Vote Count Monday for County ASC

Ballots for Mitchell County's ASC community committee election will be counted Monday in the Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Service Office here.

Deadline for balloting was Wednesday.

After the counting of ballots, the elected community delegates will meet in their county convention Wednesday, Sept. 27, to elect the ASC county committee.

Local rainfall for September amounts to 2.21 inches through Wednesday, according to official measuring on Courthouse lawn.

Heaviest moisture days were Sept. 2 with .55, Sept. 15 with .52 and Sept. 17 with .56. Monday, Sept. 18, the official measurement was .21.

Land diverted from cotton ends and other programs may be grazed beginning Oct. 1, according to Eddie Braswell, ASC office manager. Previously the beginning date had been set for Nov. 1.

Lions Luncheon

Weekly luncheon program of Colorado City Lions moves up a day on the calendar this week to today, Thursday.

It has been reset from Friday so as not to conflict with annual Mitchell County Old Settlers Reunion in Civic House.

$1,000 Smile — for Fidel Martinez

That's right! Fidel Martinez, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martinez, flashes a $1,000 smile. He is holding the money, a $1,000 check for cash, which he won in a drawing Saturday night at Abilene Fair. Fidel, next to the youngest among 15 brothers and sisters, put the money in the bank where dad said it will stay until "he needs something."

Fair Judging, Parade To Open Weekend Festivities

HACKFELD PRESIDENT

Loraine High FFA Chooses New Slate

Loraine High School chapter of Future Farmers of America elected as president for the new school year Stanley Hackfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hackfeld.

Active in the FFA for two years, he has served as vice president, as district sentinel and is currently serving as district FFA vice president. He was one of the junior and senior farm skills teams which placed first in district and second in area contests and is member of the livestock judging team.

Ricky Walker was elected to serve as chapter vice president. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Walker, he served as chapter treasurer last year. He was also member of the farm skills team, meats judging team and was high man in meats judging at several contests.

Frankie Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, was elected as secretary. He has been active one year in the chapter, was member of the state winning farm skills team and member of the cotton classing team which placed second in Area II.

Mike Walker will serve as treasurer. His parents are

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Walker. Member of meats judging team at Texas Tech contest which placed fifth as high individual and tenth in overall, he also exhibited the champion crossbred lamb at Mitchell County 4-H & FFA Livestock Show in January.

Mike Britton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Britton was elected reporter. He was on the winning teams, along with Stewart and Walker.

Sentinel chosen is Tim Hamilton, second year member of the FFA quiz team, and cotton classing team. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hamilton.

Raymond Holt, vocational agriculture teacher at Loraine High, sponsors the chapter.

All exhibits and booths at the fair, located on West Highway 80 business route, will be open to the public immediately following the parade at 5 p.m.

Drawings for $50 cash prizes will be conducted Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at Fair. Tickets can be obtained from 35 local firms.

More activities crowd the weekend calendar beginning Friday morning and continuing right through Saturday night.

Mitchell County's Old Settlers Reunion is scheduled Friday morning, beginning at 9:30 a.m. in Civic House.

Mitchell County Historical Museum opens to the public Friday immediately after the pioneers conclude their reunion.

Western Riding Club's Second Annual Appaloosa Horse Show is set for Saturday, Judging in 27 classes — 12 in halter and 15 in performance — will begin at 9 a.m. at the club's arena adjacent to fair grounds.

Saturday night Western Riding Club stages the annual Mitchell County calf roping with county ropers competing for the hand-tooled saddle. Roping will begin at 8 p.m.

For the kids only Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. will be Kiwanis Kids Day in the downtown area.

Free movies and ice cream are on the treat list for the youngsters at Palace Theater at 9 a.m.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Kids Day parade will begin in front of Civic House and tour the downtown section to Courthouse. Prizes will be awarded in five categories at the parade — 1. Costumes, 2. Pets, 3. Small wheeled carts and tricycles; 4. bicycles and 6. most unusual.

Crop Harvest Data

Specialists Report Here Friday

Latest techniques for harvesting cotton for maximum efficiency and quality will be reported here Friday evening by three specialists from Agricultural Extension Service.

County Agent Bobby Lemons said the meeting for cotton growers, ginners and others interested in the cotton industry will be at 7:30 p.m. in Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative's Medallion Room.

Speakers will be Dr. Robert Metzger, area agronomist; Beverly Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist; Fred Elliott, cotton specialist.

Their appearance here will be one of a series of 16 meetings being conducted throughout the South Plains to provide latest, up-to-date information on cotton harvested in relation to the upcoming season.

Friday is the only date the specialists were available to Mitchell County, Lemons said.

Metzger, the agronomist, will discuss environmental factors which affect the development — especially temperature and length of the growing season.

Elliott's report will be concern recommended harvest-aid chemicals with special emphasis on fiber damage which can occur with improper use of chemicals.

Proper operation of a cotton stripper for maximum efficiency and quality preservation of cotton — plus the techniques of block ginning — will be discussed by Reeves.

Lemons said the informational meeting will be about 90 minutes.

Adult Basic Class Sign-up Is Tuesday

Colorado Independent School District begins a new program in adult basic education here next week.

Planned for last year, but delayed because of unavailability of federal funds, the basic education program is expected to have between 80 and 100 persons enrolled.

Its aim is to provide basic learning in reading, spelling and writing, social science and health, and arithmetic for adults.

Approximately 129 persons within the community expressed an interest in the basic courses last year when school administrators conducted surveys for possibility of the adult program.

Registration will be Tuesday night Sept. 26, in Colorado High School, where classes will be conducted twice weekly from September through March.

Faculty for the program will be Ed Aguilar, coordinator and instructor; Mrs. Orin Feaster and Mrs. Aguilar. Aguilar is language instructor at Colorado High and has previous experience with Mrs. Aguilar working with adults in summer programs. Mrs. Feaster is a sixth grade teacher at Wallace School.

Three levels of instruction will be available for participating adults: (1) equivalent of grades 1, 2 and 3; (2) equivalent of grades 4, 5 and 6; (3) equivalent of

Wolves Meet 3-AAA Ponies

Colorado High Wolves, who are having a hard time convincing out-of-towners their 87 points in two contests are for real, move up against AAA competition Friday night.

They journey eastward to Nolan County and tangle with Sweetwater's Mustangs advance favorites for the District 3-AAA throne.

Coach Truman Nix's Wolves — conquerors of 6-A Roscoe last week, 62-0 and Coahoma, 25-8, — will be the underdogs, too.

The Ponies, despite a 41 to 13 loss last Friday to AAAA

Abilene, have dumped perennial toughy Breckenridge 6-0, and are on the move in their second year under Coach Joe Boyd.

In addition, Sweetwater students — especially the players — have made no secret of the fact for months that they are aiming for revenge.

They were stunned in a 14 to 12 defeat here last September. And, truthfully, their subsequent losses indicated they never quite recovered from the C-City loss.

Thieves Take Pickup from Truck Stop

A pickup truck was reported stolen early Sunday from Sherman Truck Stop on Interstate 20 west of Colorado City.

Marshall Sherman notified police the green pickup, 1950 model Dodge, was taken from the truck stop in the early morning after 4 a.m.

It was second major theft reported within a week at stations on Interstate 20.

Last week between $75 and $100 in cash was stolen from the office of Jeff Taylor Enco Service Station at corner of Interstate 20 and State 208 (to Snyder).

Most of the money taken was in currency — $20, $10, $5 and $1 bills with several checks.

Lil' Rudy Back to Jail

Kid, 18, Drinks His Way Back Behind Bars

Rudolph (Rudy) Luera, Colorado City's pint-size youth who mixes alcohol with trouble, is back in County Jail.

This time the 18-year-old will be behind bars for 90 days. Maybe more, depending upon whether he pays his $150 fine and $37 court costs with jail time or cash.

Rudy was flushed from a field of maize half mile north Interstate 20 freeway Sunday by State Highway Patrolmen Buddy Hertenberger, Jim Mauldin and Loraine City Marshall Jack Brewer.

Monday in County Court he pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and received the 90-day sentence — longest term of his young career — from County Judge Elmer Martin.

The youth — who twice before has been sentenced jail terms for assaulting officers — was driving a vehicle which slid and wrecked at Interstate 20 underpass at Loraine.

Brewer, checking on complaints of somebody driving dangerously, came upon the vehicle soon after the mishap. Another youth was in the vehicle, but Rudy had left the scene.

When the patrolmen joined Brewer, they started checking the area and sighted Rudy in a maize field. But he ducked and hid.

The officers didn't take chances in the field with Rudy, who has a reputation for being dangerous whenever drinking.

They yelled for him to come out and fired a shotgun burst into the aid when he didn't answer.

When the suspect still did not reply, they fired another burst, which brought him up with hands over his head.

Only last June Rudy was sent to jail for 30 days for assaulting Policemen Truman Henderson and Nick Martinez when they sought to stop Rudy from bashing another person's car with boulders.

The year before he received a similar term for assaulting Sheriff Lewis Claxton when the officer arrested him.

In between, he has been in and out of jail — all in the aftermath of alcohol — the last time only a week earlier, Sept. 9.

In County Jail Rudy, who lives at 705 Cypress, joins two other Lueras — one a kinsman.

Earnest G. Luera, 17, of 705 Cypress and Jimmy Luera, 17, West 13th St., are held in lieu of $1,000 bond on a felony charge of assault on murder John Del Real. They are accused of shooting at Del Real with a .22 caliber rifle.

Del Real is free on $750 bail charged in a felony complaint of maiming Ernest Luera by biting off part of his nose.

The assault to murder and maiming cases will go before Mitchell County grand jury.

Post Office Open House

Tom J. Goss II, left, and Phillip Anderson, postal employees, demonstrate how envelopes are post marked during Monday afternoon's open house at Colorado City Post Office. Looking on, are Mrs.

Floyd Quinney and Mrs. Oscar Price. The public response to the open house invitation kept post office employees busy as hosts until 6:30 p.m.

MUSIC & SPEECHES

Civic House Setting For Reunion Friday

Old Timer Day opens tomorrow (Friday) morning in Civic House with registration from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.

The reunion for Mitchell County pioneers, annually celebrated during the week of the County Fair, is expected to attract a number of out of town guests along with families from throughout this county.

Mrs. Edgar Majors is general chairman of arrangements and official hostess for the morning reunion. Mrs. J. Ed Richardson is refreshment hour chairman. Porter Richardson will be master of ceremonies.

Mrs. James Payne is director of entertainment features for the program. Musical arrangements by Mrs. Payne will be featured during registration hour.

