Astros Step Outside To Install New Awning

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Two Skylab 2 astronauts stepped outside their troubled space station today to load telescope film, unfurl a new awning-like sunshade and search for leaks in the craft's air conditioning system.

Wearing bulky space suits attached to 60-foot lifelines, Dr. Owen K. Garriott and Jack R. Lousma exited through an airlock hatch to start the planned 3½-hour excursion. Skylab was orbiting 271 miles above the earth.

READY TO ASSIST

Skylab 2's commander, Alan L. Bean, monitored the walk from inside the station, relaying Mission Control radio instructions and ready to assist in case of trouble.

First task for Garriott and Lousma was to erect the sail-like sunshade to help keep the laboratory cool. That was to take more than an hour.

The air conditioning leak, which came to light Sunday night, is the latest problem to beset the station, already experiencing propulsion leaks and electrical difficulties. None of the problems pose a threat to the astronauts.

TROUBLE SPOT

Before they could suit up for the space walk today, the spacemen had to restore pressure to a tank which is part of a system that removes moisture from the air. This has been a recurring trouble spot.

Ground experts continued to study problems that caused leaks in two jet engines on the Apollo taxi ship, which is docked with the space station. They still are hopeful the astronauts will be able to return to earth in the craft Sept. 25 after a record 59-day flight.

In case they can't, around-the-clock work went on at Cape Kennedy, Fla., to prepare the Skylab 3 rocket and Apollo as possible rescue vehicles that could be launched Sept. 10 or later.

RESCUE CRAFT

Although mission control doesn't understand fully the jet thruster problem, experts feel confident the Apollo could bring the astronauts home safely if necessary before the rescue ship is ready.

They emphasize the rescue craft is being prepared as a precaution and they hope to launch it as planned to ferry the Skylab 3 crew to the station.

On Sunday night, mission control told the astronauts of a potential long-term problem. Analysis disclosed leaks in two systems that cool certain electronic systems.

The control center said experts had been studying the leaks and determined that the primary system still had about 16 days' supply of coolant. A backup system had enough for 60 days—enough to complete the mission.

The spacewalkers were to ling rods into two 55-foot poles, join the poles in a V and attach them to a strut on the telescope assembly. The 22-by 24-foot aluminum-coated shade is to be fitted over the poles.

SHADE

The shade will supplement a large parasol installed in May by the Skylab 1 crew to cool the laboratory by reflecting away the sun's rays.

The space walk originally was scheduled last Tuesday but was postponed four times while the astronauts recovered from motion sickness and mission control troubleshot the Apollo problem, which at one time had officials considering a quick return to earth.

A female spider made her debut aboard Skylab on Sunday. The common cross spider, named Arabella, will be studied to determine how well she can spin a web in space weightlessness. Garriott moved her from a small vial into a transparent cage.

"I tossed her out of the vial with all eight legs flailing," he reported, adding that the spider bounced a few times before she settled in one corner of her cage.

Arabella will be given a week to spin a web. If she fails, a backup spider named Anita will be given a chance.

KILLED IN ATHENS—Mrs. Jean Liverakos Salandi, 23, of Highland Park, N.J., was one of the two Americans killed by terrorist raid in Athens Sunday. It was reported that Mrs. Salandi died in the arms of her husband William.

AMERICANS DIE
Arabs Raid Airport In Athens

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Two Arab men who opened up with grenades and pistols in the crowded Athens airport Sunday today refused to answer police questions, the police reported.

The attack killed two Americans and an Austrian and wounded 55 persons.

AMERICANS IDENTIFIED

The Americans were identified as Mrs. Jeannie Salandi, 23, of Highland Park, N.J., and Elbert Kersen, 53, a Union, N.J., plumbing contractor. Kersen's wife Kate, 49, was injured.

The Austrian was a 50-year-old attorney named Ullhofen.

In addition to the two men, two women were being questioned.

DISARM TIME BOMB

Police said they disarmed a time bomb, which had not been set to go off, that was found inside a letter box in the transit lounge four hours after the attack. Witnesses told police they saw a man drop a large object in the box before the shooting began in the lounge.

The two Arabs surrendered Sunday after crouching with 35 hostages behind the lounge's marble bar for two hours while they tried to get a plane to take them to the Middle East.

It was not known what promises, if any, were made to get them to surrender.

Witnesses said passengers were preparing to board Trans World Airlines flights to Tel Aviv and New York when one of the Arabs, about to check his baggage, threw a hand grenade to the ground. Then both men began firing pistols.

Kidnaped Baby

DALLAS (AP) — Police continued today to look for the kidnaper of a one-month-old girl taken from her home Friday.

The infant's mother, Mrs. Margaret Sledge, told police she first met the woman thought to have kidnaped the child at a Dallas supermarket when she had a fainting spell before the infant was born.

Mrs. Sledge said the woman drove her home and returned to visit twice after the child was born.

Police said the woman returned again Friday, apparently offered Mrs. Sledge a ride downtown and made off with the infant while the mother was dressing.

Pills Discovered In Man's Quarters

Jerry Wayne Wilcox, West Wind Motel Room 9, was arrested and charged with possession of dangerous drugs and intoxication on drugs early this morning and was being transferred to county jail at press time.

Officer John Burson and THP Bill Priest discovered 214 loose pills and capsules in Wilcox's possession after going to his address to investigate a reported burglary.

According to Burson's detective report, Wilcox swayed as he walked and his speech was slurred and confused. Articles which he claimed had been stolen from his residence were all found in the room.

The officers arrested Wilcox, 27, after he attempted to empty the assorted drugs from his right hip pocket into the bathroom commode. The drugs were all loose and of various types and no prescriptions were found.

Wilcox's business address was listed as a local pharmacy.

Raise Prime Lending Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — Several major banks raised their prime lending rates to 9 per cent today, following through on a ¼ percentage point increase initiated by three banks on Friday.

The increases today by New York's Chase Manhattan Bank, the country's third largest, and others brought the prime to an all-time high and virtually assured that the 9 per cent level would spread throughout the industry within the next few days.

The prime rate is the minimum interest banks charge their large corporate borrowers for short-term loans.

While it is not directly linked to consumer installment loans or mortgage rates, a rise in the prime frequently signals a general boost in over-all interest rates, which might occur some months later.

$3.2 Billion Crime Funds Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today signed legislation authorizing $3.2 billion in crime-fighting funds during the next three years and said it "provides the opportunity and money we need" to bring further reductions in the crime rate.

In an Oval Office ceremony, Nixon said the federal aid to local and state law enforcemnt agencies is "one program we are all very proud of."

"It's done its job," he said, referring to reports that serious crimes decreased three per cent last year, the first such decease in more than 15 years.

Looking over his shoulder at Atty. Gen. Elliot Richardson, Nixon asked Richardson if he agreed.

The attorney general responded that he did and cited the support of local and state agencies.

Nixon remarked that "very close cooperation" was essential drawing the nods of members of Congress and government officials gathered around his desk.

The $3.2 billion authorization for the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration is targeted for crime-control projects. The legislation reduces or eliminates matching requirements for local jurisdictions and authorizes the LEAA to develop criminal justice training programs.

The signing was the President's first public order of business following his return to the White House Sunday night from a weekend at the presidential retreat at Camp David, Md.

Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said Nixon worked throughout the weekend, and conferred with staff members by telephone. Warren said he expects that the President will speak out on the Watergate matter within the nex two weeks, if the Senate Watergate committee completes its current phase of testimony.

The President also reportedly talked with his national security adviser, Henry A. Kissinger, and chief of staff Alexander M. Haig Jr., about court action on Cambodia bombing.

Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas had ruled that a lower court decision halting the bombing should be enforced, but his action was overturned by other justices. The White House declined to make any comment on the matter.

The President also was reported to have spent some time relaxing with his family. Also spending the weekend at Camp David were his daughters, Tricia Cox and Julie Eisenhower and his son-in-law, David Eisenhower.

Bomb Error Kills 100

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — A misdirected U.S. bombing strike hit the Cambodian navy's Mekong River base at Neak Luong today, killing about 100 persons and wounding many others, military sources said.

The accidental bombing was carried out by either eight-jet B52 bombers or F111 fighter-bombers, the Cambodian sources added.

Another off-base U.S. air strike killed at least a dozen civilians Sunday in a village southeast of Phnom Penh, according to field reports. The reports said the bombing, at Prek Eng six miles southeast of Phnom Penh, was in close support of government forces in the area of Highway 1.

The navy and military base, 32 miles southeast of the capital of Phnom Penh, was hit with about 20 bombs, the sources said.

First reports said there were about 100 persons killed and at least another 100 wounded at the base.

Park Specials Continuing

A crowd of 500-600 persons turned out for the initial night Sunday of the week-long Starlight Specials in the city amphitheatre.

After last night's gospel sing, performances will resume at 8:15 p.m. today with "black and white night."

Among performers tonight will be two bands, "The Directory" led by Sgt. Willie Lowry and "The Clockwork" directed by Richard Axelrad. Individual performers will be singers Carrie Wheeler and Leona Daniels, dramatic reader Cecilia Coffee, saxophonist Churck Archer and dancers Laurie Choate and Dawn Kloor.

Admission is 25 cents.

QUESTIONS GRAY—Rufus Admisten, deputy counsel, left, opens the questioning of L. Patrick Gray III, former acting director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today before the Senate Watergate Committee in Washington.

Says He Gave Nixon Sufficient Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III said today he thinks he gave President Nixon sufficient warning last year for him to know that improper and illegal things were being done by his staff members.

Gray called Nixon July 6, 1972, less than three weeks after the Watergate break-in, and told him that men on his staff were trying to wound him by using the FBI and the Central Intelligence Agency to confuse investigators trying to interview two key witnesses, he said.

'I DO'

"Do you think a reasonable and prudent man, on the basis of the warning you gave him at that time, would have been alerted to the fact that his staff was engaged in something that was improper, unlawful, illegal?" asked Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga.

"I do," Gray said.

Testifying before the Senate Watergate committee, Gray also said that, contrary to Nixon's statement that he ordered Watergate investigators to begin reporting directly to him last March 21, he received no such order from the President, or anyone else.

JUST WAIT

Gray said the President called him two days later, March 23, and told him he thought Gray was being attacked unfairly at the Senate Judiciary Committee, which eventually refused to endorse Gray's nomination to become permanent head of the FBI.

Gray said Nixon told him there would be another day to get back at the administration's enemies, and told him there would always be a place for him in the Nixon administration. Gray said Nixon mentioned no renewed Watergate probe. Gray quit a little more than a month later, in the midst of the wiretapping scandal.

Gray also testified that ousted White House Counsel John W. Dean III falsely assured him last year that he was relaying information about the FBI's Watergate investigation directly to the President.

Throughout his testimony, Gray emphasized that he had followed what he believed to be orders from proper authority.

'I DON'T KNOW'

He said that even when he found the Hunt papers included State Department cables implicating President John F. Kennedy in the 1963 Diem assassination in Vietnam, he didn't question his orders. Actually, the papers were forged, but Gray thought they were genuine.

"How could they have been politically embarrassing to the Nixon administration?" asked Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii.

"I don't know," Gray said. "That's what I was told."

Gray, who spent most of his Navy career in submarines, also indicated bitterness at being drawn into the wiretapping scandal.

The President said last April

Former Cuban Dictator Dies

MARBELLA, Spain (AP) — Fulgencio Batista, the stocky Cuban dictator overthrown by Fidel Castro in 1959, died early today at a resort colony near here on the southern coast of Spain. He was 72.

His son Ruben said the ex-sergeant, who staged two revolutions and ruled Cuba for 18 years, suffered a heart attack shortly after a meal with his family in his vacation villa at Guadalmina.

UNEXPECTED

"It was really unexpected," Ruben said. "Everything happened within a few minutes."

A solid, robust man, Batista had given no indication of illness during the day and had no history of heart trouble, the family said.

Also with Batista at his death were his wife, Marta; three other sons, Jorge, Fulgencio and Roberto; and a daughter, Marta Maria.

The family said funeral services were set for Tuesday in Madrid with burial in San Isidro cemetery there. The coffin will be wrapped in a Cuban flag, the family said.

