Parade, graduation ceremonies, May Day festivities scheduled

It should be a busy Saturday for Scurry County residents and some visitors to the area, who can attend a parade, college graduation ceremonies and the annual Senior Citizens Center May Day festivities.

Saturday's parade is a part of the Suez Shrine Temple's Spring Ceremonial, being held here over the weekend. The public is invited to the parade, which will begin at 10 a.m. at Varsity Square shopping center and travel around the square.

There were many more activities planned for Shriners — some 225 to 250 are expected here — including a golf tournament this morning, a style show for the women Saturday and initiation ceremonies that afternoon at the county ag complex.

Shriners will enjoy a dance Saturday evening at the country club and wind up activities with a breakfast Sunday morning at the Dermott School.

Western Texas College will hold its graduation ceremonies at 11 a.m. Saturday in the central courtyard on campus. The public is invited.

A reception will follow in the student center.

May Day activities get underway at 2 p.m. in Scurry County Coliseum. The Country Store and booths featuring craft items and baked goods will open at that time.

A barbecue meal will be served from 4:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $5 and must be purchased in advance. Tickets are available today at the Senior Citizen's Center.

The annual May Day action will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the coliseum. Dozens of quilts and other homemade items will be auctioned.

Tickets are not necessary to visit the booths or participate in the auction.

A—Thirty-six states, including Texas, have the death penalty.

In Brief

School finance

AUSTIN (AP) — A decision on whether to call lawmakers into a special session on public school finance will be made in the next couple of days, Gov. Ann Richards has said.

"I think we've got to find out, and make a decision on it this weekend," Richards said Thursday.

Richards had earlier said she wanted to call the Legislature into special session May 11 to address the Texas Supreme Court ruling that the new tax system to fund public schools is unconstitutional.

But then she said no consensus was forming. As late as Wednesday, she said, she believed that no plan would surface.

But, she said Thursday, "After talking to some people, I'm feeling more that it is possible."

Graduation ceremonies set at WTC

Saturday's graduation ceremonies at Western Texas College will mark two "firsts" for the college.

The ceremonies are unique in that they will precede final exams. It is also the first time the ceremonies will be conducted on a Saturday and during the morning hours.

The event will begin at 11 a.m. A reception will follow in the Student Center. The public is invited.

Student speakers will be Francesa Helm of Colorado City, Terry Riedel of Post and Steven Spaugh of Dallas. Dr. Ed Barkowsky, chairman of the Communications and Letters Division, will give the faculty response.

The change in date this year was implemented to accommodate graduating students by allowing them to leave as soon as finals are over. Students are still required to take finals, however, even though graduation ceremonies will precede the tests.

Graduation candidates for the Associate in Arts degree include Amber L. Adams, Janice L. Beard, Scot A. Berger, Joann Sharon Bishop, Gina Eileen Burnett, Andra S. Carpenter, Mark Carroll, Bernice DeLeon Castillo, Thomas Chad Cleckler, Sherron Sue Cribbs, Karen Renee Dollar, Griselda Espino and Rachel Renae

Vote Saturday

Contested races expected to spark sizeable turnout

A better than average voter turnout is expected for Saturday's school and college board of trustee elections, particularly in the Snyder school board race, where over 600 people cast ballots during the early period.

Elections are being held at three locations Saturday for Snyder City Council, Western Texas College board, and Ira, Hermleigh and School school boards. Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Snyder voters casting ballots for city council, college board or Snyder ISD board will vote at City Hall. Hermleigh residents voting for college board or Hermleigh ISD board will vote at Hermleigh High School. Ira voters will cast their ballots in the college board and Ira ISD board elections at Ira Community Center.

Election clerks reported 627 early period ballots were cast in the Snyder public schools board of trustees race. Another 10 ballots are still out.

Eight candidates are running for two at-large positions on the board. In order of ballot appearance, they include Benjamin Felan, an 18-year-old Snyder High School senior; Luann Burleson, 41-year-old incumbent; Mike Levens, a 41-year-old Price Daniel unit department head; and Charles G. Anderson, 61-year-old farmer and retired school administrator.

The other candidates are Tim Coffman, 37-year-old pastor of Avenue D Baptist Church; Travis Bunch, 37-year-old vice president of Bunch Oil Co.; Rudy Gutierrez, 48-year-old parental involvement coordinator for Big Spring ISD; and Richard Chambers, 39-year-old Highland Pump Co. salesman.

Also expected to draw key interest is the WTC trustee election, which has four candidates seeking two positions.

Carolyn Barbee, 45-year-old bookkeeper-receptionist, is challenging Mike Dennis, 37-year-old vice president of McCormick Marketing, for Place 3 on the board.

The Place 4 race has W. Jay Kidd, a 40-year-old dentist, against 58-year-old farmer and retired engineer Joe Flowers.

Clerks reported 154 votes cast during the early period.

Thirty-seven people voted early in the Hermleigh ISD board election, where six candidates are running for two at-large seats on the board. They are R. Neil Beeks, a 47-year-old Sweetwater middle school teacher; Ronnie Price, the incumbent and a 51-year-old co-owner of Price Brothers Construction; Nelson Edwin Eckert, 36-year-old farmer; Allen Kuss, 41-year-old senior pipeliner for Sun Pipeline; and Randy Bates, 37-year-old area supervisor for Allsup's.

