A Floydada inventor recently received his third patent from the U. S. Patent Office. Elmer Sellars' latest invention is a safety device for irrigation well motors. The invention attaches to the gear head of the pump and a sensor positioned near the drive shaft detects any wobbling caused by wear anywhere in the drive train or gear head and automatically shuts the engine off.

Sellers says the device increases safety not only for the machine but also for operators who must work near it. The wells in the area normally run for hours unattended, and if the drive train breaks anywhere, a destroyed well gearhead and

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley:

I am using this opportunity to greet you, and, by these means, the population of Floydada. I have lived in this town for less than three years, but they were, probably, the richest years of my life, because I did so much in such a short period. The friendliness and the cooperation of many of the citizens, civic groups, and, mainly, the hospital and its associates, personnel, employees, etc., have made my stay a fruitful one.

I do not want to write many words, just a big "Thank You, Floydada!" and, not a goodbye, but: "Till we meet again,"

Sincerely yours,
Eva Lee Sneed

October 31, 1970

Dear Mr. Tooley,

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Huddleston are asking the people of Ralls, and the surrounding areas to please take the time to write letters to Hanoi asking for the release of their son, Captain Lynn R. Huddleston, serial number 05421583. Lynn has been missing since September 26, 1967.

Also to include a statement of concern for all American Prisoners of War and Missing in Action in Southeast Asia, asking for humane treatment in the way of proper diet and medical care; that they be allowed to exchange mail with their families; and that all prisoners be released in the very near future.

Wendell, I have talked with this mother and have known her since before her son was declared missing in action. Never have I seen courage to equal hers and for her I am begging the wonderful people of Floydada to write these letters. My son is in Vietnam and as I look at her I wonder if I would have the strength to live three years, day by day, never hearing from him.

Write a letter to each address given below:
His Excellency Pham Van Dong
Prime Minister
Democratic Republic of Vietnam

Mr. Nguyen Huu Tho

Democratic Republic of Vietnam

Mrs. Nguyen Huu Tho

The postage will be 25¢.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Henry D. Dreyer

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

by Sherry Mullin
Floyd County H. D. Agent

Although immunization can prevent many communicable diseases, too many American children remain inadequately protected. Consult with a physician about both routine and special immunization programs since some people are more likely than others to develop side effects.

Recommended ages for child immunization: Age 2-3 months - Initial DTP (diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis) injection, trivalent oral polio vaccine.

Six weeks later - Second DTP injection, plus trivalent oral polio vaccine.

Six weeks later - Third DTP injection, plus trivalent oral polio vaccine.

12 months - Live-virus measles vaccine and tuberculin test.

Six weeks later - live-virus mumps vaccine.

15 months - Smallpox vaccination, DTP booster and tri-valent oral polio vaccine.

18 months - Live virus rubella (German measles) vaccine

Two years - Tuberculin test.

Three years - DTP booster and tuberculin test.

Four years - Tuberculin test. Six years - "Adult-Type" TD (tetanus-diphtheria) booster, polio booster with trivalent vaccine, smallpox revaccination, tuberculin test and every two years thereafter, at the discretion of the physician.

12 years - "Adult-Type" TD booster and smallpox revaccination and live virus mumps vaccine if the child has not had the disease or the vaccine.

Above age 12 - Smallpox vaccination every 3 to 5 years and tetanus toxoid (or TD) boosters every 10 years or sooner where indicated after injury.

For adults, those without previous protection should receive primary immunization against diphtheria and tetanus with "Adult-Type" combined TD vaccine: two injections four to six weeks apart, followed by a third about one year after the second shot. For those previously immunized, tetanus toxoid (or TD) boosters every 10 years or sooner where indicated after injury.

Measles vaccination is rarely necessary. Nearly all individuals are immune by age 15 even though they may never have been aware of having had measles.

Mumps vaccination is recommended for adults and adolescents who have not had mumps, especially if they are in contact with susceptible children. The live virus mumps vaccine provides immunity for at least several years and probably longer. Polio vaccination with Salk killed-virus vaccine by a single booster dose four years later.

