OIL SLASH PROTESTED

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS EN ROUTE HOME

But Exceptionally Numerous Are Those Who Are To Remain at Capital For Some Time.

JUNKETS BARRED

Much Easier to Rest Away From Constituents; Curtis Goes to Miami, Garner Among First to Leave.

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP) — Free from parliamentary worries for nine long months, most members of congress were homeward bound today, but an unusually large number were detained in Washington.

The meeting of the Democratic National committee, the approaching progressive conference and investigations delayed most of these. Others remained by choice, because they find it easier to rest away from their constituencies.

The recess is signally marked by absence of the usual congressional "junkets." On these members of congress travel, at government expense, investigating subjects for future legislation.

Vice-President Curtis was one of the first to leave the capital. He departed for a 10-day vacation at Miami. Republican Leader Watson of the senate is remaining here for the present with future plans indefinite.

Democratic Leader Robinson also is staying for a couple of weeks playing golf, attending the democratic meeting, and sitting in on an investigating committee. He plans to return to Arkansas soon, however, to do a little work and rest at Hot Springs. He may go to Europe later.

Senator Borah of Idaho will remain probably until the hot weather arrives. He spends more time in Washington between sessions than most of his colleagues.

Speaker Longworth plans to stay in the capital until May, playing golf and working.

Democratic Leader Garner of the house has already left for his home in Uvalde, Texas, where he will seek diversion in hunting and fishing. Republican Leader Tilson of the house soon will return to Connecticut for frequent trips to an isolated backwoods camp in northern New England.

School Census Taking Is Begun In This District

In the first place she won't be trying to sell you anything and in the seventeenth place she'll not charge you for writing the names of your children on cards. So:

When Mrs. J. H. Blythe drives up to your house in a maroon Chevrolet, the patriotic as well as the sensible thing to do would be to tell her what she wants to know because she'll get the information sooner or later. Yesterday she began taking the scholastic census in the Pampa Independent school district. The work must be completed by April 1.

As the official enumerator, she will visit every residence in the district to secure necessary information regarding children of school age. Every time she secures the required census facts about a child between the ages of six and 18 years, inclusive, the district school fund will be enlarged by $17.50, and obviously every time a parent fails to report a child or to give information about it, the district loses $17.50. That amount is the sum which the state of Texas appropriates for every school child in Texas of school age for a year.

Last year, Mrs. Blythe enumerated approximately 2,900 scholastics. Last year this time, the enrollment in the district school system was 2,400. The enrollment this year is over 3,000. If last year's record holds good, the scholastic census this March would contain around 5,400 names, but Supt. R. B. Fisher is of the opinion that the latter figure is a little high.

Parents are urged to give Mrs. Blythe all the information that is required by the state. It was emphasized that there is absolutely no charge to parents for enumerating the children.

Also, regardless of whether the parents intend to move soon or to live in another section of the state or nation next year, the parents should give the enumerator full information concerning their children. The chief purpose of the census is to determine the number of scholastics, and the amount of money that shall be allotted to the district. The census has nothing to do with the compulsory school law and with compelling children to go to school.

Mrs. L. L. Sone and small daughter, Shirley Mae, visited Mr. and Mrs. Law Sone in Panhandle yesterday.

J. M. McDonald went to Childress today on a business trip.

Raskob Urges State Liquor

"HOME RULE" PLAN IS IDEA OF CHAIRMAN

Democratic Committee Is Not to Decide Issue However; This Announcement Draws Cheers.

TEXANS PRESENT

Harmony Prevails at Opening of Session; Atmosphere Is Not Unlike That Typical of Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 5. (AP)—A call for the democratic party to sponsor state control of liquor in the next presidential campaign was sounded today by Chairman John J. Raskob.

Speaking at today's meeting of the national committee and party leaders, he proposed that the eighteenth amendment be retained but that a new amendment be adopted permitting any state to direct and control the manufacture, transportation and sale of liquor.

"I should like to christen this the home rule plan," he said.

An intensely interested audience, representing every type of thought and opinion in the party, heard him. The meeting had previously greeted with cheers his assertion he did not intend to ask the committee to commit itself on questions of policy.

Smith Is Cheered

Absent at the morning session Alfred E. Smith, the party's nominee for president in 1928, attended after lunch. He was cheered as he took his place on the platform. He was accompanied by James M. Cox, the presidential nominee in 1920. The enthusiastic gathering also applauded a statement by Jouett Shouse, executive director of the national committee, that the party organization would sponsor no individual candidacies for the presidency.

"I also would provide that the amendment shall not be effective unless and until it shall have been ratified not by the legislatures but by constitutional conventions," Raskob said.

"Prevents Saloon"

"This plan," the chairman said, "prevents the return of the saloon."

"There is great confusion about the terms wet and dry," he said.

"It is felt by many that that many of our southern states desire to remain dry," he continued, assuring that under his program of state control these states could do so and still retain the cooperation of the other states.

"We cannot in one breath call ourselves a democratic party or a liberal party and deny the people this right in the next," he declared.

He urged that the party strive to take the government out of business, give relief to commerce and trade, and advocated the clarification of its tariff policy. He asserted that it should not attempt to try to artificially keep up prices. He suggested that right be granted business to combine where the move is in the public interest and economically sound.

WASHINGTON, March 5. (AP) — Harmony spread over the democratic national committee meeting today as Chairman Raskob, in calling for a united front in 1932, assured the apprehensive party hosts he would seek no commitment of the committee on issues.

The cheers greeting this pronouncement had barely died down before Jouett Shouse, executive director, drew more applause with the declaration that the democratic organization was interested in no individual candidacies and was prepared to carry through to a democratic victory in the presidential campaign a year hence.

Mr. Raskob's declaration snapped a tension which was apparent, due to come uncertainty whether any effort would be made to have the committee take a stand on prohibition.

"College Convicts" Cut Capers

New Orleans' best-looking "jail birds" are Virginia Catlin, left, and Sara Forsythe, who appeared on Newcomb College campus wearing stripes and carrying a ball and chain in protest against a ruling that they should remain within the college grounds for two weeks without dates because they remained out too late one night during the Mardi Gras celebration. "It was just like solitary confinement," Miss Catlin said, "so we decided to wear stripes and carry a ball and chain as convicts do."

DRASTIC CUT IS ANNOUNCED BY STANOLIND

Four Other Companies Following Schedule; Sterling Has Wired Plea to Rockefeller About Reduction.

HOOVER NOTIFIED

Efforts in Southwestern Area to Stabilize Industry is Pointed Out to President by Governor.

