Better Record For Season Boasted By Norton

COLLEGE STATION, Texas. Nov. 26. The Texas Aggies, with three intersection battles immediately behind them, will go forth to the Southwest Conference grid wars for the season's last time today at Austin, when they will play their traditional rivals, the University of Texas Longhorns. The Aggies left Wednesday noon for a town near Austin where they worked out during the afternoon and spent the night.

If they trim the Steers, the Aggies will end their conference campaign with an average of .750, their best since 1927, and will have an outside chance to slip into the championship berth. The tilt will leave each team with one game to go, the Longhorns with Arkansas and the Aggies with Manhattan.

Despite the fact they have won seven and tied another of their ten games to date, the Aggies probably will rate only slight favorites to win over the Longhorns, who have won only one and tied one in seven games to date. The Aggies have won only once at Austin since 1915 and have not scored on the Longhorns' Memorial Stadium grid since 1926 when the Steers won 14-5.

The return of Dick Todd, star sophomore halfback from Crowell who has been on the sidelines with a head injury since the Southern Methodist game, Nov. 6, will bring the Cadets back to full manpower. Althought they came out of their loss to Centenary the past Saurday with no major injury, the Aggies practiced at only a light pace early this week, giving their players opportunity to recuperate both physically and mentally from the strain of having played Southern Methodist, San Francisco, Utah and Centenary within tne space of fifteen days.

In conference competition to date the Aggies have bested Rice, Texas Christian and Southern Methodist and tied with Baylor. They lost to Arkansas. The Longhorns, for their part, have dropped four conference tilts to Baylor, Rice, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian.

The game will be the final Southwest Conference engagement for nine members of the Aggie squad, including Les Cummings, Bryan, fullback; Charlie DeWare, Brenham, center; Selmer Kirby, Amarillo, tackle; Waylon (Chink) Manning Beaumont, halfback; Walter Phythian, Taylor, guard; Homer (Doc) Pitner, Denton, quarterback; Bill Stages, Fort Worth, end; Joe Wessendorf, Richmond, center; and John Whitfield, Itasca, tackle.

