EDC buys Solitaire

By THOMAS JENKINS
Staff Writer

The land and building that once housed Solitaire Manufactured Homes has a new owner this week, as the Big Spring Economic Development Corporation purchased the property for slightly more than $500,000.

Terry Wegman, executive director of the Big Spring EDC, said the papers were signed and property closed this week in a deal he believes could add an important weapon to the economic corporation's arsenal.

"The final cost on the property was right at $550,000, which we really felt was a heck of a deal," said Wegman. "Solitaire came to us when they closed their Big Spring operations and moved it to Mexico.

"Before we closed on the property we had several companies already looking at it, so the demand is certainly there."

Wegman

They asked if the EDC wanted to purchase the building and land. They were asking a lot more then — about $2 million — and the board felt like it wasn't a viable deal.

"About six months later they came back and told us they were considering mov-

Area citizens invited to 'Make A Difference'

Howard County residents are invited and encouraged to participate in Make A Difference Day Saturday.

"The idea is to make a difference in someone's life or in your community," said Pat Simmons, coordinator and member of Keep Big Spring Beautiful, which is sponsoring the annual event.

"We encourage someone to pick up trash, clean their property, visit a nursing home, take a plant to a shut-in — just something positive," said Simmons.

Those who participate are invited to have a meal at Scenic Mountain Medical Center from 11:45 a.m. until 12:45 p.m.

Those who would like have lunch need to contact Simmons at (432) 263-4607 before Saturday so SMMC can get a headcount and to ensure there will be enough food.

Early voting turnout as expected: Slow

By THOMAS JENKINS
Staff Writer

Fewer than 100 ballots have been cast during the first four days of early voting in this year's constitutional amendment election, but that's no surprise to local officials.

"It's pretty rare that a constitutional amendment election will have the sort of draw elections involving candidates have, so we've expected a pretty low turnout," said Saundra Bloom, Howard County elections administrator. "We had a total of 59 people vote by the close of the polls Wednesday, and another 15 Wednesday afternoon. Add those to the eight mail-in ballots we've received and we're just below 90 ballots."

Early voting in the Nov. 3 election began Monday.

"You have people who will vote no matter who or what the election is concerning, and those are mainly the people we see during a constitutional amendment election, and we're certainly happy to

TCU, BYU QBs are just winners

STEPHEN HAWKINS

AP Sports Writer

FORT WORTH — Neither is flashy or particularly well-known despite their connections to famous quarterbacks and the success of their teams.

TCU's Andy Dalton and BYU's Max Hall are both third-year starters, two of the nation's most-underrated quarterbacks playing in the Mountain West Conference. All they do is win games.

At TCU, only Sammy Baugh has more victories as a quarterback than the 23 by Dalton, a junior who still has 1½ seasons left to match or surpass the 29 that "Slingin' Sammy" had in the mid-1930 for the Horned Frogs.

"I've seen that stat, so hopefully I can keep winning. Hopefully, we can keep winning," said Dalton, who like Hall has lost only six games since the start of the 2007 season.

Hall, a senior and the nephew of former Dallas Cowboys quarterback Danny White, has 27 wins, two shy of the BYU-record 29 by Ty Detmer from 1988-91.

Only one can win Saturday night when 10th-ranked and BCS buster hopeful TCU (6-0, 2-0) plays at No. 16 BYU (6-1, 3-0), already a longshot for Bowl Championship Series consideration but still unscathed in the conference featuring three ranked teams — the other is No. 19 Utah, which TCU and BYU play in November.

"It's going to be a good showcase for our conference and hopefully we'll gain some more respect," said Hall, referring to the teams, not just the quarterbacks.

Following in the line of guys like Detmer, Steve Young and Jim McMahon, Hall has at least two touchdown passes in every game this season, and is 126 yards shy of joining Detmer and John Beck as the only 10,000-yard career passers for the Cougars. Only Detmer (121), McMahon (84) and Beck (79) have more than Hall's 77 career TD passes.

"I'm playing well," said Hall, who has 2,069 yards passing with 16 TDs this season. "I don't know if I would say I'm perfect, but I have done some good things."

After throwing 10 interceptions the first five games, Hall has consecutive 300-yard games the past two

Cowboys offense now at full strength

IRVING — Marion Barber darted outside and scooted past the New York Giants defense before pulling up lame 10 yards shy of the go-ahead touchdown.

The Dallas Cowboys scored anyway, but that 35-yard Marion run a month ago was the last time their offense had all the key parts in the same game. That's supposed to change Sunday against Atlanta, a playoff contender and the first of five straight NFC opponents.

The Cowboys had their best rushing day in 16 years in that 33-31 loss to the Giants. They're No. 2 in the NFL at 420 yards per game even though they've been without some combination of Barber (thigh, thumb), backup running back Felix Jones (knee) and receiver Roy Williams (ribs) the past three games.

