Presiding Judge George Calhoun told the offender that he was not an officer of the Travis county court and ordered that he be disarmed. The pistol was turned over to a deputy sheriff and the trial proceeded. Judge Calhoun called all of the witnesses in the case into the court room just before the noon recess and admonished them that they must not come back to the court house with guns.

Horse Killed in Runaway.

A fine buggy mare belonging to Wendell Hammers was killed in a terrible manner last Monday afternoon. Mr. Hammers was in Gorman that day and the spirited animal was being exercised by being driven about town by John Morgan. Near the city hall corner the animal became scared and by a quick movement Morgan was thrown out of the buggy and the mare plunged forward down the street toward the Jordan corner, where a number of wagons were standing. She ran squarely between the two horses hitched to a wagon belonging to A. J. Waldrip, who resides four miles north of town, and the tongue of the wagon entered the animal's lower left side just behind the shoulder and ran entirely through and for nearly the entire length of the wagon tongue, a couple or three feet of the tongue protruding from the hip on the right side. Through the hole torn two or three feet long in the side the entrails protruded and the impatient and dazed animal kicked viciously at these after the wagon tongue was drawn out. City Marshal Troutt shot the poor animal within a few minutes to relieve it from agony. The mare was valued at about $350 and was insured for $100.

Entire Town to Move.

The plans of the Orient railroad will bring about the moving of the town of Bronte in Coke county, a distance of two miles from its present location.

The town has a population of about eight hundred inhabitants and has two churches and four general stores in addition to a large number of residences which will be moved. It was the original intention to locate the Orient station about five miles from the town of Bronte, but through subscriptions amounting to $9,000 the road was induced to locate its station about two miles from the old town and three hundred acres have been set aside for the occupancy of the present residents of the old town of Bronte. Those who own property in the old town will receive a similar amount in the new town from the three hundred acres of ground mentioned. The loss sustained, therefore, it is claimed, will be only the indirect one upon the cost of moving.

The Orient is now running from Sweetwater to Rule and expects by March 1st to be running to Knox City. After reaching the latter point the scene of operations will change and building will begin at Sweetwater. The road will then be constructed to Bronte.

Baker, J. F. Armstrong, C. W. Evans and Chester Lee near Stephenville, A. A. Hartgrove, Jno. Campbell, Tom Roberson, Ed Boon and R. B. Grear at Dublin; total fifteen girls and twelve boys.

Money in Milch Cows.

An example of the present value of a few good milk cows is offered by the recent experience of George Keller in this line. Mr. Keller has plenty of pasture near town and last month invested in eight Jersey milk cows as an experiment. For the first thirty days he figured that the bulk sale of milk from the eight cows had brought him a total of $64; exactly an average of $8 worth of milk from each cow in one month and yet he says the cows give only about two gallons each a day. Mr. Keller says he figures that the feed costs him about two dollars a head and on this basis his net proceeds was six dollars each or $48 for the eight cows in one month. He has since added to his stock of cattle until he now has between fifteen and twenty and says that he thinks of getting his herd up to as many as fifty. He ships the milk in bulk to the Ft. Worth creameries, where there is practically an unlimited demand at good prices.

Another Candidate for Representative.

C. G. Foust of Dublin announces this week as a candidate for representative from Erath county, subject to the democratic primaries to be held in July. The professor is one of the most thorough going, well informed and susbtantial citizens of Dublin and anywhere a man of more mature, calculating and positive nature cannot be found. For these various reasons he is particularly well qualified as acceptable legislative timber and besides all these he is especially imbued with the spirit that demands and obtains for him a hearing in any body of men, regardless of class. His private life is blameless, his moral status sound and his capacity for hard work and long hours is only equalled by the energy with which he pursues to a climax every undertaking. The professor aspires to this position for the good that he may be able to do and incidentally for the honor that he contends attaches to this position of trust when duty is earnestly performed. It goes without saying that the people of Dublin will be a practical unit for his election and this condition will prevail in the greatest measure wherever he is best known.

Special Tax Election Ordered.

The commissioners court last week ordered an election throughout Erath county to vote on the question of levying a special tax of fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars property valuation for road and bridge purposes. The election is to occur Saturday, April 28th, the same date as that on the question of the county school superintendency.

Among the acts of the commissioners court meeting last week at Stephenville was the following: Allowed West Vick and W. L. James $75 each for work on roads. Report of District Clerk Gray showed jury fees and fines collected to the amount of $149 for the quarter; Sheriff Cresswell $204.50; Tax Collector Roberts $43,145.84 taxes and B. G. Hall $730. Claim of O. H. Vann for $28.60 refund of excessive taxes was granted.

Passing of the Cattle Ranch.

A contributor in the Review of Reviews speaking particularly of southwest Texas says: "Fence off the state of Connecticutt from the Thames river to the New York line, make the capitol the manor-house, then place the front gate at New Haven, and you will have an estate of about the dimensions of the King ranch in Hidalgo, Starr and Nueces counties.

One million acres and hundreds of thousands of cattle, owned by one woman! Ranches containing one hundred thousand to five hundred thousand acres are so numerous as to be commonplace. But it is the breaking up of these vast holdings which is responsible for the sensational development now attracting the attention of all America. One optimistic Texan told me that the cattlemen had tired of silence and longed for company. May be they have. It is the tingle of gold, though, which has stirred them. From five to thirty acres of grass, according to the productiveness of the soil, are required to fatten a steer. So long as that steer's selling price pays, above all expenses, six per cent on the market value of the land, there is money in raising him. When the land increases in value, however, there is more money in selling the ranch. The steer is falling behind and that is why Texas from San Antonio, Houston and Galveston on the north to Brownsville on the south, is blooming as it never did before. Mere outposts of a few years ago are flourishing young cities now; more towns are springing up and there are great plantations where the rattle of the mower and the song of the plowman have supplanted the crack of the cowboy's lash and the soughing of the wind in the chaparral. Whither goes the cattlemen? To western Texas and the territories and eventually into Mexico.

SANDEFER IS OUT

Stephenville, Feb. 20th.—I take this occasion to announce publicly my withdrawal from the race for congress. After a close survey of the field I see no way by which in my judgment, under the blanket primary system, the tremendous odds favorable to Fort Worth candidates can be overcome. This is peculiarly true if the Fort Worth candidates in the convention are to "pool" against a western man, as one of them has substantially stated they would do.

Under the blanket primary, as I understand it, this means I would have to get more votes than the combined strength of my opponents from Fort Worth, assuming of course, they could control their vote in the convention.

I yield the field, therefore, this early to any other western man who has more confidence in his ability to beat these men than I have.

I sincerely thank my friends for their generous support and encouragement, but trust they will view my action in the light of the facts as they actually obtain in this district at this time. I am, sincerely.—J. D. Sandefer.

Court of Appeals.

The court of appeals at Dallas Wednesday denied a rehearing in the case of Thurman Sexton, appealed from Comanche county. Motions for rehearing were filed with the court on behalf of Lit Byrd from Comanche and Jim Oxford from Erath.

Napoleon's Poison.

A curious ideal of Napoleon Bonaparte's costume was the religious care with which he kept hung around his neck the little leather envelope, shaped like a heart, which contained poison that was to liberate him in case of irretrievable reverses of fortune. This poison was prepared after a recipe that Cabanias had given to Corvisart and after the year 1808 the emperor never undertook a campaign without having his little packet of poison.

Will Seek a New Continent.

Upon the theory that there exists in the arctic regions an enormous archipelego as yet unexplored, lying between the Parry islands and Wrangle land, off the Siberian coast, Captain Ejmar Mikkelsen, commander of the Anglo-American polar expedition, will undertake what is said to be a novel campaign in the history of arctic expeditions.

Although a subject of Denmark Captain Mikkelsen, upon discovering the new continent intends to plant there the American flag and claim it as a possession of the UnitedStates. He has no intention of trying to reach the North Pole, an undertaking which he believes to be both improbable and useless of attainment.

Captain Mikkelsen one day last week accompanied by the Danish minister and Henry Edward Rood of New York city, called upon the president at Washington and explained to him the objects and purposes of the expedition. President Roosevelt expressed his hearty approval. The intention of Captain Mikkelsen is to make a scientific investigation which will probably result in new and valuable additions to several branches.

Swindler and Thief Released.

Wednesday evening a strange man came into A. P. Gordon's store and bought some $35 worth of goods, including a suit of clothing, from one of the salesmen, promising to pay for them when he came back with the wagon in a short time. He failed to come back and his movements creating suspicion, the officers were notified. On Thursday afternoon late, Deputy Sheriff Swafford and posse had the man located in a thicket near the butcher pen east of town, near the railroad track. He managed to escape from the thicket and get into a box car of a passing freight train. As soon as this was known, Deputy Sheriff Swafford 'phoned to Justice Waltrip and Constable Pass at Cresson to look out for the man on the coming freight. They accordingly met the train and secured the man Thursday night, who gave his name as Bivens. All the goods he had purchased were recovered and returned to Mr. Gordon and the man was subsequently released as no criminal action could be made against him.—Granbury Democrat.

This is the identical scheme worked in Dublin a few months ago with Merchant M. J. Woods as the victim to the extent of a quantity of clothing. The thief was not apprehended, however, and it is probable the Granbury man is the same one.

Webster Down to Date.

Collector—A man whom few wish to see but many ask to call again.

Echo—The only thing that can beat a woman out of her last word.

Fiction—The constitutional allegation that "all men are created equal."

Fiddler—A violinist before he becomes so scientific that he refuses to play a tune.

Firmness—That admirable quality in ourselves which is detestable stubborness in others.

Flue—An escape for hot air.

Fluency—Art of releasing hot air.

Married His Step-Mother.

A young man out in El Paso has married his step-mother. But why not? The step-mother is young and pretty and not quite as old as her new husband, and they seem to love each other. The father of one and former husband of the other has been dead several years, and there was no one to raise objections. After being "tied" by an El Paso judge it was discovered that the laws of Texas forbid "a widow to marry her husband's son." But nothing daunted, they hurried over to New Mexico, where the laws are less rigid, the ceremony was performed over again, and they are now back in El Paso, perfectly happy in each others company. This disproves the old and unjust charge, that all step-mothers are hateful and mean.—State Topics.

Every Element of Success.

Every element that goes to make a successful man is embodied in Harry Hibbard Kemp, who is not yet twenty years old. With a total cash capital of three cents, he left New York City three weeks ago, and is enrolled today in the College of Arts and Science of the University of Kansas and working on the university grounds to pay his tuition fees and tending a furnace for his board and room.

When Kemp got into Lawrence a few nights ago on the brake beam of a freight car he did not know a person in the city. He had read some of Prof. W. H. Carruth's books on German grammar and composition, and that had caused him to select the University of Kansas as the place he would study German and Latin.

It was of course dark when he knocked at the professor's door and told him his story. The frank, open face of the boy impressed Prof. Carruth, and he told him to come to the university the next day and he would see what could be done for him.

