DAG PLANS PARLEYS

Adlai Confers With President Of Ghana

By MAX HARRELSON UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson talked today with Ghana's president, Kwame Nkrumah, on the Congo crisis and arranged to meet later with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The secretary-general sent to the Security Council a preliminary report on the fighting between Congolese and U.N. troops at the port cities of Banana and Matadi. The report covered the U.N. withdrawal from Banana but was prepared before Sunday night's evacuation of Matadi.

complaint against U. S. reconnaissance flights, but there was no sign of agreement that the discussion could be deferred.

The main issues before the assembly will be the Congo problem, disarmament and Soviet demands that the U. N. structure be altered to replace the secretary-general with a three-man executive.

Nkrumah already has transmitted to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold his proposal for a new all-African U. N. command in the Congo which would disarm all Congolese troops, free political prisoners and reconvene Parliament. He has also proposed that all foreign diplomats leave the country.

Stevenson has made no public comment on Nkrumah's plan, but the United States is committed to support the present U. N. effort directed by Hammarskjold.

Arriving in New York Sunday night, Nkrumah reiterated his contention that the Congo situation could be solved "only by Africans." He said that he hoped his discussions including a talk Wednesday with President Kennedy in Washington, "will clear the air."

Hammarskjold discussed the latest Congo developments at an emergency meeting Sunday night with his 18-nation advisory committee. He dispatched instructions to the U.N. Command for urgent action, but U.N. officials would not disclose his plans.

British Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore also was on hand for the assembly reopening. The session is expected to last six to eight weeks. Diplomats hoped to avoid long debate on such cold war issues as Tibet, Hungary and the Soviet

ELIZABETH TAYLOR ... a restless night

Elizabeth Taylor Slightly Improved

By RAYMOND E. PALMER LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor had a restless night but she showed slight improvement this morning in her desperate fight against pneumonia, her doctors reported.

"There is a slight improvement in Miss Taylor's condition, but she is not out of danger yet," said a bulletin from the team of six doctors attending the Hollywood star.

Dr. Carl Heinz Goldman, Miss Taylor's personal physician, said she would be in the London Clinic for at least another 10 days and "she will need a long time to recuperate, perhaps a year."

Soyuz Skozras, head of 20th Century-Fox, said in New York he was waiting for the outcome of Miss Taylor's latest illness before deciding what to do about the film. Earlier he had said he didn't care how long he had to delay, he would not replace Miss Taylor in the starring role.

Dr. Goldman said the tube inserted in the star's throat to help her breathing had made her restless.

"Dr. Middleton Price, the breathing expert, was with her all night," he reported.

Dr. Elwell was scheduled to start rolling again next month after long delays due to earlier illnesses of Miss Taylor. The delays are estimated to have cost more than $1 million so far.

Negotiations Are Launched

By PATRICK MASSEY LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Wearry U. N. soldiers laid down their arms and withdrew from the Congo port of Matadi after 24 hours of bitter street fighting with Congolese soldiers, a U. N. spokesman reported today.

Negotiations are going on with the Congolese government to get a U. N. garrison back into the town. If these break down, the United Nations is empowered to use force as a last resort, the spokesman said.

Two Sudanese U. N. soldiers—of the 130-man garrison—are known to have been killed in the battle, which raged throughout Saturday and until noon Sunday. Thirteen other Sudanese were wounded. Twelve are missing.

A Canadian signal captain also is missing and the U. N. spokesman said there are grave fears for his safety.

Matadi is the Congo's principal supply port and without control there, the U. N. supply operation would be gravely endangered.

Trouble blew up in the hillsides down 60 miles up the Congo River when Congolese units erected road blocks to impede the movement of U. N. personnel. Two helicopters also were seized as they touched down at nearby Boma. That was on Friday.

Saturday the Congolese tried to dislodge an 11-man guard of U. N. Sudanese which had been thrown around a hillside villa used as a communications center by a Canadian signal unit.

The Congolese killed a Sudanese and wrecked the post. A Canadian captain who went out to talk with the attacking Congolese was not seen again.

Vastly outnumbered and with their ammunition running low, the Canadian signal post and its Sudanese guards surrendered Saturday evening.

Elsewhere in the town, fighting went on until noon Sunday. A five-man Danish movement command is operating in the port and the Congolese have pledged not to interfere with U. N. stores stacked in Matadi's dockside warehouses.