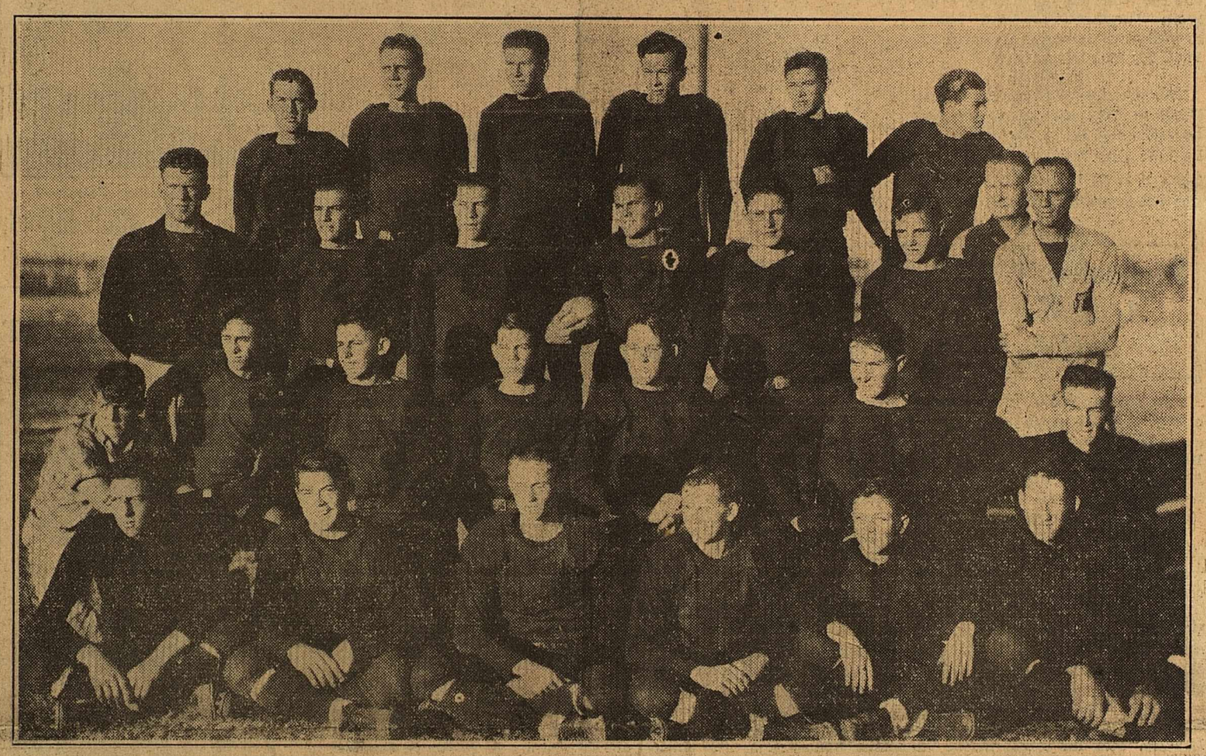

The Aggie cadet corps scheduled its traditional pre-Thanksgiving bonfire for Tuesday night to allow many of the cadets to attend the annual "Fish"-Texas "Yearling" game Wednesday afternoon at Austin. Headed by its 170-piece band and by Reveille, little black dog mascot, the cadet corps will parade up Austin's Congress avenue at 11 o'clock this morning. Special trains will carry a large part of the corps to the game city.

Seasonal records to date of the Aggies and the Longhorns, are as follows:

Longhorns—
6—La. State U. —6
6—Oklahoma—0
18—Baylor—21

All That Stands Between Midland and A Championship

Members of the Odessa Bronchos, the only club that stands between the Midland Bulldogs and the championship of district 7. The two teams will meet on Lackey field this afternoon at 2:30 in one of the outstanding games of West Texas this season. Midland, through its record of seven wins and two ties out of nine games played, will be slight favorites to take the Ector county boys Who have lost two games, both of them district affairs.

Both Clubs Ready For The Opening Kick-Off of Game

Officials: Referee — Hill, McMurray; Umpire—Henderson, Austin College; Headlinesman—Bradin, Sul Ross.

There they are—The starting line-ups and the officials for the outstanding grid game of district 7 this year!

Coaches of both the Midland Bulldogs and the Odessa Bronchos today pronounced their charges ready to go when the opening whistle sounds at 2:30 this afteroon on Lackey Field here.

The Bulldogs will be carrying an undefeated record for nine straight games when they take the field and will go on with a determination to keep their record clean and come through with the first championship garnered by the local school since 1929. The team has a record of seven wins and two ties so far this year, the tie game later being awarded them on the first down ruling.

Odessa has played only seven games to date, winning five and losing two. Both their losses were heart-breakers, the team being defeated by one touchdown in both the Pecos and Wink encounters.

Midland has defeated both Wink and Pecos (the latter on a decision of the district committee) and as a result will enter the game a favorite over the Ector contingent.

But the Midland game has long loomed largest on the Odessa schedule and it is a certainty that the club will play its best game of the year when it takes the field here tomorrow.

Midland will carry a weight advantage of approximately 14 pounds per man in the game, averaging 162 pounds in both the line and backfield while the Odessa boys will average 155 in the line and only 135 in the backfield.

The Bulldog offense is built almost entirely around "Big Dave" Wafford, 195—pound captain-quarterback, while the Bronchos place most of their offensive hopes on the ball-toting ability of Thomas 147-pound fullback. Each of the men, besides carrying the ball most of the time, do approximately all of the passing and punting.

In the nine games played to date no club has been entirely successful in stopping Wafford. He has made practically every point rung up by the Bulldogs, scoring in every game. Since the district schedule has been started each club has "pointed" to stop Wafford but none of them have been able to keep him from crossing their goal. He does not confine his yard gaining to only a few yards at a time, having run further than 50 yards for scores more than once this season.

