Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

James C. Watson, Oil Editor

More Pay Being Dug In Midkiff Extender

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1-A Midkiff, assured long southeast extender to the Midkiff-Spraberry field of Southeast Midland County, is drilling with cable tools below 7,230 feet.

The project has flowed 266 barrels of clean oil through casing during the last 48 hours while drilling.

A flow of 124 barrels of oil was reported during the last 24 hours.

No water is being recovered with the oil.

Five and one-half-inch casing is cemented at 7,166 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 2, block 38, T-5-S, T&P survey. That makes it two and one-eighth miles southeast of Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Midkiff, the opener of the Midkiff-Spraberry field.

NE Borden Wildcat To Drill Casing Plug

The Vickers Petroleum Company, Inc., No. 1 J. D. McKnight, Northeast Borden County wildcat which is reported by unofficial sources to have unloaded a large amount of oil after a drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian lime, is preparing to drill plug in casing which had been set on bottom at 7,760 feet early in the week.

This wildcat, located 13 miles east and north of Gail, and at the center of the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 367, block 97, H&TC survey is credited with having topped the reef at 7,660 feet. Elevation is 2,469 feet.

The drillstem test in which the prospector made its oil was at 7,735-60 feet. There was some water in the bottom stands of the drill pipe after the test on that zone. Source of that water has not been reported.

After the plug is drilled the casing will be perforated opposite the pay section in the reef and a production test will be made.

It is expected that it will be early next week before any definite information is available regarding the value of the strike this wildcat is supposed to have made.

No official reports have been released on the project since it took the 7,735-60 foot drillstem test.

Five Drillsites Are Set In Tex-Harvey

Locations for five more drillsites in the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County have been sent to the Railroad Commission of Texas for approval.

A. N. Hendrickson No. 2-A Paul K. Jones will be drilled 660 feet from south and 3,300 feet from east lines of section 31, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey and one location west of production in the south extension to the field across the county line in Glasscock County.

Tex-Harvey Oil Company spotted location for its No. 7-14 Mrs. B. W. Floyd and No. 5-16 Mrs. B. W. Floyd.

No. 7-14 will be drilled in the central-south portion of the field, 660 feet from north and east lines of section 14, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey.

No. 5-16 will be dug at the extreme west edge of the field, 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 16, same block, township and survey.

The other two new projects will be drilled by Magnolia Petroleum Company in section 4, block 37, T-2-S, Susannah Wright survey. The firm's No. 7 E. T. O'Daniel and others will be 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of the section.

The operator's No. 6 E. T. O'Daniel and others will be 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of the section.

Two More Producers Finaled In Midland

El Tee Oil Company and Union Oil Company of California have each completed a flowing Spraberry producer in the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County.

El Tee No. 1-10 B. W. Floyd Estate, located in the north side of the field and 662.4 feet from south and 667.6 feet from east lines of the lease in section 10, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey, was finaled for 264.39 barrels of 38.5-gravity oil.

The potential was gauged through a 7/16-inch tubing choke. No water was made. Gas-oil ratio was 810-1.

Production is from open hole at 7,094-7,184 feet.

Union No. 3 R. V. Powell and others was also completed in the north side of the field. A daily potential of 549.84 barrels of 37-gravity oil flowing through a 28/64-inch choke was reported for the new well.

Production is from open hole at 7,038-7,116 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 614-1.

43 Killed In Air Collision At Key West

KEY WEST, FLA.—(AP)—Navy divers recovered additional mangled bodies Thursday from the shattered sections of a Cuban airliner and a Navy trainer plane which collided and killed 43 persons.

At mid-morning, 23 bodies had been brought to the surface and taken to morgues in this southermost city in the United States. Nineteen were located Wednesday.

Divers worked in relays, two at a time, over the smashed pieces of the four-engine transport, scattered over a wide area on the sandy bottom 20 feet below the surface.

The Navy trainer plane was located about two miles away.

Navy Diver James A. Atkinson, of Jacksonville, Fla., said the transport plane "looked like a junk pile on the bottom. You can walk all over the wreckage except for part of a wing, which sticks straight up 15 feet from the bottom."

He said the divers hadn't seen any sharks. "The main danger is the sharp corners of the wreckage. That is more dangerous than sharks, anyhow."

The largest section of wreckage recovered so far was part of the forward portion of the transport. It was smashed and twisted. A woman's foot and shreds of bodies came up with it.

Divers also found a skull, with the flesh torn away.

Noise Like Bomb Blast

The four-engined transport carrying 34 passengers and five crewmen from Miami to Havana, and the Navy plane, a twin-motored Beechcraft with four aboard, collided with a noise like a bomb blast

Court Battle Over Non-Existent Picket Line Gets Underway

The battle over a picket line which never existed was taken Thursday before Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton in 70th District Court.

It marked the opening of a hearing on a temporary restraining order granted April 14 to halt reported plans for picketing by a labor union of the McClintic Building construction project.

As the hearing opened, attorneys for Local No. 924 of the International Hod Carriers and Construction Laborers Union of America defended the union's right to establish picket lines.

The temporary order had been granted by Judge Hamilton on petition of Gene Brewer, contractor on the project for adding six floors to the office building located in the business district of Midland.

The petition filed by Brewer asserted the union did not represent any of Brewer's employes and that any picket line would constitute a secondary boycott.

Answer Filed Thursday

In its answer filed Thursday as the hearing on a temporary injunction opened, the union stated "two or more" of its members were employed by Brewer.

The answer said these workers had expressed dissatisfaction over wages and working conditions and that Brewer had refused to recognize the union as the bargaining agent for the men.

The assertion by Brewer that the picketing of the project would jeapordize the city, the state and the nation, was termed by the union as "preposterous and unreasonable."

The temporary restraining order was obtained after members of other crafts engaged in the construction project reportedly had agreed to respect the picket lines.

Midland County Contributes $4,100 To Cancer Crusade

Midland County, one of the first counties in the state to reach its goal, has raised $4,100 in the 1951 Cancer Crusade.

Emil Rassman, campaign chairman, announced the total Thursday and pointed out that it represented a wide margin over the goal of $2,600.

State Chairman George E. B. Peddy of Houston this week said Midland County was among the first to reach its goal, along with Armstrong, Deaf Smith, Gillespie, Zavala and Lynn Counties.

Czechs Hold Missing AP Bureau Chief

FRANKFURT, GERMANY —(AP)— Communist Czechoslovakia announced Thursday it has arrested Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis and hinted he would be tried for "activities hostile to the state."

Oatis, chief of the AP's Prague Bureau, vanished Monday—the fifth employe of The AP Prague Bureau to disappear in three weeks. Government statements seemed to indicate the other employes, all Czech nationals, would be presented in the role of witnesses against Oatis.

The correspondent, who had complained to the U. S. Embassy that he was being shadowed 24 hours a day, apparently was pounced upon by secret police Monday night as he put his car in his garage.

On Three Charges

For more than 48 hours there was no word of him. The U. S. Embassy, suspecting he was arrested, demanded information from the Czech Foreign Ministry. Thursday, U. S. Embassy Counsellor Tyler Thompson said the Foreign Ministry told him Oatis was arrested on three charges:

"1. Activities hostile to the state.

"2. Gathering and disseminating information considered secret by Czechoslovakia.

"3. Spreading malicious informa-

Odessan Killed In Crash Of Private Plane At Penwell

PENWELL —(AP)— Charles Lee Adams, 32, of Odessa was killed about 6 p.m. Wednesday when a small plane he was piloting crashed near here.

Adams, whose home is in Indianapolis, Ind., had been working in Odessa the last three weeks and had rented the plane from a flying service shortly before the crash.

Deputy Sheriff George Boseley and highway patrolmen investigated the crash, along with Justice of the Peace M. Newman.

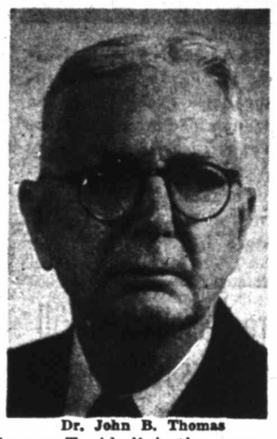

Witnesses said the plane zoomed over Penwell's rooftops and came close to telephone wires before it crashed across Highway 80 from town.

The body will be taken to Marion, Ind., for interment.

Adams recently was a visitor in Crane and said he had planned to move to Crane to make his home with his wife and five-year-old child.

George T. Abell

Dr. John B. Thomas

HOSPITAL LEADERS—George T. Abell is the new president of the Midland Memorial Foundation, parent organization of the Midland Memorial Hospital, succeeding Dr. John B. Thomas, resigned. Dr. Thomas, who had served as president of the foundation since its organization in 1944, continues as a trustee.

Dr. Thomas Retires As Hospital Head; George Abell Named

The resignation of Dr. John B. Thomas, pioneer Midland physician and surgeon, as president of the Midland Memorial Foundation was accepted with regret by trustees of the foundation at a meeting here Wednesday night.

Midland Memorial Foundation is the parent organization of the Midland Memorial Hospital, which opened for service last July.

George T. Abell, oil operator and civic leader, was named to succeed Dr. Thomas, who has been president of the organization since its founding in 1944. Abell was elevated from the vice presidency, and Ralph M. Barron, banker, was named to succeed Abell in that position. John P. Butler, banker, is the treasurer.

Dr. Thomas will continue as a trustee for the foundation and hospital.

Officials said Dr. Thomas had expressed a desire to retire as president at the annual officer election last January, in order to take a long-overdue vacation. He was persuaded to continue in the office, however, for an additional three months period.

'Happy Vacation, Doctor'

Foundation leaders, who credited Dr. Thomas with being a guiding light in the organization, building and equipping of the huge general hospital here, said they accepted the doctor's resignation "with sincere regret while wishing him a grand vacation."

"Without Dr. Thomas and his tremendous interest, untiring efforts, unlimited time, and his generous finincial assistance, we would not have the community hospital of which we are so proud," a foundation official stated.

Dr. Thomas practiced medicine here more than half a century before retiring from active practice

Persistent Burglar Nets $100 In Four Entries Into Homes

A bold and persistent burglar broke into four homes in the north section of the city Wednesday night and from one of them took a wallet containing $100 in cash.

Police Chief Jack Ellington said he believed the same man, described as a negro, was involved in all four break-ins.

Police said the first was reported at 10:30 p.m., when Fred Cassidy said a negro entered this home at 1600 North Edwards Street, through a bathroom window.

The house was lighted and members of the family were sitting in the living room at the time. Cassidy said he saw the negro as he fled empty-handed through the same bathroom window.

An hour later, William B. Trumbly, 609 West Nobles Street, reported someone tore the screen off a bedroom window. He said he saw a hand reach through the window for a jewel box. Trumbly said when he grabbed at the hand, the man fled.

Grabs Pair Of Trousers

A few minutes later, Robert Goss, 602 West Nobles Street, said a man broke a window in his home and started climbing through. When Goss grabbed at him, the intruder jerked down the the curtain and fled.

Shortly after 1 a.m. Thursday a negro man broke into the home of H. H. Leonard, 303 East Cottonwood Street, grabbed a pair of trousers and fled out the backdoor.

Police said an empty billfold, which had contained $100 in cash, was found in the neighborhood after daybreak.

Meanwhile, M. V. Hayes, 301 West Cowden Street, reported someone broke into his automobile during the night and took a flashlight, some batteries and several fan belts.

Amarillo Woman Found Murdered

AMARILLO —(AP)— The nude and battered body of a 50-year-old East Amarillo woman was found lying face down in a pool of blood in her home Wednesday night.

Police said Mrs. R. J. Hulen had been struck repeatedly on the head, but said no weapon had been found.

The woman's body was found by her daughter, Ruth. Police said Mrs. Hulen had been separated from her husband, who lives in Amarillo.

A suspect was being questioned, but no charges had been filed.

New City Council Commends Oswalt

City Manager W. H. Oswalt held a vote of confidence Thursday from Midland's new city administration.

After a discussion during an executive session, the City Council unanimously approved a resolution, submitted by Councilman Jack Wilkinson, extending him the council's vote of confidence.

Council To Award New Paving Contract

The City Council will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday to launch a new paving program for Midland.

The Council is expected to act formally on bids for 122 blocks of new street paving, including all alleys in the business district.

The bids were to be opened at 3 p.m. Thursday and tabulated in time for consideration by the council.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

CHICAGO —(AP)— General MacArthur and his party landed at Chicago's Midway Airport at 12:20 p.m. Thursday.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate Banking Committee Thursday voted to approve the nomination of W. Stuart Symington to be the new head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC).

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Thursday denied reports he has promised a Texas federal judgeship to Galloway Calhoun of Tyler. He said he never promises anyone a judgeship, that he always picks the best man.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman said Thursday he will not "pull the strings" on Gen. Douglas MacArthur but will let him say what he pleases, when he pleases and where he pleases.

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Thursday declined to say whether or not Donald Dawson, his administrative aide, will heed a Senate subcommittee request that he testify in its investigation of the RFC.

Still Up To Russia, Says HST

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman said Thursday it is up to Russia whether the war in Korea spreads.

He told a news conference the American foreign policy was outlined in his radio speech to the nation April 11.

Truman said, too, that he is very well satisfied with Secretary of State Acheson.

Truman's April 11 speech was the one in which he gave the reasons why he said he felt impelled to remove General MacArthur from his Far Eastern commands.

The President said then MacArthur wanted to spread the war beyond Korea, but that the Truman Administration policy is to seek to confine it there and avoid a great war.

Communists Must Choose

In that speech, Truman also said "The Communist side must now choose its course of action."

Similarly, Truman said Thursday the Communists may act to spread the conflict, but that they have the choice of a peaceful settlement.

Truman's expression of satisfaction with Secretary Acheson—the chief architect of American policy in Korea—came when he was asked whether he was considering naming Paul Hoffman, former ECA administrator, to replace Acheson.

He said he was not—that he had a secretary of State and was well satisfied with him.

The question was prompted by published reports that Truman was sounding out Hoffman on taking the cabinet post.

Senate Vote Sends Truck Overload Bill To Governor's Desk

AUSTIN —(AP)— The Senate sent the bill providing for on-the-spot unloading of overloaded trucks on Texas highways to the governor Thursday.

It adopted a conference committee report on the bill by voice vote after an attempt to refuse the report was killed by a 22-9 vote.

The House adopted the conference committee report Wednesday.

The House Thursday faced a heavy calendar of Senate bills plus the prospect of working over the weekend.

It adopted a resolution to allow the House to consider on Senate bill day a House bill which would let the Railroad Commission set a fair price on natural gas in the producing field. The vote was 94-28, perhaps indicative of strong support for the bill. The Senate must approve the resolution to make it effective.

The Senate scheduled a calendar of non-controversial local bills and planned to take the usual long weekend rest while a subcommittee works on a tax measure.

Father Of Six Flying Sons Dies

SWEETWATER—(AP)—Walter Hubert Fitzgerald, Sr., 76, the father of six flying sons, died at his home here Wednesday.

His survivors include: Capt. Walter H. Fitzgerald, Jr., of Dallas, Braniff Airlines pilot; Robert Fitzgerald of Miami Springs, Fla., supervisor for Eastern Air Lines; Capt. A. B. Fitzgerald of Fort Worth, who flies for American Airlines; Capt. Glenn Fitzgerald of New York City, pilot for TWA; Capt. Jack Fitzgerald, American Airlines pilot on the Tokyo Airlift, and Raymond Fitzgerald, who delivers and demonstrates B-36 bombers from Fort Worth.

Red Hordes Race Nearer City Of Seoul

TOKYO—(AP)—United Nations troops on the West-Central Korean front withdrew again Thursday before Chinese Red masses. This extended their pullback in that sector to 27 miles in five days.

UN stragglers fired artillery at pointblank range to hold back 300,000 Reds pressing toward Seoul.

The new withdrawal wiped out every western front UN foothold north of the 38th parallel.

But the Allies still were in North Korea along the Hwachon Reservoir on the eastern end of the 100-mile front. They beat back Red attacks on both sides of the reservoir Thursday.

The western withdrawal from above the parallel began at midday, as Chinese advanced within 20 miles of Seoul.

Eighth Army headquarters said the Allied troops were "fighting a magificient delaying action."

Munsan fell to Chinese driving down a main highway from the northwest. The town, 21 miles from the war-battered capital, was the site of an American paratroop landing last month.

Red Masses Surge South

Fifteen miles to the east, Red masses surged across 38 and down the Yonchon-Uijongbu road leading to Seoul. Allies pulled back south of Changgo, four miles below the border and 15 miles north of Uijongbu.

Chinese tried to knife down an undefended strip between this highway and Munsan. Heavy artillery fire ripped them throughout Thursday.

The UN withdrawal toward Uijongbu yielded about six miles to the Reds—their biggest gain of the day. It almost wiped out the western side of the Kapyong bulge, in the center of the 100-mile front.

Slow withdrawals were made in the bulge, about 30 miles northeast of Seoul. One UN unit counterattacked, but was ordered to fall back to a new defense line.

A slow withdrawal also was begun to the northeast in the Hwachon-Yanggu salient. This sector in Red Korea had held steady since the Communist Spring offensive opened up Sunday night. Yanggu, on the eastern end of the 30-mile salient, still was in Allied hands.

Most withdrawals were made in the daylight after Allied forces had held steady against Red night-time probing attacks.

Voters Okay Bond Issue For Schools

Taxpayers of the Midland Independent School District put their stamp of approval on a $1,500,000 bond issue Wednesday.

They approved the bond proposal by a vote of 255 to 22 in a special election.

With the finances assured, school officials Thursday were preparing to move right into the program of building a new junior high school and an elementary school as well as build additions to two elementary schools.