The professor gave him a dollar and told him to get a good night's sleep. Before the offices opened next morning he presented himself at the register's door. He told them he did not have a cent, but that he was willing to work at anything that was honorable.

Treasurer W. K. Folks was impressed with his honesty of purpose and told him that he would get him a place to work on the grounds.

Within a short time he entered the university as a special student, taking Horace's odes, German composition and English literature. During intermissions between classes he is working on the sidewalk around the university.

Young Kemp has led a strange life. When seventeen years old he quarreled with his father and left home. He went as cabin boy on a vessel to Australia. He associated there with the common tramps and travelled over the whole island. From there he went to Japan and China, and thence as a stowaway to San Francisco, and then across the United States to Mount Herman College, Mass., where he worked his way through school for two years. It was there he came to know of the University of Kansas.

A New Magazine for You

I am bringing out another new magazine that you will come pretty close to liking. I wouldn't be surprised if it hit you harder than anything in the shape of a magazine you have ever seen. There isn't much style to it, but it has the stuff in it that you and everybody else will want to read. It is called

THE SCRAP BOOK

Something New in Magazine Making

THE SCRAP BOOK is the most elastic thing that ever happened in the way of a magazine—elastic enough to carry anything from a tin whistle to a battleship. Everything that appeals to the human brain and human heart comes within its compass—fiction, which is the backbone of periodical circulation; biography, review, philosophy, science, art, poetry, wit, humor, pathos, satire, the weird, the mystical—everything that can be classified and everything that cannot be classified. A paragraph, a little bit, a saying, an editorial, a joke, a maxim, an epigram.

Nothing Like It in the World

There isn't anything in the world just like THE SCRAP BOOK. It is an idea on which we have been working for several years, and for which we have been gathering materials. We have bought hundreds and hundreds of scrap books from all over the country, some of them a century old, and are still buying them. From these books we are gathering and classifying an enormous number of gems, and facts and figures, and historical and personal bits that are of rare value. Furthermore, we have a corps of people ransacking libraries, reading all the current publications, the leading daily papers, and digging out curious and quaint facts and useful facts and figures from reference book, cyclopedia, etc., etc.

Don't fail to get a copy of this first issue of THE SCRAP BOOK. It sells at the price at which all our other magazines sell—Ten Cents a Copy and One Dollar by the Year.

A special from Monticello, Ill., says the dead body of William De Griff, an aged director of the First National Bank of Mansfield, Ill., was found hanging in his house at Mansfield. He had committed suicide.

Congressman Randell has introduced a very drastic bill in congress to prohibit the acceptance of a free pass by any judge or congressman. A fine and imprisonment is provided for each party to such transaction.

Pat Crowe, charged with the robbery of Edward A. Cudahy, the Omaha packer, of twenty-five thousand dollars in connection with the kidnapping of the latter's son five years ago, was acquitted. He is now being tried for robbing a street car at Council Bluff, Iowa.

Senator J. W. Bailey has greatly increased his Kentucky land holdings in the last few days by purchasing 240 acres adjoining his place on the Versailles pike, for $40,800. This brings his holdings up to six hundred acres. Senator Bailey will engage more extensively in the breeding of trotting horses.

An old woman in Germany had been bedridden on account of paralysis for ten years until last August, when a tempest in her neighborhood shook the houses and so frightened the old paralytic that she leaped from her bed. There has been no relapse and hers may be set down perhaps as the only case of cure by tempest.

The board of prison inspectors of Missouri, consisting of Attorney General Hadley, Auditor Wilder and Treasurer Gruetlitch, today refused to award the Waters-Pierce company the contract for providing for the state penitentiary with oils for the ensuing year. The contract was let to a competing company at a half cent higher price.

Paul Jones Bean, the Texan who was dropped from the rolls of the naval academy at Annapolis, Feb. 8th, thus preventing his graduation, which would have occurred Feb. 15th, may be reinstated. Representative Burleson, from whose district young Bean comes, has interested himself in the case and will take it up with the navy department.

STEPHENVILLE.

From the Tribune.

Feb. 16th.—It is likely that Bluff Dale will in the near future bond the town to raise funds to build a new school building, as the sentiment down there is very strong in favor of this idea.

Some two weeks ago Roscoe, the nine year old son of C. T. Stonecipher, while playing on the Keyser school ground, fell and broke his leg. Two doctors were called and as the family supposed the limb was properly set, however on Tuesday, two weeks later, the family became dissatisfied with the appearance of the limb and had it reset.

Marion Gilbreath on the Jim Woodman farm, while burning off grass recently got pretty badly frightened and thought old Gabriel had tooted his horn and set the old world on fire, including his rock fence. The fire had reached a big drift near the fence, and it appeared as if the rocks were literally melting. When he discovered it he cried for help.

J. J. Turpin, chief of the Topaz tribe of Tonks, announces that the annual green corn dance of his tribe will begin this year the day after the county primaries close, at which time all the braves, and their squaws, big and little, old and young, will array themselves in paint and feathers and corn silks and shucks and celebrate the weird rites of this old Indian custom.

Erath county is going to play a star engagement this year on the election question. Already six elections have been ordered for local school districts, and one county affair to determine whether there shall be a county school superintendent. Then the primary for county officers and later on the general election. It is also said there will be one to levy a public road tax.

A man named Duncan left Stephenville Tuesday evening for his home west of town, and was thrown from his horse and so badly injured that he lay out in the cold all night with the weather at the freezing point. Early Wednesday he was found and was in such a serious condition that a physician was called from Stephenville. After some energetic work Mr. Duncan was put on the safe side of the life line.

The people of Bluff Dale are making efforts to secure a flouring mill and so far about $1,300 in subscriptions have been secured. It is proposed to raise enough money to build a three-story stone building, and give it rent free to a practical mill man who will operate the mill. The right man has already been secured and the machinery has been purchased and it is now with the people of Bluff Dale to erect the building. The Paluxy valley, in which Bluff Dale is located, is a great wheat producing section. Besides this there are many other fertile valleys tributary to the trade of this town, which also produce wheat, so it can readily be seen that the country is amply able to produce enough grain to feed the machinery of the proposed plant.

Milton Walker has built a negro hotel in Stephenville and its completion Saturday was celebrated by the colored people in royal style, a fish and oyster supper being the chief attraction. All the upper crust of colored society attended, with a fair sprinkling of those of the lower walks of life and these brought their imported whisky—which is the kind that usually makes a man fight. John Murphy and Bill Hightower were there and accidently got their fish, oysters and whisky mixed which generated a large mixture of fighting gas and so they made things so lively at the "opening" that City Marshal Crain and Sheriff Creswell had to be called in and they stopped the fight before anyone was killed. One of the boys remained in jail until Monday.

Eruption Alarming.

The Mount Vesuvius eruption is assuming alarming proportions. The funicular railway track has been damaged at six points and the principal station is threatened with destruction. An effort is being made to save the station by the construction of a thick wall of masonry reinforced by embankments of sand.

Streams of lava are flowing with considerable rapidity, destroying everything in their course. The authorities are taking precautions to prevent any loss of life.

Sounds Like Business.

The Herald doesn't believe in church. It is not run for the financial benefit of any church, individual, but is a business proposition, run on business principles, for this reason a charge of ten cents per regular advertising is made for notices of entertainments where an admission price is charged, resolutions of sympathy, cards of thanks, and other such notices. This rule applies to all and it is rarely that we find anyone who does not recognize the justice of such charges. The lodge that does not care to pay a dollar or two to show to the world its sympathy it feels for the family of a deceased brother whose death it mourns, certainly cannot expect the paper to publish its resolutions for nothing. The editor of this paper has a family to support; he contributes in cash to the support of the gospel at home and to the cause of foreign missions; he belongs to the lodges and pays his dues; he uses the editorial columns of his paper for the upbuilding of the town and county and the encouragement of a high moral sentiment among the people; but he has a business to run and is responsible for its success or failure. An editor that does not suit a community to use his paper for nothing and all purposes free of charge will sooner or later come to grief. He will be a worthless dead beat who runs a paper is without influence in the world to himself or the people.

This policy has for a good many years been pursued by the management of the Progress and we are not yet to decide that it is not the right one. We have occasionally seen the subject of some criticism and have thought there lost a friend for the moment, but a little second thought on the part of such critics and such criticisms have caused them in every case to see the wisdom and the soundness of our course and the criticism changed to the reverse and the friendship was made all the stronger.

BETTER THAN PIE

Not Only the New Food but Good Wife as Well.

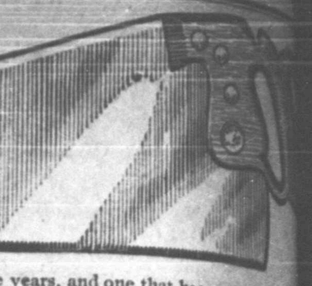

When they brought the new food, Grape-Nuts, into the home the husband sampled it first and said "it's better than pie!" When it began to bring back the glow of health to the pale cheeks, his admiration for the food for her was increased, so she tried it and the rest of her story follows:

"From childhood I was afflicted with constant and often severe indigestion, and when my baby was born it turned out that he had inherited the awful ailment.

"A friend told me of Grape-Nuts and I invested in a box and began to eat according to directions. It was after only a few days that I found my long-abused stomach was growing stronger and that the attacks of indigestion were less frequent, and in an incredibly short time they ceased altogether. Now my perfect digestion returned, my strong nerves, clear, active brain, the glow of health to my cheeks—I know I was a better wife, mother and more agreeable companion with under the new conditions.

"When the boy came to be eight months old he developed a fine appetite (his dyspepsia did not agree with mine) that his mother's milk was not sufficient for him. He refused all baby foods, however, and so I tried Grape-Nuts food, at his own suggestion. The youngster took to it at once and has eaten it daily since, thriving wonderfully on it. He now demands it at every meal and was much put out when he was at a hotel a few days and could not get the waitress could not get it for him for Grape-Nuts." The average circulation of the Progress during last year was 1,993 copies each week. It is now slightly over two thousand each week. Ninety per cent of this circulation is in Dublin territory. Of the remaining ten per cent, one goes to Monterey, Mexico, two to Canada, one to London, England, one to New Brunswick and others to various parts of Texas and to other states and Territories of the union as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, California, District of Columbia, Georgia, Indian Territory, Illinois. Iowa, Idaho, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi, Michigan, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, New York, New Mexico, North Carolina and Oklahoma. Thus the Progress goes weekly to twenty-three states and territories of the union and to four foreign countries.

The commissioners court for Comanche county in its session last week appointed overseers for the 185 road districts in the county and instructed the tax assessor to accept no assessments of improved farm land at less than ten dollars an acre, unimproved farm land at not less than six dollars, broken pasture land not less than three dollars and chalky or shining sandy land not less than one dollar. Elections for the levy of a fifteen cent special school tax was ordered for the first Saturday in April in Baggett and Willow Branch districts and the county tax levy was made the same as last year.