In only one game this season have the Bronchs been blanked, that coming in their last game with Pecos. And only some tough luck prevented them tallying in that one. The Bronch lads had the ball in the shadows of the Pecos goal when the half-time gun ruined their best chance to score.

Not all the Odessa scoring is confined to one man as much as is that of Midland, however. In Acker and Callon they boast a couple of long, rangy ends that are adept at pulling down passes while surrounded

BAYLOR CLUB WILL CLOSE SATURDAY AGAINST THE OWLS

WACO, Nov. [illegible] (Special)—Unbeaten in the past three games, two non-conference matches and one league tilt, the Baylor Bears close their 1936 football season in Houston Saturday against the Rice Owls. The Bears are the only Southwest conference eleven terminating their campaign Saturday, the other teams waiting until December 5 to play their final contests.

Ten seniors on the Green and Gold contingent, including Captain Lloyd Russell, will close their college football careers against the Birds. The other seniors on the local outfit are Owen Parry, John D. Reynolds, Bob Masters, Shuford McDonald, Ken Clark, Sonny Bartosh, Doc Henslee, Charlie Burke, and Will Rodgers.

This graduating group will be striving for their second win in three seasons over the Owls. The 1934 championship Rice juggernaut rolled over the Bears 33-0, but last fall the locals won a surprising 8-0 victory.

A check-up of the casualty list reveals that the team came out of the S. M. U. game intact, and will be physically ready to conclude the season in a blaze of glory.

Russell, the sparkplug of the Bruin team, went into the conference scoring lead Saturday when he led his mates to victory over Southern Methodist. "Loping Lloyd" made two swirling touchdown sprints in the first half, mounting his total of points for the season to 48, a lead of 12 points over his nearest rivals.

In Gratitude

By Helen Welshimer

THAT Seedtime follows harvest, God, we thank Thee,
That crops grow tall upon our yellow plains;
That drift of sunlight on our fields in summer
Is broken always by the promised rains;
For courts whose doors stand wide in gallant justice,
For schools that teach no prejudice, no ranks;
For opportunity, for hope, for freedom—
Once more, dear God, for these we bring our thanks.

OH, we are grateful as the year is ending,
That smoke blows high and dark against the sky—
A post of clouds to lead us back to Canaan,
A promise now of labor by and by;
Not any man, dear God, would ever ask for bounty
Nor seek relief if he had work to do,
So give up toil, hard toil, we beg Thee,
We would be brave, industrious, and true!

AND as we pray, we seek a further favor:
That when the autumn comes another year,
No drums will throb on fields of distant battle,
But all the skies of all the world be clear.
We thank Thee that young eyes still hold a vision,
And that old men dream, dreams—Oh, may we keep
The good intensity of living always—
It matters more than all the crops we reap!

Give Thanks

It would be vain indeed for me to attempt to write more embracing admonition relative to Thanksgiving than the following articles seleced from God's Holy Word. Study these passages and draw your own conclusion about Thanksgiving periods:

1. Thanksgiving is a good thing: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord;" and to sing praises unto His Name." (Psalm 92:1).

2. Thanksgiving should be offered to God: "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High" (Psalm 50:14).

3. Thanksgiving should be offered in the Name of Christ: "Giving thanks always for all things unto God the Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 5:20).

4. Thanksgiving should be offered in everything: "In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thess. 5:18).

5. Thanksgiving should be offered for the goodness and mercy of God: "O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever" (Psalm 107:1).

6. Thanksgiving should be offered for the gift of Christ: "Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift." (II Corinthians 9:15).

7. Thanksgiving should be offered for the supply of food: "For every creature of God is good and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving; for it is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer" (I Timothy 4:5).

8. Thanksgiving should be the continual occupation of man: "By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our own lips giving thanks unto His Name" (Hebrews 13:15).

9. Thanksgiving is commanded: "Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be known unto God" (Philippians 4:6).

The Rev. W. J. Coleman,
Pastor Presbyterian Church

Thanksgiving Day gives our citizens the opportunity of making a mental audit of their assets and liabilities, both spiritual and material.

