

Workshop for Area Teachers Opens In City Wednesday

A primary numbers workshop for teachers of the Wellington area is to be conducted by Mrs. Mildred H. Monk, of Austin, in East Ward School, beginning at 9:00 a. m., Wednesday and Thursday, April 23 and 24.

Former primary teacher in rural and city schools of Texas and former elementary supervisor of Houston and Smith Counties, Mrs. Monk has done graduate work at Columbia University, from which she holds a Master of Arts degree in elementary education, and at the University of Texas and the University of Chicago. Her undergraduate work also has completed a large part of her doctoral work at Columbia with primary numbers and elementary reading as her special research fields.

Mrs. Monk has held numerous workshops for city and rural teachers in areas throughout the South. For the past three years she has been a member of the summer workshop faculty at Mississippi State College. She is now associated with the Publications Division of The Steck Company as a specialist in the primary and elementary fields.

Discussion in the Wellington workshop will center around techniques for teaching primary numbers, ways and means of securing and maintaining interest, steps in setting up an effective primary numbers program, specific ap-

Local Children Are Placed in Methodist Orphans Home, Waco

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Armstrong returned recently from Waco, where they took five local children who had been committed to the Methodist Orphans Home in that city.

The children, all members of one family, had been cared for in five Wellington homes for a number of weeks before they were taken to Waco. Caring for the children were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holton, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kendrick, Mrs. Noel Cudd, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant.

In addition to the individuals, The American Red Cross, the men's class of the First Baptist Church, the Loyalty Sunday School class of the Methodist church, and the Junior Chamber of Commerce contributed to their welfare in varying amounts.

Food Handlers School May 12-16

Final approval has been received on the food handlers school to be taught in Wellington May 12th through the 16th.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, this school is offered free to anyone who wants to attend. The teacher will be an authorized representative of the State Department of Health, trained in the kind of work he is doing. He will bring movies, still projectors, and demonstration equipment with him and will give a series of talks and lectures in conjunction with his projections.

Certificates of attendance will be issued by the State Department of Health, and signed by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to each person attending at least 60% of the lectures.

Classes will begin Monday morning, May 12, at 9 o'clock. Each class will last one hour and the same lectures will be given in the afternoon at 3 p. m. Those who cannot attend the morning classes may find it possible to get to the afternoon class.

Much enthusiasm has been shown in other cities where these lectures have been given, and classes have been large and well attended.

Black Cats Will Play Mangum Hardhitters On City Diamond Sun.

The Wellington Black Cats will play their second home game Sunday, April 27, when they meet the Mangum Hardhitters. This will be the second game with the Hardhitters, the Cats having defeated them 16 to 9 at Mangum Sunday.

"Almost everyone of the Cats scored except the pitcher," Manager Earl Shamblee said.

The game will be played at the Fair Ground Diamond, beginning at 3:00 p. m.

Order will be maintained at all times, and white friends of the team are cordially invited to attend. Shamblee said.

FLAMES LICK SKYWARD OVER TEXAS CITY

The blast-smashed town of Texas City lies in the foreground at right. Monsanto Chemical's once gleaming styrene towers and the neat concrete roads of its 30-acre plant are at left, a mass of fire-blackened debris under the smoke of the still burning area on the second day of the Texas City disaster. In middle, background, are fuel storage tanks, many of which exploded into flames.

The play will be given in the high school auditorium and will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Richards Memorial Oxygen Tent Placed in St. Josephs

The oxygen tent made possible through donations by friends of the late George Richards, was recently installed in St. Joseph's Hospital and has been in constant use since that time. Sisters of the hospital report.

The fund for the purchase of the tent was started at the time of Mr. Richards' death December 29, as a result of a request he had made that his friends, instead of sending flowers to his funeral, contribute the money toward the purchase of an oxygen tent.

The total of $605.50 was contributed, and while most of this came from county friends, there were donations from friends now scattered to all parts of the United States.

"The tent is the latest thing in oxygen therapy," Sisters of St. Joseph's said. "It has automatic temperature control, and is operated simply by plugging in an electric socket and setting a dial to the desired temperature. Air inside the canopy is changed four times per minute and excess humidity is removed to provide restful comfort for the patient."

Patients who to date have received treatment in the oxygen tent are Mrs. M. L. Scivally, E. M. Trew, G. W. Logwood of Shamrock and Fred Taylor of Shamrock.

"We are indeed grateful for the thoughtfulness of the man who made this gift possible and for each person who contributed. The oxygen tent is a piece of needed hospital equipment, and it is one that will provide comfort for many patients, and save the lives of others throughout the years to come," the Sisters said.

"The San Jacinto Kiwanis Minstrels of Amarillo, one of the Panhandle's leading amateur entertainment groups, will be presented in an evening of entertainment Saturday night, April 26, under the sponsorship of the Wellington Kiwanis Club. This is a benefit performance, with the proceeds going into the Boys and Girls Work Fund of the club. It will be given at the High School Auditorium, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Director of the Minstrel is Bill Curtis, a member of the San Jacinto Kiwanis Club, who for more than 20 years directed this type of entertainments in Chicago, and who is regarded as one of the best in the country.

The entertainment will include music, jokes and good, clean fun, given by a cast of 30 people. Featured performers will be the "Dipsy Doodlers," termed the hottest trio you ever heard" and the Amarillo High School Quartet, "a barber shop to end all barber shops."

A number of the larger towns of West Texas have tried to schedule this minstrel show, but the appearance here will be the second made by the club this season.