Still, doubts persist because they had one offensive touchdown in a win over Carolina and didn't score at all in the final three quarters of a loss to Denver. A thrilling 26-20 overtime victory at then-winless Kansas City wiped out the memory of two more quarters without a touchdown to start that game.

"Turnovers and penalties. Those are the only things that kept us from being undefeated at this point,"

Big Spring Steers linebacker Pavel Plakhotny returns an interception in a District 4-4A football game against Frenship Oct. 9 in Wolfforth. Plakhotny, a Belarus native, has made major contributions for the Steers on both sides of the ball this season.

Steer spotlight Senior LB/TE Pavel Plakhotny

While both squads taking the field at Shotwell Stadium in Abilene Friday night are listed in Class 4A, there's definitely a big difference in the amount of players suiting up on each side.

Just look at the enrollment numbers at Abilene Cooper High School and Big Spring High School to see the contrast. Before the season began, Cooper had 2,048 students enrolled, while Big Spring had nearly 1,000 less with 1,060.

The numbers differ greatly on the field as well.

For a small 4A school such as Big Spring, having players capable of contributing heavily on both sides of the ball is pivotal.

One of Big Spring's strongest contributors is senior Pavel Plakhotny, who starts at outside linebacker and also gets a significant amount of offensive playing time at tight end.

"Pavel being able to play on both sides of the ball is a big deal for us," said Big Spring Head Coach Phillip Ritchey. "We have to have players who can be good two-way players for us and he's always been willing to play at whatever position we've asked him to."

During his three years on the varsity, Plakhotny has played center, offensive tackle, tight end, defensive end and linebacker. He broke in on the varsity level as a sophomore, filling holes on both the offensive and defense lines, despite

Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach signals his players against Nebraska in the first half of their NCAA football game in Lincoln, Neb., Saturday.

Tech going for 4th straight win vs. A&M

BETSY BLANEY

Associated Press Writer

LUBBOCK — For the first time in Texas Tech coach Mike Leach's tenure, there's no Red Raiders quarterback anywhere on the national list of top passers heading into Saturday night's game against Texas A&M.

The quarterbacks in charge of No. 21 Texas Tech's high-octane offense this year — starter Taylor Potts and backup Steven Sheffield — can't stay healthy.

Leach, whose quarterbacks at some point in every one of his nine seasons have led the nation in passing, won't reveal who'll start against the Aggies, who are trying to end a three-game skid.

"We wouldn't have it any other way," Leach said of his game-day decision.

The Red Raiders (5-2, 2-1 Big 12) moved into the rankings for the first time this season after winning 31-10 at then-No. 15 Nebraska last week. Sheffield, the backup QB in his second career start, threw for 234 yards and one touchdown.

He also ran for two TDs but hobbled off the field, apparently with an injured left foot. Potts, who led the nation in passing earlier this season, suffered a concussion before halftime in an Oct. 3 win over New Mexico.

Leach does not acknowledge or comment on player injuries.

The two QB's stats together — Potts has 13 TDs and 1,817 yards; Sheffield has 12 TDs and 1,014 yards — would surpass the nation's top passer, Case Keenum of No. 17 Houston. Keenum has 19 touchdowns and 2,501 yards; Potts and Sheffield have 25 TDs and 2,831 yards.

Aggies coach Mike Sherman said it doesn't matter who quarterback Texas Tech.

"They have a great system out there," Aggies coach Mike

Sherman said. "They plug 'em in and out in a lot of positions."

Leach mentioned Colorado and Purdue as teams that beat ranked opponents last week and that no one on his now-ranked team should look past the Aggies.

"In this conference you have to respect everybody. There's nobody that isn't good enough to beat you," Leach said. "I suspect that (the Aggies) will come out swinging."

Like Potts and Sheffield at Texas Tech, A&M had a little QB competition of its own before the season.

Jerrold Johnson won the starting spot over Ryan Tannehill, who played receiver last season.

In last week's 62-14 loss to Kansas State, Johnson set a school record with his fourth 300-yard passing game of the season. He threw a Big 12 record 225 passes without an ing the part of the prop- erty they had added on, and while we were unsure just how practi- cal it was for them to move it to Mexico, we checked with contrac- tors and found out it certainly could be done. Shortly after that, we began negotiations again.”

Wegman said acqui- sition of the building could help the EDC at- tract larger companies and corporations to the Crossroads area.

“There are plenty of businesses that inquire about Big Spring, but because we don’t have a building already in place around the 120,000 square feet range, they have to pass us over. We tell them we can have them something like that built in six months or so, but businesses like that don’t want to wait six months. This property will give us a tool within that range to work with, which could be a huge boon for Big Spring.”

