LITTLE ABOUT EVERY-THING

NOT MUCH ABOUT ANY-THING

AS WE GROW OLDER we become more convinced there is more truth than poetry in the saying: "It's a case of the big fish swallowing the little, or the drowning man grabs at a straw."

Martin is a small county. It endeavors to go about attending to its own business and allowing outside communities the privilege of wrestling with its own affairs unmolested. No matter how quietly and serenely may we go about performing our own task of better improving our county by building better roads and schools, than some community wholly outside of our boundary lines comes butting into our affairs without invitation, stirring up strife among our citizenship and pitching obstacles in the way of every progressive move the county makes. These meddlers are very flattering in their offers of assistance in the progressive steps advanced, especially, if the meddlers see where such assistance from them will result in their own selfish desires. "Anything we can do to help you, we are only too glad to assist," etc. But soon the nigger appears from the woodpile with a grab-bag, revealing an attempt to gobble up all the "peaches and cream" from our own county to provide food for the greedy appetite of those who had him hid in the woodpile. That sort of meddlers, apparently, have showed up ever since the first steps were taken to build the Stanton-Lamesa road.

Then there is another class of meddlers who choose to come over into Martin county and carry off a hunk of its school possessions and annex them to some in their own county. Evidence of such tactics reveals itself in certain school districts in Dawson county choosing to annex the school districts of Flower Grove and Pleasant Valley, both in Martin county, to Ackerly and Dawson Klondike. That move has in it just about all of the northern half of Martin county to be used for school purposes in Dawson county.

The reader may call this writer "old fegey", but we still maintain that when school officials went into this consolidated school district business, thereby, removing the little red school house that stood on every few sections of land, there would arise, sometime, some serious ructions over school matters in the various districts and the Flower Grove and Pleasant Valley school districts are experiencing a taste of that sort of a ruction.

There are now two lawsuits pending to be heard at the May term of the Martin county district court. One suit involves the South Plains school district and the other the Flower Grove district. These suits promise a bitter fight on both sides, and it is certain that no good is to come from it in the way of promoting harmony and good feeling among the citizenship of the respective communities.

But why is our little domain of Martin county to be subjected to Hitlerized methods. Martin county is strongly of the opinion it can carry along its own affairs in a way that will not be left open for foreign aggression. There are times when assistance from foreign sections are invited and welcomed, too, but it should be of the "good neighbor" character. We cite you to no better example of walking in and taking things, than the Hitler and Mussolini affair going on today.

While on this meddlesome business the disease is not confined to cities, towns, and counties, but spreads to individuals. Some officials, we are sorry to say, who are munching at the government feed trough, decry the fact that one department is intruding on another, and in-

HAZEL PEARL WHITE FOUND DEAD

Hazel Pearl White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn White, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, and Mrs. R. L. Henson, was found dead in her home three and half miles south of Stanton, by her mother and aunt, Mrs. Clyde White at 12:20 Saturday afternoon. A young brother, Donald, age 6, was with her.

Hazel Pearl, was born October 13, 1925. She had been dead about four hours when her mother returned home about noon. A young brother, Donald, had discovered his sister lying across a bed. Justice of the Peace Adam Konz returned an inquest verdict of death by heart attack.

Hazel, a member of the seventh grade group, was an honor student in her class and was to have graduated from grammar school in May. She was leader of the choral club. She attended school in Stanton all her school days. After her first year of school she had not missed a day except one, due to the death of her grandfather, R. L. Henson. She was loved by her teachers and classmates.

Services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Church of Christ with Norman Gibson, Midland minister, in charge. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery. At the request of the family Mrs. Glazener and Mrs. James Jones with the 7th grade and choral club sang, "In the Garden."

"When They Ring the Golden Bell," led by Mrs. Glazener, was sung softly by the choir. Mr. Earl Evans of Big Spring, who lived in Stanton a few years ago and a very dear friend of Hazel's, assisted by the choir, sang, "Father Along" and "As A Life of Flower."

Mrs. Glazener, the seventh grade and choral club sang, "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again," at the cemetery. Besides her parents, Hazel is survived by two brothers, Hugh and Donald White; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, Mrs. R. L. Henson; and great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Henson, all of Stanton.

She leaves these uncles and aunts: Bonnie White, Clyde White, Ivan White, Robert White, Mrs. C. F. Atchison, Mrs. Frank Henson, Mrs. John R. Joiner, Mrs. Alta Henson, J. E. Henson, W. M. Henson, and R. L. White of Stanton, and M. Henson of Tarzan.

