QUARANTINE IS PLACED AROUND STATE OF CALIF.

EVERY POSSIBLE CARRIER OF CATTLE DISEASE IS AFFECTED BY MOVE

By United News.
EL PASO, Tex., April 11.—Every border state adjoining California has put in force a strict quarantine against everything that is a possible carrier of the foot and mouth disease. These restrictions include automobiles and contents and vitally affects huge tourist travel to and from California where the disease is epidemic among cattle. Travelers are admitted to California, but no automobiles are allowed to come out.

People arriving in El Paso from the California line report that all roads have been barricaded with barbed wire and these barricades and main highways are heavily guarded.

Mayor Dudley of El Paso has received a letter raising the question as to whether or not California fruits and vegetables were being shipped into El Paso and reshipped under Texas labels. This inquiry came from M. G. Keenan of Albuquerque, New Mexico state auditor, board, and stated that these articles were considered dangerous carriers of the disease. In letters to the sanitary boards in New Mexico, and Arizona, Mayor Dudley stated that he had called on the Texas board to cooperate in every way to discourage this practice, if such was being done.

Passengers arriving here on train from California said that the Arizona authorities were removing food stuff from the dining cars and replacing them with Arizona products. The passengers stated that the authorities hoped that conditions will be sufficiently cleared up in ten days.

The New Mexico Sanitary Board has advised local officers of the Santa Fe that the embargo against California included fruit and vegetables to El Paso in carload lots and distributed by wholesale merchants from here to other points. Shippers are being asked to declare that such shipments are not from California, when such freight is destined to New Mexico. It has been denied that California fruit is being reshipped from here.

The State of Texas so far has taken on steps to quarantine, except infected cattle, according to information here relying on Arizona quarantine to protect Texas.

However, reports have reached here that both Texas and New Mexico will be asked to cooperate and aid in the fight.

Veterinarians say that the disease is highly epidemic and communicable to man. However it is rarely ever fatal to human beings but "one who has it rarely any account after" they state.

Stage lines operating between El Paso, and Los Angeles report that passengers are being allowed to change at Yuma Arizona, undergo fumigation and proceed. The stage automobiles from California are not allowed to cross the line.

WOMAN COMES TO AID OF SLAYER OF HUSBAND

By United News.
NEW YORK, April 11.—Coming to the aid of "the other woman" who confessed murdering her husband, a deserted wife has amazed New York police.

Mrs. Charles Blair, of Brooklyn, declares that if her husband "treated" the woman who killed him as he treated me, perhaps she was justified.

Mrs. Johanna Teel, "the other woman" is held without bail following her voluntary confession that she killed Blair on his farm at Killingsworth, Conn., after living with him for two years on his promise to marry her.

Blair's body was found Friday by officers acting on the directions given them by Johanna Teel after she had admitted shooting and hacking him to death last Tuesday. It lay in the shallow fertilizer pit of Blair's 80-acre farm.

The body, according to descriptions wired here, lay face downward in the pit which Blair had himself dug in preparation for spring planting. A jagged gash almost severing the head from the body, marked the blow that Johanna had dealt with her little hatchet, after Blair had fallen to the floor, mortally wounded by bullets from her revolver.

ALL PAVING BIDS ARE REJECTED BY CITY

All bids for the construction of the paving and storm sewer project for the city of Lubbock were rejected by the city commission and board of advisors Friday, and contractors requested to resubmit bids, which will be received up to nine o'clock this morning when they will be opened and read.

Every effort is being made by the members of the city commission and the advisory board to get the contracts awarded as soon as possible, but every detail of construction specifications will be thoroughly worked out and understood by all parties to the contract before it is awarded, a member of the advisory board stated late yesterday afternoon.

CANYON MAN DIED HERE FRIDAY

J. J. Green, 72 years old, father of Mrs. W. L. Baugh, of this city, died in a local sanitarium last night at 9:20 following a short illness. Mr. Green's home is in Canyon, and it was while here on a visit to his daughter that he was taken ill.

He is survived by a wife, five sons and three daughters, all of whom were at the bedside when death came, with the exception of one child who was not able to reach here.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of Dr. W. L. Baugh, 1819 13th street, and interment will immediately follow in the Lubbock cemetery.

U. S. Officialdom Surprised at Suddenness of German Acceptance of Report But Believes Will Lead to Settlement

By United News.
WASHINGTON, April 11.—Acceptance by the German cabinet of the report of the experts committee is regarded by officials here as virtually assuring success of the plan for reparations settlement, so largely aided by an American General Dawes.

The news of the acceptance by the Germans came as a distinct surprise to officials here, as it was generally believed that their action would not be taken until after the general elections in May. It added to the optimism felt in official circles here Friday with receipt of the announcement of acceptance by the reparations commission.

While it is generally felt that the Germans would ultimately accept the expert settlement, it was believed they might offer counter-

WILBUR INHERITS BONUS MEASURE TO GO AHEAD STATE DEPT. QUARREL TAX BILL

By United News.
WASHINGTON, April 11.—At the outset of his regime as secretary of the navy Curtis D. Wilbur has inherited a long standing dispute between the navy department and Secretary of State Hughes over the strengthening of the armament of American battleships to make them less vulnerable to submarine and aircraft attack and install oil burners in some of the older ships.

Appearing before the house naval affairs committee this week, Wilbur endorsed the recommendations which the navy experts previously had recommended for strengthening the capital ships.

Secretary Hughes, while having expressed no formal opposition is concerned over the effect such action might have upon other parties to the naval limitations treaty. There has been a dispute among naval experts and diplomats as to the latitude for increasing defensive armor permitted under the naval treaty.

While not passing directly on this point, Hughes has made the general contention that the United States, having originated the naval limitation plan should adhere not only to the latter but to the spirit of that agreement.

He is opposed to any innovations which might be regarded unfavorably by other signatories and which might lead them to search for methods of evasion. Such a situation might result in punching holes in the naval limitations treaty and in defeating its fundamental purposes, the state department believes.

The question was mentioned at the Friday cabinet meeting briefly and will be discussed further in conferences between Hughes and Wilbur. Coolidge is opposed to any innovations which will lead to naval competition among the powers.

MCCRAY JURY DISCHARGED FRI. AFTER FAILURE TO REACH AGREEMENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 11.—The jury in the trial of Governor McCray on charges of embezzlement of $155,000 from the state Board of Agriculture disagreed and was finally discharged late Friday after 27 hours of deliberation. Thirty-five ballots were taken before the jury informed Judge Chamberlain that it found itself unable to reach a verdict.