Jesse Hallsell, an intelligent young farmer residing in the Kiker's Gin settlement, where the people read newspapers on the strenuous plan, was in Saturday and subscribed for the following list of newspapers and magazines: Progress, San Antonio Express, Gonzales Enquirer, St. Louis Star, Monthly Scrap Book and Monthly All Stories.

Thunder in February indicates frost at the same time in April is an old saying that generally proves true. If it does this year we shall have frost about the middle of April and it is probable that this will require a replanting of corn.

The local Grange organization at Center Grove is two years old and is now fourteen times as great as when organized. The last regular meeting was held February 15th.

Yesterday was the 174th anniversary of the birth of Geo. Washington, and was also the anniversary of the battle of Buena Vista, which occurred Feb. 22nd and 23rd, 1847.

The school house at Jewell in Eastland county was recently destroyed by fire caused from a defective flue. The teacher and pupils saved most of the contents of the building.

Ed M. Boon returned Saturday morning from a trip to Stanton, where he spent several days taking invoice of the Hines lumber yard at that point, recently purchased by the Higginbotham-Harris Co. of this place.

The tax levy for the present year made by the Hood county commissioners last week was as follows: County ad valorem 25 cents, court house 15 cents, road and bridge 15 cents, pauper 10 cents, county poll 10 cents; total 75 cents. Occupation tax was levied at one-half that of the state.

Rev. O. P. Kiker informs us that, beginning June 1st, will be the Methodist revival occasion. Rev. Lowry of Waco assisting, the meeting will continue for twelve or fifteen days.

An election will shortly occur in Hill county to decide whether a special tax of fifteen cents on the one hundred valuation should be levied to supplement the county road and bridge fund.

Dr. Butler, member of the commissioners court of Eastland county, will probably resign his office at the next meeting of the court. He has removed to Carbon and entered the practice of medicine.

Our good freinds W. L. Johnson of Carlton, J. M. Nance of Van Dyke and C. C. Martin of Lingleville were visitors to the Progress sanctum last Friday and each paid for a year or more on the paper.

H. M. Quinn late of Gilmer, Texas, has removed to Dublin with his family of wife and two children. Mr. Quinn will be engaged with R. B. Spencer & Co's. lumber interests as travelling representative.

The Comanche County Farmers Union will meet at Comanche tomorrow to elect delegates to the state meeting which will convene in Dallas, March 6th. H. D. McDonald is president of the Comanche county union.

The Brownwood Daily Bulletin, already an excellent paper, is shortly to be enlarged from a six column to a seven column four page. It is safe to say there is not a better local daily in any town in Texas the size of Brownwood.

W. H. McKnight has work mules, English Berkshire and Poland China hogs, Barred Plymouth Rock chickens, 200 egg incubator, good cultivator, Harwell cotton seed and nice line of nursery stock for sale. Two and a half miles northeast of Dublin. 35-tf

F. N. Coleman of Whitney will preach at the Church of Christ tonight, tomorrow night, Sunday morning at eleven and Sunday night. We are informed that on Saturday night, March 3rd, Price Billingsly of Abilene will begin a meeting to continue several days, and that on the first Sunday in July Evangelist Nelson of Grandview will begin a meeting to continue indefinitely. These are said to be men of ability and the public will no doubt be benefitted by attending the meetings.

The Catalogue Houses.

When the catalogue comes from your mail order house, draw an easy chair to the table where the light will shine full upon the pages, and put on your glasses that no bargains may escape your eye.

What a wonderful book it is, to be sure! Wonderful for what it does. You will miss some things you would be glad to see. Where is their offer to pay cash or exchange goods for your wheat, oats, corn, beans, butter, eggs and hay? How much do they pay for cattle, sheep and hogs, f. o. b. at your depot?

How much tax will they pay to support your schools and educate your children—for improving roads and bridges, the support of the poor of the county, for the expense of running the business of the township, county and state?

On what page is their offer to contribute money to the church?

What line of credit will they extend to you when your crops are poor and money gone—when through illness and misfortune, you are not able to send "cash with order" for your groceries, clothing, farm tools, crockery, stoves and ranges.

Where is their offer to contribute to your entertainment next year? What did they do last year?

In short, will they do anything to provide a market for what you have to sell and thereby keep up the value of your estate? Will they do anything for social, church, school or government support, or do they take your dollar out of the community with no returns except the goods you buy?

Think this over carefully—then call on your dealer, where you can see and examine the goods before you buy them, and by comparison of prices and quality you will see that you can do as well or better at home, thereby helping to build up your local town.—Exchange.

Miss Myrtle Fisher has been very sick for several days with a severe case of mumps.

BROWNWOOD.

From the Bulletin.

Feb. 21st.—J. J. Bennett of Stephenville, who was in the city attending the meeting of the bankers association last week, was the guest of his niece, Mrs. G. H. Ingram.

The Record states that Alex Dupree of San Angelo has been signed by the Fort Worth ball team. Dupree pitched good ball for Brownwood at the beginning of last season and at the close was Angelo's star pitcher. The local fans feel sure that "Dupe" will make good.

GRASS.

Did you ever notice how eagerly the corn-fed horse seeks grass in the Spring? Not solely because he's hungry, instinct tells him he needs it. His system demands a tonic and purgative to drive out impurities, and the young tender grass is his natural medicine. All animal nature craves its particular "Spring Tonic" and purifier and none have greater need of it than the human animal, Man, because none give their digestive organs so much abuse. All men acknowledge nature's cry for relief from Winter impurities, but there are thousands who do nothing to satisfy this need, and it is among these that disease reaps its harvest of death every year. The man who knows the value of a strong vigorous body when hot weather works a drain upon his strength will use for a couple of weeks in the early Spring a good blood purifier and system regulator; and where can you find a better remedy for this purpose than PRICKLY ASH BITTERS; the great blood, liver and bowel cleanser and system regulator that has done so much for working people. It vitalizes the blood and puts the entire system in condition for Summer work. Try it.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE THIS?

Bad digestion was the starting point. He ignored the warnings sent up by an overloaded and suffering stomach, hence the disorder spread until it has seriously weakened the entire digestive apparatus, involving the kidneys, liver and bowels. It is the beginning of a sick spell.

A person in this state of health finds work a burden. Strength and energy are gone, he can't eat with relish, he is tired, cross, nervous and dull—a truly useless and disagreeable person. The worst part about it is that such person is liable to take any dangerous disease that may be about. Pneumonia, Consumption, Bright's Disease, Cholera, Typhoid or Yellow Fever, Malaria, Small Pox would find in him an easy mark because his system is weakened by impurities which are poisoning his very life-blood. In this condition a powerful system cleanser and regulator is urgently needed, and for such purpose what more effective remedy can be found than the justly celebrated

Prickly Ash Bitters

A Remedy that Has Proved Its Value For Blood, Kidney and Bowel disorders in a Brilliant Record of Cures Performed.

It is the RIGHT medicine for such purpose, the best and greatest blood purifier, system cleanser and regulator. It combines the fine tonic properties of a kidney medicine, stomach, liver and blood purifier with a genial regulating influence in the bowels. It will greatly urge the vital organs to a better and more complete performance of their duties, give them strength and tone and restore healthy activity throughout the body. When the system has been cleared of obstructions and the kidneys resume fully their office of purifying the blood the general condition takes an upward turn. Appetite and digestion are improved, the eyes are brighter, the hollow cheeks fill out, the complexion loses that sallow, muddy cast, giving place to a clear skin and ruddy glow. These are the signals of returning health, and they bring that thrill and joy of living and interest in life's duties that only those in perfect health enjoy.

Some dealers will try to sell you something which they say is just as good as PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. Don't Take It. Get the genuine with the large figure 3 in red on the front label. It will give you the results you desire. Put up in 19 ounce bottles. Price, $1.00.

GENERAL NEWS

Brevities of the Most Interesting Happenings Throughout the Country for the Week.

Over twelve hundred students are now enrolled at the state university at Austin.

Charles H. Wilmans, mayor of Newport, Arkansas, suicided by shooting himself.

John A. McCall, former president of the New York Life Insurance company, is dead.

An elevator and its contents burned at Duluth, Minn., causing a loss of a million dollars.

A. H. Belo of the Dallas News is dangerously ill from a severe cold taken while hunting a weeks ago.

A fire in the tower of the First Presbytertian church at Sherman did damages of one thousand dollars before it was extinguished.

A hundred thousand dollar fire occurred at Lawton, Okla., early Wednesday morning. Twenty-one buildings were destroyed.

A new cotton exchange has been opened in the Crown hotel at Brownwood by J. Mort Smith. W. A. Miller of Temple is owner of the exchange.

Both Marlin and Mineral Wells are asking congress for a large appropriation for hospitals and a bill has been introduced asking $250,000 for the one at Marlin.

A terrific hailstorm lasting fifteen minutes occurred at Bowie Sunday evening. Stones fell the size of small marbles and fruit prospects are said to have been ruined.

Cuba, the pearl of the Antilles, presented the daughter of our president with a pearl necklace which cost $25,000, upon the occasion of her wedding last Saturday.

The assistant county attorney and deputy sheriff broke down doors of saloons to catch violators of the Sunday law at Fort Worth Sunday. Several arrests were made.

Governor Lanham has authorized the statement that he would issue a call the latter part of this month for a special session of the legislature to convene Monday, March the 26th.

A negro brute assaulted a fifteen year old white girl two miles from Shereveport, La., and shot her to death. He was caught and a thousand men have been attempting to lynch him.

The United States supreme court has decided in a case where a negro was on trial for his life in a county with a large population, that the absence of negroes from the jury is not an abridgement of the defendant's rights.

News reached Washington that on the morning of Feb. 10th an attempt was made to assassinate President Reyes of the republic of Columbia. Eight shots were fired at him, five of which struck his carriage, but he escaped uninjured.

Bunk Richardson, a negro charged with the murder and assault of Mrs Sarah Smith in Gadsen, Ala., July 15th, 1905, was taken from the jail in Gadsen by a mob and hanged Feb. 11th. There were twenty-four masked men in the mob.

The commissioners court at Big Springs in Howard county, has ordered an election for March 31st to decide upon the issuance of bonds to erect a new jail and court house. The building is to be erected out of Pecos sand stone.

After a dead lock that required 146 ballots to untie, the commissioners court of Galveston county has chosen Wm. B. Lockhart to be county judge. The former judge resigned to accept the governor's appointment as judge of the district court in the Galveston district.

The home and contents of Will Johnston six miles from Mason in Llano county, was destroyed by fire last Sunday. Mr. Johnston is a young man who is living with his two small sisters in the house in which his father and mother died last year. The three were away at church when the fire occurred.

Judge Bradly's address before the county judges at Dallas, in which he declared that graft, in one form or another, is prevalent throughout the counties of Texas, is attracting much attention. Texans had supposed that at least in county affairs there was as great a degree of honesty as can be found anywhere.

