OKLAHOMAN IS FEARED SLAIN AFTER BLOOD STAINS ARE FOUND

(By The Associated Press)

EL RENO, Okla., April 25.—A possible murder mystery cast a shadow today over El Reno's first celebration of the forty-fifth anniversary of its settlement in '89 by hard-riding home hunters.

The finding of a blood-stained cowboy hat, a pistol and a rifled pocketbook in the abandoned automobile of Henry G. Sheets, El Reno electrical supply dealer, stirred fears that he had been slain.

Dressed As Cowboy

Sheets, six-feet, two inches tall and weighing close to two hundred pounds, was dressed in "cowboy" garb for the celebration when he left El Reno Monday afternoon with $200 to pay some bills in Oklahoma City.

His automobile was found near Noble, south of Norman in Cleveland county.

In the blood-stained "ten-gallon" hat he had worn were two holes, which Sheriff John Harrison of El Reno (Canadian county) said appeared to have been made by bullets. The inside of the hat and the floor of the automobile were stained with blood.

No shots had been fired from the "six-gun" which Sheets, 35, had been wearing as part of his pioneer celebration togs.

Search Launched

A widespread search was launched for some trace of Sheets. Officers theorized that he had been slain and robbed, possibly by a hitch-hiker, and his body thrown in a creek or roadside ditch.

As celebrants, who had let their whiskers grow for weeks in order to lend an authentic note to the pioneer atmosphere, appeared in chaps, ten-gallon hats and "six-guns," officers demanded strict obedience of an edict that no shots be fired—not even blanks.

Oil Production In Texas Is Increased

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP)—Legal oil production from Texas fields today passed the 1,000,000 barrel mark for the first time since September 1933 when the Texas railroad commission cut production by one fourth to conform to federal allocations.

Increases granted by the commission for fields in four districts became effective at 7 a. m., today, boosting allowed production to more than 1,010,625 barrels, about 30,000 barrels greater than the federal recommendation for April and May.

Arguments Started In Cannon's Trial

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—Arguments were begun in the trial of Bishop James Cannon, jr., today with an assertion by John J. Wilson, the government prosecutor, that the southern Methodist churchman had "an ingrown hatred of the corrupt practices act" he is charged with conspiring to violate.

The prosecution and defense attorneys were given four hours each to argue to the jury whether the bishop and Miss Ada L. Burroughs should be convicted or acquitted of conspiracy to violate the federal act by failing to report to the clerk of the house all the contributions received for the 1928 anti-Smith campaign.

NEW WAGE SCALES SETTLE DISPUTES

THOUSANDS TO BE RETURNED TO WORK

ACCORD EFFECTED IN COAL AND GLOVE CONTROVERSIES

(By The Associated Press)

New wage scales brought accord today in the controversies affecting 21,000 idle Alabama coal miners and 3,000 striking New York glove workers.

In two other centers of the nation's labor disputes—the railroad and automobile industries—conferences continued from which progress was reported.

New Trouble Appears

But new troubles cropped up, with Cleveland gasoline dealers on a strike aimed to deprive more than 200,000 motorists of their fuel supply and coal operators predicting a shut-down of every mine in western Kentucky.

The "complete accord" between Alabama coal operators and labor leaders was based on an increase of 40 cents a day in the minimum wage scale. Plans were being formulated for a resumption of work.

Operators in Kentucky and other states, however, protested that they could not afford to pay the new wage schedules, ordered by the NRA.

One Issue Unsettled

A point still remained at issue in the glovers' strike at Gloversville, N. Y., as to whether the wage increase should become effective when the men return to work or when the schedules are accepted for the glove industry as a whole.

Agreements ended two more strikes—of 2200 miners in four Shenandoah district collieries of Pennsylvania, and of 700 employes at the Diamond Match company in Barberton, O.

MAN KILLS GIRL AND HANGS SELF

ROME, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Authorities were at a loss today to establish a motive for the brutal sash-weight murder of a 19-year-old girl by her father, the probable fatal wounding of his wife and his subsequent suicide by hanging.

When Nicholas and Joseph Ross caem home from work yesterday afternoon they found their mother, Mary Ross, 64, unconscious on the kitchen floor and their father, Joseph, 68, hanging in the hallway from a rope attached to the stair railing.

Soon after police arrived the body of Beatrice Ross was found in her bed upstairs. Both women apparently had been attacked while asleep. Both were in their night clothing and the mother apparently had fled to the kitchen in an attempt to escape.

The sashweight apparently used to batter the heads of the victims was found in the kitchen.

President To Ask For New Authority

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—President Roosevelt intends to ask authority in a forthcoming supplemental appropriation bill to start actual naval construction to bring the United States fleet up to treaty limits.

This would permit the president to begin the construction program any time he sees fit.

Legislation recently enacted authorized a building program up to treaty limits.

Differences Cause Cabinet To Resign

MADRID, April 25 (AP)—The government of Premier Alejandro Lerroux resigned today as a result of differences with President Niceto Alcala Zamora over Spain's new political amnesty law.

Despite the breach, well informed circles said the president probably would recall Lerroux and urge him to form another cabinet.

President Zamora, it was said, feels that it will be impossible under present conditions for any government except one similar to the resigned ministry to rule.

SCIENCE BATTLES STRANGE MALADY

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Science struggled anew today, with scant hope of success, to save two little girls from the deadly leukemia, baffling malady of the bloodstream.

A second blood transfusion was arranged for Mary Labora-Doldan, 3 years old, who was growing steadily weaker in a Buffalo, N. Y., hospital.

Four-year-old Roma Garrett, being treated at Grasslands, N. Y., likewise was reported gradually losing strength. She is too weak to talk.

Leukemia, a strange disease which drives red corpuscles from the bloodstream and steadily saps the strength of its victims, has brought death to three children in the last ten days.

ONE KIDNAPER IS AT LARGE

WOMAN FREES CAPTIVE AND HELPS CAPTURE TWO ABDUCTORS

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, April 25.—A 28-year-old telephone engineer owes his freedom today to a quick-thinking woman gasoline station operator.

With her husband, she rescued him from the hands of three kidnapers and aided in the capture of two of them. The third member of the kidnap gang remained at large.

Woman Frees Captive

The woman, Mrs. G. H. McKee, pulled Charles M. Kella, jr., from the rumble seat of an automobile yesterday after the three men drove the car up to her filling station at Winfield, Tex. Kella said he had been forced to ride with them all night in his own automobile.

When the trio drove up to the McKee gas station, Kella had been jammed into the rumble seat and the top closed on him. The men ordered gas and when the woman's husband, G. H. McKee had filled the tank they told him they couldn't pay for it.

Mrs. McKee overheard the discussion about paying for the gas, seized her husband's pistol and came to the front of the station. The men offered a shotgun and a spare tire in payment, but both were refused. Two of them started down the road with the spare tire to try to get money at another station, leaving the third man in the car.

Outlet Sought For Wheat Carry-Over

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—Department of agriculture officials envisaged today a 340,000,000 bushel wheat carry-over into 1935 and busily scanned export markets for a possible outlet for some of it.

The department would like to hold the carry-over to 250,000,000 bushels on July 1, 1935, which would still be twice the normal figure.

AGENTS PRESS SEARCH FOR DESPERADO

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT PUTS FULL POWER INTO MANHUNT

(By The Associated Press)

MERCER, Wis., April 25.—America's million dollar murderer, with a puny $25 price tag on his head—and the blood of 13 men across his bullet-blazed trail—mocked today an army of more than 5,000 officers who hunted him.

"We'll have John Dillinger before long," said the department of justice through its division of investigation at Chicago.

The earnestness of the government's determination was witnessed by both the great number and high calibre of agents they threw into the hunt.

No Word Of Desperado

But there was no word of the desperado despite the intensity of the hunt. Rumors flew, but all simmered down to the fact that John Dillinger vanished Sunday night from the Little Bohemia ersort near here and has been unreported since.

In a criminal career dating only from last June—not yet a year—this 31-year-old, small town man from Indiana has cost an estimated $1,500,000 in law enforcement funds and another $500,000 in loot from banks he has robbed; yet the only reward offered for his capture is the nominal $25 which the state of Indiana offers automatically for the arrest of parole violators.

Even Europe, with the Atlantic ocean between it and America's public enemy A-1, displayed sharp interest in the killer's case. The Zwoelf Uhr Platt, published in Berlin, hinted that Nazi Germany might give America a lesson in how to deal with American desperadoes, and pointed to sterilization.

JOHNSON TAKES STAND IN TRIAL

LAMESA, April 25 (Special)—Being tried on a murder indictment, Deputy Sheriff John Johnson of Lynn county testified directly 45 minutes and under went an hour and a quarter of cross examination this morning.

Earlier this morning, before Judge Gordon B. McGuire and a jury in 106th district court here, the defense had presented character witnesses who testified that Johnson was of good reputation and that B. O. Best, whom Johnson shot to death, and Best's brother were reputedly dangerous persons.

Additional defense testimony was to be presented this afternoon. A night session probably will be conducted, although arguments may not be begun until Thursday morning.