TULSA, Okla., March 5. (AP) — Sharply lower price schedules for crude oil in the mid-continent area were becoming general today, following action of the Stanolind Oil Purchasing company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, in posting reductions averaging more than 32 cents a barrel.

Four additional companies, the Continental Oil company, Tidal Refining company, Mid-Continent Petroleum corporation, and Tidal Western Oil company, had met the Stanolind prices and other purchasing companies were expected to follow suit.

The Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas company would meet the lowered prices later in the day, Walter W. Fleming, vice-president, said.

The Stanolind schedule, containing a top price of 67 cents a barrel for high gravity oil, met the new price of 67 cents offered by the Sinclair Refining company recently for 50,000 barrels daily of Oklahoma City production.

The new prices:

Gravity	Price	Reduction
Below 29	$0.32	$0.23
29-29.9	.45	.24
30-30.9	.47	.26
31-31.9	.49	.28
32-32.9	.51	.30
33-33.9	.53	.32

40 and above	.67	.40

Conservation Affected

To Rockefeller, Governor Sterling stated he feared the Indiana price cut would upset the entire oil conservation program and defeat all efforts to save from ruin the oil industry and the "hundreds of thousands of our people directly and indirectly engaged therein."

"I am most deeply concerned about this matter," the governor said, "because the oil industry is so closely entwined with our whole economic structure that disaster to it will necessarily react injuriously upon every industry in our state."

Governor Sterling explained he was working with the governors of other oil states to find a solution of the oil industry's "distressing problem and adopt some uniform program if possible."

He said an extremely critical condition existed in Oklahoma where a determined effort was being made by certain interests in the legislature to cripple all conservation statutes and destroy the conservation and production control machinery. He stated the Kansas legislature was considering a bill which, if adopted, would permit proration and that the Texas legislature also was in session.

Hopes For Way Out

"You are reputed to be the largest stockholder in the company," Governor Sterling told Mr. Rockefeller. "I present this situation for your most earnest consideration, hoping that the cooperation of your company may be secured and opportunity be had to find a way out of a most serious situation."

Governor Sterling's wire to the president was brief. It follows:

"You are familiar with the critical oil situation in the mid-continent fields and efforts being made by governors of states affected to find a solution of problem and work out a somewhat uniform program. The Standard of Indiana has just announced a crude price cut in this territory. I fear this will upset the entire program. I felt I should call the matter to your attention for your consideration and such helpful ac you may find possible to take."

Beauty Sues

Miss Dolly Arney, 18, above, has filed a $150,000 breach of promise suit in Independence, Kans., against Glen W. Dickinson, Kansas City, Mo., theater owner. Miss Dickinson, who has won many bathing beauty contests at Kansas City, and who competed last year for the national beauty crown at Miami, claims that Dickinson promised to marry her, and then failed to do so, being already married.

SNOW ON WAY TO PLAINS

Warning to Stockman Issued by Weather Man—Freeze Is Predicted.

DALLAS, March 5. (AP)—Freezing weather, with the minimum temperature to go as low as 18 degrees in some portions, was predicted today for most sections of Texas for tonight and tomorrow by the United States weather bureau.

Rain will turn to snow in the northern half of the state, according to the prognostication. Concern was expressed for blooming fruit trees but it was not likely the extremely cold weather would penetrate as far south as the citrus orchards in the Rio Grande valley.

West Texas' minimum temperature tonight was expected to be 18 to 26 degrees with a strong north wind blowing. Stockmen in the Panhandle were notified to protect their stock.

The temperature in a radius of 300 miles of Dallas will probably go as low as 20 degrees, the bureau said.

Violets Blooming —Spring on Way

The snow of the last week didn't fool those people who see in violets the first harbingers of spring—and that's not a prediction by anybody, either.

When the snow melted off the violet beds of Mrs. Emma LeFors and Mrs. J. S. Wynne, many a purple bloom had appeared to help convince passers-by that spring is coming.

Texas Garage Is Robbed at Night

The Texas Garage at the corner of Kingsmill and Cuyler was robbed of $44 last night by burglars who gained entrance by smashing a glass in a rear window. Attendants at the garage said this morning that nothing else had been found missing.

The money was stolen from a hiding place in the garage. The theft is being investigated by the sheriff's department.

OIL HEARING DRAWS FIRE AT SESSIONS

Majors Attack Measure to Divorce Retailing And Refining Business; Resume Argument Today.

DAVIS IN SPEECH

Pampa Man Gives Parallel Of Meat Market As He Urges Enactment of Legislation.

AUSTIN, March 5. (AP)—After listening to several hours more of arguments on the bill by Representative Hardy of Breckenridge proposing to divorce the retail end of the oil business from producing, transporting and refining, the house committee on oil, gas, and mining last night voted to continue the hearing until today.

It was indicated a vote on the bill would be taken this week. Hearings have been held in joint session with the senate state affairs committee.

Spirited repartee between independent operators and representatives of the larger oil companies marked the session last night. On one occasion it was necessary for the committee chairman to rap for almost a minute for order during a flare-up between Jake Wolters, attorney for the Texas company, and W. R. King of Dallas, representing the independents, concerning statements that Wolters was alleged to have made earlier in the day before the house common carriers committee. Wolters claimed he was misquoted by King.

Charges Monopoly

Leading off for proponents of the measure, John Kilgore of Wichita Falls declared the larger companies were obtaining a monopoly on the market outlets and that although gasoline was wholesaling at four cents per gallon it was retailing for 17 and 18 cents, despite the fact that oil prices had declined materially.

Hines Baker, representing the Humble Oil and Refining company, termed the bill the most vicious in Texas history, declaring it would deflate property values and throw thousands of persons out of work.

The bill would require producers, refiners, and transporters to dispose of their retail facilities within one year.

Baker contended this forced proposal of retail facilities would drive the market down until the sacrifice would be confiscatory and many persons who had invested savings in oil company stocks would lose everything. He also defended the retailing of oil products by companies engaged in other lines of the oil business, saying it was the general trend throughout the world and was an effort of the oil companies to stabilize the market by providing an outlet for their products.

Woodward Puts Question

Senator Woodward of Coleman asked Baker if he did not believe the oil companies had a pretty big hold on the state if enactment of the bill would cause such widespread distress.

Baker replied that the limited time given for disposal would shut off the market for the retail facilities and consequently would lower the prices that could be obtained.

Senator Small of Wellington asked if 50 per cent of the filling stations now operating did not constitute an economic waste. Baker replied that he believed there were too many filling stations operated and that his company operated its stations last year at a very small profit, if any.

King stated a great emergency confronted the state and that there was widespread demand for the legislation since the control of oil gradually was coming into the hands of a few corporations and soon would be a complete monopoly and stifle trade.