The flower girls were of the 9th grade: Ruth Hull, Mildred Louder, Lena Fay Reynolds, Marcelle Pinkston, Helen Renfro, Nina Holder, Inez Stanley. Pallbearers were members of the 9th grade: Cleddie Shelburne, Robert Williamson, Junior Straub, Clifton Ledbetter, Ben Junior Carpenter, James Crow, H. C. Burnam, and W. R. Pursler.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the 7th grade and the remaining 9th grade.

MRS. ELIZA BRYANT DIED SUNDAY

The last rites for Mrs. Bryant were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. Fred McPherson at the First Baptist church.

She is survived by her husband and six children, four of whom were present at the funeral services.

Eliza Lizibell Moss, was born in 1868, and was 70 years, 3 months and 4 days old. She died Sunday, April 23.

She was married to John C. Bryant in 1886. Seven children were born to this union. She joined the Baptist church in 1884, and has lived a Christian from that time until her death.

Mrs. Bryant was born in Arkansas, lived there 17 years, after which she moved to Texas, where she has resided most of the time.

It's Martin County's Business

(Editorial)

A reader, and a taxpayer, too, of Martin County, after reading the editorial published in last week's Reporter about the Flower Grove and Ackerly school district controversy, approached the writer with the remark, "what business is it of yours to take sides when it's a fuss among themselves?" We answered our good reader friend that while in a sense, the controversial affair may be considered one for those communities affected to iron out themselves, we deemed it a county-wide affair, one of vital importance to our county as a whole. The school laws may be of such caliber as permit an outside school district encroaching on one in another county without proceeding through a fair and equitable channel, but we can't see it that way. If the present controversy between the school districts of Flower Grove and Ackerly is decided against Flower Grove school board, then by what assurance has Martin county that its school districts of Courtney on the northwest and its school districts on the east and south, possibly, we would lose a slice off the Stanton Independent School District, to Glascock county on the south. That would be a pretty mess of pickles, with Stanton left with a much deteriorated school plant and a courthouse.

If Flower Grove loses to Ackerly, likewise Pleasant Valley to Klondike, (both the latter in Dawson county), what assurance has Martin county will not lose to adjoining counties all of its school possessions, with Stanton Independent school district standing a good chance of being consumed by outside forces.

The two Martin county school districts now thrown into the courts for decision, should command the attention of every citizen of Martin county, who should feel free and willing to act in a capacity that will protect our present school domain from being gobbled up by outside forces.

Deciding these school district controversies, is important to Martin county as well as the districts concerned, is the reason The Reporter gives for taking the stand it has in the matter.

BORDEN COUNTY ASKS PERTINENT QUESTIONS IN SCHOOL MATTERS

In a circular letter sent out "TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN," by the board of Borden County, the board asks relative to the effort that is being made to consolidate some of the Borden County School Land follows:

Gail, Texas, April 14, 1939

To Whom It May Concern: This letter is a means of trying to convey to the people who are on Borden County School Land, our sentiment relative to the effort that is being made to consolidate the remainder of this land with the Klondike Consolidated School District of Dawson County.

We would like to state at the outset that we do not want to appear as to dictating to anyone those whom we deal with but wish to call your attention to a few facts in which we are vitally concerned:

First: In the deeds to you from Borden County, some specific stipulations are that a failure to keep all taxes and interest paid would be a justifiable cause for foreclosure on your land and at any time. At the present time, we have a list of delinquent taxes on that part of Borden County school land that lies in Martin county, and will have one soon on that part that is situated in Dawson county. Some of the people who advocate this Consolidation are delinquent with their taxes as well as the interest payment. Since you have in some instances been unable to keep taxes and interest paid under your present setup, we wonder how you mean to meet taxes and interest payments after you have materially increased your school tax in a manner over which you will not have any control whatsoever?

Second: We would ask that you take into consideration our interest in this proposition. Place yourself in our position and see if you could approve this endangering tax on your major interest? Let's reason these things together. We fear if this consolidation is consummated, we will be forced (to better protect our interest) to be more strict in our requirements of you.

We are not writing this letter as a threat but wish to call your attention to some of the things that vitally concern this county's interest.

With best regards to each of you, we are,

Sincerely yours, COMMISSIONER'S COURT BORDEN COUNTY

FLOWER GROVE FILES INJUNCTION

Following denial to grant an injunction filed by the board of trustees of the Flower Grove district against holding an election called by the county judge of Dawson county, the Flower Grove board filed an injunction before District Judge Cecil Collings, Big Spring, against the Ackerly school district officials from proceeding further following the election held at Ackerly Dawson county, Tuesday, April 18, also, enjoining the Ackerly officials from holding an election for school trustees for the district called for May 9.

