Dewey Flays War, Peace Preparations

By GARDNER BRIDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

DES MOINES, Sept. 11—Thomas E. Dewey lashed out at what he called the Roosevelt administration's "incompetent" preparations for war and peace today in the most caustic campaign attack he has made thus far on his fourth-term-seeking opponent.

The Republican presidential nominee, arriving in the corn belt for a series of conferences with farm and political leaders, declared the present administration has failed to show itself able to cope with agricultural and industrial reconversion problems.

He also accused the New Deal of having done "absolutely nothing" to prepare this country for war.

Willkie's Talk Hit

Commenting at a news conference on Wendell L. Willkie's view, set forth in a current magazine article, that this country must yield some of its sovereignty to achieve collective world security, Dewey characterized the argument as a "shibboleth."

"Every time you sign a treaty with a nation," Dewey said, "you give up a little something, as they give up a little something. Both parties are agreed that we shall respect in the international peace organization the sovereignty of all sixty nations of the world that that sovereignty shall be respected and preserved."

Turning to agriculture problems the New York governor said there is no doubt that there will be a "very large" accumulation of food stocks when peace comes, adding:

Must Be Orderly

"It will require an enormous degree of skill and competence to spread out the food in such a way that it will not glut the American market and give the farmer a very bad year."

The nominee, who came here after an overnight stay at his boyhood home in Owosso, Mich., described the reconversion plan submitted to the President Saturday by War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes as "seven and a half months late."

"It was in Pittsburgh six weeks ago," he said, "that I pointed out the administration was six months late.

"Well, they are only seven and a half months late with the

Demo Concedes Defeat In Maine

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 11. (AP)—With more than half the vote counted, Republican candidates ran far ahead of CIO-supported Democrats tonight in Maine's state election.

As was expected, Horace A. Hildreth, Republican president of the Maine Senate, defeated the Democratic nominee, Paul J. Jullien of Waterville, former state American Legion commander. Jullien conceded Hildreth's victory before midnight.

U. S. Rept. Robert Hale, Republican incumbent, was running far ahead in the First district, where the Maine United Labor committee waged a lusty campaign for the Democratic nominee, Andrew A. Pettis.

PAC Affiliate

The United Labor committee is Maine's affiliate of the CIO's PAC.

Pettis, CIO shipyard union president, also had attempted to unseat Hale in the primaries. He was defeated soundly as a Republican but won the Democratic nomination.

U. S. Rep. Margaret C. Smith (R) also was far ahead of David H. Staples, endorsed by the CIO group, in the Second district. Mrs. Smith had been endorsed by leaders of the Maine AFL.

Observers conceded that Republican Frank Fellows had been elected in the Third district over Ralph E. Graham, a Democrat who claimed support of several railway unions and an AFL shipfitters' union.

Army To Release Surplus Vehicles

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (AP) — The Eighth Service command said today it would release from 200 to 300 additional surplus Army vehicles to the procurement department of the Treasury in Fort Worth for sale to automobile dealers.

The release, the command said, would take place within the next few days.

Previously 3,000 nontactical units were released, followed by 4,350 units which were declared surplus in August.

Rampaging Yanks Smash Five Miles Into Germany

Units Of Seventh And Third Join In Eastern France

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME, Sept. 11—The U. S. Third and Seventh armies completed a junction today in eastern France, sealing off German troops in the central region, including possibly 20,000 in the Dijon area.

The vanguards of the two armies met at a point described officially here as "an undesignated spot" 28 days after Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army invaded southern France.

(A field dispatch from Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army said the junction was made in the vicinity of Somernon, 15 miles west of Dijon.)

French Occupy Dijon

While units of the two American armies were joining hands, French forces occupied the important highway center of Dijon and other American troops pushed within 15 miles of the vital Belfort gap, gateway to southern Germany.

The meeting of the southern and northern armies came dramatically with an officer from each unit coming forward to shake hands. This formality culminated the thrust began by the Seventh Army in landings on the Riveria coast Aug. 15 and the Normandy invasion from the north on June 6.

French troops seized Dijon after a fierce 24-hour battle in the city's outskirts, sealing off a great network of roads that had been serving the Nazi retreat from all southern and western France.

Slash Across Valley

At the same time American doughboys slashed across the Doubs valley to the outskirts of the highway town of Vesoul, 20 miles north of Besancon, not only aiming a new threat at the enemy garrison in Belfort gap but blocking a main road running from Dijon to Belfort.

At Dijon, a city of 96,000, the hard-fighting French Poilus were but 55 miles from Chaumont, historic site of Gen. John J. Pershing's headquarters in the first World war, near which troops of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's American Third Army have been reported operating.

In the western end of the Seventh Army's 125-mile front the Americans and French closed in steadily on Belfort gap despite dogged German resistance.

Along Swiss Frontier

Pushing along the Swiss frontier, French troops advanced yard by yard in bitter fighting in the vicinity of Blamont, just north of the town of St. Hippolyte, which was cleared completely of Nazis in the past 24 hours.

As Nazi resistance increased steadily with each succeeding mile of the Allied advance, it became apparent that the enemy would make a supreme stand in the ancient Belfort gateway between the Vosges mountains and the Swiss border in an effort to keep Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's forces from streaming across the German frontier.

Heavy Damage Done By Quitman Fire

QUITMAN, Tex., Sept. 11 (AP)—Fire blasted a path through this East Texas town tonight, destroying a drug store, restaurant, business building and a variety store.

Quitman has no fire department but firemen from Mineola responded and two of them were injured by falling bricks, Mrs. Lawrence Butler, wife of the sheriff of Wood county reported.

At 10:45 p. m., Mrs. Butler said the flames were being brought under control. It had been burning for about two hours at that time, she stated, adding that it started in the drug store.

She said no estimate of the damage had been reached.

Armed Duo Hold Up San Antonio Club

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 11 (AP)—Police reported that two masked men, armed with a pistol and shotgun, help up employes and guests of the Turf club here early today and escaped with approximately $5,000 in cash.

The two men entered and departed by way of a fire escape.

TITO'S MEN EVACUATED

ROME, Sept. 11 (AP)—Allied planes evacuated 10,000 wounded partisans of Marshal Tito's Yugoslav army, it was announced today. Yugoslav ground forces trained at RAF schools in north Africa already are operating on their native soil service squadrons of Yugoslav planes.

Reds Smash Nazi Lines At Prussia

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 12—Russian troops yesterday broke through German lines to within 2½ miles of the big Narew river stronghold of Lomza protecting the southern German East Prussian border, and a Berlin broadcast said that a "concentrated assault" by other Soviet forces had penetrated Nazi lines in Warsaw's eastern suburbs.

In central Romania, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukraine Army captured 200 localities, Moscow announced, including Sighisoara, 25 miles southeast of the Hungarian stronghold of Targu-Mures, and Petrosani, 124 miles from the pre-war Hungarian frontier. Medias, 18 miles west of Sighisoara, also was seized.

Another Pass Seized

With the seizure of Petrosani the Russians had forced their way through another Transylvania Alps mountain route, the Vulcan pass, in their drive on imperilled Hungary.

Meanwhile, Berlin said Hungary was threatened on the north by a fresh Soviet offensive which toppled Krosno, a highway and rail town in southern Poland only 17 miles from Slovakia, which at this point is only a 48-mile strip separating Poland from north Hungary.

Moscow did not confirm Berlin's assertion that masses of Soviet tanks and guns were attacking frontal toward Praga, Warsaw's big eastern suburb, but said that Gen. G. F. Zakharov's Second White Russian Army had captured 30 localities in the drive on Lomza, only 10 miles from the East Prussian frontier and 75 miles northwest of Warsaw. Among these was Konarzyce, 2½ miles southwest of Lomza.

The Russians were hurling a great weight of reserves into the battle for Warsaw and in their effort to cross the Narew on a broad front with the double aim of outflanking the Polish capital and striking into East Prussia, Berlin said.

Two More Generals Taken

Moscow announced the capture of two more German generals in the cleanup of Axis remnants in Bulgaria.

Krosno fell after a four-day battle in which the Germans surged back into the south Poland towns three times before finally giving up, Berlin said.

Slovak Partisans were fighting the Germans inside their country in the path of the advancing Russians.

A Polish communique said the Poles, although greatly weakened and thrown out of the old city district inside Warsaw, still were holding on.

Demo Elector Committee Is Rejected; Bitterness Grows

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, Sept. 11 — The State Democratic Executive committee tonight rejected a proposal that it recommend appointment of a committee on presidential electors to tomorrow's convention, and voted to seat seven anti-Roosevelt delegations and two pro-Roosevelt delegations from contesting counties.

It could not be determined immediately what effect the committee's action on contesting delegations would have on the ultimate test of strength on the convention floor tomorrow. The brawling Democrats have turned thumbs down on preliminary efforts at compromise and are headed for a showdown on whether or not the party's 23 electors would be bound to vote for Roosevelt and Truman.

Fairly Evenly Divided

Leaders of both factions indicated they believed the voting strength of the two factors was fairly evenly divided. Pro-Rroosevelt leaders have said they were sure they had enough votes to control the convention no matter which contesting delegations were seated.

Gov. Coke Stevenson arrived on the eve of the convention, saying that he had made the trip despite the advice of his physicians "because a lot of people were saying I was afraid to come."

Leaders of both factions of Texas' badly sundered Democratic party rejected the governor's compromise plan to print both sets of electors in the Democratic column in the November election.

"They were beginning to say I was afraid to come up here and present my peace plan," the governor added. He expressed some doubt that he would be allowed to present his proposal.

"The best legal brains of both sides say that my plan is illegal," he said. "But I have tried to work out a solution according to the dictates of equity."

The governor said he would

"T" Formation Invades Politics

By C. W. RATLIFF
Avalanche Staff Correspondent

DALLAS, Sept. 11 — You've heard a lot about the "T" formation in football in the last few years. Now it has invaded politics and Texas Democrats must decided Tuesday whether they want to use it on their ballot in the coming presidential election.

As suggested by Gov. Coke Stevenson, the printing of two lists of electors on the ballot would make it resemble a "T" and a lot of the boys, especially the pro-Roosevelt leaders, don't like the idea. For that matter, the antis don't want it either, and therein lies the basis for the biggest political squabble in Texas history.

Advised It's Illegal

"A lot of fine legal talent on both sides tell me it won't work and that puts me on a spot," Gov. Stevenson told this reporter late this afternoon after his arrival from Austin. "I don't mind being put on a spot, however," the governor added. "I believe in doing the equitable thing and that's the reason I presented this compromise."

"I was on the spot two years ago when Jerry Sadler resigned from the railroad commission on the deadline day for filings and I told the committee they ought to throw the thing open and let the people decide."

Appears Though Ill

Gov. Stevenson was prepared to urge the twin-elector ticket on the convention floor but said he did not know whether he would or not. "I came up here because a lot of folks have spread the rumor around that I was afraid to

First Plows On And Third Takes Part Of Maginot

By WILLIAM F. BONI
Associated Press Staff Writer

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Tuesday, Sept. 12.—The rampaging First U. S. Army burst into Hitler's inner fortress of Germany yesterday and plowed ahead for five miles into the Reich, meeting the enemy on his home soil north of the frontier town of Trier—55 miles from the Rhine and the great industrial city of Coblenz.

An artillery barrage first chewed up the German positions and then in "reasonable strength"—that was the official language—the doughboys crossed over to strike the blow for which the United Nations long had waited.

Black Day For Nazis

It was a black day for German arms, for the Third U. S. Army seized a great part of the old French Maginot line intact, and was breaking the last German line of defense on French soil—the Moselle river positions.

The British Second Army broke across the frontier of Holland and was bound for the weakest link in the 400 miles of the west wall—the thin line of pillboxes, tank traps and forts stretching south from the German city of Kleve across the shortest route to Berlin.

Other elements of the First Army already were fighting through the minefields of the Siegfried line south of the key city of Aachen, little more than eight miles from Germany's frontier, and were blasting fortifications inside the Reich with heavy artillery.

Fortress Taken Intact

The Third Army, driving over Lorraine's hills, captured with guns intact the fortress of Aumetz, 22 miles northwest of Metz and three miles from Luxembourg, whose capital fell today to a First Army column now pressing east toward Germany's industrial basin of the Saar.

Other Third Army forces, after capturing ancient Fort Pont St. Vincent six miles south of Nancy, hammered across the Moselle river on a broad front of several miles south of Nancy in a blazing battle that may decide the fate of the enemy's last stand in northern France.

In the drive to Aumetz, the Third Army overran much of the old French fortifications and were in a position to strike northeastward toward Germany and the Saar in concert with the First Army.

Some 120 miles southwest of where the Americans are fighting around Nancy, Third Army patrols met advance elements of the U. S. Seventh Army—driving up from southern France—in the vicinity of Sombernon, 11 miles

Severe Hurricane Hovers Off Miami

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 11 (AP)—Poised 650 miles off the Atlantic coast due east of Miami, a severe Atlantic hurricane was apparently hesitating between a course which would either endanger the United States coast or keep it out to sea.

The dangerous storm has remained nearly stationary during the past six to 12 hours, the weather bureau said in a 10:15 p. m. advisory.

It is attended by winds of full hurricane force near the center, with gales extending outward at lease 150 miles.

"Continued slight movement is indicated next six to 12 hours.

"Caution should be continued against high seas and increasing winds in the outer Bahamas and extreme caution is advised all shipping over the Atlantic northward to 35 degrees during the next 48 hours."

Three-Phase Plan For V-Day Observance Here Is Mapped

A THREE-FACETED plan for Lubbock's observance of the surrender of Germany was drawn up Monday afternoon at a meeting of the V-day committee in the chamber of commerce offices with Mayor Overton W. Ribble, chairman, presiding.

Issued in the form of a proclamation by the mayor, church worship services, store closings and patriotic programs in the schools were all recommended in the plan.

Gist of the recommendation, unanimously agreed upon by the council of defense-appointed committee, goes like this:

If announcement of Germany's surrender comes before 3 p. m., stores will close immediately for that day only and will be open for the next business day. If announcement is received after 3 p. m. stores will close immediately and will remain closed the next day.

If announcement is received after 3 p. m. on a Sunday or holiday, stores will remain closed the next day. If announcement is received on a Saturday, stores will be closed immediately but will open for business the following Monday. If announcement is received at night, stores will not open the next day.

No attempt was made to include utility or special service groups in this recommendation, however their cooperation was requested wherever possible.

As for schools, if announcement comes before 3 p. m., programs of the schools will be changed

Chiefs Start Mapping Jap Death Blow

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC, Sept. 11 (AP)—Within the weathered stone ramparts of Quebec's ancient Citadel, President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill of Britain began forging tonight the strategy for final victory over Japan.