Canadian army officials in Ottawa said they had learned that the Canadian signal post at the eight of the nine Canadians at the radio station had reached Leopoldville "relatively unharmed." The fate of the ninth Canadian was not known.

At U. N. headquarters in New York Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold told his 18-nation Congo Advisory Committee he planned urgent action, but officials who reported this did not elaborate.

On the political front the round table conference of Congo political leaders opened in the Malagasy Republic, formerly the island of Madagascar, amid reports that the Congolese, the head of the Communist-supported government in Oriental Province, was on his way to join the conference.

Clapham Kamitatu, former president of the Leopoldville provincial government, represented Gizenga at the opening of the conference, which will try to work out a truce between the Congo's warring political factions.

Others present were Kasavubu his premier, Joseph Ileo; President Moise Tshombe of Katanga; Albert Kalonji, leader of the "Mining State" he has proclaimed in South Kasai Province; Jean Bolikongo of Equator Province, and Barthelmy Mukenge of North Kasai.

A spokesman for Tshombe said Gizenga had arrived at Kamina air base, in Katanga, en route to Malagasy. The big base is neutral territory under U. N. protection.

Windstorms, Rain, Snow Batter Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Rain, sleet, fog, snow and tornado winds battered sections of the Midwest today.

A tornado swept through five blocks of a residential area in Kokomo, Ind., today, killing an 80-year-old woman. The storm damaged the Miller Steel Co. plant in the north-central Indiana city.

Heavy snow continued falling in Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

In the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, hundreds of cars were stalled on highways and side roads piled high with snow that drifted under 30 m.p.h. winds.

Six inches of snow fell in five hours up to midnight, atop four inches that fell Saturday over the area. The Weather Bureau saw no letup in the snowfall.

In Iowa, the state patrol warned motorists that snow, rain and sleet had left "a sheet of ice across the state." In northwest Iowa numerous communities reported six inches of snow.

A tornado struck Jerseyville, Ill., early today. There were reports of excessive wind damage to property and utility lines.

Damage was small except where one twister caused heavy damage to storage buildings and boats on the Gravois arm of the Lake of the Ozarks.

In the Pacific northwest Sunday, a rain storm powered by winds of up to 83 m.p.h. raced through the state, then changed to a blinding snowstorm in the Cascade Mountains. Property was damaged and utility lines downed.

The snow continued today, with 10 inches reported at Mt. Hood. The same storm blew into Washington State and into British Columbia, with largely the same effect on property and utility lines.

In the East Sunday, temperatures were generally moderate, though high in some areas. Washington, D. C., had an 80-degree reading, setting a record for the day.

Heavy weekend rains in Ohio sent rivers and tributaries over flood stage in many communities.

The threat of rising floodwaters along the Mobile River in Alabama forced suspension of the rail road passenger service on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

That is hard to get. This means that anyone with a new idea had better get it in the legislative mill soon, since revenue-raising remains the session's most difficult issue.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee last week recommended favorable floor action on HB 334. It is a measure originally designed to stop tax loopholes amounting to about $7.7 million—peanuts in view of the state's need of between $200 and $300 million in new money to retire the deficit and finance government operations for the next two years.

But HB 334 is so written that it might be used as a carrier for more extensive fund-raising plans by amendment from the floor.

Flexible Tax Bill On House Agenda

By DAVE CHEAVENS AUSTIN (AP)—A flexible tax bill that might be used as a vehicle for solving some of the state's money problems was on the House calendar today as the Legislature started its ninth week.

The session is starting at one of its most vital deadlines this week. After midnight, March 10, introduction of new controversial legislation is virtually impossible.

CHET DAVID FORD ... leukemia victim

Death Claims Young Victim Of Leukemia

Chet David Ford, 7-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Ford of Ira, died in Methodist Memorial Hospital Sunday, a victim of leukemia. A drive for blood donors, started Friday by friends of the family, proved to be futile as the boy died before transfusions could begin.

The Ira Public Schools, where Mr. Ford teaches, will be closed today and Tuesday.

Chet David is survived by his parents; one sister, Pecca LaRue; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Ford of Snyder; and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Rogers of Wichita Falls.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church in Snyder with Rev. J. Roy Haynes, pastor of the Ira Baptist Church; and Rev. Walter Mitchell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in the Hillside Memorial Gardens under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Flowerbearers will be Robert Sterling, Tommie Sterling, Don-Kimbrell, and Don J. Eubanks.