Superintendent Frank Monroe said the Board of Education will meet "as soon as possible" to canvass the results of the election and set in motion the plans for the construction work.

He said the board hopes to have an addition to the Carver Elementary school completed in time for use next Fall.

The other projects, he said, probably will be ready for the Fall of 1952.

Windy City Closes Shop In Welcome To General MacArthur

CHICAGO —(AP)— Thursday was General MacArthur Day in Chicago and the nation's second largest city was ready to greet the five-star general with a huge demonstration.

The city's millions and thousands from nearby cities were expected to join in the 10-hour civic tribute to the general. The celebration, shaping up as the biggest in the city's history, was expected to draw some 3,000,000 spectators.

Chicago was in a holiday spirit for the reception to the self-styled "old soldier." The city was decked out in flags and bunting. Windows in stores along the parade route were boarded.

All public buildings—and most of the loop stores—were to be closed during the parade. The White Sox baseball team made Thursday an open date by playing a doubleheader Wednesday. The Board of Trade and some business houses closed at noon.

It was to be a double-barreled celebration—the formal parade down

Showers Splatter East Texas While West Remains Dry

By The Associated Press

Scattered showers splattered Eastern Texas Wednesday.

The entire state was overcast Thursday morning, and light drizzle was oozing down at Dalhart in the Panhandle and at Del Rio on the Rio Grande.

Temperatures were mild and comfortable, ranging from 53 at Amarillo to 77 at Brownsville.

Temperatures were expected to rise in the Panhandle and South Plains Thursday night and scattered thundershowers were predicted for the Panhandle Thursday night or Friday.

A freakish drencher hit Trinidad, near Palestine, Wednesday and left 3.60 inches of water. Tyler had 1.10; Austin .26; San Antonio .30; Waco .61; Fort Worth .64; Palestine .57; Galveston .02; Texarkana 1.01; Lufkin .02; Bryan .11; Corsicana .67 and Bonham 1.80.

Temperatures jumped to 98 degrees at Presidio for Wednesday's high maximum and held a comfortable 70 at Dalhart for the low maximum.

Midland To Don Straw Hats Saturday

With a flourish and a flair, Mr. Midland will don his new straw hat Saturday.

Saturday is Straw Hat Day!

The straws are flashier this year, with bands ranging from conservative to colorful, sporty material. Shapes of the straws shown in Midland in a variety of brands and materials haven't changed much, if any. It's the hat bands which are attracting eyes sighted on new styling.

Some hat bands are interchangable so Mr. Midland, liking a particular hat but not the band, can have a choice.

In the store windows and on the shelves of Midland firms dealing in men's hats are Westerner styles in more plentiful lots. The brims range from three to four inches and the bands usually are narrow cord or ribbon in black.

Not only are the 1951 straw hats in greater variety of colorful bands, but none of the primary purpose, protecting the head from the heat, is lost. New straws are the result of lessons learned from the natives of hot countries.

These natives wear hats for survival, and the hat dealers keep reminding that man's first article of clothing was a hat. He wore a hat before he wore shoes, shirt or trousers.

For centuries, hats have been a mark of distinction, such as the crown worn by a king. Chinese wear hats showing their marital status and many noted people in this nation are marked by their hats—the late Al Smith and his brown derby, for one.

And in Syracuse, N. Y., a few years ago a fad swept the college crowd. Girls just wouldn't think—or be caught dead—dating a boy who hadn't a straw hat. They kept the straw as a souvenir, even if they didn't get their man.

But Mr. Midland will don his straw hat Saturday only for dress and comfort.

Annual Concert Of High School Band Is Slated Friday Night

The Midland High School Band will play its annual concert beginning at 8 p.m. Friday in the high school auditorium.

Jerry Hoffman will direct the band. He listed 12 numbers including two marches, a descriptive number, two overtures, one bolero, three solos, a male quartet number, swing number and the national anthem.

The band concert is one of two culminating activities for the year by the student musicians. Recently, at a district band contest in Monahans, the MHS Band gained many honors.

Here is the concert program: "Band Of America March," "Spanish Caprice," cornet solo by Charles Worthen, "American Patrol," "Overture Dramatique," "The Duchess," saxophone solo by Alan Harris, "Bolero Ritmico," "Swing Varsity Ramble," "Marimba Capers," solo by Nancy Cooper; "Early American Overture," vocal male quartet number by Joe Barnett, Kenneth Wright, Dolan Brinson and Charles Crabtree; "Americans We March," tap dance by Carolyn Cook, and the "Star Spangled Banner."

Rita Hayworth's British Accent Is 'One Of Best'

Far be it from William Holden to suggest that Clark Gable and Gary Cooper take to pasture.

But it's been a long haul for Bill to prove that he can sweep a glamour queen into his husky arms with as much zip and zing as Gary and Clark.

Hollywood, he wails, has become the paradise of the middle-aged actor and the sweet sixteenish cutie, with the 25-year-old actor considered a jerk.

"The nearer a man is to 50, the likelier he is to draw somebody just out of high school as his co-star," claims Bill. "There simply aren't any young, successful, leading men of 25. That's a perfectly normal age for a guy to be romantic, but Hollywood won't let him."

Webb fans who remember him on Broadway often carp about the Belvedere "movie trap" but he tells them:

Obedience Doesn't Mean Brow-Beaten Compliance

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

"Obedience" is a word that has fallen on evil days, outcast from the accepted vocabulary of this generation of American fathers and mothers.

Like other grand old stalwarts of our language, "obedience" has suffered at the hands of word-saboteurs shrewd enough to direct their sniping at words which protect personal independence.

If you don't believe me, what does obedience mean to you?

Slavery? Brown-beaten compliance to the will of the strong by the weak?

If that is what you mean by obedience, no wonder you haven't felt you could ask it of your child.

Webster defines it. He was a good American. Don't let anyone steal his definition from you. He says it is "subjection to rightful authority."

You are not independent if you can't subject yourself to rightful authority.

Arthur's parents believed that to ask obedience from him was to infringe on his personal liberty. When as a small boy, he declined to go to bed, he stayed up. Later when he declined to go to school, he stayed at home or went to the movies.

Not so much later, when he was arrested for breaking the school attendance law, he was put on probation. But as Arthur never had been taught how to subject himself to rightful authority, he broke the conditions of his probation and got into trouble that sent him to a penal institution for boys.

Morally Correct

To be insubordinate is to be out of order. To be out of order is to be in chaos.

That's where Arthur had been placed by parents who were too late learning that the price of personal freedom is personal self-discipline.

What does "rightful" mean? Webster tells us that, too. He declares that it means "suitable . . . appropriate . . . morally correct."

If our authority is suitable, appropriate and morally correct, we can ask that it be obeyed.

How do we make our authority suitable? By loving so truly that we find the strength to deny to our child what the world will deny him—his own way always.

How do we make it appropriate? By taking the responsibility to guide toward decisions that will make for order and respect, not confusion and self-hate.

How do we make it morally correct?

That's the biggest job of all.

It is by teaching our child to give obedience, not only because he loves and trusts us, but because giving it represents his mastery over himself.

Gravel Diggers Find Prehistoric Skeleton

MISSOULA, MONT. —(AP)— Discovery of what may prove to be a complete mastodon skeleton has been announced by Montana State University scientists. They credited Ray and Clint Kallestad, who operate the Kallestad Sand and Gravel Company, with uncovering the huge prehistoric relative of the elephant.

Dr. Kenneth P. McLaughlin and Dr. Fred S. Honkala of the university geology department said the animal, which roamed the area somewhere between 25,000 and 50,000 years ago, possibly stood about 16 feet high. One tusk measures at least five feet long.

A Gift Of Flowers For Mother—

The card you choose tells Mother how much she means to you . . . surround it with a splash of enchanting flowers from BUDDY'S FLOWERS, 1505 West Wall. Let their spring-touched freshness help convey your affection. A wide selection is featured and the flower shop will send them by messenger at your mother's convenience. Shy daffodils or bold red roses . . . Mother's sure to love them, especially if they are from you. Call 408.

Something Different For Mother—

She will love her gift more if she knows you selected it with care and with the thought in mind of surprising and pleasing her. Give her something different! Choose her gift from TOWN AND COUNTRY INTERIORS, 208 North Garfield. You'll find an unusual selection of lamps in period or modern design to harmonize with any decor and old etchings to lend charm to her rooms. There are many other decorative objectives that she will cherish.

For Summer Activities—

For foot comfort and speed—famous Keds, featured at BARNES AND COMPANY, for children age one through teens, have all the comfort features, including scientific lasts, shockproof arch cushion and cushioned insole. Breathable, washable uppers in red or blue with white soles, make Keds the choice on the tennis courts, lawns, and everywhere active youngsters enjoy outdoor sports.

An Electrical Servant—

"I'm giving you a well-trained maid for Mother's Day! She'll work for you for many years and you won't have any trouble with her!" How would you like to be able to say this to your mother? You can give her such a gift—by giving an electrical servant! Sunbeam Appliances, featured at BEAUCHAMP'S N B REFRIGERATION SERVICE, 216 North Main, make daily activities more pleasant in the home. A complete selection includes coffeemakers, mixers and toasters.

Commercial Fixtures—

Your merchandise has more buyer appeal when it is displayed in custom made store fixtures. Special shoe counters or shelves enable you to display more pairs of shoes to a greater advantage. Cosmetic counters enable the prospective buyer to see the merchandise you have to sell. MIDLAND PLANING MILL, 415 South Baird, specializes in custom built commercial fixtures of all types, and will design them to suit your particular needs. Call 2930 for estimates.

Add Humus To Your Soil—

Unlike ordinary commercial fertilizers, containing a filler of sand to prevent the use of too much chemical, Turf Special, at WILCOX HARDWARE, 506 West Wall, contains 20 pounds of chemical and 80 pounds of organic material-similar to leaf mold. The chemical supplies vigor and the organic material adds the humus our soil needs for moisture. There's no sand — just growth promoting elements. Goldthwaite's Turf Special is a complete organic base, (Hou-Actinite) fertilizer specially for lawns and athletic fields. Combine organic and chemical fertilizer for elements necessary to healthy, vigorous plants.

Power Makes The Difference—

The big difference between mowing the hard way and just breezing through the job is power and the better the power the bigger the difference. That is why we say—a Jacobsen Power Mower from WILCOX HARDWARE, 506 West Wall, for a better buy. There's no huffing, no puffing—just guide your Jacobsen Mower. Other power mowers include Johnston, Worthington, Toro, Whirlwind, Reo, Sherrill, Moto-Power and Excello.

Lawn Mower Service—

With a new and completely equipped shop, WILCOX HARDWARE, 506 West Wall, is prepared to keep your lawn mower in perfect working condition, regardless of model. New equipment includes the Ideal Grinder, the Modern Grinder, the Foley and the Yard Man Lapping Machines. All blades from a five-inch, to a 36-inch tractor mower blade, are sharpened and guaranteed to work like new. Call 44 for pick-up and delivery service or take your mower to Wilcox Hardware, next to Safeway.

Polio Policy—

Polio

With one policy you can protect your entire family in the event of polio. NEELY AGENCY, in the Crawford Hotel, offers a low-cost insurance policy that provides medical care for every member of your family for only $12.00 per year for the first year and $10.00 per year thereafter. Call 1850 and let a representative explain this protection plan in detail. It is a low-cost means of avoiding financial worry. In the event of polio, the medical bills are paid by the policy.

Wanted To Buy Or Lease—

If you have a shot rig for rotary water well drilling or if you know of anyone who has such a rig for sale or lease, please write box 112, care of The Reporter-Telegram. The interested party will be glad to lease the equipment, if it is not for sale. If you are prepared to sell, here is an opportunity to make a quick sale.

Secretarial-Stenographic Service—

Confidential correspondence, manuscripts and reports are handled by MARY LOU HINES' SECRETARIAL - STENOGRAPHIC SERVICE, 1910 West Kentucky. Mrs. Hines takes dictation and does re-write work on manuscripts or business letters. If you do not have the service of a capable secretary, you can depend on her to handle your confidential correspondence in the most efficient manner. She is experienced in different fields of the oil industry and also medical terminology. Her services are avaliable evenings and weekends. Call 488-J.

Beat The Dust!—

Save clothes—save laundry with dust-resistant plastic. Closet accessories of plastic make your closet prettier, neater and roomier and protect your clothes from dust. MIDLAND HARDWARE AND FURNITURE COMPANY, LINEN DEPARTMENT, features a complete line, including garment bags, shoe bags, hat boxes, lingerie bags and hosiery bags, in charming rosebud design or plain plastic. There is also a new selection of shower curtains with matching window curtains in hand painted design or solid colors.

Just Like A Playmate—

Any little girl can lead the Raving Beauty Doll at MIDLAND HARDWARE AND FURNITURE COMPANY, GIFT DEPARTMENT. She's just like a playmate . . . she's big! She's 20 inches tall, all plastic, made of flesh-colored butyrate. She walks and she's natural. Her lovely soft Ravon hair can be combed, shampooed and waved. Ask for a demonstration at the gift department. You may have the Raving Beauty Doll in a choice of costumes, including a skater's costume, with real skates, a cowgirl costume with boots and spurs, play suits, square dance dresses and others.

Leave Your Car In Storage—

Let MIDLAND AUTO STORAGE, 107 North Baird, take care of your pride and joy and be free of parking problems. When you leave your car in storage, you may have it washed and greased while you're doing your shopping, attending to business or attending a social affair. When you return, your car will be spic and span inside and out. You'll be proud to drive it home. It costs very little to store your car by the hour or over night, and you know it's in good hands. Call 2622 for more information.

Colored Flagstone For Rustic Charm—

Flagstones, when used for patios, floors or dens and in the garden, create a rustic charm that is enhanced by the years. You can get them in colors for novel effects. HELBERT AND HELBERT, BUILDING CONTRACTORS, will sell you the stones and lay them for you. There are so many ways they can be used—sidewalks, barbecue pits, flower boxes, curbs and fish ponds, all easily constructed with colorful flagstones. Call 2524 for more information.

It's Murder—

Make war on those pesky roaches that invade your pantry and cabinet. It's so simple. Just brush on a little Johnston's No-Roach wherever they are likely to appear. It knocks 'em dead! Johnston's No-Roach is sold at MIDLAND HARDWARE AND FURNITURE COMPANY, in pints for $1.69 and 8-ounce bottles for 89c. Completely odorless and stainless, it's perfectly safe to use in the home and the effect lasts for months. It also exterminates water bugs and ants.

Sized Or Made To Order—

Building a new home or remodeling your present one? Let ABELL-McHARGUE, MILLWORK DIVISION, supply you with lumber cut right, seasoned right, priced right. Give your specifications to the company for door and window frames. Your order will be delivered promptly, sized or made to order. The company makes a specialty of built-ins, breakfast nooks, doors and windows of the finest materials and workmanship. Visit the millwork division or call 3330 for estimates.

Just What Mother Needs!—

You've been looking for it—here it is! It's the miracle appliance that saves hours of work! The Apex Dishwasher at SANITARY PLUMBING COMPANY, 2616 West Wall, is just what Mother needs. Give it to her for Mother's Day and she'll bless you every time she uses it. The Apex Dishwasher completely modernizes the drudging task of dishwashing. It washes dishes for a large family and the flush and double rinse leaves dishes sparkling clean. The automatic drying process saves wiping dishes and they are ready to use again. You can have it with or without sink, and the Apex Washing Machine is also featured.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slowdown of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Cool Reason Must Rule

Ideally, General MacArthur's appearance before congressional committees would be set back a while to allow the nation to simmer down from the high pitch of its magnificent tribute to him.

No soldier who ever returned from the wars is more deserving than he of the tremendous show of regard and appreciation which America's great cities have showered upon the general. This was his hour—and it should have been.

But the emotional fervor that goes with such a warmhearted demonstration has no place in the new "great debate" precipitated by MacArthur's dismissal.

So long as emotion rules, reason cannot play its proper role. There is danger that the country's top lawmakers, and the people as well, might be tempted to decide the grave issues raised by the general solely on the basis of personalities.

MacArthur is a towering figure, a strong personality. Beside him, President Truman does not look tall, or strong. The general makes a great impact even on people who disapprove his actions.

But it would be a serious mistake were the questions of basic Far Eastern policy to be reduced to a personality contest. Obviously, from the standpoint of a nation's safety and welfare, the best answer to a problem is not always the solution proposed by the more popular of two antagonists.

The arguments posed by MacArthur merit the fullest and most painstaking analysis we can give them. They may be totally right, or totally wrong, or just partly one the other.

Whichever it is, the American people and their elected representatives must make the decision on the basis of facts and careful reasoning. They cannot dare make a choice because they "like" MacArthur better than Truman, or vice versa.

Truman's policies must not be discredited because he writes intemperate notes to music critics and newspapermen. They deserve consideration on their merits. By the same token, no one should attempt to detract from MacArthur's arguments by searching out flaws in his past military performance. His 1951 policies should not be weighed in the light of something he did in 1925 or 1918.

The issue of where and how to combat Russian communism is of the gravest moment. The American people now have had their emotional celebration in homage of a great general. It is time now to put emotion aside and treat the issue with the sober rationalism it must have if the nation is to be guided well.

Women are the only people besides men who dress in front of mirrors to see what's going on.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Some U. S. documents, memos on Korean war, if used apart from others, could prove almost any point; How joint chiefs of staff—men of varying ages, personalities—reacted to various MacArthur proposals.

WASHINGTON — When the Senate Armed Services Committee starts sorting out all the memos and telecom messages exchanged between the Pentagon and General MacArthur the public may become more confused than ever about who is right in the big debate.