Governor McCray will go to trial in the federal court April 21 on an indictment charging him with fraudulent use of the mails.

There are still 14 indictments pending against McCray in the criminal court on which he may be tried after conclusion of the federal case.

OFFICERS ARREST TWO MEN AND GET STILL

Pete Williams and a man by the name of Roper were arrested at a farm seven miles east of Ropesville Thursday night by Sheriff Bud Johnston, Chief of Police Carter, and deputy sheriff Vernice Ford, and were placed in the Lubbock County jail awaiting trial on a liquor charge.

A copper boiler and about 19 feet of copper coil was found by the officers on the place where the men were arrested. About 100 gallons of mash was destroyed by the officers.

EUROPE ACCEPTS REPARATIONS PROPOSAL

By JOHN O'BRIEN.
(UN Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, April 11.—Europe has cleared the first barrier on the road to peace and reconstruction offered in the report of the committee of experts.

The reparations committee has voiced unanimous official approval of the report and has decided to hear Germany's answer on April 17 or later. German representatives may come to Paris, or Germany may send a written statement of her position.

A communique issued by the reparations commission states that the statement considers that the report offers a practical basis for a rapid solution of the reparations problem.

Therefore the communique adds that the commission approved the report and adopted the methods of solution outlined therein within the limits of the commission's power.

The commission, however, is to reserve its approval and action until Germany declares her willingness to collaborate in the execution of the plan, the communique states.

White to all intents and purposes, the report is already adopted, the exact language of the communique reads:

"The committee is at once and within limits of its power to approve the report and adopt the methods therein set forth."

The commission has not only decided to accept the program of the experts but will recommend that the allied governments carry it out.

The golden opportunity of European peace has been put flatly up to Germany by the bold and dramatic action of the reparations commission. Word has already gone to Berlin inviting Germany to send representatives here to appear before the commission.

The quick decision caused a great sensation in Paris, that the actual issuance of the report. The members of the reparations committee had convened for an official session at which a preliminary exchange of views was contemplated when it was found that all members enthusiastically favored the plan and had instructions from their governments to accept it, an official session was called. After the session, the members of the commission made no attempt to conceal their joy and gratification.

The outlook is very good indeed. A lengthy discussion had been expected and all thought that the others would advance varying opinions on interpretations of certain sections of the plan. But all shades of interpretation were swept aside in order to hasten operations and reach the desired goal.

It is admitted that certain phases of the report are beyond the jurisdiction of the commission, but the governments involved will decide on these points. It is said that if Germany accepts the plan, the allies cannot afford to turn it down as the offer was made in the name of the allied nations.

German Acceptance Probable
BERLIN, April 11.—The deliberations of the German government over the experts report have progressed to a point where it is stated in authoritative circles that Germany will probably accept.

Government officials, however, are most perplexed as to what reaction situation would have on the internal situation in Germany.

Acceptance of the terms of the report would necessarily mean that Germany would have to pass numerous laws to deal with situations which would arise under the plan.

It is expected that a nationalistic reichstag will be returned at the spring elections. It is questionable whether such a body would pass laws needed to enforce the experts decisions. A series of new "crises" might result, dissolution of the reichstag might become necessary and eventually the new reichstag might undo what the present regime had accomplished.

The entire situation, however, is uncertain and acceptance of the report by the Marx government might align public opinion behind it and result in full cooperation with the plan.

The cabinet decided to "expedite consideration" of the report and summoned the state premiers to a conference in Berlin Monday.

At that time the government will inform the premiers of its intention to accept the report naturally "consulting" them regarding ideas and suggestions in connection with the matter.

It is generally assumed that the meeting will lead to an early agreement on the report.

LETTER FROM JAP MINISTER IS REVEALED FRI.

SINGLING OUT JAPANESE IMMIGRATION FOR EXCLUSION PROTESTED

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(UN Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Japan has thrown down a serious challenge to the American congress over the question of Japanese exclusion now being considered in connection with the immigration bill being debated in both houses.

At the climax of a week's debate, Secretary Hughes sent to the senate an amazing letter from the Japanese ambassador, M. Hanihara, who warned the United States of the "grave consequences which the enactment would bring."

Because of the gravity of the statements made by the Japanese ambassador, Senators and congressmen were reluctant to comment without weighing their words carefully. In this connection it is known that the state department feels very keenly that serious difficulties would follow enactment of the provision. Both houses previously have been disposed to adopt the provision regardless of opposition voiced by Secretary Hughes.

It is too early to say definitely whether the protest of Japan will cause any change in sentiment but it is doubtful.

Population Increase Shown.

The communication was read in the senate where immigration charts were hung on the walls one of them showing the increase in Japanese population in brilliant red. Hanihara divulged for the first time the terms of the famous gentleman's agreement by which Japan voluntarily promised to prevent emigration to the United States of laborers. He insisted that Japan is living up to the terms of this agreement and that the proposed restriction would exclude only about 146 Japanese immigrants a year.

The provision in question would exclude from the United States all aliens incapable of becoming citizens. Japan is the only country that would be affected by such a provision, although she is not mentioned by name in the bill.

"The manifest object of the section," the Japanese ambassador said "is to single out Japan as a nation, stigmatizing the Japanese as unworthy and undesirable in the eyes of the American people."

"It is difficult to believe that it can be the intention of the people of your great country, who always stand for high principles of justice and fair play in the intercourse of nations, to resort—in order to secure the annual exclusion of 146 Japanese—to a measure which would not only seriously offend the just pride of a friendly nation, that had been always earnest and diligent in its efforts to preserve the friendship of your people, but would seem also to involve the question of the good faith and therefore the honor of their government or at least of its executive branch."

Then came this pointed paragraph: "Relying upon the confidence you (Hughes) have been good enough to show me at all times, I have stated, or rather repeated, all this to you very candidly and in a most friendly spirit, for I realize, as I believe you do, the grave consequences which the enactment would bring."

Gentleman's Agreement Discussed.

Hanihara offered to discuss the question of modifying the gentleman's agreement if the United States desired to change its provisions.

"To Japan, the question is not one of expediency, but of principle," he continued. "To her the fact that the few hundred or thousand

THE FRIEND WHO KNOWS.