John B. Stetson, the famous hat maker of Philadelphia, died at his winter home in Gillen, Fla., last Sunday. He was born at Orange, N. J., in 1830 and learned the trade of hat making from his father. He moved to Philadelphia in 1865 and has since been engaged in manufacturing the hats that have made him famous.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth left Washington Monday for their bridal tour, going to Alexandria, Va., thence to Tampa, Fla., and by boat from there to Havana, Cuba, where they were to arrive yesterday. It is stated that the couple will spend a portion of their honeymoon at the country home of Col. Cecil A. Lyon of Sherman, when they return from Cuba.

Chas. Rooratn has submitted in a German hospital at Newark, N. J., to the thirty-third operation that has been performed on one of his legs within fifteen years. He hurt his foot in an elevator fifteen years ago and after each succeeding operation was anxious to get out too soon and had to be returned. Only a stump of his leg yet remains and the first operation only cost him a part of a foot.

Gustave Nowack, a painter, was literally roasted to death at Rochester, New York, Wednesday. He entered a vent pipe two feet in diameter to paint it and had a lantern with him. The lantern was overturned and acid fume in the vent caught fire. He crawled as fast as possible along the vent but was unable to find the trap door at which he entered and lapsed into unconsciousness before assistance came.

After a thorough investigation of the reports of the commission of engineers on the Panama canal the president has recommended a lock canal as being preferable from the point of safety of passage, expense of building and time of completion. It is pointed out that a sea level canal would only have the advantage in cost of maintenance after it is completed and this would be overcome by the extra danger to vessels making passage of the water way.

Miss May Macomber, telephone operator for a number of years at the Willard hotel in Washington, D. C., died recently and according to her request the funeral was held at eight o'clock in the evening. The young lady expressed this desire in order that her busy friends of the capitol could attend without interference with their routine duties. The information has caused some discussion and the question is asked: "Why not hold funerals at night."

The fast mail train on the Iron Mountain road from St. Louis south, was wrecked by a broken rail in a suburb of St. Louis Monday. The engine and first mail car telescoped and rolled down a fifteen foot embankment and the second mail car went over them and caught on a ledge overhanging the Mississippi river. There were a number of mail clerks on this car. Twelve men, including the conductor and engineer were injured, some of them seriously. There were no passengers no the train.

M. J. Dawson of Sylvester is the champion wolf trapper of the west. Last week he put out a bunch of traps around a dead cow and caught three wolves that night, one of them being caught in three different traps, two feet in one trap and the other feet in a trap each, while a fourth wolf had broken the chain and departed, taking the trap with him. Mr. Dawson put a chain around the neck of one of the wolves and started home with him alive and passing a bunch of cattle in the field, they smelling their old enemy charged and for a time had both Dawson and the wolf jumping and dodging in a very lively manner until a gate was reached and the cattle shut off.—McCauley Tribune.

Washington's Birth Day.

Yesterday's anniversary of the birth of Washington makes it appropriate that a few facts from his biography be reproduced:

George Washington, the first president of the United States, was born in Westmorland county, Virginia, Feb. 22nd, 1732, and died at Mount Vernon, Dec. 14th, 1799. The house in which he was born was in a parish called by the family name of Washington, near Pope's creek, a small tributary of the Potomac, about half a mile from its junction with that river. It was destroyed by fire during the boyhood of Washington, but in 1815 a stone with a suitable inscription was placed on the spot by George Washington Parke Curtis.

The family to which Washington belonged has not yet been satisfactorily traced in England. The genealogies accepted by Sparks and Irving and his other biograhphers have been proved to be inacurate. His great-grandfather, John Washington, emigrated to Virginia about 1657, with his brother, Lawrence. George Washington was the son of Augustine Washington and his second wife, Mary Ball. After the burning of the house at Pope's creek, his father removed to a house on the Rappahannock, a short distance below Fredericksburg. Here he died in 1743, leaving a large landed property to his widow and five children. To his eldest son, Lawrence, he bequeathed an estate on the Potomac afterward known as Mount Vernon.

George received only the education of the schools of the neighborhood and his instruction in them did not go beyond reading, writing and arithmetic, with the addition, which must have been exceptional, of bookkeeping and surveying. He paid some attention to the French language after the army of Count de Rohambeau arrived in this country, but never attempted to speak or write it. His orthography was rather defective, a very common fault a century ago. Uniform tradition represents him to have attained an early development of physical strength. He took the lead in all the athletic sports and exercises of his companions. Though no great reliance can be place upon most of the anecdotes which are related of his boyhood and youth, it is certain that he grew up of a vigorous and, in early life, spare and agile frame, capable of much physical endurance, remarkably strong in the arms, and a bold and graceful rider. Nor is there any doubt that he early acquired among his contemporaries that character for justice, veracity and sterling honor which he sustained through life.

When George was fourteen years old a midshipman's warrant was obtained for him, and it is said that his clothes were packed to go on board ship. His mother alone never cordially approved of the plan, and it was finally abandoned in consequence of her opposition.

The foundation of his fortune, as far as it was derived from his own acquisitions, were probably laid in part by the knowledge gained by actual inspection of the rich lands in Western Virginia, of which he afterward became a large proprietor. In the course of his surveying towns he frequently encountered friendy parties of Indians, and became familiar with their manners, a knowledge which soon stood him greatly in stead. The very scene of his labors as a surveyor, the northeast frontier of Virginia, became the theater of those movements and operations which formed the memorable commencement of his military career.

The cause of his death was a severe cold contracted on his plantation, while riding over the place. The disease is medically termed "acute laryngitis," of rare occurrence, and was never described until ten years after his death.

About 4:30 o'clock of the last day of Washington's illness he requested Mrs. Washington to bring two papers from his study. Having examined them, he gave her back one to be destroyed and the other to be preserved as his will. He continued to speak and swallow with increasing dificulty, and suffered great pain, but retained his faculties to the last and gave a few directions relative to his affairs and his burial. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he said to Dr. Craik, his physician: "I die hard, but I am not afraid to go. I believed from my first attack that I should not survive it. My breath cannot last long." At 6 o'clock, as three physicians stood by his bedside he said to them: "I feel myself going; I thank you for your attentions, but I pray you to take no more trouble about me. Let me go off quietly. I cannot last long." About 10 o'clock, after several ineffectual attempts to speak intelligibly he said to Mr. Lear, his secretary: "I am just going; have me decently buried and do not let my body be put in the vault until three days after I am dead." He presently said: "Do you understand me?" and on Mr. Lear's reply that he did, Washington said: "It is well." These were the last words which he spoke.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock and about ten minutes before he died, his breathing became easier. He lay quietly, withdrew his hand from Mr. Lear's and felt his own pulse. At this moment his countenance changed, his hand fell from his wrist, and he expired without a struggle.

Dublin Citizen's Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "The old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Dublin citizen:

William Martin, farmer, of Dublin, Texas, says: "For two or three years, off and on, I was subject to dull aching pain in my back, at times quite severe and always worse if I caught a slight cold, for it was sure to settle in my back and cause extra pain and annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and as I was suffering considerably at the time, I procured a box at the Overton Drug Co's store. They suited my case, for in a short time the backache which had troubled me for so long entirely passed away."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Horse Drops Dead.

"Old Tony," a buggy horse belonging to John Gee, dropped dead in the harness last night while being driven along the street that leads beside the round bale gin. "Old Tony" was one of the oldest and best know horses in town. For ten years or more prior to the time the horse was sold to Mr. Gee he was a livery horse in Hall's stable, and was always a favorite driver. Mr. Gee has owned the horse for several years and was very much attached to it. "Old Tony" was about twenty years old and his death is attributed to old age.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Palo Pinto is considering a proposition from the Colorado, Texas & Mexico, a paper railroad, to build through that place for a bonus of $30,000 and right of way. Sixteen thousand dollars of the sum was raised at the first meeting held recently. The road is proposed to run from Cheyenne, Wyoming, through Colorado and Kansas to Mangum, Okla., enter Texas at Chillicothe and pass through Merkel, Abilene, Brady and Llano and thence in two divisions, one to seek a terminus at Aransas Pass on the Gulf coast and the other at Eagle Pass on the Rio Grande.

Chickens Hatched by Bees.

An ingenious and original American while tending his bees in an ordinary bee hive noticed one day while handling a swarm that the temperature within the hive appeared to be similar to that in his incubator. He thereupon put the matter to the test by means of the thermometer and found that his senses had guided him aright. It then occurred to him that he might combine the industries of honey making and egg hatching and make the superfluous warmth from the one provide for the other.

According to the Scientific American he placed twenty eggs in the upper portion of the hive and seperated them from the working apartments by cotton cloth. Eighteen of the twenty eggs were satisfactorily hatched.—Chambers Journal.

The Man Who is Ahead.

In every newspaper we pick up we are sure to find a lot of gush about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun, the man behind the buzz saw and the man behind the son, the man behind the times and the man behind the tents, the man behind the kodack and the man behind the fence, the man behind his whiskers and the man behind his fist and everything behind is entered on the list. They've skipped another of whom nothing has been said, the fellow who is ever a little ways ahead, who pays for what he gets and whose bills are always signed, he's a blamed sight more important than the man who is behind. All we editors and merchants and the whole commercial plan are indebted for existence to this honest fellowman. He keeps us all in business and his town is never dead, and so we take our hats off to the man who is ahead.—Exchange.

The Charge of the Five Thousand.

It is estimated that in a few weeks five thousand candidates for public offices will be flooding Texas with voluble eloquence. This does not include their backers and friends, campaign committees and auxiliary stump speakers, nor their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, all of whom will be beseiging the public ear with cogent reasons why the choice and election should light upon each several self-appointed country saver. It is truly an inspiring spectacle to contemplate with the eye of imagination—a mighty army of five thousand unterrified patriots surrounded by five or ten thousand backers and supporters, all bent on shaking the plum tree so that some of the "easy fruit" shall fall into their hungry mouths. Offices to the right of them, offices to the left of them, offices in front of them, all lure them onward. Splendid will be the charge of the five thousand. Theirs will not be to question why. It is unnecessary to question why, when fat salaries, perquisities and emoluments are in sight. What patriotic soul would not thrill at the thought of serving one's country? The offices are here, somebody must take them—then why not the five thousand? So forward the five thousand! On let them rush to the fateful primaries of the ides of July. When, with their mouths, they have volleyed and thundered to their own destruction, dreadful will be the slaughter. But who can stop them?—San Antonio Express.

Boy's Skeleton Identified.

The skeleton of a boy found recently on a farm near Thackerville, I. T., has been identified and taken charge of by George Hass, section foreman on the Santa Fe railroad at Lehigh, Kansas, who says the remains are those of his son who left home under mysterious circumstances over a year ago and who had not since been heard from. The boy was of a roving disposition and had been a soldier in the Philippines. His father had thought it probable that he had again joined the army but it is now believed that he was murdered, as his life had been threatened a short time before his disappearance.