Each one of us have certain common causes for which to be thankful for at this time. These causes are many, for example, the priceless boon of splendid health; the handclasps of friends; the ordered coming of the seasons; the bloom of flowers; the song of birds; then tender love of the home circle.

As we look back through the years, to the beginning of this great nation, we can readily trace the footsteps of God. He has been our guide from the birth of this nation to this day. Surely we have had strife, and many times clouds of war have hung over us like a pall, but God, each time, has scattered the clouds and put His bow of promise in the heavens.

The nation has been prospered by God beyond anything known to any other age of the world. The first command given to man was to subdue the earth. How gloriously we are putting this into execution! Daily we are making new inventions, opening up worlds unknown just a few generations ago. We have harnessed the lightning and made it turn the wheels of many factories, to illuminate the dark places of the earth. Men fly among the clouds, not in fancy but in very reality. We are turning swamps into dwelling places for men, and we make the desert to blossom as the rose.

These are but few of the prominent characteristics or elements that are making our nation the greatest under the sun.

Let us rejoice and give thanks to the Great Creator who, indeed, "hath made man but a little lower than the angels," endowing him with the power and ability to conquer all earthly limitations that would rob him of that divine established relationship recorded in John, "Now are we Sons of God." Let each of us strive to show our appreciation for His love. Whether in church, or in the quiet of our homes, may the Spirit of Thanksgiving ever be a living light within us!

REV. J. E. PICKERING,
Pastor First Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Citizen of Midland should be always thankful; but a special day set apart each year for Thanksgiving, is both a blessing and most appropriate. Such a day affords each one the opportunity of making a mental audit of his assets and liabilities; both mental and spiritual—"And it will surprise you what the Lord hath done."

Every person, no matter what his lot has been; though reverses, sorrows, or even tragedies have come; has many personal grounds for

Tech Hopeful Of Defeating Loyola

LUBBOCK, Tex. Nov. [illegible] (Spl). —Hopeful of shaking the intersectional jinx which has pursued them this season and of remaining undefeated by a southern or southwestern team, Texas Tech's Red Raiders invade New Orleans Thursday for a Holiday skirmish with Loyola of the South.

With seven regulars on the questionable or "Definitely out" list, the Raiders are in pitiful physical condition for their last two games of the season. Add to the list of injured regulars about five reserves and the outlook is not bright at all.

First workout for the Tech team after last Friday's game was booked for Rice Institute field at Houston Tuesday. The Raiders were to continue to Baton Rouge for a

Remember What You Did Five Years Ago? Maybe These News Items Will Help You to Refresh Your Memory

How did you spend your Thanksgiving day five years ago? If you don't know, perhaps the file of The Reporter-Telegram will tell you At least, here are are a few of the happenings around November 26. 1931, as told by the daily newspaper.

Mrs. John B. Thomas and "children", Read and J. B., spent the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurt of Big Springs.

Miss Cordelia Taylor, Miss Lotta Williams and Jess Rodgers were scheduled to leave Friday for Fort Worth to attend the TCU-SMU game.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Patteson and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lovejoy, left for Fort Worth for the week end.

Mrs. Alma Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Lomax, Mrse. T. Paul Barron and son, Charles, left for Austin, Abilene and Runge respectively for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Myrick and Mrs. J. S. Cordill went to Austin for a visit with relatives and a football game.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Knight were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Collier and Mr. and Mrs. Lige Lamb of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Hardy of Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Cannon of Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Butler and Miss Velma Winborne spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. E. B. Walton of Kermit.

Apparently, all of the school teachers went somewhere.

Knox Williams, of 511 West Tennessee, was dazed when struck by a hit-and-run driver.

The American Legion staged a dance at the present Barrow Furniture Co., building to the "red hot" tunes of Barney Smith's Midland Melody Makers. Joe Seymour was announcer over an improvised radio station at 960 kilocycles from the Connor Electric Co.

