Sixteen Traffic Fines Levied During Month

Sixteen traffic fines were levied during the past month on Perryton motorists, a check of the city hall records reveals. This is three less than during the first month of the year, when 19 fines were collected.

Running past stop signs accounted for eight violations this month, and there were four parking violations, three cases of speeding and one violation regarding proper display of license plates.

This second list of traffic violators is being published as a continuation of the campaign to cut down traffic violations on Perryton streets.

Ochiltree County's 1948 Red Cross Drive to Get Under Way March 1; Quota Set at $924

With a county quota of $924, the 1948 American Red Cross campaign will open in Ochiltree county on Monday, March 1, under the direction of A. P. McCelvey, campaign director. Donors are asked to bring or mail their contributions to the First National Bank, Perryton National Bank or the Stewart Printing Co.

Mrs. O. O. Cox will collect contributions through the county home demonstration clubs; Mrs. Max Boyer will head the Junior Red Cross drive and Glen Allison will collect Red Cross funds at the Perryton schools.

Chairman McCelvey has asked the public to cooperate on raising the necessary funds on a strictly voluntary basis this year. No personal solicitations are felt necessary and it is hoped to meet the quota of $924 during the first week in March, although the drive will continue through the end of the month.

With the end of the war and the much smaller number of service personnel, the Red Cross is now devoting nearly all of its funds and service to civilian projects such as disaster relief, first aid and accident prevention, medical services, nursing services, foreign and domestic relief.

The United States was visited by the most destructive series of major disasters in history during 1947. Up to December 1 there were 287 disasters requiring Red Cross aid. These included 141 fires, 50 floods, 41 tornadoes, 3 hurricanes, 21 other storms, 30 explosions, minor earthquakes, transportation wrecks, and other serious accidents.

Does Anybody Have a Copy of 'Laddie' Book?

Has anybody got a copy of "Laddie," famous book by Gene Stratton Porter? If so, Mrs. W. C. May, county librarian, would like to have it. The library had two of these books, but they have been used so much that one has fallen apart and the other is just about gone. Demand for this book is heavy and so far, the library has been unable to secure another copy. It is out of print and numerous book stores contacted have reported they don't have it. The library and scores of youngsters would appreciate some generous person's gift or loan or sale of a copy of "Laddie."

Rangers Win District Crown By Defeating Phillips 35-33

A scrapping Ranger basketball team came from behind Saturday night in the final game of the district 1-A playoff with Phillips to nose out their traditional foes by the close margin of 35-33 and take top honors in the 1948 tournament.

Tabbed as under dogs in this game by virtue of a 46-27 defeat put on them by Phillips in the opening game of the tournament, the Rangers erased the memory of that first defeat by putting forth 32 minutes of hard work and hustle to edge their rivals while a partisan crowd in the Canadian gymnasium cheered them on.

Perryton scored quickly on the opening play of the game, when David Hummer drove under the basket for a lay-up shot that put the Rangers out front 2-0. After this goal, however, Hughes made a free shot, then Smith of Phillips canned two short ones to put the Hawks ahead 5-2.

The all-star squad is as follows: Clarence Miller, Perryton; Johnny Revis, Perryton; David Hummer, Perryton; J. O. McClellan, Phillips; Harry Smith, Phillips; Billy Hughes, Phillips; James Weatherall, White Deer; Johnny Harvey, White Deer; Dale Vinson, Canadian; Joe Ogden, Lefors.

Deadline Near For City Filing

Another week has passed, and still no candidates for city office.

Candidates are supposed to file 30 days before the election, which is April 6, in order to get their names on the ballot, which makes the deadline for filing Saturday, March 6.

Three vacancies will exist on the city council this year, as the terms of aldermen Debs Riley, Alton Boxwell and Sam Hergert will expire.

Aldermen Sam Hergert and Giltner LaMaster, mayor Rufus Bolerjack and city clerk Milam Cudd have another year to serve.

City Voters Will Decide Upon $275,000 Revenue Bond Issue For Water, Sewer Expansion

The $275,000 city bond election for expanding water and sewer facilities in Perryton wil be decided by the qualified voters of Perryton at an election to be held Tuesday, March 2. This $275,000 bond issue includes $200,000 for improvement and extension of the water system and $75,000 for improvement and extension of the sewer system.

The voting place is the City Hall, with J. N. Conley, presiding judge, J. R. Thomas, judge, Mrs. Ray Phagan and Mrs. E. W. Thomas, clerks.

If this bond issue is approved a new well will be drilled in the south part of the city, and it will provide both overhead and underground storage. It is planned to add 12-inch water mains around the town to supplement the present single 8-inch water main, and also replace 2-inch water lines in the newer residential districts with standard 4-inch lines.

At the present time there are 35 city blocks in the southwest part of Perryton without fire plugs, creating a serious fire hazard. There are only four fire plugs in the entire north part of town. It is planned to add approximately 45 new fire plugs in the city, to be connected on the 4-inch lines.

The sewer extension calls for the construction of a main sewer line from the southwest part of the city under the railroad tracks to the north side, then east to connect with the main sewer line on Main street. While no lateral sewer lines are contemplated, the construction of a main line will bring sewer service to scores of families now without sewer.

The sewage disposal plant will be expanded to take care of the increased population. At present, the plant is running at nearly full capacity, and if it receives a heavier load, a serious health hazard will result.

These are revenue bonds, to be paid out of the income of the water and sewer departments, and will not be paid from property taxes. To make the issue clear, however, the city council has emphasized that this does not necessarily mean there will be no changes in city taxes. At present, income from the water and sewer is used to support other city functions, and if the water and sewer deparments are divorced from these other functions, there may not be enough to carry on the police and fire departments, sanitation, etc.

However, the city tax income

World Mission of Church

Lesson for February 29, 1948

JOHN WESLEY said, "The world is my parish." Many another Christian has entertained this great concept, and that is precisely what Jesus wants us to understand concerning the sweep and scope of his Kingdom.

Dr. Newton

Sunday's lesson brings us to consider three great passages — Acts 16:9, 10; Romans 10:8-15; Ephesians 3:8-12. Read these carefully, and you will feel the winds of God lifting up the flaps of the tent of your small habitation until you will catch glimpses of the far horizon.

CHURCH AROUND THE WORLD

"GO YE into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation," said Jesus, Mark 16:15. There is no backyard definition of the mission of the church in these great words of Jesus. Just as Paul was summoned to cross over into Europe with the Gospel, so are we commanded to make Christ known to all lands. He loves everybody.

"Jesus loves the little children,
All the children of the world;
Yellow, brown, or black, or white,
They are precious in his sight,
Jesus loves the little children of the world."

REACHING THE WORLD

JUST as Paul went from one land to another, so may every Christian boy and girl do. Each church can reach out hands of blessing to all the world.

How? Through our gifts. Our gifts for missions, joined with the gifts of all the other members of our local church, joined with the gifts of many other churches, go out in multiplied blessing through the missionaries to make Christ known around the world.

How? Through our prayers. As we pray for the redemption of the world, we fortify the missionaries — teachers, doctors, preachers — in all the parts of the world.

How? Through our sympathetic understanding of the conditions under which people live in other lands. Just now we are giving clothes and food to help the stricken peoples of the war-ravaged lands. These gifts of material things bear their message of our Christian concern for all who suffer. Thus we are extending the reach of our individual lives and the reach of our churches to the ends of the earth.

PUBLISHING SALVATION

"HOW beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth glad tidings, that publisheth peace . . . that publisheth salvation," Isaiah 52:7.

The world mission of the church is here pictured in the exquisite language of the ancient prophet, with which words we may link the declaration of the great apostle, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved," Romans 8:13.

Publishing salvation is the chief task of the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the objects of this universal message are the souls of all men. There is universal need, and here is the adequate and available answer.

See how this conception of the world mission of the church brings into focus the one hope for civilization. The only voice that carries across the barriers of this troubled world is the voice of salvation through Jesus Christ. Let that word be sounded in any spot on this earth, and some waiting heart will be lifted up.

THE UNSEARCHABLE RICHES

AND what are we to say about the message we have to publish? Paul puts it well in Ephesians 3:8-12, when he declares:

"Unto me, who am less than the least of all the saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. . . ."

In another place we read about the "unspeakable gift of God," II Corinthians 9:15. The message, then, is one of unsearchable riches, and unspeakable gift.

In this message is healing for the peoples of the earth. If the true mission of the church is understood and voiced in all of the ways by which the Gospel may today be given to the world, we shall see the fulfillment of the dreams of the prophets, and the angels about the throne of God will shout for joy.

As Paul changed his course in the long ago, heeding the Macedonian call, so may we today find ourselves turning about in our response to the Holy Spirit's leading; but let us not be afraid so long as we are sincerely seeking to publish glad tidings to all men.

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 29.

The Golden Text is: "Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever" (Psalms 45:2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:

Teaching Youth How to Drive

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Thirty-five Johnstown high school students were "graduated" as first-class automobile drivers.

The students, taking their final examinations in the form of driving tests given by the Pennsylvania State Police, were among the first in the state to complete a new course of four months, providing safe-driving instruction in dual-control autos along with classroom instruction.

Many high schools throughout the state are giving similar courses. They were authorized by the last session of the state legislature in an effort to improve highway safety in Pennsylvania.

Danes Set Kayak Race As Pre-Olympic Test

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Hungary will meet Denmark in a national kayak contest in June in the Danish town of Holstebro. The meet, regarded as pre-Olympic training for the Danes, will include 1,000 and 10,000 meter events for men, 500 meters for men and women and 500 meter relay races for men and women.

The Danish team probably will include Alfred Christensen, Finn Rasmussen, Gunner Christensen, Miss Ruth Graagaard and Miss Sigrid Hansen.

"Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles" (Isaiah 42:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus is the name of the man who, more than all other men, has presented Christ, the true idea of God, healing the sick and the sinning and destroying the power of death" (page 473).

But maybe you'd like the thrill of a brand-new engine in your car.

If so, we're ready to do that job too—ready to put a straight-from-the-factory engine in any Buick built since 1937.