Wants Competition

He contended that divorcing the retail business would restore keen competition and would result in elimination of stations not economically justified.

Mel Davis, Pampa cattleman, held the attention of the committee sev-

Boy To Trial

A high school student and Sunday school teacher, 17-year-old Russell Noble, above, is facing trial at Haverhill, Mass., on a charge of having attacked Mrs. Clara E. C. Ellis, wealthy widow, with a hammer. The assault is alleged to have occurred when Noble, who needed $16 to tide him over financial difficulties, was discovered in the act of stealing a watch from a bureau in Mrs. Ellis' home.

The city hall program will last slightly less than two hours.

Paving West of City Likely Will Begin in Month

Paving of highway No. 33 from Pampa west to the Carson county line is due to be started in about four weeks, according to plans announced today by C. A. Stuckey of the Stuckey Construction company.

Mr. Stuckey arrived here last night from Austin, where contract to lay concrete on the nine miles between here and the Carson county line was recently let to the Stuckey Construction company. A contract to grade and build small structures on 17 miles of road in Haskell county was also let to Mr. Stuckey's company.

At present, the company is finishing up a 15 1-2 mile paving project in Childress county. Mr. Stuckey announced that if good weather continues his paving crew will pour cement on the remaining four miles on highway No. 5 in the next four weeks. He estimates that the workmen will lay a mile of concrete per week.

As soon as the Childress job is finished, the paving equipment and material will be moved to Gray county, and paving of the road west will begin. A crew will begin grading and erecting small structures upon the Haskell county project in two weeks.

SWEETWATER MAN, GUARDING BROTHER, WOUNDS HIMSELF

Virgil Debusk, truck driver, 29, accidentally shot himself in the body last night while doing bodyguard duty for a brother, Roy, who has been assaulted and robbed three times within two months. Virgil was loading a 25 caliber automatic revolver when the weapon was discharged, one bullet piercing the stomach. Doctors pronounced his condition critical.

The brothers have made their home with their mother following the death of their father last fall. Roy Debusk operates a tourist camp on the Bankhead highway east of the city. Two months ago he was slugged and his place robbed by three men. A short time later three men again entered, rushing the camp office at night, binding Debusk in chains and tossing him out on the highway, and rifling his gasoline pump. Only one man was involved in the third attack, committed ten days ago. Debusk was surprised at work, attacked from behind, and hit over the head with a pistol.

The case has baffled officers here.

Charge Is Filed Following Arrest —Liquor Seized

Charges of possessing intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale and transporting it were filed against S. P. Tutton by District Attorney Raymond Allred this morning before James Todd Jr., justice of the peace.

Tutton was arrested while driving a car last night on the Borger road west of Pampa. Deputy Warren Belcher made the arrest. Forty gallons of whisky were seized by the deputy. Tutton was placed in jail.

Murder Charge Is Placed Against Shamrock Man

District Attorney Raymond Allred today filed charges of murder against John Belflower, in connection with the fatal shooting yesterday of S. E. Walker at Shamrock.

Mr. Allred left last night for Shamrock as soon as he heard of the shooting which occurred on the main business street in the Wheeler county town.

Statements were made to officers by both Walker and Belflower soon after the shooting. Walker was standing by Belflower's automobile when the slaying took place. Walker was taken to the hospital where he lived three hours. Mrs. Belflower witnessed the shooting, which is said to have grown out of Walker's refusal to apologize to Belflower's wife for an alleged insult. Walker's son and Belflower's daughter were sweethearts, it was said.

The nature of Walker's statement to officers was not revealed.

Veterans' Loan Check Is Received

The first veterans loan check was received here yesterday, but the name of the man who came into the American Legion hall yesterday afternoon, proudly waving it under the noses of Legionnaires was not known to them.

Nor were the men at the hall able to see the amount of the check. The man left too quick. All that is known is that he lives between Pampa and Miami. He had not cashed the check at a local bank early this afternoon. Legionnaires are wondering if he was so glad to get the check he's going to keep it awhile.

John I. Bradley, service officer, announced today that about 600 applications for loans have been sent out from the Pampa territory, most of them through the American Legion. He also emphasized that it is unnecessary for ex-service men to bring their discharges with them when coming to the hall to file their applications for loans. However, it is necessary to have the insurance certificate or a receipt for it, if a previous loan has been made.

Whiteman Is Flop In Home Life And He Admits It All

CHICAGO, March 5. (AP)—Marriage, says Paul Whiteman, is a middle-class institution.

"At any rate it seems to work best for those of the average mode—somewhere between the hod-carrier and the banker," said the world-known orchestra leader, whose third union has just been dissolved by divorce.

Master of modern music, pioneer of concert jazz who added a symphonic touch to the post-war dance lyrics, Whiteman found himself unable to incorporate into his private life the music which responds to his baton.

"Van was right," he said, referring to Vanda Hoff, the dancer he married in 1922, "I am married to a dance band."

A sigh traversed his 250-odd pounds.

"She was always right—a wonderful girl. She always said I took more interest in other people's affairs than I did in her's. For instance: the boys in my band. My work is my life and I can't allow anything to interfere with it.

"It's hard for two people in the show business to be happily married. Anyway, I found it impossible. It isn't a normal existence. It's a very intense life."

"Think of the movie actors in Hollywood. You think they have a snap until you face those big lights and microphones and cameras. I believe they get more happiness out of one or two years of marriage than an average person does in a lifetime. They are forced to travel at high speed, under great pressure, just as they work."

The rotund conductor whose spherical figure, tiny mustache, and round face have been caricatured everywhere, preserved a serious look in his brown eyes.

"No, two 'show people' cannot always be good audiences for each other. Yet when one leaves the profession something else is lacking. 'Van' said she would keep up her dancing but she dropped it a week after we were married. Paul Junior was born. I was on the road for five years consecutively. We had no home.

"I can't remember ever having had a home," he said after some deliberation. "I haven't lived more than two months in any one place for years. 'How to be happy though successful'—that's been my problem. I've been a flop in my private life and I can't blame myself entirely either."

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., March 5. (AP)—Dixie Lee, featured film player, and "Bing" Crosby, orchestra and radio singer, have separated and she soon will sue for divorce.

Colonel Tim McCoy, war hero and star of the western films, and Mrs. Agnes Miller McCoy, have separated but she will oppose divorce.

Ilna Basquette, screen actress, and Perverell Marley, cinematographer, whose divorce has not become final, may be reunited.

Barbara Stanwyck, motion picture star, and Frank Fay, actor, deny a separation is even considered.

SCIENTISTS ARE TODAY'S POETS

The real poets and artists of this modern world sometimes seem to be the scientists.