When comes the bitter time of doubt
And hope is vain and all is lost,
And all your strength has filtered out
And your poor soul is tempest tossed,
How good it is to turn and see
The glad face of a smiling friend
And hear him whisper tenderly:
"The worst of troubles soon must end."
When you are bowed in deep despair
And wonder, as you look about,
If from your cavern dark with care
There is to be no passing out,
How good it is to turn and see
A true friend standing at the door,
And hear him say: "Come follow me!
I have been through this thing before."
When all your failing strength seems vain,
And bitterly you sit and sigh
And think that never more again
The sun will clear your troubled sky,
How good it is to find a friend
Is standing by and hear him say:
"Cheer up! I'm with you to the end Come on old pal, I know the way!"

LUBBOCK COUNTY CITIZENS GIVE $2,457.62 IN CASH AND PLEDGES TO THE NEAR EAST RELIEF WORKERS

Forty-one helpless waifs in the Holy Land, Greece and Armenia, are insured a roof over their heads, shoes on their feet, and food in their mouths for a full year through the generosity of Lubbock County citizens who subscribed $2,457.62 in cash and pledges during the recent canvass for funds for Near East relief. Miss Margie Lin Caldwell, recently returned from overseas, and sent out from national headquarters of Near East Relief in New York to carry the message of need to Texas people, spent some time here, concluding the campaign the last day of March.

Intensive community canvasses were conducted in both Lubbock and Slaton under the direction of local organizations. Miss Caldwell cooperating. Dr. J. T. Hutchinson and C. E. Maedgen in Lubbock, and Paul Owens and J. H. Brewer in Slaton, were chairmen and treasurers, respectively, of the committees.

Miss Caldwell addressed large and interested crowds at both Lubbock and Slaton, where she received whole-hearted cooperation from the churches. Rev. B. W. Dodson, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Slaton, devoted a service to Near East relief and a union service of Baptist, Christian and Presbyterian congregations was held. In Lubbock, Rev. J. A. Rogers, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and the late Rev. C. N. Ferguson, pastor of the First Methodist church, made appeals from their pulpits.

Eight-Year Program. Adoptions of orphans, made by a number of organizations and individuals who pledged themselves to contribute $5 a month for each child adopted, were praised by Miss Caldwell, who emphasized the necessity for continued support of the 59,000 orphans now safe in Near East Relief homes, but wholly dependent on American generosity for support and vocational and religious training until they become of independent age, usually 16 years.

Eight years of support from America will be required to complete the task now well-started, it is estimated, but the yearly expenditure will be constantly diminishing. Approximately $6,000,000 must be contributed this year if the children already under the Near East Relief protection are adequately cared for; next year, the amount required will be about $5,000,000, the next $5,000,000.

WELL KNOWN SINGER WILL BE IN LUBBOCK SUNDAY

The Church of Christ of this city is fortunate to have with them again for Sunday's services R. M. Morgan of Crosbyton.

Mr. Morgan is a great song leader and always delights his audiences with his spirit of enthusiasm, which he puts into every song.

If you have not had the opportunity to hear this great singer we urge your attendance at all services at this church Sunday.

El Paso, Texas, April 9, 1924.

Mr. James L. Dow, Editor, Avalanche, Lubbock, Texas.

Just came across the attached item in Hubert S. Hunter's column, headed, "Around Here," in today's El Paso Herald.

"Thought you might like to see it. You're welcome."

Yours sincerely,

AUGUST WOLF.

"In Lubbock," says James L. Dow, nearly every religious denomination is represented and there is little excuse for not attending church.

"Better check up with the pastors on that last statement, Mr. Dow. They'll tell you that, on the contrary there is every excuse in the world for not attending church and they hear them all. Moreover, they hear new excuses every week, some of these members being positive geniuses at invention."

"One such genius, not necessarily in Lubbock, had a bright new excuse ready, every time he saw his pastor. Something always interfered to keep him from going to church. An agile mind and a fertile imagination stood him in good stead until one day the minister remarked quite gently:

"It's all right, Tom. I like to hear you talk. But some of these days you're going to die and go up for judgment and when you try to shew these excuses on St. Peter you're in for one hell of a time."

LUBBOCKITES URGED TO INVADE BROWNWOOD DURING W. T. C. OF C. CONVENTION MAY 13TH TO 15TH

"On to Brownwood."

If you have not already made up your mind to attend the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at Brownwood, May 13, 14 and 15, inclusive, it certainly isn't the fault of the "On to Brownwood" committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, nor to any reasonable thought that the entertainment features of the convention will be lacking in any respect.

The whole fact of the business is that the young businessmen of Lubbock are determined to take a big delegation to the convention to voice approval of every high point made in the principal speech of the convention, which will be delivered by Dr. P. W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological College.

It's not so much to make a big fuss over Lubbock by the presence of a large delegation that interests members of the committee, but to overcome the conspicuousness of a small delegation would suffer, it has been pointed out.

Texas expects much of Lubbock. The people of this town made a good fight and a winning one for the location of the Tech College. The newspapers of the entire southwest have carried multiplied columns of booster articles for the South Plains, with a hint of Lubbock being the "hub," written into every one of them, and for this city to fall down in attendance upon what has been termed as the greatest convention of its kind ever held in the United States, would be a jolt from which we would suffer for months to come.

Let's don't fall down. The Junior Chamber of Commerce will make it possible for Mr. Lubbock Citizens to attend the convention in good style, minimum expense, and there will be such entertainment features offered by the convention program committee as to make the trip worth while from a purely individual standpoint, and the value of his attendance from a standpoint of civic pride is inestimable.

Let's go!

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

Wednesday, April 2nd, the Fools I. Class visited the Ed Schrader Poultry Farm. Mrs. Schrader showed the girls over the poultry farm, including several poultry houses, her brooder, incubators. The girls enjoyed hearing about poultry and egg production, care, handling and marketing, from one who makes that study her business.

Last Saturday the Fools I. Class went down to the canyon near Slaton on a picnic. The picnic lunch was cooked on an open fire and after eating their lunch the girls took many novel pictures. Mrs. B. Sherrod, Miss Lola Oldham and Miss Charlie Morton chaperoned the girls. About 2 o'clock the party drove to Slaton and watched the home teams win the honors from the county in the interscholastic meet.

