Quarter Century Award

Burl B. Hulsey Jr., left, of Fort Worth, president of Texas Electric Service Company, congratulates Colorado City's L.E. Petty upon his entry into TESCO's Quarter Century Club. Petty and two other TESCO employes — George A. Hendricks and E. L. French of Sweetwater — were honored and presented watches by Hulsey at the company's annual banquet here Monday night in Civic House honoring Texas Electric employes in the Sweetwater division with 25 years or more of company service. Petty, who lives at 1422 Dallas, has been at Morgan Creek Power Plant since its first generating unit went into service.

Burglars Hit Here Again

Burglars struck again in Colorado City Wednesday night, taking $100 worth of electric tools from Rockwell Bros. & Company, 302 West Second.

The break-in was discovered when the lumber firm was opened Thursday morning at about 7 a.m., according to Vaughn Brown.

Taken from the firm were a quarter electric drill with accessories, a heavy duty skill saw and a small skill saw.

Police Chief Jesse Browning said entry was gained by removing a small glass in the rear door at Rockwell located on the west side and away from the street. After removal of the glass, the burglar reached in and unlatched the door.

This was the second break-in within a five-day period. Earlier in the daylight of Sunday afternoon a burglar broke into Day & Night Drive-In Grocery, 429 East Second, and carried over between 30 and 48 cartons of cigarettes.

Back door of the store was ripped off for entry into the building.

Police were notified that the break-in was sometime in the afternoon before 5:30 o'clock.

September Is In Top 10 For Rainfall

Almost half of September was marked by moisture in the Colorado City area, according to records of Robert Lewis at City Hall for U.S. Weather Bureau.

The rain, eagerly received by ranchers but not nearly so welcomed by cotton farmers worried over the problems of a short and late crop, came on 13 of the 30 days.

Total rainfall for the official measurement here in Colorado City was 4.47 inches — one of the 10 wettest Septembers in the last 47 years.

It brought the year's total moisture to 11.37 inches.

Last year the September total was 3.05 inches and in 1965 it was 5.21.

Other Septembers since 1920 with more than 4 inches of rainfall were in 1962 with 12.60 inches, 1953 with 4.59 inches, 1950 with 4.92 inches, 1936 with 8.92 inches, 1932 with 4.61 inches, 1929 with 4.52 inches, 1926 with 8.96 inches and 1924 with 4.52 inches.

Temperature dived down to 42 degrees here early Thursday — lowest of the season after a 54-degree low Wednesday. Friday the low was 50 degrees.

New Board Member

Willie Landau, prominent merchant, succeeds Mrs. Dee Bassham on the board of Colorado City Hospital District. He was appionted to the two-year term after Mrs. Bassham resigned to devote her full interests to the hospital as an active-duty nurse.

Colorado City Hospital District has okayed a $593,409 budget for its initial year of operation and named Willie Landau to its board.

Landau, prominent merchant and civic leader, succeeds Mrs. Dee Bassham, who resigned.

MRS. BASSHAM, who was named to the original board for a two-year term, is a nurse on the staff of Root Memorial Hospital.

She notified the board by letter of her resignation, stating she had made the decision so as to be certain there would be no future conflict in interest which might arise with a member of the hospital nursing staff [illegible] policy-making board of directors.

With her qualifications as a graduate nurse, Mrs. Bassham expressed a belief she could best contribute to the hospital and community as an anctive nurse.

LANDAU, OWNER of Landau's Speciality Store, was named unimously by the board to serve the remainder of Mrs. Bassham's two-year term.

He has served previously as a Colorado Independent School District trustee, was active in the move to create a hospital district and continue the operation of Root Hospital, and has been active in Chamber of Commerce, Lions, United Fund and other activities.

THE HOSPITAL District in its new budget, estimates income for the year in amount of 593,710 including $73,000 in tax revenues, $371,500 in hospital revenue, $149,210 in Root Valley Fair Lodge revenue.

These resources will be applied as follows: $25,100 for debt retirement and interest and fees; $366,199.57 in hospital operation; $156,710 in lodge operation, and $45,400 in capital outlay.

This expenditure totals $593,409.57 — leaving an estimate surplus of $300.43.

Total estimated salaries and labor expense for both hospital and lodge is estimated at $311,971.63 in the budget.