"The money that the Wellington Kiwanis Club gets from this show will be used to help boys and girls of Collingsworth County who cannot help themselves. Aid to underprivileged children has long been one of the projects of the local club, and it is carried out continuously and without publicity," Morris Reed, president of the club, said. "A number of children have been provided with glasses, some have had tonsil operations or other medical treatment which their parents were unable to provide themselves, and several crippled children."

Dodson Seniors To Give Comedy

Dodson seniors will present a three-act comedy, "Good Gracious Grandma!" at the high school auditorium in that town Friday night, April 25, at 8:00 p. m.

The play centers around Henry and George Breckenridge, who create plenty of trouble for themselves when they fail to pay their room rent and use the money for entertaining two girls who must have a chaperone. George, thereupon disguises himself as "Grandma" and plays the part of an affectionate chaperone for the girls.

There's plenty of explanation for George when he finally has to disappear permanently in order that Mrs. Lennox can have her clothes back.

Then there is P-Sam, the negro house boy, who provides plenty of laughs throughout the play.

"Don't fail to see if three sets of necks are wrung, or if three sets of wedding bells ring," the seniors urge.

Plans Complete For Wills Dance

Plans are complete for the appearance of Johnnie Lee Wills and his orchestra at a dance sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the community building Friday night, April 25, Russell Yates, who is in charge, has announced.

Wills is now en route home to Tulsa, Okla., with his orchestra after a successful appearance on the West Coast.

"Johnnie Lee Wills is the younger brother of Bob Wills, and is a former Hall county boy," Mr. Yates reminded. "His orchestra has attracted wide attention every where he has played, and we are confident that he will offer an evening of good dance music."

In addition to playing for dances, Wills and his orchestra is heard twice a week over a Tulsa radio station.

"As at the past dances, we will have a large crowd of out of county couples, but remember, the community building is large enough to accommodate all the people who want to dance to Johnnie Lee Wills music," Mr. Yates said.

"It is our aim to bring to Wellington the best orchestras that we can secure. All of them cannot be hit bands, but we have already had two of the nation's top orchestras here this winter—Bob Wills and Jan Garber—and there will be others," he promised.

Mrs. M. L. Scivally Of Dodson Dies Here Thursday

Mrs. M. L. Scivally of Dodson, wife of a pioneer West Texas teacher and preacher, died Thursday, April 17, in St. Joseph's Hospital, following an illness of seven weeks.

She was 87 years of age and for 47 years had resided in this area. For the last three years she had made her home with a daughter, Mrs. R. J. Holland at Dodson.

Born at Marble Hill, Tenn., December 3, 1859, Mrs. Scivally was 87 years, four months and 14 days of age at the time of her death. She was before her marriage Miss Fannie Victoria Wiseman, the daughter of Robert and Mary Smith Wiseman, both of whom were born in that state.

She grew up in Tennessee, and was married there on June 21, 1882, to the Rev. M. L. Scivally, then a young school teacher at Sunset, Texas. Shortly afterward they came to Texas and Rev. Scivally was for 21 years a teacher in the schools of Montague county. He was then ordained a minister in the Baptist Church and continued to serve in this work for the remainder of his life. During these years, he was pastor of various churches in Texas and Oklahoma, including those at Hollis and Gould.

She had fitted herself well for her life as the wife of a teacher and preacher, and at each place she lived she left behind many who remained her life-long friends. Gracious and friendly, she did what she could to make life pleasant for those about her; and her sympathy and understanding helped to lighten the problems and cares of many. It was the feelings of these who had known her so well that were expressed by one friend recently, when she said, "She was like a mother to all of us."

Mrs. Scivally remained active until she became ill, and in spite of her advanced age continued to take a part in the work of her church until only about a year ago.

She had been a member of the Baptist Church since she was 21 years of age. At the time of her death she was a member of the Arlie Church.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at the South Baptist Church in Dodson, with Rev. Howard Jones, pastor of the First (Continued on Page Twelve)

Rev. T. M. Johnston To Preach Sunday

Rev. Johnston is a former pastor of this church.

Sunday afternoon, young people of the church will go to Childress for a Youth Rally for all churches of the Clarendon and Vernon districts.

At the evening hour, the Odd Fellows district association will hold memorial services at the church, with Rev. Armstrong preaching the sermon. Members of the lodge will attend in a body.

Wellington's pioneer druggist, T. E. Benge and his son, Lester Benge of Fort Worth, late last week purchased The Palace Drug Store from Jack Hurst, who bought the business from the former in February, 1944. They have already taken charge of the business, although Mr. Hurst is remaining with them for the present.

T. E. Benge and Son Rebuy Palace Drug From Jack Hurst

It is good to be back in The Palace, serving all our old friends, and meeting the new folks that have come in during the last two years," Mr. Benge declared. At the time he sold The Palace, he had owned it for 23 years, the longest that any drug store here had been under the ownership of one man.

Mr. Hurst, in extending his thanks to the people of the county for their friendship and patronage, stated that he has no future plans other than that he will remain in Wellington for the present.

Mr. Benge will be in active (Continued on Page Seven)

Wellington Women Home after Seven Months in California

Mrs. O. O. Adams, a pioneer county resident, and her daughter, Miss Hazel Adams, returned Thursday, April 17, to their home here after seven months in Bakersfield, Calif., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Ola Bevers.

"I want to thank you for sending The Leader to me there," Mrs. Adams said to a staff member Monday morning. "I was sick during part of the time, and seeing your paper lying there in the room made it seem like I wasn't nearly so far away from home as I really was."

400 Delegates and Visitors Due Here For April 27-29

Wellington will be host city to approximately 400 members of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges for the 44th Panhandle Association Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 27, 28 and 29. This is the second time in recent years that the Association has met in Wellington, the group having come here in 1942, and out of all towns seeking the convention, this city was chosen for the current meeting.

