Pretty Red-Haired Dallas Woman Wants Week Off To Make Flight Around Globe

(By The United Press)

DALLAS, April 14—Dianna Cyrus wants a week off so she can fly around the world.

She wants to break the record for the global flight.

Three times a week she hauls everything from gardenias to pots and pans by air between Dallas and Burbank, Cal. She wants a week vacation from her job at Eagle Air Lines so she can circle the globe just like her friend, Bill Odom, did last year.

The cheery, pretty redhead just bought a British Mosquito bomber. She bought the plane in from Miami, Fla., yesterday. Her bomber hits 425 miles per hour. And she thinks she can fly around the world in better than Odom's record of seventy-three hours, five minutes and eleven seconds.

She has never done much flying over water, but she has lots of speed flying exper-

Taft Prestige, Dewey Hopes Are Hard Hit

Tireless Harold Now In Top Rank Of GOP Hopefuls

(By The Associated Press)

OMAHA, April 14. — Tireless Harold E. Stassen lifted himself into the top rank of Republican presidential candidates today with a sweeping victory in Nebraska's GOP primary.

His clear-cut win clubbed Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York into political submission for the second week in a row. Dewey was shut out in the April 6 Wisconsin primary when Stassen won 19 of the state's 27 nominating votes.

Taft Prestige Hard Hit

The former Minnesota governor's victory bashed the prestige of Senator Robert A. Taft. It built new fires under the good-man-but can't-win theory that has dogged the Taft campaign.

It all but snuffed out the dying hopes of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's supporters.

But it left intact the darkhorse possibilities of Senator Arthur Vandenberg, secure in fourth place in a race he spurned.

The count in yesterday's free-for-all primary from 1,420 of the state's 2,024 precincts was Stassen 53,874, Dewey 41,167, Taft 13,973, Vandenberg 5,508, MacArthur 4,558, Gov. Earl Warren of California 1,208, and House Speaker Joseph Martin 566.

Wraps Up 13 Delegates

Along with his victory in the free for all popularity contest, Stassen appeared likely to wrap up as a 41st birthday present the first-ballot support at the Philadelphia convention of at least 13 of the state's 15 degelates.

On the basis of incomplete returns, Dewey had a chance to get on delegate and another possible winner was unpledged.

Of the 13 who said they would vote for the primary winner on the first nominating test at the national convention, five also pledged to support him as long as he has a chance for the nomination. The delegates are not bound by the

Rebel Victory In Costa Rica Said Assured

Rumors Say Peace Terms Are Given By Rebel Chief

(By The Associated Press)

Costa Rica's six-weeks-old civil war seemed to be boiling down to a finish—and a rebel victory—today.

Reports were heard in Guatemala that the rebel chieftain, Jose Figueres, has set up a provisional government in Cartago, the country's second largest city, 30 miles southeast of San Jose, the capital.

Defense Is Planned

The U. S. state department in Washington was advised last night that San Jose is endangered by the revolters and that a house-to-house defense of the capital is expected. San Jose's population is about 68,000.

There are no dispatches direct from Costa Rica because of censorship.

A well-informed traveler from Costa Rica, who asked that his name be withheld, reported on his arrival in Panama last night that President Teodoro Picado Michalski of Costa Rica has accepted peace terms dictated by Figueres which call for Picado to resign when congress meets May 1.

Terms Said Accepted

Reports from other sources said all peace terms submitted by Figueres had been accepted except for some minor points. Disrupted communications were reported hampering the negotiations.

Gen. Rene Picado Michalski, Costa Rican security (war) minister, said in San Antonio, Texas, he plans to go to Mexico City Thursday morning en route to Costa Rica.

He said that "as long as there is a loyal soldier with us we shall not give up."

According to one informant in Panama, the peace terms include delivery of all government arms to the rebels; the discharge of all government troops; guarantees for life and property of oppositionists until regular courts can take over; a general amnesty and protection of foreign consulates and embassies.

Thousands Of Residents Are Leaving Home

Florida's Capital Isolated; Rains In Area Continue

(By The Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, April 14.—A five-state Ohio river valley area today was the focal point of widespread spring floods which also spilled into some Florida and North Dakota lowlands.

Experiencing its first major flood since March, 1945, the serpentine Ohio was 10 feet above flood stage in some areas and rising steadily throughout the 500-mile stretch. Tributaries went over their banks throughout the watershed.

Capital Is Isolated

Florida's state capital, Tallahassee, was isolated from peninsular Florida except by air or roundabout routes through southern Georgia. Granford, Fla., was hardest hit when the meandering Suwannee river left its banks. There were no reports of flood deaths or injuries.

An estimated 1,000 families were evacuated in the Ohio river area—Kentucky, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Ohio. Nearly 100 families were forced from their homes in Grand Fork, N. D., and nearby East Grand Forks, Minn., when the Red river crested at 40.70 feet, 12.70 feet above flood level. National guardsmen dynamited ice jams there to save bridges. Grand Forks' power plant was out of order.

Thousands To Be Homeless

Red Cross disaster workers said thousands in the Ohio valley would be homeless unless streams crest swiftly. River experts refused to predict a crest until near-continuous rains, now in their third day, come to a halt.

National Guard units were alerted at Marietta, O., Parkersburg, W. Va., and Jeffersonville, New Albany and Evansville, Ind.

At Washington, Red Cross eastern area headquarters announced it was sending 20 disaster workers to areas facing major flood threats. Red Cross shelters were set up at

Judge Refuses Dismissal For Contempt Case

Defense Declares Lewis Complied In Court Order

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—John L. Lewis pleaded "not guilty" and went on trial today on a charge of contempt of court for not calling off the coal strike earlier.

The big, bushy-browed miners chief entered his plea through his attorney, Welly K. Hopkins, who also pleaded innocent for the United Mine Workers to a similar charge.

Dismissal Is Refused

First off, Hopkins asked Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough to throw out the charges. Goldsborough refused. He is the same judge who fined Lewis $10,000 and the union $3,500,000 (later cut to $700,000 by the Supreme court) for ignoring a stop-strike order from the courts in 1946.

Then the government took over and started presenting its case. That was a pretty dull business for the first few hours. Assistant Attorney General Graham Morison began by building up a case that a coal work stoppage creates a situation imperiling the national safety and health. He has to show that under the Taft-Hartley act.

Experts Are Heard

So his first witnesses were government experts on coal, power and general business conditions. They poured out statistics to show that without coal industry starves to death.

Hopkins popped up continually with objections, but Lewis sat impassively.

Unless it was boredom, Lewis showed no emotion. He sat at the counsel's table, flanked by a battery of eight defense attorneys. Occasionally, he sneaked a peppermint candy from his pocket to his mouth like a boy in school.

Goldsborough is a balding former Maryland congressman. He likes to put in wisecracks from the bench. But Lewis never joined in the laughter.

The case is being heard without

Son's Death Kept From Sick Mother

NEW YORK, April 14 (U.P.)—James Fenimore, 33-year-old machinist, went to the hospital to visit his wife, Ella, knowing that if he didn't she would fear something was wrong.

When he went into the sickroom where she was recovering from an operation the doctor told him not to upset her. Fenimore told her she looked well. She asked how their five children were.

"Everything will be all right," he said, just as the doctor told him.

Then he left to make the funeral arrangements for their 10-year-old son, James, jr. The boy hanged himself last night with the belt of his bathrobe in a clothes closet in his home. He left no explanatory note.

Reds Oppose Trieste Move

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, April 14—Russia has turned down the western power proposal to give Trieste back to Italy, Moscow radio announced last night.

A Soviet note terming the suggestion unacceptable was delivered to the governments of Britain, France and the United States yesterday, the broadcast said.

Broached By Bidault

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France first broached the idea publicly in a speech at Turin, Italy, on March 21. It was hailed frankly at the time as a bid for anti-Communist support in the Italian elections next Sunday.

The proposal called for a Paris meeting of the powers principally concerned early in May to consider the future of Trieste.

Yesterday's Soviet note, the broadcast said, pointed out that Trieste was created a free city and territory by the Italian peace treaty, signed by 21 nations, including the big four. It said revision of the treaty by means of "correspondence or by convening private conferences" is unacceptable and violates "elemental principles of Democracy."

Urgent Request Made

The note was in response to formal U. S.-British-French suggestions on Trieste made to Russia in notes on March 20 and reiterated last Friday with an urgent request for action.

Among other things, the Rus-

Two Shooting Cases Probed

Bond was set for a negro woman, and in vestigators were studying statements of witnesses in another case, as outgrowth of two non-injury shooting episodes Tuesday in the negro quarter of Lubbock.

Barbara Roy, 30, was bound over to grand jury investigation under $2,000 bond set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, on a charge of assault with intent to murder her 40-year-old husband David Crockett Roy.

Admits Firing Shot

Police said they had arrested Earlie Fitts, 44, a negro, for investigation growing out of his admission that he fired a .22 rifle in direction of Bertie Lee Brown, a negro woman, after she persisted in walking across his front yard at 2310 East Ave. G. No charge had been filed.

Officials had a statement of 20-year-old Clifford K. Miller, a taxicab driver, in the Roy shooting.

He said he took the woman in his cab to the negro quarter and that she jumped out, pulled a pistol from the bosom of her dress, shouted something like, "Now I've got you," and commenced firing.

Four Shots Fired

Miller said there were four shots taken at the negro man, who desperately sought to evade being hit.

The third one was fired through Miller's cab, "right by me," Miller said, explaining that he fell for protection onto the

Cold Snap In Texas Ended

(By The United Press)

Most of Texas basked in warm sunshine today following a cold snap which sent the mercury below the freezing mark in the Panhandle early yesterday.

Low clouds and cooler temperatures still lingered in the costal regions, however, where the cool front didn't hit until late yesterday.

Lubbock Is Coolest

A 94-degree reading at Brownsville was reduced to 64 degrees early today, although that was the high minimum reading for the state. Lubbock had the chilliest temperature—34 degrees. Amarillo reported 39, Wichita Falls 38, Abilene and Dallas 40.

Lowest maximum temperature yesterday was 59 at Fredericksburg. Austin reported 60 degrees.

Locally heavy rains fell in portions of East and Southeast Texas yesterday, with 24-hour measurements of 1.15 at Beaumont 1.01 at Houston, .71 at Lufkin and .07 at Palestine.

Trace Of Moisture

Lubbock, on the South Plains of West Texas, reported .01 of an inch precipitation, the U. S. weather bureau reported.

Measurement at Lufkin for the 24 hours preceding 6:30 p. m. yesterday was 3.48 inches.

Many other parts of the state, however, including the Central Texas cities of Brownwood, Santa Anna, Coleman, Brady and Comanche, and most of the western portion of Texas, continued in need of rain.

The forecast for West Texas called for fair and warmer weather today and tomorrow.

Two Die Using Hose To Combat Blaze

OKLAHOMA CITY April 14 (U.P.)—Two men were burned to death here today as they used a length of garden hose to fight a three-alarm fire that burned out the home offices and a manufacturing plant of the Standard and Humpty-Dumpty grocery chain.

Firemen identified the victims as Don Stansburg, 18, Oklahoma City, a welder, and T. E. Hellner, Yukon, Okla., a machine operator. They were part of an early-morning crew at the Folding Carrier company, where the fire started.

Wallace Favors $1 An Hour Pay Scale

NEW YORK, April 14 (U.P.) — Third party presidential candidate Henry A. Wallace said last night that his party was "fighting for a minimum wage of $1.00 an hour" and for the extension of the fair labor standards act to all workers.

Wallace, who is in Iowa for his mother's funeral, had the statement read at a joint AFL and CIO rally sponsored by the New York trade union committee for Wallace and Taylor.

Wallace also attacked the Taft-Hartley law. He said it was being used to "stop the legitimate wage demands of workers," and was invoked "under the guise of alleged threats to our national security."

High Court To Hear Tax Case

AUSTIN, April 14. (AP)—The Supreme court today agreed to pass judgment on a law requiring persons over 60 living in cities to obtain annual poll tax exemption certificates.

In an election contest that started in Howard county, lower courts have held the law constitutional. It requires persons who are 60 years of age or older, living in towns of 10,000 population and above, to obtain annual poll tax exemption certificates to qualify as voters.

Opens May 5

Losers in the lower courts asked the Supreme court to review the case. The Supreme court granted the review and set May 5 as the date for oral arguments.

The review was granted on these two claims of error:

Rep. Hartley Determined To Steam Right Ahead With Legislation Against Unions

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14—Rep. Hartley (R-NJ) said today he is going to steam right ahead with a new strike remedy to replace the "temporary opiate" of the soft coal pensions settlement.

The chairman of the House labor committee said he may order hearings on a bill next week if John L. Lewis is fined again for contempt of court and a new mine flareup follows.

Hartley's measure would make a strike against two or more competing employers a violation of the anti-trust laws. The coal indiv thedustry is highly competitive.

"All the mail I've been getting," Hartley told reporters, "says: in spite of this phoney coal settlement, don't let it stop you from trying to get a real solution."

Lewis ordered his 400,000 United Mine Workers back to the pits after a $100-a-month pension plan was worked out Monday in a conference with operators' representative Ezra Van Horn and Senator Bridges (R-NH).

"I don't think the pension fund is being enough to do what is proposed," Hartley said. "I think Lewis is just laying the basis for a demand in June to increase the royalties. And then where will the operators be?"

Money for the pension fund comes from a royalty of 10 cents a ton on coal. There have been

AIR FORCE VOTE EXPECTED SOON

12-Division Army Asked By Bradley

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—An Army ground force of 12 regular combat divisions was recommended today by General Omar N. Bradley as the smallest the nation can safely afford.

The chief of staff said the 12 divisions should be backed up by six more from the National Guard and organized reserves.

He testified before the House armed services committee on a draft bill which would boost the Army's total strength from 542,000 men to 782,000.

Bradley, who commanded in Europe the largest American armies of history took issue with testimony given yesterday by Air Secretary Symington.

In response to questions, Symington said he regards an Air Force of 70 combat groups as more important to the nation's security than universal training.

Claims No Relationship

"There is no relationship between the 70-group program and UMT," Bradley said. "The alternative to UMT is not 70 groups, 170 groups, or 1,000 groups.

"The alternative to UMT if we are to have the barest type of security is a standing Army big enough to carry the Army portion of a war burden for one year until mobilization can be effected. This would require at least 25 divisions initially, or about 1,500,000 men, and would cost many billions annually."

Predict Approval

As Bradley testified, congressional backers of the 70-group plan predicted House approval of an additional appropriation of more than $1,000,000,000 to get the plan started at once.

Rep. Kilday (D-Tex), spokesman for members who have been pushing the 70-group plan, told reporters he planned to ask the extra money during debate on the $2,376,100,000 appropriation meas-

No Increase In Oil Is Sought

AUSTIN, April 14. (AP)—No requests for increased allowables were made today at the railroad commission's statewide oil proration hearing.

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson said a 60-day oil order for May and June would be issued this afternoon.

A Cut in the number of producing days for the East Texas oil field appeared in prospect in view of pressure drops totalling more than five pounds during February and March.

Will Rescind Rule

H. P. Hichols of the East Texas Oil association urged 20 days for May and June. Paul McDermott of Sinclair Prairie Oil company asked continuance of the field on 21 days.