It is a deplorable circumstance that some children are permitted by their parents to ramble about the streets and alleys of the town day after day, exercising and adding to their vocabulary of vile language and their knowledge of the methods for criminal deeds. A youngster was noticed by the writer a few days ago to pass by the alley window in the office, kick an oil can as he passed that had been set next to the house for a useful purpose, follow up the attack on the can with a club until it was beaten almost flat, curse a number of other boys like him who were loafing about the calaboose nearby and then gather a lot of stones with which he destroyed all the glass in the windows of a deserted little shack from which a Mexican tamale vender had just moved. Shortly afterwards he was seen in the streets cursing with the vilest of oaths at another boy and there were prospects of a scrap and two or three men looked on with a manner that apparently made the incipient criminal full proud of his abilities and the freedom he was enjoying in proclaiming them. The parents of such children ought to be taken in hand and made to suffer and the child placed in a school of correction.

It is stated as reasonably probable that Geo. B. Maloney of Dublin will before long decide to enter the race for sheriff of Erath county. We have no information from Mr. Maloney direct but have it from a close friend of his that he is seriously considering the matter at the solicitation of the friend referred to and many others who think rightly that he would not only make an excellent sheriff, but that he would make a strong candidate for the place. Geo. Maloney has probably assisted more candidates to office than any other one man in Erath county, but he has never asked for office himself, always being content to help some trustworthy and deserving friend with the weight that he was able to yield in his favor. If he does decide to enter the race the aspect of that many sided contest will be materially changed.

James T. Turnbow of Alexander announces in the Progress this week for sheriff, subject to the forthcoming democratic primaries. Mr. Turnbow is a strictly Erath county product, having been born five miles south of Alexander and raised in that immediate neighborood. He resided on the old homestead until about three years ago when he removed to Alexander to take a place with the store of G. B. Maloney & Co. He is a cousin to the late John Gilbreath, who was sheriff of Erath county in the early eighties, but he has never himself held office or before has been a candidate. Mr. Turnbow is a young man imbued with lots of energy and a disposition to use his full stock in whatever worthy enterprise he undertakes.

C. B. Rogers, who removed the first of the year from near Wilson to the new farm about a mile south of Purves purchased by him last summer from W.P. Warren, was in Tuesday and enrolled as a reader of the Progress. Mr. Rogers is a prosperous young farmer who believes in and practices diversification of crops and exemplifies the theory of living at home. He has just finished putting out six hundred fruit trees, one-half of which are apples, besides a large quantity of berries. He expects to devote his attention more to the raising of Poland China pigs than to cotton, though he will plant a small acreage of cotton with a big acreage of corn and other feed stuffs.

The Bulletin says that the county jail at Brownwood now has but six prisoners and that two of these are serving out fines and will be released shortly. The prisoners are John Welch and Cliff Crowder, convicted in last term of district court for horse theft and whose cases are now on appeal and will get a hearing about the middle of April; Jim Simmons, charged with burglary is another and Sterling Hudson is held on a charge of horse theft. Claud Smith, convicted for violation of the local option law is one of those serving out a fine and Vernon Tate, (colored,) for aggravated assault is the other.

Judge W. T. Carlton of Stephenville announces in this issue of the Progress as a candidate for district attorney in this district, composed of the counties of Erath, Hood, Somervell and Palo Pinto. The judge is one of the best lawyers of the Erath county bar, a man of irreproachable moral character and one who believes in prosecution but not persecution. He is thoroughly familiar with the duties of the district attorneyship and has already made a couple of races in the county against the hardest of difficulties, each of which have shown his popularity with the people.

Jim Jordan, candidae for sheriff; H. P. Cole, candidate for county clerk; Bud Oates, and Tom Stinnett for tax collector; Joe J. Pate for district clerk and S. Frank for representative, were here last Monday in the interest of their respective candidacies.

Personal Mention.

Judge E. L. Dohoney of Paris has urged upon Gov. Lanham and Judge Terrell through correspondence that they take cognizance of the grave injustice of the provisions of the Terrell election law which makes it impossible for an independent candidate to run for any office. The law as it is practically takes the matter of selection out of the hands of the people in general and places it in the hands of democrats alone. It means and is practical disfranchisement for all voters but democratic voters.

The Houston Post and the Texas Christian Advocate are engaged in an interesting controversy. The Post claims that the Advocate misrepresents it in its editorials and hasn't the fairness to publish what the Post really does say, even after the Post offers to pay for its advertising, thus violating all rules of journalistic courtesy and ethics. The Post also charges that it is not only denied a hearing in the columns of the Advocate but that the communications of prominent Methodist ministers have been suppressed time and again.

The Maloney Mercantile Co., doing a general merchandising business at Dublin, Alexander and Stephenville expect shortly to close out their stock at this place and either sell the stock in bulk or consolidate it with their stores at Alexander and Stephenville. We are informed the the change will take place about the first of the month.

State and county tax collections in Brown county for the year 1905 aggregated 56,653 for the general fund, $5,800 for poll tax and $3,130 for occupation, making a grand total of $65,583. Of this amount the county gets 33,001 and the state $32,581. The tax payments showed an increase of 12½ per cent. over the previous year.

The city council at Brownwood has been asked to support the Carnegie library which was erected last year at that place with funds donated by Andrew Carnegie. The library has heretofore been supported by individual citizens of Brownwood and it is now proposed to equalize the burden by allowing the city to pay the expense from the tax funds.

The San Angelo Standard of last Saturday contained a letter from Juan O. Perry, a former citizen of San Angelo, who is now in the Argentine Republic. The elegant large display windows in the front of Higginbotham's dry goods department are attracting more than usual attention of late by reason of the exquisite and tasty designs shown in their trimming. A design with a green background and red roses, entwined with green leaves and relieved with various pure white articles is shown this week. It is the handsomest piece of decorative window work we have seen and invariably attracts the attention and favorable comment of passers by. The work was done by Mr. John Whitten.

Mr. Lee Parks Cox of Eastland and Miss Ruby Alford Hightower were married at the residence of the bride's parents in this city at five o'clock last Thursday morning, Feb. 15th, by Rev. S. B. Beall of the Methodist church. The quiet ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at which a merry assemblage of intimate friends wished all sorts of good luck to the young couple before departing for their new home.—Corpus Christi Crony.

Rev. O. P. Kiker left last Tuesday for a trip of ten or fifteen days to Monterey, Saltillo, San Luis Potosi and Mexico City, Mexico. The trip of Mr. Kiker to Mexico is the result of a course of several months study on the history, customs and religion of the people of Mexico and having the opportunity he took the advantage of this trip as a matter of furthering his studies.

C. B. Long has this week yielded to the solicitation of friends and announces today as a candidate for city marshal at the election in April. Mr. Long is a well known citizen and is one who always carries out with a vim everything that he undertakes. He says that he expects to rigidly enforce every law on the statute books without fear or favor if he is elected and that he does not want the vote of anyone who does not wish this to be done.

I now represent a reliable Live Stock Insurance Co. and will insure your horses and cattle against death at a reasonable rate. Don't wait until it is too late.—W. W. Eddleman, agent, Dublin, Texas.

L. T. Cleveland, freight engineer on the Texas Central, has just recovered from a spell of malaria, which had been taken into his system during his residence of last year in and about Beaumont. Mrs. Cleveland will return this week from a brief visit to the bedside of a sick sister at Cleburne and upon her return Mr. Cleveland expects to go to Mineral Wells to spend a few weeks recuperating before reporting for duty.

Abilene has been greatly afflicted the past six weeks with fake medicine concerns. A slick-tongued fellow with a negro minstrel attachment can sell anything he may call medicine, but Barnum says people like to be humbugged. The city council should tax them so stiff that it would be prohibitive.—Abilene News.

Special exercises were held yesterday afternoon at the school building in honor of Washington's birthday and a number of parties visited the school. The large United States flag was also brought into requisition and floated throughout the day on the tall flag pole on the school grounds. The pole was donated and planted a year or more ago by the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Co. The banks and the postoffice also observed the day by closing.

Mrs. Rachel Whitten, wife of A. N. Whitten, died at the family home two miles north of Dublin on Thursday night of last week from tuberculosis and was laid to rest in the cemetery at the Green's Creek Baptist church last Friday afternoon. The deceased was thirty-seven years of age and was the daughter of Mr. Whitfield of the Green's Creek community. She was married in the fall of 1898 to Mr. Whitten and from this union two children survive her, aged respectively two and four years.

Dr. R. A. Miller returned last Sunday from a trip to the new town of Lamesa in Dawson county, in which section he became sufficiently interested to invest in two sections of land near the town. The county of Dawson was only organized last March with Lamesa as the county site and now the town has about one hundred houses, a gin and various enterprises. Farmers in that section are reported to have made from three-quarters to a bale of cotton per acre last year.

STEPHENVILLE.

From the Empire.

Feb. 16th.—Elbert Pollan of Dublin has taken a position with Nebletts.

Fred Nance of Hico, was in the city Monday, returning from Dallas. He had purchased in Dallas an automobile, in which he was making his return trip.

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan at Thurber was severely burned on Monday of last week, and died a few hours later. Mr. Jordan was in Stephenville at the time.

Miss Kate Livingstone, who took charge of the Corinth school about a month ago upon the resignation of Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, is said to be getting along finely with the school, and the patrons are highly pleased with her work.

Harvey Waltom, an old Stephenville boy, was in the city Tuesday night on his way to Stamford, where he has been manager of Mistrot's store for quite a while. Soon after Christmas he had an attack of appendicitis and went to Fort Worth for an operation. He has been out of the hospital about three weeks, during which time he has been visiting his parents at Van Alstyne.

Buck Hancock has bought the farm of Walter Hancock of Sunday Creek, giving as part payment his residence in Morgan Mill. Walter buys the drug store of Rev. J. L. Davis and will take possession when he moves. He will reside in the house he buys from Buck, and Buck will move to Jodie Gaither's residence. Jodie and Andrew Brooks have rented Buck's farm and will move there.

H. A. Norton, with his mother and sister, sailed last week from Boston, Mass., for a trip around the globe. Mr. Norton is friend of Major N. C. Baldwin. He has visited Stephenville a time or two and formed the acquaintance of several of our citizens. He has perhaps traveled more extensively than any other man in the United States, having made an average of thirty-four thousand miles a year for the last eighteen years.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of John Tarleton college have elected as delegates to the convention at Nashville, Tenn., Robert Kirk and Jesse Richardson and Misses Tura McClesky and Agnes Hatchett. They will leave Stephenville on the 26th and at Fort Worth will meet the delegates from Polytechnic college, Fort Worth; Texas Christian university and Baylor university, Waco; Southwestern university, Georgetown and all will go together for the rest of the journey. They will return about March 10th.