Absent from their deliberations was that third leader of the United Nations triumvirate, Premier Joseph Stalin of Russia — whose armies are not at war with Japan.

No Assurance To Nips

He had been invited to a conference which apparently had to concern itself primarily with the battle of the Pacific. But the fact that he sent back word that he was too busy directing offensives on multiple fronts to leave "the direction of the Army for the shortest period" offered no great assurances to Japan.

Stalin did not close the door to future participation in the Pacific war. A conference spokesman reported the President and Prime Minister "thoroughly understood" the Premier's message and that he was "absent on the field of duty."

Not since they concluded significant discussions last December, at Cairo and Teheran, had Roosevelt and Churchill met for one of their periodic war councils. Then, with Stalin's counsel, they had made the plans for the powerful invasions which have driven Germany to the point of utter defeat.

Strong Measures

The 1944 Quebec conference therefore was in order. Strong measures against Japan warranted attention.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early made it apparent that the emphasis here would be on those measures, even though China is not represented in the deliberations.

This eighth Roosevelt-Churchill meeting Early described as "largely if not exclusively a military conference."

For that reason its decisions

Nazis Lose 175 Planes In Fierce Battle On Raiders

By ERNEST AGNEW
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 12—U. S. Eighth Air force fighters and heavy bombers trapped and beat the German air force yesterday, destroying 175 Nazi planes in one of the fiercest air battles ever fought over Europe.

It was the heaviest luftwaffe loss in more than a year and one which dug deeply into the air reserves which the enemy has been carefully holding back until now for the final battle of Germany.

Of the Germans destroyed, American fighters shot down 116, the greatest number ever shot down by fighters alone in a single day, while the heavy bombers knocked down another 17, and 42 were destroyed on their airdromes.

48 U. S. Bombers Lost

Indicating the extent of the opposition, 48 of the American heavy bombers and 29 fighters failed to return. The bomber losses were the heaviest since April 29 when 63 failed to come home from a raid on Berlin.

Early today the German radio said "enemy" planes were again over vast sections of the Reich, indicating that the non-stop Allied air offensive was continuing in its fifth day.

Tired returning fliers described yesterday's German aerial opposition as probably the heaviest offered in years.

En route to their targets at Merseburg, Litzkendorf and Misburg they saw few German planes. But just before they reached central Germany the enemy sprung up, often in formations of 150 or more, and bore in stubbornly over the targets and far along the route home.

Few Jet-Propelled Nazis

More than a half-dozen of the new jet-propelled Messerschmitts were included, but the greatest opposition was from conventional Focke-Wulfs and Messerschmitt 109's.

Intelligence officers, anticipating that the luftwaffe would come out from its four months hiding, sent with the bombers the heaviest fighter escort of any time since July. There were more than 800 Lightnings, Thunderbolts and Mustangs on hand for the greatest air battle ever fought over the Reich between American fighters and the German airforce.

For more than two hours fierce combats raged, with enemy planes—putting up their first serious oppositions since July 7—striving furiously to break through the heavy fighter screen about the heavy bombers.

Pilots said the enemy bore in from the time the bombers approached their targets—synthetic oil and industrial plants—and and kept up the fight until the bombers were far back on their homeward flight.

Targets were Merseburg, Lutz-

Soldier's Sentence In Attack Confirmed

DALHART, Tex., Sept. 11. (AP)—Pfc. Andrew M. Hoza, 25, of Dundalk, Md., convicted of beating and robbing Mrs. Mildred Peeples, 38, of Dalhart, has been taken to Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., to begin serving a 45-year sentence.

Disclosing for the first time the name of the accused, the Dalhart Army Air base announced military reviewing authorities in Washington have confirmed finally a prison sentence imposed on Hoza last May by a court martial.

Mrs. Peeples, wife of Dalhart Mayor Herbert Peeples, during a critical driver shortage at a bus station in which her husband was co-operator, was driving a bus the night of March 29 when she was beaten. Hoza was convicted of hiding in the bus, beating Mrs. Peeples with a shoe, kicking and robbing her. She suffered a brain concussion.

Blow Dealt At Mindanao

32 Loaded Cargo Ships, 20 Sampans Sent Down; U. S. Subs Get Nine More

By WILLIAM L. WORDEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Sept. 11—In a shattering sea-based action against the Philippines, first of the war by the Allies, a U. S. carrier task force destroyed an entire enemy convoy of 52 vessels, blasted five airfields and wiped out 68 Japanese planes in widespread raids against Mindanao last Friday.

The blazing action marked an advance of approximately 500 miles beyond the westernmost previously reported positions of carrier-based aircraft, and was coupled with new heavy attacks on Paramushiro and the Volcano islands far to the north.

Total Reaches 90 Vessels

The overall total of ships sunk, probably sunk, damaged and set afire as announced in the Navy's communique was 90. Many were small cargo ships and sampans.

The American force which swept into the heart of Japan's Southwest Pacific holdings was part of the Third U. S. Fleet, commanded by Adm. William F. Halsey, jr., and its attack on Mindanao was a crowning blow in wide-spread actions which for the last few days have struck at Yap and Palau islands to the east of the Philippines.

Attacks on the Palau islands continued the next day, Saturday (U. S. time), with more than 80 tons of bombs falling there. Numerous rockets were fired also by carrier aircraft. Targets included antiaircraft emplacements and other defense installations on Anguar, Peleliu and Koror islands in the Palau group.

The Mindanao raids covered most of the enemy's known positions on that southernmost of the Philippines islands.

Heavy bombers of the Eleventh Airforce bombed Paramushiro island in the Kuriles Saturday and Sunday, and runways and air facilities at Iwo Jima in the Volcano islands were hit with 37 tons of bombs by Seventh Airforce Liberators the same day.

During the same exploding week-end of Navy action, Ponape in the Carolines, Pagan and Rota in the Marianas and positions in the by-passed Marshalls were hit by wide-ranging land-based bombers and fighters.

All were in the pattern of softening up Japanese bastions guarding entrances to the Philippines.

Several of the Philippines bases hit by the Navy previously have been bombed by land planes from the Southwest Pacific — Gen.

Black Widows Break Up Attempted Jap Air Blow On Biak; Pulverizing Raids Continue

By C. YATES McDANIEL
Associated Press Staff Writer

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, Tuesday, Sept. 12.—American Black Widow night fighters broke up the largest Japanese aerial effort in this area for several months — a 10-plane raid Saturday on American island bases off Dutch New Guinea—as Allied bombers continued their unopposed pulverizing blows against widespread targets, headquarters announced today.

The American fighters downed two of the Japanese twin-engined bombers raiding American airfields on Biak and Owi islands. Headquarters reported bomb damage was minor.

Striking Contrast

The Japanese effort was a striking contrast to the 100-bomber raids which they were able to deliver in the New Guinea area last year. It showed the enemy still is

Yanks In Italy Slash Forward

ROME, Sept. 11 (AP)—American troops, advancing swiftly north and northwest of Florence while the Germans were engaged in bloody, inconclusive fighting with the British Eighth Army near Rimini on the Adriatic, have come squarely against the enemy's main Gothic line defenses, Allied headquarters announced tonight.

One Yank spearhead, stabbing almost due north from Florence, reached Usella, within 35 miles of the industrial metropolis of Bologna in the Po valley. Others of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces farther west cleared out the city of Prato and Pistoia and seized important high ground northeast of Pistoia.

Elements of the American 92nd division broke into the village of Seizea, six and a half miles above Lucca.

Contact Forward Positions

An Allied communique said that "north of Lucca American patrols already are in contact with forward positions of this (the Gothic) line."

Quebec Conference May Act To Revamp Timetable Against Japs

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

QUEBEC, Sept. 11 — President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill and their military staffs are back in uebec to carry on are back in Quebec to carry on they met to map war strategy — but with an utterly changed situation on the battle fronts of Europe. Their meeting certainly can give no comfort to Japan.

Allied armies are battering their way to contact with the crucial sectors of Germany's own western frontiers, the Maastrict gate and the Lorraine gap, which dominate the approaches to the core of the Nazi war effort, the industrial area of the central Rhine valley.

Aachen, bastion city to the north of the Rhineland loop of the Siegfried line, was reported under American shell fire. There was a significant lack of specific official information as to the whereabouts of Lt. George S. Patton's hard-hitting Third American Army, preparing to storm the Lorraine gate from now widened Moselle bridgeheads in the Metz area.

End May Come Soon

Reports from the European scene left the impression that an Allied break-through into Germany was imminent. Expectation that it would come very soon and Germany would be forced to collapse, perhaps within weeks, probably had a great deal to do with the timing of the Quebec follow-through strategy conference. What has happened in Europe or may happen there even sooner than the best Allied conjecture had thought possible only weeks ago could go far to determine just how soon the full weight of British war power can be thrown against Japan to match the American advance in the Pacific.

There is no question that the war in Europe has reached a point in the judgment of Anglo-American military advisers that is weeks if not months ahead of what had been thought possible of achievement only a few months ago. The result obviously is that here at Quebec is to be drawn up a new time schedule for combined action against Japan.

Stalin's Action No Comfort

Nor can Tokio take any comfort from the fact that while there is no Russian representation so far as is known in Quebec, Marshal Stalin was invited and declined only on the ground that he was too closely engaged in pushing the attack on Germany in Poland and the Balkans to be able to leave Russia at this time.

The Stalin reply, as given out here, was very cordial in terms.

Stalin's stated attitude of apparent cordial sympathy with the Anglo-American preparation to get on with the destruction of Japan at a now possible faster pace is possibly significant. It chimes in with current reports passed by Moscow censors that Russian-Allied war collaboration in other than European theaters is not beyond the range of possibility.

That could conceivably refer only to the war with Japan and implies that once Germany is finished off, Russia might in some fashion aid the Allied effort to bring the war across the Pacific also to a quick end.

V-Day Plans Here

immediately to include special assembly meetings and patriotic programs in observance of V-day. Other programs and forms of entertainment will be arranged for the hours following school.

If the announcement comes later than 3 p. m., schools will open the following day for special patriotic programs followed by lessons on patriotism. The same program and entertainment plan will be arranged after dismissal.

Churches will conform with the closing day mentioned above. Their services will be held separtely in this manner: if the announcement comes before 3 p. m., their doors will be opened at 8 o'clock the same evening for worship services. If it comes after 3 p. m., church worship services will be held at the same time the evening of the following day.

Mention was made at the meeting of previously-announced plans of the Lubbock motion picture houses. That is, to close their doors if the announcement comes before or during the normal work day, but to resume their regular bill the day following the announcement.

The Lubbock plan for V-day observation was drawn, it was said, after careful study was made of similar programs outlined by other cities throughout the country.

Dewey's Attack

Byrnes proposal. It is my earnest hope that the proposal will mean action, and not just more words, because it is very, very late."

Deemer Lee, publisher of the Estherville, Iowa, Daily News, asked Dewey if he thought Mr. Roosevelt should take an "exofficio position in your cabinet," in view of the Democratic argument that his experience will be needed in solving the peace.

Not To That Yet

The New York governor grinned broadly and said:

"I am not indulging in cabinet making at this time."

Dewey, met here by a brass band and a crowd estimated by the state highway patrol at 4,000, was driven in an open car through downtown streets to his hotel headquarters, where he conferred with leaders of labor, veterans', agriculture and business groups. He was welcomed by Gov. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, who boarded his special train at Ames, 30 miles away, and assured him this state would go Republican by the biggest majority in years. Willkie carried Iowa four years ago by more than 50,000.

kendorf near Leipzig, Misburg and other unspecified places in central Germany. The weather was good and a greater part of the bombing was visual.

It was the fourth consecutive day in which 1,000 or more American bombers attacked Germany. Yesterday, American fighters destroyed 125 German planes—119 of them on the ground—bringing the two-day total to 255.

Last Ditch Fight

Luftwaffe opposition had all the ear-marks of a last-ditch stand as German fighter packs, some 100 planes strong, flung themselves at the American formations. Little opposition had been met during the raids on the previous three days.

Today's fight did not yield a record total kill, however. In dual attacks on Regensburg and Schweinfurt Aug. 17, 1943, bombers got 287 and fighters 20. Over Berlin March 6 of this year bombers knocked down 93 and fighters 83. The previous largest toll by fighters alone was 88 shot down April 8 over Brunswick and Frankfurt.

A double bend in the Mississippi river at the southwest croner of Kentucky has given that state about 10 square miles of territory that cannot be reached without passing through Missouri or Tennessee.

Nazis Condemn Once Bigshots

LONDON, Sept. 11. (AP) — Dr. Karl Friedrich Goerdeler, former Leipzig mayor described as a ringleader in the abortive July 20 plot to kill Adolf Hitler, has been sentenced to death along with six other "politicians," Berlin radio disclosed today.

A number of allied conspirators, including high army officers, already have been killed. The 60-year-old Goerdeler had been designated by the plotters to become chancellor of a new German government which would have sought peace, the broadcast said.

The six convicted with Goerdeler were named as Ulrich von Hassell, former Nazi ambassador to Rome; Count Wolf Hendrick von Helldorf, former police chief in Berlin; Trout Zu Solz, former secretary in the Ministry of Foreign affairs; Paul Lejeune-Jung, a former deputy; Wilhelm Leuschner, former Hessian minister of the interior; Josef Wirmer, an attorney.

Goerdeler Laid Plans

Goerdeler, former German minister of economics, "worked out the plans of treason and it was he who formed the bridge between the militarist traitors and political conspirators," the German news agency Transocean said.

Goerdeler was captured after a price of a million marks (about $400,000) had been placed on his head.

The conspirators intended immediately after the assassination to set up a dictatorship "which would have immediately captured to the enemies of Germany," the agency said.

All seven of the accused were declared to have had "connections with foreign powers since 1942."

Threatening Storm Shifts From Coast

HOUSTON, Sept. 11. (U.P.) — Storm warnings were hauled down along the Texas gulf coast today as reports came in that a tropical disturbance had turned eastward after threatening the Texas coast for two days.

The storm moved inland last night at Pensacola, Fla., with winds reaching a peak velocity of 54 miles per hour. No damage had been reported.

The weather bureau continued its warning for small craft from Lake Charles east to St. Marks, Fla.

are not likely to be made known until they are carried into action on fighting fronts. And for that purpose, as in the past, the two leaders brought to Quebec with them their highest military, naval and air commanders, and tier after tier of officials for consultations on the lower levels.

Staff Chiefs Confer

While the chiefs of staff conferred in the picturesque Chateau Frontenac, protected from intrusion by soldiers and scarlet-coated mounted police, Roosevelt and Churchill held their discussions at the nearby Citadel on the heights towering over the St. Lawrence river.