For several documents and memos prepared during various phases of the Korean campaign—if set aside from the others—could be used to prove almost any point.

Furthermore, it once was a paradoxical fact that Secretary of State Acheson was much closer to General MacArthur's position re China than the joint chiefs of staff. The wolf pack that always howls at Acheson's heels has been claiming he was responsible for MacArthur's ouster. However, the record shows first that this was not the case; second, that following MacArthur's disastrous retreat from North Korea in early December, Acheson favored severe punitive measures against China as an aggressor nation.

It was the joint chiefs of staff at that time which vigorously disagreed both with Acheson and MacArthur. In fact, they favored pulling out of Korea altogether.

However, despite individual and sometimes confusing differences of opinion inside the Pentagon there appears to be no occasion when the joint chiefs of staff actually went on record in favor of MacArthur's proposals to bomb Chinese bases and use Chiang Kai-Shek's troops.

MacArthur's Proposals

In order to get as clear a picture as possible regarding the working of the joint chiefs of staff and their policy toward MacArthur, here is a breakdown on how the joint chiefs reacted to various of MacArhtur's proposals:

Bombing Chinese bases — The nearest the joint chiefs ever came to okaying MacArthur's proposed bombing of Chinese bases was on February 28. Just before that date, MacArthur had sent a long report on enemy air strength now capable of 650 sorites daily. He reported certain strength building up in certain areas and in effect asked permission to bomb these bases.

Replying on February 28, the joint chiefs gave MacArthur a set of five alternatives to counter the Chinese moves. Since these would be of value to the enemy, they cannot be described here. But in each of the five alternatives, MacArthur was instructed to take no action on the Chinese side of the Yalu River without reporting back to the joint chiefs for further instructions.

Naval blockade — Another question at issue in the Korean war has been a naval blockade of Chinese ports. On this, there was agreement. Both the joint chiefs and the State Department okayed a naval blockade but it was vetoed by our allies in the United Nations. This was one of the proposals for which Secretary Acheson fought hardest when Prime Minister Attlee visited Washington. However, Attlee flatly refused to approve any naval blockade of China.

Hot pursuit — Another point of agreement between MacArthur and the joint chiefs was the right of American planes to pursue Communist planes beyond the Chinese border when engaged in a running battle. This did not include the bombing of Chinese bases. Though the joint chiefs agreed to this, either the State Department or the National Security Council disapproved—I have not been able to ascertain which.

Chiang Kai-Shek's troops — This is the issue which MacArthur emphasized in his letter to ex-Speaker Joe Martin, the letter which culminated in MacArthur's dismissal. However, use of Chiang's troops never has been seriously considered by the joint chiefs.

General Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs, has argued that Chiang offered his troops chiefly for the purpose of getting them equipped — which would be terrifically expensive. Furthermore, Adm. Forrest Sherman has pointed out it would take an armada of American vessels to transport them to China.

Finally, the joint chiefs' study of Chiang's combat strength does not jibe with published claims of 600,000 men. According to Pentagon estimates it is nearer 250,000 men. It also is recalled that much of the military equipment we furnished Chiang during the war ended up in the hands of the Communists.

Different personalities — Those close to the joint chiefs of staff point out that they are composed of four different men of varying ages and personalities. Gen. Joe Collins, for instance, chief of staff of the Army, was a lieutenant when MacArthur was a general. When Collins went to Tokyo he was technically MacArthur's superior, though he always addressed MacArthur as "general" while MacArthur called him "Joe."

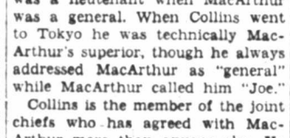

Collins is the member of the joint chiefs who has agreed with MacArthur more than anyone else. He has expressed the private belief that Russia would not intervene if we bombed China, and is reported to have expressed oral agreement with MacArthur on various points during conferences in Tokyo.

Admiral Sherman, the chief of naval operations, on the other hand, has been opposed flatly to MacArthur's position, while General Bradley is almost as vigorous.

Bradley has said privately that if he were in MacArthur's shoes he probably would feel as he does. But, as chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, he cannot agree, since he has to consider the entire world and how best to parcel out our limited strength.

The last thing Bradley wants, he has made clear, is to get sucked into a war on the Chinese mainland.

Note — Pentagon observers believe MacArthur may have some of the tentative directives which are sent to different theater commanders in advance for their comment. These do not become approved directives, however, until the joint chiefs have all the comment, can study them in the light of the overall picture and then issue them officially. There is a big difference between the studies of the joint chiefs and their final approved directives.

The customer in a cafe ordered fish. He waited and waited. At last, he signaled to the waiter and when the latter came to the table, the customer asked, "What kind of bait are you using?"

And of course you remember the one about the man in the restaurant who ordered half a fried chicken. He, too, waited and waited. At last, he demanded an explanation. The waiter said, "We're waiting for somebody else to come in and order the other half before we kill the chicken."

Questions and Answers

Q—Is the issuing of farmers' bulletins a modern practice?

A—The world's first known farmers' bulletin has been recently unearthed in Nippur, Iraq. Written in cuneiform script in the Sumerian language on a clay tablet, the instructions to farmers are believed to be 3,700 years old.

Q—How many islands comprise the Galapagos Archipelago and why were they so named?

A—There are 15 islands and many islets which comprise the Galapagos Archipelago. They were named by Spanish explorers for the mammoth tortoises that occupy the islands.

Q—How heavy were the medieval suits of armor?

A—An average suit of armor weighed about 45 pounds. One large suit of armor which has been saved to the present time, has a weight of 93 pounds.

Q—How can you distinguish between poisonous and non-poisonous sumachs?

A—The non-poisonous sumachs have erect red fruit, while the poisonous have drooping white fruit.

Prayer Stressed On 4-H Sunday

COLLEGE STATION — The importance of prayer will be emphasized by Texas 4-H members in their observance of National 4-H Sunday.

Programs throughout the state are being planned around the 1951 4-H theme, "Working Together for World Understanding."

Each 4-H member is urged to attend the church of his choice. "It is the hope that there will be awakened a new realization of the power of prayer," said M. L. Wilson, national director of extension work.

Occurring the fifth Sunday after Easter, 4-H Sunday is closely linked with Rogation Days, celebrated for centuries in the Christian Church during the three days preceding Ascension Day. It is an outgrowth of Rural Life Sunday which first was observed in 1929.

COLOR EXPLAINED

White and black are not colors. A white body reflects and a black body absorbs all the days of light without spreading them, while colors themselves are due to the separation of light rays.

• JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Bridge is a family game, but skill at bridge is seldom evenly distributed through a family. The Briggs family, of Wilmette, Ill., is therefore quite exceptional. Roger A. Briggs is a life master and so is his wife, Alberta E. Briggs. What's more, so is their son, Philip Briggs.

Mrs. Briggs gave a good account of herself in the recent Masters Individual, landing well above the middle of the field (and well in front of her son, who also entered this blue ribbon event). One of the hands she played in that tournament, shown today, gave her a clear top.

Like most experts, Mrs. Briggs uses the Stayman Convention. North's response of two clubs asks the opening bidder to show a major suit; and South's rebid of two diamonds indicates that there is no major suit to show. North then proceeds to game in no-trump.

Neither vul.

South	West	North	East

Opening lead—♣2

West opened the deuce of clubs, and dummy's six held the trick. Mrs. Briggs next led a diamond from dummy, winning with the queen in her own hand. Then she led the king of hearts, which West won with his ace.

The effect produced on West was exactly what Mrs. Briggs had planned. It was obvious that declarer was strong in each of the three suits that had been touched. Hence West (very incautiously) tackled spades in the hope of finding a weak spot.

The spade lead trapped East's jack. Mrs. Briggs won with the ace and then pushed the ten of spades through West's queen. By pouncing on the defensive error, Mrs. Briggs won four tricks in each black suit, losing only to the two red aces. This gave her a trick more than any other declarer managed to take.

A—Bid two hearts. A double might produce a poor result because the opponent can probably get several tricks by ruffing hearts. However, your heart length promises well for offense, and you will be happy to go to game if your partner can find another bid.

MacArthur Speech Leaves Many Points Unclarified

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—New and perhaps prolonged arguments by armchair generals and amateur strategists seem due as a follow-up to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's address to Congress. It cleared up some points on which there has been misunderstanding or misinterpretation of the general's views. But it also raised some new points for investigation and discussion.

"No man in his right mind would advocate sending our ground forces into continental China," said General MacArthur. That would seem to take out of the argument the idea mistakenly attributed to him of wanting to have Chinese Nationalist troops launch a full-scale invasion of the Chinese mainland with the support of U. S. forces. General MacArthur and the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington therefore would seem to be in complete agreement on the inadvisability of opening a second front in South China.

However, MacArthur DID urge "removal of restrictions on the forces of the Republic of China on Formosa, with logistical support to contribute to their effective operations against the Chinese mainland." What does he mean by "logistical support?" Does he mean U. S. air cover and U. S. naval transport and warship protection? What does he mean by "effective operations?" Does he mean hit-and-run raids? These are points that need clarification.

Another point needing a great deal of clarification is on what kind of an air war—if any—should be carried on against Chinese coastal cities and the Red air bases in Manchuria, north of the Yalu River. In his speech to Congress, General MacArthur declared his belief that even the Joint Chiefs of Staff had supported his views on the necessity of an economic and naval blockade of China and "removal of restrictions on air reconnaissance of China's coastal area and of Manchuria."

No Mention Of 'Attack'

The important thing to note here is that General MacArthur spoke of "air reconnaissance." He did not say "aerial attack" nor did he advocate the bombing of Communist air bases and cities in coastal China and Manchuria. It has been understood generally that General MacArthur in the past has been advocating that the war should be carried north of the Yalu River. U. S. and Allied UN planes now are forbidden to fly beyond the Korean border.

But there is a vast difference between "reconnaissance" and "bombing attack." If General MacArthur had been advocating nothing more than "reconnaissance," he has been misrepresented or misunderstood by even his best friends and most loyal supporters in Washington and the rest of the country.

Time may, of course, prove right the contention that Red Chinese air bases in Manchuria should be attacked now, regardless of whether this has been what General MacArthur has been advocating. As the general declared in his speech to Congress: "Any new enemy more likely will strike whenever it feels that the relativity of military and other potentialities is in its favor on a worldwide basis."

What this is taken to mean is that Russia has not used its own air force in Korea up to this time because it has not been ready. It implies that Russia may throw her air power into the Korean war against United Nations troops at some later date. If this time should come, the wisdom of having earlier attacked and destroyed these Red air bases, before the attack was launched from them, will be apparent.

Provoking Red Air Power

But here again there seems to be some difference between what General MacArthur has been understood to advocate in the past, and what the Joint Chiefs of Staff have laid down as their strategy. There has been general belief at the Pentagon that General MacArthur previously had approved the Joint Chiefs of Staff position that Red air power should not be provoked into greater participation in the war.

UN ground troops in Korea thus far have been completely free from Communist aerial bombing attack. This has been a tremendous advantage to Allied forces and all commanders are believed to have been in agreement that this advantage should be kept as long as possible.

A further point of misunderstanding or misrepresentation has been over the priority of defense in Europe or Asia. General MacArthur's position previously has been portrayed as a belief that the Communists had decided to force a showdown in Asia first, and that the war there should have priority, with defense of Europe later.

In his speech to Congress, however, General MacArthur declared: "The issues are global and so interlocked that to consider the problems of one sector, oblivious to those of another is but to court disaster for the whole."

KILLER'S PACE

BY JULIUS LONG

COPYRIGHT 1951 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: I (Jim Marshall) am trying to solve a murder case in order to save my boss Stay Williams from disbarment as a lawyer. After double attempts on my life, I reach my apartment and find Sonya Sareeta, the lady magician, there. Then Clara Mayhew, receptionist for a burial vault firm, and Smiley Wetlaufer, a mortician, appear.

XXIV

CLARA MAYHEW and Sonya Sareeta rejoined us quietly. "I think we'd better go," said Miss Mayhew. "Sonya is coming home with me."

I regarded Sonya with speculation. "You two girls should get along well," I remarked. "Miss Mayhew is something of a performer herself. Have her tell about her bathing beauty act in the glass tank at the Prater office."

"I shall," said Sonya.

"By the way, Miss Mayhew, I certainly admired that yellow bathing suit of yours. I'd like to buy one just like it for a maiden aunt of mine. Mind telling me where you bought it?"

"Polsky's. You should have seen the outfit that Mrs. Wertheim bought for the act! Brother! I don't know where she dug it up! Hugo—Mr. Wertheim had a heck of a time explaining to her that it wasn't the thing. He's the most hen-pecked character I ever saw. In the end he had to tell his wife that Mr. Prater picked out the green one."

"But it was yellow, Miss Mayhew."

"That's what I said, yellow. Well, nighty-night everybody!"

Smiley was looking on very inquisitively.

"Well, for crying out loud, kiss Sonya goodnight!" said Smiley.

I was between that devil and the deep V. I kissed her, and I knew at once that I'd have been better off if I hadn't ducked and had taken her bullet right between the eyes.

MY guests had been gone only a few minutes when my speaking tube whistled. I answered. It was a low, hushed voice.

"I must see you. It's very important!"

It was Louise. I answered by pressing the door lock button. Then I took out the .380 and gave it a good once-over. There was a cartridge in the chamber and seven more in the magazine. I threw off the safety. Then I stuffed the gun between the cushion and the side of my favorite lounge chair. A furtive rap sounded on my door.

Louise wore a wrap pulled around her. She looked frightened.

"Come on in, Louise, and bring your friends."

She looked still more frightened and cringed. Then Al Nanabarro and the character called Lou filled the doorway. There was a third man, and he backed up Louise. They all came in very fast. They all had guns excepting Louise.

"You expected us then?"

"Sure. Sit down, folks, and make yourselves at home." I did a double-take at the third man. "I remember you. You were the guy driving the truck this evening. Better luck next time!"

Nanabarro eyed me coldly. "You talk too much, Marshall." He turned to Lou. "Frisk him."

Lou did a good job of it. He turned up nothing.

Nanabarro frowned. "If you knew we were coming up with Louise, why aren't you heeled?"

"Well, I figured you'd bring your mob, and I knew I'd be outnumbered. So I phoned headquarters and told the desk sergeant to leave a note that you'd just visited me."

Nanabarro laughed shortly. "That's a poor play. We've all got airtight alibis or we wouldn't be here."

"Like you had the night Frannie Martin drove her car into the river?"

Nanabarro moved with the rapidity of a rattlesnake striking. His gun butt raked my face. It didn't feel good.

"Would you mind telling me," I asked Nanabarro, "just what you're looking for?"

He eyed me contemptuously. "As if you didn't know. Sonya was here. I saw her leave. When she didn't kill you tonight that was the pay-off. I had a hunch all along she was working for you and that slimy little mouthpiece."

I WHIRLED suddenly, hoping Nanabarro wouldn't be expecting me to. He wasn't. I slapped his gun out of his hand—too far. It skidded clear across the carpet out of my reach as well as his. I hung a left hook on his button and started for the gun.

I thought I had stopped Nanabarro at least temporarily. I hadn't. He caught my arm, spun me around and landed a right hook on my jaw. I went down, Nanabarro kicked my ribs and I clutched at his ankle. He lost his balance and went down backwards. I didn't try to go after him—I was still after that gun.

"Hold it!"

I turned. Both of Nanabarro's boys stood over me. Then I saw that while the guns were pointed at me, the gaze of each man was away. Nanabarro, too, was looking toward the door. Nick Ricardo stood there, his candid camera focused on us all. He grinned and said:

"A perfect picture for tomorrow's paper, only nobody will believe it isn't posed. It's just too good."

I got up and I had Nanabarro's gun when I did. The guns were still on me, but nobody was going to use them with a camera focused.

"Give me that film!" Nanabarro said coldly. Ricardo stepped back. "Not on your life! Keep him off me, Marshall." I waved my gun.

"You win," said Nanabarro. "I'll make a deal. One grand for that film!"

A strange voice said: "What's going on there! Stop all that racket!"

Half Of Midland High School Teachers To Spend Summer 'Vacation' Attending School

Office employes may envy the school teachers, who supposedly get a three-months' vacation.

However, it might be surprising that this "vacation" really is.

A recent survey at Midland High School revealed that 50 per cent of the teachers will attend Summer school. Seven per cent will attend the Summer Workshop in Midland. Thirteen per cent will continue to work for the school or in the commercial field while 30 per cent will take a physical rest.

Thus 20 of the 40 MHS teachers will attend school at some time during the Summer months. Schools to attract either one or more teachers will be the University of Texas, North Texas State College, Sul Ross College, West Texas State College, Duke University, Texas Tech, Colorado State and Middleburg College in Vermont.

To Attend School

Five will attend coaching school in San Antonio.

Miss Ines Parker will teach art at the University of Texas and later at Eastern Illinois State College.

Summer Workshop

A Summer Workshop to be held in Midland will attract some of the high school faculty. The Workshop will take up child development.

Eight of the high school teachers have jobs which continue through the Summer. These include Athletic Director T. L. Jones and J. R. Cuffman, vocational agriculture teacher. Four of Jones' assistant coaches are nine and one-half months' employes. Faye Massey and Clyde Parmelly, home economics instructors work throughout the Summer in both student and adult classes. R. C. Michener, music, is a 10-months' employe. Miss Josephine Weaver will teach Summer school.

Only two teachers will work at jobs in the commercial field during the Summer.

MORE GOOD THAN HARM

Job Placements Set Monthly Mark

Rapid growth in the oil industry at Midland, especially field activity, has busied the Texas Employment Commission to a record in monthly job placements.