This injunction was granted by District Judge Collings.

The injunction was asked on the grounds that on April 18, 1939, there was held a purported election to incorporate Flower Grove and Ackerly school districts, with incorporation carrying by 18 votes; that there is a purported election called to be held May 9th within the Ackerly Independent school district to elect school trustees; that the purported election held April 18, was illegal.

It was also brought out in the injunction that the present Flower Grove Independent School District had already voted $33,000 bonds to build a school plant; that said bonds had been sold, and the money on deposit in the Depository Bank; that it is the intention of the Flower Grove trustees to commence building operations, and ask that the district remain as it has since on or about May, 1938; and that the Ackerly Independent School District board, the county superintendent and county judge of Dawson county, be prevented and restrained from molesting and interfering in carrying out the purported results of the election held April 18, and the one called to be held May 9.

Charles L. Klapproth, Midland, ex-district judge of the 70th judicial district, has been added to the lawyers representing Flower Grove trustees which comprise Charles Slaughter of Stanton, and W. S. Moore of Fort Worth and Gainesville. Judge Klapproth, presented the restraining order to Judge Collings, last week.

The trial of the case is set to come up in the May 22 term of the Martin county district court.

PLAYGROUND BALL CONTEST WINNERS

Some 200 boys and girls from various schools of Martin county, met at the local school Saturday last, to vie with one another in friendly contest in soft ball.

The players were divided into four divisions, according to Interscholastic League rules. The high school and grammar school junior boys composed one division; the high school and grammar school junior girls made up another division; the junior girls teams of the rural schools made a third division; and the junior boys of the rural schools made the fourth.

Games began at 9:30 in the morning and the finale came at 4:30 that afternoon.

Stanton high school junior boys won over all competition in their division. The Courtney high school junior girls were tops in their division. Badgett school was winner in the rural school junior girls division, and Valley View carried away honors in rural school junior boys division.

Courtney grammar school boys came through up to the finals, winning second place in their division.

Stanton grammar school girls were defeated in the finals by Courtney high school junior girls, placing second in girls division.

South Plains could only get second place against the heavy Valley View team in the boys division.

Brown ranked second to Badgett in the girls division. Badgett was unique in that they played all their games with only seven players, and won the games, too.

No third places were awarded, no play-off games were bracketed for third places.

This day of contests ended the Interscholastic League work in the county for the year. Perhaps more brilliant results have been achieved in past meets, but no more harmonious relationship could have been had at any time.

Stanton schools have been happy to be hosts to neighboring schools and communities during these series of League contests, and cordially invite the League to stage its contests in Stanton again next year.

SIX-MAN FOOTBALL AT COURTNEY FRI.

The Courtney six-man football team will have its first game of the practice season Friday, April 28, at the Courtney field when they engaged the Garden City Bobcats. The game is scheduled for 2:45 p. m., will be called by J. D. Poe of Stanton who has had quite a bit of experience as six-man referee.

The Courtney and Garden City teams played two games during the fall season, Courtney winning both of them. The Garden City aggregation is expected to be very strong this spring, however, for they have improved greatly every time they played the game last fall and have a total of twenty-three men out to make a six-man team at the present time.

This large number of men out for the team gives Coach Wheeler a fine reserve strength and will make the Bobcats tough opposition.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Courtney school are entertaining the seventh and eighth grades of the Stanton school with a party at the school stead of the officials going to the proper source to adjust matters takes a round-about and underhanded course, causing friction to arise in both departments. In the last analysis the meddler brought about the friction for the purpose of gaining authority or from the standpoint of satisfying his own desires.

At the time the above middle-some effusion was written the writer carried a chip on his shoulder as big as a cannon ball. He had awakened from a night's slumber following an attendance at the movie showing, "Jesse James" and had trudged to the office in a frigid norther that sent chilling blasts to the intersection of our knee-caps and our summer underwear. Can you blame us for being ripe to combat a buzzsaw?

CLEBURNE HUSTON, wrote an editorial for his Stamford American last week, and in a postscript announced that he would be out of town "this week end." The editorial was along the line of cotton consumption—how much more cotton would be consumed if the women folks would wear cotton hose, cotton petticoats, and even cotton panties. Now Stanton ladies, don't pile up any bricks to throw at this writer figuring him out as one demanding or even suggesting that women demand that more cotton be put in their wearing apparel, thus eliminating silk stockings, silk petticoats, and etceteras. We are merely stating what our friend Huston, suggested to the Women Clubs of Stamford.