Wegman said his office has already received in- quiries about the prop- erty.

“Before we closed on the property we had several companies al- ready looking at it, so the demand is certainly there,” said Wegman. “We’ve had inquiries like this in the past, and we basically just got passed over. I feel like we got a really good deal on the property. Look- ing at past appraisals, it appears the land alone is worth the $550,000. So we’re really getting the structure for free.”

Wegman said the prop- erty, which was used to build manufactured homes for several years before closing its doors, could also play a big role in an already booming Big Spring industry.

“The facility is ideal for working with the wind turbines, whether it’s making repairs or other peripheral ser- vices,” said Wegman. “I feel like this represents a very smart investment on the part of the EDC.”

Public health insurance plan gaining favor with senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has long been seen as opposed to the federal govern- ment selling health in- surance in competition with private industry, but now senior Senate Democrats and White House officials are strongly considering in- cluding such a measure in health care overhaul legislation, officials say.

The provision would permit individual states to drop out of the sys- tem, a design that could make it more palatable to moderates who have opposed the “public op- tion.”

Liberals in Congress view a public option as an essential ingredient to overhaul the nation’s health care system, and President Barack Obama has said fre- quently he favors it. But he has also made clear it is not essential to the legislation he seeks, a gesture to Democratic moderates who have op- posed it.

Sens. Ben Nelson, D- Neb., and Kent Conrad, D-N.D., said in separate interviews they had been told the plan was drawing interest in pri- vate negotiations led by Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, D-Nev.

NATO allies: no more troops to Afghanistan until Obama strategy decision

BRATISLAVA, Slova- kia (AP) — Two NATO members said Friday they will not send more troops to Afghanistan unless its Nov. 7 presi- dential runoff creates a legitimate government and until President Bar- rack Obama decides on a new strategy there.

Dutch Defense Minis- ter Eimert Van Middelk- oop said his country, with 2,160 troops in Af- ghanistan, is awaiting the final election results “because the legitimacy of the Afghan govern- ment is key,” as well as a decision by the Obama administration.

“I think most countries are waiting for the American decisions,” van Middelkoop said at a meeting in Bratislava of the defense ministers of the 28 NATO coun- tries.

Danish Defense Minis- ter Soeren Gade said al- lies won’t increase troop levels until they’re as- sured the new govern- ment in Kabul is com- mitted to the NATO goals.

Soupy Sales

dead at 83

DETROIT (AP) — Soupy Sales, the rubber- faced comedian whose anything-for-a-chuckle career was built on 20,000 pies to the face and 5,000 live TV ap- pearances across a half- century of laughs, has died. He was 83.

Sales died Thursday night at Calvary Hospice in the Bronx, New York, said his former manag- er and longtime friend, Dave Usher. Sales had many health problems and entered the hospice last week, Usher said.

At the peak of his fame in the 1950s and ‘60s, Sales was one of the best-known faces in the nation, Usher said.

“If President Eisen- hower would have walked down the street, no one would have re- cognized him as much as Soupy,” Usher said.

Sales began his TV ca- reer in Cincinnati and Cleveland.

Contract Bridge

Test Your Play

1. You are declarer with the West hand at Three Notrump, and North leads the queen of diamonds. How would you play the hand?

West	East
♠ 3	♠ J 10 9 6
♥ Q 8 7 2	♥ K J 5
♦ A 8 5	♦ K 3
♣ A K Q 9 3	♣ 7 6 5 2

2. You are declarer with the West hand at Four Hearts, and North leads the jack of clubs. How would you play the hand?

West	East
♠ K 8 6 5	♠ A 7 2
♥ A Q 10 8 3 2	♥ K J 9 4
♦ K J	♦ 9 6 3
♣ 7	♣ K Q 5

1. You are certain to make the contract if the opposing clubs are divided 2-2 or 3-1, so your only real concern is a possible 4-0 club division. If North has all the missing clubs, there's nothing you can do about it, and you'll almost surely go down one or two tricks. But if South has all four clubs, something can be done, so you should shape your play to deal with that possibility.

The key play comes at trick one, when you should win the queen of diamonds with the ace. You then cash the ace of clubs, and if North shows out, you are in full control of the situation. You next lead a low heart toward the K-J-x, and regard- less of which opponent has the ace, you will be able to lead clubs twice from dummy through South's J-10-8 to assure five clubs tricks and the contract.

2. Let's first assume you cover the jack of clubs with dummy's queen, losing to the ace, and that South shifts to a low diamond. Whatever you choose to do, you might wind up losing two diamonds, a club and a spade and go down one.

Your best shot, by far, is to play low from dummy on the opening lead! It is certainly reasonable to assume that South has the ace, in which case you're virtually certain to make the contract by ducking the jack.

