EX-STATE TREASURER IS AGAIN PROMOTED

Austin, Texas, Feb. 1.—G. N. Holton has been appointed by Gov. Neff as a member of the State Fire Insurance Commission, to succeed T. M. Scott, whose term expired today.

Mr. Holton was actuary-statistician of the commission and his appointment comes as a promotion.

Mr. Scott retired after three years' service, during which he was active as a member of the commission and was the author of a number of changes in its rates and regulations.

Previous to becoming actuary-statistician of the commission, Mr. Holton was State Treasurer of Texas. He occupied the latter two positions only a short time, having been chief clerk of the Treasury for many months.

Previous to that he was chief bookkeeper in that department, having entered the State's service from Limestone and Freestone Counties.

As chief clerk of the Treasury Mr. Holton drew an annual salary of $2,750, and as State Treasurer only $2,500. He became Treasurer following the resignation of John W. Baker.

When C. V. Terrell was appointed Treasurer Mr. Holton was made actuary-statistician at $3,000 a year, and as commissioner he will draw $3,600.

"GRANDMA" GARDNER

Mrs. J. F. Gardner died at the family residence in Junction February 8, 1922.

She was born in 1859, and was married to J. F. Gardner March 29th, 1877.

To this union were born eight children, five boys and three girls, one boy and one girl dying in infancy.

She and her husband came to Kimble County in 1879, and have raised their family here.

She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church South in 1879 and lived a consistent life to the end.

These are the dates between which this noble character lived.

She was a devoted wife and mother, and her children called her blessed. She was very considerate of her home, and worked and planned for her children even to the end of her life.

The funeral service was held at the family residence by her pastor, Rev. R. L. McIntyre. The Eastern Star had charge of the service at the cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones, we express our sympathy and commend them to God and the word of His grace.

Mrs. Gardner is survived by a sister, Mrs. L. Miller, of Corsicana; two daughters, Mrs. T. P. Phillips, of Rock Springs, and Mrs. Love, of San Antonio, and four sons, Fletcher, Buck,

THE EAGLE HAS BEST MONTH IN HISTORY

January 31st ended the best month from the standpoint of the business it enjoyed, in the history of the paper. Ordinarily, January is a "slack" month with newspapers, but the patronage that this paper has enjoyed proved a very happy exception.

We doubt if any town the size, or anywhere near the size of Junction, is so loyal in patronizing its home paper as is this. We may or may not be getting out a paper that meets the rightful demands of our readers, but that is another question. One thing is sure: We cannot publish a first-class country newspaper unless we secure a good advertising and commercial job printing business.

Perhaps the paper is not what it should be, and is not what we hope to make it, but there is no better inspiration to the management of any enterprise than that which comes from the loyal support of its friends and customers. We want to make the Eagle bigger and better. Help us do this.

In accepting advertising, we only cater to the best and most reputable firms. We have the welfare of our readers at heart. The advertisements that occur in this paper are worth your while to read. They are the business stories of this section of the country. Read them, and patronize them.

Help us make the Eagle more useful to the community.

FIRST CHINESE GOES TO ISLAND JAIL FOR THEFT

New York, Feb. 7.—The world "do move."

Wong Chow and his uncle, Wong Gee, are progressive Chinese. Chow was caught stealing twelve nail clips and a pair of gloves from a Sixth Avenue department store and was sentenced yesterday to Blackwell's Island, the first of his race to go there for such an offense.

Gee is charged with a still more modern crime—bootlegging. Three detectives say they nabbed Gee distilling rice wine at 11 Pell Street, in New York's "Chinatown." He was arraigned in Tombs Police Court and held in $500 bail. Gee is 70 years old.

Joe and Wilburn, all of whom were at her bedside when the end came.

Thus one by one, we are passing into the eternal world to give an account of our stewardship here below.

McCULLOCH COUNTY GAINS 691 VOTERS OVR LAST YEAR

The list of qualified voters for the present year shows a remarkable gain over last year, according to the totals just compiled by Tax Collector Hubert Adkins. The payments for the current year total 2,320, with 66 exemptions, or a total of 2,386 qualified voters. The total payments in 1921 were 1,684, with only 11 exemption certificates issued, giving the total number of qualified voters as 1,695. The net gain in voters this year over last, therefore, is 691.—Brady Standard.

Good Roads Save Much Time

Mr. and Mrs. Alex J. Hamer and Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Skaggs spent Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in San Antonio. Mr. Hamer says he made the return trip in about six hours, and from the county line to Junction in fifty minutes, thus demonstrating the time saved by reason of the good roads. He also says that the work is progressing rapidly in Kerr County, several miles having already been graded.

THE AVERAGE MAN.

