Early-Morning Blaze Destroys 2 Firms

$500,000 BLAZE—Firemen are pictured above spraying water on the fire which destroyed the Texas Theater building and Owens Department Store here last night. The fire loss has been estimated as high as $500,000 to $600,000. Cause of the fire is unknown. The fire occurred shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, and firemen had it under control about 5 o'clock, but were still spraying water on the burning rubble at noon. (Lee Watson photograph)

FIRE'S AFTERMATH—The smoking rubble of what was the old Texas Theater and Owens Department Store on the west side of the square is pictured above early this morning as city employes began cleaning up the rubble from the street and sidewalk. These two business buildings and contents were completely destroyed and three adjoining buildings have been condemed and the tennants asked to vacate. (Lee Watson photograph)

Other Buildings Damaged; Occupants Are Moving Out

One of the worst fires in Snyder's history destroyed two Snyder business buildings and their contents last night and damaged three other buildings to such an extent that they were condemned as unsafe structures and the occupants asked to vacate.

The fire occurred at about 2 o'clock this morning on the west side of the square. Damage has been estimated in excess of $200,000, with some speculation it might reach $500,000.

Destroyed were the Texas Theater building which was being converted to a business building to house offices of Snyder Community Antenna Television, and Owens Department Store, Snyder's largest independently owned department store.

The buildings housing Texas Electric Service Co. office, Snyder Drugs No. 1, and Rogers Men's Wear have been condemned as unsafe structures and the businesses have been asked to vacate the buildings as soon as possible.

Walls of Rogers Men's Wear and Snyder Drugs No. 1 were heavily damaged by heat from the fire and are leaning. City officials fear the walls may cave in.

Mayor Harold Bennett has called a special meeting of the city coucil for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and invited representatives of all insurance agencies here to attend to discuss condemnation of potential fire hazards in Snyder.

Oldtimers here recall only two other fires in Snyder's history which might compare in destruction to the one last night. They were the fire which practically destroyed the Snyder public school building at Twenty-sixth Street and Avenue M in 1937 and the fire which destroyed the cotton oil mill here in 1938.

Cause of last night's fire has not been determined. Speculation is that it could have been caused by lightning which accompanied a thunderstorm earlier in the night. The storm struck here with heavy thunder and lightning, high winds and rain at about 10:15 o'clock.

Heaviest lightning was about 1 o'clock. At that time lightning struck the city police and fire department two-way radio transmitter building and equipment. It is located at the city hall a half block from the scene of the fire.

The general fire alarm on last night's fire was sounded shortly after 2 o'clock, but the theater building was already filled with smoke so that firemen could not enter the building to fight the fire inside.

Firemen went to the roof of the theater building and Owens Department Store, but were driven off by the heat and smoke before they could begin fighting the fire from the roofs.

A few minutes later heat and smoke built up great pressure in the Theater building and blew the front windows out of the building.

Flames blossomed from the front and roof of the building, and a few minutes later the Owens building exploded, blowing the brick front to the sidewalk and street, almost trapping firemen who were working close to the fire. Roofs of the two buildings caved in then.

From that point on firemen could only attempt to contain the fire in the two destroyed buildings. They succeeded in keeping actual fire from the adjoining Snyder Drugs and Rogers Men's Wear buildings, but smoke and water damage was heavy to the Rogers store. Walls of both buildings have huge cracks, and both tilt at an angle. The wall and roof of the Rogers building was heavily damaged.

Colorado City fire equipment and men were asked to come to the aid of the Snyder fire department and they sent a fire truck and 12 men here, arriving about 3 o'clock this morning.

The Snyder fire department was hampered in its fighting of the blaze by communications troubles.

Only the main siren at the central fire station sounded, and the two outlying sirens did not work when the general alarm was sounded last night. The outlying sirens, one in East Snyder and the other in southwest Snyder, are serviced by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. service lines, and firemen said today that the lines had been out of order for some time.

Telephone service to the area at the city hall, fire station and police station was disrupted, and city police and wives of firemen who knew about the blaze went out in cars and awakened other firemen.

Fire Chief D. A. Porter condemned as unsafe the Snyder Drugs, Rogers Men's Wear, and Texas Electric Service Co. buildings, and the tennants are all preparing to start moving out later today.

The Owens Department Store building was owned by Mrs. F. G. Sears, and the theater building was owned by Mrs. T. L. Lollar, 3001 Avenue U, and N. R. Clements. Clements and the J. T. Hughes estate recently formed a corporation which owns the Snyder Community Antenna Television system, which had planned to move office furniture into the remodeled theater building today.

The Snyder Drug's building is owned by Mrs. Mary Ellis, Big Spring, the Texas Electric building is owned by Mrs. D. P. Yoder of Snyder, and Rogers building is owned by the Perkins Estate, administered by Clifton Perkins of Sweetwater.

Damage to the contents of Rogers Men's Wear was heavy, but the merchandise is to be moved to the old location of D & H Super Market at 1400 Twenty-fifth Street.

Texas Electric has already made arrangements to move its office facilities into the Lone Star Gas office, Twenty-seventh Street and Avenue R, and the equipment to the Texas Electric warehouse on Avenue M at Thirty-second Street.

Snyder Drugs No. 1 now has a sign in its window saying all precriptions can be filled at Snyder Drugs No. 2, Thirty-seventh Street and Avenue S.

Insurance men here said this morning that the insured loss would be more than $200,000, and that uninsured personal loss would be great.

Both Rogers Men's Wear and Owens Department Store had just received big shipments of fall merchandise. Porter said Owens Department Store had received $20,000 worth of fall merchandise only yesterday.

First General Rain In Weeks Soaks Scurry County Area

The first general rain in weeks fell here last night, and most of it came at the slow pace desired for soaking into the soil.

The rain, according to reports, ranged all the way from about half an inch in a limited number of places up to 2.5 or more.

Most communities in the Snyder area got as much as an inch, while several had more than two inches.

In Snyder, the official measurement at the gauge of David Strayhorn, weather observer, was 1.3, which appeared to be about the same as that in and around Snyder.

Several rural communities got as much as 2.5. There were reports of that much rain at Dunn, parts of the Lloyd Mountain area, and parts of the Knapp area.

That amount also fell on a least one area in Borden County. There was a report of 2.5 on the Mule-shoe Ranch southwest of Gail on the Colorado River, which drains into Lake J. B. Thomas.

Elsewhere in Borden County, there was about .7 at Gail, .5 in northwest Borden on the Plains, about an inch 12 miles south of Gail, and about an inch in northeast Borden.

At Fluvanna, about .9 fell in town, and rains in the area ranged from .6 to about an inch.

In north Scurry County, there was a report of 1.5 at the Dan Gibson Ranch. To the east of there at Ennis Creek, there was 2.2. At Lloyd Mountain in northeast Scurry, there were reports ranging from 1.3 to 2.4.