Early's words, and the pace of developments in Europe, served to focus attention on plans for crushing Japan, but there was an awareness among those engaged in the deliberations here in Canada's oldest city that the collapse of Germany by no means will bring an end to problems in Europe.

But there was no evidence yet that Roosevelt and Churchill would call in their secretary of state and foreign minister to discuss international political puzzlers as they did when they met here 13 months ago.

Arrive At Mid-Morning

The chief executive and his British ally arrived by special trains in mid-morning — Mr. Roosevelt from below the border, Churchill from Halifax, where he ended an Atlantic crossing yesterday.

Seated in an open auto beside his train, Mr. Roosevelt watched, a smile of welcome lighting his face, as Churchill got off his own train four tracks away and walked over to renew acquaintances.

In consultations with their British opposite numbers were Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff; Adm. Ernest J. King, commander-in-chief of the fleet; and Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of Army Air forces.

Also engaged in the discussions here were Gen. Bremon Somervell, chief of the Army Service forces, and Adm. William D. Leahy, personal chief of staff to the President.

able to send hit-and-run night raiders into a sector dominated by Allied air power. But it also illuctrated the changing tide of the war.

Escorted Liberator heavy bombers attacked Japanese bivouac and defense areas at Mapanget airdrome, near Manado in northern Celebes, with another blistering raid Saturday. One hundred fifty-nine tons of bombs were dropped, causing heavy explosions. The previous day, American planes dropped a 180-ton load on Celebes, the heaviest dropped on that major Nipponese base, west of New Guinea.

Two Freighters Pounded

Allied air patrols bombed and hit two 7,000-ton Japanese freighters off Zamboanga Saturday night. (This second city of Mindanao island lies about 230 miles west of Davao which was one of several targets on the island's east coast struck earlier in the day in an American carrier task force raid.)

Continuing their steady neutralization raids, Liberator heavy bombers and fighters swept Halmahera island, southern stepping stone to the Philippines, and other islands in the Moluccas Saturday and Sunday. There was no air opposition.

Biak island, which the Japanese attempted to raid, is the largest of the Schoutens, in Geelvink bay. The Americans won it last July. The conquest of all the Schoutens was completed by a landing, against no opposition, on Soepiori island, northwest of Biak. This was announced last Sunday.

Four Men Indicted On Ration Charges

HOUSTON, Sept. 11 (U.P.)—Four men were under indictment by a federal grand jury today on charges of illegally handling ration currency in the Houston OPA district, two of them specifically charged with the theft of hundreds of gasoline coupons from the war price and rationing board at Groveton, Tex.

The jurors returned a true bill against Everett M. Anderson and Isaac Tomerlin in connection with the burglary of the rationing board three months ago. They were indicted for stealing and concealing government property.

Robert M. Dixon was indicted in connection with having in his possession coupons stolen from the Baton Rouge, La., war price and rationing board. Clyde Patrick O'Connor was charged in the indictment with selling tires without receiving proper ration currency and selling tires for prices above the ceiling.

Postwar Plan For 56,000,000 Jobs Blueprinted By House Committee

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. (U.P.)—The special House committee on postwar planning offered a blueprint today for a postwar economy which it said must provide between 54,000,000 and 56,000,000 jobs.

The committee, headed by Rep. William M. Colmer, (D., Miss.), said in a 78-page report that high levels of production and employment must be maintained if the economy is to bear an expected $20,000,000,000 federal tax load to keep the budget balanced.

The committee believed that between 12,000,000 and 14,000,000 new civilian jobs must be provided within two years after the defeat of Germany in addition to the 42,000,000 expected to be normally available. Indicating the magnitude of that assignment, it said private civilian employment never had risen more than 4,000,000 in any previous year.

Tax Revisions Urged

Broad revisions in the wartime tax structure were recommended as essential to encouraging production.

The committee proposed that the personal income tax supply the principal source of government revenue but said it should be possible to cut taxes from extreme wartime levels.

Particular attention should be given to the relief of lower and middle income groups and corporation taxes must be reduced to encourage business expansion, the report said.

Speedy reconversion to peacetime production was coupled with full employment as a basic goal of the transition period. The committee predicted that temporary unemployment would reach 5,000,000 and said it might go even higher unless industry converted rapidly and expanded aggressively.

Private Enterprise Stressed

The nation must depend upon private enterprise to achieve postwar prosperity, the committee said, and government must provide "the setting in which these efforts will have the best prospects of success."

States were urged to liberalize both the amounts and duration of their unemployment benefits. Going beyond provisions of the pending George reconversion bill, the committee recommended extending those benefits to federal empoys, maritime workers and employes of firms with less than eight workers.

Wartime controls should be removed as soon as possible, the committee said, but some must be continued into the reconversion period. It asserted that the government faces a "volatile" situation calling for cautious handling to avoid the extremes of uncontrolled inflation and widespread unemployment.

CARLSBAD, N. M., Sept. 11 (U.P.) First Sgt. James W. Schurr of Pyote, Tex., Army Air field was killed and seven other persons were injured, including one soldier critically and another seriously hurt, when an army truck collided with a commercial truck 15 miles south of here last night.

Schurr died of burns at the scene of the crash, while Pvt. Wilbert Taylor suffered severe burns and was considered in a critical condition at Carlsbad Army Air field station hospital. Cpl. John Doherty's condition was listed as serious. Six of the injured were soldiers, all from the Pyote base, and were returning to Pyote after a softball game at the Carlsbad field.

Fred O. Donahue, Hobbs, driver of the civilian truck, suffered a broken arm.

Hull Warns Austria To Turn On Germany

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11 (AP) — Secretary of State Hull today warned the people of Austria that the time for them to turn against Germany in order to help secure their own independence is almost up.

His statement, in response to a reporter's question, in effect advised the Austrians that their postwar destiny depends to a considerable extent at this moment on their following the pattern of Romania and Bulgaria and coming over to the Allied side.

He recalled that the Moscow conference of Allied foreign ministers last fall issued a declaration promising Austria her independence. But he emphasized that the declaration reminded Austria that she had a heavy responsibilit yfor having participated in the war on the side of Hitler.

Night-Clubbing Pair Almost Lose Baby Left Locked In Car

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (U.P.) — The pleasure-bent parents of a winsome 18-month-old baby girl smarted under the tougue lashing of a police lieutenant today after the tiny, blonde lass, left in a locked automobile while the parents went night clubbing, narrowly missed death in a traffic accident Saturday night.

The tiny tot was imprisoned in the parked automobile when it was struck by a street car which was involved in a four-way collision at a street intersection—unhurt, but loudly asserting her unfortunate fate.

By forcing open the windshield and opening one of the doors, officers rescued the baby and took her to the police station.

It was 45 minutes before the parents emerged from the dancing spot to learn of the accident. After being told that the baby was unhurt but "it's no credit to you," by a police sergeant, the couple proceeded to the police station.

There Lt. Louis Spencer turned the baby over to the parents with these words:

"It's lucky for you that there is no ordinance covering the thing you have done. If there were, you'd be in the jail now instead of on your way home."

TRAFFIC FALL DECLINES

AUSTIN, Sept. 11. (U.P.)—Eighty-four persons were killed in Texas traffic accidents during July, six less than in July, 1943, the department of public safety said today. There were 416 injured as compared with 357 in July a year ago.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

HAD you wondered how Australian brides who have come to the United States to make their home are getting along over here? We can report for at least one of them. Mrs. Robert E. West, formerly of Sydney, who is making her home in Borger with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry West.

When Miss Winifred Hay and her sister, Mrs. Bennie McWilliams, returned by train from San Francisco several weeks ago they sat near the Australian bride and another young girl who was going down state somewhere to join her husband. Because they seemed such young things and were rather confused about trains and meals and making change and the like, the Lubbock sisters offered their assistance and before they got to Clovis, they had practically adopted the Australians.

MRS. WEST'S sister also married an American serviceman and she and her father, a brick mason, plan to come to America at the end of the war. Her mother is dead. She was worried about whether or not her luggage would come through all right and was distressed over being forced to buy two tickets from San Francisco to Amarillo (where the Wests were going to meet her) because she had lost the first one.

"We exchanged views on our respective countries," Miss Hay said, "and I found Marie (as the friendly girl insisted on being called) amazed that clothing coupons are not required here. "She had already discovered there is no food shortage here, certainly not compared with where she had lived and had been rationed to a pound of tea per month and ten ounces of butter every two weeks. Fruit juices for babies can be obtained only on doctor's prescription," she said. "She asked dozens of questions about our customs and about our modern electric and gas household conveniences which she could hardly believe.

"Of course we were wondering if she was nervous over the prospect of meeting her husband's parents, but she showed us their picture and a letter from Mrs. West saying they were looking forward to having her live with them and knew the girl Bob loved would be the right one for them too. She could hardly wait to see them."

Miss Hay received a brief note from the new Borger resident the other day, thanking her for her kindness and telling of her great happiness in being received as one of an American family.

ON KILLING ROACHES

A WOMAN with a pleasant voice called the Woman's Angle Monday afternoon and asked us if we would pass on an effective method for killing cockroaches which she was told upon calling the county home demonstration's office.

"I am a new resident but I know that several others have faced the problem that I found when I moved here and I am so happy I want to pass it on," she said.

Here's what she did: Bought a can of sodium fluoride (the drug stores stock it) and sprinkled it on her kitchen cabinet shelves and around the baseboards. The commercial preparation is poisonous and is highly effective, she said.

"I guess I am the happiest person in town," the cheerful voice went on," I was so disgusted and discouraged when I went into the kitchen and saw the ugly brown things I was about ready to go back to East Texas. But now I am perfectly satisfied with your

Church Societies Have Teas, Study Hours Monday

Church societies devoted Monday meetings to luncheons, program-teas and stated study periods. Several programs were traditional.

St. John's Methodist Woman's Society of Christian service attended an annual fall program-tea in the home of Mrs. Clifford B. Jones, 3501 Nineteenth street. Assistant hostesses were Mesdames Clyde Smith, D. B. Pope, C. W. Bartlett, C. V. Bullen and R. A. Gill.

The program was based on the theme, "The Christian's Response to Suffering." Mesdames O. L. Taylor and J. Ben Cole told of medical work of the Methodist church in various parts of the world.

After a devotion by Mrs. J. F. Ford, chairman of the spiritual life committee, Mrs. W. E. Hamilton, wife of the executive secretary of the Northwest Methodist conference, showed slides and gave explanation of scenes depicting how Jesus dealt with human suffering.

Mrs. Max Richardson sang and piano solos were played by Bob Scoggin.

Forty women were present.

Mrs. W. L. Pattillo was elected president of the First Baptist WMS at a meeting in the church capel Monday afternoon. She will succeed Mrs. J. Holland Cox who resigned.

A community mission program was presented by Mrs. A. A. Holmquest who led a devotion; Mrs. J. H. York, "Working With the Mexicans"; Mrs. W. M. Gaston, "The Community Center" and Lily Bell Cooks, wife of a Baptist negro minister, "Needs of the Negroes."

Mrs. J. D. Riddie sang "Musical Questions," accompanied by Mrs. Earl Langley.

Fourteen members of the College Avenue Baptist WMS attended a Royal Service program at the church. Mrs. L. L. Richardson was in charge.

Madonna and Circle 1 of Central Baptist WMS met jointly for a lesson and later the Madonna circle elected officers.

Mrs. A. V. Womack gave the opening prayer, Rev. Jack Welch taught a lesson and Mrs. W. L. Atkins asked a benediction. Thirteen were present.

Elected were: Mrs. Andrew Hogue, president; Mrs. Brice Etheridge, vice president; Mrs. Roy Burns, secretary; Mrs. J. C. Jones, assistant secretary and Mrs. Jack Medley, reporter.

St. Paul's Episcopal Woman's auxiliary attended a luncheon at Seaman hall Monday afternoon to initiate the fall season. Mrs. J. C. Allensworth presided.

It was voted to sponsor a one-man show of Mrs. A. E. Pool's paintings Sept. 24 at Seaman hall. The paintings are all of Lubbock town."

WE'RE terribly sorry but only Monday it was brought to our attention there were two typographical errors in the recipes for overseas cookies which we printed here last Tuesday morning, courtesy of Mrs. W. C. Rylander. If you clipped the recipe, please get it and add one teaspoon of vanilla and instead of one-half teaspoon of cinnamon make it two teaspoons. Incidentally, Mrs. Rylander says this makes a rather stiff dough. We hope you did not make it up and find it to be tasteless as naturally it would be without flavoring.

Party Series For Miss Marjorie May Continuing Daily; Wedding Is Sunday

Miss Marjorie May, who will marry Cullen Chapman next Sunday, is being honored with a daily series of pre-bridal parties this week.

Mrs. Fred Hackel, 1914 Twenty-fifth, entertained Monday night with an after dinner coffee and shower complimenting Miss May.

Guests were Mesdames Henry N. Lawson, Allen Ray Marcus, Tommy Starnes, E. Waldo Trotter, Paul Crawford, W. H. Nelson, Bertha McNeill, Irene Rooker, A. W. May, Misses Jean Smith and Martha Kuykendall.

Tonight Mesdames Lawson, Marcus and Charles Cathey are to have a party, naming Miss May as honoree. This will be a pottery shower.

Thursday Miss Smith is planning a luncheon; Miss Dorothy Underwood will give a luncheon Friday in honor of Miss May and the series will be concluded with the rehearsal dinner Saturday.

Miss Pat Collins of Elmhurst, Ill., has arrived to visit Miss May and her mother. She will be an attendant in the wedding.

Hannegan Says GOP Hillman Charge Is Absolutely Untrue

CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP) — Robert E. Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, today termed "absolutely untrue" a statement he attributed to Republican leadership that President Roosevelt during the national Democratic convention directed Hannegan to "clear everything with Sidney."

This was a reference to Sidney Hillman, director of the CIO Political Action committee.

Hannegan, reading a statement at a press conference, said the opposition's strategy was "the simple and outworn approach of raising false issues and repeating them often enough in the hope that they finally will be mistaken for facts."

He declared that Gov. John W. Bricker, Republican vice presidential nominee, Saturday night "gave further currency to the wholly false invention that when the President was passing through Chicago while the Democratic national convention was in progress he directed me in this language: 'Clear everything with Sidney.'"

Elaborating on his prepared statement, Hannegan said he conferred with the President alone on his train on that occasion. He said he (Hannegan) talked with Hillman only once during the Democratic convention, in Hannegan's room, and the only statement Hillman made was that he was "for" Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination.

Work Permits Issued For School Children

Permits to work during the school term have been issued to 22 school children, Judge G. V. Pardue, county judge, said Monday.