The papers overlooked him, for he never beat his wife, He never tried to rob a bank or take another's life, And he wasn't very brilliant and he didn't try for fame, So there was no real occasion for the press to print his name.

The papers overlooked him—he was never deep in debt, He never slipped away from town with all that he could get, He never made a million, never wrote a modern play, So there wasn't much about him for the editors to say.

He paid his yearly taxes just the same as you and I, He went to work o'mornings with a twinkle in his eye, He kept a little garden, and his children seemed to grow into just the sort of children that the world is glad to know.

His friends were never many, but the few he had were true, For they had all discovered what the papers never knew: He was brave and clean and kindly—one of millions, I suppose, Whose lives are ordinary from beginning to the close.

And the more I think about him, it's the ordinary man Who's the glory of the nation and the strength of every clan, So I pay this tribute to him—not the genius or the crook, But the honest, normal, average man the papers overlook.

Baptist Church Weekly Notes

We shall have all regular services at the church next Sunday. Come and help us, and enjoy worshipping with the people.

Two good audiences greeted the pastor last Sunday. The sermon on "Pouring in the Meal" received earnest attention.

We are more than pleased with our first Sunday's use of the weekly envelopes. So many more than formerly are now making regular contributions. This plan seems to be especially favorable to those who can make only small contributions.

At the monthly conference, Miss Lillian Kendrick was elected treasurer to succeed O. C.

Reid, resigned. Miss Kendrick can always be found at the First National Bank. Envelopes can be left with her, if they are not brought in on Sunday.

The pastor acknowledges invitations to preach at various points in the county.

We are studying some thrilling incidents in the life of the prophet Elisha. Come and join us in the study at Sunday school.

Miss Bernice Knox substituted as secretary in the absence of Miss Emma Pickett last Sunday.

We are glad to learn that most of our sick are better, and hope to see them with us again soon.

Methodist Church Weekly Notes

The regular services of the church will be held Sunday morning and evening.

The service at Copperas was good—the largest congregation we have had. Copperas is a fine community, and we very much appreciate them and their kindness to us.

At our prayer services each Wednesday we are going to study our Articles of Religion. We need to know why we are Methodists, and be able to give an intelligent and scriptural reason for the same.

We appreciate every good word that has been spoken of our work, and we expect to do our best for the town and also the country, while we are here. Sunday night, we expect to discuss law enforcement, as we see its needs.

We cordially invite you to our services.

INCOME TAX FACTS. No. 2.

Changes in the revenue law are of material benefit to the average family man. Under the revenue act of 1921 a married person, living with wife or husband, whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less, is allowed a personal exemption of $2,500. Under the revenue act of 1917 the exemption allowed a married person was $2,000, regardless of the amount of net income.

The normal tax rate is the same, 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions, and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. Given his personal exemption of $2,500, plus $400 for each dependent, a married man with three children—the average American family—will pay this year on a net income of $4,000 a tax of $12. On the same income for 1921 he would have paid a tax of $56.

Every citizen and resident of the United States must determine for himself whether his income for 1921 was sufficient to require that a return be filed. Full instructions for making out a return are contained on the forms, a copy of

HAMER CONTINUES TO MAKE GOOD AT UNIVERSITY OF PENN.

A candidate for Johnny Bartels' berth as Penn's pentathlon entry was uncovered recently. A lad capped a series of performances by proving himself to be something of a javelin thrower, and may be a regular phenom with the spear.

He is Tex Hamer, the gigantic full-back on the football team last fall, who has been branching out in track and field sports. Hamer recently tossed the javelin a distance of 160 feet, in a postponed contest for that event on Franklin Field.

This mark compares well with the performances by Johnny Bartels in the event several years ago in the Penn relays, when Bartels copped the honors with a toss, but little better.

Already Coach Lawson Robertson sees hope of making Tex into a pentathlon candidate. Tex can toss the shot, throw the hammer, win 60 and 100 yard dashes, and do a few other miscellaneous tricks, in addition to throw the javelin 160 feet.

All told, that is something more of an all-round athlete than has made appearance in the Quaker track squad since Bartels' days.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Farmer Buys Produce; Banker Raises His on Lot

Here is the difference between one farmer's methods of making ends meet and how one banker does it down at Rockdale, Texas.

The farmer in question was recently in a Rockdale grocery store buying bacon, lard, sweet potatoes, turnip greens, beside his sugar, flour, coffee, breakfast food, fruit, etc.

Later the banker in casual conversation related what he and his family sat down to at dinner that day, the itemized account of the food raised by the wife, also bacon, turnip greens, lard, sweet potatoes, butter and milk and cheese of the cottage variety. The banker owns no farm, just a large town lot of perhaps a quarter-block dimension.