Camp Springs had 1.2, while there was a two-inch fall north of there. South of there at Midway, there was only .7, and reports were that there was slightly less than that west of Midway.

Hermleigh had 1.2 in town, while there was .8 east of town, 1.5 south of town, and 1.1 west of town. In the Inadale area there was a report of one inch.

Dunn had from two inches to 2.5. At Ira, there was 1.25. The Snyder pump station at Lake J. B. Thomas had one inch.

At Knapp, there were reports ranging from 1.5 to 2.5, and at Union there was .75.

Isolated Rains Hit Upper Texas Areas

By The Associated Press

Isolated downpours and storms caused splatter damage over wide areas of upper portions of Texas Thursday.

One man was taken to a hospital at Seymour after his Knox County home was splintered by high winds and giant hail stones at Vera, Texas.

Curtis Watkins, an employe of the A. E. Boyd farm near Vera, was hospitalized with three broken ribs and severe bruises. He was hurt when gusty winds splintered the small farm house in which he lived.

Rainfall reports ranged from 4.07 inches at Teaster, northwest of Weatherford in Parker County, to traces at dozens of points in north, northeast, east and central portions of the state.

Rain, mixed with damaging hail, measured between 3 and 4 inches in Knox County. Cotton and feed crops were heavily hit in the area.

Heavy rain fell for a time Thursday morning in Dallas and skies continued cloudy over the Fort Worth - Dallas area. Power was cut off for a time in the southwest portion of Abilene as wind and rain hit the city.

Light to moderate rain continued at 9:30 a.m. across central, north central, and northeast Texas. A rain cloud was southeast of El Paso.

The rains, according to the Weather Bureau, were cased by a trough of low pressure extending from Texas to the Great Lakes. The trough is drawing moist air from the south and bringing down cool air from the north.

At mid - morning the cool front extended from Ardmore, Okla., to Wichita Falls to north of Lubbock and into New Mexico.

Texas rainfall measurements include: Snyder 1.30, Electra .08, Wichita Falls .11, Colorado City .30, Brownsville .06, Weatherford 2.50, Springtown (Parker County) 2.10, Gainesville 2.00, Brock 1.75, Wink 1.51, Sherman 1.42, Midland-Odessa 1.26, Big Spri ; .48, Fort Worth .36, Dallas .27, El Paso .12, and smaller amounts at scores of points.

Sunrise temperatures ranged from 67 at Dalhart to 84 at Galveston. Maximums Wednesday included 102 at Laredo, Alice and Cotulla down to 89 at Amarillo.

LAKE THOMAS CATCHES WATER

Lake J. B. Thomas had not caught much water by late this morning but was expected to get a little more runoff from last night's rains.

At last report, the lake's level had risen .07 of a foot.

That put the level at 2,254.82. Full elevation is 2,258 feet.

Water was still running into the lake slowly at noon.

Hunt Resents Role In Probe

DALLAS (AP)—Multimillionaire H. L. Hunt said today he thought he was being treated unfairly in being "featured daily in the gambling investigation at Indianapolis."

Hunt spoke from a hospital here where he was sent several days ago. He said he had been under treatment about 60 days.

He was to tell a grand jury what he knew about a defunct Terre Haute, Ind., gambling syndicate. But U. S. Dist. Atty. Don A. Tabbert said in Indianapolis that Hunt, 68, was hospitalized for throat surgery and "should be excused."

Hunt thought so, too. "I don't know anything about all that," he said. "I'm no more guilty of gambling than you are," he said. "I don't feel I should be featured in that probe. I am not a defendant and stories I have seen sound as if I was. I think this whole thing is silly.

Showdown Is Shaping On Court Curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Opponents of a states rights measure aimed at recent Supreme Court decisions face a showdown fight today in the Senate battle over the legislation.

They lost one round last night when a motion to table the bill, and thus kill it, lost by a 46-39 vote.

The measure, identical except for minor amendments to a bill already passed by the House, is designed to prevent state laws from being declared invalid because of parallel federal legislation.

It is one of several bills which have come before the Senate this week aimed at reducing the impact of recent Supreme Court decisions involving Communism.

Left dangling when the senate adjourned last night was a motion by Sen. John Carroll (D-Colo) to refer the bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Carroll denounced the measure as an assault on the Supreme Court and said its passage would create economic chaos by upsetting established federal - state relations in many fields.

Little Rock Order Stayed

ST. LOUIS AP — The 8th Circuit U. S. Court of Appeals today granted a stay today to its decision which would return seven Negro students to Central High School at Little Rock.

Chief Justice Archibald K. Gardner announced from his home at Huron, S. D., that the seven-judge court had agreed to grant the stay.

Gardner, who wrote the only dissent in the 6-1 decision that overturned U. S. District Court Judge Harry J. Lemley's 2½ - year breather order, said the stay was granted so the Little Rock School Board could appeal to the Supreme Court.

The clerk of the appeals court, Robert Tucker, said a motion filed by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and the attorney for the Negro students would be denied. This motion asked that the appeals court issue its mandate on its decision reversing Judge Lemley immediately.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus today placed the Arkansas Legislature on a standby basis for a possible call Monday to deal with the explosive Central High School integration situation.

Thus it appeared that the Little Rock School Board failed Wednesday night to convince the governor it was doing all possible to delay re-entry of seven Negroes into the sprawling high school.

Mob riots broke out last fall when nine Negroes first entered the high school, and President Eisenhower sent paratroopers to restore order with bayonets.

Faubus today said he plans to send messages to the 100 House members and the 35 Senators but did not want to make the official call just yet.

The school board has asked a federal appeals court to stay an order that would send the seven Negroes back to the high school.

The legislators presumably would be presented with bills aimed at halting integration. A pupil assignment law already is on the books, but the board has not used it.

Accident Is Fatal To Snyder Man

Buddy Richard Jones, 21-year-old Snyder man, died in a Post hospital late yesterday afternoon from injuries suffered in an accident on an oil lease in south Garza County.

Jones, a driver for McWood Corp. of Abilene, was driving a truck leased by McWood to Motor Fuel Carriers, Inc., of Snyder when the accident occurred on the Slaughter Ranch.

The accident occurred at about 2:30 p. m., and Jones was still at the scene about 25 minutes later when a fellow employe, James Spradlin, arrived in another truck and then called for an ambulance.

Jones told Spradlin that he was driving the truck and failed to negotiate a curve. The truck hit a ledge of rock, and the impact threw Jones from the truck. The truck did not run over Jones, but he was crushed in the accident.

He crawled away from the truck and under a tree, where he was found by Spradlin. He died at about 4:10 p. m.

Jones lived at 3000 Avenue J. He was married and had two children.