Mrs. Douglas Burns is to be directing registration and identification, assisted by several typists.

Formal program will begin with invocation said by Rev. Weems Dykes, pastor of First Christian Church.

Cowboy and Western music will follow, played by Owen Montgomery and a combo group.

Welcome address will be made by Elmer Martin, county judge. Chief address for the morning will be made by Johnny Moore, atorney of Sweetwater, former Mitchell Countian and resident of Colorado City.

Mrs. Witt Hines, chairman of the county's historical survey committee, will be presented in a historical resume.

Sefton Pickens, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will salute Old Timers whose names have been added to the memorial list during the past year before a silent meditation and prayer in tribute to be said by Oscar Batten, minister of Northside Church of Christ.

Presentation of awards will be made by Pickens and Richardson with five plaques to be given.

Climaxing the program will be a special memorial tribute, "In Memory of Beloved Harry Ratliff," by Judge Austin McCloud. The late Mr. Ratliff was a long-time Old Timer Day chairman and backer of the Historical Museum here.

The museum will be opened immediately after the Old Timer program. Miss Martha Earnest and Mrs. Burns will be hostesses at the museum for the special day.

All Mitchell County citizens, particularly all newcomers and all Old Timers, are invited to attend the 1967 reunion, then visit the museum.

WHAT DO THESE TWO HOMES HAVE IN COMMON?

Outside, these two homes look different, but inside they have a lot in common. Because both are Total Electric homes in which clean, flameless electricity does everything from operating work-saving appliances to lighting, cooling and heating the entire house. The point is that Total Electric living is not limited to any particular size of home or style of architecture. Total Electric homes may be large or small, new or old.

And the extra comfort, convenience and cleanliness they provide is more economical today than ever before on our low rate for Total Electric homes. Before you build, buy or remodel, let us tell you about the many advantages of modern Total Electric living.

Fashions & Faces Talks Set

Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 26, offers a special program for all girls of school age and their mothers — in the Education Room, Lone Wolf Electric building.

Sponsored by the Mitchell County Family Living Committee, the program, "What's In Your Fashion Future?" will present a fall preview of fashions and hints on make-up.

Mrs. J. S. Craddock, Jr., teacher of home economics and sponsor of the senior chapter of Future Homemakers of America, will present the 367 fall fashion preview. Makeup preview for the season will be discussed by Mrs. G. M. Howell.

All young girls in school, whether members of the FHA or the 4-H Club or not, are invited by the Family Living Committee to attend the fashion future discussions and demonstrations.

Mothers interested in being "in the know" about clothes and cosmetics for their daughters are issued a special invitation from the committee.

Mrs. Henderson Hosts Carr Club

WESTBROOK Mrs. Don Henderson was hostess to members of the Carr Home Demonstration Club, Friday.

Mrs. B. F. Ellett served as president. Bell call was answered with "My Favorite Food."

Mrs. Henderson led the song and read Matt. 22:37-40. Mrs. John Latta voiced the prayer, gave the council report, and presented the program on quick cooking meals.

Refreshments were served to Misses Ellett, Latta, T. A. Rice and the hostess.

Mrs. Tom Jackson will host the next meeting October 6 when members will fill gift bags for service men.

Funeral Held For Bailey

Funeral for James F. Bailey, 55, was conducted Tuesday afternoon in Mount Zion Baptist Church by Rev. Henry Lee, pastor of Canaan Baptist Church in Loraline.

Burial followed in Mitchell County cemetery, directed by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

Bailey, son of Mrs. Lillian Bailey, died in Sacramento, Calif. Sept. 12. He was a resident of Colorado City before moving to California.

His mother, 257 Erie St., Colorado City, three daughters, Vivian and Sandra Nell Bailey of Abilene, and Mrs. Maxine Rogers of Los Angeles; one son, Henry Arnold Bailey, also of Los Angeles; three sisters and two brothers survive.

1st Christian Rally Day Is Set Sunday

key Baker, 207, tackles, are another reason why the Ponies are top selection for 3AAA championship. Their offensive power comes mostly from Benji Kemp, 175-pound fullback; Kent Boatright, 170 pounds of power and speed at tailback; and David Redwine, 155-pound junior quarterback.

Dale Critz, 170, and Bill Donnelly, 190, are senior ends who also add strength.

Coach Nix will field about the same team which opened against Roscoe and romped up and down field for 503 yards rushing, plus 74 more passing — not counting 95 more taken away by penalties.

That means the backfield will have Randy Parker at quarterback, a junior who ran for two touchdowns and gained 109 yards in six carries against Roscoe.

Handling the main running chores, of course, will be Dan Steakley, the junior who scored 2 touchdowns and traveled 214 yards on 11 tries for an amazing 20-yard average last Friday, and Co-Captain Ralph Lindsey, the all-around workhorse who scored one touchdown and carried nine times for 65 yards against Roscoe.

Mike Maines, who scored one of the eight touchdowns against Roscoe, has been hampered by a cut arm this week, but will be ready to play Friday.

Macca Findley, senior line-backer who was thought to be lost for the season, resumed workouts this week. His knee, which caused trouble after being operated on last spring, has been responding okay, and he will be available for limited duty.

Sheriff's Tobacco

Sheriff Lewis Claxton displays a large tobacco plant growing at Mitchell County Jail from seed brought from Tennessee and planted by the sheriff. The tobacco will be on display at Mitchell County Fair, the sheriff said.

R. S. Wallis Wins Trip

R. S. Wallis, 1098 Pine St. and Mrs. Wallis spent the weekend in Galveston with all expenses paid by Electroflux Corporation for which Wallis is local representative.

Wallis and his wife were among seven couples hosted by the company as winners in a recent three-month sales contest. Three branch managers for the company, and their wives, joined the seven weekend trip winning couples for a stay at the Flag Ship, new hotel in Galveston.

grades 7 and 8.

Curriculum for each level will be in reading, language arts (spelling, writing, etc.), social science and health, arithmetic.

However, the instruction will be adapted to the enrollment, according to Supt. James McMath.

Classes will be from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday, with actual instruction beginning Sept. 25, and continuing through March 21.

All instruction will be on the ground floor at Colorado High so that elderly persons enrolled will not have to walk up steps.

"This is a program primarily for the benefit of those who desire the instruction," emphasized Assistant Supt. Earl Cook.

"However, it will be beneficial not only to adults who are parents, but to their children already in school because it will be aiding the environment and, thus, helping their own children to advance."

Cook said no interested adult would be turned away from the program, financed with federal funds through the Texas Education Agency's Division of Adult Education.

Colorado City schools is Colorado City school is its size in West Texas to develop the basic program. A special citizen's advisory group was activated last year to assist with the planning.

Although registration is set officially for Tuesday, Sept. 26, with classes beginning Thursday, Sept. 28, persons can enroll at any time during the school year. There are no regulations concerning attendance, thus a person can attend whenever possible without penalty.

Instruction, during the full fall-to-spring program, will total 100 hours.

CONVERSATION CORNER

LOOK around at the house where you live. What do you see?

According to Dr. Joyce Brothers, when you look at your house you are seeing yourself — a mirrored reflection of the kind of person you are.

She insists, in one of her recent syndicated columns, that any home tells what kind of people live there.

Now that could be a downright depressing state of affairs for any working wife.

After reading that little article saying that a house is gay or drab, artistic or unimaginative... well-ordered or slap-dash... just like whoever lives there... took a misguided tour of the house on East 9th St. Tried to view it with the practiced Dr. Brothers eye.

WELL, well, well. Deduction followed deduction.

Course it was fairly early in the morning on an average working day with no company expected and no party planned.

But to be perfectly honest about the tour, the people who live in this little house in question are maybe the slap-dash kind.

Ash trays, the practical type, on every table and beside every chair, plus one in the kitchen and another in the bath, held an ample supply of half-smoked cigars.

So the people who live in this house probably burn up part of their hard-earned money for the fun of watching it go up in smoke.

FURTHERMORE, the people who live in this house had magazines.

Two magazine racks, two end tables, one desk and one bookcase bulge with magazines, some new, some old, some barely middleaged.

Whoever lives in this house reads poetry on rainy days when she should be polishing the flat silver, no doubt. At least, between bookends on her desk, is a line of slender books of verse. Right by the portable typewriter.

People who live in this house drink coffee in the living room and leave cups and saucers on the floor by the television set, too.

And they're sink-stackers of supper plates, it would seem.

A STRANGER in the house would be sure to note that whoever lives in this little house goes in for comfort.

There's a big hassock, and a foot stool, and 49 cushions flung around in chairs and divans.

Slides and slippers sit beside the foot of the bed just as if they belong there... and isn't that a man's hat hanging on the poster bed?

There's fresh fruit in a blue pottery cornucopia on the buffet... fresh pink roses on the dining table... but look again... that everyday table cloth is plastic with a felt backing! Useful it is. Artistic it ain't... and that's the truth.

THERE are four radios hither and thither, counting the two transistors... and an upright grand piano with yellowing keys open, ready for playing... a stereo holding Nat King Cole and Andy Williams records. Somebody here loves music.

China reposes in the glass front cabinet... mismatched sets of gaudier dishes are used, apparently, for family living.

Decks of cards and a gin rummy score pad have been left on the mantel which holds the Mexican jug, an heirloom pitcher and two company ash trays. Oh yes... and a forgotten slingshot.

Dear Dr. Brothers! Her house may very well look just like her. Ours looks more like Edgar A. Guest. You know... the "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home" kind.

Which may mean we're simply a homely lot as a family.

SEEN LATELYS included Tom Rees with a three-deck sandwich at the lunch counter... Murrell Blassingame and Bill Randle holding a sidewalk conference.

Mrs. J. D. Gilson was an office visitor... Ditto Bianche Bell, wife of Wille A... and Sefton Pickens.

Bob Reily's driving a new car. Guess what color? You are right, Red.

Saw Mrs. Jess Craddock sitting under the dryer... Talked via phone to Mary (Mrs. J. Ralph) Lee who was saying she and Ralph spent the weekend as guests of her mother, Mrs. E. L. Biggerstaff, and sisters Ethel and Kate Biggerstaff, of Childress. Mother of the Biggerstaff family celebrated her 98th birthday last February.

POST OFFICE open house proved people love a party.

Serving iced punch, coffee, and homemade cookies at mid-afternoon were wives of three P. O. employees, blond Mrs. Bob Motley, Mrs. T. J. Goss II, and Mrs. Wendell Thomas.