Flying Automobile Production Eyed

DALLAS (AP)—A contract for production of a flying automobile if enough orders for it are obtained by July 1 has been signed by a Dallas firm.

Officials of Ling-Temco Electronics, Inc., said it signed a contract with Aerocar International Corporation, Fort Worth, for production of the vehicle if sufficient orders were obtained.

The aerocar would be produced by the Temco Missiles & Aircraft Co., a division of Ling-Temco.

The aerocar is a four-wheeled, two-place, pusher-type vehicle when in flight. It can be converted from plane to car, or vice versa, in 5 to 10 minutes.

Officials said one test model has logged more than 1,000 hours flight time and has traveled more than 100,000 miles on the road.

Ikedda Sets U. S. Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda of Japan will visit Washington June 20-22 for talks with President Kennedy and other high administration officials.

In announcing this today, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said he had no information on specific subjects to be discussed.

In Tokyo informed government sources said one of the main topics the Japanese leader wants to take up with the President is Communist China. The sources said Ikeda wants to sound out the American attitude on U.S. recognition of Red China and China's influence in Asia.

Bombing Suspects In Havana Shooting

HAVANA (AP)—A shooting that killed two persons and wounded four Saturday was the result of a gun battle between police and bombing suspects, the semiofficial Republic Revolution said today, and not an attempt to break up a crowd massed to hear Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The version conflicted with the original story given by witnesses and police. They said a group of men in a speeding taxicab had fired into a crowd assembled to pay tribute to the victims of the explosion of the French munitions ship La Coubre in Havana harbor last year.

Numerous groups with no direct Permian Basin interest have intervened in that results of the conference are expected to determine FPC procedures to be followed at future formal hearings on prices for each of the nation's 22 gas-producing areas.

The intervenors included consumer groups interested in protecting retail prices in such areas as Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York City.

Independent and major producers held joint and separate meetings to exchange views Sunday.

"Everyone is confused," M. D. Bryant, former Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners president from San Angelo said as he left a 2 1/2-hour meeting.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson and several assistants were on hand.

"Texas is directly involved for two reasons," Wilson said. "The state tax on gas is geared to price. The state is a property owner and a royalty owner."

Many of the producers here hold leases on Permian Basin acreage owned by the University of Texas.

The FPC wrestled six years with its cost-rate formula before abandoning it for area-price ceilings. The commission hopes the area plan will eliminate a tremendous backlog that piled up under the old system of handling each price request individually.

Under the area plan, a new contract for sale of Permian Basin gas could obtain approval without a costly formal hearing. If it does not exceed 16 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. The proposed ceiling for an oil contract is 11 cents.

Miss Taylor was given one hour to live at one point, said her husband, Eddie Fisher, 31.

"I think she has turned the corner now and is fighting back," said the singer, weary from his long vigil at her bedside. Dr. Goldman reported that she was conscious but could not talk because of the tube in her throat.

An electronic lung machine was rushed 60 miles from an out-of-town hospital Sunday when Miss Taylor's breathing began to slacken.

The "Barnet ventilator," named for the hospital in Hertfordshire where it was invented, is a small square box that synchronizes artificial breathing with a patient's own natural breathing rate.

Within an hour after the Barnet machine went to work, Miss Taylor had improved enough to be moved back to her own private room.

Wins Battle Of Low Heels

NORWICH, Conn. (AP)—Judith Elwell went back to her job in the Department of Public Utilities today, wearing low heels.

It was a compromise of sorts in her battle with her employer, who has banned certain items of apparel such as leotards, slacks, bunny shoes, ballet slippers, moccasins and other shoes without heels.

Mrs. Elwell, armed with a doctor's certificate, was permitted to return to work in low heel shoes.

Manager Philip L. White issued his edict aimed at ending what he called the "sloppy appearance of female employees," and Mrs. Elwell complied for a while but then came to her typing job in flat shoes.

Huge Crowd On Hand For FPC Gas Hearing

MIDLAND (AP)—The Federal Power Commission today began its first public hearing on a plan to establish area price ceilings on natural gas sold for interstate use.

There was standing room only in the 450-seat Community Theater as Examiner Edward B. Marsh began a pre-hearing conference (10 a.m. CST).

An estimated 1,000 producers, pipeline, distributors and consumers from coast to coast were in Midland for proceedings designed to formulate ground rules for formal hearings on the new approach for federal control of wellhead prices.

Nearly half of them were prepared to offer views on the area pricing policy adopted Sept. 28 as a replacement for the old cost-rate approach.