Late this morning the funeral was set for 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Union Baptist Church under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Arabs Okay Formula

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The Arab countries, including pro-Western Lebanon and Jordan, today gave their final approval to a Middle East peace formula expected to bring a quick end to the emergency session of the U.N. General Assembly.

The plan, agreed on tentatively Wednesday in a rare demonstration of Arab harmony, appeared headed for unanimous adoption in the 81-nation Assembly.

The heads of the 10 Arab delegations agreed at a private meeting this morning to submit the four-point resolution endorsed by their governments in overnight consultations.

The plan was an Arab modification of a Western-backed Norwegian resolution now pending before the Assembly, and both contained key points suggested by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and President Eisenhower. But the Arab resolution shied away from specific endorsement of earlier proposals for either a U.N. police force or more U.N. observers in the Middle East.

Like the Norwegian resolution, the Arab proposal calls on Hammarskjold to make arrangements that would permit withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon and British forces from Jordan.

An American spokesman said the U.S. delegation "thoroughly approves the Arab countries' trying to deal themselves with the problem of protecting the independence of each of them. But he stopped short or outright endorsement of the new proposal, saying that the American delegates were giving it close study.

Secretary of State Dulles hastened back to the United Nations last night after a flying trip to Washington for a conference with Eisenhower. He went into immediate consultations with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge on the Arab proposal.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was understood to feel the Arab plan would pave the way for ending the session.

The United States and Britain have been main supporters of the Norwegian proposal to ask Hammarskjold to draft general recommendations for a Middle East settlement. The sudden Arab move made it doubtful the Norwegian plan would be put to a vote.

Jordan Convicts Five Young Arabs

By REINHOLD ENSZ

AMMAN (AP) — A Jordanian military court today convicted five young Arabs of exploding bombs in Amman and sentenced two of them to death.

One of the defendants was a 19-year-old girl, Nadia Salti. She got a 7½-year sentence which was immediately commuted to three years.

The death sentences were decreed for Miss Salti's 22-year-old fiance, Theodore Stephan; and Ahmed Mahmoud Ibrahim, 22, an employe of the Jordanian Health Department who was charged with leading the group.

Basil Hamati, 24, a photographer for the U.N. relief agency, was sentenced to 15 years. He was accused of smuggling explosives into Jordan on U.N. planes. A fifth defendant, Hamed Tewfiq Sammour, 22, was sentenced to 10 years.

The outcome of the trial to some extent undercut a new propaganda campaign which opponents of King Hussein outside Jordan had been trying to launch.

Adherents of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic had spread the word through the Arab world several days ago that all five defendants had been sentenced to hang. Nasser's Cairo radio called the black-haired, sullenly beautiful Miss Salti a Moslem Joan of Arc.

The trial was the second of persons charged with smuggling arms or explosives from Syria since the current crisis began. Thirteen persons were sentenced to death on Aug. 13.

Actually the girl is a Christian, a member of the Greek Orthodox Church. So is her fiance.

The Soviet news agency Tass today joined in the cry, reprinting Cairo press reports that Miss Salti had been given an "unlawful death sentence" because she resented "the occupation of her homeland by British troops."

Another bomb went off in Beirut, Lebanon, today, this one in a bus that had just reached the Lebanese capital from the southern port of Sidon. Five passengers were slightly injured.

Lebanese opposition leader Saeb Salam praised the four-point plan worked out by Arab delegates to the United Nations to bring peace to the Middle East and hasten troop withdrawals.

Some observers in Lebanon said the compromise plan indicated Lebanon's relations with Nasser would smooth out after Gen. Fuad Chehab succeeds Camille Chamoun as president Sept. 24. The plan was believed in Beirut to be largely the result of contacts between Nasser and opposition leaders likely to have more influence when Chamoun steps down.

Loreta J. Valazquez, posing as Lt. Harry T. Buford, was a noted woman spy on the confederate side in the War Between the States. She had to wear a special brace to make her appear masculine.

A spokesman told a news conference some orders placed by the old regime for light military equipment are being filled.

OFFICERS OF LUCKY 13 CLUB—Pictured above are the officers that will serve the Lucky 13 Sports Club this year. The group were pictured as they held a "Come As A Song Party" yesterday in the home of C. Unique Party Held Wed. By Lucky 13 Sports Club

The Lucky 13 Sports Club held a "Come as a Song" party yesterday which proved to be one of the most entertaining and unusual occasions of the season. This is one of a series of five rush parties held by the club.

STYLISH—The trapese swings into younger fashion circles in cotton corduroy. This beguiling young miss wears the new look in a dressy jumper and crisp white cotton blouse.

The first rush party held by the club this season was a Coke party in the home of Mrs. Amos Joyce on Aug. 15. A formal reception and masquerade ball have been planned for the rushees to be held in the near future.

Officers of the club are: Lady Falls, president; Susan Cockrell, vice-president; Pat Cary, secretary; Carla Gladson, treasurer; Ann Dyer, historian and Jan Welborn, assistant historian.

At the party yesterday winners were, Gretchen Short awarded first on her costume "Early In The Morning" and Lida Mize second with "Nothing In This World".

Sack Dress Kicks Up Commotion

By RELMAN MORIN

CAIRO (AP) — You wouldn't have expected the sack dress to kick up any commotion in Egypt, would you?

After all, it has been hanging around, so to speak, for thousands of years. You might even say the murals in the oldest tombs forecast the shapelessness of things to come.

But not even Egypt has been able to take the sack.

A man came into court the other day, demanding a divorce and custody of a 11-year-old daughter. He said his wife is a bad influence on the child.

The evidence? "She wears these sacks." The case is pending.

The venerated interpreters of religious law in the oldest Moslem university in the world, Al Azhar, have been dragged into the argument. They disagree.

One called the sack a calamity.

Another noted that religious law expressly forbids tight clothing. On that score, he observed sagely, there could be no complaint again: the new garment.

Unwittingly, the board of examiners at an Egyptian university also collided with the problem. A coed came before the board in the process of getting her degree as a doctor of philosophy. She appeared in a sack dress.

Yesterday's potatoes can be delish if whipped up with milk, butter and seasonings, fashioned into patties and fried.

Lamb Recipe

Barbecued lamb riblets are an excellent summer dish. Use your favorite barbecue sauce. First, brown the riblets in their own fat. Then pour off drippings, cover with barbecue sauce and cook slowly on top of the range or in a slow over (300 degrees F.) for 1½ hours.

Meat Pointers

Remember, when meat is overcooked, it becomes dry, tasteless in flavor and is difficult to carve. Always cook meat at a low temperature and use a meat thermometer so meat does not become too well-done.