Also greeting guests were Goss, Motley, Ed Moore, Arlene Morris, Guy Burson, and other employees not busy at windows and mail chores... Lona Pritchett, Star Route carrier, who was saying that nephew Major Eddie K. Norris, husband of Fannie Bess (nee Porter) is being assigned to duty in Alaska.

Fannie Bess and the boys Chip and Dale, plan to stay in California during the school term.

AMONG guests spied at the open house, marking Postal Service Day, were the Philip Bernmans... Mrs. E. H. Winn... Gus Chesney... Ann Randle Davis with son Randle and daughter Jill.

Mary and Ralph Lee were there, too... Ed Simons (Mrs. H. H.) who was saying a note from daughter Susanek says they were expecting snow in Denver, Colorado, where Sam and her family live.

Saw Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, F.P. (Favorite Person). Bob and Peggy Ratliff were headed for the party.

HEAR TELL our Max Shepherd, Marine gunnery sergeant, is now hospitalized in Japan for treatment of wounds received in Viet Nam. He will not be coming home until his current tour of foreign service is finished next April.

Good part of this hear-tell is that he will not be going back to Viet Nam, either. He's to finish his year in Japan when he recovers... He's already been able to write his parents the Bud Shepherds a reassuring letter.

OFF THE CUFF — Mack Coker, his wife, and their small son Thomas Lane spent last weekend here as guests of his parents the Tom Cokers. Mack works for Roundup Rambler in East Dallas and the little family is building a new brick home at Garland where they live.

Somebody was saying that Pam Pruitt, new West Texas Fair Queen, was born here in C.City. She's daughter of the A. L. Pruitts, now of Abilene, and goes to Cooper High.

FAMILIAR FACES round about places belated to pretty Mary Anne McCloud (Mrs. Austin) who dashed by with Delta Kappa Gamma news... Clem Myers on a short office visit... Luther Coffman on the downtown scene.

Glimpsed Mavis Nix, wife of Coach Truman... Flo Sparks, wife of Wann, son Bobby and blond daughter Martha... George and Mozelle Callender... Mary Fugate (Mrs. George)... Wyone (Mrs. Myrtle) nd Mrs. Homer Jameson, Myrtle's mama, together.

Mickey Hendrix was a drop in... Elizabeth Elliott (Mrs. Lewis B.) too.

SALAD SUPPER

Maranatha Club Has Installation

Maranatha Bible Study Club celebrated the re-opening of their series of fall programs with a salad supper and installation ceremonies in Fellowship Hall at First Methodist Church, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Billy Wilkinson, guest, directed the installation after an invocation by Mrs. W. A. Pattillo and a devotional discussion by Mrs. B. D. Bassham.

Mrs. R. M. Reed read the club history for the club year which ended in May, accenting the theme "Windows of Heaven." Theme for the current club season will be "Precious Possessions."

Choosing two passages from John, Mrs. Wilkinson stressed the words "life" and "light" as she installed new officers.

Mrs. Charles Stevens is new president, Mrs. Pattillo, vice president; Mrs. P.

H. Pace, secretary, Mrs. Wayne Shawn, treasurer, Mrs. Wilfred Fox, historian-reporter, and Mrs. Bassham, outgoing president, participated.

The installation ceremony featured references to the evergreen and to the rose as symbols of "life-and-light." Mrs. Wilkinson read a poem, "God, Let Me Be Aware," to climax the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Stevens then made her address as new president "Let us begin this year's study of Precious Possessions with the thought that each of us is a precious possession of God's," she said.

Guests attending were Mrs. Woodrow Crabtree and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Members present were Mrs. Sam Bullock, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. Elmer Martin, Mrs. Newt Miller, Mrs. Bassham, Fox, Pattillo, Pace Reed, Shawn, and Stevens.

Brotherhood Supper Set Thursday Night

WESTBROOK — Ralph Bryant will be speaker when the Brotherhood of Baptist Church meets Thursday, September 21. Supper will be served at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall with the program to follow. All men and boys in the community are invited to attend, according to an announcement made by C. E. Ranne, local president.

'68s Top Secrets are here

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE

And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE

There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION

There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vent-ports on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. This way, you can leave your windows rolled up and add still more to your peace and quiet.

PROVED SAFETY FEATURES

You get the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, plus many more new features. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, and safety armrests that shield the door handles.

MUCH MORE THAT'S NEW

There are new roof lines, some formal and graceful, others sporty and quick. There are new instrument panels, richly designed and all controls within easy reach. There are new interiors, new vinyls, new fabrics, new colors. There are models with Hide-A-Way windshield wipers and headlights that disappear behind grilles. There are new side marker lamps, new recessed taillights. There's even a new ignition alarm buzzer that reminds you not to walk away and leave your keys in the car.

These are the newest, the most different, the most dramatically changed Chevrolets ever. And they're at your Chevrolet dealer's now. You'll thoroughly enjoy slipping behind the wheel, experiencing the smooth new handling and library-quiet ride and, more than anything, seeing and feeling the even greater quality built into every new Chevrolet for 1968.

Be smart! Be sure! Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

There's more quality and value built into Chevrolets than ever before, making every new 1968 model an even better buy!

Fashions & Faces Talks Set

Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 26, offers a special program for all girls of school age and their mothers in the Medallion Room, Lone Wolf Electric building.

Sponsored by the Mitchell County Family Living Committee, the program, "What's In Your Fashion Future?" will present a fall preview of fashions and hints on make-up.

Mrs. J. S. Craddock, Jr., teacher of home economics and sponsor of the senior chapter of Future Homemakers of America, will present the '67 fall fashion preview. Make-up preview for the season will be discussed by Mrs. G. M. Howell.

All young girls in school, whether members of the FHA or the 4-H Club or not, are invited by the Family Living Committee to attend the fashion future discussions and demonstrations.

Mothers interested in being "in the know" about clothes and cosmetics for their daughters are issued a special invitation from the committee.

1st Christian Rally Day Is Set Sunday

Rally Day will be held at First Christian Church Sunday at 9:45 a.m. with an opening assembly in the church sanctuary.

Promotions to new classes will be made and teachers will be installed for the new year of work in the church school. Harold Boney is superintendent, assisted by J. L. Harder and Bob Lindley.

Teachers and assistants to be installed are: Friendship Class, Rev. C. E. Cogswell and Willis Jones; Lookout Class, Mrs. A. O. Hickman and Mrs. Nat Thomas; Pathfinder Class, Mrs. Janice Wood and Mrs. Charles Holman; C.Y.F., Joe Bell and J. D. Hill; Chi Rho and Junior Class, Mrs. Buzz Majors and Mrs. J. D. Williams; Primary Class, Mrs. Howard Bynum and Mrs. Wilford Oyler; Kindergarten, Mrs. J. L. Harder and Mrs. Bob Lindley; Nursery, Miss Rene Underwood.

Sheriff's Tobacco

Sheriff Lewis Claxton displays a large tobacco plant growing at Mitchell County Jail from seed brought from Tennessee and planted by the sheriff. The tobacco will be on display at Mitchell County Fair, the sheriff said.

R. S. Wallis Wins Trip

R. S. Wallis, 1098 Pine St. and Mrs. Wallis spent the weekend in Galveston with all expenses paid by Electro-Lux Corporation for which Wallis is local representative.

Wallis and his wife were among seven couples hosted by the company as winners in a recent three-month sales contest. Three branch managers for the company, and their wives, joined the seven-weekend trip winning couples for a stay at the Flag Ship, new hotel in Galveston.

Mrs. Henderson Hosts Carr Club

WESTBROOK — Mrs. Don Henderson was hostess to members of the Carr Home Demonstration Club, Friday.

Mrs. B. F. Ellett served as president. Bell call was answered with "My Favorite Food."

Mrs. Henderson led the song and read "Matt" 22:37-40. Mrs. John Latty voiced the prayer, gave the council report and presented the program on quick cooking meals.

Refreshments were served to Misses Ellett, Latty, T. A. Rees and the hostess.

Mrs. Tom Jackson will host the next meeting October 6 when members will fill gift bags for service men.

Funeral Held For Bailey

Funeral for James F. Bailey, 55, was conducted Tuesday afternoon in Mount Zion Baptist Church by Rev. Henry Lee, pastor of Canaan Baptist Church in Loraine.

Burial followed in Mitchell County cemetery, directed by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

Bailey, son of Mrs. Lillian Bailey, died in Sacramento, Calif. Sept. 12. He was a resident of Colorado City before moving to California.

His mother, 257 Erie St., Colorado City, three daughters, Vivian and Sandra Nell Bailey of Abilene, and Mrs. Maxine Rogers of Los Angeles; one son, Henry Arnold Bailey, also of Los Angeles; three sisters and two brothers survive.

Ruth Coffey's

CONVERSATION CORNER

LOOK around at the house where you live. What do you see?

According to Dr. Joyce Brothers, when you look at your house you are seeing yourself — a mirrored reflection of the kind of person you are.

She insists, in one of her recent syndicated columns, that any home tells what kind of people live there.

Now that could be a downright depressing state of affairs for any working wife.

After reading that little article saying that a house is gay or drab, artistic or unimaginative . . . well-ordered or slap-dash . . . just like whoever lives there . . . took a misguided tour of the house on East 9th St. Tried to view it with the practiced Dr. Brothers eye.

WELL, well, well. Deduction followed deduction. 'Course it was fairly early in the morning on an average working day with no company expected and no party planned.

But to be perfectly honest about the tour, the people who live in this little house in question are maybe the slap-dash kind.

Ash trays, the practical type, on every table and beside every chair, plus one in the kitchen and another in the bath, held an ample supply of half-smoked cigarettes.

So the people who live in this house probably burn up part of their hard-earned money for the fun of watching it go up in smoke.

FURTHERMORE, the people who live in this house had magazines.

Two magazine racks, two end tables, one desk and one bookcase bulge with magazines, some new, some old, some barely middleaged.

Whoever lives in this house reads poetry on rainy days when she should be polishing the flat silver, no doubt. At least, between bookends on her desk, is a line of slender books of verse. Right by the portable typewriter.

People who live in this house drink coffee in the living room and leave cups and saucers on the floor by the television set, too.

And they're sink-stackers of supper-plates, it would seem.

A STRANGER in the house would be sure to note that whoever lives in this little house goes in for comfort.

There's a big hassock, and a foot stool, and 49 cushions flung around in chairs and divans.

Slides and slippers sit beside the foot of the bed just as if they belong there . . . and isn't that a man's hat hanging on the poster bed?

