Trawl License, and they are limited to 100 pounds of heads-on shrimp per day from major bays as defined by law.

Illegal Trash Dumping Increases in Aransas County

In the last two months, trash dumping on public roadways has risen in Aransas County, with some areas of the county looking like "central disposal stations" with the amount of trash illegally dumped.

Sheriff Robert Hewes stated that the citizens have always in the past supported his idea of making Aransas County a better and safer place to live in, and that complete cooperation is now needed to keep careless trash dumpers from spoiling the county.

Should a citizen observe a person dumping trash off public roadways or in areas where trash dumping is prohibited, the Sheriff's Department asks that, if possible, a license number be obtained from the car or truck so that an investigation may be conducted and charges filed against those guilty of the offense.

Registration For Live Oak Elementary

All students who were not enrolled in Live Oak Elementary School during the 1973-74 school year and will attend Live Oak Elementary this school year are to come to the Principals Office from 8:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., August 19 through August 23.

It will be necessary to bring birth certificate and immunization records for students entering school for the first time.

Students who attended schools other than Live Oak Elementary should bring their report cards or transcripts of school work from the school they attended last school year.

Students wishing to register on dates other than the above mentioned should call the Principal's Office for an appointment.

to draw water from every wave. We discussed the possibility of letting the sunken boat go and then have the four men get in the water and cling to the sides and just drift.

But suddenly we saw a shrimp boat about two miles away. Everybody started to make distress signals and luckily the shrimp boat Hamilton saw us, it seemed like forever before he got to us but he did.

Six of the persons were transferred to the shrimp boat and Hamilton tied the winch to the submerged boat and started back home.

On the way back Hamilton said that when he first saw the little boat with eight people aboard, he thought to himself, "Look at all those idiots fishing from that little boat."

Little did he realize that those "idiots" were his friends and neighbors who live less than a

History of County To Be Out in 1975

PROGRESS REPORTED ON ARANSAS HISTORY
—Dr. A. Ray Stephens, left, professor of history at North Texas State University, who is writing a history of Aransas County from 1871 to 1971, discusses progress of the project with Emory M. Spencer, one of the sponsors, during a visit to First National Bank, where they were photographed in front of a 200-year-old grandfather's clock in the bank's lobby.

Target date for completion of the history is 1975. When published it will be available for sale in bookstores. The history is an Aransas County Library project supported by individual contributions.

The 1974 season will be started off by a new look for the R.F.H.S. pepsquad. The new look for the Greenbackers will consist of a kelly green double-knit pantsuit.

The material is being handled by the local fabric store "Yardstick."

The pattern number is 6039 under Simplicity. The uniform is based upon highwaisted pants with a short-sleeve blazer.

For any further information contact Gracie Benavidez at 729-5162.

Two Arrested On Narcotics Charges

Armed with a search warrant, Deputy Sheriffs Mike Webb and Donald Beard, assisted by City Patrolman Gary Don Langston, entered a home located at 5th and Fuqua and uncovered a quantity of marijuana and various kinds of narcotics paraphernalia.

Junior High School Schedules Ready

Students that will attend Rockport Fulton Junior High School during the 1974-1975 school year may get their class schedules beginning August 19. Student schedules may be obtained at the Junior High office during the hours 8-12 and 1-4:00.

Junior High students are reminded that the school dress code has not been changed and will be the same as during the previous school year.

Man Charged With Marijuana Possession

What began as a family disturbance call ended up with one person being charged with possession of marijuana in a quantity of less than 2 ounces.

Arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ronnie Valdez was Ysabel Samora, Jr., 512 Magnolia. Samora was placed under a $500 bond by Justice of the Peace Lawrence Miller.

Dr. A. Ray Stephens, professor of history at North Texas State University, who was commissioned to be the author of a History of Aransas County from 1871 to 1971, is visiting in Rockport with his family and collecting final historical details for the book which will be published in 1975.

In chatting with friends at the Rockport Pilot, Stephens said:

"The research materials for the history of Aransas County were greater in volume than we expected to find when the project began. This fortunate circumstance will result in a more-documented book."

"I have been very excited by the variety and content of the historical documents we found and am very thankful for the great assistance and cooperation of my Aransas County friends in the gathering of those documents."

"This book is being written, as was understood from the beginning, in conjunction with my teaching and campus duties at North Texas State University. During the writing of the book thus far, I have been so enthralled by the interesting heritage of Aransas County that I wish it were possible to spend full time on the project. Under the circumstances, it is expected that the book will be published in 1975."