"We don't think the drop is of enough significance to warrant a change," McDermott said.

Thompson indicated that rule 10 for the East Texas field will be rescinded. The rule provides that wells completed in East Texas at or below minus 3,000 feet are allowed a four-foot penetration into the pay. Wells completed above this level are allowed to penetrate the pay two-thirds of the distance from its top to the water table.

Thompson said there apparently has been little observance of the rule, and added that inability to

Russia Denies Part In Bogota Outbreak

LONDON, April 14 (U.P.)—Russia denied today that any of its agents were involved in the bloody Bogota rioting as charged by the Colombian government.

Dispatches from Moscow also quoted a diplomatic official as saying that no word of Colombia's reported diplomatic break with the Soviet union has been received.

Radio Moscow broadcast the Soviet denial of implication in the Bogota rioting, declaring that these reports were "absurd fabrication . . . disseminated for purposes hostile to the Soviet union."

Clemencies Of Four Revoked By Jester

AUSTIN, April 14 (AP) — Gov. Beauford H. Jester today revoked clemencies of four men.

He ordered the following men returned to the penitentiary to complete their sentences because they violated conditions on which they had been granted clemency:

John Parker—sentenced in Harris county in 1932 to life imprisonment for habitual robbery by assault; reprieved in 1943.

Howard Buchanan — sentenced to 45 years for murder with malice aforethought in Jefferson county in 1937, reprieved in 1944.

Elroy Williams — sentenced to seven years for murder and burglary in Nueces county in 1943; reprieved in 1946.

Jack Allen Barker—sentenced to five years for robbery by assault and burglary in Harris county in 1945; reprieved in 1946.

Fire Crackles Through Entire City Block Of Wyoming Town

(By The Associated Press)

LARAMIE, Wyo., April 14.—A fast spreading fire crackled through an entire business block early today in the downtown section of Laramie, site of the University of Wyoming.

Fifteen of 30 structures were unofficially reported destroyed by flames.

Discovered about 2 a. m. (MST) the flames were reported under control but not out three hours after they were discovered in the four-story brick W. H. Holliday building.

Fire departments sped to Laramie from Cheyenne, Ralins and Fort Francis E. Warren, in Wyoming, and Fort Collins, Colo., to help overwhelmed Laramie firemen and volunteers battle the blaze.

Troops from Fort Warren, 50 miles east of here at Cheyenne, National Guard members and Wyoming university R.O.T.C. students were pressed into service to prevent looting.

There were no early reports of casualties, fifteen or 20 families lived in hotels in the flaming area. The Red Cross arranged to house them in a university dormitory.

The cause of the fire was undetermined. The Holliday building,

Still Thinks It Would Produce Houses

Parts Of Long Range Housing Bill Inflationary, Taft Says

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14 — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) today agreed with Marriner Eccles that some credit provisions of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill are inflationary.

But Taft refused to go along with the acting chairman of the Federal Reserve Board on his contention that the bill's credit incentive won't produce more houses.

The controversial T-E-W bill is designed to encourage construction of 15,000,000 new homes during the next decade. Taft, one of the sponsors, said the Senate might start debate on the measure today.

Taft and Eccles engaged in a brisk exchange over the bill late yesterday while the Federal Reserve official was testifying on bank credit before the Senate-House economic committee.

Eccles criticized the proposed home loan terms, saying they would not increase the construction rate and would further inflate the price of homes.

Taft insisted the bill would produce more homes, but he told reporters he agrees with Eccles that some of the credit provisions are "too liberal."

Taft singled out a section which

Bogota Conferees Resume Work As Charges Fly In Wrecked City

BOGOTA, Colombia, April 14 (AP) The 21-nation Pan American conference resumes its work today in revolt-battered Bogota.

The conference was broken up five days ago by a bloody uprising which the Colombian government and U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall attributed to international Communism. Delegates voted unanimously yesterday to resume sessions.

One of the first items on the conference agenda probably will be a resolution against Communism in the western hemisphere.

Called Absurd

(In London the Moscow radio broadcast a Tass news agency dispatch which termed "absurd fabrications" what it said were rumors of participation of Soviet or Russian agents in the events in Bogota.

(In Balboa, C. Z., Donald L. Jackson (R-Calif) said last night that the rioters were "Communist inspired and led." Jackson, a congressional observer at the conference, declared delebates had "an opportunity to see at first hand what happens when Communists move into positions of leadership."

(Jackson said he will report to Congress tomorrow on the revolt.)

Colombia's diplomatic relations with Russia are unclear. Yesterday a member of the presidential secretariat said the cabinet had not yet approved the decree for severing relations, as announced by the government radio the previous day.

Gunfire was heard outside the U. S. Embassy last night immediately after it was announced the conference would continue. The nature of the shooting was not determined.

The conference steering committee will meet today in the Gimnasio Moderno preparatory school outside Bogota to prepare the agenda.

Hundreds of laborers were busy cleaning up the ravaged capitol building which the Colombian government said would be ready for conference occupancy within four days.

The government has detailed its public works engineers to clean up the wreckage of the rioting which claimed about 300 lives and left Bogota a shambles.

U. S. Soldiers Said There

(In Buenos Aires Argentine Sen. Alberto Durand said yesterday United States soldiers guarded refugees from mobs in Bogota and exchanged shots with rioters at the height of the trouble.

(State department officials in Washington said they had no information of U. S. troops in Bogota and added they found the report impossible to believe.)

Colombian President Mariano Ospina Perez announced today he had met with bankers and financiers to consider a reconstruction plan to rebuild Bogota. The plan calls for loans to help victims rebuild their homes and places of business.

An acute food shortage prevailed in the city. People lined up in the central market but only fruit was available. Some bakeries opened and flour was sold under army guard.

(Advices from Washington said American Red Cross officials have been asked by Panama Canal Zone military officials to prepare for reception of about 350 evacuees, mostly Americans, from Bogota.)

Refugees To Attend Wayland College

A family who escaped the Russian 'Iron Curtain' will attend Wayland college this summer.

Two Latvian refugees, George Lambert, who escaped Russian-occupied Latvia in a fishing boat, and his wife, who fled with other destitute countrymen, are presently in the United States. They are participating in Baptist meetings in various Texas churches.

Dr. J. W. Bill Marshall, Wayland college president, met the couple at the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark, last summer, where Lambert directed a choir of Latvian refugees. According to Dr. Marshall, both Mr. and Mrs. Lambert are excellent singers.

A Lubbock physician, who asked that his name be withheld, has given $750 to defray tuition and other expenses for Lambert during his first year of residence at the college.

The Lamberts have a son, Andris, who will arrive in the United States some time in April, and will also attend Wayland. The family has applied for citizenship in this country. George Lambert petitioned the U. S. attorney general for entrance to Wayland, and the Department of Immigration and Naturalization granted the college approval as acceptable for nonquota immigrant students.

Pilots Union To Sue National Airlines

NEW YORK, April 14. (AP)—The AFL Air Line Pilots association has served notice of suit against National airlines, asking more than $1,000,000 for damages allegedly suffered during the current 11-week-old pilots' strike.

The union charges that the airline violated the railway labor act, broke a company-union agreement, failed to cooperate with the national mediation board and violated the 1938 Civil Aeronautics act.

A lawyer for the pilots' association said a summons was served on the airline yesterday, adding that actual papers in the suit have not yet been filed.

The union accused the airline of fomenting the strike and then blocking its settlement, the attorney said. There was no immediate comment from the company.

Tech Cattle Feeding Project Completed

The twelfth Texas Technological college cattle feeding project, comprising the first phase of a three year experiment being carried on by the college, has been completed and the group of steers used in the project have been sold at auction, W. L. Stangel, dean of Agriculture, has announced.

The project was initiated Nov. 26, 1946 with 12 good to choice Hereford steers purchased as calves with an average weight of 433 pounds.

From the start of the project until April 30, 1947, the calves were kept on small grain pasture of barley and wheat. May 1, to Dec. 1, 1947, they were on irrigated pasture and from then until the end of the project April 6, they underwent a dry lot fattening period, with the feed consisting of milo chop, cotton seed meal, alfalfa hay, sumac and sorghum silage.

The 12 steers were sold April 7 in Fort Worth, after 495 days of experimentation, and brought an average of 28½ cents per pound. More complete results of the tests are being prepared by Edwin L. Dawson, of Tulia, a graduate student who will use the project for the subject of a thesis being prepared for a Master of Science degree in animal husbandry.

The second phase of the experiment will be carried on with eight of the same type steers which already have been purchased for that purpose by the college. It was decided to use only eight steers for the second phase due to the fact that the pasture proved to be insufficient for grazing 12, Dean Stangel said.

Russian People Can Understand Only Force, Blind Obedience, Dallas Professor Asserts

By VERNON B. HOBART
United Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, April 14. (U.P.)—The Russian people are incapable of understanding the higher degree of civilization that exists in the the United States and their only guiding principle if force, Dr William Arthur Evans, head of the Institute of Human Technology in Dallas said today.

The doctor of philosophy, who has published several books on human behavior, said that the only thing the Russians can understand is a strong United States armed force—army, navy and air.

Cannot Understand

"The history of Russia has been a history of murder, privation and starvation," Evans said. "It is a nation of serfdom and oppression. These men cannot understand the higher degree of civilization that exists in this country."

Evans, 56-year-old doctor of philosophy who speaks in the clipped accents of his native England, blamed President Franklin Roosevelt for part of this nation's troubles with Soviet leaders today.

He said that when the war-time president gave Berlin and part of Europe to Premier Joseph Stalin he failed to understand mankind.

Evans charged that it was physically impossible to make peace with the Russians because of their background. Delving into the history of the sprawling European and Asiatic country, he described the writings of Karl Marx as symbolic of the period in which he lived—a period of upheavel.

Knew Only Force

"Marx knew only force," Evans said. "He couldn't look ahead—he couldn't visualize the future when he wrote his book in England that later was to become the Soviet bible."

Describing the Soviet nation in terms of his profession, Evans said that man has a sympathetic nervous system all ready to go when he is born and that most men don't use their mental powers to their full capacity.

This, he said, is the way with the Russians.

The philosophy professor also said that the Russians have another factor in common with primitive man.

Taught To Follow

"The most powerful and most dangerous attributes are his emotions," he said. "The Russians are taught not to think but to follow."

Evans said that the present Russian government was born of violence and bloodshed during the bloody revolution of 1917. Many of the men in Russian affairs today, he said, received their teaching during this period and that teaching never has left them.

He said that the present leaders of government in the sprawling country are well-educated men and know what they want. They have the blind obedience of the Russian people because the Soviet citizen is taught to believe what he is told.

Should Build Up Force

Evans, who began teaching in Dallas 10 years ago when the institute was founded, served in the British army during the first world war. He first came to this country, however, as a youth.

"Not until mankind reaches a stage much farther advanced is it going to live as mankind should," he said. "That stage, unfortunately, is a long way off.

"America would do much better to build up the one thing that the Soviets can understand—force with plenty to back it up."

Pension Fight Will Continue In State

AUSTIN, April 14. (AP)—Plans were being laid today for a continued fight for better pensions for Texas' old folks.

Everett H. O'Dowd, vice president of the Texas Pension association, advised Gov. Beauford H. Jester by letter that he is requesting "all the old people of Texas" to write the governor personally and insist that he give them relief "in this hour of need."

O'Dowd said he was disappointed that Jester had declined to call a suggested special session to provide adequate laws to give old people relief from their inadequate pensions.

"We do not concur in your conclusion that the best interest of the welfare of the state as a whole would not be served if a special session was called," he wrote. "We are insisting that you . . . give further consideration to the question of calling a special session . . . for the purpose of aiding the old people."

The letter criticized the governor for not giving more active support to increased pensions before the last legislature.

The governor had declined because of other appointments to speak at the convention of the Texas Pension association in Waco April 10.

Jury Finds Woman Guilty Of Perjury

BALLINGER, April 14 (AP) — Mrs. Mildred Blackstone of San Angelo today was found guilty of perjury in testimony she gave at Ballinger in a grand jury investigation of the death of Mrs. Cliff Clary last Jan. 31.

The jury in 119th District court here recommended a two-year prison sentence for Mrs. Blackstone.

Cliff Clary was indicted on a charge of murder in the death of his wife as a result of the Runnels county grand jury investigation.

Mrs. Clary's body was found in the burned ruins of a ranch house 15 miles northeast of Ballinger. Clary said the fire was caused by leaking bottled butane gas.

Mrs. Blackstone was alleged to have told Texas Ranger Ralph Rohtasch that she had lived with Clary as his wife from Sunday through Thursday of each week while Mrs. Clary was teaching school and away from home. Evidence showed that she denied this when testifying before the grand jury.

Grand jury foreman S. C. Routh, Runnels county rancher, testified in Mrs. Blackstone's trial that grand jury's evidence "showed that she (Mrs. Clary) did not die from fire."

District Attorney O'Neal Dendy said Clary probably would be tried in May.

Dried beans should be picked over before using, then washed. They may then be soaked overnight in water that is four times the volume of the beans. The water in which they are soaked should be used to cook them in. When cooked they should be brought to a boil over moderate heat then simmered over lower heat until they are just tender.

Fifth Column Threat Talked

PHILADELPHIA, April 14 (AP) —The United States is faced with the necessity of uncovering and destroying "a highly dangerous fifth column" that is "boring from within," Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said last night.

Addressing the 41st anniversary dinner of Philadelphia's 46th ward Republican executive committee, Martin said "These subversive enemies are working within the structure of our free government."

Renovation Planned

When the Republicans take over the administration after next November," he said, "the State department is going to get a renovation that will be good for the department and good for the nation."

"We have to be sure these fifth columnists are not only thrown off the public payroll but that they are brought out into the light of day where we can watch them and foil their nefarious operations."

Martin also urged that the United States "arm for peace."

The Republican congress, he said, is prepared to vote funds for a 70-group combat air force rather than the 55-group force requested by Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Very Happy

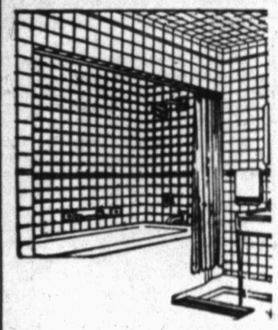

Speaking of his part in the settlement of the soft coal pension dispute, Martin said "the results speak for themselves. I am very happy I was able to bring the contending interests together at the proper moment."

John L. Lewis and Ezra Van Horn, mine operators' representative, met in Martin's office last Saturday and agreed upon Senator Bridges (R-NH) as neutral trustee for the miners' pension fund.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Agnostic Mother Feels Revulsion As She Reads Lord's Prayer To Child At Family's Request

DEAR Mary Haworth: Please help me organize my chaotic thinking. I have a precocious three-year-old and quite suddenly members of my family have come to the conclusion that religious training is in order and that I am shirking my duty in leaving this undone.

It is my personal opinion that Kit is still too young to be suddenly swung into the burdens of religion and religious education; but tonight I sat down with a copy of the Lord's Prayer and read it aloud, with Kit repeating the words after me.