The farmer in question went to the banker's home to negotiate a loan.

A Savings Account at the First National Bank

For several years we have constantly kept before our customers the importance of keeping a SAVINGS ACCOUNT.

A great many of them have followed our advice and are now on easy street. They don't have to borrow money. They haven't got loans out to their friends which they can't collect. All they have to do is come to the bank and draw on their savings account.

The past financial stringency has demonstrated the wisdom of keeping your money where you can use it when you need it. A bank account is your best friend. You don't have to press a friend or neighbor to pay you something. You only have to give your check for it.

Then your money earns something while it is waiting for you to use it.

We pay 5 per cent on savings and $1 will start an account. You can add to it every month, every week or every day as you like.

LEE, THE EDUCATOR.

In every civilized land military experts still sit at the feet of Lee, the Soldier, consummate master of the Art of War. In a million American homes young and old revere and honor him as the ideal Christian gentleman, the finished flower of Southern chivalry, culture, and character. Yet few, even in the South, recognize or appreciate his genius as a broad-visioned, far-seeing educational statesman.

His sublime renunciation of offered wealth and ease and luxury that the might, in the face of universal poverty and desolation, give himself to the task of rebuilding Washington's war-wrecked and bankrupt institution was only equalled by the steadfast zeal and consummate ability with which he essayed and accomplished the seemingly impossible task.

In an age when college training meant only Latin, Greek, Philosophy, and Mathematics, when "practical" studies and student laboratories and the chairs of English and modern languages were practically unknown in college circles, when law was taught almost entirely in lawyers' offices through private instruction, and our modern university schools of journalism and of commerce were undreamed of; in a little mountain village fifty miles from the nearest railroad; in a locality and section desolated and impoverished almost beyond conception by the hellish ravages of invading armies, General Lee in five years gathered a large faculty, secured for them an ample endowment, built necessary buildings, gathered the largest student-body in the South, and made his institution not only financially prosperous, but the one conspicuous center of Southern higher education, crowded with eager ex-soldier students from every Southern state.

Yet these achievements as an administrator were far outdone by the educational transformation of a typical classical college into an institution a full generation ahead of its times. In five short years he added Schools of Law, of Journalism, and Engineering, departments of Physics, English, Modern Languages and had already planned what would have been the first college School of Commerce and Business Administration when, worn out with his herculean labors, he fell at his post, and left his institution as its legacy to his beloved land.

Thus the five years' work of Lee the Educator fittingly crowns and supplements the work of Lee the Soldier. And, undoubtedly, when the long roll is finally called and his total contribution to the uplift and betterment of the human race is finally assessed and determined, his work at Lexington will outshine and outweigh all the more transient glories of his military career. Amid the battle-smoke and dust of conflict of that stormy era of war and reconstruction, his majestic figure has been steadily rising in the eyes of the world as the purest and loftiest and most symmetrical character yet evolved by our Christian civilization.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a prompt treatment of indigestion

PATCHES

(By Capt. J. D. Dickson.)

Where is the patch? The dear old-fashioned patch, the abomination of the illustrious,
and the pride of the industrious? Is it gone forever?

Patches denote industry, not indigence.

Patches signify thrift, not poverty.

Only the other day the body of a woman was found floating on the East river in New York state. The telling waters had washed off the rouge, the bed-ragged finery had lost its sheen, the once curled hair was like a mass of tangled seaweed; but the hollow cheeks and sunken eyes were there to tell the tale. A minister looked on. "A useless life," he said, "it were better laid away."

But he was wrong—this minister of Christ. It was not a useless life at all. It only needed patching!

Why, your county jails and state penitentiary have hundreds of men. They are considered useless garments. Society cannot use them and they are put away in musty cells, food for the moths of corruption.
Yet, all they need is patching.

The idle man, the shiftless, casual worker; the hobo; the tramp; the drunkard; and the woman of shame, are society's useless garments. They are shoved aside in uninviting, desolate, gloomy places, food for the germ of bolshevism.

Yet all they need is patching.
This is the New Year. It is a good time to start. Perhaps we have not been quite as honest as we could have been. Perhaps we could have been kinder.
Perhaps we have refused to help a brother in distress.

Perhaps we have slandered an innocent fellow creature. Perhaps we have violated the Golden Rule.

Perhaps, perhaps, perhaps, perhaps—so with the needle of honesty, and the silvery thread of hope; by the undying and illuminating rays of the holy lamp of repentance, let us proceed to fill up the rents in our souls; and some day we will blossom out in new garments. True, they may be composed entirely of patches,
but they will be honest patches.
Many of us are made up from head to foot with patches.

