United Fund Halfway To Goal

Aransas County's 1980 United Fund campaign effort has reached the half-way mark — almost.

As of Monday, November 3, campaign officials reported the organization has received some $10,000 in contributions. The 1980 United Fund goal is $20,103. UF officers and board members will have their second meeting at noon Thursday, October 6, in Corky's Restaurant. The first meeting was September 25, about a week before the 1980 campaign officially got underway on October 1.

Pilot Editorial Wrong

The Rockport Pilot editorial written by Editor Perry Carter contained totally false statements without any basis in fact whatsoever.

The editorial stated that Senator A.R. "Babe" Schwartz had been indicted in an incident in Galveston after a court session last week.

The facts are that Senator Schwartz asked for immediate consideration by the Grand Jury of the alleged charges against him. The Grand Jury returned a no bill which cleared the Senator of the alleged charges.

The no bill was returned after the Grand Jury heard testimony from witnesses including Judge Ed Harris. There are no charges pending against Senator Schwartz.

There is not now and there has not been an indictment, and the error is entirely the fault of Perry Carter, the editor of the Rockport Pilot, for which he apologizes to the citizens of Aransas County and Senator Schwartz.

Says New Animal Control Officer

Animal Problem 'Rampant' In Rockport

By Pat Blair
Last Friday or Saturday, says Dick MacMurchy, a dog got hit by a car in front of Duck Inn Restaurant. "He was a beautiful animal," Dick said, "and I think he was owned by somebody." But Dick doesn't know — the dog was so badly injured, it had to be put to sleep.

The point is, says Dick, "if that dog had been kept leashed or fenced, he'd be alive today."

Dick is Rockport's new animal control officer, on the job since October 1, whose job is to enforce the city's new animal control ordinance.

He didn't take the job because he dislikes animals. On the contrary, he loves them and has a dog and cat of his own.

He took the job because he believes it a kindness to the animals and to people to keep dogs and cats under restraint.

"Animals are running rampant in Rockport," he

Notable Notes

City Hall Closed

Rockport's City Hall will be closed for Veteran's Day on Tuesday, November 11. There will be no garbage pickup on that day. Garbage usually picked up on Tuesdays will be picked up on Wednesday, November 12.

Home and Garden Club

The Rockport Home and Garden Club will hold its Fall meeting beginning at 1:30 Tuesday, November 11, with a tour of Fulton Mansion. Also planned is a tea at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W.D. Alley, president of the local group. That evening at 7 o'clock there will be a banquet at the Sandollar Restaurant. On Wednesday, November 12, there will be a meeting at the Sandollar at 10 a.m. with Mrs. I.B. Fausey of Rockport as speaker, followed by a luncheon. Mrs. R.W. Moore is reservations chairman and Mrs. Otto Bruggeman is general chairman.

Class of 1971 Plans Reunion

The Rockport-Fulton graduating class of 1971 will hold an organizational meeting Wednesday, November 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Molly Johnson. For more information, call 729-2060. Anyone interested in attending is welcome.

P.E.O. To Meet

Chapter EO, P.E.O., will meet Tuesday, November 11, at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W.M. (Pearl) Denny, 2003 Cochran. The program will be given by Mrs. F.V. (Kathi) Bailey.

PDAP Slates Meeting

The Palmer Drug Abuse Program will meet at the Portland Community Center in Portland at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 11. Bill Wilson will speak on how drug abuse affects the community, school and family.

PAC To Meet

There will be a meeting of the Rockport Elementary School Parent Advisory Council of the Title I reading program at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 11. Members of the council are urged to attend and any interested parents are invited to hear a presentation explaining the testing procedures used in Title I reading evaluation. The meeting will be at the school in Room 21.

Methodist Bazaar

Aransas County residents are urged to "mark Wednesday, November 19, in red" on their calendars — that's the date of the United Methodist Women's annual Christmas Bazaar. Events will get underway at 9 a.m. at the United Methodist Church on Main Street in Rockport and will continue through 5 p.m. with sale of handmade items, plants, "tree trimmers" and lots of baked and canned goodies. The "Sidewalk Cafe" will serve coffee from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. and lunch from 11 a.m. on. Everyone is invited to "come browse and shop the easy way" for the names on their Christmas lists.

RFHS Band Robstown Bound

The Rockport - Fulton High School Marching Band will be on its way to Robstown this Saturday, November 8, to participate in the 1980 version of the Interscholastic League Marching Contest, District 14.

Band Director Dwayne Bishop said that, because of conflict with a regional cross-country meet in San Antonio on the same date, four of the 115 band members will not attend the ILS test in Robstown.

However, 111 of the band members will be there to "strut their stuff" at 2:45 p.m. Saturday.

Bishop said "probably" between 30 and 40 bands will be at the contest.

"Theoretically," he added, "the bands are not in competition with each other. They compete against a standard."

Each band will receive a rating from I ("Superior") to V ("Definitely needs improvement").

Bishop added a rating of II means "Excellent," III is

"average" and IV is "Fair."

Routines for the competition must last "not less than five minutes nor more than 10 minutes," Bishop said, and the bands will be judged by a panel of three judges who are themselves band directors.

Pirates End 1980 Season Against West Oso

By Bob Crawford
1980's football season comes to an end this week for the Rockport-Fulton Pirates when the Pirates travel to West Oso to battle the fleet West Oso Bears.

West Oso poses an extra problem for the Pirates because they have speed to match that of the Pirates. Running backs James Boyd and Kennard Rydolph are both speedsters, and can break the ball game open at any time, just as the Pirates have Micheal Simmons and Dwayne Walls who are equally dangerous.

The Bears have had a strange season, beginning with the preseason pickers saying that the Bears were the team to challenge the Wildcats of Gregory-Portland. That clash is a week later on the last football night of regular season play. The Pirates have an open date on the final weekend.

With only a loss of Beeville in district play, the Bears will be out to not let the Pirates get in their way of the playoff with Gregory-Portland. This past weekend, the Bears were side-tracked a little by St. Gerard's of San Antonio, with the Bears losing 21-6, but that was a non-district

Pilot Errs

State Representative Leroy Wieting was not one of the "Killer Bees."

The Pilot mistakenly identified Wieting as one of the "Bees" in an editorial published in the November 2 Weekender.

The Pilot offers our sincerest apologies to Mr. Wieting for the mistake.

READY FOR MARKET DAYS

Ladies working with Market Days, sponsored by the Lamar Volunteer Fire Department, show some of the merchandise that will be for sale Friday and Saturday, November 7 and 8, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Lamar Fire House. From left to right are Jan McGlasson, Verna

Cook, Nita Bell, Jenny Heldenfels, Sandy Sloop, Gladys Poole, Jessie James and Clara Belle Garner. To get to the sale, which will also feature refreshments, turn on Park Road 13 at the Sea Gun Resort and follow the Market Days signs. [Pilot Photo by Johnnie Littleton]

DICK MACMURCHY AND FRIEND

Dick MacMurchy, Rockport's new animal control officer, holds one of the occupants of the city's pound. The puppy is one of five currently being "confined" — along with two adult dogs — at the pound, and Dick suggests that a little fellow [or lady] like this would make a good Christmas gift for a child. # From The Wheelhouse

By Perry Carter

We have recently received more details on the so-called "Windfall Profits" tax which has been set against this state by President Carter and the Congress.

The two items which follow add more details and figures to demonstrate the destructiveness of the tax to Texas, and information concerning a lawsuit filed attacking the constitutionality of the tax.

(Editor's note: From the Bulletin-Express, Republican Party of Texas):

It will cost the average Texas family $939.85 a year to support President Carter's new excise tax on petroleum which he and his supporters have misnamed the "windfall profits tax."

That is the conclusion drawn from calculations of the costs of the new tax that will be passed on to the state's consumers. It does not include such additional costs as lost jobs, lost royalties, business slow-downs or other changes that will result from the unprecedented $13 billion-a-year U.S. tax which Carter worked hard to levy against Texas.