The idea for a History of Aransas County from 1871 to 1971 was originated by Emory M. Spencer, who, along with other community leaders, is helping to finance its publication.

Budget Approved; School Board Lowers Tax Rate

The Board of Trustees of the Aransas County Independent School District approved the proposed budget for the 1974-1975 school year and set the tax levy for the year at its regular meeting Monday night.

The tax rate was set at $1.55 per one hundred dollar valuation which is 8¢ below the 1973-

1974 tax rate. The Board adopted a record budget with estimated expenditures set at $2,018,500.00. The school District received an eighteen percent increase in valuation due to the re-evaluation program conducted in the County during the past year which allowed the Board to reduce the tax rate. In addition to the regular school budget, the Board approved the budget for the Title I program and for the Special Education program. Both budgets are financed with either State or Federal monies.

In other business the Board approved for payment the monthly bills as presented.

The Board accepted the resignations of seven teachers and elected replacements for their positions. Two teachers were recommended and approved for reassignment of duties for the 1974-75 school year. William N. Spears was promoted to the position of Assistant High School Principal and Peter M. Cheaney was promoted to the position of High School Band Director.

Stanley presented this plan to the Board of Directors at the Aug. 6 meeting and was given full support and round of applause for work and time spent on this project. Billboards will be placed in San Antonio, Austin and Victoria during the months of Oct., Nov. and Dec.

A letter of resignation from Port Little was read by Joe Hugenberg, president. Little has moved to Leakey and the Board accepted his resignation with regret. Rev. Paul Bohot, president of the Ministerial Alliance, was appointed director to fill the unexpired term of Little.

Other business transacted and reports given were: voted to send Bill Janeczek to Texas Industrial Development Conference Sept. 12, 13, at San Antonio; Chamber will serve donuts and greet members of TRVA Aug. 10; aerial shots of county have been made and work has begun on street maps; voted to purchase and plant the first palm tree; report given on tennis tournament and banquet; emergency care unit discussed.

A Corpus Christi man recently parked his expensive car at his place of business and departed on a business trip.

Upon returning, he discovered that his car was missing, and just as he made an attempt to report the missing car to the police, he was contacted by Aransas County Deputy Sheriff Mike Webb who informed him that his car had been found by Constable Buddy McLester in the bay north of Rockport with only part of the car's top showing.

Relieved that his car had been found, but angry that the thief had driven the auto into the bay, he thanked Deputy Webb and said he would contact his insurance company on the matter.

New Way to Correct Vision Is Explained

A novel method designed to change the front of the eyes to correct defects in vision is under study and experimentation by optometrists throughout the country. Dr. Jerry Shaw, local optometrist, told members of Rotary Club at a luncheon meeting Aug. 7 at Ramada Inn.

He explained the method could be compared with that used by dentists in straightening teeth. He said that after corrective contact lens had been worn for several hours it is possible to remove them for a longer period and retain the corrected vision.

In some instances it has been possible to use corrective contacts lens for two or three hours and then get along without them for 10 to 12 hours until the eyes slowly return to the distorted shape which has been causing the defect in vision. The process usually involves use of a series of corrective lens to gradually correct the shape of the front of the eyes which then may retain the correct shape for most of the day.

This new method of corrective reshaping is called Orthokeratology, according to Dr. Shaw who reported he is using this procedure on several patients with encouraging results.

Following Dr. Shaw's talk, Rotarian Jack Horton recited highlights of a recent 69-day cruise on the motorship Monterey, starting and ending in Los Angeles. On the cruise he visited the West Indies, Bermuda, England, Holland, West Germany, Poland, Soviet Union and the Scandinavian countries before returning by way of Caribbean and Panama Canal.

Horton said they experienced 24 hours of daylight while at North Cape in the Land of the Midnight Sun. At that time they were within 120 miles of the North Pole, and he and several other hardy travelers had a brief swim in the ship's pool with the water at 45 degrees.

This gentleman said he was behind the Chamber 100% in the tree planting project and wanted to be the first to help. "Rockport is a beautiful little town and addition of palms will certainly enhance its beauty," he said.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors Aug. 6 was well attended by directors and interested and concerned citizens. The Chamber has invited representatives of civic organizations to meet with the Board each month so that programs and projects can be discussed and coordinated. All members of the Chamber are also invited to attend and present their views and ideas.

College Students on First National Staff

Four Rockport college students have been temporary members of the staff at First National Bank this summer to provide vacation relief for regular staff members and to get some on-the-job-training in business. All are graduates of Rockport-Fulton High School.