As we progressed, I felt absolute revulsion for the thing I was doing; even horror at the words I was having her repeat and parrot. My very protective instincts were aroused. I felt that somehow I must check some dreadful calamity. Why this reaction?

I have no religious creed; only a philosophy born of hard knocks, as my upbringing was neither conventional nor happy. Experience has taught me generosity of mind, a form of humility, a degree of personal integrity and some understanding of others.

I SHUDDER at prayer, even despise it (I think) as a form of weakness. I believe that saying "I will be good" is more effective than praying "Help me be good." And while I respect the things Jesus stood for, and his weight in anchoring so-called Christian civilization, I have no more belief in His divinity than that of any other prophet.

I hope you know I would not tell my child my unbeliefs; but I crawl at the thought of lying to her. If she were older and no pressure were being exerted by my family, I think I would teach her a simple credo of honesty, kindliness, loyalty to self and others; resolve to do one's best always, etc.—as I do want her to believe in SOMETHING.

I don't say the things I believe are best. I may be entirely wrong; I don't know. I only know that I haven't an aptitude for blind (or should I say undoubting) faith. However, it has done me no particular good, being as I am; and I cannot take chances with my child.

I want to give Kit all the benefits of conventional education; a normal childhood with normal beliefs and all the things people must have to live peacefully in a convenional world. How can I do this?

Signed C. G.

WOMAN'S CREDO IS HALF-RIGHT

DEAR C. G.: You are a product of the school of hard knocks; and in effect your credo is this: 1. Self-help is the only form of help there is. In the ultimate sense, spiritually, this is true; but true self-help consists in knowing and doing the will of God; or discerning His laws and abiding by them.

2. You believe that security depends on behaving "well," to gain others' respect or esteem: acting in terms of copybook virtues that make you reliable, predictable, an open book, useful to others and, to that extent, socially "safe." This is delusionary doctrine; a matter of building on sand. All is facade: there is no indestructible foundation.

Further, you believe that experience has vested you with generosity of mind, humility, personal integrity, some understanding of others. But by and large your story (here much condensed) indicates that these attributes, taken in order, have other meanings, to-wit:

1. Generosity of mind—numbed critical faculty, loss of direction and loss of "fight," often dissembled as tolerance. 2. Humility—inferiority feelings. 3. Personal integrity—compulsive disposition to "do right" as per authoritarian decree, while deeply repressing valid ideas, feelings, etc., indigenous to yourself. 4. Understanding—a tendency to read your emotions into others' behavior.

NOW, about your panic while reading the Lord's Prayer to your child and hearing her "pray." This was a volcanic stirring of deeply repressed neurotic material, brought into focus by the situation described; and far too entrenched and complex to admit of decoding without analytic guidance.

However, it seems the essential pattern has to do with consistent confusion, outrage and defeat in dealing with authority—especially that "fond" variety which presumably "knows best."

In that instance you felt revulsion for what you were doing; but what were you doing? Praying? No. You were bowing to family dictate, "doing right" per their definition, wholly without your soul's consent but trying to act as if your feelings and judgment assented.

Overtly you were feigning "loyalty to self and others," while subjectively you were madly resentful of family pressure and sick about your "tolerant" surrender to it; and the conflict sparked a lightning-flash of dread, which verged on awareness that to be without positive faith—i. e., informed vigorous purpose — and positive integrity is to be helpless and threatened indeed. And your fear for the child was greater even than your self-concern.

You want to give Kit a normal childhood with normal beliefs, and it is normal to sense the operation of spiritual force in life. But owing to a punitive history you've lost that awareness and cannot regain it via sectarian paths, you say. So, for advice, perhaps Thomas Troward's writings may guide you back to the Kingdom of Heaven, which, according to Jesus, "Is within." Published by Robert M. McBride Company, New York City. Troward's two best-known books are "The Creative Process in the Individual" and "The Edinburg Lectures on Mental Science."

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Lubbock Evening Journal.

Catholics In Session Here

Inspirational messages on the theme, "Today's World, Challenge to the Catholic Woman," parish reports, an election of officers and a luncheon featured an annual Lubbock district meeting of Amarillo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, at Hotel Lubbock Tuesday. Fifty-four women were present.

Elected were: Mrs. Earl Drerup of Littlefield, president; Mrs. Tom Annen of Nazareth, vice president; Mrs. A. C. Mann of Littlefield, secretary; Mrs. Joe Harter, parliamentarian.

Retiring officers were: Mesdames Robert Farrier, president, J. V. Beauchamp, vice president; S. J. Neyland, secretary and Leo Witkowski, parliamentarian.

Representatives from the following parishes gave reports: Mrs. John McGarr, Holy Family, Nazareth; Mrs. Drerup, Sacred Heart, Littlefield; Mrs. Frank Weil, St. Alice, Plainview; a Mrs. Farschon, St. Joseph, Slaton; Mrs. J. C. Martin, St. Elizabeth, Lubbock.

Rev. T. D. O'Brien of Slaton, district moderator, in his message reminded the women of their responsibility as "queens of the home." He urged reading of the Bible "in order that we can give reason for the faith that is in us." A warning was given against false "isms" of the day.

Addresses Group

Rev. William F. Blakeslee, C. S. P., of St. Elizabeth's church, gave the main address on "A Spiritual Challenge to the Catholic Women."

Following a recess, a skit, "A Grand Slam for Catholic Action," was given by Mesdames C. W. Ratliff, J. C. Martin, W. E. Klein and C. M. Starkey.

Visiting clergy, in addition to those already mentioned, were Rev. William G. Grangell of St. Gerard's church in San Antonio, Rev. F. M. Higgins, Littlefield; Rev. G. A. Boeckman, pastor of Holy Family church, Nazareth; Rev. Leo Conlin of St. Elizabeth's parish.

Rev. Grangell, who is conducting a mission at St. Joseph's church in Slaton, spoke briefly.

Mrs. J. W. Harter read a report of the Southwest regional conference held in El Paso last winter which was attended by two archbishops, six bishops and 700 delegates.

The next district meeting will be held in Littlefield.

Russians Stop U. S. Vehicles

VIENNA, April 14 (U.P.) — Russian guards began stopping American military vehicles on the road to the Tulln airport 14 miles northkest of Vienna about 1:30 p. m. (6:30 a. m. CST) today.

Police reported by telephone from the scene that two armed Soviet soldiers went on duty at the check point on the international highway to the American-operated airport.

Identity Checked

The guards at once began checking the identity of vehicles at the station set up yesterday near Kahlenbergerdorf. The policeman who answered the telephone at the scene said he could give no further information by phone.

The Soviet check on traffic between Tulln and Vienna was another in a series of moves against the Americans and British in Austria. They were similar to the Russian campaign against the western powers in Germany, where the occupation setup was the same.

British military trains were permitted for the second straight day to clear without delay a Russian check point at Semmering, 50 miles southwest of Vienna.

LOST 47 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful, in fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger.

Barcentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is Proof

"When I started taking Barcentrate, I weighed 212 pounds and wore size 46 dresses. Now I wear size 18 and weigh 165 pounds. I started taking Barcentrate in March and by June I had lost 47 pounds. I would have lost more weight had I left off fattening foods, but I was anemic at that time and afraid to diet. People who knew me before I started taking Barcentrate are amazed at the weight I have lost. My flesh is firm; I have never become flabby or wrinkled and I am 40 years old.

"Before taking Barcentrate I couldn't do my house work without becoming exhausted; had dizzy spells and my head and back hurt me constantly. I was so short winded, I was miserable. But now all those things have gone and it is really a pleasure to do the chores I once dreaded.

"Three years ago I nearly died with Typhus fever and it left me anemic and I could never get my blood count up again or get back my energy. After taking Barcentrate my blood count started up and is now normal. So you see why I praise Barcentrate so highly and recommend it. Any praise I can give Barcentrate is small compared to the relief and happiness it has brought me."—Mrs. Eula Whitehead, 509 Harmon, Corpus Christi, Texas.

At All Druggists

The above is one of hundreds of amazing endorsements we have received.

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe, easy way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

New Communist Blasts Against U. S. Sharpen Italian Issue

By FRANK BRUTTO
Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME, April 14.—The issue of the United States versus Russia in the bitter Italian election campaign was sharpened up today by new Communist blasts at the American ambassador.

Palmiro Togliatti, the head man of the Italian Communists, filed a complaint with foreign minister Count Carlo Sforza last night about "the continuous intervention of foreign ambassadors in our election campaign.

He didn't name anyone, but there was little doubt that he was referring to U. S. Ambassador James C. Dunn, who has been very active in recent months, making speeches to mark arrivals of the hundreds of American aid ships to Italy. In his speeches he has talked about U. S. policy towards Italy, Europe and the world.

Togliatti already has called Dunn by name in other complaints. On March 6 he accused Dunn of having made a political speech at Reggio Di Calabria in southern Italy. Dunn, speaking at the arrival of the 400th aid ship, said then that Italian progagandists were trying to make Italians believe that Italy paid for U. S. aid.

"Let me say," Togliatti said the next day, "that he (Dunn) is not authorized to interfere in Italian elections."

Togliatti asked Sforza if he didn't think it was scandalous that the Italian government lets foreign ambassadors intervene in the campaign.

Other Communists campaigners are finding the mountains of American aid hard to explain away.

Not Against Aid

Some of them have back tracked on the subject. At Florence last night Mauro Scoccimarro, Communist and former finance minister, declared:

"It is not true that we are against American aid."

The Communist-line newspaper, La Republica, spread a double banner over statements it said Henry Wallace made in Chicago and declared:

"America cannot suspend aid even if the popular (Communist dominated) front wins."

La Republica also carried a story purporting to quote a Boston Herald story in which it was said $20,000,000 had been spent for Italian elections. In the same issue, said La Republica, a story was carried saying American aid included rubber clubs for Christian Democrat street squads.

Communists Charged

Winding up his campaign in Italy's leftist north, Premier Alcide De Gasperi said at Milan last night he has documentary proof of a Cominform meeting, called by Russian Col. Gen. A. A. Zhdanov to checkmate the Marshall aid plan. He said this meeting was slated to synchronize French and Italian communist action, and that it was responsible for the Communist agitation of the past several months.

Speakers for the government continued to talk strongly for the Marshall plan.

Among them were Randolfo Pacciardi, vice premier, and Interior Minister Mario Scelba.

Bicycle Tests Are Begun At Schools

The first phase in the Lubbock Bicycle club's campaign to promote safety among bicycle riders in the city was completed Tuesday evening.

Approximately 1,565 boys and girls in the public schools had completed safety lane tests on Monday and Tuesday, and many of these students had completed inspections of their bicycles and received their Bicycle club membership cards.

Acting under arrangements made by J. W. Reed of the Public Schools safety department, bicycle safety lanes were set up and conducted at the various schools. Tests were conducted at six schools Monday and at seven schools on Tuesday.

Tests and inspections were conducted by Sgt. Harold McInroe, Sergeant J. T. Alley, Patrolman George Wilkes and Patrolman Tom Everheart of the Lubbock Police department, State Highway patrolmen John McVean and Sam Fort, and approximately 120 Boy Scouts of troops 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 19, 96, 100, 103 and Exp. Post 10.

A bicycle parade is scheduled for 10 a.m., Saturday, May 1, and bicycle races will be held at Chapman field at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 2.

Participating in the safety program are the City Recreational department, Lubbock Police department, State Highway patrol, Boy's club, Boy Scouts and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Metropolitan Opening In Los Angeles Profitable But Quiet

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, April 14 (AP)—After a 43-year absence, the Metropolitan Opera company of New York came back to Los Angeles last night for an enthusiastic but un-Hollywood-like opening.

A sellout crowd of more than 6,000 packed the cavernous Shrine auditorium to hear a rousing performance of "Carmen" with Rise Stevens in the lead. The event brought out more top hats and tiaras than have been seen here in years.

The premiere was remarkably restrained for these parts. Searchlights, grandstands and other trappings of film events wee missing.

No Tricks

No hi-jinks marked the premiere. There was no head standing in the lobby. There were dowagers aplenty but none put her leg on the table.

Although most of the orchestra section was populated by society, the film colony was in evidence Among those sighted were Glenn Ford and Eleanor Powell; Ella Raines, Audrey Totter, Charles Coburn, Ann Sothern, Marie McDonald, Greer Garson with George Jessel, George Murphy, John Carroll with Dorothy Kirsten and Kathryn Grayson and Johnny Johnston.

The Met gave up coming to Los Angeles after an unprofitable visit in 1905. It need have no fears in the future. The current two-week engagement is already in the black, and several performances are sold out. The visit is sponsored by Greater Los Angeles Plans, Inc., a civic group which hopes to build an opera house for future Met engagements.

The Met next moves its double trainload of culture to Denver.

It announced those officers would apply before July 1 for three-year tours of duty. Those who do not apply will be out of the Air Force not later than October 1.

These "civilian component" officers who received Air Force commissions during the war are reservists, national guardsmen and men who received temporary commissions as officers of the "Air Force of the United States," a non-regular category.

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — On top of a war scare and the general strain of confused living in the nation's capital, the federal population has found a new cause for jitters.

For the past 16 years employment conditions for government workers have been exceedingly stable. Now, however, the chances of there being a flock of new bosses around after the election next November seem to be getting bigger every day.

The big question is just what will a new President mean to the 2,000,000 or so federal employes.

Many Are Protected

Approximately 95 per cent of all U. S. employes are now protected by civil service laws. The only way a new President could affect their jobs would be by drastically cutting down the size of the government.

There has been talk of the possibility of a legal gimmick which could be used. An agency could be abolished by Congress and immediately recreated under a new act. This would void an employe's legal status in that agency and they could all be fired. It is doubtful if a new President would try this.

Included in the 5 per cent who aren't under civil service are persons working for the Tennessee Valley Authority, assistant U. S. district attorneys, members of commissions and federal judges appointed for specific terms, county agricultural agents, etc. Some of these jobs would be used for patronage purposes. Some carry fixed terms and many aren't worth the trouble of changing.

Top 2000 Most Worried

The most important jobs with that 5 per cent, however, are the ones which constitute the real core of a President's policy-making, operating administration. These include cabinet posts, the assistant secretaries and under secretaries, most bureau chiefs and the top diplomats.

It is estimated that there are about 2000 such key, inner-circle positions now in the federal government. The President usually knows the holders of these jobs personally. He helps select them or at least passes upon their fitness. Some of these appointments have to be approved by the Senate. They are the men he must trust to carry out his broad policies.

So it is really the holders of these 2000 jobs today who are most worried about the possibilities of President Truman's chances for re-election. Their jobs are at stake.

But the cause for job worries isn't necessarily limited to the 2000. The top level civil service employes know that a new secretary or assistant secretary couldn't legally fire them. But they could have their authority taken away, be assigned unpleasant jobs, or worse still, just be given nothing to do. This has happened. The top civil service workers do vital work, too. They sometimes help in making policy and many have access to the President and advise him.

Inheritance For President

This whole question by no means is a source of worry only to federal employes. In case of a change of administration it would be the new President who would have the real worry under the federal government set-up as it exists today. He has to change the course of the giant, ponderous 2,000,000-man machine which is the executive branch of the government with the help of only 2000 men who probably never had experience in government service before.