Regardless of which suit North plays next, you plan to draw trumps, ending in dummy, then lead the king of clubs and ruff out South's ace, establishing a club trick on which you can discard the jack of dia- monds. At worst, you lose a club, a diamond and a spade, trumping your fourth spade in dummy if the spades don't divide 3-3.

Note that South can't injure you even if he decides to overtake the jack of clubs with the ace in order to lead a diamond. If he does, dummy's K-Q of clubs both become tricks on which you can later discard the 6-5 of spades.

Tomorrow: A fatal slip.

Bloom. “All requests for mail-in ballots must be received by that time. If they don’t have time to get a request form in to us, they can simply write us out a request and sign it, and that will be good enough. We’re certainly willing to work with people so they can cast their vote in this election.”

In the meantime, Bloom said she and her employees are ready for the Nov. 3 election day.

“All of the voting machines have been load- ed with the necessary software, and all of the preparations have been made,” said Bloom.

“We’ll have five polling locations this year, four in Big Spring and one in Coahoma. We normally consolidate polling plac- es during amendment elections to make it a lit- tle easier on the voters and our election staff.”

And while she and her staff are certainly con- centrating on the Nov. 3 contest, Bloom said she’s also looking to- ward the not-so-distant future.

“The first day for candidates to file for the 2010 primaries is Dec. 3, which is right around the corner,” said Bloom.

“So while we’re work- ing on getting the Nov. 3 election behind us, we’re also looking toward the primaries. It’s a lot to take in all at once, but December will be on us before you know it.”

For more information on the election or mail- in ballot requests, con- tact Bloom at 264-2273.

This Date In History

Today is Friday, Oct. 23, the 296th day of 2009. There are 69 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On Oct. 23, 1983, 241 U.S. service members, most of them Marines, were killed in a suicide truck-bombing at Beirut International Airport in Lebanon; a near-simultaneous attack on French forces killed 58 paratroopers.

On this date: In 1707, the first Parliament of Great Britain, created by the Acts of Union between England and Scotland, held its first meeting.

In 1864, forces led by Union Gen. Samuel R. Curtis repelled Confederate Gen. Sterling Price's army in the Battle of Westport in Missouri.

In 1915, tens of thousands of women marched in New York City, demanding the right to vote.

In 1942, during World War II, Britain launched a major offensive against Axis forces at El Alamein in Egypt.

In 1946, the United Nations General Assembly convened in New York for the first time, at an auditorium in Flushing Meadow.

In 1956, a student-sparked revolt against Hungary's Communist rule began; as the revolution spread, Soviet forces started entering the country, and the uprising was put down within weeks.

In 1973, President Richard Nixon agreed to turn over White House tape recordings subpoenaed by the Watergate special prosecutor to Judge John J. Sirica.

In 1987, the U.S. Senate rejected, 58-42, the Supreme Court nomination of Robert H. Bork.

In 1989, 23 people were killed in an explosion at Phillips Petroleum Co.'s chemical complex in Pasadena, Texas. In a case that inflamed racial tensions in Boston, Charles Stuart claimed he and his pregnant wife, Carol, had been shot in their car by a black robber. (Carol Stuart and her prematurely delivered baby died; Charles Stuart later died, an apparent suicide, after he was implicated.)

In 1995, a jury in Houston convicted Yolanda Saldivar of murdering Tejano singing star Selena. (Saldivar is serving a life prison sentence.

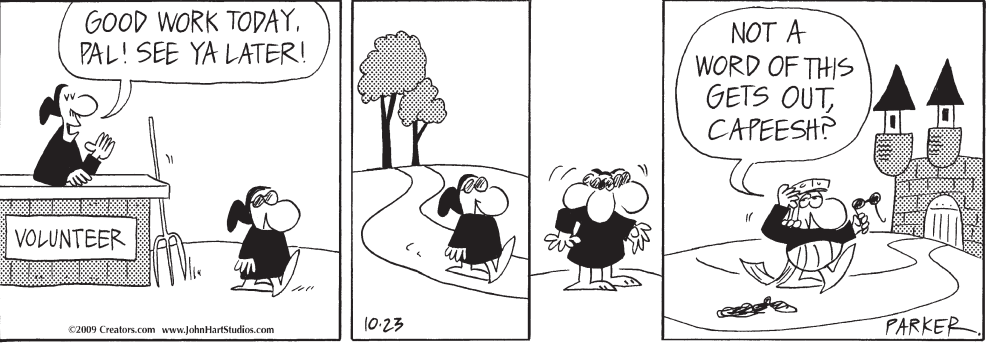

Today's Birthdays: Baseball Hall of Famer Sen. Jim Bunning, R-Ky., is 78. Movie director Philip Kaufman is 73. Soccer great Pele is 69. Rhythm-and-blues singer Barbara Ann Hawkins (The Dixie Cups) is 66. Actor Michael Rupert is 58. Movie director Ang Lee is 55. Jazz singer Dianne Reeves is 53. Country singer Dwight Yoakam is 53. Community activist Martin Luther King III is 52..