The state completed its testimony and four defense witnesses were on the stand Tuesday.

COMEDIANS AT WHOM THOUSANDS HAVE LAUGHED MOVE COURTROOM TO TEARS

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—Two comedians, who have carried laughter to thousands, moved a courtroom to tears in the trial of a damage suit against Mrs. Myrtle Mack, widow of another comedian, Charles Mack.

"He seemed to recognize me from the touch of my hand—you know we'd been together a long time."

It was George Moran testifying. He and Mack had teamed together the country over. Now Moran, charging negligent driving by Mrs. Myrtle Mack in an automobile accident which brought death to Mack and injuries to him, is suing the widow for $34,500 damages.

"I was in the operating room where Charley was on a table and I took hold of his hand," said Moran.

"'Partner, this is the end,' he said. And then I didn't know what I was doing. I just went goofy."

Mrs. Mack, sitting nearby, burst into sobs, and women jurors dabbed at their eyes.

A few minutes before, Mack Sennett, producer of screen comedies and former film actor, had testified in this fashion:

"We were making 70 miles an hour. The lady was driving. There was a bang—a hissing noise. She holds the wheel tight, she doesn't know what to do, then she puts on the brakes. The car begins to sway and over it goes."

SAYS CHARGES "ALL HOKUM"

BROTHER OF HAMILTON DENIES ANY PART IN ESCAPE, ROBBERY

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 25—Floyd Hamilton today denied there was any truth to statements attributed to others, in which he was linked with the Grand Prairie bank robbery and the daring escape of his brother, Raymond Hamilton, and four other convicts from the Eastham state prison farm on Jan. 16.

"It's all a lot of hokum," Floyd Hamilton said in jail here. "I'm not the kind that pleads guilty to something I didn't do."

Charged In Slaying

At Crockett yesterday, Floyd Hamilton was charged with complicity in murder for the fatal wounding of Major Crowson, a guard, during the prison break. He also was accused of aiding a convict to escape. Previously he had been charged with having a part in the Grand Prairie bank robbery.

Clyde Barrow, gang leader with a dozen killings charged against him, was reputed to have headed the machine gunning crew which opened fire on guards of the convict work party to which Raymond Hamilton was assigned at the prison farm. Raymond Hamilton ran to a place where two pistols—allegedly smuggled on the farm by Floyd Hamilton—were concealed. Then he and another convict ran to a car and escaped.

Officers say John Basden, 22-year-old Dallas truck driver, has confessed to participation in the March 19 Grand Prairie bank robbery, naming Floyd and Raymond Hamilton as his confederates.

James Lamont, alias James Mullins, 45, reputedly an ex-Chicago gangster, has, Sheriff R. A. Schmid said, confessed to aiding in the prison delivery of Raymond Hamilton and four other convicts Jan. 16.

YOUTH IS HELD FOR MURDER

ADMITS SHOOTING OF AUSTIN WOMAN WHEN SHE "NAGGED" HIM

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 25—H. C. Cooper, 21, was charged today with murder for the death of Mrs. A. M. Fewell, 33, whom he said he shot because she "nagged" him.

Mrs. Fewell died at 1 a. m., six hours after she was shot in the abdomen.

Cooper told police last night Mrs. Fewell came into his room and "started nagging" him. Becoming angered, he took a .38 calibre pistol from a dresser drawer and fired five shots, only one of which struck the woman. Mrs. Fewell and her husband roomed at the Cooper home.

Cooper, an unemployed printer's helper, was held in Travis county jail.

PADUCAH, April 25 (AP)—Two crewmen were recovering today from cuts and bruises suffered when a Quanah, Acme and Pacific passenger train was derailed four miles west of this city by mud, gravel and rock washed down upon a highway crossing.

The train was composed of an engine, which turned over, a baggage car and two passenger coaches. Another train, from Floydada, picked up the baggage and mail.

Extension Sought To AAA Licensing

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—Extension of the licensing provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment act to make them apply to all marketing agreements will be sought by the administration at this session of congress.

ARMED THUGS HEAD TOWARD NEW MEXICO

ABOUT $2,500 IN LOOT TAKEN BY GANG OF FOUR ROBBERS

(Special To The Journal)

LEVELLAND, April 25.—Four armed bandits swooped down on this little Hockley county town shortly after 2 p. m. today and robbed the First National bank of Levelland of about $2,500. Rounding up all employes and customers in the bank, and locking them in the vault, the bandits worked quickly and were soon speeding westward toward the New Mexico state line.

The gang escaped in a V-8 Ford thought to be bearing a Texas license plate.

Two men appeared in the front door of the bank and announced that it was being held up, waving pistols in the faces of customers and employes and ordering them to the rear of the building. Two or three men were thought to have stood guard on the outside of the building.

LATER REPORT

A later report from Levelland said the bandits who robbed the bank there this afternoon had turned back east after going several miles west toward New Mexico. Officers all over the South Plains and eastern New Mexico were notified to be on the lookout for the gang. The robbers were said to be traveling in a tan-colored V-8 Ford bearing a yellow license plate.

Depositors Also Robbed

All officers of the bank, including John Doyle, president; Harry Mann, vice president; and Mrs. Irene Ellis, cashier, were shoved into the vault along with at least eight or nine patrons. As they were being forced into the vault, one of the men robbed several of the prospective depositors of their funds.

The alarm was spread quickly, there being a telephone in the vault, but the bandits were out of town before officers could arrive on the scene.

The two men who entered the bank were said to be about 25 years of age, slender and rather dark complexioned. They were not masked.

Vault Door Locked

The bank officers, employes and patrons were forced to lie on the floor of the vault as they were marched in, and one of the men jammed the door.

Included in the customers who were forced into the vault were: Otis Burson, Ford dealer; W. B. Little, dry goods merchant, and Douglas Witt, ginner. All were released unharmed several minutes after the robbery.

ROOSEVELT URGES HOMESTEAD PLAN

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—President Roosevelt's latest counsel to the country is to look ahead, to plan nationally, rather than depend on "legislative panaceas" for recovery or continue to grow "haphazardly."

He has new ideas for using his "pet," the subsistence homestead program, as a medium for national planning to bring back into a balance a population he said had grown up "like topsy."

In an easy-going, extemporaneous talk to directors of projects who are already trying to find uncrowded homes and a bit of land for those stranded in industrial centers, Mr. Roosevelt counseled a backing away from "legislative panaceas."

Promising there would be no "regimentation or transplanting of population by force," the president said the government aid is to provide opportunities for those who wanted to help themselves.

BANDITS GET BETWEEN $2,000 AND $5,000 IN OKLAHOMA

SAND SPRINGS, Okla., April 25 (AP)—Two unidentified robbers who obtained between $2,000 and $5,000 from the Sand Springs State bank here late yesterday, apparently had eluded pursuing officers today.

Four hostages, including three women, were taken on a wild ride for a mile out of town before they were released, unharmed.

Parking in an alley at the rear of the bank at the closing hour the robbers broke the glass of the back door, unlatched it and walked in, one man flourishing a pistol and declaring it was "a holdup."

R. E. Bassett, cashier, was forced to place the money in a satchel and carry it out to the waiting car.

Miss Pal Willhour, Elsie Gould and Lillian Rawson, the first two employes, the latter a customer, also were forced to accompany the robbers as they fled.

Miss Gould and Bassett were forced to stand on the running board of the car. On the outskirts of town the car was stopped, the four were released and the robbers drove on.

TUGWELL'S RANK AND PAY BOOSTED

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—All in the space of a few hours, President Roosevelt Tuesday arranged a $2,000 pay increase and new title for Dr. Rexford G. Tugwell, indirectly quoted by Dr. William A. Wirt in his "revolution" charges, and then himself made an apparent public reference to the Gary educator's allegations.

Tugwell, who has been drawing $8,000 a year as assistant secretary of agriculture, was nominated for the newly created post of undersecretary, carrying a salary of $10,000.

And, speaking without manuscript, Mr. Roosevelt told a group of subsistence homestead workers:

"By using gray matter, brain trust or otherwise, we can discover a lot of new things we can do. We want evolutions. When you hear talk of revolution there is one letter too many in that word.

LINDSEY BODY IDENTIFIED

LUBBOCK MAN KILLED IN FALL FROM SAN ANGELO BRIDGE

Identification of a body Tuesday at San Angelo as that of Thomas W. Lindsey, 51, of Lubbock, was reported by the Associated Press. The man had fallen from Lone Wolf creek bridge near San Angelo last Wednesday.

L. C. McNeil, a brother-in-law, went to San Angelo from Brady and identified the body.

Mrs. Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Johnson, and Miss Floy Shaw, a niece of Mr. Lindsey, of Anton, left for San Angelo about 7 p. m. Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lindsey are sisters.

Mr. Lindsey, who lived at 2114 Avenue L, spent several months in a Civilian Conservation corps camp last fall.

Found Under Bridge

Mr. Lindsey, 51, was found under the bridge by two men. His neck apparently had been broken in the fall. Relatives said he was subject to heart attacks.