These permits have been issued only to children who are attending at least part-time school sessions, it was pointed out. There has been some musunderstanding, it was said, among children of the city as to who is eligible for a permit.

The requirements were listed as follows: The child cannot be under 12 years old and he must be attending school part time, at least. A permit cannot be issued without the approval of Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer.

FOR MEN ONLY

Scientists have now found that men who are run down, and no longer have the ability to enjoy life as they once did, may be suffering from a deficiency of certain essential vitamins and hormones. Middle-aged men especially may be the victims of this embarrassing condition. Tromone, the new medical discovery, combines the necessary vitamins and hormones that may make it possible for you to get a kick out of life again. If taken in sufficient quantities, to make up your vitamin-hormone deficiency, Tromone may stimulate your vitality, give you the verve and zest of a much younger man. Added years may no longer deprive you of desired enjoyments once you begin to use Tromone. Note: follow directions on label. Tromone for sale at Bowen's Drug Store and druggists everywhere. Adv.

UMW Chief May Air Views Today

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. — Watch tomorrow's meeting of the United Mine Workers of America convention in Cincinnati for a tip on John L. Lewis' presidential campaign year plans and views.

Lewis, UMW president, will keynote the convention tomorrow. His speech should indicate how active he expects to be—if at all—in the campaign to put Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the White House. Endorsing Dewey would not come easily to the mine chieftain and he may not do so. But his union publications have spoken favorably on the Republican presidential candidate and if Lewis does not support Dewey, he will have no candidate at all this year.

Break Not Healed

The break between Lewis and President Roosevelt after the 1936 election, in which Lewis caused labor loans and gifts of $500,000 or so to be advanced to the New Deal, has never mended. Four years ago Lewis formalized the breach by endorsing Wendell L. Willkie, the GOP presidential candidate, in a nationally broadcast speech rarely equalled for bitterness and deliberate dramatic efect.

If Lewis endorses Dewey it will be despite the governor's sharp repudiation of some of Lewis' union activities in language the mine leader is not likely soon to forget. Lewis, however, may see in this campaign an opportunity to pay off a score against the Roosevelt administration.

There are about 500,000 members of Lewis's mine union. He was unable to swing the big and cumbersome CIO behind the Republican candidate in 1940, but his hold on the miners is stronger. They have on occasion followed him with spectacular political effect.

Approximately 190,000 UMW members vote in Pennsylvania where Mr. Roosevelt currently is believed to have an advantage and where Dewey must overtake and pass him if he is to win next November. There are 130,000 members in West Virginia, 20,000 in Ohio, 20,000 in Indiana, 35,000 in Illinois and thousands scattered elsewhere in the south and west. Such blocs, when controllable, are real prizes in a close election contest.

Suspect Grilled In Dallas County Death

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (U.P.) — A suspect held in the fatal beating of a boxing instructor here last week steadfastly denied today any implication in the attack, but appeared visibly shaken after a full day's questioning at the hands of detectives.

The suspect, a 37-year-old Honey Grove farmer, has been identified positively by three witnesses as the man seen with the victim, Frederick F. Davis, 57, Knox City, just before the beating and robbery.

Officers planned to exhume Davis' body today to compare the fatal wounds with a broken punch blade in a knife found on the suspect.

Pneumonia Fatal To C. W. Booher

C. W. Booher, 46, prominent South Plains cotton buyer, for 21 years, died Monday in West Texas hospital of pneumonia.

Funeral services are to be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in Asbury Methodist church, 2001 Avenue T. Dr. C. A. Brickley, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Booher came to Lubbock from Wichita Falls. He was well known in cotton circles throughout the state. He had accumulated considerable land, business and residential properties in Lubbock and over the South Plains. He maintained an office on "cotton row," 1305 Texas Avenue.

To Hospital Saturday

Booher was admitted to the hospital Saturday.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Anita Joyce, 12; his mother, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, Wichita Falls; four brothers, J. R. and H. A., Lubbock, and H. D. and W. F. of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Anderson was visiting in Lubbock at the time of her son's death.

Pall bearers were announced as Bill Roberts, Joe Shirley, Aubrey Tapp, Paul Carlock, Frank Perry, Paul Lawless, Harvey Jordan and Jim Bragg.

present the plan to the convention, nevertheless, if asked to.

The executive committee adjourned its session—delayed for hours in starting—and both pro- and anti-Roosevelt factions proceeded with their causes to finally map convention strategy.

Pros Hold Proxies

Topflight pro-Roosevelt leaders participated in the executive committee session, holding proxies for absent members. Among them were former Gov. James V. Allred of Houston, Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana, Woodville Rogers of San Antonio, Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro.

Over their protest, but with almost no oratorical fireworks, the executive committee adopted the recommendation of its sub-committee on credentials that anti-Roosevelt delegations from Tarrant, Bell, Hutchinson, Shelby, Harrison, El Paso and Dallas county be seated. The committee voted to seat pro-Roosevelt delegations from Wichita and Wilson counties.

Voice Vote Attempted

The committee, by a voice vote, also passed a resolution expressing its approval "in principle of the governor's efforts" to compose party differences. The pro-Roosevelt members and proxy-holders shouted "no," but did not insist on a record vote. The resolution did not state approval of the governor's specific plan.

The committee recommended Charles E. Simons of Austin for temporary convention secretary and Homer Leonard of McAllen for temporary parliamentarian. Temporary committee chairmanships recommended to the convention were: Otis Dunagan of Gilmer, credentials; W. C. Richards of Athens, permanent organization; Charles C. Gibson of Amarillo, nominations of party officers; Dr. Mollie Armstrong of Brownwood, canvassing election returns.

By a vote of 32 to 21, the committee defeated the effort by pro-Roosevelt members to amend the report of a subcommittee on temporary officers and procedure which would have provided for appointment of a committee for selection of presidential electors.

First Test Of Sentiment

This represented the first tangible pre-convention test of sentiment on the explosive matter of presidential electors which is the basic issue before tomorrow's convention.

Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro, holding a proxy as a committee member, served notice that the pro-Roosevelt members would bring a minority report on procedure and organization before the convention providing for a committee on presidential electors.

The executive committee adopted two resolutions prompted by the United States Supreme court's decision opening Texas primaries to negroes, recommending legislative revision of the election laws to permit the party to regulate its own affairs and determine its own membership.

Chairman Choice Delayed

Omitted from the report of the subcommittee on temporary officers and procedure was the usual recommendations for a temporary convention chairman and for a chairman of the platform committee. Executive Committee Chairman George A. Butler explained that the subcommittee did not wish to make these recommendations without consulting Governor Stevenson, who was enroute to Dallas when the subcommittee met. The subcommittee will meet at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow to decide on these recommendations.

The executive committee also adopted the subcommittee's recommendation that each county be allotted votes in tomorrow's convention on the basis of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor in the July 22 primary.

This would give to each county delegation one vote for every 500 votes or a fractional part thereof cast for all the candidates for governor in the last primary. The executive committee which is in recess while subcommittee's complete their work, was expected to resume its session between 5 and 6 p. m. today. The executive committee must act upon the subcommittee's recommendation in regard to allocation of votes before the action becomes a recommendation to the convention.

Participation of all Lubbock county rural schools in the Interscholastic league program of athletic and literary events was recommended by principals and superintendents in a meeting Monday night in the office of County Superintendent Roy Boyd. A meeting of rural school teachers was set for Sept. 26 in Lubbock, and a monthly meeting of rural school superintendents was planned. Officials reported that enrollment is approximately the same as that last year. Boyd discussed several matters pertaining to school administration.

Members of committees for the new Legion year were announced Monday night at a regular meeting of the Allen Bros. post of the American Legion at the post home, 910 Texas avenue. C. A. Hubbard, post commander, was elected delegate to the national Legion convention to be held this month in Chicago. Reports on the recent state department convention in Fort Worth were given by George S. Berry, A. C. Lamp, A. C. Jackson and Hubbard.

Harold Wall and George Morris Monday were nominated as candidates for the office of president of the junior class at Lubbock High school. Nominated for the office of secretary were Mary Frances Payne and Velma Lou Dunn. The offices will be filled by election today. Vice-presidents of the class were elected yesterday. They are Charlotte Scoggins, Gloria Novak, Miss Payne, Miss Dunn, Wall, Ray Summers, Noel Sikes and Gerald Davis. Nominees for president and secretary were selected by the vice-presidents. The sophomore class will select its officers Wednesday and Thursday. Joe Arrington and Joe Ann Bailey were elected president and secretary, respectively, of the senior class in elections last week.

Four Examined By Jury At Levelland

LEVELLAND, Sept. 11. (Special)—A 72nd district court grand jury examined four witnesses here today in connection with charges against four Hockley county oil field workers preferred last week after a strike shut down several oil rigs in the Sundown area.

The men under charge are Edward Massey, H. A. Stripling, J. A. Spurgeon, and J. T. Hurt. They are charged specifically with unlawfully by threats preventing Joe Near, an oil field driller, from engaging in his vocation.

The jury is to reconvene at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, when they are to hear several more witnesses in connection with the charges against the quartet.

Douglas MacArthur's domain — where a lull has developed in the last few days, judging from MacArthur's communiques.

The Navy attack covered the entire island from Sarangani bay on the extreme southern tip to Surigao at the extreme north on the vital Hinutuan passage. It was notable that the communique announced nothing about warships accompanying the Japanese convoy or of trying to protect the many ships in the harbor.

It seemed reasonable to believe that many Japanese warships were still in home ports undergoing repair of the damage suffered in the battle of the Philippine Sea last June.

The Mindanao attack indicated the closeness with which MacArthur and Adm. Chester Nimitz are able to dovetail their actions in the western and southern Pacific. The Navy raid occurred only about 600 miles from MacArthur's base on Biak island off Dutch New Guinea.

Fighting near the Adriatic was officially described as still "heavy and bitter, with casualties on both sides heavy." The British drove the enemy from one 600-foot peak south of Gemmano, a few miles inland from the coast, and Indian troops captured a hill 1,000 yards above Piano Di Castello.

Immediately before Rimini the Allied assault had been brought to a standstill by fierce Nazi resistance, but repeated counter-attacks by enemy tanks and infantry had not succeeded in dislodging the British from any positions won in the past two weeks.

Navy Mothers Fund Is To Buy Wheel Chairs

Recently South Plains Navy Mothers club contributed $250 toward the National Navy Mothers club and Sunday afternoon at its regular meeting it was told what had been done with the money. It was sent to a fund in the base hospital in Philadelphia to be used in buying wheel chairs for the amputation ward. Mrs. J. B. Walker, first vice commander, presided. Mrs. Montee Waddle was a guest.

Stolen Holdup Car Recovered

A stolen car used in a $201 holdup Saturday night in Plainview was recovered near Acuff Monday by Lubbock state police.

Two men participated in the robbery, one as driver of the car and the other as gunman who forced a Mr. Hackett, night attendant at Newmen Motor Co., to turn over contents of the cash register.

Hackett was forced to accompany the pair to a point eight miles south of Plainview, where he was released, unharmed.

Gunman Described

Bill Bell, captain of night police here, said Hackett described the gunman as left-handed, slender and between 25 and 28. The other man, who remained in the car while his partner presumably went into the company office to pay for gasoline, was approximately the same age and "heavy."

The car discovered at Acuff belongs to J. L. Murdock of Littlefield, Capt. Bell said. It was stolen from a downtown street about 9:30 o'clock Saturday night. The robbery occurred about 11:30 o'clock.

Rampaging Yanks

west of the road center of Dijon.

Thus for more than 300 miles, the sprawling lines of the Allies were joined almost solidly—from Holland south through Belgium, into Luxembourg and on into France — since the U. S. First Army earlier met the British in northern Belgium. There remains only the small gap between the U. S. First and Third armies, probably no more than 15 miles.

The British Second Army knifed into Holland after crushing a savage German stand north of the Albert canal in the biggest slaughter since Normandy and headed toward the weakest link in the west wall defenses—the 70 miles of fortifications from Aachen to Kleve.

Luxembourg Capital Freed

Redoubling blows along a 250-mile assault line, the U. S. First Army captured the capital of Luxembourg—the third Nazi-held capital freed within two weeks—while a twin column marched swiftly on the German town of Trier, 25 miles to the northeast.

Swarms of warplanes, thundering over German housetops and knocking out enemy fighters in the greatest sky battle ever fought over the Reich, also told the German people that the war Hitler carried to other lands beginning in 1939 had come back home to roost.

Rampaging through Luxembourg, the Americans were within 10 miles of the German frontier, as were their comrades on the north attacking the west wall outposts south of the Siegfried anchor of Aachen.

Dense Mine Fields

Americans striking little more than eight miles from Germany on Aachen's ancient route of European invasion were slowed by the densest mine fields seen since the beachhead fighting and before them were the concrete dragon teeth of the west wall's tank barriers.

American shells, exploding on German soil for the first time in history, were reported coming from advanced positions at Linbourg, 8½ miles from the border. (The Paris radio said Aachen was under U. S. artillery fire.)

The British Second Army, presumably accompanied by a Dutch brigade coming back home after four years of exile, crossed the Netherlands frontier 14 miles north of the broken Albert canal line in a drive apparently aimed at the road and rail center of Eindhoven 12 miles ahead.

Only 38 miles northwest of Eindhoven is the German city of Kleve, standing at the northern extremity of the Siegfried line.

In three days of fighting around Bourg-Leopold and Hechtel, 35 to 40 miles east of Antwerp, the British took 12,000 prisoners, and killed 1,200 Germans in a single day.

Allied air power was brought home more forcefully to the German citizens than ever before, with fighters in great force knocking out 130 German planes in dog fights that raged over the Rhineland and deep into the interior.

ATTEND GRADUATION

Chas. C. Crenshaw, jr., received his wings from Ellington field, Houston, last Friday and his commission as a flight officer. His wife and sons were there for the occasion and remained with him. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crenshaw, sr., 2324 Tenth street, attended the graduation and have returend to their home. Their youngest daughter, Miss Ann Crenshaw, has gone to Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., where she will be a senior student.

The English House of Lords has a red-bordered carpet marking the limits where a member may stand when addressing the gathering, and it is believed the carpet was set in the days when men carried swords so that a safe distance would be allowed in case of altercations.

MP Critically Hurt In Sunday Accident

Pvt. Kurt H. Kruesel, military policeman at South Plains Army Air field, remained critical in condition Monday night in the post hospital, of injuries received Sunday morning in a mishap on the Lubbock-Plainview highway.

A complaint of aggravated assault with a motor vehicle was filed Monday against W. D. Oats, Lubbock route 2, in connection with the accident. Oats posted $500 bond.

Pvt. Kruesel suffered a fractured skull and fractured left leg. His home is at Ellendale, Minn.