Paut T. Vickers, teacher of the Men's class at Hotel Scharbauer, was advertising a "crack orchestra" which would play at the class the following Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tuttle and daughter, Jessa Lynn, visited relatives at Spur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Nobles visited their daughter, Martha Louise, at Hockaday school, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wadley visited their daughter, Marion, at the same school, their son, Barron, coming over from Austin.

Mrs. E. E. Stevens went to Crockett for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. A. C. Francis spent the week end at Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Hodge had as their guests Mrs. Hodge's sister, Miss Alma Wells of Cisco and Mrs. John F. Priddy of Stanton.

Mrs. John Hix visited her daughter, Annie Laurie, who was attending school at C. I. A., Denton.

The Epworth League was announcing an "apron party" for Friday evening, each guest to bring a penny for each inch of waist measurement.

Mrs. J. B. Lovejoy of Dallas, visiting the R. W. Pattesons, had her automobile stolen before they could leave for Fort Worth. And then while she was awaiting license numbers from Dallas, Sheriff Francis got busy and succeeded in having the car apprehended at El Paso. A 17-year old youth admitted the theft.

Midland's class A Bulldogs roundly outplayed the heavily favored Sweetwater Mustangs, but lost the game at Lackey Field by the low score of 7 to 0. The Burris, Sherrod, Midkiff and Hallman backfield quartet tore the Mustang line to shreds, producing nine first downs to Sweetwater's eight. (Sammy Baugh, Sheridan, Hicks and Allison to the contrary notwithstanding.)

MANY THANKS

I wish to take this means to express my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received during the year and past years and to wish for all my friends a Thanksgiving that will be bountiful and joyful.

Early Fumble Gives Odessa 6-0 Win In 1935 Over Bulldogs

(Editor's Note: This is the last

Conversion of a Midland fumble into a touchdown in the first three minutes of play spelled the final score in the Odessa-Midland high school Thanksgiving game at Odessa Thursday, the tussle ending Odessa 6, Midland 0.

A crowd of 3,000 fans at Fly field watched Odessa's highly touted backfield star, Johhny Green, fail to gain against the stubborn Midland eleven. Midland, however, had little to be proud of, failing to take advantage of scoring opportunities and lacking punch aat crucial times. Once the Bulldogs got to the Odessa 10 only to find Odessa's defense airtight beyond that line.

Odessa kicked off to Midland. Wafford fumbled the ball on the first play and Odessa recovered on the Midland 20. In just 6 plays the Bronchos had made a touchdown. They failed to convert.

For Midland, Wafford was the defensive star. Midkiff and Prothro standing out on defense. Watson of Odessa showed greatest offensive aptitude, while Tucker, Green and Smith were best defensive players.

Midland made seven first downs-Odessa six.

'My Man Godfrey' Now at The Yucca

"My Man Godfrey," is a gay debonair modern comedy, light as thistledown, madder and merrier than a million March hares mastering the multiplication table. This Universal laugh riot, starring William Powell and Carole Lombard shows today and tomorrow at the Yucca.

The screen story relates the adventures of William Powell, portraying a butler in the delightfully dizzy Bullock family. One daughter, played by Carole Lombard, falls in love with him. Her sister tries to have him jailed. The maid falls in love with him, too. The mother likes him, but she has a parlor pet of her own.

The fun gets faster and more furious every second, with laughs bursting like bombshells. The cast includes such excellent players as Alice Brady, Gail Patrick, Jean Dixon, Eugene Pallete, Alan Mowbray, Mischa Auer and Robert Light. The picture was made by Gregory La Cava, one of Hollywood's foremost directors.

"My Man Godfrey" is taken from the novel of the same name, written by the master of modern comedy, Eric Hatch. The screen play is the work of this brilliant humorist and of Morrie Ryskind, noted author of such screen hits as "A Night at the Opera."

Whales can dive a mile below the surface, and rise immediately without harm. A chemical adjustment of their blood cares for the variation in pressure.

Nine-tenths of the world's 150 species of antelope live in Africa.