Lindsey was married in March 1933, to Miss Evelyn McNeil, sister of Mr. McNeil. Lindsey, a retired farmer and a cook, was an ex-service man. The widow, one son at McCamey, and a daughter at Smyer were survivors.

ONE of the mysteries of life is how much care a man will take of thoroughbred animals—noting when they are "off"... and toning them back to the "pink of condition" to increase their daily usefulness... yet will shamefully neglect his own run-down condition.

Yet some people just hope when "run-down" that they will "come around."

Blanton Continues Fuss With Hearst

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—Representative Blanton (D-Tex) yesterday continued his dispute with William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, saying on the house floor that "if he ever makes a coward'y, dirty little attack on me again in his papers, I'm going to get up on this floor and give his life history."

Blanton was irritated by a story in the Washington Herald, Hearst newspaper, stating that "Blanton, the representative from Abilene, (Texas) is up for reelection again" he blocked house passage of an old age pension bill for the District of Columbia.

"I am getting tired of Mr. Hearst and his reporters trying to hamstring me every time I try to stop a bill I think is wrong," Blanton said on the floor.

LUBBOCK GRID SQUAD WILL MEET EXES

GAME SCHEDULED THIS AFTERNOON ON FAIR PARK GRIDIRON

Present and past wearers of the black and gold of Lubbock High school Westerners will meet at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon at Fair park in a game that will provide the only immediate answer to queries as to what the Chapman gridiron machine will be next fall.

Their condition not equal to that of the younger lads, the alumni will have the margin in power and experience, and enough reserves at hand when tongues begin to hang out.

The Westerners suffered a jolt when it was learned that Robert Allan Hill had suffered a break of the small bone in his left leg in last Friday's scrimmage. The injury at first appeared to be only a bruise. Hill had been doing the signal calling and had developed into a valuable ball carrier. His passing was also one of the factors the Westerners relied on. Eugene Alderson probably will start in place of Hill. Alderson has been showing ability as a passer, punter and runner.

Backs Promising

Starting with Alderson in the backfield for the Westerners will be Morris White, Charles Calhoun and Woodrow Barnes. White, ineligible last season, has speed. Calhoun, letterman last year, is an effective blocker and strong on defense. Barnes, a guard of last year, is a good blocker and has been developing fast as a back. The line will be led by Captain "Blackie" Young at center. Aycock and Phillips at guards, Dixie White and Dowell at tackles, Whitehorn and Griggs at ends. Capable reserves are available.

The Westerners will complete their spring training with this game. The prospects for their being in the running in the 1934 District I race have been fairly encouraging. This game will show whether they can run against good competition.

Probable Line-Ups

Westerners		Exes
Young	C	Crawford
Aycock	RG	Hodges

Dowell	RT	Doherty
D. White	LT	Wimberley

Westerners who will see service are: McGraw, Lunn, Hendricks, Martin, Colvin, Babe Ritchie, R. Ritchie, Wright, Jackson, Halsell, G. Jones, Meador, J. Jones, Nelson, Gore, Burt, Fulton, Upton, Vermillion.

Exes: Newton, Gruiberry, Bradley, Bradshaw, Haley, Simmons, Stroud, Jenkins, McCarty, Vaught, E. Powell, Turner, Speer, Duval, Prather, Billings and Hutson.

Before police reserves arrived, a follow-the-leader band had trailed the sharp-talking agitators from the grandstand's sun-drenched hulk past the baking bleachers to a dug-out. Heavy, wearying heat beat upon their heads. The grass-green infield was ashimmer. Gaudy signs hurled the heat back from the fences—heat that pressed and clung. Shirt-sleeved men, red-faced, excited, fidgety, trudged at a tentative pace, choking in the dust their toes aroused. Uniformed athletes wiped flannel sleeves across sweating faces. Contorted brown faces suggested the punishment of nine blistering innings beneath that sun, in a sky of so ironic a blue . . . as faint as blue ice.

Self-appointed hecklers harped upon fair play and spouted versatile unexpurgated descriptions that caused small boys, dirty blouses half open, to creep closer the better to hear. The crowd was a milling half circle before the dugout. Within the curve, in front of the attractively cool little bench-house, were the players. Bluecoats gestured cautiously with slim, black clubs, made of ash, leaded, elastic enough to give while whacking a skull. Talking loudly—a, less wavering, the crowd gave way only momentarily before those threatening sticks. What was a cop to do? These were the home folk, the taxpayers, the little Southern league city's patrons of America's national game. And all they wanted, all they asked, was permission to beat the daylights out of several ball players.

The sun sucked away patience. Plucking their clinging, begrimed uniforms from against their skins, the players replied in like tongue, passed the lie, challenged, spat brown in the dust. In front of them stood their short, stocky somewhat pudgy manager, still a player, in his younger days a better performer than were these aggressive pupils of his. He spoke calmly, confidently and inoffensively. He issued a "shut up" order to a player now and then. Yes, his first baseman had spiked another lad very neatly that day. Yes, there had been blows struck here and there about the diamond. What had they paid for, these pretenders to a love of baseball? An agitative chord struck, the mob stepped forward. Intentions were voiced plainly.

Square hand of the blocky, age-softened leader tightened about the bats he had held so loosely. The cops waited for the solution. Two lean players, jaws flexing, stepped beside him. To each he gave a bat. He kept one himself. The crowd watched tensely. Its leader edged closer, fearful of losing their support. The pudgy old player spat, scratched in the dust beneath his spikes meditatively. "If we can't get out of this park," was the gist of his announcement, "we'll stay in it, and if you don't think we'll stay in it our own way, step up here." Crowds often change their minds.

Lamping other rags: Adrain Odom, who assisted Jerry Malin in the Amarillo News-Globe sports department, has abandoned the "niche for one that is a little larger" . . . "Good schooling, it has been discovered, can make a good athlete," writes Janet Owen in an Herald Tribune article about physical education in girls' schools . . . "The gift of an unusually high level of natural coordination and control is no longer everywhere considered the only open sesame to sports enjoyment and achievement," she adds . . . Stocky, quick-moving Billy Sunday, who played centerfield for Chicago, Pittsburgh, and Philadelphia in the National league before becoming an evangelist, told a Sioux City reporter the "Red Sox will be hard to beat, if Lefty Grove's arm comes out all right" . . . Texas leads all other states in number of players in the major leagues with 36 . . . Dick Griffin, whose Herrera-Ross match fell through, hopes to arrange a meeting of Maxie Rosenbloom, champion of the light heavyweights and the night clubs, and Clyde Chastain of Dallas, who has twice shaded Slapsie Maxie. Flint Dupre reports in the Dallas Journal.

FORT WORTH DEFEATS INDIANS AFTER SEVEN STRAIGHT LOSSES

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Fort Worth Cats, after seven consecutive defeats, amazed their most loyal supporters by scalping the Oklahoma City Indians, 4 to 3, yesterday. Two thousand fans attended the opening at Fort Worth and got their money's worth in a tense game the Indians almost won in the final inning.

Oklahoma City scored one run and had a runner on third in the ninth when Skipper Del Pratt whistled young Harry White to the showers and relieved him with the veteran Dick Whitworth who nipped a rally to give the Cats their first 1934 Texas league victory and the Indians their second defeat in eight starts.

Exporters, Missions Tie

Not playing the ninth inning by agreement because of the necessity of catching a train, the Beaumont Exporters and San Antonio Missions played a 6-6 tie at Beaumont. The Exporters loaded the bases in their half of the eighth inning with nobody out but Ash Hillin, ace of the San Antonio mound staff, retired the Exporters on a short fly to Mazzera in right field and two called third strikes.

Before a paid crowd of 5,815, the Dallas Steers won their opening game at Steer stadium by defeating Tulsa 7 to 2. Charlie Barnabe, southpaw, allowed Tulsa 13 hits but the Oilers could not bunch enough of them for over one run in a single inning. Charlie Moncrief pitched for the Oilers and weakened badly in the fourth to allow three hits and three runs.

The crowd was large enough to win the J. Alvin Gardner league president trophy for the Steers—the trophy going to the city with the largest opening day crowd.

In the only night game, the Galveston Buccaneers out-lasted the Houston Buffaloes to win, 19 to 11. It was a free slugging and running affair. Galveston got to Lyons, Fisher, Cvengros and Copeland for 20 hits. Houston got to Jorgens for 11.

RACE IS WATCHED FOR DERBY DOPE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 25. (AP)—Louisville's derby enthusiasts, with nothing but workouts to judge the merits of candidates training here, turned today to the east where a smart band of eligibles for the Kentucky Derby May 5 was entered in the Shenandoah purse at Havre de Grace over a mile and 70 yards.

The result of this test was expected to furnish an answer to questions concerning the ability of Mrs. I. D. Sloane's Cavalcade, considered in many circles to be the most serious eastern threat in the Derby. Cavalcade was coupled with Mrs. Sloane's Anarchy today.

C. V. Whitney's Jabot, one of the three outstanding fillies nominated for the Derby, was coupled with Collateral, a Whitney colt, and others in the field were Col. E. R. Bradley's Boy Valet, Mrs. Frank J. Heller's Agrarian and William Woodward's Firelock, all eligible for the Kentucky Derby.

