Wet Candidates Win Ohio Votes

Driver Smokes As His Car Turns Flip

DALLAS, May 11 (AP)—A 25-foot drop of a roadster from a bridge over a creek yesterday did not knock a cigar from the teeth of the driver.

The automobile plunged off the bridge after colliding with another car, landed upside down, turned a flip, and then righted itself in the creek bed. Police who did not learn the driver's name, were told he was still puffing at his cigar when he stepped from the car.

TRAYLOR BOOM IS REVIVED

MAYOR ANTON CERMAK SAYS BANKER TO BE SECOND CHOICE

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 11—Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago, a leader of Illinois Democrats, has revived the "Traylor-for-President" boom which Banker Melvin A. Traylor himself hushed to a whisper a few months ago.

Cermak announced yesterday he believed the state's entire delegation of 58 would back the internationally-known financier as its second choice for the Democratic presidential nomination after doing all it could to support Illinois' favorite son, United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis, in early balloting at the national convention.

As for the prediction of State Democratic Chairman Thomas F. Donovan that "after a ballot or two" Gov. Roosevelt would receive most of the Illinois delegate votes should he show "real strength," Cermak had this to say:

"I am very much surprised. I don't know how all the delegates feel about it and neither does Donovan. I don't know how many ballots will be cast for Lewis and neither does Donovan. But if there is a switch I think it will be for Melvin Traylor."

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SUPPORTED GROUP IS DEFEATED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 11—Decisive victories for anti-prohibition candidates in Ohio was indicated today by partly complete returns of yesterday's primary election.

Most of the candidates endorsed by the hitherto politically powerful Anti-Saloon league apparently were defeated by wide margins.

Held Wet Victory

Although there was no direct vote on the prohibition issue, the primary results were interpreted by anti-prohibition forces as indicating sentiment in Ohio had turned toward the moist side.

Most of the wet-dry fight was on the Republican ticket, where David S. Ingalls apparently was nominated for governor and Gilbert Bettman seemingly nominated for U. S. senator.

Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, and Bettman, the Ohio attorney general, campaigned on platforms for liquor law repeal. Their Republican opponents were outspoken drys. Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, a dry, was the only candidate with a chance to overcome Ingalls' lead.

Bulkley Unopposed

Senator Robert J. Bulkley, a wet, was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for re-election, and Governor George White, favoring a prohibition referendum, and also seeking the Democratic nomination for re-election, had an easy victory over his opponent, Galen Starr Ross, Columbus lecturer.

In the primary's presidential contests, President Hoover seemed to have made a clean sweep of the 58 Republican delegates, while Gov. George White looked the certain winner of all but one of the 56 Democratic delegates.

ALLRED TO OFFER MORE TESTIMONY

AUSTIN, May 11. (AP)—Attorney General James V. Allred planned to continue introduction today of documentary evidence in support of his allegation that fifteen oil companies and two petroleum associations conspired to violate Texas anti-trust laws through acceptance of a code of practices for marketing refined petroleum products.

Numerous documents, identified by R. C. Holmes of New York, president of the Texas company, one of the defendants, were offered yesterday. The documents and Holmes' testimony will be used in trial of Allred's suit in an effort to oust the defendants from Texas and collect penalties aggregating $17,500,000.

LIBERALS ARE TO DOMINATE DELEGATES

LARGE COUNTIES VOTE FOR REFERENDUM OR DRY LAW REPEAL

By The Associated Press

Most county Democratic conventions in Texas yesterday asked their delegates at succeeding conventions to work for Speaker John N. Garner for president "first, last and all the time." However, delegates at several of the meetings approved Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York as second choice.

Liberals will dominate the three largest delegations to the state conventions at Houston May 24, those from Harris, Dallas and Bexar counties. The Harris and Bexar county conventions adopted resolutions demanding repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and the Dallas county Democrats omitted from the list of delegates the name of Thomas B. Love, ultra-dry who led the state revolt against Alfred E. Smith in 1928.

Referendum Asked

The Galveston and El Paso county conventions also asked a referendum on the prohibition amendment or its repeal and the charge was made that the Travis county convention was in the control of the wets as A. J. Wirtz, former state senator, was indorsed for national committeeman. A referendum resolution was tabled at Waco and many of the smaller counties' Democrats declared against any change in the prohibition laws.

Roosevelt forces controlled the El Paso convention. The McLennan county Democrats declared for Garner but they asked for the election of Archie Price of Waco, state secretary of the Roosevelt organization, as a delegate to the national convention. The Limestone county convention voted two to one to instruct for Governor Roosevelt as a second choice.

Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Corpus Christi was indorsed for re-

AKRON MOORS IN CALIFORNIA

GIANT AIRSHIP SAFE AFTER CONQUERING STORMS IN TEXAS

By The Associated Press

CAMP KEARNEY, Calif., May 11—The world's largest airship, U. S. S. Akron, drifted out of a foggy sky for an unscheduled mooring here at 9:40 a. m. (P.S.T.) today, three days out on a transcontinental journey.

The great sky liner battled the elements for a day in Texas and was forced to an emergency landing at the old army encampment here, just north of San Diego, instead of completing the projected non-stop cruise to its western base, Sunnyvale, south of San Francisco.

Arrangements were made here to put on 2500 gallons of fuel.

Tech Physics Show Will Open Thursday

Laboratory equipment and instruments will be displayed at an annual physics show Thursday and Friday in rooms 116 and 117 of the chemistry building at Texas Technological college. The exhibition will be similar to one given last year in connection with a science show.

The displays, described as "spectacular" in some instances, will be educational, and about an hour will be required to go through. The show will begin at 7 o'clock Thursday night, closing at 10, and will continue from 7 to 10 o'clock Friday night.

BONUS SPONSORS CHANGE TACTICS

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—A final attempt was launched today to obtain a house vote at this session on legislation to cash the soldiers' bonus certificates.

Representative Patman of Texas and other bonus sponsors besought the rules committee, which maps the house program, to approve a resolution giving the bonus bill a place on the calendar. There was no great chance of their succeeding but the action might make it possible for them to employ a discharge petition to force out the bonus bill.

BOND CONVICTION REVERSED TODAY

AUSTIN, May 11 (AP)—A 50-year penitentiary sentence of J. A. Bond, in Terry county, for shooting to death J. C. White at Brownfield, April 5, 1931, was reversed and remanded by the state court of criminal appeals here today.

The slaying of White, a grocer, in a cafe, grew out of marriage of a son of Bond and a daughter of White, and the grocer's subsequent allegation that the Bond youth had mistreated his daughter, testimony indicated. Bonds testified White had threatened to kill him. A jury returned the verdict about 16 hours after it had received the case.

NEW TARIFF FACES VETO

JURIST CREDITS EXISTING CONDITIONS WITH SAVING NUMEROUS MATRIMONIAL BARKS FROM GROUNDING IN DIVORCES

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 11—Existing conditions were credited today with saving about 22 per cent of matrimonial barks that would otherwise have been grounded during the last year in the divorce court.

The authority for this is Judge Joseph Sabath, who, in his 16 years on the bench, has heard nearly 50,000 divorce cases—a world record.

The human team pulls with less friction when the going is a bit hard, he said.

The judge—kindly, human, good humored and slightly rotund, with graying hair that accentuated his rudy cheeks—discussed the situation in his private chambers, his "reconciliation room" which he calls his retreat.

The fundamental reason, the judge said, for the decreased divorce rate is the shortage of ready money.

"There is not so much money or time now for pleasure-stepping. When there was, the husband was inclined to get dissatisfied with his wife and the wife with her husband. Now they have more serious things to consider, and many pleasure-loving couples today are finding real happiness for the first time by their own fireside."

Furthermore, the judge said, there are not as many "gin-marriages," as he calls quick or over-night weddings, in which the couples know little or nothing about each other.

"People are inclined to think now before they marry," he said.

ARMY OPPOSES ECONOMY AX

WAR DEPARTMENT TO PRESENT A COUNTER SAVINGS PLAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Striving mightily to save the army's commissioned force and the various civilian summer training camp activities from the congressional economy ax, the war department today drafted a counter offer of some $25,000,000 in savings.

The appropriation bill for the army now before the house plans to reduce the number of officers from 12,000 to 10,000 and suspend summer training camps for one year. Secretary Hurley and General Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff, yesterday went before the house military committee to lay down unalterable opposition to these cuts. They gave their consent to other economies amounting to about $9,400,000 and then set to drafting a new plan of savings.

Delay Proposed

Department officials said Hurley would propose a $10,000,000 postponement in flood control work and a further $5,600,000 cut in rations, clothing and the motorization program of the army.

Although officers said the flood control postponement would not be dangerous, nor would it interfere with completion of the program, opposition is likely to be strong from the regions affected. The motorization cut also may be in for a fight as one of the chief arguments advanced for the reduction in number of officers is that the army at present is overmanned and undermechanized.

HIGHER WHEAT PRICES SEEN

AGRICULTURE REPORT PLACES PRODUCTION BELOW LAST YEAR

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11—Prospects for higher wheat prices became brighter today with the agriculture department's second report on winter production placing it at 440,781,000 bushels against 787,465,000 for last year.

Continued unfavorable growing conditions brought the indicated harvest down 18,000,000 bushels from the April 1 forecast of 458,000,000. The May 1 condition was 75.1 per cent of normal.

The prospective total 1932 crop, both winter and spring, now is between 650,000,000 and 700,000,000 bushels. Based on average yields, the spring crop has been estimated at about 250,000,000 but the figure is not expected to be borne out as farmers have not followed their intions to plant.

Such a reduction from the 1932 harvest of 892,000 bushels is regarded as one of the brightest spots in the world wheat situation at the present time.

The condition of winter wheat was reported by the department yesterday as being below average in nearly all sections except in the area extending from Illinois east and northeast. The decline in prospects since April 1 was largely due to unfavorable conditions in the great plains region.