Top Range Sites In Thursday Tour

Annual range tour of Mitchell Soil Conservation District Thursday will point out progress in brush control and grass seeding in the county's western area.

The tour will visit the ranches of Mrs. Dell Barber, southwest of Westbrook, and W. E. Smith Jr., south of Westbrook.

Business and professional men are urged to join the tour with ranchers and farmers and observe the range improvements, according to A. V. Sheppard, head of the Soil Conservation Service staff here in Colorado City.

Persons participating in the tour will leave from Westbrook Gin at 1:30 p.m. and return between 4:30 and 5 p.m.

"We believe this year's tour will provide outstanding examples in range improvement," Sheppard said.

"The Barber ranch will show the very top success with root plowing — and what this West Texas country did produce in original vegetation.

"At the Smith acreage the tour will observe almost unbelievable recovery from a 'sand paper' condition when the owner took over about four years ago," Sheppard emphasized.

First stop on the tour will be at Mrs Barber's ranch, managed by her lawyer husband, Dell Barber.

On-the-site inspection here will be where root plowing has proved successful with brush control and where range seeding has brought splendid results.

Blue panicum grass will be observed planted in rows.

Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts will be served tour participants at the new Smith ranch home, followed by additional range stops.

Brush control — by chemical crown (aerial spray) treatment and by basil oil spray — will be shown at the Smith ranch.

A study will be conducted there, also, of the production of various grasses. This information will reveal production pounds per acre, value of grasses per pound of seed per acre, value of grasses in relation to usage of moisture.

Facts concerning the merits of rotation grazing will be presented in a discussion conducted by Dub Waldrip.

A. K. McCarley, chairman of the soil district's board of supervisors, will speak brief-

Gold Star Awards

Top 4-H Honors to Smith, Anderson

Sally Smith and Wood Anderson received recognition as Gold Star girl and Gold Star boy Saturday at the annual Mitchell County 4-H Achievement Banquet in the cafeteria at Colorado High School.

Gold Star Award is the highest award available to 4-H members.

Sally, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith, Jr., is a junior class student in Colorado High School.

She has been in 4-H club work for nine years and is serving as reporter and District Council delegate for Mitchell County 4-H Club. Sally is active in the pep squad at school and is a member of Future Homemakers of America and the CHS Student Council.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Anderson, Woody is also 16 and a junior at Colorado High School where he is a member of Wolf Band and of the Student Council. He has been in 4-H club work six years and is serving as co-chairman of the Mitchell County 4-H Club. Woody has attended the State 4-H Roundup for the past two years.

He shared honors with Linda Banks, co-chairman, as master and mistress of ceremonies at the award banquet. Linda is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Banks, Jr.

Other awards presented at the annual event were a Beef award to Eddy and Becky Merket, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Merket; Bread award to Sheryl Hamrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hamrick; Clothing, Jeanette Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith, Sara Guitar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Guitar, Dixie Ed-

Wolves Stumble On Brady, 36-6

Bulldogs Parlay Errors Into Triumph

Halloween came a month early Friday night to Colorado High Wolves.

All the football witches in Brady land must have howled with glee.

For Coach Truman Nix's gang spooked their own play with a field of misdeeds.

WHEN THE CALDRON of errors stopped boiling, the Wolves were on the treatless end of a 36 to 6 score.

About the only thing the Wolves didn't do wrong Friday night was to center the ball over an extra-point kicker's head. But extra point attempts were hard to come by.

BRADY, POWER of District 8-AA and ranked No. 3 in most statewide football polls, enhanced their undefeated reputation with their fourth consecutive triumph of the season — their second on successive weekends against 5-AA competition.

Colorado City, eager to step up in the state's elite undefeated ranks, lost the booming momentum which had carried 'em through three impressive triumphs.

SURE, CO-CAPTAIN Fullback Ralph Lindsey, the twin powder keg in the Wolves' quick offense, was out of the line-up all night because of a pulled leg muscle suffered Wednesday.

But don't blame the trouble on that trick of fate.

It was an incredible 4 minutes 14 seconds in the third quarter which really turned the Wolves topsy-turvy.

In those 244 seconds Brady scored three touchdowns — a deficit which the Wolves could never recover.