Renee, a 1974 graduate of the local high school is enrolled at Texas Tech University in Lubbock. She also worked at First National last summer and reports the experience has been interesting and helpful.

Susan, will be a senior at St. Mary's College at Notre Dame, Ind., where she is majoring in business and expects to get a Bachelor of Business Administration. She says she is definitely interested in a career in banking and this summer's experience at First National has helped reinforce this decision.

Kevin will be a junior at Incarnate Word College in San Antonio this fall. She is specializing in physical education and social service. While she does not plan to enter banking, she feels she has learned a great deal about business which will be helpful in social service work.

Gary will be a senior at Texas A and M University where he is seeking a Bachelor of Business Administration degree. He plans a career in banking and is enthusiastic about the value of his practical experience at First National this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Corbin became the proud parents of a son, William Edward, born August 7th in the Aransas Hospital. The young Mr. Corbin was 20" and weighed in at 7 lbs. 6 oz.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Dick of Rockport and Mr. and Mrs. Evans Corbin of Ingleside. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Edward L. Corbin of Silkeston, Missouri.

The Kinsey Report

Following my recent back surgery the doctor prescribed a cane which I am now using. I believe I shall carry and use this cane for some time even though I think I could get along fine without it.

Already some of my friends have commented, "My, that black cane sure makes you look distinguished." And even though I know they're kidding, you know I kind of like it.

Also, if a person suddenly starts using a cane, friends and acquaintances who were unaware of the surgery are bound to say something like, "What happened to you? How come you need a cane?"

And, boy, don't we all enjoy a bit of sympathy and concern and the opportunity to talk—at least a little—about "my operation."

So, if you see me coming along with my cane, please don't cross over to the opposite side of the street to avoid me. If you don't want to hear about my operation, I promise not to say a word.

Nelms, Benningfield Wed

Miss Carol Ann Benningfield became the bride of James Walter Nelms, Jr. at a double ring ceremony held in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church Saturday, August 10th at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Samuel Gottlich performed the ceremony uniting the couple whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. A.L. McCraw of Rockport and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Nelms of Corpus Christi, and was assisted by The Rev. Lester Hill of Rockport. Soloist Mrs. James Girardeau of Corpus Christi sang "The Wedding Song" and was accompanied on the guitar by Herbert Monroe Cree, III, of Dallas.

The altar held vases of gladioli and spider mums, and pew markers of white asters, greenery and yellow ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, chose a formal length gown of candlelight organza with a high ruffled neck of Brussels lace. The dress featured a sheer yoke of embroidered net edged by a double row of Venice lace flowers with pearl centers. An empire waistline was accented by a ribbon sash, and lantern sleeves were tucked and appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace, pearls and seed pearls. The hem and chapel train were edged in Venice lace. A cathedral-length mantilla veil of illusion fell gracefully from a headpiece of re-embroidered Alencon lace and pearls and was bordered entirely by re-embroidered Alencon lace with appliques of Venice lace flowers. She wore at her neck a family heirloom brooch of diamond and pearl, and carried a white satin prayer book with a cascading bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses, baby's breath, stephanotis, smilax, and picot ribbon tied in lover's knots.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Steve Buening of Chicago, Illinois. Other attendants were Miss Susan Hollon, Miss Kay Keils, Miss Debbie Laechlin, and Miss Nancy Nelms, sister of the groom. Their gowns were of yellow jersey, and featured an empire waistline and a bolero jacket edged in ruffles. White straw picture hats with yellow bands completed the ensemble. Their bouquets were of yellow sweetheart roses with carnations, statice, baby's breath, and other multi-colored seasonal flowers.

The groom had his father as best man. Groomsmen were Ted Burnett, Jim Evers, Robert Livingston and Brian Elkouri.

Ushers were Saunders S. Staley, III, John Staley, and Tom Staley from Dallas, all cousins of the groom.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with white net over yellow satin. Silver candelabra entwined with smilax and seasonal flowers were placed on each side of the white cake, which was also decorated with fresh flowers and smilax.

The groom's table was covered with a brown taffeta cloth overlaid with an heirloom crocheted pinwheel cloth. The table held a silver coffee service and crystal punch service, and the groom's cake of German chocolate.

Members of the Houseparty included: Mrs. Harold Dennis, Mrs. Pat Warner, Mrs. M.C. Tucker, Miss Gwen Byles, Mrs. Bob Jenkins, Mrs. Dick Davis, and Miss Lori Nelms of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Garland Hollon, Mrs. Glen Edge, and Mrs. Albert Laechlin of Mathis; Mrs. Ross J. Findley of Beeville; and Mrs. Herbert Monroe Cree, III, and Miss Diane Dewald of Dallas.