POOR HURLING HANDICAPS SENATORS

"BIG FOUR" FAILS TO COME THROUGH FOR LEAGUE CHAMPS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Among the numerous perplexing problems which have arisen to plague major elague managers is the big one which faces Washington's Joe Cronin—what's wrong with the Senators' pitching?

Last season it was largely the hurling of the Senatorial "big four," Alvin Crowder, Earl Whitehill, Monte Weaver and Walter Stewart, which carried the Nats to the American league championship. So far this season, ten different Senator elbowers have made a total of 23 appearance in eight games and the standing of the clubs shows Washington in seventh place with three victories and five defeats. Only one, Al Thomas, has remained on the job for nine innings.

Lose To Red Sox

Stewart made his second unsuccessful start of the season yesterday as the Senators opened their home season and took a 5 to 0 trimming from the Red Sox. With 25,000 fans, including President Roosevelt, looking on, the slender southpaw pitched four shutout innings. Then a rainstorm held up the game for an hour and when it was resumed Manager Cornin decided to turn the hill over to Jack Russell.

The Sox belted him out in one inning, scoring three runs, and clouted Crowder for two more before Bob Burke finished up. Johnny Welch, meanwhile, limited the champions to five hits.

While Oral Hildebrand hurled four-hit ball, the Cleveland Indians clouted four St. Louis flingers for 19 hits, including a pair of homers by Hal Trosky, and won 15 to 2. Detroit's Tigers subdued the White Sox 7 to 3 in another slugfest.

Forty thousand fans turned out to see Charley Ruffing of the New York Yankees and John Marcum of the Philadelphia Athletics hook up in a great pitching duel which Ruffing won when Frank Crosetti belted a home run in the sixth for the only run of the game. Each twirler allowed only four hits.

The Chicago Cubs won their sixth straight National league victory, a 3-2 decision from the Cincinnati Reds, scoring all their runs off Dazzy Vance in the first inning. Right on the Cubs' heels came the world champion Giants with an 11-7 triumph over the Phillies, gained largely by a pair of home runs apiece by Pitcher Al Schumacher and Mell Ott. A homer by Freddy Lindstrom with two on in the ninth gave Pittsburgh a 5-4 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Boston Braves found a near relative in Walter Beck, big Brooklyn right hander, and won their first home game 5 to 3.

RACE ENTRIES ARE CLOSED

FAIR PARK HANDICAP WILL BE SATURDAY AT DALLAS TRACK

DALLAS, April 25. (AP)—Entries for the Fair Park handicap, the feature race Saturday at the opening of the spring race meet at the new Texas State fair ground track, closed last night.

This race, with a $1,500 added purse, is for three-year-olds and up and will include such thoroughbreds as Clarify, winner of two races at Arlington Downs, Hickory Lad, winner of the Louisiana derby and second in last Saturday's Texas derby, and Mr. Bun, winner of the final race Saturday at Arlington Downs. Noah's Pride, Repaid, Dis Dat, Mad Wind, Sad Knight, Essential and Trombone are other horses almost sure of post positions in the handicap stake.

A large delegation of Corsicana people probably will be present opening day since Clarify is owned by W. C. Stroube of that city.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and her staff and former Governor Jim Ferguson may attend the opening. All have been invited by the racing committee. Elaborate ceremonies will open what is claimed to be a $250,000 racing plant. Workmen are busy putting final touches on the track, the stables and the grandstand.

Horsemen on the scene have pronounced the track among the best in the country. Over five hundred thoroughbreds are stabled at the new track waiting for the bugle calls.

DON HEFFNER AND LEN KOENECKE ALSO SHOW SURPRISING FORM

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—The Cubs and the Dodgers, the White Sox and the Yankees, on the face of the early returns, are most to be congratulated on their baseball scouting system.

More than a score of first-year men have been cavorting on major league diamonds since the season opened but standing out above the rest so far have been George (Tut) Stainback of the Cubs, Zeke Bonura of the White Sox, Don Heffner of the Yankees, and Lew Koenecke of the Dodgers.

Stainback Delivers

Given his chance for a regular outfield berth through the pre-season injury to hard-luck Hazen Cuyler, Stainback, one of the greatest speed merchants the National league has seen come up in years, has delivered with a bang. His fielding has been flawless and his batting so good that Cuyler probably will be kept on the bench until the rookie from Los Angeles hits a slump. So far he has pounded opposing pitching for ten hits in 26 times at bat for a .385 average compared with the .335 he compiled in the coast league last year.

Bonura, big first baseman from Dallas, has been just as big a sensation in the White Sox lineup. He has clipped along at a .381 rate so far and inserted three homers in his collection of eight hits.

Heffner, however, has been the real surprise, stealing the headlines his more highly-touted rookie comrade, Bob Rolfe, had been expected to draw. A smooth second baseman from Baltimore, Heffner was rated a weak hitter whose brilliant fielding would nevertheless keep him in the Yankee lineup. But the rookie has shown no batting weakness so far. His average stood at .381 today while Rolfe, now on the shelf with an ankle injury, was hitting at only a .200 clip.

Koenecke Looks Good

Like Stainback, Koenecke received his big chance through the injury of a regular, Danny Taylor. Labelled a "bust" when he was up with the Giants a few years ago, Len has pounded out ten hits in 27 times at bat for an average of .370, and fielded sensationally to boot.

Although their averages are not so high, Alan Strange from Hollywood, Harland Clift from San Antonio and George Puccinelli from Rochester seem to have caught on regularly with Rogers Hornsby's St. Louis Browns. Strange has hit .294 so far, Clift .278 and Puccinelli .250. Julius Solters' timely slugging with the Boston Red Sox has been a feature of the early returns and Hal Trosky, new Indian first baseman, drove in six runs with two homers and a pair of singles yesterday after a slow start. Frank Hayes, young catcher who hits them far when he connects, has been the principal find of Connie Mack's Athletics.

Harry Lavagetto, new Pirate second baseman, has hit only .240 so far but has driven in six runs. Ivy Shiver, a clouter from the International league, went hitless in 19 times at bat for Cincinnati before getting a home run and a single yesterday and his average stands at .087. The Phillies rookies, Louis Chiotza, Meredith Hopkins and Irvine Jeffries, have been disappointing at the plate so far.

Suicide Pact Is Completed By Man

CANON CITY, Colo., April 25. (AP)—Sentenced to life imprisonment for murder after the death on his wife in what he insisted was a double suicide attempt that did not prove fatal for him, August Pasierbeck, 27, formerly of Chicago, killed himself at the Colorado prison here by taking poison and then wrapping around his head a towel soaked with an anesthetic.

CHILD DROWNS

RICHMOND, April 25 (AP)—Robert Ansel, 10, was drowned in a canal one mile north of Richmond yesterday when he fell from a spring board into a deep hole. When rescued Robert was alive but he died four hours later.

FENTON SEEKS TO AVENGE MAT LOSS

FACES VAN BEBBER IN MAIN EVENT TONIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

Tonight's main event in Sled Allen's grappling program at the Auditorium will provide "Lightning Rod" Fenton, Canadian middleweight champion, an opportunity to avenge being pinned recently by Jack Van Bebber, former Olympian who is his opponent again tonight.

Fenton made his bow to this region with a surprising victory over the Amarillo fat boy, Otis Clingman. He jarred Squeeky with drop-kicks for three skull-cruises to the concrete of the Amarillo hall. The next day Clingman left for a month's rest cure in New Mexico.

Plays With Referee

Then at the auditorium a couple of weeks ago snarly-mouthed Rod became occupied with the referee, tossing that dignitary among the audience in the manner of a child playing a game, and was spilled for the third and deciding heat of a melodramatic bout. And there on the mat amid a whizzing barricade of pop-bottles and boos, Fenton expressed his disgust with fate and raucously demanded a return match with Van Bebber.

So the meaty mauler from the north woods and the long-legged Olympic champ have a lot to settle in their battle this evening which goes, maybe, for three falls and certainly to a positive finish.

Hallas On Tap

Billy Hallas, bundle-bodied little Greek from El Paso, will protect his top-flight position among the welters this evening against the menace of young Ed McMillen, Greeley, Colo., in the one-fall semi-final.

Second only to Champion Jack Reynolds in his weight division, Hallas is undoubtedly one of the cleverest and perhaps one of the ugliest bone-benders on this loop. Bruising head-locks, chanceries, and scissors are Billy's specialties.

SANDERS WILL RESIGN POST

REPUBLICAN HEAD TO QUIT BECAUSE OF HIS ILL HEALTH

WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—Everett Sanders was reported today to be ready to relinquish his seat at the wheel of the Republican machine.

This decision by Sanders, former secretary to Calvin Coolidge and director of Herbert Hoover's unsuccessful campaign for reelection, was attributed by intimate friends largely to ill health.

Resting On Farm

The chairman of the Republican national committee was reported resting in seclusion at his nearby Maryland farm.