There's fresh fruit in a blue pottery cornucopia on the buffet . . . fresh pink roses on the dining table . . . but look again . . . that everyday table cloth is plastic with a felt backing! Useful it is. Artistic it ain't . . . and that's the truth.

THERE are four radios hither and thither, counting the two transistors . . . and an upright grand piano with yellowing keys open, ready for playing . . . a stereo holding Nat King Cole and Andy Williams records. Somebody here loves music.

China reposes in the glass front cabinet . . . mismatched sets of gaudier dishes are used, apparently, for family living.

Decks of cards and a gin rummy score pad have been left on the mantel which holds the Mexican jug, an heirloom pitcher and two company ash trays. Oh yes . . . and a forgotten sling-shot.

Dear Dr. Brothers! Her house may very well look just like her. Ours looks more like Edgar A. Guest. You know . . . the "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home" kind.

Which may mean we're simply a homely lot as a family.

SEEN LATELYS included Tom Rees with a three-deck sandwich at the lunch counter . . . Murrell Blassingame and Bill Randle holding a sidewalk conference.

Mrs. J. D. Gibson was an office visitor . . . Ditto Blanche Bell, wife of Wille A. . . and Sefton Pickens.

Bob Reily's driving a new car. Guess what color? You are right. Red.

Saw Mrs. Jess Craddock sitting under the dryer . . . Talked via phone to Mary (Mrs. J. Ralph) Lee who was saying she and Ralph spent the weekend as guests of her mother, Mrs. E. L. Biggerstaff, and sisters Ethel and Kate Biggerstaff, of Childress. Mother of the Biggerstaff family celebrated her 98th birthday last February.

POST OFFICE open house proved people love a party. Serving iced punch, coffee, and homemade cookies at mid-afternoon were wives of three P. O. employees, blond Mrs. Bob Motley, Mrs. T. J. Goss II, and Mrs. Wendell Thomas.

Also greeting guests were Goss, Motley, Ed Moeser, Arlene Morris, Guy Burson, and other employees not busy at windows and mail chores . . . Lona Pritchett, Star Route carrier, who was saying that nephew Major Eddie K. Norris, husband of Fannie Bess (nee Porter) is being assigned to duty in Alaska.

Fannie Bess and the boys Chip and Dale, plan to stay in California during the school term.

AMONG guests spied at the open house, marking Postal Service Day, were the Philip Bormans . . . Mrs. E. H. Winn . . . Gus Chesney . . . Ann Randle Davis with son Randle and daughter Jill.

Mary and Ralph Lee were there, too . . . Ed Simons (Mrs. H. H.) who was saying a note from daughter Sue Panek says they're expecting snow in Denver, Colorado, where Sue and her family live.

Saw Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, F.P. (Favorite Person.) Bob and Peggy Raliff were headed for the party.

HEAR TELL our Max Shepherd, Marine gunnery sergeant, is now hospitalized in Japan for treatment of wounds received in Viet Nam. He will not be coming home until his current tour of foreign service is finished next April.

Good part of this hear-tell is that he will not be going back to Viet Nam, either. He's to finish his year in Japan when he recovers — and he's already been able to write his parents the Bud Shepherds a reassuring letter.

OFF THE CUFF — Mack Coker, his wife, and their small son Thomas Lane spent last weekend here as guests of his parents the Tom Cokers. Mack works for Roundup Rambler in East Dallas and the little family is building a new brick home at Garland where they live.

Somebody was saying that Pam Pruitt, new West Texas Fair Queen, was born here in C. City. She's daughter of the A. L. Pruitts, now of Abilene, and goes to Cooper High.

FAMILIAR FACES round about places belonged to pretty Mary Anne McCloud (Mrs. Austin) who dashed by with Delta Kappa Gamma news . . . Clem Myers on a short office visit . . . Luther Coffman on the downtown scene.

Glimpsed Mavis Nix, wife of Coach Truman . . . Flo Sparks, wife of Wann, son Bobby and blond daughter Martha . . . George and Mozelle Callender . . . Mary Fugate (Mrs. George) . . . Wynne (Mrs. Myrtle) and Mrs. Homer Jameson, Myrtle's mama, together.

Mickey Hendrix was a drop in . . . Elizabeth Elliott (Mrs. Lewis B.) too.

SALAD SUPPER

Maranatha Club Has Installation

Maranatha Bible Study Club celebrated the re-opening of their series of fall programs with a salad supper and installation ceremonies in Fellowship Hall at First Methodist Church, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Billy Wilkinson, guest, directed the installation after an invocation by Mrs. W. A. Pattillo and a devotional discussion by Mrs. B. D. Bassham.

Mrs. R. M. Reed read the club history for the club year which ended in May, accenting the theme "Windows of Heaven." Theme for the current club season will be "Precious Possessions."

Choosing two passages from John, Mrs. Wilkinson stressed the words "life" and "light" as she installed new officers.

Mrs. Charles Stevens is new president, Mrs. Pattillo, vice president Mrs. P.

H. Pace, secretary, Mrs. Wayne Shawn, treasurer, Mrs. Wilfred Fox, historian-reporter, and Mrs. Bassham, outgoing president, participated.

The installation ceremony featured references to the evergreen and to the rose as symbols of life and light. Mrs. Wilkinson read a poem, "God, Let Me Be Aware," to climax the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Stevens then made her address as new president "Let us begin this year's study of Precious Possessions with the thought that each of us is a precious possession of God's," she said. Guests attending were Mrs. Woodrow Crabtree and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Members present were Mrs. Sam Bullock, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. Elmer Martin, Mrs. Nevt Miller, Mrs. Bassham, Fox, Pattillo, Pace, Reed, Shawn, and Stevens.

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE
And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE
There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION
There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vent-ports on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. Dale Critz, 170, and Bill Donnelly, 190, are senior ends who also add strength.

Coach Nix will field about the same team which opened against Roscoe and romped up and down field for 503 yards rushing, plus 74 more passing — not counting 95 more taken away by penalties.

That means the backfield will have Randy Parker at quarterback, a junior who ran for two touchdowns and gained 109 yards in six carries against Roscoe.

Handling the main running chores, of course, will be Dan Steakley, the junior who scored 2 touchdowns and traveled 214 yards on 11 tries for an amazing 20-yard average last Friday, and Co-Captain Ralph Lindsey, the all-around workhorse who scored one touchdown and carried nine times for 65 yards against Roscoe.

Mike Maines, who scored one of the eight touchdowns against Roscoe, has been hampered by a cut arm this week, but will be ready to play Friday.

Macca Findley, senior line-backer who was thought to be lost for the season, resumed workouts this week. His knee, which caused trouble after being operated on last spring, has been responding okay, and he will be available for limited duty.

grades 7 and 8. Curriculum for each level will be in reading, language arts (spelling, writing, etc.) social science and health, arithmetic.

However, the instruction will be adapted to the enrollment, according to Supt. James McMath.

Classes will be from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday, with actual instruction beginning Sept. 28, and continuing through March 21.

All instruction will be on the ground floor at Colorado High so that elderly persons enrolled will not have to walk up steps.

"This is a program primarily for the benefit of those who desire the instruction," emphasized Assistant Supt. Earl Cook.

"However, it will be beneficial not only to adults who are parents, but to their children already in school because it will be aiding the environment and, thus, helping their own children to advance."

Cook said no interested adult would be turned away from the program, financed with federal funds through the Texas Education Agency's Division of Adult Education.

Colorado City schools is Colorado City school is its size in West Texas to develop the basic program. A special citizen's advisory group was activated last year to assist with the planning.

Although registration is set officially for Tuesday, Sept. 26, with classes beginning Thursday, Sept. 28, persons can enroll at any time during the school year. There are no regulations concerning attendance, thus a person can attend whenever possible without penalty.

Instruction, during the full fall to spring program, will total 100 hours.

CONVERSATION CORNER

LOOK around at the house where you live. What do you see?

According to Dr. Joyce Brothers, when you look at your house you are seeing yourself — a mirrored reflection of the kind of person you are.

She insists, in one of her recent syndicated columns, that any home tells what kind of people live there.

Now that could be a downright depressing state of affairs for any working wife.

After reading that little article saying that a house is gay or drab, artistic or unimaginative . . . well-ordered or slap-dash . . . just like whoever lives there . . . took a misguided tour of the house on East 9th St. Tried to view it with the practiced Dr. Brothers eye.

WELL, well, well. Deduction followed deduction.

Course it was fairly early in the morning on an average working day with no company expected and no party planned.

But to be perfectly honest about the tour, the people who live in this little house in question are maybe the slap-dash kind.

Ash trays, the practical type, on every table and beside every chair, plus one in the kitchen and another in the bath, held an ample supply of half-smoked cigarettes.

So the people who live in this house probably burn up part of their hard-earned money for the fun of watching it go up in smoke.

FURTHERMORE, the people who live in this house have two magazine racks, two end tables, one desk and one bookcase bulge with magazines, some new, some old, some barely midcleared.

Whoever lives in this house reads poetry on rainy days when she should be polishing the flat silver, no doubt. At least, between bookends on her desk, is a line of slender books of verse. Right by the portable typewriter.

People who live in this house drink coffee in the living room and leave cups and saucers on the floor by the television set, too.

And they're sink-stackers of supper plates, it would seem.

A STRANGER in the house would be sure to note that whoever lives in this little house goes in for comfort.

There's a big hassock, and a foot stool, and 49 cushions flung around in chairs and divans.

Slides and slippers sit beside the foot of the bed just as if they belong there . . . and isn't that a man's hat hanging on the poster bed?

There's fresh fruit in a blue pottery cornucopia on the buffet . . . fresh pink roses on the dining table . . . but look again . . . that everyday table cloth is plastic with a felt backing! Useful it is. Artistic it ain't . . . and that's the truth.

THERE are four radios hither and thither, counting the two transistors . . . and an upright grand piano with yellowing keys open, ready for playing . . . a stereo holding Nat King Cole and Andy Williams records. Somebody here loves music.

China reposes in the glass front cabinet . . . mismatched sets of gaudier dishes are used, apparently, for family living.

Decks of cards and a gin rummy score pad have been left on the mantel which holds the Mexican jug, an heirloom pitcher and two company ash trays. Oh yes . . . and a forgotten slingshot.

Dear Dr. Brothers! Her house may very well look just like her. Ours looks more like Edgar A. Guest. You know . . . the "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home" kind.

Which may mean we're simply a homely lot as a family.