While rubella (German measles) vaccine may be desirable for adults - except pregnant women - it will be available only in limited quantities in the near future. Consequently, much of the vaccine is being reserved for young children who are the major reservoir of the diseases.

WOMEN in the nursing profession may now wear pantresses while on duty. Slacks seem to be the fashion nowadays regardless of the woman at work, play or at a social gathering. Individual hospitals using their own discretion as to whether or not to wear the pants. Wearing of the pants suits is in the national nursing code, but the Caprock Hospital or Nursing Home here have not adopted pants uniform fashion yet. The department and variety stores have also adopted the pants, as well as some restaurants and beauty salons. A state law was passed in January allowing hair dressers to wear pants suits. Recent rulings in some towns have given women of all ages and county courthouses employees the option of wearing pants suits to work. A news story some two weeks ago gave an account of a big city bank that gave permission for the suits, and added that be sure of equal rights, employed by the bank wear kilts! Comments as to wearing pants suits to work is somewhat. Most women said "the idea. One man said "the idea. One woman in pants to see a fit right," while if they commented "on some look, WOW! on others the look, two hogs tied together like sack." Guess the answer will have to be the judge will whether she looks like a hog or the hogs in it.

DEFINITION of a woman driver: A person who drives the same way a man does. . . only gets blamed for it.

ITS nearly time for the turkeys to start looking sad out of their eyes and giving the impression of saying, "Please, why not chicken this Thanksgiving." Then comes Christmas just around the corner. Did you ever think that Santa Claus doesn't really come down the chimney. He enters through an opening in the heart. Soon another year will be gone and I think my New Year's resolution will be not to spend more than I earn and Pay Day. The make. . . if I have to borrow to it!

DEFINITION of a woman driver: A person who drives the same way a man does, only gets blamed for it. ***** ITS nearly time for the turkeys to start looking sad out of their eyes and giving the impression of saying, "Please, why not chicken this Thanksgiving." Then comes Christmas just around the corner. Did you ever think that Santa Claus doesn't really come down the chimney. He enters through an opening in the heart. Soon another year will be gone and I think my New Year's resolution will be not to spend more than I make. . . if I have to borrow to do it!

WOMEN in the nursing profession may now wear pants-dresses while on duty. Slacks seem to be the fashion nowadays regardless if the woman is at work, play or at a social gathering. Individual hospitals are using their own discretion to wear or not to wear the pants. Wearing of the pants suits is in the national nursing code, but the Caprock Hospital or Nursing Home here have not adopted the pants uniform fashion yet. Some department and variety stores have also adopted the policies, as well as some restaurants and beauty salons. A state law was passed in January allowing hair dressers to wear pants suits. Recent rulings in some towns have given women city hall and county courthouse employees the option of wearing pants suits to work. A news wire story some two weeks ago gave an account of a big city bank that gave permission to wear the suits, and added that to be sure of equal rights, men employed by the bank could wear kilts! Comments as to wearing pants suits to work varied somewhat. Most women liked the idea. One man said "I like to see a woman in pants suits if they fit right," while another commented "on some they look, WOW! on others they look like two hogs tied together in a tow sack." Guess the woman will have to be the judge as to whether she looks like "Wow" in them or the hogs in a sack.

Mackenzie Authority Gets First Money For Tule Dam

note: Last week's Hesperian announced that the Mackenzie Municipal Board has received the first $300,000 check from the Texas Water Development Board for the Tule Dam project.

The Mackenzie Municipal Board has received the first $300,000 check from the Texas Water Development Board for the Tule Dam project.

Shurbet of Petersburg, chairman of the Texas Water Development Board, presented the check to Lon M. Davis Jr., president of the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority, at a ceremony in the city of Tule.

The $300,000 check is the first of a total of $3,800,000 to be used for the construction of the Tule Dam and reservoir. The dam is to be built on the Tule River, which flows through the city of Tule.

FUND EXHAUSTED

"The Water Development Fund is nearly exhausted," Shurbet said, "and until the present high interest rates are reduced to 4 percent or less or the voters of Texas see fit to remove the 4 percent constitutional ceiling now imposed on Water Development Bonds, we will not have the money to fund projects such as this."

Voters failed by a narrow margin to remove the 4 percent limit on Water Development Bonds in a constitutional amendment referendum 14 months ago.