The MP stood beside the parked car and trailer of a soldier when Oats' car hit the trailer. Highway Patrolman Tom Laws said the car and trailer were parked off the pavement. Oats said he was forced off the road by another car.

and for that reason was feigning illness," he stated.

The chief executive's arrival climaxed a busy day for Texas Democrats which saw them milling about in hotel lobbies from early morning until late at night, holding caucuses in the traditional smoke-filled rooms and oftimes engaging in bitter wrangling over credentials before a subcommittee of the state executive group.

Mark Halsey, Lubbock druggist and member of the state committee, sat in on the hearings throughout the day and said tonight that all results of the day's hearings would not be announced until the convention convenes at Fair park auditorium Tuesday.

Klett Heads Caucus

E. L. Klett, titular head of Lubbock county's anti-Roosevelt delegation, was named floor leader for the 30th senatorial district in a brief caucus of the delegations this afternoon. After selecting Klett as floor leader and Winfield Watkins of Littlefield as secretary, the delegates voted to postpone consideration of further action until the first caucus on the convention floor.

Selection of a committeeman and committeewoman from the district was one of its principal tasks. Besides Halsey, Mrs. Charles Dean of Plainview is at present serving on the committee.

The brief, informal caucus revealed that antis are in control in the district with delegations from Lubbock, Cochran, Terry, Crosby, Martin, Lamb, Hale and Bailey due to go down the line for ratification of electors named at the May convention.

Other County Delegations

R. M. Kendrick and O. L. Peterman were present from Terry; M. C. Ledbetter and J. R. Ward, Cochran; Horace Hawkins, Hale; O. C. Arthur, R. R. Wooten and Joe M. Rose, Dickens; W. E. Grimes, Walter G. Collins, J. C. Wester and Glad Snodgrass, Floyd; J. C. Pickle and George Mims, Howard; F. A. Benbow and J. C. Peeler, Hockley; James H. Ware and Watkins, Lamb; Pat Bobo and George Johnson, Bailey, and Reed McLaughlin, Crosby.

Wooten, Dickens county delegate from McAdoo, made it clear in the caucus that his group "would do everything in our power" to support the Roosevelt-Truman ticket. Dickens, Floyd, Dawson, Howard and Motley delegates (by proxy) indicated they were pro-Roosevelt while Hockley county's delegates were uninstructed. Lubbock county's delegates at the caucus included Klett, W. L. Morrison, Jeff D. Watson, Powell McWhirter, Jim Cade, Homer D. Grant, Harry Holcomb, R. G. Porter and Lee O. Allen.

Preston Smith In Dallas

Also in Dallas to meet members of the legislature is Representative-elect Preston E. Smith and Mrs. Smith. Smith is to attend a dinner Tuesday night honoring Claude Gilmer, veteran Kerrville member of the House who is scheduled to become speaker next January.

On hand early also was Carl Rountree, prominent Lamesa attorney and former state representative who came down in advance of the convention with Mrs. Rountree and their daughter, Patsy Jo, who is to enter Hockaday school. Rountree and two other Dawson delegates, M. C. Lindsey and Bob Huff, are instructed for Roosevelt.

No one would predict tonight the outcome tomorrow. Both sides claim "a righteous cause and two-thirds of the votes."

Whyburn Takes Over Presidency Of Tech In Monday Ceremony

Texas Technological college's fourth president, Dr. William M. Whyburn, took office Monday.

In his first official appearance, he said to Tech faculty members he hoped they would consider him "an expediter, rather than an administrator."

Declaring that he could not ennunciate any new policies at this time because he thus far has seen no need for any changes, President Whyburn said his first task will be to become thoroughly oriented in his work. He urged each of his approximately 165 listeners to go ahead with his work so that as president he could secure thorough knowledge of the college and its activities. He asked individual faculty members to make suggestions covering the college as a whole, but counseled them against commenting upon past policies and decisions.

"We must look to the future," he said, "and formulate policies in the future upon the basis of future events."

Will "Plan Together"

Noting that many colleges today are laying post-war plans, President Whyburn said he could not follow suit until such time as he has a better grasp of Tech affairs. Then he said, "we (meaning faculty members) shall formulate our plans together."

President Whyburn was introduced by out-going President Clifford B. Jones, who becomes Tech's first president emeritus after a career which has carried him from a member of the board's first directorate; to the board's chairmanship and into the presidency which he has filled for more than five years. Touching upon his love for the college, of which he has been a part since before a single brick was laid, Doctor Jones turned to Doctor Whyburn and said:

"Bill, from this minute on, the reins of this institution are in your hands. God bless you, and keep you, and guide you in your effort which shall be so successful in your administration of this college. This is my personal prayer for you."

Sees Future Development

In his response, Doctor Whyburn, who was a mathematics professor at Tech in the college's first year, 1925-26, commented upon the institution's growth since then but said he is most impressed by future prospects. "I see," he said, "unlimited possibilities for future development. Had I not seen such possibilities, I should not have associated myself with the institution."

Dr. James M. Gordon, dean of the division of liberal arts, offered the invocation. The meeting, first faculty gathering of the 1944-45 year, was held in the college gymnasium at 10 a.m. All but four faculty members were present; three being detained by illness and a fourth not having arrived in Lubbock.

New faculty members were introduced by their respective deans and Dean Gordon announced the appointment of Dr. William Davis as acting head of the department of government, succeeding Prof. H. C. Pender who has gone into private business.

Son of Thomas Whyburn, who was brought to this country at the age of two from his birthplace in Devonshire, England, and of Eugenia Elizabeth McLoed Whyburn, a native of Alabama, the new Tech president was born at Lewisville, in North Texas, and brought up on a nearby farm. He first attended adjacent country schools, later went to University of Texas where he graduated first as a bachelor of arts, then as a master and finally as a doctor of philosophy. He is a member of the University of Texas chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, celebrated order of top-ranking students and other honorary fraternities.

Came Here From UCLA

President Whyburn came to Tech from the University of Southern California at Los Angeles where he has been chairman of the department of mathematics and has served on various committees controlling operations of that large institution. One of the nation's foremost mathematicians, he currently is first vice-president of the American Society of Mathematicians and a member of a similar body in Peru. His brother, Dr. Thomas Gordon Whyburn is also a leading educator in the field of mathematics, heading the department at the University of Virginia. A sister, Mrs. Carter Walker, still resides in Lewisville and a brother, Clifton, is engaged in the insurance business in El Paso.

Doctor Whyburn holds interests in civic, religious and social affairs in keeping with his background and experience. In the war effort, he serves in a technical capacity as chief of the Operations Analysis section of the Army's Third Air Force and as such has traveled extensively. He will continue in this capacity until such time as his work is completed.

President Emeritus Jones will continue to live in Lubbock in a residence at 3501 Nineteenth street which he and Mrs. Jones purchased shortly after Doctor Jones expressed last March his decision to retire for reasons of personal health. He will spend most of his time looking after personal interests but expects to give much attention to civic matters in Lubbock and over West Texas.

News Briefs

The following judgments were entered in county court Monday: A. D. Farmer was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to serve one day in county jail for theft under $50; S. C. Gomez was fined $100 and costs for unlawful posession of an alcoholic beverage for the purpose of sale, judgment being stayed for a period of 96 days; W. M. Birdwell was fined $1 and costs for swindling with worthless check; M. Sanders was sentenced to serve 30 days in county jail for swindling with worthless check; and Howard Jones received a six-months jail sentence for swindling with worthless check.

Three men of this area have been wounded in action, it was announced by the Navy department Monday. They are Capt. Lonnie D. McCurry, U. S. Marine corps, husband of Mrs. Lonnie McCurry of Carbon and son of M. V. McCurry, 2313 Fourth, Lubbock; and Cpl. William L. Marley, U. S. Marine corps, son of Mrs. Lida Marley, Lamesa.

A daughter, Mary Elizabeth, was born to Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Hopper Midland Monday morning. Pastor of the Midland Presbyterian church, Mr. Hopper is the son of Mrs. R. E. Overstreet of 2106 Fifteenth.

Herman Lorenz produced the first bale of 1944 cotton in the Monroe community. It was ginned Monday morning by the Hobbs Bros. gin there. The bale, produced from 1,980 pounds of seed cotton, weighed 525 pounds and was classed middling 13/16ths, by gin estimates.

Beryle Bishop, pharmacist's mate 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam George Bishop of Floydada, was listed Monday by the Navy department as wounded in action.

J. A. Humphries of Meadowbrook acres is in Temple to attend the funeral services of his sister, Mrs. P. P. Browne, who died Saturday as a result of injuries suffered from flames of an explosion. Mrs. Browne, who had lived at Temple all her life, is also survived by three sisters, two sons and a daughter.

AT TEXAS TECH MONDAY—Dr. Clifford B. Jones, above left, turns over the presidency of Texas Technological college to Dr. William M. Whyburn, right, but continues an official connection of nearly 20 years with the institution he has served since its very inception as board member, board chairman and president. As Doctor Whyburn becomes Tech's fourth president, Doctor Jones becomes the college's first president emeritus. (See editorial, Page 6).

Light Rains Fall On City And Vicinity

Less than one-half inch of rainfall was received in Lubbock Monday morning. Rain began to fall shortly after midnight and continued until dawn.

The gauge at Texas experiment sub-station east of town showed that .36 inch fell there, while the Texas Tech gauge recorded .37 inch.

Rainfall seemed to center around Lubbock, however. The Santa Fe railroad dispatcher at Slaton reported light showers and sprinkles along that company's lines in this area. Fort Worth and Denver railroad dispatcher here reported one-half inch fell at Petersburg and one-fourth inch at Sterley in Floyd county.

Agricultural authorities pointed out that some damage to cotton could result from this and other rains that have fallen in this area since rainfall has a tendency to bring about cooler weather which will delay opening of bolls.

One said that a few leaf worms would be welcome now, since they would eat the leaves from the plants, thus allowing the sun to reach the bolls so they would open faster. Another said the rains would aid other vegetation, such as weeds and grass, hindering cotton and other crops.

All were of the opinion that late feed and fall wheat would be aided by the rainfall.

The North West Mounted Police was organized in 1873.

Lt. Price Reported Missing In Italy

Relatives here were notified Monday that Lt. Lewis F. Price, navigator in the U. S. Army Air forces and former Lubbock resident, has been missing in action in Italy since Aug. 29.

The notification was received by his wife, Mrs. Irma Price, San Augustine, Tex., and relayed here to her cousin, Mrs. H. M. McCullough, 1903 Eighth. Lt. Price is a graduate of Texas Tech and received his wings at San Marcos Army Air field. He has been awarded the Air Medal and an Oak Leaf cluster.

Passing Still A Problem At Tech

The Texas Tech Red Raiders tested out their new headgears Monday afternoon in a lengthy, rough scrimmage session that ended with Coach Dell Morgan still bemoaning the complete absence of any real passing artist from the squad.

Morgan tried out a number of backs in search of passing talent, but none of them seemed inclined to fill the shoes of the needed passing star.

In the meantime, the Tech running game began to show some spark of life, and several men were showing up nicely in this department. Chief among them was Arthur Shahan, the shifty runner from Graham.

Walter Schlinkman was spending a lot of time in the backfield, manned by Ernest Hawkins, Cecil Norris and Shahan, and appeared to be standing up under the rough work very nicely. He was also showing much of his old time drive in running plays.

Another man that was showing up well was Floyd Lawhorn, big tackle from Temple, who has been shifted into the center post in seeking more power for the center play. It was also indicated that Ed Orr will be shifted from guard to make a try at centering. Orr played center at Vernon High school last season.

The cutdown of the squad last week left the team with only one man listed as a center, this was Otis Turner of Wink, who has been making a great showing since fall practice opened.

FRIDAY IS DEADLINE

AUSTIN, Sept. 11. (AP)—Deadline for entrance in the Texas schoolboy football competition is Sept. 15, R. J. Kidd, athletic director of the University of Texas Interscholastic League, warned contestants today.

Odessa Bronchos Have Huge Eleven

The Lubbock Westerners swung into the last week of preparation for the grid season opener here Friday night at 8:30 o'clock with the huge and powerful Odessa Bronchos, rated one of the top teams of the Texas schoolboy grid campaign.

Rival coaches in District 3-AA are quick to tab the brawny backs

TICKET SALE WEDNESDAY

Ticket sales for the season's opener between the Lubbock Westerners and the Odessa Bronchos will go on sale Wednesday morning at the Hilton hotel lobby, it was announced Monday night by E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic director of Lubbock schools.

Lowrey stated Monday that there would be no season tickets for the Westerner games this year, but that fans could purchase their tickets for all five home games of the Westerners at the Wednesday sale. Regular prices will prevail on the sale of all home game tickets.

of Coach Clayton Hopkins' eleven as the "greatest backfield combination in Texas." That is the opinion of fans and coaches in the same district with the vaunted San Angelo Bobcats, state champions, and favored to repeat.

The Monday workout of the Westerners was light, but they are scheduled to get together during the week.

Locals On Spot

The Westerners will be "on the spot" Friday night, for the Bronchos are still smarting under the sting of an 18 to 6 thumping that the Westerners dished out last season in the opener. That was made worse by the fact that it happened before the home fans.

It was one of three losses suffered by the team last year, which won five and lost three during the season. Only Lubbock, Sweetwater and the state champion Bobcats were able to stop the stampede of the Bronchos.

Coach Hopkins will have a line that will average 161 pounds, and the vaunted backfield will average 165 pounds with an overall team average of 163 pounds. These weight figures are greatly reduced by the Odessa center, a 137 pound bundle of dynamite named Pat Kelly.

Have 8 Lettermen

Odessa has eight lettermen returning from last season's great team, and seven of them are listed among the likely starters here Friday night. The eighth, and tabbed as one of the better backs, likely will not see action here because of a knee injury.

Included in the lettermen, and starting lineup, is Walter Edrington, 178 pound tackle, who won All-District honors last season in District 3-AA, and termed as better than ever this year.

Two members of that vaunted backfield are lettermen, and the heaviest of the four backs. They are halfback George Cook and fullback J. W. Thompson. Cook tips the scales at 170 and Thompson at 175. The backfield is rounded out by Ted Roby, 158 pound tailback, and Tommy Tucker, 160 pound blocking back. Tucker was a reserve letterman last year.

Dennis Bates, 175 pound fullback, is the member of that backfield who likely will watch the Lubbock game from the sidelines because of a knee injury.

Lettermen in the line will include an end, tackle, two guards and a center. Besides little Kelly, the next lightest lad will be playing beside him, and is also a letterman, 150 pound Wilford Elmore at right guard. At the other guard is 170 pound Jack Marcell. The lettermen are rounded out by Paul Fly, 155 pound wingman at right end.