"Some of the leaders of Odd Fellow and Rebekah work in the Panhandle will be present, and we are looking forward to one of the most successful meetings in the association's history," Grady Phillips, Noble Grand of the Wellington Lodge, said. Local officers who serve with Mr. Phillips are G. H. Trimble, vice grand, and Alva Crispy, secretary.

Officers of the Rebekah's include Mrs. Evelyn Price, Noble Grand, Mrs. Thelma Wisdom, vice-grand, and Mrs. Maudell Cleveland, secretary.

Association officers include M. I. Edwards of Borger, president; Mike Burkhalter of Wellington, first vice-president; Ellen Kretzmeier of Pampa, second vice president; V. J. Castka of Pampa, secretary-treasurer, and Dorothy Voyles, chaplain. The executive committee includes Jess Clay of Pampa, Ewell Hardy of Shamrock, and Stanley Kretzmeier of Pampa, while the purchasing committee is composed of Ethel Mae Clay, Carl Blair and Roy Kretzmeier, all of Pampa.

The Association session will get under way with the registration at 1:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon, followed by Theta Rho Girls Club degree work, to be held in the community building. Part of the Odd Fellows competitive work will be held in the IOOF Hall.

Memorial services will be held Sunday night at the First Methodist Church, with Rev. C. C. Armstrong, pastor, preaching the sermon. Delegates and local members plan to attend in a body. Following the sermon, a special memorial program will be put on by the Rebekah Lodge of Shamrock. The public is invited to attend.

Sisters Are Reunited Here After Thirty Years Separation

Wellington was to be the scene of a reunion Wednesday, April 23, between two sisters who have not seen each other for 30 years. The two are Mrs. Ruth Alexander of this city and Mrs. T. J. Storey of Rienzi, Miss.

Mrs. Storey is making the trip here, and later the two will go to Sunset to visit other relatives.

The two were separated at the death of their parents, when Mrs. Storey was only six years old. She was sent to Mississippi, to an aunt, and the two saw each other only once afterward, and that was 30 years ago!

Greenbelt REA to Hold Annual Meeting April 25

The annual stockholders meeting of the Greenbelt Rural Electric Co-operative will be held Friday afternoon, April 25, at 2:00 p. m. in the community building in Wellington, Orval Couch, manager, has announced.

An hour's program of singing will be given by the Stamps All-Star Quartet of Wichita Falls, followed by a business session in which officers and directors for the coming year will be elected.

Approximately 700 of the co-operative's 1552 members are expected to be here for the meeting.

J. A. Coleman of Dozier is president of the Greenbelt Co-op, while J. F. Kromer of Vinson is vice-president; R. J. Holland of Dodson is secretary-treasurer, and D. Franklin of Herley, Frank Hardin of Clarendon, Davis Burrow of Goodnight and Earl Yarbrough of Wellington are the other members of the board.

The Greenbelt Rural Electric Co-operative will have 960 miles of lines when work now under way is completed, Mr. Couch said. These lines extend into six counties, Collingsworth, Wheeler, Donley, Armstrong and Childress in Texas, and Harmon County, Oklahoma.

The co-operative was organized in September 1938, and a year later the first lines were energized. During the war years, work went forward as much as was possible due to limited materials and it is the aim of the group to bring electricity to every farm family in the Greenbelt area that wants it, Mr. Couch pointed out.

Editorial

Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard College Observatory, observed here Thursday that radio program, columnists and other factors were leading us into assembly-line thinking and acting. His observation is, to a great extent, true if not profoundly significant. The columnist and radio commentator are new media of education, but their effects are everywhere. Ride the streetcar, go to teas, talk to your neighbor while trimming the hedge and you will find a decline in individual opinion. The question invariably asked, to paraphrase the late Runyon, is: "Did you hear what Waldo Winchester said last night on the radio about Argentina?" If not Waldo it is Jimmy Fiddling or somebody else. Is the Columbia University professor correct—have we become intellectual pigmies in a capsule age, preferring our magazine articles briefed, our hand-me-down interpretations in five-minute doses while we eat supper?

There is, of course, a more favorable viewpoint than Dr. Shapley's. Mass media—the radio, the newspaper, the movie—have led the inquiring mind into more fields of knowledge than was ever thought possible. The briefing we get is perhaps necessary because we are covering so much more intellectual ground than formerly. Credit mass media for that—and also for being fair, decent and responsible in giving all sides to the question.

Thought processes, like fashions and business trends, are transitory. For every depression there is a boom, for every ridiculous juke-box tune a beautiful melody that lingers in memory, for every pattern of thinking a new and different pattern ten days or ten years hence. We are Jeffersonian in one generation, Hamiltonian the next. The astronomer's charge of the assembly-line mind is sure to be followed by a wave of individualism which, in terms of history, will balance it.—The Dallas News.

In the Spring a young man's fancy—if he wears some of the outfits the stylists dish out.

A fur coat on a girl has kept many a man from getting a cold shoulder.

• We Remember Henry Ford
 Scurry county will for many years remember Henry Ford, the automobile genius who first gave us the Model T to negotiate the dusty, rutty country roads we used to have and later the pavement that goes in every direction from Snyder. The old Model T started many a romance in this area on the bumpy road of love and a great, unforgettable era passed into history when newer developments caused us to get away from patching flats with the old reliable 30 by 3 1-2 tires! — Willard Jones in The Scurry County Times.