The Cuban Embassy in Madrid said it knew of Batista's death but had no official comment. Radio Havana mentioned the death briefly in an early morning newscast.

SELDOM SEEN

Batista maintained contact with his former cabinet members in Madrid but had little to do with the estimated 20,000 Cuban exiles in Spain. He was seldom seen in public.

When he was in Madrid, Batista was overshadowed by two other exiles, Juan D. Peron of Argentina and former Venezuelan president Marcos Perez Jimenez.

Batista arrived in Marbella Sunday for a two-month vacation on the Costa del Sol with his family. He came from Estoril, Portugal, the seaside resort near Lisbon where he had a home.

Batista in his triumphant days boasted "my destiny is to carry out revolutions without bloodshed." He called himself an "idealist but a practical one."

But his dictatorship in Cuba collapsed with bewildering suddenness on New Year's Day, 1959, and Castro, the leader of the successful revolution, accused him and his men of killing 20,000 Cubans by torture and terror.

SUGAR DEAL

He was a tough army sergeant on Aug. 12, 1933, when he joined in the overthrow of the Gerardo Machado dictatorship. Twenty-three days later Batista's handpicked band of noncommissioned officers overthrew the ineffective provisional government.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House disclosed today that the military has spent about $6 million for communications and security installations at President Nixon's home and office complexes in California and Florida.

This is in addition to about $2 million spent by the General Services Administration as well as undisclosed amounts spent by the Secret Service.

Bush Doesn't Endorse Idea Of Booze, Sex Habits Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman George Bush, disagreeing with former presidential aide John D. Ehrlichman, said Monday he doesn't endorse the idea of investigating the drinking habits and sex lives of political opponents.

"Crawling around in the gutter to find some weakness of a man, I don't think we need that," the GOP party chief said in a television interview.

He disagreed with former White House domestic adviser Enrlichman, who defended his use of a private investigator in testimony before the Senate Watergate committee.

DUTY CALLS

Ehrlichman testified that he thought a candidate had a duty to expose his opponents' disqualifying weaknesses, such as a heavy drinking habit, that might otherwise escape public notice.

While in the White House, Ehrlichman employed a former New York City policeman, Anthony T. Ulasewicz, who said he was hired to dig up political dirt. Ulasewicz said that included information on sex habits and drinking of President Nixon's political enemies. Bush said he doesn't believe this is right.

DIGGING UP DIRT

"I think opponent research is valid. I think if an opponent is thought to have done something horrendous or thought to be unfit to serve, research is valid. But the idea of just kind of digging up dirt with the purpose of blackmail or embarrassing somebody so he'd lose, I don't think that is a legitimate purpose," Bush said. Bush also said he thinks that snooping for dirt is done by both Democrats and Republicans.

Bush was interviewed on the NBC "Today" show.

He said the Republican Party isn't being hurt badly by the Watergate scandal even though the party cut back its staff and spending recently. Bush said Republicans have been winning small off-year elections all over the country recently. He also said the party's small, direct mail contributors are giving as much now as they did in 1971, the last nonelection year.

"Where we're hurting is the big givers," Bush said.

Head-On Accident Takes Four Lives In West Texas

By The Associated Press

A single traffic accident took four lives in West Texas as the state counted 33 violent deaths during the weekend.

There were 21 traffic fatalities between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, plus seven homicides and five others from assorted causes.

A head-on crash 25 miles north of Pecos on U.S. 285 killed four motorists Sunday. Officers identified them as J. B. Reed, 69, of Odessa and Gilbert Muniz, 18, Julia S. Carrasco and Raymond Melendrez, all of Carlsbad, N.M. Serious injuries were suffered by a fifth occupant of the New Mexico car.

SEARCHING

A head-on collision .2 mile southeast of San Marcos on Texas 80 killed David Camacho, 19, of San Marcos and injured three Houston youths Sunday night. The three, all reported in fair condition, are James A. Young, 17; Mark Miller, 18, and his brother Mitchell Miller, 15.

Raymond Winston Jr., 3, was killed Sunday in Dallas as he rode his tricycle underneath a moving flatbed truck, police reported. The accident happened on an apartment house parking lot.

Tyler County Sheriff Lewis Graven said officers were searching the Neches River east of Woodville in Southeast Texas today for the body of an unidentified man who disappeared Saturday evening.

Separate traffic accidents at San Antonio killed three persons. They were Guillermo Rodriguez, 22; Jose Segundo, 42, and Jeffrey Robbins, 26.

Officers said thick dust apparently blinded the drivers and caused a collision of two cars which killed a young mother and baby Saturday near Lueders in West Central Texas. They were Cynthia Vickers, 21, and her three-month-old son Jeremy. Her husband, another son and three other young people were taken to an Abilene hospital with serious injuries.

CAR FLIPS

Guadalupe C. Martinez, 61, of Freeport was killed Saturday as his car overturned at a farm road curve five miles south of Victoria.

Friends found Leslie Singletary, 53, a bricklayer, dead of a gunshot wound Saturday in his bathroom at Houston. Officers said his wallet had been emptied of pay he received the night before and robbery apparently was the motive.

Donald E. Hennigan, 22, of Starks, La., was killed Saturday when his car hit a tree near Kirbyville in East Texas.

A resident of an Abilene neighborhood found the bodies of Jesse Lee Swain, 59, and Jess H. Moore, 39, in a manhole where they apparently were killed by toxic fumes Saturday while working on a sewer line.

Gunfire killed John Patrick Jones, 20, in Houston Saturday after he refused to help four women push a stalled car, officers reported. They charged Clarence Scott, also 20, with murder.

Two Blunders Are Corrected

Information about the Big Spring school schedule in the Sunday issue of the Herald contained two errors.

In the first place, the Labor Day holiday date somehow showed up as Nov. 9. November?

Well, it's still in September and happens to be Sept. 3 this year.

Also, Bill Gray, shown as chief of maintenance for the system, has taken his medical retirement, and Walter Alexander is in charge of this phase of the school operations.

FIRES

Silver Heels Fire Department made run to Aquarium Pet Shop on San Angelo Highway at 11:05 a.m. Sunday. There was no fire, only smoke from a pot of corn cooking in the kitchen. No damage.

Big Spring Fire Department made run at 2:01 p.m. Sunday to house at 10th and Runnels. Under control.

Police officers advised a small grass fire south of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church under control at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

EARNING "BACKPATS"—In Howard County for several days this month, a crew from the Abilene office of the Texas Highway Department restriped the center and outside lines on IS 20 from west of Big Spring to the district line. "We receive more pats on the back for those shoulder lines," said crew leader Jackie Jenkins. The truck in the foreground is doing the painting; the one behind carries a reserve paint supply.

Bar Award

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — An award of merit was presented Sunday to the State Bar of Texas by the American Bar Association for outstanding service to the general public and the legal profession.

The award was made at the annual convention of the ABA in Washington with State Bar president Leroy Jeffers of Houston accepting the award.

The Texas Bar was cited particularly for its sponsorship of efforts to modernize the state penal code and family code.

Many Ranchers Taking 'Wait-And-See' Attitude

By The Associated Press

Many Texas farmers and ranchers, like the state's consumers, are taking a "wait-and-see" attitude toward the Sept. 12 end of the federal price freeze on beef.

Ranchers in East Texas, many of whose cattle are ready for market, are deciding now whether to sell, or to wait for a possible higher price next month.

West and North Texas stockmen are not greatly affect by the freeze since their cattle do not normally go to market until later in the fall.

GOOD ENOUGH

Smith County Agricultural Extension Agent Larry Pilgrim of Tyler says that many East Texas stockmen are deciding to wait for a better price when the freeze ends.

Since many have unweaned calves, they can continue to feed them for several weeks without fattening them beyond prime market value, Pilgrim said:

Other farmers and ranchers say they are getting a good enough price to sell now.

"We sold 300 head two weeks ago, and we were well-pleased with the price. We could have made $30 more a head if we had held out until now, but in 60 days we'll have 300 more to market," said East Texas rancher Joe Winston of Winona.

Hockley County Extension Agent Bill R. Taylor of Levelland said, "The freeze hasn't affected the High Plains cow-calf people yet, since it's not time for their fall deliveries."

BREEDERS UNEASY

Syd Conner of Post, extension agent for Garza County, says producers in his area are "sitting tight until the freeze is over."

Both Pilgrim and Conner noted that an increased demand for breeding cattle to replace those lost in last winter's severe weather would keep a small number off the market this year.

Breeders of registered stock said they are not yet directly affected by the freeze.

Angus breeder Richmond Hales of Cleta said he thinks breeders are uneasy about unstable conditions in the industry. "With the government dabbling in the beef business, we're a little afraid it might cause either a shortage or an oversupply."

Ben Fitzgerald of Tyler, a breeder of registered Red Brahama cattle, says demand for good breeding cattle should remain high, however. Fitzgerald speculated that increased international demand for beef and rising world-wide incomes will keep demand ahead of production for years to come.

Low Bids On Machinery Accepted By Commission

Low bid of $32,475.00 for a bulldozer from Treanor Equipment Co. of Abilene and the low bid of $28,320 from Plains Machinery Co. of Odessa for a motor grader were accepted by the Howard County Commissioners Court Monday.

Plains Machinery Co. of Odessa and Consolidated Equipment Sales of Abilene also bid for the dozer and met specifications but were not low bidders.

Consolidated Equipment bid against Plains Machine for the motor grader but was not the low bidder.

The court returned $27,933.32 of lateral road funds to the county for construction or improvement.

Trim-Way janitorial supply company of Big Spring submitted the lowest bid that met specifications for janitorial supplies for the county. The bid was $851.90 and was accepted by the court.

Paul Hicks of Midland, Forrester Sales and Service Inc. and Kimbell Grocery also submitted bids for the supplies but either were higher than Trim-Way or did not meet specifications.

Road Administrator Marvin Hanson reported crews were about 10 days from asphalting the Howard County Junior College parking lot and about half finished with mowing county roadside.

Hanson requested another man for a bull dozer and an extra man for a motor grader. The men are under consideration. He said about five more men are needed to drive dump trucks hauling caliche.

Wayne Wallace, purchasing agent for the road and bridge department, said the dump trucks ordered from Ford Motor Co. will be delivered about the middle or end of October.

Hanson said there are now about 29 men working for him.

Grace Dividend Is Announced

NEW YORK — The board of directors of W. R. Grace & Co. has declared a quarterly dividend of 37½ cents per share on its common stock. It is payable on Sept. 10, 1973 to stockholders of record at the close of business on August 14.

CARROLLTON, Tex. (AP) — Xerox Corp. announced plans today for opening new warehouse and office space for about 500 workers in this Dallas suburb.

Last May the company said it would establish a product development and engineering center in Dallas. That center is now starting operations.

WARNED NIXON

that on March 21, as a result of new allegations that came to his attention, he ordered those investigating the Watergate wiretapping to report directly to him in the White House.

"Did you ever receive . . . a directive from the President?" asked Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn.

"No sir," Gray said.

"Was the FBI still involved in the Watergate investigation in March?" Weicker asked.

"Yes," Gray said. He said the agency was probing activities of Donald Segretti, an alleged political saboteur who took orders from the White House.

PROBABLY LIED

Gray said he received a telephone call from Nixon March 23, but that the President made no mention of any renewed Watergate investigation.

At the time, Gray was running into trouble at the Senate Judiciary Committee's hearings on his nomination to become permanent FBI director. The Senate refused to confirm Gray, and he quit April 27 when it became known that he destroyed papers taken from the safe of one of the Watergate conspirators, E. Howard Hunt.

It had been on March 22 that Gray said Dean probably lied to FBI agents about the location of Hunt's safe.

Nixon called the following day, Gray said. "It was the typical kind of buckup call . . . It was a surprise to me," Gray said.

"I cannot remember his precise words," Gray said. He quoted Nixon generally as saying, "I know the beating you're taking up there. It was very unfair. There will be another day to get back at our enemies. There will always be a place for you in the Nixon administration."

The March 23 call from Nixon came two days after Nixon, according to testimony of two witnesses, was told many details of the Watergate wiretapping and cover-up.