The starting lineup will be rounded out by Rex Partridge, 150 pound, reserve letterman at left end and Joe Holley, 190 pounder, at right tackle.

Lubbock Bowler Has Perfect 300 Score

Cpl. George Tate, a Lubbock boy stationed at Lubbock Army Air Field, realized the "bowlers dream" Sunday afternoon at the Plamour alleys when he tied together a dozen strikes in a row for a perfect 300 game.

Tate was in a pot game with several witnesses on hand to vouch for his perfection. It was also made off "new timber" and gave him a string of 14 strikes in a row, counting two frames of another game.

Plainview Opens Up Grid Season Friday

PLAINVIEW, Sept. 11 (Special)—The Plainview Bulldogs have waited eight long years for the chance they will have here Friday night when they open the 1944 grid season with hopes higher than they have been in many years.

It was Sept. 30, 1938 that the Hollis Tigers roared across "Big Red" and licked a good Plainview eleven, 7-6. Friday will be the first chance Plainview has had to avenge that defeat.

The Bulldogs returned to one-a-day practice with the opening of school today after holding twice a day workouts since the opening of fall camp on Sept. 1.

Scrimmage Floydada

Coaches Finis Vaughn and Leslie Clary had the first chance of the year to really see what the boys could do under pressure when they scrimmaged with Floydada to top off a week's hard drill last Friday afternoon.

The Bulldogs were never stopped by the Floydada eleven when the first stringers were in the scrimmage. The Plainview attack against the Floydada eleven was particularly impressive through the air.

Jack Williams showed the same uncanny ability to throw the pigskin that he showed in the Lubbock game last Turkey Day, and was throwing strikes to his receivers all over the field.

Many of the boys have put on additional weight since spring training, and the backfield this season should average well over 160 pounds. This additional weight has been especially notable in Jack Weldon, Cale Farris, Jimmy Graham and Frank Standefer in the backfield.

Well Balanced Line

The line is well balanced and experienced. There are good replacements for all positions, and with another week of work, the Bulldogs should be ready to start the season Friday night by making a good account of themselves.

Fans are expecting to see the type of game here tha they have long wanted to see, a rugged, wide open game in which anything can happen. A much improved running game has been evident in practice, and will add muct strength to Williams' passing attack.

Williams is as good a passer as the Bulldogs ever had, and many predict he will develop into a sensational one. He has plenty of good receivers for his pitches, and when crowded, he can carry the ball as well as throw it.

Plainview fans and coaches are predicting no championships, but they are confident that the 1944 Bulldogs will be a good team that will give the fans a real show on any schoolboy gridiron.

The Plainview schedule is:
Sept. 15—Hollis, Okla., here.
Sept. 22—Childress there.
Sept. 29—Electra here.
Oct. 6—Midland there.
Oct. 13—Open.
Oct. 20—Sweetwater here.
Oct. 27—Lubbock there.
Nov. 3—Borger here.
Nov. 11—Amarillo there.
Nov. 17—Brownfield here.
Nov. 24—Open.
Nov. 30—Pampa there.

Texas Aggies Loom As Another Threat

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 11. (AP)—Giving all his 85 candidates a turn in an intrasquad game, Coach Homer Norton served warning that his Texas Aggies will have plenty of power in the Southwest Conference football race and will be hard to handle if a passing combination can be uncovered.

Frank Torno of Cameron, whom Norton hoped would fill the shoes of Jesse Burditt, Babe Hallmark or Marion Flanagan of last year's team, has been called up by the Air Corps, and another back, Max Konz, who had been showing up well, has left school, but Norton still has 12 or 15 backs of promise.

Four Aggies have minor injuries and have not been taking part in scrimmage. They are Bobby Goff of Jenedy and Jimmy Parmer of Mangum, Okla., backs; Abe Abraham, guard, and Milt Cherno, end. All are expected to return to rough work soon.

Grid Schedule Picks Up Tempo

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—Football takes another hesitant step toward the center of the sports stage this weekend, offering the Iowa Seahawks vs. Michigan contest as its chief rival for athletic interest with the tight race in the American Baseball League.

The Iowa Sailors, second behind Notre Dame in the final 1943 Associated Press poll, and Michigan, in third place and sharing the Big Ten title with Purdue, did not meet last year. The Seahawks, however, banged out a 26 to 14 verdict in 1942.

Neither club looms as potentially great as its immediate predecessor — an ailment which is likely to be common among most of the country's teams in the coming campaign.

This year Michigan, which inherited parts of the Wisconsin and Minnesota football teams a year ago, started out with three-fourths of a veteran backfield and a questionable line. The Seahawks also will be weaker because their officers will not be eligible.

Other games this Saturday has Tufts at Harvard, the Amarillo Air Base opposing the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque, Illinois Normal at Illinois, Fort Knox at Indiana and Fort Sheridan at Great Lakes.

Actually the season has been under way for three weeks in some sectors and Coach Alonzo A. Stagg's College of Pacific, one of the country's best last year, already has lost one game. The Staggmen were defeated, 7 to 6, by the Fleet City Bluejackets last week and Friday night take on the Army Transport Command.

Another contest Friday night is the Washburn at Kansas university affair.

Southern teams generally are delaying their debuts until next week but the remainder of the map is studded with isolated games this weekend.

Mueller Shines As Reds Nose By Cubs

American League Leaders Bolster Forces In Layoff

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—Due to a slight case of nightmare in the schedule department, the hottest American League pennant race in years will cool its heels until Friday with only a Yanks Wednesday night game in Philadelphia to break the monotony.

Counting on weather trouble in April and May, the chart makers provided a September calendar shot full of holes for postponed games but the torrid dry summer failed to co-operate with washouts.

HOW THEY PLAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 11 (AP) — The American League pennant race at a glance:

Team	W	L	Pct.	Beh.	To Play
New York	76	61	.555		17
Detroit	75	61	.551	½	18
St. Louis	75	62	.547	1	17
Boston	73	64	.533	3	17

New York—At home: 2 with Philadelphia. Away: 3 at St. Louis, 3 at Detroit, 3 at Cleveland, 4 at Chicago, 1 at Philadelphia.
Detroit—At home: 3 with New York, 4 with Boston, 3 with Philadelphia, 4 with Washington. Away: 4 at Cleveland.
St. Louis—At home: 4 with New York, 3 with Boston, 4 with Chicago, 3 with Washington, 3 with Philadelphia. Away: none.
Boston—At home: None. Away: 3 at Washington, 4 at Detroit, 3 at Cleveland, 3 at St. Louis, 4 at Chicago.

The result is that New York, St. Louis and Boston each will play 17 games and Detroit 18 in the next three weeks before the curtain drops on Oct. 1.

Detroit, only a half game behind the Yanks, probably will gain the most by this inforced layoff as the Tigers have been leaning heavily on Hal Newhouser and Dizzy Trout with periodic relief from Rufe Gentry and Stubby Overmire. After a four-game weekend series in Cleveland, the Bengals will return to Brigg's stadium for the rest of the campaign.

Luke Sewell's Brownies, in and out of first all season, welcome additional rest to allow their battered pitching ranks to recover. Bob Muncrief stepped back into a starting role in a well-pitched six-inning stint Friday but can use the four day layoff. Sig Jakucki has failed to go the route in his last three outings.

New York's drive to the front may not find the mid-September "vacation" to its liking as Joe McCarthy has his pitching situation straightened out, rotating round four regular starters in Hank Borowy, Ernie Bonham, Walt Dubied and Mel Queen. Boston stopped the Yankees' mad rush by dividing a weekend series and the champs fear they may have lost their drive before the all-important final Western tour.

A pennant will be the reward for the club with the best record in the final intersectional series, opening Sept. 19 as omen of the contenders can pile up a safe lead in the intervening period. In addition to Detroit's four games with Cleveland, St. Louis plays four with Chicago, New York three with Philadelphia and Boston three at Washington. The Red Sox have finished their home schedule and the Browns will play no more on the road.

Spence To Coach At Lockney High School

LOCKNEY, Sept. 11. (Special)—Jack Spence, former Lockney High school grid star, has been named as coach of the Lockney Longhorns, it was announced here over the weekend.

He graduated from Lockney High school in 1931, and was a star athlete during his school years. He attended West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon where he also played football. He received his degree, majoring in vocational agriculture, at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Terry, Trout Pace Country Club Golf

A large field turned in qualifying cards Sunday in the Lubbock Country club championship golf tournament, with a pair of 74's fired by O. A. Terry and Chick Trout setting the early pace.

For Terry it was reputed to have been his best scoring round. For Trout, who skirts par when regularly playing, it was a somewhat usual round.

The effect of wartime balls and rather infrequent play could be read into the scores of most of the 65 persons who had qualified out of the field of 97 entries.

Course, 71, In Top Shape

The course is in top condition. Par is 71.

Rounds of the co-medalists to date:

Terry: Out: 443 454 552—36; in 453 545 435—37—74.

Trout: Out: 543 445 552—37; in: 444 643 435—37—74.

Other qualifying scores were:

R. L. McAllaster, 77; Otis Felty, 77; P. H. Polk, 78; Sgt. R. L. Stuart, 78; Lt. G. E. Johnson, 79; Raymond Marshall, 80; Dr. J. H. Stiles, 81; J. B. Bible Shakes Up Longhorn Squad

AUSTIN, Sept. 11. (AP)—Dissatisfied with the Texas Longhorns' showing in a practice game Saturday, Coach D. X. Bible today made numerous changes in team personnel.

Among them were these:

Co-Capt. Harold Fischer moved from left guard to blocking back on the first team. Sandy Crow was shifted from wingback to fullback on the same outfit and Roger Evans, second string blocking back, was moved up to the first team at wingback. Phil Bolin, second string guard, came up to the first team to replace Fischer and tackles Harlan Wetz and Henry Hook were promoted from the third to the second team.

Donald Deere, Texas Aggie letterman last year, was shifted from tailback to wingback on the second team and Tom Milik moved from fullback to tailback. Smokey Petrovich and Jerry Koonce, "B" teamers, jumped to the second string at left end and full back, respectively.

Coach Bible then gave the Longhorns a new offense and said, "Boys, we're starting over."

Canyon Gridders Add New Faces To Squad

CANYON, Tex., Sept. 11. (AP) — The football squad at West Texas State Teachers now numbers 40 as new men arrive from release with summer jobs.

There are three lettermen and three transfers from other colleges giving Coaches Miller and Nicklaus a good nucleus around which to build West Texas' return team to intercollegiate athletics. There was no football here last season.

Miller said he had two backfields of about equal ability but there was a slight shortage of line material.

West Texas opens the season Sept. 23 with Oklahoma A and M. at Stillwater.

OUR PLEDGE

WE pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

There's A Gain All Around

SOMETHING not to be overlooked in the change of executive administration at Texas Tech is that Lubbock is gaining two new citizens—and unusually good citizens, too. The college's new president, Dr. William M. Whyburn, has a background of civic consciousness as well as educational preeminence and Dr. Clifford B. Jones, who remains with us, long has been recognized as one of the outstanding civic leaders of all West Texas.

That Doctor Whyburn intends, as soon as circumstances will permit, to be active in city affairs as well as in college matters was indicated before his arrival here by a letter in which he transferred his membership in Rotary International from Los Angeles to Lubbock. Although his time in the next few months will be overflowing with his duties at the college and as a technical consultant to the Army's Third Air Force, eventually he wishes and expects to be a part of the community and section, just as he shall be a nofficial part of Texas Tech. he shall be an official part of Texas Tech. time between his personal interests here and in his former home of Spur, and in service to various community matters. With no desire to begin "rusting" after many years of being in the forefront of West Texas public affairs, Doctor Jones has told friends he will be available for any and all sorts of opportunities for public service.

Ever since Texas Tech in 1925 began to be an important segment of local life, there has been fine co-operation here between "town and gown." With Doctor Jones now president emeritus of the college, that co-operation should be strengthened, especially with Doctor Whyburn's expressed desire to be a citizen of West Texas as well as the first citizen of Texas Tech.

If's An All-Out Campaign

POLITICS being a rough-and-tumble affair, we were not surprised at Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's statement that the Roosevelt-Churchill conference at Quebec was "set up" to detract public interest from the GOP presidential nominee's campaign tour across the country.

Politics being politics, we suspect that Mr. Dewey's charge may have more than an imaginary foundation.

Yet even if the New York governor's claim is true, it is something which he—as a veteran campaigner—should have expected. Furthermore, if the claim is true, it represents a trick which the Republicans most certainly would have employed had the situation been reversed.

There are and will be "no holds barred" in the campaign which will climax at the polls on November 7. Mr. Dewey knew that when he accepted the GOP nomination last June. Neither he nor President Roosevelt need be surprised at anything.

Mr. Blalock Rings The Bell

ALTHOUGH at times we may disagree in some political matters with Myron G. Blalock, Democratic National committeeman from Texas, we are in complete accord with one of his recent declarations.

Mr. Blalock, on this occasion, criticised the present laws under which people must vote for "presidential electors." He proposed that the names of the candidates themselves be printed upon the ballots.

The presidential election system in the United States is so antiquated, so out-moded, that it has become ridiculous. Under that system, the names of presidential and vice presidential nominees do not appear on the ballot. Instead are printed the names of "presidential electors" who, in the course of time, get together in their state capital, cast their Electoral College votes and turn them over to a designated messenger who delivers them to Washington.

With perhaps a very few exceptions, and with no exceptions at all in a great many years, the electors have cast their votes according to the expressed wishes of the majority of the citizens of their respective states as shown in the general election. But electors aren't compelled to do that. They can vote for anyone they choose for President and Vice President. Popular election results are not legally binding upon them.

Even if those results were legally binding, there still is no common sense in requiring citizens to vote for a lot of electors in order to cast their ballots for President and Vice President. What not vote for the candidates themselves and be done with it—and make certain, at the same time, that the votes actually are counted for those candidates?

The present system is the hangover from a day when distrust was widespread in the world—even among our Founding Fathers—as to whether democracy would work. So they provided for an Electoral College, to be comprised of "calm and juricious minds," as a safeguard against the possibility that masses of the people would not measure up to the responsibilities of democracy.

But democracy has worked, if not perfectly, well enough. The only excuse that ever existed for the Electoral College disappeared more than a century ago. It should be abolished—and the sooner, the better.

EXPLANATION OF CARTOON

THE HEJNAL: In 1241 the Tartars invaded Europe for the first time. One day as the buglar, stationed on top of the Tower of the Church of St. Mary in Cracow, stepped out to play a famous signal on the bugle, a Tartar arrow struck him in the heart and prevented him from finishing the blast. Ever since for the last 703 years, the Buglar of Cracow has played the historic signal known as the Hejnal every hour on the hour day and night, but he never finisnes the signal, stopping at the exact note where the Tartar arrow stopped the Buglar in 1241.