Gov. Bill Clements has called the tax unfair and discriminatory. Not only is it the world's all-time record excise tax — $250 billion in the next 10 years — but Texas alone will pay one-third that bill. The siphoning by Washington of so much money from Texas will undeniably harm every segment of the state, he says.

And, he explains, the tax has nothing to do with profits. It is levied against land owners, royalty owners, and producers "even if they are losing their shirts."

Gov. Clements has been one of the sharpest critics of the Carter tax. He points out that the tax is charged at the well head and that it will take $35.6 million out of the Texas economy every day, or $1.48 million per hour. He says it will eat up $2 billion a year more than the entire state budget.

Business sources see dark days ahead for Texas if the "windfall tax" is not abolished or sharply modified. The economic impact on Texas, they say, is enormous. The figures are staggering.

For every dollar put into the Texas economy by the petroleum industry, $1.40 in income is created. Thus, taking $13 billion a year out of the state, and sending it to Washington, deprives Texas of $18.2 billion a year in income.

In job loss alone, the excise tax will remove money that could have created 260,000 new field positions for oil exploration and production. Since every field worker has 1.3 other workers as backup and support personnel, that means another 338,000 potential new jobs down the drain. The total of lost jobs in the petroleum business alone is 598,000.

For a nation groping for increased production to become energy independent, the wiping out of so many exploratory positions is almost suicidal, says one authority.

And for a state like Texas, with its bright prospects for growth and business opportunity, the siphoning off of so much capital has dangerous implications for every segment of society.

Decreased family earnings, either because of lost work or higher taxes, means fewer savings, which, in turn, means even less money available to finance new homes or businesses or college educations, and so on.

The growth that Texas might have had will go to other states where the mainstay of economic support is not subject to such a discriminatory drain, and where normal economic growth is possible.

Elderly royalty owners, who depend on small monthly royalty checks to pay for their groceries and other needs that are not fully covered by Social Security, have already complained about their royalty since the "windfall tax" went into effect in March. One elderly couple, typical of thousands, said their monthly check of $180 fell to $97.

"For us, this Carter tax was very bad news," the wife said. "The only windfall is the tax is for Washington bureaucrats who want to finance Carter's liberal programs. For them it means billions of dollars to play around with."

The Carter administration has cleverly delayed letting the rest of the nation feel the brunt of the new excise tax until after the election.

Experts figure that the "windfall tax" alone, if not changed, will add 36 cents to the cost of each gallon of gasoline. But Americans will not learn that until petroleum is deregulated on October 1, 1981. That addition, along with Carter-years inflation, will drive gasoline over the $2-a-gallon level.

(Editor's note — Taken from The Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association information service):

AUSTIN — Texas independent oil producers and royalty owners are actively involved in the major lawsuit filed in Cheyenne, Wyoming, today attacking the constitutionality of the Crude Oil Windfall Profits Tax. Dallasite L. Frank Pitts, President of the Austin-based Texas Producers and Royalty Owners Association described the tax as "a capricious and arbitrary excise measure" that hits hardest the nation's 12,000 independent producers and some two million royalty owners.

Stated Pitts: "The so-called windfall profits tax is totally unrelated to profits and amounts to the biggest excise tax in history. More than $227 billion will be siphoned from the producing industry during the next decade, assuring that literally hundreds of thousands of badly needed domestic wells will not be drilled. Furthermore, it endangers the economic livelihood of the more than 1.5 million royalty owners who average less than $300 monthly in royalty income and find themselves losing more than one-third of it under this unreal tax. Most of these owners rely on Social Security and modest royalty income to pay their bills.

"Some 700,000 Texans are paying approximately one-third of the gigantic tax measure, and the State's economy as a whole will suffer even more loss as plans for more than 200,000 wells are cancelled during the next ten years to finance the tax burden. Ironically, the expressed purpose of the tax is to expand domestic energy and thereby reduce costly oil imports from the security-sensitive Mid-East and other foreign sources. In fact, the tax does the opposite, and this will be the main argument pressed in the court case.

"As the case proceeds to the U.S. Supreme Court in the future, additional arguments will be pressed. The Constitution requires that an excise tax be levied uniformly. The windfall tax fails to do this, since it exempts production north of the Arctic Circle in Alaska. The tax also is levied on a minority to finance as yet unknown objectives for the common good without providing appropriate compensation under due process requirements of the fifth amendment."

States Have Right To Recover For Natural Resources Damages

At a time when many states face an increasing incidence of oil spills, dumped toxic wastes, and illegally discharged pollutants, a U.S. Court of Appeals decision has established an important precedent.

States and commonwealths, such as Puerto Rico, have the right to sue for damages to their natural resources.

The decision comes seven years after the captain of the oil tanker "SS Zoe Colocotroni" dumped 1.5 million gallons of crude oil into the waters off the southwestern coast of Puerto Rico in an effort to lighten and free his grounded ship.

Later that day the oil reached Puerto Rico's margarita Reef and the shores of the Bahia Sucia.

Money for a clean-up was recovered and local fishermen settled their claims out-of-court. But Puerto Rico decided to sue for damages done to its Bahia Sucia mangrove swamp and the marine organisms which thrived there.

In 1978 a U.S. District Court awarded Puerto Rico more than $6.1 million in damages for what it deemed to be the replacement value of the destroyed organisms.

The oil tanker owners appealed that decision, claiming that any award was unwarranted since the marine organisms destroyed in the oil spill "have no market value," and there was no evidence of "loss of income or profits or loss of use" of the mangrove swamp.

Two conservation organizations, the National Wildlife Federation and the Natural Resources Defense Council, and eight coastal states — Florida, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Texas, and Virginia — filed a "friend-of-the-court" brief supporting the lower court's decision.

"We thought it was extremely important that the court recognize that the fragile marine ecosystem damaged in the oil spill was

Austin at Wharf

IT IS, IN A WAY, PAINFUL, DISCOURAGING TO be obliged to write this column with a Monday deadline, especially in this election week. It is also challenging. Wisely perhaps, I should turn my thoughts from politics and write of mice and men and sundry things. Why not?

From my window I can look out upon a bright, still day, one that is the nearest thing we have to an Indian Summer in South Texas. Aransas Bay is calm, unruffled. Yesterday I was on the bay, sails barely filled, a drifter, but the porpoises were at play. Never a word of politics spoken. Perhaps I should carry on in that vein. When these words appear, many of you will already have heaved sighs of relief, thanking the gods that that "it is all over."

BUT I MUST ATTEMPT TO MEET THE CHALLENGE. Might it not be a good, even an interesting idea to attempt to write what I might write on Wednesday morning, with the election behind us? I must be careful.

Of course, it is easy enough to say that neither Carter nor Reagan, whichever one wins, will in his heart of heart be filled with great jubilation, no matter his vocal surface gestures.

Because neither man, unless the totally unexpected happens, will win office by a mandate. On that score I shall even suggest that by Wednesday the final results will still be unclear, uncertain.

NOW HERE COMES THE DIFFICULT PART. Suppose Carter wins? At best, I suspect, even his own followers, the most partisan among them, will only be glad that a man who lays claim to the Democratic standard has been returned to office.

Their elation, such as it may be, will be only in that a Republican did not win. No man or woman among them will be able to feel that because of the victory the country will move forward, that the people face the morrow with renewed confidence and faith.

Certainly they must be aware that almost for the first time in history almost no Democratic candidate for election or re-election sought the blessings of the incumbent president. In truth, they more often avoided the tie.

Jimmy Carter won office four years ago by a hair's breadth, and then only, and mostly, because so much of the electorate wanted change. It was fed up with what might be called the "old order." Throw the rascals out was the spirit of '76!

Jimmy ridiculed the old order, members of the Congress and Senate. He went to Washington as a loner and has remained one. Little that he has done has inspired confidence. His promise never to lie to the people has brought into being a new breed of cynics. Abroad he is looked upon with distrust. Other nations are fearful, preferring to politely keep the United States at an arm's length. Are they to be blamed?