SEEN LATELYS included Tom Rees with a three-deck sandwich at the lunch counter . . . Murrell Blassingame and Bill Randle holding a sidewalk conference.

Mrs. J. D. Gibson was an office visitor . . . Ditto Blanche Bell, wife of Willie A. . . and Sefton Pickens.

New Faces -

Have you counted the "new faces" downtown in the 100 block of East Second?

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Trewitt, new owners of Ben Franklin Store, are latest to join the group which includes Mr. and Mrs. Bill Russell at their furniture store, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanderson with their jewelry, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Haffen at The Fair.

Of course, the Russells and the Sandersons moved only a block or two to the "main drag" location after respected business careers at former locations. The Trewitts and Haffens are newcomers, definitely.

Stop by and offer them welcome . . . they are all fine assets for our town who deserve our best wishes for success.

Biggerstaff, and sisters Ethel and Kate Biggerstaff, of Childress. Mother of the Biggerstaff family celebrated her 98th birthday last February.

POST OFFICE open house proved people love a party. Serving iced punch, coffee, and homemade cookies at mid-afternoon were wives of three P. O. employees, blond Mrs. Bob Motley, Mrs. T. J. Goss II, and Mrs. Wendell Thomas.

Also greeting guests were Goss, Motley, Ed Moester, Arlene Morris, Guy Burson, and other employees not busy at windows and mail chases . . . Lona Pritchett, Star Route carrier, who was saying that nephew Major Eddie K. Norris, husband of Fannie Bess (nee Porter) is being assigned to duty in Alaska.

Fannie Bess and the boys Chip and Dale, plan to stay in California during the school term.

AMONG guests spied at the open house, marking Postal Service Day, were the Philip Bermans . . . Mrs. E. H. Winn . . . Gus Chesney . . . Ann Randle Davis with son Randle and daughter Jill.

Mary and Ralph Lee were there, too . . . Ed Simons (Mrs. H. H.) who was saying a note from daughter Sue Panek says they were expecting snow in Denver, Colorado, where Sue and her family live.

Saw Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, F.P. (Favorite Person.) Bob and Peggy Radliff were headed for the party.

HEAR TELL our Max Shepherd, Marine gunnery sergeant, is now hospitalized in Japan for treatment of wounds received in Viet Nam. He will not be coming home until his current tour of foreign service is finished next April.

Good part of this hear-tell is that he will not be going back to Viet Nam, either. He's to finish his year in Japan when he recovers . . . and he's already been able to write his parents, the Bud Shepherds a reassuring letter.

OFF THE CUFF — Mack Coker, his wife, and their small son Thomas Lane spent last weekend here as guests of his parents the Tom Cokers. Mack works for Roundup Rambler in East, Dallas and the little family is building a new brick home at Garland where they live.

Somebody was saying that Pam Pruitt, new West Texas Fair Queen, was born here in C. City. She's daughter of the A. I. Pruitts, now of Abilene, and goes to Cooper High.

FAMILIAR FACES round about places belonged to pretty Mary Anne McCloud (Mrs. Austin) who dashed by with Delta Kappa Gamma news . . . Clem Myers on a short office visit . . . Luther Coffman on the downtown scene.

Glimpsed Mavis Nix, wife of Coach Truman . . . Flo Sparks, wife of Wann, son Bobby and blond daughter Martha . . . George and Mozelle Callender . . . Mary Fugate (Mrs. George) . . . Wyone (Mrs. Myrtle) and Mrs. Homer Jameson, Myrtle's mama, together.

Mickey Hendrix was a drop in . . . Elizabeth Elliott (Mrs. Lewis B.) too.

SALAD SUPPER

Maranatha Club Has Installation

Maranatha Bible Study Club celebrated the re-opening of their series of fall programs with a salad supper and installation ceremonies in Fellowship Hall at First Methodist Church, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Billy Wilkinson, guest, directed the installation after an invocation by Mrs. W. A. Pattillo and a devotional discussion by Mrs. D. Bassham.

Mrs. R. M. Reed read the club history for the club year which ended in May, accenting the theme "Windows of Heaven." Theme for the current club season will be "Precious Possessions." Choosing two passages from John, Mrs. Wilkinson stressed the words "life" and "light" as she installed new officers.

Mrs. Charles Stevens is new president, Mrs. Pattillo, vice president; Mrs. P.

H. Pace, secretary, Mrs. Wayne Shawn, treasurer, Mrs. Wilfred Fox, historian-reporter, and Mrs. Bassham, outgoing president, parliamentarian.

The installation ceremony featured references to the evergreen and to the rose as symbols of life and light. Mrs. Wilkinson read a poem, "God, Let Me Be Awar," to climax the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Stevens then made her address as new president "Let us begin this year's study of Precious Possessions with the thought that each of us is a precious possession of God's," she said. Guests attending were Mrs. Woodrow Crabtree and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Members present were Mrs. Sam Bullock, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. Elmer Martin, Mrs. Newt Miller, Mrs. Bassham, Fox, Pattillo, Pace Reed, Shawn, and Stevens.

Brotherhood Supper Set Thursday Night

WESTBROOK — Ralph Bryant will be speaker when the Brotherhood of Baptist Church meets Thursday, September 21. Supper will be served at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship

'68s Top Secrets are here

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE

And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE

There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold-weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION

There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vent-ports on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. This way, you can leave your windows rolled up and add still more to your peace and quiet.

PROVED SAFETY FEATURES

You get the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, plus many more new features. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, and safety arm-rests that shield the door handles.

MUCH MORE THAT'S NEW

There are new roof lines, some formal and graceful, others sporty and quick. There are new instrument panels, richly designed and all controls within easy reach. There are new interiors, new vinyls, new fabrics, new colors. There are models with Hide-A-Way windshield wipers and headlights that disappear behind grilles. There are new side marker lamps, new recessed taillights. There's even a new ignition alarm buzzer that reminds you not to walk away and leave your keys in the car.

These are the newest, the most different, the most dramatically changed Chevrolets ever. And they're at your Chevrolet dealer's now. You'll thoroughly enjoy slipping behind the wheel, experiencing the smooth new handling and library-quiet ride and, more than anything, seeing and feeling the even greater quality built into every new Chevrolet for 1968.

Be smart! Be sure! Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

There's more quality and value built into Chevrolets than ever before, making every new 1968 model an even better buy!

Chevrolet's New Models On Display Here Today

Chevrolet's new line of cars for 1968 go on display for the first time today (Thursday) at Jay Adams Chevrolet with definite changes in styling personality and improvements for all model series.

Among highlights for the 41 new Chevrolet, Chevelle Camaro, Chevy II, and Corvete models are:

All new design bodies for Chevelle, Chevy II and Corvete, with introduction of two wheelbases within the Chevelle line.

A longer, more luxurious regular Chevrolet, new sportiness for Camaro and continued stress on the special features offered only by Corvair.

Important safety improvements, exhaust emission controls, and anti-theft provisions are standard equipment on all models.

Improvements in ride, handling and performance including a larger base V-8 engine for the regular Chevrolet, Chevelle and Chevy II.

Introduction of several lines of full door windows without ventpanes, hidden windshield wipers and dual level "Astro" ventilation.

Heading a list of more than 100 options and accessories is a power window door lock system, a lamp monitoring system to tell the driver if his front and rear lights are working, front disc brakes and added availability of stereo tape players.

Safety improvements range from energy-absorbing front seat backs and safety armrests positioned to shield door handles to seat belts for all passenger positions and exterior side marker lights.

The regular Chevrolet for 1968 has increased length and new front, side and rear styling reinforce the "big car" image of the car, offered in 18 models in four series on a 119-inch wheelbase.

A new front bumper has a central bar that splits the grille horizontally. Combined headlamps are introduced as an option for Corvair models. Windshield wipers hidden beneath the cowl when not in use are standard on all models. Left hand blades are articulated for increased wiping area on the driver's side.

The rear shock extends fully down to the flush-mounted bumper giving easy access to the trunk. Traditional Chevrolet taillight clusters are mounted for the first time in the new rear bumper.

Added prestige is styled into the exclusive square roofline of the Camaro Coupe. A new model — Impala Custom Coupe — offers this roofline to Impala hardtop buyers in addition to the "fastback" Impala Sport Coupe.

Door vent windows are eliminated on the Caprice Coupe. New dual level "Astro" ventilation providing continuous flow of outside air through the upper levels of the passenger compartment is standard on the Caprice Coupe, optional on other Caprice and Impala models. There is a different wood-like trim on Caprice Estate Wagons.

A full length body side molding on all Impala models features a black vinyl insert which in addition to adding distinctiveness also gives side body protection.

New luxury interiors offer both pattern cloth with vinyl and all vinyl.

Refined body mounting and other chassis improvements give a smoother, quieter ride.

The base V-8 engine is increased to 307 cubic inches, developing 200 horsepower. A 327 cubic-inch V-8 which also uses regular gasoline is introduced.

A 230 cubic-inch base six and three other V-8's up to 427 cubic inches give a horsepower range from 155 to 385. Five transmissions include Turbo Hydra-Matic which is offered in 1968 with all V-8's on top-of-the-line models.

Chevrolet offers 15 exterior colors — 12 of them new for 1968. There are up to six two-tone combinations, black or white vinyl roof options and three convertible top colors.

Chevrolet's Caprice Coupe

Chevrolet's new look for 1968 begins up front with a new grille and hood that conceals the windshield wipers. Recessed tail lights in rear bumpers and new body side lines are smart styling features as shown above on the Caprice coupe. Jay Adams Chevrolet Company puts the new '68 models on display today.

Youth Start Ecumenical Fellowship

Representative youth from the Christian, Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches met Sunday in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church and organized an Ecumenical Youth Fellowship for Colorado City.

The youth fellowship is open to all high school students and welcomes all races, colors and creeds to become a part of this ecumenical fellowship," said Rev. Weems Dykes, First Christian Church pastor.

Meetings for the Ecumenical Fellowship will be held in the Fellowship Hall of First Christian Church Sunday Sept. 24, through the month of October at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday.

Officers elected are Sammy Majors III, president; Richey Wistrand, vice president; Cindy Birdwell, secretary; Barney Brewton, treasurer; and Martha Kinnard, reporter.

A study committee was set up with Mark Majors, Stoney Stone, James Aaron and Rev. Steve Birdwell as committee members.

Sponsors who met with the group Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stone, Rev. Steve Birdwell and Rev. Dykes.

Congressman's Viewpoint

Decision Hour For Missiles

By OMAR BURLINSON
U. S. Congressman
17th District

A decision by our government of tremendous importance and far-reaching consequences, appears to be rather imminent.