Dr. Frederick H. Sears is assistant director of Mount Wilson Observatory, in California, and hardly rates as a visionary. But it is just such men as he who dream strange dreams and see bright visions these days, and draw stupendous pictures out of the gulf beyond the stars.

The other day Dr. Sears discovered a cosmic sunset—a tremendous, wildly spectacular affair somewhere beyond the great star Olpha Cygni, several hundred trillion miles away.

There is mystery in it, too, and a hint of undiscovered worlds, just as there is in all good sunsets. For the dying light of these sinking stars is illumined by the edge of one of the most mysterious of all wonders of the heavens; the great "North American" nebula, a dark shape that for some incomprehensible reason bears the shape of the North American continent.

Noy all of this is just a routine pronouncement from a sedate scientist; but it also happens to be the stuff of which poetry, and all high art, is made. For what is it, after all, but the detection in the outer void of a wild and compelling but of beauty such as Blake might have conjured up? What is it but a piercing of the veil that divides the seen from the unseen, just as poets and all artists have striven to do for many centuries?

THIS WOMAN IN 4 WEEKS LOST 17 POUNDS OF FAT

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America:

Gentlemen: I started taking Kruschen every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce.

I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long, so I decided to give "Kruschen Salts" a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 pounds and at present, which has been just four weeks, I weigh 239 lbs. And I must say, I feel better in every way, besides looking much better.

May all large people, both men and women who want to reduce in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. I am sure it will convince anyone."

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts four weeks costs but 85c at Pampa Drug Company, Patterson-Wilson Drug Company, Fatheree Drug Stores, Richards Drug Company, Inc., or any drugstore in America. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. To help reduce swiftly cut out pastry and fatty meats and go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

The Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce—Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied—money back. adv.

Surprise Party Is Birthday Courtesy

Mrs. Joe Hodge surprised her little daughter, June Rose, with a party in her eighth birthday Tuesday afternoon.

Lively games were played by the children, and in one game a prize was awarded Frances Thompson. Green and white were the featured colors in aprons, caps, and suckers which were given the children as favors.

Brick ice cream decorated in shamrocks was served with angel food cake at refreshment time. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Fred Cary, Mrs. Lee Harrah, Mrs. Porter Beck, Miss Margaret Beck, and Miss Frances Hodge.

Children present were Boonie Lee Rose, Harriet and Martha Price, Dorothy Jo Moore, Flora Marie, Lela Mae, and Flora Lee Denebeim, Zelda Mae Hurst, Alice Marie McConnell, Lucile Carlock, Helen Poolas, Leroy Malone, Pauline Stewart, Byron Dodson, Norma Jean McKinney, Sarah Frances Bourland, Frances Thompson, June Beck, Joseph Hodge, James Wesley Harrah and the little honoree.

Reynolds Spends Million Dollars

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 5.—One million dollars was expended by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company in the brief space of seven days to introduce through a $50,000 prize contest the new moisture proof ...ellophane wrapper of the Camel package.

Except for a brief announcement on the company's regular weekly broadcast over a coast to coast N. B. C. network calling attention to the contest advertisement in newspapers, the week's campaign was conducted exclusively in newspapers.

The initial announcement of the contest consisted of full page advertisements in 1,713 daily newspapers, 412 college periodicals and many financial newspapers. In addition, large space advertisements were used in 2,139 county seat weekly newspapers.

eral min...es, while he delivered a short talk against oil companies in the retail trade in particular and monopolies in general. Davis declared the price of gas was not regulated by the price of the oil but that the price of meat bought at retail was affected daily by fluctuations in wholesale prices. "If it is fair for the oil companies to control the price of gasoline, it is just as fair for cattlement to control the price of meat sold in the meat markets. And I'll wager the price wouldn't go down under the control system," Davis declared.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply; take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret heating process. Harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos are expelled by "TOASTING." These irritants are sold to others. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

SCIENTISTS ARE TODAY'S POETS

The real poets and artists of this modern world sometimes seem to be the scientists.

Dr. Frederick H. Sears is assistant director of Mount Wilson Observatory, in California, and hardly rates as a visionary. But it is just such men as he who dream strange dreams and see bright visions these days, and draw stupendous pictures out of the gulf beyond the stars.

The other day Dr. Sears discovered a cosmic sunset—a tremendous, wildly spectacular affair somewhere beyond the great star Olpha Cygni, several hundred trillion miles away.

There is mystery in it, too, and a hint of undiscovered worlds, just as there is in all good sunsets. For the dying light of these sinking stars is illumined by the edge of one of the most mysterious of all wonders of the heavens; the great "North American" nebula, a dark shape that for some incomprehensible reason bears the shape of the North American continent.

Noy all of this is just a routine pronouncement from a sedate scientist; but it also happens to be the stuff of which poetry, and all high art, is made. For what is it, after all, but the detection in the outer void of a wild and compelling but of beauty such as Blake might have conjured up? What is it but a piercing of the veil that divides the seen from the unseen, just as poets and all artists have striven to do for many centuries?

THIS WOMAN IN 4 WEEKS LOST 17 POUNDS OF FAT

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America:

Gentlemen: I started taking Kruschen every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce.

I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long, so I decided to give "Kruschen Salts" a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 pounds and at present, which has been just four weeks, I weigh 239 lbs. And I must say, I feel better in every way, besides looking much better.

May all large people, both men and women who want to reduce in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. I am sure it will convince anyone."

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts four weeks costs but 85c at Pampa Drug Company, Patterson-Wilsos Drug Company, Patheree Drug Stores, Richards Drug Company, Inc., or any drugstore in America. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. To help reduce swiftly cut out pastry and fatty meats and go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

The Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce—Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied—money back. adv.

MOM'N POP — By Williams

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS — By Blosser

"TEXAS HISTORY MOVIES" — By Patton and Rosenfield

Blake, her niece, has found her crushed to death by a stone image in her garden, and Dr. Netherton reluctantly tells how the spinster, just before her death, has told him and Marjorie that the neice would lose her inheritance by marriage. But he tells the police there's no romance between them. After finding the body, Marjorie has summoned her sister, Evelyn, with her fiance, Lionel Duckworth, from the music room. Nearby also was Major Gresham, in love with Miss Querdling. Green, the chauffeur, himself suspected, and Constable Roscoe have seen strange cars, similar to one owned by Captain Stirling, the sisters' friend. Various angles of the mystery are probed when the inquest opens.

Chapter 13

BILL AND MARJORIE

If the coroner's suggestion that the image might have fallen of itself were correct, there would be no mystery, but Constable Roscoe, after a brief hesitation, reported that an examination of the broken legs of the satyr had revealed no black edges indicating cracks. The jurors examined them, and the conclusion was unanimous that the image had been pushed over.