The bride attended the University of Texas where she was a member of Posse. She now attends Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos where she is a justice on the Student Court. She is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority and Pi Gamma Mu. The groom is a junior business major at Southwest Texas State.

The bride chose for her going away ensemble a floor length jacketdress with white pleated skirt and navy blue and white print bodice and jacket, featuring a white collar. She wore a corsage of white gladioli and stephanotis. After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will be at home in San Marcos.

Presbyterian Circle Meets

The August meeting of the Presbyterian Circle #2 was held in the home of the hostess, Mrs. W.O. Young. Refreshments were served to 10 members. The meeting was opened with a prayer read by Mrs. L.W. Hight. The secretary and the treasurer gave their reports. The lesson "Conflict and Controversy" was moderated by Mrs. P.M. Winkler. Forty cards were sent and 32 visits were made.

The emphasis was read by Mrs. T.L. Morgan and the least coin prayer by Mrs. W.O. Young. The meeting was closed by all repeating the Mizpah. Some of the members have been busy making hospital gowns for the nursing homes. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Harold Shirley.

Drive-In Lanes Prove Popular

First National's motor banking facilities are proving increasingly popular with customers, according to Robert D. Mosler, Jr., executive vice president, who reports that traffic through the four drive-in lanes has grown steadily since the new building was opened in May.

"The convenience of motor banking appeals to many, but I am sure the longer hours of service available at our four drive-in lanes has resulted in increased usage of this facility," Mosler said. Motor banking hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, supplementing lobby banking hours which are 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

Mosler added that motor banking often provides quicker service than lobby banking because one teller can serve more than one customer at a time. Throughout the transaction the customer is in direct vocal and visual contact with the teller, Mosler explained.

He said another reason for increased use of motor banking facilities was that more and more customers are becoming familiar with the procedure involved. "Actually, it is all very simple. Customers push only one button to get immediate person-to-person contact with the teller. At the same time a transparent plastic container pops up within easy reach of the customer. Next, the container conveys the transaction to the teller through an underground pneumatic tube," Mosler said, adding, "some customers have told us they get a kick out of the mechanical aspects of the operation without losing the desirable personal contact with the teller."

Each year, when waterfowl are hunted on their feeding grounds, about six million tons of lead shot rain down on our fields and marshes. Then, in the normal course of their feeding, millions of ducks and geese eat the pellets, develop lingering paralysis and die.

Americans have known about this lead poisoning for over a century, but they haven't known exactly what to do about it. Of course the answer has always been to find a suitable substitute for the lead shot. Other metals have been tested but most, such as copper, were also toxic. Iron is not toxic, but there have always been many objections to the use of iron shot. "Iron of the necessary uniform softness is not available." IT IS NOW. "Well, it couldn't feasibly be produced in adequate quantities." YES IT CAN. "It will tear up everybody's shotgun." NO, IT WILL NOT.

The major arms companies are now producing a soft iron shot that is compatible with almost all shotguns, and it is effective. Remington Arms Co. ran intensive field tests and found barrel marking "inconsequential". Will it widen the "choke", the constriction at the end of the barrel that controls the pattern of the shot? Winchester-Western test results, after the equivalent of 100 years of shooting, showed only "cosmetic" changes that "did not compromise safety or pattern performance".

The other hurdle has been: Can iron shot kill cleanly? Controlled tests have shown that iron shot crippled 19 to 22 percent as compared to 18 percent for lead. This means that when we convert to iron shot, and this conversion is just a question of time, we will cripple and lose 100,000 to 400,000 more birds annually - compared to the two to three million we now lose to lead poisoning each year. This assumes, of course, that there is to be no improvement in iron shot technology. It has been demonstrated that iron shot works and that it can be produced in quantity, yet it is still not available commercially. Everyone is just waiting for the Department of Interior to "put iron on the market". The options to the Department of Interior are limited. It can require the use of iron shot nationwide, by flyway, or by local zones. One other thing it can do is postpone a decision and conduct more tests. The nationwide option is not practical because of the time needed for the arms companies to convert to all-out production of iron shot. The no-action alternative is not possible if the Secretary is to obey the law that requires him to regulate hunting so as to protect waterfowl because his own scientists confirm that lead poisoning is killing ducks and geese by the millions. It is very likely that the Secretary will phase in iron shot gradually, flyway by flyway, beginning in 1975. It is possible that Texas will be among the last states to be required to use iron shot because our mortality rate for ducks on the Central Flyway is only about half that of the

Shower Honors Miss Kaye Lauer

Miss Kaye Lauer was honored at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. She is the bride-elect of James Presley of Portland.