Shortly, our top policy makers are to decide whether we build an anti-missile defense system or depend, as Secretary of Defense McNamara has argued, on a nuclear offensive system as a deterrent against attack. Top negotiators have been talking to Soviet representatives, trying to effect an agreement that neither will build a defensive system. The Russians have not given a flat no, but according to certain intelligence reports, are building parts of such a system at the present time.

IF UNITED STATES is to build an ABM system, its extensiveness has not been decided. As a beginning, the figure of $10 billion is mentioned as the price tag. This however, is intended to be a "thin line" barrier against possible Chinese nuclear warheads after 1970. An all-out system, built against the Soviet Union, is estimated to cost $30 billion and, like most Governmental estimates, is probably on the low side.

For many months a controversy has existed within the Defense Department as to the advisability of building a defensive barrier. Secretary McNamara has contended that America's nuclear capability is so great that it can never be crippled by a Soviet Union first attack. He argues that our capabilities are four to five times greater than the Russians and that our ability to retaliate could destroy them. The Secretary has felt that the billions for an anti-ballistic system would be money down the drain.

THE JOINT CHIEFS of Staff and other military men have contended that a defensive system is vital to our survival in the event of an attack.

It was surprising to the world that the Chinese Communists were able to explode an advanced nuclear device as early as they did. What remains for Red China to become a real threat, instead of only potentially dangerous, is their ability to develop a delivery vehicle.

Before their split with Russia, Soviet technicians had worked on the development of a booster rocket, which, it is assumed, is carried on by Red China, although in a handicapped way.

It must be assumed, however, that a delivery capability will eventually be developed. With Red China outside of any international agreement, and showing no concern for responsibility, the possibility of a threat from that direction can not be safely ignored.

THERE IS EVIDENCE that the Soviets may be developing a multi-headed missile. It is described as being capable of generating warheads at a given point to strike at five or six targets simultaneously. Thus far, we have no defense against such an attack, but only a warning system which, in theory, gives time to unleash our own weapons in retaliation.

For months, both publicly and privately, Moscow has been prodded to talk about an agreement not to construct an anti-ballistic missile system.

To complicate the matter further, aside from a provision for inspection by one side or the other, is the thought that the Russians are not interested in such an agreement as long as we continue the pressure on North Vietnam.

In talks with Russian officials, likely a part of the private conversations at Glassboro, the Soviets indicate that if the war in Vietnam is de-escalated, they may be willing to hold talks leading to agreements. From certain testimony before Committees of the Congress it is indicated that this is a factor as to whether or not the Port of Haiphong should be destroyed.

IT IS ENTIRELY possible that by the time these words are read, some indication may be given in plans to construct an ABM system. For the long-range point of view, this may be one of the most important decisions in the last decade. If such a course is decided upon, our $70 billion budget will in time be rounded out to $100 billion or more. Without it, we depend on survival of a first attack, with enough resources, to respond afterwards.

It is thought that we can not wait much longer to make a decision.

Governor Keeps 'Em Guessing

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Indecision still prevails. Nobody knows for sure whether Gov. John Connally plans to run for an unprecedented fourth term. But Capitol corridors echo with the sound of guesses and counter-guesses, predictions, arguments and wagers about it.

In any event, the decision may come earlier than the Governor indicated. Close advisers say a decision may be announced soon.

Some observers think an early decision would be a decision to step down. An announcement would be made early so that potential candidates waiting in the wings would know which way to jump. For instance, Speaker Ben Barnes, a Connally protégé, is expected to run for governor if Connally retires. Otherwise, Barnes would run for lieutenant governor.

So far, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is the only announced candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. A race between Smith, 55, and Barnes, 30 would pit the younger generation against the older. Both are conservatives.

Republicans appear to be grooming former Atty. Gen. Will Wilson for the race for governor.

There is some talk, too, that either Sen. Ralph Yarborough or Don Yarborough of Houston may get in the race. And there are those who think it possible that former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr may run.

Also mentioned as contenders for the office of lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket, in addition to Barnes, are former Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, Sen. Murray Watson of Waco and Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall.

VOTE DRIVE — Liberal Democratic coalition groups in Texas have launched a campaign headed by former Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio to register 5,000,000 state residents to vote in 1968.

Representatives of the AFL-CIO, Political Association of Spanish Speaking Organizations (PASO), Texas Liberal Democrats and Negro communities met here to kick off the drive. Spears' group will be known as the "Committee for Better Voter Participation."

Speakers will include Pat Speir, assistant director of the Department of Public Safety; Nola White, chief of the Attorney General's crime prevention division; Harris County District Attorney Carol S. Vance; Travis County Attorney Bob Smith; First Assistant Dallas County Criminal District Attorney William F. Alexander; J. C. Davis of the Attorney General's staff; Lewis Berry, executive secretary of the Sheriff's Assn.

ISD, Montgomery ISD, Natalia ISD, Southland ISD, Sunset ISD, Timpson ISD, Tolar ISD, Valley-View ISD, Waelde ISD, and Dortham ISD. Also Liberty Chapel Consolidated School District, Mereta CSD, and Votaw CSD; and Manchaca Oak Hill Rural High School District.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Connally has appointed Brownsville attorney Hector Yznaga and re-appointed J. F. Hulise of El Paso and Maurice Brooks of Abilene to the Texas Civil Judicial Council. He also named Alamo fruit and vegetable shipper John H. Ginsbach to the Tuberculosis Advisory Committee.

House Speaker Barnes has selected the following to serve on the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement: Carol Vance, Harris County District Attorney; Jack Young of Muleshoe, Texas District and County Attorney Association President; Nola White of Beaumont, Assistant Attorney General; Col. Wilson E. Speir of the Department of Public Safety; and State Bar Association President-elect Ralph Brite of San Antonio.

Mrs. Mary K. Wall, veteran assistant attorney general, has joined the staff of Secretary of State John Hill as an election law specialist. New amendments to the election code made the Secretary of State chief Texas election officer.

Attorney General Martin named Mrs. Mary Ellen Harvick as his new press aide. Mrs. Harvick has worked for the Galveston News-Tribune, the Austin American-Statesman and the San Angelo Standard-Times.

Dr. Gary E. Miller, head of the Harlingen State Adult Mental Health Clinic, is the new director of hospital development for the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

TEENAGERS THINK — A questionnaire answered by 1,200 high school youth leaders during the Fifth Annual Texas Youth Conference here revealed that:

68 percent are not afraid to be on the streets of their cities alone at night; 90 percent are not afraid to speak to strangers because of a fear of crime; 35 percent of their families keep firearms at home for protection; 55 percent feel there are two systems of justice in America — one for the privileged and one for the under-privileged; 70 percent feel the telephone companies should develop a single police number for the United States; 76 percent feel that police call boxes should be unlocked, brightly marked and designated "public emergency call boxes"; 73 percent said they would report a parked car they saw sidestepped; 73 percent favor work release programs in Correctional institutions;

COURTS SPEAK — Court of Criminal Appeals held that convicts seeking freedom under recent federal court decisions must file their petitions with district courts.

Habeas corpus petitions have been received from some 35 prisoners a month, claiming violations of their constitutional rights. Most of them are handwritten and claim improper sentencing, illegal confinement or conviction because they did not have proper legal aid.

An amendment to the Code of Criminal Procedure this year permits district courts to consider such pleas.

GENTRY HONORED — Texas Highway Department will dedicate a new roadside park in Van Zandt County on September 24. It will honor the late Grady Gentry, former congressman. He was chairman of the Texas Highway Commission for six years in the early 1940's.

Park is located two miles southwest of Van on Interstate Highway 20. Gentry was born in Van in 1895.

LAW ENFORCERS — Some 600 county attorneys, district attorneys, criminal district attorneys, county judges, judges of county courts-at-law and sheriffs from around the state will meet in Austin September 28-30 for the 17th Annual Attorney General's Law Enforcement Conference. Speakers will include Pat Speir, assistant director of the Department of Public Safety; Nola White, chief of the Attorney General's crime prevention division; Harris County District Attorney Carol S. Vance; Travis County Attorney Bob Smith; First Assistant Dallas County Criminal District Attorney William F. Alexander; J. C. Davis of the Attorney General's staff; Lewis Berry, executive secretary of the Sheriff's Assn.

Space Priority

Tower Against Cuts

By JOHN TOWER
United States Senator

This year has seen considerable discussion about the objectives and management of our Space Program. The tragic accident, in late January, in which Astronauts Grissom, White and Chaffee died in an Apollo ground test, coupled with the deficit-spending situation brought on by irresponsible federal fiscal managers, has served to rekindle vocal opposition to our space efforts.

I am not in sympathy with these space skeptics, because I believe very strongly in the value of space exploration to the continued growth and survival of the United States. And, although I have long advocated a close look at government spending with the aim of eliminating all non-essential expenditures, I have not felt — as some of my colleagues have — that our space programs should be a primary target for drastic cuts.

Not only would abandonment or curtailment of our space program make a mockery of individual sacrifices made by men like Grissom, White and Chaffee; but it would also shortchange this nation scientifically and militarily.

As you know, we have a two-sided space program — with military uses developed by the Department of Defense and peaceful uses developed by NASA. Of course, there is much overlap because equipment — a camera, for example — developed by NASA may turn out to be valuable in satisfying Defense requirements. In addition, and equally important, there is free interchange of technical information, management methods, and even people between NASA and the Defense Department.

As a member of the Armed Services Committee here in the Senate, and being concerned about the military posture of the United States, I am especially interested in assuring that the United States has the ability to operate effective defense units in outer space.

As a matter of fact, there is strong reason for believing that observation from space is the most significant development in man's space experience. Historians may look back and agree that observation satellites are among the most important machines ever created by man.

Not only can these satellites help us watch crop and forest growth, to forecast weather, to improve our maps, and to assist navigation; but they can also tell us how many missiles an enemy has. They can "see" from orbital altitudes of some 200 miles, objects as small as garbage can lids. By 1970 we can expect to be able to literally "look into" the ocean, obviously a big advantage to the fishing industry — and to the detection of enemy submarines.

In fact, it is difficult to imagine a technical development with more military importance than the ability to see into the ocean. One of the more significant surprises of recent years is that a comparison of "photographs" made in several different parts of the electromagnetic spectrum yields far more information about the situation on the ground than any single camera ever would. The ordinary camera shows small objects, but other sensors, such as infrared, complement our knowledge by showing temperature, reflectivity, and color of the objects.