John Bechtol, TEC office manager here, said his office had placed 700 persons in positions in a 30-day period just completed. The office handled more than 900 job applicants in the period.

Oil field workers headed the list of placements. But also there were placements in the construction trade and other industries.

"The labor market is really tight here," Bechtol said.

A strong demand for office workers of all kinds was listed by Bechtol.

Three Youths Given Life Sentences For 15-Cent Knife Slaying

HOUSTON —(AP)— Felix Palacios, 19, and Raul Fernandez, 22, will join a third Houston youth in serving out life sentences for murder.

The two were convicted of murder Wednesday in the December 17 fatal stabbing of David Rodriguez, 14. The third youth, Fred Postel, 19, already is serving a life sentence for his part in the slaying.

Young Rodriguez was stabbed in the head, back and lower chest after he refused to give up 15 cents demanded by the three youths.

Milk for human consumption is obtained from the cow, goat, reindeer, yak, zebu, buffalo, camel, llama and sheep.

Do You Really Want To Take Off That Ugly Fat?

Don't say it's your thyroid when reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulgy person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for the physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "battle of the bulges," common sense is the watchword. Don't overeat, but don't go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down drastically on the food intake and fortify with vitamins. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Texas druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan". It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want, but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time it dehydrates and eliminates.

Nearly four million bottles of this preparation, called Barcentrate, have been sold in Texas in the past eight years.

You can get a four ounce bottle of Barcentrate from any Texas druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat; return the empty bottle for your money back.

The Newschart above shows relative number of casualties suffered by major UN forces fighting in Korea. Also given are the percentage of casualties and the approximate total of troops supplied by each nation. Note the break in the bar representing U. S. losses. To show this bar in relative proportion to the others would require a chart about 12 feet high. In addition to the nine nations listed, several others have forces in Korea but have suffered negligible or no losses. These include: New Zealand, South Africa, Belgium, Thailand and Sweden. Highest percentage of casualties to troops involved was suffered by the French battalion attached to the U. S. 23rd Division. This unit suffered heavy losses in a delaying action during the first retreat north of Seoul and in hand-to-hand fighting near Wonju. The Turks also lost heavily in these actions.

American Airmen Land In North Africa

CASABLANCA —(AP)— The biggest contingent of American troops to land in North Africa since the war arrived Thursday aboard the transport Henry Gibbins.

The Americans, about 1,000 strong, will man the new American air bases in Morocco. Many have their families with them.

west generally were falling back well ahead of the Chinese masses. The terrific fire power of American artillery and Allied planes protected the rear of withdrawing columns.

One Unit Trapped

But one unit surrounded by onrushing Chinese was caught in a trap northwest of Uijongbu. There was no word from this unit late Thursday.

Field reports said it was cut off by at least three Chinese divisions. An armored task force broke through and rescued at least 100 men. It was feared the unit's losses might be high.

Other previously encircled units—Turkish, Belgian and Australian—had hacked their way out with relatively light casualties.

Red losses were placed at close to 20,000 in unofficial estimates. Heavy smoke and haze shrouding the battle area cut the aerial toll. Nevertheless, Marine and Fifth Air Force pilots reported they accounted for at least 550 Reds Thursday. This is about half their normal count.

Behind the screen of aerial and artillery fire, dusty columns of UN troops rolled toward Seoul.

There were indications indefensible Seoul would be given up to the Reds for the third time.

UN officers in the west still were confident they had the power to check the Reds, just as they halted the Communists in the center after a big breakthrough early in the offensive.

No Takers As Yet For Baseball Club

Harold Webb and H. W. Donohoo had no immediate takers Thursday on their offer to sell the Midland Indian baseball club.

The two owners announced Wednesday they were willing to sell the club if a group of Midland businessmen and sports fans would be interested.

In addition, Webb said he would like to acquire some of the stock in such an organization and would be willing to continue as manager of the team.

Windy City—

Michigan Avenue and State Street Thursday afternoon and pageantry, fireworks and a talk by General MacArthur in Soldier Field Thursday night. A turnout of 100,000 was expected for the big jamboree in the Lake Front Stadium. No rain was forecast. Fair and cool weather was predicted with temperatures in the high 50's.

Placards bearing greetings, "Hi, Mac!" were on display throughout the city.

But the Merchandise Mart, the world's largest commercial building, had the biggest greeting for the general. Across the front of the huge building in letters 20 feet high was the salutation, "Hi, Mac." A big American flag was flown from each letter.

Mayor Martin H. Kennelly, in a television broadcast Wednesday night, invited "all of Midwest America" to join in the MacArthur Day celebration.

Thorbus Assessed Life Term In Slaying

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)— Richard Dean Thorbus, 20, of Corpus Christi, was given a life sentence Wednesday on a charge of murder in the holdup slaying of Andrew J. Sendemer, 41.

The jury returned the verdict after 47 minutes of deliberation.

Thorbus was charged jointly with Robert Miers, 19, and Leroy Johnson, 24, both of Houston. However, a severance in the cases was granted.

Rodeo Publicity Panel Slates Meet

Other members of the committee are Delbert Downing, J. M. McDonald, Barney Greathouse and Bill Collyns.

Meeting Of Military Affairs Panel Slated

The Military Affairs Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce will meet at 10 a.m. Friday in the organization's office in Hotel Scharbauer, Chairman Reese Cleveland said Thursday.

Plans for the entertaining of U. S. Navy Band members who will be in Midland May 3, will be discussed at the session.

Other members of the committee are Phil Yeckel, W. W. Studdert, James T. Smith and H. W. Mathews.

Dallas Man Heads Christian Churches

DALLAS —(AP)— The Rev. Kenneth M. Hay of Dallas was elected president of the Texas Convention of Christian Churches Wednesday.

The convention is the business meeting for 425 Christian (Disciples of Christ) Churches in Texas with a membership of 116,000.

Other officers elected include Mrs. C. H. Parker, Wichita Falls, and W. W. Housewright, San Benito, vice presidents.

Dr. Thomas—

several years ago. Since then he has devoted most of his time to Midland Memorial Foundation. He was lauded by the hospital trustees for his long years of civic and professional service to the community.

In his letter of resignation, Dr. Thomas asked to be relieved of his duties as president, but stated a desire to maintain a connection with the hospital. He expressed appreciation to fellow workers for the support and cooperation given him through the years. He commended the governing board and the hospital staff upon their fine work in connection with establishing and operating the hospital.

'Never Want To Retire'

Dr. Thomas' letter to the trustees follows:

"I never want to be retired, in the remaining years of my life, from some connection with the Midland Memorial Hospital, which for many, many years has been a cherished dream finally become a reality. But my age, if there were no other reasons, should warrant relieving me from active hospital responsibilities, and I beg to request that someone else from among the trustees be elected for the place I have been honored to occupy since the hospital idea was conceived and plans made for its organization.

"I cannot find words to adequately express my deep appreciation for the invaluable and sympathetic cooperation provided by the governing board in every exigency.

"As all of you know I have been intensely interested in seeing Midland and this vicinity have a modern Community Hospital, built and equipped without any mortgage or debt, and efficiently staffed. In regard to that, my hopes have been, as you are aware, only partially realized, as it was found necessary to mortgage the property for $150,000. This however is a very small sum compared with the total cost which amounted to more than a million three hundred thousand dollars. It nevertheless is a burden that all of us had hoped could be avoided.

"It appears now, as I have always maintained, that when the facilities were used to half capacity the hospital would be self sustaining, and that prediction seems now to have been well founded.

"There remains though the $150,000 mortgage which possibly the hospital can arrange to liquidate in the near future by further gifts from generous friends who appreciate the value of this wonderful institution, designed primarily to care for the sick, injured, infirm and afflicted of all creeds and races. And it may be reasonably hoped that many of our citizens will remember this hospital with bequests when writing their wills, and especially as such bequests are deductable in determining the value of estates of decedents subject to estate taxes.

"The hospital already, in my judgment, is remarkably well staffed and appears to be functioning very satisfactorily.

"I want you to know that I have the utmost confidence in the governing board and predict that the hospital will become one of this area's greatest assets."

43 Killed—

over Key West shortly before noon Wednesday.

Then, in full view of hundreds of shocked sunbathers and residents of the city, the airliner power-dived into the ocean at a speed estimated by witnesses at 600 miles an hour. It landed a half-mile offshore, not far from President Truman's "Little White House."

The Navy craft, disintegrating as it fell, crashed two miles west of the transport.

Marine PFC Arthur Calogero of Jersey City, N. J., saw the planes come down with engines roaring and notified authorities at the Navy submarine base here. So quickly did Navy craft go into action that the first body from the Navy plane was recovered in 10 minutes and the first from the airliner in 15 minutes.

By nightfall, 17 bodies had been recovered from the submerged wreckage of the transport and two from the Navy plane. Then the transport engines were hoisted to the surface. Shreds of human flesh could be seen on them.

Engines Wide Open

The explosive noise of the collision shocked hundreds to attention. George and Charles Faraldo, operators of a Key West flying service said the left wing tip of the transport fell off and it went into a tight spiral.

"The pilot turned on full power and managed to pull out of the spiral," George related. "But then the plane nosed over in a straight dive and hit the water with the engines wide open.

"The water spewed so high into the air we could see it over the treetops from the airport."

The Faraldos took off immediately in their plane and were the first to fly over the scene. They saw bodies and parts of bodies on the surface, but no wreckage.

Mrs. Walter A. Simson of New York, here on a honeymoon, said the whole scene was "like a crazy movie."

A Naval Board of Inquiry, headed by Capt. R. S. Quackenbush, Jr., commander of the Boca Chica Naval Air Station, was set up in an effort to determine why the planes collided in perfect flying weather, with unlimited visibility.

Cancer Clinic Head Is Rotary Speaker

The history, operational set-up and program of the Midland Diagnostic Cancer Clinic were reviewed by Dr. Kurt Lekisch, executive officer of the clinic, at the regular meeting of the Midland Rotary Club Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer. He was introduced by Al H. Vineyard, program chairman.

The program was presented in connection with the observance of Cancer Educational Month.

Percy F. Bridgewater, a member and past president of the Midland club, who won the nomination for governor of District 183, Rotary International, at its conference in Lubbock early this week, was recognized enthusiastically by his fellow club members.

Bill Martin was introduced as a new member of the club by Roy McKee.

Serves Wide Area

In discussing the cancer clinic here, Dr. Lekisch said the facility hopes to establish a wide reputation in serving cancer patients in an area bounded by Sweetwater, Roswell, N. M., Van Horn and Alpine. He told of the excellent facilities available in Midland Memorial Hospital and said the operation has been highly successful to date.

He explained that patients are accepted only on referral of physicians, and that charges are on a cost basis.

The clinic's monthly lecture programs also were mentioned.

Cancer as a disease and as a great enemy of mankind was discussed briefly by the guest speaker.

Widespread Practice Brings Prison Term

ADEN —(AP)— An Aden barber received a two-year sentence here recently for causing the death of a child by removing its uvula with a pair of hair-cutting scissors. The uvula is the pendent fleshy lobe in the middle of posterior border of the soft palate. Cutting it out is a widespread practice in this British protectorate. It ranks with bloodletting and branding, to which many local inhabitants resort as a cure for children's ailments.

The operation usually is carried out by barbers who make a profitable sideline of it. A number of deaths have resulted from this practice in the last few years but it has been difficult to secure conviction, which would run counter to popular feeling.

Winners In Safety Contest Announced

CHICAGO —(AP)— Pennsylvania and Wichita, Kan., won the grand awards in the 1950 National Traffic Safety contest, the National Safety Council announced Thursday.

Seven other states and 24 other cities won divisional honors in the council's contest in which all 48 states and 648 cities participated.

The council also announced 589 cities with populations between 5,000 and 10,000 were cited in the contest's honor roll section for their 1950 record of no traffic deaths.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

When you decide whether or not to take the discard pile there are four important points to consider:

1. The number of cards in the pile. This is the most important consideration. If the pile contains more than eight cards, it is almost invariable wise to take it. It the pile contains from five to eight cards, you have a very close decision to make. It the pile contains only four cards (or fewer), it is usually good play to refuse to take it.

2. The chance that your side will get the pile later on if you pass it up. If you are certain to get it eventually, you can afford to pass a pile of any size. If you have very little chance to get the pile later on, you must take even a small pile.

3. The value of the cards in the pile. Obviously, a pile that contains a card that gives you a canasta is more valuable than a pile that contains only odd unmeldable cards. You can pass up a worth less pile because the loss is small even if it gets away from you; but you don't take such risks with a really valuable pile.

Incidently, you take no chances with a pile that contains cards that are very valuable to the opponents. It's just as important to stop the enemy as it is to make progress of your own.

4. Your method of taking the pile If you can take the pile by adding the top card to one of your melds, you are saving all the cards in your hand for future use. If you you take the pile by using two natural cards, you are using up some of your reserves. If you must use a wild card to take the discard pile (together with a natural card, of course), you are using up a very valuable piece of property.

Q—How many wild cards are you allowed to discard into a frozen pack? Some of the local players allow only one wild card per person. Is there any such limit in the official rules?

A—There is no limit in the official rules. It it is your turn to play and you wish to discard a deuce or a joker you may do so—regardless of how many wild cards have been discarded previously.

Local players who favor a different procedure are just laying up trouble for themselves. After all, what do they expect a player to do if he happens to hold nothing but wild cards in his hand?

WT-NM League—
Clovis Pioneers Split Twin Bill To Climb Off Bottom

By The Associated Press

The Clovis Pioneers, losers of their first four West Texas-New Mexico League games this season, fought their way off the floor to smack the Lamesa Lobos 5-3 in the first game of a doubleheader Wednesday night. But they fell right back into their old ways in the second game to lose 15-6.

In other games Pampa scored in the last of the ninth inning to beat Amarillo 7-6 and retain its half-game lead in the pennant race. Abilene beat Borger 8-4, and Albuquerque defeated Lubbock 8-6.

Abilene's victory kept it just a half-game off the pace while Lubbock, tied with the Blue Sox going into the game, dropped all the way to fourth, behind Albuquerque.

The Albuquerque Dukes battered three Lubbock pitchers for the win that moved them ahead of the Hubbers.

Catcher Bill Whitehorn smashed a line drive single off the body of Third Baseman Pinky Higgins in the ninth inning and Dick Woldt raced home from second to give Pampa its one - run victory over winless Amarillo.

Abilene banged out 14 hits, including two three-run home runs, to beat Borger. Walt Sessi got the first three-run homer in the first inning.

tion regarding the Czech state through illegal news organs, for which purpose he misused Czech citizens."

Western sources in Prague said the arrest of Oatis may be designed as part of a propaganda barrage to set the stage for the trial of Vladimir Clementis, former Czech foreign minister, who has been arrested on charges of being disloyal to Moscow—being a Titoist—and spying for the West.

Six other Western correspondents have been expelled from Prague in the last 18 months. Two of Oatis' predecessors, Richard Kasischke and Nathan Polowetzky of The Associated Press, were expelled from Prague on charges of "unobjective reporting," which were not documented by the Czech government, but Oatis is the first American or Western journalist to be arrested in Prague in the three years this country has been under complete Communist domination.

Western Plastic Takes Command Of Softball League

Western Plastic Company took the lead in the City Major Division of the JayCee Softball League Wednesday night, ousting Rendezvous 2-1 in a pitcher's duel between Lefty Martin and Ralph Brooks.

Martin, the winning hurler, struck out 16 batters and gave up four hits. Brooks, loser, twirled a two-hitter and whiffed 17 Plastic batsmen.

Western Plastic took the game in the final inning when Walker walked, Howell got on by error and Simpson singled to fill the bases. Brooks than walked his opposing pitcher, Walker, to send in the winning tally.

In the second contest, Shell Oil nudged American Legion 7-6, getting its winning margin in the third frame. All scoring came in the first three innings. Frank Salmon was the winning pitchers, with Rogers hurling the final two innings to preserve the lead. Salmon whiffed two, giving up four hits, while Rogers struck out four and was touched for one hit.

Losing hurler A. Z. Sturges of American Legion fanned five and gave up seven hits.

Shell and Rendevous play the first game at 7:45 p.m. Friday in Wadley Park, with Standard of Texas and Rotary Engineering Company getting together in the second contest. Tide Water Oil has dropped out of the league.

The standings:	W	L
Western Plastic	2	0
Rotary Engineers	1	0
Shell Oil	1	0
Rendezvous	0	1
Standard of Texas	0	1
American Legion	0	2

Policeman Booked On Perjury Count

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Police officer Berleen Harsha, 32, who testified he saw bookmaking through a keyhole, was booked Wednesday on suspicion of perjury and bribery.

William Parker, chief of police, said Harsha is charged with getting $250 a month for protecting gamblers.

Harsha testified Monday he had looked through a keyhole and seen people betting on races. The defense brought the door into court and showed it had no keyhole. The case was dismissed.

Shrine Nobles Set Stag Affair

The Midland Shrine Club will stage a stag party Friday night in the Governor's Suite of Hotel Scharbauer.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

Another Wildcat Is Spotted In NE Upton

One and one-half miles northwest of Ashland Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Sherrod and others, possible Spraberry discovery in Northeast Upton County, the same operator staked location for its No. 1-48 Sherrod.

The long stepout will be drilled 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 48, block 38, T-5-S, T&P survey.

The operator's No. 1 Sherrod is shutin waiting for installation of a pumping unit.

The new location is five miles south and slightly west of the opener of the Weiner-Floyd-Spraberry field. It is also 30 miles northeast of Rankin.