James Shaw Opposes Glass Banking Bill

AUSTIN, May 11 (AP)—James Shaw, Texas state banking commissioner, told the Texas State Bankers' association today that if congress passed the Glass bill, authorizing branch banks of federal reserve members, state banking systems would be irreparably injured.

"If this law passes it will be a serious if not a death blow to the great state banking system of this country, and we will witness a further concentration of power in the federal government," Shaw said.

Picturesque Texas Ranger Head Dies

SAN ANTONIO, May 11 (AP)—Captain Asa Light Townsend, member of the picturesque Texas rangers, died here last night in a room at a hotel.

Death came only a few hours after he and Ranger W. A. Dial had arrived from Wharton and Louise, where they had been working on an extortion case. The cause was believed to have been heart trouble, which developed after the captain had spent many hours in the open Saturday and Sunday investigating the case, according to Ranger Dial who said he and his superior officer were bitten by mosquitoes and other insects. He said he believed the exposure was indirectly responsible for his chief's death.

TWELVE AMERICAN WOMEN ARE TO BE PRESENTED AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE

By The Associated Press

LONDON, May 11—Twelve American women will stand for one brief moment before Britain's king and queen tonight and hear the softly spoken words of presentation to royalty.

They will then curtsey in solemn "thank you" for the regal favor and depart, tired, and perhaps wondering a bit, to their hotels.

The moment of glory will be the climax of weeks of excitement and preparation—hours spent at dressmakers, the trip from America, long lessons in court etiquette and hours spent in a queue of limousines in the mall awaiting their turn to enter the palace.

The American women who will meet King George and Queen Mary will be just individuals in a crowd of hundreds of presentees of all nations tonight and tomorrow night. Probably no other court in the world, however, matches those held at Buckingham palace by the British monarchs.

Besides Mrs. David K. E. Bruce, daughter of Ambassador Mellon, tonight's presentees include Miss Mary Elizabeth Beebe of Wallingford, Pa.; Miss Helen Bryan, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Eugene H. Dooman, wife of the first secretary at the American embassy; Mrs. David E. Finley, Washington, D. C.; Miss Hilda Foster, Boston; Miss Estelle Frelinghuysen, daughter of former Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen of New Jersey; Miss Alice Lovering, Boston; Miss Isobel McCreery, San Francisco; Miss Natica Nast, New York; Mrs. Cortlandt Parker, Princeton, N. J., and Mrs. William T. Pigott, Helena, Montana.

PRESIDENT TO BLUE PENCIL DEMO BILL

ACTION NECESSARY BY THURSDAY OR TARIFF BECOMES A LAW

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11—A carefully planted and nurtured bit of Democratic campaign material was looked to for its first blossom today.

It was the new tariff bill, drafted and passed through both congress with deliberate expectation of a veto by President Hoover. Received at the White House nine days ago, it was sent around to cabinet members for inspection and looked over by the president himself. He set then to drafting his message of disapproval. This must be submitted to the congress by tomorrow at the latest to prevent the bill from becoming law.

Opposed by GOP

The measure does several things opposed by the administration and contrary to Republican principles. Among them it restores to congress the power now held by the president to pass on tariff commission changes in rates. It directs the calling of an international conference to consider bringing down all tariff walls and in other ways alters existing practice.

Democratic leaders sponsoring it considered the measure would serve as an indication of the party attitude on the tariff, and would be a quasi-promise of what would be done if Democrats seize the national administration in the November elections.

There have been no signs so far of any serious effort to try overriding the presidential disapproval.

TWO MEN BLOWN TO BITS TODAY BY NITRO BLAST

SAN ANGELO, May 11. (AP)—Two men, whose identity was not immediately established definitely, were blown to bits in the explosion this morning of a truck load of nitroglycerine eight miles north of Monahans, opposite the O'Brien oil field in Ward county.

W. K. Judy of Tulsa, manager of the Osage Torpedo Co., and a man named Scoffield were reported aboard the truck when it left Wichita Falls yesterday, and were believed to have been the victims. Part of a man's hand was the largest portion of either of the bodies recovered that might lead to identification. A huge hole was blown in the paving. No other cars were reported near at the time.

The truck was delivering 500 quarts of nitroglycerine from the Osage Torpedo Co.'s plant at Pawhuska, Okla., to the Winkler county magazine of the Western Torpedo Co. of San Angelo.

COMMITTEE AT WORK ON NEW PROPOSALS

SENATE GROUP GIVEN WARNING OF SAVING BUDGET REQUIRES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Refurnished and fattened again, the governmental economy program that was so maltreated by the house was presented by President Hoover today to a special senate economy committee.

The committee, in the face of an ominous warning from the senate finance committee that $230,000,000 must be saved if the budget is to be balanced in 1933, set immediately to work rounding the details of the economy program into legislative form.

Program Discussed

President Hoover, at a breakfast conference discussed with the committee the $300,000,000 saving program that he gave the house several weeks ago. The house so butchered the program that only an estimated saving of $42,000,000 remained when the measure was passed.

The warning by the senate finance committee came in its report to the senate of the $1,010,000,000 revenue bill. That group insisted that the money necessary to balance the budget must be raised, defended the rates in the bill it presented, but called for governmental economies if revenues were to total expenditures in 1933.

ROBINSON OFFERS DEMOCRATIC PLAN

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—A Democratic plan for economic recovery calling for a $2,000,000,000 public works program and $300,000,000 for loans to states and municipalities for relief of suffering resulting from unemployment was presented to the senate today by Senator Robinson, the party leader.

The financing would be by means of bond issues.

While the senate listened to him, Senator Davis, (R., Pa.), proposed legislation to authorize the reconstruction corporation to loan $500,000,000 to cities and states for unemployment relief.

In presenting the program to an intent senate, the Democratic leader placed foremost in importance the balancing of the federal budget.

Carnival Dance Is Last For This Season For Members Of Lubbock Dancing Club

Sixty-Five Couples Are At Club Party

Lubbock Dancing club members danced the last dance of the season Tuesday evening at Hotel Lubbock.

It was a carnival occasion. Booths about the ball room helped with the bazaar air and guests purchased their red lemonade, popcorn and other delicacies at the stands with the tops for milk bottles. This "money" was distributed to the women in bags as the guests arrived. During the evening they paid men for dances. About sixty-five couples were in attendance.

Red, white and blue bunting draped about the booths and orchestra platform, balloons and bells added to the carnival air in the ballroom. Floyd Bowen was "carnival manager."

Hosts were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Winn, Tom West, Walker Stanton, Winfield Watkins, jr., Carl Patton, Wesley Read, Marlis Ratliff and W. B. Powell.

PROFIT IN OIL BEING SHOWN

MIDCONTINENT FIRMS ARE ON THE BLACK SIDE OF LEDGER

TULSA, Okla., May 11. (AP)—Oil companies operating in the midcontinent area have marched from the red side of the ledger to the black and are now making a profit, some of them for the first time in twelve to fourteen months.

Only those firms of consequence which do not have headquarters here or whose spokesmen could not be reached are missing from the list of large midcontinent companies that are once more making money, a survey showed.

Companies reporting are: Continental Oil company, of Ponca City; Consolidated Oil corporation (Prairie-Sinclair), Barnsdall Oil corporation; midcontinent Petroleum corporation, Skelly Oil company, Phillips Petroleum company of Bartlesville, and the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company, also of Bartlesville, one of the Cities Service group.

Without exception these companies attributed the improved condition to these factors:

First:

The recent advances in prices of crude oil and refined products.

Second, the lessons in economy taught by the lean months of the past.

Continental oil reported that for the first time in fourteen months a profit was being shown.

Midcontinent Petroleum corporation reported a like healthy improvement.

E. B. Reeser of Barnsdall said that profits first appeared on his company's books in March.

W. G. Skelly and C. C. Herndon of Skelly Oil said their firm showed a profit in March for the first time in twelve months and that current conditions indicated a profit for May.

Daniel L. Pierce, speaking for Harry F. Sinclair of Consolidated Oil, specifically mentioned the stringent economies practiced by all the oil companies at this time.

Frank Phillips, president of Phillips Petroleum, joined the chorus, but warned, as did Skelly, Herndon and Reeser, that the time is not ripe for an orgy of rejoicing.

Companies having only divisional offices here, where statements were not available, include Magnolia Petroleum of Dallas; Texas corporation of Houston; Pure Oil company of Chicago; Sun Oil, of Philadelphia and Deep Rock Oil corporation, subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric company, Chicago.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE

When we compare the manner in which our children are treated at school with the way children were treated when Betsy Griscom, later Betsy Ross, attended school we realize that adult attitude toward children has very greatly changed.

Edwin S. Parry, a lineal descendant of Betsy Ross, in his "Betsy Ross, Quaker Rebel," quotes from a documentary account of the way children were flogged in the school attended by Betsy Griscom:

"He, Todd, dressed after the plainest manner of Friends, but of the richest material, with looped cocked hat, was a man of about 60 years, square built and well sustained by bone and muscle.

"After an hour, maybe, of quiet time, everything going smoothly on—no sound but from the master's voice, while hearing the one standing near him—a dead calm—when suddenly a brisk slap on the ear or face for something or nothing, gave dreadful note that an eruption of the lava was about to take place. The chair would be quickly thrust on one side, when, with sudden grip, he was to be seen dragging his struggling suppliant to the flogging ground in the center of the room. Having placed his foot upon the end of a bench, he then, with a patent jerk, peculiar to himself, would have the boy completely horsed across his knee, with his left elbow on the back of his neck, to keep him squarely on. In the hurry of the moment, he would bring his long pen with him, gripped between his strong teeth, causing the both ends to descend to a parallel with his chin, and adding much to the terror of the scene.

"Having his victim thus completely at command, and all useless drapery drawn up to a bunch above the waistband then to the 'staring crew' would be exhibited the dexterity of master and strap. By long practice he had arrived at such perfection in the exercise, that, moving in quick time, the 15 inches of bridle rein (alias strap) would be seen, after every cut, elevated like a flail, leaving on the place beneath a fiery red streak at every slash. It was customary with him to address the sufferer at intervals, 'Does it hurt?' (O! yes, master, O! don't, master!) 'Then I'll make it hurt thee more. I'll make they flesh creep. Thou shan't want a warming pan tonight—intolerable being! Nothing in nature is able to prevail upon thee but a strap.'"