Lemonade Pie

A summery pie in a party dress is this one made with frozen lemonade concentrate. Chill 1 cup evaporated milk in the freezing compartment of the refrigerator until it is almost frozen around the edges. Soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatine in ¼ cup cold water. Add ½ cup boiling water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add 2-3 cup sugar and a 6-ounce can of frozen lemonade concentrate. Stir until lemonade thaws, then chill until the mixture is very thick but not set. Whip the chilled evaporated milk until stiff, then fold in the gelatine mixture. Pour into a crumb or coconut crust and chill at least three hours in the refrigerator. Garnish with fresh berries or fresh daisies.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

TWO PRO FOOTBALL GAMES will be unreeled on Texas soil within the next eight days and each game will feature performances of former Southwest Conference grid stars.

King Hill, who guided the Rice Owls to the SWC championship last season, will make his pro debut for the Chicago Cardinals Saturday night when the Cards take on the Baltimore Colts in Texas' Memorial Stadium in Austin.

Hill, however, has already got a taste of pro football as he played with the College All - Stars last Friday against the Detroit Lions.

Another all - star performer, Bobby Conrad, ex-Texas Aggie, is also a member of the Cardinals and he will see action in Saturday's game at Austin.

Conrad, you'll recall, booted four field goals and kicked three extra points in the All-Star game. And this despite the fact that Conrad never kicked a field goal in his collegiate career.

And still another SWC immortal, John Crow of the Aggies, is a Cardinal, too. Crow was to have played in the All-Star game last week but was held out because of injuries.

Ex-Longhorn To Be At Home

One member of the Colts will be performing before the home folks in the Austin contest. That would be Ken Jackson, Texas Longhorn ex. Jackson played for the Longhorns in 1949-50-51. He is a 245-pound tackle.

Another star of the Colts is Raymond Berry, former SMU end. Berry finished second behind Billy Wilson in pass receptions last season with 47 and he led in yards gained on receptions with 800 yards. Berry is in his third year with the Colts.

In another pro game to be played in the Lone Star State, the Detroit Lions and Chicago Bears will tangle in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas a week from tomorrow.

Heading the Lion delegation, of course, are Bobby Layne of University of Texas and Tobin Rote of Rice who alternates at quarterback.

All four teams who will play in the two pro games at Austin and Dallas are literally sprinkled with ex-SWC stars.

AAU Official Visitor Here

A Snyder visitor the past two days was Jim Greene, a native Snyderite but who for the past several years has been associated with the National AAU operating out of Oakland, Calif.

Greene, visiting his brothers, Geral and Jake Greene, was enroute back to California from a goodwill tour to Cuba.

Greene is vice-chairman of the National AAU Publics Relations.

It was Greene who brought the Houston Corkettes, a girls swimming team, to Snyder for an exhibition two years ago.

Greene told us that two of the girls appearing here qualified for the 1956 Olympics. At the time of their appearance here the girls were enroute to Nevada for the Olympic tryouts.

Greene spent several days with Herb Elliott, the World's record holder in the mile run, and Merv Lincoln, another crack miler. Both Elliott and Lincoln, who are Australians, were invited by the AAU to compete in some of their meets on the West Coast this summer.

READY TO RETURN TO TEXAS—Texas's Roy Harris and his wife Jean meet newsmen as the defeated heavyweight challenger came out of semi-seclusion at Los Angeles. He was in good spirits despite puffed lips and eye cuts that required 14 stitches. Harris plans to return to Cut and Shoot for a big celebration. (AP Wirephoto)

TRYOUTS TO BEGIN AUG. 27

Pee Wee Grid Program Outlined

Registration for Pee Wee football for the 1958 season is currently underway at the Scurry County Boys Club.

All boys ages 10, 11 and 12 and who will not be in junior high this fall are eligible to register for the Pee Wee football program.

Tryouts will begin Aug. 27 and will continue through Sept. 6. Teams will be selected following the Sept. 6 tryout.

The boys interested in playing Pee Wee football this season may register any day at the Boys Club Headquarters until Aug. 27.

Bill Zimmerman and Bill McLaughlin will direct the Pee Wee program.

Four teams made up the Pee Wee League last year but if there are enough boys signing up this year to warrant it six teams will be formed this year.

Several men have already volunteered to serve as coaches. They are Lacy Boles, Royce Burris, Walter Hales, Levi Garrett, R. C. Waters and N. G. Carney. Additional coaches are needed.

An all-star team will be picked from the competing teams. The local all-stars will play the Panther Boys Club of Fort Worth, Nov. 1, at Tiger Stadium.

The schedule that will be followed this year will be one game at Junior High Stadium each Thursday afternoon and two games each Saturday morning.

Trophies will be presented to the boys selected by player ballot for the outstanding lineman, outstanding back and sportsmanship award.

Bums Do It Again, Beat Braves 2-1

By The Associated Press

The Dodgers did it again!

They blew some more foam off Milwaukee's National League lead last night, taking their third in a row from the Braves, 2-1.

That slashed the champs' lead to 5½ games, with two games remaining in the series at Los Angeles before Milwaukee plunges into a five-game set with the second place Giants at San Francisco.

All that with San Francisco's 4-3 afternoon victory over Cincinnati beaming down on the Braves from the Coliseum scoreboard.

Philadelphia quit the cellar and cut a losing string at seven games by rapping St. Louis 12-2 with Willie Jones driving in eight runs. Third place Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 4-2, then lost 5-1 in the second game of the doubleheader, which was held to five innings by rain and darkness.

In the American League, the New York Yankees ended their slump at four games with a 7-1 victory over Cleveland while the second place Chicago White Sox won their seventh in a row, 10-8, at Boston. Detroit belted Washington 7-1 and Baltimore defeated Kansas City 4-3.

New Jersey Lad Sets Junior Pace

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Par-breaking teenagers resumed play today in the second round of the Jaycee International Junior Golf Tournament.

[illegible] of Belleville, N. J., set the pace with a sizzling 66 in Wednesday's opening round on the par-70 El Rio Country Club course. Nick Secondo of Watsonville, Calif. fired a 67 and Fred Blackmon of Highland, N. C., finished third with 68.

Do-It-Yourself Is Tried In Dentistry

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven-year-old Debbie Scott of Brooklyn has carried the do-it-yourself idea into dentistry.

Told she'd have to have two loose front teeth pulled by a dentist, Debbie asked her mother what the dentist would do.

"Well, he's going to take something that looks like a pair of pliers and pull out the old teeth," her mother replied.

Debbie skipped away. A little later returned. Her wide grin displayed a big toothless gap. She'd found a pair of pliers, gone before the bathroom mirror and done her own dentistry.

"Didn't hurt abit," she assured her mother.

TCU, SMU With 20 Lettermen Each, Are SWC Favorites

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP)—Southwest Conference football coaches say you can't gauge the strength of their teams by the number of lettermen. It seems ther's little required these days to make a letter except just stay on the squad.