Shell Builds Line To Move Pembrook Oil

Shell Pipe Line Corporation is laying a new line to move oil from the Pembrook-Spraberry field of Central-Esst Upton County to that concern's Upton station. The crude will go into the Shell main line to the Middle West.

More than 23,000 feet—or approximately four and one-third miles of four-inch line, and about 13,500 feet—or more than two and one-half miles of six-inch gathering lines are being laid. Announcement of the new construction was made by A. F. Terrell of Colorado City, area manager for Shell Pipe Line.

That concern is currently trucking oil from some of the producers in the Pembrook-Spraberry field to its Upton station.

Terrell said the new facilities would be ready to start moving oil in a few days.

C-S Terry Field Is Extended West

The Adair-Wolfcamp field in Central-South Terry County has been extended one-location west with the completion of the Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 2-A Willard for a 24 hour flowing potential of 786 barrels of 33.6 gravity oil.

Production was through a 3 8-inch choke and open hole between 8,491 feet, where 5 1/2-inch casing was cemented, and 8,563 feet, the total depth. The top of the pay was picked at 8,487 feet, elevation was not furnished.

Gas-oil ratio was 387-1. Open hole was treated with 500 gallons of acid. The well also made 1/10 per cent water on the flow.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 5, block C-36, psl survey.

Oiler, Locations Given Upton Pool

Ashland Oil & Refining Company reported completion of one Spraberry oiler and the staking of three drillsites in the Pembrook field of East-Central Upton County.

The new oiler is the concern's No. 1 Beal-Russell. It was completed for a daily flowing potential of 147.58 barrels of 36.3-gravity oil and no water through a 24/64-inch tubing choke.

Production is from open hole section at 6,972-7,026 feet.

Location of the oiler, which was started out as Carlton Beal and Associates No. 1 Beal-Russell, is located 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of the 277-acre lease in the southwest part of section 1, block X, DeWitt survey.

That makes it one location south of any other production in the field.

Ashland's No. 4 Beal-Russell will be dug 2,640 feet from south and 485 feet from west lines of the 277-acre lease in the southwest part of section 1, block X, DeWitt survey.

The same concern's No. 5 Beal-Russell will be 660 from south and east lines of the same section and No. 6 Beal-Russell will be drilled 1,275 feet from south and 485 feet from west lines of the lease.

Pegasus Gets Two Oilers; One Starter

Magnolia Petroleum Company has completed two Ellenburger producers in the Upton County side of the Pegasus field, and the same concern has staked location for a Pennsylvanian exploration in the Midland County sector of the same producing area.

Magnolia No. 1-I TXL, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 41, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey, reported a 24-hour potential of 737.8 barrels of 53.6-gravity oil, flowing through a one-quarter-inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,331-1. The production was from perforated interval at 13,040-075 feet. That section had been treated with 10,000 gallons of acid. Total depth is at 13,120 feet. The casing is cemented on bottom.

Another In Upton

Magnolia No. 4-36 Glass, 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 36, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey, made a daily potential of 410.4 barrels of 52.8-gravity oil. The potential test flow was through a 28/64th-inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,034-1. Total depth is 13,121 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 12,875 feet. The production is from the open hole between 12,875 feet and the bottom at 13,121 feet. That zone had been treated with 6,000 gallons of acid.

Magnolia No. 7-30 Glass is to be the Pennsylvanian prospector in the Midland County side of the Pegasus area. It is to be 3,300 feet from south, 660 feet from west lines of section 30, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Bacarrise To Start Outpost To F-M Field

Sidney L. Bacarisse of Midland is preparing to start drilling on his No. 1 Ashton, stepout from the Fuhrman-Mascho field in South-Central Andrews County.

The project is scheduled to be drilled to 4,800 feet.

Rotary drilling contract has been given to Throckmorton Drilling Company of Midland.

Drillsite is on acreage secured by Bacarisse in a farmout deal with The Ohio Oil Company.

Location is 440 feet from south and west lines of southeast quarter of section 17, block A-43, psl survey and six miles southwest of Andrews.

Spraberry Oiler Is Indicated In Upton

Slick-Urschel and Plymouth Oil Company No. 3-S Standefer, twin to the same operators' No. 2 Standefer, a dual producer from the Fusselman and Ellenburger in the Benedum field of Central-East Upton County, developed free oil on a drillstem test in the upper Spraberry.

The interval tested was from 6,390 to 6,500 feet. Tool was left open six hours. Gas surfaced in 11 minutes. Recovery was 275 feet of free oil and 810 feet of drilling mud.

Operator will drill the project on to the lower Spraberry.

Location is 990 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of the west half of lot 3, section 50 1/2, P. B. Scott survey.

Plymouth Oil Company No. 1-4 J. S. Elliott, project on the southeast side of the Benedum multipay field of Central-West Reagan County, has been plugged and abandoned at 7,517 feet in the Spraberry sand.

Both the upper and lower zones of that formation made clear salt water.

The failure is 1,400 feet from south and 467 feet from west lines of section 4, GC&SF survey. That makes it one-half mile northeast of Plymouth No. 1 Dixon, most southeasterly producer in the field.

N-C Concho Sector Gets New Explorer

Holland Oil Company and others have staked a wildcat in Concho County as the No. 1 Marion Sansom Company.

Tentative location will be 330 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 128, J. C. Hargis survey.

The prospector will drill to 1,350 feet with cable tools to test the Tannehill sand of the Cisco.

No. 1 Marion Sansom Company is 3,600 feet southeast of the Progress Petroleum Company No. 1 Marion Sansom Company, wildcat in North-Central Concho County, which has been plugged and abandoned at 3,800 feet.

Location for the failure was 330 feet from north and east lines of section 328, L. Steinbrink survey.

Stonewall Slated For Deep Wildcat

DeGrazier & Wagner of Albany have spotted a wildcat in Stonewall County. It will be their No. 1 J. W. Hines.

Drillsite will be 330 feet from north and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 161, block 1, BBB&C survey.

Rotary tools will be used to go to 6,500 feet.

No. 1 Hines will be four miles southeast of the Moutray-Moore Swastika pool.

Wilshire Has Plugged Two Terry Wildcats

The Wilshire Oil Company has abandoned and plugged two deep wildcat failures in Terry County. Neither of the projects logged any shows of oil or gas and neither of them found any solid lime reef section in the Pennsylvanian.

Wilshire No. 1 Southern Minerals Corporation-Newsome, three miles east and one mile north of the opener of the Brownfield, South Canyon field drilled to a bottom of 10,586 feet in lime and shale. It had no shows in any zone penetrated and has been plugged.

In C-E Terry

Location was 467 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 47, block T, D&W survey. That put it in the central-east part of the county.

Wilshire No. 1 Sims, in Central-South Terry County, six and one-half miles south and two miles east of Wellman has been plugged with total depth at 10,514 feet in lime and shale. It had no possibilities of making an oil well.

The project was three and one-half miles southwest of the Adair-Wolfcamp field.

Failures Abandoned In Three Counties

Three West Texas counties have reported dry holes.

George P. Livermore, Inc., No. 1 Evans B. Jones and others, one location east of the Clear Fork discovery of the Tucker multipay field of Southwest Crane County, has been plugged on total depth of 4,170 feet.

The project showed oil and gas on a drillstem test of the lower Clear Fork from 4,098 to 4,170 feet. Those shows were not enough to make a commercial producer.

Location was 440 feet from northwest and southwest lines of section 12, block 3, H&TC survey and 20 miles west of the town of Crane.

Failure In Pecos

In East Pecos County, Harold H. Hamilton, et al, No. 1 J. H. Tippett is a dry wildcat at a total depth of 480 feet.

It was located 660 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of section 45, block 194, GC&SF survey. That made it eight miles northwest of Iraan.

O. E. Schkade No. 1 Claude Collins, Jr., wildcat in Central-East Sterling County, has been plugged and abandoned at total depth of 2,001 feet in lime after showing salt water at that depth.

Operator encountered a slight show of oil at 1,720 feet.

The project was 330 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 29, block W, T&P survey and nine miles east of Sterling City.

Texan Dies In Grade Crossing Accident

WICHITA FALLS —(AP)— W. L. Sullivan, 65, of Iowa Park was killed Wednesday when his automobile was struck by a freight train at a crossing seven miles west of here.

Dan McMullans, about 50, also of Iowa Park, jumped from the car and was unhurt.

Occupants of another car behind Sullivan said the auto appeared to stall on the tracks.

MEDICAL TREATMENT

Mrs. Lester Wright, general delivery, underwent emergency medical treatment Wednesday at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Texas Ex-Students Urged To Pay Dues

University of Texas ex-students in the Midland area were urged Thursday to pay their association dues by May 1 in order to have preference in buying athletic event tickets.

Jim Marberry, Midland ex-students president, said additional information could be obtained from Mrs. Dick Rowan, association secretary. Dues are $3 a year for students who have been out of school three years or less, and $5 for others.

The payments should be mailed to the Ex-Students Association, University of Texas, at Austin.

MINOR SURGERY

Mrs. Phil Brock, 2710 Loma Drive, underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday morning at Western Clinic-Hospital. She is a registered nurse on the staff of the hospital.

Significant Uranium Production Predicted In Colorado Plateau

ST. LOUIS —(AP)— A spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission predicted Thursday significant new uranium production in the Colorado Plateau areas of Eastern Utah, Northern Arizona and New Mexico.

Dr. Philip L. Merritt told the American Association of Petroleum Geologists in a prepared talk uranium had been found also in Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho and Florida.

He added that prospects of finding the mineral in Tennessee and Kentucky were promising and that exploration in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin might well yield mineable deposits at a low cost.

Dr. Merritt said, however, that the Colorado Plateau, extending over some 130,000 square miles in Colorado, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico, contains "our largest potential resources as we know them now."

Dr. Merritt is assistant director of division of raw materials of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Of Top Importance

He told the geologists the search for uranium was of deepest importance to the nation's welfare whether for war or peace.

He pointed out to the geologists at the final session of their 36th annual meeting there are many similarities in geologic environment of certain oil and uranium deposits. He urged oil men to join in search for the ore.

The atomic scientist said the petroleum industry has a vast knowledge of sedimentary rocks where uranium deposits might be found but for the most part had ignored the existing uranium possibilities. He added that it could readily expand its exploration activities to include a search for uranium.

Air Force Safety Board Investigates Fuel Tank Dropping

SAN ANGELO —(AP)— An Air Force Safety Board is writting up its findings of an investigation of a T-33 jet plane dropping two fuel tanks in Abilene Tuesday.

No one was injured in the accident. One tank crashed into a church annex and another fell on an Abilene thoroughfare.

The pilot of the training plane was identified as Capt. Connor Robinson of Abilene, on a flight from California to his home base at Panama City, Fla. He blamed mechanical failure for the sudden release of the two tanks.

A spokesman at Goodfellow Air Force Base here Wednesday night said the official investigaion was completed and the findings were being prepared for officials at Tyndall Air Force Base, Panama City.

WTCC Committee Opposes Federal Controls On Water

LUBBOCK —(AP)— The Water Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has adopted a policy of fighting federal control of water resources on all levels.

At a meeting here Wednesday, the committee heard an analysis of the report made by President Truman's Water Committee. Fred Husbands of Abilene, WTCC manager, said the plan would put water resources under federal control through appointment of "virtual river basin czars for six-year terms."

The WTCC committee endorsed legislation pending before the Texas Legislature which would strengthen the authority of the State Board of Water Engineers, inventory water resources and eliminate unused water rights.

Husbands was authorized to appoint a subcommittee to help the High Plains Water Conservation and users association obtain a locally administered conservation district for the High Plains irrigation area.

Jackie Lou Mackey Named Crane High School Valedictorian

CRANE—Jackie Lou Mackey has been selected as valedictorian of the 1951 graduating class of the Crane High School. Her grade average was 92.062.

Miss Mackey is a co-editor on the journalism staff and has been a member of the student council the last three years. In the latter organization, she holds the position of secretary. She was chosen the most musical student in her junior and senior years.

President of the speech club this year, Miss Mackey was outstanding in the one-act play "Undertow" entered in the Interscholastic Literary meet in Andrews earlier this month. She was runner-up for second best actress in the district.

Peggy Mobbs, with an average of 90.785, is the class salutatorian.

MAINLY A RUDDER

The beaver uses its broad tail as a rudder, not a trowel. Sometimes mud is transported by being held between the tail, which is turned under and forward, and the underside of the body.

Arthur MacArthur Hobnobs With Ball Club In New York

NEW YORK —(AP)— Thirteen-year-old Arthur MacArthur probably will bat 1.000 with every baseball-minded kid in America—he's been hobnobbing in the dressing room of the World Champion New York Yankees.

The son of the general went to Yankee Stadium Wednesday. Dan Topping, president of the Bronx Bombers, gave Arthur a Yankee cap and took him into the dressing room to meet the players before the Yankee-Athletics game.

The quiet, courteous Arthur lost his shy reserve for a moment after he saw an old friend, Joe DiMaggio. Arthur and Joe had met in Tokyo when DiMaggio and a group of ball players toured the Pacific military bases.

Joe gave the boy an autographed bat.

Arthur's eyes sparkled.

"Gee, for me?" he cried. "Gee, thanks!"

A few days ago, young Arthur hobnobbed with the Giants.

Cattle Association Asks Rate Increase On Brand Inspections

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)— Application by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association for a three-cent increase in the brand inspection fee on cattle at Texas markets will be made to the Packers and Stockyards Administration, it was revealed here Wednesday.

The announcement was made at a meeting of representatives of commission firms operating on the San Antonio Stockyards by Jack Roach, Amarillo, first vice president, and Henry Bell, Fort Worth, secretary of the Cattle Raisers Association.

The proposed increase will be from five to eight cents per head for cattle and calves, Bell said.

He said June 1 had been requested as the date for the new rates.

American Airlines Employes Receive Safety Awards

American Airlines operations personnel in Midland were rewarded Thursday for achieving perfect safety records during 1949 and 1950, it was announced by W. P. McFall, southern region operations director, Fort Worth.

Woody Campbell, Midland operations manager, presented a plaque to Lead Agent W. C. Daniel, representing the ground employes, signifying that Midland operations personnel had completed the last two years without an accident causing injury to persons or damage to equipment.

The award climaxed a safety contest conducted by American Airlines in the 77 cities it serves in the United States, Mexico and Canada.

At the same time, the National Safety Council safe driver award was presented to Ground Service Man T. E. McElligott, who operates American Airlines Ground equipment. He has a record of 10 years without an accident.

District OPS Office Issues Reminder On Food Price Deadline

LUBBOCK — District Office of Price Stabilization officials have issued a reminder of approaching deadlines for firms filing information with the district headquarters.

Saturday, April 28, is the deadline for grocers to report what category they are in, according to Ted Gehring, food price specialist in the district office. Retail stores are grouped, he said, by the volume of gross sales during 1950. The reports must be made to the district office not later than April 28. The district OPS office is in Broadway Building, 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock.

"The grocers have until Monday, April 30, to be in full compliance with price regulations," Gehring said.

The April 30 date is also the deadline for restaurants, soda fountains, and similar groups to file base period food costs per dollar of sales. Those reports should go to the district office.

However, the deadline for filing of price charts by ready-to-wear, department, variety stores, furniture stores and other businesses operating under the Ceiling Price Regulation 7 and its amendments has been extended until May 30. It formerly had been set as April 30. The charts should be sent to the district office. The Lubbock district covers all of Texas west of the eastern boundaries of Terrell, Pecos, Reagan, Glasscock, Howard, Borden, Garza, King, Cottle, Childress, Collingsworth, Wheeler, Hemphill and Lipscomb counties.

Clement Attlee Is Out Of Hospital

LONDON —(AP)— Prime Minister Clement Attlee Thursday left the hospital where he has been under treatment for an ulcer since March 21.

He said he would spend the weekend at his country home, Chequers, and return to work Monday at No. 10 Downing Street, his official residence.

Committee Approves Grain-For-India Plan

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The House Rules Committee has approved a plan to provide famine-stricken India with $190,000,000 worth of American grain on a loan basis.

This measure, agreed to Wednesday, differs from a Senate Foreign Relations Committee plan which would provide half of the grain as a gift and the other half as a loan.

House leaders said the bill will be given top priority for floor debate next week. The Senate may take up its version Friday.

PARTNERS
In A Midland Enterprise

OWNERS . . . WORKERS . . . and USERS of the Midland telephone system are partners in an enterprise to furnish a vital public service . . . They live right here in Midland

MEET THE OWNERS . . .

Nearly a million people own stock in the telephone company and many of them live right here in Midland.

These folks come from all walks of life. Many are women. They own an average of 28 shares per person.

Their savings have been invested in the telephone business because they expect to receive a reasonable and regular return on their money.

AND THE WORKERS . . .

The 250 people who work for the telephone company here are your friends and neighbors.

Their wages and working conditions are good. They have opportunities to progress in the business. Based on years of furnishing service, they get benefits when they're sick and a pension when they retire.

They earn $705,000 a year, most of which they spend with Midland merchants, to live here as good citizens of the community.

AND TELEPHONE USERS . . .

Midland families and businesses use their 9,800 telephones to make 65,200 local calls every 24 hours. That's well above the national average of less than six calls per telephone daily.

Telephone users pay their monthly telephone bills and thus provide revenues to meet the payrolls, to operate the business, and to pay the owners a fair "rental" on their savings which are used to build the telephone system.

IT TAKES telephone owners—telephone employees—telephone users—working together, to create a service which is vital to family and business life in Midland.

Each is dependent on the other. It takes loyal, skillful telephone workers to maintain high service standards. Good service for telephone users depends upon fair rates that will bring in enough money to keep the company financially healthy.

And it takes telephone owners who expect and are entitled to a fair return on their property, to put up more money to build a bigger telephone system for growing Midland.