If there is a new President for the next term, students of government will be very interested to see just how much he will be able to influence or change the course of the government.

He will be stepping into a unique situation. No previous President has ever inherited such a giant organization to try to run in the first place, except President Truman who was really not stepping into the job cold. And second, a new President will have less help on his side to do the job in relation to its size than any previous President.

Most of the job of changing the course of the government is not a question of changing laws. It is a question of changing the administration of the executive branch.

Convict, Tired Of Freedom, Gives Up

SWEETWATER, April 14 (U.P.)—After two months of eluding officers, Harvey Lee Glass, escaped convict, surrendered last night.

Glass, who escaped from Darrington prison farm early in February with two companions, gave himself up to Sheriff Will Sample of Nolan county shortly before midnight.

The fugitive explained that he was tired of evading the law. He said he had been working in Brownwood since his escape.

His companions, Cecil Chester Davis and John Thomas Rawlings, were captured in a gun battle in Colorado City a few days after the break.

Story Of Negro Who Made Fortune, Built Hospital Will Be Broadcast To Italians

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14 (AP)—Italians will be told Saturday how a junk business and a serious illness combined to provide negroes with a $431 thousand dollar hospital here.

This story will be described on the State department's "voice of America" broadcast to prove to Italians that negroes have opportunities in America.

Communists have discounted free enterprise in America in propaganda designed to sway April 18 Italian elections to their side.

Reaps Fortune

W. J. Edwards, 55-year-old negro junk dealer of Oklahoma City, reaped a fortune in the junk business.

His 50-year-old wife was stricken with a serious illness. The only hospital in Oklahoma City available to her had only one ward crowded with five other negro patients.

It was impossible for her to receive treatment under those conditions so she was flown to Mayo Bros., Rochester, Minn.

Sunday, April 18, a 105-bed hospital, patterned after the Mayo clinic, will be dedicated in Oklahoma City and on the same day Italians will vote in their crucial election.

Furthermore part of the cost of construction of the hospital was provided by Uncle Sam—some $42 thousand dollars. The Edwards paid the rest. They even took up duties as foremen to speed up construction which started 18 months ago.

If all the oil wells drilled by U.S. oil companies in 1947 could have been placed end to end, they would have passed through the earth two and one-half times.

Red Cross To Open First Aid Courses

Red Cross standard and advanced first aid courses will open this week, it was announced Tuesday.

A standard first aid course to be taught by Ceril Batton, assisted by James B Wynn, will open Thursday night at Lubbock Memorial hospital. A group of nurses will attend and anyone else interested may make arrangements to attend, the Red Cross office announced.

An advanced first aid course, primarily for highway patrolmen, will be taught by J. R. Whitmire, patrolman, beginning Friday night. Persons planning to direct camps, those who work with Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts or other leaders who might need advanced first aid instruction may make arrangements to attend.

Those interested in either course were asked to telephone the Red Cross office, 8534.

TWO ARE SENTENCED

SHREVEPORT, La., April 14. (AP)—Edgar Frank Hamilton, 23-year-old army private from San Angelo, Tex., and Samuel Lee Duncan, 20, who was stationed at Barksdale Army air base, pleaded guilty to a charge of armed robbery in Caddo district court yesterday. Each was sentenced to serve six years in the state penitentiary.

The giant tortoise of the New York zoological garden is America's oldest inhabitant. It is more than 200 years old.

Change In Administration Is A Cause For Capital Jitters

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

This is one time we're glad we didn't go out on the limb and predict the outcome of J. D. Kirkpatrick's and Bill Henderson's first fight. If we had, we would have called J. D. for a knockout in the second round and Bill for a decision in four. As it was, J. D. fulfilled our fondest hope, while Bill surpassed our best hopes in winning by a first-round knockout. The Levelland Larruper carries a lot of punch in his fists.

• • •

Both boys have a long way to go before they reach their goal, but such scintillating performances in their first professional fight means that they have something on the ball. They didn't have to demonstrate that they can take it, for last night they emphasized dishing it out. And they did a wonderful job of that. After their showing last night, both boys should be even more confident and eager to learn, which is as it should be.

• • •

Henderson hadn't been getting worked very much and we were slightly dubious about his chances. We asked Bert Kahn about it and he said not to worry, that the trainer knew what he was doing and what the temperament of each boy was. Last night's results bore him out in that observation. J. D. was brought up to fighting pitch by fighting a lot in the gym, while the same effect was achieved with Bill by working him lightly. What a pair they make!

• • •

Bill ended the career this week of what was a promising featherweight in the camp. He and the other boy were sparring with 12 ounce gloves, when Bill unloosed one of his rights flush to the jaw. The other boy went down and was so obviously ready for the kill that the camp hands stopped the sparring. Afterwards, a group discussion decided the fighter's mind and he returned to the farm. And if J. D. keeps hitting the heavyweight so easily with his right, another career may be ending.

• • •

The Hubbers looked a lot better last night and a bigger crowd than usual seemed to agree. Even with Al Smith going to second and Jackie Sullivan taking shortstop, the Hubbers didn't appear to be weakened. And Floyd Walker, a catcher, did a nice job on first in the absence of Virgil Richardson. Charles Scarborough had little opportunity to demonstrate his fielding ability, making two routine catches and an error, the latter caused by the rough outfield and his unfamiliarity with it. At the same time, he hit solidly twice, getting a double and a homer.

• • •

Marvin Alexander looked more promising than most of the rookie hurlers as he warmed up before the game and the Hubbers could use some steady hurling. Another pitcher is on the way and things are beginning to look a little brighter. There is no question that the mound staff this year holds the answer to the Lubbock team and its chances, even though the outfield is likely to bash the ball solidly and often. Last night, for example, three outfielders collected six of the 15 hits and they were good for 15 of the 30 base-total the Hubbers compiled. Three homers, three doubles and a single ain't hay, mac.

• • •

The Hubbers now are looking forward to opening day, when the Clovis Pioneers will be here. The management is making plans for an even larger crowd on opening day than the one that captured attendance cups the past two years. If you haven't seen the display in the Hub Clothiers window, do so. And then go in and buy a ticket for opening day. It was the dream of the late Sam Rosenthal, expressed to this writer and many others, that he would see the Lubbock Hubbers return the cup for the third consecutive year and establish a league record. Amarillo is after the cup in earnest this year and Lubbock fans, if they want the honor of retaining their prize, should lose no time in getting their tickets for the opening game.

Hubs Beat Borger, Play Clovis Today

Manager Jackie Sullivan takes his Lubbock Hubbers to Clovis, N. M., today for an afternoon game with the Pioneers of the West Texas-New Mexico league, after shaking off the doldrums last night at Rosenthal field.

As presumed earlier, the Hubbers had their batting form back again after Sunday's debacle against Amarillo, the local crew smashing out 15 hits good for a total of 30 bases. And leading the assault was Chick Fowler, who collected a single, double and home run in four trips.

Mills Steps In

Royce Mills also did a turnabout from Sunday, going in for Bob Clodfelter in the first inning and pitching more than creditably to win his game. Mills rocked along in almost faultless fashion, although he was in trouble once or twice.

Today's test against the Pioneers should give the Hubbers more poise, even though pitching is a question mark. Manager Sullivan was undecided last night on who would go to the mound, for almost all his hurlers have come up with sore arms. First choice probably will be Lefty Herby Pitts, the Oklahoma Indian, who has looked like promising material, although Marvin Alexander arrived from Dallas yesterday.

Four Runs In First Inning

The Hubbers went to work in business-like fashion last night, banging out four runs on four hits in the first frame, aided by an error. Climax of the canto was a booming homer over the netting on the left field fence from the bat of Charles Scarborough, making his first appearance in Hubber livery.

Borger threatened in the second, when they scored their only run. Bob Ferguson was hit by Mills, advanced to second on a pass to Clayton Fries and came in on M. A. Jobe's single through the box.

Lubbock nullified this on Smith's bingle through the box, a stolen base and Fowler's long double to centerfield in the second inning.

Sullivan Gets Homer

Two more Hubber runs dented the rubber in the fourth. Altizer led off with a walk, Mills sacrificed him to second and he trotted home ahead of Fowler's homer over the left field wire.

The sixth inning merely climaxed the game and hastened the decision to call the game. Twelve batters strode to the plate, seven hit safely and seven runs counted. Scarborough and Frank Boothe banged out doubles and Sullivan collected a left field wall homer.

It wasn't much of a game and the sprinkling of fans began leaving before the game ended. A chill wind kept down attendance, but those who were there saw an improved Hubber nine, topped by Mills' hurling. In his 6 1/3 innings, the game little hurler struckout 10, walked five and kept the Borger hitters guessing on a sharp-breaking curve.

DIAMOND DUST: Scarborough made an impressive debut, hitting the first pitch in his first time at bat as a Hubber over the wire in left field. . . . Al Smith and Jackie Sullivan give promise of making a great double-play combination. . . . Clayton Frics (pronounced freeze) was the final batter of the game, by which time his name was appropriate. . . . Fowler made a complete circuit of the bases on the second baseman's error of his grounder in the sixth inning. . . . Clodfelter had to leave the game in the first inning because of a sore muscle in his throwing arm. . . . And Pitcher King caught a line drive off the bat of Walker near his neck, sending him out of the game in the first frame.

Kirk And Bill Win In Debuts

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 14. (Special)—Quiet settled down on the Jersey City Garden here last night, but only after Bill Henderson of Levelland, Tex., and J. D. Kirkpatrick of Petersburg, Tex., had made impressive debuts via the knockout route.

Henderson, fighting as a featherweight and weighing 131, wasted no time in completing his night's work, chilling Matty McLain of Newark, N. J., in 1:25 of the first round. McLain weighed 128.

Kirkpatrick, a light heavyweight and weighing 168, tarried a little longer before rocking Bob Jackson of Brooklyn, N. Y., to sleep in 2:25 of the second round. Jackson weighed 170.

Showing plenty of class, Henderson dropped McLain three times with terrific righthand smashes to the jaw, before putting the Newark lad away for keeps.

Henderson Gets Knockout

With all the poise of a veteran, the Levelland belter lost little time going to work on McLain. Boxing smartly, Henderson worked for his opening. After a half minute had gone by, Bill connected with a right hander to McLain's chin. Down went McLain, but managed to get up at the count of nine. Realizing he had his opponent in bad shape, Henderson went right after McLain and immediately floored him again for another nine-count. McLain got up, but was on his way to the canvas once more a few seconds later. Once again McLain managed to get to his feet at the count of nine. Then came the kill.

Two left jabs set up the New Jersey lad and then Henderson crossed a right hand smash that caught McLain flush on the chin and the latter went down for keeps this time, Referee Tommy Elm counting him out.

Kirkpatrick Drops Foe

Kirkpatrick, displaying a sharp righthand, had little trouble disposing of Jackson, a colored boy, in the second round.

The Petersburg puncher had Jackson in bad shape during the first round, flooring him twice for counts of seven, but was unable to connect for the clincher until late in the next round.

Midway in the opening stanza, Kirkpatrick dropped Jackson with a righthand for a count of seven and a few seconds later sent the Brooklyn boy to the canvas again for the same count. Despite the fact that he hammered Jackson at will, Kirkpatrick was unable to drop him again that round.

The Texas Tiger had things his way during the next heat and finally drove home a vicious righthand smash to the jaw and Jackson sagged to the deck and was counted out by Referee Joe Kugal.

MEET CHANGES REVEALED

DALLAS, April 14 (AP)—A doubles team from Albuquerque, N. M., and Des Moines, Iowa, accounted for the only major change in position in doubles and singles of the Women's International Bowling congress tournament Tuesday.

Coach Resigns At Abernathy

ABERNATHY, April 14. (Special)—The local high school board was in the market today for a new football and basketball coach, following the resignation yesterday of Louis Purvis, who has held those positions here during the past year.

Coach Purvis, in a surprise action, handed in his resignation and the school board accepted it without prejudice. Announcement of the move was made immediately by Fred Miller, superintendent of schools.

Effective On May 21

The resignation will become effective on May 21, the last day of the second term.

Coach Purvis indicated that he might desert coaching ranks entirely and enter business. He did not say exactly what he would do, but it has been felt for some time that he would rather not remain in coaching.

No successor has been named and there is no one under consideration at the present time, Supt. Miller declared.

Coach Purvis graduated from Howard Payne college in 1938 and turned immediately to coaching. He served as an assistant for the early years of his career, leaving Rule High school in 1942 to enter the navy.

He served in the navy for three years, going to Crowell High school as head coach in 1945. Coach Purvis spent two years in Crowell and then came here in 1947.

Last year his football team, handicapped by loss of veteran material, won only two games, while losing seven. His basketball team fared better, winning 18 tilts and dropping nine.

Coach Purvis also taught science and physical education, in addition to his coaching duties.

Westerners Defeat Tech Independents

Two hits and a flurry of errors by the Texas Tech Independents gave the improving Lubbock High Westerner nine a 5-0 triumph in a five-inning practice tussle Tuesday afternoon at the Chapman field diamond.

The Westerners pushed one run across the plate in the second frame, then iced the victory in the fourth stanza with four more tallies. High school hurlers Denny Davidson and Lefty Jackie Martin shut out the Techsans in an impressive early-season exhibition of pitching form.

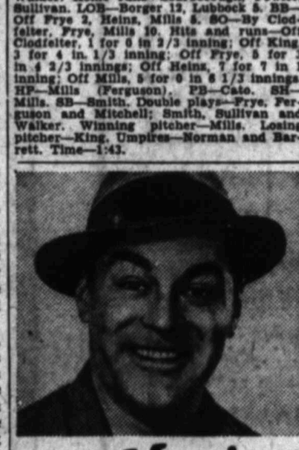

Tech's starting hurler, Jack Bennett, did not give up a single hit in his four-inning stint, but Jim Eddins, who followed him on the mound, was touched for two safe blows. The miscues by the Independents proved the margin of victory, however.

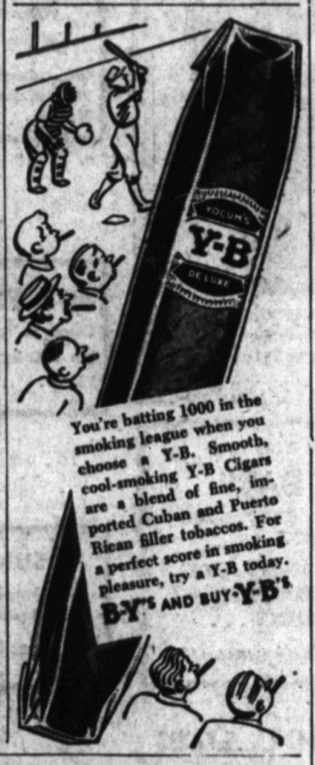

The Westerner nine will journey to Levelland Thursday afternoon for a practice tilt with the Lobo diamond hopefuls, then will play a return game here Friday afternoon.

Softball Play Starts With Doubleheader Tuesday Night

Play in the South Plains Softball league got underway last night at Jumbo Webster field with Thomas Jewelers and Bluebonnet-Sunbeam laundries scoring victories in a twin bill against Baldridge Bakery and Cloverlake Dairy, respectively.