OUR VIEW

We salute:

Each week, the Herald salutes individuals and groups from our community and area who have been recognized for special achievements or accomplishments.

We recognize these special people for working to help make our region a better place to live, work and play

This week we salute:

- All those who participated in Saturday's open house at the newly remodeled Cosden Federal Credit Union. Hot dogs and drinks were served and children were able to take part in several activities.

Last year, the credit union embarked on a major remodel and expansion project that has more than doubled the size of its main office. The original building was about 2,200 square feet. Today, the facility boasts almost 6,400 square feet.

- Coahoma High School students Cole Sneed, Kenzie Moore, Megan Parrish and Nick Sevey, who were recently named to the Region 6 All-Region Choir at an audition at Permian High School in Odessa. They will perform at a concert Nov. 7 at Midland Lee High School.

- Elbow Elementary School Principal Madge Patterson, her students and staff, who received a plaque from Forsan School Board President Tom Bill Kuykendall honoring the school on its exemplary rating from the Texas Education Agency during the last FISSD Board of Trustees meeting.

- All those in the Howard College Theater Department involved the presentation of "The Real Inspector Hound," which debuted Thursday and continues through Sunday at the Hall Center for the Arts. Show times are 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 2 p.m. Sunday.

Is there an individual or organization in our community that you feel should be saluted? If so, please send us their name and why you think they should be recognized. We must have your name and telephone number and you must provide it in writing.

A SMALL PRAYER

by K. Rae Anderson

Happiness, Lord, is knowing and trusting in You.

Amen

Painting pictures of Dad

My kids are not the most artistic bunch, but when they were little, they would do like most kids and often make a crayon masterpiece. Sometimes they would be thrilled to bring me what some would consider less than flattering circles with heads on them. I would pretend it was not because they saw me as fat, but because they were at some early stage of development.

I'm not a psychologist but I would observe the houses were always whole and so were the hearts. That was a big deal to me because so many little people in our children's church draw pictures that would make us bawl.

Kids we know with broken homes would draw half houses where the other runs off the page and you can't see it. I guessed they couldn't see the other half of their real house. Or they would draw a picture of the new family and leave themselves out of the group or really sad suns or things like that.

All my kids were loved and a little on the spoiled side of a family that has a really big emphasis on family.

So when my youngest daughter, for example, would bring me a picture, she would often say "Look, daddy, its you!" and she couldn't get it into my hands quick enough. She would wait for my reaction and I would do something silly like put my hand on my chest and yell out "Good googly moogly, I want to paint that vision on the Great Wall of China!"

She would laugh and run off to draw something else because she couldn't wait to get another crazy response out of me. I miss those days.

REVELATIONS

As a Christian, I think I still do that kind of thing to my spiritual father. I give to him little moments and eventually a life I think looks like him.

When you serve God in a special way, what you do has to do with who you believe God to be. It's what you think He looks like.

For example, if you have a revelation about how God loves you and has mercy on you, you find yourself loving other people and cutting other people slack in bad situations. You do that unto the Lord and it's just like giving him something that says "It's you daddy!"

If you have a revelation about what an awesome giver The Lord is, you will find yourself being a giver in your church or helping something in a bad financial place. That's you running to The Father, handing him your service and saying, "This looks like you Daddy."

No fear of criticism. No fear of taking it to Him because He's a good dad and every time you get an incredible response from The Father who makes you feel like the most loved person on the planet.

In this week's confession of a highly caffeinated Christian, I pour a cup with mellow flavors to sip on.

Think a thought like He thinks today. Do a work like He does and more than that, be like He is in what ever challenging or amazing situation you come across. Let there be something going on between you and God which no one else in the world knows anything about.

Give your life and your heart to God and say "Look, Daddy, this looks like you."

Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

Let's see... How's that again?

It is entirely possible — perhaps even likely — that I am too easily "bugged;" it's heaps worse than being merely bothered.

My propensity dates back 65 years to a sleepy afternoon of third-grade spelling.

We were jarred awake when our teacher challenged us to spell "milk (sic) cow." Springing to my feet, with a strong voice that boomed across the room, I belted out my sure-fire response, enunciating each letter: "M-I-L-K C-O-W."

"Wrong, Sherlock," she responded. "It is 'M-I-L-C-H C-O-W.'"

She proceeded to say how much it "bugged" her that nobody gets it right, and that we could look it up if we doubted her.

Crimson-faced and accustomed to getting answers wrong mostly during arithmetic, I raced to the big dictionary atop a tall rolling pedestal that was seldom disturbed.