However, the experts picked the schools with the most lettermen to fight it out for the 1958 championship — Texas Christian and Southern Methodist.

Texas Christian on some occasions last year had the best team in the conference. Ohio State, the nationally ranked power, could attest to that because the Horned Frogs handed it an 18-14 defeat.

TCU comes up with a better team, to quote its own coach, Abe Martin. It was 20 lettermen and the best balanced offense in years. A thunderous ground attack will be led by halfback Marvin Lasater, who rolled up 488 yards last season, and Hunter Enis bids to give the Frogs a fine passing attack.

Southern Methodist also has 20 lettermen, including talented passer Don Meredith; the nation's top punter, Dave Sherer, and some of its most promising sophomores. The Methodists start off with Ohio State and Notre Dame, then plunge into the Southwest Conference race against the defending champion, Rice.

Texas has been mentioned in some quarters as the team that should be favored but the Longhorns won't have the experience of last season.

Rice claims it's rebuilding although the Owls still having great wingman Buddy Dial and ace fullback Ray Chilton.

Texas A & M has a lot of new faces and a new coach, Jim Myers. The Aggies will be the only single-wing team in the conference. Arkansas and Baylor are low in veteran material.

Cleveland Exec Raps Tribe Support

CLEVELAND (AP) — "We obviously can't continue this way," said the board chairman of the Cleveland Indians, William Daley.

What he meant was the home attendance, and his remark was made in connection with talk about Minneapolis getting a major league ball club — possibly Washington, possibly Cleveland.

From the "can't continue" statement he went on, "It's beginning to be evident that the Cleveland fans won't support us."

His tone represents quite a change from the sort of response that used to come from Indian management every time transfer rumors popped up.

The statement in the past was to the effect that the management has no plans or intentions of moving, followed by a mild "unless" attendance dropped too far.

This time there still are disclaimers that the club is doing any negotiating. But Daley seems to be a little less specific these days in the customary denials.

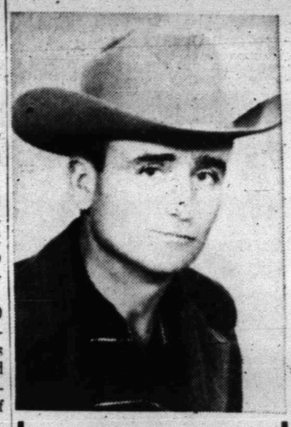

Hanson Favored In Waterloo Fem Open

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP) — Most of the country's top professional women golfers tee off today in the 72-hole Waterloo Open.

Notably absent from the ladies PGA group were Patty Berg, Betsy Rawls and Mickey Wright but the others were seeking a share of the $7,500 prize money.

A favorite is Beverly Hanson, the Californian whose most recent appearance in Iowa was to win the Women's Western Open at Des Moines last year. Other contenders are Fay Crocker of South America, Betty Jameson, a member of golf's Hall of Fame, and Bonnie Randolph, who last week won at Kansas City.

Danny Ane, sophomore fullback at Michigan State, is the brother of Charlie Ane, center for the Detroit Lions.

Baker Denies Use Of Union Money To Support Blonde

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert (Barney) Baker swore today he didn't use teamster money to support a blonde convicted slayer in luxury in Miami in 1955. He said he couldn't remember exactly where he did get the money.

Baker, a $125 a week teamsters union organizer at the time, said the funds he put out for blonde Mrs. Ruth Brougher were "nothing like" the $20,000 to $25,000 she has testified he lavished on her. He set the figure Wednesday at $7,000 or $8,000.

Pressed by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee to tell the source of the thousands, the 300-pound Baker pleaded, "I can't remember. I don't want to perjure myself."

Baker, an ex-convict described by police as a onetime muscleman on the New York waterfront, said he had no recollection of threatening to kill Mrs. Brougher's lawyer or trying to strangle a Chicago hotel man who had complained about his bill. But he did not flatly deny he did those things.

He did deny giving to Mrs. Brougher's lawyer, George Everett, in an effort to fix the courts on her appeal from a manslaughter conviction.

Mrs. Brougher, 44, now is serving a 15-year sentence for the July, 1954, Miami parking lot slaying of Murray Dubois, a boy friend. She said he was pistol-whipping her and was shot in a struggle over the weapon.

Baker said he could pin down the source of only $4,000 of the money he spent on Mrs. Brougher in less than a year while she waited out her appeal in plush surroundings.

He said he borrowed that much from Mert Wertheimer. He identified Wertheimer as a "boss" at the Colonial Inn in Hollywood, Fla., a night club operated by Frank Costello, Joe Adonis and and other mobsters.

As for the rest of the money, Baker said, "I borrowed money from a few people." When asked the identity of the loaners, he replied, "I can't recollect."

He vaguely remembered, he added, borrowing some money from a St. Louis bank. When pressed for details, he replied, "to the best of my knowledge, I don't know."

He first denied asking Mike (Trigger Mike) Copola, notorious Miami mobster, for money to help Mrs. Brougher.

Under examination by committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy, Baker later said: "The only time I talked to him (Copola) was to try to help Ruth Brougher...(I said) she needed some money."

Mrs. Brougher, brought under guard from a Florida prison to testify here, told the committee Wednesday Copola gave her $5,000.

She said she had no idea where the money Baker spent on her came from. Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) had asked whether it came from Baker's own funds, the teamsters treasury or was stolen or kidnap money.

CHARGES SMEAR — Robert (Barney) Baker, 300-pound ex-convict and Teamsters official, shakes a finger as he testifies before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington. Baker bellowed at the senators, saying they are trying to smear Gov. Averell Harriman of New York. Baker said testimony of his ex-wife, Mollie Baker, was that of a "vengeful woman, a woman scorned." Rural Fire Protection Is Discussed

Rural fire protection was discussed by D. A. Porter, Snyder Fire Chief, at Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the Village Restaurant.

Porter explained the method provided by a new statute which enables rural areas to organize their won fire protection districts. He said areas which are not served by city fire departments may vote on creation of such districts if they follow the prescribed procedure. Then, when established, equipment can be provided at strategic locations to combat rural fires.

Porter said rural fires represent a growing problem, although there is better cooperation between city and county governments in that respect here than in many other places.

However, he said city firemen usually are handicapped in efforts to fight rural fires for the simple reason that equipment must be moved several miles after an alarm is turned in from a rural area.

Two Plead Innocent Of Stock Swindle

NEW YORK (AP)—Two men were freed on bond today after pleading innocent to charges of a three million dollar stock swindle in which they were described as the prime movers while hobnobbing with the wealthy.

Peter Crosby and William McCarthy were released by U.S. Dist. Judge Murphy yesterday pending a hearing Sept. 17 for setting a trial date. Seven others accused in the case were releaed on bails totaling $17,000.