GAMES SLATED THURSDAY

The second twin bill in the South Plains Softball league will be unveiled Thursday night, beginning at 8 o'clock at Webster field, with Sunbeam vs. Baldridge in the first game, Thomas Jewelers vs. Golden Light Coffee in the nightcap.

The Jewelers downed Baldridge Bakery, 1-0, in a game which netted a combined total of only five hits.

In the nightcap, the Sunbeamers rapped out five hits for seven runs and a 7-1 victory over Cloverlake Dairy.

Opening night ceremonies featured the traditional first-ball toss, with Chief of Police Louis Kittrell on the mound and Roy Forkner, Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce president, behind the plate. Kittrell took an elaborate windup, sending a high pitch to the plate. For the benefit of a photographer and cheering fans, Kittrell threw another, this time a pitch that hit the ground in front of the plate. Forkner proved his worth by catching both tosses.

The small crowd that braved chilly weather to see the double bill was treated to the rather rare spectacle of witnessing a total of 43 strikeouts, 19 of them rendered by Jackie Neel, on the mound for Sunbeam.

Baldridge's Pitcher Loy Hubbard allowed three hits, striking out 12 Jeweler batsmen. G. W. Warden, on the mound for the Jewelers, hurled shutout ball, allowed two hits, struck out nine batters.

Thomas Jewelers got its run in the two-hit fourth frame with Warden rapping a triple into left centerfield after two mates were out. He crossed the plate for the only run of the game on Rieger's single.

It remained for the nightcap affair to steal the spotlight, with Neel, after a hectic first-inning start, whiffing thirteen men in succession, then walking the fourteenth batter, then again resuming his excellent mound work with three more strike outs. A single by pinch-hitter Ballard in the seventh stopped the strikeout spree temporarily. Then came three more to go down before Neel's amazing variety of tosses. The hurler's repertoire included lobbing insiders, and relatively slow curves that soared over the outside edge of the plate. Seldom did he show evidence of speed ball tossing.

Sunbeam was trailing, 1-0, at the end of the second inning, but an erratic third frame gave them five runs. The Sunbeamers added a tally each in the fifth and seventh frames.

Cloverlake had gained its one-run advantage in the first stanza when Neel walked Third Baseman Laymon, with Laymon moving to second when Bennett, who followed him, getting to first on an error. Vernon Ray, third man to face Neel, singled to bring in Cloverlake's only run.

In Sunbeam's half of the fifth, Cecil Hale, on the mound for Cloverlake, started off by hitting the first three men to face him. With the sacks filled, Shortstop Ralph Earhart bumped a slow infield roller that went for a single and brought in a run. Earhart and two others later scored on Floyd Lawhorn's base-clearing triple.

Fans could gain little insight into the relative strength of last night's teams, since the chilly weather gave an obvious advantage to the hurlers. Batters complained, with some justification, that chill winds contributed to their poor showing at the plate. Fielding was more than creditable, however, with only eight miscues in the entire contest.

Sweetwater Outlasts Lamesa In 7-Inning Scrap 15 To 14

LAMESA, April 14. (Special)—Sweetwater's Mustangs outlasted Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes, 15-14, in a District 3-AA baseball tilt here Tuesday afternoon at Lobo field. The game was called after seven innings by agreement of both nines.

The loss was the second district defeat of the year for the Lamesans, who staged a desperate sixth inning rally in an effort to regain the lead.

The Tornadoes' barrage in the sixth was highlighted by Third Baseman Larry Lattimore's circuit clout, which pulled Lamesa into a 10-10 tie with the visitors.

The Mustangs came back, however, in the seventh frame to gather five runs, which gave them the necessary edge. Lamesa wasn't through, however, after the Mustang rally, because the locals came back in the final stanze to drive in four more runs, just one short of knotting the score again.

Lattimore Led Hitting

Jerry Phillips was on the mound for Lamesa, and, although he was credited with the loss, it's a safe bet the fans were pleased with his performance. Phillips fanned six batters, and whacked a two-run triple in a five-frame relief role.

Lattimore was the game's hitting star with three safeties, one a double. In the miscue department, Lamesa made nine, Sweetwater four.

Texas League Starts Today, May Test Major Connections

By WERNER RENBERG
United Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, April 14—Eight Texas league baseball clubs begin the quest for the 1948 pennant today.

It will be interesting to see how the league's two independents fare against those working with—or owned by—major league teams

It will be interesting to see which major league teams treat their Texas league farms the best.

Last year Shreveport was the only independent. Now Dallas is, too. The trend seems to be towards breaking up major league ties. Maybe that's not exactly true in an AA league, but it is in the lesser leagues.

Believe Can Do Better

Lower classification clubs believe they can do better to go out and get their own players instead of waiting for hand-me-downs from higher-ranking teams.

Major league teams as a rule stand by their Texas league farms in varying degrees.

Treated best are Fort Worth and Houston. Fort Worth is in the Brooklyn chain; Houston is in the St. Louis Cardinal system.

Fort Worth always manages to get a good supply of young ball players. These kids have lots of hustle. And they usually make the Cowtown gang a winning team. So Fort Worth fans are happy. The Dodgers are happy because polishing in this league virtually readies players for the big show. They take up the players after the season and fill their places with a new crop each spring.

Same Holds For Houston

The same holds true for Houston. In recent years, the Buffs have readied for the Cardinals numerous pitchers. The latest are Clarence Beers and Al Papai. Howie Pollett, Dizzy Dean, Murray Dickson, and Fredy Martin are a few of past years. The Texas league has proved itself as a pitcher's league, a proving ground of major league stars.

At the opposite end of the ladder is Tulsa, or so it looks now. The Oilers just broke off relations with the Chicago Cubs. The trouble seemed to be that the Cubs had too many other clubs of the same or higher classification to satisfy. Now Cincinnati has bought Tulsa. And it's not certain what will happen. For Cincinnati also has to feed Syracuse, an AAA club. Al Vincent, the new Tulsa manager, is just as much in the dark as anybody else. He says he's new in the Cincinnati system and doesn't know what to expect either.

Exporters And Yanks

The New York Yankees may be world champions. But that doesn't even stir a ripple in Beaumont. The Exporters have an agreement with the Yanks. But they have been treated like step children. Beaumont wound up in the cellar last year. Prospects for 1948 are no better.

Oklahoma City furnished Cleveland the Texas league's leading hitters for two years in a row. Maybe Cleveland will start paying dividends.

San Antonio has the good will of the St. Louis Browns. The Brownies put a $750,000 ball park in the Missions' stocking last Christmas. They should know that Santone is a good baseball town and may treat the Padres accordingly.

Depends On Majors

Upon these major league teams will depend the outcome of this year's pennant scramble. If they are willing to be good to their Texas league cousins, the non-independents could be too storng for the independents. But if they strain players through a sieve and supply other leagues better, Dallas and Shreveport—whose owners have lots of sheckles with which to deal—will be mighty tough to handle.

From the looks of things, Fort Worth and Houston will continue to benefit by their entanglements with the majors. They are in the networks of shrewd operators. One or two of the others may become dissatisfied and join the ranks of the independents — or change ties—at the end of the season.

Opening games with anticipated attendance and probably starting pitchers (times are Central Standard):

Houston at Beaumont, 3:30 p. m. (7,500)—Cloyd Boyer (16-9) vs Carl Ray (9-13); umpires—Chester Fowler, Albert Atkins and Frenchy Arceneaux.

Oklahoma City at Fort Worth, 8:15 p. m. (10,000)—Ed Garcia (17-10) vs. Carl Erskine (19-9); umpires—Perry Hunter, Buster Capps and Carl Sandt.

Shreveport at San Antonio, 8 p. m. (6,500)—Russ Meers (2-0) vs John Pavlick (5-13); umpires—Mike Williamson, Andy Andrews and Ernest Gigliello.

Tulsa at Dallas, 8:15 p. m. (12,000)—Harry Perkowski (17-12) vs Quentin Altizer (13-9); umpires—Bill Wilson, Milt Steengrafe and Fred Sigler.

European Fighters Tie American Squad

CHICAGO, April 14 (AP) — An eight-man European team of well-trained amateur boxers surprised a sell-out Chicago stadium crowd of 20,650 last night by tying the American squad in the international Golden Gloves tournament.

Each group won four bouts in the fights. Since the Americans have been competing against European champions since 1937, the overall score now stands 27 bouts to 21 for the U. S. amateurs.

Rough Rassle Card On Tap

Rough and rowdy wrestling ought to feature the mat show at Sled Allen's arena tonight, when such famed exponents of the catch as catch can art as the Masked Marvel, Ray "Big Train" Clements, Ace Abbott, Pat O'Dowdy and Dr. Gil Knutson tangle, along with one of the heftier wrestlers, Jack Wentworth of Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Knutson has been handed over the mantel recently resting on Ace Freeman and will attempt to pin the Marvel tonight in the final main feature, while Wentworth meets Clements, more or less a local boy in the other half of the main go. Abbott and O'Dowdy will grapple in the preliminary.

The main go threatens to be as good a match as has been scheduled at the arena for several weeks, with Dr. Knutson meeting his match in the Marvel. Last week the Iowa grappler showed that he could get mean when he wanted to, while the Marvel has done nothing but be rough for three weeks.

Clements hasn't been in Lubbock for several months, but his absence probably will not have changed his bad temper and he may have learned a few more tricks of the grunt and groan profession. Wentworth looked impressive last week in his debut and the match should be a good one. Both main features will be two out of three falls with one hour time limits.

Abbott is no stranger to Lubbock mat fans, nor is O'Dowdy Abbott is a cleaner wrestler, while O'Dowdy delights in rough stuff. Both are adept grapplers and a good match is anticipated

Tickets go on sale at 9 a. m. at Wylie's Drug store and the first match starts at 8:15 p. m.

Bowling Tourney To Close Here Sunday

The second and final week end of bowling in the Lubbock City Bowling tournament will come to a close Sunday afternoon at the Lubbock Bowling club lanes, when keglers will vie in the singles and doubles portion of the meet.

The singles and doubles teams will alternate on the alleys, with the first pair of keglers hitting the lanes at 1 p. m. Other duos will roll at 3, 5, 7 and 9 p. m., with single matches going on at 2, 4, 6, 8 and one at 9 p. m. to complete the day's activities.

Team bowling was completed this past Sunday at the Plamor lanes, with the Lubbock Bowling club quintet walking off with first place. They were followed by the V. F. W. team and the Jaycees.

Scores posted in the singles, doubles and team events will be totaled and the all-events winners will be named at the completion of bowling Sunday night.

The public is invited to watch the keglers in action and the tourney is sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress.

Two Ring Deaths Stir Fight States

State Boxing Commissions Adopt New Safety Measures

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 14.—Spurred into action by two ring deaths within a week early this year, boxing commissions throughout the country are applying new safety measures to the sport.

Seven states where boxing thrives—California, Illinois, Washington, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and New York—recently have taken steps to protect fighters.

Others Consider Changes

Others have changes under consideration.

Most of the tighter regulations follow, in part, the 23-point program recommended last month by the National Boxing association.

They call for heavier gloves, stricter examinations and suspension of fighters who hit the deck too regularly. A popular change is the rule requiring an eight-count after each knockdown regardless of how eager the victim is to resume the fray.

The safety measures began mushrooming after the death in Chicago of Sam Bardoudi following a bout with Ezzard Charles Feb. 20 and the fatality a week later of Leroy De Catur in Hollywood, Calif.

Rule On Knockdown

Washington, Wisconsin and California have all adopted the eight-count knockdown rule. Washington and Wisconsin have decided that a fighter who has been knocked out must remain on the shelf for 30 days and then undergo a strict examination before entering the ring again.

Washington's state athletic commission, acting yesterday, also made changes calling for suspension of any fighter knocked out six times in a row or six times within six months.

Riggs Says Kramer Tough Opponent

MINNEAPOLIS, April 14 (U.P.)—Bobby Riggs, the world's professional tennis king, admitted today that challenger Jack Kramer is the best man he ever played on an indoor court.

Riggs added ruefully, unless they play on an outdoor court pretty soon, he's likely to lose his title.

"I've played 'em all," flashy little Bobby grinned. "But that one-two punch of Kramer's tops anything I've ever been up against."

Riggs had plenty of tennis experts, as well as statistics to back him up. In their current 85-game American tour, Kramer leads 47 to 18, including 32 victories in the last 37 matches.

Beesley Is Miser On Pitching Mound

COLLEGE STATION, April 14 k—Earl Beesley is a miser on the pitching mound.

A little better than one-third of a hit an inning—that's what the Texas A. and M. hurler is allowing.

Nine hits in 25 1-3 innings.

His great pitching has turned the Aggies into a red-hot contender for the Southwest conference baseball championship.

Beesley's record reads like this: He held Texas to six hits in nine innings.

He blanked Baylor on one hit in nine innings.

He entered the second Baylor game long enough to fan the final batter on three pitches, thereby quelling a rally and saving the victory.

He shut out Rice on two hits the seven innings he toiled.

That gives the opposition a total of nine hits in four games and that's all the games the Aggies have played in the conference. The 5-4 defeat by Texas is the lone blotch.

Beesley also has slipped the third strike by 26 batsmen.

The next test comes Friday night in Rebel stadium at Dallas. Beesley will be pitching in his home city against Southern Methodist, which, like Texas and Baylor, was a pre-season favorite to finish the conference race ahead of A. & M.

Goff Quits Job To Take Dallas Place

WICHITA FALLS, April 14 (U.P.) Bobby Goff said today he has resigned as business manager of the Wichita Falls baseball team to become first assistant to the new president of the Dallas Rebels.

A veteran player, Goff will be an aide to W. R. Burnett, Gladewater millionaire-oilman, who bought the Dallas club last week.

Umps Ordered To Be Lenient

COLUMBUS, O., April 14. (U.P.)—American association umpires this year will let irate players and managers scream for a while before giving them "the old heave-ho."

Frank C. Lane, president of the association, told his umpires at a last-minute briefing session yesterday not to be too tough on managers and players because the fans who pay the freight at the box office "come out to see the players perform—not to watch them get sent to the shower."

Can Scream A While

"Let them scream," Lane told the men in blue at their final session before tomorrow's opening. "Then tell them that you are going to walk away and that if they follow you, they will be put out of the game. The responsibility then is on the manager, not on you."

The season opens tomorrow at Columbus, Toledo, Indianapolis and Louisville.

Can Shuck Off Coat

Lane authorized base umpires to abandon their traditional blue coats during the summer months. Prescribed uniform will be a navy blue shirt trimmed in light blue and worn with a light blue necktie. The man behind the plate will continue to wear the regulation blue coat as it has large pockets from which to distribute new balls.

In the conference yesterday, Lane told his umpires to abstain from hard liquor during the season, to know the rules but to reinforce that knowledge by having the rule book at hand at all times.

Favorites Lead In Women's Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C., April 14 (AP)—Medalist Peggy Kirk of Findlay, Ohio, favorite Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., and seven-time winner Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, of Chapel Hill, N. C. led the parade of favorites into the second round of the 46th Annual North and South Women's Golf tournament here Tuesday.