Sure enough: The preferred spelling was "perzactly" as she had claimed. From then on, I was easily "bugged."

Here's one more "blame game" card. My high school math teacher must have grown weary of an admonition directed to me daily during algebra: "Don't try to change it; try to understand it."

Sadly, I always "gee'd" when I should have "hawed," algebraically speaking. A vague memory lingers about the formula "pi R square," and this because of the old joke repeated by a bumpkin. "Pie aren't square," he argued, "Pie are round; cornbread are square."

Still, my penchant for being "bugged" was strengthened, thanks to our ever-gracious superintendent/teacher/counselor, O.B. Chambers. "I am bugged," he admitted, "When people who ought to know better mention a range, then cite only half enough figures."

We who share this misery of "buggedness" welcome others to our fraternity. If our beloved educational leader also held membership, could it be all bad?

Mr. Chambers went on to illustrate, citing "salaries in the $10,000 range, temperatures in the 70-degree range, or corn stalks in the six-foot range." A light went on when he explained that $10,000-$15,000, 70-75 degrees or 6-8 foot stalks would make range references acceptable.

Sure enough, across the years TV weathermen, news anchors and well-known journalists continue to "get it half right," and I'm "bugged" like Mr. Chambers was.

About a hundred times annually, I stand behind lecterns, committing speeches around the country, and sometimes even in town.

"Buggedness" sets in when fellow speakers mention, "standing behind" or "gripping" the podium.

I am tempted to say, "Wrong Sherlock; you can look it up. The podium is the platform on which we stand. We stand behind — and grip — lecterns."

And what about career accountants, who ply their trades for decades, wondering if they'll be remembered as "COMP-trollers" or "CON-trollers?"

Not too long after numbers were discovered, lexicologists agreed on the spelling for the profession of folks best able to keep up with 'em: "c-o-m-p-t-r-o-l-l-e-r." For a time, "controller" was the preferred pronunciation.

In recent years, however, usage has "conned" us into pronouncing the word "comptroller."

This is, I suppose, as it should be. Word pronunciation may be the lone arena in which confusion is lessening.

The late Gene Hendryx, former state representative who owned and operated Alpine Radio Station KVLFF, never lived down an innocent on-the-air "goof." In a livestock market report, he called sheep offspring "e-wees."

Guffaws thundered across the Big Bend area; his "agricultural cover" was blown.

Old nesters ribbed him for decades, one saying he was plumb shocked at Hendryx's "proNOUNciation."

Let us pots (we pots?) who call kettles black consider my friend, Dr. Robert Smith, a respected minister/educator. Years ago, he spoke about "The Tower of Babel" at a meeting of Baptist college presidents.

At the risk of opening a "can of theological worms" (or should it be a "theological can of worms?"), I do so anyway.

A prior speaker who was assigned the same topic repeatedly called it "BAY-bel." Dr. Smith squirmed, feeling strongly that most scholars favor the pronunciation that rhymes with "babble." He knew, too, that it was the capital of Babylonia, and that "babble" originated there.

Not wanting to embarrass his colleague or create any divisiveness among the presidents (who regularly argued over less), he parroted his predecessor. "BAY-bel," he said, emphasizing the long "a" with the clarity of an Alps yodeler.

There, friends, was a "class act" by a man who might be "un-uggable."

Ethelyn, his bride of 63 years, might not agree. And I see no reason to ask her how she pronounces "Babel."

Holy Trinity

The Holy Trinity Catholic Church recently combined four churches into one and the Holy Trinity Youth Group (HTYG) came to be known. They consist of junior high and high school levels. They have been busy doing many community projects and activities. Combining four youth groups into one has been a great, positive change for everyone, especially the teenagers. They go to school together and many were already friends prior to the merger. It makes it so much easier to just meet together in one place and do things together as a Catholic community, working together in doing projects as a team.

The HTYG is led by the Youth Council leaders and sponsors Lucy Flores, Merlinda Moran, Fred Griego, Seve Rodriguez, Anita Valdez, Enrique and Linda Garza, Miranda Reyes and Gerri Lopez.

Meetings takes place once a month for two hours and consists of group talks about things and issues teenagers are facing today such as peer pressure, drugs/alcohol, gang violence and sex. We stress the importance of making the right choices, the different types of consequences they will face when wrong choices are made, and the impact it leaves on families, friends and school. We teach the importance of abstinence. We also do try to guide and help them in increasing their faith by and having a positive outlook.

The HTYG currently consists of 38-40 teenagers. They were involved in Pops in the Park fund-raising, adopted the North Side Park with Keep Big Spring Beautiful, helped in the community cleanup at Mount Olive Cemetery and holds teen dances once a month for fund-raising.