The Life Of Eisenhower

COMMANDING GENERAL EUROPEAN THEATER

XIII

Whether the event makes the man, or the man makes the event, is the conjecture of historians. With Gen. Douglas MacArthur fighting to hold off the Japs swarming into the Philippines and the islands of the Pacific, the question arose. Who will lead the forces against the Axis hordes who have conquered Europe and now threaten to invade both North and South America?

There were many able generals in Washington, many of them having won renown in World War I. The nation faced the emergency of building a great army in the quickest possible time. How the miracle was performed under Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff, the farm boy from Pennsylvania who had come out of the Virginia Military Institute is a book for future historians.

The Army's revitalization program needed a man. Five days after Pearl Harbor, General Marshall, a keen analyzer of potentialities in soldiers, sent for Eisenhower. He was informed that he was to take over the War Plans Division, as its chief, and was to formulate the grand strategy for all theaters of operation.

His only comment as he left General Marshall's office was, "Yes, they've given me a new job. I guess somebody must have told General Marshall I was a hot shot."

With a shrug of his shoulders he went away—to go to work. Sitting at his new post in Washington, the world became a huge chessboard before him. Watching every move, he sent strategic orders to American commanders in both hemispheres. His penetrating vision gained immediate respect. They knew a master hand was playing the game.

President Roosevelt, recognizing Eisenhower's skill, nominated him for the rank of major-general. The Senate immediately confirmed it. Six days later the War Plans Division was renamed the Operations Division, and General Eisenhower was now at the head of what the War Department described as "the controlling nerve center of the Army."

The War Department, the General Staff, and the White House were in conference day and night. Finally the momentous decision was reached—this was the man. He measured up to all the qualifications of modern warfare, had a genius in organization, was an expert with tanks, a firm believer in air power, and the co-ordination of land, sea and air forces. He was a natural-born leader of men.

General Marshall called Major-General Eisenhower to his office and said, "You're going over to command the European divisions. When can you start?"

Eisenhower, taken by surprise, swallowed quickly and replied, "Tomorrow morning!"

It is said that he received this appointment because of two reasons: First, his amazing record in getting things done; second, his strong advocacy of a Second Front. Convinced of this necessity, he had worked out "practical plans" which were so plausible and brilliant that they commanded the attention of the War Department. Ike "talked it out" with Mamie, his wife, at their home in Washington. The responsibilities of the new job were discussed. He was willing to undertake anything in the service of his country. His wife had full confidence in his ability to carry out his plans; she had lived with him twenty-six years; she knew the Eisenhower character and determination.

General staff officers in Washington gave this word picture of Ike's last meeting with them. Snappily laying his plans before them, he said: "This is what it is . . . This is what we're going to do . . . This is what we need . . . We're counting on you to see that we get it. Goodby!"

We find him a few days later in England in secret conferences with Prime Minister Churchill and the great military leaders on the British staff. His mission ostensibly was to help prepare a merger of United States and British Air Forces to carry out bombing raids on the European continent. He was reported in London with Gen. Mark W. Clark, on May 25, but was back in the United States on June 3 at a discussion of military and supply problems which was also attended by Lord Louis Mountbatten.

Out of these and succeeding conferences came the first news that our nation was soon to throw its power against Hitler's mighty forces for the liberation of the conquered countries of Europe—the armies of freedom were soon to meet in decisive combats the armies of despotism. The official proclamation on June 25, 1942, read:

"The War Department today announced the formal establishment of a European Theater of Operations for United States forces. Maj.-Gen. Dwight David Eisenhower, formerly assistant chief of staff of the Operations Division of the General Staff, has been designated Commanding General, European Theater of Operations, with headquarters in London, England."

As Ike was leaving to return to England on the most challenging mission ever intrusted to an American soldier, he turned to General Marshall, I haven't tried to thank you yet."

"Don't try to thank me," General Marshall replied. "You go over and do the job and we'll have cause to thank you."

Looking At Life - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

HERR Doctor Gobbels, German propaganda chief, has issued an appeal to his countrymen to adhere to faith and honor, "the basic principles of leadership."

Then the appeal goes on: "One can do without them in good time, as they can be replaced by success and victory. In bad times, however, these principles are of importance, as they must make up for the setbacks and defeats."

I am commenting on this remarkable appeal not so much because, in a few brief words, it contains the whole catechism of Nazi mentality, but because, no matter how thoroughly we condemn such brutal cynicism and complete disregard of ethics and morality, we are guilty of much of it ourselves.

Before you send me your letters of condemnation, let me give you an example.

The other day a man was found guilty of cheating hundreds of widows and old people out of their last savings in a confidence game in which he promised them wealth and independence if they invested their money in his "enterprise."

It was about as vile a racket as I have ever known. The fellow had been arrested several times before but had always "beaten the rap."

This time, however, they had him with the goods and a long prison sentence was staring him in the face.

So, in pitiful tones, he asked the judge for mercy.

"I have heart trouble," he said, "and in prison won't last more than a year. It will disgrace my family to have a convict for husband and father. So I appeal to your sense of justice and fair play, Your Honor, and ask you to suspend my sentence." Whereupon his Honor gave him 20 years in Sing Sing.

FORTUNATELY this is an isolated case. But, in all frankness, how many of us aren't flushed by "successes and victory" and take all the credit for it ourselves, but in times of setbacks and defeats turn to the higher power for help and guidance?

Do you, do I, always think of faith and honor, when things go well with us? Or do we, like Goebbels admonishes his people to do, consider them important only when we are in trouble and when we need sympathy and assistance?

Faith and honor are the very cornerstones of success and victory, if success and victory are to be permanent.

A Goebbels philosophy can end only in defeat—for Germany or you and me.

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

GERMANY will soon be a country bounded on the east and west by sheets of deathly flame. The Russians and the Anglo-American forces will subject the Reich to artillery and aerial bombardments which will make the World War I devastation of Verdun seem like flickering candlelight by comparison.

The High Command believes confidently that this unique demonstration of United Nations power will force a German surrender by October first, as against, as against the previous date of October 15. For Nazi civilians as well as fighting men will suffer from this magnified Fourth of July show.

Airfields in France will enable us to deliver a far more pulverizing attack than we have ever before loosed against the foe. Instead of 3,000 planes three times a week, we will send over Germany 5,000 planes at each hour of the night and day. Stalin's flying men will almost match this effort in the East.

BOMBARDMENT: Middle-aged veterans of the last conflict, including victims of shell shock, have not the slightest conception of the enormously increased concussive power of present-day artillery and aerial explosives. The improvement can be likened to the difference between the black powder of the Spanish-American war and the smokeless variety of the first World war.

Ordnance experts just returned from the fighting fronts in Italy and France report that the paralyzing impact of our big guns is greater by at least 50 per cent than in 1917-1918 days.

It is giving away no secrets to say that American powder experts, especially the du Ponts, so unpopular at Washington because of their financing of the American Liberty League in 1930-1932, are responsible for the invention and development of this new "secret weapon." Hitler's robot bombs are playthings by comparison.

Artillery liaison officers bring word to Washington that their German opposites are astounded by the accuracy and effectiveness of our fire. Nazi prisoners who had been subjected to persistent and heavy bombardment were so numbed when captured that they needed to be spoon-fed for at least a month.

It will be this kind of a blazing and blasting assault that will be set in operation on Germany some time in the next few weeks.

BASES: Secretary Cordell Hull's assurance that the Dumbarton Oaks conferees will respect the postwar rights of small nations has not satisfied the principal representatives of those countries, despite their historic friendship for the United States.

In demanding that the "little fellows" be given a break, Republican Presidential Nominee Tom Dewey may have hit on a vote-getting issue.

Two recent White House guests made clear that they did not intend to be dominated by Uncle Sam or any other great United Nations power.

Although they were wined and dined by President Roosevelt and his hostess, Mrs. John Boettiger, the president of Iceland and the president of Cuba served notice that they wanted us to abandon our present air and naval bases in their lands when the Axis is defeated.

The State department made no comment on their exhibitions of local pride but Cordell Hull was amazed at their attitude. So was the White House. Both the Secretary of State and the Chief Executive had naturally presumed that they would be grateful for the security we had given them, and that they would welcome our occupation of areas needed for permanent defense against foreign aggression.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

FEAR is expressed in many high circles that after the United Nations have smashed the Hitler machine, fragments will continue to wage guerrilla warfare for a long period after combat peters out.

It is expected, too, that party cells will be turned into secret societies—like our old Ku Klux Klan—to keep Nazi ideology alive in the minds of the Germans. But the pernicious effect of such scattered units is discounted by realistic observers.

Goebbels fulminates that the Brownshirts are training 10-year-old boys as snipers to pick off Anglo-Americans who set foot in the Fatherland. Other Berlin spokesmen threaten that the beaten Huns will retreat to the hills, carrying foreign hostages with them.

COLLAPSE: This seems plausible. But study of the situation convinces other authorities that prolonged terrorism on a large scale is merely a nightmare and not likely.

Unquestionably there will be a period of disorder in all Europe as peoples reshuffle their lives. The disturbance may be most acute among the whipped Nazis. There is an old saying that "pieces of a severed snake wriggle until sundown."

But once their system has been overthrown and their leaders have been punished, Nazi power to harass mankind and upset the peace is improbable, provided that the Allies firmly control the transition era.

As evidence that the Hitlerite die-hards will try to continue their cursed crusade are the following facts: When the Anglo-American invasion seemed certain of success, the Reich Minister of Education decreed that hereafter all German boys and girls should be taught "the events that led up to the last war; who was responsible for the 1918 collapse; the terms of the Versailles treaty; the Fuehrer's work of rehabilitation and his efforts to maintain peace."

Instruction in Reichswehr current communiques and Nazi ideology also was ordered, to imbue the very young—even at this eleventh hour—with Brownshirt doctrines in the hope that this inoculation of the mind and soul will last after Germany's breakdown.

HOSTAGES: Recent attempts to create Nazi cells have been uncovered in Turkey. New organizations of this type in other neutral nations are cautioned to lie low after the armistice and not to betray their presence too soon.

Ample funds to support these associations for the perpetuation of Nazi teachings have been assigned to nonbelligerent states, and other deposits are said to be in Japanese banks. The entire movement is under the direction of Gauleiter Bohle. The grapevine reports that Himmler has trained experts to carry on.

New York financiers say that for months past Nazi businessmen have been trying to transfer shares acquainted in European corporations to neutral "dummies" so that at the right moment they can resume ownership. This scheme aims to save the booty Hitlerites plundered from occupied countries. It would yield a nest egg to underwrite future maneuvers.

Allied intelligence has wind of a plan for last-ditch SS troops and party bigwigs to escape to the Bavarian Alps and other remote hideouts—as Tito did in Yugoslavia—with antipersonnel mines and the pick of weapons useful in mountain fighting. Relatives of French, Dutch, Belgian and Norwegien leaders now in concentration camps are to accompany them as hostages.

PLOTTING: But the Balkan Partisan chief fled to an almost inaccessible region devoid of even elementary transportation. The Germans never had the muscle to attempt seriously to root him out. German guerrillas in the hills of the Fatherland would be eliminated by Allied manhunters.

Sniping would be a nuisance but could not retard the establishment of law and order in the Reich. The heroes of Allied resistance movements never progressed until they had plenty of guns and dynamite and they and the people in the surrounding territories knew there was a real chance of success. Nazi bitterenders and their neighbors would realize that final extermination would be only a matter of time.

Isolated revolutionary activity is contrary to Teutonic psychology. Ordinarily Germans are disciplined and do not rebel against authority. They meekly bowed to Hitler despotism rather than lift a finder against his cruelty or for their own endependence.

The "War Widows" Tough It Through!

Living Out Of A Mailbag's No Joke, But Isn't Fatal!

By JEANE ENGLE
Avalancre-Journal Staff Writer

LIVING out of a mail bag—the fate of almost every woman whose husband has gone to war—is an ironical compound of fear, hope, and of all things, humor!

Sure, we get lonely, desolate and discouraged. Some days we feel that boys will be home tomorrow; other days we don't have the heart to look into the future.

ENGLE

When mail service lags, loneliness and anxiety set in and our imaginations run wild . . . snipers—scouting parties—torpedoes—prisoner — terrible wounds—starvation. And then a letter arrives. It is the most beautiful piece of paper in the world.

But such a life has its brighter moments. Like the boy who wrote his wife he had to do his own washing now. He promised to buy her a new rub board with his mustering-out pay. Or like the soldier who made a pair of shorts out of dungarees, hemming them ever so "daintily." "Who knows," he wrote, "if I stay over here long enough, I may come home with a crocheted bedspread."

Another Lubbock wife frequently advises her husband not to stand under the coconut trees. She once heard of a soldier who went through Guadalcanal and Tarawa unscathed only to be killed by a falling coconut.

"You'll enjoy living with Mary. I know I would," wrote a sailor to his wife who had taken on a new roommate.

And imagine the embarrassment of a Flying Fortress pilot when he opened a package from his wife. She had sent him their baby's first rattler!

On Easter, a soldier in England received this cablegram from his wife, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." He fired a letter right back, "What have you been drinking? Happy Tranksgiving to you."

Letters may not have a circulatory system or a voice, but they can have humor.

THIS living from pen to paper has other compensations too. We can't argue with our men thousands of miles away; we forget about how they use to drive us almost insane looking for that something " felt right here;" we don't find wet towels on the bathroom floor, golf shoes in the living room, or ashes behind the divan.

When we buy something new, like a hat or dress, we bring it right home and park it in the closet with a clear conscience. There is no need of pustifying our purchase by saying, "I didn't have a thing to wear."

We, the duration widows of Lubbock, are having almost a wonderful time. Yet, the majority of us are the same faithful wives we were before living from letter to letter.

Snipers sitting behind drawn curtains can put away their field glasses and stop worrying about who goes in and out of our houses. In most cases, their vigilance will be rewarded only by the sight of other war widows or relatives. Darn it!

Infidelity Unusual

A great deal has been written lately about army wives abandoning children, running around nights and in general acting like furrow-growed finger shakers say they shouldn't. Perhaps that it true in a few instances, but most of us act much as we did before kissing the boys goodbye.

The fact that such stories are printed is proof enough of their rarity. The acute newsprint shortage makes it necessary for newspaper to print only those stories which are unusual.

COLUMNS have been written on how to treat returning war veterans but not one word has been said about how to tread softly on the feelings of war widows. Someone has said we should be given a medal of some sort, but it must have been one of us who said it, because nobody else seems to care.