The Ira ISD board election drew 38 early votes. Place 1 on the board is being contested by 30-year-old Snyder National Bank vice president Darryl Calley, and Don Davis, a 36-year-old pumper for L.B. Simmons Energy.

In the race for Place 7, 40-year-old farmer Wylie H. Oliver, the incumbent, is being challenged by two men: R. Douglass White, a 41-year-old materials coordinator

SDN staff not taking photos in area homes

Scurry County Sheriff's Office reported that people identifying themselves as Snyder Daily News employees telephoned several residents this morning asking to come into their homes and take photographs.

The callers, both male and female, usually said they wanted to photograph the homes because they were located on historical sites.

Snyder Daily News personnel have not made these calls and would encourage anyone who recieves a call similar to this to contact police or the sheriff's office.

Sheriff's deputies speculate that the people making the calls may have been trying to gain access to resident's homes for illicit purposes.

Law enforcement beefed up in riot-ravaged Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — National Guard troops and police moved today to try to take back neighborhoods lost to looters, brick throwers and arsonists in the worst urban rioting in the United States since the 1960s.

President Bush put 4,000 Army troops on standby and dispatched 1,000 federal law enforcement officers to Los Angeles.

A thick pall of smoke hung over the city this morning and fires continued to burn out of control in some areas. But authorities said a dusk-to-dawn curfew had partially succeeded in curtailing the rioting.

Police said at least 27 people died, 1,235 were injured, and more than 3,000 were arrested since rioting erupted following Wednesday's acquittal of four white policemen in the videotaped beating of black motorist Rodney King.

The mayor's office estimated damage at at least $200 million.

Bush called a morning meeting of civilian and military advisers to discuss the rioting. He then ordered law enforcement officials — including SWAT teams and riot police from the Border Patrol, the Bureau of Prisons and the U.S. Marshal's Service — to report to the riot-torn city.

"The U.S. Army will move ap-

Chevron Production to eliminate 2,300 jobs by September

From Local, Wire Reports

Chevron's domestic production subsidiary announced Thursday it would eliminate some 2,300 jobs by September, accounting for almost all the jobs cuts estimated earlier this year for the entire corporation.

Chevron USA Production Co. President Ray Galvin informed employees of the cutbacks - 28 percent of the subsidiary's president labor force of 8,100.

The company president said Chevron hopes to induce some employees to take early retirement and would begin phased layoffs May 15.

H.J. Payne, superintendent of the Scurry County's SACROC unit operated by Chevron, said local employees have not been informed of their status. Some have already received early retirement packages.

The company restructing is unrelated to the company's announcement last September that it would put up for sale its 20.84 percent interest in the SACROC unit. If sold, Chevron would resign as unit operator. However, planned divestitures are expected to impact some 600 jobs.

Payne said companies were in the process of evaluating bid packages, and that bids are due to be opened on May 15.

In the company statement Thursday, the domestic production subsidiary said it would move its headquarters from San Francisco to Houston.

The company will form a new structure of three business units from the current five. The new units will be in Houston, new Orleans and Bakersfield, Calif. The current unit in Denver will be closed while Midland, now home to a business unit, will become the base for two smaller profit centers.

Fourteen profit centers will be created — five reporting to Houston, five to New Orleans and four to Bakersfield. Profit centers will manage the company's oil and gas production. A small number of exploration employees will remain

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Living in the past has at least one thing in its favor — it's cheaper."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

The wisdom of running a horoscope column in newspapers has been widely debated. Although we have no confidence in them, many readers find them entertaining. Frankly, we've never run across an individual who ran their lives based on the stars.

Ed White, a newspaper man from White Sands, N.M., obviously was not a believer, either. He wrote some of his own, tongue-in-cheek. Here's a sample:

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You have an inventive mind and are inclined to be progressive. You lie a great deal. On the other hand, you are inclined to be careless and impractical, causing you to make the same mistakes. People think you are stupid.

Pices (Feb. 19-March 20). You have a vivid imagination and often think you are followed by the CIA. You have minor influence over your associates and people resent your flaunting of power. You lack confidence and are generally a coward.

Aries (March 21-April 19). You are the pioneer type and hold most people in contempt. You are quick tempered, impatient and scornful of advice. You are not very nice.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). You are practical and persistent. You have a dogged determination and work hard. Most people think you are stubborn and bullheaded. Taurus people have bad breath.

Gemini (May 21-June 20). You are a quick and intelligent thinker. However, you are inclined to expect too much for too little. This means you are cheap.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You are the logical type and hate disorder. This nitpicking is sickening. You are cold and unemotional and sometimes fall asleep while making love. Virgos make good bus drivers.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22). You are the artistic type and have a difficult time accepting reality. Chances for employment and monetary gains are excellent, if only you were not so lazy.

Is a Middle East peace process underway?