Guests of honor were Miss Lauer, Mrs. Glenn Lauer Sr. of Fulton, and Mrs. T.M. Presley of Portland.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. E.N. Adams, Sr., Mrs. R.E. Harriet, Mrs. Curtis Harriet, Mrs. Lee Roy Young, Mrs. John Knoche, and Mrs. Lena Evans.

The tables were decorated with daisies and wild flowers.

Others. Sportsmen may differ on where first or how fast to convert to iron shot but they will do well to support the concept. Iron shot is the compromise between continued lead poisoning, which the public is not going to stand for, and possible severe limitations on waterfowl hunting itself.

resident fishing and $37.50 for a non-resident hunting license. This year's fishing license will be valid for one year from the date of purchase.

Three turkey tags are on the new hunting licenses and must be used much the same as are deer tags.

New licenses are printed on a special paper which is resistant to tears and water -- something which should prove useful to both outdoorsmen and game wardens trying to decipher licenses dyked in water and otherwise roughly handled.

Both deer and turkey tags are easily separated from the rest of the license by perforations and there is also a perforation on the edge of each tag where a string or wire can be inserted for attachment to harvested game.

Sept. 1, 1974, is the date when new hunting and fishing licenses will be required.

CHAMBER CORNER

BY LOUIE HILL

My thanks go to Loyce Landrum and Lee Wideman for so ably filling in for me while I was on vacation. I enjoyed reading their columns and I know you did, too. You know, for many years I thought that being the "only one" who could do this thing or that thing was a good, ego-building experience—and I guess in some ways it is. However in the last few years I have come to realize that an even greater experience is to have friends who can and indeed will fill in and back you up!

The other day Loyce and I were talking about the Chamber's emphasis on beautifying Rockport. In the course of our conversation we hit upon the "litter" subject. It never ceases to amaze me that even at the risk of fines, some people still feel no hesitation whatsoever about tossing away bottles, cans and all matter of trash with no apparent regard for anyone but themselves! To me this is about as on a par with taking the ashtray from the car, walking into someone's living room, and emptying it on their rug. In a manner of speaking, the city streets are the town's "living room rug."

Loyce recalled that last year the A.A.R.P. took on the task of a clean-up project and gathered up and disposed of many sacks of trash from the roadsides of our area. I also remembered a Girl Scout troop litter-collecting project. There probably have been others, these were just the two we remembered off hand. All were much appreciated and of much benefit to our community.

"If anyone is looking for a service project for a club or organization—or even just a group of interested citizens", Loyce said, "a litter clean-up would surely be a worthwhile one to do!" She went on to say that the Chamber would provide sacks for the groups use and would also make arrangements for a truck to be available, if needed, and make provisions for the group to get into the dump grounds. I feel sure the Chamber would also be happy to give a Letter of Commendation to the group involved for their efforts.

Often you hear people say, "I would like to do something for my community, but I just don't know what to do". Well, here is something really needed that we all can do!

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Wolf and three sons of Longmont, Colorado have returned home after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Ohrling.

Couple Cycles Cross Country

Louise and E.T. "Buck" Busch returned Sunday from a 446-mile round trip to McAllen. That may not sound like an unusual feat, however when you add the fact that they made this trip on their Honda it is much more impressive!

The couple left Rockport Friday and got into McAllen about four hours later. The Ken Thomases and their daughter Judy and the Pete Tedders met them in the valley—they traveled down the conventional way—and the group visited Mexico.

On the return trip Sunday, Louise changed places with Judy about 80 miles out of Rockport to let her have the experience of a cycle trip across country.

The Busches have made other trips on their cycle and a future Honda Magazine issue will feature a picture of the couple.

Smoking marijuana limits the production of certain white blood cells that are involved in defending the body against virus illnesses, according to researchers at Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Would you believe diarrhea can be good for you? Seems it's nature's way to get rid of bacteria before they can multiply and make you sicker. In recent tests, those who took anti-diarrhea medication ended up with longer fevers and illnesses.

Doctors are emphasizing the dangers of cosmetic silicone injections. Substance can migrate within the body, change consistency and mask tumors.

Now that Turkey has stopped growing poppies (in the anti-narcotics drive), drug manufacturers find a shortage of opium for medicinal use, and there is talk of growing the poppies in the U.S.

To stop bleeding, simply press over the wound.