Thursday, April 17th at 8:00 p. m. the Home Economics students will give a vaudeville style show. The purpose of this style show is to raise money to send the girls to the State Clothing Contest which is to be held at Galveston, April 24th, 25th and 26th. Everyone is cordially invited to come and enjoy the programme and at the same time help us make money to send the girls to Galveston.

The preliminary judging contest on the garments will be held here Wednesday, April 16th and the finals will be held Friday, April 18th. The girls will leave for Galveston, April 22nd.

KIWANIS, HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DECEASED MEMBER

Memorial services for the late Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson were conducted at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday with W. C. Rylander in charge.

Appropriate and fitting remarks were made by Judge E. L. Klett, Rev. Jack M. Lewis and James L. Dow on the work wrought by the good man during the days he spent in Lubbock which brought a keener realization of the loss sustained by Lubbock and the Kiwanis club at his going.

Dr. P. W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological College was present and made a stirring address concerning the future possibilities of Lubbock and the Tech College, declaring that only the closest cooperation among all the people of the Plains and the members of the college board of directors will bring about the advancement so deserved by this new institution.

A report of the places won in the Canyon contest by Kiwanian Ray C. Mowery and his team of stock and poultry judges was made and the club voted unanimously to send them to the state contest at College Station.

Other important business was discussed and three committees were appointed, one composed of Rev. Jack M. Lewis, P. F. Brown and Rev. C. D. Poston was instructed to draw up resolutions of respect for the late Dr. Ferguson.

An "On to Brownwood" committee was appointed and will work with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in putting over a big attendance.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. L. SHOWELL

The words of the Savior to Simon Peter "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter," come unto my mind today as with a wondering groping feeling, I try to penetrate the inscrutable ways of providence in calling from our midst my friend, Mrs. J. L. Showell. Henry W. Grady the brilliant orator and christian gentleman died at the age of thirty-five and the nation stood aghast for he was known and loved and admired by both North and South, but his Presbyterian mother, whose faith was so strong in God's overwhelming providence, refused to rebel or grieve and said, "his work on earth was finished or God would not have permitted him to die."

With a faith not quite so strong, perhaps, we try to take this view of the "home-going" of Mrs. J. L. Showell. Just in the prime of her life and usefulness. Gifted, cultured and refined to an unusual degree, she had doubtless put more into her own life and into the lives of others than many who have rounded out a century. "We live in deeds, not in years. He lives most who thinks most, feels the noblest and acts the best." She brought to the West all the high ideals, consecration and loveliness of character for which the land of her birth is noted. Her brief sojourn in Lubbock has left its impress on her church, the community and each individual with whom she came in contact and will be felt when her memory has grown dim with passing years.

She liked the West with boundless dimensions and loved its kind-hearted people, but just a few days before she was stricken with her last illness, she and I had a conversation over the phone. We talked of the coming of spring time once more and we both spoke of how much we missed the early spring flowers and freshness of spring in the states where we were born. Among other things, she said, was, "Don't you remember how the dogwoods bloom in April back there?" Of course I remembered all too well.

Little did she or I think that in two weeks almost to the very day the snowy blossoms of the dogwoods would wave her a welcome home and waft their perfume over her last resting place.

She was born and spent her early life in Vienna, Maryland, where she will sleep beside her ancestors.

I live to think that the beautiful mountains of Virginia and Maryland will keep "watch and ward" over the grave, and the birds will sing above it till the resurrection morn.

It was the custom of the early Christians to say "Goodnight to their departed friends and loved ones" and to this dear friend I say "Goodnight, beloved—sleep and take thy rest. Lay down thy head upon thy Savior's breast. We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best. Goodnight, goodnight, goodnight!"

BUILD A HOME.

It is very unsatisfactory living in Lubbock if you do not own a home. It is different in many places. Renting a home in some towns or cities is almost equal to owning it so far as being permitted to remain in the house. In Lubbock where there is so much changing of owners, you can never tell when you will have to move, and you cannot get much satisfaction out of a life of that kind. One to make a home what it should be, must be able to have some assurance that when the flowers they plant have had time to bloom that they will be there to enjoy them, and for that reason we say, build a home.

We would suggest that you not wait till you are rich to build a home. It may of necessity have to be a very small and humble place, but it will be home. You can have a home that you will be proud of right now. There is a nationwide movement now being promulgated that has for its purpose that of making America a better place to live by making the people who live here a more contented people. This organized effort will stress the fact that pleasant and efficient homes are within the reach of families of small or moderate means. This effort will be put forth through the medium of Better Homes demonstrations which will be held by communities throughout the nation from May 11-18. The large majority of the homes shown in these demonstrations, which will be held by communities in every state in the Union, will not exceed $6,000 as the cost of their building, equipment and furniture. The educational value of these demonstrations, Better Homes in America believes, lies largely in the vivid presentation of the fact that a beautiful and wholesome environment depends less upon the amount of money spent in obtaining it than upon the degree of trained skill and good taste used in planning, equipping and furnishing the home.

The present overwhelming national shortage of satisfactory homes can be overcome. Better Homes in America declares, when people of modest means realize that, with thrift, attractive homes are possible for them. The organization also points out the necessity of greater efficiency in the building, planning and equipment of the homes of the United States, where over 90 per cent of the women of the country do their own work.
A sweet and wholesome home life is possible to all, it maintains. The physical and moral development of the children of the United States, and the future of the nation, it argues, depend largely upon good homes for the masses.

"The amenities of our civilization should be accessible to all persons, whatever their income or their occupation," Secretary Hoover declares in a foreword to the Guide Book, just issued by Better Homes in America. "High standards are consistent with economy, and can be put within the reach of all. Beyond having their homes decent and healthful, our American families want to make them attractive and beautiful. They are eager in contriving to reduce household drudgery."

"The cooperation of the citizens of each community in Better Homes Demonstrations has been found successful. I therefore have no hesitation in urging such cooperation as an outstanding form of public service. From this movement there should develop steadiness of character, high ideals of family life, civic pride, and responsibility throughout our land."

In the language of Dr. Horn, president of the Texas Technological College, there must be at least fifty per cent more homes to take care of the housing situation here. Necessarily many of these will have to be rent houses, for people who will be here for the school, but those who possibly can, should own their own homes, and that will make our city a more permanent population. It will make for our city more beautiful homes, for the fellow who owns his home feels more like spending money fixing up the premises than he would if he was uncertain just when he would have to move.

Build a home if possible. Own a home.

ASK THIS QUESTION.