Directly involved in the conference were prices on gas produced in the vast Permian Basin of West Texas and Southeastern New Mexico.

Numerous groups with no direct Permian Basin interest have intervened in that results of the conference are expected to determine FPC procedures to be followed at future formal hearings on prices for each of the nation's 22 gas-producing areas.

East Texas Skies Cloudy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Cloudy skies and locally heavy fog prevailed Monday over East Texas and southern parts of the state.

Visibility was cut to three-sixteenths of a mile at Austin and San Antonio, a half mile at Galveston, and three-fourths of a mile at Houston. Land, sea and air traffic was hampered.

Meanwhile, a cold front that brought heavy winds, a tornado threat and rain to the state Sunday had weakened considerably.

Shortly before dawn, the diminishing front was along a line running from Tyler to Austin to Laredo. Cold dry air was to the west of the front and warm, moist air to the east.

Gusty winds that accompanied the front into the state Sunday caused the death at Lake Texoma of Charles Dutton, 36, of Pottsboro. The youth was drowned when a boat was blown over by the heavy gusts.

Kennedy Says Peace Corps May Have Home Front Use

By MARTHA COLE
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the Peace Corps has proposed may serve on the home front as well as abroad.

"One of the matters which we are now studying," Kennedy said, "is how we could use Americans who desire to serve in our own country—slum areas, in education, retraining and all the rest."

"We are now attempting to see how we can use this reservoir of talent and desire here in our own country as well as abroad."

The President's comments were recorded at the White House during a television discussion with Eleanor Roosevelt. The program was televised Sunday.

Overseas reaction to the peace corps idea varied. In many regions with low living standards, there was pleasure at the President's proposal.

Mrs. Roosevelt suggested during the discussion that some corps members might work in depressed areas in the United States. "That's right," Kennedy replied.

R. Sargent Shriver, the President's brother-in-law who was appointed director of the Peace Corps Saturday, also appeared on the TV program. He said proposals to have Peace Corps members work in settlement houses as part of their training for overseas service was being discussed.

Other corps officials said no decision had been made on the suggestion of one of many being considered.

Shriver said he wanted every American who desires to serve in the corps to have a chance to volunteer. Kennedy has said he hopes to have 500 to 1,000 young men and women in service around the world by the end of the year.

Mrs. Roosevelt called the response to the Peace Corps idea phenomenal.

Kennedy said the response was overwhelming. He added, "I think that we have really thousands and hundreds of thousands of people in this country who want a chance to be of service to the country and to the causes with which we are associated."

Volunteers will serve two or three years without pay, except for living allowances and they receive a severance allotment. They will go to countries where they are needed and wanted and work particularly on teaching, health and agriculture.

Kennedy spoke of young men and women in the corps, but he added he hoped later it would cover every age group.

Shriver said the corps wanted to "get away promptly" because many of the young people who might be interested will be graduating in May and June and will have made other commitments by fall.

Shriver's group has recommended that service in the Peace Corps not be considered exemption from military service. However, he said, he would hope it might be considered as a reason for deferment.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., told a reporter he was working with the administration on legislation to set up the Peace Corps on a permanent basis.

Overseas reaction included this comment from an educator in Nigeria—where only 15 per cent of the population is literate: "Teachers, and more teachers is what we need most urgently. If America can supply some through its Peace Corps scheme we are wide open to consider any plan which has no strings attached."

Hong Kong's Communist T. Kung Pao said the United States conceived the corps as "an aggressive weapon, to infiltrate and win control over underdeveloped countries."

There was almost complete approval in Pakistan. In India, a spokesman said the idea was "revolutionary and idealistic."

In Britain, Lord Hinchinbrooke, a right-wing Tory, thought the plan naive. Jo Grimond, Liberal party leader, thought the scheme splendid.

Senate Candidates Step Up Campaign

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
U. S. Senate candidate Henry Maverick, with strong labor backing, invaded conservative Dallas Monday to open a campaign headquarters and brought along a Dixie-land band to warm the atmosphere.

Two Dallas candidates for the same post, the Senate seat vacated by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, were out of town.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson headed for East Texas and a round of campaigning in the oil fields and piney woods. Sen. William Blakely, serving in the interim by appointment, planned to spend most of the week in Washington.

Maverick, from San Antonio, hit Dallas about the time another Alamo city candidate was leaving.