Both Carter and Reagan throughout the campaign have, after the way of politicians from time immemorial, promised the voters all manner of goodies, things each feels to be the preference of those from whom they seek vote. Absurd when you think that you know, I know and they know such pledges are empty without the support of the Congress. Why, one must wonder? Sometimes I think that we must all be possessed of mentalities that are knee-high to a grasshopper.

SO NOW, SUPPOSE REAGAN WINS? STRAIGHTAWAY, don't expect the country to change overnight — full employment, lowered interest rates, the economy swinging into full gear. Faith, confidence, and above all, morale of the people appears to be at the lowest ebb in my lifetime.

Certainly people of the world hold us in less regard than at any time in history. This circumstance may have been true to a degree before Carter took office, but since then it has plummeted.

Reagan may not be the wisest man in the country today. I most certainly don't think he is. Some will and have called him naive in his desire to return us to those old-fashioned articles of faith. Perhaps I may even like the idea myself, but I see little likelihood that will happen. On the other hand Reagan's efforts just might result in a libation that is a mixture of the best of the old and the best of the new concepts.

Meanwhile, Reagan's greatest virtue, as I see it, is his ability to surround himself with genuinely intelligent men and women, plus an ability to gracefully change and make concessions. The last was his key to success as governor of California. Incidentally, all of us have heard his stewardship in California debated. It is a subject I have studied in some depth, one I have also discussed with a fair number of residents of that state.

The hour is too late for an indepth report on that, so let it suffice that if Reagan is the winner it will be because of the support he has received from that state. He cannot have won without it. A fair answer to the question.

FINALLY A MUCH-WORN POINT IN THIS COLUMN. The real import of this election is four years away. Reagan as the winner means that in '84 George Bush will be the candidate of the Republican Party and so almost with certainty, the next President.

Bush, even today, is the most capable and qualified man on the American political scene. A Carter win, of course, means that in '84 there will be a contest between Walter Mondale and Teddy Kennedy. Both men may, with good reason, be called ultra-liberal, and I do not use the term as an epithet — instead, on the basis of their records which are politically close to being identical.

The comparison must in fairness be taken no further. Mondale I concede to be sincere and honest in his convictions. Decency does not permit further comment on Kennedy. Suffice that, in a word, on Tuesday, November 4, 1980, you chose the next President of these United States. —cmhenkeljr

Recreational Association To Meet

Striving for the betterment of Rockport in general and Rockport Beach in particular, the Aransas County Recreational Planning Association will meet to discuss several improvements at 7:30 Wednesday evening, November 5, at the Navigation District Building.

The Beach Improvement Committee working in conjunction with the Recreational Planning Association has instigated a number of improvements for Rockport Beach, including the planting of nearly 30 trees for beautification.

Other recommendations have been improvements to the Band Shell, the beginning of dredging to restore the Rockport Beach, and improving the restrooms — along with investigation of alternate waste disposal — under the direction of Tom Shultz.

Studies are also underway on the effects of currents, wildlife, lighting, groins and other beach improvements. The Aransas County Navigation District has approved preliminary plans drawn by Dick Freesby of the local assistance division of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Bobby Landrum was responsible for having the slab poured at the Band Shell and Hillis Dominguez is in constant contact with the various agencies helping in the project, according to a member of the Association.

The Aransas County Recreational Planning Association advisors are under the Navigation District's jurisdiction and all plans and specifications for improvements must meet the District's approval.

According to the spokesman, "without Ted Greenfield and his equipment, the planting of trees would have been very difficult. Also the 'Rockport' ideas have helped without them we would be at a standstill."

Others whose work and ideas have been helpful are Fred Arkell, Ralph Winkelman, Henry Bent, Dutch Koppenhaver, Bill Corey and the Directors Charles Augustine, Anita Dingenary, Bud Newman and Felicia Ratajski.

"We know now where we are going and can begin our next phase of the improvement project. We would appreciate ideas, input and support of the residents of Rockport — we need you and so does the Rockport Beach and the future development of this area. The beach belongs to the community and the members of the committee urge all interested citizens to attend the November 5 meeting.

Sheriff's Report

Charles J. Humbert of Bayshore Motel, Fulton Beach Road, called the sheriff's office Saturday afternoon, November 1, to report that his car was missing.

Humbert said he parked his car at Fulton Harbor about 6 a.m. Saturday and put the keys under the seat while he was out shrimping. When he returned from shrimping, the car was gone.

A trailer belonging to Norman Nelms, 5A Midway Trailer Park, was burglarized sometime between 11 p.m. Friday, October 31, and 11:45 a.m. Saturday.

A black and white television set valued at $200 and a portable radio valued at $20 are known to be missing. It has not been determined if anything else was taken.

Aransas County Deputy Sheriff Israel Ruvalcaba assisted in recovery, October 24, of a Sea Ray boat and trailer reported stolen in Pasadena.

Deputy Ruvalcaba was called to the Sandollar Marina, Fulton Beach Road, by Officer Joe W. Haralson, Texas Department of Public Safety investigator for motor vehicle theft services, to help recover the boat.

The boat was towed away for impoundment by a wrecker from Gary's Texaco.

Mrs. Woody Jackson of 711 West Terrace Blvd. reported theft of a ring valued at $190 from her residence sometime between 1:15 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. September 28.

Gurleys Celebrate Gold Anniversary

Harry and Viola Gurley were honored with a celebration at the Mooresville National Guard Armory in Mooresville, North Carolina October 24, on their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosts were the couple's children J.C. Gurley of Rockport and Mrs. Ronald (Elizabeth) Nesbitt of Mooresville.

The classroom area of the armory was decorated in gold and white. Crystal appointments held refreshments and golden floral arrangements enhanced both the anniversary and gift tables.

The arrangement on the gift table was from friends of the honored couple from the Rockport Church of Christ where the Gurleys had worshipped since 1939 until they moved to Mooresville in 1977. Gurley was an elder in the Rockport church for 25 years.

A five-tiered cake decorated in gold and white was served, as well as golden fruit punch, golden butter mints, nuts and cheese straws.

The couple's granddaughter, Miss Rhonda Nesbitt, served punch and Mrs. Minnie Lee White presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Linnie Nesbitt served the cake.

Their grandson, Cody Nesbitt, invited the guests to register and their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Nesbitt received the gifts and placed them on display.

Mrs. Gurley, her daughter, daughter-in-law, granddaughter and her two sisters all wore matching gold dresses made by one of the sisters, Mrs. White.

Mrs. Gurley complemented her dress with a corsage of bronze daisy mums and Gurley wore a matching boutonniere.

Friends of the Gurley's from the American Association of Retired Persons Council on Aging and the Church of Christ attended the reception.

Attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Gurley and Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Tucker, all of Rockport and Mrs. Minnie Lee White of Dallas.

Church Women To Meet

Church Women United will worship ecumenically Friday, November 7, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, corner of Mimosa and Live Oak Streets beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Host will be Rev. Walter

Clark.

Florence Beatty, chairperson of the Area 8, Coastal Bend will be guest speaker and will bring highlights of the National Conference of Church Women United from the 1980 California conference.

World Community Day is set aside to consider responsibilities to bring about justice and peace around the globe.

The program involves Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox churches nationally and internationally, working together and sharing goals which grow out of a common commitment to Christ.

All are welcome to attend and "add to the chain of prayer that reaches around the world."

AARP News

By Lucille Skrobarcek

Thirty-six persons attended game afternoon on Thursday, October 30. Vincent and Mary Lucille Skrobarcek were host and hostess and refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The winners in bridge were Mrs. Katherine Bowen and Mrs. Rosalyn McEvoy. The finale was won by Mrs. Dorothy Glasel and the "Pouch of Coins" went to Norm Como.

The next game afternoon is Thursday, November 6, at 1 p.m. at the Paws and Taws building.