You get an entirely new engine. It has a new carburetor and air cleaner. It has a new distributor with both vacuum and centrifugal spark control. It has new wiring and spark plugs—even a new smooth clutch that eases every start and makes driving fun.

On top of all that, this engine brings you the latest Buick features you read about—features like precision cylinder boring and Flex-Fit oil rings, Stratoflow cooling and all the rest.

We have these engines for you right now because Buick engine production is running ahead of complete car output.

So, in less time than a good overhaul would take—and frequently at less cost—you can have a car with everything a brand-new Buick engine can give you, and a car worth much more when you're ready to turn it in.

Good deal, isn't it? Worth looking into? Drop around and let us give you all the facts and figures.

Rev. P. D. Kiehn, Formerly of Balko, Writes Daughter of Tragedies to Missionaries

Mrs. Eva DeGarmo, assistant postmistress at Liberal, Kansas has received letters from her father, Rev. P. D. Kiehn, once a resident of Balko, Okla., who with Mrs. Kiehn is now in missionary work at Shuang Shih Pu Shensi, W. China, which give eye witness accounts of the tragedies befalling missionaries in that country.

Enclosed in the letter is one written by Mary Quiring, a missionary, who tells of the tragic death of another missionary, Mary DeGarmo. This lady was Mrs. Eva DeGarmo's cooking and sewing teacher when she as a girl lived in China with her parents.

This is the story, which gives an insight into conditions in China. It was written at Ninling, Nonan, China, on January 1:

Killed by Hand Grenade

"It grieves me to have to report to you that our sister Mary DeGarmo was fatally wounded on Dec. 22, 1947. We had heavy fighting all day Sunday, Dec. 21, and during the night the bullets rained with hardly any intermissions. We sat up all night in our dining room, sitting so that we were out of range of the windows.

"The soldiers were wishing for daylight so the airplanes could come and help them out. In the morning we could see they were getting desperate and made preparations to surrender. Around noon they surrendered, and Miss DeGarmo went around to all the homes in the yard to see if they were all right.

"When she returned she suggested that we stay near the front door to welcome the enemy They came into our compound by throwing some hand grenades ahead of them, so we stepped around into the hall away from the windows. Miss DeGarmo went around the corner near the sitting room door to see if they were coming in, and just then one was thrown into the front room through the east window and exploded near where she was standing.

"Within 15 minutes she was gone. I counted over 30 holes where the shrapnel had hit her on the right side of her body.

Bomb Chapel,

"One big bomb fell on top of our chapel and made a big hole. During the night one fell on top of our porch upstairs, breaking our front room windows. Earlier in the day of her death one fell in the yard near where she was standing We were warned not to be out in the open during the fighting.

"Because of unsettled conditions, we laid Miss DeGarmo's body to rest in the Liuho garden the next day. During the night before her death, she quoted Romans 8:23 and mentioned that it was good that we suffered some with the Chinese. If not, we would not be able to sympathize with them.

Snatch Glasses from Face

"She did not need to meet the enemy. Miss Mary Schmidt and I could not express ourselves in Chinese, and with heavy hearts we had to face them. They looted our bedding, change of clothing, all went. They took Miss Schmidt's glasses off her face. Miss DeGarmo's disappeared also. The Lord undertook and gave us strength moment by moment.

"Miss Mary Schmidt and I have joined the Ningling Sisters about 10 miles south of Liuho where the tragedy occurred. It has been unusually quiet since we have been here. We hope the enemy will be driven back so Tsaohaten will also be free from them. Have not heard directly, but reports are that the communists are still there."

Rev. Kiehn in his letter in which the above letter was enclosed, writes under date of Jan. 25: "Since then we also have the news that three more missionaries have been killed by communistic bandits south of our old field as they were on their way fleeing out for refuge. They are Miss Martha J. Anderson of Minneapolis;* Miss Esther Victoria Nordlund of Chicago and Dr. Alexi Berg of Helsinki, Finland.

"The details of the missionaries' death were brought to Hankow by a Swedish missionary who interviewed the survivors We read in the notice: "The three missionaries were enroute aboard a bus carrying a number of Chinese passengers from Siangyang to Kiangling, in Hupeh province for a mission council meeting when the vehicle was halted during the middle of the afternoon of January 7 by a road block 30 miles north of the town of Kingman.

Shout "Americans Must Die"

"All passengers were ordered out by the leader of an armed 50-man band. As Berg and the women stepped into the roadway they were recognized as foreigners. Shouting in Chinese 'you are Americans, and Americans must die,' the armed men rushed toward the little group with pointed guns.

"Berg made no effort to establish his Finnish nationality, was shot first, his bullet pierced body falling at the feet of the missionary women. As the bandits, obviously irritated by the fact that the women remained calm in the face of the slaying, turned their guns on the Americans. Two Chinese passengers in the bus tried to intervene. Both were slain. Then the assassins killed the women."

Rev. Kiehn states "Around here it is more or less peaceful. People are only stirred by rumors from the outside."

Hard Trip from Shanghai

In a letter written January 4, Rev. Kiehn states: "Night before last we had visitors, two missionaries, Jarvis and Nelson, came on a round-about-way from Shanghai by cars, both going to Sian, where they are stationed. Mr. Nelson, coming from the U. S. A., brought a used car with him and a small two wheel trailer. Dr. Jarvis had ordered a station wagon over a year ago when it left America, arriving in Shanghai not so long ago.

"From Shanghai here they were on the road just 31 days, ruining several tires. You can hardly imagine the roads they came over. They said they had traveled 2,400 miles from Shanghai here. All other roads by rail or water, even some places by air are closed."

Relative to the weather Rev. Kiehn states "Night before last (letter dated Jan. 24) we received a blanket of snow and all night up to now has been snowing. The temperature came down to 17F. A fire in the home made stoves feel rather comfortable."

TO THE VOTERS OF OCHILTREE COUNTY:

In regard to the election the 28th of February, I see in the last week's paper that there is not much opposition except Waka. As one of the county board members we have done everything we could as far as I know. I believe 90% of the people will be against being taken into the independent district for I feel if they wanted us in, they would have taken us in first and then voted the bonds. It looks as though it was all planned beforehand. They tell me the "street talk" was they would vote the bonds, then take us in and lower the tax in the independent district.

They surely must be going to pour it on us. But did you ever know of taxes being lowered or even staying on the level. Of course it was a smart trick but we would like to have been treated as citizens and been considered as I think that a thing as big as the bond issue, all the people should have had a say about it.

It seems that we are the only ones that are going to pay.

However, if we haven't been doing our part it was no fault of ours as we have done everything we have been asked to do but if the going gets bad I can move on to greener pastures just like some promoters will do, that is if I can get loose.

As to Waka, I think that it is the most uncalled for and unsanitary deal that I have ever heard of in this country.

The only reason that I can see is just so the Independent District can run the whole show as Waka has a good grade school and serves lunch so I am told.

It seems to me that it would be just as sensible to take some of the grade school to Waka as through the cold and fifteen miles of icy roads. It is true that Waka sends her high school to Perryton but when the district was divided Waka was going to Spearman and the Perryton authorities asked them to send them in to Perryton schools, and Waka assumed their part in the indebtedness of the district when it was decided.

As I see it, it is still left up to the people who believe in the Golden Rule whether we be taken in against our will and assuming something we had no voice in.

Signed:

DU PONT Self-Cleaning House Paint STAYS WHITE

Yes, "Self-Cleaning" Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "Self-Cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected....It starts white...It stays white.

Veterans' NEWS

Only veterans taking full-time courses in schools or colleges will be entitled to increased subsistence allowances under a law signed February 14 by the President, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Veterans taking any of the followng types of training are not entitled to the increases, but will continue to receive subsistence at the old rates of $65 monthly for those without dependents and $90 for those with dependents:

1. Institutional on-the-farm training and part-time institutional training.

2. On-the-job training or apprenticeships.

3. Combination training in which students attend school part time and are employed part time, usually in a related field.

4. Interneship and residency training; and graduate training under a Fellowship requiring a reduced credit course load because of services rendered under provisions of the Fellowship.

Eligible veterans now in school who are entitled to $75 (no dependents) or $105 (one dependent), will not have to apply for the increases, VA, requesting that these veterans not write, said it had sufficient information to make automatic increases.

However, veterans entitled to $120 a month because they have more than one dependent, will be required to submit evidence of their additional dependents before the increased payments can be made. For dependent children, photostats or certified birth certificate copies will be necessary. For dependent parents, evidence of actual dependency must be submitted. If veterans now training submit evidence prior to July 1, 1948, they will receive retroactive payments at the new rates back to April 1, 1948.

The higher rates are applicable after April 1. However, since subsistence allowance checks are not due until the end of the month in which the veteran is in training, most of the eligible veteran-students will receive their first checks at the higher rates on or shortly after May 1, VA said.

Russians Speed Growth Of Quinine Trees

MOSCOW (AP)—Natural quinine is being produced in the USSR from the bark of trees growing in Russian hothouses.

An announcement stated:

"It is well known that the islands of Indonesia or the tropical districts of South America are the birthplaces of the quinine tree. Soviet agricultural workers and biochemists have been successful, however, in changing the structure of the tree from one depending on many years' growth to one of a single summer's culture."

Workers of the Kobuletski zonal station are given credit for the success. The station has "thousands of trees."

Where Does Your Money Go?

Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.

Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.

So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.

And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad . . . things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."

Clarence (Hook) Iott, cut adrift by the St. Louis Browns, pitched a two-hitter against the Cubs for the New York Giants and Ernie Bonham, ex-Yankee, turned in a two-hitter for the Pittsburg Pirates against the Reds.

Emil (Dutch) Leonard, ex-Washington Senator, tossed a three-hitter for the Phillies against the Cincinnati Reds while Bill Voiselle, traded by the Giants to the Braves, had a three-hitter against the Cardinals.

Hitchcock Tries New Technique in Movie Making

By GENE HANDSAKER

HOLLYWOOD—As you might expect, Alfred Hitchcock is up to something new. The rotund English director, who likes to let his camera rove all around the set and once shot a movie takng place entirely within a lifeboat, is now starting one whose action will cover just the amount of time it takes to watch the picture.

