The rain stopped and the clouds parted long enough for the Big Spring Steers to hold the annual community pep rally at Memorial Stadium last Monday afternoon to welcome in football season and kick off fall sports season.

“If you didn’t bleed black and gold you wouldn’t be here tonight ...,” Mike Ritchey said as he prepared the crowd for the annual display of school spirit. The location of the pep rally had been altered a few times in anticipation of possible rainfall, but in the end the Steers were able to pack the stands and take the field on their home turf. The Pride Drive kicked off the festivities before introductions began. The Steers dropped the season opener to Pampa Friday, 27-20.

Steers drop home opener to Pampa 27-20 despite impressive offensive performance

By PATRICK GONZALES

Herald Sports Writer

The Big Spring Steers got off to an impressive start Friday night against the Pampa Harvesters. The Steers displayed an impressive offensive effort in the first half of the game which resulted in 14-13 lead heading into halftime. However, it would not be enough as the Harvesters rallied back early in the second half to go on and claim the win, 27-20.

"My hats off to them, they're a really good physical team, a well coached team and it's just a tough loss for us tonight," head coach Cannon McWilliams said after the game. "We're just going to have to learn from it and keep working to get better. Playing a team of this caliber is going to make us better," McWilliams added.

The Steers received the ball first to start the game and they wasted little time in getting things going. Big Spring's starting quarterback, Gavin Padron connected with Steer's wide receiver Zeyire Franklin on a 35 yard pass to put the Steers in scoring position early in the first quarter. Two plays later, Padron connected with Steer running-back Kavien Ford for a 7-yard touchdown pass to put the Steers up 7-0.

The Steers defense would shut down Pampa's first offensive possession resulting in the Steers getting the ball back. On the Steers next possession, Padron again found Franklin in the middle of the field and connected for a 65-yard touchdown pass to put the Steers up 14-0.

Pampa would finally get things going offensively in the second quarter of the game as they would go on to score twice, cutting the Steers lead by 1 heading into halftime. The Steers went scoreless for the remainder of the second quarter as Pampa's defense made some key stops that stifled the Steers offense.

To start the second half Pampa would receive the ball and they wasted no time picking up where they left off at the end of the first half. On the second play of Pampa's first offensive drive in the third quarter, Pampa scored it's third touchdown of the game making it 21-14 at the beginning of the third quarter. The Harvesters would go on to score again on its second possession of the third quarter but missed the extra point attempt leaving the score the 27-14 Pampa.

The Steer's offense got things going again towards the end of the third quarter. But the Steers defense would not make it easy as the quarter ended with a big defensive stop by Pampa.

Facing a fourth down to start the fourth quarter, the Steers found some life as Padron connected with Steer wide receiver Ricky Escovedo for a 37 yard touchdown pass to cut Pampas lead by one possession. However, both teams would go scoreless for the remainder of the fourth quarter giving Pampa a tough win over the Steers.

"I thought our offense played really great tonight despite the outcome," head coach McWilliams said about his offense's performance. "We missed some big opportunities to score tonight and we just have to get better at completing those plays," McWilliams added. "Our defense played really great tonight, there was two maybe three big plays that we had our guard down and it cost us but overall we played great defensively, on both sides of the ball really."

Despite the loss, McWilliams is confident in his team and they will work on correcting things and improving. "We're going to review film, talk about what we need to improve on and not just the players, coaches as well and execute. When then need to put this game to bed and get ready for next week," McWilliams said. "The important thing we also need to address is the players health and safety. And not just the players, we as coaches again need to be better on stressing the importance of taking care of our bodies come game day, making sure players are staying hydrated and eating on game day."

The Steers will look to bounce back this week as they host the Lubbock High Westerners at Memorial Stadium Friday Sept. 2. Game time is set for a 7 p.m. start.

The bidding:
East 1 ♣ South 2 ♠ West Pass North 4 ♠
Opening lead — three of clubs.

One “iron rule” learned early in one’s bridge life is not to give declarer a ruff-and-discard. As with all general rules, though, there are occasional exceptions, and a defender must always be on the lookout for them.

Consider the present case where West led a club against four spades and East cashed the K-A of the suit. Then, although East knew from his partner’s play of the three followed by the five that West had led from J-5-3, he nevertheless continued with a third round of clubs, intentionally handing declarer a ruff-and-discard!

South ruffed in dummy and led a trump, whereupon East won with the ace and led a fourth round of clubs, sounding the death knell for the contract. Declarer could not stop West from scoring the queen of trump, and he went down one.

South obviously would have made four spades but for East’s succession of club leads. But it is also clear that East had a very good reason for doing what he did.

He realized from looking at the dummy and his own hand that it would be impossible for the defense to score any tricks in hearts or diamonds, regardless of what West might hold in those suits. He therefore concluded that the contract could not be defeated unless East-West could somehow score two trump tricks.

If West had the guarded king of spades, the contract was doomed no matter what East did, but if West had the Q-x, persistent club leads were necessary to promote an additional trump trick for the defense.

Today in History:
August 30, Thurgood Marshall confirmed

Today is Tuesday, Aug. 30, the 242nd day of 2022. There are 123 days left in the year.

Today’s Highlight in History:

On Aug. 30, 2021, the United States completed its withdrawal from Afghanistan, ending America’s longest war with the Taliban back in power, as Air Force transport planes carried a remaining contingent of troops from Kabul airport; officials put the number of Americans remaining in Afghanistan at under 200 and said they would keep working to get those people out. After watching the last U.S. planes disappear into the sky over Afghanistan, Taliban fighters fired their guns into the air, celebrating victory after a 20-year insurgency.