A man, Roscoe said, could easily shove the image with one hand, but a woman would have to use two, while it would have been very difficult for Miss Querdling to have moved the seat nearer the image, as Haswell had observed it had been placed.

After Dr. Netherton, the next witness, had related his examination of the body at Merrow Craig and had given the necessary details, the coroner told him he would accept his account as expert testimony. "But I must now ask you to regard yourself as an ordinary witness, on the scene of the tragedy before it happened and under oath to tell all he knows."

Bill made no reply, but squared his shoulders as the coroner continued to see the cook, who was ill, and then, after he and Marjorie Blake and seen Miss Querdling in the garden, he had gone home.

"Did you discuss anything with Miss Querdling besides the cook's condition?"

"No." Bill was abrupt.

"You told the police of a rather notable remark she made."

Denying it was notable, Dr. Netherton refused to say what the spinster had told him. "It cannot help and might give rise to erroneous impressions."

"I must be the judge of that," the coroner paused. "I must insist on an answer. So far as we know, these were Miss Querdling's last words."

The tense silence in court evidenced that Bill had been unwise in remaining silent and thereby focusing extra attention on his interview in the garden. Every eye was on him, and Jimmie was conscious that Audrey Winford, beside him, was holding her breath, waiting for his words. At last they came.

"Miss Querdling said that when her neice married she would have none of her money."

There was a little movement in the court. Apparently the villagers were surprised. (The coroner put question after question, but Bill persisted that he had not regarded the matter seriously and would give no further information. He insisted that Miss Querdling had no reason to think that he and Miss Blake desired to marry.

"Think again," Burbeck persisted "Haven't you been paying marked attentions to her?"

"I have not." Bill's curt reply was followed by a murmur in court.

Audrey's clinched firsts told Jimmie of her concern.

The questioning continued and Bill said that after he and Marjorie left Miss Querdling they had gone to the edge of the garden and escorted Miss Blake home from church, would that be wrong?"

"Yes, it would," retorted Bill angrily, "if you drew the conclusions you insinuate." Bill admitted that he had met Miss Blake by chance on Sunday and had walked with her then and on the Monday and Wednesday evenings following. He agreed that, having regard for Miss Querdling's peculiarities, her knowledge of these meeting might account for such a remark.

"Now, Dr. Netherton, when you and Miss Blake parted did you again approach that Dutch garden?"

"I did not."

"Did you—I must put this to you—did you by means of that stone figure, or otherwise, injure or kill Miss Querdling?"

"I did not."

"That is all. Miss Marjorie Blake."

There was a buzz of conversation as the elder of the two sisters took the doctor's place in the witness box. Audrey was visibly angry at the coroner.

Dr. Burbeck spared Marjorie as far as he could, leading her gently to tell how she had discovered her aunt's body. She confirmed Dr. Netherton's statement concerning Miss Querdling's remark about her loss of fortune through marriage and admitted that she had no money except what her aunt allowed her.

"Had your aunt any reason for thinking you and Dr. Netherton wished to marry?"

"She seemed to think it, but she was wrong," Marjorie said, repeating her denial when the coroner reminded her of her meetings with the physician.

She told the coroner that after Dr. Netherton had left her in the garden, she had stood alone for about 10 minutes and then had returned to the garden, seeing no one meanwhile.

"Now, Miss Blake, this is painful—when you approached your aunt did you expect to find her dead?"

"No! No." The girl shuddered.

Thanking her, the coroner adjourned the inquest for lunch. Jimmie moved over to Richmond, asking him if he had any new theories.

"May not need them," he answered. "You'll get a surprise this afternoon. I have to see the coroner." With that he moved away.

Bitterness in the spinster's life intrudes a cynical background for tomorrow's chapter, in which a mysterious stranger appears.

Reynolds Spends Million Dollars

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 5.—One million dollars was expended by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company in the brief space of seven days to introduce through a $50,000 prize contest the new moisture proof cellophane wrapper of the Camel package.

Except for a brief announcement on the company's regular weekly broadcast over a coast to coast N. B. C. network calling attention to the contest advertisement in newspapers, the week's campaign was conducted exclusively in newspapers.

The initial announcement of the contest consisted of full page advertisements in 1,713 daily newspapers, 412 college periodicals and many financial newspapers. In addition, large space advertisements were used in 2,139 county seat weekly newspapers.

eral minutes, while he delivered a short talk against oil companies in the retail trade in particular and monopolies in general. Davis declared the price of gas was not regulated by the price of the oil but that the price of meat bought at retail was affected daily by fluctuations in wholesale prices. "If it is fair for the oil companies to control the price of gasoline, it is just as fair for cattlement to control the price of meat sold in the meat markets. And I'll wager the price wouldn't go down under the control system," Davis declared.

Why we spend $2,000,000 to put CAMEL cigarettes in the new HUMIDOR PACK

WE have been in the tobacco business a long time down here at Winston-Salem and we take a lot of pride in the quality of the cigarettes we make.

While we have spent a good many million dollars advertising Camels, we've always held to the old fashioned idea that the thing that really counts is what we put into our cigarette and not what we say about it.

If we know anything about tobacco, and we think we do, Camels contain the choicest Turkish and the mellowest, ripest domestic leaves that money can buy.

In fact we have every reason to be proud of the quality of Camels as they come from the factory, but the remark of an old friend of ours from Denver some time ago emphasized a point that has been the problem of the cigarette industry for years.

As he inhaled the smoke from a Camel we gave him in our offices one morning, he sighed with very evident enjoyment and then asked jokingly, "What is this, a special blend reserved for Camel executives?"

"Certainly not," we told him. "This package of Camels was bought at the corner store this morning."

"Well," he said, "I've been a dyed in the wool Camel smoker for a good many years, but upon my soul I never got a cigarette as good as this in Denver. If you would give the rest of the world the kind of Camels you sell here in Winston-Salem, you ought to have all the cigarette business there is."

THAT statement simply emphasized again the cigarette industry's most important problem. The more we thought about it, the surer we were that he was dead right, and that somehow, something must be done.

Denver wasn't getting a fair break. Neither in fact was any other town. The only people who really knew how good Camels could be, were the folks right here in Winston-Salem.

That was due to a factor no cigarette manufacturer had ever been able to control.

Naturally there is no difference whatever in the quality of the tobacco in Camels, whether you buy them in Winston-Salem, Denver or Timbuctoo. But up to now there has been a very real difference in the condition of the cigarettes by the time they reached the smoker.

The flavor and mildness of fine tobacco depend upon the retention of its natural, not added, moisture content which is prime at about ten per cent.