Miss Suggs and Carol Diringer, Tiffin, Ohio, recorded the most one-sided victories, each by a 9 and 7 margin. Miss Suggs' victim was Anne Hotchkiss of New Haven, Conn., and Pinehurst, while Mrs. V. C. Smith, Charleston, W. Va., bowed to Miss Diringer.

Benton Oil Leads In Booster League

Benton Oil keglers closed out the season in the Ladies Booster league this week at Plamor Lanes with three wins over Lubbock Tailoring to retain the first place position in the loop.

Marcel Curlee paced the Oilers with a 182-493 series, while Helen Hinkle led the Tailoring crew with a 182-451.

Lester's Jewelers won two of three games from Hemphill-Wells at Dot Van Sickle tallied a 188-508 series, but Aleene Hilton sparked the Hemphill-Wells crew with a 175-503.

Battle Promised For American Cage Team

LONDON, April 14 (AP) — The United States is favored to win the Olympic basketball championship but seven-foot Bob Kurland and his American teammates are no towers of terror to Europe.

Continental entries among the 27 nations in the cage tournament at the Olympic games here July 29 to Aug. 14 are gearing themselves to give the Americans a battle for the title they won at Berlin in 1936.

"No doubt America will win," said William Browning of London, an authority on basketball over here, "but it won't be a walkover. Europe takes its basketball very seriously."

Argentina is estimated to contain 200,000 square miles of valuable forests.

Sighting Of Planes, Subs Has Military Authorities Worried

By JIM G. LUCAS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 14—The recurring appearance of Russian planes and submarines near American bases has U. S. military authorities worried.

The matter no longer is shrugged off as an 'isolated incident." Several have been reported since March 25, when Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan told Congress three submarines "not belonging to any nation west of the iron curtain" had been sighted near our shores. Since then, it was learned:

Planes Active

1. Russian fighter planes, apparently jets and apparently based in Siberia, "flew rings around" an American B-29 over the Bering straits.

2. Two more foreign submarines have been sighted along the Aleutians chain.

3. Additional sightings have been reported in the Pacific, in areas where there were no American undersea craft at the time.

4. At least one—possibly two—foreign subs have been seen near the U. S. Mediterranean fleet.

Air Force Secretary Stuart Symington revealed the presence of jet Russian fighters in Siberia —26 miles from Alaska at its nearest point—in a closed session of the Senate armed services committee. This was the first positive evidence that Russia is building fighter bases in the far north.

14 Planes

Mr. Symington told the committee, it was learned, that an American B-29, flying over the Bering straits, was picked up by a formation of 14 Russian pursuit ships. He gave no date. At the time, the B-29 was cruising at 240 miles an hour. The Russian planes kept approximately five miles distant and were able to circle the bomber several times without coming closer.

An Air Force spokesman said it was believed the 14 ships were jet fighters, since they attained a speed estimated at 550 to 600 miles an hour. They continued to circle the B-29 until it returned to American soil. The Russian planes then disappeared over the horizon into Siberia where, presumably, they landed on new Russian fighter strips.

Details Vague

Fewer details could be learned about submarine sightings in the Aleutians. A Navy spokesman said there had been "two more" since Mr. Sullivan's testimony on March 25. Earlier, on March 6, Air Force Capt. Robert McNary of Portland, Ore., saw a Russian submarine emerging from Kiska harbor. The Air Force and Navy have so few planes in the Aleutians they are unable to maintain regular patrols and sightings are a matter of chance.

In addition, it was learned, there has been one "completely verified" Russian submarine sighting in the Mediterranean and two in the Pacific. A second reported Mediterranean sighting is listed as "probable."

Russians Have Right

Americans are uncertain what these incidents mean. To date, they are not convinced a pattern of operations exists. No one contends the Russians haven't the right to send their planes and submarines where they choose. At the same time, the practice cannot be ignored.

One high ranking officer said it was curious that all sightings had been in areas where there is no "readily apparent reason" for their presence. One conjecture is that Russia—anticipating several years of peace or cold war—would be likely to send her ships and planes out on training maneuvers. The United States Navy and Air Force do this regularly.

Pilot Is Rescued

TIMBERLINE LODGE, Ore., April 14 (AP) — A ski searching party today rescued an army pilot who survived a crash on 11,245-foot-high Mt. Hood and wandered dazed over the peak's icy slopes.

Sighted from the air on an exposed slope, the pilot, Lt. Edward K. Kahoun of McChord field, Wash., was picked up shortly after noon by a rescue party that had been guided to the scene by the searching planes.

United States families received $2,792,724,000 from their life insurance companies during 1946.

Jap Whalers Chant To Console Whales

TOKYO, April 14 (AP)—Japanese whalers chanted in a Buddhist temple today for the souls of the 1,321 big mammals caught last winter.

"They are not just cold fish," explained one weather-beaten old whaler. "Their souls must be consoled and rest in Nirvana because they are mammals and akin to us."

Boy Fatally Shot With .22 Bullet

GALVESTON, April 14. (AP)—Sewell Taylor, 11, was fatally shot late yesterday when he was sent to tell his brother, Zachary, that it was time for supper.

Zachary told a deputy sheriff.

"I know the boy who shot my brother. He galloped off on a horse."

The deputy, E. E. Jenkins, said he saw a boy riding a horse after the shooting, but that he got away.

The boy had been hit with a bullet from a .22 caliber rifle or pistol.

Korean Session Is Called Off

By ROY ROBERTS
Associated Press Staff Writer

SEOUL, April 14. (AP)—The Soviet backed unity conference of northern and southern Korea political leaders, scheduled in the Russian zone today, has been postponed indefinitely.

The Pyongyang (Soviet zone) radio announced the postponement late last night. South Korea listeners said the broadcast gave no definite reason, but implied that the North Korea sponsors were still waiting to learn whether two prominent South Koreans would attend.

Will Go North

The two, invited by the North Korean democratic people's coalition front, are Rightist Kim Koo and Liberal Kimm Kiu Sic. Kim Koo, once denounced by the Russians for opposing a Russian-American trusteeship, told Korean newsmen today he plans to go north before April 20. He said four other officials of the rightist South Korean Democratic party he heads would go with him.

Kimm said he was ill and would not go.

Invitations to the North Korean conference were extended March 25 to Kim Koo, Kimm and 13 other South Koreans. Most of the others were Communists who oppose plans for forming a Korean government by an election approved and observed by the United Nations. The election has been scheduled in the southern, American occupied zone on May 10. Russians refused to allow the U. N. balloting in the northern zone.

Oppose Elections

Kim and Kimm also opposed the election in the southern zone, contending it might permanently divide Korea.

Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, U. S. occupation commander, last week called the proposed unity conference in the north a Soviet move toward gaining control of all Korea "by fair means or foul."

In a press statement today, Hodge said the registration of 8,000,000 adults, more than 90 percent of the total eligible in South Korea for the May 10 election, "gives the lie to the loud clamor of Communists and their numerous hired mouthpieces who have tried to persuade the United Nations commission and the Korean people that an election is not wanted."

Hoffman's Pay Cut Is $76.000 A Year

NEW YORK, April 14. (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman has quit a $96,000-a-year job to take another which pays $20,000.

Hoffman resigned yesterday as president of the Studebaker corporation to become administrator of the $5,300,000,000 European recovery program. President Truman appointed him to the post last week.

Studebaker's board of directors named board Chairman Harold S. Vance of South Bend, Ind., to serve during Hoffman's absence.

Older than the Constitution, the Third was decommissioned in 1946. It will now provide parade troops for all future Washington ceremonies. Col. J. B. Tires Used For 16 Years Without Flat

WEISER, Idaho, April 14. (AP)—Sixteen years ago the volunteer fire department bought some new tires for their truck.

The day the tires were put on Captain Ross Linderman took over as driver.

Since then the truck has rolled to 640 fires with Linderman at the wheel. The tires never went flat.

Today the tires were retired—because of old age.

Linderman, who has never had a vacation and missed only eight nights—when he had the mumps—said he expects to stay on duty for the life of another set of tires.

"Tubby The Clown," Striking Double For John L. Lewis, Gets Big Kick Out Of It

PITTSBURGH, April 14 (AP) — "Tubby the clown," a striking double for John L. Lewis, relaxed over his candy-making today while the United Mine Workers president faced an injunction violation charge at Washington.

"Tubby," whose proper name is John R. Thomas, resembles Lewis so much that even hard-boiled miners mistake him for their leader. He has the same shaggy black eyebrows, silvering hair, and pugnacious jaw. In fact, he's better known around his neighborhood as "John L. Lewis" than John R. Thomas.

Gets Big Kick

"Of course, I get a big kick out of it," said Thomas, 61-year-old retired postal clerk.

When passersby stop and stare at him on the street in this coal center, he chuckles and peels off a few gags about miners. Comedy comes naturally because he has been an amateur clown 30 years as a sideline.

"I'd rather be a clown than a coal miners," he laughed, with his 210 pounds heaving heartily. "When you're laughing with the kiddies, you're in heaven."

Besides clowning for children in department stores at Christmas, "Tubby" spends his spare time helping his wife make chocolate candy, to make "ends meet."

Never Met Lewis

Like Lewis, Thomas has Welsh blood in his veins. He has never met the miners' leader, but would like to some day "for the fun of it."

"Tubby" also imitates Winston Churchill but friends like most to see him play the Lewis role.

His philosophy of life:

"We should clown more to take the hum-drum out of everyday existence. It's all right to take life seriously — but not too much."

FM Schedule At KFYO Will Start Sunday

Lubbock radio fans will get their first chance to test their new Frequency Modulation receivers at 7 a. m. Sunday, DeWitt Landis, manager of South Plains Broadcasting company, announced today.

The station will be KFYO-FM broadcasting on a frequency of 99.5 megacycles or a band number of 258, the tuning dials of some sets are marked in megacycles while others are marked with band numbers.

The call letters of KFYO, now broadcasting only on 1340 kilocycles AM, will be changed to "KFYO AM and FM" as the programs originating in the studios at 914 Avenue J will be broadcast over both AM and FM transmitters.

The programs are "piped" from the studios to the FM transmitter room in the Lubbock National bank building where it is broadcast from a special FM antenna 135 feet above the ground by a 3,000 watt RCA transmitting unit.

KFYO-AM will continue to broadcast from 6 a. m. to midnight on week days, and from 7 a. m. until 11 p. m. on Sundays. The FM programs will be broadcast from 6 a. m. until 11 p. m. on week days and from 7 p. m. until 10 p. m. on Sundays. Other than the one hour shorter broadcast day for the FM programs there will be no difference in the broadcasting schedules or the programs offered.

The major advantages of Frequency Modulation broadcast is that it is virtually free of all static and electrical interference. Electric storms, dust storms and other atmospheric interference does not disturb the tone or quality of the FM program. Electric motors, x-ray machines, electric razors, and other electrical devices also have no effect upon the quality of the reception.

Not A 'Miracle'

Landis pointed out, however, that the new FM is not a "miracle." On the lower priced sets, he emphasized, there would not be a great deal of difference in the quality of FM and AM programs, but on the larger sets with their larger speakers and sounding boards, there would probably be a great deal of improvement through FM over the AM broadcast.

Some of the FM receiving sets which have not been used on the FM band may require some adjustment before they work properly, Landis explained.

Frequency Modulation broadcasting covers only a "line of sight" area from the antenna. With the KFYO-FM antenna projecting 135 feet into the air, Chief Engineer W. S. Bledsoe estimated that the

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Annual Banquet Is Held By Optimists

New officers of the Lubbock Optimist club and the Opti-Mrs club were installed last night at the annual installation banquet of the organization at Hotel Lubbock.

A total of 132 members, wives and guests were present when J. Holland Cox, retiring president, turned over the leadership of the club to Charles L. Cobb. Other incoming officers included G. C. Stewart, first vice president; Gerald Sandlin, second vice president; L. G. Pierce, secretary; and H. P. Watkins, treasurer.

Named To Board

New officers of the Opti-Mrs., women's auxiliary, are Mrs. L. G. Pierce, president; Mrs. Noble James, first vice president; Mrs. Cliff Elliott, second vice president; Mrs. John Speer, third vice president; and Mrs. W. K. Johnston, secretary.

A. G. Oberg and John Speer were named to the board of governors of the Optimist club, and Mrs. Billy Davis and Mrs. A. W. Young were elected to the board of the Opti-Mrs. club.

J. Warren Day, of Fort Worth, past governor of district 7 of Optimist International, installed the new officers following his address to the club. Presentation of the president's lapel button was made to Cobb by J. Holland Cox, who in turn received a past president's lapel button from Cobb.

Reading, Music Presented

Winston Clark was toastmaster of the evening, and L. G. Kammerdiener gave the invocation. Guests were introduced by G. C. Stewart.

Special entertainment for the program consisted of a reading and music. Betty Dennison of the Texas Tech speech department presented a reading, 'The Gusher.' Norma Lee White, mezzo contralto, sang "Howdy Do, Miss Springtime" and "The Two of Us," the latter number written by Gene Horton who accompanied Miss White on the piano.

Mrs. Ardelle Scales, who has been securing musical entertainment for the club, was honored with a comic rendition of "An Apple For The Teacher" by eight past presidents of the Optimist club. Included in the "schoolboy chorus" were J. Holland Cox, L. D. Casey, M. L. Shepherd, O. W. McGuire, Art Young, S. E. Marbut, Cliff Elliott and Ralph Underwood. Mrs. Scales was presented with a big, red apple decorated with leaves of "legal tender."

Special guests of the Optimists for the installation banquet were the presidents of other Lubbock civic clubs and their wives.

Virginia Cherrill Weds Fourth Time

SANTA MONICA, Calif., April 14. (AP)—Virginia Cherrill has taken the vows of marriage for the fourth time.

Divorced last July from England's Earl of Jersey, she married Florian Martini, engineer and former RAF pilot, in a secret ceremony here Monday. Martini is 33, she's 39.

The former actress' first husband was Irving Adler, Chicago lawyer; her second, Cary Grant of the films.

Martini and his bride met in England while he was attached to a Polish unit of the RAF. He has bought a home here.

Communism In Comic Books Investigated

DETROIT, April 14 (AP)—Piles of comic books were under police scrutiny today after commissioner Harry S. Toy charged they contained liberal doses of Communist propaganda, racial prejudice and sexy and gory reading.

Toy read two confiscated cartoon books recently; then ordered others seized and assigned two "Red squad" police teams to investigate the matter. A copy of their findings will be turned over to the FBI, the commissioner said.

Little Interest Is Reported In Illinois Voting

CHICAGO, April 14. (AP)—Illinois voters showed only a ripple of interest in yesterday's lack-lustre primary.

With no presidential contender and most major state offices uncontested, less than one-third of the state's 4,750,000 registered voters went to the polls.

Cool, rainy weather over most of the state and the Progressive party boycott were other factors which kept the primary vote to one of the lowest totals in the last several years.

Total Will Fall

The total vote appeared likely to fall below the predicted 1,500,000. The Cook county (Chicago) ballot was expected to be about 800,000, and in downstate the total was projected at 500,000. In 1944, a presidential year, the total was 1,429,603, and in 1946 it was 1,531,647.