An AARP-sponsored dance on Wednesday, November 5, at 7 p.m. features Gene Rickles' danceable music. Refreshments are served at the intermission.

The November 12 business meeting of AARP Rockport Chapter 1536 is very important as it is "Election Day." Make a special effort to attend. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. preceded by coffee and cookies at 9:30 a.m.

The birthday and anniversary persons are asked to sit at a special table decorated in their honor.

Older Adults Have 'Special Gift' To Give

COLLEGE STATION — Older adults possess special "treasures of history" to give children when birthdays or gift days roll around, says a family life education specialist.

These gifts can be "sharing experiences with children or actual items related to the past," explains Diane Welch.

Mrs. Welch is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

When older adults give these special gifts, they provide children with a sense of a time they haven't known — along with the chance to carry on the skills and a bit of the culture of the past.

When these "gift times" arise, the older adult might consider giving something that would have a unique meaning both for the child and for the adult. Gifts of this nature would have a "from me to you" quality that cannot be bought, Mrs. Welch said.

In deciding what the gift should be, Mrs. Welch continued, first consider the child's age, abilities and interests. Then make a list of possibilities from which you can choose.

Here are some categories and ideas to start you thinking:

Things to Make — this could be a special ornament or decoration that requires a skill no longer prevalent, such as tatting or quilting or whittling. Or, it could be a food item using a recipe handed from generation to generation.

It could be a story about experiences remembered as a child, or a scrapbook of old photographs and other items that would have special meaning for the recipient.

Items to Share — this could be something you had when you were a similar age.

Also, a cutting from a plant that might have been started years ago.

Possibly it could be earlier copies of magazines or newspapers, books or letters that might be found in old trunks or boxes in the attic.

Or they might be parts of a special collection.

Experiences to Provide — this might be a trip to an earlier home, a visit to a restoration or a museum.

Or, it might be a "task," such as making butter, baking bread, making candies or soap. Gifts can also be songs, games or folk dances from the past.

Gifts that are old and precious are certainly "as good as new," Mrs. Welch stresses. "In their haste to offer what is old and precious. Children would like some of both."

To Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Harwick Sr. have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mellinee Lucille, to Stephen Tracy Barnes of Rockport. Stephen is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Barnes of Bay City and Dr. Harry Barnes of Galveston.

Made for each other: South Texas and the heat pump...

Even in much colder parts of the nation, the electric heat pump is gaining in popularity as an energy efficient system for both heating and cooling.

But where the heat pump really performs is in a relatively mild winter climate like ours. Research indicates that in the area served by Central Power and Light Company a properly installed heat pump can produce at least 2½ BTU's of heat for every BTU of energy required to run it. And that means savings on your electricity bills.

The heat pump is an efficient air conditioning/heating system because it is less expensive to move heat than to make it. In cold weather, a heat pump extracts heat from outside air and brings it inside. In the summer, it moves heat from the home's interior to the outside, thus becoming an effective air conditioner. Consider installing a heat pump if you're building a new house or remodeling your present one. It can help you use energy wisely—and save money, too.

District Plans To Dredge Basin

The Aransas County Navigation District has applied for a permit to dredge and fill areas in the Ski Basin to eliminate the use of the Bird Island Cut by boat traffic.

Application has been made to the Army Corps of Engineers. Any comments on the project must be submitted to the District Engineer on or before Monday, November 17.

Address of the District Engineer is P.O. Box 1229, Galveston, Texas 77553.

The Navigation District proposes to remove by dragline approximately 11,200 cubic yards of material, to depths not exceeding three feet, from four areas in the Ski Basin where shoaling has occurred.

The material will be placed on adjacent upland areas and in Little Bay in the Bird Island Cut. Approximately 4,200 cubic yards of material will be placed in the Cut to close the area to boat traffic.

Navigation District officials say the present use of the Cut by boat traffic presents a safety hazard to ski boats in the basin.

According to the Army Corps of Engineers, certification from the Texas Department of Water Resources is required on the project, but no environmental impact statement will be needed.

Anyone who so desires may request a public hearing on the matter by writing the District Engineer before the November 17 deadline. The written request must set forth the reasons why a public hearing is needed.

A Different Vein

By 'Uncle John' Leslie

perfect family" but who never make the front pages. They are "unsung" in our communities.

I have, in my 10 years in Rockport, had the pleasure to know and work with one of these types of families and I want to sing their praises.

Why? Because they have won it, they are a pleasure to work with, they are involved, they always respond with "yes" to most any request for civic services.

I am referring to the family of Murray C. and Patti McMillan and their three sons -- (1) Andy, age 18 and now in first year at S.W. State College at San Marcos; (2) Scott, age 16 in Sr. High School; and (3) Rob, age 14 -- a Freshman in High School.

When I came to Rockport in 1971, these boys were 5, 7, and 9 -- the older was in a Cub Den and Patti was a Den Mother.

All three, as they came of Cubbing age, entered Cubbing and their mother, Patti, never let them down. As she used to say to me,

"Uncle John, it looks like I am a perpetual Den Mother. Hurrah for a woman like that!"

Murray also worked right along with his boys on Committee, etc. Their home on 2007 Cochran is next to a vacant lot which was "Cub Heaven".

Murray and Patti came to Rockport in 1970 from Victoria. They had come to Texas from Missouri. Murray is a contractor and home-builder of note.

Living on the water in Rockport led to sailing. These boys took to sailing like ducks to water. The entire family was involved in the Rockport Sailing Club.

Scouting came naturally. They were members of Troop #280 and took part in all its activities including Summer Camp. Both parents cooperated as parents should and took part in all its activities.

Then came the program "Young Life" -- a new program for Youth. The family helped with its organization and program.

Last, but not least, the family have been active in the First Presbyterian Church. Both parents have been active Deacons in the church.

Andy has been representing the youth of the church on the Worship Committee.

Scott represented the Rockport Church at the First International Youth Triennial in Indiana. He was one of 5000 youths who attended and one of the 15 who attended from south Texas (del Salvador Presbytery) -- and the only one attending from Rockport.

Quite an honor! You can see why I feel that the family should have a little frontpage publicity. I feel sure the City, State and Nation will never be called on the spend money to "spank" these kids. It's been one of the most pleasant things to have known them. To know and to work with a family like this is part of my reward for living in Rockport. God Bless this family!

--Uncle John. Observed on a local billboard:

"MOVE IT OR LOSE IT" says The Shapemaker.

Seafair Gave VFDB Boost

The coffers of the Aransas County Volunteer Fire Departments have swelled thanks to the financial aid provided by this year's Seafair.

Receipts from the Gumbo Cook-off have been forwarded to Jim Tumlinson, president of the Aransas County Emergency Corps for disbursement to the fire units.

New Law To Benefit Offshore Oil, Gas

The U.S. Coast Guard has issued regulations to implement a new federal law that can be of significant benefit to persons working on offshore oil support vessels.

The new Small Vessel Inspection and Manning Act was signed into law by President Carter on October 6.

It provides a 90-day period for persons to make application for licenses and certificates and to have their vessels inspected, and it directs the Coast Guard to set up a system for bringing certain offshore supply vessels under inspection without expensive renovations.

Under the new Act, Coast Guard licenses will be issued to many persons who do not presently hold them, according to officials with the Offshore Marine Service Association in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Deadline for making application under the new Act is January 6, 1981.

More information and application forms for inspection and licensing can be obtained from U.S. Coast Guard Offices.

Bike-a-thon Set For December 13

Aransas County residents who want to have fun and help three good causes are invited to start making plans now to participate in the third annual Josef Barton Memorial Bike-a-thon.

Date of the event -- co-sponsored by the American Heart Association, American Cancer Society and the Explorer Scouts, Troop 59 -- will be Saturday, December 13.

The course will again be 20 miles, and sponsors of "Bike-a-thoners" can donate in one of two ways, either a set figure or a "by-the-mile" amount for each mile the biker completes.