Altogether these "photos" reveal a truly astounding amount of information; the type of construction materials in buildings and water content of soils, location of missile silos with grass growing over the top, the health of plants, the porosity of rock, and the contamination of water.

Another key development for tomorrow is the ability to transmit large quantities of information rapidly to the ground. In military operations today, film must be ejected from the satellite in a small reentry vehicle which in turn must be retrieved by aircraft. An obvious shortcoming is that this operation by putting equipment in the satellite to transmit the "photos," to the ground as soon as they are taken.

The Air Force's first attempts at such a system will probably be made with the Manned Orbiting Laboratory which has received a substantial increase in support this year, but will still not fly until 1969.

Orbital space stations, such as the Manned Laboratory, will provide far more information about the earth and man's activities on earth than we have ever known before. The basic value of this mass of satellite information is that it will take the guesswork out of many of man's most important activities. This capability will be worth billions of dollars as it stimulates more efficient use of resources everywhere on earth.

Militarily, equally ambitious hopes seem to be in order. Within a decade, it should be possible to keep an accurate record of not only the inventory, but the disposition of all the military forces of all nations, with this record updated several times a day.

Through the benefits I have just outlined, both military and commercial, our expenditures for space exploration are paying off. I will continue to strongly support our nation's space program.

Application for a Social Security number should be made on Form SS-5 available at local IRS and Social Security Administration offices.

Q — My income so far this year has been lower than I expected. Can I just forget about the next installment of my estimated tax or do I have to file an amended declaration?

A — If your tax liability appears to be greater or smaller than you originally estimated, an amended declaration should be filed. You will find the form for doing this printed on the bill for the third installment which is due September 15.

If you do not receive a quarterly bill, send a postcard to ask your local IRS office for a copy of Form 1040-ES (Amended).

Taxpayer's Quiz

For Your Income Tax

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I just started my first job. How many exemptions should I claim for withholding purposes? I'd rather get a refund than have more taxes to pay next year.

A — If you claim no exemptions on your withholding certificate then more will be withheld from your paycheck than if you claim one exemption for yourself.

Note that if you do not claim all the exemptions you are entitled to on the withholding certificate filed with your employer, you have not forfeited your right to claim them at a later date. You can, and should, claim all the exemptions you are entitled to on your income tax return.

Q — My cleaning woman doesn't have a Social Security number. Should I just leave that information out when I file the quarterly return on the wages I pay her?

A — No, a Social Security number is needed so that her earnings may be properly credited to her account. This will help make sure that she receives the Social Security benefits she is entitled to.

Q — My income so far this year has been lower than I expected. Can I just forget about the next installment of my estimated tax or do I have to file an amended declaration?

A — If your tax liability appears to be greater or smaller than you originally estimated, an amended declaration should be filed. You will find the form for doing this printed on the bill for the third installment which is due September 15.

If you do not receive a quarterly bill, send a postcard to ask your local IRS office for a copy of Form 1040-ES (Amended).

Oldsmobile's New Cutlass 'S'

Here is the sporty new Cutlass 'S' coupe which Oldsmobile is introducing this year with a customized choice of 12 engine-transmission combinations. New '68 Olds models are on display for the first time today at Jay Adams Chevrolet Company.

'68 Olds Debut New Models At Jay Adams

Premier showing of 1968 Oldsmobiles begins today (Thursday) in Colorado City at Jay Adams Chevrolet Company with the new cars equipped with a new power train, new front-end look for '88's and '98's, plus a changed appearance for five other series.

"We believe the new changes will provide owners additional benefits in mid-range performance, fuel economy, quietness of operation and durability," said Jay Adams.

"Of particular interest," he said, "are the two-door models in the Cutlass series ('S' Coupes). We expect this line to augment Oldsmobile's recent gains in the youth market."

The high performance 4-42 becomes the top of the F-85 line in 1968, with an extension of identity features, dual exhaust outlets discharging through rear bumper cutouts, and 9 engine-transmission combinations.

In addition to the coupes, all other Cutlass Supreme, Cutlass, and F-85 models are completely restyled for 1968. Wheelbases for 4-door sedans and station wagons have been increased to 116 inches. The vent windows are now crank operated, replacing the friction type windows on former F-85 and Cutlass models.

Important changes have also been designed into the 1968 Vista Cruiser," Adams continued, "resulting in its becoming one of the most spacious station wagons in the industry. Built on a wheelbase of 121 inches, the Vista Cruiser features 1.3" more leg room for second seat passengers, 1.3" more head room for third seat passengers."

Oldsmobile's Delmont and Delta '88's, the Delta Custom, the '98's and the Toronado have undergone substantial restyling, front and rear, including new grilles, new side moldings, and revised rear end treatment.

"A softer ride with smoother movement over bumps has been achieved in the 1968 Toronado," Adams said, "while retaining the unexcelled handling characteristics for which this car is noted."

Displacement for engines powering the F-85, Cutlass and Delmont '88 models has been increased from last year's 330 cubic inches to 350. The bigger engines, used in Oldsmobile's other '88's as well as '98's and the Toronado, are up from 425 to 455 cubic inches. The maximum torque of these engines is increased to 30 ft lbs and 40 ft lbs, respectively.

In addition to the higher driving torque of the new engines, transmissions have been re-calibrated for additional torque multiplication and drive axle ratios have been lowered. These changes result in better efficiency and lower engine operating speeds.

As an example, the '98 develops the same drive-wheel turning effort at 1600 rpm's as the comparable 1967 model at 3000 rpm's. All new Oldsmobile engines meet requirements of the 1968 Federal emission law through use of the Oldsmobile-pioneered combustion control system. This system modified for '68 was first offered by Oldsmobile as an option called Climatic Combustion Control in 1967 models. In addition to reducing air pollution, it provides faster warmup and eliminates carburetor icing.

Oldsmobile's tilt and telescope steering wheel is equipped exclusively with a new type horn ring as an added convenience. To sound the horns, the driver may squeeze any part of a continuous contact strip circling the wheel's inner diameter.

A long list of mechanical improvements includes larger diameter wheel cylinders for better overall brake effectiveness an advance in F-85, '88 and '98 models. On the Toronado, a tandem power booster increases the effectiveness and balance in braking system.

Other improvements in all 1968 Oldsmobiles include big increases in windshield wiper coverage area and more fluid released per pulse by the windshield washer system.

A new convoluted fuel tank filler neck will bend and collapse, thus preventing fuel leaks due to rupture of the neck of the tank in case of a rear-end collision.

Other safety-related improvements include redesigned armrests, lower profile control knobs and door handles, wider vision outside rear view mirrors, shift levers built to bend upon impact, and the elimination of metal in the backs of seats.

County Federation Meet Set Tuesday

Mitchell County Federation of Women's Clubs will stage its first fall meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in Hesperian Room, county library building.

Hesperian Daughters Study Club will present the program. County Federation is made up of nine Colorado City study clubs and one study club in Loraine. Mrs. J. W. Watson is Federation president.

Member organizations are the Hesperian Club, 1921 Study Club, Hesperian Daughters, Zeta Delta, Zetagathian, Self Culture, Beta Sigma Phi, Maramatha, 1949 Study Club, and Atheneum Study Club, Loraine.

In addition to the president, Mrs. Watson, Federation officers are Mrs. Gwan Strange, first vice president, Mrs. Joe Weaver, second vice president, Mrs. Lily Bennett, recording secretary Mrs. Hubert Bassinger, corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. H. Jakes, treasurer, Mrs. Doyle Hoster, parliamentarian, Mrs. Don Fite, publicity chairman.

Theme for the year 1967-68 will be "The Road of Greatest Promise Is in Peaceful Progress." New year books are ready for distribution.

Organized in 1930, Mitchell County Federation of Women's Clubs was the original force behind the move for a public library for Mitchell County.

Meetings are held each fourth Tuesday with the 10 member clubs sending delegates each month.