By Barry Schweid
AP Diplomatic Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fifth round of Mideast peace talks ended with Israeli enthusiasm and Arab restraint — two different appraisals of meetings that were marked by a shift from procedure to substance.

Israeli spokesman Benjamin Netanyahu, whose government faces elections in June, proclaimed the latest round of talks at the State Department the most productive since Arabs and Israelis began the process in Madrid last November.

AP News Analysis

The Arabs, determined to reflect resolve, were diffident about the results. They publicly minimized what Israel put on the table, including proposals to hold municipal elections on the West Bank and in Gaza and to turn over to the Palestinians administration of 14 hospitals in the territories.

Palestinian negotiators neither accepted nor rejected Israel's propositions. At the last round, Israel's outline of limited self-rule on the West Bank and Gaza was dismissed as insulting and irrelevant.

The Palestinians hope to erect a state on Israeli-held territory. Anything that did not hold the promise of statehood was brushed aside in the fourth round as a ploy to maintain Israel's control of the land and its 1.7 million Palestinian Arab inhabitants.

This time, though, the Palestinians engaged the Israelis in negotiations. Unquestionably, their goals have not changed, but their tactics have. One reason could be sharp U.S. criticism at the end of the last round. A senior State Department official accused the Palestinians of posturing and playing to the media.

The Palestinians already have the support of the State Department in trying to force Israel to halt its settlements on the West Bank and Gaza. Their new strategy may be designed to bolster their standing in the Bush administration.

'Sweetheart Swindler' faces 120 years

DALLAS (AP) — The so-called "Sweetheart Swindler," who prosecutors said bilked women in nine states over three decades, faces 120 years in federal prison after being convicted of theft and fraud.

Sentencing for Alfred Barakett is scheduled for July 17.

Jurors took 90 minutes Thursday to convict Barakett of stealing about $40,000 from two Dallas County girlfriends during courtships in 1985 and 1990.

The Canadian was charged with nine counts alleging bank fraud, bank theft and transporting stolen securities.

In her opening statement, Assistant U.S. Attorney Candina Heath said the government would prove Barakett, 52, stole and forged checks from women across the country.

"The defendant, using a different name with each victim, used personal and business opportunities to gain their confidence," Ms. Heath told the nine-woman, five-man jury.

"He would then go out and deposit a check in their account that had been stolen from a previous victim, then receive 'less cash or a withdrawal.' Then he would disappear."

Barakett's attorney, Assistant U.S. Public Defender Paul Stickney of Dallas, denied the women were victimized.

The balding Barakett appeared calm as prosecutors detailed a three-decade scheme that ended with hundreds of lonely women being bilked.

He is wanted in eight other states.

During his trial, Lonnie Kay Brooks told jurors how Barakett lured her into a relationship with promises of a job, money and an expensive home, then abandoned her after stealing checks.

Ms. Brooks testified that Barakett got her telephone number through a dating service and called her in early 1985. They had lunch the next day at a restaurant in Kansas City, where Ms. Brooks lived.

Ms. Brooks said Barakett offered her a job and said he would help her pay some bills.

"He said he had boutiques around the country specializing in clothing for women," Ms. Brooks said. "He said he had a partner."

Ms. Brooks said Barakett later bought her meals and toured a $150,000 house that, she said, he claimed to be interested in buying for her.

"He wanted to buy a house and we would all live in it together," Ms. Brooks said. She said she considered the relationship to be platonic.

Dear Abby

Ex-Lover Deserves to Know She's Been Exposed to AIDS

By Abigail Van Buren

1992 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I was deeply involved with a woman who is four years older than I am — I am in my late 20s. At the end of May 1990, our relationship fell apart.

Last month, I discovered that I am HIV-positive. I have not dated since the breakup, and I have no other risk factors.

This woman has two pre-teen daughters and deserves to know, but I am not sure if I should tell her. She wants nothing to do with me, and I have no desire to shatter her life. What should I do? I have not told anyone else about it.

If you need my name and address, I am sorry. I only wish to go in peace. Thank you for your time.

E.S. IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR E.S.: It is vital that you contact the woman immediately so that she, too, can be tested for the HIV virus. If she tests positive, it is almost certain that she will want and need to be under the care of a physician — and it is definite that she should have counseling to deal with the trauma of such a diagnosis, as well as information on how AIDS is and is not spread to others.

DEAR ABBY: I avidly read and applaud your airing of the various problems facing society. If you can solve my problem, which is also my pet peeve, I'm sure the effects could be heard around the world.

Example: I ask a 10-year-old girl how she is, and her mother answers, "She's fine."

I ask a woman where she was last Sunday, and her husband answers, "She was out of town."

I ask a patient when she is going home, and the nurse answers, "Maybe tomorrow."

Conclusion: There must be two kinds of people, those who answer, and those who get answered for.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

DEAR FOOD: A general profile of the person who answers for another person: protective, presumptuous and insensitive.

If you are the kind of person who answers for others, please hold your tongue.

If you are the kind of person who permits others to answer for you, put a little starch in your spine and speak for yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing in response to the letter from "Frustrated Wife" whose husband quit smoking, but gained quite a bit of weight. She was upset about the weight gain and very unhappy about the way he looked in his clothes.