Roy Olbrich, head of the Aransas County unit of the American Heart Association, said entry forms are not yet available but soon will be in local schools, churches, fast food outlets and grocery stores.

Prizes will be awarded to the bikers in speed and age groups, and the money collected in the event will be divided among the three co-sponsoring organizations.

Rebekahs Plan Bazaar

Rockport Rebekah Lodge is preparing to hold its only fund-raising event of the year -- a bazaar -- Friday and Saturday, November 14 and 15 in the Odd Fellows Hall.

For sale at the bazaar will be handmade gift items, refreshments of coffee, cake, cookies and sandwiches, and many useful items.

The public is invited.

Area Deaths

Pouzee Fohn

Graveside services for Leonard J. (Pouzee) Fohn, 76, were held at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Oakwood Cemetery in Hondo, under direction of the Marshall Funeral Home of Rockport.

Mr. Fohn died Wednesday evening, October 29, in a Corpus Christi hospital.

A native of Hondo, he lived in Rockport 10 years and was a newspaper reporter, a member of the Copano Cove Volunteer Fire Department and a member of the Rockport-Fulton Tourist Association.

Survivors include three daughters, Sharon L. Soefaert and Barbara Fohn, both of Houston, and Nancy S. Skeen of Alvin; two sons-in-law, Robert R. Soefaert of Houston and David E. Skeen of Alvin; a sister, Marjorie Sutherland of Carrizo Springs; and seven grandchildren.

The family has suggested that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Copano Cove Volunteer Fire Department.

CONTEST

1st Place . $20
2nd $10 3rd $5

The Rockport Pilot in cooperation with several local merchants is sponsoring a weekly football contest. Three cash prizes will be awarded each week to the local football fan who picks the largest number of winning teams.

If a tie exists, the person who has best predicted the final score of the TIE BREAKER GAME will be judged the winner.

Entries are limited to one per person per week but there is no limit to the number of times a person may win.

Follow the entry instructions carefully and show your appreciation to the several area merchants who have sponsored this contest.

ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

Each business advertisement has a contest game listed somewhere in the ad. To complete the entry form, first look in each ad, pick your winning team, find the merchant's name in the ENTRY FORM and list, beside his name, the winning team of your choice.

Each blank must have a team listed. When this is completed, turn your attention to the TIE-BREAKER GAME. Write your estimate of the final score. This game will only be used in case of a tie.

When you are finished picking the winning teams and the TIE-BREAKER SCORE, fill in your name, address and phone number.

Mail [P.O. Box 608, Rockport] or deliver the entry form to The Pilot Office [1002 Wharf Street] before 5:00 p.m. Friday.

The contest winners will be notified by The Pilot on the following Monday.

The decision of the judges is final!
GOOD LUCK!

Calallen Sinks JV Pirates 22-6

By Bob Crawford
Calallen scored three times in a 12-minute span to lead the way to the 22-6 win over the Rockport-Fulton JV in Calallen last week. Rockport's offense moved sporadically, although the pass did keep the offense going until they tried to run the ball and lost possession.

Calallen drove for a touchdown on their first possession and then added another before the half to take a lead before going into the locker room. Rockport did get a touchdown in the first half on a fine 63-yard run by Mike Riddle. Riddle broke into the clear, picking up not one, but two blocks by Michael Covarrubias enroute to the TD. Except for that one long running play, the Pirate rushing offense was held in check.

Only when they went to the air did the Pirates consistently move the ball. It was, however, an interception which set up Calallen's second half TD. Lupe Contreras stopped the try for two by the Cats.

Buddy Smith, getting his first start of the year, proved to be a good receiver as he caught four Mark Cory passes for a total of 58 yards. Mike Covarrubias picked up three catches for an additional 36 yards.

Bill Jennings, Contreras, Joe Cantu, Dominic Dominguez and Michael Sanchez all had at least ten defensive strikes.

Rockport closes out its season at home this week against West Oso.

Cross Country Advances To Regional

By Bob Crawford
Making winning one of the top two places a habit, the Rockport-Fulton Cross Country Team took second at the District 15-4A meet this past weekend at Tuloso-Midway. With the second place finish, the team is now entitled to advance to Regional competition in San Antonio this Saturday, November 8.

The girls' team missed going to regional as a team by only four places, trailing Gregory-Portland, the second place finisher, by a 56-60 margin. (The finishing position of a team's top five runners are added together, and the low score wins). Flour Bluff was the winner in the girls' division.

Lory Broadhurst will advance to the regional meet on the basis of her individual performance in the race. She placed fifth. Just out of the top five was Freshman Jana Brown who placed sixth. Belinda Cross, stepping from the volleyball court to run the race, placed ninth. Tammy Walker, Delfina Walker, Tammy Barlass, and Amy Barlass were other members of the team.

In the boys' division, Raul Castro paced the Pirate runners with his finish in fourth place. On his heels were David Ramirez and Peter Booth in fifth and sixth, respectively. Further back in the pack were Damaso Galvan, Mike Zlock, Clyde Barre, and Ernie Lara.

The course for the regional meet will be at Fort Sam Houston. Anyone making outstanding runs or as a team will advance to the state meet.

Basketball Closer Than You Think

By Bob Crawford
Basketball is just a dribble away at Rockport-Fulton. Both boys and girls are in the process of practicing, getting ready for this season.

In the case of the boys, Coach Bobby Flanagan will have to wait for a few of the team members to finish with football before the team can be complete. Rockport does get one break in that they have an open date on the last Friday of football season, thus giving the team an extra week of practice before the official beginning of the season.

The Pirates open their season against Port Lavaca, in Rockport November 18. Gone from last year's team is Mark Setterbo, an all-district selection. The Pirates will also be hard-pressed to replace Mark McDonald who played so well down the district schedule, and Ruben Garcia.

The Lady Pirates, under the leadership of Coach Dennis Gartman, are looking to improve greatly over last year's 4-21 record.

Over the weekend, the Lady Pirates scrimmaged with the Kingsville Brahmas in Rockport, and things appeared to be much improved over last year. Terri Moore paced the Lady Pirates with 26 points in the 59-42 victory for the Ladies. Coach Gartman pointed out, "Our early game defense was excellent, and overall, we showed great promise." Gartman also had some good things to say about two or three of his JV players who showed "good hustle with aggressive play."

The Lady Pirates are looking to pick up some players from the volleyball and cross country teams, and Coach Gartman plans to form his team this week, carrying twelve players if possible.

This weekend the Lady Pirates will scrimmage the Aransas Pass team in Rockport at 9 a.m. for the JV, and the scrimmage is open to spectators.

The first official game of the season for the Lady Pirates will be Saturday, November 15, against Aransas Pass in Rockport, with game time for the Freshmen game at 5:30, followed by the JV and Varsity games.

Mary Lou Torres Takes Football Prize

Mary Lou Torres of Rockport is this week's winner of the $20 first prize in the Pilot's Football Contest.

The $10 second place prize goes to Armando Ramos of Fulton Heights Trailer Park and third prize — $5 — goes to Jimmy Luigi of 1806 Baywood.

A new contest is in today's Pilot, and everyone has a chance to win. All you have to do is pick your winning teams, fill in the tiebreaker score and return the entry form to the Pilot office, 1002 Wharf Street, Rockport, Texas 78382.

The only restriction is that you must be 18 years of age or older to participate. Decisions of the judges are final.

So turn to the Football Contest Page, sharpen your pencil and get to work.

You could be next week's winner.

Wildcats Fly Past Pirates

By Bob Crawford

In a game which had almost every imaginable play, the Calallen Wildcats established a big lead in the second quarter, and try as they might, the Rockport-Fulton Pirates could never catch the Cats in the 62-37 loss at Pirate Stadium. It was the final home game of the year for the Pirates.