McCarthy is a brother of Texas Oil Man Glen McCarthy.

Trade Bill Is Signed By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed legislation giving the reciprocal trade program four more years of life. It is the longest extension ever granted by Congress.

The administration had requested a five-year extension, but Eisenhower made it clear in signing the bill Wednesday that he was quite happy with what Congress provided.

Eisenhower said, the free nations, "are now assured of a continuity in United States trade policy that will make possible new international negotiations to promote mutually advantageous commercial exchange and increased world productivity."

The four-year extension of the 24-year-old program is expected to give the government sufficient power to deal with future trade problems arising from the new European Common Market.

This is a union of France, Italy, West Germany and the Benelux countries in a common market embracing some 160 million consumers.

Besides giving authority for the program to operate through June 30, 1962, the legislation provides additional powers to cut tariffs 20 per cent in return for like concessions from other nations.

The law also will now permit Congress, by a two-thirds vote of both House and Senate, to sustain recommendations of the Tariff Commission for higher duties or import quotas, even though the President may disagree.

Troop Talk Resented

The Supreme Court of the United States is going to be confronted by a ticklish problem, and from here it appears to stem from its own doing.

Now that an appellate court has ruled out the "breathing spell" for integration in Little Rock's Central High School, the barriers are going up in the south land again, and the President of The United States did not exactly apply any soothing ointment when he implied that he would not hesitate to send Federal troops to Little Rock again if it should become "necessary."

Indications are that the Supreme Court will get an opportunity to rule on the "breathing spell" decision, and therein the highest court in the land may run into a sort of paradox of its own making.

The Supreme Court has decreed integration. On the other hand, one of its most significant decisions concerning the racial disputes left the matter in the hands of Federal District Judges, particularly in timing the integration schedule in local areas. In accordance with that procedure, a Federal District Judge, Harry L. Lemley, gave Little Rock's Central High School 2½ years to ease tension before trying integration again. The 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis set aside Judge Lemley's ruling.

As the matter stands, the battle might well be tagged "Faubus vs. Eisenhower." Gov. Orval Faubus, who was swept back into office by Arkansas voters a few days ago, is regarded as a great champion of state's rights throughout the Deep South. This was impressed upon us recently during a brief tour through the eastern section of Texas.

People in that area, where there is a substantial Negro population, are seldom conscious of Arkansas politics. This year, however, there was more interest in the Arkansas governor's race in some Texas counties than there was in our own state races, with a possible exception of the Texas race for the U. S. Senate post.

President Eisenhower, who has been reluctant to take stern action when many other grim problems have arisen, may rest assured that Federal Troop talk is resented by people in the South.

Few Discomforts Found In Desert

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

HASSI MESSAOUD, Algeria (AP)—Some 3,000 men live and work in the heart of the Sahara without suffering many of the hazards and discomforts of desert life.

Their major problem is lack of women.

The men are employes of French oil companies building what they hope is a future French oil empire amid sun-baked sand dunes.

They live in air-conditioned huts with running water, showers, and plugs for electric razors. They are served five-course meals in air-conditioned dining rooms. Their bars offer a variety of French and foreign drinks—at a fraction of the normal price.

Every day planes land on airstrips in the middle of the desert with mail and newspapers.

The wages of the men of Hassi Messaoud oil site are on the average twice as high as those of comparable workers in France. Their lodging costs nothing and their food costs about $15 a month.

One of the oil companies estimated that in addition to salary and initial investment in living quarters, each man costs it $14 a day.

The workers also receive special bonuses. In summer, when the outside temperature reaches 125 degrees Fahrenheit, the bonuses are the highest.

Every three weeks, the men of the Hassi Messaoud site are transported by plane — free — for a week's rest in Algiers, 500 miles away. Those who want to go to France must pay their own way.

Ninety per cent of the workers are French citizens — of whom two-thirds are Moslems. About 7 per cent are ex-Foreign Legion members and about 3 per cent are skilled foreign technicians.

The site is linked with the oasis of Ouargla—some 60 miles north—by a recently built concrete road. Heavy trucks roll over the road while camels plod through the sands nearby.

Most of the old-timers are proud of making it into an oil town.

None of the oil companies, however, has managed to solve the most acute problem — lack of women. The site is still not ready to install family dwellings, and anyway the added cost frightens the firms.

Said an ex-Foreign Legionnaire: "It is the third week here that always seems the longest. And then your week in Algiers seems like a day and you're back here for another three weeks, thinking of your next leave. That's our life."

Grade Changes For Sheep Are Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to amend the official standards for grades of slaughter lambs and sheep has been put forward by the Agriculture Department.

Officials indicated the changes are intended to coordinate the standards for grades of slaughter lambs and sheep with changes made last February in the standards for grades of lambs, yearling mutton and mutton carcasses.

Labor Reform Is A Campaign Issue

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor reforem-and what Congress failed to do about it-is now a full-blown campaign issue in the 1958 congressional elections.

Democrats and Republicans will blame each other for what didn't come to pass. But the fact is neither side looks pretty in this one.

President Eisenhower has already rushed to the defense of his Republicans with a statement Wednesday. This is how it started and ended:

Last January Eisenhower proposed-as a result of disclosures by the Senate Rackets Committee-a 12-point labor reform program.

The Democratic-run Senate on June 17 passed its own bill which fell short of all Eisenhower wanted. It was sponsored by Senators Irving M. Ives (R-NY) and John F. Kennedy (D-Mass).

Republicans and Democrats teamed up to shove it through 88-1.

This bill sought to throttle racketeering by both unions and employers. It would have required detailed reports on union affairs and funds, along with reports by employers on how much money they spent on labor relations activities.

Further, it would have barred convicted crooks from holding union office, required secret ballot union elections for limited terms, and let union members sue to recover stolen union funds or property. And it would have made management representatives take a non-Communist oath, just as union leaders have to do.

Then the bill went over to the Democratic-run House. There the leader of the House Democrats, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, bottled it up 41 days by keeping it on his desk. He finally sent it to the House Labor Committee for consideration July 19. Why the delay?

He explained: He didn't want to get it entangled with another piece of labor legislation the Labor Committee was considering.

But the House Labor Committee is run by Democrats. They didn't want any part of the Ives-Kennedy bill. In fact 16 of them, joined by six Republicans, voted against even considering the bill. The committee also voted against considering a Republican-backed substitute.

Finally, the bill was yanked out of the committee's hands and thrown before the full House for action. Under the special procedure used, the bill couldn't be amended. It also required a two-thirds vote for passage.

But then the Republicans got in their licks. They closed ranks to kil lthe bill on the floor. A big majority of them, joined by some Democrats, voted to kill the bill. It was killed.