In spite of our great pains always to make sure Camels left the factory with just the right amount of natural moisture, no cigarette package had ever yet been designed that could prevent that precious moisture from drying out.

THERE are three things about a cigarette that can sting the tongue and unkindly burn the throat.

(1) Cheap tobaccos.

(2) Particles of peppery dust left in the tobacco because of inefficient cleaning methods.

(3) A parched dry condition of the tobacco due to loss of natural moisture by overheating or evaporation.

Always certain of the quality of our tobaccos we had already made Camel a "dustless" cigarette by the use of a specially designed vacuum cleaning apparatus exclusive with our factory.

Now, if we could perfect a package that would actually act as a humidor and retain the natural moisture content, then Yuma, Arizona, could enjoy Camels as much as we do here at Winston-Salem.

We knew what we wanted. We tried many things. We asked the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory to help us.

After many experiments and humidity tests covering all methods of packing cigarettes came the detailed report of which this is the net:

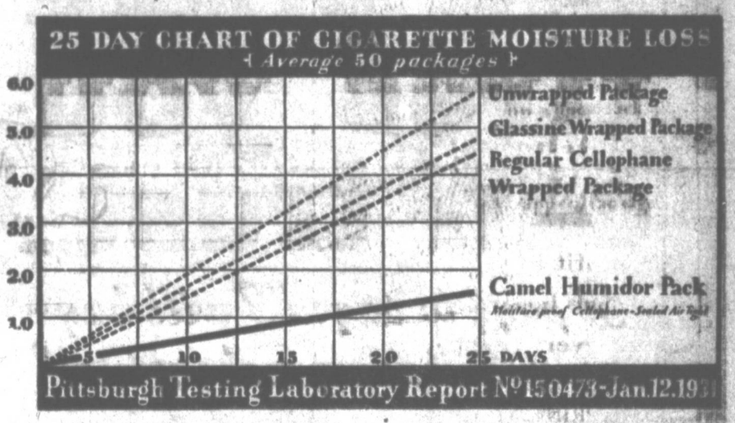

(A) No existing cigarette package, including those wrapped in glassine paper or ordinary cellophane, gives anything like adequate protection against evaporation.

(B) All cigarettes so packed tend to dry out rapidly from the day they are released from the factory.

(C) Only a waterproof material with a specially devised air-tight seal could give the desired protection.

(D) This measure, while costly, could be relied on to keep Camels in prime condition for at least three months in any climate.

If you have a technical bent, the graph below made by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory will show you the exact results of their exhaustive study.

Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory chart above graphically shows you that only the Camel Humidor Pack delivers cigarettes to you in prime condition

YOU may be sure we gave this report a lot of careful study. We checked it and re-checked it and then we went ahead. We tried this device and that. At last we met success. The air-tight wrapping involved the designing of special processes, special machines.

That costs a lot of money, more than $2,000,000 the first year, but after you have tried Camels packed this modern new way we are sure you will agree it is a fine investment.

For some time now every Camel that has left our factory has gone out in this new Humidor Pack.

We have said nothing about it until now, to make sure your dealer would be able to supply you when the good news came out.

Camel smokers of course have already discovered that their favorite cigarette is better and milder now than ever before.

If you aren't a Camel smoker, try them just to see what a difference there really is between harsh, dried out tobacco and a properly conditioned cigarette.

You can feel the difference, you can hear the difference and you certainly can taste the difference.

Of course we're prejudiced.

We always have believed that Camel is the world's best cigarette.

Now we know it.

Just treat yourself to Camels in the new Humidor Pack and see if you don't agree.

Now we can have biscuits!

And we'll have to take our hats off to the women of Pampa. Where they get so many good ideas about biscuits and waffles and other practical things is hard to tell.

* * *

We had about decided newlyweds can't live on fudge, so we attempted to make waffles in a brand new waffle iron (a present) this morning. Well, the first waffle is still in the iron.

* * *

But after the suggestion received yesterday and this morning from Pampa women who have had several years experience, I think we'll not have any trouble with either biscuits or waffles after this.

* * *

What a surprise to find a nice red and white checked cook book on my desk when I got back from lunch yesterday. The book was published by Good Housekeeping and was kindly loaned me by Mrs. Paul Gray. Thank you, Mrs. Gray. I'm going to copy several of those recipes before I return the book. Goodness knows I need them!

* * *

Mrs. B. F. Finley also read the "ad" appealing for a biscuit recipe and came to the rescue not only with two biscuit recipes, but with recipes for whole wheat muffins and one-egg muffins. I'm going to try every one of those recipes, Mrs. Finley. Makes my mouth water just to read them.

* * *

Mrs. Ralph Trimble suggested the use of biscuit flour, and when I'm in a hurry, I'll try that idea.

* * *

Mrs. Joe Smith offered considerable encouragement this morning when she said that she could "knock a mule down" with her first biscuits, but that she can now make quite good ones. No, I'll not give up too easily.

Mrs. F. M. Baker also graciously offered a biscuit recipe this morning, but when she learned how many I already had, she decided that was enough to learn on.

Mrs. Frank C. Allison gave me a suggestion that I'm going to use this very evening. "Use a little cornstarch, about a half a teaspoonful, in your waffle flour to keep the waffle from sticking," she said. And Mrs. Allison ought to know, after successfully "running" the Canary Sandwich shop.

"The iron should be slightly greased the first time you make waffles," advised all the men at this office. Well, they are experienced, too, having been married from a few days to a few years, so we can't pass up that advice either.

* * *

And another biscuit suggestion—Mrs. J. M. Turner says that buttermilk is much better to make biscuits with than sweet milk.

And we also found a biscuit recipe on our soda box.

CORSICANA, March 4. (AP)—Batting practice was stressed in the Dallas Steers' camp here today, and Manager Morse spent much of the afternoon watching rookie hurlers chunk to batters. Outfield practice also was inaugurated. Two practice sessions were held and two are on tomorrow's program. Thirty-two players are in camp.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Cockerell left today for their home at Moreland, Okla., after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cockerell.

BUSH IS PENSIVE

SAN ANTONIO, March 5. (AP)—Manager Donie Bush is becoming pensive over the question of who will play first base for the Chicago White Sox this year. Ray Radcliff, from Selma of the late Southeastern league, is the only bona fide candidate. If he fails to produce it is likely that Johnny Watwood will be called in from the outfield for the job.

TO FILM BALL'S FLIGHT

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 5. (AP)—High speed cameras which will follow the golf ball on its flight will be used in Bobby Jones' series of one-reel motion pictures.

Experimental tests have revealed that with the short iron shots it will be possible to follow the ball from the time it is hit until it stops. The golf champion will start work Monday.