Henry B. Gonzalez, the state senator from San Antonio in the 71-man race for Johnson's old seat, ended a last, two-day tour of the vote-heavy Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Gonzalez said he deplored the "irresponsible attitude" of many of the 71 candidates who have entered the Senate race. The state senator said he feared legislation to limit the number of candidates running for one office might result, or else the filing fee might be increased greatly.

Gonzalez spoke Sunday in Dallas to the Teamsters' Union local and punched at the theme of more jobs and more prosperity. Gonzalez also spoke in Dallas to Latin-American supporters and made three appearances before supporters in Fort Worth.

Wilson's headquarters said the attorney general would return to Dallas March 14 for a country club reception.

Backers of Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth said they would hold a dinner Wednesday night in the congressman's honor. A statewide television show, beginning at 7:30 p.m., they said, would be a feature.

Republican John Tower's headquarters announced that Sen. Barry Goldwater, (R-Ariz.) one of the stars of the 1958 Republican convention, would come to Dallas on March 17, to offer his support of Tower.

Duty-Free Foreign Cars Are Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Service men overseas can no longer buy foreign cars tax-free and ship them home duty-free with the government paying the freight.

The new order was given Sunday by the Kennedy administration as part of the effort to cut down the outflow of gold and dollars from the United States.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara previously had indicated such a step would be taken. That was after President Kennedy rescinded the controversial order of the previous administration cutting the number of families of servicemen allowed to stay with them abroad.

The foreign car order goes into effect immediately. On June 30 the administration said it intends to let a law lapse that allows servicemen to send $50 worth of gifts home duty free. When the law expires the limit would revert to $10 per shipment—the amount now applicable to tourists.

This action is separate from Kennedy's request to Congress to cut from $500 to $100 the amount of foreign goods U. S. tourists can bring back home without paying customs duties.

The administration hopes to bring about a spending reduction of $75 to $110 a year for each serviceman abroad. This would save $75 million to $110 million a year in foreign spending of dollars.

The White House announcement said McNamara also will take steps to:

1. Make use of foreign currencies held by the Treasury.

2. Encourage sale of U. S. goods at exchanges and consularies and regulate sales of various foreign articles.

3. Direct military departments to reduce as much as possible the number of foreign personnel employed in post exchanges, officers' clubs and the like.

He told the group of the importance of learning a foreign language, although one may just take the language because it is a requirement in school these days, there will be someday in their lives when they will thank their lucky stars they did. He said for an example, that the many countries now in the world situation could be better understood if we had people who could speak their language instead of having to have an interpreter, where much mean-

Hollywood: Ignorant, Arrogant

THE FIFTY YEAR DECLINE AND FALL OF HOLLYWOOD. By Ezra Goodman.

Having sweated in, around and about the cinema citadel for 20 years, Ezra Goodman pours out a strident verdict with now-it-can-be-told zeal.

"Hollywood, with its insularity, ignorance, arrogance and avarice, with its colossal vulgarity and bad taste, is bad not only for the rest of America and the world but for Hollywood itself," the writer sets the mood and style of his 452-page bill of particulars. Some pioneers of yore and technicians of today are the only souls to escape the scourge during the racy, headlong inditement that is assembled from Goodman's notebooks, recall and research.

"The plain, harsh fact of the matter is that almost all of the tycoons were arrogant, evil, avaricious old men," he insists. Fellow reporters, scenarists, producers, directors — all are assailed with sometimes deadly effect.

Snyder Pee Wee Boxers Starring

LAMESA — Snyder's Pee Wee boxers produced a heap of static in weekend bouts of the first annual Lamesa Invitational Boxing Tournament, while the bigger Snyder boys found their hopes scuttled, as all five competitors were upended.

A Benitez brother trio advanced into the finals, which will begin tonight at 8 o'clock in the National Guard Armory here, while other Snyder boys pounding their way into the final round included Alex Rios and Jesse Costello.

In his first ring fling, Rios scored a solid unanimous decision over Lamesa's Gary Gardenshire, sending him to the mat on five occasions during the three-round brawl. Gardenshire may be remembered as one of the classier novice entrants in Snyder's Mid-glove of last week, and winner of his weight division at that time.

In another top-flight, Snyder's Rudy Benitez racked up the muscled Abilene whiz—Jodie Oliver—in a 71-90 pound bout. It was a unanimous decision, and one in which the outcome was never in doubt. The results of bouts as participated in by Snyder fighters follow:

TEAM WAS YEAR AWAY, BUT...