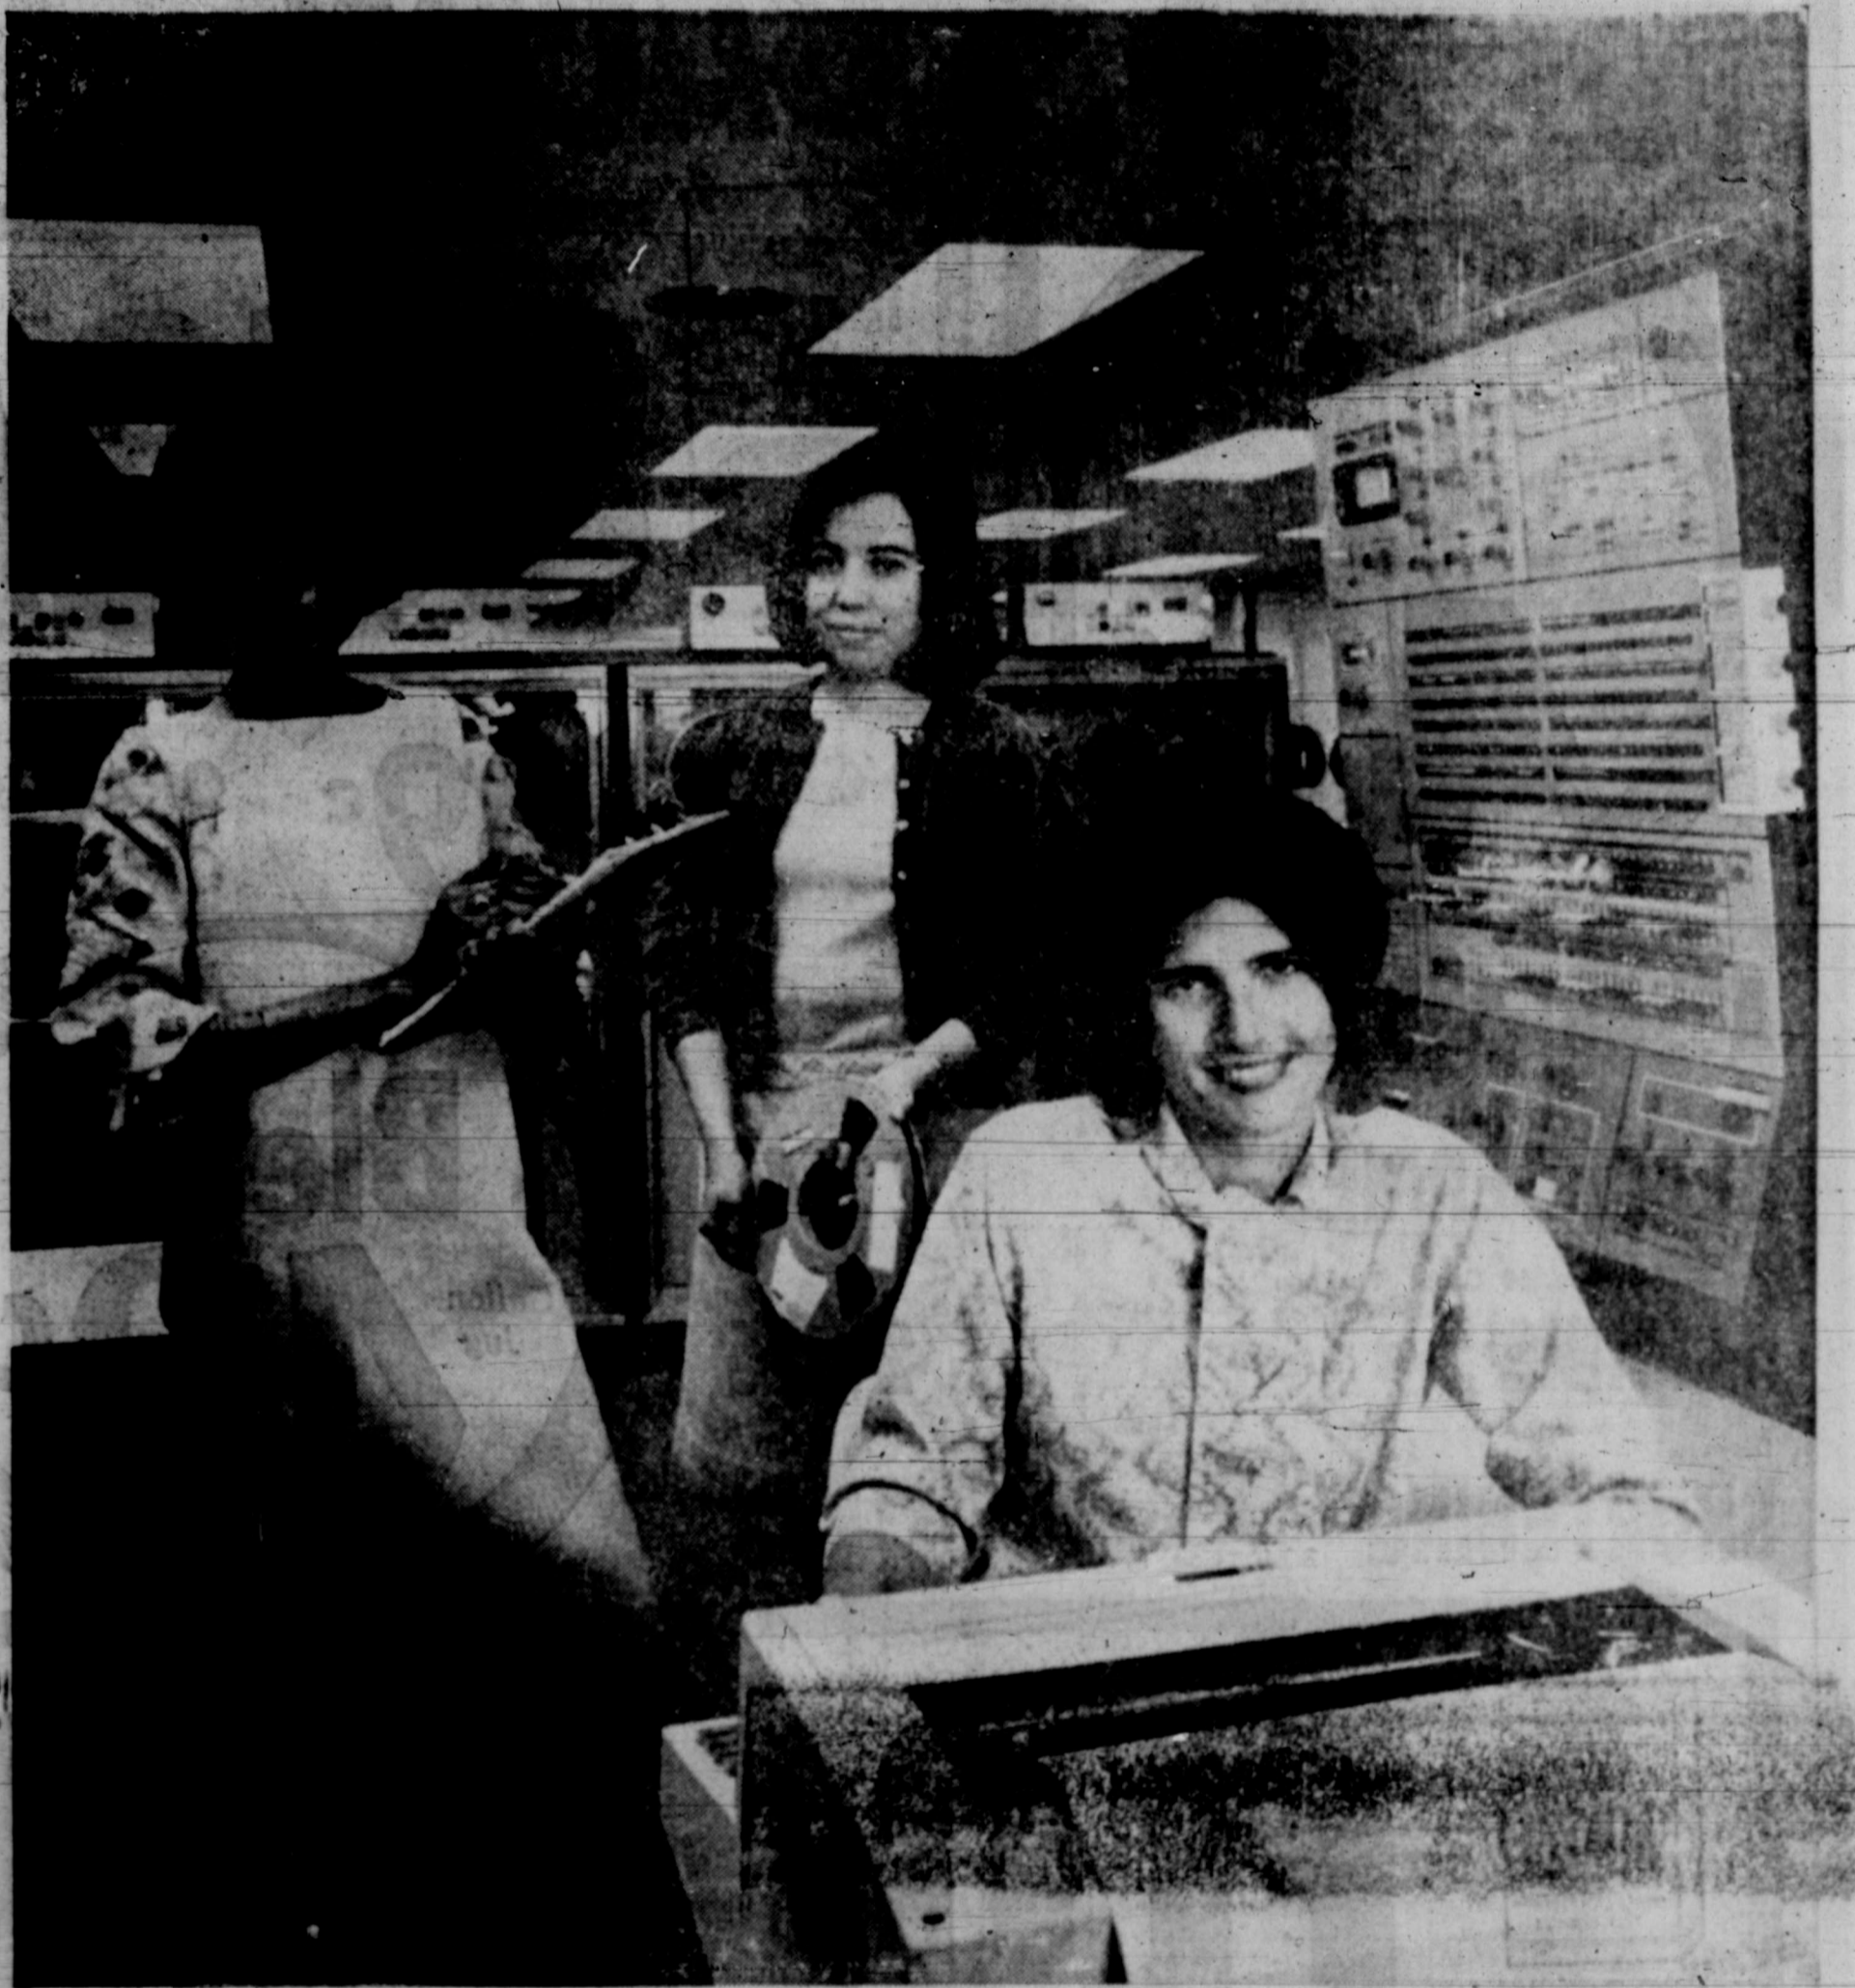

China Grove Visitors

Mrs. Billy Harlow of Colorado City was visited Thursday by Mrs. Hollis Mize Jr. of China Grove.

More Medals For Pfc Tiger Davis

Mr. and Mrs. George E. (Buster) Davis were presented two additional medals Thursday, posthumously awarded their son Pfc. Robert (Tiger) Davis who lost his life in Viet Nam combat. Colonel Phillip J. Moore, center, presented the Republic of Viet Nam medal and the American Gallantry Medal with Palm to the soldier's parents, left and right.

100,000 Mathematicians

Sandra Nelson, Judy McCure, and Carolyn Gindele are responsible for more calculations in a minute than Pythagoras made in a lifetime.

These ladies are mathematicians for El Paso Natural Gas Company. They design "programs" to make maximum use of the high potentials of modern electronic computers. Their programs make it possible for the computers, in a few minutes, to complete the mathematics of designing a pipeline system or calculate the taxes for communities, states, and the federal government or to predict the volumes of gas to be needed in the future. By using these computers to the fullest, Sandra, Judy, and Carolyn become the equivalent of, say, 100,000 mathematicians of a generation ago.

These ladies supply the brainpower, the computers do the mechanical work. Sandra, Judy, and Carolyn's great competence — along with that of the other 5,400 employees of El Paso Natural Gas Company whose skills range from accounting through geology to mathematics — are among the reasons that the West has assured supplies of natural gas.