FOR ABOUT six minutes in the fourth quarter the Wolves re-grouped and looked like the team which had romped over Coahoma, Roscoe and Sweetwater while scoring 106 points and allowing only 8.

They drove 77 yards in 15 plays to score their lone touchdown of the game.

Dan Teakley, leading ground gainer among area AA players, and Mike Maines were the big guns in this

48 Adults Start Night School

Ages 19 To 64 In New Basic Classes

Forty-eight persons began studies Thursday night in Colorado City's first Adult Basic Education program.

Registration night Tuesday counted 42 persons, but the number increased to 48 when actual instruction began Thursday, according to Ed Aguilar, coordinator for the new educational project.

School administrators are pleased with the number of participants although approximately 120 citizens within the community expressed an interest in the basic courses last year.

"We are hopeful that other interested adults will be encouraged by this early community - wide response and join the program, too," said Earl Cook, assistant school superintendent.

Age of participants range from 19 to 64 years with an average age of 33.5 years.

Among the first night enrollee were two in their teens (19 years), 14 in their twenties, 16 in their thirties, seven in their forties, 2 in their fifties and one in the sixties.

Almost 90 per cent are married and each of these has an average of more than four children.

It is this fact — parents of 152 children in the first 42 enrollee that is encouraging to school administrators. For the basic education course is designed not only to assist the adults in their own betterment, but to create an improved educational outlook for the parents toward their children.

The adults are in three levels of basic education — the most enrolled in Level A, equivalent of grades 1 through 3 and the reainder are divided equally between Level B, grades 4 through 6 and Level C, grades 7 through 8.

Approximately one fifth of the participants have no experience in school or no experience in a school within the United States. However, approximately one-eighth of the enrollment has progressed previously to the level between 8th and 9th grades.

Five major reasons were voiced by the enrollee for participation in the program: self - satisfaction, opportunity to learn the English language, obtain adequate education for passing examination to obtain citizenship papers, to improve qualifications for job promotion and to help their children.

Adult Basic Education has been in the making for Colorado Independent School District for more than a year and this current program is the district's first attempt in this new field.

Classes — all on the ground floor at Colorado High — are scheduled each Tuesday and Thursday from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Instruction for each of the three levels are, adapted to

ZONE 4 LANDOWNERS TO ELECT TUESDAY

Landowners in Zone 4 of Mitchell Soil Conservation District Tuesday will elect a supervisor to represent their zone on the district's board.

Election will be at 8 p.m. in Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc.

Zone 4 includes the area south of Interstate 20 and east of Colorado River and east to Farm Highway 644 south of Loraine.

R. A. Carey is currently representing the zone on the board of supervisors, having been a supervisor for 10 years.

The election will be included with a "family night" event for Zone 4 with games of dominoes, forty-two and refreshments of coffee and doughnuts.

A. V. Sheppard, Soil Conservation Service, said that all landowners in the zone are eligible to vote. A landowner does not have to live in the zone.

the enrollment for reading, language arts, social science, health and arithmetic.

Although classes began during the last week, interested persons can enter the program now — or even later — and progress at their own level. This is convenience which school administrators are emphasizing so that other individuals will be encouraged rather than discouraged to participate even though they were not able to attend at the beginning.

Also, attendance is not compulsory and participants can attend whenever possible without penalty.

Full instruction will amount to 100 hours when the current courses conclude next spring.

Financing for adult program is with federal funds through Texas Education Agency.

Burglars

(to Snyder) burglars broke into the home of Santiago Chavez and took clothes, bedding and dishes.

Chavez notified Sheriff Lewis Claxton's staff that the burglary was committed while he was on a trip. He returned Wednesday and discovered the loss then.

Deputy Sheriff Forrest Smith said investigation indicated that an attempt had been made to burn articles within the house and that empty beer bottles had been left behind.

Ivan Barber, 1129 Walnut, reported to police that thieves took four hubcaps from his 1965 Chevrolet while he was watching the Colorado City-Brady football game Friday night. The car was parked northwest of the stadium at west side of Pony League baseball field.

Mrs. Davy Womack of Rt. 2 and Mrs. Mae Fuller went to Palace Theater Monday night to see the film Bonnie and Clyde. When they returned to their car, parked near Baker Hotel at about 9:30 p.m., an overnight bag belonging to Mrs. Womack was missing.