Shurbet said the board has recommended to the Water Resources Study Committee that legislation providing for another vote on the amendment be submitted to the 62nd Legislature.

AMENDMENT NECESSARY

"Should a constitutional amendment removing the 4 percent limitation be submitted and approved by the voters, the Water Development Board could again market its bonds and obtain funds to finance the construction of much-needed water supply projects throughout the state," Shurbet added.

Construction of the $8,080,000 Mackenzie project would be in two phases, Davis said. "Phase I, which includes land purchase, calls for the construction of the dam and reservoir, a new pump station, and a 1,500,000 daily water treatment plant. Phase II of the project would be the construction of water transmission lines from the reservoir to our member cities."

BOARD PRAISED

Davis, accepting the $300,000 check, praised the Water Development Board and its staff. "Your understanding of our water problems has made it possible for us to take this important step toward their solution," he said. "Your willingness to work with us and your untiring efforts in our behalf are greatly appreciated by the officers and directors of the authority and by the people who reside within the boundaries of the authority."

Agriculture Housing Dedication

James V. Smith, administrator of Farmers Home Administration, Washington, D.C., will be among guest speakers for the dedication of the Plainview Date Street agricultural labor housing project this Saturday.

The dedication ceremony and open house activities will begin at 2 p.m. at the site of the 128-apartment complex at Date and 16th Streets in northeast Plainview.

The complex, located on a 29-acre site, was constructed by the 100-member Hale County Agricultural Association to provide modern housing facilities for agricultural laborers in the Plainview area.

The housing project includes 26 buildings with four, three and two-room apartments for permanent and semi-permanent residence. The complex will also contain a laundry and equipped playground areas. It is the second complex of its type. The first was constructed in Dimmitt in 1967.

Funds for construction included a $539,890.00 loan and $537,880.00 grant through the Farmers Home Administration. Construction was completed in September.

in the ordinary course of business.

A third revision in the tax law has to do with taxation of indemnities paid to farmers for crop damage or loss.

The old law required farmers who used the cash accounting method (reporting income when received and expenses when paid) to include crop insurance proceeds as a part of the year's income, even though the crop itself might not have been sold until the following year.

In effect, the farmer who customarily marketed his crop in the year following harvest was paying taxes on two crops in 1 year.

The 1969 Tax Reform Act eliminates this hardship by allowing farmers to defer the reporting of indemnities until the year following the loss.

However, such farmers must establish that under their usual practice, income from the damaged or destroyed crops would have been reported in the year following the year of loss. This provision was effective for 1969 and subsequent years.

Other sections of the revised tax law that affect only farmers deal with: limitation of farm losses, hobby losses, tax-free exchange of livestock of different sexes, recapture of soil and water conservation expenses, and extension of the date for filing tax returns by farmers who do not file tax estimations.

We were sorry to hear about the burns of Mrs. R. L. Holland of Lockney who was in the Lockney Hospital from Monday until Thursday of last week. Mrs. Holland is the mother of Mrs. Don Marble here. She was painting her bathroom, and spilled gasoline, which she was cleaning her brush. A wall stove ignited the gasoline, and freshly painted bathroom, and Mrs. Holland was badly burned about the legs. She was clothed in coveralls, and her shoes and trouser legs caught fire. Her husband put out the blaze with the garden hose, but the bathroom was ruined, and the rest of the house damaged by smoke. Mrs. Holland has had a great deal of pain, but is much improved.

Harris, Puckett, Burk Rack Up TDs

The undefeated Floydada Whirlwinds ran the win column to eight Friday night at Friona with a 28-0 shutout of the Chieftains. Walter Harris kept the district scoring lead, scoring two TDs on runs of 14 and 12 yards. Mike Burk, starting at offensive end for the first time this season, took an Andy Hale pass 64 yards for a six-point-er in the second period, and Steve Puckett treated Floydada fans to another spectacular punt return, this one for 70 yards, for the other Whirlwind TD. Andy Selman was on the receiving end of a two-point pass conversion, and Greg Campbell made good on two kicking PATs to account for the 'Winds point output for the night.