That isn't all. Hitch is shooting "Rope," a murder melodrama starring Jimmy Stewart as a suave man-about-Manhattan, a reel at a time. Instead of doing one or two-minute scenes, the actors must keep going without interruption for nine or ten minutes. That's why Hitch has surrounded Stewart with performers like Joan Chandler, John Dall, Farley Grainger and Richard Crane who have stage experience.

When I dropped around to the set, Hitch was in the mdst of a solid week's rehearsal of camera crew and cast before the celluloid would roll. The whole action takes place in a New York penthouse. Walls move in and out silently on overhead tracks—another innovation—to permit the camera crane, steered at the rear, to follow the actors from living room to hall to library to kitchen and back.

Hitchcock said he expected his flowing camera technique and the lack of time lapses to give his story a more concentrated form. Jimmy Stewart agreed that shooting a whole reel at a time, if the practice becomes general, might hamper actors who've never done more than a two-minute scene. And the thought of that color film rolling through at 40 cents a foot will constitute a mental hazard, he admitted. If he blows a line, a whole reel will be ruined.

AUTHOR of the Week

By W. G. ROGERS

MARGARET PENN'S first book "Manchester Fourteen Miles," was written during the hurly-burly of the start of World War II, when she wanted to record a quieter and, she feared, vanishing way of life. She was familiar with it at first hand, for she has lived in a small English village, and her continuing interests are, she says, "the usual rural ones, gardening, the greenhouse, dogs, reading and the countryside." This book inaugurates a trilogy, of which the second volume will be laid in London. Wife of a journalist on the London Times, Mrs. Penn's only previous writing had been on a newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Goucher, Booker, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Williams and Arla and Mrs. Chas. Todd of Colorado Springs, Colo., are at the bedside of their mother, Mrs Susan Goucher, who is critically ill in the Jim Dodson home. Mrs. Dodson is also a daughter to Mrs Goucher.

Mrs. Fannie Lawrence, San Gabriel, Calif., came in Monday night to be with her aunt, Mrs. Susan Goucher, who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dodson met her in Amarillo.

Veteran Forum

Q. I am a World War II veteran and would like to know how much an attorney who represents me in my claim for compensation or pension against the Veterans Administration is permitted to charge?

A. If the attorney is admitted to practice before the VA he may receive $10 in an original claim or $2 in a claim for increase in compensation or pension, provided the claim is allowed. These fees are paid by VA and deducted from the monetary benefit awarded the claimant.

Q.—I have been granted admission to a Veterans Administration domiciliary home and now would like to know if it is possible for me to take my wife with me to stay at the Home?

A. A. No. The law does not permit the wives of servicemen to be admitted to any domiciliary home of the Veterans Administration.

Q. How do I calculate the period of eligibility time consumed while I am taking a correspondence coure under the GI Bill?

A. One-fourth of the elapsed time in following your correspondence course will be charged against your period of entitlement.

Q. If I am hospitalized in a Veterans Administration Hospital, must the benefits from my hospitalization insurance policy be assigned to VA?

A. If treatment is rendered for a nonservice-connected disability, the amount of the policy that provides for hospital expenses must be assigned to Veterans Admistration. If the policy provides for stipulated amounts for the period of disablement, it is not necessary that it be assigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trimmell and Mrs. Dale Peters, Boyd, Okla., and Mrs. I. H. Sharp were in Amarillo Tuesday Enroute they visited with Mrs. Sharp's daughter, Mrs. Geo. D Lewis, Buena Vista, and her son, Harold Sharp at Pantex.

A "CITY" IN ITSELF—Most house hunters would jump at the chance for quarters such as are provided on this drilling barge operated in Corpus Christi Bay near Ingleside, even with the 2½-mile boat trip which would be necessary to reach it. Living quarters are 30 feet above the bottom of the bay, and feature such niceties as the most luxurious of blankets, tile showers, the latest magazines and radio music when desired. The barge—the Matagorda—is owned by the Texas Co., while Loffland Brothers Drilling Co., owns the big rig and other equipment necessary for drilling operations. The well derrick, which has a load capacity of 952,000 pounds, was built to withstand hurricane winds up to 125 miles an hour.

ous protests of patrons in the Waka district who are strongly opposed to the annexation.

Opponents of the annexation state that adequate and equal educational advantages are provided in the Waka schools and that it would destroy community life to annex the school district.

The common school districts do not maintain schools, but send their children to school in Perryton, paying a tuition fee to the Perryton district Waka maintains an elementary school.

Those who are in favor of the proposal maintain that the school tax burden must be equalized in all parts of the county if the schools are to keep abreast of the times. School taxes in the common school districts are considerably lower at present than in the Perryton district.

If the proposal carries, the area of the Perryton Independent School District will be nearly doubled. In the event the election carries, the law requires that the school at Waka be maintained, as long as the enrollment does not drop below 20 pupils

Last spring the three common school districts of Black, Blodgett, and Lakeview, in Ochiltree county, voted to be annexed to the Spearman Independent School District, and last August the Huntoon Independent district was divided, with one-half being annexed to Perryton and the other half to Booker.

Ranger squad to the regional tournament at this same Burton Gymnasium, where they were eliminated by the Carey Cardinals, state champions that year.

Perryton faces a strong team in their opening game, but all eight teams are strong and it doesn't seem to make much difference about the pairings. The large playing court and fan-shaped backboards will be some handicap to the Rangers, but coach Murry believes the boys have as good a chance to win the crown as anyone else.

will be increased next year due to the thousands of dollars of new buildings that have been constructed and no change in the tax rate is contemplated as the situation looks now.

The council has taken the position that it is their duty as the executive body of the city to bring the need for water and sewer expansion before the people, and that it is strictly up to the people to say whether or not they want it. It cannot be denied that the water situation especially as regards fire protection, has already reached the critical stage, and the condition of sewage disposal is fast approaching that stage.

Whether or not the people want the expansion will be decided next Tuesday at the polls.

The worst tornadoes in ten years in Texas and Oklahoma last April 7 and the Texas City explosions and fires in mid-April claimed 500 lives and inflicted more than 3,500 injuries.

Texas was victim of almost every type of disaster during 1947. In addition to the Texas City explosions, various parts of the state suffered tornadoes, forest fires, tropical storms, and hail storms during the year. To date the Red Cross has expended $1,580,000 in the rehabilitation of Texas disaster victims.

Rehabilitation work is still being carried on at the scene of the major disasters. At Texas City, where the Red Cross expended $1,361,915 in aiding nearly 9,000 persons, 41 deferred medical cases will continue to be cared for as long as the need exists, whether it be months or years. After the destructive blast 800 families required Red Cross medical-nursing care alone, at an estimated cost of $345,000. Food, clothing, and maintenance in the days immedaitely following the blast totaled an estimated $370,000.

Final rebuilding is going forward in the Woodward, Okla., tornado area where two near-by towns, Glazier and Higgins, in the Texas Panhandle, were virtually leveled and scores of city and suburban blocks of Woodward were devastated. Heaviest cost item was for rebuilding and repair in that relief operation in which approximately $1,323,000 in Red Cross funds were expended and 10,000 persons aided.

Phillips held this lead until the closing minutes of the game. The Hawks were ahead 25-19 at the half and led 29-25 at the end of the third quarter. Two close shots by Clarence Miller tied the game at 29-all soon after the final quarter opened and at the referee's intermission, with 3 minutes to play, the score was still knotted at 31-all.

Hummer sank a free throw in these waning minutes to put the Rangers out front again 32-31. Then Harry Smith canned one for the Hawks to put them ahead 34-33. Powell dropped one in from the side to push the Rangers ahead again 34-33. With this one point lead, the Rangers started holding the ball, and only 30 seconds remained.

After numerous tie-ups, jump balls and several Phillips shots at the basket, J. O. McLellan fouled Miller, who dropped the ball through the net for the two-point margin at game's end.

Miller was high point man for the evening, making 16 points. Revis dropped in 9 points, Hummer 4, Powell 4 and Pletcher 2.

For Phillips, Harry Smith and J. O. McClellan shared scoring honors with 10 points each.

Ten Hints for The Homemaker

Virdie P. Wheeler, home demonstration agent, suggests ten ways to help the homemaker solve the problem of serving meals. If followed, the homemaker can serve nutritious, appetizing meals, and at the same time share America's abundant foods with the world.

Prevent waste in the home; buy wisely, buy abundant foods, as they are generally cheaper; store food properly to prevent spoilage and waste; prepare food carefully in order to retain all nutritive qualities and prevent shrinkage; use left over foods skillfully; and serve meals attractively

Roy W. Snyder, Extension Meat Specialist adds that the freezing of home grown products is becoming more and more important. More people are realizing that frozen food lockers are not a luxury, but a good investment which can contribute toward the family's balanced food supply.

Yard Work Now Pays Dividends

A beautiful yard is the result of year around work, according to Virdie P. Wheeler, home demonstration agent. There are several jobs that can be done now that will make your landscape work easier the rest of the year.

For instance, she says look your yard over and consider saving steps and improving design. Remove trellises, old stumps and anything that does not add to the beauty of the yard. Fill in and level the yard. Of course the biggest job right now is the transplanting and thinning out of trees and shrubs. Crowded shrubbery should be thinned. The extra plants may be set another place in the yard or given to a neighbor. Thinning will help shrubs to look better and grow better.

It is easy to have color in the landscape the year around. It all depends on selection. Shrubs require much less water and much less care than annual flowers. There are also fewer insects and diseases to combat than for the tender plants. For color Mrs. Wheeler suggests Pyracantha, Nandina, coral berry, cononeaster, and Mahonia, all of which have colored berries, and some have colored leaves that are beautiful in the winter landscape. All of these are growing nicely in her yard. Other shrubs that are doing well in Ochiltree county are mock orange, redbud, forsythia or golden bells and Tartarian honeysuckle.

Editor:

...atement published in last ...Herald by the patrons of ...ka Independent School ... seemed to me to be a ...t and intelligent presen... ...f the facts concerning the ... that school, furthermore, ...d to indicate, on the part ... patrons, an emphatic de... to become a part of the Perryton Independent School District.