Of course, Betsy may have been too wise to get a whipping. She hardly was too good, certainly she was not a conformist, for later she defied her parents and the Quaker church to marry John Ross, the son of an Episcopalian clergyman. Maybe Betsy escaped with a few boxings of her ears. Incidentally, her husband, in charge of the militia guarding the Philadelphia wharf, was destroyed by a gunpowder explosion. It was Betsy Ross, the widow, upon whom General George Washington called, according to the legend, to put together the first banner of Stars and Stripes.

You Can Bank On Checks! Paris Endorses Novel Blouses

Gingham checks have realized their social ambitions this spring. Nothing is smarter for some of the new Paris suits than the unusual little blouses couturiers have made from high grade American cotton ginghams, checked.

Short puffed sleeves, large white buttons, sewed on with blue thread, a cute new stand-offish collar and a neat collar line all add distinction to this blue and white checked gingham blouse that Lyolene makes for a trig blue suit for spring.

The suit itself, as a matter of fact, is tailored simplicity personified. Just neat, nice lines, with the skirt and coat also trimmed with the white buttons. It's the checked blouse that gives it its originality.

For another navy blue suit, the same dressmaker, uses fine red and white checked gingham for the blouse.

This blouse is something else again. It is tailored as the finest silk would be tailored, with a little front panel that buttons over white pearl buttons in double points. Then there is a separate Ascot scarf, also with pointed ends that can be worn with one end outside the coat and one in or can be tied in a bow under the chin, according to one's mood.

She has continued her music in addition to her other work, studying thus under a heavy schedule which makes her accomplishment all the more remarkable."

3 Men In 5 Don't Relish The Coffee They Get At Home

Due To One Simple Fact About Coffee Not One Woman In 50 Knows . .

Say Domestic Science Experts

Because Almost 70 Per Cent Of All Coffee Sold Is The Same Kind . . . Grown In The Same Country . . . Having The Same Taste

For A Real Change, Try Coffee From A Different Producing Country, Rare Mountain Coffees With Twice The Richness And Flavor

All Alike
20 Different Brands but all coffee from one producing country.

ARE you tired of changing "brands" and ways of making coffee, only to hear the same old complaints?

The real trouble is you have probably been using the same kind of coffee all the time, no matter how many different brands you have bought. Because almost 70 per cent of all coffees sold is grown in one country where nature gives it all one common flavor. It's just put up in different packages, that's all.

For a real change, you have only to try a different kind of coffee, from a different producing country. And that's why thousands of women are turning to Folger's.

Mountain Coffees

Down along the West Coast of Central America, we procure coffees utterly different in flavor and richness than any you have ever tasted before. World experts concede that these rare mountain coffees are not duplicated anywhere else.

Few people in a lifetime ever have a chance to enjoy these coffees because the supply is so limited. Less than one pound in 20 comes from these tiny regions. That's why we believe your first taste will be a revelation.

For a Real Change

Try Rare Coffees from a different region—The West Coast of Central America.

Economical, Too

You will find these rare mountain coffees not only delicious but thrifty. For their extra richness makes them go so much further. They are packed in the latest type of key-opening vacuum tins to preserve all their rare flavor right to your coffee pot.

Try At Our Risk

Just go to your grocer and buy a pound of Folger's. Drink it tomorrow morning. Next morning serve the coffee you have been using. The third morning serve Folger's again. Then choose between them.

If, for any reason, you decide against Folger's, your grocer will refund your money. We'll pay him. That's fair, isn't it?

LUBBOCK AND SOUTH PLAINS DEMOCRATS FAVOR JOHN GARNER

DELEGATES TO CONVENTIONS FOR TEXAN

MOVEMENT TO CHOOSE SECOND CHOICE IS DEFEATED HERE

John Garner, speaker of the house and one of the favorites for the Democratic presidential nomination, had the unqualified support of Lubbock county Democrats pledged as a unit in the state convention at Houston, May 24 and the national convention at Chicago in June. In choosing the Texan as its only preference, the county convention Tuesday thrust aside any possible movement for a second choice.

Besides making Garner the only choice of the convention, delegates to the state convention were instructed to vote as a unit "at any and all times and all issues coming up for consideration." The convention went on record approving Gen.

THE DELEGATES

W. H. Bledsoe, W. O. Stevens, John Dalrymple, Chas. A. Guy, J. B. Maxey, Roscoe Wilson, W. A. Jackson, J. E. Vickers, J. H. Goodman, J. K. Wester, all of Lubbock and J. H. Brewer and R. A. Baldwin of Slaton.

John A. Hulen as delegate at large from Texas to the national convention and Dr. W. A. Jackson of Lubbock and Dan Cook of Plainview as delegates to the national session.

Flare-Up Not Seen

A flare-up over a second choice, that of Franklin Roosevelt of New York, had been expected in the convention and as the session opened shortly after 2 o'clock there was some talk but the matter never got outside the resolutions committee room. The committee's resolution resolving that in all conventions to which the delegates of this convention shall be accredited, that they be instructed to vote for him for the nominee so long as his name may be before such conventions, and that said delegates be instructed to use their best endeavors to secure the nomination for this Democratic son of Texas for this high and exalted position, was passed unanimously.

J. K. Wester, county chairman, was chosen permanent chairman of the convention and C. W. Ratliff, named as secretary.

Dupree Is Keynoter

Following the appointment of the resolutions and nominations committees, Mr. Wester called on Geo. Dupree, local attorney, for a talk, his words being classed as the 'keynote' address.

"I believe the Democrats of Lubbock county have harmonized," Mr. Wester said. "I think that every man fully realized that we made, or rather you made a mistake four years ago in not electing Al Smith to the presidency. Now let's get behind the party and put a Democrat in office."

Time To Unite

"I hope to never see the time again when any Republican will carry an election in this grand old Lone Star state of ours," he said. "It seems that the time has come when you and I must unite, forget our petty jealousies, our isms and our selfishness and unite as one man for Democracy. It's time for us to unite and say to the country that Texas will stand for those principles which will perpetuate my home and yours, your business and mine. Let us give every ounce of energy to the fact that a Democrat must be seated in the White House. If you're not a true Democrat, then get out, you're either one or you are not and God save us from what happened four years ago. I hold the supremest contempt for the man who wants to stay under the flag of Democracy and vote something else."

As he concluded his remarks, Chairman Wester again took the floor and made a resounding attack on Tom Love, declaring that the Dallas man had been trying to split the state party too long and that it was time the majority had a say so in it's affairs.

Slight Clash

There was a slight clash between W. H. Bledsoe and W. W. Campbell over the endorsement of Gen. Hulen's nomination as a delegate at large but after a few remarks, Mr. Campbell withdrew his objection.

In the resolutions approved by the convention was one endorsing Lubbock's invitation for the state convention in September. Full support toward the move will be given.

The administrations of Senators Tom Connally and Morris Sheppard of Texas, Congressman Marvin Jones and National Committeeman Jed C. Adams were commended by the convention in resolutions passed. Adams was endorsed again as a member of the national Democratic executive committee from Texas.

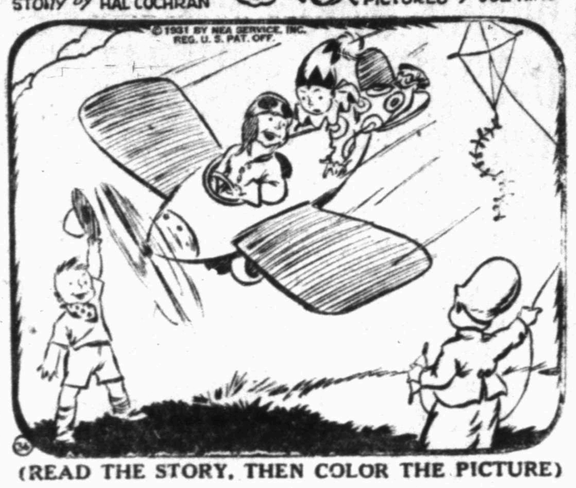

Alternates Selected

Alternate delegates selected for the Houston convention were: Mrs. W. H. Bledsoe, George Eubanks, W. B. Price, Mrs. Chas. A. Guy, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, C. W. Ratliff, W. W. Campbell, A. M. Hill, L. C. Ellis, H. C. Pender, all of Lubbock; T. M. George, Dr. S. H. Adams and W. P. Florence, all of Slaton; Douglas Pounds of Acuff; Bob Crump of Shallowater and W. F. Pruitt of Idalou.

Resolutions of the convention were drawn up by a committee composed of W. H. Bledsoe, chairman, J. H. Brewer, W. A. Jackson, G. M. Eubank and J. H. Goodman. The committee selecting the delegates was: R. A. Baldwin, chairman, W. O. Stevens, J. L. Ratliff, A. Judd and J. E. Vickers.

The TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES by JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The roller skates made lots of fun and were a treat for everyone. The Tinymites were circling 'round and going rather fast.

As old man play looked on, he cried, "Be careful, now, that you don't slide. If anybody takes a flop, the pleasure will not last.

"I've oiled those skates up very well. That's why they seem to run so swell. You Tinies sure know how to skate. Have you tried it before?"

"Oh, sure!" cried Duncy, with a grin. "Just watch me, now, and I'll begin to do a flock of clever tricks right out here on the floor."

* * *

The other Tinies stood aside while funny little Duncy tried some of the tricks he thought he knew. However, things went wrong.

He went so fast he couldn't stop and suddenly he took a flop. Cried Windy, "What a funny trick! It didn't take you long."

Then old man play cried, "That's enough. I fear that, if you get too rough, you'll hurt yourself." And so they all stopped skating for the day.