Tech--

Wednesday drill, and move in to New Orleans Wednesday night. The game Thursday marks the first meeting of the Loyola and Tech teams, although Tech has had considerable experience with another set of Loyolans—those at Los Angeles.

The Raiders dropped their final home game last Friday to a keyed-up band of Blue Demons from Chicago's DePaul University, 13 to 6. Only four regulars were in Tech's starting lineup, yet the Cawthon team outplayed and outdistanced the Demons in every department except scoring, making 15 first downs to 3 and outgaining the visitors more than 3 to 1. Jim Neill, sensational backfield star was on the crippled list, but played enough to protect his passing, punting and running average for the home season.

An injury received by George Winters, hefty fullback and line backer, in the DePaul game may keep him on the bench at New Orleans, thereby leaving only one regular in the backfield. He is Captain Dep Cannon, quarterback. Neill probably will play less than half the game.

Tech returns home Saturday, leaves again next Tuesday for Tucson, Arizona, to play University of Arizona in the only Border Conference game scheduled.

Football--

with defenders. Callon is undoubtedly one of the best ends in the district and a lot is expected of him in each game. So far he has failed to disappoint.

The Odessa "1" should be in better physical condition than the locals, although none of the Bulldogs are suffering more than bruises and soreness as a result of their bitter game with Monahans last week. The Odessa team has not taken the field for play since Armistice Day, thereby placing them in peak condition.

Barring inclement weather the largest crowd of the season is expected to witness the struggle. All stores and school will be closed and hundreds that have not witnessed an encounter so far this year are expected to turn out for what may be the finale for the Bulldogs.

It is strictly a matter of the Bulldogs winning—or else. Should they come out loser they will be tied with the winner of the Pecos Wink game of the same date for leadership of the district. Whether the title would be decided on a play-off or by the district committee remains up to that body. But their chances of winning in a play-off with either club would be severely lessened by their having to play on a foreign field.

If the Bulldogs win the game they will play the winner of District 8 at some place and time yet to be decided. The winner of that district is as yet undecided but Fort Stockton is expected to cop the title today.

thanksgiving. The best way in the world to forget and overcome the former is to dwell in thanksgiving on the latter. On this dedicated day then, let each of us follow the suggestions of the great hymnist, and "Count your many blessings—name them one by one"; and it will not only surprise you, but cheer you as you meditate upon what the Lord hath done.

Then too, we all have common causes for which to be thankful at this time. These causes are varied, for example, the trust and confidence of one's fellows; the priceless boon of good health; a soud mind; the privilege of living in a town and country whose ideals are based upon sound democratic principles; whose educational standards are of the highest. On and on we might go.

Therefore, let us "rejoice and give thanks" to the Great Creator Who, "hath made man but a little lower than the angels" endowing him with power and ability to conquer earthly limitations, and to become the Sons of God.

Nourishing Potage In Potato Soups

Sunday's potatoes are Monday's soup. To 1 cup cold mashed potatoes, slowly add 1 cup warm milk. Stir constantly until all lumps have disappeared, then place over low fire. Simmer, stirring frequently, until the mixture is smooth, almost glaced. Season with salt—onion salt if you have it handy—pepper and a few drops Worchestershire sauce. Turn in 1 cup canned condensed bean soup. Stir until completely blended. Heat thoroughly but do not boil. Add more hot milk if too thick. Serve in small bowls, with wafer-thin clise of lemon in each.