Gray said that Dean falsely assured him last year that he was relaying FBI reports of the Watergate investigation directly to the President.

Gray said that when he began supplying Dean with FBI reports "I felt it was proper and I would do it even if Sen. (George) McGovern were president."

NO IMPEACHING

Gray began answering questions about his role in the Watergate scandal a day after a member of the committee, Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., said no evidence has been found to justify impeaching Nixon.

First Motorized Fire Truck On Stationery

Something different in stationery is being offered here by the Historical Survey Committee of Howard County.

The packet bears a reproduction of the old Thomas Flyer, the first motorized fire truck in Texas. The picture, from which the likeness of the truck with its ladders, vial for chemicals, sweeping plug hose, and (mud) chains on the rear wheels was taken in 1909.

This piece of equipment was the pride of the Big Spring Volunteer Fire Department until the late 1920s when it was replaced by a more modern pumper.

Wyatt Eason, who drove this unit, recently was interviewed by Bob Lewis (Tumbleweed Smith) for one of the "Sounds of Texas" vignettes.

Mrs. Floyd Mays and Mrs. Hubert Stipp, who arranged for publication of the stationery, said they hoped to have packets available in several places. More immediately, it will be at the Heritage Museum and the Howard County Free Library.

To stretch the profits for the benefit of the survey committee's work, they are packaging the material by hand in a clear plastic in order that the picture of the truck will show. The packets will sell for $1.50 each.

Police Still Checking Out Results Of Tests

Results of a polygraph test conducted Friday on Rayfield Turner, a Texas Electric Service Co. meter reader who reported to police he was robbed here Wednesday of three bags of company money, have not been released by local police.

Capt. Jack Jones of the detective division did say, though, that there were several points in Turner's story at which the examiner wants to take a second look. The lie detector test was administered in Midland.

Texas Electric accounts show that the missing money bags contained $1,540.72 in cash and $8,151.90 in checks. Turner was on a deposit run to State National Bank when he claimed a black male jumped into his car and forced him to drive to Midland where he ran off with the money.

Jones said the checks have probably been destroyed as it would be very difficult to cash them.

He said police will continue looking for a black male, 6-1 with an Afro, moustache and goatee as Turner described the thief. He added, though, that he does not feel the man is in Big Spring and that there is nothing to indicate that he is from Midland.

WEATHER FORECAST — Sunny weather is forecast for most of the nation today. Rain or showers are forecast from the northern Rockies to the upper Great Lakes and showers are expected for southern Florida and the coastal areas of the Carolinas. Cooler weather is forecast for the Northwest and warmer weather elsewhere.

DEATHS

ROSCOE NEWELL

R. T. Newell Dies At 64

Roscoe Taft Newell, 64, former principal at Runnels Junior High School, died at 10:45 a.m., Sunday in a local hospital.

Services will be at 10 a.m., Tuesday in the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel. Officiating will be the Rev. Kenneth Patrick of the First Baptist Church. Burial will follow in Trinity Memorial Park with Masonic graveside rites.

Mr. Newell moved to Glasscock County from Greenville in 1950 and on to Big Spring in 1953. When he moved to Big Spring, he took a job as assistant junior high school principal and later became principal of an elementary school. In 1960, he became principal of Runnels Junior High, a position he held until 1971, when he retired due to ill health.

He was married to Mary Frye Sept. 14, 1929, in Greenville. He was a member of several professional organizations before retiring. He spent 35 years in the teaching profession and had 13 years service with the Railway Express. He was a member of the Companion Sunday School class and a deacon and member of the First Baptist Church. He was also a member of Big Spring Lodge No. 1340 AF-AM and the Garden City Masonic Lodge No. 971, a member and passed president of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club.

Survivors include his wife, of the home; six sons, Roscoe T. Newell Jr., Richardson, Wesley M. Newell, Plano, J. C. Newell, Garden City, Lewis M. Newell, Chase, Kan., Truitt K. Newell, Hobbs, N.M., and Donald P. (Buddy) Newell, Fort Worth; two brothers, E. M. Newell, Odessa, and J. L. Newell, Odessa, three half-brothers, D. O. Newell, Ector, E. A. Newell, Savoy, and J. Lawrence, Watsonville, Calif., a half-sister, Mrs. Lynol Finnell, Portersville, Calif.; and 15 grandchildren.

The family suggests that those who wish to remember Mr. Newell can send donations to the heart fund.

Mr. Newell was born in Fannin County, Tex., Sept. 22, 1908.

Pallbearers will be Roy Osborne, Lynn Ainsworth, John Smith, Sherman Smith, Sam Anderson, Ernest Welch, Noel Reed and J. O. Hagood. All friends will be honorary pallbearers.

George S. Ingram

Last rites for George S. Ingram, 64, were set for 3:30 p.m. today in Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with Dr. Claude Craven, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Trinity Memorial Park.

Mr. Ingram died at 6:15 a.m. Sunday in his residence after a short illness.

Born April 10, 1909 in Throckmorton, he came to this area in 1930. He married Myrtle Graves Sept. 30, 1930 in Sparenburg. He had farmed in Ackerly 32 years.

Survivors include his wife, Big Spring; four sons, Clay Ingram, Big Spring, George Ingram Jr., Abilene, Gibly Ingram, Coahoma, and Lynn Ingram, Tulsa, Okla.; two daughters, Mrs. Modesta Snell, Midland, and Mrs. Totsy Alderton, Big Spring.

Also, three brothers, Chester Ingram, Lamesa, Sidney Ingram, Big Spring, and Jack Ingram, Abilene; three sisters, Mrs. Quida Condron, Lamesa, Mrs. Grace Easley, Big Spring, and Mrs. Frankie Anderson, Midland; and 17 grandchildren. One son preceded him in death.

Pallbearers were Lynn Bodine, J. C. Bearden, C. H. Hyden, Jim Hughes, M. E. Dyer Jr. and Gail Batson.

M. H. Malone

LAMESA — Services were set for 4 p.m. today for Mode Henry Malone, 79, former Lamesa resident who died early Saturday in a Beaumont hospital.

Funeral was set for Branon Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Jerrold Lake, Church of the Nazarene, to officiate. Burial was to be in Lamesa Memorial Park.

He had moved to Beaumont 15 months ago from Lamesa to live with his daughter. He was a retired farmer and a member of Woodsmen of the World.

Survivors include his daughter, Mrs. Garnett Pena, Beaumont; a sister, Mrs. Josie Graham, McAllen; a brother, J. C. Malone, Lake Charles, La.;

Charles Winstead

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) —Funeral services were planned today for Charles Winstead, one of the FBI agents who shot John Dillinger in 1934.

Winstead, 82, died Friday at Veteran's Hospital.

He would never say his shots killed Dillinger, the most wanted man that year, but Washington records show two bullets from the Winstead gun hit Dillinger.

Dillinger was a suspect in at least 13 slayings.

A third bullet came from the gun of Charles Hurt, another FBI agent who retired in McAlester, Okla.

Winstead assisted in the capture of Baby Face Nelson in the 1930s.

He was a captain in intelligence during World War II and knew the secret of the atomic bomb at Los Alamos.

He also served during World War I.

Winstead was named New Mexico chief liquor inspector Aug. 1, 1957, by then Gov. Edwin L. Mechem, a former FBI agent.

Survivors include his widow, Maude; two sons, Albert B. Thorne and Thomas P. Thorne, both of Dallas, Tex.; a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth L. Jones of Miami, Fla.; a half brother, Jim Rigby of Florida; a sister, Mrs. Felix Drake of Glendale, Ariz., and a half sister, Mrs. Kimbal Howard of Kansas.

Atomic Bomb Anniversary

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP) — The 28th anniversary of the U.S. destruction of Hiroshima today drew 20,000 people to the spot over which the American atomic bomb exploded on Aug. 5, 1945.

Mayor Setso Yamadan called for "no more Hiroshima destruction in the world." He denounced the recent French nuclear tests in the South Pacific as anachronistic and demanded that the United States, the Soviet Union and China stop all nuclear tests.

The names of 2,650 persons who died this year were deposited in a cenotaph in the park. This raised to 82,833 the roster of persons whose deaths are attributed to the nuclear blast or to causes traced to radiation exposure from the blast.

Canada's Rail Talks Fizzle

MONTREAL (AP) — Contract talks between Canada's railroads and representatives of 56,000 nonoperating workmen have broken down again, and the unions are expected to resume selective strikes Tuesday.

After a two-hour bargaining session Sunday, each side accused the other of rigidity over key issues including wages.

Richard Smith, chief negotiator of the Association of Non-Operating Railway Unions, said the companies were not ready to bargain in good faith. George Lach, vice president of labor relations for Canadian National Rail, said the unions had not changed their demands "in any way."

The negotiators went back to the table Sunday after 10 days of 48-hour strikes held in succession in the five areas in which the country's railroads are divided. All transcontinental passenger service has been suspended until agreement is reached.

Meistersinger Tells European Highlights

"I think people in this country could learn a lesson from the Austrians," said Don Weeks. "They take good care of their country to see that it stays beautiful, and they want visitors to notice the beauty."

Weeks talked Thursday to Big Spring Credit Women's Club at the Settles Hotel, outlining his recent trip to Europe with the Meistersingers. The trip took him to Vienna, Austria; Prague, Czechslovakia; and Budapest, Hungary.

The Meistersingers were in Austria in conjunction with a "Festival of Music" with 17 other choirs from around the world. Weeks described Vienna as a city with beautiful scenery and friendly people, but unusual, in that it is composed of three definite sections that require a map to find one's way around. He said it is filled with colorful flowers and beautiful statues. In Czechoslovakia and Hungary, Weeks said the scenery continues to be impressive but that the larger cities are dirty and "run down."

"The people in the communist countries have nothing to look forward to," said Weeks, "and the attitude is apparent in how they treat their country." He said Budapest is more rundown than Prague because it has been communistic for a longer period of time.

Weeks said everything belonngs to the state in a communistic society, and rather than receiving raises or bonuses when a person does a good job, the government awards medals or plaques which people hang on their fenceposts. He said all of the hotels had large intercom speakers in each room that allowed everything they said to be heard and which could be spoken through from either end. Also, he related the feeling of anxiety when the group crossed the Czechoslovakian border and the border guards closed the gates behind them.

"It was an educational trip," said Weeks, "and I think everyone should have the opportunity to visit a communist country at least once. It is a sure way of making people appreciate the United States."

Weeks said music proved to be an international language that everyone can understand and enjoy. The group didn't sing in Budapest, but in Prague, it sang outside the city hall. Weeks said this was the only time he saw smiles on the people's faces.

Other highlights of the trip included a visit to Ritz, Austria, the "wine capital" of the country. He said the entire town is built on top of a wine cellar. In Vienna, the group attended a ball and toured the city. In Budapest, tour members visited "Red Square" where the annual display of military arms is held. They also visited the oldest Jewish synagogue in the world, and attended Leonard Bernstein's "Mass."

"It wasn't just a pleasure trip for us," said Weeks. "Most of our time was spent going to and from rehearsals." He noted that women's fashions in Europe are "up-to-date" with those in this country, but he said men's styles are four to five years behind.

Concluding his program, Weeks showed many pictures taken while on the two-week tour.

Mrs. George Weeks presided during business, and guests were Mrs. M. S. Knowles, Mrs. B. J. Nobles, Mrs. Ray Dabney, Mrs. Barbara Lord and Mrs. Florence Sitzler, Austin.

Mrs. Weeks appointed Mrs. Noel Hull chairman of a nominating committee, to be assisted by Mrs. J. B. Apple and Mrs. Bill Draper.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

Miss Betty Price, bride-elect of Capt. Robert F. Tilton Jr., was honored Saturday afternoon at a bridal tea in the home of Mrs. G. R. Robinson, 2619 Crestline.

Attired in a long green dress with empire lines, the honoree received guests with her mother, Mrs. R. Earl Price, and Mrs. Robinson. Guests were registered by Debby Harris.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Clyde Angel, Mrs. R.B.G. Cowper, Mrs. Horace Garrett, Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mrs. Adolph Swartz and Mrs. R. W. Thompson.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cutwork cloth and centered with a large champagne glass holding an arrangement of lavender and pink summer flowers. Smaller arrangements in the same colors were used on the table and throughout the entertaining area. Appointments were crystal and silver.