"What can we do now?" Scouty cried. "Just rest," said Duncy, as he sighed. "Oh, no!" replied the play man, "we'll continue with our play.

* * *

"I have some kites that you can fly away up toward the bright blue sky. Please wait here till I get them. I'll have one for each of you.

"Then you can run and let them rise. They are a treat for youngsters' eyes." He disappeared and then came back. Then there was much ado.

Of course the Tinymites were glad to do the sailing. Soon they had a number of the biggest kites aflapping in the air.

They heard the kindly play man say, "Please do not let them get away. Hang to the string real tightly, when the kites get way up there."

(Something strange happens to Duncy in the next story.)

HARMONY SEEN IN TUESDAY CAUCUSES

ROOSEVELT IS FAVORED AS SECOND CHOICE IN FEW COUNTIES

John N. Garner, Texas' speaker of the house of representatives, was named as the presidential favorite of Democratic conventions of South Plains counties Tuesday. Most of the assemblies refused to name a second choice.

Neither Garza county party leaders at Post nor those of Dawson meeting at Lamesa instructed their delegates. The Dawson convention, however, endorsed Garner for president. Second choices, where ones were made, were for Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

Minute Instructions

Floyd county Democrats instructed their delegates to the state convention almost minutely—first to support Garner, second to support Roosevelt, and then to support "some good man" if both were unavailable. Garner also was endorsed for vice president. They favored Lubbock for the September state Democratic meeting.

Favoring the Texan, without a second choice, were: Lynn, Motley, Hockley, Hale and Lubbock. Dawson, Dickens and Terry placed the New Yorker second. Bailey, Gaines and Lamb counties held no conventions.

Reports Over Area

Telephone reports Tuesday night to The Journal:

Plainview—Hale county's ten votes will support John N. Garner as long as his name is before the convention. Dan M. Cook, county chairman, presided at today's meeting.

Post—N. C. Outlaw and S. H. Croslin, Garza county's delegates, were uninstructed, said Chairman T. R. Greenfield.

Six Are Chosen

Tahoka—Lynn county delegates, C. H. Cain, Truett Smith, J. P. Fulton, W. J. Burkhart and two others, were instructed today to support John N. Garner; without second choice. H. M. Largent is county chairman.

Matador—Motley county Democrats today named G. E. Hamilton, G. C. Mitchell and O. O. Love delegates to the state convention and instructed them to give their entire support to John N. Garner.

Levelland—No second choice was given Hockley county's four delegates today. The delegates, John H. Doyle, C. J. Conatser, L. W. Clark, and T. D. Daugherty, are to support John N. Garner, said Chairman F. A. Benbow.

Roosevelt Is Second

Floydada—Floyd county's seven votes will be cast for John N. Garner as long as he has a chance. Franklin Roosevelt is second choice. Jed C. Adams was endorsed as national committeeman and General John A. Hulen of Fort Worth as delegate-at-large to the national convention. Lubbock as September meeting place of the state convention was advocated. Wright Patman was commended for his attack on Andrew Mellon. Delegates are Jeff D. Ayres, Edd F. Brown, J. N. Stalbird, J. E. Newton, J. G. Matthews, Homer Steen, G. R. Tibbetis, J. C. Fortenberry, Karl Sammann, H. A. Krause, W. R. Dooley, James A. Massa, H. B. Adams and H. M. Mason.

Lamesa—Dawson county delegates were uninstructed, but John N. Garner was endorsed for president. Delegates are: Carl Rountree, Mrs. Carl Rountree, F. T. McCollum, Mrs. F. T. McCollum, Gordon Treadaway and Judge Gordon B. McGuire.

Bonus Is Favored

Spur—John N. Garner is first choice and Franklin D. Roosevelt second choice of Dickens Democrats for president. Delegates named today are Robert Nickels, Alton Chapman and W. D. Starcher. The veterans bonus was favored, and John A. Hulen was proposed as a delegate-at-large.

Brownfield—Terry county's four votes will be cast first for John N. Garner and second for Franklin D. Roosevelt, the convention ordered today. R. N. Kendrick was chairman.

WING FLAP

DAYTON, O.— A wing flap for airplanes which, it is said, will reduce landing speed from 65 to 26 miles an hour, has been developed by Howard M. Rinehart. The flaps are placed on the under side of the plane wing and are operated from the cockpit. They are said to also increase lifting capacity and aid in taking off.

A sound motion picture of campus life will be made at the University of Illinoise for presentation to alumni clubs throughout the country.

Death Stirs Radium Water Inquiry

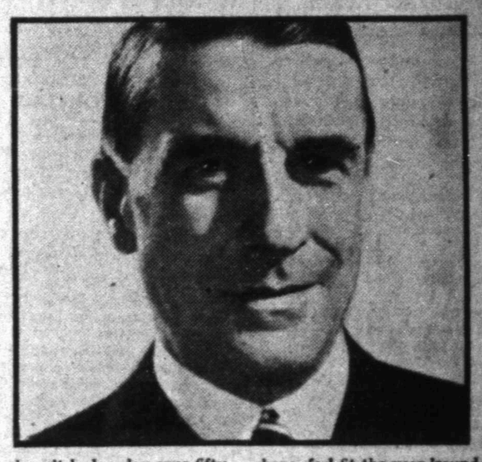

The death of Eben M. Byers (upper right), allegedly from poisoning caused by the drinking of radium water, has stirred a widespread investigation of radio-active "cures." Attorney Robert H. J. Evetts Haley Is Presented Award

The Social Science Research council of New York has awarded J. Evetts Haley of the University of Texas one of the grants-in-aid totaling $5,950 which it extended to 17 members of social science faculty members of southern colleges and universities.

Haley, formerly of West Texas State Teachers college, also is author of "The XIT Ranch in Texas," which resulted in a libel suit in district court here. The award was for his "The Expansion of the Cattle Industry of Texas and the Southwest."

At the age of 62.

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation. But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better in every way. You will never need to take another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way. Syrup pepsin isn't expensive.

She CALLS it "NERVES"

—but it's really—

SELF POISONING

If you are often headachy, upset, irritable, "on the ragged edge," call it "nerves" if you must, but the truth may surprise you.

Millions of people who complain of "nerves" are really suffering from self-poisoning. Poisons from putrid waste in the intestines have been absorbed into the blood. The polluted blood in turn carries these poisons all over the body, making you achy and "nervous," and in time affecting the kidneys and other vital organs. Often the irritation reaches the brain.

So why be in a hurry to call it "nerves"? Why not try to learn the truth by making a simple little test?

AN AMAZING TEST

For the next three nights take B-L Tonic. If your case is like those of thousands of other so-called "nerve" sufferers you will be amazed at the improvement in three days. Your "nerves" will rapidly quiet down. Your system will eliminate a startling amount of foul-smelling poisons. You will feel healthier, happier. But that is only a promise of the reward to follow. Continue taking B-L Tonic every night for three weeks. You will thereby keep the poisons from regaining a foothold in your blood. Meanwhile the stimulating properties of B-L Tonic will sharpen your appetite, improve your digestion, and thus help build up a more robust resistance to disease. Nine chances out of ten that's all you need to get rid of your "nervousness." Get B-L Tonic at

DALLAS STEERS ADVANCE TO LEADERSHIP OF TEXAS LEAGUE

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

The Texas League, whose legs began ta totter last season, is making a desperate stand to keep alive. Two years ago there was talk of transferring franchises, disbanding clubs and moving out of the state. That was to scare the fans, arouse home town patriotism and fill in for lax chamber of commerce ballyhoo.

* * *

Things began to get really serious and the league turned to nocturnal baseball--all but two clubs. Waco's franchise was moved to Galveston. They managed to survive the season. During the summer circumstances got tighter. The Shreveport club was sold to a corporation. Wichita Falls was in grave ganger of losing its franchise, especially after League President Gardner moved from Spudderville to Dallas. A public move was instigated and the season opened with Wichita Falls still in the running.

* * *

After the first few days the crowds, even in the big cities, were not enough to pay for the balls used, to say nothing of the bats. The league turned on the mazdas again and paid the umpires' salaries. It also slashed the price of admission by one-fourth. Then Shreveport ball park was reduced to ashes, which was, of course, a non-intended accident. The club moved to Longview, then to Tyler, which makes the organization strictly a Texas association.

* * *

Yesterday we read that Longview was putting in a bid for the St. Louis Browns' farm, the Wichita Falls Spudders, and the franchise to be moved almost immediately. Since most of the earlier stories about movng the Spudder club originated at Wichita Falls or Dallas, making it plain to the initiated that it was an attempt to arouse public sympathy, the story from Longview bears more weight. There is a possibility that Longview will get the franchise. Wichita Falls crowds have been small. The park is not equipped for night playing.

* * *

It would be a pity if the Texas League went bankrupt. It is and has been one of the fastest of the minor leagues, and is the nearest thing to the big time baseball the natives of the state will ever see at home.

* * *

Mrs. P. D McKinnon, 808 Ave. R, mails a clipping from the Miami (Fla.) Herald, in which is described a novel athletic plan for high schools. The plan has been introduced by J. G. McKinnon, physical education instructor at Miami High school and son of Mrs. P. D. McKinnon of Lubbock, a brother of Mrs. C. O. Bergholm of the Lubbock school system. But to get on with the story.

* * *

Mr. McKinnon's idea is to promote an athletic program whereby every boy in school will compete against rival schools. The plan takes in track events only. Each lad in school, under the plan, is to take part in some form of track or field exercise. His time or distance is to be recorded, an average ascertained and the result mailed to the opposing schools, which are to have staged similar meets. The winning schools would be decided by a comparison of the average.

* * *

It is a novel idea, and possibly a good one. It has the official o.k. of several outstanding athletic authorities, including Fielding Yost of Michigan, Hugo Bezdek of Pennsylvania, Dr. D. K. Brace of the University of Texas and other prominents. McKinnon, who received his degree at Texas, is getting considerable publicity and encouragement. It seems a good idea at the time.