Yet a big majority of Democrats on the floor voted for the bill which was a switch for their party since an overwhelming number of Democrats in the Labor Committee had voted against ever letting the bill see the light of day.

Sen. Ives was incensed at what happened in the House. He said he was ashamed of it. But he also said: "A lot of House members were misled by false propaganda by the National Assn. of Manufacturers, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the American Retail Federation, the Teamsters, and the United Mine Workers. Can you imagine a more unholy alliance?"

Kennedy also struck out at the NAM. That organization's president, Milton C. Lightner, said it was true his organization had opposed the bill but he denied NAM pressure killed it.

So everything was confused but warming up for a who-struck-John fight in the campaign when Eisenhower issued a statement Wednesday. He was highly critical of the Ives-Kennedy bill-although his Senate Republicans had voted overwhelmingly for it. He objected mostly on the grounds it didn't go far enough.

Runoff Campaign Quiet In State

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff Writer

If Texans find something missing in their lives these hot August days it may be that they note the absence of sound and fury that marks Texas runoff primaries.

Instead of shouting and name calling, the Democratic party runoff finds two gentlemen campaigning with quietness and reticence.

It's the only statewide race to be decided next Saturday. Voters settled all other major nominations July 26. Only about 250,000 votes are expected, compared with nearly 1,300,000 in the first primary.

Reason for the quietness is the nature of the office — Associate Supreme Court justice.

There just aren't many issues a candidate for a court can raise.

The opposing candidates have raised some, but they're of the polite variety.

The opponents are Edwin Smith, a scholarly appearing Houston attorney, and Robert Hamilton, the jovial chief justice of the 8th Civil Appeals Court at El Paso.

In the first Democratic primary Hamilton received 476,799 votes and Smith 311,481. Wilmer Hunt, the third candidate, was eliminated with 303,606 votes.

Hamilton, 58, was appointed to the El Paso court in 1953 and had no opposition when he ran in 1954 for a full term.

His campaign is pitched largely to the theme that experience on the appeals court is important and that he has a fine record.

But Smith, 47, disagrees that experience necessarily is the only qualification for a judge.

"I consider it almost a necessity for the virility of the court that from time to time lawyers fresh from the legal battle of the county courthouses and recently familiar with the preparation, trial and appeal of cases should ascend the bench. The court, if it is to be well rounded, needs from time to time this county courthouse grass roots viewpoint," Smith says.

More is spent on concerts by music lovers in the United States than on professional baseball games by sports fans.

Junior Editors Quiz on EXPLORATION

QUESTION: Are there any unexplored places on the earth?

ANSWER: There are still a few places on earth where man has never set foot, as far as is known. But we already know where these places are and what they are like, because in most cases, airplanes have flown over and photographed them. They remain unexplored because of the difficulty of reaching them on the ground.

The most prominent unexplored areas are the sections of the steaming jungles of inland Africa and Brazil, where animals, like the monkey in this picture, are not bothered by humans. The high, cold lands of Tibet are not well known because they are hard to reach. And some sections of the Arctic and Antarctic have not been well charted. The picture shows a scientist pushing into previously unexplored territory on Antarctica.

Even before man has fully mapped his own land, he is turning his attention to the universe. Artificial satellites are probing the secrets of space in preparation for human flight to other planets.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Read about some of the world's great explorers in history books. Follow the progress of space exploration in your newspaper.

• • •

(An award of $10 goes to Nino Van Gestel of Litchfield, Conn., for this question. Do you have a good one? Send it on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. Tomorrow: How far can a frog jump?) 8-21

Jet Downed By Missiles In Training

GRANDVIEW, Mo. (AP)—High over western Missouri a jet plane streaked northward toward Kansas Wednesday. It was unidentified, and thus presumed by the Air Force to be an enemy.

At Richards-Gebaur AFB here on the southern outskirts of Kansas City, a sleek E102A jet took off to intercept the invader.

Within minutes, 1st Lt. Roland Svane, 26, Seattle, and his interceptor sighted the aggressor aircraft at 41,000 feet.

Svane attacked. Three Falcon air-to-air missiles shot from the interceptor toward the target. One of them hit the tail of the plane, and the jet headed earthward. Its two crewmen bailed out.

Unfortunately, the enemy was a T33 Air Force trainer and Svane's attack was a routine practice maneuver. Routine, that is, until the three missiles, which automatically seek their targets and explode if they miss, were discharged.

The trainer's crew, 1st Lt. John D. Rice, 27, Sacramento, Calif., and 1st Lt. Raymond Zuhars Jr., 26, Evansville, Ind., escaped with cuts and bruises. They landed on a farm near Clinton, Mo.

Svane declined comment when asked what caused the Falcons to fire. Rice and Zuhars, who are being treated at Richards - Gebaur Hospital, were equally reticent.

Air Force officials said they are investigating.

6 Servicemen Die In Crash

FLORENCE, Tex. (AP)—Two autos collided headon with terrific impact on a winding road just north of this Central Texas town shortly before midnight last night, killing six servicemen.

Four were members of a reserve unit taking summer training at Ft. Hood and the others were Regular Army men stationed at Hood.

Both autos were demolished and everyone in both cars died.

The four reservists were identifed as Sgt. James Cobb, 26, Sgt. Lacey Stinson, 25, Cpl. John Manley, 21, and Cpl. Machiell Nasser.

Sgt. Leonard Zimmerman and Sgt. Thomas Storms, 25, were the other soldiers killed. Their home towns were not immediately available.

CAA Chief Denies Blame For Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil Aeronautics Administrator James T. Pyle denied his agency is partly to blame for an air collision which took 49 lives near Las Vegas, Nev., last April 21. The Civil Aeronautics Board head said the CAA and Air Force must share some of the responsibility for the accident. Pyle contended the CAA couldn't take the necessary measures to control airspace in the area because military and commercial users would not make sufficient voluntary concessions.

Nuclear Control Panel Proposes Inspection Plan

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP)—The East-West conference on nuclear test control ended today after recommending a worldwide system of inspection stations to police any future agreement to ban nuclear weapon tests.

The eight-nation conference held a final formal session at which a part of the technical agreement reached was announced.

The seven-week conference was confined strictly to scientific questions. The Western delegates were instructed to hold no negotiations toward agreement on a test ban, but only to make recommendations to the governments on how such a ban could be policed.

Advance word of the agreement was followed by a report in Washington Wednesday night that the United States is about ready to announce a temporary suspension of nuclear weapons tests. The Soviet Union announced a unilateral test suspension last March. The third atomic-arms power, Britain, is preparing to start a new series of tests in the Pacific.

The experts urged that control station staffs should have complete freedom of movement for on-the-spot investigations, and that stations should be set up at sea as well as on land.

An announcement said the combined use of various known methods for detecting nuclear explosions could make control of a test ban feasible "within certain specific limits."