About 75 guests called between 4-6 p.m. Assisting in the house party were Mrs. R. V. Middleton, Mrs. R. Gage Lloyd, Mrs. Preston Harrison, Mrs. Ray Alexander and Mrs. Chester Miller.

Miss Price and Tilton will be married Aug. 17 at First Presbyterian Church where her father is pastor.

NCO Wives To Meet Tuesday

An executive board meeting of Non-Commissioned Officers Wives Club at Webb Air Force Base, will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in the home of Mrs. John Denton, 188-A Hunter, president. The group recently hosted a picnic dinner for members and their husbands at the Webb pavilion. At the club's Aug. 14 meeting, guest speaker will be George Payton, assistant general manager of the Webb base exchange.

GOING BACK — Many of today's fashions call on ideas from past eras, but antique styles dominated a show held Friday as part of the agenda for participants in the Grand Ole Tour antique car show. Shown here are Mrs. James Banks, left, style show chairwoman, and Mrs. Mamie Lee Dobbs, narrator.

Nostalgia Dominates Antique Style Show

Styles of yesteryear were in high fashion Friday night during a style show at the Settles Hotel ballroom. The show was held in conjunction with the Grand-Ole Tour antique car show which ended Saturday in Big Spring.

Costumes modeled included a variety of time eras ranging from 1898 to 1942, and included authentic frills of lace and satin, high button shoes, knickers and straw hats. Narrating the show was Mrs. Mamie Lee Dodds, herself attired in a reproduction from the "flapper era."

There were six categories of actual antique styles, and two classifications for reproduced styles. Three winners were named for each class.

In the children's antique division, covering the period 1892-1942, winners were Douglas Warren, Midland, first; Jeffery Lee Turney, Big Spring, second; and Ramona Wilkinson, San Angelo, third. For reproduction of children's clothing of the same era, winners were Chris Baxter, Odessa, first; Larry Ledbetter, second; and Kyle Epting, third, both of Midland.

Miss Vo Wilkinson, San Angelo, won first place for ladies antique wear of 1898-1913, followed by Miss Reba Short, Olney, second; and Miss Toya Banks, Sand Springs, third. Winners in antique ladies styles representing the 1914-1922 era were Mrs. Troy Roberts, Midland, first; Miss Rita Willingham, San Angelo, second; and Miss Nancy Grantham, Big Spring, third. The final ladies antique group covered styles of 1923-1942, and winners were Miss Karen Archer, Sand Springs, first; Miss Kay Hollen, San Angelo, second; and Miss Faye Wagner, San Angelo, third.

Authentic costumes for couples covered the period of 1898-1942, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Craig, Hobbs, N.M., took first place in that category, followed by Shorty Phillips, Brownwood, and Thelma Rhoads, Odessa, second; and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Proctor, Big Spring, third.

A specialty antique class included costumes not worn as everyday wear, such as uniforms, bathing suits, nightwear, lingerie and wedding gowns. Winners in this class were Mrs. Jim Archer, Sand Springs, first; Floyd Gooch, Abilene, second; and Ms. Corrie Beth Atkins, Big Spring, third.

The final category, adult reproduction for styles of 1898-1942, was won by Mrs. John Rutherford, Monahans, first; and Mrs. Ginger Hart, Arlington, second.

A trophy for the best dressed couple went to Mr. and Mrs. Craig, and winning the best dressed family category were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilkinson and children, San Angelo.

Chairwomen for the style show were Mrs. James Banks and Mrs. Jerry Turney, both of Big Spring, who also served as judges with Mrs. Helen Alford, Midland; Mrs. Ruby Fickling, San Angelo; and Mrs. Dortha Phillips, Brownwood.

Summer Color

Summer's a good time to experiment with face color. A slightly richer colored base or blusher, or maybe an experiment with pastel eye shadows.

Auxiliary Recognized At State Convention

Several members of the local Veterans of World War I Barracks 1474, and its ladies auxiliary, attended a department convention Tuesday through Friday in San Antonio. The local group won three citations, including a first place award for publicity.

Attending from here were Leighton Mundt, district commander, and Mrs. Mundt, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Monroney, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wren, Mrs. Viola Younger and Mrs. Dorothy Hull, auxiliary president.

Election and installation of state officers highlighted the convention, with Charles G. Walker, Arlington, named state commander, and Mrs. Elsie Keating, Irving, named state auxiliary president. Retiring commander is E. F. Westbrook, Fort Worth.

Guest speakers included Halsey Fink, Alexandria, Va., who is national senior vice commander; and Mrs. Emma E. Walla, national senior vice president of the auxiliary. Commander Fink presided at the banquet Thursday evening in the Gunter Hotel, with some 1,000 people in attendance.

Department and auxiliary administrative board meetings were held Tuesday evening, and joint business sessions began Wednesday.

The welcoming address was given by San Antonio's mayor, and colors were posted by the Fifth Army Color Guard. Invocation was by Ernest Roper, Brownwood, state chaplain.

Convention delegates took sight-seeing trips to various historical sites in San Antonio, including the Alamo, Tower of the Americas and old missions.

A dinner meeting of the local barracks and auxiliary was held Saturday at the IOOF Hall, with Homer Haygood, commander, presiding. The next meeting will be Sept. 1 at the hall.

Whole Man

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is concerning "Heartbroken Parents" whose beautiful 28-year-old nurse daughter was marrying a young man who had lost both his legs when he stepped on a mine near Saigon. ("She could easily have gotten a 'whole man,'" her mother moaned.)

May I tell my story? I am also a nurse. At 24, I married an athlete who thought all women should be kept pregnant and quiet, no matter what their husbands did. After two children and eight years of hell, I divorced him.

Then I married George, who had been paralyzed from his shoulders down for 24 years.

We have been married a year and a half, and I have never felt so loved, respected, honored, and needed. I thank God for every minute that He has allowed me to have with this wonderful man.

Abby, please keep telling people like those parents that it's far worse to marry an emotional cripple than a physical one.

BRIDGE QUIZ ANSWERS

Q. 1 — Neither vulnerable, partner opens with one club and you hold:
♠AJ85 ♡K1075 ◇843 ♣74
What do you bid?

A.—One heart, rather than one spade. You have a weak hand and can make only one constructive bid. A one heart response permits partner to show a four-card spade suit at the one-level if he has it. If you respond one spade, partner may have a four-card heart suit without the values to be able to show it at the two-level.

Q. 2 — Neither vulnerable, partner opens with one club and you hold:
♠AQJ5 ♡KQ106 ◇7532 ♣85
What do you bid?

A.—One spade. This hand differs from the preceding one—it is strong enough to bid twice opposite a partner who was able to open the bidding. Since you intend showing both suits, you should do so in the normal order.

Q. 3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠A9 ♡10865 4 ◇AQ10 ♣AK10
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 ♡	Pass	3 ♡	Pass

What do you bid?

A.—This is a very powerful hand opposite a partner who has jumped the bidding. Our main concern is the trump suit, and neither cue-bidding nor Blackwood can find out how good is partner's trump holding. Our suggested call is five hearts. Partner should deduce that you have all the side suits controlled, and that your great concern is with hearts.

Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, your right hand opponent opens with one spade and you hold:
♠K6 ♡A952 ◇AQ7 ♣AJ108
What action do you take?

A.—Double. The alternate call of one no trump is not our first choice. Our objection is based to some extent on the fact that we have four hearts, so a heart contract might easily be lost by failure to double. Also, we would prefer a more robust holding in the opponent's suit to overcall with one no trump. With most of our points in aces and kings and a ruffing value in spades, this hand should play better in a suit.

Q. 5 — East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A1084 ♡72 ◇9643 ♣AKQ
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
1 ◇	Pass	1 ♠	2 ♡
Pass	Pass	?

What do you bid?

A.—You have 14 points in support of partner's bid and should insist on a game contract, either with a jump raise in diamonds or with a temporizing bid of three clubs. Our preference is for the latter, as it may allow partner to contract for nine tricks at no trump if he has a heart stopper.

Q. 6—As dealer, you hold:
♠AKQ4 ♡AQJ10 ◇AKJ4 ♣6
What is your opening bid?

A.—Two spades. This is one of those rare hands on which you open with a demand bid in a four-card suit. The hand contains 24 points in high cards plus 2 distributional points—almost enough to guarantee game in hand. The opening bid is made in spades to allow the economical showing of all three suits in an effort to locate the best spot.

Q. 7 — Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠K10 ♡AKQJ4 ◇7 ♣J8642
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 ♡	2 ◇	2 ♡	Pass

What do you bid?

A.—The choice is between three and four hearts, and we have a slight preference for the direct jump to game. Partner's free raise indicates a fair hand and, with the adverse overcall of two diamonds, it is likely that his values will be in the black suits. The hands should fit well.

Q. 8 — Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AK2 ♡KQ103 ◇KJ54 ♣Q72
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South
1 ♣	Pass	?

What do you bid?

A.—One heart, with two hearts as a close second choice. A three no trump bid is tempting, as we have the right distribution and the top limit for that bid is 18 points. Here, however, we have an extra tenspot, an abundance of primary controls and an added factor in the queen of clubs which, in view of partner's opening bid in that suit, should be worth more than the 2 points normally assigned to it.

Meany Will Not Invite President

CHICAGO (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany says he will break a long-standing tradition and not invite President Nixon to the federation's October convention.

In past years, every president, regardless of party, has been asked to attend the biennial gathering of organized labor.

"Traditions have a habit of coming to an end," said Meany who was attending the federation's executive council meeting in suburban Oak Brook.

Asked if Watergate was the reason for not inviting the President, Meany said, "You bet your life it is. Mr. Colson and his gang . . . deliberately tried to arrange a confrontation at our (1971) convention for political reasons to win votes for the President."

He referred to former White House aide Charles Colson, who has been linked to Watergate by testimony from some of the witnesses. Meany said Colson "deliberately set up" the incident at the labor convention. The White House had complained that the President was given an insulting reception.

At that meeting in Miami Beach, Nixon reportedly was booed because of his Phase 1 wage-price freeze. Meany said Nixon was not booed. He said reporters present at the meeting and the "40 White House operatives who had infiltrated the session" knew that the President was not booed.

Meany said he is not severing relations with the White House and would remain a member of the Cost of Living Council's management-labor advisory committee.

Steam Bath Along Coast

By The Associated Press

Persistent showers and occasional thunderstorms teamed with the August heat to keep Texas coastal areas and part of Southeast Texas in a natural steam bath today.

Skies were mostly clear and temperatures on the mild to cool side over the rest of the state.

Most of the rainfall was along the middle and upper Texas coast from near Corpus Christi through Palacios, Galveston, Houston, Beaumont, Port Arthur and the Lufkin area into Louisiana.

Galveston had received a four-inch downpour only Sunday. Moisture amounts were light elsewhere.

Temperatures early this morning stayed as high as 80 degrees at Galveston. It was a comfortable 65 at Dalhart and 66 at Midland, the coolest spots.

Forecasts called for clear to partly cloudy skies throughout the state and still more scattered showers in the east and south parts of South Central and Southeast Texas, plus occasional thundershowers by evening in Southwest Texas west of the Pecos River.

Dollar Moves Sharply Higher

LONDON (AP) — The dollar moved sharply higher in early trading on European money markets today. Some dealers suggested higher interest rates in the United States accounted for some of the strong showing.

The American currency jumped four centimes to 4.15 French francs on the Paris exchange, two pfennigs to 2.3710 marks in Frankfurt and nearly half a centime to 2.8525 Swiss francs in Zurich.

In London the dollar rose more than one U.S. cent at the opening as the pound was quoted at $2.4980.

Gold was down 60 cents to $115.50 an ounce in early trading in London and Zurich.

Couches Back From Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. John Couch are back from Dayton, Ohio, where they flew last weekend for a reunion of the 58th Wing of the 20th Air Force.

It marked the first time that the group had got together since 1945 when the B-29s punished Japan.