KENTUCKY BLACKSMITH TO MEET LONDOS TONIGHT

BAD HOMBRES WILL TANGLE AT PLA-MOR

Cyclone Mackey and Rob Roy Matched in Semi-Final with Red Michaels, and Willie in Prelims.

Combined pugilistics and wrestling holds will be exchanged this evening in a mat engagement between Blacksmith Pedigo and Billy Londos.

Londos and his sock-em and leave-em tactics are well known, while the terrible advance dope on the blacksmith furnishes the only indication that he will not be done up and thrown away tonight at the Pla-Mor.

In the semi-final the popular Cyclone Mackey will meet Rob Roy, the well known Amarillo boy. Red Michaels and Wildcat Willie will try things in the preliminaries.

The program will open at 8:30 o'clock.

CONNIE MACK HAS REPLY TO SENATOR BOSS

Says Hustle Will Give Boys Chance to Repeat As Champions; Pitching Is Not Very Promising.

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 5. (AP)—Walter Johnson's tip-off that the Philadelphia Athletics will need more winning pitchers this year if they hope to beat Washington, brought this reply from Connie Mack, boss of the two-time champions:

"Washington has a powerful team and is sure to be in the race, but I feel certain the Athletics will repeat if they forget they won two flags in a row and hustle. If the players are in the proper mood and do their best I'm satisfied we will oe in another world series next fall.

Wins Right To Kiss Queen Of Derby Carnival

THE PAS, Manitoba, March 5. (AP)—Earl Brydges of Cranberry Portage, Man., today is richer by $1,200 and is awaiting two more rewards that are to come to him through his second successive victory in the annual The Pas non-stop dog derby.

In addition to the cash award, Brydges won the Grant Rice--Walter Goyne trophy and the privilege of kissing the queen of the Pas carnival. The queen is Miss Bertha St. Godard, sister of Emil St. Godard, who finished third in the 200-mile dog sled grind.

Carrying three of his dogs on the sled while the other six husky-hounds carried the burden, Brydges crossed the line yesterday 26 hours, 50 minutes and 20 seconds after he began the long grind from the starting post on the Saskatchewan river to Flin Flon Mines and return. Poor trail conditions, including ice which cut the dogs' feet and several bare patches, made for slow time.

Sixteen minutes behind Brydges came Shorty Russick of Flin Flon, the record holder for the course. St. Godard, the favorite, finished third, an hour and a half behind the winner. He was followed closely by two mushers from Nipawan, Sask. 19-year-old Jack Robertson and P. G. Dalnard.

Bolton To Get Special Tutoring

BILOXI, Miss., March 5. (AP)—Determined to strengthen the National's backstop detail, Manager Walter Johnson has singled out Cliff Bolton, young Southern association catcher, for special tutoring.

Coach Patsy Gharrity has been given the task of developing him. Bolton, while a natural hitter, is not so good on the fielding end, and Gharrity will attempt to polish him up, especially on taking high fouls.

School Heads Meet At LeFors

Thirty superintendents and principals of Gray county were present at a banquet last night at the LeFors high school. The main address was given by John B. Hessey, county superintendent, on the subject, "Pending School Legislation."

P. L. Maze, principal of the LeFors school, gave the welcome address, and F. P. Wilson, superintendent of the Hopkins No. 1 school, the response. Miss Vera Carpenter sang, "Better Ask Me," and Miss Lorene Reed, "Keep Smiling."

Vincent Richards Wants Big Sum

NEW YORK, March 5. (AP)—Vincent Richards, national professional tennis champion, wants $50,000 to renew his court feud with Big Bill Tilden. Richards called on Promoter Jack Curley yesterday to talk over terms for a series with his former rival, now turned pro, but insisted that figure was his minimum. He also asked that the series be limited to nine matches.

"This barnstorming around the country is not in my line," Richards said. "I did it for five and a half months two years ago with Kobeluh and the $18,000 I got out of the whole trip wasn't worth it."

Reds Will Have Batting Practice

TAMPA, Fla., March 5. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds looked forward eagerly today to their first batting practice of the season.

Cold weather and the condition of the field has held them to bunting and "pepper" games thus far and not a bat has been swung on the slants of the pitching staff, which boasts not a single sore arm. Manager Dan Howley believes his pitchers will cause him no worry at least during the early stages of the campaign.

BATTLE OF CRACKED RIB IS TO BE FOUGHT THIS EVENING

Italian Mammoth and Jimmy Maloney Will Battle in Miami Fantasy.

MIAMI, Fla., March 5. (AP)—To the somewhat fantastic fistic history of this famous winter playground, the boys were prepared to add the 10-round battle of the cracked rib tonight, featuring the ponderous puncher from Italy, Primo Carnera, and the Irishman from Boston, Jimmy Maloney.

Miami and its ocean front neighbor, Miami Beach, have known the peak of boxing's boom days. Two years ago the Stribling-Sharkey bout drew over $400,000. The downward slide since then has been marked by the Sharkey-Scott fiasco, a losing venture of 1930, and the financial distress attending the Walker-Risko show a week ago in the Madison Square Garden stadium.

Carnera's return joust with Maloney has failed to stimulate either the local fistic pulse or the cash customers from elsewhere.

Promoter Frank J. Bruen continued optimistic today in the hope he might at least break even. An unseasonable drop in temperature has chilled the prospects for tonight.

Primo will have upwards of a 65-pound pull in the weights, a doctor in his corner to treat his damaged rib and instructions to try for an early knockout.

The preliminary card is headed by an eight round match between Maxie Rosenbloom of New York, lightweight champion, and Marty Gallagher of Washington, D. C. Rosenbloom's title is not at stake.

Promoter Bruen forbade ringside broadcasting and fixed the main go for about 10 p. m. (eastern time).

Hard Work To Remove Stiffness

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 5. (AP) Manager Shano Collins of the Red Sox is using real honest to goodness hard work to get the stiffness out of his boys.

Yesterday, Earl Webb, Tom Oliver and Bob Reeves took the cure. They had been in camp just one day and were pretty stiff and sore but Shano just smiled at their protests and sent them into the game.

The Sox manager has given up attempts to make a first baseman out of Long Tom Winsett. He played out in the infield yesterday, Shano figures that if he's got to teach him a position he might as well work on him as an outfielder.

Chick Hafey Is Still Holdout

BRADENTON, Fla., March 5. (AP) Although Chick Hafey ...tial is in California holding out for more pay, Manager Gabby Street of the Cardinals believes the slugging outfielder will come to terms and be a regular again this year.