The Chieftains bested the Whirlwinds in yards rushing, a feat which no other opponent has achieved this season, but the 'Winds put it on the Chiefs in the passing department, completing 9 of 18 for 157 yards, to their 5 of 11 and 29 yards total.

Harris accounted for more than 100 of the 'Winds 157 ground steps.

Floydada led in first downs, 12 to 10.

PLAY-BY-PLAY
Walter Harris returned the opening kickoff to the 'Winds 24 yard line, and the Whirlwinds immediately started a drive which covered the 76 yards to paydirt in 10 plays, picking up four first downs along the way.

Andy Selman got the call on the first two carries and picked up one, then six yards. Harris got the first down at the 38, then on the next play broke for 18 yards to put Floydada in Chieftain territory at the 44. Again it was Harris for eight yards then fullback Van Lee Mitchell got the needed yardage for the first down with a three-yard effort to the Friona 33. Selman scampered for 14 yards and the 'Winds owned the ball inside the 20. Harris went for five; then quarterback Andy Hale went to end Steve Puckett with a pass near the goal line. Puckett made the reception out of bounds, and it was third-and-five at the 14. Harris got the call, swept left end and crossed the goal line untouched. Campbell's kick was wide.

A clipping penalty on the kickoff return set the ball on the Friona 12. The Chiefs' Wesley Clark carried five times and advanced the pigskin to the 32 before Friona punted to Harris at his 35; he returned five yards to the 40. The big penalty on second down put the 'Winds in a hole at their 28, and Harris could advance only to the 31 before Friona forced the punt. Puckett's boot carried 48 yards.

Starting from their 22, the Chiefs marched into 'Wind territory on carries by Clark and Donnie Lewellen and QB Don Fortenberry's pass completion to Bill Bailey at the 'Wind 41. An interference call gave the Chieftains a first down at the 25 yard line; on the next play, defensive end Richard Hale pounced on a Friona fumble to halt the drive at the 22.

Andy Hale's second-and-12 pass was intercepted at the 45, and the Chiefs advanced three yards before Puckett grabbed the second Friona fumble in about as many minutes to give the 'Winds possession at the 36. But Floydada couldn't go and the line of scrimmage was the 43 when Puckett again had to punt, this time for 40 yards to the Friona 17.

The story was the same for the Chiefs - they got seven yards before punting. Puckett picked up the ball and sailed 61 yards and across the goal line, but the play was called back and the 'Winds assessed a 15-yard penalty for too many men on the field.

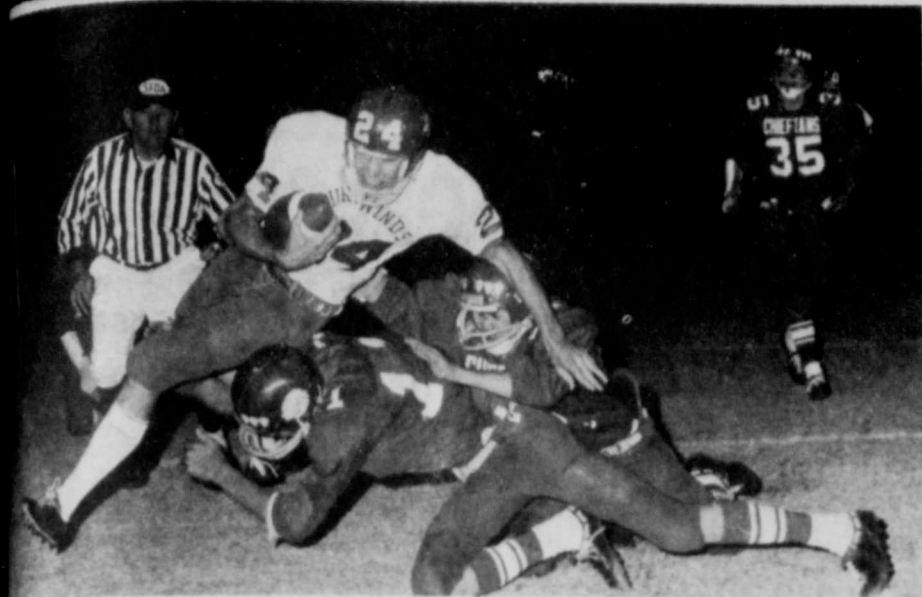

Here came the Whirlwind passing game. Hale hit Selman for 12 then uncorked the 64-yard pass-and-run to Burk. Floydada led 14-0 after Hale hit Selman on the two-point extra try.