The Lubbock Hubbers will try for their third consecutive victory Sunday when the Wolforth ball club comes here. The game will be played at Merrill Park. Managers Bob Worthington and Clarence Fox of the local organization promise a first class lineup to place against the Wolfforth delegation. Wolfforth has been going like the proverbial house afire all season winning a big majority of its games by appreciable scores. Fans who have seen the club play vow that it is one of the best on the plains. Resplendent in new uniforms, the Wolfforthites make a good showing on any baseball field.

FORT WORTH IS BEATEN FOUR IN A ROW

CATS LOSE TO SPUDS AS STEERS WALLOP SHREVEPORT 4-3

(By The Associated Press)

The Texas league today had a new leader, Dallas, as the northern clubs began their first invasion of the south.

The Steers went into first place by a half-game margin last night when they eked out a 4 to 3 victory over Shreveport while Fort Worth was dropping their fourth straight game, this time to Wichita Falls, 6 to 3, in 12 innings.

The Steers beat the Sislermen in the ninth inning. Lefty Willis, young relief hurler for the Sports, threw Powers' bunt so far over First-Baseman George Sisler's head that Ernie Holman, who had beaten out a roller, came home all the way from first base.

Manager Dick McCabe tried to snap the Panther's losing streak. He hurled good ball but young Tom Conlan, on the mound for Wichita Falls, was a little better, and the Spudder staged a three-run splurge in the twelfth to knock the Cats off the top.

The best pitching was exhibited at Galveston, where Preacher Thurman started his first game for the home team and shut out San Antonio, 1 to 0. Cy Smith allowed the Buccaneers only two bingles but one of them was coupled with a walk for the game's only run.

Houston's game with Beaumont was rained out.

CUBS THREATEN RUNAWAY IN LEAGUE

CHICAGO WINS OVER GIANTS ON TUESDAY

LOOP LEADERS THREE GAMES AHEAD OF NEAREST RIVAL

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tearing along three games in front of their closest pursuers, their great pitching staff mowing down opposing batsmen and their hitters thumping in unison, the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a runaway of the National league race.

When young Lon Warneke set the New York Giants down yesterday, 9 to 2, the leaders scored their fourth straight victory over eastern clubs and their thirteenth win in sixteen engagements. Unless Rogers Hornsby's team is slowed down soon, it will pile up such an advantage it will be able to coast through to the flag.

The Giants could find Warneke for only five hits yesterday, two of which came after two were out in the ninth and provided their second run. His mates whaled three Giant hurlers for 11 safeties, every man in the line-up getting at least one.

Phillies Down Reds

The only other National league bout saw the Phillies break Cincinnati's five-game winning streak, 4 to 0, behind Ray Benge's effective pitching.

Vic Sorrell turned in the day's American league masterpiece when he allowed Boston only two hits in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 11 to 0 victory.

Lefty Grove was almost as effective as the Athletics blanked Chicago 9 to 0. The great southpaw allowed six hits but bore down in the pinches.

The wildness of Walter Stewart and "Bump" Hadley, who distributed eleven walks, helped the Yankees trounce the St. Louis Browns, 10 to 2. Cleveland was rained out at Washington.

UNITED STATES DAVIS CUP TEAM IS WORKING BEHIND CLOSED GATES IN PREPARATION FOR MEXICO CONTESTS

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP)—The United States Davis cup team worked out today behind closed gates as the squad determined to get rid of the kinks for its matches with the Mexican team starting Friday.

Althoug favored to set aside the Mexicans, considered less formidable than the Canadians who failed to win a match two weeks ago in Washington, no stone is being left unturned in shaping the Americans into top form.

Fite Eugene Dixon, non-playing captain, has put his squad under the care of Mercer Beasley, professional at the New Orleans Country club and developer of Ellsworth Vines. Beasley said both Vines and Wilmer Allison, who played here a month ago, have shown improvement. He also is pleased with the playing of Frank X. Shields and John Van Ryn who completed the United States team.

Ernesto Lopez, non-playing captain of the Mexicans, let his men open up today with power drives and screaming services. The team, all residents of Mexico City, is headed by Ricardo Tapia, senior medical student at the University of Mexico and tennis champion of Mexico. A fellow student, Angel Boldam, 17, and "baby" of the squad, is on hand for the experience rather than any hope of a victory. Alfonso Unda, second ranking player of Mexico, and Eduardo Mestre, jr., complete the team.

BATON ROUGE IS STILL IN LEAD

Baton Rouge strengthened its grip on the lead in the Cotton States league yesterday by a victory over Pine Bluff, 13 to 4. The Louisianans have won seven and lost one game. In a tie for second place are Pine Bluff and Vicksburg with five wins and two losses. Monroe, Port Arthur and El Dorado have been able to win only two of eight games each.

Vicksburg had two big innings in winning from Port Arthur 15 to 9. Massing hits in the fourth and fifth innings, the Mississippians tallied 13 runs. Braly was blasted from the box in the fourth and, after one inning, his successor, Hinson, gave way to Jones. Cashion got two triples and Poiletti, Brown and Kelly one each.

El Dorado won 4 to 2 from Monroe. Erwin had a bad third inning but otherwise pitched good ball for Monroe. Goodell kept the Monroe batters well in hand throughout.

MATADORS HOLD TO LEAGUE LEAD

Robert Hale's Mustangs went into second place in the Morning Glory Basketball league standings this morning with a 35 to 24 victory over Shorty Kerr's Matadors. It was the third loss of the season for the Matadors but left them still at the top of the ladder.

The league season will be concluded Friday morning when the Ramblers and Matadors play the final game. The Mustangs and Bears are slated for tomorrow morning's game.

In the contest this morning, Manager Robert Hale led the scoring with 13 points. Joe Lewis, Mustang forward, and Kerr, playing center for the Matadors, tied with 10 points each.

Lewis and Paulger, forwards; Robert Hale, center, and Jones and Tiller, guards, composed the Mustang lineup. For the losers, Rayburn Hale and Jackson, forwards; Kerr, center, and Speer, Arnold and Gearhart, guards, constituted the team.

Loan Applications Are Being Held Up

Because lien waivers have not been signed, about 100 loan applications from Lubbock, Lynn, Hockley, Terry, Cochran, and Yoakum counties are being held at the regional farm loan office at Dallas, P. F. Murray, district representative, of Lubbock said Tuesday.

Murray urged landlords, merchants and others holding liens to aid the farmers in securing their loans. About $12,000 is involved.

Appointment of Murray as field inspector for this district in 1932 was announced Tuesday.

EIGHT WILL BE READY TO JOIN GALLERY BY THIS EVENING

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT WORTH, May 11 (AP)—By dusk this evening, eight of the sixteen players in the championship flight of the Texas Woman's Golf association state championship will be ready to join the gallery.

Winners in yesterday's first round matches knew at the finish they had experienced real competition and there was every indication today that the second round would be as bitterly fought.

Chandler Vs. French

Starting the championship flight was Mrs. Dan Chandler of the Dallas Brook Hollow Country club and Mrs. P. K. French of Fort Worth. Mrs. Chandler yesterday defeated Mrs. C. F. McCaulifff of Dallas, 5 and 4. Mrs. French trimmed Mrs. F. P. Dodge of Port Arthur, 3 and 2. Mrs. Chandler's long hitting game was expected to prove a handicap to Mrs. French but the Fort Worth star's supporters believed she would trim the Brook Hollow ace who was medalist Monday with 42-39—81.

After a tough scrap yesterday from Mrs. W. A. Grady of Dallas, Miss Anelia Gorczyca, Fort Worth champion, left the starting tee prepared for a hard battle from Mrs. R. R. Mizell of the Dallas Country club. Miss Gorczyca won 2 and 1, yesterday. Mrs. Mizell beat Mrs. Karl Hohlitzelle of Dallas, 2 and 1.

Mrs. R. R. Pick, defending champion from Wichita Falls, defeated Mrs. Frank McNally of Corsicana, 3 and 1, and today met Miss Betty Moss, a slender maiden of 20 years from the Dallas Country club, who defeated Mrs. G. E. Jarboe of Wichita Falls, 2 and 1.

Had Easy Match

Mrs. F. C. Rochon of Wichita Falls, holder of the 1931 Texas municipal state champion, beat Mrs. Frank Meyers of Fort Worth, one up. Today, she had Miss Hilda Urbantke of Austin as her opponent. Miss Urbantke turned in the easiest match of all yesterday when she beat Mrs. Jake Hamon of Longview, 6 and 4.

The only extra hole match went to Mrs. H. R. Stroube of Corsicana who defeated Mrs. R. F. Sprinkle of Fort Worth, one up, 19 holes. The Corsicana championship hope today faced Mrs. R. E. Winger, former Fort Worth champion, who yesterday eliminated Mrs. F. B. Hadlock of El Paso, 4 and 3.

Other championship pairings today:

Mrs. Scott Hill, Waco, vs. Mrs. T. F. Green, Fort Worth.

Mrs. I. J. Morris of Dallas, vs. Mrs. R. Randolph, Dallas.

Mrs. E. R. Lederer, Fort Worth, vs. Mrs. May Whitley, Fort Worth.

WEARY OF FIGHTING CRIME BATTLES ALONE, CHICAGO SUBURBS FORM UNIT

CHICAGO, May 11. (AP)—Ninety Chicago suburbs, weary of fighting their crime battles alone, have pooled their enforcing facilities and hung a new damocletian sword over Chicago's harassed underworld.

Secretly they have organized a vast co-operative unit to be known as the Cook county regional police with the aim, leaders revealed today, of driving gangsters, hoodlums and racketeers out of the residential communities within the metropolitan area.

Quick and daring forages of criminals from city hideouts have brought a blight on the peaceful life of the suburbs. Crime, transplanted from the gangland haunts of Chicago, has been growing, leaders said, and its growth has been fostered by lack of co-operation among uncorrelated law enforcement agencies.