Bauer Sisters Get Share Of Cash In Sacramento Event

SACRAMENTO, CALIF. —(AP)— Betsy Rawls, in her third tourney as a pro, smashed Babe Didrikson Zaharias' virtual monopoly of the women's golf tour.

Miss Rawls, 22-year-old San Antonio ex-amateur star, raced home in 34 strokes Wednesday to take top money of $225 in the Sacramento Women's Invitational Tourney. She was out in 38 for a 72.

The Babe, who had won five of seven women's tourneys this year, shared second place with 17-year-old Marlene Bauer of Midland, Texas. Each counted 37-37—74 for a $137.50 pickup.

Other pro scores:

With 76's and $116.66 — Betty Jameson, San Antonio; Alice Bauer, Midland, and Louise Suggs, Carrolton, Ga.

With 77 and $100—Patty Berg, Minneapolis.

With 79 and $87.50 — Marilyn Smith, Wichita, Kan., and Betty MacKinnon, Mt. Pleasant, Texas.

Mrs. Jan Wagner, Houston, 88, finished out of the money.

Pitcher Sold To Beaumont Will File Suit Against Club

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jim Prendergast, erstwhile Syracuse pitcher, plans to call baseball into the courts again.

The 33-year-old right-hander, traded to Beaumont of the Texas League, plans to sue Syracuse of the International League for $150,000 damages. He will charge baseball's reserve clause is monopolistic and violates the anti-trust laws.

Prendergast has hired Frederic Johnson, once Danny Gardella's lawyer in a similar suit, to represent him. Johnson will file a complaint in a Utica, N. Y., court "within a few days."

Prendergast received notice Wednesday night of his transfer to Beaumont. It is understood he will not report.

Jacome, Indians Win Fourth Game; Nip Drillers 5-4

Veteran Eddie Jacome twirled the Midland Indians to a 5-4 victory over the Artesia Drillers here Wednesday night, racking up his fourth straight win in Longhorn League play. The rubber-armed righthander weathered a couple of Artesia threats and scattered 10 hits in accounting for the total sum of Midland's 1951 victories.

The win drew Midland into a tie with San Angelo for the loop leadership, and sent the Indians on the road with two straight wins over Artesia. Midland will play in Vernon Thursday and Friday nights, before going to Sweetwater for Saturday night and Sunday tilts.

Lon Dunn, Artesia relief pitcher, made Jacome's fourth game a winning one. Dunn relieved Manuel Lopez—who had pitched a creditable seven-hit contest—at the start of the ninth inning with the tilt tied at 4-4.

He hit Jacome with his first pitch. Melillo then chopped a bounder in front of the plate and Catcher Perez tossed the ball into center field trying to cut down Jacome, who went to third on the error. Melillo dashed into second base. Hayden White then walked to load the bases. Jim Ackers went to first on a fielder's choice, Jacome being erased at home plate, Melillo taking third and White going to second. Then came a fourth ball to Jim Prince as the count ran to 3-2 and Melillo strolled home with the winning run.

Artesia got an early run in the second inning on a hit, an error and a walk. The base on balls—Jacome's first of the year—was intentional, and the run was unearned.

The Indians tied it up in the second as Outfielder Bob Cowsar reached first by error, Catcher Gordon Tanner singled and Shortstop Dick Potak reached first by error, Cowsar scoring.

Four Midland hits in the fourth brought the count to 4-1, as three runs crossed the plate. Second Baseman Melillo started with a single, and after White whiffed, Ackers and Prince got successive hits. Tanner then ripped a triple to drive in the third and fourth tallies.

Driller Manager Stubby Greer brought the count to 4-2 in the fifth with a four bagger over the center field fence.

All was quiet until the top of the eighth when a hit and error made it 4-3, then 4-4 in the ninth when Perez, McDermoutt and Greer got hits, with Perez crossing the plate to tie it up.

But Dunn's wildness in the last of the ninth gave the one-run lead back to Midland and Jacome and it was enough to win.

The two will oppose Midlanders Abe Beckman and Walter Thompson in an 18-hole match. The public will be admitted to the match, as well as guests and members of Ranchland Hill Club. Admission will be charged.

Six All-Americans To Appear At Tech Tilt Friday Night

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Plenty of talent—six All-Americans, in fact—will be exhibited as Texas Tech winds up Spring football training with an intra-squad game Friday night.

Coach DeWitt Weaver won't be able to use any of the all-stars, except indirectly, when he makes his Border Conference debut next Fall. This is the lineup of All-Americans to be presented:

Backs—Army's Glen Davis, Texas Christian's Sammy Baugh, Oklahoma's Jack Mitchell, and Texas' Bobby Layne; Tackle—Oklahoma's Wade Walker; End—Texas' Mal Kutner.

Mitchell and Walker are Tech assistants. Davis, Layne, and Kutner live in Lubbock when not playing professional football, and Baugh, also a pro, ranches at nearby Rotan during the off-season.

Longhorn League—

Tribe Gains Tie For Top

By The Associated Press

A base on balls with the bases loaded in the ninth inning walked the Midland Indians into a two-way tie for the lead in the Longhorn League Wednesday night.

The walk gave the Indians a 5-4 victory over Artesia while the erstwhile leaders, the San Angelo Colts, were losing to Vernon 3-2. In other games, Big Spring trampled Sweetwater 13-3, and Roswell defeated Odessa 11-7.

Lon Dunn, taking the hill for Artesia to start the last of the ninth, walked the first man up, saw the second get a life on an error, hit another, then walked Jim Prince, Midland first baseman, to force in the run that broke a 4-4 tie and gave the Indians the decision.

Eddie Jacome, Midland pitcher, went all the way to scatter ten hits and notch his fourth victory in the last six days and his second in two days.

Vernon scored two runs in the seventh inning then held San Angelo to a lone run in a threatening rally in the eighth to eke out the one-run win that dropped the Colts into the tie for the lead. Calvin Brazier, Vernon rookie pitcher, gave up only five hits in pitching the Dusters to the victory.

Charles Willis pitched one-third of an inning against Roswell but was charged with the loss as the Rockets exploded for five runs in the first and were never in danger. Odessa rallied for four runs in the last of the ninth after two were away but had it cut short with two men on base.

Big Spring rattled the fences for 20 hits in subduing the Sweetwater Swatters 13-3. The Broncs got six runs in the first inning on seven hits, and added four more in the second on five hits. Paul Sanchez pitched nine-hit ball for the Broncs and never was in trouble.

Long-Ball Hitters Keep San Antonio's Missions Up Front

By The Associated Press

San Antonio's Missions roll along at the head of the Texas League because they are the boys who strike like lightning when the chips are down—with long hits that break up ball games in a flash.

Wednesday night was a good example. The Missions were behind 2-1 with Beaumont when Austin Knickerbocker, bought during the Winter from Baltimore with the idea of adding power to the attack, parked one to tie the score. Then in the ninth Darrell Johnson followed suit with two out and there was the game.

San Antonio won 3-2 with only five hits but three of them were for extra bases.

Knickerbocker now has five home runs for the season.

Houston also won by one run but had to go fourteen innings to do it. Pete Lewis' long fly which scored Ben Steiner from third decided the issue as the Buffs nosed out Shreveport 5-4.

Fort Worth whipped Oklahoma City 7-5 by shoving over five runs in the fifth. Glenn Mickens notched his third pitching triumph of the year but wasn't around at the finish. He got into serious trouble in the eighth, when Oklahoma City scored two runs, and had to be relieved by Rene Solis.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Rookie Pitches Weary Old Men To Top Of Heap

By The Associated Press

This was the year the weary old St. Louis Cardinals were going to finish deep in the second division of the National League.

That was the prediction made early this Spring.

And the New York Giants were the center of much pennant talk. But the picture is all wrong right now.

Tom Poholsky threw a two-hitter at the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday to pitch the St. Louis Cards to a 4-0 victory and first place in the race. The New York Giants dropped to the cellar with a 2-1 loss to Philadelphia, their seventh straight defeat.

In other National League games, Boston came from behind in the ninth inning to beat Brooklyn 6-5, and Cincinnati edged Chicago 3-2.

In the American League, Spec Shea pitched the New York Yankees to a four-hit, 4-0 shutout victory over the Philadelphia Athletics while Chicago and St. Louis were splitting a doubleheader. Chicago won the first game 8-6 but lost the second 7-4.

Washington at Boston was postponed and Detroit and Cleveland were not scheduled.

King's Row

By LARRY KING

With the baseball goings-on at Indian Park lately, we haven't been able to see much of the Spring training at MHS, but the reports we get from there are cheering.

Coach Tugboat Jones is rather pleased with the workouts thus far, even though the real work is just beginning to get underway.

—KR—

It seems the Bulldogs will have more overall speed in '51 than last year. Jones himself says: "If we can get this bunch to block like last year's team did, we ought to be better."

That's understandable. Last year the Midland eleven had to grind out touchdowns the hard way, getting a few yards at a whack when speed would have had them long gone. Next year, it should be different.

"Our offensive attack will be more colorful than last year." Jones said, "as we'll throw the ball more and be able to get away with some razzle-dazzle."

Right now, 145-pound M. A. Rose, up from the "B" team, looks like a future star. Rose is fairly speedy, and what's more he's the smartest runner Midland has come up with in some time. By that we mean he knows when and where and how to cut to pick up his interference and receives the maximum benefit from blocking.

—KR—

Audrey Gill is cheered by line prospects, too. The MHS mentor will have more material with which to forge a forward wall than at any other time. What's more, the team is due to be even heavier than the "Giants of '50"—and that oughta spell trouble for someone.

Red Rutledge admits his ends "could be better" but he has a pair of fine prospects in addition to Jim Linebarger, who saw a lot of action last year, and the situation isn't desperate.

We Get Football Fever

DOTS AND DASHES: We — and scribes throughout West Texas—erred by 10 seconds on the winning time in the mile relay event at the Region I meet held in Lubbock last weekend . . . We reported 3:39.6—as did other papers, when the time actually was a blazing 3:29.6. That was by far the best time in state competition this year . . . Odessa was first, with Midland only two yards back . . . "B" Coach Keith Bobo is boasting about his seven-pound, four-ounce son born recently, tagged Keith Leon Bobo, Jr. . . . "A future back," grins Papa Bobo . . . If Roy Kimsey, the blond comet speedster at Midland High can get a bit more "salty" he should be quite a wingback for Tugboat Jones' 1951 Bulldogs . . . Kimsey is to run the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes at the state track and field meet in Austin next weekend . . . Jim Ackers, Midland center fielder, wants to look good against Big Spring . . . Ackers worked out under Pat Stasey earlier in the year but failed to impress the baseball-wise Big Spring boss . . . He's going great guns here for Harold Webb . . . Rick Spings' decision to attend Texas Tech may take several Kermit High School stars to the Lubbock school, we hear . . . Some of 'em wanta follow their leader, the great Rick . . .

Crestview Heights

There are four main reasons why so many people in recent months have become owners of new homes in Crestview Heights.

(1) DESIGN. A wide choice of designs are offered, each different, each beautiful.

(2) FEATURES. You'll find many EXCLUSIVE features in your Crestview home.

(3) QUALITY. All materials are double-checked to assure you of the best possible home.

(4) PRICE. Low prices, with moderate down payments and liberal terms on the balance.

Advertisers Invest All-Time High Total In Newspaper Space

NEW YORK —(AP)— National advertisers invested an all-time high of $499,019,000 in newspaper space in 1950.

The total represented a 12.1 per cent dollar gain over 1949.

The grocery industry again topped the list with an expenditure of $123,354,000.

The figures were reported Wednesday by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, which is holding its annual convention.

Burns Prove Fatal To Invalid Woman

DALLAS — (AP) — Mrs. Emma Marsden, 68-year-old occupant of a convalescent home here, died Wednesday two and a half hours after her doctor and nurse found her bed blazing.

Homicide Detective Lt. P. B. Leach said the bed had been soaked in alcohol and ignited. He said an investigation revealed that Mrs. Marsden was suffering from an incurable bone disease.

Truman Approves Free GI Insurance

WASHINGTON —(AP)— All U. S. military personnel in service since the start of the Korean war are to receive free $10,000 in life insurance.

Families of those killed in the conflict will receive benefits payable for 120 months at $92.90 per month.

A bill providing the new insurance was signed into law Wednesday by President Truman.

Five FBI Agents Added To Faculty Of Police School Here

A quintet of Federal Bureau of Investigation agents have joined the faculty for the two-week police training school which opens here Monday, Police Chief Jack Ellington announced Thursday.

The police chief outlined the program for the school, which will be attended by all members of the Midland police force.

The school is being sponsored by Ellington and Col. Milan N. Plavsic, director of the department of public safety.

The G-men who will take part in the school are D. K. Brown, agent-in-charge of the El Paso office of the FBI; James W. Shepard and John F. Hay, special agents, of El Paso, and Roy Dahl and William B. Ahders, special agents, of Midland.

In addition, Ellington said, instructors will be sent here from the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Incoming Shipments By Rail Are Double April, 1950, Figure

When incoming rail shipments to a city reaches something like 1,000 cars a month and outgoing shipments are practically nil, it's obvious that a real growth is taking place.

This especially is true when the inbound shipments are almost exclusively building materials and oil well supplies—as is the case in Midland.

More than 765 carloads of these materials arrived at the Midland station of the Texas and Pacific Railway last month, and an estimated 1,000 cars of the same type materials are expected during April by the station agent, D. Davis.

Davis said the number of carloads arriving in Midland so far in April have doubled the number of cars arriving during the same period last year.

"Only outbound shipments we have to speak of," said Davis, "are cattle now and then."

Outbound shipments were high during the war, however, when day after day three trainloads of crude oil were rolled out of Midland for points all over the world.

This oil now is carried by pipe line.

The Midland agent estimated that he sells more passenger tickets than the agents do in cities of comparable size—and they're round trip tickets, too, he adds.

Chinese Reds Bomb, Bayonet Wounded, Says American GI

WESTERN FRONT, Korea—(AP)—An Army medical soldier Thursday said the Chinese Reds tossed hand grenades into loaded U. S. ambulances and bayoneted wounded at the start of the Communist offensive Sunday night.

"They used phosphorous grenades," said the medic, Cpl. Kenneth Bottoms of Plattville, Wis.

He and other medics had taken ambulances to a point a mile south of the Imjin River, where an infantry regiment was in action.

The Chinese attacked.

"It was a moonlight night," Bottoms said. "I could see them swarming down the hills in groups of 200 to 300.

"Then they got near enough to lob hand grenades into ambulances containing wounded. I saw them bayonet and shoot some wounded on the ground. We were surrounded."

Bottoms escaped to an open field. He lay flat on the ground, pretending he was dead, when the Chinese passed close to him.

"My only thought was of my wife, Rose Marie, and my little daughters, Linda Ann and Mary Lee," he said. "I thought I would never see them again."

But Allied tanks stormed through to the regiment's aid.

Bottoms saw them and called out to a tank crewman: "I am a GI." The tank rescued him.

Truman Party Gets Applause, Not Boos

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President and Mrs. Truman attended a premiere showing of the movie "Fighting Coast Guard" at a Washington theater Wednesday night.

At his last previous public appearance, at a baseball game, Truman was booed. But Wednesday night, there was only applause as he and his party entered the theater and when they left.

Carved in stone at Mount Rushmore in South Dakota are the faces of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln.

Survivors Of Men Killed In Tanker Crash File Suits

HOUSTON —(AP)— The survivors of two men who died in the Esso Greensboro collision are asking damages totaling $600,000 from the Esso Shipping Corporation and the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey).

The petitions alleged negligence.

The Greensboro and the Esso Suez collided, then burst into flames, in the Gulf last Friday. A total of 39 died, most of them on the Greensboro.

The damage suits were filed Wednesday.

David Smith, brother of James S. Smith, 27, ordinary seaman, is asking $250,000 for himself and a sister, Mrs. Jeannette Overman. The seaman was a resident of Baytown.

A $350,000 suit was filed by Mrs. Sadie E. Huff, widow of James E. Huff, an oiler and wiper, from Aransas Pass.

Optimists Leave For Fort Worth Friday

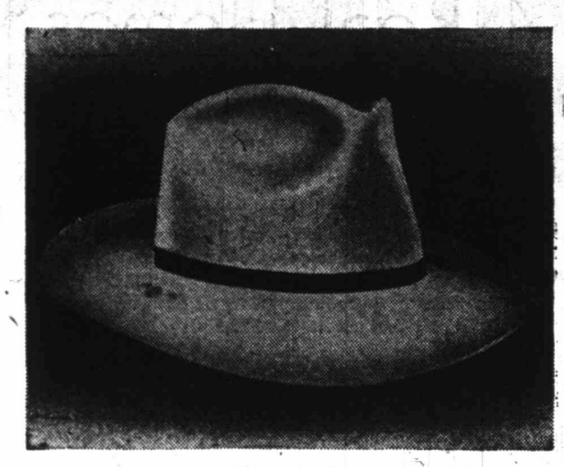

Several members of the Midland Optimist Club plan to attend the district convention this weekend in Fort Worth.

The group plans to leave Friday. Among those who announced their intentions of attending the convention are Emil Rassman, president, John Grimland, Nub Jones, Ted Witte, Bill Aiken and George Park.

Youth Center Chatter

By Joyce Howell and Gail Baker

Are you hot? Tired? Ready for school to end? You must have Spring fever! Almost everyone is counting the days until the swimming pools will open for the Summer and the time when we will be able to breath a deep sigh of relief because there are no more tests.