• Wheat in Deaf Smith
 A record breaking wheat crop for Deaf Smith County appears to be in the making this year, most local observers believe. Prospects are excellent that the 1947 wheat yield in the county may surpass even the all-time record of more than six million bushels harvested here in 1942. Wheat estimates boomed this week as snow and slow soaking rains added to the already abundant ground moisture to provide one of the best seasons in history.

A record breaking acreage has been seeded to wheat. Local ACA office estimates place the wheat acreage at an all-time high of 400,000 acres, nearly 150,000 acres greater than the acreage which produced the 1942 bumper crop.—Jimmie Gilentine in The Hereford Brand.

• Baseball Revival
 Bush leagues are making their appearance all over the country again. The depression of the early thirties wiped most of them out, and our great national pastime suffered. We have two of these leagues near home in operation this summer, Wichita Falls is a member of one, and Vernon the other. We should be able to see some good baseball near home this year.—W. C. Stewart in The Electra Star.

• Cotton Farming
 You never stop learning things. For example, would you ever have thought that, when gathering your cotton crop, you cost yourself money when you empty the cotton into your truck and pack it by walking around in the truck. No? Well, it's so. And a speaker at a farmers' meeting here last week is our authority. The act of packing your cotton by foot does something to it that shortens the staple. And you'll find, the man said, that you'll get a few cents per pound less than you might have. The answer is to build your cotton trailer bigger so you can haul a bale of unpacked seed cotton to the gin.—Jerry Sitton in The Clay County Leader.

• Telephone Strike
 Lack of telephone service has had a paralyzing effect on much of the business and industry of this city and scarcely a business has not been touched. While some of the cities have been complaining that the lack of long distance service is worst, towns the size of Stamford who do not have automatic dial systems are completely without telephone service except in case of emergency.—Roy Craig in The Stamford American.

Dana Classic, An Epic Sea Tale, Comes to Ritz

Out of the thrilling pages of "Two Years Before the Mast," Richard Henry Dana's exciting and adventurous novel of the men who went down to the sea in sailing ships, comes the Paramount picture of the same name, starring Alan Ladd, Brian Donlevy, William Bendix and Barry Fitzgerald.

Due next Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, this is the first screen adaptation of Dana's inflammatory novel of the hardships and cruelties endured by seamen before his book aroused the American people to demand and receive a merchant mariner's bill of rights. Dana's harrowing tale is of the frightful voyage of the brig, "Pilgrim," from Boston to California by way of the storm-swept waters of Cape Horn.

The story tells of the inhuman treatment meted out to the crew by the ship's stern and sadistic captain, played by Howard da Silva, and administered by the tough first mate, William Bendix. In the crew are the spoiled son of the ship's owner, Alan Ladd, mistakenly shanghaied on board the devilship; a writer, Dana, portrayed by Brian Donlevy, who shipped on the "Pilgrim" to get material for his novel, and Barry Fitzgerald as the Irish cook.

How the foppish Ladd, rehabilitated by the merciless discipline aboard the ship, leads the crew in rebellion and how the men are subsequently vindicated with the new birth of freedom for American seamen, is said to make "Two Years Before the Mast" one of the most exciting sea tales ever told on the screen.

The supporting cast, in addition to da Silva, includes Esther Fernandez, winner of Mexico's "Oscar," who boards the ship in Brazil, and supplies the love interest with Alan Ladd, and young Darryl Hickman, in the role of a sea-struck stowaway. John Farrow, former Commander in the Royal Canadian Navy, directed, and Seton I. Miller produced "Two Years Before the Mast."

LETTERS From The PEOPLE

Dear editor:

I'm sure you have heard of quilting bees, old fashioned spelling bees, and different kind of bees. The children and I had a patching bee on a day very cold, windy and rainy. Too bad for them to go to school, especially the youngest one with the whooping cough and exposed to the measles. If you have tried buying clothes for three growing boys and your pocket book is as flat as mine, you know what a job that is, so the children, age seven, ten and thirteen, and I had an old-fashioned patching bee. We patched the front side and half-soled the hind side. Now their clothes will do quite a while longer. This is one way of licking the high cost of clothing.

Yours for bigger and better patches,
Mrs. Ruby Havron.

D IDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

We have just left the King Ranch and are on our way to Corpus Christi and from there to San Antonio and from there to Mexico City.

The talk of the members of NEA (National Editorial Association) was about the terrible tornado in our own Panhandle country while they were in Fort Worth. Now it is about the even worse disaster in Texas City. Of course these editors from other states are seeing many new things and learning much about the diversity and size and greatness of our state. They talk about that; but in the private little groups conversation about these two great tragedies creep in. They have made a somber undertone to the general thinking; for these men know news. They have covered disasters in their own states and they know what it means when it strikes elsewhere.

Our party sailed within site of Texas City only a few hours before the first explosion. If we had been at that spot a few hours later, I might not be writing this column.

On the trip today it was my privilege to ride in the front car driven by Robert J. Kleberg, who is the head man of the ranch. Other descendants of the King and Kleberg families own part of this 900,000 acre domain; but Bob Kleberg runs it. In the car with us were Charles Heflestein of Live Oaks, Florida, President of NEA and Will Loomis of Detroit, Michigan. Bob Kleberg dresses just about like our own Bill Hughes with the exception that he looked very neat. To assist in escorting the editors he had some of the large operators from about twenty counties of the Gulf Coast go along on the trip.

Bob Kleberg is as friendly as an old shoe. He does not need a public relations man; because he is one of the best that I ever saw. He was eager to answer every question asked regardless of its nature. We drove by herds of the famous Santa Gertrudis cattle, and saw a large number of his famous quarter horses—all descended from Old Sorrell the grandson of Peter McCune. Later we went by the stables and saw Bold Venture, the sire of Assault.