Sources close to Sanders said he has sent telegrams to many Republican committeemen, calling them to an early meeting, probably in Washington. Twenty-four expressed a willingness to follow his desires.

Acceptance of Sanders' resignation would precipitate the struggle, long brewing in Republican circles, over the choice of a new party head.

The existence of factions within the party, unable to agree on a leader, had caused a sizeable anti-Sanders bloc to defer until after the fall eelctions its intentions to depose him.

New Leadership Sought

Republicans in congress, desiring a new leadership but fearful of the effects of an open split in the party before next November, even took the almost unprecedented step of cutting loose from the national committee for the coming campaign and arranging to run their own shows.

Various men have been put forward as eventual nominess for the national chairmanship.

James E. Watson, of Indiana, former Republican leader in the senate, has been heavily backed by one group. Henry P. Fletcher of Pennsylvania, former ambassador to Italy, likewise has been mentioned, as have Walter Hallanan of West Virginia and Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily News. Knox has definitely declined to consider the post.

Even before confirmation of the report by his friends, Sanders was known to feel that his health might take him from active politics.

LAST OF U. S. FLEET MOVES THROUGH PANAMA CANAL BUT NOT ON SCHEDULE

COLON, C. Z., April 25. (AP)—The last of 111 United States fighting ships moved through the Panama canal today, completing the first maneuver of the kind in history.

It was some 36 hours after the start of the movement of the fleet from the Pacific to the Atlantic when the final vessel entered the canal. Commander-in-Chief David F. Sellers had hoped to complete the transit in 24 hours.

Today, however, navy men were pleased with the clockwork efficiency of the maneuver, despite the fact the 24-hour attempt was a failure.

Teh last of the ships to enter the canal moved in late last night and the Balboa terminal was opened for the first time since Sunday to foreign and commercial shipping.

Officials announced that not one accident had been reported in the maneuver, involving the speedy passage of battleships, destroyers, cruisers and an airplane carrier—while planes soared overhead and soldiers guarded the locks.

Commander-in-Chief Sellers denied rumors that the feiet, or part of it, will be ordered back to the west coast.

On the contrary, he said, the fleet will remain in Canal zone waters fo rplanned maneuvers before proceeding to New York to be reviewed by President Roosevelt.

MANEUVER HELD FAILURE

TOKYO, April 25. (AP)—Big headline were devoted today to what vernacular newspapers termed "the American fleet's failure" in its attempt to traverse the Panama canal in 24 hours.

"Passage through the canal in 24 hours has been proved impossible," one vernacular newspaper said.

Early On Scene

April's zephyrs whisper across college campuses that it's time to elect May queens, and one of the first to win this coveted honor is Miss Mildred Hanes, above, named queen of the May at Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., oldest woman's college in the south. She will be crowned on May 5.

Four New Members Accepted By Vets

Lubbock post of Veterans of Foreign Wars last night at Hilton hotel accepted four new members, Richard Martin, commander, announced.

The recruits were Edward Forester, route 1, Lubbock; Roy L Hooten, Shallowater; Claud W. Conway, Tahoka, and Robert L. Luttrell, route 3, Tahoka. Three Amarillo men, Col E. U. Bradley, past Texas department commander of VFW; Joe Omlon, and Neil Heimansen attended. Homer L. Pharr addressed the veterans.

CITY CLEANUP PLAN TALKED

FIFTH ANNUAL DRIVE IS BEING PLANNED BY COMMITTEE

With four loving cups that Lubbock won as the first Texas city in 1930-31 32 33 campaigns displayed, a committee in the chamber of commerce Tuesday afternoon planned a 5th annual cleanup-paintup program.

Walter G. Alderson, chairman of the committee, presided.

Dates Are Scheduled

The committee set official dates of the campaign for the week of May 6 to 12, inclusive, and will urge that property owners start immediately cleaning their front and back yards, houses from basement to attic, garages, barns, vacant lots and other property.

The Boy Scouts will be asked to conduct a nail pick-up campaign as in previous campaigns and the Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other organizations will be called upon to have a part in the campaign.

Clubs To Cooperate

Cooperation of the membership of the City Federated Women's clubs and other groups will be solicited.

The throwing of hand bills, circulars, and dodgers on residence lawns and porches was declared a nuisance by members of the committee and a motion was passed that a sub-committee be appointed to study the matter with the idea in view of eliminating this practice in Lubbock.

MRS. CASEY WILL BE BURIED HERE

Last rites for Mrs. J. F. Casey, 74, who died Tuesday morning at her home at 1634 Fifteenth street, were to be read at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Stahler Funeral home by Rev. J. B. Denton of Cone. Burial, directed by Rix-Bynum Funeral home, was to be in Lubbock cemetery.

Capt. Guy Casey of the Lubbock fire department was one of Mrs. Casey's four sons. Four daughters also survived. Mrs. Casey's husband died Oct. 5, 1931.

TALK all you please about your spring sunshine and it's fine. But an occasional misty, moisty morning like this one today makes a good change.

There's a good tang to a damp spring morning, with the earth throwing off its pleasant odor.

Of course, The Plainsman wouldn't want to go without sunshine always but this morning was a pleasant break in the monotony of things.

GENTLEMEN of science now tell us that if Ponce de Leon had eaten common foods containing Vitamin G he wouldn't have crossed the then uncharted seas in search of the Fountain of Youth in Florida. Although the specific use of this vitamin has not yet been developed fully as yet, its discoverer asserts that it promises 'lengthened youth' for the whole race.

If the new vitamin is all its cracked up to be don't be surprised, in a few years, to see 90 year old men riding scooters and 75 year old women sitting on the sidewalk, playing jacks.

This Vitamin G is quite stuff, says the fellow who is promoting it.

THE fact that all regular teachers in the Lubbock school system will get a $5 per month raise is not so important from the $5 standpoint as it is as an indication that things are improving.

All over the country school boards have been forced to cut teachers' salaries to the bone and even then have been unable to keep the schools running on a cash basis. There was some little trouble in Lubbock, with taxpayers on more or less of a forced strike, but someway, somehow, the job was done and now the announcement of the salary increase indicates that the worst is over.

In public as well as private business it is much easier to cut salaries than it is to raise them and it is to be hoped that it will be possible to push the pay of teachers up almost as rapidly as it was pushed down.

Among those who have borne the brunt of the depression have been that army of men and women to whom we entrust the teaching of our young and who spend years in preparation for their job.

They have a 'break' coming.

One trouble is that many persons don't consider work as relief.

THERE is something definitely wrong with a country that can build bigger and better schools churches and homes, that can have the highest scale of living in the world but still can't control a few bandits.

John Dillinger, Clyde Barrow, Raymond Hamilton and the rest prove to us, on the front pages of our newspapers every day, that we have failed miserably at the job of protecting society from the criminal.

Why is it?

One reason for it may be that we really don't care whether we protect society, or not.

We do a lot of talking about law enforcement but that's where it stops.

Many a fellow who does a good job of orating for law and order is the one who hangs the jury when he sits in judgment.

ANOTHER thing, of course, is the inane, foolish system we have of permitting a governor to throw open the pen doors at any time he so sees fit to do.

We spend thousands of dollars getting some yegg into the pen and a governor with no judgment lets him out with a wave of the hand on the pretext that his grandmother needs him to stir her cream of wheat.

Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Sterling and some of the other big hearted folks we've had in high places in Austin might pause to reflect sometime that maybe their actions, together with those of other pardon experts, play a part in making this the most lawless nation under the sun.

Mala, Stalwart Eskimo, Is Rival To Chaplin And Lloyd, Not In Comedy Role, But In Rare Appearances On Screen

BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 25.—Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd, the two comedy stars who make fewer pictures than any other players in the movie business, are about to have a rival.

He is Mala, the stalwart young Eskimo who made such a hit in "Eskimo." No, Mala isn't turning comedian. He will be a rival only in the matter of rare appearances on the screen.

Having been an actor for nearly two years already, Mala has only one picture to his credit. And it will be almost another two years before his next picture is on the screen.

He has just been assigned the leading role in "The Jungle Red Man," which will be filmed along the Amazon, 1700 miles from the mouth of the river.

Director George Seitz and a few assistants now are en route to the jungle location to make preparations for filming the picture. Actual shooting won't start until early in October, at which time an entire company and equipment will be transported to the location by air, that being the only possible means of transportation.

According to present plans, the filming of the picture will require about a year.

White Elephants

In speaking of the poor business now being done by motion picture theaters, Jack Warner remarked, "Every time an actor asks me for a raise these days I just offer him a theater instead."

Poor Listeners

The recent convention of the Motion Picture Theater Owners' Association here convinced me of one thing. They comprise the worst audience possible to assemble in one place.

At the dinner dance given for them by the collective studios, one could scarcely hear the entertainers above the incessant babble of voices.

Modest Big Shots

An interesting sidelight on the film industry was gleaned at this same party, given on one of the huge stages at the M-G-M studio. As many minor studio executives were driving into the studio in their expensive cars with chauffeurs, Winfield Sheehan and B. B. Kahane, two of our leading executives, parked their cars outside and walked to the stage where the party was being given.