The high scoring indicates that defense was not too often present on the field. Calallen's offense rolled up over 600 total yards on offense, but the big story was the performance by Calallen's quarterback Mike Rhyne who completed 13 of 14 passes for an amazing 361 yards against the Pirates. His receivers ran the Pirate secondary and linebackers crazy all night.

Calallen got on the board first with a first quarter TD on a 43-yard pass play. The Cat receiver was in the clear by 30 yards. The kick after was no good.

When the Pirates got the ball, Micheal Simmons did most of the running in the drive for the Pirate touchdown, going over from two yards out. David Williams split the uprights for the point after, and for a few short moments, the Pirates led 7-6.

As the second quarter began, so did the Pirates' troubles. Twenty - two straight points were put on the board by the Cats before the Pirates answered back. Rockport had their chances, recovering an onside kick when George Solis took the ball away from the Calallen team, and then Tim Walker recovered a fumble to give the Pirates a chance, but the Pirates failed to convert the mistakes into anything. Penalties and an interception let the Wildcats have the opportunities to score, and they did.

With the score 28-7, Calallen kicked off. The Pirates put the ball in play on their own twenty. Freshman full-back Dwayne Walls broke clear and sailed 80 yards for a score. Unfortunately, the Pirates did not put any extra points on the scoreboard when they began going for two. At the half, Calallen was leading 28-13.

The Pirates actually outscored the Cats in the third period 18-14, but not being able score the two points after their three TD's really hurt their cause. One of the Wildcat touchdowns in the third period was a freak play which probably broke the Pirates' backs, as they tried to onside kick, the Pirates momentarily relaxed when a Calallen lineman fielded the ball. There are many unwritten laws in football that coaches usually adhere to, one of them being, "If a lineman fields the football on a kickoff, drop to the ground. Don't try to return it." Well, Stacy Sacky of Calallen proceeded to take the kickoff for 47 yards and a Wildcat TD before he "fell" on it. Calallen had been given a break on a late hit penalty by the Pirates, resulting in a 15-yard penalty against the Pirates, so Calallen received from the Pirate 45 yard line.

Rockport picked up touchdowns in the third period on runs of 39 and 2 yards by Simmons, and a 30-yard run by Walls. The score at the end of three was Calallen 42, Rockport

31. The Wildcats scored twice more before the Pirates answered again. Simmons scored on a 10-yard run, but then the Cats scored one last time to move to the final score of 62-37.

The game was a nightmare come true for the Pirates on Halloween night. The air was filled with footballs all night. Even the Pirates accounted for 133 yards in the air on the arms of Jim Eaton and Adam Harden.

If any standouts can be cited for the Pirates on defense, James Tumlinson, playing his first varsity game, was in on 14 tackles. George Solis, who was one of the Pirates who chased receivers all night, picked up three loose footballs to give the Pirates a chance on three occasions. Harden and Willie Castillo also had at least 10 tackles on defense.

Simmons had 130 yards for the night, and Walls, who carried only 10 times, had 146 yards. Walls would have gone for another TD, but lost the handle on the ball.

'Cats Penalize Pirates

By Bob Crawford

In a game filled with unusual plays and calls by the officials, the Rockport-Fulton Pirate Freshmen got the bad end of the deal in a 23-20 loss to Calallen Thursday night.

Yellow flags flew in the first half like rain, and only one of the penalties in the first nine called was against Calallen, the home team. Each time the Pirates generated an offensive drive, some type of penalty was called. Then came the most damaging call of all.

In the second quarter, a pass was thrown from quarterback Bobby Dingenary to end Jeffrey Dickerson who pulled in the ball 24 yards downfield. As he caught the ball, and clearly so, the defender tied him up as they went to the ground.

Because there were only three officials working the game, there was no one in the vicinity to make the call. When the players rolled on the ground, the ball should have been dead, and the ball awarded to the Pirates. Instead, the official from some 15 yards away ruled that it was an interception, stopping a drive deep in Wildcat territory.

Earlier, the Pirate defense held the Cats on their opening drive and forced them into the punting situation. The punter mishandled the ball, and Robert Davis zeroed in on the punter and dropped him for a loss, and the Pirates took over.

Ramond Romero began to assert himself with his tough running, breaking tackles, but still making yards. He toted the ball three straight plays, and then carried the ball in for the first score of the evening from four yards out. The Pirates tried to nail down a two-point conversion, but fell short.

Davis again was the defender on a crucial play on a possible pass, but he dropped the quarterback for a loss, and forced a punt. The Pirates started another sustained drive, but a penalty called back a long Romero run. Then came the pass play to Dickerson, and suddenly, instead of first and ten deep in Wildcat territory, the Pirates had had the ball stolen away.

The play seemed to give the Wildcats the momentum they had been seeking. They pushed the ball down the field and scored. As they went for the extra point, Guy Haskell forced a miscue, and the attempt was no good.

The Pirates roared back to march the ball down the field, and even overcame two calls on long runs. Charles Solis did some tough running while Romero took a breather. When the ball got in closer to the goal line, Romero was given the ball. In perhaps his best effort of the night, he was bumped, hit, and eventually ran over a defender to get into the end zone. The try for two was no good, but the Pirates led 12-6.

The next time Calallen got the ball, they made some adjustments and really moved the ball. Using their huge offensive line, they caved in the Pirates on defense and crammed the ball down the Pirates' throat. Plus the Pirates were not tackling well, looking more like matadors dodging bulls. Calallen scored and tied the score, and then went ahead for good, 14-12.

A fumble by the Pirates set the Wildcats up in good shape, with the offense moving the ball down to the one yard line, where a fumble occurred. Steve Arkell, the Pirate who had earlier fumbled, recovered the ball, giving some justice to the situation.

With the ball on their own one yard line, the Pirates elected to give the ball to Romero. As the play developed, Romero broke loose on a 99-yard jaunt, but the cheers soon fell to the wayside, as a yellow flag lay back on the line of scrimmage, and the ball was brought back.

The play following the TD run was a disaster for the Pirates as Romero tried to go the other way, but was trapped in the end zone for a safety. Calallen had jumped on top 16-12.

In the second half, Calallen scored again to look as though they had put the game out of reach, but the Pirates pulled off the starburst return of the kickoff, and Romero went 73 yards for a Pirate score. Romero pushed over for the two extra points to narrow the gap to 23-20.

Rockport went for the onside kick, but it failed.

The Pirate defense had its ups and downs, and certain individuals played very well. Robert Dominguez was busy making open field tackles, and he would not back down from the Wildcat runners. Doyle Parr had a good game with 15 tackles. A host of other Pirates had at least 10 hits on defense: Scott Russ, Arkell, Davis and Charles Showalter.

Romero crossed over the 1,000-yard barrier with 129 yards gained in the game.

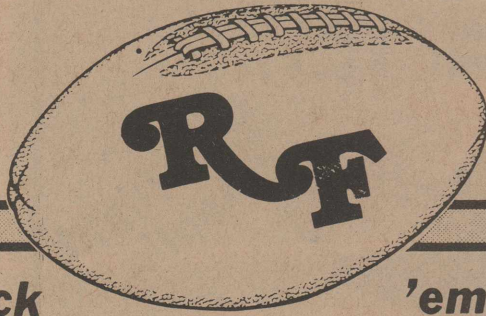

The Pirates close out their season this week in Rockport against West Oso.

RFHS Students Do Well In Regional Competition

Rockport-Fulton High School choir students returned triumphant from Regional Choir tryouts Saturday, November 1, as 11 were named to the Region Choir, and one was named an All-State Choir candidate.

Chris Iles was the All-State candidate who will try out for the All-State Choir next January. Another RFHS choir member, Vicki Maddox, was named second alternate All-State candidate.

The 11 selected for the regional choir were among 15 RFHS students attending the tryouts at Calallen

High School Saturday. A total of 240 students from all classifications of high schools throughout District 14 attended the tryouts.