From Mexico City:

More about water in Mexico City. Being of a curious mind I wanted to find out what is safe for Diane to drink outside of bottled water. Talked to Fred Hill of Hamburg, Iowa, immediate past president of NEA, who came down here with Don Eck, NEA manager, two months ago to make the arrangements. He assured me that the plain faucet water in this hotel or in any other listed on the tour is perfectly pure. The above is to relieve the minds of a couple of Grandmothers.

A dollar is worth 4 pesos and 80 centanos—almost five to one. That made me feel good when I changed a 20 dollar bill and received 96 pesos in return. I turned around and went into a shop to buy a Texas paper. The price was 60 centanos or about 15c for a nickel paper in Texas. On this exchange and price basis it seems to me that we have got them going and they have us coming.

Back to the King Ranch. That is the most wonderful achievement in animal husbandry, stock breeding, soil conservation, that I have ever seen anywhere. The experiments with grass alone is a story that The Leader readers will get when I return to Wellington. But what Bob Kleberg wanted the editors to tell their people is about the misuse by our own State and Agricultural Departments of the funds the Congress provided to stamp out the hoof and mouth disease in Mexico.

Mr. Kleberg says Congress did the right thing; but these two departments (State and Agriculture) are usurping the intent of the act. He thinks you should write your Congressman and ask him to investigate the use that is being made of the millions of dollars the American tax payers are putting out to try to keep this dread disease from getting into the U. S. and after talking with Mr. Kleberg for nearly half a day I think you should write Gene Worley. Bear in mind that he did his part and well; but he should check up on how the money is being used. And you should know that there is no known cure for this dread animal disease. It attacks cattle, sheep, hogs, anything with a cloven hoof.

There will be more detail when I get home but there is part of the problem in a nutshell. They are paying Mexican cattle owners for killing their cattle with our money. But the meat is then resold. Mr. Kleberg says this can be a way to spread the disease. What should be done, he says, is to pay the citizens of Mexico for the cattle destroyed. BUT ALL INFECTED ANIMALS SHOULD BE KILLED ON THE SPOT AND BE BURIED IN QUICK LIME SO THEY CAN'T BE DUG UP. If we ever get the disease in the U. S. we will never get rid of it. We are the only major meat producing nation that does not have it. Hog cholera is as nothing for staying in the ground as compared to the foot and mouth disease when it comes to the tenacity with which the virus stays in the soil. So says Robert Kleberg and I think it would be a disaster running into billions of dollars in the course of the years. It concerns us up there in the Panhandle just as it does the hog raiser of Iowa and the cattle feeder of Ohio.

Diane has been out inspecting the fire escapes and the stairways of the Hotel Geneve, pronounced Otel Henova. She never batted an eye at the airplane trip over the high mountains. But ever since that hotel fire a month or so ago, she has been suspicious of hotels. The first thing she does is to check on the exits and stairways. Robert Fulton wrote her to ask if she were still fighting fires. Yeah, she is still fighting fires, but she is becoming a good traveler. It is not as easy as it sounds. To have a good time you have to take the good with the bad—the discomforts with the pleasures. Experienced travelers do not complain about small inconveniences.

If you get your feelings out you can ruin a beautiful trip. Diane is learning. In Texas there were days when she got up at 5 a. m., went for two days without a bath, washed her stockings and undergarments in spare time and then tumbled into bed exhausted. But it is all part of the game of traveling.

Tomorrow we set out to see something of this old and interesting capitol of our friends south of the Rio Grande.

The present wartime price-support program will end December 31, 1948.

A dollar or two spent for vegetable seed pays big dividends in food, health and economy.

Gospel of Christ (Rom. 1:16)

THE SAVIOR

"Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." I Tim. 1:15. Sin is apparent on every hand and we must confess that "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God." Rom. 3:23. Man can not save himself nor direct his own steps. Jer. 10:23. Thus we see the need of a Saviour to save us and direct our steps home to God.

We are saved by letting Jesus become the king of our lives. "There is a way which seemeth right unto man but the end thereof are the ways of death." Prov. 16:25. When we forsake this way of our own and begin to walk in obedience to Christ he becomes our Saviour, for "though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey them."

If we accept the reality of our sins we must come to a realization of our need of a Saviour. As we accept our need we also accept the fact that Christ is the only Saviour and that only in him and through him can our salvation be wrought. Then we must accept the fact that Christ saves the obedient and we will become "obedient from the heart" (Rom. 6:17) to his teaching and in our "obedience to the truth" we will purify our souls. I Pet. 1:22.

Wellington Team Is Winner in Season's First Game Sunday

The Wellington ball club met Clarendon Sunday afternoon for the first game of the season. Playing on home ground, the boys got off to a good start with the first run coming in the second inning. Both teams played well considering the short training time they have had due to bad weather, with only seven errors chalked up during the whole game, five of which were Wellington errors.

Final score in the two hour and 10 minute game stood at Wellington 3, Clarendon 2.

The league this year is using paid umpires, none of which can be from either of the two cities represented in the game.

Starting lineup was:

WELLINGTON
Player, pos.	R	H	E

Two base hits were made by Nobles, Head and Strong. Winning pitcher was Henrich, losing Burfield. Umpires were Leggett and Pendleton.

Sunday, April 27, sees Wellington meet Childress in Childress. The game will start there promptly at 3 p. m. Approximately the same lineup as shown above will start the game.