But as the new machinery begins functioning, the criminal will find every suburb of the county ready to block his escape as soon as the crime is discovered.

Major crimes will be flashed to a central bureau in the state's attorney's office and relayed in an instant to all police departments. Localized crime operations will be broadcast to regional bureaus in northern, western and southern sections and the criminal records and personnel of one suburb will be available to all.

The PATH to the DOOR...

..of the Better MOUSE-TRAP BUILDER is Producing a Crop of WEEDS!

Queen Mary of England herself recently told a charity organization in which she was interested, "Advertise! It pays to advertise." Indeed times have changed. When Queen Mary must talk of advertising, what must the poor mouse-trap builder do? No longer will the world make a beaten path to his door, however wonderful his mouse-trap. Because his competitors are out telling the world all about their products in advertising. The world is listening. And buying!

Thought For Today

For whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.—Ruth 1:16.

* * *

TRUE love is better than glory. —Thackeray.

The Other Side

There is something distinctly refreshing in the fact that the English-speaking world is holding a celebration because a busy man took time to write a fairy tale for a little girl 67 years ago. Mrs. Alice Hargreaves, who is the Alice of Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," has come to America to take part in Columbia University's celebration of the 100th anniversary of the author's birth.

It seems timely that this event should take place when material depression has dimmed so much of the outward glory of life. There is comfort in the knowledge that the spell of the imaginary hasn't quite lost its hold on grown-up hearts.

We are remembering that the old story was a normal part of childhood. It belonged to that gay, glad period when life was tuned to a piper's song, and nobody had discovered that the melody came out of a box where a hurdy-gurdy played around the corner. Every road went some place then.

Anything might happen at the road's turning.

There was laughter in the book, gaiety and adventure. We stepped through a looking-glass into a world where a rabbit and a small girl went exploring, queens played croquet, and a turtle sobbed. Unconsciously child readers put away the illusions to keep.

By calling attention again to this make-believe page from childhood we realize more fully that the only things in life that are real and lasting are the unseen things — faith, love, loyalty. It isn't possible to eat a magic cake, and grow small, as Alice did on an unforgotten day, but we are discovering that, under the bric-a-brac of the years, old dreams are as fragrant as ever.

The fact that a prosaic, business-depressed world will take time off to celebrate the birthday of a man who wrote an enchanted tale proves that it still believes in fairies. That it hasn't forgotten that anything may happen on the other side of the looking-glass.

And Serajevo

There is something rather ominous about the recent bombing in Shanghai, at which several of Japan's high civil and military officials were wounded. It compels one to recall another murder, committed a good many years ago—at Serajevo in 1914, to be explicit.

In each case the outrage was the work of a fanatic, directed against a power which seemed—to the fanatic, at least—to be overbearing and ruthless. In 1914 it proved to be just the event that was needed to touch off a powder magazine.

What will happen in the Far East? Will this Shanghai bombing be followed, probably, by a Japanese ultimatum similar to that issued by Austria-Hungary in 1914? For the sake of world peace, one hopes not. But it is impossible to forget the similarity between the two crimes.

No Place For It

Hart Crane, the poet who lost his life at sea recently in what seems to have been a suicide, complained to friends just before his death that he had grown despondent because "there is no place for poetry in the world today."

This is a complaint that nearly every poet has felt like making, at one time or another; and the peculiar part about it is that it was just as true 20 years ago, or 50 years ago, or 200 years ago, as it is now. The world is never over-kind to poets, or over-eager to get their songs. It prefers to go its own way in peace—for poets disturb it, and make it discontented, and question the values by which it lives.

But the poet sooner or later comes to realize that there is a place for poetry, in spite of the world's indifference. There is a place, that is to say, for songs and dreams, and there always will be; and it is a pitiful tragedy that gifted Hart Crane could not have lived to realize it.

WHETHER it all happened as the result of the police department's safety drive or not, an amusing incident occurred yesterday afternoon at Thirteenth and Avenue J.

A lady motorist was whipping east on Thirteenth and just as she neared the intersection the light went red against her, and she jammed on her brakes to make a sliding stop. She didn't have time to give the customary signal and a gentleman, driving right behind her, was hard put to stop his car without hitting her—as a matter of fact, he skidded up along side of the lady's machine.

Rolling down his window, he glared and demanded:

"Where's your hand, lady, where's your hand?"

Unabashed the lady lifted her right hand in extended fashion and placed the tip of her thumb against a pretty nose.

"There's one of 'em", she said with an accompanying wriggle. Then, hooking the left thumb with the little finger on the right hand: "And here's the other!"

That ended the conversation in a great big way!

PICKED up on Cotton Row: Right at 300,000 bales have been bought through the Lubbock market this year . . . 17 South Plains counties raised about 470,000 bales and there are probably 15,000 still being held here and there in the territory, not including that being held by the co-ops . . . 70,000 round bales raised in this section went on into Houston to Will Clayton, who has men, cotton and money everywhere there are people . . . Three Japanese firms bought about 140,000 bales in Lubbock this year . . . And next season will see several new firms opening offices here because this is a big market and a good one even if the competition is stiff as a board . . . The crop this past season was easily the best since 1926 and staple has improved greatly over the last five years . . . There is a feeling among buyers that the price will go up whenever Congress adjourns. . . The trucks may come to the South Plains in a big way next fall . . . Efforts are being made by cotton interests here to contract with a big trucking firm to headquarter 50 trucks here to care for the business.

PROMISING the customers a good show for the money (it doesn't cost anything to get in) candidates for district attorney and 72nd district judge will pull off a speaking here tonight at the courthouse.

Hostilities open at 8:30 o'clock in the criminal district courtroom, although no reason was given for the choice of the place of the melee.

Judging from what The Plainsman has heard regarding the speaking jousts of these gents, they should hold tonight's meeting in the new jail building or the city hall, so as to be closer to the police or the sheriff's office in case a riot ensues.

All kidding to one side, the gents seeking these two important offices are extremely anxious that the voters come out and hear 'em.

There probably will be only two of the three candidates for judge on hand but The Three Busy B's, Blair, Brown and Berry, running for district prosecutor, will all be there to swap insults.

W. P. Walker, of Crosbyton, Levelland, Morton and other nearby seaports, and Robert H. Bean, who was born in this county and has rarely left it, have promised a performance—rain or shine. Judge Homer L. Pharr, of Lubbock, present incumbent, may also be present but could not be reached for a definite statement on account of the fact that he's off some where, holding court.

SO IF you haven't enough dough in your jeans to patronize Cliff Lindsey or W. A. Mauldin (we can't run into competition with them—look how much advertising they buy from us) go out and hear the big torts and contracts boys in their little dissertations.

An employe of one of the local wholesale houses ran into the manager's office and excitedly cried:

"Better call the fire department, Mr. Blank. The building's on fire!"

"Did you put water on it?" the manager inquired.

"Yeah", said the employe.

"Well, then, there's no use in calling the fire department. That's all they could do!"

THE current issue of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, includes a well written and exceedingly practicable trio of articles on spending one's vacation in West Texas, New Mexico—or both. The articles are written by W. Max Bentley, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, who certainly is in a class by himself among Texas newspaper writers.

If there is anything to the talk we hear about the Hoover boom, a lot of West Texans living in the Panhandle-Plains region can save money by vacationing in the Big Bend—and vice-versa. If money is half as tight as it is supposed to be, New Mexicans can come to West Texas for their rest and we can go to New Mexico.

Fair exchange is no robbery—and Mr. Bentley's articles offer food for thought as well as extremely pleasant descriptive reading.

FIFTY-FOUR YEARS OF PIONEERING ON THE SOUTH PLAINS

TRAIL DRIVING ACROSS THE PLAINS

Bill and John Slaughter were just beginning to get their Crosby county ranching business well established when the State of Texas began to demand payment—lease, in other words—from cattle raisers for pasturage rights on state lands. Though cattle were bringing a good price, considering other prices and the low cost of raising, the Slaughters felt that they could not afford to pay for pasturage and began to hunt other grass in 1883.

They went out into New Mexico and located ranch sites near the western border of that state, 150 miles west of Socorro, the nearest town. Will Slaughter selected the American valley, and John selected the head of the Tularosa river, a little further south.

When they came back home they announced their intentions of moving, and Will told me that I was to take charge of his new ranch.

Moving Herd A Big Job

Moving a large herd of cattle up the trail to Kansas was a big job but such drives were small jobs compared to the feat that was ahead of us. In driving cattle to Kansas markets, the cowboys had a well-beaten trail to follow and it usually followed some river for long distances, or was within easy reach of water. But our drive was to be across six hundred miles of Plains prairies and New Mexico deserts and mountains—where no trail had been made, where there were few landmarks, and less water, and over a route that scarcely anyone but the Indians knew very little about.

With Dick Crutchfield as wagon boss, the first herd of WIL-S cattle, 2,500 head, were started out in May, 1883. About a month later I started out with 2,500 head, and just following me with a herd of JON-S cattle was Tom Nichols. Following him were herds belonging to W. W. Tuttle and Pat Sanders, and to Dan Kyle, who had also decided to move to western New Mexico. These were the first cattle to cross the Plains except the Coggins and Wiley herd several years previously.

Has Typical Outfit

Our outfit was typical of the trail-driving days. I had a big chuck wagon pulled by seven yoke of oxen and loaded with supplies sufficient for many weeks. There were eleven men with each wagon, eight of whom were cowhands, one a cook, one a horse rustler, and myself as boss. We pulled a calf wagon behind the big one.

We followed the Blanco over the Plains going by the water holes known as Blackwater, Running-water, and to Spring Lake. After reaching Spring Lake a big problem confronted us. It was eighty miles from Spring Lake, which is west of Plainview, to Portales Lake, over in New Mexico, and not a drop of water between the two points for the cattle, so far as we knew. It would take us a good five days to make the trip at the very best.

