IN THE HEART OF MITCHELL COUNTY'S IRRIGATED FARM LAND

The Mirror Through Which The Public Views The Community As It Is Week By Week

VOLUME 29 NUMBER 25 LORAINE, TEXAS, OCTOBER 29, 1959 Subscription Price $2.00 a Year in Mitchell and adjoining Counties

On The BEAM

By J. W. King, Sr.

Sometimes the author of this column is hard put to think of something to write about.

The weather is always a good subject but nothing exciting has happened weatherwise unless the continued sunshine is exciting. Whether it is exciting or not it has certainly been welcome to farmers who are in the midst of harvesting their crops.

Speaking of crops—there are some around here that are as good as most anyone could want—and there are some that are not so good. Overall, however, crops are better than most people hoped for because of the long hot and dry summer.

This year, like most every other year, dry land needed that "one more rain" at the right time to produce a bumper crop.

Duck Season Opens November 13th

Austin—Although there is still some doubt as to the number of ducks and geese coming to Texas this year, a liberal hunting season has been authorized, according to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The duck season opens at noon Friday, Nov. 13. Shooting then is permitted from sunrise until sunset through Jan 1. The bag limit is four per day or eight in possession after the first day. Because of an extreme shortage it will be illegal to kill more than one of either red head, canvasback or ruddy duck. This is known as a 'mistake' duck.

The goose season opens at noon October 26, and runs through Jan. 8. The limit is five geese per day, with a limit of two Canadas, or one speckled belly, or one Canada and one speckled belly.

There will be a 30-day season from Dec. 3—Jan. 1, on Wilson snipe, with a bag and possession limit of eigth.

A $3 federal duck stamp is required of all persons hunting migratory waterfowl.

Drouth conditions in the Canadian nesting areas are blamed for a small hatch this year. Late rains, however, did materially benefit the hatch although the quantity is still doubtful, he said.

Ivan J. Barbar Of Colorado City Named Farm Census Crew Leader In County

Appointment of Mr. Ivan J. Barber of Colorado City, Texas, as a crew leacer for the 1959 Census of Agriculture was announced today by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

Mr. Barber will direct a force of census takers who will canvass all farms in Scurry, Howard and Mitchell Counties. Before assuming his post, he will go to Lubbock where he will receive five days of training by a member of the Census Bureau's staff. Topics to be covered include procedures for recruiting of census takers, census taker training, canvassing methods, preparation and submission of reports, and the supervision of census takers to insure a complete and accurate count.

The crew leader is one of the key people in the field operations of the Census of Agriculture. It is his responsibility to recruit and train the census takers and supervise their work; plan and allocate work assignments; review the work of the census takers and take remedial action where necessary, and to conduct difficult interviews.

After completing his training, Mr. Barber will return to his district where he will spend several weeks recruiting census takers, and training them in preparation for the start of the field canvass on November 18.

Loraine Bulldogs Defeat Trent Gorillas Friday Night For 1-1 Count In District

The Trent Gorillas fell victim to the bite of the Loraine Bulldogs last Friday night 22 to 0 in District 6-B game on the local grid.

This gives the Bulldogs a 1-1 count in District play, having lost their district opener to Bronte the previous weekend. The third district game, which will be the last home game of the season, will unfold on the local grid Friday night with Hermleigh furnishing the opposition which will be considerable.

After a scoreless first half Friday night the Bulldogs came back to push over a touchdown in the third quarter with Robert Rankin carrying and Moreno accounting for the extra points. The score followed a long drive downfield.

In the third quarter the Bulldogs added two more touchdowns and 2 extra points to bring the score to 22 to 0. The second TD came when Redwine snagged a pass for Marcum and raced about 20 yards to cross the double stripe. Rankin plunged for the extra points. The final score came when Hale intercepted a pass and ran 35 yards untouched for the TD.

Except for fumbleitis the Bulldogs showed good form. They fumbled five times and recovered only two of them. The Gorillas also suffered from fumbles. They lost 4 out of 6.

The Bulldogs also had better success with their passes Friday night, completing 3 out of 5 attempts while the Gorillas completed only 1 out of 6; the Bulldogs punted twice and the Gorillas 6 times; the Bulldogs were penalized 5 times for 35 yards and the Gorillas 4 times for 20.

The Gorillas threatened to score one time in the second quarter when they penetrated to Loraine's 2 yard line but were held there for 4 downs.

Coach Ford said Monday he hoped to have the Bulldogs in top condition for the Hermleigh encounter Friday night.

Mrs. W. H. Long left Sunday for Midland where she is spending this week with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hodges, while Mrs. Hodges is recovering from major surgery.

Former Lorainian Guards Unknown

Pfc. Donald A. Richburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Richburg of Route 2, Roscoe, a former Loraine family, is one of the select group making up the Honor Guard for the tombs of the Unknown Soldiers in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D. C. Officially Don is assigned to the 3rd Infantry, 1st Battle Group at nearby Ft. Meyer, Va.

Don was sent to the post as one of 66 chosen at Fort Carson, Colorado, for Washington, D. C., guard duty. Prior to the present guard duty, Don has been on assignment to the home of Gen. Maxwell Taylor, Commander General of the Army, Ft. Meyer.