Fulton Volunteer Fire Dept. News

During the dry weeks of July and August the citizens of our area have been extremely careful of fires. We have made only 7 runs; most for grass fires, assisting at one motel fire, and one emergency (heart attack) run. Our thanks to all in the area.

To date we have received generous donations of money, materials and employee services, etc., to help our operating expenses, from the following: Dennis O'Connor, CP&L, Henry von Pein, Judge John Wendell, Harry Barnes, Mable Kapp, Buddy McLester, Mr. & Mrs. R.T. Bradford, Wilson & Son,

Key Allegro Isle Marina, George & Anne Warren, Bertha Fern Steede, Glenn R. Hutchinson, Mrs. E.G. Cooke, Mr. & Mrs. H.B. Stierwalt, Bea Gallagher, C.J. Gallagher, Miss Genevieve Bracht, Miss Mabel Bracht, the Cantwells,

Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Reissig (Dot Construction Co.), Prentiss Elder, Fulcrum Animal Clinic, Beachwood Assn., John R. Nolan, W.H. Wismer, James F. Metzger, Joe H. Slocum, Mrs. C.E. Gooding, L.E. Casterline and the County Commissioners Court, for which we are grateful.

Our Ladies Auxiliary has accumulated enough money from their activities during the past two years for us to begin active planning and budgeting for an extension to our present fire station.

The extension will provide badly needed space to house all our trucks and equipment, which will also furnish more room for meetings, parties and game nights.

Charles Vermillion has helped us with many technical ideas and suggestions to save time, money and labor on the project. More detailed information will be provided at a later date.

The Fulton Volunteer Fire Department remains in need of more donations for operating expenses and our Building Fund, as well as new members (volunteer firemen).

Local Teacher Attends Workshop

SAN MARCOS -- A Rockport teacher was among some 50 prospective vocational-industrial high school teachers from high schools from Amarillo to Brownsville who took part in an orientation workshop at Southwest Texas State University.

The participating teacher was Rufus B. Shuff. He is a metal trades teacher at Rockport High School.

MISS KAREN BRADY, SUMMER VISITOR

To the delight of her grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Guy W. Holloman and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nemeth, Karen Brady spent 7 weeks of her summer vacation in Rockport. Karen is 8 years old and will enter 3rd grade in the fall, in San Antonio.

While in Rockport she enjoyed swimming almost daily. She went fishing and cruising on the LORI III, visited the Alligator Farm and toured the Fulton Mansion, and many other attractions of this area.

In her quiet moments she visited the Rockport Public Library, and also entered a contest "Why every child should have a pet" sponsored by the Pampered Pet Center of Corpus Christi. She was awarded 3rd prize.

Her brother Mark, 6 years old, and her parents Mr. & Mrs. Michael Brady also spent several week-ends here.

Library News

Book lists for the Summer Reading Program should be turned in by this Friday, August 16th. Reading program members who have read 10 or more books will receive certificates and a Dairy Queen coupon. The library thanks William Dill, manager of the Rockport Dairy Queen, for this contribution. The certificates have not arrived at this time; however, you may check with the library next week for further information.

The Aransas County Public Library wishes to acknowledge and thank the following patrons for contributions to the library: Mrs. Paul Miller, Mildred LeMaire, Mrs. Winfield Smith, Esther Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Bibb, Jr. Donations from the Rotary Birthday Club for the month of August were W. A. Christian and Theil Sharpe.

Current best sellers available at the library include: Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy, by John Le Carre, Watership Down by Richard Adams, Jaws by Peter Benchley, Cashel-mara, by Susan Howatch, The Shave of the Hunter, by Helen MacInnes, Burr, by Gore Vidal, All the President's Men by Bernstein and Woodward, Gullag Archipelago, by Solzhenitsyn, Alive by Read, You Can Profit

From a Monetary Crisis by Browne, Plain Speaking by Miller, Times to Remember by Kennedy, and Widow, by Caine.

Morning TOPS Lose 224 Pounds

Morning TOPS met August 6 in the Methodist Youth Building. Weigh in at 8:30 preceded the business meeting at 9:30. Queens for the week were JoAnn White and Kaye Snapp. Runners-up were Alice Wright and Polly Driver.

The Morning TOPS Club had their first meeting April 2, 1974 with fourteen members. On Aug. 6, 1974 with 25 members the club's total loss is 224 pounds.

With club treasurer, Verna Smith, giving up her office, Eva Whipple was elected for that position.

Anyone who is overweight and wants to lose pounds, just come by the Methodist Youth Building every Tuesday morning at 8:30.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q - I have a joint bank account with my son. Are we each taxed on one-half of the interest received?