Crutchfield, Tuttle, Sanders, Nichols and Kyle chose to take the risk on making the trip with their herds. Each of our outfits carried a fifty-gallon barrel of water on the sides of our wagons for the men to drink. Five days and nights without water for the cattle and horses—their own supply was growing dangerously low—were required for the journey. Not all lost so heavily, but Nichols lost, between 400 and 500 head of cattle, most of them perishing on the last day of the trip before reaching Portales Lake.

Stays At Spring Lake

I decided to stay at Spring Lake until the spring rains. I left the stock in charge of other cowboys to graze in the vicinity of the lake and went over to Fort Sumner, New Mexico, and got a Mexican who was well acquainted with the country. After the rains about a month later, we started the herd to Portales, describing a circle by surface lakes pointed out by the Mexican.

I caught up with the other herds on the banks of the Pecos river. My cattle were in comparatively good condition, while their cattle had been so near starvation that it had taken several weeks for them to get in condition to travel again. We crossed the mountains, the Rio Grande, and finally reached our ranch sites without further mishap. Tuttle and Sanders settled at Horse Springs, east of the Tularosa river.

I worked for Bill Slaughter on this ranch until May or June, 1885, when I went into the employ of the Nathan Hall Cattle Company, which was preparing to establish a ranch in that section. Hall sent me to South Texas for cattle with which to stock the ranch. I bought two herds of longhorns and drove them to just south of Tovah, after having experienced much trouble along the route with the Mexican cowhands I had employed in Corpus Christi and Laredo. At Tovah I learned that New Mexico had quarantined against South Texas cattle and was forced to turn the herds loose.

Works For John Slaughter

Quitting Nathan Hall in the winter, I hired to John Slaughter but before I had been with him long he sold out his New Mexico ranch to Stephens and Upshaw. I went to Utah in '86, bought 1,000 head of cattle from the Mormans and ranched them for a year on the Dirty Devil river for John Slaughter.

I worked in Colorado as a plowing ditching contractor and as a transfer line operator for quite a while, but when the depression hit the nation in 1894, the year General Coxey made his famous march on Washington, the mines were forced to close down, resulting in poor business and uprisings among the men. In fact, conditions became so bad that life was in constant danger and I decided to come back to Texas.

Bill Slaughter continued to ranch in the American Valley while I was in Utah and Colorado.

Heavy Snowfalls

Old-timers had told us that sometimes snow would lie over the American Valley for two or three weeks at a time. In '93, I think it was, a big snow came in that section, covering the ground to a depth of two feet and not melting for a month. The previous spring Bill had branded 5,000 head of cattle. When the snow came, he and his men had no snow shoes or any other way to get out of the valley and insufficient food to do them until the snow melted. Cattle and horses died in wholesale lots, and the next spring he branded only about 300 head. Even the men nearly starved to death. This disaster almost broke Bill Slaughter. He moved back to Texas, establishing a ranch somewhere on the Canadian river in the Panhandle, but financial difficulties soon forced him to give that up.

When John quit the Utah country, he established a ranch on leased land 20 or 30 miles below Big Spring, where he remained several years. The Nave-McCord Cattle Company had formed a big ranch, the Square and Compass, in southwestern Garza county, southeastern Lynn and northern Borden counties. John had a chance to sell his Big Spring ranch and buy the Plains outfit and thought that he could raise $50,000 to pay on it.

Closes Deal

He came up to the Plains, closed the deal with Nave-McCord, and returned to his ranch south of Big Spring to find that settlers had come in while he was away and "jumped his claim." That was about the year 1900. Having already signed up with Nave-McCord, he was forced to go through with the deal in spite of the great loss he had just taken. In order to complete the deal and stock the ranch, though, he had to borrow about $300,000 from his brother, Col. C. C. Slaughter. When C. W. Post came into this section in 1907 John Slaughter sold out about 50,000 acres of the Plains land to him for $4.00 an acre. He had paid less than $2.00 an acre for the land. This great cattleman lived on this ranch, known as the U-Lazy-S, until 1928, when he died suddenly from acute indigestion while working with a round-up. John B. Slaughter, Jr., is now manager of the ranch.

(Tomorrow: The Famous Long S Ranch.)

Now they're building houses out of steel. If they'll just make the windows of bullet-proof glass, they ought to do a rushing business in Chicago.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

STOCK MARKET PROBE

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The great stock market investigation, which started out as a simple bear hunt in which the hunters were only supposed to shout "Boo!" at the bears, has spread into the pastures after the bulls, up into the trees toward the buzzards and even into the water to disclose a vast school of poor fish.

Dutcher

Nearly everyone concerned has been made to look a little silly at one time or another and almost any day of the investigation thus far would have been appropriate for Texas Guinan to have sat at the committee table and hollered "Hello, sucker!" at somebody.

* * *

Who's a Sucker Now?

THE wooziness of the inquiry, the strange way in which it turned back on its instigators and made suckers of them along with others and the unexpected revelations of everything except what was expected, must astonish those who followed it day by day.

One startling high spot developed when Senator Walcott of Connecticut, President Hoover's personal handy man who began the whole thing, was barred from secret sessions of the "steering committee" of the Banking and Currency Committee which suddenly took over the strategy.

Weeks ago Walcott came from a conference with Hoover and told the newspaper correspondents that the name of a dozen bears who had been raiding the stock market and nullifying the splendid Hoover program for revival of prosperity were about to be exposed.

The Senate authorized the investigation he wanted and then the thing was allowed to drag to the point where most people thought it was all off, especially as Walcott seemed to have forgotten the promise to name the bears.

* * *

Walcott's "Foreign Plot"

BUT one Friday, Walcott was found in a lather of excitement, announcing discovery of a foreign plot to wreck the market in a frightful "Black Saturday" the like of which the world had never seen.

He had received a wire from George Barr Baker, one of Hoover's best friends. There was a tremendous sensation, the Banking and Currency Committee hastily decided to begin the investigation and crowds stormed the committee room on the day Richard F. Whitney, head of the stock exchange, appeared as the first witness.

The great "billion-dollar bear raid" is still a mystery. Whitney didn't know anything about it, except for Walcott's assertions. Neither, apparently, did anyone else. Walcott sat placidly at the committee table, saying never a word despite the furore he had caused.

* * *

Beyond Their Depth

THE senators on the committee seemed far beyond their depth as they questioned Whitney. Unprepared and ignorant of the subject, they seemed a little silly before the smooth broker who knew his stuff so well. Mr. Whitney applied the whitewash brush and their first attempts to handle him were futile.

He did, however, admit that bullish statements by public officials had helped sustain the disastrous market inflation. The only Republicans that pleased were such gents as Chairman Norbeck and Senator Brookhart.

Then the committee got a smart criminal lawyer from Philadelphia to ask its questions and Whitney had to admit that his firm had helped peg the market for some German bonds while the Morgan firm sold them to the public. After support was withdrawn the bonds sank from 90 to 23 and the public is still holding the bag with the bonds at around 35.

* * *

Rockefeller and Raskob

BY this time, pro-administration newspapers were decrying the "depression effect" of the investigation and Walcott was opposing publication of the names of short sellers.

Other candidates for sucker honors appeared, including Percy Rockefeller, who told of "horrible losses" and John J. Raskob, who had lost on a big pool operation. The joke about Raskob was that the administration forces had expected to expose him as a wicked, unpatriotic bear, whereas Raskob was actually revealed as a bull. And bulls, from the administration point of view, wear wings.

As things stand now, the sensators seem to be through being suckers. Whitney—who will be recalled—doesn't seem so smart, the administration is being held for a loss, the stock market has a fragrant odor and the public, as always, appears to be playing the sucker role.

Just to prove to any doubtful man or woman that Kruschen Salts is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mr. F. J. Fritz of Cincinnati, Ohio, recently received.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the result from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100 per cent better."

Bear in mind, you fat man, that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at Mark Halsey Drug Store, City Drug Store, or any drugstore in the world. Welcome to Lubbock's
NEW AIRPORT:

All old students and South Plains people! This new Lubbock airport is dedicated to your services. . . . Visit us and watch South Plains students learn to fly in the safest airships manufactured.
Sunday we are planning to present to you the second new Training Plane if it arrives at our local airport in time. . . . The new training plane is an "Aeronca" and it is being piloted from the factory to Lubbock by one of our advanced students, Mr. E. E. Hendricks, who now holds a private license. Mr. Hendricks is taking cross country training for a limited commercial pilot license.

election as national committeewoman with few exceptions. Jed Adams of Dallas also received many indorsements for re-election as national committeeman but several conventions instructed for Dan Moody, former governor; W. A. Tarver of Corsicana, state life insurance commissioner; or Wirtz.

Many conventions asked that Gen. John A. Hulen of Fort Worth be named on the delegation to the national meeting.

Moody, now living at Austin, will not be on the Travis county delegation. The county convention adopted a resolution barring anyone who did not attend his precinct convention and Moody had failed to attend. He said, however, he would be a delegate from Williamson county, his former home.

Republican county conventions yesterday were harmonious. Most of them commended President Hoover's administration and indorsed R. B. Creager of Brownsville, national committeeman.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY IS TO BE OBSERVED IN LUBBOCK ON THURSDAY

Joining the 2,500 hospitals of the United States in the annual observance of National Hospital day, May 12, the Lubbock Sanitarium and Clinic and the West Texas Hospital will hold open house, Thursday afternoon from 1:30 until 4:30, announcements from both institutions said today.

The day is the anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, who served as the first army nurse during the Crimean war and who was active in stimulating the hospital movement.

"We will have a corps of nurses on duty to show people through the building, C. E. Hunt, superintendent of the Lubbock Sanitarium and Clinic said in making his program announcement. "Visitors will be taken through the entire building and shown the X-ray room, dining room and kitchen, operating room and other rooms.

"It has been our practice to observe hospital day. We want the public to see how we operate our building. There will be some light refreshments served in the dining room."

The hospital has observed the plan for several years. Last year about 800 people went through the building.

At the West Texas Hospital a similar program will be observed.