Betty Sivalls is getting to take a nice little vacation this weekend. Betty is going to Dallas with her voice teacher to see two operas. She will be back by Monday. Hope you have a swell time, Betty!

Loud shirts and blouses again are in style (we just wonder if they ever went out of style!) We saw Bob Peters and Charlie Worthen in pretty chartreuse shirts Monday. Carolynn Curd also turned up in a cool-looking, sleeveless chartreuse blouse.

Some people are just so energetic. Judy Edwards cut a long gash in her leg last weekend while playing tennis. Say, Judy, wasn't that just over-doing things a little?

Band Concert Slated

Friday night the MHS Band will present its annual Spring Concert. Among the selections on the program are the numbers played in contest this year. Alan Harris, who earned a one-plus rating, (the only one-plus given, so far as we know) also will play a saxaphone solo. This really is going to be a good program from all the reports we've had, and we hope to see you in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the door, and the proceeds will help pay for the new band jackets.

This is to be the last participation in band events in Midland for 26 seniors and Band Director Jerry Hoffman. Mr. Hoffman is retiring from band directing this Spring.

Some of our readers probably remember the former Ann Brown of Big Spring and Midland, who married Don Deel, an ex-Youth Center member. Our congratulations go to them on the birth of a son born last Monday.

We saw another former MHS student last week when the Texas Western College Choir sang for the high school assembly. Billie Jean Stepp now is attending T.W.C.

Congratulations

Once again our congratulations go to June Hazlip. Mrs. Pat Douglas, June's next-door-neighbor, told us that out of the 600 girls in her class, June has been elected class secretary for next year. June is a freshman student at Texas State College for Women in Denton. It seems as though we have scared June—the only way we can find out about her accomplishments is through her neighbors and friends!

Marilynn Dunagan and Evelynn Hubbard had a very nice time last weekend. They attended the Carnival of the Flowers in San Antonio with Evelynn's parents.

It seems as though some people really do like to work. Preston Conner, who returned from Hardin-Simmons at mid-term, now is the administrative assistant in the Midland National Guard unit. He recently was promoted to corporal. He has a part-time job at Piggly-Wiggly No. 2, after he gets off duty at National Guard headquarters.

Well, the mumps finally released one of our YC members from its clutches! Russell Rutledge is back roaming through the halls of Midland High School. Glad to see you back, Rusty!.

Last week we had the PER-OXIDE BLUES; this week we have LITTLE WHITE LIES—most of the girls, including Dona Ingham and Lynn Griffith, claim their hair "just naturally turned over night"! Un huh!!

Last Thursday we forgot to mention the annual DE banquet, which was held April 19. From what we heard it was very nice. The DE members brought their employers to this banquet.

Friday morning Jack Tabor told us he, Jimmy Lock, and Yates Brown sang at the banquet. We didn't know they were so "talented," but they say they are! What about it, boys?

Last Saturday marked the day for the Regional Meet in Lubbock. Among those who went to the meet, Royce Measures came home with a second place in extemporaneous speaking, and Bill Robitsek won first place in Junior Boys' declamation.

The golf team won first place. (We heard a bunch of our Lubbock friends say Midland has the best golf team in the state, and probably will win first in state.

W. H. Black also won first in the pole vaulting contest. Our congratulations go to all these folks who placed in these meets.

Tuesday afternoon we saw an ex-member of the Midland Youth Center. This "ex" is Bobby Foster. Bobby lives at Terminal; last year he went to Midland High; this year he goes to Odessa High School.

Next Wednesday the juniors will order their 1952 class rings. Many of the juniors are glad the "longed-for year" finally is approaching.

While in Lubbock Saturday night, we saw one of our 'ole faithful Youth Center members—Ann Armontrout. Ann moved to Lubbock last Summer, and we surely were glad to see her.

Are you still hot? Tired? Ready for school to end? Well, run take a real cold shower and a nap; then get up and eat and go back to bed. You're sure to feel fine! You'll hear from us again next week—'bye, 'bye! See ya then!

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Pearl Callaway, Southeast Lynn County wildcat, is plugging to abandon after making salt water on a swabbing test in the lower Spraberry.

Total depth is 6,762 feet in Spraberry.

Location was 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 6, block 10, EL&RR survey and two and one-quarter miles southwest of the O'Donnell field. That made it nine miles southeast of Skeen.

Tex-Harvey To Get Five New Projects

Five locations, including a one-mile southwest stepout to production, have been staked in the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland and Central-West Glasscock Counties.

The stepout is Glendale Oil Corporation of Fort Worth No. 1-21 Floyd Estate. Drillsite is 666.3 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 21, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey, and in Midland County.

A. N. Hendrickson will drill his No. 1-A Paul K. Jones one location south of York & Harper, Inc., No. 1 Jones, recently completed as a one mile south extension to the field in Midland County.

Drillsite is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 31, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey.

On Glasscock Side

On the Glasscock side of the field, Fred M. Allison Production Company will drill No. 1 Limpia Royalties as a two-location offset to the same operator's No. 2 Judkins-Walton, recently completed long stepout to the south extension of the Tex-Harvey field.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 43, block 36, T-3-S, T&P sruvey.

In the undeveloped area between Allison No. 2 Judkins-Walton and the field proper, Sun Oil Company staked location for its No. 3 and No. 4 Mrs. W. A. Hutchison.

No. 3 will be dug 660 feet from south and east lines of section 42, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey.

No. 4 will be drilled 660 feet from north and east lines of section 42, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey.

All five of the above explorations are to be drilled to test for production in the regular Spraberry pay of the Tex-Harvey field.

Midland Tex-Harvey Gets Two Oil Wells

In the extreme north edge of the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County, Olsan Brothers, Inc., No. 8 Leach has been finaled for a daily flowing potential of 216 barrels of 37-gravity oil per day.

Flow on the final test was through a one-half-inch tubing choke. No water was made. Gas-oil ratio was 100-1. Pay was topped at 7,100 feet and total depth is 7,155 feet. Operator set five and one-half-inch oil string at 7,100 feet.

Location is 659.6 feet from east and 1,986 feet from south lines of section 3, block 37, T&P survey.

Inside production in the field, E. E. Fogelson and Edwin W. Pauley completed their No. 4-12 K. S. Boone for a daily flowing potential of 512.84 barrels of 37-gravity oil and no water.

The potential test was made through a one-half-inch choke.

It was completed from open hole at 7,012-7,080 feet.

C-S Borden Tester Is Quit In Pennsylvanian

The Texas Company has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 L. D. Rodgers, Central-South Borden County wildcat, on total depth of 8,110 feet in the Pennsylvanian.

Operator took a drillstem test from 8,086 feet to 8,110 feet. Tool was open three hours. Recovery was 310 feet of drilling mud and 3,143 feet of salt water.

Location was 330 feet from north and 1,645 feet from east lines of section 29, block 31, T-3-N, T&P survey. That made it one-half mile north of a failure in the Pennsylvanian drilled by Castleman & O'Neill.

SE Ector Venture Plugged, Abandoned

Union Oil Company of California No. 5 H. S. Foster, wildcat in Southeast Ector County has plugged back from 10,416 feet in the Pennsylvanian to 4,630 feet in the San Andres.

Casing has been cemented at 4,706 feet. Operator is to perforate casing, test and try to complete.

The test is inside the shallow South Cowden field but was drilled as a wildcat to test the Pennsylvanian. The San Andres is the regular pay of the field.

There were no shows of production in the Pennsylvanian.

No. 8 Foster is 1,320 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 7, block 49, T-3-S, T&P survey. That puts it five and one-half miles southwest of Odessa.

Ellenburger Wildcat In Tom Green Is Dry

Aurora Gasoline Company has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 R. Wilbur Brown, Jr., Northwest Tom Green County wildcat, after recovering 300 feet of salty mud and 180 feet of salt water on a drillstem test from 6,703 to 6,796 feet in the Ellenburger.

Tool was open two and three-quarter hours. Total depth of the project by Schlumberger is 6,796 feet.

There were no shows of oil in the Ellenburger. Top of that formation was called by some geologists at 6,568 feet. Elevation was 1,971 feet.

Location was 2,255.9 feet from southwest and 467 feet from southeast lines of G. Hild survey No. 208 and 10 miles northwest of San Angelo.

Cash-Carry Dairy Features Economy

BELLEVILLE, ONT. — (AP) — A "cash and carry" dairy where milk will be sold at four to five cents less than prevailing prices is being started here as an experiment. Sixty-year-old George Graham will sell milk at 15 to 18 cents a quart. The regular price here is 20 to 22 cents.

"Milk is a vital food, particularly for children, yet many people can't afford it at the present prices," says Graham, a farmer, rancher and businessman. He has been in the dairy business for 25 years and owns a herd of 260 Jersey and Ayrshire cows.

For an economical party dish add diced cooked chicken and cooked or canned peas to thin spaghetti that's been mixed with a cream sauce. Serve with Parmesan cheese.

Midland Boy Scouts To Attend Buffalo Trail Council Meet

More than 100 Midland Boy Scouts are looking forward to the opening Thursday of the annual Roundup of the Buffalo Trail Council in Big Spring.

Planning to attend from here are E. L. Patterson and the First Baptist Church Troop; O. F. Hedrick and First Methodist Church Troop; Bob Senning and the Episcopal Church Troop; Don Beaudry, and the Knights of Columbus Troop, and Newell Hughes and the Terminal Troop.

"There may be others planning to go" said Scout Executive P. V. Thorson "but their names are not immediately available."

Midland Scouts are prepared to enter in the contest events which include water boiling, signaling, pony express, compass, Scout law relay, knot tying, target archery, chariot race and string burning.

The Scouts will leave here Thursday and return after a big round-up barbecue Saturday at noon.

It will be the first councilwide event the Midland scouts have attended since the bivouac at the Buffalo Trail Scout Ranch last month.

Space Ships Seen In The Near Future

CANBERRA —(AP)— Dr. David F. Martyn, an Australian scientist, says some of us may be here when robot space ships are flying round the moon. He told a reporter, however, it was highly improbable that scientists would ever land on the moon.

Dr. Martyn recently returned from the United States where he consulted with U. S. Air Force officers on atmospheric problems. He is chief scientist of the Radio Research Board of the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization. He also predicted that "in our time" artificial "space stations" would circle the globe, recording by radio valuable information for scientists on earth.

"This is not idle speculation," the scientist said. "It is something to which scientists in America are giving serious consideration. A great deal of the work they are doing is highly secret. I doubt whether it has anything to do with the flying saucers people have reported."

SLOWED IT DOWN

The U. S. Census Bureau calculated that the Civil War reduced the rate of population increase between 1860 and 1870 by 2,515,000 persons, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

BATHTUBS VS. CARS

The United States contains fewer bathtubs than automobiles. Ratio is one bathtub for each six persons and one automobile for every four persons.

FUNNY BUSINESS

"He's a smart dog—figures he doesn't get so tired with a shorter wheelbase!"

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Black Knight

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was standing beneath the very tall tree with his monkey house in the top. He was standing there close by the Elephant Path. He was waiting while the Black Knight came closer and closer on his great white horse.

Well, Daddy Ringtail could see that the horse was white all over. He could see that the rider was dressed in a suit of armor of the kind that was worn by a Knight of Old. The armor was black, and so Daddy Ringtail was supposed that the man was a Black Knight. Daddy Ringtail waited.

The horse picked his weary way ever closer and closer. How tired he seemed. And now Daddy Ringtail could see the rider in the shining armor of black was really an old, old man. Oh, but his face was a kindly face, even though it had a look of sadness upon it.

"My name is Daddy Ringtail," said Daddy Ringtail.

"Whoa!" said the stranger, and the white horse whoaed. The knight looked down with sad, sad eyes. Said he: "I come from a far away land of the long ago. I have much farther yet to ride, but Daddy Ringtail, I can stop for any act of kindness that maybe you need to have done."

Daddy Ringtail thanked the Black Knight, but no, there were no act of kindness needing to be done at the moment. No, because the Black Knight now should be thinking of himself, Daddy Ringtail told him. He needed to rest.

The Black Knight smiled to hear the words. Thank you, but he couldn't stop to rest. Why, he had to find a dragon with its dragon breath of fire and smoke. Yes, and surely in the dragon's castle, he would find a beautiful princess who was waiting for him to set her free. When once he had set the princess free, then he would be a hero. When at last he was a hero, then he could rest, but not before.

"You poor man," said Daddy Ringtail. "There aren't any dragons really, except in story books."

"I know," said the Black Knight, "and that's why I have such a problem." And so the white horse walked slowly away with the Black Knight, poor fellow. Poor, stupid, stupid fellow, always and always hoping to find a something that isn't. Happy day!

Champ Calf Ropers Meet In Big Spring

BIG SPRING—Two world's champions will meet in Big Spring Friday night. They are Toots Mansfield and Jess Goodspeed, both of whom have annexed the National RCA Calf Roping title more than once.

Mansfield, Big Spring, and Goodspeed, Waurika, Okla., are featured in a special 12-calf roping contest in the new concrete rodeo bowl at Big Spring. In a 1947 contest, Mansfield, seven times world champion, defeated Goodspeed by a few seconds total time on 12 calves. Goodspeed has annexed the world's title twice.

The program, which also includes open jack pot roping, is sponsored by the Big Spring Rodeo Association sponsor of the Big Spring Rodeo the last 18 years.

Handicapped Children Get Special Training

NEW YORK —(AP)— There are about 1,400 children in New York City schools who must use special educational facilities because their sight is so poor that they cannot read ordinary textbooks.

However, these partially sighted children are not segregated in special classes for the entire school day, Mrs. Dorothea di Pretoro, head of New York City's Bureau for Education of Visually Handicapped, says. Partially seeing children are separated from their normal-sighted school mates only when they must do close work with their eyes.

Idea Born In Emperor's Kitchen Now Thriving New York Casserole Business

By GAIL DUGAS
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—Manhattan is filled with people who don't like to eat in restaurants, who don't like to cook and who do not have domestic help. At a glance, you'd think they were all starving. Thanks to one man, Karl Virag, they're not.

As Karl of Casserole Kitchen, he delivers to their doors, in a basket, a casserole dinner, complete from soup to dessert. It's gourmet cookery, too. A typical dinner might be clear green turtle soup, ham Imperial, brussels sprouts aux marrons, salad melange with Karl's own dressing, and Vienna chocolate cake. The bill for such a dinner is half the price of a comparable meal served in a restaurant.

Turning a kitchen into a thriving business was an idea born in Karl's brain years ago, when he worked in the kitchen of Emperor Franz Josef of Austria. But he didn't put the idea into actual practice until 1944. By that time, he'd had New York experience at Louis Sherry's, Churchhill's and Jack and Charlie's "21."

Since that time, he has gained as steady customers most of the theatrical names in New York. These are people who don't like restaurant food every night, who appreciate good food but who can't, because they travel a great deal, keep a regular cook. Among his regular customers are Irving Berlin, Dorothy Parker, Ralph Bellamy, Helen Hayes, Leopold Stokowski and Patricia Morison.

Often, people assume that Casserole Kitchen is a restaurant with a delivery service. It is not. It's really just what the name implies, a big kitchen where hundreds of casserole dinners are prepared daily. When the place first opened, well-meaning friends would arrive in dinner dress, ready to help Karl's new enterprise along. He always sent them home with a basket of his casserole dinners. Usually they came back again.

Karl Virag, culinary expert, caters to public tastes with complete casserole dinners delivered to the door. Here, he checks basket.

The menu is different each day and lists 10 or more entrees, which is more than even a good restaurant usually can boast. His culinary experience in Europe (the Trianon in Paris, the Savoy in London) has made an expert of Karl. It's also made him set very high standards for the food that goes out of his kitchen.

A short, rotund man with a shock of black hair and heavy horn-rimmed glasses, Karl is inclined to regard the casseroles in his kitchen as his business partners. He has some 10,000 of them (all covered by deposits) scattered about in home throughout Manhattan. They're like the milk bottles that accumulate in the pantry.

But Karl doesn't mind. The casseroles serve as a tempting reminder of Karl's good food and, thus, act as salesmen.

Lake Colorado, Which Opens May 1, Due To Be West Texas' Best Fishing Resort

COLORADO CITY—One of the largest fishing resorts in West Texas will be opened here May 1. The new resort will be known as Lakecrest Anglers Club, and is open to all fishermen who want to become members. It easily is the largest area of water within easy driving distance of Midland.

W. W. Porter, who leased the section of land from Mr. and Mrs. Clay Mann, said the purpose of the Lakecrest Club is "to provide suitable facilities for its members to use the recreational facilities of Lake Colorado." Club members and their families will be entitled to the exclusive use of the picnic grounds, fishing docks and other club facilities.

Each member will have the right to invite 12 guests per year to the club, provided the members accompany their guests upon the premises. No hunting or use of firearms on the premises will be allowed, Porter has announced. Neither will dogs nor horses be taken on the club property.

Recently the Colorado City City Council set a fixed rate of 25 cents per day or $5.00 per year as a fee for all fishermen at the Colorado Lake. The same price applies to out-of-county residents as it does to Mitchell County residents.

Senator Pat Bullock of Colorado City may be thanked for the early opening of the 76-mile shoreline resort. Originally scheduled to open July 1, the date was changed to May 1 when 188 citizens of Colorado City signed a petition to move the date forward two months. Bullock saw to it that the new date received quick action.

Midland Post Office Reports Record For Outgoing Air Mail

Total pounds of air mail leaving the Midland Post Office reached a new high during March and prospects are bright that still a greater increase will be shown in the record for April.

Postmaster Noel G. Oates has released figures showing increased activity in all departments of the Post Office. The Midland post office in March dispatched 4,835 pounds of air mail as compared with 4,260 pounds for the previous month.