In my opinion, your advice was quite good, telling her to tell him that she loved him and wanted to grow old with him — but you went too far when you said, "... insist that he sees his doctor — and if he keeps putting it off, ask him if his life insurance is up-to-date."

The wife should have told her husband how proud she was of him for making the tremendous effort to quit smoking, told him that his weight had nothing to do with how much she loved him, and that she thought he was quite a man for doing what he did — then shut up!

NAMELESS, OF COURSE

DEAR NAMELESS: Thank you. Your answer was better than mine.

It takes two to tarantella

By Phillip Alder

It has been written so often that it is almost becoming trite: Defense is the hardest part of the game. It is a tough job working out the unseen hands and finding the best plays. On some hands, only one defender's plays are critical, resulting in success or failure. At other times, defeating the contract requires both defenders to work in unison. One wrong step by either partner and the contract sneaks home.

West had a fairly normal pre-emptive opening in today's deal, though there was a risk he would miss a superior major-suit fit. South had a normal three-heart bid in the balancing seat, and North had an easy raise to game.

On lead against four hearts, West paused to consider his options. It looked as though he would do best to put partner on lead and receive a diamond ruff in return. But how could he achieve this aim? He spotted one slightly risky possibility and went for it: He led the club two.

Now the spotlight moved to East. He knew the lead wasn't fourth highest. From the unusual low-spot-card lead, East deduced that his partner had a void in diamonds, the lower-ranking side suit. Expecting West to have the king of his suit for a vulnerable pre-empt, East made the fine play of the club queen at trick one. When that held the trick, East switched to the diamond four. West ruffed, put his partner on play with the club ace and received a second diamond ruff to defeat the contract. Nicely done!

Readers are invited to send card-play questions to Phillip Alder, in care of this newspaper. They can be answered only through the column.

Minority hiring recommended

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Department of Public Safety's minority hiring practices have come under fire in a report from the state Sunset Advisory Commission staff.

The report recommends changes in hiring and promotion policies at the agency, which has more than 5,000 employees and a budget of $233 million a year.

The three-member Public Safety Commission that oversees DPS should be expanded from three to six people to better represent the state's ethnic diversity, the staff of the advisory group suggests.

The Public Safety Commission has never had a woman member and has included only one minority since its 1935 inception.

Your Birthday

May 2, 1992

If you trade upon experience, you're not likely to repeat old mistakes in the year ahead. Drawing upon acquired knowledge could put you a few steps ahead of the pack.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your reputation could be on the line in career situations today, so tread warily. Don't promise more than you can deliver, and don't use methods or tactics that might hurt your image. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Self-doubt and a feeling of inadequacy might override the more courageous aspects of your personality today. Don't be rash or belligerent, but don't be timid either.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be careful today, or else you may be drawn into an activity with friends which could be quite costly. This is because they might look to you to finance the lion's share.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Making a commitment before you have time to think it through could work to your detriment today. Don't lock yourself in a box that has no key.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Usually, you're a rather industrious person, but today you might deprive yourself of achieving an objective, owing to a lack of ambition.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Someone you're closely associated with might behave like a loose cannon today. Be careful you're not held partially responsible for this individual's mistakes.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Disagreements with your mate could become rather sticky today — if you can't reach a compromise. If your partner is unyielding, for the sake of peace, make the overture.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You might not do too well in the do-it-yourself department today. If possible, try to avoid anything requiring tools and manual dexterity until later, when you're more nimble.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Any miscalculations you may make in your financial affairs today could turn out to be rather painful. Be prudent and cautious at all times.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Be unyielding when dealing with others today and you'll find it very difficult to get out of such a rigid mind-set, even if you want to. Hang loose.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your customary glib personality will not get you out of trouble today. In fact, it might serve only to put you in deeper. Be mindful at all times of what you say.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Do not have unreasonable expectations in financial and/or business dealings today. If you do, things could take a turn you didn't anticipate, and your gains may diminish.

Matadors entertain Snyder in 2-4A tilt

Since Lamesa and Frenship have clinched the District 2-4A baseball playoff spots, Snyder's game against Estacado at Lubbock Saturday will have little bearing on the loop standings.

It does, however, hold some meaning to the Tigers.

Snyder's baseball program, second in the state of Texas to only Lubbock Monterey's 897 in total wins, has 798 victories.

To hit the 800 mark, the SHS squad will have to win both its remaining games, at Estacado and at home against Lamesa.

"It was one of our goals at the start of the season," said Snyder coach Albert Lewis, who recorded his 300th win as Tiger coach Tuesday when SHS ripped Dunbar, 15-5.

"When practice started, we said we wanted to win a district championship and get No. 800 for the school.

"Since we aren't in the running for the championship, getting these last two wins gives us a little something to play for."

In other games Saturday, Lamesa hosts Frenship with the loop title possibly on the line, and Dunbar visits Levelland.

The Tigers, 15-10 on the year and 3-5 in district games, hammered Dunbar Tuesday after taking a commanding 11-0 lead in he first inning. In its first at-bat, Snyder sent 16 hitters to the plate.