Potato Soup With Herbs

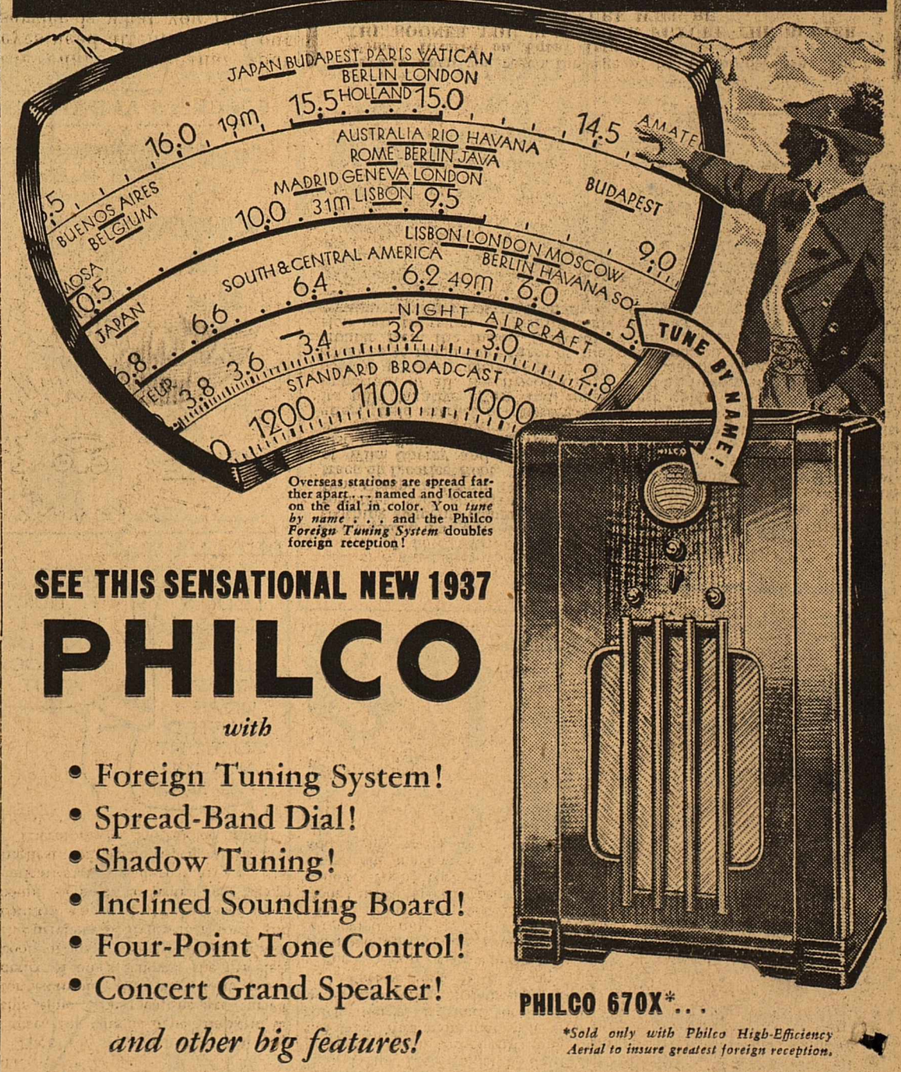

For a soup with herbs, heat 1 teaspoon butter in a saucepan, add 1 teaspoon minced onion and 1 teaspoon finely chopped raw bacon. Cook until onions begin to turn yellow. Then work in with fork 2 cups cold mashed potatoes. Slowly add 2 cups warm milk, stirring until mixture is smooth. Simmer gently for 15 minutes, adding more milk when needed. Season with salt and pepper. Chop enough tender leaves of chicory or watercress to fill 1 cup. Turn these into the soup, stir until entirely covered, and simmer another 10 minutes. Add 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice, then serve.

Rich Potato Soup

A rich soup which can become the main part of a Monday meal begins with 1 tablespoon butter, melated in a large sauce pan. Add 1 teaspoon minced onion; saute for 1 minute but do not brown. Dust onions with 1 teaspoon flour, stir, then slowly stir in 3 cups warm milk. To the milk mixture add 1 cup cold mashed potatoes. Stir with fork, breaking down lumps until mixture is perfectly smooth. Simmer 20 minutes or until onion is tender. Strain. Beat 2 egg yolks, 2 tablespoons grated cheese and 1/2 cup cream together. Add to strained soup, with more hot milk if needed to make desired consistency. Season with salt, a dash of cayenne. Simmer 2 minutes more, but do not boil. Serve at once.

Beware The Cough
From a common cold
That Hangs On
No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.
Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)