New suits are to be bought for the players and will probably be worn in their next home game. Part of the money for these suits is to come from that made by the team last year and the remainder will be furnished by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. High and son, John, of Pampa, spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. D. G. Ellis and Mrs. J. B. Castleberry and their families.

Glenn O. Carter, who has been employed by the Southwestern Bell Co. in Amarillo, returned here recently to make his home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Carter.

Develop Leadership, Kiwanians Are Urged

Declaring to the Kiwanians of the Wellington and Pampa Clubs that their organization can and must furnish the leadership of the future, W. C. (Bill) Whalen, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, was guest speaker at a meeting of the two clubs at the Community building here Friday night, April 18.

Here with him was Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor W. O. (Bill) Wood of Lubbock, who spoke briefly.

Cameron Beam served as toastmaster, while Morris Reed, president of the club, introduced the speakers.

An address of welcome was given by F. E. Shryock, Sr., president of the Pampa club.

Mr. Whalen reminded his listeners that at present the leaders of the nation are being drawn from the military forces, and he urged that Kiwanis must develop the type of men who can provide leadership from the civilian standpoint.

Entertainment features included songs by Pampa members; and the Wellington girls sextet, Tommie Ann Campbell, Sue Anderson, Linnie Lou Coleman, Helen Holder, Peggy Riggs and Rosemary Strong, with Mrs. Frank Anderson as accompanist. Two vocal numbers were given by Fred Sponseller, new high school band director.

Regional and state winners will participate in the national finals to be held in 1948. Grand champion will receive $5,000 from the food chain and runner-up, $1,000. Other substantial awards made by the same donor will bring the total to $10,000.

Overall objective of the three-year breeding program, which got under way in 1946, is to achieve quick-growing, meatier birds which will consume less feed, resulting in increased profits to poultrymen and greater consumer satisfaction. Active committees are now promoting the program in 39 states.

Last year's Texas Chicken-of-Tomorrow champion was Frank W. Allenson of Brenham, whose White Giant-White Cornish crosses weighing 3.4 pounds at 14 weeks captured top honors. Mrs. Clay's entry this year will be judged at 12 weeks.

Cut Flowers

It is breathtaking!

Only the patience and skill of the gardener, combined with the imagination and artistry of the arranger, could produce such perfection.

Yet there is something sad about the most beautiful bouquet. In a few hours it begins to wither and its glory vanishes. Cut flowers must die, because they no longer receive life from their roots.

And there are people like that. Kind and moral, helpful and respectable—but cut away from that spiritual root that would make their goodness vibrant, contagious and enduring.

The Church is here to remind us that roots are vitally necessary. But that is not all.

The Church offers us God's Word and through that Word joins us to the Source of life. If accepted, His power will flow into us, nourishing our lives and making them increasingly beautiful and useful. "As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in Me." (John 15:4)

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Former Citian Tells of Galveston Reaction to Texas City Blast

An account of the disastrous explosion at Texas City April 16, as it appeared to Galveston residents 12 miles away, is described here by a former Wellington woman, Mrs. Ray Wall. The daughter of Mrs. W. O. Richards, Mrs. Wal is attendance supervisor of the Galveston schools, and at the time of the blast she was in her office in the three-story Sam Houston school. Her husband, the son of Mrs. Annie Wall of Wellington, works at the Todd Dry Dock, mentioned in the letter.

"For the first time in my life I've known stark terror," Mrs. Wall wrote. When the first blast came it sounded as if it were in this building. It sounded that way in every building. Children began to scream, and the fire alarm went on. I got own to the first floor and began keeping the children from getting panicky. Then the second blast, and a window just a few feet away crashed in. I just knew it was the boiler in the building, and it would fall before we could get out.

"Then on the outside we saw the cloud that looked like a small atomic cloud—just like the pictures, and a woman from across the street called that it was Todd's. I thought I would die. Then the police came and told us what it was. The children were not allowed back in the building, and I reported to Red Cross.

"I worked at John Sealy until 10:30 that night, and the constant sound of sirens and calls and cries and the SMELL. But when the second explosions came in the night, and the house felt as if it were crawling out from under you, and the sky toward Texas City turned crimson, I almost died from plain fright. I never knew before what fear does to people's faces. We had teachers here whose husbands and brothers were in Texas City.

"Galveston had no damage except broken windows and some people got minor cuts from the glass. But everything came to a dead stop almost instantly, and all energy was turned toward helping people.

"Every facility in town was given to relieve the suffering. The Army offered Ft. Crockett and Camp Wallace, and the Red Cross headquarters from St. Louis sent plane after plane with blood plasma, nurses, doctors, medical supplies and trained directors.

"We knew so many who were killed but none were close friends. Some were my former school children. They will never get an accurate count of the dead, for so many were blown to atoms, and rows of dead are not yet identified. I have heard returned service men who were in major battles say they never saw anything any worse.

"Well, I'm back at my own desk this morning and will stay here until called.

"We are very thankful, very humble, and know what human suffering can be."

to Woodward, to view the terrible destruction left in the path of the tornado that hit there Wednesday night.

The Damage Is Done!

The windstorm has done its damage and now we are hearing the old questions about tornado insurance; asking what it is, what it can do and how much it costs. The time to find out is NOW—before the next storm. Remember that a policy carried year after year is an investment in security. When allowed to lapse and renewed "now and then" it is little different than gambling. The rates are reasonable; the protection sure.

Rocket Band to McLean for May Day Festival

Four bands from surrounding towns have accepted invitations to attend and participate in the May Day Music Festival, to be held in McLean Thursday, May 1. J. E. Shortt, of McLean, has announced, and others have indicated that they may be able to attend.