Lewis will send sophomore Brian Lickey to the mound to face the Matadors Saturday.

Estacado's last outing was an 11-1 loss to Lamesa on Tuesday. Snyder tripped the Mats, 5-3, in their first meeting of the season at Moffett Field.

The Matadors carry an 8-13 overall mark and a 4-4 loop record into Saturday's battle.

NBA playoffs...

Seattle eliminates Warriors

by The Associated Press

Only three NBA teams won more regular-season games than Golden State. However, the Warriors won only one in the postseason and made a quick exit from the playoffs.

Ricky Pierce scored 27 points and Gary Payton sank three free throws in the last 40 seconds as the Seattle SuperSonics beat the Warriors 119-116 on Thursday night to win their first-round series 3-1.

"Ricky really had a big game," Seattle coach George Karl said. "Ricky was our first, second and third options."

The SuperSonics will play the winner of the Utah-Los Angeles Clippers series in the second round. Utah leads the Clippers 2-1, with Game 4 scheduled in riot-torn Los Angeles on Saturday.

Cleveland also advanced to the second round on Thursday night, ending a 16-year first-round playoff drought with a 98-89 victory over New Jersey. The Cavaliers won the series 3-1.

Reserve forward John Williams scored 10 of his 20 points in the fourth quarter and the Cavs held the Nets to 29 percent shooting in the final three periods to win their first postseason series since 1976.

Cleveland will play Boston next, starting Saturday at Richfield Coliseum. The Celtics have been resting since Monday night, when they completed a sweep of Indiana.

The playoffs continue tonight, with New York playing at Detroit and Portland scheduled to visit the Los Angeles Lakers. A decision on whether to play the Trail Blazers-Lakers game won't be made until today. It will depend on the situation in Los Angeles, where riots broke out Wednesday following the acquittal of four white policemen in the beating of black motorist Rodney King.

The Knicks and Trail Blazers lead their series 2-1.

Brad Daugherty had 19 points and 14 rebounds for Cleveland despite playing with an air cast on his sprained right ankle. He winced in pain while limping around the locker room after the game.

The Cavaliers took their first lead, 76-75, on a layup by Williams with 8:16 left in the game. After the Nets regained the lead at 79-78, Cleveland went up for good with six consecutive points, including two jumpers by Larry Nance.

"We stressed not to be overanxious," Cleveland coach Lenny Wilkens said. "We felt if we could be within 10 at the half, we could make a run. This win shows we have the mental toughness to hang in there and come back."

Chris Morris and Derrick Coleman each scored 22 points for the Nets, who made only three of 20 shots in the fourth period when Cleveland wiped out a 73-67 deficit.

Golden State played the final 5:45 against Seattle without All-Star forward Chris Mullin, who had to leave the game with a bad back. Mullin had only 11 points on 4-for-12 shooting.

Tim Hardaway led the Warriors with 27 points.

Arazi tabbed Derby favorite

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Now there's another reason to call Arazi a superhorse if he wins the Kentucky Derby on Saturday.

Arazi drew the 18th post position in a 19-horse field in Thursday's entries, and only one horse — longshot Gato Del Sol in 1982 — has ever won from that spot.

"I prefer 18 to one or two," trainer Francois Boutin said. "Anyway, there's nothing I can do about it."

The French-based Arazi stamped himself a potential wonderhorse last Nov. 2 when he went from eighth to first on the final turn and won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile here at Churchill Downs. That lone race earned him 2-year-old of the year honors in North America.

"If he's enough horse to sit back there and circle the field again, he is truly a superhorse," said Lynn Whiting, trainer of Derby longshot Lil E. Tee.

According to jockey Pat Valenzuela, he's "enough horse."

"You just push a button, and he accelerates like you were pushing the button on a rocket," Valenzuela said. "Everyone else will be running for second."

Not in recent memory has a horse attracted such attention here — not even Secretariat in 1973 when he embarked on his Triple Crown journey. Hundreds of reporters, photographers and onlookers lined the rail on the backstretch when Arazi went out for his final pre-Derby work under Valenzuela on Thursday.

Despite the attention, there are doubters, for several reasons. Arazi had surgery on both knees after the Breeders' Cup, missed two months of training and has made only one start this year, the one-mile Prix Omnium II in France on April 7, winning by five lengths.

Add the following historical note: No 2-year-old champion from the previous year or Derby favorite has won since Spectacular Bid in 1979.

Arazi was made the early 6-5 favorite for the 11/4-mile race, which will be worth $984,800 if all 19 start. The second favorite at 7-2 is A.P. Indy, who will be ridden Eddie Delahoussaye from the 16th post position. Technology, who will be ridden by Jerry Bailey, is the third choice at 8-1. He will break from the second hole.

Each starter will carry 126 pounds.

Dance Floor and Al Sabin are part of a D. Wayne Lukas-trained entry. Disposal, Ecstatic Ride, My Luck Runs North, Sir Pinder, Snappy Landing, Thyer and West by West are part of the mutuel field.

Bronc riders shine at TSU

STEPHENVILLE — Roughstock riders led the way for Western Texas College as a bareback rider and a pair of saddle bronc entrants placed during the first performance of the Tarleton State University NIRA Rodeo Thursday.