Our experience in the use of cotton has been very limited. Clothes we have purchased for the cotton content, no trace of cotton with a microscope could be found, and the other way we had in the consumption of cotton was on occasions when we stuffed our ears for the carache or stuffed them to protect our ear drums against the blasts of some soap-box speaker, or deafen them to the soft-peddle notes of our better half when she goes on a rampage.

We believe the men folks could be of material help in the consumption of cotton, if they demanded more cotton be put in their shirts and their shirt tails made longer, then, if by any hook or crook we wanted to wear our shirt tails out, the length of them would at least cover the area below our belt buckle.

But we're off the track—read Huston's editorial and see if you can blame him from leaving town for the week end:

Summoning all of our courage, we venture a mild suggestion to the Women's Clubs of Jones county along another line which might add even more to the consumption of cotton.

We recall the days long past, cotton materials were used for dresses and in some cases at least, it required ten yards or more of cloth for one garment. Yards and yards of cotton cloth were used then for innumerable petticoats. Stockings were made of cotton and we learned from helping with the family washing that even panties in those days were of cotton and were not of the present day handkerchief size.

Understand that we personally are not advocating longer and fuller skirts, thicker stockings, knee-length panties, and the abandonment of rayons and silks. Our women are much prettier in present day styles. We are merely suggesting that if women really want to go crusading, there's a big field for action. The average well-dressed woman could consume a bale of cotton a year, and with 65,000,000 women in the United States, there would be an actual cotton famine.

P. S.—The editor will be out of town this week end.

SAND WELLS SCHOOL PUPILS GIVE CHAPEL PROGRAM

The pupils of the Sand Wells school in Glascock county, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Boynton brought a program to the Chapel, Thursday morning in the local school auditorium.

"The Fatal Necktie" a real melodrama, opened the program and was a scream from start to finish. In fact, the entire program kept the assembled pupils in gales of laughter; the readings, song and dance skits, the sleight of hand, and ventriloquist, were all good.

Music by the Stanton school band, under the direction of Milo Bucy, band director, added to the pleasure of the occasion. Mrs. DeBerry, local music teacher, presented one of her pupils, Mary Prudie Storey, in an accordion solo.

Sand Wells school is made up of six pupils: three Peters children, two Houstons and one Cross, and is unique in that so many grades are represented. With so many lessons to be gotten out of the way the teacher finds time to give instruction in piano, speech, art, dance, rhythm, which gives the pupils a well rounded program. The parents, friends and relatives form the rooting section for this talented bunch of youngsters and they were in evidence at the school auditorium Thursday morning.

As to whether there will be school at Sand Wells next year is being held in abeyance but should these children have the luck to be carried on under Miss Boynton's direction they will be very fortunate.

SOCIAL SCHOOL CALENDAR

The sophomores plan a picnic Saturday. Not to be outdone, the juniors also are to have a picnic that day. The home economic club will have an ice cream supper at the home of Rose Ellen Gibson, Friday night.

Many of the senior class expect to spend Saturday in Abilene as the guests of Hardin-Simmons.

The teachers of the county will have a banquet Saturday night at the Methodist church.

That accounts for everybody except the freshman club, and they have already had their quota of two official social events for this semester.

Stanton high school seniors began active practice upon their annual play which will be staged May 12, at the school auditorium.

FLOWER GROVE CLUB NEWS

"Nature and man are the self expression of God. All created things may be classified into three groups: nature, man and art. Man uses and enjoys thru his five senses, touch, taste, hearing, smell and sight. Unless the brain is sensitized by feeling and imagination, we can not enjoy the beauty about us. Variety, repetition and contrast are the laws of nature," Mrs. Emory Butchee told members of Flower Grove home demonstration club, in the meeting April 19, at the home of Mrs. Dick Butchee.

"Scripture, architecture and painting we enjoy through the eye. Music and poetry stir us through the ear. Color is the artistic medium of feeling, and should be used very sparingly for contrast. Our homes should be a place of peace, where we can rest after our day's work is over, but unless we have the knowledge of harmonizing color and proportion, our homes may not be very restful. We may acquire this knowledge through color charts, and many simple tests are available," Mrs. Don Sullivan explained in the study of "color and line and the arts of sight," written by Mrs. Maggie W. Barry.

Eleven were present: Mmes. Dan Jeffcoat, John Webb, Tom Mitchell and Mrs. Cook were visitors. Mrs. Bonnie Culp, joined our club. Members present were Mmes. C. W. Butchee, Robert Dunn, Don Sullivan, Emory Butchee, Ralph Mullins and Dick Butchee.