Included in those to attend is the Wellington high school band under the direction of Ed Sponseller, bandmaster.

Bands already accepting invitations are those from Wellington, Shamrock, Kellerville, and Memphis, and the band from Clarendon will probably attend.

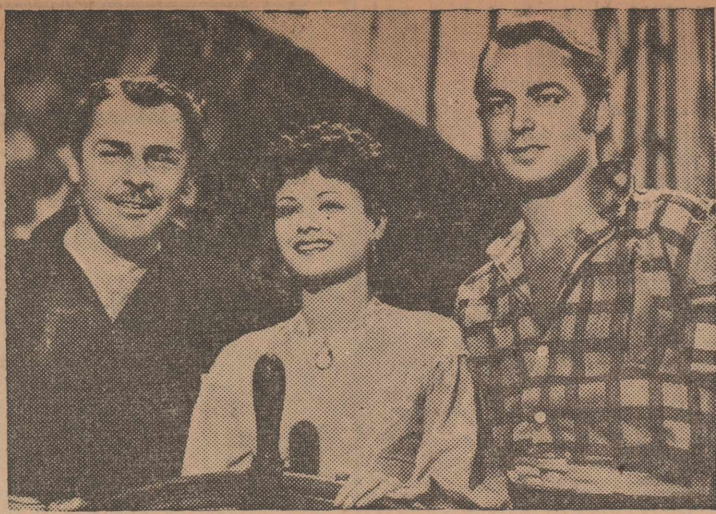

A gala day is expected, and a large crowd is expected to attend.

The activities will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with a parade of the visiting bands. Included in the parade will be a number of floats and horseback riders. Various business men and individuals have already signified their attentions of entering floats in the parade.

Following the parade all visiting bandmen will be treated to a free motion picture show through the courtesy of Paul A. Pierson, owner of the Avalon Theater.

After the movie, all visiting bandmen will be guests at a barbecue, being jointly sponsored by the McLean Chamber of Commerce, headed by Ed Lander, president, and the Band Booster Club, of which Rev. W. R. Lawrence, Baptist pastor, is president.

Climaxing the day's fete will be a mass band concert and marching maneuvers, to be held at 8 o'clock in the Tiger football stadium. The concert and maneuvers will be open to the public.

FROM A SAGA OF THE SEA

This scene is from "Two Years Before the Mast," Richard Henry Dana's immortal story, with Alan Ladd, Esther Fernandez, Barry Fitzgerald and Brian Donlevy, which opens at the Ritz for the preve Saturday night and continues through Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Training, Knowledge Necessary For Farmer of Tomorrow--Creel

Farming of tomorrow will be vastly different from that of yesterday, Jack Earl Creel, farm editor of radio station KFYO, Lubbock, reminded approximately 140 Future Farmers, their dads and honor guests at the annual Father and Son banquet given by the Wellington Chapter Thursday night, April 17.

"No longer can a young man enter the farming profession without having equipped himself with the proper knowledge and training," he told them. "There is still a paramount need for leadership from farmers, and they will not be able to get what they desire until they have the proper leadership.

"Without hard labor we accomplish nothing, and unless our efforts are directed by proper knowledge and wisdom our efforts will be vain."

Opening ceremonies of the banquet were conducted by chapter officers, then a welcome to visitors was extended by Walter Johnson. Singing was under the direction of Fred Sponseller, high school band director, with Benny Karnes as accompanist. The invocation was given by J. C. Nelson and the FFA Creed by Richard Rapp.

Other numbers on the program included a reading by Miss Jimmie Faye Light, FFA sweetheart; the presentation of FFA contest teams by Clyde Cason, Richard Fournentin, Walter Johnson, Jimmy Terry, David Baumgardner, Burl Brim, J. C. Nelson and Harold Scott.

Songs were given by a quartet

GENIUS and GENIE

Thomas Alva Edison

REDDY KILOWATT

YEARS AGO, before Thomas Edison invented a successful light bulb, our grandparents burned kerosene and candles that were expensive, troublesome, and gave very poor light—but,—

EDISON GAVE YOU SOMETHING NEW AND BETTER

This genius, laboring over thousands of experiments, led the way to better light for better sight,—as well as to a better way of living, with electricity.

TODAY you have bright, cheerful and well lighted homes, stores and offices. There is no reason for them to be otherwise! Because you have LIGHT BY WIRE.

A much better lamp bulb than Edison's first incandescent light can be bought for a thin dime. I, Reddy Kilowatt, will light that bulb for hundreds of hours for a coolie's wages, and give you more and better light.

Edison's successful light bulb was really the start of the electric industry. Today we work and live electrically; we have more comforts and conveniences than any other country in the world,—all because one man had an idea and developed it.

MY HAT IS OFF TO THOMAS EDISON

 W. H. Allen is in Mena, Ark. on business.

J. P. Allen of Pampa visited in the home of his son, W. H. Allen and family the last of the week.

There were 42 at Sunday School last Sunday but due to the bad weather there were only 24 Sunday. There will be preaching next Sunday. Everyone is welcome.

Mrs. A. V. Mote, Eugene, Johnny Mae and A. V. visited in Childress on Friday. Her brother, Bill Casey, returned home with them.

Mrs. W. H. Allen, Oren and Carol; Mr. and Mrs. Clay Oatman, Eugene, Frances Anne and Cora Mae Mote; and L. V. Hook took dinner Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hook and family.

The Sizemore family lost their home by fire last Thursday morning. Everything was lost. A nice donation was brought in to the family. May God bless each one who helped them in their need.

Ruth Allen received a badly cut finger on Sunday morning when she caught it in the fan of the car.