Saddle bronc wranglers Troy Cattoor and Benji Fontenot took third and seventh in their event with respective scores of 69 and 64.

Cattoor was also entered in Thursday's bareback riding, but missed his spur-out for no score.

In steer wrestling, WTC's Jim Phillips grabbed third place in the early going with his 8.4-second effort Thursday.

Angel Miller paced the Western Texas women with a fourth-place 18.62 in the barrel race.

The rodeo, the last of the NIRA regular season, will continue today and Saturday at Erath County Rodeo Arena.

Saturday's short go will feature the top 10 finishers in each event.

Residents set fire to their neighborhood's businesses

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Impoverished South Central Los Angeles set fire to itself, then robbed its own.

In rioting that erupted after four white police officers were acquitted of brutalizing a black motorist, the thin line between the haves and have-nots in this predominately black area was obliterated by wholesale looting and burning of businesses.

"Why tear down something you own? We all have to make a living here. I just don't understand it," said Miles Taylor, 49, a black man who has lived in the neighborhood since 1965, the year 34 people died in the Watts riots.

The chaos following the Rodney King verdicts on Wednesday proved that 27 years have done little to erase this neighborhood's poverty and frustration. As in Watts, South Central residents responded to decades of racial tension by destroying their own neighborhood.

This time, though, the violence spread to white neighborhoods near Beverly Hills and to cities such as Long Beach.

Smoke billowed across blocks and intersections throughout South Central on Thursday. Highway Patrol officers, guns lifted and sirens wailing, escorted fire trucks to hundreds of blazes.

Families descended on stores, opened their car trunks and pitched in items ranging from a pair of purple pumps to a washing machine.

"A lot of it doesn't make sense," said Taylor, brushing ashes from his eyes and watching his friend's furniture store burn. "We've been through this before. They destroy their own community and then what do they do?"

The community was smaller on that hot August night in 1965. Watts and Compton are now just sections of the 7-by-15-mile area called South Central.

Blacks have since been joined by Korean and Hispanic immigrants. They don't always coexist peacefully; gang warfare is added to the mix.

In a community heavily dependent on public transportation, people waited for buses that never came.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 79-year-old lady with asthma and emphysema. I've been using inhalers for eight or nine years, yet I recently saw on television that inhalers are dangerous and could kill a person. Is there any other help for breathing?

DEAR READER: For years, doctors have recognized that over-use of anti-asthma inhalers will worsen asthma and may even lead to fatal consequences, such as disturbances in heart rate. Recent preliminary studies have also shown that some inhalers may be dangerous for some users who have hypertension or heart disease.

Nonetheless, these inhalers are a godsend for many patients with asthma and should not be discarded on the basis of information that needs verification.

Therefore, I urge you to ask your doctor about this. He or she may feel that you would be better served by using pills (to release bronchial spasm) or inhaled cortisone (which is not dangerous).

Several of my asthmatic patients have asked me similar questions, and I have chosen to individualize my answers. As long as an asthmatic is not over-using the sprays and has no known contraindications, I see no reason to discontinue this very effective therapy.

In your case, your doctor can advise you and monitor your treatment.

To provide further information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Living With Chronic Lung Disease." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have pseudoparathyroidism, for which I take 10,000 units of vitamin D per day. Since I never eat more than 1,200 calories a day, where is the weight coming from? I've been to a weight-loss doctor who says he can't help me because of the 10,000 units of vitamin D a day. What's your opinion?

DEAR READER: Put simply, the amount of calcium in the bloodstream is controlled by the parathyroid glands, which lie in the neck, imbedded in the thyroid gland. Too much or too little serum calcium can cause major complications, including severe mental changes, convulsions and death.

When the parathyroid glands produce too little parathyroid hormone (PTH), the blood calcium falls. This is called hypoparathyroidism.

Occasionally, patients are found to have low serum calcium levels in the presence of normal PTH. Termed "pseudo-hypoparathyroidism," this inherited disorder is believed due to an abnormality in bone and kidney responsiveness to PTH. Treatment consists of vitamin D supplements and additional calcium.

I am not aware that weight gain is a problem in treating pseudoparathyroidism. Perhaps you are gaining weight because of fluid accumulation. In my opinion, you should return to your endocrinologist, who will order blood tests to discover if you have an undiagnosed metabolic abnormality as a cause for your weight gain.

Violence in Los Angeles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are the views of the major presidential candidates on the question: "What should be the federal government's response to the verdict in the Rodney King taped-beating trial and the subsequent violence in Los Angeles?"

DEMOCRATS

—Jerry Brown: "It is an outrage that our system can't punish those, particularly police officers, who use the power and majesty of the state to beat some man senseless ... I believe the Justice Department ought to look into whether or not a civil rights action can't be filed and a jury trial taken on the federal level, because obviously, this man's civil rights were grievously violated in a horrendous way."

—Bill Clinton: "I think the president should be more personally involved in trying to heal the racial divisions of this country and the widespread conviction that goes way beyond race, that the system doesn't work any more, and that the politicians no longer either want it to work or have the capacity to make it work."