Taylor Douthit and George Watkins are favored for the other outfield posts, but they face stiff competition from "Pepper" Martin, Ernie Orsatti, Joel Hunt, Ray Blades and Al Moore.

GOSLIN IS TEACHER

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 5. (AP)—If Goose Goslin proves himself as good a teacher as he is a batter, the St. Louis Browns' attack this year should show more power. Goslin has taken it upon himself to instruct Larry Bettencourt, the Texas league home run king, in the finer points of the art of hitting and the results so far have been satisfactory to Manager Bill Killefer.

End Piles Quick

No Salves—No Cutting

Your itching, bleeding, protruding piles will go when you actually remove the cause—bad blood circulation in the weak, flabby parts—and not one minute before. Salves or cutting can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. HEM-ROID, prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record right in this city, that Patheree Drug company says one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile agony or money back.—adv.—4

MANY TEAMS ENTERING BIG TOURNAMENT

Preliminary Round to Be Arranged in Basketball Event In Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, March 5. (AP)—A bulging entry list for the annual National A. A. U. basketball tournament here next week necessitated hurried arrangements today for a preliminary round.

When the entries mounted to 45 teams last night, Dr. J. A. Reilly, national chairman, announced that the starting field would have to be trimmed to tournament proportions of 32 quintets. He said that the preliminary rounds, in which all teams within a radius of 200 miles from Kansas City are subject to assignment, would be played Saturday afternoon and night. The first round of the regular tournament opens Monday.

Entries have been received from 18 states, representing every section of the country from Minnesota to Louisiana and from Massachusetts to California.

The entries include:

Brown Paper mills, Monroe, La.; Canyon Teachers, Canyon, Texas; Dallas A. C., Dallas, Texas; Diamond Oilers, Tulsa, Okla.; East Central Teachers, Ada, Okla.; Missouri Pacific, Houston, Texas; Northwestern Teachers, Alva, Okla.; Phillips 66, Bartlesville, Okla.; Southwestern Teachers, Weatherford, Okla., and the Oklahoma City Boosters, Oklahoma City.

Koenig Will Be Infielder; Desire — To Pitch Curbed

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 5. (AP)—Any playing done by Mark Koenig, ex-Yankee, with the Detroit Tigers this year will be in the role of an infielder and not as a pitcher.

Koenig developed mound aspirations last summer after he was traded to the Tigers, and did pitch in a few late games with moderate success. He still harbors hurling ambitions, but Manager Stanley R. Harris has declared he considers Koenig as a candidate for the shortstop berth and not as an addition to the pitching staff.

Lindstrom Feels Like Hack Wilson

SAN ANTONIO, March 5. (AP)—Freddy Lindstrom, former third baseman of the New York Giants, thinks he knows a lot about his new role as right fielder now. Freddy had one fly ball hit his way yesterday and lost it in the sun.

"That settles it," he commented. "I'm a natural outfielder. I feel like Hack Wilson."

Lindy also said he had sent for a football helmet to wear until he got a little more experience.

Jack Thompson Knocks Out Man In Ninth Round

OAKLAND, Calif., March 5. (AP)—Young Jack Thompson, former welterweight champion, carrying the poundage of a middleweight, opened his comeback campaign by knocking out Babe Anderson, San Jose, Calif., in the ninth round of a 10-round bout here last night.

The Los Angeles negro, signed for a title bout in Cleveland April 17 with Tommy Freeman, to whom he lost the championship, won handily, but his showing failed to impress the crowd.

Carrying 151 pounds, Thompson was decidedly slow, both on his feet and in his punching, but experience carried him through easily against Anderson, a second rater.

Playoff Series To Begin Tonight On New York Court

NEW YORK, March 5. (AP)—Brooklyn and Fort Wayne, winners of the two halves of the American basketball league season, open their playoff series tonight to determine the professional basketball champion for the year.

The series is to go until one team has won four games out of a possible seven. Brooklyn, the first half champion, is the home team for the first two games tonight and Sunday. The next three will be played March 10, 11, and 12 on the home floor of the second half winners. If the series goes the limit, the teams will return to Brooklyn for the last two games, March 15 and 17.

Belcher Highest In Officers' Shoot

Scoring 93 points, Deputy Warren Belcher shot the highest score in the first pistol practice of city and county officers at the Pla-Mor range yesterday afternoon. The chief deputy hit the bull's eye six times out of the ten shots fired.

District Attorney Raymond Alred turned in the second best target with a score of 83. Deputy Harris King of McLean was third. The shots were fired from a distance of 25 yards.

Other officers who shot yesterday included Chief J. I. Downs, Deputy Clyde Garner, Sheriff Lon L. Blapsset, and Deputy Floyd Archer. Pistol practice will continue daily.

INFIELD AS IS

AVALON, Calif., March 5. (AP)—Whatever improvement the Chicago Cubs show over last season, if any, apparently must come from the pitching staff and the return of Manager Rogers Hornsby to the lineup.

NEXT BOUT IS AT STAKE IN CHICAGO TILT

Winner of Battle Between Griffiths and Levinsky To Meet Loughran.

CHICAGO, March 5. (AP)—Along with fighting to settle Chicago's west side heavyweight question tomorrow night, Tuffy Griffiths and King Levinsky will battle for a bout with Tommy Loughran, former world light heavyweight titleholder, April 19 in the Chicago stadium.

Both the Tough One and the Kingfish have finished the serious part of their training for the bout and both, to hear them talk, are certain of winning. Levinsky, the former fish merchant, is sure his murderous right hand will tip Griffiths over. The latter doesn't see how he can miss at least outpointing the King.

Griffiths is expected to be a slight favorite, and advance sales indicate an attendance of as many as 19,000, with gross receipts of $65,000.

Swetonic Lost To Pirates; Arm Injury Needs Operation

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 5. (AP)—Pitcher Steve Swetonic is lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, at least for the early part of the season, Manager Jewel Ens announced today.

Physicians said Swetonic will not be able to pitch for two or three months. An injured right elbow failed to respond to treatment and x-ray photographs taken yesterday in Los Angeles disclosed a fluid formation near the joint. Doctors said an operation probably would be necessary. It is likely Steve will return to Pittsburgh for the operation.

Ruth's 33 Bats No Good, He Says

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5. (AP)—Babe Ruth has 33 bats, but because "there's isn't a good one in the lot," has ordered six more.

The more Manager Joe McCarthy sees of his New York Yankees, the better he likes them. Yesterday he expressed considerable satisfaction at the power in Catcher Bill Dickey's batting and in the flashy work of Bill Werber, young shortstop who came to the Yanks from Duke University by way of Albany.

Mallon came up from Texas this season and is expected to succeed Fresco Thompson, traded to Brooklyn.