As an ex-student of the Waka school, and after much consideration of my grade school days, I feel called upon to express these opinions. After completing my grade school education, I went to Perryton High School. At NO time did I feel an inferiority of background or preparation. On the contrary, I remember that, when I was in high school, a large percent of the scholastically superior students had come from the rural grade schools.

Personally, I feel that, the small country school, with its greater attention gives a very superior academic background. However, all these facts were adequately explained in statement to which I refer. The thing I am more interested in is the human aspect of the question.

In the large consolidated school, little individual attention is given to the development of moral and social conscience. I quote a recent "Readers Digest" article which referred to the "little red school-house" as one of the most important forces in the history of the American culture, in the development of a moral and social conscience. Is it the intention of the people of Ochiltree County to destroy one of the few remaining sources of such a force? Particularly when this school offers, in addition, most advantages of the "modern school."

Lastly, I am most concerned with the method in which this controversy will be settled. The people who will hold the great majority of votes are not the people who are most vitally concerned with the issue. On the contrary, they are "town people" whose children, likely, will never know what it is to climb on a school bus for a cold, rough, gruelling 60 mile ride each day. This is an un-democratic system! Waka should maintain its independence, since that is what those people want who are most vitally concerned. I have no idea where this unfair election procedure came from, but it can be beaten if the people of Ochiltree County will look fairly at this situation and vote as the people of the Waka District desire. Remember, the people of Czechoslovocia did not favor their annexation, either. Some, who have paid a considerable price for the democratic principle, will be interested in seeing how well the people of Ochiltree County (who gave that principle such loyal and enthusiastic support during World War II) will support the democratic principle of SELF-GOVERNMENT during this post-war period.

Sincerely yours,
George Hohmann

P. S. Am curious why the Waka INDEPENDENT district is on the same ballot as the other COMMON districts in the county?

In behalf of the Waka Independent School District: As we all know, Saturday, February 28, is an important election, in fact, a special election, pertaining to the Waka Independent School. In 1930 Waka School withdrew from the Perryton School District and was granted that withdrawal by paying $20,500, with five percent interest and paying tuition for high school students sent here.

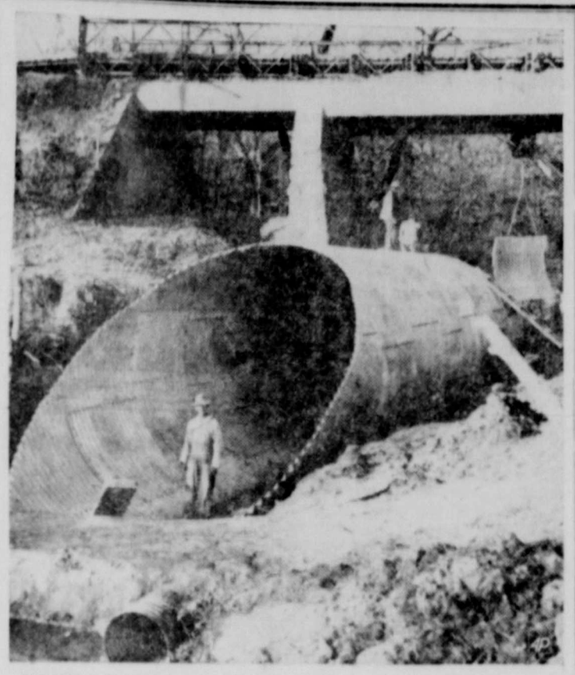

All that Waka received was the school building; four such buildings were built by the Perryton District and three of them have gone to rack and ruin since their schools have been discontinued and the community life has been destroyed. Children of all ages have traveled miles and miles to and from their community to Perryton.

As for promising to continue an elementary school at Waka: Well, we all know the other promise made in 1930 is trying to be broken. This movement was not started in Waka, but in Perryton, to over take the Waka District. You may think you do not have a voice in this election if you do not live in the Waka District. But that is not the case, you do have a right to vote.

We lived in the Waka community for over 20 years, our children going to the Waka School and then graduating from the Perryton High School. We know Waka always had a fine school, good teachers and all that makes for a good school. It has always met its obligations, so let's think and do unto others as we would like to have others do unto us.

BIGGEST CULVERT IN TEXAS—This corregated steel culvert on Paw Paw Creek on the East Main Street Road, Denison, is the biggest in Texas, says Cecil Cagle, resident highway engineer. The culvert is being installed by the Texas Highway Department on the Carpenters Bluff-Pottsboro farm to market road. The culvert is 13 feet in diameter and will be 156 feet long when completed. It will replace the narrow concrete bridge with a wider roadway.

Birth of Son Calls For Educated Father

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP)—Fathers ought to know just as much about bringing up children as mothers do, believes Ramon Alan of Paterson, N. J. He's the only man among 50 young women taking a course in "Principles of Child Guidance" at Cornell University's college of home economics.

Alan, a senior in the college of mechanical engineering, expects to apply his new-found knowledge in bringing up his own son, born in December.

Originally, both Mr. and Mrs. Alan planned to take the course. But Mrs. Alan fell ill and Pop had to carry on alone.

Being the only male in the class isn't too difficult, says Alan. In fact, he adds, it's a "decorative relief" from mechanical engineering.

Who'd Do the Job?

Some unions in Detroit recently started a "food supply station," in an effort to do something about the high cost of living. The stations buy food from wholesale grocers, and sell it to members at wholesale prices. A food order which would cost about $8.29 in adjacent retail grocery stores can be bought at the station for $7.08. The difference—17 per cent in this case—is what the retailer adds to wholesale prices to cover costs.

This may sound like a very sound idea until you get below the surface. The San Francisco News devoted a lead editorial to the scheme, in which it pointed to some of the fallacies involved. The food supply station does business in the union hall—and so it pays no rent and gets heat and light free. Members donate their services as clerks, so it pays no wages. The union treasury supplies the working capital, and so there is no loss on fresh eggs, the station stocks only nonperishable staples, and so there is no loss on fresh fruits, vegetables, and meats. And, finally, it is open but a few hours a day, three days a week.

As the News says, "If wide extension of this plan should succeed in 'cutting out' all retail grocers, who'd give the public the service, union food supply stations save money by not giving? who'd sell perishable goods? Who'd pay the taxes grocers pay now? Who'd operate comfortable, convenient stores in every neighborhood, keeping open all day every weekday? And who'd provide jobs for all the grocery clerks now earning wages?"

Babson Discusses Money

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

BABSON PARK, Fla., Feb. 20—Since my recent column stating that high prices are largely a matter of "supply and demand," I have received many letters of protest. These letters claim that the "amount of money in circulation" is the main cause.

Money in Circulation

There is about three times as much money in circulation today as there was ten years ago. This doubtless is a factor in the situation, but it makes no difference how much money is in circulation or the rate of circulation if people do not buy goods.

Ten men may be sitting around a table where each one owes the other a hundred dollar or a total of $1,000. By presenting one of these men a hundred dollar bill he can pass it to the next man, and the next man to the next man, and so on; then this one hundred dollars can "pay up" the entire debt of $1,000! But ths does not effect prices one penny.

Russia's Cure

What Russia has recently done in reducing the amount of money in circulation was done at the suggestion of her economists who, through advance notice, had their savings in land, commodities, and other real things which were not deflated. This program of Russia, however, does not increase the amount of food, clothing and shelter available to the Russian people which are the things in which they are really interested.

President Truman could accomplish the same thing in a gradual way by paying off Government debt, increasing bank reserves, raising interest rates, and forbidding installment sales, but for political or other reasons the Administration shies away from sound recommendations.

Robbing Us of Gold

Readers will remember that during the early part of the Roosevelt Administration when we held more gold than any other nation, President Roosevelt made us turn in all of our gold coins. At that time gold was worth $20.67 per ounce compared with $35 per ounce for gold today. Mr. Roosevelt did this on the advice of the same economists who are now razzing me for saying that "inflation" is 90% a question of supply and demand.

President Roosevelt then robbed the American people of billions of dollars which they had honestly earned. It was as bad as what Russia is doing today. The gold which the citizens of the United States then held was not used for circulation. It was in the bureau drawers of our wives and children; it was carried in our own pockets for luck and emergency; and much of it was in safe deposit boxes throughout the country. When, however, President Roosevelt forced us to turn in all of this gold and exchange it for paper currency, this paper money was spent, and hence, greatly inflated the amount of currency outstanding. As the swapping of gold dollars for paper money then increased the amount in circulation, why wouldn't the reverse be true today? If Washington is really serious in reducing the amount of money in circulation, why not offer people their gold dollars back again in place of the paper dollars which they would turn in? The U. S. Treasury certainly has gold enough buried in the ground.

Coale's New Book

I have just finished reading a new book by Ansley J. Coale entitled, "Vulnerability to Atomic Bombs," prepared under the direction of the Social Science Research Council. It is published by the Princeton University Press and should be read by everyone. This book plainly shows that if World War III should come, it would destroy some of our large cities. After reading this book, I made up my mind to put some good bank notes in a safe deposit vault and, in fact, hide away some silver dollars or half-dollars.

If every reader would follow the above program this would result in reducing the amount of money in circulation which the economists say is necessary and, at the same time, give each of us some ready money in case World War III closes our large city banks! Certainly, the Government cannot object to us storing up good bank notes and when claiming that the in circulation is responsi high prices.

ere Are a Few Helpful Hints to Help Save oney on Income Tax If You're Careful get the same automatic 10 ent allowance if you make return on Form 1040 and get your tax from the tax table on Page 4 of the form.

If you use Form 1040 and your income is $5,000 or more, you may take a standard deduction allowance of $500 or itemize your deductions on Page 3 of that form.

If your general deductions are substantially more than 10 per cent of income or the $500 standard allowance, it will pay you to itemize them. If they are substantially less than 10 per cent or the $500 allowance, you save money and time by taking the standard allowance.

Several expenses in connection with the use of an automobile are deductible.

Suppose you use an auto for convenience and pleasure but not in your business. You may deduct:

State and city auto taxes including license fees, state gasoline taxes in most states, but NOT federal gasoline taxes.

Also losses or damages to a car (to the extent not compensated by insurance or otherwise) from accident, fire, storm or theft.