A - No. You are taxed on the interest in proportion to the amount you each contributed to the joint account. For example, if you contributed all the money in the account, you would be taxed on all of the interest.

Q - My mother lives with us. Her income consists of tax-free social security benefits and a small pension. Can I claim her as a dependent?

A - Yes. In general you can claim your mother as a dependent if she had gross income of less than $750 (tax-exempt income, such as social security benefits, is not included in the $750 gross income test) and you furnished more than half of her total support. For more information, see IRS Publication 501, "Your Exemptions and Exemptions for Dependents." It's available free from your IRS office.

Q - After receiving $10,000 under an educational loan program to go to medical school, I agreed to practice medicine for five years in rural areas of the state. As a result, each year one-fifth of the loan is cancelled. Am I taxed on this amount?

A - Yes. If any part of the loan is cancelled in a particular year, that amount must be reported as income for the year.

Q - I work as a waiter. Do all my tips have to be reported to my employer?

A - No. If you receive less than $20 in tips in the course of your work for one employer during the month, you are not required to report that amount to that employer, but you may do so if you wish. However, you must include this amount in income on your tax return. If you receive tips of $20 or more in a month while working for any one employer, you must report the total amount of those tips to that employer on or before the 10th day of the following month. This can be done on IRS Form 4070, "Employee's Report on Tips," available from any IRS office.

Q - I pay a housekeeper to take care of my children and clean my house while I am at work. I know I can deduct her wages as a child care expense, but what about the social security taxes I pay in connection with her wages. Are these also deductible?

A - Yes. When a taxpayer makes deductible employment-related expenditures for household services and for the care of dependent children and those expenditures necessitate the payment of the employer's share of social security tax, such taxes are deductible as child care expenses.

For more details on such deductions, see IRS Publication 503, "Child Care and Dependent Care." It's available free from your IRS office.

Q - I sold my condominium and plan to use the profit from the sale to purchase land to build a house. Do I have to build and occupy the house within one year of the sale of the old residence to be able to postpone tax on the profit from the sale?

A - No. You may be able to postpone tax on the gain, if within one year before or after the sale of your residence, you have begun construction or obtained a building site, construction loan, approval of plans for a new residence, and a building permit. Also, you must occupy and use your new residence as your principal residence not later than 18 months after the sale of the old residence. You are entitled to benefit from this 18-month rule if you build your own residence or contract to have a residence constructed according to your specifications on specified land.

A - I own a small office building and donated rent-free use of an office to an charitable organization. Am I entitled to a deduction for this donation?

A - No. In general, you are not entitled to a charitable contribution deduction for the donation of this kind of partial interest in property.

Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council

(RELEASED THROUGH PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY, AUSTIN)

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This signature story by Governor Dolph Briscoe introduces a 12-part public education series on organized crime in Texas. The program, developed by the Texas Department of Public Safety, shows the significance of syndicate interests in Texas crime and emphasizes the immediate need for public involvement in crime-fighting and crime-prevention programs. Subsequent stories describe the Texas network of organized rackets -- bookmaking, auto theft, prostitution, pornography and drug traffic. The stories are based on interviews with state law enforcement officials and representatives from the ten Texas Organized Crime Task Forces. The Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council, co-chaired by DPS Director Colonel Wilson E. Speir and Attorney General John Hill, sponsored the series in conjunction with the Governor's Criminal Justice Council, the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the Texas Department of Public Safety, the office of the Attorney General of Texas, and local law enforcement agencies.)

By DOLPH BRISCOE
Governor of Texas

Organized crime flourishes on dark street corners, in back-room bookie joints and pornography parlors, and in dingy warehouses stacked with stolen goods.

Its brain center, however, more likely is in a high-rise apartment or office building in a major city, where the men who benefit most from the narcotics traffic, organized gambling, and other illegal enterprises can enjoy their dirty business without soiling their hands -- relatively safe from the criminal justice system.

This is so-called "syndicate" crime in Texas today -- not as glamorous as the Mafia but just as deadly in terms of human suffering, economic loss, and heavy taxpayer expense in law enforcement and prosecution.

Many Americans, especially in large Eastern cities, have learned the hard way that the greed of power-hungry racketeers has no limits. Their greed can involve nearly every part of the daily life of a community -- jobs, government services, politics, police work, union activity, business and finance.

Senator John L. McClellan of Arkansas, chairman of the Criminal Law Subcommittee, pointed out that "at various times, organized crime has been the dominant political force in such metropolitan centers as New York, Chicago, Miami, and New Orleans." He added: "Only fortuitous circumstances prevented its takeover of Portland, Oregon and Kansas City, Missouri. Smaller communities such as Cicero, Illinois, and Reading, Pennsylvania, have been virtual baronies of organized crime."