The announcement did not explain these limits.

The conference's published findings did not recommend any definite number of control stations, nor a maximum effective distance between the stations.

The announcement listed the following methods to be used by the control stations: "collecting samples of radioactive debris, recording seismic, acoustic and hydroacoustic waves, and the radio signal method, together with the use of on-site inspection of unidentified events which might be suspected of being nuclear explosions."

Meg Turns 28, Losing Money

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret became 28 today and automatically began losing another 9,000 pounds—$25,200—a year.

That's what it cost Queen Elizabeth's pretty sister not to have a husband.

Margaret's matrimonial losses are figured this way:

Parliament in 1937 granted her an annuity of 6,000 pounds on attaining the age of 21, or upon marriage.

In 1952, Parliament increased the amount, to become payable on marriage, to 15,000 pounds a year.

This, of course, means that it costs her 9,000 pounds every year she remains single.

Shed no tears for Margaret's financial situation, however. She is loaded.

By law she and other members of the royal family are exempt from paying income tax.

They pay no inheritance tax. Margaret is known to have been left substantial sums by her father, King George VI, and her grandmother, Queen Mary.

She pays no rent at Clarence House or at Royal Lodge, Windsor Great Park, her official residences.

She shares her residences with her mother, the Queen Mother, which means paying only half the food, electricity, gas, coal and water bill.

She celebrated her birthday in Scotland as the Queen's guest at Balmoral Castle.

At breakfast she was reported to have received her birthday presents.

A small family dinner party was on tap for the evening, after a royal family picnic on the shores of Lock Muick.

But she's still out another 9,000 pounds. And, unless it's the best kept secret in the Highlands, no suitor is coming through the rye.

Justices Of Nine States Rap Decisions

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Recent Supreme Court decisions raise doubt that America has a government of laws and not of men, chief justices of nine states allege.

They accuse the nation's highest court of assuming the role of policy maker without proper judicial restraint.

The justices, representing both Northern and Southern states, presented the 36-page report Wednesday to the annual Conference of Chief Justices. Delegates are present from the 48 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

A resolution offered with the report urged the Supreme Court to exercise judicial self-restraint in differentiating between constitutional rights and powers on the one hand and local self government on the other.

The report said in part:

"It has long been an American boast that we have a government of laws, not of men. We believe that any study of recent decisions of the Supreme Court will raise at least considerable doubt as to the validity of that boast.

"We find that in constitutional cases unanimous decisions are comparative rarities, and the multiple opinions . . . are common occurrences. We find next that divisions on a 5-4 basis are quite freque..t...."

The report's conclusions were based on cases involving the 14th amendment, which safeguards civil rights.

W. J. Martin To Tanker Squadron

W. J. (Butch) Martin of Snyder left yesterday for Norfolk, Va., where he will be stationed with a tanker squadron dealing with refueling of jets in mid-air.

The Snyder Navy man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin. He is married to the former Jan White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie B. White, 2600 Twenty-fifth Street, where she also resides.

In September, Martin will leave for Naples, Italy with the tanker squadron.

He has just completed serving 27 months at Key West, Fla.

Fresh Vegetables Best Food Buys

By The Associated Press

Potatoes, cabbage, greenbeans, tomatoes and onions are among the best buys at Texas food markets this week, the Agriculture Marketing Service says.

Slightly lower in price than a week ago are California and Colorado cauliflower, corn and cucumbers. About unchanged in price and in good supply are carrots, celery, lettuce, green peppers, squash and field peas.

Supplies of sweet potatoes are increasing but prices are still relatively high.

Supplies of apples are gradually increasing and prices about steady. First Delicious Apples from North Carolina and New Mexico were received this week. Bananas are down 1 to 3 cents a pound. California grapes and plums and Washington Italian Prune prices are unchanged. Cantaloups in most areas are slightly higher. Watermelons are still cheap.

Peaches are not as plentiful but prices are generally unchanged. First load of peaches from Illinois appeared Tuesday.

Bartlett pears are arriving in larger volume, and prices are gradually coming down.

Whole frying chickens continue to be featured as weekend specials in most areas, with 29 cents a pound the popular price. There is no indication prices will show any great change as farm offerings continue heavy. Lower retail prices are showing up on many beef and pork cuts. Among these are pork loin roasts and chops, beef chuca and rib roasts, short ribs and ground beef.

Egg prices are generally steady, with lower grades and smaller sizes slightly lower and large size top grade slightly higher in some areas.

Tests Are Halted After Complaints

DENVILLE, N.J. (AP) — Reaction Motors Inc. has bowed to complaints by local residents and halted round-the-clock tests on a rocket engine designed for the first manned space vehicle.

Some 150 residents of the Hibernia and Lake Telemark areas petitioned the company, saying they did not want to appear unpatriotic but complaining the noise and vibration caused physical discomfort and property damage.

Reaction Motors agreed to restrict major tests on the engine, the X15, to the hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

2 Pacifists Are Assessed Top Fines

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Two pacifists received maximum fines Wednesday for attempting to halt construction of an Atlas missile launching installation near here.

Fines of $100 and costs were assessed against the Rev. Mr. Theodore Olson, 26, of Fallsington, Pa., and Ellanor Calkins, 22, of Chicago by Justice of the Peace Tosh Suyematsu. They were charged with trespassing.

Olson also was fined $20 and sentenced to two days in jail when Suyematsu found him in contempt of court for saying he would continue resistance action at the missile base.

A plea of innocent to a charge of trespassing was entered by Arthur Springer, 23, of Brooklyn. Springer was released on $350 bond.

Kenneth Calkins, 23, Mrs. Calkins' husband, has a similar charge against him. He is in a hospital here with a broken pelvis suffered Tuesday when he was struck by a truck while he sat at the gate to the missile installation.

Petrified trees (where geologic action changes the wood to agate) are still found in northeast Arizona. Indians once used the unusually hard rock to make arrowheads.

Fire Interrupts Senator's Speech

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — State Sen. Charles Bennett interrupted a campaign speech to shout: "This house is on fire!"

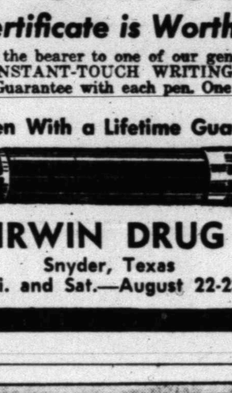

Soon three companies of firemen were searching the house for the origin of smoke. A burning roll of toilet paper was found, believed set afire by children.

Bennett, throughout the commotion, passed out campaign buttons and cards to firemen and onlookers alike.

Tito Issues Warning

LONDON (AP)—President Tito has warned Yugoslavs to be on guard against attempts to divide them — especially "by those who should be our friends." He referred to attacks from the Soviet Union and Red China.