Town of Two-by-Fours!

A complete city has sprung up in the San Fernando valley, about 20 miles from Hollywood, during the last few weeks. It's a town unlike any others to be found in Southern California, being a replica of a middlewestern town of the 1910 era.

Outwardly the place is complete, from the public square to the stores, office buildings and houses. But behind the scenes one finds a mass of two-by-fours supporting the "fronts" which will be photographed.

The town has been built for Ann Harding's new film, "The Life of Vergie Winters."

CRITICS AND VICTIMS

The secretary of agriculture, Mr. Wallace, was commenting on the Wirt investigation at the conclusion of the appearance on the witness stand of the Indiana educator.

"This is a free country", he said "It's always been looked upon as permissible for citizens to say things about public officials that would be libelous if applied to private people."

We don't know about that. The acts of public officials are proper subjects of criticism, but criticism of these can go too far, and it is not unusual for an official to seek legal redress against a critic.

Private citizens, on the other hand, have no recourse when assailed by congressmen as public officials. And attacks of this kind have become more frequent of late.

Two notable examples are Representative Bulwinkle's charge, subsequently denied with supporting evidence, that Dr. Wirt had been placed in jail during the World war, and less recent attacks by Senator Huey Long, who refused to surrender his congressional immunity in order that the victim of the alleged libel might seek redress.

Congressional immunity protects congressmen, however libelous their charges may be. Private citizens have no such immunity, even when criticizing congressmen.

Dutcher's News And Views OF WASHINGTON

Dutcher

(Copyright, 1934, NEA Service, Inc.)

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Next sensational NRA document to be suppressed is a citation of 20 specific cases where code authorities or members have brought different types of pressure on manufacturers to drive prices up and keep them there.

This bare, factual report from the Consumers' Advisory Board makes no comment. It bristles with evidence of open price association abuses, coercion of small industrialists who can profit on reasonable prices, price-fixing under codes which have no price-fixing provisions, and practices which drive prices far ahead of purchasing power. The citations show:

One manufacturer was untruthfully told by his code authority that he would be violating the code if he didn't raise a certain price from $10 to $24.25 and a competitor told him he would be sent to Atlanta.

Manufacturers in another industry were advised to get their prices in line by copying one another's prices, though admonished that it was illegal to do so.

A manufacturer complains that he can produce many items much cheaper than bigger corporations with "terrific overhead," but says the code authority threatened him with prosecution if he didn't observe its arbitrarily set price list.

Despite open price provisions, permitting publication of prices as submitted to code authorities, some of the latter groups have refused to publish any lowered prices.

Large manufacturers outvoting "little fellows" on code authorities have overridden protests of the latter that new prices were excessive. Small competitors are threatened with price wars and one, able to save 20 per cent on operating costs by selling direct to dealers and jobbers without salesmen, was threatened by a big competitor with being put out of business.

Although the report will be suppressed in the normal course of NRA events, it won't stay that way. Warm reverberations are highly probable.

Huey for President

Democratic cloakroom gossip is that Senator Huey Long plans to run against Roosevelt for renomination in 1936 and hopes to take at least a few southern delegations to the convention in an effort to block the president.

Some Democrats take this more seriously than it sounds, believing Huey may line up with other anti-Roosevelt elements in the party and take advantage of any subsequent decline in Roosevelt popularity—which, by the way, is just as strong as ever, on the basis of congressional mail.

Long is passionately bitter against Roosevelt, because he feels Roosevelt has "let him down" since taking office.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

PABLITO, a handsome youth, becomes a fugitive when he flees from Key West to Havana with BEAU and LOTTIE, two thieves. Pablito has been accused of a murder he did not commit. MARCIA TREADWAY who could prove him innocent fears scandal and remains silent.

Pablito is in love with ESTELLE FIELD. In Havana, under the name "Juanito," he becomes celebrated as a boxer and he and Beau open a gymnasium.

SIR AUBREY, a titled Englishman and Pablito's father, begins a search for his son, employing BILLINGS, New York detective. Billings convinced Pablito is Sir Aubrey's son and innocent of the charge against him, sets to work to prove this.

Three years pass and Pablito sees Estelle again. They meet secretly until her father takes her away on a yacht cruise. Pablito, believing Estelle faithless, leaves Cuba. Months later, in France, he reads of her engagement to ALEC DAVIDS. He decides to return to Cuba.

Field loses his fortune in a financial crash. He and Estelle, too, decide to go to Havana.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Jim Field went on, speaking slowly, "I've been feeling the cold here and I thought a few weeks in Havana might pick me up."

What he was thinking was, "At least I have the Havana house. I can sell it and with Estelle's income—" His vague reverie pictured the two of them managing on a reduced income, trying to shave expenses. The big place in Havana would be too large for them to keep anyhow. It had always taken a horde of servants to run it. Now they would have to get along with only a cook and second maid. There would be no others—no maid for Estelle or valet for himself.

He gave Estelle's hand— grown limp in his clasp—a hard squeeze and again moved toward the table. She watched him down another stiff drink with a splutter and a gulp. Something was wrong, she knew. One of the few vices Jim Field had never acquired was over-drinking. Of course, she concluded wearily, with a blunt, matter-of-fact frankness that contrasted unpleasantly with her earlier moment of sympathy, it must be some woman. He had usually had his way with women but in a long life-time of pursuit there was sure to be one desired one who would evade, perhaps with a cruel and mocking laugh.

"I hope Havana will make you feel much better," she said gently. Field thought of Estelle as she had been a few years earlier. She had always spoken gently then. Again his eyes stung.

"Well," he answered, "we'll have a try at it—"

His attempt at jauntiness was not convincing. She felt herself thawing and fought against this. She did not want to feel again the old pain that always followed whenever she gave way to real feeling, hoping or caring—all those pitiable, beautiful and fragile emotions that go with youth.

A soft-footed servant announced dinner from the broad doorway. Jim Field got to his feet and, passing the servant, saw in the man's eyes that he had seen the evening's newspapers and was wondering about his wages.

Pablito was glad to find Lottie and Beau where he had left them. And with Lottie's arms clinging about his neck and her tear-wet face raised to his he felt a faint glow of warmth. Lottie had always cared and he was grateful. No one else had always cared.

"Oh, my God, it's good to see you, Pablito!" she whispered unsteadily. "We thought sometimes you was never coming back! Where was you, any way?"

She didn't wait for him to answer. "Beau and me have kept the place going," she went on quickly. "It ain't so popular as it was but if you'll start fighting again—"

"I'm not going to."

"Say, you don't need to! Beau and me cleaned up good on a strip of land we bought. And you have enough anyhow. Say, Pablito, you haven't been sick, have you? You're not lookin' so terrible good."

"I never was 'so terrible good,' Lottie."

"Oh, Lord—grammar again! Just seein' you makes me excited and here you start in on that grammar. I meant you ain't lookin' any too well. But we'll fix you up! You ain't married?" she ended with a gulp that told of her fright.

"Heavens, no! Do I look it?"

"I didn't know, Beau's married. The girl was a dirty, sneakin' little crook and he hadn't no notion of marryin' her—but she managed that. You oughta hear her to Key West on a clear day, Honey—"

"Yes."

"I got your room. I moved outa mine so they—Beau and her—could have the other side of the house. I didn't want to hear 'em fightin' all the time! But I'll move to the next one if you'd rather I wasn't around—in your room—"

* * *

She ended with a hard flush but her eyes, lifted to his, were brave in their offer. Lottie had not changed, Pablito saw miserably.

"Aren't you over that yet, Lottie" he asked bluntly, but gently as he looked down at her.

She shook her head, set her teeth on her lower lip and her eyes brimmed. "I never will be," she assured him in a high shrill voice that trembled a little. "I even took to sayin' my prayers that you'd come back. I never done that before. Well, it worked. I'm your doormat with 'Welcome' wrote a foot high. Say, if you knew how I felt you'd pity the blind. I ain't got but one thought of heaven and that's you. Oh Pablito—!"

"Never mind!" he broke in a little abruptly. Then he smiled down at her, as convincingly as he could. Hands on her shoulders, he shook her gently and then looked around the big, bare room that has given him the feeling of returning home.

He found little change in the surroundings and this added to his feeling of home-coming. In the stretch of ground at the rear of the building the heap of empty tin cans had grown higher—their gawdy pictures of tomatoes, pears

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 25 (AP)—Cotton opened active today and as Liverpool was rather better than due, first traders here were one to three points up. Notices for May delivery issued here this morning totaled 33,100 bales and notices for 28,000 bales were reported from New York.

May started 2 points upon the assumption that the notices would be promptly stopped but that option later reached 7 points, widening the difference under July to 18 points. Months beyond May improved after the start, July trading up to 11.38 and October to 11.54, or 5 to 7 points net higher.

Later the late months eased off 4 to 7 points.

The market continued very active all morning and prices weakened sharply on continued circulation of May notices, despite transfers to later months. Easier wheat, silver and stocks, coupled with favorable weather, were additional bearish influences. May traded down to 10.96, July to 11.13 and October to 11.26, or 26 to 28 points under the early highs and 20 to 23 points below yesterday's closes.