To work! It's patching time.—Ballinger Banner-Ledger.

FORD RETAIL SALES GO OVER MILLION

SHOW INCREASE OF 105,000 CARS AND TRUCKS OVER PREVIOUS YEAR

Retail sales of Ford cars, trucks and Fordson Tractors have again exceeded the million mark for the year 1921, according to a statement given out today by the Ford Motor Company.

The Ford factory and assembly plant production figures reached a total of 1,050,740 cars, trucks and tractors for the year, with retail sales by dealers approximating 1,095, 000, which in a cinct United States alone, exceeded the 1920 retail sales record by 104, 213 Ford cars and trucks.

The Ford Company says the outlook for 1922 is decidedly optimistic. In fact, concrete evidence already exists in that car and truck retail sales for December, 1921, exceeded December, 1920, sales by almost 25 per cent, and Fordson Tractor retail sales for the same period show an increase of over 100 per cent for December, 1921, as well as an increase over total tractor sales for the month of November.

These facts seem to indicate that not only are the farmers buying more freely, but that the general public is becoming more responsive and receptive.

Another point brought out by a comparison of production figures for the past two years shows that Ford enclosed cars are gaining in popularity, as 22 per cent of the 1921 production were Sedans and Coupes as against a total of 18 per cent for the year previous.

Recent reductions in Ford car and truck prices brought them to a new level. The four-door car now sells for $1345, the Run-about for $1199, the coupe for $1500, the Sedan for $1655, the Chassis for $2255, and the Truck for $1430, all F. O. B. Detroit.

This is the fourth price cut in the past sixteen months. During that time the price of the touring car alone has been cut from $2725 to $1515, a reduction of 45 per cent. Reductions on some of the other types have been even greater.

The Ford Company believes that this reduction, while not a huge one, is especially important at this time, as it should go a long way toward stabilizing market conditions.

Ford is giving employment at present to approximately 40,000 men in his main plant at Detroit, the industry of which is emphasized when consideration is given to the fact that nearly 30 per cent of the city's population is dependent upon the Ford Motor Company.

That's why big and little folks who know
the difference insist upon KELLOGG'S!
The thing to do is to make comparison—
Kellogg's against any other kind of corn flakes you ever ate! If it's all-the-time crispness or delicious, appetizing flavor you want—well, just you eat Kellogg's! And, what a delight to know they're never leath-

You'll get so cheerful about Kellogg's

Fordson Tractor

The new price of the FORDSON TRACTOR is $395.00 F. O. B. factory, or $462.00 delivered at our place of business in Junction. There is no question but what this is now the best power at the most reasonable price that any ranchman or farmer can buy. You can use it for most anything that you need power for around your place. Do your plowing, planting, mowing, harrowing, etc. With a pulley and governor attachment, you can use it for all kinds of belt work—pumping water for stock or for irrigation, sawing wood, grinding feed, run your shearing machinery, and dozens of other things. A Tractor with pulley costs $30.00 extra, and a governor costs $35.00. For stationary work, it will be better to use a governor, but it is not necessary, and can be used without a governor. Most every ranchman and farmer can use a FORDSON to good advantage. Think of the FORDSON not only as a Tractor, but think of it as a power plant, for that is what it is.

Come in and let us tell you more about it, and remember, we are at YOUR SERVICE, and want to HELP you solve your power problems.

Make yourself at home at our store—YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME, whether you want to buy or not.

GOODYEAR TIRES

Through past issues of The Junction Eagle, we have tried to inform you in reference to the GOODYEAR adjustment policies for 1922. Did you read our advertisement? We hope so. We also told you to make use of our FREE SERVICE in helping you to get more miles out of GOODYEAR TIRES. Have you taken advantage of our offer, or are you putting it off till tomorrow?

We are at your service, and will be glad to help you in any way we can. We handle GOODYEAR TIRES only, and have come to that conclusion after trying many different makes of Automobile Casings, and good ones, too. From actual experience over a period of eight years, we have found the GOODYEAR to be as good as any Tires we have tried. Now we are carrying the GOODYEAR ONLY. Our customers who have been using them for years are still using them today. A pretty good sign that they give satisfaction.

WHEN IN NEED OF TIRES AGAIN, TRY A GOODYEAR

Prices on Ford Sizes as follows: 30x3 Plain, $9.85; 30x3 1-2 Non-Skid, $10.95; 30x3 All-Weather or Ribbed Tread, $12.35; 30x3 1-2 All-Weather or Ribbed Tread, $14.75.

When in need of a Tire, think of Goodyear and give them a trial. Come in and make our Store your headquarters when in town. You are always welcome. Bring the family, and the children, and make yourself at home.