If the damage results from your faulty driving but is not due to a wilful act or negligence, it is deductible. But if you were driving while intoxicated, you CANNOT deduct the damages.

Also deductible are the costs of repairing damages caused by freezing of the auto radiator or motor.

You may deduct damages paid for loss of property to others resulting from an auto collision. However, NO deduction is allowed for damages paid on account of injuries to persons resulting from a collision unless your auto was being used for business purposes.

If an automobile is used in your business, you may take the deductions mentioned above as well as expenses for gasoline, oil, repairs, garage rent, insurance and other necessary operations and upkeep.

Depreciation of a business auto, based on the cost of the car and its estimated useful life, is deductible.

Alimony payments may be deducted if they are perodic payments and made under a decree of divorce or legal separation. A cash settlement of alimony required by the divorce decree to be made in a lump sum is NOT deductible.

Payments of temporary alimony while a divorce suit is pending are NOT deductible.

Bad debts are allowable deductions if the debt became worthless during the year for which the income tax return is made. The debtor must be legally liable to the taxpayer.

Loans to relatives to tide them over hard times, made out of moral considerations and without an understanding regarding repayment, are frequently held to be in the nature of a gift rather than a loan. In that case NO deduction is allowed.

However, when a bad loan to a relative was a regular business transaction a deduction may be allowed.

If you move out of your house and rent it, a depreciation deduction is allowable. Depreciation deductions are NOT allowed for your own use of your home and its furnishings.

Medical and dental expenses which exceed 5 per cent of your income are deductible.

Money paid for accident and health insurance, for group hospitalization and clinical care is deductible. You may deduct the cost of eyeglasses, artificial teeth and limbs, as well as money paid doctors, nurses, dentists and hospitals.

Necessary ambulance costs may be ducted. You CANNOT deduct funeral and burial expenses.

Business expenses incurred in work for your employer are deductible, if you are not reimbursed by your employer. Also deductible are initiation fees and dues paid to a labor union, as well as union assessments for unemployment benefits.

Other deductible expenses are amounts paid for professional or technical journals, bar association dues and similar items directly helpful to the earning of your salary as an employee. You may NOT deduct dues paid a social fraternity.

If a professional man uses his residence as office and home, he may deduct the expense of that part used for professional purposes. Expenses NOT deductible include the cost of books and the cost of instruments and equipment having a useful life longer than a year. These are considered capital expenditures.

Most interest payments are deductible, such as on a, personal loan, a home mortgage or on installment purchases.

Many taxes are deductible. You may deduct state income tax, most property tax and state gasoline taxes in most states. Federal income taxes are NOT deductible. Also NOT deductible are federal taxes on furs, jewelry, liquor, cigarettes, toilet articles and the like.

You may deduct tate or local retail sales taxes if under the law they are imposed directly upon you as a consumer.

Contributions to charitable, religious, educational, scientific and literary organizations are deductible if the contributions are to be used for public purposes.

'Slave Girl' Gives Yvonne De Carlo A Chance to Dance and Look Pretty

Inspired by an early chapter in American foreign relations, "Slave Girl" takes place at the beginning of 1800 when Uncle Sam appeased rulers of the Barbary States with gold so they wouldn't sell captured Americans into slavery.

The picture plays at the Ellis on Friday and Saturday, March 5-6.

Yvonne De Carlo appears as a Venetian beauty, imprisoned and made a palace dancer by the Pasha of Tripoli. As a dancer, Miss De Carlo is pretty good, but she wants to be free. There's where George Brent comes in. He is an emissary from Washington sent to ransom American prisoners.

Brent starts out with a chest of gold for ransom money, but has the money schemed away from him by a little slave girl, then the complications begin.

The story is told in an unusual comedy vein, which pokes tongue-in-cheek fun at swashbuckling heroes and pretty maidens generally.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Newman and daughter, Jimmie, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Overbey were in Canadian Saturday night for the Perryton-Phillips basketball game.

'Arizona' Returns With Jean Arthur And Bill Holden

A wide-open desert city of the 1860's, Tuscon, Arizona, is the colorful scene of Columbia's great motion picture spectacle, "Arizona," which has just been re-released and opens on Tues.-Thurs., March 2-3-4 at the Pertex Theatre. Jean Arthur is starred as a pioneer woman among a thousand brawling men.

The supporting cast is headed by William Holden, Warren William, Porter Hall, Edgar Buchanan and Regis Toomey. Produced and directed by Wesley Ruggles, "Arizona" has been hailed as a mighty outdoor action drama, a turbulent romance and a magnificent adventure.

It's the story of early Tucson, when advancing civilization whipped into submission both the Indians and the renegade whites, when that very civilization brought into the far frontier the terrors and trials of the Civil War. For the film, Columbia reconstructed in the Arizona desert the entire city of Tuscon of another day.

"Arizona" was based upon Clarence Budington Kelland's stirring novel which was serialized in the Saturday Evening Post and adapted for the screen by Claude Binyon.

SWORD WAVER—is George Brent, as he heorically protects Yvonne De Carlo from villians in "Slave Girl",, which shows at the Ellis on Friday and Saturday, March 5-6. The story revolves around the efforts of an American emissary who tries to release captured Americans from slavery in the Barbary States. In the process, George Brent buys a pretty little slave at a bargain auction and gets into all kinds of trouble.

SOMETHING IN THE WIND—Deanna Durbin, whose singing talent is always refreshing to hear, appears at the Ellis on Wed.-Thurs., March 3-4 in "Something In the Wind," which also stars juvenile star Donald O' Conner.

Quick Chew

CHICAGO (AP)—John Chew, at 20, was the "grayheard" of the recent graduating class at Fenger High School but his record showed that he was a fast man with a book. He didn't start to grade school until he was 12. Then he whizzed through the eight grades in double time and finshed in four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Overbey were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cudd and family.

J. F. Dunkle, Alanreed, Texas, and Wayland Merriman, Pampa, visited a short while Wednesday afternoon with O. W. Dunkle.

Mrs. Frances Ferguson and Miss Virginia Good returned home Monday night from Amarillo where they attended market Sunday and Monday.

'Roses are Red' Has Everything For Excitement

A double portion of trigger-taut suspense, lighting action and sinister intrigue will appear on the Pertex screen on Sunday and Monday, March 7-8, when "Roses Are Red," appears.

With an exciting mix-up of physical doubles and the covering up of a murder, the Irving Elman screen play makes a surprise take-off which builds to two-fold intensity when Castle, the D. A. and Castle, the criminal, swing into action. The story plot concerns itself with a crusading city prosecutor who is kidnapped and replaced in office by his lookalike who runs the city as a tool of its corrupt political machine.

Don Castle, in the dual assignment, does an amazing job of individualizing each portrayal which lead him into complex romantic problems in the film involving two lovely blondes. Peggy Knudsen plays the D. A.'s girl friend, a reporter who accidentally discovers the switch and proceeds with a dangerous investigation to discover his kidnappers, while Patricia Knight gives an equally credible performance as the glamorous wife of the impersonator.

Guilty of Breach Of Ethics in Jail

SIOUX FALLS, S. D. (AP)—Wilbur Voight of Sioux Falls is doing six months as the result of a breach of jail ethics. Voight pleaded guilty in circuit court to grand larcency. He was accused of stealing the overcoat of a cell mate in the city jail, where he originally was held on a charge of intoxication.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rupprecht, Follett, visited Sunday evening in the home of Geo. Rupprecht, Sr., Eldon Rupprecht and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Frommelt.

Cracker Barrel Law Enforcement

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—At 81, Harry A. Lewis enjoys the law "and making others do likewise."

Lewis is Northhampton County's oldest constable.

"It's an interesting sideline when I'm not in my grocery store," he says.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gyger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Williams and Glenda and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cudd and Genette were in Canadian Saturday night for the Perryton-Phillips ball game.

Lhasa, principal city of Tibet, has a population of 50,000.

the district title in basketball so far. Such success is very, very rare in high school sports circles and never has been attained by Perryton before. The school had a bi-district basketball title in 1930 and a district championship in 1937, but the football teams in those years were not tops. In 1927 the football team won the bi-district and in 1939 went to a regional title, but the cage teams were only so-so.

One of the Rangers most ardent fans was the most heartsick after the game Saturday night. He was Mitch Murry, small son of coach Murry. After the presentation of the trophy, Mitch was proudly carrying the trophy to the dressing room when he slipped and fell on the concrete steps, smashing the base of the prize. Although a new base has already been ordered, little Mitch was mighty hard to console after that accident.

Perryton's small but mighty David Hummer apparently has the best all-around athlete title sewed up for good this year. He was chosen on the all-district basketball team this year, made the all-district, all-regional and fourth all-state football team, and has been district tennis singles champion for the past two years. He packs a powerful lot of ability in those 140 pounds and is as unassuming as he is good. In fact, if you waited for him to say anything about it, you'd never know he was on the team, much less one of the star players. Because of his small size, it is not likely that he'll play any college ball, but he might fool somebody at that. Strong, silent David plans to attend Texas University next fall, though he won't be a candidate for any of their athletic teams.

Keith Flowers, who is a freshman football candidate at TCU, is of course the most publicized athlete Perryton has ever had. Last year he, too, was an all-district basketball choice, then went on to garner every laurel in class A football, including an All-American berth.

And when it comes to looking over all-around athletes, you can't overlook burly Raymond Powell, who was a star of the championship football team, is a mainstay on the current cage aggregation, and who won the regional lightheavyweight Golden Gloves boxing crown this year.

If Tommy Pletcher had started sooner, he might be one of the best all-around athletes of them all. He stood out in a spectacular manner in the first season he ever played football, he is a top-notch tennis player, a current spark-plug on the basketball team, won his weight in the school boxing tournament last year. The only trouble is that Tommy is a senior already and he didn't start engaging in competitive athletics until last year.

Estimating the Rangers' chances in the regional tournament is strictly a pick in the dark. Perryton has never met any of the teams in the regional tuornament and hasn't even played any common opponents. While Levelland, defending regional champion, and Dimmitt, winner of 30 out of 33 games this year, are the favorites, we believe the Rangers wil give any of them a bad time if they are "right." Their point-making ability was never up to par during the district tournament, although they were peerless in every other department after that first dismal showing against Phillips.