The Army offers no more highly respected tour of duty than the assignment to guard the tombs of the Unknowns in Arlington Cemetery. The guards are the cream of volunteers from the First Battle Group of Fortt Meyer's 3rd Infantry.

Many questions are asked the candidates in selecting the guard He may flunk if he lacks a musical talent, it is omportant for parading, and he surely will be rejected if he has ever been convicted of a major or minor offense in civilian or military court

After a candidate has been screened, he is subjected to drills, parade rehearsals and more drills. Then comes the tour of guard at the home of General Taylor at Ft. Meyer as one of several probationary assignments.

When a guard is finally assigned to Arlington he walks his post only six hours every three days—but during those six hours his every act must be precisely right. For example, he must take 21 30-inch steps from one end of his post to the other and then silently count off the exact number of seconds for his turns and his return back and forth in front of the tomb. At each turn he faces the capitol and goes through the manual of arms.

Don graduated with honors from Roscoe High School in 1956 After graduation he was seriously injured in Snyder while working for a trucking company when a sliding pipe fell on him and broke both legs. He was treated at Johnson Hospital and remained here several weeks. After recovering he volunteered for military service and received basic training at Camp Carson, Colorado.

Loraine Lions Hear District Governor

District Governor Bill Jones of San Angelo made an official visit to the Loraine Lions Club Tuesday and spoke briefly on the plans and aims of Lions Clubs in his district.

Formerly Loraine was in District 2-T2. Now the district is 2A.

John Crawford of Fort Worth, representing the Lighthouse, a distributing center for merchandise made by blind people, presented a proposition to the club.

Please Bring 'em Back Ladies Plea

The ladies who prepare meals for the Lions Club are complaining that dishes, linens and other things are missing from the kitchen. They are running short of some things and would appreciate it if those who have carried them off would bring them back. Many of the things taken out do not belong to the Lions Club but to individuals who help to prepare and serve the meals.

The Lions Club is generous concerning the use of the building for parties and such. The Club, as well as the ladies, would appreciate it if things in the club kitchen are left in the building.

Know-How Sparks 4-H Club Program

"Give a boy a job he can do, add someone to show him how, and you'll have the makings of a 4-H Club," declares Norman C. Mindrum, director, National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Chicago.

Pictured above is a trio of younger club members intent on learning from a junior leader the intricacies of building a bird house. These 4-H'ers, says Mr. Mindrum, are like thousands throughout the state working on projects ranging from leadership to crops Altogether there are more than 50 different programs in which boys and girls can enroll, he reports. All are planned to increase know-how and improve skills.

"More than two million young people today are learning how to do a better job through 4-H training," says Mr. Mindrum, "and they have a chance to compete for honors and awards. In the process the youth develop character, citizenship, responsibility and good sportsmanship."

The 4-H Club programs are administered by the Cooperative Extension Service, the state land grant colleges and universities, and the USDA. However, awards and much project training material are provided by leading business concerns and private individuals, according to Mr. Mindrum. The role of the National Committee is to arrange for this support and see that it is channeled in the best interests of the Extension Service and 4-H.

Individual awards now include college scholarships, U.S. savings bonds, wrist watches and trips to the National 4-H Club Congress held in Chicago Nov. 29 through Dec. 3. Winners are selected by the Extension Service on a state, sectional and national basis.

Among the award donors this year are: Ford Motor Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, International Harvester Company, Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation, The Oliver Corporation, Westinghouse Educational Foundation, Allied Chemical Corporation, American Forest Products Industries, Inc, Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company, Eli Lilly and Company, Sears-Roebuck Foundation ,and Edward Foss Wilson.

Also, Moorman Mfg. Co., California Spray-Chemical Corporation, Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company, Ralston Purina Company, Sunbeam Corporation, Livestock Conservation, Inc., Massey-Ferguson, Inc., Pure Oil Company, Conrad Hilton Hotel, Elgin National Watch Company, Chicago and North Western Railway, Santa Fe Railway, Chicago Board of Trade, Cities Service Oil Company, Cudahy Packing Company.

LOUD ENOUGH

Jimmy, age 8, in the process of going to bed, was muttering his nightly prayers in such a low voice his mother couldn't make them out.

"A little louder, Jimmie dear," she urged, "I can't hear a word you're saying."

Replied Jimmie: "I wasn't talking to you, anyhow."

FALLOUT SHELTER FOR A NEW HOME

For Family Protection in Nuclear War

ANOTHER type of shelter which gives excellent fallout protection can be built as an added room to the basement of a home under construction. It would add about $500 to the total cost of the home. The shelter illustrated here is based on such a room built into a new home in the Washington, D. C., area in the Spring of 1959. Important considerations for each type of shelter are: arrangement of the entrance, ventilation, radio reception and lighting. "The Family Fallout Shelter," an OCDM publication, contains plans for five basic fallout shelters. Copies may be obtained by writing: Box Home Shelter, Battle Creek, Mich.

A word on words

MOB

Our word "mob" is merely an abbreviation of the Latin term "mobile vulgus," meaning the fickle common people. Today "mob" not only denotes a large crowd of people, but can also indicate that the crowd may be threatening violence.