Next meeting will be at Mrs. Earl Heald's, May 3.—Reporter

INTERESTING SUBJECTS BROUGHT STANTON CLUB

Through the instruction of the Martin county home demon-

Not only have the members benefited from the instruction of the agent but have passed on their newly acquired knowledge to non-members. Some of the members even have instructed out of the county women who live in counties that have no home demonstration agent.

Outstanding among the achievements has been the construction and planting of 14 frame gardens. These gardens were planted by club members and non-club members. These latter became interested in the gardens after seeing green vegetables in

MISS KADERLI AND MAURICE TIXIER MARRIED IN MIDLAND LAST WEEK

(Midland Reporter-Telegram)
"Flower Song," the same music to which the bride's father and mother recited their wedding vows 28 years ago was played during the single ring ceremony uniting Miss Allene Kaderli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kaderli of Stanton, and Maurice Tixier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Tixier of Clermont, Ferrand, France, Thursday morning of last week, at 10 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. J. Coleman, was the officiating minister.

The couple stood to take their sledge before the altar which was decorated with calla lilies in floor vases around which other greenery was massed.

Mrs. Frank Elliott, at the pipe organ, played the pre-nuptial music and also the Flower Song softly during the ceremony. Preceding the entrance of the couple, she played a selection of old-time love songs, with "Lohengrin" for the processional and Mendelssohn's march as the recessional.

The couple had no attendants. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a costume suit of gray nubbed silk, trimmed in dusty pink and blue covered buttons formed the trimming for the blouse of the tailored dress over which was worn a full length box coat.

With the suit, a felt hat in blue to match the color on the dress was worn with pink gloves. Her bag and shoes were of black patent and her flowers were a corsage of orchids. She carried a handkerchief of hand-drawn linen which was carried by her mother at her wedding.

Mrs. Kaderli wore an orchid corsage, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Tixier left by automobile after the service for a week's wedding trip which will include a visit to San Antonio during the San Jacinto Day celebration and a visit to Houston.

Upon their return, they will be at home at 809 N. Whitaker. Mrs. Tixier is well-known in Midland where she has lived for the past few years. She was reared at Stanton and graduated from the Stanton high school. Afterward she attended Texas Technological college at Lubbock for two years, being one of the school's beauty nominees during one of her years as a student. She is now proprietor of Allene's Gift Shop.

Mr. Tixier is a graduate of the Royal School of Art and Crafts in Belgium and of the University of Paris. He came to Midland three years ago, being associated here with the Schlumberger Well Surveying Corporation. Prior to coming to Texas, he was associated with the same firm in Rumania.

Present for the wedding were

Watch for "Sunny Acres." City Park Looming

A casual inspection of Stanton's new 6-acre city park, revealed that much progress is being made. The water and sewer lines have been laid, all the trees set out, caliche walkways nearing completion and molds set for pouring cement for concrete curbing. Some delays on the progress of the work are being encountered through the tardy arrival of material from government agencies.

Sustains Broken Shoulder

While loading cattle in his truck Tuesday, a better than 400 pound steer decided to become unruly, took a back track between Ed's legs, "histed" him in the air, the result after hitting the ground, a broken shoulder, and boy, howd, the sulphuric aroma of the air after Ed made a forced landing. A broken shoulder, and here's cattle shipping time.

BIG SPRING TEAM TO MEET STANTON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

First round matches in the Sand Belt golf league Sunday afternoon will send the Big Spring team to Stanton and Colorado to Lamesa. The schedule calls for play on alternate Sundays. No matches were arranged to conflict with the annual West Texas Invitational tournament in late June.

Complete schedule:

April 30.—Big Spring at Stanton; Colorado at Lamesa.

May 14.—Lamesa at Big Spring; Stanton at Colorado.

May 28.—Big Spring at Colorado; Lamesa at Stanton.

June 11.—Big Spring at Lamesa; Colorado at Stanton.

July 2.—Stanton at Big Spring; Lamesa at Colorado.

July 16.—Colorado at Big Spring; Stanton at Lamesa.

From the above schedule, as has been in the past, Midland and Odessa have been eliminated from the Sand Belt schedule, and probably so much the better. It will save the two teams from receiving a merciful drubbing at the hands of Big Spring, Lamesa and Stanton.

NAGGING BACKACHE

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, whatnot, keeps doctors busy, hospitals crowded. The after effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes — a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney or bladder disturbance may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

DOAN'S PILLS

THE REASON DOAN'S ARE FAMOUS: All over the country grateful people tell others: "Doan's has helped me! I recommend them to you." That is why we say, Ask your neighbor!