Techsans Cast Longing Look At NCAA Playoff
 BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 A Texas Tech team that was supposed to be good next year did it ahead of time and now looks toward the NCAA and a possible national basketball championship. The Red Raiders won the South West Conference title in their fourth year of trying, winding up with a 63-0 victory over Texas last week to clinch the crown.

Texas Tech will go to Lawrence, Kan., March 17, to play Cincinnati in the NCAA regional tournament. The Raiders got a bye in the first round, which, Coach Polk Robison said, actually wasn't a round but a pre-tournament playoff. Robison plans no games for his team between now and the NCAA but will scrimmage against an independent AAU team in Lubbock made up largely of former Texas Tech players. He wasn't optimistic over his chances in the NCAA, pointing to the fact that Cincinnati was in the nation's top 10 all season while Tech never made the top 20.

Tech will have every player back next season, including high scoring Del Ray Mounts, who pushed in 507 points during the campaign, and Harold Hudgens, who scored 418 although out part of the season with an injury. Tech had a 15-9 record for the season, which wasn't good as second place Texas A&M and third place Arkansas, the Aggies showing 16-8 and Arkansas 18-7. But Tech didn't get started on the win-

Tigerettes Grab Consolation Win

LAMESA — The Snyder Tigerette volleyball team bounced back like a rubber ball following a first round 20-43 thumping as administered by Plainview, and went on to cop the consolation title in the Lamesa Invitation Tournament of the past weekend with three follow-up victories.

The opening loss to Plainview represented the initial upending as dealt the Snyder girls, who had previously gotten past Colorado City and Abilene in their only outings of the season.

Winner of the tournament was Big Spring, which powdered host Lamesa in the final match, 20-14, for the crown.

Facing the Tigerette losing cause against Plainview were Marie Clark and Linda Ivson, who tied for high serving honors, and Alma Nell Evans and Mary Ann Savage, who deadlocked for the top spiker spot on the team.

Snyder waited past Pampa in its second match, 23-16, behind server Ivson and spiker Evans. Sweetwater was felled next, 39-15, as Clark led the Snyder servers and Savage nabbed the spiking laurels.

The Tigerettes slipped past Plains in the consolation final, 23-15, with Linda Williams cornering the serving honors and Savage the spiking nod.

Both Miss Savage and Anita Thompson of Snyder landed spots on the second all-tournament team, which was designated following the final round of activity on Saturday night. Savage for her spiking prowess and Thompson as a set-up stalwart.

Prichard One Of Six Vets

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech's baseballers launch their 1961 schedule against Highlands University here Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Doubleheaders, starting at 1:30 p. m., will be played each day. Remainder of the Red Raider schedule will be ready soon, according to Bert Huffman, Texas Tech's new baseball coach.

Six lettermen from the team that posted an 8-7 record last season form the nucleus of the current squad. They are outfielders Bill Dean of Lubbock and George Gibson of Dallas, catchers Sam Gibson of Galveston and Elton Howard of Midland, shortstop Tom Prichard of Snyder, and pitcher Roger Mac Evans of Abilene.

Huffman is without the services of the Raiders' leading pitcher of last season, Del Ray Mounts of Perryton. The lefthander is an all-Southwest Conference guard with the Raider basketballers, who have qualified for the National Collegiate playoffs.

Tom Booker, University of Richmond basketball star, comes from Louisville, Ky. He averaged 11.8 points a game last season.

Norm Halberstadt, a junior on the Virginia Military Institute quintet, comes from Brooklyn, N. Y. Last season he led the Keydets in scoring with 272 points in 20 games.

Laredo Meet In Spotlight

LAREDO (AP) — The track scene shifts to Laredo this week where more than 1,200 athletes will compete in the 29th Border Olympics. At least a dozen records appear in danger.

Defending champion Texas indicated last week that it would be the team to beat again in the University division. The Longhorns will be after their fifth straight title but will have competition galore from Abilene Christian, Houston and Baylor.

Nine teams have entered the University class including Texas, Rice, Texas A&M, Baylor, Texas Christian, North Texas State, Southern Methodist, Houston and Abilene Christian.

The shot put record should be smashed repeatedly. The record of 54 feet 3 1/2 inches was set in 1953 by Darrow Hooper of Texas A&M. John Fry of Baylor has thrown the shot 54 feet 6 1/2 inches. Jim Allison of Texas has heaved it 55 feet and Buddy Tyner of Baylor has hurled the steel ball 54-1 1/2.