Twenty-four minutes after they reported the theft, police returned the bag and contents to the owner.

TO CHOOSE QUEEN

Colorado High Plans Homecoming

Plans for the Oct. 13 Homecoming celebration at Colorado High School are underway with Keaton Grubbs, vice president of the Student Council, as general chairman.

Homecoming parade will be staged downtown at 4 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13.

Theme for this year's parade is to be a tribute to the Armed Forces with a Marine unit, a Navy unit, National Guard, and Air Force units from Webb and Dyess Air Force Bases invited to join the parade.

Floats will be decorated and entered for prizes by high school classes and organizations. The traditional Homecoming parade is annually one of Colorado City's most colorful events with Wolf Band and Wolverines taking part and decorated class floats vying for top prize.

Student Council has nominated six senior girls as Homecoming Queen candidates. Student body ballots will choose the Queen whose identity will be kept secret until between half festivities at the game between Hamlin and Colorado High in Wolf Stadium.

Nominated as candidates for the honor are Vicki Bodine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Bodine; Ann Blackard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Blackard; Ida Bassham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bassham; Rose Ann White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. White, Jr.; Jean Keeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Keeth; and Jennifer Holbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holbert.

Macca Findley is this year's Student Council president.

Is gas really cool?

You bet. Here's proof:

We turned a gas burner up to high for five minutes. Then we turned it off and immediately set a frozen pitcher of ice on it! Nary a crack! The pitcher remained intact and good as new. (The reason is no hangover heat with gas.) We tried the very same experiment with an identical pitcher . . . but on another kind of range. It was a shattering experience. CONVERSATION CORNER

Ruth Coffey's

NOTE with full approval that Colorado City Playhouse bills its new show "Under The Yum-Yum Tree," as being "For Mature Audience."

That takes a bit of courage in a town this size.

It does, you've got to admit, take care of the ticklish question in houses wondering whether Junior and Suzie should go or should stay home and do their homework.

It is the only honest approach possible in this world which is inhabited by people of all ages, falling roughly into two classifications — adults and children.

Some of my favorite people are children. It just does not necessarily follow that they must share every thought, every book, every play designed for grownups . . . any more than they have to like shrimp cocktail and tabasco sauce.

MATURE is the catch word here. It's just as true as true that all grownups are not mature.

Many of us mature quite late in life — or not at all — and some people mature mentally before they are through growing physically.

How do you know whether or not you rate being included in a "Mature Audience?"

Let's see . . . when you can come to accept the fact that no life is perfect, that everybody who breathes has trouble of some sort or other, you may be mature.

When you can stop bleeding inside over the unassailable fact that every creature born will just as surely die . . . you are mature.

WHEN you can stop wasting time being shocked at human behavior, at "youth," at literature, at the facts of life . . . you're on your way to maturity.

When you can cease harsh criticism of other people who may be different, wherever they may live in this world . . . when you can learn to value people for their good, lovable qualities, laughing away small flaws of personality . . . even chinks in the charicter . . .

When you can feel pity for all the less fortunate, without envy, of all the more successful . . . when you can like yourself humbly, without indulging in self worship . . . when you can concede that maybe not even you are always, always right in your thinking and that sometimes even you and your little prejudices are wrong . . . you are mature, or in the process of maturing. At least you've lived a while, friend.

SEEN LATELYS included cute and blond Gloria Richardson, CHS senior . . . Anne Cook (Mrs. Bill) with two diminutive blonds, Mallinda and Melody Wallace . . . Don DeLaney in a bright red sweater . . . Buzz Majors on the downtown scene . . . Mrs. Dennis Wright, office drop-in.

Nell (Mrs. Bennett) Scott with news of the Hesperians . . . Weems Dykes (The Rev.) strolling along. That's a reminder. Have you noticed the walking fad in progress all over town?

Vickie Moore (Mrs. Lindy) who walks every day no matter what the weather was saying she no longer has to sing "I'll Walk Alone . . .' and may just hum "Everybody's Doin' It."

And if you see Vickie, native of Michigan transplanted in West Texas, walking along with a black belt rolled in her hand it's to defend herself from any unfriendly dog who wants to join the parade.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought chats with Margaret Costin wife of another one of those Dallas Cowboy fans named Warren.