Friona got nothing after the kickoff and had to kick from their 36. This time, Puckett was not to be denied - he fielded the oval at his 30 and sped down the west sideline 70 yards to paydirt. Campbell's kick made it 21-0 with 5:15 left in the half.

The teams exchanged punts until the half, with Puckett getting off a 53-yarder.

The third period saw the teams exchange possession on punts and downs until the Whirlwinds cranked up a drive starting at their 44. Hale got a hot hand again and hit Selman for 11. Puckett for 15, and Harris for 13, scattered between runs by Harris which netted six yards. Walter scooted the final 12 overland. Campbell kicked, and that was the scoring for the night. 'Winds 28, Chieftains 0, with the third period nearly played.

Ninth Loses, 6-0

The Freshman Whirlwinds lost a tight defensive battle last Thursday at Lorenzo, 6-0. The only scoring came in the second period on a Touchdown by the Lorenzo bunch. The Floydada ninth-graders threatened several times in the second half but couldn't make it across. It was a good defensive game by both teams.

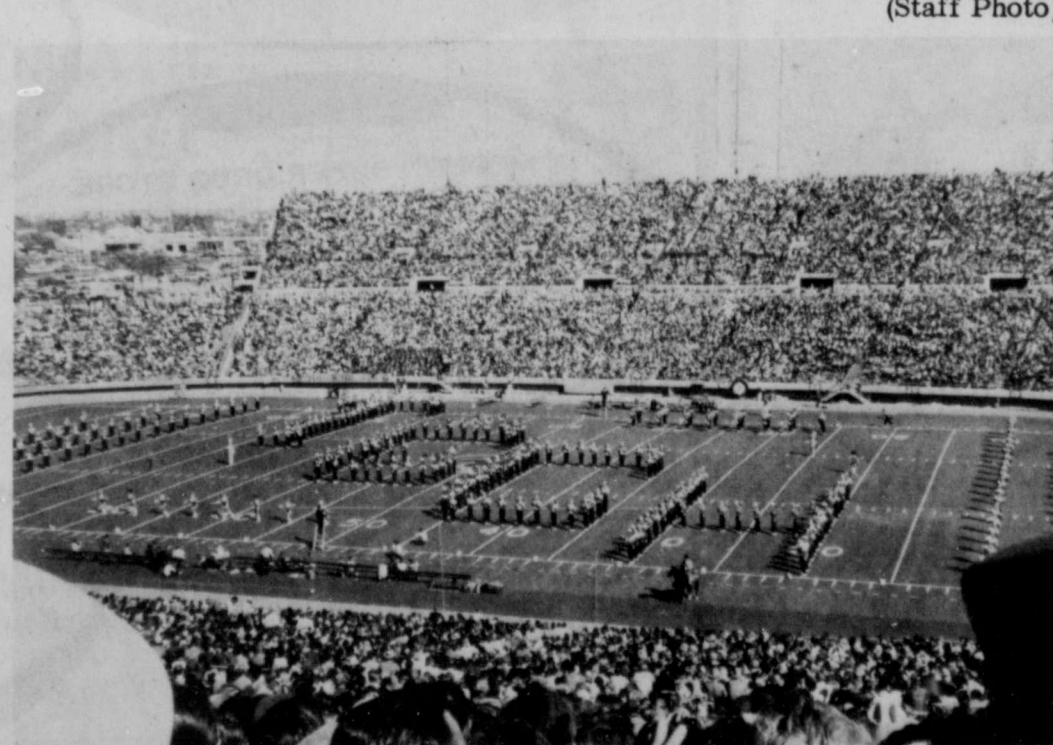

The Whirlwind frosh travel to Post tonight.

RICT SCORING LEADER in action, Walter Harris kept the district scoring lead Friday night, scoring two TD's against Friona. He picks up 18 yards in the Whirlwinds' touchdown drive. (Staff Photo)