Abilene Christian is capable of bettering the 440-yard relay record of 40.8 Barrie Almond of Houston and Socrates Baglacas of East Texas State can take down the overall 880-yard record of 1:33.0. Dexter Elkins of Southern Methodist should crack the pole vault record of 14 feet 1 1/2 inches, and Ray Cunningham of Texas could hang up new records in both of the hurdles.

There are 1,148 entries from 99 schools thus far. The record was 1,108 set last year. The college division has 17 teams, the junior college class has 12 and the high school division has 62.

The golf tournament, scheduled Thursday through Saturday over 72 holes has drawn 13 colleges and 14 high schools thus far.

The track and field division opens Friday with preliminaries in the high school and junior college classes. There will be preliminaries in the college divisions Saturday morning, finals in high school and junior college Saturday afternoon and finals in the university and college divisions Saturday night.

What's With This Musical Chairs Bit?

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sonny Liston has a new opponent for his Wednesday night fight at Miami Beach Auditorium.

Instead of taking on young Jack Johnson, the ranking heavyweight will fight Howard King instead. King punched himself into the fight.

He was Johnson's sparring partner and got too rough, opening a cut inside Johnson's mouth Saturday. Johnson had to go to a hospital, and King agreed to take over the Wednesday night chores with Liston.

Junior Editors Quiz on EXPRESSIONS

QUESTION: What is a turncoat?

ANSWER: In early American colonial days, British soldiers wore fine red coats with considerable pride. But in a battle the men in red made easy targets. Thus it came about that in any fight where conspicuous clothing would work against a fighter, the sensible thing to do would be to turn it inside out. But to the British soldier this seemed like the act of a coward. And so, if a man did this, he gained a very bad name. He was called a turncoat—meaning he lacked the courage to step out in his true colors. The word means the same thing today. It is a word of contempt for the person who may try to save his skin by turning against his comrades, his principles, his nation.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color this drawing of a boy keeping the bright side of his coat turned out so that it can easily be identified and seen. Make the coat bright red on the outside and black inside.

Kennedy Is Still 'Riding A Lamb'

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy warned in his inaugural address that people riding tigers wind up inside. He has been riding a lamb himself, a kind President Dwight D. Eisenhower invented.

It was a time of raw nerves when Eisenhower took office. There was frustration over the Korean War, anger over the advance of communism which had taken China, suspicion and division from McCarthyism and open brawling between President Harry S. Truman and the Republicans.

Eisenhower restored some national calmness. His greatest contribution may have been his avoidance of name-calling, personal attacks and the appearance of exasperation. His continued popularity showed the country appreciated calmness and wanted to keep it. It was a lesson the politicians could not overlook.

It was no wonder that in the 1960 campaign Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon kept their efforts on a fairly high plane. The one who tried otherwise might have been swamped in the returns.

Many voters, consciously or not, may have picked Kennedy because, except for his Catholicism, he was a noncontroversial figure. While Nixon had been in controversy most of his political life, Kennedy is continuing what he did in the campaign: presenting calmness. He is handling Congress, controversial programs while remaining noncontroversial himself.

By avoiding harshness, he has deprived his opponents of ammunition. He has concentrated all arguments on the issues without letting them get tangled in personalities. In the meantime he is getting across to the public, which can put big pressure on Congress, a sense of his calm self. For him so far the reaction has been extremely good.

He has done it by opening himself and the White House to public view under the most favorable circumstances. Kennedy's televised news conferences, always handled easily, are one instrument for providing a view of a man who has things under control.

He has used other means to show himself a relaxed, friendly, down-to-earth man very much on the job and very busy. For example: Letting photographers snap him in his office on the phone, or conferring with his top officials, or taking a few minutes out to negotiate with his daughter, Caroline, or lead her off to bed.

The White House has been opened up, more than Eisenhower ever opened it, with stories of how well-informed he is on national dilemmas; stories of the informal Kennedys dashing out to a late movie or to a friend's house for dinner; stories of Kennedy in charge, listening to his aides and then making decisions.

Actually it is the absence of something which gives the best picture of Kennedy as the unchallenged president: No one in his administration has remotely tried to be dominant or shift attention to himself.

Actor Changes His Mind On Jail Sit-In MILTON, Fla. (AP)—Actor Frog Millhouse changed his mind about sitting in jail in protest of a Florida law he considered unfair and today is free under $300 bond.