Ellon Burson was saying she and her husband Guy spent the weekend in Dallas where they attended Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star and visited the Jack Jordans, former C-Citians.

Lewis and Elizabeth Elliott were in Dallas for Grand Chapter, too.

HEAR TELL Margie Carlock Martin and husband Felix became grandparents of a little baby girl born to their first son Bill and his blond wife, Ann. Welcome to the club! The Jesse Bolins are maternal grandparents.

Hear, too, that our Ed Thrift has been eyeing Cloudcroft, New Mexico, for vacation possibilities.

And that Edna Coe Majors (Mrs. Sam L. Sr.) local poet is to have her third collection of verses soon. It's being published in Dallas and will include 48 poems written by her.

TILLERS, Jewel and E. L., are just back from a week spent in Houston visiting daughter Anne, her husband Tommy Palmer, and children Chuck, 13, and Beverley, who is 12.

Jewel is still remembering with love the Ice Capades the planetarium and other city sights.

GLIMPSED Annette Lee Calloway and her husband Leen lunching together . . Martha Earnest dining solo . . . Larry Kinard with friends.

Pretty Shirley DeLaney at the drive-in bank window . . . Trudy Curlee, Playhouse prexy . . . Melba Mikle on Walnut St . . . Margaret Oyler, too . . . Mrs. Gene Connally.

Talked via Alexander Graham Bell to Forrest Smith whose only son Pfc Wayne Smith is headed for Viet Nam . . . To Pat Kelley, wife of Jim, who was gathering up children's clothes for flood victims — and to Robert Jones, one of the junior class magazine salesmen.

Conard On Rifle Team

Frank Conard, Colorado City sophomore at Hardin-Simmons University has been chosen as member of the H-SU Rifle Team.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Conard of 1436 Austin, he is a graduate of Colorado High School and attended Texas A&M this summer.

The rifle team will participate in the annual Oklahoma matches on Nov. 17 at Oklahoma State University.

Carl E. White, coach, stated "I expect the H-SU team to take top place in the Fiesta Matches." The overall performance for the H-SU Rifle team for the past semester was a 58% winning average. Within the Southwest Rifle Association four matches were won and four lost and in the Fiesta Matches, the team came out 4th place of twenty-three teams firing.

Other members of the team are Johnny Cornelius of Abilene, Terry Hale of Irving, Glen Thomas of Snyder, and James Hilliard of Abilene.

Excuse us, Ma'am, but your gas heating contractor or Lone Star Gas may have a pleasant surprise for you.

Let's be realistic. You're just going to have to spend some money to modernize your heating system. But it will probably be a lot less than you think. Especially now during August and September when gas heating contractors have more time to make installations and are offering special savings. There's a wide variety of modern, automatic gas heating equipment to take care of any situation—whether you're heating one room, several rooms or your entire home. Why not get a free estimate? Talk to a gas heating contractor or the folks at Lone Star Gas.

Actress & Actor In "Under The Yum-Yum Tree"

Charlotte Nrthcutt, at left, is directing the Playhouse production of "Under The Yum-Yum Tree" in which she also will play the role of Robin Austin. Playing opposite Mrs. Northcutt will be Wendell Jarnigan, at right, as Dave Manning. Jarnigan is playing his first Playhouse role. Mrs. Northcutt was the star in "Bus Stop" and in the musical, "The Fantasticks." The new show, "Under The Yum-Yum Tree" will be staged three nights this week in the high school auditorium.

PLAYHOUSE COMEDY

The Yum-Yum Tree On Stage 3 Nights

Monday night and again

Curtain rises at 8 p.m. Tuesday night on "Under The Yum-Yum Tree," comedy drama to be staged by Colorado City Playhouse, local amateur theater group.

Final performance of the three-act play is scheduled to be staged in the same auditorium, Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Cast for the show, advertised as "For Mature Audience," includes Dan Majors as Hogan, Gwen Brown as Irene Wilson, Charlotte Northcutt as Robin Austin, and Wendell Jarnigan as Dave Manning.

Mrs. Northcutt, in private life Mrs. Bobby Northcutt, is directing the drama which was a hit show in New York City and later a hilarious movie starring Jack Lemon.