Our October event will be a Halloween Dance this Saturday from 8 p.m. to midnight at Sacred Heart Youth Hall, 509 N Aylsford St. There is a $4 admission fee and it is open to all junior high and high school teens.

Upcoming events include a youth retreat Oct. 25 in San Angelo, a canned food drive for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, Thanksgiving visitation at local nursing homes, Thanksgiving meals given to families in need and participation in the Christmas parade.

Baptist Temple

Starting this Sunday and continuing every Sunday in October and November, our sermon series will be “Building Spiritual Muscle.” We will discuss habits and disciplines we need to develop to hear God and allow ourselves to be used by God. This Sunday morning we will be discussing “Building our Communication with God” from 1 Kings 19:9-18. Sunday evening’s message will be from 1 Corinthians 2:6-16.

Our weight-loss support group SPEED (Shedding Pounds Eagerly Every Day) meets Tuesdays at 5:30 p.m. in the Baptist Temple fellowship hall. There is no cost. It is open to all.

Also, our 12-Step Recovery program meets Tuesdays from 6:30-7:30 p.m. in our fellowship hall. There is no cost to attend this either.

The R.W. Johnson Memorial Library is a 10,000 volume theological library on the second floor in the west wing of our building. It is open and available to anyone during our office hours, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Books can only be kept in the library but we have a study area.

October 31, we will have our Trunk-or-Treat on our south parking lot at 12th and Goliad from 6:30-8:30 p.m. It’s free to all kids in the community.

We have Sunday school classes for all ages at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. Our worship services are at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday. We also have activities for all ages Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m.

There will be food, candy, games and prizes for all the children in a safe environment where scary things are exposed in the light of Jesus Christ. CHURCH NEWS

Saturday, Nov. 21, for "An Evening with John Calvin," presented by Flynn V. Long, pastor emeritus of First Presbyterian Church, Big Spring.

The lectionary for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time is Job 42:1-17; Psalm 34:1-8, 19-21; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 10:46-52.

Spring Creek Fellowship

Treasure brings all kind of wonderful things to mind, doesn't it? Spring Creek Fellowship's pastor, Dennis Teeters, has begun a new sermon series, "God's Treasure Box." This series will focus on God's plans and His presence for and with His children. This week, the sermon will be based on Numbers 22:21-34 and is entitled "God's Treasure Box ... A Staff."

Come and see what treasures God has for you! Sunday morning begins at Holy Grounds Cafe with coffee and pastries at 9. Sunday school connection groups begin at 9:30 and worship is at 10:45. We are ready to welcome you and your family.

Trunk or Treat is next Wednesday, Oct. 28, in front of our church in the College Park Shopping Center. The fun is from 6 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. Huge inflatable slides will be there along with face painting, candy, treats and hot dogs — all free. Bring your kids, grandkids and all of their friends. It will be a fun time for the adults, too, as we visit and watch the kids have a blast.

Wednesday will also be the kickoff for "Manana to Go," as the Spring Creek Fellowship family ministers to the homeless in the community with a good, warm meal.

If you want to be part of a church that is reaching out to the community and to those Jesus commands us to care for, then SCF is a church for you. Come be the hands and feet of Jesus with us as we minister to a hurting and hungry world.

We are located in the College Park Shopping Center and waiting to welcome you. Check us out on the Internet at springcreekfellowship.org for more information.

First Church of the Nazarene

Great things are happening at the First Church of the Nazarene. God's love is growing all around and we welcome you just as you are.

Trunk or Treat is coming to the FCN parking lot Oct. 31 from 6-8 p.m. Enjoy treats, a hay ride and much more. There will be lots of fun for any age to enjoy the harvest season.

Join us for coffee and donuts at our 9:30 a.m. Sunday fellowship. At 10 a.m., get involved in an awesome service with Worship Pastor Tim Ortman and an anointed message from Pastor Cal Callender.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m., our Naz Family has Wednesday night Sunday school with options and choices for all ages.

The Coffee Class is beginning a study called Joy Comes in the Morning for Max Lucado's book, "He Still Moves Stones." (Yes, coffee is served.) Another option is the study of the Nazarene Holiness movement and how it relates to our lives today. Or you may be a part of an exciting adult study of The Prodigal God: Recovering the Heart of the Christian Faith by Timothy Keller. Visit and find your place at FCN.

Can't come Wednesday nights? Our solution is Life Groups. Thursday nights at 7 ladies meet for fellowship, study and prayer. Also Thursday at 7, the College and Young Adults Life Group meets at Pastor Cal's house. Sunday evenings at 6:30 are Young Families Life Group (you may bring the kids) and Financial Peace University at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall.

The first Saturday of each month the men come together for a homemade breakfast, fellowship and prayer. The PrimeTimers meet the first Sunday night of each month. There is a place for you — and bring a friend!