Near noon, prices recovered 3 to 6 points from the lows, mainly on covering by shorts.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 25 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, unchanged to 5 points advance with higher cables than expected offset by foreign selling and weakness in silver. May 11.15; July 11.33; Oct. 11.50; Dec. 11.62; Jan. 11.67; March 11.81.

Trading was active at the opening. There was considerable May liquidation incident to issuance of delivery notices representing about 20,200 bales, and also selling through houses with Liverpool and continental connections on differences and a little selling by the south. Offerings were absorbed by trade or spot houses buying and covering, however, and the market steadied, May working up from 11.15 to 11.23 or 7 points net higher while October advanced to 11.57. The general list showed net gains of 5 to 8 points at the end of the first half hour.

The market weakened later in the morning. There were indications that trade interests were stopping the May notices but near month liquidation or switching into later months continued and except for trade buying or covering, the market lashed much support. Prices eased under scattered selling and some stop orders were uncovered on the decline which carried May off to 11.03 and October to 11.38. The market showed net declines of 10 to 13 points at midday.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Stocks and staples apparently were selling "ex-inflation" again today and prices generally pointed lower.

With silver enthusiasm wilting appreciably under the presidential frown, the bar metal was reduced 1 1-4 cents an ounce to 42 1-2 cents, the lowest figure since last December, silver futures dipped and rallied nervously. Wheat and corn yielded another cent or more a bushel and cotton, after initial firmness, turned heavy. Rubber also reacted. International dollar rates moved up briskly. Bonds were irregular.

Most of the metal shares were off fractionally to around a point. With the exception of N. Y. Central, which was steady, the rails were down as much. Chrysler dropped more than a point and the other motors eased. Industrial Rayon gave up 3 points and International Paper & Power preferred lost 2. North American and Consolidated Gas were in supply and moderate declines were suffered by American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Western Union, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Johns-Manville, Du Pont, American Tobacco B and Bethlehem Steel. The alcohols were a bit firmer.

DILLINGER HUNT

ment pointed its full strength at this one man. Re-enforcements went into the field, among them W. A. Rorer, the officer who brought about the arrest of another public menace, George (Machine Gun) Kelly, kidnaper-gunman now serving a life sentence in federal prison.

Rorer was in command of the small army of government officers concentrated in the wooded section of northern Wisconsin where Dillinger's Sunday night escape from a tavern left two dead in his wake.

The federal men, however, formed only a small part of the still larger army of approximately 5,000 state, city and county officers who were combing the underworld haunts of five middle-west states, confident that it was only a question of hours before they would either have Dillinger alive or send him back to Indiana in "a wooden box."

Prison Delivery Rumored

Among the hundreds of reports and rumors concerning the movements of America's No. 1 outlaw was one from Muncie, Ind., that led to the belief that Dillinger's mob might attempt to deliver his pals, Harry Pierpont, Charles Makley and Russell Clark, slayers of Sheriff Jess Sarber of Lima, O., from the Ohio State prison, at Columbus. Four men riding in an automobile with a machine gun near Munice gave rise to this belief.

Extra precautions were also taken at Madison, Wis., where three of the gang's girl friends captured after Sunday night's gunplay, are held in jail. It was feared Dillinger might try to liberate them. Similar apprehension was manifest at St. Paul, where Evelyn Frechette remained in jail on a charge of harboring the fugitive in an apartment house a few weeks ago.

The consensus among the investigators was that Dillinger's gang had split into two sections, one hiding out in Minneapolis or St. Paul and the other heading south and East into Illinois, Indiana or Ohio.

United States Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York, chairman of the senate anti-racketeering committee charged at Washington that there had been a "pathetic failure of cooperation between federal, state, and local authorities" in the Dillinger hunt. The charge was denied by Melvin G. Possolt, superintendent of the Minnesota bureau of criminal apprehension, and others.

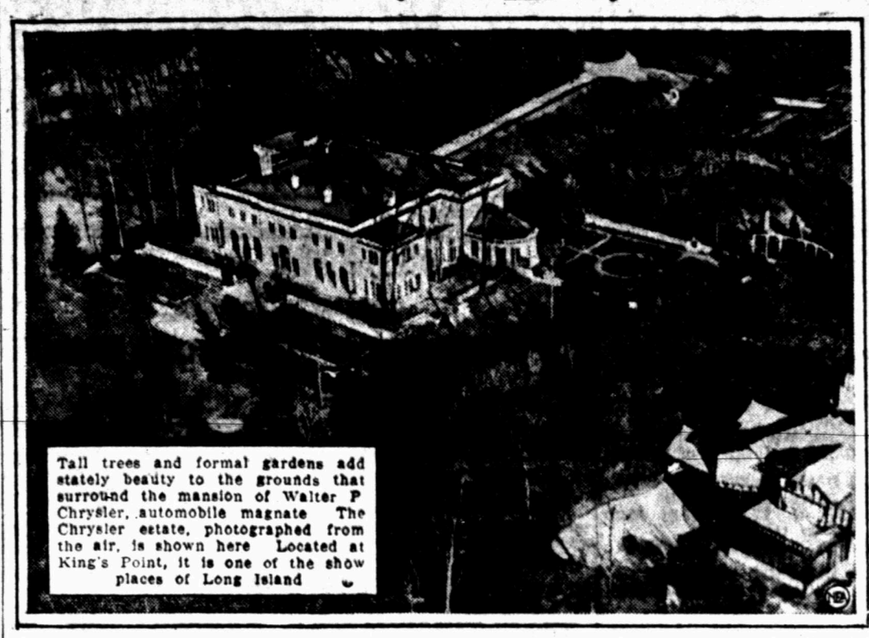

Airplanes Asked

At Washington Attorney General Cummings asked for airplanes, armored cars and additional forces to wipe out Dillinger and his men. He said if the federal men had had an armored car in their attempt to capture Dillinger near Mercer "this terrible tragedy would not have happened."

He referred to the deaths of a federal agent and a CCC worker, caught between the gunfire of the Mercer battle Sunday night.

If Dillinger is captured alive the state of Wisconsin will put in a bid for his return on charges of murder, growing out of the Mercer shootings. District Attorney Edmund Drager announced at Eagle River, Wis., that murder warrants would be issued against Dillinger and four of his pals—George (Baby Face) Nelson, John Hamilton, first lieutenant of the gang; Tom Carroll, and Homer Van Meter.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Saved: 200 Coppers

TROY, N. Y.—Police Justice Byron "wouldn't rob a child's bank even for the law."

So he told Everett Lawless, whom he fined $2 on a traffic charge.

Lawless dug down and brought out $2 in pennies.

"What's the idea?" asked Judge Byron.

"I've been out of work for some time," Lawless replied, "and had to take this from the kid's bank."

"Take it back," ordered the court. "I wouldn't rob a child's bank even for the law. Put it back in your child's bank."

What Do They Mean?

HAMILTON, Ont.—M. Funger, police court interpreter who speaks 13 or 14 languages and several dialects, underwent an English examination by defense counsel in court, and failed to pass with honors.

He said he didn't know the meaning of the words ambiguity, obliterate and opaque.

Fame Is Fleeting

PITTSBURGH—His job gone, Tom Hunt, 35, visited the family relief headquarters and applied for aid. Then he returned home to his wife and four children. There was an official-looking letter waiting from Washington. It said:

"I take great pleasure in informing you . . . you have been awarded the distinguished service cross in recognition for your extraordinary heroism in action near Cote-de-Chatillion, France, Oct. 14, 1918."

Toadstools in a garden usually indicate that the soil is too acid.

Peace Officers To Gather At Wichita

VERNON, April 25. (AP)—Wichita Falls was selected for the fall convention of the Association of North Texas and Southwest Oklahoma Peace Officers in September at the conclusion of a two-day spring convention at Childress recently.

Pat Allen, candidate for sheriff of Wichita county, was elected president to succeed Sheriff Savage of Altus, Okla., W. E. Wyatt of Wichita Falls, special officer for the Fort Worth & Denver railway lines, secretary, and W. M. Claybaugh of Mangum, Okla., was named vice president.

CONCERN CAUSED FOR WELFARE OF SAMUEL INSULL

S. S. EXILONA, at Casa Blanca, Morocco, April 25 (AP)—Recurrence of an old ailment—heart trouble—caused concern today for the welfare of the Exilona's famous captive passenger, Samuel Insull.

He suffered a slight heart attack last night as he puffed at a big black cigar and chatted with fellow passengers in the ship's salon.

The 74-year-old Chicagoan's face went white; his expression was one of great pain. Before a word was said, however, he arose and hastily left the room.

"Too much smoking," he said on his return a few minutes later. Insull planned to cut down on his smoking.

Aside from that, he apparently took no notice of the slight attack, but others were concerned for his health.

It was partially because of his weak heart that Insull was able to obtain extension after extension of his police residence permit to remain in Greece, remaining in Athens for months after the original order for his expulsion.

Some thought last night's attack might have been brought on in part by the rough seas encountered early Tuesday en route along the African coast to Casa Blanca.