The frog-voiced comedian, more widely known as Gene Autry's buddy, Smiley Burnette, gained his release from jail in the north-west Florida community early Sunday. He was arrested Saturday on a charge of violating a law requiring certain license and tax fees for outdoor acts.

Millhouse, who had been giving autograph parties for children on supermarket parking lots, said he did not think he should have to pay the fees—about $200 a day—because no admission was charged.

Violence Claims 26 Lives In State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS An Air Force refueling plane crashed just short of Biggs Air Force Base in El Paso Sunday night, killing nine men and running the state's violent death toll for the weekend to 26.

Besides the nine to die in the crash of the big six-engine KB50, 11 were killed in traffic accidents, and six others died in miscellaneous violence.

The El Paso crash came about 2 or 3 miles northeast of a Biggs AFB runway. The craft was one of six returning from a routine refueling mission over the Pacific Ocean. The other five planes already had landed when the big jet-assisted craft hit the desert floor and burned.

"It was the most sickening thing I ever saw," a rescue worker at the scene said. The Air Force started an official inquiry to determine cause of the crash.

The Associated Press began its regular weekend tabulation of fatal weekend violence at 6 p.m. Friday and continued it through midnight Sunday.

Four Latin-Americans died Sunday when their truck collided head-on with a car four miles south of El Paso. The dead, all from El Paso, were Frank Belman Rodriguez, 25; Jesus Robledo Cardon, 24; Manuel Martinez Valdez, 19, and his brother, Selesteo Valdez Jr., 16.

Lennie K. Starrett III, 22, of Fort Worth, was found shot to death Sunday near Fort Worth. Police said the man had been missing since Feb. 24.

Dennis Ray Hooker, 19 months old, was fatally injured Sunday when run over by a car at his home in San Antonio.

Charles Dutton, 18, Pottsboro, drowned at Lake Texoma Sunday when a boat overturned in high wind.

An airline reservation agent, Betty J. Byrum, 36, of Irving, died Sunday when the car in which she was riding crashed in Irving.

Willie Brown, Dallas Negro, died Sunday night in a traffic accident at Jolly, 12 miles east of Wichita Falls.

UNIFLEX COATING BY WADLEIGH ROOFING SERVICE—Even the best roofs need care in West Texas weather, Jim Wadleigh, agent for the Uniflex Colored Aluminum Roof Coating in Snyder, tells his customers. Above, Luis Carrisalez gets set to put a protective coating on a roof, a coating that will stay soft underneath a hard top surface, a coating that will add years to the use of the roof.

Snyderite's Roofing Work Draws National Attention

Roofs coated and submitted by Jim Wadleigh have drawn national attention.

The March issue of Popular Mechanics Magazine carries a write-up and pictures of a roof application that was done after severe storm damage in 1958.

Wadleigh points out that the average life of a composition roof is approximately 10 years. During that time these roofs will require repairs from time to time and matching the former color of the asphalt shingle will impose a problem. In five or six years composition shingles will start to dry and curl which cause many to blow out during a windy season.

Uniflex Aluminum Metallic Coating insulates as it beautifies, stops leaks, adds near the original life to the roof without over loading the roof frame that was not designed for the extra weight of the second roof.

Uniflex Metallic Coating is applied right over the old surface and the additional expense of stripping the old roof is removed. Metal roofs that have lost their galvanized surface can be restored with Uniflex Metallic Coating and the nail holes and leaks sealed at the same time.

Uniflex Metallic Coating is six times the thickness of ordinary aluminum paint and therefore has much greater durability.

Uniflex Metallic Coating is available in six beautiful pastel colors.

Uniflex will not run during intense heat or crack open in cold weather.

Uniflex Metallic Coating is manufactured by The Acorn Refining Co. Cleveland, 2 Ohio, and the area representative is James Wadleigh, and the Clark Lumber Co. in Snyder is the local dealer.

The business meeting of the council will convene Saturday morning, with the approval of a $147,000 budget for diocesan and missionary activities, an increase of nearly 10 per cent over last year, as a highlight. In addition, a treasurer, secretary and registrar of the diocese, two members of the standing committee, four members of the executive council and a trustee of the University of the South will be elected.

On Saturday evening, the Rev. Canon C. Rankin Barnes, secretary of the National Council of the Episcopal Church, will address the council banquet. Canon Barnes will also be the preacher at two services Sunday morning.