On this date:

In 1861, Union Gen. John C. Fremont instituted martial law in Missouri and declared slaves there to be free. (However, Fremont’s emancipation order was countermanded by President Abraham Lincoln.)

In 1941, during World War II, German forces approaching Leningrad cut off the remaining rail line out of the city.

In 1945, U.S. Gen. Douglas MacArthur arrived in Japan to set up Allied occupation headquarters.

In 1963, the “Hot Line” communications link between Washington and Moscow went into operation.

In 1967, the Senate confirmed the appointment of Thurgood Marshall as the first Black justice on the U.S. Supreme Court.

In 1983, Guion (GY’-un) S. Bluford Jr. became the first Black American astronaut to travel in space as he blasted off aboard the Challenger.

In 1991, Azerbaijan (ah-zur-by-JAHN’) declared its independence, joining the stampede of republics seeking to secede from the Soviet Union.

In 1992, the television series “Northern Exposure” won six Emmy Awards, including best drama series, while “Murphy Brown” received three Emmys, including best comedy series.

In 1993, “The Late Show with David Letterman” premiered on CBS-TV.

In 1997, Americans received word of the car crash in Paris that claimed the lives of Princess Diana, her boyfriend, Dodi Fayed (DOH’-dee FY’-ehd), and their driver, Henri (AHN’-ree) Paul. (Because of the time difference, it was August 31 where the crash occurred.)

In 2005, a day after Hurricane Katrina hit, floods were covering 80 percent of New Orleans, looting continued to spread and rescuers in helicopters and boats picked up hundreds of stranded people.

In 2007, in a serious breach of nuclear security, a B-52 bomber armed with six nuclear warheads flew cross-country unnoticed; the Air Force later punished 70 people.

Ten years ago: Mitt Romney launched his fall campaign for the White House with a rousing, personal speech to the Republican National Convention in Tampa, Florida, proclaiming that America needs “jobs, lots of jobs.” Earlier in the evening, actor-director Clint Eastwood offered an endorsement of Romney that entailed using an empty chair to represent President Barack Obama. The U.S. Justice Department announced it had ended its investigation into CIA interrogations of terrorist detainees without bringing criminal charges.

Five years ago: The former Hurricane Harvey completed a U-turn in the Gulf of Mexico and rolled ashore for the second time in six days, hitting southwestern Louisiana as a tropical storm with heavy rains and winds of 45 miles an hour. Floodwaters began to recede in Houston, where thousands of homes were flooded. A federal judge in Texas temporarily blocked most of a new state law that would have let police officers ask people during routine stops whether they were in the country legally; the law also threatened sheriffs with jail time for not cooperating with federal immigration authorities. (The crackdown on “sanctuary cities” took effect the following March after a federal appeals court upheld the law.)

Attraction Aspects

The same force keeps the galaxy spiraling, the planet orbiting and the people connected -- attraction. It's the force keeping the whole picture spinning, and yet, being invisible, it's so easy to overlook. As the Libra moon teases Venus in her last days as the charismatic cat, don't underestimate what attraction can do.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You have a profound impact on many, though there is one person in particular who will mold thought and deed around your influence. This person will weave profound meaning into your presence as well as your absence.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The life of a winner is fraught with mistakes. This is true of every successful person who has ever walked the earth, so it would make no sense to expect yourself to be blameless. Wrong turns are learning curves.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Friends may not credit you with the bonding they do with one another as a result of the way you bring people together, but your welcoming ways and genuine interest in people is an essential element of the group dynamic.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You create your own definition of success and revise it along your journey. You still have the same goal as you did last week, but you're honing the parameters and approach as the process evolves.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). There are so many ways that overthinking can lead to error today, relationships being the main hotspot to avoid analyzing. Keep it simple. Get your head out of it and let your heart do the work.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You're sure you know who you are, what you've accomplished and what's yours -- and then a new situation has you doubting it. This is how you know you're growing. Room for change and expansion keeps everything fresh.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You'll see a different future for yourself than you could have seen before. Your pet project will help many, so give it your best and watch the world get a little better. One relationship makes the way for more.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Once upon a time, you felt pressure to keep someone entertained. Now you know it is well within your capacity. You can do it if you want to. Do you want to? Does it set up an expectation you might grow tired of fulfilling?

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Dealing in the invisible realm of feelings and intentions can seem so intangible you begin to doubt it makes a difference. But today's work on your emotional and spiritual self will have physical and material results.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). People won't say what they mean, and that's life as usual. You're an expert at extracting meaning from the larger context and the subtle subtext, so you're more than up to today's challenge.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). It will be interesting to note where your mind goes in the time between activities. This is something new. What or whom you think of en route to work, waiting in line or just before you fall asleep -- that's where your heart is.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Can you count on your team to bring the support? The bottom line is, you have a better chance of success when you band together. Keep believing it will all work out and stop worrying about how -- that part isn't up to you.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Aug. 30). Quite simply, your prayers will be answered, your needs met. A serendipitous partnering leads to money and opportunity. May brings obvious signs, which you'll heed to take your personal life in a positive direction. Social opportunities are plenty through summer. The financial scene is stellar in August. Singles could marry in September. More recognition and financial support come your way. Aries and Capricorn adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 7, 16, 3, 33 and 13.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Cameron Diaz is coming out of retirement to star in a new Netflix movie with Jamie Foxx. The Virgo star with natal Jupiter, the good luck planet, in worldly Sagittarius was traveling the world as a model at the tender age of 16. By age 21, she was hired without any previous acting experience to play the lead in "The Mask." Her travels had taught her the kind of courage and confidence that couldn't be picked up in an acting class.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