From the comment we've heard around town, there will be a sizeable group of Perryton fans at the regional tournament in Canyon this week-end to support the Rangers. The Rangers have had good cheering sections all during the season, and it is natural to suppose that those who really like basketball will journey down to Canyon to aid this once-in-a-decade team in their regional title quest.

Grady Yeary, Warren Cudd and Barney Tevis were in Canadian Saturday night for the basketball game.

Australian Radio Show is Hit; Puts All of Studio Audience to Sleep

(AP Newsfeatures)

SYDNEY, Australia — Three hundred persons went to a Sydney broadcasting studio the other evening to see and hear hypnotist William J. Ousley try to put his radio audience to sleep. Only two saw it through—the rest went to sleep.

Telephone calls to the broadcasting station indicated Ousley put some radio listeners to sleep.

These were some of the complaints of telephone callers:

A man said his wife was standing at the window, laughing and throwing all her hats out.

Another said he had told a hypnotzed friend to pick carnations from the garden, and couldn't stop him. A dog was reported to have fallen asleep.

Most hypnotized listeners, however were awakened when Ousley told them at the end of the broadcast to laugh at the mental picture of an amusing hat.

The experiment, Ousley told a reporter, was to encourage people to realize they can hypnotize themselves. Auto-hypnosis, he said, enables people to relax completely in refreshing sleep.

Listeners to his broadcast were told they were going to sleep, that they were relieved of all their worries. He alternated his instructions with a slow count.

Cosmic Ray Samples Hunted by Clippers

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—A small sealed package of photographic plates was carried in a Pan-American Airways clipper that arrived from New York. It had already made two trips from New York to Calcutta, and will make another trip to New York and back to South Africa, and two to London.

When it is unwrapped by physicists of the Chicago University Institute for Nuclear Research the plates are expected to contain information of vital importance in cosmic ray research.

Cosmic ray particles, when traversing photographic emulsion, leave tracks. Even the weight and speed of the particles are clearly shown.

The possibilities of this new type of induced radio-activity were shown by H. E. Huntley of Witwatersrand University, who deposited photographic plates 11,100 feet up in the Drankensburg mountains in Natal, and obtained pictures of cosmic rays smashing a glass atom.

Atom smashing by cosmic rays cannot be controlled as in the man-made article. Its projectiles have vastly greater energies than the artificial product. To get the full force of cosmic radiation it is necessary to be above the blanket of the earth's atmosphere.

Booker Church of Christ to Hold Gospel Services

The Church of Christ of Booker has announced the beginning of a series of Gospel services to begin Thursday night, February 26. These services will be held in the new church building at 8:00 o'clock each evening, with Lee E. Rawlings, minister of the Perryton Church of Christ, as the speaker.

The Booker congregation was established one year ago by the Perryton church and since that time has made fine progress. Mr. Rawlings conducted a very successful meeting last February in Booker which resulted in many additions to the church. The public is invited to attend each of these services and to worship according to New Testament Christianity. Congregational singing will be a feature of these services.

Miss Dorothea Roberts who is attending Mary Mount College, Salina, Kans. came in Wednesday afternoon to spend the remainder of the week with her mother, Mrs. Verna Roberts.

Four Ranger Band Members Chosen at WT Band Clinic

Four members of the Perryton high school band have been selected to play in the All-Star Clinic Band at Canyon on February 27, M. J. Newman, director of the West Texas State College Buffalo band, has announced.

These band members are Rozelle Vaughn, clairnet; Claudine Carmichael, clarinet; Gayle Ferguson, alto saxophone; and Lola Bell Barnes, snare drum.

The players were selected by Newman, through recommendations of J. D. Davis, Perryton high school band director.

The Fifth Annual High School Band Clinic sponsored by West Texas State College will attract between 700 and 800 high school musicians, Newman said recently.

The Perryton drummers and twirlers will also participate in special clinics on the same day. Special entertainment will be furnished by the WTSC band and musical fraternities.

This clinic will be broadcast by delayed transcription over an Amarillo radio station Sunday afternoon.

The band members will be taken on the Ranger activity bush and will return after the regional tournament basketball game between Canyon and Perryton Friday night.

A Statement of Facts

From Your City Council Regarding the

$275,000 Revenue Bond Election

Offered for Your Consideration at the Polls on

Tuesday, March 2

Your present city executive officials, knowing first hand the appalling inadequacy of the water and sewer facilities of the growing City of Perryton, have found that the only method possible to provide more water, better sewage disposal, and larger water mains with additional fire hydrants is by a bond issue. If the voters of Perryton want these facilities kept apace with the expansion of the residential sections and the growth in population, then money for this purpose must be provided by the sale of bonds. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO OTHER WAY TO OBTAIN THESE NEEDED AND NECESSARY IMPROVEMENTS.

Some Facts and Figures

Actual Valuation of City of Perryton	$6,250,000
Assessed Valuation for 1947 Tax Roll	$4,200,000
Present Tax Rate	$1.25 per $100
Present Bonded Indebtedness (Tax Bonds)	$24,000
Present Cash Balance in Sinking Fund For Retirement of Bonded Indebtedness	$44,739
Proposed Issue—Water $200,000—Sewer $75,000	$275,000
Total Bonded Indebtedness (If this Proposed Issue is Authorized)	$516,000

This Proposed Bond Issue Will Not Be Paid from Property Taxes!

Bear in mind that this proposed $275,000 bond issue is a REVENUE bond. This means that not one cent of property tax money will ever go to pay either interest or principal. This proposed bond issue will be retired, interest and principal, from the revenue or income of the water and sewerage systems and NOT from property taxes.

The bonded indebtedness in 1935 was $309,000. Note that it has been reduced to $241,000 at the present time. In 1935 all outstanding paving, water and sewer bonds were refinanced into a single issue.

- No major extensions in the city water system have been made since 1923. At that time the population of Perryton was 800. No major extension in the sewer system has been made since 1927. The city's population in 1927 was only 1,800.
- We are making the conservative estimate that the present population is 4,000, an increase of 2,200 over the 1,800 people here in 1927. Many estimate the present population figure at 5,000 people.
- Ten years ago, 1936-37, the water department income was $17,000. The water income for the year 1946-47, was $32,000, an increase of $15,000. The income from the sewer system was $6,250 in 1947.
- If this bond issue is approved a new well will be drilled in the south part of the city. It will be provided with overhead and underground storage. Main water lines will be laid where needed to provide adequate water supply for homes, business and fire fighting.
- Our present water mains will not carry sufficient water supply to serve outlying areas during the summer months. For this reason a supply must be provided in the south side of town to feed existing lines and proposed new lines from both the north and the south. In other words a new well at site of present plant would not help the water situation on account of the distribution problem.
- This proposed bond issue provides for an estimated 45 new fire plugs, all to be placed on supply mains not smaller than four inches. At the present time, some homes are as far as 1,500 ft. from a fire hydrant.
- The proposed bond issue for sewer construction provides for repair of sewage disposal plant and necessary sewer lines to put north and east side citizens in reach of main sewer lines. The proposed extension does not include any lateral sewer lines.

THE GROWTH OF PERRYTON IN CITY VALUATION AND POPULATION MAKES IT IMPOSSIBLE TO DETERMINE THE EXTENT OF INFLUENCE THIS PROPOSED ISSUE WILL HAVE ON TAXES. ALL OF US ARE AWARE THAT THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS OF NEW BUILDINGS HAVE BEEN ERECTED IN PERRYTON DURING THE PAST YEAR. WE ESTIMATE THAT NEW CONSTRUCTION WILL ADD $600,000 TO OUR ASSESSED VALUATION ROLLS.

Building Plans Approved for Farmers Co-op

Plans for the new Farmers Cooperative building on east Brillhart were approved at a meeting of a group of stockholders with the board of directors Saturday afternoon. James V. Lassiter is the architect for the building and has been employed to supervise its construction.

A building committee was elected, composed of H. C. Brillhart, chairman, George Dietrich and James Brillhart.

Construction of the building will begin as soon as materials arrive and will continue as weather permits. Most of the labor will be hired by the building committee, it was indicated in the meeting. Some of the work, such as hauling of gravel, will be done by the stockholders.

Approximately 40 persons have been contacted to purchase preferred stock for financing the building, and $17,000 of the required $40,000 has been subscribed.

Hospital Council Has Interesting Meet in Amarillo

The second meeting of the Panhandle Hospital Council was held Sunday, Feb. 22, at the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, with representatives from ten hospitals attending.

The temporary officers, who were elected some weeks ago, were confirmed for a one-year term. These officers are J. W. Erickson, Sanford Hospital, president; Paul M. Clauser, Veterans Hospital, Amarillo, vice-president; Helen M. Allen, Sanford Hospital, secretary.

Paul Clauser made a talk on the value of membership in national, state and local hospital associations and several suggestions were made on bylaws. It was suggested that for the present there be no geographical limitations in order that any hospital wishing to join the group could do so regardless of location.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo on March 21, stated president Erickson.

Texas Solon Advocates Use Of War Scrap for Oil Industry

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (AP) — The return of junked guns, tanks and the like from Europe to relieve the scrap iron shortage has been urged by Reps. Ken Regan of Midland and Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater.

Both represent large oil producing areas, Regan the territory from Midland and Odessa out to El Paso, and Beckworth the East Texas Field.

How the oil industry is affected by the scrap iron shortage was described to the house by Regan.

"This shortage of steel continues to Hamper, prevent, and delay the drilling of wells that would, in all probability, relieve if not entirely prevent the shortage in oil and its products if an adequate supply of well casings could be made available," he said.

"Yet, Mr. Speaker, we are told that there are tremendous quantities of scrap steel in Europe and Africa.

"Mr. Speaker, we are shipping boatload after boatload of various supplies and commodities to Europe; the boats are returning empty.

"Is it not high time, Mr. Speaker, that these United States start practicing some economies at home and do something that will be a direct benefit to all our people?"