Couch was right gunner on a B-29, and five of his 11-man crew came for the reunion. It was the first time they had seen each other since the unit was phased out. Couch went overseas early in 1944, and his crew dropped its first bombs from China in 1944. Later the unit was based in Guam and Tinian.

There were 150 men from the wing who attended the reunion, and who also got to tour the Air Force Museum and heard Gen. Paul K. Carlton, head of the Military Airlift Command, address them. They also witnessed films of the work of and damage inflicted by the B-29s on Japan, also of AF rescue missions in the Vietnam war.

Mr. and Mrs. Couch learned only two weeks ago of plans for the reunion, which was timed near the 28th anniversary (today is the exact) day of the dropping of the first atomic bomb by the B-29s on Hiroshima, Japan.

Wallace Kin To Wed Kennedy

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace has announced the engagement of his 22-year-old daughter, Peggy Sue, to Henry Mark Kennedy.

The Alabama governor said on Saturday that the wedding would be held Dec. 15 at St. James Methodist Church here.

Miss Wallace is the daughter of the governor's first wife, Lurleen, who died in July 1968. Kennedy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mayo Kennedy of Greenville.

Take Good Look At Your Diet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz says one way to cope with high food costs is to take a good look at your diet to see if some changes can be made.

"I know it's a good idea for me, and I think that wouldn't be a bad idea for lots of people," he said on ABC's "Issues and Answers" television program Sunday.

"As you can see, I've probably eaten more than I should in recent months and years," he said.

Although Shultz deals in billions and millions, he says he has a complete awareness of the housewife's grocery bill "because my wife points it out to me all the time."

Woman Spots Fast Action

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A scientist has reported an asteroid which she says travels faster than anything else in the sky.

Eleanor Helin, a scientist at the California Institute of Technology here, said Sunday that the asteroid, with a diameter of five miles, travels 60,000 miles an hour in relation to the earth.

Mrs. Helin said she discovered the unnamed asteroid last month while taking photographs at the Palomar Observatory. The object passed within seven million miles of the earth when discovered, she said.

The asteroid is in the constellation Scorpius.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Promptly Relieved

Gives Prompt, Temporary Relief from Such Burning Itch and Pain in Many Cases.

The burning itch and pain caused by infection and inflammation in hemorrhoidal tissues can cause much suffering. But there is an exclusive formulation that in many cases gives prompt relief for hours from this itch and pain so that the sufferer is more comfortable again. It also actually helps shrink swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues caused by inflammation and infection.

Tests by doctors on hundreds of patients in New York City, Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center reported similar successful results in many cases. This is the same medication you can buy at any drug counter under the name Preparation H®.

Preparation H also lubricates to protect the inflamed surface area and it doesn't sting or smart. In fact, it has very soothing qualities which make it especially helpful during the night when itching becomes more intense.

There's no other formula like Preparation H. In ointment or suppository form.

Another Look At It

Texans have a habit of plastering proposals for increasing the pay of legislators, and most of the times we have felt it was an appropriate action.

However, Amendment No. 1 coming up this autumn deserves more consideration than an automatic reflex. It faces up to two matters which need to be resolved: Annual sessions and a living wage for legislators.

For almost 100 years, the Legislature has been forced to appropriate funds on a two-year basis. As the size and pace of state government has increased, the biennial appropriaiotns have involved more guesswork than has become tolerable.

The amendment would provide for 60-day budgeting sessions by the Legislature in even-numbered years in addition to regular sessions in odd-numbered years.

This provision is needed so the state government can stay on top of priorities, needs and programs. There also would be a chance to save money in some programs.

The issue of a living wage for legislators has been scorned in the past by voters. Opposition has been based on the claim that legislators don't deserve more than $4,800 a year.

The second part of Amendment 1 would provide $15,000 salaries for legislators, a reasonable figure in this day for people who are charged with fixing the state's laws.

Now poor pay is no excuse for moral weakness, because none forces an individual to serve in the Legislature. But the practical fact is that the average individual with adequate income is in a lot better position to withstand the subtle favors of lobbyists. There no longer would be an excuse for cuttong those moral corners or for selling out for postage stamps. Special interests would have to stand more nearly on their merits rather than their financial clout.

New Greek Ruin

Greece has another ruin to show the tourists.

It was "dimokratia."

Democracy was invented and built in Greece 2500 years ago. Last Sunday, under pain of prison and loss of certain privileges, 84 per cent of eligible Greeks voted "nai" (yes) on a ballot that called for changing the chief of state from premier to president and adopting his 34-article "constitution."

The new president is Col. George Papadoupolis. The constitution confers upon him the power to rule by decree in foreign affairs, defense, internal security, a veto upon all ministers in his government and the right to determine who shall be eligible for election to the parliament.

Failure to vote in the Sunday election can mean a jail term of up to one year and the loss of passports and drivers licenses. By official count, 16 per cent of the eligible voters refused to vote or voted against the colonel.

The Greek dictatorship has been ratified under the gun.

Those Loopholes

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another:

IT'S LITTLE wonder peace officers feel frustrated at times. Higher courts have overturned verdicts in the simplest cases on technical rather than moral grounds. For that reason, think how difficult it is to gain a 'guilty' verdict in the more complex cases, where jurisprudence all too often lines up on the side of the criminal.

TEAMSTERS Union officials in Chicago are seeing to it that only one spray of flowers can accompany a casket in a hearse bound for a cemetery. The ban includes flowers carried into cemeteries by families or friends of the deceased.

If the bereaved care to ante up another $64.50, they can rent another flower car.

Teamster officials blame the funeral directors, saying they abused the old rule that allowed six floral arrangements to the hearse. Guards posted around cemetery are watching for violations.

If it is as difficult to get into the next world as it is to get out of this one, I just may not go.

AN APT description of a successful politician: One who can stay in the public eye without irritating it.

It's sad but true: A minority reaching a majority, starts hating a minority after seizing authority.

The only reason it is better to give than to lend is that it costs about the same.

* * * *

AMERICANS ARE entranced by numbers. Seven . . . eleven . . . thirteen . . . a million — each has a special significance for the people.

A leading hamburger chain makes the populace sit up and take notice by claiming it has sold more than ten billion hamburgers. That would be enough to reach to the moon and 40,000 miles beyond. Laid side by side around the globe at the equator, the burgers would form a belt 8½ feet wide.

A couple of tribes in remote parts of the world stop counting after they reach three. Anything beyond that doesn't interest them. Three of anything should be enough, they reason, and they may have the right idea.

Violations Anyone?

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — There's nothing like a good discussion of somebody else's finances to take your mind off your own. To fuel such a discussion, hoping it remains that and nothing hotter, consider this:

In 1972 there existed a 5.5 per cent guideline for wage increases. In spite of this, the total compensation of chief executives rose about 7.8 per cent, according to a survey by McKinsey & Co., management consultants.

THE SURVEY was conducted among 592 of the largest U.S. corporations in 31 industries. The findings reveal that compensation rose 18.6 per cent in motor vehicles and equipment and 12.8 per cent in railroads.

"Only five industries failed to post increases," McKinsey found, "with meat products alone showing a significant over-all chief executive pay cut — a decrease of 14.3 per cent."

How could such a thing occur, seemingly in violation of guidelines?

The answer lies in the difference between salaries and total compensation, which includes not just the salary but the bonus and incentives and such.

"THE FACT that executive incentive plans are controlled separately from salaries under existing pay regulations accounts for why over-all executive compensation can increase by the 7.8 per cent that it did, despite a 5.5 per cent wage increase guideline," said George Foote, a McKinsey partner.

A separate analysis of salaries only showed an increase of about 5 per cent from 1971 to 1972, he said, concluding:

"The charge made in some quarters that executives have been lining their pockets at the expense of lower paid employes does not appear to be substantiated by the facts."

And here's another:

If for some reason you had the notion that business hasn't been good, perhaps because the stock market simply doesn't reflect it at all, you should be reminded that seldom in recent history have corporate profits risen so sharply.

Preliminary computations show that after-tax profits of corporations during the April-May-June quarter were about 30 per cent higher than in the same period a year earlier.

In publishing its own survey, First National City Bank commented:

"A rapidly expanding economy and easing of price controls under Phase 3 helped increase earnings at five out of six of the firms covered by the survey."

Here are a few of the after-tax corporate profits reported by Citybank for the first half of 1973 compared with the first half of 1972:

Paper 74 per cent, iron and steel 57, nonferrous metals 51, automobiles and parts 58, chemicals 40, petroleum 46, machinery 35, rubber and plastics 30 and textiles 29 per cent.

ANTICIPATING such increases, Robert Parks, the chief economist for the investment house of Blyth Eastman Dillon commented in a research piece directed at the company's personnel:

"Price violations anyone? The statement . . . by the Cost of Living Council that it has found only a few violations of price standards under Phase 3 is astonishing to us on a number of accounts."

He proceeded to list some of them, the first of which was:

"It runs counter to the overall data for several industries, which show rapid-price rises, wholesale and retail, in the first half of this year, a large climb in total profits, and a significant rise in profit margins . . ."

Many of the profit margins, he argued, rose above the average of the best two of the past four or five fiscal years," which suggested to him that more profit violations could be found than were turned up by the council.

Tends Garden

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — At 101, Hattie Steele of the nearby Monteith community still keeps house and tends her garden.

She doesn't like cars and never watches television. "They are vanity," she said.

Bad Year For Blimp Pilots

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The most difficult thing about flying a blimp is landing a job as its pilot.

The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company regularly receives more applications from prospective blimp pilots than it can possibly use.

Most recently, a record 150 persons applied for three pilot training jobs — one for each of the Goodyear blimps based in Miami, Houston and Los Angeles.

The unusually heavy flow of blimp pilot applications has been attributed to the increased popularity of the flying balloons.

'WHAT DO YOU MEAN, MAYBE?'

Back To MacGregor

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — Who was really responsible for the Watergate cover-up at the White House may depend on the answer to a question not considered during the Senate Watergate committee's hours of testimony: did John D. Ehrlichman keep Nixon campaign manager Clark MacGregor from the truth about Watergate last summer?

THE UNDISPUTED facts, not revealed until now, are these. While publicly exuding confidence about no White House involvement in the scandal, MacGregor became privately anxious during the Republican national convention in Miami Beach last August. Consequently, he asked for a full briefing from John W. Dean III, then the White House counsel. After some delay, Dean informed MacGregor he knew nothing. Since Dean was well aware of the cover-up, the truth was being hidden from MacGregor.

Dean has privately informed federal prosecutors and Senate investigators that his silence was ordered by Ehrlichman, then domestic chief at the White House. If true, the Watergate cover-up would be traced to the President's senior staff. If not true, the White House contention that middle-level staffer Dean directed the cover-up would be sustained.

LIKE MUCH in Watergate, the truth about who kept the facts from MacGregor may never be known. But this question is closely related to the overriding issue of President Nixon's own innocence or complicity. There is no corroboration for Dean's report that Ehrlichman gagged him in Miami Beach. But other details of Dean's story to investigators — including how MacGregor sought him out — are fully confirmed by other sources.

MOREOVER, the picture of a frantic Clark MacGregor at Miami Beach seeking out the lowdown on Watergate — a picture confirmed by several sources — contradicts what Ehrlichman has been saying under oath. In his uncorroborated testimony, Ehrlichman has depicted MacGregor resisting suggestions that he probe the Watergate scandal. Thus, up to the unverifiable point of whether Ehrlichman blocked the briefing, the facts favor Dean's rather than Ehrlichman's version of reality.

MACGREGOR, was disturbed by a Time magazine report on Watergate on the eve of the convention. Following his assurances on "Meet the Press" the day before the convention, some influential Republican figures met with MacGregor and cautioned him to be certain of his facts, State CREEP leaders meeting with him in Miami Beach gave the same warning.

Robert Mardian, one of MacGregor's lieutenants at CREEP, feared the White House was out to get him.

CONCERNED much more by the advice from nationally prominent Republicans and state leaders than Mardian's hints, MacGregor grilled his deputy, Jeb Magruder, for hours in Miami Beach. Though knee-deep in the cover-up, Magruder denied everything. He turned to Dean, who later said he was checking with Ehrlichman on whether to tell MacGregor. The answer was a flat no.