Every time you meet a big man—a man who has made an outstanding success of the thing he has undertaken to accomplish in life—ask him
this question:

"What is the biggest thing you have learned about business; the one big idea which has done more for you than any other idea you have ever had?"

The answers will usually astonish you by their simplicity, but the unfolding of the thought will be instructive and inspiring. It is a worth-while thing to do.

Collect and co-ordinate the "publicity" material daily disseminated in Washington. If it is ever compressed between two covers, it will look like a consolidation of Webster's Unabridged and a Sears-Roebuck catalogue.

THE COMMUNITY CHEST

More than two hundred millions of dollars is the estimated amount given each year by the American public for charitable and philanthropic purposes. But while Americans give thus lavishly, it can not be said that they always give wisely.
It was only in recent years that those engaged in philanthropic work began to realize that business and scientific methods were just as necessary in the expenditure of charitable funds as in commercial enterprises, and they then began to study the best way to apply them. Out of this study many plans were evolved, but the one which has proved most popular, and which is generally the most successful is that which is apparently known as the "Community Chest." It had its origin in Denver about 40 years ago when an attempt was made to co-ordinate the different charities of that city. Some years later Jewish, Catholic and other religious bodies adopted the system; and in 1913 Cleveland tried the plan, working it out into the form which is the basis of most of the systems in operation now. The experience gained during the war in raising funds from the public accelerated the movement until today it is working in 179 cities of the United States and Canada. These cities by the community chest method raise more than $40,000,000 annually. Briefly stated, it aims to centralize the collection and distribution of funds for all the charitable organizations of any one city, and to co-ordinate the activities of separate agencies so as to do away with overlapping. By means of a campaign or drive once a year all the money needed for the ensuing year is collected thus relieving contributors of the annoyance of constant solicitations. This money is then allotted through the agency of a competent and representative board, on the basis of carefully prepared budgets. The plan is now being adopted in small towns and boroughs and with great success, for the reason that it guarantees a fair deal to all charitable institutions.

ARE LAWYERS TO BE DEBARRED?

John W. Davis, who has served as a member of Congress, as solicitor general for the United States before the Supreme Court, and as Ambassador to England, and now, an eminent lawyer, acts as counsel for the Morgans, recently received a letter from the Senate chamber urging him to return to West Virginia, make a show of running for the Senate, and thus establish his availability as a Democratic candidate for President by freeing himself of the charge that he is a "New York corruption lawyer." Too courteous to describe such a suggestion as ridiculous at this late date, Mr. Davis contented himself with a straightforward statement on the duties of a lawyer, declaring that he would not so dishonor himself and degrade his profession, and adding with characteristic boldness, his head held high as usual: "I tell you in order that I would not pay this price for any honor in the gift of man." There will be others to say further that if the country must deprive itself of the service of its ablest men because they are lawyers, so much the worse for the country.

Expressing the highest opinion of Mr. Davis himself and admiration for his stand, the New York World nevertheless offers a pointed explanation of the popular prejudice. It asserts the existence of a "conflict of national and private interests" and of "an ancient doubt based on long democratic experience, as to whether a man in public office can with a perfectly free mind approach questions affecting the interests of his old business associates," particularly when those business associates "are interests as powerful as the Morgans." Obviously this raised both the question as to whether any elected president can be entirely free from the influence of his old associates, and whether a public official may not be incorruptible and immovable from even though he had formerly served as a corporation lawyer.
Is it not a question of character in every case whatsoever?

CLEAN UP THE DUMP GROUND.

It has been gently hinted to us that the city dumping ground is nothing short of a disgrace to the town. Of course it was bought for the purpose of dumping refuse, trash, etc., on in order that it be not scattered all over the city, but there should be some systematic way of disposing of the rubbish as it is hauled out there,
other than to allow it to remain there until it decays, dries up or blows away. Especially is this important regarding the disposition of dead animals. At this time we are told that there are twenty-five or more carcasses on the dump ground now, and that the odor is very offensive; and is bound to be very unhealthy. We are of the opinion that there should be a place fixed for the destruction of all dead animals, fowls, feathers, etc. The health conditions must be looked closely after, and this is one place that the work should begin, and all laws rigidly enforced for the disposition of such things. The Health officer has a note of warning in another part of this paper that is very important, and the people of this wonderful city should heed his words, and cooperate with him in keeping the sickness in the community down to the minimum. This is the time of year that there is much danger from the diseases that he mentions in his article, and we believe the people of Lubbock should give him the very closest consideration and assistance where needed.

Hundreds of cities this year will adopt the Easter caroling custom, which since its introduction has spread rapidly all over this country; before long it will be as universal as Christmas caroling.

The supreme tragedy of Europe is not idle factories or disrupted government, but the blasted lives of little children. Economic and political misfortunes can slowly be remedied, but the moral catastrophe is irreparable.

MARKETS

TURN OF TIDE IN MARKET GIVES
NEW HIGH

By WILL JOHNSON

(U.N. Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, Apr. 11.—The work was a long time turning Friday, but when the turn did come in the final hour of business, stock prices shot up to new heights for the day so that the list finished quarter-to 2 7-8 points higher for the active shares. However, it took not long for the market to turn and the short of allied and Virtual German approval of the Dawes report
to accomplish the feat.

The early news of curtailment
in the American Sheet and Tin Plate plant at Sharon, Pa., and further curtailment in the motor industry was harped on by those bearishly inclined in an effort to hammer prices down to the last notch. The hardening of American sugar at the opening at 45 1/2 was an omen, but the bears shifted their attack to the steels and motors.

Bank clearings for the week are $7,645,373,400 by Bradstreet as against $8,258,017,000 for the country last year, a loss of about 10.3 per cent though a slight gain over the corresponding week last year.

Bonds were steady, to strong again. The metal issues stiffened on the latter dealings as did sugar bonds. Liberties were steady, at view of the 1-1/4 money rate which

Lower prices continued in some of the commodity markets including cotton. There was some linking up with the early declines in stocks on the theory that bears in stock were extending their operations in order to back up their position taken in the stock market.

SLAYER OF AGED
WOMAN SAID
INSANE

By United News.
PORTLAND, ORE., April 11.— Nora Hollis, author-slayer, late today was declared insane when she killed her white haired land lady, as she said, "under the urge of the demon God."

At an insanity hearing a county board of examiners pronounced the woman suffering from a mental aberration styled paranoia—meaning that she is deranged on one subject, that of religious belief.