HAMILTON

statement in the presence of Sheriff Schmid and District Attorney Ben Greenwood of Palestine at Corsicana last Wednesday, was quoted as saying he and Floyd Hamilton hid two pistols in an automobile inner tube under a bridge at the Eastham prison farm several days before the break and that on Sunday before the break, Floyd visited Raymond at the prison and told him of the hidden pistols and the morning on which the break was to be staged.

CONSTABLE'S SALE
STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF LUBBOCK.

Whereas by virtue of an Order of Sale issued out of the 41st District Court of El Paso County, Texas, on a judgement rendered in said court on the 7th day of March, 1934 in favor of The Peoples Building and Loan Association of El Paso, Texas and against George Duvall, Mrs. Joe Duval and G. J Casselberry, Trustee, against George Duval for the sum of $2661.63, and against all of said defendants for foreclosure of a mortgage, and of a 2nd mechanic's lien and 2nd deed of trust liens on the following described property securing the payment of said indebtedness, in cause No. 40550 on the docket of said court and to me as constable directed and delivered, I did on the 9th day of April, 1934 at 4:00 p. m. levy on said property which is situated in Lubbock County, Texas, and belonging to said defendants, to-wit: All of Lot 3, Block 117, of the Overton Addition to the city of Lubbock Lubbock County, Texas, on May 8, 1934, being the first Tuesday in said month, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. on said day at the court house door of Lubbock County, Texas, I will offer for sale at public auction for cash to the highest bidder, all the right, title, and interest of said defendants George Duval, Mrs. Joe Duval, and G. J. Casselberry, Trustee in and to said property.

Witness my hand this 9th day of April, 1934.

L. H. HOLT,
Constable Precinct No. One,
Lubbock County, Texas.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Myrtle P. Cowan by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therin, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 72nd District Court of Lubbock County, Texas, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Lubbock, on the third Monday in May, 1934, being the 21st day of May, 1934, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 5944, wherein R. I. Wilson and Lorena Wilson are plaintiffs, and Temple Trust Company, a corporation, H. C. Glenn, as receiver of said Temple Trust Company, and Myrtle P. Cowan are defendants, said petition alleging that on the 5th day of May, 1934, plaintiffs borrowed the sum of $14,000.00 from said Temple Trust Company and secured such indebtedness with deeds of trust liens on lot No. 11, in Block No. 134, of the Original Town of Lubbock, in Lubbock County, Texas; that the contract by which plaintiffs borrowed said sum is usurious and plaintiffs have more than repaid said loan, all interest being void and payments made should be credited on the principal debt; also on such credit of the principal debt, plaintiffs seek to recover double the amount of $1,656.65 paid in the last two years. Plaintiff alleges that the defendant, Myrtle P. Cowan, is asserting or claiming some interest in the notes evidencing such indebtedness, as well as the deeds of trust purporting to secure the same on the land above described of plaintiffs, the particular interest being unknown, and said Myrtle P. Cowan is made a party to this suit to clear their title in said property of any interest thereof of said defendant in said notes and deeds of trust by reason of the invalidity thereof because of usury. Plaintiffs seek against all parties the cancellation of all the notes evidencing such indebtedness above described and of all deeds of trust thereon on the property above described, and abatement and cancellation of all such indebtedness, and to remove clouds upon the title of the plaintiffs to the land cast thereon by virtue of such deeds of trust and notes purportedly outstanding, in the hands of all defendants.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, Charles B. Metcalfe, Clerk of the 72nd District Court of Lubbock County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, in the city of Lubbock, this the 17th day of April, A. D. 1934.

(SEAL)

Clerk, District Court, Lubbock County, Texas.

TEACHERS GET SALARY HIKE

$5-A-MONTH BOOST IS ORDERED FOR EACH FACULTY MEMBER

Lubbock board of education last night authorized teacher-salary increases approximating $9,000. All regular teachers in the system will receive $5-a-month hikes effective at the beginning of the 1934-35 academic year.

Three recently elected officers were sworn in by Clyde F. Elkins, board attorney, and Dr. J. T. Hutchinson was re-elected president to serve his 22nd year as head of the trustees.

Newly-elected members sworn in were R. F. Bayless, re-elected; Walter G. Alderson, and E. J. (Jack) Parsons. W. B. Atkins was elected board vice president, and Mr. Bayless secretary.

Instruction in the eighth grade, placed in the high school this year, will be returned to Junior High school next September, it was decided.

Mr. Elkins was instructed to press collection of all delinquent taxes and to bring suits where necessary.

All members of the board were present. S. C. Wilson, who had served 13 years, and B. Sherrod were retiring members. Neither had sought re-election. Other members present were Maple Wilson and Dr. Allen T. Stewart.

PITTS CHOSEN LIONS HEAD

LUBBOCK MAN ELECTED DISTRICT GOVERNOR AT CONVENTION

E. L. Pitts, county judge of Lubbock county and past president of the Lubbock Lions club, was elected governor of the second Texas Lions district in an annual convention Tuesday at Colorado. Thirty-five Lubbock Lions attended.

Plainview was chosen as the place of the 1935 convention.

N. M. Long of Fort Stockton and Jimmie Greene of Colorado were placed before the Lions as candidates for the 1935 governorship.

Band Is Present

Midland high school band, a 45-piece organization, was at the convention, attended by 300 delegates representing some 30 cities in the district.

Sam Braswell, international director, made the principal address. He also presented master keys to eight Lions who have won this honor.

Prisoner Escapes Jail At Crosbyton

CROSBYTON, April 25.—(Special)—While he awaited a grand jury investigation into a Ralls burglary, Howard Hackney escaped from Crosby county jail late Monday or early Tuesday.

Hackney apparently fashioned a key with which he unlocked his cell door in the jail building. He was held as a suspect in the burglary of Bruce Spencer Drug store in Ralls.

A hardware store, across the street from the jail, was burglarized and $100 in cash taken Tuesday night. Sixteen or 17 silver dollars were in the loot.

A 72nd district court grand jury is in session here.

ROAD ACCIDENTS GROW

LONDON (AP)— Government figures show that 6,425 lives were lost in 1933 road accidents in England and Wales compared with 5,962 in 1932. Injuries increased from 188,680 to 198,610.

San Francisco.

Banking credit, mortgage credits for public works, insurance policy in Mexico and the American banking crisis of 1933 are subjects of the convention agenda.

peaches and apricots dimmed by the hard rains. The grocer had a new son who crawled among the barrels and the tin boxes, wearing little more than he had worn at his arrival, and the grocer's oldest daughter was to marry the young man who had sung beneath her window before Pablito left. Lottie's hair had become an autumn brown—an improvement over the flaming auburn, he thought.

On the roof, looking down upon La Senora Parra who stood on a lower roof hanging out a washing, Pablito enjoyed a brief interval of peace. Above him was the bluest sky on earth. Below someone was singing a love song of old Spain. The singer had a good voice—clear and sweet-toned. Pablito looked across a stretch of vivid green dotted with tall palms and saw a hibiscus hedge, defiantly scarlet. Down the road an ox cart came slowly toward him. It was heavily laden with sugar cane. On the morrow at some corner shop where corrugated iron blinds are rolled high by day some little daughters of Havana would, no doubt, buy a stick of the cane to nibble as they skipped homeward.

The morning would see him strolling Obispo and O'Reilly and walking through the park, stopping at the Cosmopolita for luncheon or going to La Union. He would be eating the dust of the street on his food and knowing the life of the street as he ate. Then, he decided, he would ride in a wildly lurching taxicab down to the docks and along the wall-guarded water front where the glare from the narrow bay causes blue eyes, unshielded by dark pigment to squint and lower lids for protection.

He would ride through the smart Vedada where trimly dressed nurse maids may be seen accompanying elaborately clothed little children; on out to Cerra where life is lived almost entirely in the open; and then on to the Vibora where lived his mother—his mother whom he had never seen.

He would order the driver to go slowly along la calle San Anastasia and at a certain door he would look long. For a moment Pablito's bitterness came back to him. Then again the wonder of the picturesque land swept over him. Cuba was home to him; it was gorgeous and wonderful.

A moment more and this mood died away—to know no reviving. Pablito had dreamed so often of sharing the beauties of Havana with Estelle, who had lived it, too.

"Boop-A-Doops" Are Offered For Judge

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Another series of "boops" smote the judicial ears of Supreme Court Justice Edward J. McGoldrick as he sought to determine whether Helen Kane, who claims to be the original "booper," is entitled to $250,000 from the producers of Betty Boop animated cartoons.

The hearing was shifted from the courtroom to a small projection chamber in a Times Square skyscraper and five reels of Betty Boop films were run off.

The pen and ink character, which artist Max Flescher claims is a pure figment of his imagination, danced and sang through the five shorts, stopping every now and then to purse her lips and go "boop-boop-a-doop."

Justice McGoldrick remained silent, but four girls who provided the sound tracts for the films giggled frequently as they heard their "boops" bound through the room.

A flyer may now obtain the title of amateur pilot with 25 hours' flying time.