Frances Anne Mote spent Sunday night with Ruth Allen.

SWEARINGEN

By MRS. HILL WELLS

(Intended for last week)
 That Easter spell finally got here even if it was a week or so late, but this rain has been fine on the wheat.

Most everyone has a little garden planted and some have combine maize planted.

There wasn't any church and Sunday school this Sunday. Too much rain I guess. The roads are rather slick.

This Wednesday is quilting day, also Polly Anna day. Mrs. Wayne Hull will be hostess. We have a new member in the club that we are proud of, Mrs. Carl Stout.

Mrs. Bennie Smith is ill in the Goodall Hospital at Memphis. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Zora Stevens of Calif. visited Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Allen.

Medra Ann Wells doesn't feel well this week. We hope she is better soon.

PLYMOUTH

By MRS. C. W. FRITTS

(Intended for last week)
 Mr. Miller and family moved Friday from Lillie to the J. B. Castleberry farm, recently vacated by H. C. Morrow and family.

Jenny, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Young of Borger, has visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young and Gene, and great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young the past week.

Vernon Fritts and son, Robert and Earl Dalarymple of Amarillo came down Friday night and painted the interior of Mrs. Fritts farm house. The Robert Young family live on the farm.

Little Billie Morris and Dona Morrow visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritts Sunday night.

A good rain fell here Saturday and Saturday night with sleet and some snow.

"Zero-Zero" to "CAVU"

By BILL HUGHES

Thanks to Mr. Bledsoe Bamboo's first hand experience, except that unlike the isms that are so often traditionally interred with the bones, this man in spite of his opinion and prejudice took another flyer, because an old friend loved to needle him as a "panty waist" because of his physical susceptibility and also because this same old friend disliked to be outdone. Therefore, one day when a pilot salesman offered to demonstrate the vast word in Lockheed's modern equipment, a thing one step better than possessed by said good old friend, for an hour and for old the price of gas and oil this old boy had plane, pilot, and the works. He called his friend long distance ninety miles away to have the latter meet him at his airport and took off to turn the "panty waist" into a "boomerang girdle" and to evaporate some of his friend's surplus complacency, remaining aloft just long enough to carry the point and without a sign of the physical forces which were nevertheless grappling with fortitude.

However, this lack of appreciation for things of the air in all fairness does not always stem from staid old fashionism, fogginess, or even ostrichism, which you must recognize is occasionally the case where generations meet on unequal ground that time is forever keeping in a state of flux. No, sir, I know an elder who tried it out. He flew from Amarillo to Albuquerque in the good old days when TWA was operating the then last gasp in aviation, the tri-motored all metal Fords. Laugh not! It was a great aeroplane and rugged.

Those were the days when a transport's restroom was scarcely more than an aperture back among aluminum timber where they began to squeeze down to form the appendage. The hostess, in those days, was a co-pilot strapped in his seat in bad weather when one's stomach would have welcomed any old port in a storm. There were no windows back in that forest of groaning metal. You were back "in the great alone". When the plane landed in Albuquerque, he literally crawled his way out by his own green glow to be met by another eagle whom he had wired ahead to have meet him with another "winged Moriah", to fly him to Santa Fe.

This time it was an open air crate hung together with bailing wire. The only two powers on earth which could have persuaded him to continue the experiment were at hand—urgency of time and the prospect of plenty of God's good fresh air. At first it was smooth going, but a sigh of relief was the signal to the churner of airways. The plane kited like a cork on the Rio Grande at flood time. They got there all right, but to this day he wonders how. He was ill that night and all the next day, as he traveled homeward in God's gift to his sensitive stomach, the automobile. Then he rested a week in the hospital.

Now this little experience did to his opinion of flying machines what old fashionism, fogginess, and ostrichism can and does do without good reason, he does not insist that this is a universal truth. If only all of us could in all things apply this principal, many chords of individual differences might achieve harmony in a greater peaceful symphony rather than "blood, sweat, and tears" in warring and mock heroics. Strange creatures us peoples!

PROVED BY 66 BILLION MILES OF SATISFACTORY SERVICE

Let's Face the Facts!

We've heard a lot about "enormous dammed up purchasing power." There is no such thing. Actually, the honeymoon is over. We must now meet the issue squarely.

A great many authorities on economics concur with President Truman's recent statement that "prices have gone out of sight, and must come down." We agree thoroughly.

The prices of marble and granite memorials are too high. Wholesalers and quarriers are predicting even higher prices this spring. Be that as it may. We contend that prices of all commodities are out of line, and as a pioneer firm in our field of business we are taking the attitude that someone must take the initiative regarding sensible prices. Why shouldn't we set the pattern? Therefore, henceforth, that is our policy.

We have an exceptionally large stock of finished memorials in attractive designs and of finest grades marble and granites. We have more bought and in transit.

All of our prices are taking a drastic cut. This is not a sale. It is just good business. We are now enjoying our forty-sixth year of this community's good will and liberal patronage. We appreciate it. We believe that a smaller margin of profit on a larger turnover is to our mutual advantage. Don't you?

MEMORIAL DAY IS MAY 30TH

We invite you to call soon at our display located at Fort Worth & Tenth Streets in Wellington, Mr. Lewis Cotton our local representative; or to visit our extensive home display located two miles east of Vernon on the Wichita Falls Highway. We suggest that you make your selection early before the choice designs are gone. Remember, the prices are greatly reduced.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"As Homelike As a Barn"

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush.

And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer.

You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns hanging from the rafters; make-shift tables spread heavy with food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed their beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place!

From where I sit, it's just about as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming... if only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in a spirit of good fellowship.