The director, who also plays Robin, will be remembered by Colorado City Playhouse audiences for her star roles in "Bus Stop," and in "The Fansticks," earlier Playhouse presentations. She also was member of the chorus in "Stop The World," and was director for the popular "Mary, Mary."

Hogan is the first starring role for Majors, announcer for Radio Station KVMC here, although he successfully played a minor role in "Everybody Loves Opal."

Mrs. Brown, who won the 1966 Playhouse plaque as best supporting actress for her appearance in "Mary, Mary," first appeared in "The Gazebo," and later had a supporting role in "Mister Angel."

Jarnigan, owner and operator of Jarnigan Plumbing & Heating Co., is new to Playhouse audiences here.

To appear in minor "walk on" roles are two veterans of Playhouse productions, Porter Richardson and Tandy Curlee, who both won public favor for their roles in the well-received musical, "The Fantasticks."

Richardson and Curlee, along with George Womack, are staging "Under The Yum-Yum Tree." Set, an attic apartment, built by stagers and their assistants, is in the professional category.

Sharon Prescott, who is Mrs. Ray Prescott, is prompter. She is a new Playhouse member. Nadine (Mrs. Gerald) Gordon is in charge of the numerous properties for the comedy. She is a Playhouse charter member.

"Under The Yum-Yum Tree" is on the sophisticated side. Its mood is merry. It offers, through high comedy, amusement for adults.

That is not to say, said an active Playhouse member, that "Under The Yum-Yum Tree" is "not fit" for children. It is to say "Yum-Yum Tree would probably bore the kids — as much as Shakespeare might with "Taming of the Shrew."

Tickets for the show are $1 if bought in advance, $1.25 if purchased at the door.

Church Aid Station Open Afternoons

First Baptist Church collection for flood victims in South Texas will continue through this week, a church announcement said.

Downtown building, next door to the G. D. Foster office, is to be kept open each afternoon from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. to receive donations for the church drive for aid.

Greatest need, the announcement said, is money. Also needed are used furniture, clothing, linens, and canned foods.

Good used clothing is wanted. Donors are asked to label clothing as boys, girls, women, men.

Household linens will be especially needed. First Baptist Church will send the donations to the Rio Grande Valley by truck as soon as feasible.

Gwen Brown as Irene, Dan Majors as Hogan

Gwen Brown, who has appeared in three Colorado City Playhouse dramas, will play a leading role this week as Irene Wilson in "Under The Yum-Yum Tree." Curtain time is 8 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and again Saturday in Colorado High auditorium. Dan Majors, pictured with Mrs. Brown, takes the role of Hogan, apartment manager who becomes involved in the romance of a young couple in love.

GAME WARDEN

Mitchell Federation Has Guest Speaker

Bill Hankins, game warden for Texas Parks & Wildlife Department, was guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Mitchell County Federation of Women's Club, Tuesday afternoon in Hesperian Room, library building.

Hesperian Daughters Study Club, with Mrs. L. B. Gibson as leader, presented the program.

Hankins showed films featuring conservation of wildlife in Texas. He discussed progress of preservation of wildlife under new Texas laws. Slides shown included scenes at Palo Duro Canyon, Rio Grande area, the panhandle area, Rio Blanco Lake, the new Lake Meredith at Dumas, Pecos River, Marfa country, Black Gap area, and scenes in Mitchell County.

The Federation meeting began with members repeating the Mary Stewart Club Collect. Mrs. J. W. Watson, Federation president, conducted the business session and exhibited the original copy of the Mary Stewart Collect after reviewing the history of it.

Mrs. Lily Bennett, secretary, and Mrs. A. H. Jackson, treasurer, made their reports as officers.

Announcement was made by the president of the Mesquite District Federation workshop to be held in Loraine, with Atheneum Study Club as host, Saturday, Oct. 14.

Club reports were given by Mrs. John Hale for Hesperian Study Club; Mrs. W. L. Doss, 1921 Study Club; Mrs. Gwan Strange, 1949 Study Club; Mrs. Gibson, Hesperian Daughters; Mrs. Dennis Wright, Zeta Delta, Study Club; Mrs. B. W. Faulfus, Beta Sigma Phi; Mrs. Wayne Shawn, Maranatha Study Club; Mrs. Leslie Keith, Self Culture Club; and Mrs. Bennet, Atheneum Study Club.