A few weeks ago we mentioned the appointment of Mrs. Bramlette as chairman of the Board of Education of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, and the fact that this position gives her the appointment of the beneficiaries of the twenty-five or thirty scholarships which have been donated by leading colleges of the state. Since her appointment she has conferred with other colleges, with the result that John Tarleton college of Stephenville, Polytechnic college of Fort Worth and Christian university of Waco have each donated two scholarships to the federation, and others are expected.

Mrs. Mary Anna Thornton, wife of Dan Thornton, died last Saturday morning at her home near Hannibal at the age of sixty-nine years. She and her husband came to Erath county in the early years of their married life, and in the early days of the county. They settled on Barton's creek forty-nine years ago and had lived in happy companionship ever since until parted by death last Saturday. Eight sons and daughters survive the deceased. They are T. P., Henry, Will and Arthur Thornton of Hannibal, C. E. Thornton and Mrs. L. E. Wylie of Ballinger, Mrs. W. E. Wright, of May, Texas, and Dan Thornton of Alamogordo, N. M. All of them except the latter, with their father, were present at the interment of the remains at Hannibal.

Dr. Estes left Monday night for a trip to Van Zandt and Wood counties, the purpose of his going being to see members of the board of medical examiners which granted him a certificate several years ago and get affidavits from them showing that the certificate was given him and the kind that it was. During his residence in Van Zandt county, we are informed, his house was burned and his certificate with it. He holds a certificate given him in Mississippi previous to his coming to Texas and a certificate from the clerk of Van Zandt county showing that his Texas certificate was registered in that office but these seem not to be in accordance with the requirements of the law and he was indicted by the last grand jury for practicing without a certificate.

HAMILTON.

From the Herald.

Feb. 14th.—Mrs. C. C. Miller returned Saturday evening from Dublin, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Swallow, for several days.

Prof. S. Steinline of Mineral Wells, who is a band teacher, came in Tuesday night and will assume the position of direction in the Hamilton band.

Mrs. Beck and children, and her father, Mr Charlie McKinley, came in last Sunday night with the remains of B. B. Beck, who died at Tularosa, N. M., on the night of the 8th.

Dr. R. C. Smith has sold his residence just across Pecan creek to Dr. McMordie. He has received flattering inducements to return to Cisco, his old home, and he expects to leave in a short time.

From the News.

Feb. 16th.—Bush Pleasants is seriously ill.

Nick Karnes had two loads of steers on the Fort Worth market this week that weighed over twelve hundred pounds and brought $4.30.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Collier went to Dublin Wednesday to see a little nephew of Mrs. Collier that was badly injured in some manner.

John Little, aged about fifteen years, had his hand badly bitten Sunday by a dog while playing with boys in front of his parents' residence. The wound was promptly attended to and no serious results are expected.

Miss Ivy Gilliam is nursing some badly burned hands. She had cleaned a pair of gloves Saturday with gasoline and was standing near the stove drying them when the flames ignited the gasoline-soaked gloves. While the burns are painful it is to be hoped nothing serious will result.

Tom Stewart of Whitney was here Sunday with his brother, Mac Stewart, who was released last year from ten years' confinement in a Mexican prison. Mr. Stewart's case excited a great deal of interest, not only in Texas but all over the United States, and the aid of the federal government was invoked several times in his behalf. All efforts to secure his release, however, were in vain until last year, when the Mexican government released several prisoners under banishment. Mr. Stewart is a total wreck physically and mentally and came here to consult Dr. Wysong.

Consumption

¶ There is no specific for consumption. Fresh air, exercise, nourishing food and Scott's Emulsion will come pretty near curing it, if there is anything to build on. Millions of people throughout the world are living and in good health on one lung.

¶ From time immemorial the doctors prescribed cod liver oil for consumption. Of course the patient could not take it in its old form, hence it did very little good. They can take and tolerate it for a long time. There is no oil, not excepting butter, so easily digested and absorbed by the system as cod liver oil in the form of Scott's Emulsion, and that is the reason it is so helpful in consumption where its use must be continuous.

¶ We will send you a sample free.

GRANBURY.

From the News.

Feb. 15th.—Almost an epidemic of measles prevails in this community.

The county Farmers Union meets at Hill City next Saturday.

T. J. Harrell says he looks for boll weevils to do big damage this year, as they were thick in all the late cotton last fall.

Miss Lizzie Austin, who has spent some time visiting her sister, Mrs. F. M. Peveler, left on Sunday for a visit to relatives at Dublin.

Lee Rippetoe is down from Lipan looking for a house so as to bring his family. He has determined to locate here, so will either buy, rent or build.

Joe Archer is running a crop of one hundred and fifty acres this year, having already eighty acres of oats sown, and will put the balance in corn and sorghum. No cotton for him.

B. A. Barton is this year going extensively into the chicken business, using incubators and brooders, and is meeting with good success. He already has over one hundred and fifty fine broilers for the early spring market.

Prof. Powell informs us that on account of failure to secure the approval by the comptroller of the Tolar independent school district bonds the length of the present term must be shortened to only five months.

A lot of fine fish were gigged in the river the past week, but Tobe Howard and Lee Hiner are entitled to the championship, having secured about three hundred pounds in one day, their largest one weighing eighteen pounds.

Mrs. M. A. Skipper was called to Cleburne last week to attend the funeral of her brother, Capt. Jack Ross, who was burned to death in his home near that place. Her son, Riley and daughter, Mrs. Alma Stringfellow, accompanied her.

J. A. Tandy has purchased a farm north of Fort Worth, to which he moved his family last week, having rented his Acton farm to his son-in-law, Warren Jarrett. On his new place he will give special attention to the dairy business, being near enough the city to deliver his milk and cream by wagon.

Editor Higgs of the Lipan Register spent Monday in the city on business. He informs us that he has about made up his mind to enter the race before the democratic primaries for the flotorial nomination and is meeting with most flattering encouragement from democrats over the district.

Involuntary bankruptcy proceedings were instituted in the federal court at Fort Worth last week by some of the creditors against A. P. Gordon and F. J. Salmon & Co. of this place. We understand, however, that a settlement satisfactory to all is likely to be reached in a few days and that the business of the two houses will not be interrupted.

T. J. Morrow, an intelligent young dairyman, has charge of the creamery depot at Granbury and informs us that he is shipping about forty gallons of cream per day, for which the producers receive twenty-seven cents per pound. He expects to double the amount in a short time. He uses a power separator and extracts the cream very fast, paying the same price, whether extracted at home or on his machine. Cans are furnished in which to bring to the depot either the milk or cream and he will handle any amount brought. This enterprise is only in its infancy now and promises to be a paying institution soon.

COMANCHE.

From the Exponent.

Feb. 16th.—C. C. Eubanks has sold his one-third interest in the building occupied by Baxter's hardware and grocery departments to E. W. Harris.

In round numbers the city tax assessment roll for last year footed up a little more than $11,800. Of this amount $11,142 was collected, leaving $700 delinquent, and nearly all of this will be collected as under new laws it is almost impossible to beat taxes.

C. C. Eubanks has bought the Elms farm of 130 acres, four miles east of town. The price paid was $3,000. Mr. Elms will move to Comanche.

W. R. Wasson of Dublin was here Wednesday. We understand he is cutting up his pasture near the Erath county line and selling it out for farms.

The following deaths were reported in the county last month: Infant of B. F. McCain near Theny, January 31st, age three months: Kathleen Dunlap, Sipe Springs., January 27th, age fourteen months.

On January 1st the Erath county treasurer was $60,000 shy of paying current expenses. It will take a long time for Erath county to get even with the world. Besides Erath county has a considerable bonded indebtedness for court house and jail.

There are several cases of smallpox between Gustine and Fleming. Dr. Gray, county health officer, was called down there last week and found two cases in each of the following families: D. B. Bryson, Dock Tunnell and J. H. McDonald. Quarantine was established and the families isolated. At last accounts all the patients were getting along well and it is not thought the disease will spread.

SHOOTING AT SIPE SPRINGS

Saturday afternoon Ed Johnson shot Will McKehan at Sipe Springs. A pistol was used and the bullet took effect in McKehan's shoulder. The wound is not at all dangerous. McKehan had been working for Johnson, who runs a gin at Sipe Springs, and the trouble came up at the gin over some business matter. Johnson went home, and later McKehan came to his house and called him to the gate, where the shooting occurred. It is claimed that McKehan drew a knife and started toward Johnson, whereupon the shot was fired. Johnson has a wife and family and is a prominent citizen in the community. McKehan is a young man and unmarried.

From the Chief.

Feb. 17th.—Sheriff Smith conveyed a lady patient to the insane asylum at Terrell Sunday. He has one more patient but at the present there is no room in the asylum.

Joe E. Chilton left last night for St. Louis and Chicago to buy a large and complete stock of goods for a new store which will be opened in the new building being erected by Mrs. Neely on the south side of the square. The style of the firm will be Chilton Bros.

Judge McMillan states that eight hundred persons paid three dollars into the road fund under the new law which exempts from road duty all who pay that amount into the treasury before Feb. 1st. With this $2,400 the commissioners hope to be able to materially improve the roads under contracts.

The old Methodist parsonage was sold to W. R. Slider and before it was hardly pulled into the street he sold it to W. R. Evans and before it had been rolled one block he in turn sold it to J. P. Hoff. Mr. Hoff had it placed on a vacant lot belonging to him near the Baptist church and will fix it up and rent it.

The small pox cases mentioned in last weeks paper are in the homes of Dan Bryson and Dock Tunnell some five milles from Gustine and not far from Fleming. Young Bryson contracted the disease and not knowing the nature of it, attended a dance or party before he was well. Judge McMillan has established a quarantine but he fears an epidemic owing to the fact that there were so many exposures before the character of the disease was known.

Vital Statistics:—Boys born to Chas. Reed, O. E. Parsons and R. Reed at Hasse, Dan Clayton at Sidney, W. D. Hughes and W. A. Smith at Proctor, R. A. Hamilton and Sam Hitt at Energy, C. L. Kite, Joe Huddleston, R. Thompson and Pat Haley at Sipe Springs, H. J. King and W. J. Hannah at Sidney, Sam Ruckles and C. B. Gray at Duster. Girls to W. B. Thompson and Chas. Tubbs at Hasse, Geo. Steel at Sidney, Joe Smith and W. J. Westbrook at Sipe Springs, B. F. Buckler and B. F. Luker at Proctor, Chas. Withers at Comanche, T. E. Burnet and John Reece at Gap and J. T. Weaver at Duster.

HAMILTON.

From the Rustler.

Feb. 13th.—Mrs. C. C. Miller is at home from a visit to relatives in Dublin.

The C. K. Bell Democratic club will meet at the court house next Thursday night, February 22nd, when a splendid program will be rendered.

Prof. C. Lequarn, who has been teaching music in Hamilton for some time, will leave this week for Dublin, where he will probably take charge of the Dublin band as its director.