Some of the Congress races and contests for legislative and county offices were close. However, 10 of the 21 incumbent congressmen who were opposed wor renomination. They include eight Republicans. Seven had voted for the Taft-Hartley law and some of them had strong opposition from labor organizations. Each party nominated 26 congressmen with contests for 18 Republicans and 12 Democratic seats.

Those Who Won

Republican House members who won contests included Busbey, Church, Reed, Twyman, Mason, Chiperfield, McMillen and Bishop. Bishop did not vote for the Taft-Hartley law. The Democratic winners were Dawson and Adolph J. Sabath, dean of the national House, who was served continuously for 42 years.

U. S. Senator C. Wayland Brooks, seeking his second term, won the Republican nomination as expected. Brooks, the only member of the party's statewide slate with a contest, held a lead of more than 5 to 1 over William J. Baker of Chicago.

Gov. Dwight H. Green, a third term candidate, headed the Republican ticket.

Cab Driver's Savings Go For Buttons To Fight Communism

* * *

By NEA Service

NEW YORK, April 14.—Max Vogel's wife saved $200 to buy furniture. It took her a long time but she wanted the furniture very badly.

Today she's found something that both she and her husband want more, and the $200 has all been spent on buttons.

She and Max, a cab driver, are carrying on a one-family war against Communism. She provided the capital; he's spreading the word and the buttons.

How It Happened

It happened like this:

"I've been well off three times in my life," Max says. "We're down now but we'll be up again.

"We're eating plenty and the children are fine. It's tough on my wife but she's wonderful. She's the one that's behind all this button business."

The buttons carry a picture of Uncle Sam under a legend "I Pledge Allegiance To My Flag" and across the bottom is printed "Fight Communism."

Max hands the buttons and a selling talk on democracy to all his customers.

Planned Campaign

They planned their campaign one night after their children were in bed. They figured it would take a long time to raise enough money to start.

Then Mrs. Vogel said:

"We could use the $200 we put in the bank for furniture."

* * *

Vogel's weapon: Every fare gets one.

Taxi Driver Max Vogel and his wife and two of their sons inspect the ammunition in their war against Reds—the allegiance buttons Max hands out to his passengers.

"Gosh! Would you do that?" Max asked incredulously.

She did and the campaign was on.

"I give a button to every fare that rides in my cab," Max says.

"I've been doing this for a week and I get lots of encouragement. The other day a woman said it's high time a movement like this got going.

Do It For Boys

"One man offered me $100 for buttons but I couldn't take it. My wife and I are doing this one on our own. I guess we're doing it for our six boys."

Not all his customers agree with Max, however. One middleaged man picked a button from where it was pinned in the cab's upholstery and read the legend in what Max figured was a pretty sneering way.

"That guy had the gall to try and convert me to Communism. What he said sounded crazy, especially so soon after what happened in Czechoslovakia. I stood it as long as I could without saying a word.

Waste No Words

"Then I stopped the car and opened the door. I told him I wasn't going to waste words on him and that my answer was on the button in his hand.

"'Get out!' I hollered. 'I don't want your money. I don't fatten on my country's enemies and I don't give them comfort, either. If you don't get out under your own power I'll drag you out and I won't handle you tenderly.'

"He got out, still clutching the button, but he didn't pin it on his lapel the way several hundred have done."

Vogel used to be an optician but "that gave me claustrophobia with this boiling inside.

"In a taxi a guy like me can do something about Communism, talking to about 100 fares a day. They start the conversation about

Trustees Okay Faculty Boost

WACO, April 14 (AP) — Baylor university faculty members in Waco today looked forward to salary increases that become effective in September.

The pay raises were authorized by the board of trustees in annual spring meeting last night.

Dr. W. R. White, who was inaugurated president of the school yesterday announced that the trustees had:

Vice-President Named

Elected Dr. Wilby T. Gooch vice-president of the university to work with White as his liaison man between units in Waco, Dallas, and Houston.

Elected Dr. Monroe S. Carroll dean of the university.

Authorized the appointment of a "strong and able" field representative to raise money for the Waco, Dallas, and Houston units of Baylor.

Authorized the graduate school to give authority to the research unit at the Dallas branch to prepare courses leading to a master of science degree.

Dr. Carroll had been acting dean for some months and his election as dean was not unexpected. Dr. Gooch served as interim president between the incumbency of Pat M. Neff, now president emeritus, and the arrival of Dr. White. Dr. Gooch remains head of the chemistry department and the graduate school.

Dr. White said a meeting of the Waco board o trustees would be held in the near future to complete the plans for next year's personnel and work.

Prisoner Drowns In Attempt To Escape

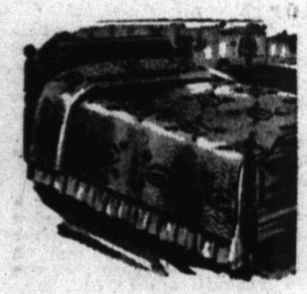

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 14 (AP)—A prisoner wearing chains swam ashore from Fort George island and then turned back to try to save another who couldn't make it.

Capt. C. M. Ross, assistant superintendent of the county prison farm said James E. Wilson and Alfred Ray Markham broke away from a road gang on the island yesterday, jumped into the water and headed for the mainland.

Wilson made the shore, but when Markham floundered in midstream, Wilson abandoned flight and helped in attempted rescue operations, Ross said.

It was all in vain, however. Markham drowned.

"Yaah," snarled the Office Grouch the other day, "there seems to be an excuse for everything except for certain people I'm so unfortunate as to know!"

* * *

WE Americans pride ourselves on our "push," our "know-how," our reputation for being "hard-boiled businessmen." But the truth is, in some ways we are the most trusting, the simplest and most careless people on the face of this more or less green earth.

Here we are, collectively owning and operating the richest country in all of the world's history, enjoying the greatest extent of freedom to be found under civilized circumstances—yet we give little thought to safeguarding what we have from the avaricious, would-be plunderers of the globe.

We are just like a multi-millionare who would pile currency, gold and diamonds indiscriminately around his isolated house and barn, then leave doors and windows open and go off on a month's fishing trip.

* * *

We know we are harboring among us those who would rob us of our national resources and, what is infinitely worse, our freedom.

We know those enemies within whom we are harboring are pledged to sell us out to a foreign power at the very first opportunity.

But we go blissfully along, certain, for no reason at all, that nothing bad will happen to us; that those things happen to Czechs and Slavs and Finns—but not to Americans.

* * *

WE KNOW, among other things, that the Russian government is dedicated to the principle that all men should be brought into the circle of enslavement planned by the Soviets.

Yet during 1947—while Americans were barred from Russia and even our embassy people were kept under constant surveillance by Red secret police—we opened our doors to 1,396 subjects of the USSR, then paid little attention to when they left our shores if, indeed, they left at all.

Incidentally, those 1,396 numbered 200 more of their kind who were admitted to the U. S. during 1946, even though relations with Russia had gotten worse and worse as the post-war months rolled along.

* * *

Just in case some over-trusting reader might be prone to think that the 1,396 Russians welcomed here in 1947 were nothing more than fine, upstanding, courageous people seeking to get Joe Stalin's mailed fist from around their throats, here is the truth about them.

Of the total admitted, 852 were "government representatives," a $1 phrase meaning spies; 469 were "government officials in transit" (although where they were "in transit" to is anybody's guess); 44 were "students," and the rest were simply "temporary visitors."

If anybody believes that any considerable number of Russians "government officials," or "representatives," are those in whose breasts the desire for freedom flames he's just kidding himself.

The iron-handed gents in the Kremlin know pretty well who's who before any Russian gets out of Russia.

* * *

REPORTING to Congress on the Russian immigration situation, Immigration Commissioner Watson B. Miller admitted that checks on Red departures—if any—had been perfunctory, to say the least. He also admitted that checks on arrival were equally as slipshod, if not more-so.

In making his report, Commissioner Miller also disclosed that we took in quite a few jolly fellows from Russian satellite countries last year.

From such a great stronghold of democracy as Jugoslavia, we welcomed 163 of Marshal Tito's merry men; 1,162 from Czechoslovakia; 718 from Poland; 504 from Hungary and 197 from Rumania.

Although most of those countries weren't entirely Communist-dominated throughout 1947, we have little idea whether those entering the U. S. from them were undercover Red agents or honest, decent people.

* * *

We "smart, hardboiled" Americans with a corner on "know-how" are a bunch of chumps to let this monkey-business go on.

If the international situation is as bad as it is dished out to us from Washington; if Communist underground rats are becoming as numerous in the U. S. as we are told, why not crack down? Why not keep any more from coming in—and why not round up and deport all those who have come and haven't gone home?

It doesn't make much sense to most Americans to fight Communism abroad, with billions from the taxpayers' pockets, and do nothing to fight it here.

Wotinell are we thinking about, anyhow?

ONE AMONG many reasons why Northwest Texas has never been able to get even decent recognition from the Democratic politicians in this state is because we out here have been very derelict in taking part in party affairs.

Although there has been some little improvement in recent years, what there has been is highly insufficient. Mainly, those who have taken part have done so either because they worshipped Franklin Roosevelt and his theories of government, or have utterly despised and feared both.

We out here have not taken part in party affairs because to do so is to be part of government in Texas.

We have done so to attempt to promote, or to stymie, New Deal policies — hence we have acted through prejudicial emotions, rather than by desire to do a job citizenship in the fullest requires.

* * *

It is some time yet until precinct and county conventions.

But it is not too early for West Texas to start keeping track of party—and government—affairs; to become informed concerning them, and to decide to take active part in the doings of the party most of us pay fealty to even if we don't know exactly why.

* * *

THE Plainsman has been as derelict in this matter as anyone else.

In a quarter century, we've attended no precinct conventions and only two county conventions—and then as a working reporter, not as a participant. Yet like many others we realize that nothing would be more helpful in the matter or securing more down-state recognition for our section than an actively interested, working group of people who attend and participate in party affairs.

Just for fun this year, let's whoop it up in our own local conventions all over this area. Let's go to 'em, take part in 'em, send strong delegations to the state convention and make ourselves heard, our strength felt.

Let's "give and take" among ourselves, then present a unified front, so we can have some weight in the state organization.

It won't hurt anything. It will help—and it'll be great sport!

BY DREW PEARSON: SEN. MORSE CRITICIZES LACK OF UNITY AMONG SERVICES

Symington Speaks His Mind While Forrestal Glares

WASHINGTON. — Secretary for Air Stuart Symington reversed his stand on universal military training when he faced the Senate armed services committee behind closed doors the other day, and made a desperate plea instead for a strong Air Force. His boss, Defense Secretary Forrestal, scowled on and said little.

PEARSON

The meeting was of vital interest to every man who may have to serve in the armed forces, and to every other American concerned with the defense of his country. For the first time in a recent Senate committee hearing, Forrestal gave his subordinate, the head of the Air Forces, free reign to speak out. Symington made the most of it.

Ever since the meeting of defense chiefs at Key West, it had been suspected that Navy and Army ground forces had held the Air Forces down in over-all defense planning. This was confirmed by Symington in last week's testimony.

In forceful language, he warned that it might already to too late to build up the Air Force before Russia got the atomic bomb.

"We said three years ago that your Air Force was going to hell, we said it again two years ago and we say this year that it is going to hell," blistered Symington. "We say this year that no matter how you try to fix it, you are not going to have an adequate Air Force by the time the Russians have the bomb. It is too late."

Catching the full glare of Forrestal's withering look, he tactfully added:

"Mr. Forrestal said we could say what we felt.

"It is true," Symington continued, "that we testified for universal military training. We did that before we knew the Air Force was going to be cut. We felt it would be a 70-group program."

Virginia's Senator Harry Byrd asked whether that mean Symington considered a 70-group air force more important than universal training.

"Yes, sir," he shot back, "and I can go farther than that. I think it is the most important thing that has been presented to this committee from the standpoint of military preparedness."

* * *

70-Group Too Low

General "Toughy" Spaatz, retiring air chief of staff, broke in:

"You can't win a war with 70 groups, but you can prevent the enemy from winning with 70 groups."

On the other hand, Spaatz warned, Forrestal's proposal for only 55 groups would leave the country dangerously short-handed.

Senator Ed Robertson, Wyoming Republican, suggested that the committee would need more information to sell a 70-group Air Force to the public. Symington snapped back that the public was already sold on it.

"We want to be sure the people are not over-sold," broke in Chairman Chan Gurney of South Dakota, who has echoed Forrestal.

Symington pointed out that the Air Force was seeking no more than it had been insisting on for three years, whereas the other two services were taking advantage of the crisis-fanned hysteria to increase their demands.

"The Air Force is in desperate shape," he pleaded. "For three years we have applead to modernize, not on a mobilization plan but on a peacetime plan. In the last two years our appeal has never even gotten to the Congress. At least Mr. Forrestal is letting us discuss it today."

* * *

THE conflict between Forrestal and Symington finally got under the skin of Senator Wayne Morse, outspoken Oregon Republican.

"We have to get the chiefs of staff to agree on a unified program for total national defense," he reminded the defense chiefs, "and now the Air Force going in one direction and the Army in another and the Navy in another. I am not convinced that you know exactly what you are doing."

"Unification is something that isn't going to be accomplished by waving a wand," shot back Forrestal. "There is no miracle involved. It will take a long, long time."

Then he added: "We are in the process now."

"I understand that," persisted Morse, "but you want us to pass some legislation which in my opinion we don't have a prayer's chance of passing in this combined legislation. If you think we can bring out of the committee a bill combining UMT or the draft, you are licked before you even get started."

Even Chairman Gurney chimed in his agreement.

"As long as Senator Morse has brought this subject up," he declared, "I will lay this on the line also, that I agree with him completely. You cannot have these bills in one package unless you all pull in the same direction."

The only other objection was raised by Georgia Democrat Dick Russell, who rebelled against a proposal to build more B-29 superfortresses.

"We are getting ready to spend a lot of money on a lot of obsolete equipment," he fumed. "I am very apprehensive that by the time the Russians get the bomb we will wake up here with a lot of equipment that we have purchased at tremendous expense that will be obsolete."

Symington assured him that the B-29s would be a new, improved version.

Note 1—Later, Army Secretary Kenneth Royall told the armed services committee that a 70-group Air Force might be necessary in case of immediate danger, but that universal training would be more valuable in the long-range view. Under questioning, he contradicted some of the storm warnings his own department has been putting out and testified that he saw no immediate probability of war.

Note 2—The joint chiefs of staff have promised the Senate to come back with a final recommendation in the debate between air power and manpower today.

State Department To Blame For Red Agents In Country

NOTES of a Newspaperman—The son of the Costa Rican Ambassador to the U. S., Don Francisco de P. Gutierrez, jr., the Communist (he's sec'y to the Costa Rican Embassy in Washington), is in Geneva, attending the freedom-of-the-press conference. He has been there for almost two months! . . . But get this: The other son (Poaquin), who was deported from the U. S. for alleged Communist activities — (and was expelled from Chile last year as an International communist), is now in Washington, D. C. . . . Joaquin is taking Francisco's place in the Costa Rican Embassy and is sending out communiques under Francisco's name. And the State Dept. has not been notified!