While no Texas cities are on that list, this state is not immune from the organized rackets and it will require vigilant law enforcement backed by citizen support to prevent the spread of crime.

The drug culture, of course, has been a bonanza for organized crime. The smuggling and pushing of illegal drugs is virtually impossible without a net-

USDA INDEMNITY APPROVED FOR BRUCELLOSIS REACTORS IN TEXAS

Texas cattlemen with brucellosis reactors in their breeding herds now are eligible to receive federal indemnity payments provided by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), when infected animals are marketed for slaughter.

The indemnity will be paid only on reactors found in complete official herd tests -- not in tests at sales yards -- points out Dr. E.S. Cox, area director of USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS), Austin.

"The decision to make the payments was made at the request of the Texas Animal Health Commission, to strengthen efforts to eradicate work of criminals from source to final sale.

I recommended reform of our drug laws to the Legislature in 1973. The bill which was passed brings our laws into line with national standards and provides stiffer penalties for those who deal in hard drugs. The Legislature also approved my recommendation for a law making it easier to convict those who deal in stolen goods, and for the first time in a century the Texas Penal Code was revised to meet modern conditions.

But stronger laws work only in a climate of public concern. Many people have a tolerant view of "victimless" crimes -- bookmaking, pornography, prostitution. Yet all of us are victimized by these crimes, because the racketeers who enable them to expand their illegal operation and infiltrate legitimate businesses and labor activities as well.

The Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council, a division of the Governor's Criminal Justice Council, was established by executive order to coordinate state and local anti-crime programs. As in other government responsibilities, there must be planning and new programs to cope with the threat of organized crime while it is still a manageable problem. Again, public awareness is essential to success.

brucllosis," Dr. Cox said.

All states now participate in USDA's brucellosis indemnity program. At present, about 99 percent of the nation's cattle are free of brucellosis. But the remaining 1 percent continue to threaten our livestock industry, Dr. Cox points out. A large percentage of the infected herds are in southern and southeastern states.

The indemnity will be paid on reactors bled on or after July 1. The amount will be $50 on grade cows and $100 on registered cows and bulls. No indemnity is allowed for grade bulls, steers or spayed heifers.

Reactors will be branded with the letter "B", not less than 2 inches nor more than 3 inches high, on the left jaw. They also must be identified by a metal tag with "reactor number" in the left ear, and must go to slaughter directly after the test. Indemnity claims will be initiated by state or federal regulatory officials or accredited veterinarians, subject to approval for payment by APHIS Veterinary Services. Instructions for preparing claim forms will be sent to these offices soon.

Dr. Cox suggested that first payments under the indemnity program may be delayed as much as 90 days after claims are received. The time lag should be cut in half, however, as the program becomes established.

Slightly Slanted Gerrymandering is a legislative rearrangement of voting districts so that they favor the political party in power by creating new areas of support. The World Almanac notes that the term was coined after Massachusetts' Gov. Elbridge Gerry redistricted a county so that its shape resembled a salamander.

The French colony, Acadia in Canada, was ceded to Britain in 1713.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Curfew

Curfew laws, designed to keep youngsters off the streets at night, have been around for almost 100 years. But only recently have the courts been taking a close look at their validity. Does a city have the legal authority to put limits on anybody's freedom of movement?

The basic idea has generally been approved. One youth, arrested under a curfew law, challenged it as a form of discrimination against younger people. But the court pointed out that minors are lawfully singled out with regard to everything from marrying to driving, from attending school to buying liquor.

Upholding the law, the court said:

"Children are under recognized disabilities in many respects. Because of their lack of mature judgment, they are subject to continuing supervision until they become of age."

Nevertheless, a curfew law may be struck down if it is too broad.

Another case involved a curfew that banned all minors from the streets after 10 p.m., with almost no leeway for exceptional circumstances.

In a court test, the judge noted that this law could punish youngsters coming home from evening classes, from work at the library, from school games or dances, even from church activities.

Finding the law invalid, the court said it violated "the right of every person to enjoy and engage in lawful and innocent activity."

In one recent case, police booked the father of a 16-year-old boy for "allowing" him to be out after the curfew hour.

The court conceded that it was constitutional to punish the parent in such a situation. However, it seems the father had been told -- and had honestly believed -- that his son was spending the night at the home of a friend. Dismissing the charge against the father, the court said he could not have "allowed" conduct of which he was not even aware.