"Adventure Bay" sets sail Sunday mornings at 10 for ages 4-11. Join the kids on a tropical island with captains, pirates, tourists and parrots! We have a lot of fun learning about Jesus.

Wednesday nights at 6:30, NazKidz (ages 4 through third grade) meet for Bible class. Get ready for some hands-on Bible activities. NazWhiz (ages fourth grade through sixth grade) meets in the fellowship hall to become Bible "whizzes." We pump up the volume with cool videos and games and learn a lot about Joshua, Judges and Ruth this school year.

Youth grades seventh through 12th, get ready for Youth Explosion Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. with Pastor Cal. Chill out in the Salt Shaker with other teens and kick it God's style.

If you have any questions about the Church of the Nazarene, call 267-7015 or e-mail us at church@nazfamily.org. Also look us up on our Facebook page under Big Spring First Church of the Nazarene.

"It Pays To Read
Big Spring Herald Classifieds"

The difference between the energy of the Libra sun and that of the Scorpio sun is substantial, and yet it's not the Scorpio sun's style to startle us with too many changes up front. It's a creeping transformation, though some sensitive souls already sense a shift of mood. Are you curious about things you didn't care to know about just yesterday?

HOLIDAY

ARIES (March 21-April 19). A change in the way things are done becomes annoying when it hampers your personal progress. Consider it an opportunity to test your flexibility. Something good is going to come of this.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Memories of your past are swirling around your head more than usual. One in particular stands out. If you take a moment to describe it on paper, you'll be in for an enlightening personal breakthrough.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Everything happens in its own time, which happens to be just when you're most ready for it. It isn't until you get tired of doing the same thing over and over that you'll reach a little deeper and make a needed change.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Changes in appearance will spawn internal changes. A haircut does the trick. As for that relationship issue you've been dealing with, don't wonder too much about where this is all going. Enjoy the ride, bumps and all.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Once begun, you'll see a task or project through to the end. This is precisely why you are generally apprehensive to begin new things. What a commitment! That said, you're on the verge of starting something.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You could win a heart with something handmade. For instance, a greeting card will be a simple, charming way to say hi to a beloved friend. Put a photo on the front of something relevant to both of you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You're seldom described as "jolly" -- just because your lithe frame doesn't suggest it. Your demeanor, however, does now. Every time you throw back your head and laugh, someone falls more deeply in love with you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You overhear some sensitive information not meant for your ears. Normally, you would be a great secret-keeper, but this is trying all your powers of discipline. Yes, it is a test.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). When you run into an old flame, don't be surprised. After all, you were both at a mutually favored location, right? Old habits die hard. Keep your head.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). The most confident people in the world are do-it-yourselfers. That's because you can never grow your confidence on someone else's work. You'll have the privilege of needing to rely on your own skill and determination.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). The external weather and your internal weather don't always match up, especially since you've learned to provide your own sunshine. The Doppler radar of your soul shows that the stormy weather is about to break up.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Hopefully you don't have too many meetings on the schedule. You'll just want to interrupt and shout, "Boooorrrrnnng!" Life is too short to suffocate through pointless administrative maneuvers. Besides, you have real work to do.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 23). You're not concerned with what everyone else is doing. You'll go where the inspiration leads and be successful because you were true to yourself. Family rifts are mended over the holidays. January brings a lucky new job, perhaps involving something you already do on the side. Vows will be exchanged in February. Aries and Leo people adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 6, 34, 29, 11 and 59.

WEEKEND LOVE FORECAST: ARIES: You'll be judged by the company you keep. TAURUS: Instead of scanning those around you to see how you compare, try to do better than you did before. Then you'll be a winner. GEMINI: If you feel insecure about something, change it fast. A coach, counselor or other professional will help you. CANCER: You're strong now, so go on and risk rejection. Give it your best, and you'll gain confidence no matter what happens. LEO: You like who you are, and that's sexy. VIRGO: Wear soft clothes and get prepared for someone to reach out and touch you. LIBRA: Your intelligence is extremely attractive to a super-smart someone. SCORPIO: Clear the schedule. A loved one needs quality, undivided attention. SAGITTARIUS: There might be a cancelation, but you'll make even better spur-of-the-moment plans to fill the slot. CAPRICORN: Money and love will mix together. Your stable attitude about finance makes this possible. AQUARIUS: Others might not know how to interpret an overly generous gesture from you. Play it cool and understated instead. PISCES: You'll be in the mood to cut loose and have some fun.

COUPLE OF THE WEEKEND: Scorpio and Pisces people are intense water signs who feel they have been connected through lifetimes even if they just met. They are both highly intuitive and lead with their feelings instead of making a logically correct choice. Situations that are too controlled will suck all of the passion out of this relationship. This weekend they should step into unknown territory together, just for the adventure of it.