Watch Out For Sharks

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you meet a shark bearing bright red, yellow or blue decorations, tell the National Marine Fisheries Service laboratory in Narragansett, R.I.

About 1,000 sharks are now swimming the Atlantic Ocean bearing such tags, along with messages in five languages. Three hundred and fifty of them have been recaptured as far away as 2,070 miles.

The investigations, which have been conducted for nine years, indicate so far that sharks travel a thousand miles or more annually, that the migratory routes of male, female and juvenile sharks of some species are different, and that some sharks may live much longer than supposed.

Reel Love Is Real

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — First they fell in love on film—and now they say it's the real thing.

A year ago, when each was 16, Robby Benson was receiving $700 a week and Glynnis O'Connor $600 for making an unheralded picture called "Jeremy." It promises to be one of the sleeper hits of the year, and at 17 its two young stars are a bit dazed at standing on the threshold of a future full of the promise of really big money goodies.

The film is a simply told, appealing adolescent version of "Love Story." Two high school kids meet, get acquainted, fall in love, then must part. That's all. There is no tragic death scene. There is no villain. The firm for which the girl's father works transfers him out of town, and she must go with him, leaving her young love behind.

The story line is older than Hollywood. It's as old as the human race, but it leaves audiences of teen-agers gulping with self-pity and grownups with eyes that overflow at the memory of their own youthful romances.

Both Robby and Glynnis now stoutly hold hands at press luncheons and insist that, whatever else the future brings, the big thing will be each other. Tattletale time will tell whether this attitude is a precocious pubescent flowering or a publicity presentation. Right, Manny?

Robby, who is near-sighted, 6 feet tall, and 125 pounds, is the more experienced actor. He has made more than 100 television and 30 radio commercials, dubbed the English for 50 foreign films, and for three years appeared in the stage musical, "Oliver." He is the son of Jerry Segal, a writer and producer.

"He's my steady," said Glynnis, and Robby nodded tolerantly.

Glynnis, short, winsome, and shy-faced, looks like the dark-haired princess in a fairy tale. She has made several television commercials and is now acting in the soap opera, "As the World Turns." She plays the role of Dawn, daughter of that dauntless timeless heroine, Ellen. In real life, she is the daughter of Danny O'Connor, a director of special events for NBC News.

What are they interested in besides acting?

"I'd like to do social work—or be Robby's nurse." Glynnis said. Robby grimaced.

"I like sports," he said. "The worst thing about making the picture was that I had to give up a job walking hot horses at the Aqueduct racetrack. I'm from Texas, and I'm crazy about horses. I handicap them—and sometimes bet on them.

"My father gives me five per cent of everything I earn acting. That's been a lot lately. The rest goes into a savings account for college. If I don't remain an actor I'd like to go into medicine."

The date of the wedding hasn't been set.

Frowns On Deceitful Mail

To Eddie, the idea seemed like a sure thing. He mailed out phony invoices to a number of businessmen, billing them for ads they had never ordered, and waited for the money to roll in.

SOME MONEY did. But so did two federal investigators, who haled Eddie into court on a charge of "using the mails to defraud" In short order he landed in jail, following the path of countless get-rich-quick artists who have run afoul of the United States Post Office.

Under our legal system, most crimes are local. Robbery and riot, murder and mayhem ordinarily come under the jurisdiction of local governments.

BUT MAIL fraud is federal business, because the Constitution gives exclusive control of the postal system to the federal government.

Of course, to constitute the crime, the fraudulent scheme must include some significant use of the mails. However, that need not be the central feature. Consider, for example, the case of a man who used chicanery to sell lots in a cemetery. All of his sales were made in person, not by mail.

BUT HE followed up with letters to his customers, partly to allay their suspicions and partly to discourage them from taking him into court. Such use of the mails, a court ruled afterward, was enough to support a federal charge against him for fraud.

Still, there must really be fraud, not just deft salesmanship. In another case a woman was accused of mail fraud because she had been selling "lucky stones" through the mail.

BUT AT THE trial, she pointed out that she had made no claim of magical virtues for her product — beyond the name itself. Dismissing the charge, the court said;

"THERE IS nothing immoral in the belief that amulets affect the wearer's fortune. If (the defendant) wishes to sell lucky stones for what they are, without lying about them, she is not acting fraudulently in so doing."

Adhesions Are No Mystery

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been to two doctors and they both tell me the same thing. I had my appendix out and now I have been told I have adhesions.

What causes adhesions? What can be done about them other than another operation, and what guarantees do I have after an operation that I won't get them again?

The only thing the doctors tell me to do when my side pains and swells is to apply heat, take it easy and wear some kind of support.

Is there anything that I can take or do to help this pain and swelling? — Miss K.B.

The adhesions are no mystery. They form in the scarring process as the operation heals. Incidentally, early exercise after operations tends to reduce the chance of adhesions forming.

The need for surgery in a case such as yours where the appendix was involved would be dictated by just how much kinking or distortion of the intestine may be involved because of the adhesions.

If there's no bowel obstruction, then it would probably be best to avoid the operation. Some persons form adhesions more readily than others. The second operation could also result in adhesions.

Your pain might be caused by some slight kinking of the lower intestint or perhaps by a bit of constipation. I think you are getting good advice from your doctors. Take it. You might mention the possibility of an operation just to get some assurance, but follow the advice. Use the heat, rest and some support to be comfortable though what may be only a temporary situation.

* * *

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My husband and I are in line to inherit my grandmother's nice old home, but three people have died of cancer in that house in the past 10 years, the last one this year.

Perhaps I am morbid, but I really fear moving our children into that house without taking precautions to rid the house of cancer. How can I make the house safe for habitation? — M.C.

I wouldn't call you "morbid" but you are afriad of things you shouldn't fear. Cancer isn't transmitted by houses or caused by houses. If three people had died in that house from heart disease, you wouldn't be asking how to rid the house of heart disease, would you?

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

My mother certainly doesn't fit the Biblical image of her role. Her philosophy is "Money rules all — seek it no matter who gets stepped on." She's never expressed love to my father, but rather treats him cruelly. I find resentment to her growing strongly daily. Will God understand these feelings? D.J.

It is one thing to say that God understands, it's another to say He approves.

Certainly, the Bible is plain about the obligation of children to parents. Without limits of time or circumstance, children are always to honor them. This does not imply that actions and attitudes are condoned. In fact, "honoring" parents includes the obligation to share constructive criticism where appropriate.

Christ often amplified the meaning of the law. In Mark 7:10, He did this regarding a child's relationship to the parent. The word "honor" there, has meaning in addition to the usual significance of love, reverence and obedience. It means "support" as well. Accordingly, your mother needs the support of your Christian example, if she is ever going to correct her faults.

It's understandable that you have indignant displeasure at your mother's conduct. But this is exactly where the love of Christ, given to us through faith, comes in. It can give you the stamina to carry on.

Without approving her conduct in any way, you can by your own display of the proper attitude on money, family and community relationships, show her the right way. Hang in there, as long as you can, because to pull out now might produce an ever greater crisis for your Dad and all others concerned. Christianity is designed to thrive in the most hostile of circumstances.

A Devotion For Today . .

"We cannot stop speaking of what we ourselves have seen and heard." (Acts 4:20, TEV)

PRAYER: O Lord, You have saved us from sin, death, and hell. Save us also from being silent about our salvation. Help us to sincerely and constantly appreciate what You have done for us, so that we cannot help but speak of You to others. Amen.

Cubs Pin First Loss On Cards

Big Spring's Cardinals stormed to an angry 10 - 1 victory in the second game of a doubleheader at Steer Park Sunday against the hometown rival Tiger Cubs, but it was too late. The damage had already been done.

The Tiger Cubs scored a 5-0 upset victory in the opener, ending a 20-game victory streak for the Cardinals this season. The Cards, who lost just two games last year, are now 21-1 and the Tiger Cubs 9-11.

John Morelion scattered five hits in notching the Cubs' victory, and his mates pushed across all their runs in the fourth inning. Ernest Garcia slapped a two-run double to get it started. Juano Cervantez also had a run-scoring hit in the rally.

Cervantez' double and single led the Cubs and Drew Jones slapped two hits in the victory, while Garcia, Morelion, Billy Woods, Adam Yanez and C. Q. Cervantez had one each.

The Cardinals threatened just once in the tilt, when Abel Ramirez doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice in the third inning. Florez had a pair of hits in the losing effort.

Florez was credited with the doubles. Tony Martinez also had a single in the loss.

Florez was credited with the Cards' first defeat.

It was a different story in the nightcap, as the Cardinals turned just four hits into a runaway victory, taking advantage of several Cub errors and seven walks by losing pitcher Drew Jones.

The Cards led 2-0 after four innings, and then broke loose for seven more in the fifth as 10 men went to the plate. Florez had a double in that blitz and Sammy Rodriguez and Jesse Olague managed singles. Andy Gamboa had the final hit in the sixth and scored the last run.

Orlando Olague was the winning pitcher, giving up five hits, singles by Morelion, Tony Fierro, Juano Cervantez, Garcia and Yanez.

RIDING HIGH—Atlanta pitcher Phil Niekro is carried by catcher Paul Casanova and second baseman Chuck Goggin after completing a 9-0 no-hitter over the San Diego Padres at Atlanta Stadium Sunday. The right-handed knuckleball specialist now is 11-5 for the season. The no-hitter was the first for the Braves since moving to Atlanta from Milwaukee.

Niekro Tosses Braves' First No-Hitter Since Spahn's Days

By The Associated Press

Phil Niekro beat Warren Spahn to the Hall of Fame Sunday.

Spahn, the former Milwaukee Braves' ace and the winningest left-handed pitcher in baseball history, was to be inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., today.

Niekro, the Atlanta Braves' 34-year-old knuckleballer, probably won't make it career-wise, but he fluttered past Spahn and into the Hall's no-hit section Sunday the way his pitches danced past San Diego Padre bats in a 9-0 no-hitter.

Niekro walked three and struck out four in hurling the Braves' first no-hitter since Spahn did it against San Francisco 12 years ago. Two other Padres reached on infield throwing errors.

Niekro's was the fifth no-hitter of the season but the first in the National League.

"I knew I had a no-hitter going. You're usually aware until the first guy gets a hit. When they came up for the second time around I knew they didn't have a hit. After that, no one on the bench spoke to me," he said.

Niekro, a native of Blaine, Ohio, was signed by the Braves for a $500 bonus after attending a tryout camp in 1958. The no-hitter boosted his record to 11-5 and capped a season which he began in the bullpen. He didn't make his first start until May 15.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the San Francisco Giants 4-3, the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Houston Astros 7-1, the St. Louis Cardinals won a pair from the New York Mets 3-2 and 4-1, the Montreal Expos nipped the Chicago Cubs 3-2 and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Philadelphia Phillies 4-1.

Dodgers 4, Giants 3

Bill Buckner's two-run homer and Jim Brewer's clutch relief pitching highlighted the Dodgers' victory, which kept them three games ahead of Cincinnati in the West Division and dropped the third-place Giants 7½ out.

Reds 7, Astros 1

Pete Rose and Joe Morgan drove in three of Cincinnati's four second-inning unearned runs with singles and Ross Grimsley spaced eight hits. The only damaging blow was Jim Wynn's 17th homer. The Reds added three runs in the fifth, triggered by Dan Driessen's triple which stretched his hitting streak to 17 games.

In the American League, Boston beat Baltimore 7-4, Detroit shaded New York 8-6, Minnesota trounced Kansas City 7-1, Oakland topped California 6-2, Cleveland swept Milwaukee 6-5 and 4-1 and Chicago took two from Texas 7-3 and 5-4.

PRO GRID ROUNDUP

Browns, 49ers Vie

By The Associated Press

Although veterans will dominate the starting lineups, Cleveland Coach Nick Skorich and San Francisco Coach Dick Nolan both plan to take a long look at some key rookies when their teams meet tonight at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium in the windup of the first full weekend of National Football League exhibition action.

In Sunday night's only game, the New England Patriots rallied for two touchdowns in the final period to pull out a 17-17 tie with the Oakland Raiders.