Beckworth has for months corresponded with American Military Government officials in Germany on the matter. Recently he recieved word from them that plans were being drawn for an organized program to salvage war scrap for shipment to the U. S. and England.

General Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor in Germany, wrote that while negotiations for returning scrap are pending, "it is doubtful that any scrap will be sent in through Texas ports."

Beckworth wrote back for more information and again urged more attention be given to the matter of getting some of the scrap in through Gulf ports for use in Texas.

Floyd Murry and Glen Allison attended a meeting of regional basketball coaches and school men in Canyon Monday afternoon.

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP)—The Army air field here — one of the nation's biggest heavy bomber installations — formerly known only as the Rapid City Army Air Base, has a new name. It's the Weaver Air Force base. Senator Chan Gurney (R—S. D.) says the name was bestowed on the field in memory of Maj Gen. Walter R. The tornado operation following three storms in April and May, affecting six Oklahoma and six Texas communities, was the costliest tornado rehabilitation operation in Red Cross annals. Total expenditures in Oklahoma (over $1,300,000) is more than one-eighth the nation-wide disaster expenditure total.

Every state in the Midwestern Area was struck by disaster in 1947. Over the nation, 45 states and Alaska were struck by disaster.

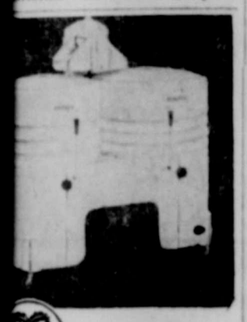

Of the 13 major disaster operations on American National Red Cross books for 1947, two touched seven communities—Spring tornadoes affecting Lipscomb, Hemphill, Borden, Hockley, Martin, and Howard Counties—and "Texas City." Of the 1,266 disaster-caused deaths listed, more than half occurred in Texas. Of the more than $11,000,000 allocated by Red Cross for the relief of all disaster victims, over one-seventh went to aid Texans in just two of the 20 disaster operations conducted in the "Lone Star State."

How Old is Old? Age Not Measured In Years, Says Cox

AUSTIN, Texas — Some folks are old at sixty; others are mentally and physically alert at eighty. The number of years one has lived may not be a true index to one's physical condition. Actually, the length of a person's life span is influenced by the condition of his arteries. Premature hardening of the arteries, often due to avoidable infections, improper diet, and possibly worry and strain is to a certain extent, preventable, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Many of the problems connected with the hygiene of old age are due to lowered mental power. Therefore, a cheerful and optimistic attitude toward the aged, especially during sickness, is essential to their well-being. Old people regard their condition as far less serious when they can be fully dressed and out of bed. When they can be up, the excretory organs function more satisfactorily, too. However, when an elderly person complains of being overtired, or otherwise not physically fit a day of rest in bed is advisable. By providing light and easily digested food and applying warmth to the body of an aged patient, he is often tidied over a mild or threatened illness.

Special attention should be paid also to proper clothing, diet and exercise of the elderly. With reasonable attention to certain well-defined and easily followed principles of personal hygiene, it is possible to grow old gracefully. Furthermore it is also possible, in many instances, to retain one's faculties to such an extent as to make old age a pleasure rather than a burden.

Livestock Parasite Control Being Practiced More and More in Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 2—Livestock men throughout the state are becoming more and more convinced of the necessity for control of external parasites in their herds in order to get the most profit from their operations.

Reports to headquarters at Texas A. & M. College from county agents in Floyd, Donley and Dickens counties are good examples of the work that has been done in this field during the past year.

The cattle on the TM Bar Ranch in Floyd county were treated for grubs in January of 1947. A check was made of the demonstration at heel fly time, and A. L. Hartzog, county agent says the results were excellent, even though the first application of rotenone and sulfur was not of the recommended strength due to a lack of materials. J. V. Daniel, ranch manager, told the agent that "This is the first time our cattle have ever grazed at will and contentedly throughout the heel fly season." Hartzog believes at least a thousand head of cattle in the county have been treated for grubs as a result of the TM Bar Ranch demonstration.

H. M. Breedlove, county agent of Donley county, reported that he had sprayed 18,000 head of beef cattle, 2,200 head of dairy cattle, 35 dairy barns and many cowlots and barns during 1947 in demonstrating the effectiveness of DDT in controlling horn and stable flies. The local bank bought a power sprayer to be used by the agent in the demonstrations and farmers and ranchers of the county own 15 sprayers.

Breedlove says that ranchmen have reported to him that spraying cattle with wettable DDT powder for horn flies will control the parasite for as long as five weeks. Oil base DDT was used in spraying barns. The control of flies and lice on cattle will be a major item of work in the county during 1948.

Many Dickens county ranchmen are treating their cattle with a wettable powder DDT spray at least twice a year, Charles A. Taylor, county agent, reports. Dairymen are using it more often. "One ranchman told me," he says, "that spraying for flies is down in his book as a job to be done just as dehorning, branding and vaccinating is done." A DDT spray used on barns and other farm buildings for the control of stable flies has also been very successful.

Paul Gregg, assistant extension entomologist for Texas A. & M. College, says that similar reports have come to him from all over the state. An effective grub and heel fly control program, he says, starts in the early fall and four applications of rotenone with sulfur are recommended at 21-day intervals. Spraying or dipping cattle with a mixture of four pounds of 50 per cent DDT wettable powder per 100 gallons of water two or three times in the spring and early summer and once in the fall will usually protect cattle against hornflies for the year.

Prize Magpies Fly Skies in Colorado

DENVER (AP) — An unusual magpie shoot has been instituted in Colorado to control the magpie population.

Fifty-eight captured magpies were released recently in the state with numbered bands on their legs. Hunters killing the banded birds will qualify for prizes ranging from $15 to $250 and totaling $1,350. The contest continues for the rest of the year.

The idea is that the magpie, a relative of the crow, has increased until it menaces other birdlife.

WHAT IT MEANS

War Trophies are Headaches

By SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON — The rules of what a victor nation (like us) can take from a conquered nation (like Germany or Hungary) are pretty foggy. But the things we can take legally are called "booty."

We're talking here about things that fall to armies as they advance—not reparations, which are decided by treaty after the war is over.

The arguments over what is "booty" are many and varied.

Just recently a Senate committee decided that we can keep 105 Hungarian horses the Army captured in Germany and shipped over here.

The State department had argued they should go back to Hungary, but the Army wanted to keep them.

Rules on Usefulness

In international rules of war booty is anything taken on the field of battle that the enemy could use in war—but that we, having taken it, can also use for war.

The Army said they found the horses in Germany after a battle. Obviously horses can be used in war. So the horses appeared to the Senate committee to be booty under the best laws of war. The State Department at first disagreed, but now it has revised its opinion and thinks the Army should keep the horses.

But consider how difficult it is to decide about booty when it comes to such things as a silver banquet service. The 175th regiment (originally a Maryland national guard outfit) came upon some silver that actually took three trucks to clear out.

The regiment had stopped a few days in its drive through Germany. An old German translator begged the officers of the 175th to take out a cache of silver which he feared would be destroyed.

"The silver set had belonged to the Hohenzollerns. It included among other things, 324 dinner plates, with all the goblets, bowls, platters, candle-sticks and such that go with such a layout.

Silver an Issue

On an O. K. from a higher officer n the U. S. army, the stuff was shipped over here. It has been decided that the set is legal booty, but no one has decided whether it is the property of the U. S. government or of the 175th regiment. The 175th wants it. It would look right nice at its annual dinners.

The subject of booty fades into the vagueness which covers all the war souvenirs now in American homes—guns, cameras or you name it. Army officers say troops pick up things, but as long as an officer doesn't know about it there is nothing the army or the government can do.

But the U. S. has traditionally been very strict about "It ain't nice to steal" and "Never kick a fellow when he's down."

In World War I a top American officer in Paris received a picture of a German Iron Cross displayed in a Midwest jewerly store window. The army found the man who had sent it home, an ambulance driver.

He said a German officer had sold it to him. The Army didn't believe the story. The Iron Cross was shipped back, the German found and the cross returned.

Russian Viewpoint

The Russians appear to look at the subject differently. Our recent ambassador to Poland, Arthur Bliss Lane, says he saw long lines of horse carts leaving Poland for Russia, loaded with bath tubs, washing machines, mattresses and what have you. Much of it, he says, was taken from Polish homes. And Poland was an ally not an enemy.

Army officers have to make some quick, and often humorous, decisions to look the other way.

In the final shove for Berlin in 1945 the men marched east loaded down with battle gear.

An officer spotted one American youngster bent nearly double under his gear. He carried his rifle in his right hand. From his left dangled a fancy bird cage.

It was not legal booty, but the officer just grinned. He figured the youngster would soon learn that a bird cage is no help in battle.

Booty vs. Trophy

Booty is always public property. It becomes the property of the victor government, but there is a point at which the booty can legally become the property of individual soldiers. Then it is called "war trophy."

In northern Italy our army found a huge store of little squirrel coats which the Germans wore under winter battle dress. These were parcelled out to GIs to keep. They became trophies.

Also in northern Italy the American army found a cache of 800,000 liters (a liter is about a quart) of very good cognac. That was parcelled out to GIs too, and after they'd drunk it, it definitely became "personal property."

MYSTERY TOWER—Historians are arming themselves to storm a tower that has never surrendered its secret in hundreds of years. This old stone mill, is soon to face a full battle of scientists who want to find out what it is. Long a familiar picture in school books, the tower is supposed to be the oldest structure in the land, but scientists are not sure whether it is a Viking or Colonial enterprise.

Spring Edition of Texas Highway Map Being Released for Public Distribution

AUSTIN, Feb. 24—The Spring Edition of the Texas Highway Department's official travel maps is being released for public distribution, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer has announced.

The new four color map incorporates all changes in the state road system through December occasioned by the Department's vast postwar road building program.

There is a generous display of color pictures representing a cross section of the State's industrial and recreational assets.

A message from Governor Beauford H. Jester is printed on the cover. Addressing "motorists everywhere," the Governor invites all to "see and travel in Texas, revel in its sunshine, its modern cities, and scenic beauty."

Except for revisions in the road system and the new pictures, the edition is similar to others issued since the war which have been acclaimed among the best of the state road maps published throughout the nation.