RFHS students chosen for the Regional Choir included sopranos, Susan Wolfe, Miss Maddox and Dee Aine Rossman; altos Sheryl Simmons and Gloria Dominguez; tenors Paul Hill, Donald Beard and Bill

Weaver; and basses Iles, Kevin Carter and Leon Haskin.

These students will perform in a Region Choir concert at Del Mar College, Corpus Christi, on Saturday, December 6.

RFHS Choir Director Martha Luigi said she is "real pleased" with last Saturday's results.

ANIMALS

said during a recent interview. "It isn't safe. I've picked up animals on the school grounds where kindergartners are playing — some four or five-year-old could pull an animal's tail or its ears, get bitten..."

In some areas of the city he's seen dogs running in packs. "I can go up Cornwall and pick up 50 dogs — and I'm not picking on any one part of the city. It's that way all over. These animals could tear a small child to pieces."

And any time an animal bites a person — or another animal — there's always the threat of rabies. And if you care for your animal, says Dick, you want to protect it too...

Dick, who moved here from Florida last April, was hired to enforce the animal control ordinance that went into effect October 15 in Rockport.

The ordinance requires that dogs and cats be licensed and kept under control of a "responsible person" at all times. An amendment added to the ordinance last Monday, October 27, requires that the animal must be licensed immediately — now.

"So far," says Dick, "I've picked up 20 animals. Not one has had a license or vaccination tag — they're all in violation of the ordinance." He emphasized that, under the new ordinance, even if the animal is confined, it must have a license if its owner lives inside Rockport city limits.

At the present, Dick says, he's only picking up dogs — but the ordinance covers cats, too, and he will start picking up cats as soon as the cat cages (which he has ordered) arrive.

He can't put cats in the city pound without the special cages, he explained, because they can get out of the pens.

He has picked up one kitten — which he's keeping at his home while he tends to an injured leg on the little animal. "I've been trying to get it to heal."

And there was another cat he had to destroy after it was struck by a car. "He was too badly hurt to try to save," Dick said.

"But if I can save them, I will. I will not destroy an animal unless he's sick or hurt."

This includes the animals whose time has "run out" at the newly-completed city pound out on Pearl Street by the sewage treatment plant.

The new animal control ordinance requires that all animals brought to the pound be kept for five days. At the end of that period, Dick says, if the animal hasn't been claimed, "I try to find a home for him."

If Dick still can't find a home for the animal, he takes it to the Humane Society shelter in Corpus Christi. Not long ago, he said, he took a dog that may have been a shepherd-wolf cross to the shelter — the dog riding in the front seat of Dick's pickup.

At the moment, until Dick's official animal control truck arrives, he's using a City of Rockport utility truck, and many of the dogs he picks up make the ride to the pound in the front seat beside him.

Under the animal control ordinance, Dick — who works through the city police department — has authority to issue citations to owners who let their animals roam loose and/or unlicensed.

"But that's a last resort," he said. "I only do that if I'm constantly having to pick up the animal."

If a citation must be issued, the owner is liable, under the ordinance, for a fine of up to $200.

Ultimately, Dick said, "you can't blame the dog. You have to blame the owner."

Then he added, "I'm not trying to threaten people. If you care for your animal, the best thing to do is keep him under control."

Judging by the condition of the animals he's picked up, he said, "70 percent of them have not been taken care of. They're infested with fleas, ticks, no collars — but somebody owned them at one time."

He recommended that people shouldn't feed stray animals that come into their yards — unless they want to keep the animal for a pet.

"An animal will go — and stay — where the food is," he said. "If you feed an animal that isn't yours and he sticks around your house, take care of him. If you don't want to take care of him, don't feed him."

Dick said people who want to get in touch with him can call the new pound number, 729-0730. "I'm out there seven days a week, every day," he said.

And he suggests that anyone wanting a pet might check at the pound. The fee — either for reclaiming your animal or just to take one home with you — is $5 pickup plus $2 per day for each day the animal has been there. This is to cover the cost of feeding the animals, Dick said.

He suggested, "A puppy makes a nice Christmas gift for some child..."

Rockport's Party Line

By Betty Paul

Mrs. Kathleen Bachman made a trip to Alaska and while there went on a ferry the inside passage toaines. She also took a boat trip on the Glacier Queen and went to Anchorage.

After coming home, Kathleen entered Memorial Hospital with pneumonia.

Virginia and Al Chernosky have recently returned from a "delightful" week's trip to the Detroit, Michigan area. They visited with Nell and Dick Adair in Bloomfield, Michigan and also made a short trip to Windsor, Canada.

They visited several historical sites in the area and attended the University of Michigan and University of Illinois Homecoming football game. They were overwhelmed by the amazing blaze of color in the autumn foliage seen on their excursion.

Barbara and Jim Johnson entertained a group of friends at a Halloween costume party last Friday night in their home in Oak Terrace. Some of the costumes were "out of this world," we were told.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harris from League City are newcomers to our area. They have purchased a home in Fulton.

Young Bobby Hearn, dressed as a clown, celebrated his third birthday Halloween. His family took him to the Halloween Fair at the Rockport Elementary school for his surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curtice who live at City-by-The-Sea, returned from a business sales trip to Atlanta and came back through Tennessee and Arkansas. While in Hot Springs, Arkansas they visited with Genevieve and Bob Whalen who were former residents of City-by-The-Sea.

Al Whitsitt and his faithful followers got a group together from Fulton, Rockport, Aransas Pass, Austin, Austin and San Marcos for a big Halloween bash at Lillian's Ballroom.

Congratulations! Mr. and Mrs. Joel Zapata have a new son named Daniel Ben born October 25. Daniel has a brother Orlando and a sister Maricela. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mia and the paternal grandmother is Mrs. Jose Zapata.

Church Women United will meet at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Friday at 1:30 p.m.

At the same church, names of children needing sponsors for their Christmas party are available in the church office. Sponsors are asked to buy the child they sponsor a gift and take the gift to the party. This will be held December 5.

Evelyn and Bill Holden had guests for a week, Bill and Dorothy Lawson from Floresville. They all went fishing together and caught quite a bit of fish to take back and feast upon.

David Blankinship spent two days in Houston at a Texas Colonial Bird Meeting. While there he visited Ira Roberts formerly from Fulton.

Mrs. Wayne Haley, children Kay, Phillip and Cynthia from Jamaica are visiting the Cotton Walters.

Father Gregory Deane at the Sacred Heart Church is such a knowledgeable man — you women should get his advice before buying crystal. Yu might find his knowledge helpful.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS!
Marianne Gould, November 4; Cam Leonard, November 5; Don Sinex, November 7.

HOSPITALS AND NURSING CENTERS

Mrs. Bobbie Brown, home after being in Spohn Hospital; Robert Jones, Doctor's Hospital; Clyde Northcutt, Audie Murphy, San Antonio; Boyd Williams, Kerrville Veterans; Glenn Campbell, Methodist Hospital in Houston; Louise Bent, Clear Lake Hospital, Webster; Ruth Lipscomb, Minnie Emma, Bettie Billings, Corin Ball, Katherine Bartoo, Johnnie Dunbar, Mary Allensworth, Mrs. G.M. Harrell, Perry Jones, Clemmie Beedy, Wreatha Johnson, Minda Jones and Christina Reiser.

QUOTE FOR THE WEEK!
"Today my best. Tomorrow I'll do better." — Henry Firstone

Accent On Health

No siren in Greek mythology has lured more people to their demise than a lethal lady that surrounds us daily.

This potential destroyer is carbon monoxide — a colorless, odorless, very toxic gas which is formed by the incomplete combustion of carbon. Anything that burns, including fuel in your car, wood used in your fireplace, or gas used in heating and cooking can form carbon monoxide. And it can be lethal unless it is diluted with fresh air or removed from the living space by proper venting of fires and furnaces.

Texans are again getting ready for cooler weather and the winter ahead. One of the yearly routines is the lighting of the furnace, the collection of firewood, or delivery of bottled gas or fuel oil.