Saturday night, the Miami Dolphins edged the Cincinnati Bengals 14-13, the Philadelphia Eagles beat the Buffalo Bills 13-6, the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the New Orleans Saints 12-6, the New York Giants crushed the San Diego Chargers 28-3, the Pittsburgh Steelers trounced the Baltimore Colts 34-7 and the Chicago Bears tied the Green Bay Packers 13-13.

The New York Jets nipped the Houston Oilers 16-13, the Detroit Lions topped the Washington Redskins 17-14 and the Dallas Cowboys beat the Los Angeles Rams 24-7 in Friday night games.

Skorich will start Mike Phipps at quarterback and give second-year man Brian Sipe some work in the second half. Nolan will counter with John Brodie at the start and go to Steve Spurrier in the second half, with young Joe Reed also possibly seeing some action.

Skorich wants to get a good look at some young running backs as possible bench strength behind veterans Leroy Kelly and Bo Scott.

Nolan wants to examine his rookie wide receivers.

Following their fine comeback, the Patriots were given a scare as veteran George Blanda attempted a 43-yard field goal at the final gun. But his attempt was low and short.

Daryle Lamonica tossed touchdown passes for Oakland, but John Tarver scored on a three-yard run for the Patriots' first touchdown, then New England capitalized on a short punt by Oakland rookie Ray Guy to tie the score, Jim Plunkett hitting Tommy Reynolds with a 21-yard pass for the touchdown.

The NFL champion Dolphins had their hands full in posting their 20th consecutive victory—the final preseason game of 1972, 14 regular season games, three playoff games and a 14-3 win over the College All-Stars in Chicago last Friday being the previous 19.

Philadelphia's Po James set up the winning touchdown with a 32-yard scamper, then ran it in from three yards out with 3:05 left in the game to make the Eagles' debut under Coach Mike McCormack a winning one.

Jan Stenerud booted four field goals to Happy Feller's two as the Chiefs topped the Saints.

John Unitas made his debut for San Diego, playing the first period, but was overshadowed by the Giants' quarterback tandem of Norm Snead and Randy Johnson.

Pittsburgh showed midseason precision in whipping the new-look Baltimore Colts. Pittsburgh's Preston Pearson set up two touchdowns in the first four minutes with runs of 69 and 39 yards.

Green Bay's Chester Marcol, whose kicking had beaten the Bears three times last year, missed what would have been the winning field goal from 39 yards out with eight seconds left Saturday night as the Packers and Bears tied 13-13.

Chippers 9th In State Meet

ABILENE — Big Spring's Morton Chippers finished ninth in the 40-team Texas ASA Men's Fast Pitch Tournament here Sunday, bowing in their sixth game of the double elimination tournament.

Madisonville nudged the Chippers 1-0 Sunday in the tourney's 68th game, ending the Big Springers' hopes.

Lubbock Co-Op won the meet, defeating Stephenville Merchants 3-1 in the finals.

The Morton crew had topped Stephenville's Jays 8-1 in the opener, but fell into the losers' bracket with a 5-3 upset at the hands of Texas City. They topped the Brownwood Jewelers 12-0, Texas City 7-1 and Sewell of Lubbock 7-5 before bowing to the Madisonville team.

Madisonville won another game before bowing to Lubbock Co-Op.

The Big Spring Merchants won their opener over Sweetwater AT&T 3-2, but lost their second round tilt to Huntsville 2-1. They were eliminated from the meet in another one-run game, losing to Georgetown 2-1.

Clark Tops In Handball

George Clark of Juarez, Mexico, captured the C Class honors in the Big Spring YMCA Handball Tournament Sunday, defeating Big Spring's Gary Goswick 21-17, 21-7 in the finals.

Another Juarez player, Antonio Monreal, downed local handballer Skip Eggleston 7-21, 21-19, 21-7 for the consolation prize Sunday.

In Ladies' Racquetball competition, Viena Arencibia was the winner with a 21-17, 21-0 victory over Janice Platte in the all-Big Spring finals, and Lisa Pipes won the consolation prize by stopping Cheryl Cannon 21-13, 21-8.

The A and B divisions of the men's handball tourney will be played this weekend beginning Friday at 5 p.m., according to YMCA Physical Director Pat Owens. The meet will last through Sunday.

Flying Rocket Nips Gobar For Ruidoso Rainbow Win

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. — Flying Rockette, ridden by Charlie Kelley for Mary Urschel of Canadian, battled her way to a head victory in Sunday's 10th running of the Rainbow Quarter Horse Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

The victory in the second leg of the Triple Crown of Quarter Horse racing was worth $93,000 out of the gross pot of $284,280. Flying Rocket, coupled with her stablemate, Spanish Rockette, got away as a lukewarm 7-2 favorite and paid $8.40, $4.80 and $3.

Mr. Gobar, the only New Mexico-bred in the field, nailed down second and earned a paycheck of $44,684. Johnny Cox rode the colt for Allen Stow and Ken Grisham of Lubbock.

Mr. Gobar returned $5 and $3.20. He hit the wire a length in front of Rocket Elaine. The latter, a filly owned by Douglas Devenport of West Bend, Wisc., left the gate at 7-2 and returned $3.40 to show.

Third place money was worth $23,180.

The action was viewed by a crowd of 6,673, who wagered a high of $42,138 on the futurity. Total wagering for the afternoon topped out at $353,930. The race was also beamed live by the All-American Network to 51 stations in 14 states.

Mr. Gobar came out of the gate with ground-eating strides and assumed an early lead, Flying Rockette, who drew the No. 10 post was never far off the lead.

Early, it appeared Mr. Gobar would run away with the race. Flying Rockette was right on his trail, while Rocket Elaine and Robust Lad were close to the lead.

But at the midway point, Flying Rockette caught fire and powered her way in front. Mr. Gobar refused to give up and dug in for a fight. With the two pacemakers hooked up in a struggle, all other contenders were out of reach.

The winner went into the race with a modest record of 3-1-0 out of six starts, good for earnings of less than $5,000.

Here's the way the rest of the field crossed the wire, with purse money earned; 4th — Robust Lad, $12,288; 5th — Sucha Mama, $12,288; 6th — Lou's Jet, $10,891; 7th — Oh Ver Due, $10,612; 8th — Gotta Go Too, $10,333; 9th — Spanish Rockette, $10,054; 10th — Miss 747, $9,495.

Rustlers Battle Snyder Tonight

The Rustlers, Big Spring's representatives in the Senior League Miss Softball America Tournament here next week, play a practice game today with the Snyder women's team at 7:30 at Comanche Trail Park.

Snyder owns the only victory over the Big Springers this year, an 8-6 setback two weeks ago.

Chicago Tops Texas Twice

CHICAGO (AP) — There's no tonic in baseball like a double victory and the Chicago White Sox are hoping their twin killing of the Texas Rangers might get them going once more.

"We're back in it again," said Manager Chuck Tanner after the Sox posted 7-3 and 5-4 victories over the Rangers Sunday. "This could give us the momentum for a real good winning streak which we badly need."

Realistically, Tanner admitted if the White Sox, who are now eight games off the pace in the American League West, do get going they'll have to do it without the services of Dick Allen and Ken Henderson.

Neither Allen, who hasn't been in uniform the last two days, nor Henderson is responding to treatment for injuries.

"We'll have to do it without Allen or Henderson," said Tanner "but the players proved they can do it without them. The big thing is the way we won both games."

Physicals Set Here Thursday

Physicals will be given all athletes from Big Spring, Coahoma, Sands, Forsan, Stanton and Garden City Thursday at 1 p.m. in the BSHS gym, Steer head trainer Doc Irwin has announced.

Irwin said the physicals were for boys who will be playing in all sports during the 1973-74 season, not just football.

Nichols, Weiskopf Switch Golf Roles

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Bobby Nichols went home to Ohio a winner again—for the first time in a long time.

Tom Weiskopf went home to Ohio unhappy and disgruntled again—for the first time in a long time.

"All I'm going to say is that I'm glad to be going home to Ohio. That's all I'll say about it," the obviously angry Weiskopf said after a quadruple-bogey eight and the end of his winning streak.

Nichols, meanwhile, was bubbling happy after his dramatic triumph in the 37-hole windup Sunday in the rich Westchester Golf Classic.

The 37-year-old veteran did it in thrilling fashion. He came from nowhere with a blazing, five-under-par 31 on the final nine holes to tie Bob Murphy and then won the ensuing playoff by dropping a 25-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole.

Gross Wins BSGA Meet

Ted Gross fired a hot 61 Sunday and captured first place honors in the Big Spring Golf Association's Replayed Shot Tournament at the Municipal Golf Course.

Gross had rounds of 29 and 33 to outdistance second place Bernard Rains by four shots. Rains had a 34-31 — 65. Third in the meet was Charlie Bailey with a 33-33 — 66, while Ray Bluhm was next with a 36-32 — 68 and Garland Hill had a 33-36 — 69 for fifth.

Four players shot 70s and tied for sixth, Max Pitts, Perry Rountree, Avery Falkner and James Petty.

Gross will be the defending champion this week when the Big Spring City Championship gets under way. The match play event begins Saturday and runs through Aug. 26.

Golfers will have three days to play their matches. Entry fee is $7.50 and the field is limited to players from Howard County.

Muny pro Charles Brantley said there would also be a seniors Flight this year for players 60 and over.

Sports... In Brief

TENNIS

DENVER — Top-seeded Billie Jean King beat Betty Stove of the Netherlands 6-4, 6-2 to win the $7,000 first prize in the Denver Pro Tennis Meet.

LOUISVILLE — Manuel Orantes of Spain outlasted John Newcombe of Australia 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 and won the singles title in the $75,000 Pro Tennis Classic.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill., won the singles championship in the $25,000 Buckeye Tennis Championship by defeating Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — Chris Evert captured the first Atlantic City Tennis Classic championship by defeating Marita Redondo in straight sets, 6-2, 7-5.

SWIMMING

BRISBANE, Australia — Stephen Holland broke two world swimming records with times of 15:37.8 in the 150-meters, and 8:17.6 in the 800-meters in final national trials for the world championships.

Redman Captures Pistol Competition

James L. Redman of Odessa won the Western Sportsman's Club Monthly meet Sunday, scoring 510 points of a possible 600 in the International Standard Pistol competition.

Harold K. Bull of Big Spring placed second with a 492 and Tipoy Anderson Jr. came in third with 463 points. The third place honors were closely contested by V. C. Rigton of Big Spring with a 456.

Anyone interested in pistol shooting competition can call 3-2155 for information. Bull is a certified pistol marksmanship instructor and will assist with a basic pistol course if needed, a club spokesman said.

Marathons Mark Action In Chile-U.S. Davis Play

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Tennis has its own version of the Boston Marathon.

It's called the American Zone finals of the Davis Cup.

The tennis marathon began Friday when Tom Gorman of Seattle, Wash., and Jaime Fillol of Chile played the second longest singles set in Cup history, Gorman winning 17-15. The kicker came Sunday—a 76-game set that lasted three hours and 45 minutes, establishing a Davis Cup record.

The Chilean team of Fillol and Pat Cornejo won the set 39-37 over Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., and Erik van Dillen of San Mateo, Calif. The U.S. team rebounded to take the next set 8-6 and established a commanding 5-1 lead in the fourth set before darkness suspended play.

So the action will continue today and possibly extend into Tuesday in an event that was scheduled to end Sunday.

The United States leads in the competition 2-0 with Gorman's singles victory and a triumph by Smith over Cornejo in a match that began Friday and ended Saturday. The winner of the American Zone meets Romania, which defeated the Soviet Union during the weekend. The United States has won the Davis Cup five straight years.

Bob Malaga of Cleveland, special adviser to the Davis Cup committee, said the second set of the doubles match was the "finest set I have seen in watching 20 years of Davis Cup play."

LPGA Win To Rankin

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Judy Rankin defied her normal mental stance to win her third Ladies Professional Golf Association tournament of the year.

"I usually can feel when I'm going to win a tournament. I didn't have that feeling today," said the No. 1 women's pro money winner this year after posting a par 72 Sunday for a four-under-par 212 total and an LPGA Classic victory.