The woman will be received at the state insane hospital at Salem tonight.

"I am sorry. Now my work is lost," she said. "I would rather have hanged so people would read my book.

"Now they will say I was crazy and that my works were only those of a maniac. If it had been my fate to die on the gallows then people would have read and known the truth."

"I'm sorry now that I sacrificed my friend because it was no avail."

Thus Nora Hollis characterized her disappointment when she was told she was insane. She was not remorseful, but merely resigned to her destiny.

This was the woman who yesterday crept up on Mrs. Eva Bradley, while the latter was at her sewing and shot her in the back. She said she did it only to make people read her book "The living God of the Bible is Satan, the Evil One."

WESTERNERS EMERGE VICTOR SLUGFEST AGAINST SLATON IN FIRST OFFICIAL CONTEST OF SEASON 16-12

Williams was a little too much off the Slaton Tigers here Friday afternoon, and although at times he was bingled freely, he seemingly had the situation in hand from the beginning, and backed by the heavy onslaught of the batting Westerners, was never in danger. He retired, however, with one man down in the closing inning, after the visitors had opened a batting rally. He was relieved by Nessmith, who, on account of his wildness, fared little better, and he in turn was relieved by Cate, who closed the visitors off with one additional single. Lubbock won the slugfest 16 to 12.

And slugfest, it might appropriately be called, for at no time of the affair was this feature of the exhibition lacking in evidence. Hits were even for the contestants, but the Westerners' hits seemingly were a little more bunched and more effective. Both clubs were very erroneous, Lubbock taking the honors there with a total of eight.

The Westerners took the lead in the opening inning, when Addison met the second ball pitched in the game, driving it far over the left field fence for four sacks. Again in the third the locals counted one on three successive singles by Cate, Addison, and Trotter. The visitors then scored on a double by Preston and a single by Huckabee.

In the fourth, the visitors being held scoreless, Lubbock counted a total of three runs, mostly on errors and bonchheads. Cate took a pop at one in this session and hoped it over the wall in left for the only hit of the inning.

In the fifth three singles and three errors gave Slaton as many counters, bringing them to within one run of the local lads. The locals failed to count in their half. The sixth went scoreless for both.

In the seventh it was nip and tuck for runs with Slaton counting three and Lubbock counting with four. Then in the eighth with Slaton having failed to count, Lubbock opened up her heavy artillery and laid waste all hopes of the visitors for victory, hitting around the loop with some to spare for a total of seven runs. Three doubles with men on, featured this rally. Williams drove one to deep left with three men on, for two bases, chasing three counters.

Slaton came back in the ninth in a heavy batting rally, driving back everything that was offered them, but could not overcome the heavy lead of the Westerners.

This was the first official game in the University Interscholastic League. Two out of three are required for a champ decision. The Westerners go to Plainview today where they meet Plainview high school for the second official game.

CHANCE RETURNS TO SOX AS AN INVALID

CHICAGO, Ill., April 11.—Frank Chance is back among the hosts of his former glories to struggle with a tail-end team. A handful who remembered the stalwart first sacker and manager of the triumphant Cubs of a decade ago, gathered to meet the invalid, equipped with a trick set of false teeth who returns to manage his ancient enemies, the Sox.

For Frank Chance, husky and still good to look upon, with skin and pleasant smiles, is nevertheless an invalid, and Mrs. Chance is his nurse. He is under stringent orders to breathe only through his nose. His lungs are weak, affected first, his doctors declare, by a bronchial trouble which grew out of an infection in his molars. But the ailment has invaded his muscular frame and though he looks able to don a mitt and cover first base as he did in the days of "Tinker to Evers to Chance," actually he must conserve every ounce of his energy.

Those were the days when the "peerless leader" was a dominant figure in baseball to whom Mugsy McGraw played second fiddle. Fortified with such minnowers as Reulbach, Pfeffer, Miner Brown and Overall on the mound, and brainy players at every post, Chance rode high.

So there is a sadomic twist in Chance's new association with the worst wrecked team in modern baseball, a run ever more pitiful than the Athletics after Frank's old rival Connie Mack, had finished his auction sale. Without their stars of three years ago, the Hitless Wonders now are also the Hitless Wonders, a team consigned by all prophets to the cellar.

Chance is a convalescent; his boss, Charles Comiskey, is in the hospital, and their 1924 White Sox are still a jangling crew of young recruits, in the main, whose brains and experience, in a baseball sense, are embodied chiefly in Eddie Collins, the active veteran, Johnny Evers, Ed Walsh, and their manager.

The sins of the Black Sox are being visited even on the third and fourth generations of the White Stockinged Athletics; and if the "peerless leader" aided by the Comiskey pocketbook and a helpful attitude by other magnates with surplus playing talent, is able to restore the Chicago Americans to their old time prestige, he will establish himself firmly as the most miraculous wonder worker of them all. Right now, even a Heine Zimmerman would have an urgent influence on Chance's furrowed brow.

BLANKENSHIP WINS OVER GIANTS WITH SIX HITS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 11.—Ted Blankenship held the Giants to six hits Friday and McGraw's men dropped a game to the White Sox by a score of 4 to 1.

Jack Bentley, pitching for the Giants, also went nine innings. These are the first pitchers to go the route in the series.

The score by innings:
Giants 000 100 000-1-5-2
White Sox 100 102 00x-4-8-1

HEALTH OFFICER ASKS HELP LAW ENFORCEMENT

As City Health Officer, I want to call the following to the notice of all dealers in food stuff in Lubbock, and ask that you cooperate with me and stop the gastro intestinal diseases that are so prevalent.

Section 2, of the Texas Food and Drug Law, declares an article of food to be adulterated, "If it consists in whole or in part of a filthy food." The same section defines the word "filthy," as follows:

"The term filthy shall be deemed to apply to food not securely protected from flies, dust, dirt and as far as may be necessary from all foreign or injurious contamination." Section 8: "Whoever shall do any of the acts or things prohibited, or willfully neglect or refuse to do any of the acts or things enjoined by this act or in any way violates any of its provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200."

It is clear from the law that fruit vendors, vegetable peddlers, meat peddlers, and side walk dealers cannot sell food exposed to flies, manure dust of the streets, or other contaminating influences. The State Board of Health has called attention to these things and asks our support in seeing that this law is enforced, so let us all fall in and make Lubbock safe from the bowel troubles that cause so many deaths in the summer, especially among the children.