While checking your furnace after turning it on," advises Jerry F. Lauderdale, "a person should check for a blue flame — a sign of proper combustion — as well as for clear vents and chimneys." Lauderdale is administrator of the Occupational Health Branch of the Texas Department of Occupational Health and Radiation Control.

"Bad duct work or obstructions in flues or chimneys can be very hazardous," said Lauderdale. "In these days of energy-efficient, tightly-constructed homes, a little carbon monoxide production can build up to a big problem."

Lauderdale said carbon monoxide poisoning has warning signs of which people should be aware. If the heat is on, be alert to such poisoning signs as yawning, headache, nausea, dizziness, ringing in the ears and even abdominal cramps.

"If you suspect carbon monoxide poisoning," he said, "get out of the house or work place immediately and get fresh air."

"The time between recognition of symptoms and the onset of fatal poisoning is rapid. If you suspect it, get out. It isn't something you can put off," he urges. "Then the faulty heating system should be turned off."

Lauderdale said one work place causing many complaints is in automobile repair garages. "It's not too bad in the summer when they're wide open, but when they close the doors during winter and carbon monoxide builds up rapidly while car engines are turned on," he said. "We get quite a few requests for investigations of possible carbon monoxide buildup."

Lauderdale said it is frightening to learn that some garagemen think newer automobiles with improved emission systems and engines using unleaded gasoline emit little carbon monoxide. "But that's not so, and it's scary that they think that. Carbon monoxide could build up and kill you as dead as a doornail," he said.

Last year in Texas, 118 persons died of carbon monoxide poisoning and countless others were made sick.

As activities shift indoors again this year, the possibility of carbon monoxide poisoning increases. Although a year-round threat, the most hazardous time during the cold months when homes and businesses are closed up tightly against the weather.

Try a little tenderness... serve U.S.D.A. Choice Steakhouse Beef from H.E.B.!

When it comes to steaks we think we offer the best... there's no secret why, it just takes skill! One of the things that makes a steak is the angle of the first cut on a side of beef at the meat plant. That's one reason why H.E.B. has its own meat plant... so that the first cut can be made by an H.E.B. Meat Tender and that way the rest of the steaks will be sliced at the same angle. That's quality control and that's very important if you want a tender, delicious steak. That's why the H.E.B. Meat Tenders do it themselves, so they know it's right... steak after steak after steak.

Ragout of Lamb Kidneys

CLIP 'N' COOK
Copley News Service

12 lamb kidneys
¼ cup butter
4 tps. finely chopped onion
2 tps. all-purpose flour
1½ tps. dry mustard
2 cups beef bouillon
3 tps. vinegar
dash pepper
chopped parsley

Wash kidneys well and remove membranous covering. Split in half and remove white center. Slice thinly. Melt butter in frying pan. Add sliced kidneys and brown over high heat 3 or 4 minutes, remove kidneys. Cook onions in butter until tender but not browned. Combine flour and mustard. Add to onions. Add bouillon and vinegar and cook until thickened. Remove from heat. Add kidneys and heat but do not boil. Add seasoning if needed. Sprinkle with chopped parsley just before serving. Yield: 4 servings.

should be especially wary during the winter. All chimneys and flues in hunting cabins and campers should be checked for obstructions and leaks. Under no circumstances should a fire — particularly a gas — be left on all night in all, tightly-closed trailers or camp houses while the occupants are sleeping," said Lauderdale. The consequences could be tragic. He also warns against the use of unvented gas stoves for heating. The danger is just too great, he said.

Jerry Lewis Thanks Area For Telethon Efforts

In a personal message to the people of the Coastal Bend area, entertainer Jerry Lewis expressed special thanks for the contributions made by the area to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

In Aransas County, efforts by local volunteers helped raise some $2400 in cash and pledges for the MDA campaign during the annual Labor Day Telethon weekend in September.

of the county effort, said the donations had, as usual, "exceeded expectations."

Lewis, in his message to the area, said, "Your response to our appeal will enable MDA to continue to expand its vital research and medical services programs, which will directly benefit patients and their families in the Corpus Christi area and throughout the country."

He emphasized that it is "so important for everyone to honor their Telethon pledges. We've been forging ahead in research and providing the best available care for children and adults handicapped by muscle disorders, and we've got to keep it up."

In the Coastal Bend area, MDA provides help for persons afflicted with MD — as well as a number of other neuromuscular diseases — through its clinic at Ada Wilson Hospital, 3511 South Alameda in Corpus Christi.

The clinic at Ada Wilson is just one of 226 such hospital-affiliated clinics where free medical services are provided to patients.

In addition, MDA funds a worldwide research program seeking cures for 40 neuromuscular diseases including muscular dystrophy, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and myasthenia gravis.

Lewis emphasized that

MDA's research and medical work is made possible by the collection, every year, "of almost 100 percent of Telethon pledges."

Pledges may be mailed to Jerry Lewis, National Chairman, Muscular Dystrophy Association, New York, New York 10149.

"Even if you didn't phone in a pledge (during the Telethon)," he added, it isn't too late to make a contribution to MDA.

The 1980 Telethon was the most successful to date, with $31,103,787 pledged nationwide for the fight against neuromuscular disease. That figure is the largest sum ever recorded for a single humanitarian fund-raising event.

Mayor
ATTEST:

Herman C. Johnson,
City Secretary
--- 0 ---

Three daring thieves made off with a 24-inch tall armadillo in plain sight about 8 p.m. Sunday, November 2, according to Rockport police.

The incident occurred at Rockport's Sigmor Service Station, 901 Broadway, where — according to the report — three men tried to buy a 24-inch tall styrofoam armadillo on the counter.

Upon being told that the styrofoam critter was not for sale, one of the men allegedly picked it up and walked out with it. The armadillo was valued at $10.

Iris Pendley reported theft of approximately $800 in quarters from three washers, 12 dryers and two vending machines at her washateria on Magnolia Street.

The theft occurred sometime Thursday, October 30, or before 9 a.m. Friday, October 31.

Two books full of old pennies, part of a coin collection belonging to Mrs. M.A. Tidwell of 217 North Live Oak, were taken from her residence sometime between August 21 and October 27.

Four of the pennies are valued at $50 each.

An unknown amount of money was taken from a vending machine at Billups Service Station on South Bronte (Highway 35 South) when the machine was burglarized between 1 a.m. and 6:50 a.m. Sunday.

Katherine Ivy and Helen Martin of 801 Concho reported theft of two purses Sunday between 7 p.m. and 9:15 p.m.

The purses were taken from the floorboard of their car while it was in the Assembly of God parking lot. A coathanger found at the scene may have been used to unlock the vehicle.

Timothy Allen Butcher, 17, of 826 Ibis Drive was charged with violation of restriction 'I' on his driver's license and operating a vehicle without lights when lights are required.

Butcher was stopped by police about 11:39 p.m. Friday, October 31, on North Austin at the Rockport Beach Road.

Restriction 'I' requires operation of a motorcycle with a piston displacement not exceeding 100 cc.

Butcher was placed under $50 bond on each charge.

Gaspar R. Garcia Jr., 19, of 1221 Litron was placed under $50 bond under charge of driving without a license after he was arrested on Rockport Beach Road at the Turning Basin. He was arrested about 2:51 a.m. Sunday.

Robert Bufford Adams,

60, was placed under $75 bond on a charge of public intoxication after he was arrested about 3:05 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Bronte and 3rd.

Robert P. Fontana, 25, of San Antonio was charged with disorderly conduct and fined $63.50 after he was arrested in the parking lot of Torres Paint Shop about 4:10 p.m. Saturday.

Arthur Talton Hales, 42, of Pasadena was fined $63.50 after he was arrested for public intoxication about 7:20 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Bronte and Market.

Lawrence Allen Johnson, 17, of Rockport was fined $63.50 following his arrest about 11:36 p.m. Friday on a charge of public intoxication.

He was arrested on Highway 35 at the Parks and Wildlife Department office.