J. L. Talley, Mack Pigg, Penn Lillard and R. Q. Murphy went down on "Uncle" Johnnie Lillard's farm last Friday and enjoyed the day hunting rabbits. They report having slain several hundred rabbits of the mule-eared variety.

GLEN ROSE.

From the Herald.

Feb. 15th.—W. W. Walton was in from the mountains Saturday. He understood the Crossroads gin had turned out about 275 bales of cotton.

A public road has been opened from Chalk Mountain to Iredell and there is talk of a rural route. The survey of the Gulf & Northwestern railroad from Waco to Strawn came within three miles of Chalk Mountain.

M. V. (Van) Price, Frank E. Johnson and J. G. Adams have announced for county and district clerk, W. J. Buzan, Duck Sullivan, L. G. Kirk and W. G. Welch for sheriff and tax collector and T. J. Murray for treasurer.

The commissioners court let the contract Monday for a bridge across the Paluxy at Glen Rose to cost $2,880, the county to pay half and half to be raised by subscription; the latter, we are told, is already made up. The location is unsettled but will probably be on one of the streets leading to the court house.

Commissioners court of Somervell county was in session this week and ordered that the First National Bank of Glen Rose be the county depository for sixty days from February first, their bid of two per cent. interest being the highest one. Interest on funds are to be credited to the jury fund. Tax levy for the year was made as follows: General county 25c, poll 25c, court house 25c, road and bridge 15c, pauper 10c; total $1.00 on the one hundred dollars valuation. Occupation tax was designated as one-half of amount charged by the state.

IREDELL

From the Sentinel.

Feb. 16th.—Mrs. Ora Bryan visited in Dublin Saturday and Sunday.

At the last meeting of the teachers' institute, which was held at Clifton, W. J. Roden was elected superintendent of the summer normal.

The Texas Central management has had a nice park enclosed just east of the depot. The ground has been leveled up and a nice picket fence put up and when the flowers and shrubbery is once growing and blooming it will be a thing of which every citizen in Iredell should feel proud.

CISCO.

From the Round-Up.

Feb. 16th.—The egg industry is becoming quite a valuable asset of the Cisco country. G. H. Kinsey shipped one thousand dozen Wednesday.

On account of so many burglaries around Cisco, it is absolutely dangerous for a man to approach a residence after nightfall. As soon as the sun goes down the good ladies go about their household affairs with a six-shooter in both hands.

Civil Engineer Braim, who moved to this city some three weeks ago, received a telephone message from Brownwood Friday of last week advising him to be in that city by Monday, as the work of surveying the route would begin on that date. Mr. Braim left Cisco Saturday and was followed Sunday by Roscoe St. John, who also expected to join the surveying corps. On account of rain actual work was not till Tuesday. To be sure, England has a state religion, but as the government has been administered for half a century the relation between church and state is scarcely more than a formality with respect to toleration and freedom of conscience. Both Jews and Catholics have held positions in the king's cabinet which is the real government. If England can tolerate a Jew for prime ministers of Catholics, it does seem that a princess of the realm ought to be permitted to marry a Catholic king and become a Catholic if she chooses.

Indeed, if the princess has the spirit of her ancestors she will do it anyhow.

The prejudice against Catholics is slowly passing in all civilized countries, and English Protestants ought to wake up. We had a brief revival of the old spirit in the United States a few years ago, when the "A. P. A." movement gained considerable headway, but doubtless that is its last serious effort in this land of the free. In the days of its temporal power the Catholic church was a thing to be feared, but that day is history and its recurrence is impossible even in the view of Catholics. Now it is simply a splendid organization of religion and charity which finds a welcome in evey intelligent state or community.—Ft. Worth Record.

Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for burns, wounds, sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Overton Drug Co.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mothers' Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for croup, colds and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug it may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. Hetty Green's Diamonds.

Hetty Green keeps about $800,000 worth of diamonds on hand at all times. She never wears any of them, but she knows that they increase in value at the rate of three per cent. per year and holds them as an investment. Hetty wears no jewelry at all. Her sole possession in this line is a marriage ring. The increment on her diamond hoard this year will be much larger than previous years. Diamonds have gone up near ten per cent.

Sentiment Wasted.

How often we hear it remarked that the chronic booze-guggler is "his own worst enemy." In the sense that he does more to injure himself than anyone else does to injure him. The assertion is doubtless true; but considered with the meaning usually intended to be conveyed, that his debauchery injures no one equally with himself, is unqualifiedly false. When we see a wan, dejected, hopeless woman toiling over the wash tub for the pittance necessary to keep life in her brood of helpless children; when we note the terror with which those innocent children shrink and flee from the presence of an unnatural parent whose curses are more frequent than caresses; when we know that the parents of the debauchee went heartbroken to untimely graves; and when we reflect that all this misery, cruelty and shame is caused by the dissolute habits of the one man who, by both human and divine law, should have been the loyal husband and loving father—the loved and loving protector of a happy household—then do we know that the lightly-made assertion that he is "his own worst enemy" is an altogether too charitable perversion of the truth. Such a man is an enemy to his own household, to decency and law, and to society at large, and is unworthy of having any charitable construction whatever placed on his shortcomings.

Automobile Line.

Shades of Daniel Boon, an automobile!

The visitor from the east was startled. Probably more so than if a clay-streaked face of a Comanche Indian had suddenly appeared from behind a gypsum boulder on the hill he was climbing for a view of the town.

"It's a mirage" he finally decided after recovering himself a little and gazing steadily at the yellow-bodied devil wagon scooting silently along the plain.

Then the fresh morning breeze brought a pungent whiff of carburetted gasoline and the man from the east decided that if the automobile was a mirage it was the most odious optical illusion he'd ever encountered

Then he asked a native.

"That's one of Holloway's automobiles goin' to Lubbock," was the answer he got in so matter of fact a tone that he pinched himself to make sure he wasn't dreaming.

Then he started to investigate, found he was awake and that the native was telling him the ordinary truth.

Arthur Holloway is a pioneer. He also owns the stage line between Big Springs and Lamesa, fifty miles to the north. Besides the stage line, he has the star route contract for carrying the mail. Recently he decided that the old fashioned West Texas stage, while picturesque, wasn't half fast enough in this modern day, so he began investigating automobiles. Before he had finished his investigations he had purchased two. Now he has under way what will be the first automobile mail-carrying stage line in Texas, and probably one of the longest in the United States.

Holloway's two automobiles arrived there several months ago. He tried them climbing the foothills about Big Springs, and found they went up as easily as a cayuse, while on the level plains a cayuse had no more show with one of the automobiles than a horned toad racing a jack rabbit. Thirty-five miles an hour made the prairie go by so fast Holloway was delighted.

He formed a company, which now has three more autmobiles on the way to Big Springs for use over the present stage route. But in addition Holloway arranged for an automobile right-of-way to Lubbock, one hundred and ten miles distant. He readily got permission to go through the big pastures, and wherever his route intersects a wire fence, cattle guards have been erected, much like those used on railroads, to keep the cattle on their proper range, and yet leave the route open. At places along the route where it is necessary to improve the roads, Holloway has a force of men and teams with scrapers putting it into condition. He expects to be running regularly to Lubbock within a few months. One of his associates in the venture is Horace McAffrey, who is already an accomplished chaffeur. McAffrey now, when he has leisure time, uses one of the automobiles for duck hunting expeditions, which takes him to the lakes where the water fowls are feeding in time to get a good bag and get back to town again in time for breakfast.

It is planned when the automobile stage is in full operation to run one auto each way daily between Lubbock and Big Springs. The fare for the trip will be five dollars each way. Later, if business justifies, two of the other autos will be put in commission and two trips daily will be made, one auto leaving in the morning and the other at night.

The possibilities of skimming over the Texas prairies on a moonlight summer night at a thirty mile gait for a hundred and ten miles at a stretch are enough to appeal to even a poet's imagination. Holloway admits what appeals to him most is the profitable mail carrying contract and the revenue from passenger traffic.

The automobile route runs through a territory as yet uncrossed by railroad. The stage is now the only means of conveyance. Less than thirty years ago part of the path the automobile route will take was the trail followed by thousands of buffaloes when forced to leave the dried up lakes of the plains, they sought water at the Big Springs water hole.

The buffaloes are now gone without even a horn or a skeleton left on the plains to mark their path. From the bison to the benzine buggy is a long gap but things move rapidly in west Texas, and before next summer opens the gap will already have been bridged and the auto stage line across the plains only an every day incident. —A. W. Grant, Staff Correspondent to Ft. Worth Telegram.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of the Sharon Baptist church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have walked three miles in fifty minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Overton Drug Co. Price 50c.

How the Panama Ditch Costs.

The purchases of the Panama Canal Commission include guinea pigs, white mice, wooden legs, Bibles and playing cards. It had ordered 640,000 pounds of blasting powder and 657,000 pounds of dynamite. The paving of the city of Panama requires seven million paving brick. Also three million five hundred thousand brick for the construction of buildings, with eighty million feet of lumber, have been sent on. In addition to the locomotives in use by the railroad 120 have been bought for excavating together with thirteen hundred flat cars and hundreds of dump cars, five thousand tons of steel rails and one hundred and twenty-five thousand cross ties upon which to lay the rails.—Technical World Magazine.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with the first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded at Overton Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Here's Hoping.

Everybody is fussing about the newspaper talk of Mr. Longworth and Miss Roosevelt, and yet every mother's son of us is reading the whole lot of it.

Some of are curious and some are critical—we are all interested. And why not?

Love and marriage are the most beautiful things in all the world, and a union of two hearts in the humblest circles is worth the attention of the most exalted. Why, the marriage of Mr. Stubbins and Miss Hazy in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is just as vital to the book and the play, not counting its humor, as the romance of Mr. Bob and Miss Lucy. Love is the theme of the greatest stories and plays because it is the universal passion. Every normal man and woman have experienced it and every one has an instinctive sympathy with its manifestation in any other heart.

Marriage is the basis of all well ordered society. It is the beginning of home and life. It is the golden gate of all the future.

Why shouldn't we be interested? Indeed, how can we fail to be interested? And most of all in the marriage of the daughter of our president? Besides being the chief executive of the nation, Mr. Roosevelt is a splendid type of the American citizen and father. His daughter is a sterling young woman who is near to the American heart because she is spirited and sensible, and because she has chosen an American husband who happens to be a fine man in his own right, a member of the American congress and her match in all that make up character and worth.

The marriage is the culmination of a courtship at sea and a visit to the Orient. It has all the romantic flavor of the wooing wave and the whispering breeze, of tropic airs, of soft moonlight and glowing mornings, of idle days and lagging nights, with nothing to do for weeks and weeks but to look into answering eyes and dream sweet dreams that every man and maid have dreamed since time began.

It is picturesque; it is ideal.

And yet the romance is seasoned by common sense. There has been nothing silly or nauseating. Good old American decorum has been observed and American frankness has marked the whole course of true love running smooth.