SENATOR ADMITS TOOK PART IN LAND DEALS

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Scandal investigation by two major senate committees Friday cleared up loose ends in their inquiry while the third looking into the indictment of Senator Wheeler of Montana, rested preparatory to receiving information from Great Falls. The developments were:

Justice committee—J. J. McGraw of Tulsa, Okla., banker and former republican national committeeman admitted he had interceded with former Attorney General Daugherty in behalf of the famous Miller Brothers who are under indictment in connection with alleged irregular land deals in Indian reservations, but he maintained Daugherty refused to aid.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, questioned him concerning his campaign contribution in 1920 and he declared he had given $25-

000 to the republican campaign fund but that it was for a local candidate. He denied ever having heard the report that the late Jake Hamon millionaire oil operator and republican national committeeman, had paid $25,000 bill for President Harding.

Wm. Tilghamman of Oklahoma City, declared he had paid $7,000 to F. C. Quimby of New York for the state rights to the Dempsey-Carpenter fight pictures and $2,000 additional for "protection" but that after he had shown the pictures in Oklahoma his partner was arrested and fined. He said he had been assured the department of justice would not prosecute.

MANY TO ATTEND BROWNWOOD MEET

BROWNWOOD, Texas, April 11.—That the Plains section of Texas will be well represented with delegates and special trains in Brownwood during the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention, May 13, 14 and 15, was brought out here today when A. C. Ater, traveling passenger agent of the Santa Fe, announced the intentions of several cities to run special trains at that time.

Amarillo will bring a band with its delegation, in a special train. Mr. Ater announced. This Plains city is coming with a large delegation and is expected to stir up quite a bit of pep after announcing its intentions of taking the 1925 convention back to that city.

Another special train, which will bring both its Boy Scouts Band and its Glee Club, from Plainview, with its delegation, has been arranged, he said.

In appreciation of the Texas Tech being located there, Lubbock will be in Brownwood to exhibit the same spirit which it showed at the convention last year at San Angelo and the year before when Plainview entertained the organization.

The biggest band at the convention will probably be the musical company from Lamesa, which will accompany the delegates from that city in a six car special, which is remarkable considering the size of the city. It is to be remembered that this delegation made itself well known in San Angelo last year at this convention.

What is expected to be the largest train running into Brownwood will be the special from Sweetwater, where Big Spring, Colorado and Midland will assemble before coming here. A boys band will be a part of the delegation from Sweetwater.

San Angelo will journey here with a large delegation and its Boy Scout Band, in an eight car special train. This company of boosters will come making an effort to elect Col. C. C. Walsh president of this West Texas body.

With these wishes making early arrangements to start plans to put their city before the public during Texas' biggest convention, Brownwood is rapidly making plans to entertain, feed and shelter 20,000 guests, expected here, a multitude twice the population of the city which is entertaining.

LUBBOCK BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION GROWING

The growth of the Lubbock Building and Loan Association during the few years it has been in existence has been encouraging to all interested in it, and the fact that it has been a factor in the development of Lubbock is attested by the number of local people who owe something to the association for the privilege of home ownership.

The following figures concerning the standing and growth of the association at the end of its third year of business show something of the stability of this institution:

Assets, April 9, 1921	$ 9.01
Assets, April 9, 1924	168,707.09
Number of real estate loans	77
Average amount of loan	$2,166.00
Number of members	292
Average amount paid in per member	$562.15
Amount of stock now in force	$672,200.00
Average growth per year	$56,235.69

The following loans have been made by the Lubbock Building and Loan Association:
2 loans made in the last eight months of 1921.
18 loans made in the year of 1922.
37 loans made in the year of 1923.
22 loans made in the first three months of 1924.

COTTONSEED MEAL and HULLS

There is no question but that cottonseed meal grows in popularity as its intrinsic value becomes known. There is no foodstuff known that will place the same amount of fat on cattle within so short a time as cottonseed meal combined with cottonseed hulls, and this fact is recognized wherever this feed is used. When fed to dairy cows, its use increases the quantity of milk, improves the color, and the cream therefrom makes richer and better butter.

DISTRICT JUDGE AT HOME AFTER WEEK AT LAMESA

District Judge Clark M. Mullican returned to his home here Friday after spending the week at Lamesa conducting District court.

He reports that the jury in the case of the State of Texas vs. T. F. Farrow, charged with murder in connection with the killing of a painter by the name of Pond there last year, returned a verdict of not guilty after a long consideration of the merits of the case.

He also reported that in the case of the State of Texas vs. Campbell, charged by indictment with assault to murder, the jury gave the defendant a five years suspended sentence.

A number of both criminal and civil cases have been set for next week, Judge Mullican said.

LEGION GETS A GOODLY SUM FROM DAVIS AUDIENCES

G. Bert Davis & Company have presented a number of appreciated entertainments in their tent show on Avenue G, and the local post American Legion, under whose auspices the show is presented in Lubbock, has profited by the week's program as a goodly number of the proceeds have been given over to that organization.

The final entertainment will be given this evening.

Capacity crowds attended practically all performances for the week, and it is expected that many will find tickets all sold when they reach the show grounds this evening.

METHODISTS WILL USE NEW ORGAN
SUNDAY

The Methodist congregation and all those who attend services there Sunday will have the pleasure of hearing pipe-organ music from the new instrument that has just been installed and put into operation.
The instrument is one of the best in West Texas, and you will enjoy hearing the music that Mrs.
Neal will produce on this organ.
It will be used in the Sunday School services as well as the regular preaching services.

Dr. Robinson, presiding elder of the district, who has charge of the church work here pending the selection of a successor to Dr. C.
N. Ferguson, deceased, will likely fill the pulpit both morning and evening.

You are cordially invited to attend the services of the day beginning with the Sunday school services at 9:30 and on through the day at the usual hours.

Strangers in our city, or visitors are especially urged to attend our services, and we guarantee that you will enjoy them, and will not feel like a stranger any longer.

GEORGE S. COLEMAN, JR.,
BURIED HERE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for George S.
Coleman, Jr., two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Coleman of Hillsboro, were conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stubbs here Friday afternoon at three o'clock. Interment was made in the Lubbock Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were former residents of Idalou, having moved to Hillsboro last September.
Mrs. Coleman is a daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. C. N. Barker who live
four miles south of Lubbock.