Oates said the hike in airmail was due largely to increased mailing by the major oil companies.

Post Office receipts during March, 1951, increased more than 23 per cent over the same period last year.

The postmaster believes the receipts are higher in Midland than any city of comparable size in Texas. "We topped Odessa by more than $20,000 in annual postal business last year and led Laredo by more than $80,000 in receipts," he said.

Far From Doubling

San Angelo, which has a population about twice that of Midland, is far from doubling the local office in postal business.

For the entire first quarter of 1951, receipts totaled $87,376.94, an increase of $14,935.18 over the figure for the same first quarter in 1950.

Growth of postal service here is shown in a comparison of receipts for a 10 year period. In 1940, receipts totaled $76,953.17. Last year the figure zoomed to an unprecedented $310,896.02.

According to Oates, the number of employes at the Midland office increased from 19 in 1940 to more than 72 in 1950. The population of Midland during this same period increased from 9,452 in 1940, to 21,600 in 1950.

Benjamin Franklin was the fifteenth in a family of 17 children.

Nervous, Run Down Housewife Now Sings at Her Work

HADACOL Relieves Fatigue and Nervousness When Caused by a Lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron

It's not easy to get your housework done, be pleasant, when every little noise grates on your nerves. By the end of the day you're so tired, frazzled, and at your wit's end, life seems hardly worthwhile. This is just what happened to Mrs. C. M. Moody, 940 Hinton Street, Petersburg, Virginia. She'd heard about HADACOL, however, heard how it could help nervousness, when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron. She decided to try this wonderful formula and see if it could give her the same help it had so many other folks she knew. The results of this test speak for themselves. Won't you let her tell you about it in her own words?

She says: "I was so nervous and rundown, could not stand the least noise. So, I tried HADACOL, and, after my first large bottle, I am lots better. Thanks to HADACOL I can now sing at my work. I cannot praise HADACOL enough and you bet I recommend HADACOL to all my friends and neighbors. You may use my letter if you like. I will be truly thankful if my letter helps someone else. So, thanks to HADACOL I am feeling fine."

That's how the story goes, over and over again from honest, sincere folks like Mrs. Moody. You just can't doubt what you hear and read about so often. So if you are subject to nervousness, fatigue, that run down feeling, when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help.

For it is just such deficiencies that HADACOL has been especially compounded to overcome. These vital elements, plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, are in a special liquid form already dissolved, for quick, sure absorption in your system.

Try it today... you, too, will be saying that only HADACOL gives you the "Wonderful Hadacol Feeling!" You don't risk a penny to find out what it can do for you, because HADACOL is covered by a strict money-back guarantee. Recommended by many doctors, too. At your druggist: Only $1.25 for the trial size; only $3.50 for the large economy family size.

FINE MILL WORK—The Midland Planing Mill, 415 South Baird Street, has been doing fine mill work for Midlanders since 1947. Specializing in general mill work, the firm has turned out many large fixture jobs for business houses in addition to cabinets, built-ins and other fine work in many Midland residences. F. L. Key is the owner. The telephone number is 2930.

Heath Plumbing Firm Offers Finest In Service, Products

The Heath Plumbing Company, 119 North Weatherford Street, performs commercial and residential contract work and all types of plumbing repairs, in addition to handling nationally - advertised brands of plumbing fixtures, Gibson electric ranges and refrigerators, Chambers gas ranges, Blackstone laundries, Rheem water softeners, and Vent-a-Hood and Ranger kitchen ventilators.

T. S. Heath is the owner of the firm which was opened in Midland about three years ago.

The Heath Plumbing Company's primary purpose is to offer the finest in both service and product. No job is too large or too small to handle as the firm has highly-skilled men, proper tools and modern equipment to do all types of plumbing work from home repairs to commercial and residential contract work.

These, in conjunction with the best materials, assure the customer of satisfactory work.

Guarantees Cited

The Gibson electric ranges and refrigerators have a five-year warranty. Chambers gas ranges, which are among America's finest, have a 25-year guarantee on ovens and burners. Rheem water softeners carry a 10-year warranty.

The Chambers ranges come in seven decorators colors, and cooks on retained heat, which means for every hour of oven cooking, you burn the gas but 10 minutes.

If you prefer an electric range, Heath recommends a Gibson with its seven cooking speeds, push-button selector switches, ups-a-daisy well, and a timer which will cook a meal while you're away from home. The Gibson refrigerator comes in all family sizes, from seven to 11 cubic feet. There are models with cold, running water, pres-toe door openers and closers and many other features. Before you buy, see the Chambers gas ranges and Gibson electric appliances at Heath's.

The Monroe Doctrine was announced in President James Monroe's message to Congress on Dec. 2, 1823.

Mid-West Lumber Company Offers One-Stop Service

The Mid-West Lumber Company, which provides one-stop service for quality building materials, also will contract to build residential and commercial structures, and the firm's experts will give estimates gladly and with no obligation.

The Mid-West has a policy of stocking the finest merchandise and the latest items in all builders' lines. Recently the concern accepted the agency for DeWalt saws, which are among the finest manufactured.

Repairing and rebuilding are two other specialties of the Mid-West Lumber Company. Joe B. Wright is the manager.

The firm is located at 1302 West North Front Street. The telephone number is 1106.

Insulation Suggested

Wright suggests insulation of your home now, if it does not already have this indispensable item. Insulation will keep out the Summer heat and cut down on the cost of operating air conditioning equipment.

You are invited to ask for estimates on rock wool insulation.

No job is too minor for the Mid-West Lumber Company's expert attention, careful planning and thoroughness of construction.

An attempt is made to keep the Mid-West stock complete at all times, thus preventing the necessity of making more than one stop for building necessities and builders' supplies and equipment.

The firm solicits your business and requests that you get its estimates before going into that next job of construction or repair.

CZECH PUPILS SLIPPING

PRAGUE —(AP)— One out of every 20 pupils fails in the schools of Bohemia and Moravia, the Czechoslovak News Agency said in reporting a school inspectors' conference here. So teachers are being urged to improve their work "according to the example of Soviet pedagogues," it said.

Southern Ice Company Ready For Summer

Gone are the days when the handling of ice was considered a bother, and the convenient dock service provided by the Southern Ice Company is final proof of this fact.

There is no waiting for your order at the Southern Ice Company. Simply signal the attendant the amount desired and by the time you are parked at the dock side he will have the correct piece ready to set off into your auto.

A chart is in full view of the motorist, giving the signals for various amounts.

Everything is in readiness for the Summer season at the Southern Ice Company and you are invited to try the firm's service for picnic occasions, home parties and other special events.

Crushed ice in convenient-sized packages removes all necessity of having to chip the ice and you will be surprised at the small cost of a liberal-sized package of this indispensable Summer item.

Quick Service Provided

The plant's policy of quick service and accurate weights has won for it many customers, and its docks were constructed for the greatest convenience to the customer.

Many housewives have found that crushed ice is the perfect answer to desserts, for picnics and many other uses. The Southern Ice Company suggests you try it in this handy form.

The Southern Ice Company anticipates a record business this Summer, but is equipped to give rapid service and is ready to meet any demands in volume.

With MacArthur Out, U.S. Must Guard Against Inspiring New Red Moves In Asia

By LEON DENNEN

WASHINGTON —(NEA)—Having dismissed General Mac Arthur, American military and policy-making officials must now guard lest Moscow be encouraged to launch a new series of limited aggressions in Asia.

Formosa, Indo-China, Hong Kong, Thailand, Malaya and Burma may become active fronts for Soviet-sponsored revolutionary "liberation," according to information supplied to Allied intelligence by reliable sources.

MacArthur is well aware that Stalin has always favored bringing the revolution first to the "oppressed colonial countries" of Asia. The entire ideological struggle between Stalin and Leon Trotsky centered on the question whether Asia or the West was ripest for Communist conquest.

The Russians saw MacArthur as a symbol of the view that Russia should be checked in the Far East. Thus his removal is seen as a possible incitement of Russia to Spring aggressions—just as our announced policy of non-defense in Korea tripped off the aggression by North Korea last June.

Trotsky Loses Out

Trotsky favored concentrating Communist efforts in Europe. He lost out and was subsequently assassinated by a Soviet agent in his Mexican exile. But Stalin, following in the footsteps of his master, Lenin, was always of the view that a revolution can be successful only in countries where "the links in the capitalist chain were the weakest." This would apply to the underdeveloped Asian countries.

Pre-revolutionary czarist policy, too, always was based on the principle that in order for Russia to defeat the Western Powers in Europe they must first be weakened or defeated in Asia. Stalin is thus carrying on where the czars left off.

A large part of Russia's heavy industry (including atomic plants) and the Red Army's best troops are known to have been concentrated for a long time in the East. Even during the war with Germany, Stalin kept his best-trained and best-equipped division on the border of Manchuria. It was the crack Far Eastern troops of the Red Army, hastily transported to European Russia, that finally licked the Germans at Stalingrad.

According to reports passed on to me by satellite diplomats in Europe last year, Soviet policy, known as the "Molotov Plan," gives priority to Asia as a potential theater of aggressive Communist expansion.

After relinquishing his post as foreign minister, Vyacheslav Molotov is believed to have taken charge of Asian affairs. Together with Marshall Bulganin, another influential member of the Politburo, he has since been engaged in the formation of a vast Eurasian military and industrial bloc.

Biggest In World

Red China's 5,000,000 "People's Army" is probably the largest standing army in the world today. In addition Mao Tse Tung is reported to have a national militia numbering close to 6,000,000. According to reliable reports from Peking, the Communist government also hopes, with Soviet assistance, to have an air force of 1,000 frontline planes by the middle of this year.

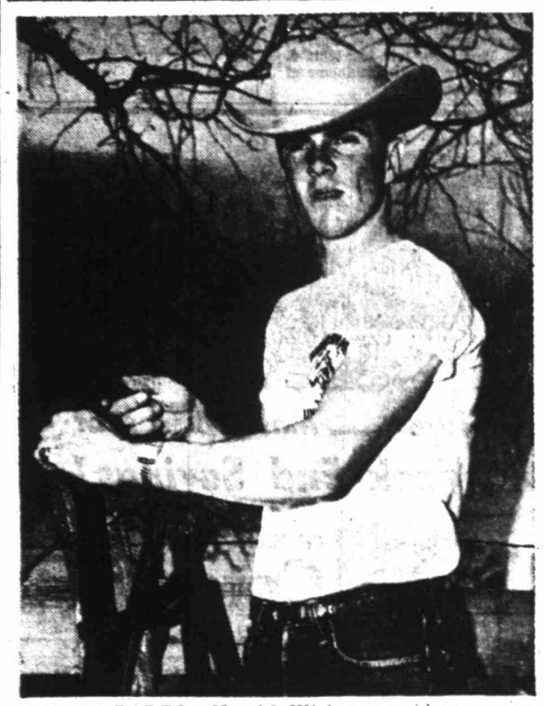

The new regime is also planning to develop an adequate coastal patrol fleet in one year, in addition to other naval construction projects which are now under way.

To Play Major Role

The leaders of the Red government of China, it is believed in Washington, are convinced their vast army, which has completed the Communist conquest of China, is destined to play a major role in the "liberation" of all Asia, in accordance with the fast-unfolding plans of world communism.

The Truman-MacArthur "incident" may therefore force the UN to reach long overdue decisions as to:

1. What does the West want to accomplish in Korea?
2. What terms for a durable Asian peace are acceptable to the UN?
3. What aims do we have in regard to the Chinese Communists?
4. Which is the potential all-out battlefield between the democratic and Communist worlds—Europe or Asia?

HEADS RODEO—Harold Wicker, president of the Hardin-Simmons University Rodeo Association, is directing plans for the fifth annual collegiate rodeo to be held in Abilene Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Walkie-Talkie Is Streamlined

CAMDEN, N. J. — (AP) — The walkie-talkie has been streamlined for the Signal Corps by the Radio Corporation of America to half its former size and weight and made to double its range, now five miles.

From 55 pounds the walkie-talkie has been scaled down to a mere 25 pounds for a complete set that includes batteries, hand set, antennas and spare parts. The transmitter-receiver unit alone tips the scales at only nine pounds.

The "shrunk" walkie-talkie has electron tubes half the size of a cigaret, tuning coils smaller in diameter than a dime, capsule-size transformers, resistors the diameter of a safety match tip.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★

Patient Who Ignores Ulcer May Be Courting Disaster

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

An ulcer of the stomach cannot safely be ignored. Most of those who have this disease do well in the long run. But those who are careless about diet or other treatment run great danger from bleeding and perforation. Bleeding from an ulcer can be exceedingly serious and is more common the longer the ulcer has been present. If the ulcer breaks all the way through the stomach wall (perforation), an immediate operation is necessary.

It is not only because of these serious complication that it is important to take good care of an ulcer, but also no one can feel really well or work efficiently if the ulcer is causing distress constantly. Early diagnosis, appropriate treatment, and, on the part of the patient, following directions accurately and consistently, are necessary to get the best results.

There is such a thing as learning to live with one's ulcer until it has healed. All the doctor can do is give advice. In addition to the specific directions about diet, powders or other medicine, this usually includes a warning about living calmly, getting plenty of rest, adequate vacations and similar general measures. Quite often all this involves a change in the routine of living and perhaps in attitude toward life.

A good many patients with ulcers question their doctors about smoking, coffee and alcohol. On this there are some differences of opinion though even the most liberal physicians will caution against excessive use of any of these.

Apparently smoking does not stimulate the secretion of the stomach juices, but some ulcer patients definitely feel worse from smoking just the same. Many doctors prohibit smoking entirely and some do not. Coffee and alcohol do stimulate the secretions of acid, and while they probably do not cause an ulcer, there is no reason to believe that they help one to heal either.

Tiny Kingdom Now Has An Air Force

KHATMANDU, NEPAL — (AP) — This tiny kingdom now has an air force. It consists of two reconditioned Douglas Dakotas (C-47) twin-engined transports purchased from India at a cost of $105,000.

The planes are the first owned by Nepal, which previously depended on chartered planes from Indian airlines or Indian Government planes for aerial communication with the outside world.

Czech Beauty Salon Patrons Are Blasted

PIZEN, CZECHOSLOVAKIA —(AP)—Some hairdressers' salons in Czechoslovakia are nothing better than "reservations of the bourgeoisie," says the Pizen Communist newspaper Pravda.

Though now city-owned, it said, they "cultivate the old morals and have become the last refuge of the 'mesdames.'"

"It is one's own business, of course, how one has oneself disfigured," the paper went on. "But the time wasted in such titivations and the thought of the reserves of labor that are still unused are something to think about."

Indians Run Own Revolving Loans

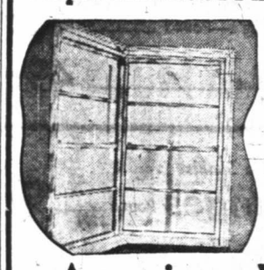

WINDOW ROCK, ARIZ. —(AP)— The Navajo Indians are handling the tribal money with a loan committee just like Uncle Sam.

The money comes from oil and other resources. This year the tribal council appropriated $724,000 to the revolving loan fund.

The loans go to stockmen and farmers among the 60,000 Indians and to co-op projects like tribal trading posts, sawmills and small industries.

Cottage Cheese Is Important

COTTAGE CHEESE BALLS with lemon cream dressing—delightful dish for the youngsters.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Cottage cheese is high on the list of foods valuable in children's diets. It is a very substantial dairy food, rich in protein, calcium and other essential minerals and is also inexpensive and easy to serve.

Serve it mixed with a little cream and finely chopped scallions or pickles and whipped with sour cream and salt and spooned over chopped raw vegetables. Serve it as an after-school in-between-meal snack on crackers with tart jelly.

Here's a delightful combination—cottage cheese balls in two flavors served on crisp greens with a lemon cream dressing:

Orange Cheese Balls

One carton (8 ounce) cottage cheese, 2 tablespoons concentrated (frozen) orange juice, 1/4 cup chopped walnuts.

Beat cottage cheese until creamy. Add orange juice and chopped walnuts, and blend until smooth. Form into six balls and arrange on one side of the platter. Garnish with halved walnuts.

Savory Cheese Balls

One carton (8 ounce) cottage cheese, 1 tablespoon horseradish, 2 tablespoons catsup.

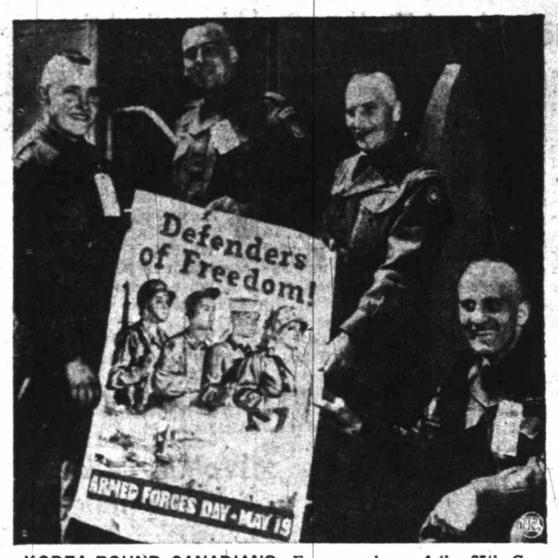

Beat cottage cheese until smooth with horseradish and tomato catsup. Form into six balls and arrange on opposite side of platter to sweet cheese balls. Note: The combined salad serves 4.

Lemon Cream Dressing
(Makes about 1 cup)

One tablespoon lemon juice, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/4 cup whipping cream.

Combine lemon juice, mayonnaise and sugar. Partially whip cream and fold in. Serve with cottage cheese salad.