* * *

The State Department is actually to blame for the U. S. being overrun by Soviet agents. There's an immigration law in this country which states that no Russian Communist or former Red can get a visa to enter here. But in 1933 a law was passed admitting any person on a visa that would further the commercial interests of the United States. Literally hundreds of "Commercial Russian Attaches" gained entry here under this law. They came ostensibly for trade purposes but in reality are Russian GPU agents.

* * *

THE poignant remark of a DP who recently arrived here underlines the wonder that is America. To wit: "We have become alive." As someone once said: Those who dislike Uncle Santa should be sentenced to 30 days in Europe . . . Another debunker for the New York-is-sophisticated-fable: Drama classics are more popular with Little Theater groups in the hinterlands than they are on the Main Stem . . . Why are Movieville moguls wailing? Variety reports that Hollywood came through with a $96 million net profit in '47—the second highest take in film history. Yet studios have been axing $75 per week employees . . . This gives you an idea of the type of dimwits who absorb soap-operas. When a character on the weepy serials dies—listeners send letters of condolence!

* * *

One of our pet yarns about Eisenhower concerns his contempt for yes-men. Ike once told one of them: "I want you to figure out some things which are wrong with this army camp. You make me uncomfortable by always agreeing with me. I feel that you either don't say what you think—or that you are as big a fool as I am!"

* * *

W. L. WHITE'S latest tome, "Lost Boundaries" (dealing with racial problems), has a topical bang that shakes you to your toes. Do yourself a favor and wrap it around your mind . . . How zany can you get? In a soon-due film Shirley Temple portrays a character named Philadelphia Thursday . . . Chester Bowles' letter-to-the-editor in the current Life has logic written all over it. Legislators oughta pull his opinions over their heads . . . Chuck Barnett's: "Truman is a Presi-done-tial candidate" . . . What became of those predictions that prices would dive as a result of the recent commodity market slump?

* * *

Here's a hearty salute to the leaders of the American press, who have nixed the government's request for peacetime censorship. We believe there is as much patriotism in the American press as there is in the American government . . . Of course, military secrets must be protected. But the history of censorship proves that military leaders have used censorship more often to hide the facts from their own people—than to keep military secrets.

The trouble with censorship is no one can censor the censor.

EYEFILLY Louisa Horton, debuting in the cinema, "All My Sons," has the stardust touch . . . The record albums based on B'way musicals often coin heftier profits than the shows . . . A gent who is probably booting himself is producer Geo. Abbott—one of B'way's canniest showmen. He originally held the dramatic rights to the novel, "Mr. Roberts," but he dropped them—thus waving ta-ta to a few million bux . . . Meg Mundy's performance in "The Respectful Prostitute" has distinction. She's got a sure-firecracked combo: Talent and beauty . . .Didja hear what the mamma ostrich said to the papa ostrich: "I hope our son doesn't grow up to be a Taft!"

From Editor & Publisher: "These gentlemen," declared editor F. McNight, "have paralyed an over-developed set of vocal chords into a following and an income tax bracket . . . But for all their cleverness, I am just not convinced that the Jergens Journal is really the heart of our State Dept."

There might be Peace, if it were.

The Feminine Viewpoint

"I DON'T seem to have time for any of the things I'd really like to do," the woman complained.

She is a busy woman, holding office in several organizations, playing bridge most of the social invitations that come her way.

MILLETT

But the truth is that many of these activities that take up so much of her time aren't actually giving her anything in return.

She can find time to do anything someone else plans for her or suggests. But she can't find time for any of the things she really wants to do.

That is the way with so many women today. They get themselves involved with so many organized groups, get into the habit of accepting invitations automatically, and so rarely refuse that they don't have any time to do what they would really like most to do.

* * *

TAKE INVENTORY

IF you are one of those women, take a good look at how you are spending your time.

How many afternoons are you spending doing things that someone else has thought up for you—things that don't interest you at all?

You are probably wasting more time than you realize on activities that give you little or no return for the time and effort spent on them.

If you saved those hours for yourself you could make a start on doing the things you'd like to do.

"Try And Stop Me"

SOME of the vagaries of Back Bay blu. bloods are analyzed in Cleveland Amory's "The Proper Bostonians." They are so particular about who enters their clubs that one day firemen were sternly refused admittance through the front door and forced to go around to the service entrance when the club itself was on fire. That the club subsequently burned to the ground was only incidental.

They are so provincial, that when one visitor said, "I come from Iowa," she was reminded sharply, "In Boston we pronounce it Ohio." And they revere Harvard so devoutly that when Bishop Lawrence, aged 86, was urged not to parade in a pouring rain, he remarked, with perfect composure, "The Lord would not dream of allowing me to catch cold on Harvard's three hundredth birthday!"

Lobbyists Should Be Awarded Prizes For Tireless Efforts

WASHINGTON—So fast are changes occurring that the Rip Van Winkle who comes back after only a few years or for that matter, even a few months of absence finds everything transformed. The days of the New Deal and the buoyant confidence inspired by the No. 1 New Dealer seem infinitely far off.

CHILDS

Helping to work the transformation are the multiplicity of lobbies that flourish here today. They work in a carnival atmosphere of rivalry that does not preclude mutual back-scratching and log-rolling.

Let's have a system of Pultizer prizes for lobbying. It would go over big in this town where showy public occasions are a favorite pastime. At a large public dinner—perhaps the President could be persuaded to attend — the awards wouuld be made, with still and newsreel cameras recording the event for the world.

The judges offer something of a problem. It would be well to choose two or three members of Congress and maybe a retired lobbyist thoroughly versed in the art.

Certainly the judges would have a hard time picking the winner this year. There are so many contestants and each one can present such an excellent claim.

The temptation would be strong to give the chief award to a spectacular mass operation. At the top of the list is the drive to put over the tidelands oil grab.

That is organization plus. It is spearheaded by attorney-generals and governors of a number of states. But behind this front is the real driving force—the oil companies that stand to profit from the unlimited exploitation that has pushed our other oil resources to the edge of exhaustion.

* * *

Last Great Reserve

The fact that this seems to be our last great reserve of oil is something that is rarely spoken of, even though we hear talk on every hand of the need to protect America's access to strategic oil. The judges of the lobby contest, it is hardly necessary to add, would ignore any such incidental consequences of this steamroller lobby.

There would be one serious objection to awarding the prize to the massive, organized power of the tidelands lobby. That might tend to discount individual initiative—the energies of the "little fellow" working alone in his little office with only a clerk and a stenographer. He can achieve, too.

Take the laundry lobby as an example. Persistently and tirelessly this lobby has worked to modify the minimum wage act. The goal is to obtain from Congress certain redefinitions under which as many as a million laundry, dry-cleaning and other service employees might be cut out of the provisions of the wage law.

In this instance the fruits of victory are still to be won. But honest effort and faithful toil should not be overlooked.

* * *

AN embarrassment of riches would be the real problem in making the final selection. One quiet, unostentatious lobby should not, however, be overlooked. This is the China lobby.

The effective operators here are ex-New Dealers who rarely show themselves in public. Until recently they represented China's powerful financial oligarchs. These oligarchs, including several members of the Soong family, are said to have at least a half billion dollars in deposits in United States banks.

The same lobby law firm represents Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, whose airline in China came originally out of UNRRA funds. Chennault, with his background of heroic endeavor for China, has been one of the most effective talkers for China and the half-billion-dollar aid fund now approved. The other day Nathaniel Peffer, professor of international relations at Columbia university, said that money would be completely wasted.

The same lobby represented the Chinese oligarchs when a wartime loan of a half billion was negotiated. American officials who finally approved it now say they knew the loan would do little good for China.

That should be the No. 1 rule of this lobby contest—don't look too closely at cause and effect. Just get plaque engraved or a handsome loving cup, and present it at one of those big dinners Washington loves so well. It would be a little obvious to give a monetary award. And that would be superfluous, since these men get generous material rewards for their toil.

Today's Journal Editorial

IF THEY WANT A FIGHT!

The announcement of CIO plans for a house-to-house campaign in an effort to purge every Texas legislator and congressman who has refused to vote as labor bosses have dictated points the rather obvious course which right-thinking, fair-minded Texans should follow.

They should rally as much as possible to the support of those marked by the CIO for political death because they have had the courage to put the welfare of all the people of Texas and/or the nation ahead of the interests of any minority group, including labor.

All citizens should be as diligent as the CIO in familiarizing themselves with the attitudes and records of legislative and Congressional candidates toward labor legislation. All citizens should make a pointed effort to learn the identities not only the officials the CIO opposes most violently, but those it supports most vigorously.

If the CIO organization wants a showdown fight, most of the people of Texas doubtless will be more than willing to give it to them. If that does happen, it's a lead pipe cinch the CIO won't boss many members of the Texas Legislature nor of the Texas Congressional delegation

Demo Split In State Flayed

AUSTIN, April 14. (U.P.)—An administration supporter today accused the Texas Democratic party of fostering division within the party ranks.

Woodville Rogers, San Antonio attorney and leader of a pro-Truman group, denounced plans for establishment of a permanent headquarters for the state party.

Opposes Jobs

"We've always gotten along without spending much money," he said. "I don't think the Democrats in Texas need a club house or some full-time salaried jobs.

"The only purpose they can have in mind," Rogers added, "is to seize control, and to divide the Democratic party so the Republicans can win."

Rogers explained that there is harmony in the party among "all real Democrats."

Two Rallies Set

Meantime, Neville G. Penrose of Fort Worth, chairman of the finance sub committee of the state Democratic executive committee, disclosed that the proposed state party headquarters would be financed by a current fund-raising drive.

Most of the funds are expected to be raised at a Democratic barbecue at Fort Worth next Tuesday, the same day that leaders of the pro-Truman faction will hold an opposition rally in Waco.

Tickets will be $5 per person for the Fort Worth barbecue. Admission fee at the Waco feed will be a pledge of party loyalty and ownership of a poll tax receipt.

Pranksters Are Imitating Quiz Programs In Telephone Calls

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, April 14.—"Hello, this is Ralph Edwards; you have just won $25,000 worth of prizes!"

If you receive such a telephone call, you can charge it up to some prankster with a warped sense of humor. The latest fad among telephone humorists is the impersonation of Edwards and other masters of five-away quiz programs.

NBC says it receives many inquiries about such bogus calls, the number increasing during the "Hush" contests. The network advises listeners to discount the jokesters. If an air show does call you, you'll know it: Contestants are called well before the program begins and are given a thorough examination.

Ida Talking Deal

Ida Lupino is talking a contract deal with 20th-Fox and she appears willing to sign. About her abortive attempt to be a producer-star: "Never again! I passed up four pictures while I was working myself practically to death on a film that was never made." Since leaving Warners, she has made only one film—"Road House" . . .

Deanna Durbin is playing hide-and-seek with the press on the "Washington Girl" set. Ho hum . . . The political battle of the stars is about to begin. Eric Johnston reports that both major parties are planning campaign films starring movie players. He'll do nothing to stop them . . .

Stands On Head

Joan Fontaine is feeling none too well on the "Kiss the Blood Off My Hands" set. What do you wanna bet she won't do the proposed comedy before the baby? The first scene in the picture has her standing on her head . . .

Dick Powell has despaired of getting June Allyson for "Mrs. Mike." He has been getting the runaround from her studio, MGM. Besides, she is supposed to start "Little Women" at the same time he'll be doing "Mrs. Mike." The stork rumors about the pair are untrue, Dick tells me on the "Rogue's Regiment" set . . .

Red Offensive In China Seen

PEIPING, April 14 (AP) — High officials here predict the Chinese Communists will try this spring to isolate the government corridor into Manchuria, then swing south for a heavy smash against North China.

These sources view current Red operations in Inner Mongolia as a preliminary to such an offensive. It would try, they say, to cut off the government's slim Manchurian holding at its base, near the border of China proper.

After this, they forecast a large scale drive south across the great wall into North China — not necessarily aimed at seizing Peiping or Tientsin, but doubtless aimed at completely isolating them.

These two big North China cities would thus be in the same position Mukden occupied only a few weeks ago, when its only link with China was by air.

The Manchurian city now is reported to be connected with China by highway through Chinhsien, but there is no evidence that this has become an effective artery.

Peiping, despite reports of fighting almost within sight of its walls, is about the most tranquil place in China. Visitors who have read of fighting six, 10 or 20 miles from Peiping all are astonished to find this former capital quiet and peaceful.

Local residents are equally astonished to learn from visitors that much of the customary tourist trade is staying away because of imagined dangers.

UN Assembly To Face Problem Of Assigning Forces To Palestine

By LARRY HAUCK
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 14. (AP)—Assignment of military forces to Palestine will be the first major issue facing the special United Nations assembly which opens Friday.

The five-nation Palestine commission said last night in a report to the assembly that troops would be necessary after May 15 regardless of the retention or scrapping of the partition project. The British insist they will give up their Holy Land rule on that date, leaving the problem of security in the hands of the U. N.

The assembly is scheduled to begin debate on the commission report immediately after electing officers.

Informal Session

Security council delegates were called into informal session this morning in the New York offices of the American delegation in efforts to agree on terms of a truce. Delegates believe if the U. N. can put through an effective cease-fire order the security problem will be minimized.

In a drive to clear its calendar before the assembly crush of business, the council arranged a formal meeting for tomorrow on Palestine and planed another one on Kashmir later in the week. U. N. officials estimate that the assembly session will run four weeks.

The dispute between India and Pakistan over the princely state of Kashmir, where fighting has been in progress, has been before the council for three months. Dr. Alfonso Lopez of Colombia, April president, was reported to be drafting a solution acceptable to the delegates.

Statement Made

In its report, the Palestine commission said:

"The steadily deteriorating situation in Palestine leads to the inescapable conclusion that, in the absence of forces adequate to restore and maintain law and order in Palestine following the termination of the mandate, there will be chaos, starvation, widespread strife, violence and bloodshed in Palestine, including Jerusalem."

The commission said arrangements for food and essential services and guaranteeing of the Holy places also were urgent problems.

Swedes Are Warned Against Communism

STOCKHOLM, April 14 (U.P.) — Foreign Minister Osteen Unden warned the Swedes today to be on guard against Communism.

Unden spoke at a political rally in Karlstad and pointed to Czechoslovakia as a danger signal for all democracies to heed.

Departing from his usual middle-of-the-road position the foreign minister said, 'we consider the new peoples democracy in Czechoslovakia a retrogression to a more primitive constitution."

He characterized the Soviet-Finnish pact as "a one-sided guarantee from Russia's part in case of aggression against Finland."

The foreign minister firmly backed Sweden's traditionally neutral foreign policy.

Sweden's contribution, Unden said, could be made by steering clear of what he termed "bloc politics."

Woodrow Wilson used 6221 words in 75 public addresses and more than 60,000 words in his books.

Plans For Student Contest Are Made

The Lubbock chapter of the Texas Public Employes association at a meeting in the district courtroom here last night made plans to sponsor an essay contest in connection with good government week April 18 to 24, which was proclaimed by Governor Beauford Jester.

The contest will be open to students of government in the various public schools in the area, and information will be forwarded to the schools as soon as possible, it was reported last night.

The week of April 18 to 24 has also been designated as special TPEA week.

The announcement came from J. K. Salser, president of the local chapter, who said the week is set aside with the hope that all Texans will rededicate themselves to the ideals of good government in the state.