Next meeting of Mitchell County Federation will be Tuesday, Oct. 24, when Zoegathian Study Club will present the program.

Out Of Town Pioneer Visitors

Here Recently for the 36th annual reunion of Mitchell County pioneers were, center and at left, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Shepherd of Houston. Mr. Shepherd, widely known Huston attorney, grew up here and is a graduate of Colorado High School. At right is Mrs. Serl Brown of Ft. Worth. The former Miss Daisy Adams, she was one of the six graduates of Colorado High School class of 1919 who held a class reunion Friday after Old Timer celebration.

GUEST SPEAKER

Rees Adresses Zeta Delta Club

Zeta Delta Study Club members were addressed by a guest speaker, Tom Rees, attorney, on the subject "Who Needs a Will?" when the club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hubert Bassinger, 937 East 16th St.

Introduced by Mrs. Rees, Zeta Delta member, the speaker reminded club members that without a will, distribution of an estate is controlled by the court.

"Each time an estate goes to court is diminished by court and attorney fees which can quickly deplete even a sizeable estate," Rees said.

He emphasized estate planning as important concerning the tax structure.

"If anybody needs a will," he told the club, "it is the young family who should make provision for protecting and providing for all minor children."

Club opened with the Club Collect led by Mrs. Bassinger. Members discussed the community events calendar being planned by the club as a money making project to benefit the Zeta Delta scholarship fund for a graduating senior girl each year.

Zeta Delta members also made plans to start their part of the Community Attitude Survey next week. Members will interview families in each fourth house, east of Hickory St.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Jack Tingay, guest, Mr. Rees; Mrs. L. K. Bird, Mrs. Eddie Braswell, Mrs. Jackie Corbell, Mrs. Don Fite, Mrs. Phil Fortune, Mrs. Rodney James, Mrs. Bobby Nobles, Mrs. Tom Reed, Mrs. Dave Sanders, Mrs. Dennis Wright and Mrs. Bassinger.

Wolves

drive with Randy Parker and Mike Garrett contributing key assists.

But mistakes even back in the first half when the Wolves left the field at intermission with only a 0-6 deficit — turned most the game into a nightmare.

BRADY CAME to town with an all-senior backfield led by 190-pound speedster Puddin Jones and 207-pound fullback Ronnie Noves.

The Bulldogs used 'em to advantage.

Jones, on the calling list of all the major universities across the country, did everything but drive the team bus: He kicked off, punted, backed up the line, scored three touchdowns.

In between, Noves was ripping Colorado City's defense when it hurt the most and doubling as a tough tackle on defense.

LET'S PUT THE record straight for those miscues. They weren't make-believe as they backfired against the Wolves.

Actually, C-City outgained the Bulldogs on the ground — 141 yards to 112. Registered 14 first downs to the winners' 10.

Five times in the first quarter the Wolves misfired their offence with off-side or motion penalties when they fouled their signals. These slowed 'em a total of 57 yards — counting wiped out gains and the penalty yardage — when the Wolves appeared to be dominating the game.

BRADY WENT into a 6-0 lead in the second quarter on a touchdown pass that appeared in easy reach of a Wolf defender who watched unprotestingly, apparently lulled into momentary lapse by a bevy of red flags thrown upfield.

A Colorado City fumble gave the Bulldogs their first scoring chance and it was kept alive when a Wolf recovery of a Brady fumble moments later was nullified by a quick whistle.

A 59-yard drive late in the second quarter — with Wolves still much in the game — ended in disaster on first down at Brady's 15 when a Parker pass intended for Kenny Key went astray a step behind its mark and was intercepted.

IN THAT DEVASTATING three-touchdown spree in the third quarter, two touchdown intercepts — both on dangerous flat zone passes which missed their mark — were the shockers.

Mix in also, an on-side kick which Brady worked to perfection and a similar try by the Wolves, which in the spookiest stroke of the night, started from the Wolves' 40, angled forward, then ricochted in reverse back to the Wolves' 32.

Another time, on a fourth down fake punt, the Wolves handed the ball over with a fumble and lost yardage.

It was all too much for the Wolves to overcome.

Next Friday night they meet another 8-AA toughy, Ballinger, a team which beat Winters this week 21-0, a club Brady could subdue only 12-7.