Standard highway warning and directional signs are reproduced on the map to familiarize drivers with road markers.

Size of the Lone Star State is again graphically told by a table of comparative distances. The 868 miles from El Paso to Orange is greater than the 815 miles from El Paso to Los Angeles. It is also further than the 760 miles from Laredo to Mexico City.

Included also is a small scale map of the United States showing all state capitols and major federal highways.

The Texas map is published under the direction of R. M. Stene, who performed all the photographs, and attended to the technical details of production. At 76, Mr. Stene's boundless energy and versatile talent uphold his contentions that "life begins at 70."

A registered professional engineer, he came with the Highway Department in 1927. He had previously built dams in Arizona and worked for railroads in Texas.

Copies of the new Spring Edition are available to the traveling public at the Highway Department's main office in Austin, its twenty-five district offices throughout the State, and at its nine information bureaus operated at ports of entry into Texas.

You Must Keep Left to be Right In Auto Traffic

AUSTIN, Texas—You have to keep left to be right, according to George Clarke, managing director of the Texas Safety Association.

"But let me tell you what I mean, before you think I sound mixed up," he said. "A left turn in heavy traffic is one of the most difficult maneuvers in an automobile, and it causes traffic tie-ups and accidents when bungled."

Clarke said that the Texas Safety Association is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program during February, and he cited National Safety Council statistics to show the need for such a program.

At least 3½ per cent of all fatal pedestrian and non-pedestrian accidents involve a turning vehicle, and improper turning was reported in from 4 to 5 per cent of all accidents.

Pointing out that about twice as many turning accidents involve left turns as right turns, Clarke listed five rules to remember n making a left turn.

1. Keep next to the centerline or center of the roadway, so that no car will approach from behind on your left as you turn.

2. Turn around two points, one where the center of the street or road you are on meets the crosswalk or property line, and the other where the center of the street or road you are turning property line.

3. Start to get in the proper lane for turning far enough back, at least a block before the turn.

4. Use hand signals before making the turn and be sure to make a full turn. Don't cut corners!

5. Always respect the right of way of other drivers who are at the intersection or approaching so close as to be a hazard.

What Do Movie Censors Do About Sex Appeal of Half-Dressed Mermaid?

By GENE HANDSAKER

HOLLYWOOD — The movies, ever preoccupied with presenting something to do with Sex, have found a new medium: the mermaid. Is a mermaid sexy or isn't she? The human half of her is, the Johnston Office warns producers, and, gents, you gotta be careful.

I peeked in on the set of "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid." Ann Blyth is the mermaid, co-starring with William Powell. It's a queer feeling you get, watching her emote in her rubber fish tail. You know that mermaids are only creatures of mythology, but darned if that scaly attachment, half as heavy and almost as long as she is, doesn't seem to be a living, wiggling part of Ann herself.

The picture is about a middle-aged man's last fling—an imaginary fling in this case since the mermad is supposed to exist only in Powell's mind. Powell was lying at the edge of a big swimming pool, giving the mermaid a pep talk about a man of 50 (he's 55) being only at the peak of his faculties.

Ann, a brunette, wears a long blonde wig treated with water-repellant lacquer. Powell tries to explain to Ann that she must don this thing he has brought her (a halter) before she can emerge from the pool. Right there was censor trouble.

The script called for an ordinary brassiere. The Johnston Office waggled its finger and said no. The halter or top half of a two-piece bathing suit, then? Okay, said the Johnston Office.

Which strikes me as a little silly," Director Irving Pichel told me. "You can't ignore the fact that approximately half of the human race has bosoms—which is what the Johnston Office sets out to do."

Ann swims in the tail, remarkably well, by waving it up and down while stroking sidewise with her arms. The scene ended with Ann submerging, and Picel asked her to stay down as long as she could. By my watch, she was under 20 seconds. Another triumph for Art. Well, for Cinema Sex, anyway.

Actress Spends 40 Years On Road to Broadway

By JEAN MEEGAN
(AP) Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — To stage-struck kids who dream of Broadway, the story of Ruth Amos may be a melancholy awakening.

At 56 years of age and after 500 plays and 40 years in stock companies and road shows the powerful little veteran at last is in a Broadway play, "Strange Bedfellows."

"I never even used to come in here," she nodded from her hotel window toward the world famous street. The agency that used to handle me would just send a wire: "Go right on to Rochester or Detroit or whatever."

Her absence probably was a mixture of diffidence and indifference. She said "fl annoyed my friends that I wasn't more ambitious. I don't even know many of the stars. Broadway is all 'accident' and 'influence.' It's walking in at the psychological moment and being physically right for a part. If you have any ability it's discovered later."

Miss Amos traveled the northwest in a covered wagon four decades ago. In 1944 she followed the Fifth Army in Italy in "Kiss and Tell." She has been a big fish in the theatrical pool of Detroit, where she was born.

Of her 40 years on the stage, she split the last five between Worchester and Fitchburg, Mass. For six years she was undisputed stock queen of Toronto and she spent five years each in Winston Salem, N. C.; Pittsfield, Mass. and Guilford, Conn.

"I had the best parts," she reflects, "substantial salaries and I never was inactive. But I doubt if anyone could make a whole career of the road anymore. Resident companies have given way to the star sysem. I don't believe youngsters now want to work as much as we did.

Miss Amos happens to be in the Broadway play because someone told her to read the part of the 70-year-old grandmother.

RUTH AMOS
. . . Finally Made It . . .

Florence Ryerson, co-author of the piece, fell in love with her interpretation.

The critics applauded her "grace," "style" and "effectiveness." But most of all she liked the comment of Guy Palmerton, her boss for the last five years in stock. He listened to the murmurs of praise on opening night and snapped: "Oh well, she's always been good."

Cincinnati Vendors Sold About 77 Miles Of Hot Dogs in 1947

(AP) Newsfeatures

CINCINNATI — Thirsty baseball fans at Crosley Field drank 96 miles of beer last season.

The followers of the Cincinnati Reds also devoured 77 miles of hot dogs, several square feet of mustard, enough ice cream to drown an elephant, enough peanuts to cover the playing field, and 95 miles of soft drinks.

The beer came in 675,000 bottles, each nine inches high—stacked on end they'd reach the 96 miles; there were 800,000 hot dogs; 1,000 gallons of ice cream, 70,000 bags of peanuts and 740,000 soft drink bottles.

Incidentally, the vendors who sold these refreshments sometimes made as much as $500 a month during the season and a take of $100 on big days and nights was not unusual. The hotter the day or night the larger the income.

Wheat Poison Meet Slated For March 12

A meeting which should be of interest to all farmers and stockmen in Ochiltree county will be held in the district courtroom on Wednesday, March 10, when Dr. J. C. Morgan, head of the Pantex Experiment Station, will give a report on the progress of the station's wheat poisoning experiments.

These experiments were started about 18 months ago, and a number of county stockmen contributed funds for the program. Dr. Morgan will show films giving the results of tests made with rabbits and will also explain the station methods, the laboratory equipment and the findings so far.

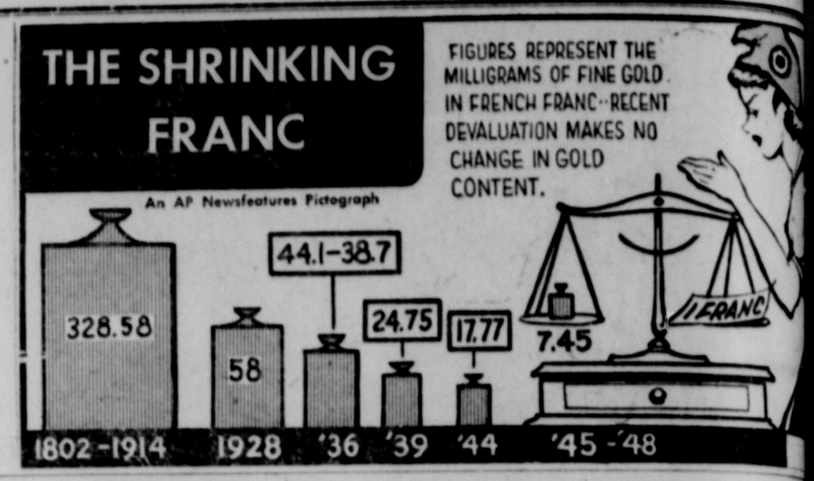

Although wheat poisoning has not been much of a problem this year because there are virtually no cattle on wheat pasture, it has been a serious problem in the past and will be so again. Numerous losses over the Panhandle were reported during the fall of 1946 because of wheat poisoning, and cattlemen set out to find a cure for it.

Experiments have been conducted so far with rabbits, because the symptoms are the same in cattle and rabbits, and rabbits are less expensive. This year, however, cattle will be used in the experiments to determine the cause and cure for wheat poisoning. Progress has been made, says Dr. Morgan, though no sure cure has yet been devised, and the technicians are not yet sure of the cause of the disorder.

Everyone who is interested is invited to attend this meeting, and Hood Wills, county agent, states that it will profit every cattleman to attend and learn more about wheat poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Cook of the Hardesty, Okla, community were shopping and looking after business here Wednesday.

VOTE For Annexation

It is imperative that the citizens of Ochiltree County who desire the maintenance of an adequate school system vote Saturday FOR ANNEXATION.

The law which permits annexation of school districts provides that "such common or independent districts shall maintain elementary schools" . . . Article 2922(f)--Vernon's annotated Civil Statutes.

Each school district retains its identity, and separate elementary schools must be maintained therein under Article 2922(f), County Board of School Trustees vs. Wilson, 5 S. W. (2d) 805.

Such schools, however, may be discontinued by the local board of trustees when the average daily attendance of any such schools for the preceding year is less than twenty. Article 2922(f), Vernon's Annotated Statutes.

Spearman and Hereford, as well as many other schools in the Panhandle and State have already approved the proposed method for enlarging school systems. If Perryton and Ochiltree County intend to keep abreast with the times the rural districts MUST BE ANNEXED to Perryton Independent District. Tax burdens must be equalized so that the children of Ochiltree County will receive the maximum of educational advantages.