You are asking for a scratch in the eyes when you say, "How can you stand it with your husband so many miles away?" or remark, "I would die if I had to spend one night away from my husband."

Millions of husbands gave gone to war, and the mortician's business remains about the same. So it's not fatal.

For the sake of our blood pressure, please don't prattle about temperamental paper hangers; the trials of re-decorating and the shortage of window putty; or the hopeless task of finding pants with rubber or divans with springs. The difficulties of running a wartime household are exceeded only by the difficulties of "bringing home the bacon" and then cooking it too.

We laugh, cry and make jokes about all this, but in reality we follow war news with all our hearts and anxiously await postwar days.

Gerald Smith Seeks Texas Ballot Place

AUSTIN, Sept. 11 (U.P.)—Gerald K. Smith, founder and head of the America First party, has asked that his name be put on the Texas November election ballot as the party's presidential nominee, secretary of State Sidney Latham said today.

In the certificate to Latham, the party asked that Harry Romer of Ohio be shown its vice presidential nominee, and a slate of 23 electors was listed. Texas residences of the electors did not include street addresses.

Latham said he was checking legality of the certification to determine if the names will go on the ballot.

Thanksgiving Day Problem Is Ahead For Texas Citizens

AUSTIN, Sept. 11 (AP) — Along with the problem of whether there shall be one or two sets of electors on the Democratic ticket this November, comes the problem of whether there shall be one or two Thanksgiving celebrations this November, said Governor Coke Stevenson.

Federal decree has set Thanksgiving on the fourth Thursday in November, which this year is November 23.

Texas football coaches however, have already scheduled their big football games on the traditional last Thursday in November, which is the 30th.

Stevenson said that insofar as possible he liked to keep holidays in line with the rest of the country's celebrating since it not only made for unity of spirit, but was more practical—banks, postoffices, business houses could all close on the same one day.

Before he issues a proclamation as to the official Thanksgiving day, Stevenson will confer with heads of state departments, athletic coaches, and the Texas State Teachers association.

Soldier Voting No Civil War Problem

DES MOINES, Sept. 11. (U.P.) — Soldier voting wasn't much of a problem in the election of 1864, Civil war veterans gathered here for their 78th annual encampment recalled today.

At that time, they just brought the ballot boxes into the camps and let the soldiers vote, Comrade Ira Stormes, 98, Salt Lake City, said.

"The men in uniform I knew voted for Lincoln," he recalled.

The principal issue in the 1864 election was a negotiated peace versus unconditional surrender with the Democratic candidate, Gen. George B. McClellan, favoring the former and Lincoln, the Republican candidate, in favor of the latter issue, veterans recalled.

The handful of veterans gathered here for the GAR encampmnt were too young to vote then, however. They were but 16 or 17 years old.

Business meetings of the encampment began today, with scarcely more than a score of veterans gathering to recall their Civil war experiences and their previous conventions where thousands of the "boys in blue" would march in review.

Stoppage Ties Up Houston Ship Yard

HOUSTON, Sept. 11. (AP)—With an estimated 1,700 men out on a work stoppage, the Todd-Houston Shipbuilding corporation was shutting down completely tonight but Col. Ike Ashburn, industrial personnel director, was hopeful production might be resumed tomorrow.

Ashburn issued a statement telling workmen not to report for work on the night shift.

"Our investigation leaves us to believe that we would not have sufficient craftsmen in the yard to make operations of the night shift possible," he said.

Between 8,000 and 9,000 men on the day shift were idle after the welders and burners local 731 were joined by other units of the boilermakers crafts.

TOUGH YANKS GO 'SOFT' FOR JAP KIDS—The Japs, among other folk who think they are tough, have learned that the Yanks are just about the toughest fighters in the world. But Yanks dont, like some of their foes, carry terrorizing war to women and children. Evidence of that is in their treatment of Jap children found on Saipan Island, shown in photos above. UPPER LEFT: Member of a Marine patrol finds a Jap mother and children, frightened by propaganda stories of what Americans would do to them, hiding in a cave. UPPER RIGHT: This sad-eyed Jap youngster, nicknamed "Little Tojo' by the crew of Coast Guard-manned assault transport, suffered bullet wound in his leg. American medicos patched him up. Coast Guardsmen gave him candy, ice cream and a rubber ball and "Skipper," ship's pup mascot, became his close pal. LOWER LEFT: Not at all unhappy over their internment, these Jap youngsters laugh as they get a drink and bath from the water bag at internment camp set up by Marine Civil Affairs officers. LOWER RIGHT: Marine at left has hard time translating "Hey, dry them tears" into Jap lingo for young Nip he's trying to interest in can of K-rations.

PRICES EDGE UPWARD

NEW YORK, Sept. 11 (AP)—Stocks, bonds and commodities rallied in today's markets as mild investment demand, coupled with short covering, served as the principal stimulant.

The share list edged forward after a fairly steady start and, while dealings again were among the slowest of the year to date, gains ranged from fractions to more than 2 points for both peace-rated and armament issues.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .4 of a point at 53.6, best comeback since Aug. 17. Transfers of 571,940 shares compared with 628,560 Friday.

Among prominent risers were Grumman Aircraft, up ¾ at a year's peak; American Telephone, Douglas Aircraft, Johns-Manville, Eastman Kodak, Philip Morris, Consolidated Vultee, Goodyear, Consolidated Edison, Santa Fe, Great Northern, Westinghouse, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Deere, International Harvster and American Can.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, Sept. 11 (AP)—Cotton futures gained 40 to 85 cents a bale today at mill and scattered outside buying met a scarcity of offerings.

Demand was large for distant contracts which sold at a discount of approximately one cent a pound compared with the near positions.

War developments and possible action this week on the Bankhead bill to raise the cotton loan rates tended to limit trading. Traders believed approval of an amendment to the surplus property disposal bill permitting Commodity Credit corporation sales of cotton on the world market at competitive prices might mean a reduction in surplus stocks of cotton.

Futures closed 40 to 85 cents a bale higher.

Allied Government Of Germany Planned

LONDON, Sept. 11 (AP)—Germany after the war may be administered for some years to come by an American-British-Russian supreme council in Berlin—and not by any kind of German government.

That is the general outline so far disclosed of plans for a tripartite military government of Germany after her defeat. A number of details for it still remains to be settled through Allied conferences.

Stoppages Occur In New Orleans Plants

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 11 (AP)—Work stoppages occurred today in 14 New Orleans marine and industrial plants, due to a protest by machinists of the proposed hourly wage under a new contract.

Eichinger said the machinists were opposing the new contract on the ground that it might reduce their per hour pay from $1.25 to $1.20.

New Phase Near In Peace Talks

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. (U.P.)—The United States, Britain and Russia today neared the end of their preliminary talks on a world peace organization, with prospects that the second phase of the conference—between the Anglo-American powers and China—may begin by midweek.

Conclusion of the current phase of the discussions at Dumbarton Oaks appeared to hinge on word from Moscow and London on approval of changes developed during the talks in the general plans originally advanced by those governments.

One change was believed to involve the influence that small powers will have on the council, or upper chamber of the proposed security organization.

Want "Big Four" Control

The Russian delegates came to the conference favoring that the big four retain close control of the council but the United States, while advocating permanent seats for the big four, has proposed a system whereby the smaller nations would have a numerical majority.

The American, British and Russian delegates, were expected to report early agreement, since the plan will be only preliminary in nature and subject to a discussion and revision at a later meeting of foreign ministers.

The talks between American, British and Chinese delegates were expected to begin the day after the discussions with the Russians come to an end. The opening day ceremonies for the Chinese phase may be similar to that for the American-British-Russian discussions, possibly with an address by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Chinese Favor Force

The Chinese, like the Russians, came to Washington favoring some form of an international force to add strength to the future world peace organization. The United States, however, is opposed to such an idea and is expected to persuade China to drop it.

The foreign conferees in general appeared disposed to go along with the American delegates on proposals which the Americans believed to hold the best chance of winning congressional approval. The other allies have not forgotten the experience after the last World War when a hostile Congress refused to vote United States participation in the League of Nations.

Wichita Falls Man Isolated In Battle

HEADQUARTERS, European Theater of Operations (AP)—While his own and enemy fire passed over his head, Staff Sergeant Raymond D. Saunders, of Wichita Falls, Texas, lay wounded for four hours on a Normandy battlefield.

He was acting as spotter for his machine guns which had been placed in an alternate position behind him when he was pinned down by cross-fire, and wounded.

A shrapnel burst hit him in the left leg and left chest. A first-aid man who came to his rescue under fire was shot. Eventually the firing let up and he crawled back to his own position.

Sgt. Saunders was recently treated for his wounds at a United States army general hospital in England. He formerly worked in a bottling plant in Wichita Falls, Texas. His wife, Thelma, lives there.

Amarillo Man Heads Veterinary Group

Dr. C. L. Kline of Amarillo was named president of the Panhandle Veterinary Medical association at a semi-annual meeting Saturday. Sessions were held at 217 College Ave.

Clinical demonstrations were featured at the business meeting, which was followed by a dinner at the Hilton hotel for veterinarians and their wives. Dr. L. M. Griffin, retiring president, was in charge of the dinner program with Dr. Eddie Grist, state veterinarian, as principal speaker. A report of the American Veterinary Medical association meeting in Chicago last month was given by Dr. Dan Roberts, president of the Texas State Veterinary association.

Plan To Ban Shorts Raises Question On 'How Old Is Girl?'

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 11 (AP)—A move for banning public wearing of shorts, which has spread to Corpus Christi, has city officials pondering the questions, "when are shorts too short?" and "how old is a girl?"

The city council, considering a petition by 200 Corpus Christi women requesting an ordinance prohibiting men, women, girls and children from appearing in shorts in public, unearthed a 1905 ordinance designed to cover indecent exposure.

Mayor A. C. McCaughan said he thought that ordinance would cover the request adequately but Police Commissioner Ed P. Williams wanted to know "how about the children?"

"Well, what is a girl?" one councilman asked. Nobody knew.

"If anybody wants to file a complaint for indecent exposure, we'll make the arrest," Williams concluded, adding he hoped his undermanned staff would not be requested to carry yardsticks to determine if shorts were really shorts.

A recent public ordinance passed at Midland prohibits women from wearing shorts on downtown streets.

Grand Jury Probe Of Killing To Be Asked

HOUSTON, Sept. 11 (U.P.)—The Harris county grand jury will be asked to investigate the death of Mrs. Neva Muckelroy, 42-year-old patient at the Keightley psychopatic hospital, who was killed by another patient, Joseph F. Binkly, Friday morning, District Attorney A. C. Winbon said today.

"I want the grand jury to find out why Joseph Franklin Binkly, a mental patient who is charged with the murder, was permitted to roam around the hospital unattended," Winborn said.

Binkly, who will be given a lunacy hearing before determination as to whether he will be tried for the murder, admittedly killed Mrs. Muckelroy, wife of Maj. A. A. Muckelroy, Camp Livingston, La., by striking her with a metal chair.

Binkly told police he killed the woman because he thought "if I killed someone, they'd let me go home to my family."

Terry Melon Crop Moving To Market

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 11. (Special)—With more than 200 tons of watermelons already shipped from Brownfield, not half the yield of 500 acres is yet, mature according to local dealers.

It is estimated 1,000 tons of melons will be shipped in truck load lots this season. The melons, of extremely high quality and quantity, mature a month later than mid-Texas crops and net good prices when they hit the exhausted market.

Welcome to the Store of Tomorrow

The new Jo Ann Shop is truly the "Store of Tomorrow." While the glass doors have not yet arrived, an informal opening of the new Jo Ann Shop will take place in the morning—Wednesday—at 9. Everything is complete in the interior—the "Wall of Mirrors," glass balcony rail, curved wall, etc. You have waited impatiently for your first peek at this most modern and beautiful of ready to wear shops. Tomorrow you get your chance. You're expected at the "Store of Tomorrow with year-ahead fashions for the lady" in the morning. You'll agree that this new Jo Ann Shop is something for Lubbock to be proud of!

Coats and Suits

The coat and suit department is in the modernistic balcony. Lots and lots of mirrors—a glass and oak balcony rail—a ¾ circle booth—these and many other features make the new Jo Ann Shop's coat and suit department something out of Hollywood. Jo Ann "just unpacked" coat and suit fashions—well, these need no description to the better dressed women of the southwest.

Dresses

Jo Ann dresses have earned a reputation that is practically nation-wide. Every new dress fashion is rushed to Lubbock's Jo Ann Shop from the style centers of both the East and West coasts. Sizes are from 9 to 17, 10 to 20, and 38 to 46—a complete showing of every desirable type of dress in each size range. And the new Jo Ann setting—well, wait and see how breath-takingly lovely these dresses look in their new, ultra modern setting tomorrow.

Millinery

The Jo Ann Shop is justly proud of its millinery department under the circle wall at the front of the new store. In complete charge of the Jo Ann Shop's millinery department is one of the most widely known milliners in West Texas—Miss Edna Mae Brown, formerly of the Brown Hat Shop of Lubbock. Most of the highly advertised lines are featured by Miss Brown in her new Jo Ann millinery department, including Brewster Hats exclusively for Lubbock.

Sportswear

Jo Ann sportswear is "out of this world." You'll delight in browsing through slacks and skirts and jackets from such nationally famous houses as Hobbies, Marcy Lee, and Nardis. Included in the sportswear section are Madomoiselle advertised lounging slax by Margie Joy—an exclusive with the Jo Ann Shop of Lubbock.

Lingerie

Jo Ann is famous for Claussner Sheer Hosiery and Eastern Isles lingerie. While wartime restrictions has sharply curtailed the lingerie business, the Jo Ann Shop is making every effort to get for its customers the finest in slips, bras, hosiery, etc. Come Victory, your Jo Ann lingerie department will again offer the selections we all so desire. Until then, from time to time, you'll find various unmentionables from time to time as they become available.

Accessories

The Jo Ann Shop features tomorrow a complete new showing of fall bags. These bags will surprise you by their very reasonable prices, inasmuch as bag prices in general have soared sky high. Calfs, patents, fabrics—bags in every wanted style and color will be shown in your Jo Ann bag department tomorrow. Jo Ann sweaters and blouses—well, you've never seen as many. And they're all blue ribbon winners for style!

Waiting to welcome you at your beautiful new Jo Ann Shop in the morning will be Mrs. Clyde Seale, Miss Edna Mae Brown, Miss Beth Jones, Miss Mary Nieman, Mrs. Leon Hefner, Mrs. Bernice Mathis, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Ousley, Mrs. Lois Triggs, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Silverman. You'll thrill to the beauty of Lubbock's new Jo Ann Shop and Jo Ann's beautiful styles. You'll be expected in the morning at 9.