"I normally don't feel this nervous either," she said of her three-shot victory over young Debbie Austin in the tournament marred by four last round disqualifications.

Pitched out by LPGA officials were Betty Burfeindt, Jane Blalock, Beth Stone and Jo Ann Prentice for what LPGA co-director Rene Mondine termed "improper relief from tree wires in the second round."

HOROSCOPE

CARROL RIGHTER

TUESDAY, AUGUST 7, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to fill your thoughts and your plans with much outside activity. Look outward instead of inward to make the decisions that will best extend your present interests. Be more decisive if you wish to make progress in the days ahead.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Becoming more friendly with associates whose thinking has been different from yours is wise. A good day to plan a trip. Don't be too eager to take up with strangers at this time. Be alert.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Put those good ideas to work that will make you more skillful and give you more abundance. Show more devotion to loved one. Don't become disturbed at the strange behavior of a friend. Be helpful.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Meet with associates who are important to your well-being and be willing to make changes in agreements so that better results occur. Use more direct methods with one who opposes.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You can increase your work output if you get excellent results at this time. Find new items to add to your wardrobe and improve your appearance. Have a delightful time with kin tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Once you have done important work, go to the amusements that you enjoy. Engage in those creative outlets that you like so much. Make sure you don't argue with others or trouble could result.

VIRGO — (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you are more kind with kin and give them a pat on the back instead of criticizing them, you get a more harmonious reaction. Make little changes around the house for added comfort.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Being more cooperative with associates brings good results now. Work in a more efficient way and get more benefits in the future. Make sure you do any shopping early in the day. Relax tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Fretting over little things you cannot change is not wise. Concentrate on whatever is important, and make far greater progress. Obtain the advice you need from a successful businessman.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You can improve your present position by getting busy at whatever really pleases you and is important to your welfare. Make sure you dress well before keeping a vital appointment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you first talk with a trusted adviser, you can take a course of action with confidence. Forget civic work for the time being. Avoid persons who are detrimental to your progress.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Getting in touch with good friends early makes it possible for you to be the gregarious person you are. Take time to go after your finest aims. A kind manner with mate brings fine results.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You are now able to add a good deal to your present success because of the fine capabilities you possess and put to use. Don't forget to pay an important bill. Relax at home tonight.

Children New To System Can Register Now

Kindergarten students in local schools are registering today at the elementary school in the attendance area in which they reside. The registration will continue until 3:30 p.m.

Elementary school students, grades one through six, who have not previously attended local schools will report anytime from 9 a.m., until 3 p.m., Friday for registration. In addition, those who have moved into another attendance area since last semester are being asked to register at that time.

Registration will take place in the elementary school in the attendance area in which the students now reside.

New students who will be attending grades seven through 12 may register any day this week through Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Those who pre-registered last spring will not be required to register again.

The day, time and place for secondary school students to pick up their class schedules will be announced at a later date.

Classes formally begin here a week from Thursday, Aug. 16.

Etter To Lose Ammonia Plant

ETTER — Phillips Petroleum Co. will close its Cactus Ammonia Plant here No. 1, according to W. F. Martin, president and chief executive officer of the company.

The shutdown of the plant, one of the oldest in the United States and the first Phillips fertilizer plant, is a result of its now inefficient production because of obsolete design and mounting costs of operation.

Martin said approximately 100 employes will be affected by the shutdown and that Phillips will make an effort to place them in jobs at other locations.

Etter is located north of Dumas in Moore County in the Texas Panhandle.

NOTICE OF HEARING TO APPROPRIATE PUBLIC WATERS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS
NO. 3149

Notice is given that COLORADO RIVER MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICT c-o O. H. Ivie, General Manager P. O. Box 869 Big Spring, Texas 79720, applicant, seeks a permit from the Texas Water Rights Commission to divert from Threemile Lake and Fourmile Lake not to exceed 2200 acre-feet of highly mineralized water per annum for impoundment in Natural Dam Lake in an effort to improve the quality of the surface run-off from the Beals Creek Watershed in the Colorado River and subsequently into Lake E. V. Spence, a major source of municipal water supply. The highly mineralized water at times contains in excess of 60,000 parts per million of total dissolved solids.

Applicant further seeks authority to use not to exceed 2000 acre-feet per annum of the diverted 2200 acre-feet of water for mining purposes.

Threemile Lake and Fourmile Lake are natural impoundments located on Beals Creek, tributary of the Colorado River and 3 miles west of Big Spring, Texas, in Howard County, Texas. Natural Dam Lake is a natural impoundment on Sulphur Springs Creek, tributary of Beals Creek, tributary of the Colorado River, and 10 miles west of Big Spring, Texas, all being more fully set forth in said application.

Application No. 3149 was accepted for filing by the Texas Water Rights Commission on July 23, 1973, and a hearing thereon will be held by the Commission in the Sam Houston State Office Building at Austin, Texas, on September 12, 1973, at 2:00 p.m. Those opposing the granting of said application should file written protests with the Commission and the applicant at least five days prior to hearing date, giving their reasons therefor and such other information as is required by Commission Rule 205.2 Persons desiring further information in this regard may contact Timothy L. Brown, P. O. Box 13207, Austin, Texas 78711, Telephone (512) 475-2711.

Map Retreat After U.S. Bombing Halt

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers has filed an affadavit stating that Cambodian soldiers plan to retreat to more secure positions after the Aug. 15 halt to U.S. bombing, the New York Times said today.

Rogers filed the affidavit with the Supreme Court Sunday as part of the government's successful effort to reverse a ruling by Justice William O. Douglas calling for an immediate halt to all bombing in Cambodia.

The affadavit reportedly outlined the following plans to deal with the expected military repercussions of the bombing halt:

—The Cambodian government has undertaken "emergency increases" in the size of its armed forces.

—Delivery of U.S. arms, foods, medical supplies and relief items is being speeded up prior to the Aug. 15 cutoff.

—The Cambodian armed forces are being redeployed "from exposed positions to positions where they can defend themselves and be resupplied in the absence of United States combat air support."

Screwworms Increasing

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Screwworm cases reported in Texas totalled well over 600 at the end of July and the number is expected to increase rapidly in the next few months, says Dr. M. E. Meadows, veterinarian in charge of eradication operations at Mission.

Hot weather and recent rains have spurred spread of the flesh-eating livestock pests in South and Southwest Texas, he says.

Officials urge close inspection of livestock and pets. Meanwhile, a spray program is under way for all herds where a screwworm case has been confirmed, in addition to continued sterile fly drops in infested areas.

14-Year-Olds Are Located

The mother of one of two 14-year-old girls missing from their homes for over a week notified local police Sunday night that they had been located at the juvenile division, police department, Phoenix, Ariz.

Capt. Jack Jones of the local police department said police here had put out a message to other departments alerting them to look out for Terry McCartney, OK Trailer Courts, and Lori Coker, Box 5738.

Telephone calls had earlier led officers to believe that the girls were still in town.

THEFTS

Rodney Hammack, 507 Runnels, reported to police at 1:11 p.m. Sunday that his 100 cc Yamaha motorcycle had been stolen.

Mrs. Pineda, 1109 N. Gregg, reported at 3:01 p.m. Sunday that approximately 30 gallons of gasoline had been taken out of two vehicles. Value: $10.

Mike Shultz, at Jet Drive-In reported that 12 eight-track tapes and a case had been stolen from his car. Value: $69.

PENTAGON ADMITS

102 Yanks Killed On Spy Missions

SAIGON (AP) — The Pentagon has disclosed that 102 Americans were killed on spy missions in Laos and Cambodia since 1965. But it has not told whether any Americans died on similar missions inside North Vietnam.

'DANIEL BOONE'

Prior to 1968, secret patrols were frequently sent into North Vietnam as well as into Laos and Cambodia to gather intelligence. The patrols were made up of Indochinese directed by American team chiefs. Such operations were given the general code name "Daniel Boone," and they were directed by the mysterious SOG, the Studies and Observations Group.

Newsmen in Vietnam reported some of these missions at the time. But generally the U.S. public and Congress chose to accept the official response to the reports: denial, no comment or the phony cover story that American troops were in "hot pursuit" of enemy forces or U.S. aircraft had accidentally strayed over the border.

The North Vietnamese and Viet Cong also reported on the spy missions; the standard response from the U.S. Command in Saigon was a denial or the statement that it never commented on Hanoi's propaganda.

The patrols into North Vietnam were eventually discontinued because too many teams were lost. The Pentagon has not said whether the casualties included any Americans, and there is considerable suspicion that some of those the Pentagon says were killed in Laos actually died while directing teams in North Vietnam.

SABOTAGE

The intelligence gathering teams were originally organized by the Central Intelligence Agency and the Green Berets of the 5th Special Forces Group. They later were put under the control of SOG, which was part of the U.S. Command in Saigon.

Some Americans who went on such missions in Laos said the teams not only gathered information but often carried out acts of sabotage, blowing up North Vietnamese supply trucks and fuel lines and kidnaping North Vietnamese troops for interrogation.

County Agent Is New Bank Veep

COLORADO CITY — Bobby Lemons, Mitchell County extension agent, has resigned to accept a post as vice president of City National Bank of Colorado City.

Lemons, county agent for seven years, will join the bank staff effective Sept. 1.

Charles C. Thompson, bank president, said Lemons' knowledge of the community's economic base in agriculture should prove a valuable addition to the bank staff.

A Scurry County native, Lemons has been with the extension service 11 years, serving four in Hale County and the past seven in Mitchell County.

Hunting, Fishing Fees Now Higher

AUSTIN — In ceremonies held at the State Capitol several weeks ago, Gov. Dolph Briscoe signed legislation which raised fees charged for both hunting and fishing licenses.

Major changes which will affect most Texas sportsmen are increases in the resident hunting license charges from the previous $3.25 to $5.25 and the fishing fees from $2.15 to $4.25.

Something new for this year, a combination resident hunting and fishing license for $8.75, was also approved by the Texas Legislature.

Resident hunting licenses are required of every Texan who hunts outside the county of his residence or who hunts deer or turkey. Exceptions are persons under 17 or over 65 years of age and individuals hunting any species of game except deer or turkey on land where they reside. An exempt license is necessary to hunt deer and turkey because of required tags.

Exempt licenses are 25 cents.

A $4.25 fishing license is required of everyone fishing in public waters with the following exceptions: those under 17 or over 65, persons fishing in private waters, anglers using trotlines, throw lines or pole and line with no reel or winding device in the county of their residence and individuals holding a valid Texas commercial fishing license.

He Stares

Jean Adams
TEEN FORUM

STARES: (Q.) I have had a crush on Johnny ever since I can remember. But I just don't understand him. The thing I don't understand most is that all the time he stares at me.

He is a lifeguard at the pool. When I try to talk to him he ignores me, but when I am swimming or summing he hardly takes his eyes off me unless he catches me looking at him. Then he turns his head.

If he ignores me, why would he stare at me constantly? What do you think, and what can I do? HELP! — On the Spot in Maryland.

(A.) Be friendly to Johnny but do not crowd him by trying to talk to him except for a "Hi" or something similar. If he is really interested in you as a girl friend, he will let you know.

I suspect that he simply admires your face or your figure and stares. Many boys stare at girls they would never think of going out with.

If you decide this is what he is doing and it makes you uncomfortable, go to another pool to sun and swim, or go to your present pool when Johnny is off duty.

* * *

FORBIDDEN: (Q.) Patsy's parents have an unlisted telephone number. It is so secret that Patsy doesn't even know what it is. Because of this I can't call her. She is strictly forbidden to call me, or anybody. And she can't go on dates or have visitors.

The only time we can see or talk to each other is if we happen to meet at our shopping center. When school starts we can see each other every day, but that won't be for a month.

Patsy and I are 14. When she tries to talk to her mother about me she gets grounded. — Long Summer in New Jersey.

(A.) It is dangerous for Patsy not to know her home phone number. In some emergency she might need desperately to call home. Suggest to her that she talk to her mother about this.

She should also continue to try to talk to her mother about having calls from you or other boys, and visits at home, too. She is old enough for both, and her mother is breeding trouble in refusing her these privileges.