REPUBLICANS

—George Bush: "The United States Department of Justice will continue its criminal investigation of the police violence case in Los Angeles to ensure that the civil rights laws of our nation are fully and equally applied ... I want everyone to know that the federal government will continue to pursue its legal responsibilities in this case."

—Patrick Buchanan: "No matter the anger over the verdict in the Rodney King case, it was decided in a fair trial by a conscientious jury. This outburst of criminality and anarchy must be condemned by responsible leaders from Mayor Bradley to President Bush — without equivocation or reservation ... the arsonists, the looters and the members of lynch mobs must be prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

PD responds to calls involving juveniles

Today was a holiday for Snyder public schools and youngsters were getting into the spirit of it early.

Officers recieved a call at 2:13 a.m. of a group of juveniles at Central Elementary. Four girls were contacted on the school grounds, who said they were playing on the playground equipment. The report indicated that 10 to 12 male juveniles ran from the area when police arrived.

The girls were advised by the officer to leave the area.

Police also took several other minor complaints involving juveniles, including trespassing and noise disturbance.

Thursday, police were contacted by the parents of two male juveniles who got into an altercation with each other at Snyder Junior High. No offense reports were taken at the request of the parents.

At 1:07 p.m. Thursday, Sid Medina contacted officers in reference to somone breaking into a soft drink machine at Furr's. A report for burglary of a coin operated machine was filed.

In one other report, police worked a mishap involving a vehicle and a bicycle at 9:54 p.m. in the 500 block of 30th Street. Involved were a 1986 Mercury driven by Janet Tankersley of Rt. 2 and a bicyclist, Eric Rodriguez of 512 34th St.

Rodriguez, 11, was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital emergency room by Snyder EMS where he was treated for abrasions and contusions to the right ankle and released.

Proposed settlement praised

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Ann Richards says she hopes a proposed settlement of the long-running state prison lawsuit finally will get Texas out from under federal court orders.

The possible agreement was announced Thursday by Attorney General Dan Morales, who planned to detail it for state leaders today.

"It is my hope that this agreement will return our state prisons to state control," Richards said. "We now must get on with our (prison) building program and making Texas a safe place to live and raise our families."

In a letter to Richards, Morales said the proposed deal should end federal control of Texas prisons and eliminate federal court injunctions that restrict management of the prisons.

"The settlement needs the endorsement and support of elected officials and criminal justice leaders in our state," Morales wrote Richards.

Morales could not be reached immediately by The Associated Press.

Rioting continues in LA, elsewhere

proximiately 4,000 troops from Fort Ord, Calif., to a staging area in Los Angeles where they can be utilized quickly and effectively if necessary," presidential spokesman Marlin Fitzwater added.

On Thursday, the unrest spread from predominantly black South Central Los Angeles to more affluent areas, adjoining communities and other cities.

More than 1,400 people were arrested in the San Francisco Bay area, and a state of emergency was declared in San Francisco — the first since the 1906 earthquake — when protesters began looting stores. Protesters rampaged through downtown Seattle early this morning. In Las Vegas, a police officer was shot during a protest.

By early today, with 4,000 National Guard troops fanning out to trouble spots in Los Angeles, there were indications that the worst of the rioting was being quelled.

Still, soldiers were nowhere to be seen at daybreak in Koreatown, an ethnic enclave just west of downtown that was the scene of some of the worst rioting Thursday. Several dozen exhausted firefighters, most wearing bulletproof vests, congregated at a 24-hour hamburger stand.

A few blocks away, smoke curled upward from gutted businesses.

Firefighters said the number of fires had declined overnight. But in addition to the fires still burning in Los Angeles, crews battled dozens of new fires in Long Beach early today.

Altogether, Los Angeles officials reported nearly 1,300 fires since Wednesday.

Gov. Pete Wilson said that he would request an additional 2,000 of the state's Guard troops. "We are determined that this city is not going to suffer (this) kind of terrorism," he said.

Bush said he talked by telephone with Wilson and Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley and said the federal government would consider civil rights charges against the acquitted officers.

"The murder and destruction on the streets of Los Angeles must be stopped," Bush said. "Lootings, beatings and random violence ... must be condemned."

Some bands of people roamed the streets of Los Angeles overnight despite the curfew. Fires burned on Hollywood Boulevard, where the famous Frederick's of Hollywood lingerie store was looted, and in Koreatown, Westwood and the San Fernando Valley.

"We are overwhelmed," said Capt. Steve Gates, in charge of the police department's South Central command post. "When you see on television looters right in front of police officers, we have a horrible situation."

Running unopposed for Place 6 on the Ira school board is incumbent Keith Clements.

Expected to draw only minimal interest Saturday is the Snyder City Council election. None of the four incumbents seeking reelection have an opponent. They are Vernest Tippens, District 1; Jack Denman, District 2; Mike Post, District 3; and Jack Greene Jr., District 4.

Forty-two total ballots were cast in the early voting period.

When reorganization is completed, the overall company work force will be about 5,800, a 28 percent deline from the current 8,100. Galvin said some departures will be voluntary as employees opt for the early retirement plan that is available until May 15. Once responses to the plan are in, it is anticipated that a severance program will begin, with completion by September.