Mrs. Barker and daughter, Miss Mayme, left their homes here the first of the week to go to Hillsboro in answer to a message that the child was very low and reached that place before his death.

ELIJAH AND THE STRUGGLE WITH BAAL

LESSON TEXT.—1 Kings 18:1-40.
GOLDEN TEXT.—"No man can serve two masters."—Matt. 6:24.
PRIMARY TOPIC.—God Hears Elijah's Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC.—Elijah on Mt. Carmel.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—The Conflict between Jezebel and Elijah.
YOUNG PEOPLE'S AND ADULT TOPIC.—How Elijah Won the Victory.

J. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17-18).

When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry. Instead, Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (1 Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

(1) "As the Lord God of Israel liveth"—He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear.

(2) "Before whom I stand"—Because Elijah stood before God, he would stand before Ahab.

(3) "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word."—Drought was the punishment for idolatry (Deut. 11:16, 17).

H. A Challenge to Baal Worship (1 Kings 18:17-40).
As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight, while the penalty of the king's sins should be visited upon the land.

1. Elijah Shows Himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

(1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah, to awe him into submission. The devil goes about as a roaring lion (1 Pet. 5:8).

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.

2. The Bold Challenge (vv. 19-24).

(1) The people assemble (vv. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.

(2) The ringing call to decision (vv. 21-24).

a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal.

b. The silence of the people (v. 21). This may have been because of fear of the king, or ignorance, for many were of the opinion that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshipped.

c. The method of decision (vv. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God. The one who answered by fire was to be the God.

3. The Test Applied (vv. 25-35).

(1) Offering by the prophets of Baal (vv. 25-29). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove to the people as to whether Baal was a real god.

(2) The offering by Elijah (vv. 30-35).

a. People invited near (v. 30). There are no secrets in God's worship.

b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32). Elijah took twelve stones representing the united nation.

c. The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar.

d. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer.

(a) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships.

(b) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant.

(c) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). His heart yearned after Israel. He wanted them to come to know God.

e. The result (vv. 38, 39).

(a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches.

(b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The Execution of Baal's Prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their King. Idolatry was treason against the King.

Loyalty to Christ

No Christian ought to be afraid to take his religion out where there is none. All the same it is easier to be loyal to Jesus, when we keep with Jesus' other friends.—Christian Cynosure.

A Wise Selection

Life is a piece of material put into your hands to do with as you like. But in cutting it out be sure to use the only reliable pattern.—Christian Cynosure.

As They Come and Go

HOW, WHY, WHEN AND WHERE

C. A. Lovett, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph and Cable Company, will go to Dallas to attend the four days' convention of managers to be held by the company there.

Mrs. D. D. Dupre left Friday for Los Angeles after having spent several weeks visiting at the home of her father-in-law, Prof. M. M. Dupre, of the Lubbock city schools.

Rob Sartain, of Buena Vista, has been here several days visiting his cousins, Mesdames M. M. Dupre and J. M. Slagle.

Purvin Connally, former manager of the R. & R. Lindsey Theatre, and who is now with the R. & R. Theatres at Sweetwater, was here for a few hours Wednesday visiting friends.

E. C. Young, J. E. Watson, J. T. Lawson, Luther Lawson and J. E. Watson, Jr., of Lubbock, were among those who went to Amarillo the first of the week to hear Wm. G. McAdoo speak.

Senator W. H. Bledsoe returned to his home here Friday after attending court at Lamesa during Wednesday and Thursday.

T. C. Calley, Henry Mahoney, Bob Crum, T. R. Kincaide, Pate Hardy and J. J. Gosdin, prominent citizens of the Shallowater community, were looking after business in Lubbock Friday.

Mrs. C. N. N. Ferguson, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Chas. W. Ferguson, returned to her home here Friday from Amarillo, where they attended the funeral of her husband, who was buried in the Llano cemetery following services at Park Street Methodist church there.

T. J. Coffee and son, Floyd of Lorraine, Texas, returned to their home Friday after having visited T. J.'s father at the home of Mrs. Emma Coffee, corner 33rd street and Avenue K.

W. T. Cunningham was here Friday from his farm home in Bailey county and reported conditions to be very good in that vicinity.

County Judge P. F. Brown and Attorney Fred C. Pearce made a business trip to Slaton Friday afternoon.

$2,000,000 Guarantee Granted.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 11.—A deficiency appropriation of $2,000,000 was declared by Governor Friend W. Richardson late Friday, thus giving a state guarantee to banking interests that will be asked to underwrite a fund held necessary for successfully combating the hoof and mouth epidemic.

By his action, the executive avoided the calling of a special session of the state legislature, a demand for which earlier in the day had caused the governor to participate in a lively fight with a delegation of representative citizens.

To these persons, the governor responded that he was still governor of the state and would act as he thought best.

Dairy Cattle Infected.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 11.—Discovery of the third serious outbreak of foot and mouth disease among dairy cattle in one day was announced Friday night by the state department of agriculture.

Eight hundred fine dairy cattle were reported infected, two miles north of Lankershim, shortly after two herds were found diseased there earlier in the day.

The eight hundred cows belong to one of the largest dairies in Los Angeles and it was predicted if the scourge is not abated the milk supply of the city may be curtailed.

It was intimated Friday night that another large milk producing dairy herd might be found infected Saturday.

JAPAN HURLS CHALLENGE TO U. S.

of her nationals will or will not be admitted into the domains of other countries is immaterial, so long as no question of national susceptibility is involved. The important question is whether Japan as a nation is or is not entitled to the proper respect and consideration of other nations.

"If I may speak frankly, at the risk of repeating what, under instructions from my government, I have represented to you on other occasions the mere fact that a certain clause, obviously aimed at Japan as a nation, is introduced in the proposed immigration bill, in apparent disregard of the most sincere and friendly endeavors on the part of the Japanese government to meet the needs and the wishes of the American government and people, is mortifying enough to the government and people of Japan."

A Progressive Department

of a Progressive City

—the City Light and Power Department of Lubbock holds an enviable record in Lubbock as to service rendered and prices charged. This record is the result of the moral and financial backing of a progressive city—a city being built by the whole-hearted cooperation of its people.

—It is a known fact that the use of electricity is becoming more common in all homes of Lubbock than in most cities of its size. This is surely attributable to the good service received by our patrons at a small charge.