"The institution will observe National Hospital day," L. H. McLarty, business manager of the West Texas hospital said. "We will throw open the entire building to visitors and they will be shown over our plant.

"It has been our plan to take part in the program. We want the public to inspect the place so they will understand more about our operations, Mrs. Ruby Gilbert, superintendent of nurses, will have a number of student nurses on duty as escorts."

The Lubbock observance is a part of a nation-wide program. It is pointed out by the American Hospital association national Hospital day committee that there are 720,000 people in hospitals normally, with 700,000 full time workers caring for them, not including 97,000 physicians. During a year 12,500,000 people are patients in hospitals.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 11. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 1 to 2 points on covering and trading buying, principally for continental account. July sold at 5.65.

Trading was moderately active at the start with July liquidation in evidence, but offerings were quite readily absorbed. There seemed to be some local buying on the opening tone of the stock market and the firmer ruling of wheat.

July sold to 5.69 and December to 6.09 by the end of the first half hour with the general market ruling about 4 to 6 points net higher. Liverpool cables attracted little attention.

The weekly report of the weather bureau received some favorable comment but offerings continued light and the late forenoon market held fairly steady on a moderate demand attributed to further trade buying and some covering or commission house interest. At midday, July was selling at 5.66 and December at 6.06, or about 3 to 4 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP) — Cotton experienced a firmer but quiet opening today. First trades showed gains of four points although Liverpool cables were hardly as good as due. The market eased off one to two points after the start but soon rallied again in sympathy with a firmer opening in stocks and, as there was fair trade buying and covering by shorts, July advanced to 5.71, October to 5.92 and December to 6.07, or 8 points above yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market was very steady and at the highs with a generally better undertone.

The market ruled very quiet all morning, fluctuating narrowly within the early range. Prices eased off four points to 5.67 for July, 5.84 for October and 6.03 for December because of lack of buying support. At these levels, prices were still four points above yesterday's close. Traders appeared to be waiting on the monthly textile statistics and the British board of trade returns for April, both due shortly.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP) — Cotton futures opened steady: May 5.62-offered; July, 5.67; Oct. 5.88; Dec. 6.02-offered; Jan. 6.06-bid; March 6.23-bid.

NEW YORK OPEN

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—Much higher prices on grains early today resulted from the United States government crop report proving more bullish than expected. Initial strength of the New York stock market also was a stimulating factor. Opening 7-8 to 1 5-8 higher, wheat afterward rose further. Corn started at 3-8 to 5-8 gain and continued to rise.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—The stock market again was unable to make consistent or notable progress today but it still showed more inclination to move forward than to slip back.

During the first hour the list pushed up 1 to 2 points for many of the leaders, lost much of its rise around noon and by early afternoon, was again creeping forward.

The chemical, food, tobacco and utility shares were prominent in the early upturn. Early afternoon found gains of 1 to 2 points in Allied Chemical, Sears, Westinghouse, Consolidated Gas, Coca Cola, McKeesport, Lehman, and Eastman, while Standards of N. J. and California, American Can, North American and Dupont were up fractionally. U. S. Steel and American Telephone were about steady. New York Central turned rather heavy, losing a point, and Union Pacific followed it down.

GRID TACTICS OF WICHITA OFFICER PREVENTS ESCAPE

WICHITA FALLS, May 11 (AP)—An attempt of W. H. Bybee, sentenced to death in Cottle county, to escape from the Wichita county jail was defeated Tuesday night by the football tactics of Deputy Sheriff Pat Allen, who dived under Bybee's drawn gun to overpower him. Bybee was joined in the attempted break by R. W. (Buster) Canada, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary here yesterday on a burglary charge.

Jailer Sid Johnson was slugged on the head with a broken cell bar, disarmed and locked in a cell during the attempted break. Canada lost heart and returned to his cell when Johnson told him a deputy sheriff noted for his marksmanship was waiting in the office below the jail. Bybee persisted in his attempt, however, and was tackled by Allen who had been attracted by the noise. Bybee's sentence, assessed at Paducah, is now on appeal.

The Virginian-pilot said today it had learned that negotiations are now being conducted off Block island lying east of Long Island.

Pied Piper Needed To Call Pythons

ST. LOUIS, May 11. (AP)—The landlady in a rooming house on Washington Avenue is worried about that hole in the bathroom wall.

And her worries may be well founded, for two circus performers, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Aldrich, say there two pet pythons, 12 and 14 feet long, disappeared through that hole, and have taken up their abode among the joists of the house.

"We put the snakes in the bathtub to bathe them and went out to lunch," the performers relate. "When we returned, they were gone. Where else could they have gone but into that hole?"

Snakekeepers from the St. Louis zoo viewed the hole and sighed for a pied piper who knows how to call snakes.

Strickel Sentence Affirmed By Court

A three-year penitentiary term imposed on W. T. Strickel, 62-year-old rancher, by a 72nd district court jury here last November for the murder of a Mexican sheep-shearer in Cochran county in 1929, has been affirmed by the state court of criminal appeals at Austin, the Associated Press reported today.

A jury here returned the verdict after two hours' deliberation. Strickle had gained a reversal of a four-year sentence dealt him in a trial in Hockley county. The case then was transferred from Hockley to Lubbock county.

Francisco Carasco, the Mexican, who was shot in the head, was employed on Strickel's ranch.

WILL OF DR. PAUL W. HORN FILED; ESTATE IS LEFT WIFE AND DAUGHTER

The will of Dr. Paul W. Horn, late president of Texas Technological college, has been filed in county probate court.

The noted educator penned the last provision of his will as follows:

"I give my body back to the Mother Earth from which it sprang and trust my soul to the mercy of a kind Providence under whose guidance I have tried to walk during my lifetime here, and in the mercy of whom I hope for eternal life."

The will, executed Oct. 19, 1920, at Houston, where he served as superintendent of public schools, names his widow, Maude K. Horn, as "executrix of this, my last will and testament, without bond or order of probate court." His entire estate is bequeathed to Mrs. Horn and their daughter, Ruth.

"I order and direct that my executrix, hereinafter named, pay all just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as may be conveniently done," the first provision sets out.

Doctor Horn, who had been in ill health several weeks, died unexpectedly in April. The estate will be appraised and this report filed later.

MOTHER, GIRL ARE INDICTED

MRS. RUTH McCOMAS AND EDITH FACING MURDER CHARGES

MATADOR, May 11.—(Special)—A grand jury indictment charging Mrs. Ruth McComas and her 13-year-old daughter, Edith McComas, with the ax-murder of J. A. Cunningham, Motley county ranchman, was returned here late Tuesday.

Mrs. McComas, 31-year-old divorcee, and the daughter were expected here today from the home of Mrs. McComas' parents at Graham. The woman is free in $10,000 bail and the girl on $1,000. They were expected to be accompanied here by attorneys and bondsmen.

The indictments naming the housekeeper for the elderly ranchman and her daughter were voted at about 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by a 110th district court grand jury. Neither had been served with the new warrants last night.

Cunningham's head was bashed in with an ax about 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, April 23, at his home. Mrs. McComas and her daughter reported at Matador to their attorney and through him surrendered to officers.

The first story told was that the daughter killed Cunningham when he attempted to criminally assault her. After additional questioning by District Attorney A. J. Folley, the mother declared she took Cunningham's life after an attempted assault on the child. Farris Fish, Matador, has been retained as a special prosecutor.

"MILLIGRAMS", NEW MEASURE OF DIET, DISCUSSED BY AMERICAN MEDIC BODY

BY HOWARD L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW ORLEANS, May 11. (AP)—"Milligrams," a new measure of diet, was discussed before the American Medical association today.

Milligrams is an exceedingly tiny food measure showing the daily rations of minute minerals and vitamins essential to health. The uses of the milligram diet scale were explained by Dr. Lafeyette Mendel, diet authority of Yale university, in a report on "The changing diet of the American people."

Eat Differently

People are eating differently because they have a far wider choice of foods. In 1823, Dr. Mendel said, each person ate 8.8 pounds of sugar or 44 calories a year on the average. Last year this average was 100 pounds, or more than 500 calories. "The fact", he said, "that one fifth of our diet now consists of this vitamin-free food is especially important because the other four-fifths have also lost much of the vitamin potency in refining processes to which so many modern foods are subjected."

Since the 90's the amount of proteins eaten daily has dropped in some cases from 100 grams to 50 or 60.

With these changes in eating habits have come discoveries of the necessity of eating minerals undreamed of a few years ago. Copper is now added to iron as a need for building blood. Manganese is one of the newest minerals found necessary. The roles of phosphorous and chlorine in diet "are elucidated more clearly every year."

BUSINESS MANAGER AND EDITOR FOR TOREADOR NAMED IN TECH ELECTION

Secret caucuses and open connivings are ended for another year in election of editor and business manager of The Toreador, student newspaper at Texas Technological college, but a runoff will be necessary to elect editor and business manager of La Ventana, campus yearbook.

A two-day primary election ended Tuesday at the college. A one-day run-off election in the yearbook races will be conducted Monday.

Parker Taulman of Fort Worth amassed 456 votes to obtain a majority over Lois Jacques of Mineral Wells and Bonnie Thomas, Lubbock, his opponents for Toreador editor. Jacques had 253 votes and Thomas 67.

Audrey (Jelly) Brown of Lubbock received 400 votes, or 25 more than did Joe Harter of Mart, for the newspaper managership.

Robert (Red) Huff and Everett Fairchild of Plainview will be in the runoff for La-Ventana editorship. Huff, incumbent, of San Antonio, received 372 votes; Fairchild, 208; and Doyle Settle of Abernathy, 206.

In the yearbook managership runoff will be W. R. Underwood, jr., of Albany, who garnered 321 votes, and J. W. Timmons, Amarillo, who had at even 300. Charles O'Neall of Lubbock ran third with 145 votes.

Less than 800 votes, or 125 less than last year, were cast.

The average fare rate a mile on air passengers lines in the United States is 6.29 cents, seven per cent lower than the average fare at the beginning of 1932.