The largest single reduction is at the Port Arthur refinery where the work force of 1,900 will be cut by nearly 700 employees.

Dog to search for drugs

AUSTIN (AP) — A year-old Labrador named Lucky will help search for drugs at the Travis County Jail.

Travis County Sheriff Doyne Bailey said the $5,000 dog will be paid for with confiscated drug money. The dog will arrive at the end of June after being trained and certified in Williamson County.

Travis County Commissioners voted this week to spend up to $7,000 to build a kennel for Lucky and more drug-sniffing dogs.

Until last year, Travis County jailers routinely strip-searched new inmates.

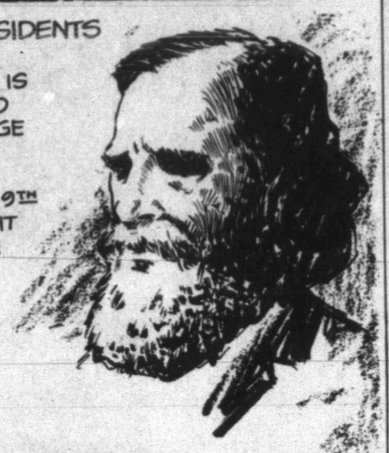
Facts About The BIBLE

BY JOHN LEHTI

FAVORITE BIBLE QUOTATIONS OF OUR PRESIDENTS

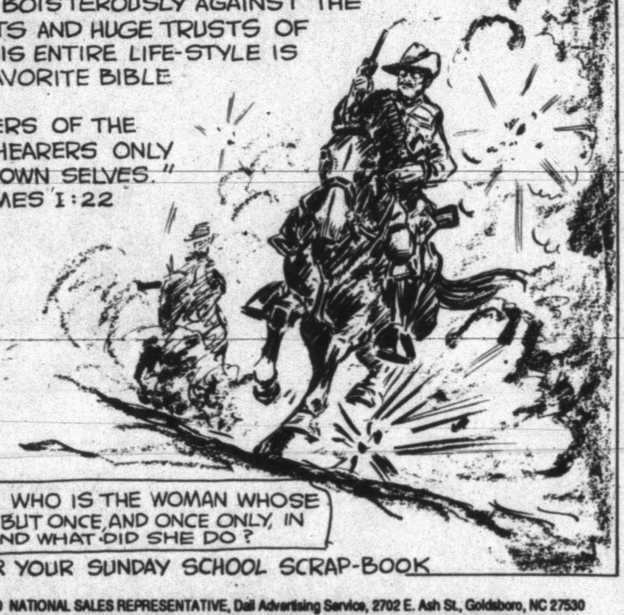


WHEN A NEWLY-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS SWORN INTO OFFICE, HE TAKES THE OATH OF OFFICE WITH HIS HAND ON THE BIBLE. IT IS CUSTOMARY FOR THE BIBLE TO BE OPEN AT A PAGE OF THE NEW PRESIDENTS CHOOSING WHERE HE HAS SELECTED A VERSE OR QUOTATION—IT IS INTERESTING TO NOTE HOW FITTING THESE QUOTATIONS ARE! FOR INSTANCE, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, 19TH PRESIDENT (1877-1881) WAS ALMOST DEFEATED IN A HARD-FOUGHT AND VERY BITTER ELECTION, WINNING BY ONE ELECTORAL VOTE ONLY! HIS OPRONENTS CLAIMED FRAUD BUT THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION DECIDED IN HAYES FAVOR—LITTLE WONDER THAT HE PICKED THE FOLLOWING QUOTATION FROM THE BIBLE.... "THOU HAST THRUST SORE AT ME THAT I MIGHT FALL: BUT THE LORD HELPED ME."

PSALM 118:13

THEODORE (TEDDY) ROOSEVELT, OUR 26TH PRESIDENT (1901-1909) STARTED LIFE AS A SICKLY CHILD BUT EXERCISED VIGOROUSLY AS A BOY TO GAIN GREATER HEALTH AND, AS A YOUNG MAN, WENT OUT WEST TO BECOME A CATTLE RANCHER. THE ROBUST LIFE HE CHOSE WAS EXEMPLIFIED IN HIS CAREER, IN HIS MANNER OF SPEECH, AND CERTAINLY IN THE WAY HE LED HIS FAMOUS "ROUGH RIDERS" REGIMENT DURING THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR! AS A PRESIDENT, HE FOUGHT HARD AN BOISTEROUSLY AGAINST THE VESTED INTERESTS AND HUGE TRUSTS OF "WALL STREET". HIS ENTIRE LIFE-STYLE IS ECHOED IN HIS FAVORITE BIBLE QUOTATION:...

"BUT BE YE DOERS OF THE WORD AND NOT HEARERS ONLY DECEIVING YOUR OWN SELVES."
JAMES 1:22



NEXT WEEK: WHO IS THE WOMAN WHOSE NAME APPEARS BUT ONCE AND ONCE ONLY, IN THE BIBLE — AND WHAT DID SHE DO?