We freely confess that we are absorbingly interested in every detail. We would like to see all the pretty gowns and petticoats, the house decorations the presents and the roses and the orange blossoms—the whole blessed outfit—and we'd like to kiss the bride in the bargain.

And the man who says he wouldn't is a liar or a shrimk.

Here's hoping.—Ft. Worth Record.

Harry Goodwin's Tribute

For over two years Harry Goodwin Suffered Agonizing Pains and Felt Himself Wasting Away but Now He is Absolutely Well, Thanks to Pure Malt Whiskey "I Shall Always Keep a Bottle in the House and Will Never be Without It as Long as I Live." He Writes:

HARRY GOODWIN.

"For over two years I have felt myself wasting away to a general breakdown of the system, caused by overwork. I felt terrible pains in the back, which caused me to think I was suffering from kidney trouble. I consulted many physicians who gave me but temporary relief. I also tried many patent medicines, with invariably the same result. I began to think of traveling with the view of improving my health, when it occurred to me that I had better use Pure Malt Whiskey. I began its use, and from the first felt considerably better, and now today, after taking several bottles, feel absolutely well, and attribute the cure to Pure Malt Whiskey only. I shall always keep a bottle in the House and will never be without it as long as I live."—HARRY GOODWIN, 104 Hanover Street, Boston, Mass.

Bruce's Pure Malt Whiskey

POINT LOOKOUT.
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 19th.—W. G. Stephen has returned from near Lamkin where he had gone on a few days' visit to his wife and little son, Robert. He reports the arrival of a fine boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stephen. He also reports a nice rain throughout that section and farmers about through sowing oats and well up with their farm work.

The oat sowing is about completed.

Mrs. J. C. Pack and son, Robert, of near Pigeon visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. R. Stephen last week, returning home Sunday.

Willie McNeil of near Lingleville was a pleasant visitor in our community Sunday.

Fountain Johnson, wife and children, visited J. M. R. Stephen and family Sunday.

Miss. Ethel Johnson, a very charming young lady of near Oak Grove, is on a few days visit to her sister, Mrs. J. V. Stephen.

John Neal, who went to Ft. Worth for medical attention, is fast improving and it is to be hoped he will soon be sound and well.

We notice that the commissioners court has granted an election for the purpose of electing a county superintendent of public instruction. This may be all right and something we need, but we can't see that it is. One thing we all well know is that if the school teachers of Erath county are not qualified to teach the schools of the county without a superintendent to watch over them, we certainly have a poor set of Erath county teachers. We are sure this will not meet the approval of the tax paying people. We are paying about all the tax we are able to pay anyway and now to impose on ourselves an additional tax of $1,500 or $2,000 to keep some fine gentleman up to do nothing only what is the duty of our county judge we don't believe the voters of the county will vote for the proposition.

Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 21st.—The weather for the past week has been favoratle and the farmers are well advanced with their work.

Rev. Canafax filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Rufus Morton of Harbin was visiting in our town Sunday evening.

Mrs. Eubanks, whom we reported quite sick last week, is not much improved.

Ben Godfrey's baby is right sick at this writing. Also "Grandma" Taylor is very feeble.

Willerford & Brother have the foundation laid for an addition to their mercantile establishment.

Will Silk, Fred Spruill and Mont Taylor of Dublin were visiting in our midst Saturday night and Sunday.

John Godfrey and family, who have been here for some weeks with his father, returned to Tolar today.

Mr. Thornton, who is manager of one of our gins, has just completed his new business house and is now stocking it with goods.

H. L. Kight of Stephenville was here last Saturday looking after his interest in the new gin. This gin is an up-to-date one and has done a good business this season.

Mrs. E. S. Gamblin visited her father last Saturday and Sunday near Comanche, who has been quite feeble for some weeks.

The wood business is quite beneficial to our town, there having been since the first of last September forty-six hundred dollars worth of wood shipped and sold from this place per month.

The Yellow Fever Germ
has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c at Overton Drug Co.

DUFFAU.
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 20th.—We had a fine rain here on Monday and now we are having a very cold norther. The rain came in good time for oats and other small grain.

The literary society was well attended last Friday night.

F. M. Holland lost one of his horses last Saturday night.

John Johnston has moved to the mineral wells and is living near the public well.

The enrollment of our school is about one hundred and fifty. Prof. Bramlett is principal.

Zeal Taylor and wife are visiting relatives at this place. Mr. Taylor lives near Stephenville.

The young people and some of the older ones attended a candy breaking at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Wimberly last Saturday night. There were at least one hundred present and they report having a nice time.

ALEXANDER.
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 21st.—We had a fine rain the first of the week which was very beneficial to the farmers.

John Hall and family have moved to Midland.

Jasper Miller of Colorado City is visiting in our town.

Brown Martin and family have removed to Kent county.

Miss Emma Ethetton visited relatives in Hico last week.

Messrs. L. P. Jones and O. B. Carter have located at Rule.

Bascom Poe had the misfortune to loose a fine horse one night last week.

J. F. Hammitt has purchased the W. D. Kight place and has occupied the same.

Dr. W. H. Eargle has again located in our town and will do a general practice.

Mrs. Jno. Maxwell of Portales, N. M., is visiting relatives and friends here.

C. C. Oliver, our efficient druggist, has returned from west Texas, where he has been prospecting with a view to locating.

Our friends Lee Ponder and Thurman Tidwell have accepted positions on the Texas Central and Frisco bridge gangs.

Our enterprising groceryman, Jno. D. Inabnet, who has been confined to his bed for some time, is able to be at his place of business.

Dr. M. W. Rogers has moved to Rule in Haskell county, where he will practice his profession. We wish him much success in his new field.

The young people enjoyed a festival given at the Alexander hotel last Saturday night, and also a social hop at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purves on Thursday night.

We have two aspirants to county offices from our town—John. D. Inabnet, candidate for commissioner, and James Turnbow, candidate for sheriff. Both are very reputable and competent men and if elected to said offices we are sure they will fill them with honor to themselves and credit to the county.

Startling But True.
People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet nearly five times this number or over three thousand people died from pneumonia the same year with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by Overton Drug Co.

PALMER.
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 21st.—We had a light shower Sunday but clear with a norther yesterday and today we have beautiful spring-like weather.

Bob McPherson has been having the chills.

"Grandma" Hicks is planting potatoes today.

Our school literary society rendered an interesting program last Friday.

School will be dismissed next Friday in order for the teachers to attend the institute.

Martin McPherson and Carle Martin came home on a visit Saturday, returning to Hico Sunday.

J. A. Jordan will attend the county meeting of the Farmers Union at Stephenville next Saturday as a delegate from Palmer union.

Mr. Wilhite is dehorning some cattle for Mrs. Partain this morning. If cattle could fight heel flies with their horns as well as with their tails, we should offer a protest against the custom of dehorning, for the time is near when they would have need of both.

To Farmers and Poultry Raisers
We will pay you for your hens $3.00 per dozen if you will keep them until the egg season is over, which will be some time in May, provided you will call on us by March 1st and let us know how many you will have to sell. We expect to load a car then. Keep your hens and let them lay eggs until then. Please act promptly.—C. H. Strong, Dublin. 40-2t

SHADY GROVE
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 21st.—Mrs. Ellen Jones of Lamkin returned home Sunday after spending some time visiting her sister, Mrs. T. C. Tatum.

Several members of T. C. Tatum's family are very sick with mumps.

J. N. Whitten and family of Clarkson spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in this community.

Mrs. O. A. Whitfield, who has been very sick at Dublin for the past ten days, was able to be brought home Monday.

Robert Parr began a three months' school at Clarkson Monday. Robert is well equipped for school work and we feel confident of his success.

Sweet, the little four year old daughter of Mrs. J. I. Gilbreath, has been in a serious condition for several days with erysipelas of the face and eyes.

Curtis, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson, was taken very sick Sunday with passive congestion, but by the aid of Dr. Winters was soon brought around all right.

R. M. Carrol and C. L. Jackson attended the district union at Cow Creek Saturday and report an interesting time and a sumptious dinner. The union will meet with the local at this place Saturday, March 17th.

Farmers! Bring Your Worn Out Plows.—Big supply of mould board, land side and plow point material just received at R. Lay's blacksmith shop. Every land side guaranteed for four years. 35-tf.

CHALK MOUNTAIN.
Regular Correspondence.

Feb. 18th.—It is raining this morning. The ground has been too wet to plow the past week and farm work has been at a standstill. Some are not through sowing oats. The cotton acreage will not be increased much, if any, in this community. The oat crop will be much larger and the corn crop about the same.

The bids on the mail route from this place to Walnut Springs were all recounted and four more bids were sent in last week.

S. P. Mayfield has placed another chair in his barber shop which is being conducted by Jim Raden. They are rushed every Saturday.

We are now ready to take your orders for eggs from the E. B. Thompson famous "Ringlet" Barred Plymouth Rocks, at $1.50 for 15 eggs. We will have one pen headed by a cockerel direct from New York that cost us $25. This bird is a prize winner, doubtless the best cockerel ever brought to this country. The eggs from this pen will sell at $3.00 for 15. We will only have a few of these eggs to sell so place your order at once.—Strong & Marsh, breeders of the E. B. Thompson B. P. R. 40-4t

Brownwood's New Railroad Prospects

Regarding another railroad prospect that has now opened the Brownwood Bulletin of last Monday said:

"I. J. Rice and B. E. Huribut, who went to Llano as representatives of the Brownwood Business League of Brownwood, have returned and with reference to the matter say.

"'There were at Llano delegations from Fredericksburg, San Saba, Cherokee, San Antonio and Brownwood. The proposition considered was to build a railroad from Waring on the Aransas Pass north by way of Fredericksburg, Llano, Cherokee and San Saba to Brownwood, a distance of about one hundred and fifty miles. This will give us a line almost as direct as the crow flies from Brownwood south to San Antonio. Of this forty-three and one-half miles south of Llano is already graded. Some of the balance of the country is somewhat rough but the soil is of a sandy nature generally and is easily handled. Llano and Gillespie counties are rich in minerals, especially in iron, graphite and quartz. These counties are both underlaid with the finest granite, both red and blue, sufficient to furnish the United States with building material and ornamental work for generations to come. Some few of these quarries are being opened up but the industry is in its infancy for want of railway facilities.

"'There is one solid granite rock in Llano county that covers 640 acres of land. This granite can be gotten out in pieces as large as a passenger coach in some places.

"'An order was placed the other day for a piece which would weigh when gotten out thirty tons, but the commissioners court refused to allow it to be hauled over the iron bridge which spans the Llano river.

"'These products are mentioned to give some idea of the local tonnage the proposed railroad might expect.

"'There were two railroad builders present at the meeting who submitted propositions which can in all probability be met, if nothing better is offered.

"'A permanent committee was appointed consisting of one member from each town along the route with Judge Slater of Llano as chairman, and the work will not be allowed to lag.'"
